School taxes to be cut almost 2 mills

By PATRICK TOUHEY

Property owners in the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools will be paying about two mills less in school taxes when their bills come due in January, according to Subt. John Hoben.

The reduction of 1.95 mills ($1.95 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation) was made possible by both an increase in the local tax base and a change in the formula for computing state aid to school districts.

The change in the state aid law, Hoben said, makes the district eligible for an additional $40,000 in debt retirement assistance for the 1976-77 school year. Gov. Milliken signed the new law into effect last week.

The homeowner with a new assessed valuation of $25,000 will get a tax break of almost $50 for the year.

A detailed report on the changes will be given at tonight's school board meeting when trustees will vote to make application for the newly authorized funds. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the administration building, 454 S. Harvey, Plymouth.

DISTRICT-WIDE, the local tax base increased by 12 per cent, due to new growth and increases caused by rising home and property values.

The total tax base increased by some $348,390 to slightly more than a ½-billion dollars.

The local tax base (state equalized valuation) for the 1977-78 school year is distributed as follows: Canton, almost $212 million; Plymouth Township, almost $192 million; Plymouth, about $89 million; Salem Township, $12 million; and Superior Township, $4 million.

The increases, Hoben said, will net the district an additional $54,000.

Under the old state aid law, districts which levied more than 26 mills were not eligible for additional funds. Plymouth-Canton currently levies about 39 mills.

However, Hoben said, the new law waives the 26-mill limit. "This is the first time this district has qualified for state assistance on debt retirement."

The only stipulation, though, is that the district can no longer keep a contingency fund to cover delinquent tax payments. That money also will have to go toward debt retirement.

When the money from the increased tax base (SEV) is added to the state aid and the funds currently in the contingency account, Hoben said, it will provide the district with about $1 million, which is the revenue generated by the 1.95-mill levy.

The only problem, Hoben said, may come in 1978-79 when the district may have to levy .75 mills to cover delinquent taxes.

"Because we won't have the contingency account any more, we probably won't have any choice but to levy the millage. But, even if we do the homeowner will still be about 1.25 mills to the good."

This is the second straight year the school district has made a reduction in its total tax levy. Last year, the district made a slight reduction in its debt retirement levy because of rising SEV.

Ambulance hits car and kills woman

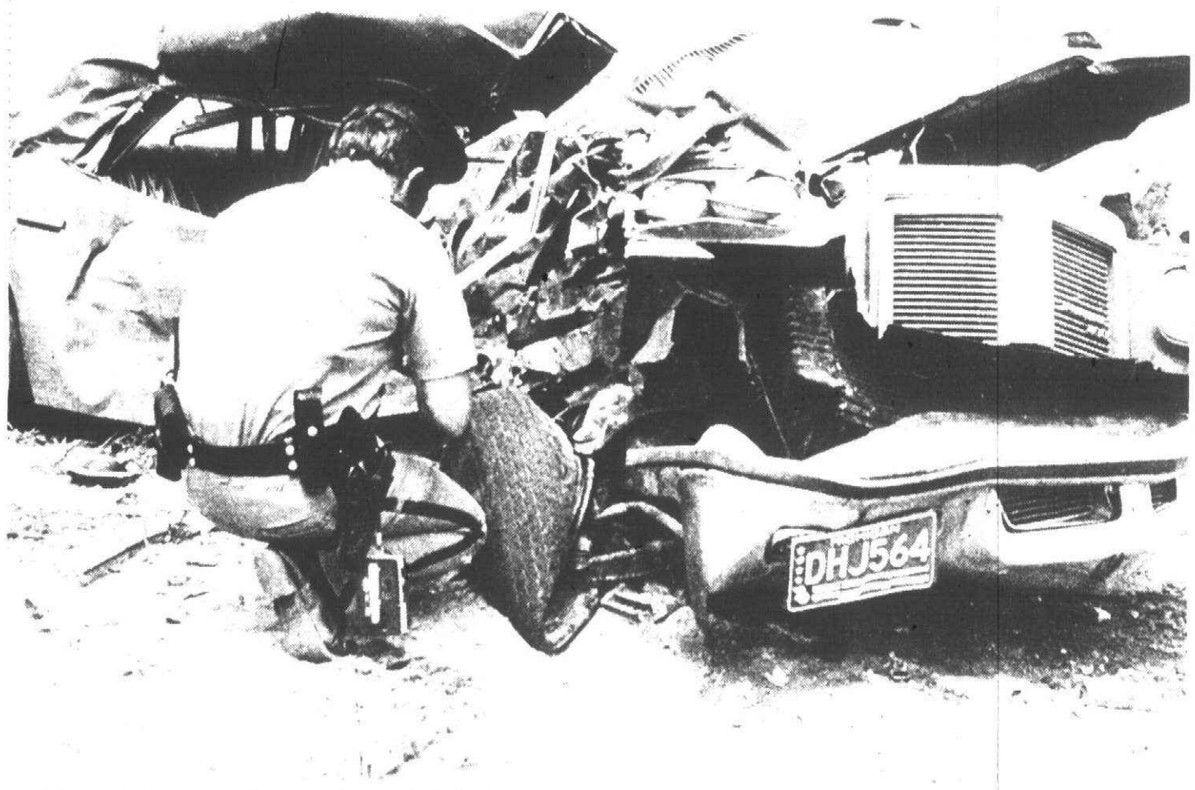
Police are still investigating the cause of a two-car collision Thursday in which a 19-year-old Plymouth girl was killed.

Chris Rundio, 173 E. Ann Arbor Trail, died of multiple internal injuries, after the car she was riding in was struck by a private ambulance at Haggerty and Five Mile. She was pronounced dead at St. Mary Hospital, Livonia. The car was driven by Maureen English, 19, 38224 Ladywood Ct., Livonia, who was listed in critical condition at Botsford Hospital, Farmington.

The Northville Township police department reported the girls' car was northbound on Haggerty when it was struck broadside by a Novi Ambulance Co. vehicle traveling westbound on Five Mile.

Toney Bennett, the ambulance driver, who was enroute to another accident, said he had the green light in his favor when the English auto entered the intersection.

But the police said witnesses had different versions on who had the green light.



An ambulance and a Pontiac collided Thursday killing a young Plymouth woman and seriously injuring the driver of the car, a young woman from Livonia. The two were struck broadside by a rescue van at Five Mile and Haggerty roads. (Staff photo by Janine Kateff)

Honeytree is making money

By CRAIG PIECHURA

The name "Deer Creek Apartments" left a bitter taste in many people's mouths after years of financial instability, a high rate of crime and deteriorating appearance at the complex left its mark.

On Jan. 1 of this year the 744-unit apartment complex was taken over by Standard Realty Corporation of Southfield, a specialist in turning around "distressed properties." After seven months renovation work, the company hopes people have forgetten the bitter taste and will stay in the renamed "Honeytree Apartments."

The company president is Craig Hall, who is credited with making a success of Lemontree Apartments in Belleville, the haunt of Mark Fidrych.

And, so far, the company's success seems to be repeating at Honeytree. When the company took over, occupancy rate at the complex was 78 per cent with some units that could not be rented until extensive repairs were made.

As of July 31 only four units out of 744 were available, or over 99 per cent occupancy. Ms. Marti Heman, property manager, said what makes this figure even more impressive is that rents were raised from $10 to $80 per apartment and there has been no advertising campaign notifying people of the change.

Rents range from $240 for a one-bedroom for a one-bedroom apartment to $410 for a two-level, four-bedroom townhouses.

THE "HONEY" motif is heavily emphasized at the complex. Wood trim, interiors and signs are painted yellow and amber. The community building is dubbed the "Beehive" and maintenance men are referred to as "honey-dos." (At Standard Realty's Lemontree complex, maintenance personnel are called "lemon-aids.") And, not surprisingly, streets in the complex bear names such as Nectar Drive.

Hall, the 26-year-old president of Standard Realty, believes the upswing was accomplished by an improving rental market combined with an expansion of services and improvements in aesthetics.

New carpets have been installed, cedar exteriors have been stained and calked and $60,000 was spent in renovating the community building. Concrete was patched and an irrigation-sprinkler system has been installed.

Hall promises to spend another $500,000 to fix up the grounds before the year is over.

Last summer tenants of Deer Creek came to the newspapers after complaints of poor security were ignored and lawns became brown through lack of water. The residents complained of drug traffic, loud parties and an unresponsive management. The complex was owned at the time by Ontario Ltd., headquarted in Toronto and managed for the firm by Schostak Bros. & Co. of Southfield. Ontario Ltd., a martgage company, gained control of the company after previous owners fell into financial trouble.

DEER CREEK FELL into a "self-perpetuating cycle," according to Hall, which effected many apartment complexes about four years ago.

"Soon after the project was completed there was a recession," Hall explained, "and rental demand fell below the number of new units coming on the market.

"The owners did what seemed like the smart thing at the time. They tried to save their way back to prosperity by deferring maintenance and reducing some of the services.

"But that only started what became a self-perpetuating cycle. The number of tenants dropped further, leading to

While Deer Creek owners were constantly in arears, the new proprietors of the 744-unit complex—rechristened as Honeytree Apartments—are making money and boasting of 99 per cent occupancy. Maintenance men, by the way, are called "honey-dos."

Memorial Aug. 13 for crash victims

A belief that something positive must come out of the worstsingle car accident ever to occur in Wayne County is the force behind a memorial concert planned for Saturday in Plymouth Salem High School auditorium.

The death of six Plymouth area teenagers last month aroused a general feeling of loss, guilt and bewilderment. There was a great urge to do something—but what?

Sylvia Mullen, a mother of three teenagers, made a decision at the funeral of one of the accident victims. It couldn't stop here, she resolved.

After talking to the families of the boys, the idea of a memorial concert began to imerge.

LAST WEDNESDAY there was a meeting to discuss concert plans. Bill Brown, Plymouth Salem high principal; Pat Fitzpatrick, high school coordinator; Jim Kaiser and Mark Even of the high school staff, Nan Cooper, Tom Wilson, brother of the teenager who was driving the car; Dalew Yagiela of Growthworks and Mrs. Mullen discussed the memorial.

ADMISION TO the concert will be free.

The auditorium seats 1,000 persons, so tickets will be on a first come-first serve basis. Tickets will be available at the Youth Center,271 S. Main Street, Plymouth, between 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. Tuesday through Thrusday.

The two-hour concert will begin at 8 p.m.

"It is for all ages," said Mrs. Mullen, "moms, dads and kids."

"Mark Even will emcee the program which will include three local bands. Tom Wilson has promised the rock band from the high school. Jim Griffith, director of bands at Plymouth Centennial Educational Park, is mustering musicians for the concert.

Donations will be accepted. Those

Pact renewed with capital lobbyist

Canton Township has renewed its contract with Washington consultant Ron Linton in hopes of securing more federal grants.

Under terms of the contract approved by the township board Tuesday, Canton will pay Linton $275 a month until either party decides to cancel the contractual arrangment. In return, Linton will advise township officials on the availability of federal grants and meet with federal officials on the township's behalf.

Supervisor Harold Stein said Linton was instrumental in obtaining a $2.7 million federal grant, earmarked for construction of the new administration building.

"The services provided by Mr. Linton's firm are very useful," said deputy treasurer Mike Gorman. "We use him almost daily."

The Stroller

—By W. W. EDGAR

The gardener's report

It isn't often that the business pages of the daily papers hold much interest for The Stroller. But the other day when, glancing through the morning daily at breakfast, he noted that General Motors, Ford and some of the other big firms were reporting huge gains he thought he had better even the scales a bit just to prove that all is not peaches and cream in this vale of tears.

Now, The Stroller admits he knows nothing about the stock market and the Dow-Jones averages. He doesn't Dow and has nevermet Jones, even though much of the economy hinges on their doings each day in the stream of ticker tape coming out of Wall Street and the other money marts.

SO TO EVEM things The Stroller decided that the time was ripe to report on his activities in the field of gardening.

And it is a good thing that he never formed a company to control the rise and fall of the garden produce. If he had, there would be plenty of screaming from the stock holders and possibly a cry for a change of management.

This year, for the second time in a row, the vegetable garden was a downright failure, so much so that The Stroller could well claim bankruptcy in the produce marts.

Just a year ago this past spring he decided that the the time was at hand to raise his own vegetables. No longer did he expect to pay the high prices in the supermarkets for such things as radishes, red beets, carrots, onions, cabbage, lettuce and the like. He'd raise his own.

Well, the intentions were fine. But lo and behold, even though he followed directions to the letter in planting the seed, nary a thing shot up through the ground.

His dream of enjoying some old fashioned "red beet" eggs would have been been for naught had it not been for a friendly neighbor who left a huge bag of beets at the door one evening with the remark, "I didn't want you to be disappointed."

Carrying his plight to the friendly nursery man, The Stroller was told that possibly his soil was too poor and that it should be re-conditioned.

"Get yourself some peat," he said, "and be sure it is the Canadian peat. Then spread it over the ground to a thickness of about four inches this fall. Then turn it over and wait for spring. When planting time comes, turn it over again and you'll be surprised at what happens."

ALWAYS WILLING to try, The Stroller did as he was told. It seemed rather strange last fall to see that peat being mixed with what was termed sandy soil. But the real change came this spring when the ground looked rich and black when it was turned over again.

With renewed visions of a grand garden The Stroller went to work. He dutifully planted rows of carrots and beets, added another of onions and for good measure, arranged a row of tomato plants. Then he sat back and waited.

Sure enough, it wasn't long until there was evidence of the plants coming through the ground. Success! It seemed just ahead.

Then he left on a short vacation with pleasant thought of enjoying the fruits of his labor. You can imagine the sunken feeling when he returned and found nary a sign of the new plants. The rabbits had feasted on them. The words he used when he saw what happened would have barred him at the Pearly Gates.

To make things even worse the birds starting picking at the few tomatoes and the little woman complained of the damage with the few luscious looking tomatoes we did harvest.

But that's not all. During his vacation The Stroller was shown a nice strawberry patch and was told they were easy to raise and would spread all over the place.

Again he had visions. The plants grew and were starting to spread when the buds began to appear and then the tiny looking berries.

With The Stroller's luck you might guess what happened. The rabbits are now dining on them for desert and there hasn't been a chance to taste even a single berry.

They say trouble never comes single handed. So it wasn't surprising when the birds, after picking at the tomatoes, moved over to the adjoining plot and dined on the green spikes of the gladiolas. Sounds strange, but true. They have bitten off the stalks and then dined on them along the ground.

So, there were no vegetables. Now there will be no gladiolas either.

Well, The Stroller has one consolation. His efforts didn't disturb the gross national products and upset the economy.

Screening dates set for trustee

The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education has set dates and procedures for screening applicants for the vacancy on the board.

Applicants will be screened at an open meeting by the board on Aug. 16 and 17. Applications for the position will be accepted until Aug. 15 at the administration building, 454 S. Harvey, Plymouth.

The two screening dates are tentative, contingent upon the number of applicants. If few apply, screening may be limited to Aug. 16. The screening sessions will begin at 7 p.m.

The vacancy was created by the resignation of Marcia Borowski, board president. She is stepping down from the board because her husband, Obed, has accepted a faculty position with Emory University in Atlanta, Ga.

Her appointed replacement will serve the balance of her term through June 1978.

It was a magic day at GC library

The Garden City library had a special treat in store for the story hour group last week. Instead of stories, the children were treated to a magic act performed by Richard Laible, 18, a June graduate of Plymouth Salem High School.

Laible has been doing magic tricks for 11 years, having started when he was in the third grade.

"I sent for a magic kit advertised on the back of a cereal box and have been expanding ever since," Laible said.

At the present time he estimates he has invested some $3,000 in equipment for his act.

Laible, who lives at 1408 Penniman in Plymouth is the only one in his family to take to show business. His grandfather, William Hartman was elected mayor of Plymouth in 1949. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton G. Laible are teachers in the Plymouth school district.

Some 65 Garden City children attended the magic show, the second presented by the young magician. The first time he entertained at the library was when he was 14 years old.

Laible said he plans to attend Hillsdale College in the fall where he wants to study drama.

"I want to either go into acting or become a professional comedian," he said.

Murder defendant wins reduced charge

By SHIRLEE IDEN

Charges of premeditated murder were dropped Friday against Gordon Daniel Wingard, alleged killer of Dr. Cynthia Miller.

In a hearing before 46th District Judge James Clarkson, Wingard was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court for arraingment on one count of murder in the first degree during the commission of a larceny—but another first degree murder count, which implies premediation, was dismissed as the request of the presecution.

Wingard, 27, is accused of the shotgun murder of the 29-year-old DeHoCo physician on a Southfield freeway July 17, 1976.

If convicted on the remaining count, Wingard still would face a sentence of life imprisonment with no chance of parole.

The defendant waived his right to a preliminary hearing despite the advice of his court appointed counsel. He is being held without bail.

Dressed in the same pink trousers and light colored shirt, he had worn for his arraignment nine days ago, Wingard sat stone-faced and silent, his left fist tightly clenched through the proceedings which took just 17 minutes.

Warrants under which Wingard was sought for over a year and on which he was arrested in Sacramento, Calif. recently with a companion, Gail Marie Oliver, listed counts of felony murder and first degree murder.

ASSISTANT Oakland County Prosecutor Leonard Gilman moved that one count of first degree murder, which implies premeditation, be dismissed and that the defendant be charged only with murder in the first degree during the perpetration of a larceny.

When defense counsel, Otis Underwood, stated that he had no objection to the change, the judge granted the motion.

Underwood then informed the court that his client, although aware of what the preliminary examination means and his right to one, had asked that the examination be waived.

"I notice this is a joint offense," Judge Clarkson said.

Gilman explained that Mrs. Oliver, though named in the warrants, is being held as a material witness in the case and is not being charged with the murder.

Hines Park study cost to be $500 per crime

The Hines Park Task Force proposal to use federal funds for a crime study of Edward Hines Park would result in spending slightly over $500 for each reported incident.

The task force has proposed to seek a $500,000 grant to aid its efforts in determining how to cut down on crime along the 17.5-mile strip of parkway, which runs from Dearborn Heights through Livonia and Plymouth Township to Northville.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Department reports there have been 920 arrests, for both major and minor crimes, this year.

Of major crimes, there have been 284 narcotics arrests; six for carrying a concealed weapon; one felonious assault; four rapes; and two assault and battery.

Minor crime arrests include sixfor malicious destruction of property; five for indecent exposure; 325 disorderly persons; 275 for illegal possession of alcohol; and 12 for gross indecency.

IF THE GRANT is approved, federal funds will pay for a study costing an average of $544 for each minor crime and $1,684 for each reported major crime.

The task force, comprised of representatives of the communities bordering the park, was formed this June when State Rep. Robert Law (R-Livonia) called for a combined effort to rid the park of, "excessive crime."

Law said Congress had recently made money available through the National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice and through the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration to study various crime problems.

He said the kind of crime problems the task force was studying would qualify for some of the money.

If the money is granted, Law said, it would be used to get a more complete picture of the measures needed to combat criminal activities.

He said there are no, "quick or easy solutions," to the Hines Park problem, but a study would be a good start. He added that any findings could possibly be used by law enforcement officials around the country.

Geese feeding

Canada geese don't do much flying at this time of the year, according to Patricia Carlson, supervising naturalist at Kensington Metropark near Milford.

She said this is because they loose their primary flight feathers for a period of just a few weeks during June and July.

One of the best places to see Canada geese in southeastern Michigan is the nature study area of Kensington Metropark. These birds can be seen and fed on Kingfisher Lagoon in front of the nature center.

For additional information contact Kensington Metropark, 685-1561.

Growth study up for bids

Bid proposals are being submitted by planning firms vying for a $23,000 federal grant designed to study growth managment in Canton, Plymouth, Northville and Van Buren Townships.

The grant from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development block grant division will fund a professional planning firm to study legal ways to control rapid development so that the rate of building in a community does not surpass its ability to provide municipal services to the new and existing residents.

George Peek, planner with the Wade, Trim and Associates firm employed by Canton Township, said Tuesday that he has submitted a project proposal in conjunction with Norm Dietrich and Associates, the official planning agency employed by Plymouth Township.

As lead agent in the grant, Canton previously prematurely named Wade, Trim and Associates as the firm to handle the growth study. After a minority on the township board suggested putting the study up for bids among planning agencies, Peek said planning firms do not engage in bidding because of professional ethics.

BUT ROGER ROSSMAN, who administers the block grant programs in Wayne County, told the four townships that because it is a federal grant all services must be bid on the basis of a project proposal, not price.

"We agreed to send in a project proposal because the job will not be given on the lowest price but the best proposal," Peek said.

All planning firm proposals will be reviewed by a four-man board composed of the supervisor of each township involved in the grant. This review board will decide which firm should do the study.

Winners at BBQ listed

Chicken and sweet corn were not the only attractions at the Canton Chamber of Commerce's barbecue.

Games for children and adults ran throughout the day and a dunk tank was an appropriate booth on the hot day.

Winner of the candy hunt was Kelley Hallan. The winners of the bubble gum blowing contest were Eric McMurray, Kelly Bills, Ron Wiscenski and Nancy Granstrom.

The Frisbee throw winners were Eric McMurray, Michelle Denomme, Lenny Wascenski and Nancy Grandstrom.

An adult egg-throwing contest saw Bill Brown and John Schwatrz take first place. Pat Zelek and Kathy Stevens ended up in second place.

Puzzles and games were awarded to the children who participated in the games.

more cuts and so on. Eventually, the property reached the point where it couldn't compete, even in a strong rental market—such as Detroit is now enjoying—until there was substantial new investment and a new ownership philosophy."

Over a million dollars in new capital has been spent Bc. Standard Realty, according to Hall.

Hall says the "ownership philosophy" he is talking about is shown in non-financial ways. Procedures for handling tenant complaints have been revised. For example, the previous policy of 52 separate rent scales has been streamlined considerably.

"BUT PEOPLE don't rent brick and mortar," Hall said. "They rent a way of living. Where they live is part of their identity."

To help foster a positive community image in the complex, a fulltime social director at Honeytree has planned weight control clases, plant swap parties, swimming lessons, yoga classes and a photo contest.

After seeing a virtual parade of owners and a decline in services at the complex, most tenants who are holdovers from the Deer Creek days say they've got their fingers crossed and hope conditions at Honeytree stay sweet.

We goofed on Hardie's letter

A slightly ambigious letter to the editor which appeared in the Aug. 4 edition of the Canton Observer erroneously gave the impression that Agnes Hardie of Canton supports the recall movement being waged against Supervisor Harold Stein, Treasurer Anne Bradley and Trustee Gene Daley. She does not.

The short letter read:

"As a newcomer to Canton, I did not know too much about our local government. So, I decided to attend some of the board meetings.

"What I saw and heard from some of the recall petitioners has decided my vote on the Aug. 27th election.

"It will be NO for the three officials on the list."

Mrs. Hardie says she means no to the recall, not no to the three officials. The Observer regrets the misinterpretation and the incorrect headline: "Hardie pledges to recall all 3."

Mrs. Hardie said last Friday that the headline caused her much embarrassment. We share that embarrassment.

Recent jail levy will not fund out-county complex

Funds levied by a special millage for the construction of a new Wayne County jail in downtown Detroit cannot be used for a proposed out-county jail, court and office complex, a county corporation-counsel opinion said.

That opinion was revealed Aug. 5 by Detroit members of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners who had threatened court action to stop the construction of an out-county complex. The Detroit faction had hoped to obtain a court injunction which would have returned to taxpayers money earmarked for the construction of a downtown facility.

The corporation counsel opinion said use of the millage funds for a multi-service complex would be "improper, illegal and an unintended expense."

The report also indicated that while the initial $67,000 feasiblity study of the three proposed downtown jail sites was properly funded from the $37 million millage. However, there was no separate appropriation made to implement the studies of the suburban sites.

Wayne County Board Chairman John Barr said he was delighted that there would be no law suit, but added, "I have never believed the money could be used (for the complex) and I don't believe the full board would want to spend it any way else."

Barr said the conflict arose over two interpretations of commissioner Richard E. Manning's (D-Redford) proposal to conduct a feasibilty study of a western Wayne County complex.

Manning originally introduced an amendment to a July 7 resolution asking county officials to investigate the three proposed downtown Detroit jail sites. Manning's amendment urged that county land in Westland and Romulus be investigated as possible sites.

That resolution also raised the possibility of locating six Wayne County Circuit Court judges as well as satellite offices for the county clerk, treasurer and registrar of deeds at the western Wayne County sites.

Manning had said the boards's actions were "perfectly legal and proper and consistent with the wishes of half of Wayne County's population that lives outside the City of Detroit." He added, "The out-county service complex is an idea whose time has come."

The Detroit faction had charged that the board acted illegally when it approved Manning's amendment to the origianl resolution.

Commissioner Arthur Carter said, "We contend that board action on the Manning amendment is illegal because, first of all, the voters approved the jail millage for only a single jail, and were led to believe this would be in downtown Detroit."

"The jail millage is earmarked specifically for jail construction alone," he continued, "and not for courts or other services that the Manning ammendment proposes.

"We maintain that it is illegal if even one nickel of the millage money is spent for any purpose other than the jail."

Even though the corporation counsel opinion has apparently killed the use of special millage funds for any out-county facilities, the Detroiters reaffirmed their opposition to locating any branch facilities in the western part of the county.

In July Carter said, "Detroit is the county seat—it has been for at least 100 years, and it is further illegal to conduct these services outside the county seat.

"To consider moving the jail and other services outside Detroit amounts to a disinvestment in the city. We know that much private commerce and industry is moving out, and this move would be a worse disinvestment by government."

Manning had also tried unsuccessfully to bargain for a compromise which would have earmarked $21 million for a 550-cell downtown jail and $16 million for an out-county complex.

The proposed facility would have included 200 pre-trial detention cells and cells for 100 women convicted of misdemeanors. Also slated for the building were six circuit courtrooms and satellite offices for the county clerk, treasurer and the registrar of deeds.

Politicos initiate tourney activities'

Everyone got into the act in helping kick off the two baseball tournaments hosted by the Plymouth-Canton area this past weekend—including the government heads. Plymouth Township Supervisor Tom Notebaert (left) and Canton Township Supervisor Harold Stein (middle) were present at the Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton High School diamonds to throw out the first ball Thursday morning. Tournament official Ivor James accepted the honors at Central Middle School for Plymouth Mayor Joe Bida, who failed to show up. (Staff photos)

Art Institute is challenged

The Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts has been given two years to raise $2,250,000 for the museum—and thereby earn an extra $750,000 from the National Endowment for the Arts to apply to Art Institute services.

The $3 for $1 is the key part of the new "Challenge Grant" program. It represents the federal government's effort to foster greater private support of the arts.

Dr. Fredrick J. Cummings, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts as well as executive director of the Founders Society, the museum's public membership support group, said, "We accept the challenge. This new Federal program to increase private giving on a three-to-one basis recognizes the importance of the arts in our society. The government is encouraging the private sector to help stabilize the cost of providing the arts to a increasingly large audience."

To meet the $2,250,000 goal in the next 24 months, Cummings said that the Founders Society will seek to expand its annual dues-paying membership from 12,000 families and individuals to 15,000, stage fund-raising benefits or projects based on museum activities, encourage corporations to increase annual contributions or become new members, and solicit an increase in private giving by individuals as well as foundations.

Merit Challenges Entire Low Tar Field To Match Taste.

'Enriched Flavor'™ tobacco makes MERIT unique among low tar cigarettes.

For years, smokers have been promised good taste at low tar.

Yet despite the promises, the products just didn't measure up. Regardless of special filters and baffles, low tar cigarettes just couldn't deliver.

Until MERIT. Until work began on the tobacco end of smoking.

By cracking cigarette smoke down into separate elements, researchers were able to isolate certain flavor-rich ingredients that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

The result was 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco. Tobacco that delivers the kind of taste smokers can switch to. And stick with.

If you smoke, you'll be interested.

Tests Prove Taste

MERIT and MERIT 100's were both tested against a number of higher tar cigarettes. The results proved conclusively that 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco does boost taste without the usual increase in tar.

Overall, smokers reported they liked the taste of both MERIT and MERIT 100's as much as the taste of the higher tar cigarettes tested.

Cigarettes having up to 60% more tar!

Only one cigarette has 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco.

And you can taste it.

Schoolcraft College offers 6 personal growth courses

The Schoolcraft College counseling department will offer six personal growth and human development courses during the fall semester.

Two different human development courses are planned. "Human Development Services 100," is patterned after the Human Potential Seminars which have attracted nearly 2,500 participants.

John Webber, director of counseling services, said the HDS program is designed to help participants gain, "personal insight and positive direction in their lives." One recent group member said, "I never realized that I had so many abilities and talents. "I've learned to think better of myself and I have more direction to my life after learning to plan and look ahead at what I want to do."

Webber said, "A mixture of people, 18 to 80 years old, providean opportuntiy for productive personal interaction. "Students gain a fresh perspective by thinking about themselves from a positive point of view, rather than dwelling on limitations or problems."

"Strategies in Life-Work Planning," is designed for people searching for new careers. Webber said the seminar will help teach individuals how to make career decisions by helping them know and understand themselves. "In a systematic way, participants match personal needs, interests, strengths, values, talents and hobbies with potential careers."

According to Webber, luck and being in the right place at the right time are inadequate methods for making career decisions. "Everyone has the ability to make wise career decisions, but they need to learn how to do it," he said.

Another fall course, "Eliminating Anxiety-Math 40," will focus on eliminating the fear that prevents understanding mathematics. Enrollment is limited and mathematics instruction will be individualized to serve student needs.

Two other personal growth courses, "Anxiety Management and Relaxation Training" and "Transactional Analysis" will be offered during the fall. Anxiety Management is designed to explore new techniques for handling day-to-day stressful situations. Transactional Analysis will help students, "learn to analyze, describe and change behaviors they wish to change."

There will also be a seminar for people in the process of divorce or already divorced.

Further inforation may be obtained by contacting the counseling office at 591-6400.

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

By W W EDGAR

A strange thing that happened during the past bowling season came to light this week with the announcement of a record membership by the Greater Detroit Bowling Association.

According to the figures made available, the membership leaped well over five per cent—but the number of perfect games dropped considerably.

During the entire season, only 35 perfect games were recorded in the district, compared to 54 a year ago.

It is the first time that the number of perfect games has fallen in years and there seems firing at the pins there is the opinion that the perfect game count would swell. But this was not the case.

Aside from the 35 reported in the metropolitan area, the Detroit bowlers contributed three more in outside competition.

The women had only one perfecto. It was contributed by Jackie Archer at the start of the season at Norwest Lanes.

GAIL GRIWICKI, the Canton Township all-star, encountered more than she bargained for last weekend when she attempted to qualify for the U.S. team and the zone finals of the International Federation tournament.

Bowling at the Red Carpet Lanes in Milwaukee she was troubled with "too much oil."

As a result of the conditions with which she was not familiar, she ran into splits and a series of 10 pin taps, and failed in her bid for a place on the team.

MIKE TOTSKY, veteran member of the Stroh team, may be forced to miss the early weeks of the new season because of illness. He now is in Providence Hospital, awaiting surgery, and his appearance with the team will depend on how quickly he recuperates.

SCORES WENT SOARING in the invitational mixed classic Wednesday night at Royal Oak Lanes.

When the firing had ceased Larry Schroeder was top man with a count of 683 and Fred Vitali had high single with a 277.

On the women's side, Geri Ritter took the honors with a high single of 256 that enabled her to take high series, too, with 662.

THERE IS NO HAPPIER bowling promoter in the area at the moment than Monte Oncza, whose dream of a mixed team league is now becoming a reality at Westland Bowl.

At the moment he has 26 teams enrolled with four more waiting. Of this number nine are women's teams. Monte is hoping there will be three more women's teams before the season opens on Sept. 9.

"It now becomes a question of whether we can get a sufficient number of lanes to accomodate us," Monte qipped in telling of his success.

PAM CAMPBELL was not fooling when she took to the lanes last week in the Sleepers League at Westland Bowl. After starting with a 163, she came back with a 244 and closed with 210 for 617. MIKE SAMARDAJA, the all-star who recently bowled with the Stroh team and then entered the bowling supply business, is expanding his activities by taking over the pro shop at Super Bowl in Canton.

The Super Bowl has expanded to 60 lanes for the coming season and Samardaja will have an entirely new section from which he can care for the bowlers.

He will have another all-star with him in the person of Dale Seavoy, and Jennie Hansen will be on hand to cater to the women's needs.

Elke lives in Schwenningen, which is a two-hour drive south of Stuttgart.

L. John returned from his month's vacation in Europe in time to play host to his German cousin in Plymouth on the last leg of her American tour. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, former Plymouth residents who now live at Mullet Lake near Cheboygan, came down for a visit at the same time.

Elke had her first "real banana milk shake" at Cloverdale and her first taste of sweet corn on the cob while in Plymouth.

HEARD OF A NEW cure for sunburn which may be a very old one.

After a day's sailing, son Don's ankles were so sunburned they were swollen to twice their normal size.

An oldtimer on the beach said, "Just soak some slices of bread in milk and lay them on your ankles."

He tried it.

The pain went away immediately and the swelling disappeared—just like magic.

Someone suggested sliced raw potatoes will do the same thing.

GAIL LIEBERMAN attended the third session at Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp north of Muskegon.

The Plymouth student majored in orchestra during her two weeks at the camp which is primarily for high school students.

THE PLYMOUTH Jaycettes have added three new members to their roster.

They are Debbie Boulter, Gale Owens and Lynn Temsko.

Members helped the new Salem Jaycettes last weekend at the Jaycee Fair at Salem airport.

There's still time for singers, guitarists, comedians, pantomimists, dancers, combos, groups, pianists, and entertainers of all kinds to get their acts together for the Jaycee Gong Show.

Entries must be postmarked before Aug. 15 to be eligible for the Aug. 25 auditions. Acts are asked to supply their own musical accompaniment for the auditions. Applications should be mailed to: Plymouth Jaycettes, 11242 Haggerty Road, Plymouth, listing type of act, and name and telephone number of person in charge.

Applications already in reveal a wide variety of talent. Radio and television personalities will be among the judges on the show. It could be a first step to fame and fortune.

Proceeds from the gong show will support research for Reye's Syndrome. Prizes will be awarded and it should be an entertaining evening for the audience and the participants.

Kathy Wood, (from left) Peggy Fisher, Nancy Hayes and Krys Hasley have put months of preparation into the PCAC's major fundraising project.

Although some organizations complained about the downward trend in profits at last year's Plymouth Fall Festival, the Arts and Crafts Show sponsored by the Plymouth Community Arts Council continued to grow.

The 1975 attendance record of 8,000 persons was topped last year by 2,000 visitors.

With more exhibitors and the addition of "The Gallery," Chairwoman Judy Lewis and her committees are expecting the seventh annual show will better last year's mark.

Plans for the Sept. 10 and 11 show in Central Middle School were finalized last week when Mrs. Lewis hosted a luncheon meeting in her home on Arthur Street.

Judy Morgan is co-chairing the show. Krys Hasley and Kathy Wood are in charge of children's art.

Artists and craftsmen exhibit by invitation only. Dee Schulte, Elise Murphy, Jean Herr, Pat Rhinehart and Carol Carlson screened the applicants.

Nancy Haves and Rosie Champe are co-chairing the facility committee. Marilyn Whitaker and Sharon Pugh will schedule hostesses.

PAT MINCHER and Cheryl Ahlgren will look after the posters; Peggy Fisher and Bebe Fairchild are handling publicity and Joan Englehart and Carol Heiser are responsible for tickets.

Works representative of artisans featured in the show will be displayed in the Detroit Edison window, Main Street at Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth.

Marilyn Carl and her committee will arrange the display beginning Aug. 18.

"The Gallery," new for the 1977 show, will be a separate exhibit section. Works for the gallery were juried before being accepted. One or two works from a number of contributing artists will be for sale.

Students kindergarten through high school have been invited to show and sell their creations in the student art booth. Many pieces are priced to suit the pocketbooks of student shoppers.

THE ARTS AND crafts show will run from noon to 9 p.m. Saturday and noon to 7 p.m. on Sunday during Plymouth Fall Festival, the weekend after Labor Day.

The show is in the gymnasium, auditorium and hallways of Central Middle School, Main Street at Church in Plymouth. Several of the artists and craftsmen demonstrate their work on lawns in front of the school.

Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for fulltime students and senior citizens. Children under 16 will be admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

Maureen Stuck, president, hosted the first meeting. The officers are Susan Stilye, vice president; Shirley Keil, recording secretary; Mary Yarlott, corresponding secretary and Judy Stronczer, treasurer.

Serving on the program and ways and means committee are Pat Nelson, Marlene Romine, Lorraine Raymer, Shirley Kelliher, and the president and vice president.

Committee chairpersons are Terry Babut, membership and communication; Pat Van Ark, hospitality; Ruth Davis, publicity; and Ann Waite, year book.

Meetings will be held the first Monday of each month except for the September meeting which is scheduled for 7:30p.m., Sept. 6, at Pat Nelson's, 9742 Baywood. Guest speaker will be Nancy Petrucelli of the Green Thumb who will discuss houseplants.

and

WHEREAS, the cost of the Street Improvements is estimated to be Four Hundred and Ninety-seven Thousand ($497,000.00) Dollars; and

WHEREAS, to finance a part of the cost of the Street Improvements the City Council deems it necessary to borrow the sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand ($225,000.00) Dollars, and issue bonds therefor as authorized by the provisions of Act 175, Public Acts of Michigan, 1952, as amended ("Act 175"), the balance of the cost to be defrayed from funds already paid by the City and Wayne County Road Commissoon Funds; and

WHEREAS, the revenues received by the City of Plymouth from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund pursuant to Act 51, in the year preceding this contemplated borrowing are more than sufficient to comply with all the requirements specified in Section 4 of Act 175.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. The plans and estimates of cost of the Street Improvements, are hereby approved and adopted.

2. The period of usefulness of the Street Improvements is estimated to be not less than twenty (20) years.

3. The City shall borrow the sum of Two Hundred and Twenty-five Thousand ($225,000.00) Dollars and issue bonds of the City therefor pursuant to the provisions of Act 175 (the "Bonds"), for the purpose of providing funds to pay part of the cost of the Street Improvements.

4. The Bonds shall be designated 1977 MOTOR VEHICLE HIGHWAY FUND BONDS and shall consist of forty-five (45) Bonds of the denomination of $5,000.00 each, numbered consecutively in direct order of maturity from 1 to 45, inclusive, dated as of September 1, 1977, and payable serially, without option of prior redemption, on each August 1st, in the years and amounts as follows:

School, postal service tips for new residents

Homeowners moving in and moving out the Canton community is in a constant state of motion, and for each family there is a period of confusion and adjustment.

Here are a few useful tips for those new to the area:

If you have purchased a new home, one of your first priorities is mail delivery. According to Plymouth Post Office supervisor Fred Carter, rural mailboxes in Canton must be two inches from the curb and 42 inches from the bottom of the box to the ground. It must be anchored securely.

In newer subdivisions, the mailboxes are lined up on one side of the street. Thus, the carrier has to travel a block only once. On a court or cul de sac, they may be placed on both sides of the road.

Before you pour the cement for your mailbox, call the post office at GL3-6110 and make sure placement is correct.

ARE YOU ENROLLING children in the district for the first time? If so, contact Ginnie Bagon in child accounting at Plymouth-Canton schools administrative office (453-0200, ext. 421). Medical information and forms also can be obtained at the school board offices, 454 Harvey Street, Plymouth. Dr. Edwin Page, director of pupil personnel services and his staff have offices in Central Middle School on Main Street at Church in Plymouth.

Children in grades K-7 living in their distrct can enroll at their respective schools. Those in grades 8-12 must contact Ms. Bagon to participate in the random assignment program for high school. (Students who have been attending Plymouth-Canton schools and are ready to enter high school will be assigned by computer.)

Michigan students transferring districts can use forms from their previous school if it is current (one year or less). Out-of-state students must submit a new health statement and all persons enrollingin a Michigan school must have necessary immunizations.

Florence Beier, director of public relations for the schools, has prepared an informational brochure which will be distributed to local real estate offices, chambers of commerce, city and township halls,and the board pupil accpunting office. On request, copies will be mailed.

IF YOU'RE NEW in Canton Township and want information about local businesses, call Marv Dingeldey at the Canton Chamber of Commerce, 443-4040, or Val Gildo of the Welcome Wagon, 981-1022.

Call Brenda Pollack or Debbie Smith at the Canton Township Recreation Department, 397-27777, for news of current recreational programs—golf, baseball, craft classes, senior citizen activities, bowling, garden clubs, dancing, guitar lessons and much, much more.

Ladies wishing to meet others new to the community may want to contact Karen Cifrodella, president of the Canton Newcomers Club, 981-0264, or Val Gildo, president of the Welcome Wagon Club.

THERE ARE TWO new families in Canton who may find these tips helpful, the Steve Oesterles of Abby Court, and the Peter Romas of Walnut Ridge Circle.

Steve Oesterle, a CPA for the accounting firm of Ernst and Ernst, and Michelle, an elementary school music teacher presently employed at Heartside Furnside, are former Northville residents.

They and their cat, Tigger (who does somersaults and fetches like a dog), are happy with their new home and neighbors, especially Ed and Elaine Davis. The Davises have installed a new inground swimming pool where son Steve is frequently seen improving his summer tan. His young brother Mark, 3, paddles around enclosed in a life jacket.

Pete Roma is a foreman for the Ford Transmission Plant in Livonia. His wife, Kathy, is a former teachers aide in a parochial school. They have two sons, Peter, an avid reader, and Joev, an all-A student. Both children are very involved with their new pet, a beagle puppy named Muffin.

A BRANCH OF the Lamaze Childbirth Education classes for women who have experienced a Caesarean birth is planning a picnic for mothers and children at 10 a.m. Aug. 9 in Merriman Hollow. The park is at Merriman and Hines Drive. Each family is asked to provide its own lunch.

Mary Lou McVeigh, leader of the group, had a Caesarean birth. She feels there is a need for C-section mothers to get together and discuss their experiences. Many of these women attended Lamaze classes expecting a natural birth and were shocked and confused when their plans were changed at the last moment.

"Instaed of a quick recovery, the aftermath of surgery prolonged their return to daily activity and the care of their baby," said Mrs. McVeigh. "They found little in common with natural childbirth mothers.

"If we hear of a woman in the hospital who has an unexpected C-section we try to contact her before she comes home. But all too often, we often miss the one who needs us most."

Those who are interested in this group or would like to make reservations for the picnic should call Mrs. McVeigh at 721-5738.

TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH
ANNUAL REPORT
APRIL 1, 1976 to MARCH 31, 1977

To the Plymouth Township Board
Plymouth, Michigan

We have examined the accompanying balance sheets of the various funds of the Township of Plymouth as of March 31, 1977, and the related statements of fund balance and revenues and expenditures for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures, including those prescribed by the State Treasurer, as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion the financial statements mentioned above present fairly the financial position of the various funds of the Township of Plymouth as of March 31, 1977, and the results of their operations for the year then ended in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the prior year.

The accompanying report does not include the operation of the Plymouth Township Water and Sewer Fund which has a fiscal year ending March 31. The accounting records of this enterprise are kept entirely separate from other Township records. A separate audit is conducted of this fund.

The financial statements referred to in the foregoing opinion are identified in the contents of this report. Our examination was made primarily for the purpose of rendering an opinion on these basic financial statements, taken as a whole. The supplementary financial data identified in the contents, although not considered necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and results of operations, are presented primarily for supplemental analysis purposes. This additional information has been subjected to the audit procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respect in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Our report of comments and recommendations dated July 7, 1977, has been submitted under separate cover.

Respectfully,
POST, SMYTHE, LUTZ and ZIEL

Massey spoils McMurray's season

McMurray Insurance saw its dream for a perfect season shattered at the last game of the regular year when second-place Don Massey Cadillac upset the six-time champions, 10-3, Tuesday night in Canton Men's Slow-Pitch action.

Coach Tom Zurcher's team recorded four runs in the fourth inning and three more in the sixth to cap the unexpected victory. McMurray finished the season with a 14-1 record.

Massey's third baseman Sandy Black led his team against McMurray with a perfect night at the plate—a home run, double and two singles. Teammates John Long, Mark Deroche, Jack Warner and Ralph Rafaski all added two hits each for the winners.

McMurray just couldn't get on track the whole game as winning pitcher Pat Byrnes held the powerful McMurray squad to only five total hits. The lone bright stop for the losers was Mike Stanislawski who smacked two singles.

Massey won its 10th game of the year earlier in the week by beating Little Caesar, 11-5. Leftfielder Dale Merritt slammed two doubles and a single to pace the winners.

Clark Block picked up its fifth victory of the season in its final contest with a 12-8 win over Smith Realty. Coach Roger Pollack's Clark team scored four times in the eighth inning to pull out the extra inning affair.

THE BIG news in the women's league is its first-ever all-star contest against the Wayne league.

The contest will be played on Wednesday, August 10th at Anderson field in Wayne. Game time is 8 p.m. Anderson field is located on the corner of Howell and Annapolis Roads, next to Ben Franklin Junior High School.

IN THE "B" Division, Perlongo improved its fine record to 14-1 on the year after edging a determined Latin Quarter Catering squad, 7-5.

Perlongo's winning pitcher Terry Ransier collected three hits in fourth attempts.

In other "B" action, Meijer Thrifty Acres topped The Lion & The Sword, 14-9. Tom LaPorte and Joe Shanabrook led the winner's attack with three hits each.

In all-star game

Plymouth nips Canton, 8-7

By DENNIS O'CONNOR

D.J. Catton's 10th inning single drove home the winning run as the Plymouth all-stars edged the Canton all-stars, 8-7, Thursday night at Massey field.

The first-ever all-star classic featured the best players from the top men's slow-pitch softball teams competing before nearly 300 people.

The score was tied at 7-7 after several innings of play, and neither squad could send a man across the plate in the eighth and ninth innings as the defensive battle put pressure on both teams.

In the bottom of the 10th, Puckett Plumbling's Kurt Yockey led off the inning safe at first on an error. Robot Printing's D.J. Catton then followed with his game winning hit.

Canton jumped into a quick 2-0 lead after the first inning. Plymouth scored once in the third and four times in the fourth to grab a 5-2 lead.

Canton struck back in the fifth inning with four runs to take a 6-5 lead, but Plymouth tied the game with one tally in the sixth. Both teams scored single runs in the seventh to remain deadlocked.

Spartan win streak finally ends at 30

The unbelievable Plymouth Spartans 30-game win streak was snappedtwo weeks ago.

The Spartans, members of the "E" League (14-15-year olds) of the Plymouth-Canton Junior Baseball League, saw their consecutive victory string broken after losing 7-2 to the Wildcats earlier this month.

Prior to the setback, the Spartans won 20 straight games in the 1976 season and added 10 more wins to the streak this year.

The 1977 Spartans, under the direction of Frank McMurray, Mel Johnson and Myron Hopper, finished the season last Thursday with a first-place record of 13-1.

Mike Michalek, Bill Runge, Clint Etienne and Ben Wilcox coached the 1976 Spartans to a perfect season.

Swim class ends

Gal swimmers, cagers asked to report

The schools' fall sports season is only one month away and girls swimming and basketball teams at the Centennial Park are already setting up tryouts and conditioning practices.

Both the Plymouth Canton and Plymouth Salem girls basketball teams are scheduled to begin workouts on Monday, August 15. Canton girls are asked to report to Mike McCauley between 6-8 p.m. Salem coach Debbie Hatcher will conduct practices between 8 a.m.-noon.

All cagers, grades 9-12, who are interested in participating, should come to the Canton Athletic Facility at these times.

Salem girl swimmers interested in joining coach Chuck Olson's squad are asked to report to the Salem pool for practice between 9 a.m.-noon beginning on Monday August 15.

Canton swim coach Ann Massey will begin her tryouts on Monday, August 22 at the Canton pool between 9 a.m.-noon.

All girls, grades 9-12, are eligible to participate.

The three fall girls sports are tennis, basketball and swimming, while the boys compete in football, cross country and golf.

LOUISE SNIDER

Trucker meets Texas smokey

"Smokey and the Bandit," starring Burt Reynolds, Sally Field and Jackie Gleason, will have a first-run Detroit-area engagement beginning Friday at theaters including the Northland in Southfield and the Old Orchard in Farmington.

Legendary trucker Bandit (Reynolds) accepts a challenge that is meant to strip him of his notoriety. The Bandit's mission: To transport an illegal shipment of 400 cases of Coors Beer from Texas to Atlanta and to do it in 28 hours.

With his good buddy Snowman (Jerry Reed) driving the Coors-laden 18-wheeler, Bandit employs a sparkling new Pontiac Trans Am to divert attention from the truck.

Maintaining communications with the truck through the use of Citizen Band radio, his escapades manages to land him a runaway passenger (Field) and make him the manic obsession of a Texas smokey (Gleason).

An action comedy, rated PG, "Smokey and the Bandit," a Rastar Production for Universal, was produced by Mort Engelberg and directed by Hal Needham, with screenplay by James Lee Barrett and Charles Shyer and Alan Mandel from a story by Needham and executive producer Robert L. Levy.

'MacArthur' shows the man

World War II becomes the background against which a portrait of MacArthur the man is depicted—the characters, the ambitions, the failures and the contradictions in "MacArthur."

A special engagement of a Richard D. Zanuck/David Brown Production of the Universal Release "MacArthur" opened Friday at the Americana in Southfield and Showcase Cinema in Bloomfield Township.

Starring Gregory Peck as General Douglas MacArthur, the film begins with MacArthur's reluctant departure from the Philippines before the fall of Corregidor in 1942, vowing to return and recapture the islands from the Japanese.

It continues through his successes in the Pacific campaign and his selection by Franklin Roosevelt (Dan O'Herlihy) as Supreme Commander of the Pacific to Harry Truman's (Ed Flanders) relieving him from his Korean command and his triumphant hero's welcome once back in the States.

THE FILM culminates with MacArthur's farewell speech at his beloved West Point at the age of 82, contrasting MacArthur, the old soldier, with the youthful cadets of the academy.

Produced by Frank McCarthy, who also produced "Patton," and directed by Joseph Sargent from a screenplay by Hal Barwood and Matthew Robbins, "MacArthur" was filmed entirely in the United States with Pacific and Far East sites recreated by production designer John Lloyd, including an authentic recreation of the Japanese surrender aboard the U.S.S. Missouri.

ENERGY SAVINGS

AMERICANS use more energy per person than any other people in the world. We have only 6 percent of the world's population but we use about one-third of all the energy consumed on this globe. In the United States most of the energy we use comes from petroleum (crude oil) about 16 million barrels a day. Because domestic production falls short of our needs more than 40 percent has to be imported. And our need for imports keeps increasing as energy demand rises.

EXPERT ESTIMATES of our known and potential domestic reserves vary but we have somewhere between a 25 to 30 year supply of oil if our energy use growth rate is kept at about 2 percent per year. In other words, if we continue using energy as we have become accustomed to, we may run out of domestic oil supplies in the year 2007 and we may run out of natural gas even sooner.

THE OVERALL ENERGY situation in the United States is not rosy. Energy prices keep going up; the availability and future costs of supplies remain uncertain.

WHAT CAN WE DO ABOUT IT?

ENERGY CONSERVATION will help us extend our energy supplies and reduce our import burdens. Without personal hardship we could easily cut our energy use by an estimated 30 percent or more saving money for ourselves and energy for our country.

CUTTING BACK on the energy we use is the simplest most effective way to make our resources last longer. And each individual conservation effort multiplied by millions can serve as an "energy bank" - a supply that can be used to help balance our energy accounts. We can conserve if we make energy thrift a part of our way of life - adopting common sense energy habits. We at Meijer are concerned about saving energy... to help we will be passing along an energy savings tip of the week...watch next week for tip number one.
