The Canton Connection

FRANKLIN-PALMER Homeowners' Association will hold its annual general membership meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Field Elementary School, on Haggerty south of Cherry Hill. Everyone in the subdivision is welcome. Refreshments will be served. Milt Mack, newly-elected Wayne County Commissioner representing the township, will be the guest speaker.

THREE CHEERS to DPW director Jake Dingeldey and his staff for constructing a new, orange "Welcome to Canton" sign on the south side of Michigan Avenue, between Denton and Beck. The new sign announces the sesquicentennial (150 years) existence of the township. Material cost for the sign was $45. Supervisor James Poole hopes to build three more welcome signs — one at the eastern border on Michigan, and two at the east and west borders on Ford Road.

MARY DINGELDEY and Suzanne Skubick are the co-chairwomen of a committee planning the 150th birthday of Canton. Dingeldey is active in community groups, and Skubick is program director of Omnicon, the cable TV firm which serves Canton.

The 150th birthday — known officially as a sesquicentennial — will take place in 1984.

The liaison between the township and the committee is Jim Kosteva, township planner. Anybody who wants to work on the preparations should call Kosteva at 397-1000, ext. 222.

CANTON'S SHARE of funding the Out-Wayne County Area Agency on Aging is $1,458 per year. That figure is computed at three cents per capita, based on Canton's population of 48,588. The agency provides and coordinates services for elderly in the out-Wayne County communities, including a daily hot lunch plan. The federal and state governments also provide funding for the programs.

The new state highway map, to be printed in the spring, will include Canton Township. Some residents and officials have complained about an "identity" problem because Canton wasn't shown on the maps.

Mahalak convinced state highway officials that Canton, with a population of almost 49,000, should be included. Current maps show only two townships — Redford and Waterford Township, both with populations exceeding 50,000. Officials say new maps will include both Canton and Clinton townships.

BRUCE PATTERSON was elected to a one-year term as chairman of the Canton Township Merit System Commission.

The three-member merit commission sets hiring standards and recommends salary guidelines for non-union department heads in the township. Other members of the commission are Philip LaJoy and Edward Bretzlaff.

THE TOWNSHIP Board regularly meets on the first, second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Meetings begin at 7 p.m. at Township Hall, on Canton Center south of Cherry Hill. The board of education regularly meets on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. Meetings begin at 7:30 p.m. at 454 S. Harvey, Plymouth. The public is invited to attend all government meetings.

Anyone interested in submitting information about Canton Township for "The Canton Connection" may send items to Canton editor Dennis O'Connor, 461 S. Main, Plymouth 48170. We ask that you type or print the information and include your name and phone number in case we have any questions. The column runs every Monday.

Library features new computer

Jeff Elliot, Canton resident and radio personality on WMJC-FM, was the first person to operate the new Apple II computer at Canton's public library, on the third floor of Township Hall, on Canton Center south of Cherry Hill. Advanced registration for weekly workshops and computer time will be accepted one week in advance for residents. For more information on using the computer, call the library at 397-0999.

Officials to face more problems with treasurer

By Dennis O'Connor
editor

The continuing saga of "Trauma at Township Hall," initially centered on Canton Treasurer Maria Sterlini versus her employees. It was a bitter battle that focused on how poorly she managed personnel in her department.

The other six members of the Township Board, although powerless to stop any actions of the elected fulltime treasurer, publicly criticized Sterlini for her mismanagement.

Well, the next "trauma" chapter may unfold at the regular board meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Poole promises that another bitter battle will sink Sterlini at Township Hall.

Of course, this will only happen if Poole gets the expected support from other board members.

POOLE HAS two complaints:

First, he objects to Sterlini's request to pay her part-time assistant for working 17 hours at home. A medical problem prohibits this worker from coming to Township Hall, although she can work at home.

Poole maintains paying this employee — with taxpayers' money — "establishes a very bad precedent."

Wouldn't it be interesting to know how many Canton Township taxpayers are allowed to work at home?

The second complaint is a real dandy. This time Poole contends Sterlini ordered the township's engineering

Board stops move to fire cable firm

By Dennis O'Connor
staff writer

Bitterness still lingers, but Canton's Township Board dropped any consideration to revoke its franchise agreement with Omnicon Cablevision last week.

The unanimous decision cancels a formal public hearing on Jan. 25, which was part of the revocation procedure.

Trustee Steve Larson, who made the motion to begin revocation last November, also made the motion to drop all charges against the cable company.

Omnicon promised Canton officials major improvements in the cable system within one year. Improvements include a stronger commitment to local programming, more studio equipment for local origination, a larger channel converter for a bigger basic-service package, additional mobile broadcasting equipment and a two-way, home security system.

Although not totally satisfied, Larson believed the increased cable services are a "major step forward for the community."

"What the township has gotten is a much superior cable package than before," he said. "I hope this works out to the benefit of Canton Township and Omnicon."

This package not only benefits Canton viewers, but also will be part of services offered to Plymouth and Plymouth Township, according to Omnicon General Manager Betsy Seeley.

JIM KRONBERG, one member of a three-person committee which originally recommended revocation, was happy with the settlement — especially after negotiating with Omnicon officials for more than nine months.

"I think we have a good compromise," Kronberg said, "not so much that they (Omnicon) gave up anything, but because they acquiesced on their

New York channel lifted

Cable TV viewers no longer will receive WOR-TV (New York), Channel 29 on the basic-service package.

Omnicon Cablevision, which owns the franchise in the Plymouth-Canton community, took WOR off the air last Monday. Officials are studying various options and hope to replace the channel with different programming "as soon as possible," according to Omnicon General Manager Betsy Seeley.

A recent Supreme Court ruling raised Omnicon's copyright fees 645 percent if a third distant channel is broadcast on the Plymouth-Canton system, Seeley told Canton Township's board last week. Omnicon still offers WTVS (Atlanta) and WGN (Chicago) on its basic package.

The company has complete control of what is offered on basic-service channels and may adjust it anytime without local government approval, according to the franchise agreement.

Seeley stressed the court ruling affects all cable companies nationwide and not just Capital Cities Cable, which owns Omnicon. Many competing cable companies, however, never originally offered all three channels (Atlanta, New York and Chicago) and probably won't be affected by the new legislation, she added.

WOR recently was placed on Omnicon's basic service as the third distant channel. It was not part of the company's original package.

Ex-hotel resident charged with murder, arson

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

A 34-year-old former resident of the Old Village Inn stood mute Friday night to murder, arson and assault charges related to last week's burning of the two-story hotel.

Gary Lee Cook, 34035 Wadsworth, Livonia, was charged with first degree murder, arson, and assault with the intent to commit murder in 35th District Court. Judge Dunbar Davis set Cook's preliminary examination for Thursday.

The fire at the Old Village Inn, formerly the Nelson Hotel, left one person dead and caused about $225,000 in damages.

Killed in the fire was 61-year-old Clifford Bearden, according to Plymouth Police Chief Carl Berry.

Bearden died from smoke and soot inhalation coupled with carbon monoxide inhalation, according to a Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office spokesman.

Cook, who was evicted from the hotel about two weeks before the fire, is expected to be held in Wayne County Jail without bond, according to Berry.

If convicted, Cook could serve mandatory life sentences on the murder and assault charges and 20 years on the arson charge.

"I must have blacked-out and don't remember anything about the night," Cook said at the arraignment.

Davis then asked Cook if he wanted an attorney to represent him.

"Don't matter," Cook replied. The judge asked him again.

"It doesn't matter to me," said Cook, who was clad in dark blue coveralls and kept his head down during most of the proceedings.

4th-grade girl collapses, dies at Allen school playground

Services were scheduled today for a 10-year-old Canton girl who died last Wednesday, hours after collapsing on the playground at Allen Elementary School.

Kerry Granger, a fourth-grade student at the school, keeled over about 2:30 p.m., school officials said. The child, born with a heart disease, had previously had open-heart surgery.

Efforts to revive the girl were unsuccessful. Principal Tom Workman and rescue workers from the Plymouth Township Fire Department applied cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

Kerry was taken to Oakwood Hospital in Canton at 2:55 p.m., said Plymouth Township Fire Chief Larry Groth. Two firefighters remained at the hospital almost 1 1/4 hours to assist in the revival attempt, Groth said.

The girl was pronounced dead at 6:07 p.m., a hospital spokesman said. Cause of death was congenital heart disease, according to the Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office.

FUNERAL SERVICES were at 10 a.m. today at St. John Neumann Catholic Church in Canton, with Schrader Funeral Home making arrangements.

The family requests that donations be sent to the cardiology research department at Children's Hospital of Michigan in Detroit.

Survivors include Kerry's mother, Kathy M. Dace of Canton; father, Craim M. Granger of Waterford; stepfather Gary Dace; and step-brothers Greg and Rob Dace of Canton.

She also is survived by grandparents Brenda Balke of Livonia, Wilma Biel-ski of Dearborn and Harold Granger of Naples, Fla.

Phyllis Patete is ready to give a nice, warm hug to one of the playful puppies that came to Hendry's last week.

Pesky - but lovable - pets visit center

Some unusual but lively visitors were found last week at the Hendry Convalescent Center in Plymouth.

The visitors were five puppies and five kittens brought to the convalescent center by the Oakland Humane Society.

It was called "Pet Day" by the Hendry staff as the special visitors brought some extra smiles (and some happy tears) to the residents who took the cuddly creatures to their hearts.

The pets responded with toying taps to the residents' hands, necks, and faces.

THE HENDRY staff assisted the Humane Society workers by encouraging residents to participate in the activity and by handing the pets from one resident to another.

"The puppies and kittens gave the residents a chance to show some love and affection," said Karen Morrison, Hendry's activities director.

"Most of the residents here had pets at one time and had to give them up when they came to the convalescent center. Their contact with these animals is a very healthy activity. They will share things with puppies and kittens that they might not be able to share with people — because animals don't judge."

The pets were brought to Hendry's dining room to visit with the residents and also were brought to the rooms of those residents who were unable to walk to the dining room.

"The residents really had a good time," said Morrison.

"Get away from me," says the little kitten who puts her paw on the head of an aggressive dog.

Tales from the Tonquish

Telonga tapped new chief

After almost a lifetime — more than 60 years — ensconced near the banks of the sometimes turbulent Tonquish, it is not unusual for me to make further inquiry into the events that have marked its colorful past.

Among those events there is one that rings a holiday bell. It includes a celebration, a fellowship of feasting and music, and group worship at the sacred altar under the pines of Plymouth Sound.

And, sad to relate, in the end there is a kind of sacramental crucifixion for a young brave who had violated the clan's moral code.

This story reveals the significance of certain strongly-held moral values in the so-called "savage" mind.

ONCE AGAIN the winds of winter herald the time when the whole clan, en masse, begins its migration southward.

It is late in November 1819. The clan has buried Chief Tonquish (Toga) and his son with all due honor (as reported in this column in Observer Newspapers of Nov. 25, 29).

Now the winter hunt in search of fresh game must begin. But the structure of their organization also demands that they pause, settle their differences, and name a new chief.

Fierce arguments have arisen among them — Tonquish, their peacemaker and guide, who had always controlled them with a kind of benevolent dictatorship, is not there to soothe their troubled spirits. His leadership is greatly missed. Their survival as a group now is at stake.

But it must be remembered that the Potowatomi have a long history of survival in difficult times. Outgunned (but not always outfought) by an army of "palefaces" in hot pursuit, the Plymouth Potowatomi always seem to survive. They cling to their old lands and their old ways with an integrity and belief that command our admiration.

There will be some special effects skits and student ensembles.

The headline feature of this year's "Variety Is..." show will be the Meadow Brook Estate from Oakland University's show ensembles.

The 20 singers and dancers who make up the Estate, together with their instrumental backup, project easy and contemporary sound which creates an intimate relationship with concert-hall crowds.

The high-energy choreography of the Estate has a broad appeal as they perform jazz, country and western, show tunes, easy rock and the Now Sound.

As part of the commercial music program at Oakland University under the direction of Dr. Raynold Allvin, the students who make up the Estate earn a bachelor of science or arts in music upon completion of their course of study.

In the few short years of their existence, the Meadow Brook Estate has appeared before a quarter-of-a-million people in live shows from Mexico to Canada, New York to San Francisco.

Advance tickets at $3 each are available at Sideways in Plymouth, Mix-N-Match, Florist in Pine Tree Plaza on Joy west of John His in Canton, or from any CEP band member.

Tickets will be sold at the door Friday and Saturday.

CUSTOM DECREED that their old men — "the wise ones," the elders of the tribe — should name Toga's successor. They alone had that power.

But in the Plymouth clan there was an ambitious, feckless young of young braves determined to have their way. They called Toga's death an unnecessary murder, and they have mourned his young son as a dear friend, a beloved brother, and a companion. Only his head of their generation of young, hunting braves. They never forgave Major usual Indian passion and prejudice.

Independent and stubborn, he never sold his people short. And that cannot be said of all the Potowatomi chiefs. More than any other chief since the great Pontiac, Topenebee listened to his own thoughts and marched to his own drummer.

SO THE ELDERS of Plymouth knew what they were doing when they sought his aid to settle their dispute.

From the evidence I have examined it appears that Topenebee thought that going to Plymouth to settle some piddling argument as to who would be minor chief along the little valley of the Rouge was, after all, beneath his dignity.

He is reported to have said, "Let them settle their own fights or jive with it," or words to that effect. But he was pressured to change his mind, and after considerable thought over night, he came back in the morning with a counter offer.

He had come to a decision. He sent to Plymouth his right-hand bower, his nephew and adopted son, and the man closest to his heart, Leopold Pokagan. And with Pokagan he also sent an aide and a candidate for leadership of the Tonquish Indians — an ambitious, handsome, young brave Telonga.

Upon several occasions, in the past Topenebee had challenged the authority of Telonga himself. All three of these Indian notables were blood relatives of the late Chief Tonquish.

Perhaps Topenebee saw in Telonga someone for whom the young Plymouth rebels would have some empathy. He probably envisioned solving his own problems and the near rebellion on Tonquish Plains with one swift, diplomatic move. These are logical conjectures from the known facts. Let us see what happened.

TELONGA (whose Indian name is not easily translated but this is a close approximation) walked confidently with Pokagan under the pines of Plymouth and faced a multitude of angry dissidents.

Exactly what was said is lost in the shroud of buried history. But Telonga, only 30 summers young, had a special magic, a kind of charisma and confidence which impressed the young rebels and, for the first time, the muttering ceased.

They listened quietly as Pokagan

'Variety Is ....' show opens Friday in Salem auditorium

If you believe in music, the "Variety Is..." show is something you cannot afford to miss.

"Variety Is..." will begin 8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 14, and Saturday, Jan. 15, in the auditorium of Plymouth Salem High School on Joy just west of Canton Center.

The musical special is sponsored by the instrumental music department of the Plymouth Centennial Educational Park (CEP) of Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

Among those entertaining will be members of the CEP band program — the symphony band, concert band, jazz band and the award-winning CEP Marching Band.

There will be some special effects skits and student ensembles.

The headline feature of this year's "Variety Is..." show will be the Meadow Brook Estate from Oakland University's show ensembles.

The 20 singers and dancers who make up the Estate, together with their instrumental backup, project easy and contemporary sound which creates an intimate relationship with concert-hall crowds.

The high-energy choreography of the Estate has a broad appeal as they perform jazz, country and western, show tunes, easy rock and the Now Sound.

As part of the commercial music program at Oakland University under the direction of Dr. Raynold Allvin, the students who make up the Estate earn a bachelor of science or arts in music upon completion of their course of study.

In the few short years of their existence, the Meadow Brook Estate has appeared before a quarter-of-a-million people in live shows from Mexico to Canada, New York to San Francisco.

Advance tickets at $3 each are available at Sideways in Plymouth, Mix-N-Match, Florist in Pine Tree Plaza on Joy west of John His in Canton, or from any CEP band member.

Tickets will be sold at the door Friday and Saturday.

CUSTOM DECREED that their old men — "the wise ones," the elders of the tribe — should name Toga's successor. They alone had that power.

But in the Plymouth clan there was an ambitious, feckless young of young braves determined to have their way. They called Toga's death an unnecessary murder, and they have mourned his young son as a dear friend, a beloved brother, and a companion. Only his head of their generation of young, hunting braves. They never forgave Major

FIGHT: A post-Christmas gathering on Willow Creek turned into a fight Dec. 26. A 25-year-old Detroit man was treated at Oakwood Hospital for a cut forehead. According to reports, the victim had been hit in the face by a man holding a wine glass during a dispute.

NICOTINE FITS: Two Detroit men have been charged with larceny in a building. Police allege the pair shoplifted $148 worth of cigarettes from Meijer Thriftway Acres Dec. 31.

Grafton Ladon Holifield, 26, of Sterritt, and Gerard Margalski, 28, of Waltham, both in Detroit, were arrested Jan. 1 at the outcounty branch of the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Not guilty pleas were entered in their behalf. Bond was set at $2,500 cash each. Preliminary examination in 35th District Court will be Jan. 10.

Police reports indicate a Meijer security officer saw two men stuff 16 cartons of cigarettes under their coats and leave the store without paying.

Larceny in a building is a felony punishable by a maximum four years in prison upon conviction.

CAN'T MISS IT: It's going to be pretty hard to keep a fancy, bright-red, $30,000 van under wraps.

A Hartford Court resident reported someone broke into his garage Jan. 1, stealing a 1977-Dodge van valued at $30,000.

Reports indicate the custom show van was bright red-orange, with tail lights in the shape of a Maltese cross. The van had an oak running board and bluebirds and falcons were painted on the exterior.

Man charged in hotel fire

Office Berry said: "We received a tip that Cook was at the post office, and we contacted the Livonia Police Department," Berry said Friday.

Cook was taken into custody based on information from the hotel tenants gave police. Following up on the police case were Lt. Henry Berghoff and Lt. Robert Commire. Joseph Thomas, a hotel resident, said Cook came into his room Wednesday evening and asked for some money, according to police reports.

"Thomas stated that he hadn't seen Cook for about a year. Cook told him he was hungry and would like to borrow some money," the report stated.

"Thomas said he gave him $3 as Cook was leaving," the report stated. "I'll put this place down," the report stated.

Another resident, only identified as Mary, told the Observer she saw Cook in the building just before the fire broke out.

"Thomas then stated he must have dozed off but was awakened by the smell of smoke. He saw that his bed was afire along with a chair across the room and a section of the floor," the police report stated.

Cook was taken into custody, crawled from his bed to another tenant's door and began knocking. The other resident then carried Thomas out of the building, according to the report.

Elizabeth Greer, a hotel resident, also told police she saw Cook inside Thomas' room before the fire.

Cook, a hi-lo driver, is charged with assault with the intent to murder Thomas, with the weapon being flammable material.

Plymouth Fire Chief Roy Hall said the fire was an arson. Plymouth, Plymouth Township and State Police fire investigators worked at the hotel until Thursday afternoon.

City firefighters responded to the fire one minute after the call came in at 6:28 p.m. Wednesday.

Hotel fire gutted interior, left 30 homeless

The fire which ripped through the Old Village Inn left some 30 people without a home and possibly destroyed the building beyond repair.

A loss of the building would be a loss of history for Plymouth. The hotel's early days are entwined with the beginnings of the community. But in the last few years, the hotel has been criticized for its appearance and clientele.

When flames broke out Wednesday evening, some of the residents were in the building while others were at work or out.

"One minute I was eating and the next minute I was out in the cold," said James Hannula, an older resident of the hotel.

Hannula and three other hotel residents spent the night at the Mayflower Hotel. The Salvation Army helped place residents who didn't have relatives or friends with whom to stay.

Hotel owner Eugene LaBlanc refused comment on the fire and plans for the future. A hotel official who refused to be named said the residents were "well taken care of."

"I don't think we gave any clothing out, but the schools and the Presbyterian Church gave some clothing out," said Capt. Bill Harfoot of the Salvation Army.

"We made arrangements for three people to stay at the Mayflower that night. The others found something on their own," he said. Everyone had found a place to stay by Thursday evening.

Another hotel resident, Bill Lovelless, wasn't in the building when the fire started. He said life in the old building wasn't pleasant.

"I'd say two-thirds of the people that live there are drunks and low income people; the other third is young guys who are working and this is just a stop on their way up," the 26-year-old Lovelless said.

"I don't believe the building was up to code. It was infested with cockroaches and when you plugged things in the cords got so hot you would have to unplug it," said Mobley.

"If I was a city inspector, I would have closed the place down."

"I pity the city of Plymouth. Now that the place has burned down, those cockroaches are in little armies."

"My brother lived there too. We used to joke about not knowing if we would wake up and see each other in the morning because the place burned down," he said.

Mobley's brother, Gary, had gone to the store when the fire started.

"I left for about 20 minutes to go to Kroger's. When I came back the place was already burning," the brother said.

"I wish I was in my room because I had a plan devised to get all my stuff out of the room," he said.

"The fear of a fire was always in the back of my mind," said Gary, who lived there for six weeks before the fire.

"The place was a real pigsty. It was infested with cockroaches, there were no fire extinguishers and I only recall seeing one smoke alarm."

"The owner didn't make any effort to fix the place up. I lived on the second floor and my roof leaked when it rained. I pretty much had to do repairs myself."

"Gary said he was living in the place for 'an address for getting my welfare checks.'"

"The owner offered me a check (after the fire), and wanted to cash it on the spot," he said.

"He didn't cash the $47-check because of what it said on the back."

"Signature below constitutes acceptance as payment in full of all security deposit and or rent refund due and releases payor from any and all claims against the payor."

"He plans to have an attorney look at the check before he does anything. Gary gave LaBlanc a $37 security deposit and had three days rent paid before the fire."

"All I want is some money to put clothes back on my back," he said.

Gary said he lost some $2,400 worth of property in the fire, which included a bike, radio, records, books, papers and receipts.

"I lost everything except what I had on my back," he said.

"LaBlanc wouldn't let Gary into the building Thursday to see if anything was saved, Gary said.

"Among the list of violations to be corrected and left undone were: cleaning out of trash, painting exterior trim, interior painting—including tenant rooms and hallways, repair of carpeting, installing a vent in the bathroom, and removal of extension cords."

City Manager Henry Graper said LaBlanc always had been cooperative in correcting violations.

"LaBlanc had always worked with us in trying to make the building look better outside and correct violations on the inside. He took care of violations within a reasonable amount of time," Graper said.

Graper defended LaBlanc in late 1981 when Old Village residents and merchants, angered over a murder at the hotel, confronted LaBlanc.

The residents and merchants expressed their concerns about the hotel at a city commission meeting and subsequent special meeting with LaBlanc.

A spokesman for the residents, Dennis Cole, complained of problems with the hotel related to public drunkenness, abusive and foul language, abandoned cars in the parking lot, speeding cars, fights and loud parties.

Gail Tosh, owner of Gail's Doghouse in Old Village, presented a petition asking the city to help the village and encourage LaBlanc to join the Old Village Association.

At that time, Graper stressed LaBlanc had been cooperative and the problems in the area aren't limited to the hotel.

Livonia has dominated S'craft board since '71

(Part XXXV)

The lawsuit involving the New Democratic Coalition's charge that Livonia was under-represented on the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees was tried before Judge Roland Olzak of the Wayne County Circuit Court in the summer of 1971.

Representing the college trustees and school boards that were members of the college district was college attorney Edward Draugelis of Plymouth. He told the Observer at the time that he knew of no other suits in the state on the matter of reapportionment of community-college districts. Representing the plaintiffs was Roger Craig, reputed to be one of the state's best constitutional lawyers.

According to the Observer, Livonia trustee James Boswell's name was on the original list of plaintiffs but he was not a member of the NDC and asked that his name be dropped before the case came to trial.

In April 1971 Judge Olzak ruled for the plaintiffs. He directed the Schoolcraft Board of Trustees to come up with a plan, by June 1, under which trustees would be elected in accordance with the one-man, one-vote principle.

A number of plans were considered, and on May 1, 1971, the Schoolcraft board and the State Board of Education officially endorsed the method now followed of eliminating school-district representatives and electing all of the trustees on an at-large basis.

At the next election, held in September 1971, three Livonians (Rosina Raymond, Mary Dumas, and Paul Kadish) were elected to the board. Also elected were Leroy Bennett, a Livonia school administrator who lives in Plymouth, and the late Archibald Vallier, also of Plymouth.

past and present
Sam Hudson

Counting the holdover board members, the Livonia school district, with slightly more than half of the college district's population, had five of the eight seats. Plymouth had two, Northville one, and Garden City and Clareville none.

Since Judge Olzak's ruling, Livonia has dominated the Schoolcraft Board of Trustees in terms of seats held. As this is written in the fall of 1982, Livonians hold six of the seven seats on the board (the original eight has been reduced to seven). The lone board member not from Livonia is Michael W. Burley, who lives in Canton Township. Residents of four other communities, who had voted to establish the college with the understanding that they were to have at least one seat on the board, regardless of which community won the at-large seats, now began to feel that they were the ones who were under-represented.

IN THE DECADE that followed the court ruling, Schoolcraft College suffered through five millage defeats and, in the words of Dr. C. Nelson Grote in his presidential "Decade Two" report,

"the resulting loss of needed new facilities and equipment for expansion."

Although economic conditions were undoubtedly the prime factor in the millage defeats, there has been speculation that some of the communities in the college district might have looked more favorably on the tax propositions if a hometown favorite, with a seat on the board, had been explaining the need to them.

Tim Richard in his Sept. 2, 1982 column in the Observer, wrote: "Schoolcraft trustees know the two-year college increasingly is being perceived as a 'Livonia' institution. At least two trustees, Rosina Raymond and Paul Kadish, unsuccessfully advocated that college trustees be elected from sub-districts so that all geographical corners of the community could be represented."

He went on to say: "The bottom line is this: There is no one from Clareville, Garden City or Northville on the Schoolcraft College board." "Thus the half-down Livonians who rule the board must work harder than ever to represent the views of all elements of the college community."

Responding to Richard's comments a Garden City resident wrote to the Observer on Sept. 23, calling Livonia's representation on the board "disproportionate." He predicted that "the big crunch will come when one of the non-represented districts votes to disaffiliate. Remember the classical American slogan, 'No taxation without representation.'"

But in May 1971 the Schoolcraft Board, forced to choose by Judge Olzak, opted for the at-large method and that was the plan that would be difficult to set up but that most Michigan community colleges followed.

Those in the college district who have followed the problem of trustee representation since its inception can be forgiven for thinking "this is where I came in."

IRONICALLY, when the old system of electing trustees was being questioned in 1971, Marvin Stempien, a state legislator from Livonia, was working on a bill to require the election of community college trustees from seven single-member wards of equal population.

That plan, as well as the one finally adopted, would have satisfied the Supreme Court's "one-man, one-vote" rule, and it had some Livonia supporters. Among them were Rosina Raymond, who later became a member of the board, and Neil Stigter, chairman of Livonia's New Democratic Coalition.

Those who favored the ward plan said the at-large plan would increase the cost of running for trustee so that only well-financed candidates could run.

Sports no longer a toy department

For years the sports writers room in our daily newspapers was laughingly referred to as the toy department.

Writers and editors of the other departments used to envy the sports writers and for a good reason. The sports writers never had to cover murders, big fires, and all sorts of crime and unpleasant news.

Meanwhile, the sports fellows spent their time in the press box at the ball parks, or along the boards at the hockey games, or in the best seats at the major fights. And some of them specialized in golf. Day after day they were accused of playing games or enjoying themselves.

But times have changed. Now sports writing is placed on a higher level for the simple reason that sports contests have played an important role in dealing with the slumping economy. In fact it was the sports pages that buoyed the spirits of the needy in times of trouble because it gave them something pleasant to think about.

W.W. Edgar

This is not a new happening. Those of you who can remember, it was the Detroit Tigers who lifted the spirits of the entire state back in the early '30s. They won the pennant in 1934, their first in 25 years. The entire area went wild in their success. It mattered little that they lost to the Cardinals in the World Series. The economically downtrodden had something to talk about other than their own troubles.

It was the same in 1935 when Mickey Cochrane drove them to the pennant again and this time to victory over the National League rivals—the Chicago Cubs in the World Series.

The area went "crazy" with all sorts of parades, gatherings and celebrations of all kinds. In all of this the slumping economy was almost forgotten. Remember, those were the days when the banks had been closed, and workers were being paid in script. But the hardships were put on the back burner during all the celebration over the Tiger victory.

Now, we're going through another economic slump. The lines of the unemployed are the longest in history. Michigan has been declared a disaster area, and thousands are depending on the food stations for their meals.

Ordinarily, it would be a time of great worry with little to buoy their spirits. But in this picture has come sports again.

The Detroit Lions made it in to the pro football playoffs. It matters little how they got there. It was the means of helping to raise the spirits of the populace again.

Prior to that sports made a great contribution. The Tigers, despite their fourth place finish, attracted more than a million fans during the season. It was one of the best years in attendance. And over at Ann Arbor the Michigan football program drew more than 100,000 spectators for each home game on the schedule.

All of this was the therapy the folks needed to take their minds off the low status of the auto industry and the other slow downs that resulted in record ranks of the unemployed.

So, no longer should the sports writers rooms of the newspapers be referred to as the toy department.

The sports writers are helping to boost the very medicine that raises the spirits of those who still are looking for another Franklin Roosevelt to lift them out of the depression as he did away back in 1932.

Thanks given for coaches

To the editor:

I want to write this open letter of appreciation to coaches Gary Balconi, Bob Blohm, Ray Franzen, Fred Thomas, and Tom Williams for helping our young adults to acquire an appreciation for the merits of cooperative effort, the benefits of physical health and a competitive spirit, the development of diversified friendships, and the just plain old fun and hard work involved in athletics. It is a special time for all.

Views On Dental Health

Sherman H. Kane, D.D.S., P.C.

CALORIES AND CAVITIES

A recent study has shown that Americans are consuming just as much sugar today as they were 10 years ago, and even more corn sweeteners, a common ingredient of packaged foods.

In fact, each year Americans consume the average person's weight in table sugars and corn sweeteners, about 129 pounds worth. These are called "empty calories" because they contain essentially no nutrients.

What is all this sugar doing to their dental health? The same thing it did to the Dutch 300 years ago. Many of the paintings of Dutch painter Rembrandt show people with decayed or missing teeth, or no teeth at all. This was in the 17th century when the Dutch were bringing back large quantities of sugar from the New World. By 1661 Amsterdam had 50 sugar refineries and had become the "carbohydrate capital" of Europe. Before then, cavities and missing teeth were much less common and so was the use of sugar.

Good dental care today, with regular checkups, can help prevent loss of teeth. It also calls for moderation in sugar intake to help keep cavities to a minimum.

Wayne County will pay Nystrom's fees — Lucas

By Mary Klemic
staff writer

Wayne County Executive William Lucas announced Friday that he will use county funds to pay $269,000 in fees to attorney Dennis Nystrom, who handled a lawsuit that Lucas lost against the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

The lawsuit determined whether the Wayne County Sheriff or the Board of Commissioners has authority to set staffing levels in the sheriff's office.

The county executive said he would pay the fees — at the same time withdrawing the case from the state Court of Appeals — because the money is "justifiably due and owing for services rendered," according to Bill Johnson, Lucas' press secretary.

"Mr. Lucas wanted to be right up front with it," Johnson said. "There is the possibility that Mr. Nystrom could be a part of the administration. Mr. Lucas did not want to have any innudoes that there were underhanded deals being made."

The $269,000 would come out of a legal fund, according to Johnson.

LUCAS, IN his last week as sheriff,

Dennis Nystrom
top job offered

had offered to drop his appeal if the board of commissioners would pay Nystrom's legal fees. He made the offer in a Dec. 29 letter to then-board chairman Samuel Turner, D-Detroit. Turner returned the letter, saying the board was in a transition process.

"Mr. Lucas thinks it's an appropriate time to deal with the situation and get it out of the way," Johnson said Friday. He said the board does not have to act on the matter.

Johnson said Nystrom has been asked to be Lucas' chief of staff, but has not made a final decision.

A partner in a Southfield law firm, Nystrom was first the attorney for the sheriff's deputies union. He also became attorney for both Lucas and the union in a series of lengthy cases against the Board of Commissioners involving the layoff of 250 deputies.

The Birmingham resident was one of Lucas' chief campaign advisors and chief of the transition team members.

LUCAS WAS sheriff when the lawsuit began. He had argued that the sheriff, not the county board, has authority to decide the appropriate staffing level for the sheriff's department.

The county board had ordered layoffs, but Lucas ordered deputies to remain on the job and sought to recover back pay for them. A circuit judge ruled against him.

Johnson said Friday the lawsuit would be withdrawn "with prejudice."

"Nystrom stated the suit has merit, but the circumstances have changed dramatically," he said. "Lucas is now county executive, there is a new sheriff in charge, there may be some kind of road patrol reinstated — so many factors have changed in the scenario."

It was not immediately clear what authority Lucas has to use a legal fund not controlled by the Board of Commissioners.

THE REORGANIZATION plan which Lucas submitted to the county board calls for "all county attorneys (to) be consolidated in the office of corporation counsel (reporting to the executive) except attorneys in the office of the prosecuting attorney."

The plan also recommends that "the county should use the services of private law firms to supplement county legal activities in certain areas such as:

negligence and malpractice cases, worker's compensation, labor contract negotiations, labor trial work and cases involving compulsory arbitration."

spoke of the will of Topenabee, and once again the wisdom and the will of Topenabee prevailed.

So it came to pass that Telonga became chief of the Potawatomi of Tonquish Plains and the valley of the Rouge.

Next time we meet I will take you to the ceremony under the pines on the sacred mound at Plymouth, and I will tell you of the happiness and of the sorrow Telonga brought to Toga's tribe.

Gifts to group home from mystery Santa

Although the chimney wasn't jarred, there was evidence that Santa Claus paid a Christmas visit to a Plymouth Township group home.

A bag full of gifts was dropped off on the porch of the Beck Road group home for mentally retarded children, according to Barron Eskra, a child-care worker at the home.

A note on the bag read simply, "From your Neighborhood Santa," Eskra said.

Gift wrapped and placed in the bag were new and used toys for the six teenage residents of the home.

"Last year nobody did anything like that. We're definitely putting all the toys to use," said Eskra, who has worked at the home for 13 months.

ESKRA FOUND the plastic shopping bag about 12:30 a.m. Christmas Day.

"I was working 'til midnight. I heard a noise outside and went out and found the bag," he said.

"I was really surprised. Usually the neighbors don't have anything to do with a group home," he said.

Some of the Beck Road neighbors who weren't pleased with living near a group home have been invited in, he said.

"We brought some of the neighbors in and showed them how we do everything and introduced them to the kids — and they were really impressed," he said.

"I don't have any idea at all who did it."

Eskra brought the gifts inside and put them under the Christmas tree.

"WE JUST got up in the morning and had all the kids open them. They were already having a nice Christmas, but it was even nicer to have them wake up and see more gifts under the tree," he said.

Although he doesn't know who is responsible for the gifts, Eskra said he is trying to figure out a way to say thank you.

"I wanted to take out an ad in the newspaper and say thank you to whoever did this for us, but I'm not sure they'll see it," he said.

This is the third Christmas the home has been in operation. It opened Nov. 22, 1980 and is part of the Northville Residential Training Center's (NRTC) community-placement program.

Under the program, NRTC patients are placed in a home rather than being institutionalized.

The people placed in the community continue to receive supervision and professional care, but in a more normal home-like setting.

IRRESISTIBLE SWEETS FOR A DESSERT TABLE

Although Americans are eating lighter main-meals, dessert carts are featured in increasing numbers of fine restaurants. Sweet tables appear at large catered parties as well as small home wedding receptions. Maida Heatter, the cookbook author who has been called the high priestess of desserts says, "The whole country has gone crazy about sweets."

So it is no wonder that dessert parties are becoming a popular way to entertain at home. Some people invite their guests for dessert at 9 p.m. and suggest they eat lightly at dinner. Others find this an ideal way to end the evening after a concert or play.

Many desserts can be made ahead or take only a few minutes of last-minute preparation, so this is the kind of party you can enjoy with your guests, rather than being stuck in the kitchen.

You can combine homemade treats with food purchased ready-to-serve, like beautiful fresh fruit to arrange in a basket and the best quality ice cream, to serve with your own special topping. Cut down even more on cooking time with convenience foods that you turn into your own fabulous desserts.

The most impressive dessert table appeals to the eye as well as the taste buds. Since guests may want to sample all the choices, you will want to plan for variety in flavors and textures.

A homemade pie will impress more people than a tray of the fanciest French pastries. When guests compliment you on the flaky, tender crust, you don't need to reveal that you took advantage of the new pre-rolled, refrigerated pie crusts that are all ready to use and bake up just like the best homemade crust. One beauty of a two-crust pie for fall, Cranberry Apple Pie, features new crop apples and whole fresh cranberries. Another choice might be a classic one-crust Black Bottom Pie which combines a rich baked chocolate layer with a light rum custard layer.

A cake roll is another impressive dessert, and German Chocolate Cake Roll is surprisingly easy to make. The time-saving secret here is that recipe directions show how to turn a pudding-included German chocolate cake mix into a make-ahead cake roll, while the filling is a new ready-to-spread frosting which looks and tastes like the traditional homemade coconut pecan frosting. The German Chocolate Cake Roll is frosted with whipped cream before serving and garnished with mandarin orange pieces dipped in chocolate.

Another cake dessert which would be an attractive addition to your table is Rum Raisin Oatmeal Torte. Oats and brown sugar cake mix is the base, and coconut almond frosting combined with cream cheese, rum and raisins makes the rich filling.

When your guests try Praline Bananas Royale, they'll be reminded of New Orleans-style Bananas Foster. Form ice cream balls ahead of time and store them in your freezer in a pretty glass serving bowl covered with plastic wrap. The sauce takes just minutes to make by heating a can of coconut pecan or coconut almond frosting, which you spice with a little cinnamon. Add banana pieces to the hot sauce and keep warm in a chafing dish or some other heat serving dish. Just before serving, pour rum around the edge of the warm sauce, light it and spoon it flaming over ice cream.

A dessert table which has eye-appeal as well as taste-appeal includes Cranberry Apple Pie, an edible centerpiece of fresh fruit, Praline Bananas Foster to serve flaming over ice cream and German Chocolate Cake Roll.

In large bowl, beat eggs on highest speed until thick and lemon colored, about 5 minutes; stir in water. Gradually blend in cake mix at low speed until moistened; beat 2 minutes at highest speed. Pour batter into prepared pan.

Bake at 350°F. for 17 to 27 minutes or until cake springs back when touched lightly in center. DO NOT OVERBAKE. Remove cake from oven and immediately invert onto towel. Remove pan and paper. Drop filling by tablespoons over hot cake; spread evenly to within 1/2 inch of edges. Starting from shorter end, roll up hot cake. Cake may split on first roll; continue rolling. (See diagram below.) DO NOT ROLL TOWEL IN CAKE. Keep towel wrapped around cake until it is cool.**

In small bowl, fold powdered sugar and vanilla into whipped cream. Spread about 2 1/2 cups over cooled cake. Pipe or dollop remaining whipped cream down center of cake. If desired, garnish with mandarin oranges.*** Store in refrigerator. 12 servings.

TIPS: *For best results, use terry cloth towel.

**Cooled cake may be stored frozen in foil up to 3 weeks. Let stand at room temperature for 2 to 3 hours to thaw. Frost as directed.

***Dip drained mandarin oranges in 1/2 square melted unsweetened chocolate. Place on cooling rack until chocolate is firm.

At the time the first chickens were being domesticated in India about 2,000 B.C., rice had already been cultivated for 2,000 or more years. Chicken and rice paired up early in their development and have been going together ever since. Here, in a modern version called Chicken and Rice Oriental, a superbly sauced boned chicken breast is served with fluffy rice.

Versatile rice is ideal for today's smaller families

As families get smaller, cooking for reduced-size households can be difficult. Changing the shopping habits of a lifetime is easier said than done. For example, a bag of onions or just four? A pint rather than half-gallon of ice cream? A whole chicken, or just the right number of pieces? How much food is wasted?

Fortunately, some foods — like rice — adapt readily to any situation. Rice keeps almost indefinitely on the shelf in a tightly covered container. So it doesn't really matter how large a package is purchased. Rice can be measured and just the exact amount cooked for the meal. But there is another advantage — cooked rice can be kept in the refrigerator for a week. Cook more than needed for one meal; then just scoop and steam enough for the next meal. This saves time, too.

Another economical suggestion: Look for meats and seafoods that are a single serving, then buy the number needed for the meal. No waste. No boring leftovers. Two recipes follow that illustrate perfect meals for two. Chicken breast halves and salmon steaks are deliciously sauced and served over rice for very impressive meals.

CHICKEN AND RICE WITH SAUCE ORIENTAL
2 chicken breast halves, skinned and boned
1 egg, beaten
3 tsp fine dry bread crumbs
1/2 tsp salt
1/16 tsp ground black pepper
1 tsp vegetable oil
1/2 cup chicken broth, divided
1/4 cup plum jelly
1 tsp vinegar
1 tsp soy sauce
1/4 tsp Chinese 5 Spices Powder*
1/16 tsp Tabasco pepper sauce
1 tsp cornstarch
1 cup hot cooked rice

Place fillets in an 8x8-inch baking dish. Combine remaining ingredients except rice. Pour over salmon. Cover and bake at 375° for 15 to 20 minutes, or until salmon flakes easily with a fork. Serve salmon and sauce over beds of fluffy rice. Garnish with lemon slices and parsley, if desired. Makes 2 servings.

Salmon and Rice Pacifico
2 salmon fillets (about 6 oz. each)
2 tsp butter or margarine, melted
1 1/2 tsp lemon juice
1 tsp packed brown sugar
1/4 tsp minced garlic
1/4 tsp paprika
1 cup hot cooked rice

Each serving provides 447 calories. Not recommended for diabetics.

Delicious meals use frozen foods

Consumer demand for simple ways to prepare nutritious food increases as available time for cooking decreases. Frozen foods are perfect for such needs. They greatly simplify meal preparation and can be used right from the package or as ingredients in recipes.

For delicious meals in little time — and with even less work — you might like to try the following:

• In medium saucepan, combine one (1 pound) package thawed sliced beef and gravy with 1/4 cup each: frozen sliced carrots, cut green beans, chopped, green pepper, whole pearl onions and fresh cherry tomatoes. Add 1/4 tsp. thyme and 1/4 tsp. garlic powder. Cook 10 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Meanwhile, bake a package of frozen patty shells according to package directions. Use beef and vegetable mixture to fill patty shells. Complete this bill of fare for two with a fresh salad and, for dessert, cheese cake topped with fruit.

• Heat one (8 1/2 ounce) package frozen chili con carne with beans according to package directions. Cook four frankfurters. Place cooked frankfurters in buns. Spoon chili con carne with beans over each. Top with grated cheddar cheese and onion for four servings. Marinated frozen vegetables and cup cake top off the meal.

• Heat one (12 ounce) package frozen chicken patties according to package directions. Place each heated chicken patty in a bun with lettuce, tomato and mayonnaise. Serve with ratatouille. Add a pound cake to end this hearty meal for four.

• Heat one (22 ounce) package frozen fried chicken according to package

Have an elegant party

If Christmas expenses have left your wallet slightly thinner, don't think you have to forego the pleasures of occasionally entertaining. Using some of the many good things growing in Michigan, you can entertain elegantly and inexpensively.

Hearty soup, of course, is an appropriate main dish, needing only a good crusty bread, salad and a simple dessert to complete the meal.

Another time, invite guests to a fondue party. Melt cheese with wine and seasonings, offer chunks of French bread for dunking. A relish tray replaces the salad course, and a sweet fondue (chocolate) into which you

Exercise, satisfaction gained by feeding ducks

By Elinor Graham
staff writer

The ducks are waiting for him every morning. They recognize his bike coming down the road through Hines Park. And when he pedals over the frozen grass and parks the bike beside Newburgh Lake, there is great excitement.

Black ducks, white ducks and mallards rush to the shore. Most swim as fast as they can. The big whites waddle across a sandbar before taking to the water. Mallards on the outer edges of the flock decide they can make better time by flying part of the distance.

David McCubbery, 81, grins at the lot of them and starts tossing out chunks of bread.

"Aren't they something? I get such a kick out of them," he smiles. As one of the big whites runs through the shallows, he adds, "I like that waddle."

"YOU SHOULD have seen them a few days ago when there was ice along the shore. They were slipping and sliding backwards, trying to get at the bread. When I'm alone, they come up and eat right out of my hand."

An extra large chunk of bread caused a big commotion.

"It's like a football game," said McCubbery. "One gets the ball and they all land on him."

Feeding the ducks in Newburgh Lake is one of the high points of McCubbery's morning bike ride. He usually pedals 10 to 15 miles on his daily excursions.

"My sons gave me my Raleigh three-speed on my 70th birthday and I've logged 14,000 miles," he said. "I go wherever my fancy takes me. Some times I go to Northville."

He does his bike-riding in the morning while his wife, Ann, is busy with her household activities.

"I ride in the morning, then we both walk uptown in the afternoon. That's our modus operandi," said the octogenarian.

He breaks up the slices of bread in bite-size pieces before he leaves home. "I go to Farmer Jacks and get those 39-cent loaves for them. I give them about half a loaf at each feeding."

BORN NEAR Glasgow, Scotland, McCubbery is a trim and fit 81-year-old. His ruddy complexion reflects his good health and his Scottish heritage. Ann and David McCubbery lived in the same house on the east side of Detroit for 50 years.

"Before we moved to Plymouth in May, I used to ride down to East Jefferson and out along Lakeshore drive beside the lake (St. Clair). That was a beautiful ride — sometimes I'd go 17 miles."

"Then I got mugged, at noon, right in my own driveway. My son, David, who lived out here, said we had better move and found the apartment for us in Plymouth."

He said they like the small-town atmosphere. He has particularly enjoyed the mild and snowless early winter, that permits him to continue his morning excursions to feed the ducks.

"It's like a football game. One gets the ball, and they all land on him," says David McCubbery, describing the ducks he feeds daily.

McCubbery opens a loaf of bread to toss food to his flock.

David McCubbery bikes under the I-275 overpass along Edward Hines Drive en route to his mission of feeding the ducks at Newburgh Lake. The ducks have become so used to McCubbery's daily morning feeding of bread that they swim up to him as soon as they see the bicycle arriving. McCubbery, 82, bikes daily for exercise as well as for the enjoyment the birds give him.

Glenn Merillat, creative services director for Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, will be honored for designing the Network/GAIN logo.

Merillat to be feted for Network logo design

The keynote speaker at Thursday's meeting of the Plymouth Community Y Network group will be Rick Leffke.

A Dale Carnegie trainer and consultant, Leffke's topic will be "Positive Attitudes for the New Year." The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the loft of Station 885, south of the railroad tracks on Starkweather Street, Plymouth.

Members also will honor Glenn Merillat, creative services director for the Observer and Eccentric Newspapers and designer of the Y Network logo.

When the group was organized more than a year ago, it was the first male-female network to be established. Leslie Frederick, who had been instrumental in setting up networking groups for women, helped plan the Plymouth Y network.

"Women's networks are springing up in metropolitan areas, but this one is unusual," said Frederick. Attendance at the meetings averages 20 to 30 people. "Although we have had as many as 50," said Frederick. "Many of those who attend are considering career changes and some are unemployed. We try to find topics of interest to both sexes."

The January meeting will be the first in Station 885. For the first year, they met at Hillside Inn.

Those attending for the first time pay a $2.50 registration fee, plus $1. The latter covers the trays of snacks provided at each table. An annual membership fee of $22 includes membership in the Plymouth Family Y.

Networking provides an opportunity for men and women to exchange resources and experiences.

For more information or to make a reservation for the Thursday meeting, call the Y, 453-2904.

As a homeowner you may qualify for a MICHIGAN NATIONAL BANK EQUI-LOAN

WHAT IS AN EQUI-LOAN?

An Equi-Loan is a second mortgage secured by the equity in your home. By using your home equity, you can borrow $3,000 or more with liberal repayment terms at simple interest rates. * An Equi-Loan is not a remortgage, but a second mortgage; it will therefore not alter your present mortgage or its rate.

The amount of equity in your home, by the way, is the difference between its appraised value and your first mortgage (if any). This equity provides the basis for borrowing a large amount of money at established simple interest rates with the maximum amount of the loan being determined by the size of your equity.

WITH A SIMPLE INTEREST EQUI-LOAN YOU HAVE THE OPTION OF SIGNIFICANTLY REDUCING THE AMOUNT OF INTEREST YOU PAY.

The earlier you pay back a simple interest loan, the less you'll pay in interest charges. So every time you make an early payment, or an additional payment, you are actually reducing the amount of interest you pay for your loan.

HERE'S AN EXAMPLE OF THE AMOUNT YOU CAN EXPECT TO BORROW.

Each transaction is different and subject to credit approval; however, we are flexible in our lending policy. In general, you can expect that the total of your first and second mortgage will amount to 70% of our valuation of your home. For Example:

Appraised Valuation $50,000
70%
Total Loan Value $35,000
1st Mortgage Bal. $25,000
Available for:
2nd Mortgage $10,000

HERE'S HOW TO APPLY FOR AN EQUI-LOAN.

The procedure is much the same as it is for a personal loan. Simply take this ad to the installment loan department at Michigan National Bank West Metro. Or you can phone us at 421-4990 and discuss your plans with a trained loan executive. An appointment can be made if you like.

Close, but not quite Salem's late rally falls short — again

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

A 20-point blowout and a one-point, last-second victory have one very important thing in common in the world of basketball: both are registered under the 'Win' column.

For both Plymouth Salem and Livonia Stevenson, foes in a Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) battle at Salem Friday, that is important to remember. Salem could have been blown out in the fourth quarter. But the Rocks fought back and just missed in their desperate, last-ditch effort to win it.

That's why Stevenson coach George Van Wagoner is happier than Salem's Fred Thomann. Because it was Van Wagoner's Spartans that emerged with a 49-48 victory, a triumph that kept their WLAA Lakes Division record perfect at 4-0 while Salem dipped to 2-1 in the league.

And, while Thomann was proud of his team's splendid fourth-quarter effort, it's wins that count, and Stevenson claimed this one.

OR, AS VAN WAGONER so accurately put it: "We won — that's what counts."

The Spartans very nearly blew it, however. A fine third quarter, sparked by Pete Rose's 11 points, pushed Stevenson to a 44-34 advantage going into the final quarter. And, just as important, the pace of the game had increased, which was to the Spartans' benefit.

But in the final quarter, Salem asserted itself and Stevenson began to waver. The Spartans were saddled with six turnovers and the Rocks, led by Glenn Medalle's eight-point final-quarter assault, forged to within one on three occasions.

The last came with just six seconds left. Stevenson inbounded the ball immediately to Gary Mexicotte, but with two seconds on the clock Salem's Jeff Arnold knocked the ball loose and put up an off-balance shot from behind the basket. The ball hit the edge of the backboard and fell off the front of the rim at the buzzer.

IN THE FINAL accounting, it was Stevenson's free-throw shooting that did it.

with Tom Domako connecting in the clutch. Twice in the final 1:17 Domako stepped to the line in a one-and-one situation with his team a point ahead. And twice, the 5-foot-7 junior forward sank both ends.

For the game, Stevenson hit a sterling 23-of-27 free throws (85 percent) to six of 10 for Salem (60 percent).

It was the second straight loss for the Rocks despite valiant fourth-quarter comebacks (they lost to Ypsilanti Tuesday, 49-47). "We got behind early in both games and came back in both games," Thomann assessed.

"Something's got to get a team's attention. Sometimes it's a loss, sometimes it's a great play. I think this game got (the Rocks') attention. I definitely see progress with our team. They are combative, they accept the challenge and they battle to the end."

VAN WAGONER knew the Salem strategy, but that didn't make it easy to overcome. "We know what they want to do —

Chiefs improve record to 2-4

Defense keys Canton victory

It's a new year, but Plymouth Canton's basketball team is picking up the season the way it left it in 1982.

The only difference is a major one — this year, the Chiefs are making that old formula of tough, hard-working defense pay off in victories.

At least that's coach Dave Van Wagoner's plan, as it has been all season. It looked good Friday, as Canton blitzed Livonia Bentley, 52-36, in a non-league encounter at Bentley.

Van Wagoner spoke defensively of his team after the victory. In fact, defense was all he spoke about.

"Our full-court man-to-man defense did it for us," the Canton coach said. "We played just tremendous defense. The kids like to play defense. They're real hungry to win and they know if they play defense they will."

basketball

CANTON TOOK control over the much bigger Bulldogs from the opening tip and, by the time the final quarter rolled around, had the game in hand. A seven-point Chief edge grew to 13 (36-23) after three quarters and Bentley never got closer than 10 after that.

Offensively, Ron Rienas topped Canton with 15 points. Mike Jennings and Mark Bennett added eight apiece and Gary Thomas had six. Jim Thorderson netted 11 to lead Bentley.

Defensively, Pat Murphy was superb for the Chiefs as he bulled his way inside the taller Bentley players to haul in 14 rebounds. For the game, Canton dominated the boards, 37-19.

About the only negative aspect of the contest for Canton was that, despite both teams membership in the Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA), this game was non-league. The two teams will meet again Feb. 11 at Canton, and that one will count in the WLAA standings.

Still, Van Wagoner and his Chiefs will take the victory, which improved their record to 2-4. Bentley fell to 3-3.

Ocelots falter, 83-81

Schoolcraft College suffered only its second men's basketball loss of the year Wednesday at the hands of Henry Ford Community College, 83-81.

The Ocelots almost erased an 18-point deficit in the second half with a late charge, pulling to within one point with two minutes to go, but could not go ahead after turning the ball over twice.

The loss dropped Schoolcraft to 13-2 overall. Henry Ford, meanwhile, increased its record to 10-4.

Carlos Briggs, the nation's leading scorer, pumped in 42 points and grabbed eight rebounds in a losing cause. Bill Keyes contributed 15 points and center Scott Conrad added 14 points and nine rebounds.

Schoolcraft coach Rocky Watkins said Conrad, a Livonia Churchill graduate, is "starting to play real well."

"We had Tom Niergarth, George Merriweather (16 points) and Conrad were all in foul trouble in the first half and we were down by as many as 18 points then," said Watkins. "And then we almost caught them."

HENRY FORD CC 77
SCHOOLCRAFT WOMEN 45

Livonia Franklin grad Julie Wilga tallied 17 points as Henry Ford routed

the Schoolcraft women's team, which dipped to 3-4 overall.

Henry Ford jumped out to a 39-18 halftime advantage and never looked back.

Cathi Hengy and Deborah Johnson scored 16 and 10, respectively, pacing the losers. Center Chery Sobkow grabbed 16 rebounds.

On Monday, Schoolcraft buried Marygrove, 81-24, as Hengy led the way with 28 points and 11 rebounds. Sobkow added 21 points and 20 boards. Gina Johnson also chipped in with 10 points.

WOMEN'S TRYOUTS

Schoolcraft coach Ed Kavanaugh announced that tryouts for next year's women's basketball team will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 23 at the main gym.

All high school seniors or college students who haven't used up their eligibility are invited to the practice.

For more information, call the Athletic Department at 591-6400.

Chief tankers take a tumble

First-place finishes alone do not decide winners of swim meets.

Ask Plymouth Canton coach Sam Veechy. His Chief tankers won five of 11 events Thursday and even captured eight seconds. But it wasn't quite enough — North Farmington edged Canton, 64-63, at Canton.

Actually, the deciding point was scored in a battle for third place in the final event, the 400-yard freestyle relay. The Chiefs needed to take a first and third in the event. They accomplished the former, as Glenn Plagens, Joe McBratnie, Bob Lewelling and John Simone teamed for the win (3:40.93).

However, North took the next two spots and, with them, the victory.

SIMONE TURNED in a fine performance for Canton, winning a pair of individual events: the 200 free (1:55.92) and the 100 breaststroke (1:05.27).

Other Canton winners were freshman Andy Flower in the diving (1:59.80 points) and Plagens in the 100 free (54.39).

McBratnie took a pair of seconds for the Chiefs, in the 200 individual medley (2:18.67) and 500 free (5:32.4). Others to take seconds were Plagens in the 50 free (24.39), Craig Vanderburg in the diving (1:49.65 points), Matt Krawzak in the 100 butterfly (1:04.8), Jim Castler in the 100 free (55.58) and Bob Lewelling in the 100 backstroke (1:05.71).

All clinics will run from 7:30-9:30 p.m. at Maybury State Park under the tutelage of certified instructors. If interested, reserve a spot at least two days prior to each clinic by calling the Parks and Recreation department between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. at 397-1000.

GROUNDHOGS CLASSIC
Preparations for the fourth annual Groundhogs' Day Classic are already underway.

And what is the Groundhogs' Day Classic? It's a slo-pitch softball tournament, and it's scheduled for Jan. 29 at fields No. 1 and 2 at Griffin Park.

That's right — softball in the middle of winter. The only thing that will cancel this tournament is "good weather," according to tournament director Bob Dates of the Canton Parks and Recreation Registration fee is $30, with each team limited to 18 players.

To register or for more information, call the Canton Parks and Recreation department at 397-1000.

CANTON SOCCER
Registration for Canton's soccer program is slated for three different dates: Jan. 15 and Jan. 22, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., and Feb. 12, from 10 a.m. until noon.

Cost is $12 for youngsters under eight years and $15 for all others. Birth certificates are required at registration.

For more information, call Sandy Olson at 453-7926.

FLOOR HOCKEY
A series of youth floor hockey clinics will start the week of Jan. 24 and will be followed by a four-week league season, starting Feb. 12.

Sponsored by Canton's Parks and Recreation department in cooperation with the Canton-Extension Y.M.C.A., the program is targeted for first through sixth graders — both boys and girls. The clinics will be held at Eriksson Elementary on Mondays, Hulsing Elementary on Tuesdays and at Eriksson on Wednesdays.

There will be two sessions at each school, the first from 4:45-6 p.m. and the second from 6:30-8 p.m. League games will be played on Saturday mornings, with all kids receiving a t-shirt.

Registration starts Jan. 3 at the Canton Parks and Recreation building, 1150 S. Canton Center. Cost is $15 per child. For more information, call the Parks and Recreation department at 397-1000.

MEN'S NIGHT

ATHLETES NEEDED
The Tri-City Seals, a cerebral palsy sports team, is seeking Canton athletes to join its program.

Interested persons must be at least 10 years old and have CP or a related neuromuscular disease. Athletes will be classified in one of eight categories according to ability.

The Tri-City Seals meet from 10 a.m. until noon Saturdays at the Bailey Parks and Recreation Center in Westland. Athletes are responsible for their own transportation.

Interested individuals should contact the Canton Parks and Recreation department at 397-1000.

SNOWMOBILE FUND-RAISER
Ever think about taking a scenic five-day ride through Michigan's Lower Peninsula — on a snowmobile?

That's what is set for Feb. 7-12, and it's all for a good cause, to support the Michigan Special Olympics.

The Vic Wertz Distributing Co. will sponsor the second annual event, and former American League baseball player Wertz will make the 625-mile trip. Last year, the benefit collected $27,000 to support the Special Olympics and, according to Wertz Distributors general manager Mitch Cohoon, that total should be surpassed "by $10,000 or more."

The caravan ride begins at the Wertz distributorship in Mt. Clemens on Monday, Feb. 7, and will arrive in Mackinaw City Saturday, Feb. 12. Along the route, the caravan will make overnight stops in Bay City, Grayling, Sugar Loaf Mountain (site of the Special Olympic Winter Games), Gaylord and Alpena.

Riders, in cooperation with the Michigan Lions Club, are collecting funds. "Anyone wishing to make a contribution should send a check to Vic Wertz — Special Olympics, PO Box 804, Mt. Clemens 48043. Attention: Kent Kukulik."

STRENGTH-TRAINING CLINIC
Gene Baker, coach for one of the National Sports Festival weightlifting teams last summer, will be the featured speaker at a strength-training clinic Saturday, Jan. 22 at Detroit Country Day School, located at 13 Mile and Lahser in Birmingham.

The clinic, sponsored by the American Weightlifting Coaches Association, is free and open to anyone interested in weight training. Baker's talk will center on Olympic-style lifting and how to integrate it into a strength-training program.

Baker will also talk about the Junior Olympic weightlifting program, sponsored by the AAU. The program will feature demonstrations and a question-and-answer period.

The clinic runs 1-3 p.m. For further information, contact Baker at 981-0784.

PITCHER SOUGHT
Girl softball players who fancy themselves as more than capable pitchers might be interested in trying out for the "Finian Insurance" Women's Softball Club. The team, comprised of collegiate and ASA-honored players, is looking for good fastpitch pitchers who would like to play on a team that travels through into southern Michigan and into Indiana.

If you think you have the qualifications, call Mr. McDowell at 455-3377.

CC rips Gallagher

Detroit Catholic Central outscored Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher 29-18 in the middle two quarters to register its sixth-straight win, 51-45, Friday in Harper Woods.

Center Mike Maiese led the way with 17 points and nine rebounds. Stan Heath and Tom Malone added 12 each. Malone also grabbed nine rebounds.

Tom Aubrey paced Gallagher (5-2) with 14 points.

CC is 2-0 in Central Division play while Gallagher slipped to 1-1.

keep it close, keep it low-scoring. They stopped our offense and played tough defense.

"Our mistake was we were playing their game, a slower pace."

Slowing the game down certainly hurt the Spartans in the last quarter. They failed to score a basket, with all five of their points coming at the free throw line.

Domako turned in a first-rate performance, pouring in 20 points and grabbing 12 rebounds for Stevenson (6-1 overall). Rose finished with 15 points and three steals and Mexico had eight points and six assists.

Medalle topped Salem (4-2) with 12 points. Rick Berberet had nine and Dave Houle eight.

Canton spikes clip Central

Plymouth Canton opened its volleyball season in grand style Wednesday under new coach Richard Solari, riddling Western Lakes Activities Association (WLA) foe Walled Lake Central, 15-3, 15-7, at Canton.

The Chiefs were aided in the opening game of the match by Kim Braun's eight points serving Braun, a junior, is the only non-senior among the Canton starters. She served 13 points in the match.

Senior Kris Harrison picked up where Braun left off by serving eight points in the second game and finishing with 10 for the match.

The Chiefs, who finished second in the Western Six League last year, travel to play WLA opponent Northville Monday.

Benefit events thrive despite economy

With signs that the economy is improving, bowling proprietors are confident that the annual charities tournament sponsored across the state will again pass the $100,000 mark.

The big event, now the biggest charity event of the season, will open in all member houses of the Bowling Proprietors of Michigan on Jan. 24. The Detroit-area roll-offs will be held in April with the state finals at the Mason Lanes in Mason, Mich. on June 5.

More than $1 million has been raised in this event over the years, and more than a dozen organizations have been the recipients of the bowlers' contributions.

DON PARKS learned the heartbreaks of bowling under pressure while competing in the Tri-City men's league at Westland Bowl.

With 11 strikes on the board and needing only one more to gain the American Bowling Congress (ABC) award, he missed the head pin and had to be content with a 297 after the No. 1, 2 and 4 pins refused to fall.

THE HIGH scoring is continuing at Wonderland Lanes, where five members of the classic topped the 700 mark last Tuesday.

Tony Stupcak showed the way with a 758 series. Then in order came Greg Micora with a 276 in 742, Jim Crislin with a 290 in 735, Don Sarah with 709 and Tom Baranski with 705.

In the ladies' competition, Barbara Smith was high with a 604.

ONE OTHER barrier-breaking count was rolled during the week in the area when Ron Gilbert posted a 740 in a Ford Motor league at Woodland Lanes.

In the Catholic Central league at Woodland, 17-year-old David Wisniewski rolled a 264 game in a in the pocket by W.W. Edgar 661 series. And Marilyn Gould had a 257 high count in the ladies' league.

RICHARD HUGHES came within four pins of earning membership in the 700 club at Merri-Bowl. Competing in the senior house league, he linked games of 244, 216 and 239 for 699. His nearest rival was E.J. Archer with 678.
