The Canton Connection

CALL HIM the jigsaw swami. Canton's Jeffrey Caunt of Mott Road will be teaming up in search of the perfect fit at the second annual National Jigsaw Puzzle Championships in Kansas City, Mo., August 20.

With teammate Martha Brown of Grosse Pointe Woods, Caunt will join up to 1,000 puzzlers from across the United States vying for prizes of $1,000, $750 and $500. Champions will be crowned in singles and doubles.

EVER EYE a 70-foot long ice cream sundae? Such a concoction was seen, but not for long, recently during a Plymouth Christian Academy contest.

The Canton school's senior class and its teachers tied in the race to the final spoonful, all gulpers at the Griffith Park event sporting expanded stomachs.

NO NEED to pity Geri Guzik of Canton. The recent graduate of Livonia's Madonna College is touring Europe this summer. With a group of students and Sister Martin Ann Stamm, Guzik is visiting England, France, Germany, Austria, Italy and the Netherlands. Some of the sojourners are earning college credit.

PONDERING YOUR future careers serving the elderly will be the topic at a Madonna College open house at 7 p.m. August 1. Prospective students and interested citizens are welcome. For more information, call 591-5094.

CONFUSED ABOUT summer taxes? First of America Bank, Plymouth is collecting the dual tax for the school district. Canton Treasurer Maria Sterlini reports that many residents are making a wasted trip to town hall to fill the schools' till. Both the Main Street (south of Ann Arbor Trail) branch of First of America and the one on Ann Arbor Road near Haggerty will accept your payment.

THE SENIOR citizen softball team is a big hit this year, with 22 players on the roster. The Canton team recently trounced a team of seniors from Garden City.

HOW WOULD you like to have Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman field a few of your questions? You'll have your chance at the Canton Chamber of Commerce August 3 board meeting. Luncheon meetings begin at noon the first Wednesday of each month at the Roman Forum restaurant for reservations, call 453-4040.

PLANNING YOUR summer fun? You may want to book the Farmington Founders Festival, which kicks off Saturday. Visitors may tour and sample cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at the historic Governor Warner Mansion at 33805 Grand River from 7-9:30 p.m. Tickets for the reception are $12.50 per person or $20 per couple.

A parade is on tap for 10 a.m. Saturday, July 30, with fireworks at 10 p.m. that night.

For information on the week's picnics, concerts, fun runs, carnivals, pie-baking contests and ice cream socials, call the Farmington Chamber of Commerce at 474-3440.

ATTENTION WOMEN accountants — you may want to hear an expert address "Strategies for Success" at the American Society of Women Accountants dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. July 28 at Merricks, 27777 Franklin Road, Southfield.

Carol Corbett, founder and president of Creative Dynamics Inc., a national training and consulting organization in Birmingham will speak. For more information, call 833-0710.

Man charged in 2nd drunk driving

A man who recently pleaded guilty to negligent homicide in a Canton traffic death was arrested last week and charged with drunk driving.

A Wayne County Sheriff's deputy July 10 arrested Glenn Matney, 26, of Westland for drunk driving and driving with a suspended license.

Matney refused to take the breath test at the time of the arrest, which occurred on Haggerty near Michigan Avenue.

He posted $150 bond and was released. Arraignment is scheduled for Monday, Aug. 1, in 35th District Court.

EARLY LAST month Matney received five years' probation after pleading guilty to negligent homicide in connection with the Dec. 17 traffic death of Madonna Tharp, 34, of Canton.

Matney was intoxicated at the time of the crash, according to a police Breathalyzer test.

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Charles Kaufman sentenced Matney to 117 days in the Detroit House of Corrections on the negligent homicide charge. Because Matney had already served that number of days in jail awaiting trial, the time was applied against his sentence, and he was freed.

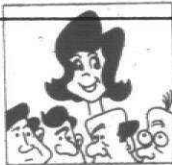

Originally, Canton police charged Matney with manslaughter with a motor vehicle, a felony which carries a maximum penalty of 15 years in prison. Negligent homicide is a high misdemeanor with a two-year maximum penalty.

According to Canton police, Matney struck a car in which Tharp was riding at the intersection of Cherry Hill and Sheldon. He then fled the scene and was arrested by Westland police.

Matney later failed to appear in district court for a preliminary examination, and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. Canton police arrested Matney in Ann Arbor last February when he got off a Greyhound bus arriving from Washington.

He remained in jail until his sentencing.

faces in the crowd

Dear Readers, Today marks the debut of "Face in the Crowd," the Canton Observer's new personality column.

Every two weeks, we'll be focusing on someone whose work, hobby or viewpoint makes them of interest to Cantonites.

Rik Gretzinger

We left it up to you to name our column, sponsoring a contest that drew tremendous response. You sent in so many quality suggestions it presented our staff with a harrowing job of judging.

As tough as it was to select just one, we did it. Rik Gretzinger, 20, emerged as the winner. Gretzinger, a 20-year-old Canton resident and an employee of the K mart Corp., soon will enjoy a complimentary dinner for two at Mr. Steak restaurant in Canton.

We hope you'll enjoy this addition to your community newspaper.

Joan Petroske makes it her business to tackle a host of health issues, from diabetes to the fearful aftermath of rape or venereal disease.

Petroske, 30, a soft-spoken, quietly confident nurse, is head of clinical services at Oakwood Hospital's ambulatory and emergency facility in Canton.

Before the Oakwood facility opened in October 1981, a citizens' advisory group recommended that community health programs be a high priority at the Canton center. Petroske constantly tunes her ear to local problems when planning educational sessions for local residents.

For example, when several rape victims were treated recently at the Oakwood center, Petroske decided it was time for some classes in basic self-defense.

"We've had several rape patients," Petroske said. "That is what brought it to our attention. We have had enough interest in just the employees here that I think we would get a good response to that class."

Streetlights out-for now

By M.B. Dillon Ward

• in Century Farms, 16 for and 48 against.

It looks as though Canton residents who've swarmed township hall demanding that street lights be installed in their subdivisions will be in the dark for many nights to come.

The Canton Township board voted unanimously Tuesday to shelve efforts to poll residents and to put in lights where desired by a majority.

The situation baffles township Clerk John Flodin, who brought the street-light issue before the board in response to numerous pleas he'd received for illuminated streets. Many Cantonites blame the number of break-ins in their neighborhoods on the fact that roads are relatively dark.

The board surveyed residents by mail and staged two public hearings on the matter. To its surprise, those who responded overwhelmingly opposed street lights in their subs. Only four of about 75 people present Tuesday said they desired electric lights. Under public hearing guidelines, homeowners who failed to respond waived their right to object.

Residents who want brighter streets aren't without a remedy, however. By law, the township will supply petitions for circulation regarding any issue when 10 or more people in an area so desire. The township takes action when a majority of residents express support.

THE ESTIMATED ANNUAL COST per homeowner for street lights is pegged at $44-$55, varying with the number of lots, curbs, ditches and other factors, Flodin said. For a pair of entrance way street lights, some Canton subdivisions are charged about $375 a year.

The township survey came up with these results:

- in Canton County Acres, 15 for street lights, 41 against;
- in Cherry Hill Oaks, 8 for, and 29 against;
- in Cherry Hill Orchards, 17 for and 88 against;
- in Cherry Hill Pines, 10 for, 21 against;
- in Cavalier Village North, 12 for and 39 against;
- in Cavalier Village South, 20 for and 20 against;
- in Cavalier Village West 5 for and 11 against, and Most residents failed to respond.

"We're willing to put the onus on the people who want it (lights)," Supervisor James Poole told residents Tuesday.

"You're organizing and showing up. I believe it's been clearly shown that those who've been calling aren't showing up."

Some people are under the misconception that there's less crime in lighted areas, he added.

Lt. Larry Stewart of the Canton Police Department researched the issue, however, and found some support for the view that street lights deter criminals.

Sex case sentence delayed

Sentencing for a Canton man convicted of criminal sexual conduct in the second degree has been rescheduled for Tuesday.

In a plea-bargaining agreement, Vern Francis Stitt, 33, of Pierce Court, recently pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of attempted criminal sexual conduct in the second degree.

Maximum penalty on that charge is 7½ years in prison. Sentencing was postponed from July 8.

Police said Stitt undressed in front of two neighbor girls and coerced them to touch him. Police earlier had charged Stitt with two counts of criminal sexual conduct in the second degree. The second count was dismissed in the plea-bargain agreement.

Both girls are now around 7 years old. The incidents, which took place in Stitt's apartment during 1981-82, recently came to light, police said.

Accident kills 1, injures 2

A Livonia woman was killed, and two others injured, in a three-car accident early Friday morning on Ann Arbor Road at the C&O Railroad overpass in Plymouth.

Nancy J. Mikkelsen, 21, of Woodring in Livonia was pronounced dead at the scene, according to Plymouth Traffic Officer Robert Henry.

Christine J. Rafe, 27, of Queensway in Canton Township was listed in critical condition Friday at the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor. She was flown to the U-M Hospital following emergency surgery at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia.

Timothy R. Thornton, 26, of Belleville was treated and released from Wayne County General Hospital Friday.

According to police, Rafe was traveling westbound on Ann Arbor Road at about 2:30 a.m. when her car crossed the center line of traffic and struck Mikkelsen's car head on.

THORNTON, ALSO heading eastbound, rear-ended Mikkelsen — sandwiching her, Henry said.

"There was no way he could avoid hitting her," he said.

"Several witnesses said Rafe didn't have her headlights on at the time. I've sent the headlights to the Michigan State Police crime lab to have them tested to see whether or not they were on," he said.

All three cars appear to have been traveling at posted speeds, Henry said. Although a ticket wasn't issued to Rafe, police said she will be charged at a later date.

Among the charges being considered by police is manslaughter, Henry said.

After the accident, the tow truck crew ran into some problems, he said.

While towing one of the cars from the scene, its gasoline tank fell to the ground and burst into flames, burning the car and towing equipment.

No one was injured by the fire, which firefighters were called to extinguish.

Instructor Joe Golden observes Robin Walbridge entering a program in the computer. The Plymouth-Canton community school district is offering a computer seminar as part of its summer youth employment program.

Computer-time High technology hits high school

Students taking advantage of the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools' summer program are becoming old friends with one of society's newest crutches—the computer.
 The district's Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) in conjunction with Texas Instruments Inc. offered students a seminar in computers last week.
 Participants were introduced to basic computer language. They also were given hands-on experience with the equipment.

 Teachers from the school district were especially enthused about the seminar, as it gave some of them their first chance to become familiar with computer technology.
 The seminar represents an important step forward for the school district. Purchasing computer hardware and software is an extremely costly proposition — and one that has caused the school board much concern.
 Board members differ on how important it is for students in the district to be given a chance to experiment and work with computers. They also disagree when it comes to deciding where funds for computers should be placed — at the high school, middle or elementary school level.

 For more information about the district's computer program, interested persons may contact Byron Richardson, regional program manager for the youth employment program, at 453-3106, ext. 298.

Dems for it, GOP against

House OKs secret transcript inquiry

Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes in the days before the Fourth of July recess.

HOUSE

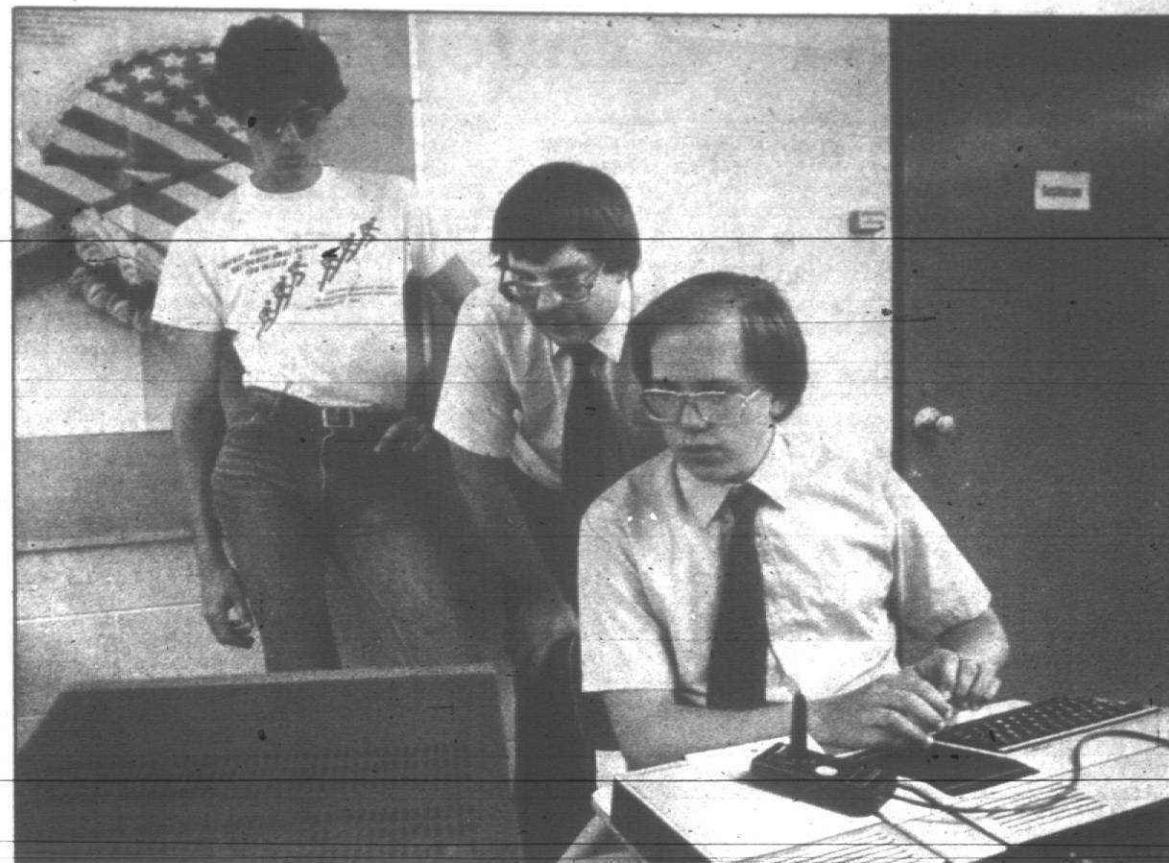

SECRECY: By a vote of 250-151, the House reaffirmed that it wants a secret investigation into the doctored committee transcripts by House employees.
 This was a defeat for Republicans, who wanted a public probe. The dispute concerns 1982 hearings into the Environmental Protection Agency and 1980 hearings into alleged manipulation of silver prices.
 Unidentified Democratic editors of the transcripts apparently changed the meaning of what GOP lawmakers said, often so as to make the Republicans sound ridiculous.
 The vote was the last major obstacle to launching a secret probe of the distortions by the Democratic-controlled House Ethics Committee.
 Had Republicans been victorious, they would have offered an amendment requiring the ethics panel to investigate publicly unless it approved secret sessions by a recorded vote.
 Supporter Gillis Long, D-La., said the Ethics Committee has "the tools with which to conduct an expeditious and judicious investigation."
 Opponent Judd Gregg, R-N.H., called the Democratic strategy a "very fast-track attempt to get this matter out of (the public eye)."

Members voting yes favored a secret Ethics Committee probe.
 Voting yes: Dennis Hertel, D-Detroit, William Ford, D-Taylor, and Sander Levin, D-Southfield.
 Voting no: Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth, and William Broomfield, R-Birmingham.
AIRPORT: The House rejected, 170-249, an amendment to limit the increase in passengers and flights at Washington National Airport.
 Located minutes from Capitol Hill, National is prized by most lawmakers for its convenience. However, many area residents and officials say the airport built nearly 40 years ago to handle prop planes is unsafe.
 This amendment sought to limit air traffic at National and shift some of its flights to Dulles and DOW (Baltimore-Washington International) airports. It was offered by HR 3329, an appropriations bill later sent to the Senate.

Supporter Don Pease, D-Ohio, said members of Congress appear "self-serving" when they block Federal Aviation Administration attempts to shift traffic away from National.
 Opponent Eldon Rudd, R-Ariz., said National "belongs to the people of this nation," and that residents complaining about its noise and safety "have a choice not to live near that airport."
 Members voting no opposed FAA plans to cap traffic at National Airport.
 Voting yes: Pursell and Broomfield.
 Voting no: Hertel, Ford and Levin.

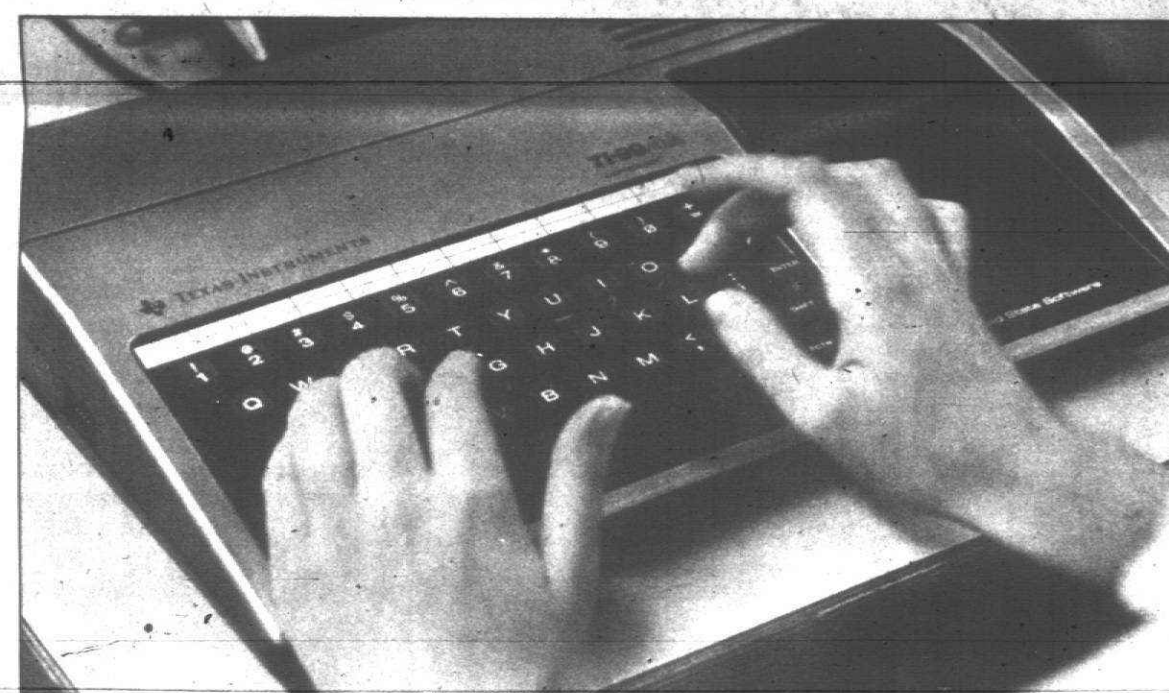

SENATE

FOOD: The Senate rejected, 24-73, an amendment whose effect was to cut funding for the three major federal food programs, child nutrition, food stamps, and the WIC (women, infant, children) feeding program.
 The vote occurred during debate on the fiscal 1984 Department of Agriculture appropriations bill (HR 3223), later sent to conference with the House.
 At issue was whether money for the programs should be spread over 12 or fewer months. Supporters of the pro-administration amendment said at least $1 billion could be saved by allocating over 12 months.

 RIGHT: Pat Master had a few laughs while using the voice generator. Altering the computer's voice while running a program can produce some humorous noises.
 BELOW: Texas Instruments is sponsoring the seminar for the Plymouth-Canton schools.

Oakwood—Canton's new asset

Currently, an average of 50 patients per day use the 24-hour emergency facility, said Joan Petroske, registered nurse and clinical manager of the Oakwood center at Warren and Canton Center roads. In the early days, 20 patients per day was the norm.

"It (patient load) has been steadily increasing," Petroske said. "It's higher in the summer months, especially on weekends."

Petroske, who is responsible for the day-to-day operations at Oakwood, reports to David Ippel, administrator of the facility.

THE FACILITY has a full-time emergency room, 17 examination rooms, expanded x-ray service, laboratory, pharmacy and a bustling lineup of free community health education programs.

A group of physicians in private practice are based at the Oakwood facility, including two family practitioners, and specialists in orthopedics, plastic surgery, dermatology, obstetrics-gynecology and internal medicine.

The Oakwood facility is Canton's first and only 24-hour medical treatment center. Canton Supervisor James Poole hailed its opening as a major step in developing an "identity" for the community.

In practical terms, it means closer and faster emergency treatment for residents.

"For example, rescue workers from Canton and Plymouth routinely take traffic-accident patients to the Oakwood facility. In the past, they had to take patients to farther-away St. Mary Hospital in Livonia, Wayne County General Hospital in Westland or facilities in the Ypsilanti-Ann Arbor area.

"We're tickled pink to have Oakwood here," said Canton Fire Chief Mel Paulin.

This gives faster emergency service to our residents," Paulin added. "We have saved a few lives. The runs are shorter, which means our manpower is available for other duties."

PETROSKE OVERSEES a staff of 15 nurses and a cadre of 20 unpaid volunteers. She gives high marks to both groups.

"I hand-picked all the nurses," Petroske said. "That makes my job easier."

The volunteers help out in clerical and filing duties, greet patients, stock the shelves and put on fund-raisers.

"The volunteers have been dynamic out here," Petroske said. "Most are Plymouth-Canton people. The (volunteer) guild donated money for audio-visual materials."

Although awareness continues to build, many people still don't know the scope of services available at Oakwood, Petroske said.

For example, area physicians may refer patients for x-ray, lab work and prescription medication, Petroske said.

Patients have misconceptions, she added. For example, the private group physicians have office hours by appointment, according to Petroske. Non-emergency patients must make an appointment.

"Sometimes patients think it's more of a clinic, and they think you can walk in and be seen by a physician," she added.

Another mistaken impression is that emergency-room patients will automatically be taken to the main Oakwood Hospital facility in Dearborn if hospitalization is necessary.

That isn't true, Petroske said. The patient makes a hospital choice, unless it is an emergency, life-threatening situation, Petroske said.

Overall, community response has been good, according to Petroske.

"It has been fun watching the place grow," Petroske said. "The positive feedback from the community makes you feel good."

IN ONE DAY the average person inhales 15,000 quarts of air.

Republicans meet monthly

The Canton Republican Club regularly meets on the fourth Thursday of every month. Meetings begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Canton Township Fire Hall No. 1, on the northeast of Canton Center and Cherry Hill. Parking is in the rear of the building. The public is invited to attend.

The club was organized to promote Republican views, Republican candidates and to offer a forum for discussions.

Self-starter helps Oakwood thrive

"The response from the community has been so good," Petroske said. "So far, we've been able to offer most of the classes without a fee."

Petroske has spent her entire nine-year nursing career with Oakwood Hospital. She worked as a staff nurse in coronary care and emergency-room service at the hospital's main facility in Dearborn.

She was the head nurse in coronary care before being tapped for her current position, which she describes as largely administrative Petroske drawn on that background in planning and teaching some of the community education projects.

SOME of the regularly scheduled programs include classes for newly diagnosed diabetic patients who need to learn about diet and medication. Stroke patients and hearing-impaired children work with a speech therapist.

Petroske and her staff have sponsored baby-sitting courses for adolescents, and there have been several Red Cross blood drives at the Canton location.

"The speech therapy program is growing by leaps and bounds," Petroske said, noting there were 56 appointments in April, compared to 13 for the same month last year.

One seminar on genital herpes has been held, and more are planned, Petroske said. Trained volunteers do blood pressure screening 6-8 p.m. each Tuesday.

"The blood pressure screening is becoming a family affair," Petroske said. "They (patients) are bringing in other people. It has been well received. One patient with a very high blood pressure was referred immediately for follow up."

ESPECIALLY SUCCESSFUL has been an educational program on Rey's syndrome, Petroske said. Parents filled the community education room and spilled out into the lobby area to hear information about the often-fatal illness which strikes school-age children.

Less successful was an attempt to start a local chapter of Survivors of Suicide, a support group for family members. There apparently wasn't enough interest locally to keep the project going, according to Petroske.

Petroske regrets her duties don't allow her much time to spend with patients. She likes to pitch in when the patient load is heavy or there is an emergency.

"You get so much satisfaction from the interaction with the people," Petroske said. "You can't mind it. But even on this level, I get a lot of interaction with the community."

Petroske, who has an associate degree in nursing from Henry Ford Community College, this month will receive a bachelor of science degree in allied health management from Madonna College.

Managing and teaching remain important goals for Petroske.

"The teaching so much needs to be done and is being done," Petroske said.

"Community and patient education make people more aware of themselves and the role they have in taking care of themselves."

Streetlights are out — for now, at least

IT'S IMPOSSIBLE to make a direct comparison between what street lights would do for Canton Township and their effect in other communities, he said. Most studies have been conducted in major cities. But, said Stewart, an Indiana town that recently turned street lights off in an effort to save money "quickly turned them back on when burglaries, vandalism and larcenies increased. It was found that street lights were a deterrent," said Stewart, adding that in Canton, larcenies from garages present a big problem.

Street lights are a real advantage to officers on patrol, he added. They make it easier to chase fleeing suspects, and "cops stay very often where there are lights, and there's something to see."

A Detroit Edison spokesperson emphasized that residents shouldn't view street lights as a cure-all for crime being pushed by the utility.

"We don't go out and sell street lights," she said.

"If a municipality requests them, we'll install lights. But street lights are just that. They're not security lighting."

Board members pondered a second residential poll and fielded dozens of questions from the audience during a lengthy debate on the issue.

In response to a woman who wanted to know who decides how many street lights go in along a particular street, Pools joked, "we have to find out how many bedrooms the street lights shine into."

In actuality, said Flodin, engineering studies are performed taking into account curbs, intersections, trees and obstructions. A uniform degree of light is provided to ensure safety and visibility for drivers traveling from a lit to a dark area.

Bye to soaps, hello to chaos

As I'm sitting here trying to get my brain to function in this summer heat, my 8-year-old son is leaning on me saying, "Write about kids being around soap."

"Or how about writing about summer heat? Why don't you write about summer, mom? Gee mom, I can think of about a million things to write about."

Yeah. That's because he doesn't have a 8-year-old leaning against him. Things sure are different around here in the summer. The main problem seems to stem from the fact that everybody is at home — except for hubby who still has the decency to go to work everyday (thankfully).

Each day I find myself surrounded by hoards of short people wearing baseball caps and cutoffs making thousands of demands on me and my nervous system.

Sadly, it's good-bye to "The Young and the Restless." So long, "As the World Turns." I'll see you again next fall. Goodbye to quiet afternoons, hello to chaos. Screams of "Mooooom" keep piercing my ears with each and every injustice.

My two sons insist on perpetuating upon each other. "Mooooom Jim won't share the cat." (How does one "share" a cat anyway?) "Mooooom, Jason flooded the bathroom. (Oh, swell). I tried changing my name to Gus for a couple of days, but I've got smart friends then for theirs.

kids. They just kept yelling, "Gus make him stop it." Sigh.

YESTERDAY I was talking on the phone when my youngest burst into the room with his usual screeching, "Mooooom."

I said, "I'm on the phone now. Wait until I'm done." He went back in to the living room and I heard him tell his brother, "Mom says if you don't let me touch the dog she is going to put you in your room for two hours."

I wonder if he let him touch the dog? Sometimes I think they stage these incessant dialogues more for my benefit than for theirs.

Nancy Walls Smith

They already know the answers to their multitude of childhood problems. They just want me to give them an easier one — like grounding brother for the rest of his life or supplying money needed for the latest thing they "just gotta have."

Summer time is busy time. There are the kids' bowling leagues, I sure wish kids would walk somewhere like they did in the olden days.

Some days it feels like we spend more time in the car than in the house. Wonder why I'm already starting to look forward to fall?

Chamber grateful

To the editor:

The Happy Hour Club of Plymouth would like to congratulate the Canton Country Festival Board for the outstanding job they did with this year's Festival.

We realize the amount of hard work and time that goes into coordination the project. You should all be very proud of your efforts.

Thank you for a good time.

oral quarrel

Today's Oral Quarrel question is: "WHO DO YOU THINK WOULD WIN IF THE MICHIGAN PANTHERS PLAYED AGAINST THE DETROIT LIONS?" If you wish, why not share with us whom your favorite Panther player is? The responses of our readers follow:

• The Panthers have a bunch of good talent, like Anthony Carter and quarterback Herbert and the Lions have not so good players. The Panthers are much a much better team — physically and emotionally.

• The Lions would win because they have been playing together so long and they are an established team. The Panthers are good in their league but that's because all the other teams are new just like they are. The Panthers play together pretty well compared to the other teams but they wouldn't play as well in the NFL. My favorite player is Anthony Carter.

• I think the Panthers will win because they have a better quarterback. And Anthony Carter is my favorite player.

• The Lions would win because they have prettier uniforms and my favorite player is Ken Lacey.

• I think the Panthers would win because they showed when they had a 1-4 record they came back and won the championship and that's something the Lions can't hardly do. My favorite player is AC, Anthony Carter.

• The score would be the Lions 45 and the Panthers 20, primarily because the defensive backfield for the Panthers is not quite up to par with NFL standards. In terms of the favorite player my choice isn't a player but Mr. Taubman, the owner, who has some very good ideas on how to run a professional organization.

A newcomer at the counter

One of the first things a writer usually does when each new edition of the paper comes off the press is to turn the pages to see how his contributions appear on the printed page.

But not the Stroller.

The first thing he does is to find the page featuring all sorts of desserts and other delicacies with the hope that he can find there a story on a sandwich that has been on his mind since his early youth.

Back in those days our family operated a small lunch counter. It was only my means of support after The Stroller's father died, and his mother tried to carry on.

This was long before hamburgers became the most popular of sandwiches and when ham-and-cheese combinations were the most often ordered.

For that reason mother kept a plate of sliced ham ready for serving at all times. And with that she always had a goodly portion of sliced cheese. The kind of cheese she used had only the slightest of hoops and often was referred to by the Dutch housekeepers of our time as "rat" cheese because it was the type of cheese that was used in rat traps.

Then one evening she got the surprise of her life. A newcomer in town walked in, took a seat at the counter, and asked if she would make him a special sandwich.

"Always one to oblige," she asked just what he wanted.

"I'd like an egg sandwich," he said, "with a thick slice of Spanish onion. And I'd like to have it toasted."

This was a strange combination. But Mother accepted it. She was long before hamburgers became the most popular of sandwiches and when ham-and-cheese combinations were the most often ordered.

For that reason mother kept a plate of sliced ham ready for serving at all times. And with that she always had a goodly portion of sliced cheese. The kind of cheese she used had only the slightest of

You work hard all your life and what do you get?

Well, depending on where you work, you could get cancer. Asbestos has been proven to cause cancer. Certain toxic chemicals like formaldehyde and freon are being investigated. If you've worked with radioactive particles or even worked near them, your risk is greater.

And even if you've worked nowhere hazardous, it wouldn't hurt to get a checkup. Because the incidence of cancer after the age of 45 to 50 increases rapidly.

Over the next several years the American Cancer Society will be conducting more research into certain lifestyles and exposures which could increase cancer mortality.

So know the risks. Don't smoke. Watch what you eat and drink. Look for the warning signs of cancer.

And retire not only with a gold ticker. But a healthy one, also.

How you live may save your life.

IT'S SUMMERTIME!

Food and Fun Move Outdoors

Summertime provides the opportunity for good food and fun, especially when they're enjoyed out-of-doors. These delicious recipes incorporate cheese as the perfect touch to eating in warm summer weather.

Using your backyard as the setting, these recipes are perfect for a light dinner at dusk or a sunny Sunday afternoon get-together with family and friends. Start with Alpine Appetizers that combine monterey jack cheese and Swiss cheese with bacon, green onion, eggs and milk. Mix the ingredients together and bake in a square baking dish. Cut into squares and serve on stoneground wheat crackers or other square crackers. What better light meal?

Make a Festive Fruit and Cheese Tray by arranging slices of mild cheddar cheese and extra sharp cheddar cheese with strawberries, melon balls and pineapple slices. The summer season offers a wide variety of fruits to choose from, so take advantage of the warm-weather harvest at your food stores. While you are choosing your fruits for the platter, be sure to find the ingredients for a BLT Strata Salad. It's simply a bacon, lettuce and tomato mixture without the bread. Add Swiss cheese slices, cucumber, hard-cooked eggs and thousand island dressing for a taste-tempting layered salad that will keep your company coming back for more. The cucumber adds color and snap.

Most folks love the flavor of barbecue, and Junior Barbecued Heroes are easy to prepare without lighting the grill. Ground beef simmered with chopped onion and barbecue sauce served on French bread rolls with green pepper rings create the flavorful combination. It's then topped with pasteurized processed American cheese slices and broiled until the cheese melts lending a rich, mellow flavor to the tangy sandwich ingredients.

Even the novice cook can make Chicken Salad in a Puff. Simply combine chopped cooked chicken, sharp natural cheddar cheese, chopped celery, mayonnaise and mandarin orange segments and chill. To make the shell, combine water, margarine, flour, salt and eggs in a saucepan. Spread the mixture onto the bottom of a pie plate. The mixture "puffs" itself while it bakes. After it's cooled, just spoon in the chicken mixture.

Ready for dessert? Your friends couldn't possibly resist this recipe for Sensational Shortcakes. You can make the shortcake ahead of time. The day of your gathering, combine cream cheese, powdered sugar, orange juice, grated orange rind, whipping cream and strawberry slices to top each piece.

ALPINE APPETIZER

- 2 cups (8 ozs.) shredded Casino brand natural monterey jack cheese
- 2 cups (8 ozs.) shredded Casino brand natural Swiss cheese
- 4 crisply cooked bacon slices, crumbled
- 1/4 cup green onion slices
- 3 eggs, beaten
- 1/4 cup milk

Stone ground wheat crackers
Combine cheeses, bacon and onion. Add combined eggs and milk; mix lightly. Spoon into 8-inch square baking dish. Bake at 325°, 25 to 30 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Cut into squares. Serve on crackers.

FESTIVE FRUIT AND CHEESE TRAY

- Cracker Barrel brand mild natural cheddar cheese, sliced
- Cracker Barrel brand extra sharp natural cheddar cheese, sliced
- Strawberries
- Melon balls
- Pineapple slices, quartered

Arrange cheese and fruit on tray.

BLT STRATA SALAD

- 2 tomatoes, sliced
- 1 6-oz. pkg. Kraft natural Swiss cheese slices, cut into strips
- 1 large cucumber, sliced
- 3 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
- 2 qts. torn assorted greens
- 4 crisply cooked bacon slices, crumbled
- Kraft thousand island dressing

Arrange tomato, cheese, half of cucumber, egg and remaining cucumber on greens-covered plate; sprinkle with bacon. Serve with dressing. 6 servings

JUNIOR BARBECUED HEROES

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup Kraft barbecue sauce
- 4 6-inch French bread rolls, heated, cut in half lengthwise
- Green pepper rings
- Deluxe pasteurized process American cheese slices, cut in half diagonally

Brown meat; drain. Add onion; cook until tender. Stir in barbecue sauce. Cover; simmer 10 minutes. For each sandwich, cover bottom half of roll with meat mixture, green pepper and process cheese. Broil until process cheese begins to melt. Cover with top half of roll. 4 sandwiches

CHICKEN SALAD IN A PUFF

- 2-1/2 cups chopped cooked chicken
- 1 cup (4 ozs.) shredded Kraft sharp natural cheddar cheese
- 1 cup chopped celery
- Kraft real mayonnaise
- 1 11-oz. can mandarin orange segments, drained

- 1/2 cup water
- 1/4 cup Parkay margarine
- 1/2 cup flour
- Dash of salt
- 2 eggs

Combine chicken, cheese, celery and enough mayonnaise to moisten; mix lightly. Stir in orange segments. Chill.

Bring water and margarine to boil. Add flour and salt; stir vigorously over low heat until mixture forms ball. Remove from heat. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Spread batter onto bottom and sides of well-greased 9-inch pie plate. Bake at 400°, 30 minutes or until golden brown. Turn off oven. Prick puff with fork. Leave in closed oven 10 minutes. Remove from oven; cool. Spoon in chicken mixture just before serving. Top with additional cheese, if desired. 6 servings

SENSATIONAL SHORTCAKES

- 2 cups flour
- 3 tablespoons granulated sugar
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1/2 cup Parkay margarine
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 egg

- 1 8-oz. pkg. Philadelphia Brand cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 cup sifted powdered sugar
- 3 tablespoons orange juice
- 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1 cup whipping cream, whipped
- Strawberry slices

Combine dry ingredients and rind; cut in margarine until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add combined milk and egg, mixing just until moistened. Drop approximately 1/3 cup batter, 3 inches apart, onto greased cookie sheet. Bake at 425°, 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown.

Combine cream cheese, 1/4 cup powdered sugar, juice and rind, mixing until well blended. Gradually add remaining powdered sugar to whipping cream, beating until stiff peaks form; fold into cream cheese mixture. Chill. Split shortcakes; fill and top with cream cheese mixture and strawberries. 8 servings

Broccoli, mushrooms and cherry tomatoes add the "garden fresh" to Garden Fresh Rice Pilaf. Because the vegetables are cooked briefly, they retain their fresh-picked flavor, crisp texture and bright colors.

Veggies add texture to rice

A revolution has been sweeping kitchens here and abroad, bringing with it a strong emphasis on fresh and light. The fresh refers to ingredients—the freshest fruits, vegetables, meat, poultry, fish and dairy products the market has to offer—while the light describes the simpler, cleaner methods used to prepare the fresh ingredients.

A dish ahead of its time in terms of freshness and lightness is the pilaf. The pilaf, one of the world's oldest rice dishes, forms the basis of the cuisines of Greece and most Near Eastern countries. Traditionally, pilafs have been exceptionally flexible dishes because ingredients could be varied to suit individual tastes and available foods. While the ingredients may vary, the success of a pilaf depends upon the rice. In a pilaf, the rice grains must emerge well-cooked but separate, never sticky or too soft.

Paired with the fluffy, separate-grained rice in today's pilafs are fresh-from-the-garden vegetables. Broccoli, mushrooms and cherry tomatoes star in Garden Fresh Rice Pilaf. Because the vegetables are cooked ever so briefly, they retain their fresh flavor, crisp texture and brilliant colors. Ground nutmeg and shredded mozzarella cheese add a touch of the unexpected to this international side-dish which goes from garden to table in just 30 minutes.

Adding a refreshing change of pace to warm weather meals are cool and colorful rice salads. A European favorite for many years, rice salads are now becoming popular in the United States and Canada. Dilly Garden Rice Salad, with its delectably American flavor, features zucchini, green onions and vine-ripened tomatoes in a light and tangy diluted yogurt dressing.

Dilly Garden Rice Salad and Garden Fresh Rice Pilaf are only two of the dozens of recipes featured in Uncle Ben's 40th Anniversary Recipe Collection. All are easy to prepare and many are easy on the budget as well. For your copy, send $1 in check or money order and one proof-of-purchase from Uncle Ben's 40th Anniversary Recipe Collection, P.O. Box 55199, Houston, Texas 77255. Enclose name, address and zip code.

1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, thinly sliced
1 clove garlic, minced
2 tbsp butter or margarine
1 cup rice
1/4 tsp nutmeg
2 1/2 cups beef broth or bouillon
1 tsp salt
2 cups small broccoli flowerettes
1 cup cherry tomatoes, halved
1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese

Saute mushrooms and garlic in butter in 10-inch skillet over medium heat 1 to 2 minutes. Stir in rice and nutmeg. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until rice is golden. Add broth and salt. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat. Cover tightly and simmer 15 minutes. Stir in broccoli. Cover and continue to simmer until all liquid is absorbed, about 10 minutes. Stir in tomatoes. Sprinkle with cheese. Makes 6 servings.

DILLY GARDEN RICE SALAD

1 cup rice
1 carton (8 ounces) plain yogurt
1 tsp sugar
1 tsp salt
1/4 tsp dill weed
2 medium zucchini, thinly sliced
4 green onions with tops, sliced
2 medium tomatoes, chopped

Cook rice according to package directions. Transfer to large bowl. Cover and chill. Combine yogurt, sugar, salt and dill weed. Stir into rice. Stir in zucchini and onions. Chill at least 1 hour. Just before serving, stir in tomatoes. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Sleuths trim market bills

There are two types of shoppers: the haphazard spender and the alert planner.

It's almost effortless to hit the grocery store when you must restock the pantry and refrigerator, maybe scribbling a few needed items on a scrap of paper, filling the shopping basket helter-skelter as you scoot up and down the aisles, not paying any attention to displays or prices. But it is very foolish.

It's smarter to organize shopping trips. There are guidelines I follow that pay dividends before I depart for the supermarket. They include:

Checking newspaper ads for sales and coupon bargains. Making a list of what is needed for the week's menu. Deciding on the store offering the biggest bargain. Considering stops at two stores if worth the savings. Placing coupons, bonus-stamp cards and special cut-out ads in one envelope per store, writing the items on the outside.

PLANNING to buy foods in season, when they're most plentiful and less expensive.

Once you're inside the supermarket, the key words are "be alert." It is not a shopping sin to deviate from your list.

Frankly, I've realized more savings from under-advertised sales than published ones—like the time I made a killing on Swiss cheese at the deli counter.

The slicing Swiss was $1.09 a quarter pound, but I noticed prepackaged cubes were $2.99 a pound. I picked up two packages and discovered that someone's mathematical error was my reward. One package was .58 of a pound for $1.26; the other .42 of a pound for $1.14. I got a quarter pound for $2.40.

Another time I was at the beer cooler when I saw two stacks of six-packs selling for $2.19 each, limit two. Close by was a stack of 12-packs for $5.19 each, no limit.

I've been most successful at the meat counter. While my wife snubs steak that looks some redness, I find the $1 to $1.50 per pound saving more than compensating. However, I must peel off the "special" sticker before I get home so Anita doesn't give me any flak. I've never had to make excuses for the taste when I cook them the same day.

Greg Melikov

WHILE I usually shop on Fridays because it's banking day, I have no qualms about returning to the supermarket to take advantage of the sales on Sundays through Wednesdays. For instance, I've purchased ground beef for 99 cents a pound on Tuesday. For every three pounds I bought, I figured I received one pound selling at the regular price free.

I've also found ground veal selling for about the same price as ground chuck side by side.

But I've made out the best with tuna fish, buying 6 1/2-ounce cans for about 30 cents. That's why I usually have five or six cans in the pantry and am always looking for new recipes.

TUNA-ARTICHOKE CASEROLE

1/2 cup dry white wine
1 can (14 oz.) condensed cream of celery soup
2 cans (14 oz.) artichoke hearts, drained and halved
2 cans (6 1/2 oz.) tuna, drained and flaked
1/2 cup broken up cashews
1/2 cup dry bread crumbs
1 1/2 tsp. butter, melted

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. In small saucepan, combine wine with soup, bring to boil, occasionally stirring, and remove from heat. In 1 1/2-quart casserole, in order, layer half of artichokes, tuna, cashews and soup mixture, repeat. Toss bread crumbs with butter, sprinkle over casserole and bake uncovered 25 minutes, when crumbs turn golden. Serves 6.

Students attend World Youth Conference '83

Cheryl Dilts, a student at Olivet Nazarene College, and Kandra Dilts, a student at Plymouth Canton High School, were delegates to World Youth Congress '83.

They were among more than 2,000 youth and adult leaders who attended the congress in Oaxtepec, Mexico, sponsored by Nazarene Youth International. Twenty-five countries were represented.

During the event, the participants were trained in leadership principles, heard messages and concerts by special resource personnel, and experienced first-hand the language and culture of other countries. Each afternoon they enjoyed sight-seeing excursions.

They had the opportunity to talk with youth leaders from around the world concerning needs and programs designed to meet those needs.

They are the daughters of Richard and Carolyn Dilts of Plymouth. Pastor of the Plymouth Church of the Nazarene is the Rev. Carl R. Allen.

Dumas' resolution defeated

Wayne board backs off super sewer

By Tim Richard
Staff writer

Western Wayne County Commissioners suffered a setback last week in their efforts to have county lawyers fight a state decision against the long-planned super sewer.

The full county board of commissioners refused to refer the controversy to the county corporation counsel office. Despite the setback, it is possible that Oakland County Executive Daniel T. Murphy and Wayne County Executive William Lucas will go to court to try to reverse a July 1 Department of Natural Resources decision.

The DNR, which controls federal funding for sewer and wastewater treatment projects, refused to authorize the federal funds for the full 60-mile project scheduled to serve 16 communities in western Wayne County and western Oakland County.

In turning down the DNR cited unresolved questions raised about the system by the city of Detroit.

DETROIT MAYOR Coleman Young has fought the plan claiming it would unnecessarily draw customers from the Detroit water and sewer system and that it spur further urban sprawl which would draw businesses, industries and people from Detroit.

Wayne County commissioners from Detroit lined up Thursday against a motion by Commissioner Mary Dumas, R-Livonia, to have the county's corporation counsel "investigate the legal rights ... and decide whether legal steps should be taken" to rescue the project.

"The odd part of this is," said Commissioner William Lucas, D-Wyandotte, "the very people attempting to sabotage the project are the ones whose constituents would most benefit."

When Detroit unemployed go hungry this winter, they can thank the commissioners and their mayor who have contributed to this project's downfall," Lucas said in reference to the construction jobs the project would involve.

Meanwhile, western Wayne suburban officials are investigating shorter alternatives to the proposed $298 million system, which is known officially as the Huron Valley Wastewater System.

DUMAS SAID continuing to utilize the present Detroit sewer system would result in heavy pollution of the Middle Rouge River, which runs through the middle of the county's Hines Park.

"The DNR admits — EPA says — Detroit admits that the Rouge intercepter lacks the capacity to handle those wastes," she told the Wayne Commission.

Dumas said rejection of the project "will cause irreparable harm to future growth" in the suburbs, cost 5,000 new construction jobs and throw away the $4 million spent by suburban governments in advancing sewer plans to Lansing and Washington.

Her resolution lost 6-6 as several of the 15 commissioners shuffled in and out of the room during the three-hour meeting.

Supporting it were Suzzore, Kay Beard, D-Inkster, Edward Plawicki

Police to join to curb drugs

Wayne County sheriff's deputies, suburban police departments and the federal Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) will join forces to fight distribution of dangerous narcotics.

"It's a real breakthrough in cooperative efforts," said Sheriff Robert A. Ficano. "Usually, agencies have jealously guarded their jurisdictions."

Ficano, the former deputy county clerk from Livonia who was appointed sheriff last spring, said county parks, waterways and Metropolitan Airport will be particular targets.

Since the sheriff's department has been patrolling county parks this year "we've had 100 arrests for use of LSD, cocaine, marijuana, PCP" and other drugs, Ficano said.

seized in drug raids, allowing communities to sell them and keep the revenue. (But contraband, weapons and drugs will be kept as evidence and eventually destroyed.)

"In the past," Ficano said, "we never had this kind of resource."

He said the Federal Foreclosure Act gives DEA the right to confiscate cars and other property seized in drug raids, and a recent Michigan statute gives local law enforcement agencies the same right.

But DEA's decision to waive its right "could generate some revenue for the county," Ficano said.

Geake named to task force

State Sen. Robert Geake, R-Northville, has been appointed to the 32-member statewide Medicaid Task Force and the Senate Special Committee to study the issue of substance abuse.

Geake represents the 6th district which includes Livonia, Redford, Plymouth, Canton, and Northville.

Geake, who is one of six legislators selected to be on the task force, says Medicaid is the largest single cost item in the state budget and has been increasing in cost between 10 and 15 percent each year over the past few years. The cost of the Medicaid program next year will amount to nearly $1.7 billion.

As a member of the Senate Special Committee to study substance abuse, Geake will be looking at funding allocations, evaluating quality of care and recipient rights rules, cost effectiveness, and the impact of substance abuse on highway safety.

THE COOPERATIVE effort calls for:

- 1) DEA to provide funds and expertise — "buy money," telephones, cars, radios and auxiliary equipment.
- 2) Manpower to be supplied by the sheriff's department and communities which border such county parks as Hines — Northville, Plymouth, Livonia, Westland, Dearborn Heights and downriver communities.
- 3) DEA will waive its rights to confiscate cars, boats and other property

FIRST SIGN OF A FUTURE CAVITY
You want to be able to keep your teeth free of decay and minimize the number of fillings and other restorations, but this problem is difficult to solve without professional help. For example, if you could detect the first sign of a future cavity you'd be ahead of the game.
The first noticeable sign is a white spot on the unbroken surface of a tooth. The outer enamel of a tooth is much denser than the inside, which is composed of a tooth mineral rich in calcium. Once the acid that causes decay breaks the outer barrier, however, and a cavity begins to form, the tooth must be restored and protected with a filling. Even before the white spot appears, considerable mineral within the tooth may have been lost to decay.
That's one reason why regular dental checkups are recommended. Under the professional eyes of your dentist, problems can be discovered in their early stages when they are much easier and much less costly to treat.
Left untreated, dental decay can cause havoc. It can and will only get worse. Dentistry is one area of medicine where potential problems can be "seen" before they get out of hand.

Tiger tutors teach finer points

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

Inside sports

This camp had one specific purpose: to teach the fundamentals of baseball.

"I know there's a big need for fundamentals," said the Tiger hurler, who formerly lived in Canton and now resides in West Bloomfield. "I grew up in Oklahoma, and we more or less picked up the fundamentals on our own."

There are a lot of (professional) organizations that don't teach you as well as others. Some guys come up now and don't know the fundamentals."

Which inspired Wilcox and Mijal. "We're good friends," Mijal, a Westland florist who pitches batting practice for the Tigers, said of Wilcox. "We got to talking last winter about how there's a lack of fundamental training in baseball."

"We said, 'Wouldn't it be nice to have a camp here in the Detroit area for kids to learn and, in conjunction with that, meet some of the Tigers?'"

SO THAT'S WHAT the pair did. Since it was the first attempt, lack of publicity can be forgiven. And, although the cost may seem high, consider what the participants received:

- A Milt Wilcox baseball camp T-shirt.
- Tickets to a Tiger game.
- A Tiger baseball hat.
- A Milt Wilcox-autographed baseball.
- An 8-by-10 color photo taken with Wilcox.

And, perhaps most important, some invaluable instruction.

"It's surprising how much they learn," Wilcox said. "I think the kids listen to us a little more because we're playing now."

WILCOX ENLISTED the aid of Tiger coaches Gates Brown, Dick Tracewski and Roger Craig and fellow players Bill Fahey, Lynn Jones and Alan Trammell for the camp.

Meanwhile, Mijal lined up local coaches Fred Crissey and Dave Racer of Plymouth Canton, John Zimmerman of Southgate Aquinas, Norm Hoenes of Westland John Glenn, Jim Czarnowski of Wayne Memorial, Dr. Leon Lande, former hitting coach at Wayne State, and John Judge, the Tigers' bullpen catcher.

By the way, this was not a one-shot deal. Wilcox and Mijal plan on holding another clinic next year and are working on a series of one-day instructional clinics around the state during the winter.

Who knows? Their efforts may blossom nicely for the Tigers someday.

"It's surprising how much they learn. I think the kids listen to us a little more because we're playing now."

— Milt Wilcox
Detroit Tiger

Fundamentally speaking, this camp was a roaring success.

What camp? Don't be upset if you didn't hear about it — lots of folks never knew that Milt Wilcox of Detroit Tiger fame, together with his pal Jerry Mijal, sponsored a baseball clinic last week at the Wayne-Ford Civic League.

Normally, whenever a Tiger shows up to a clinic or collector's show or makes any kind of public appearance, you can bet your Tiger yearbook that hordes of autograph-seeking fans will swarm to see him.

Which is what made the Wilcox affair somewhat different. First, not one but four Tiger players took part in the five-day camp. And three of the Tigers' coaches also were on hand. But instead of mobs of people flocking to see their athletic heroes, only "about 100 kids" were present, according to Mijal.

WHICH SHOULD give you a clue what this camp was about. It wasn't an autograph-seeking session — the pros didn't stand around signing baseballs all day.

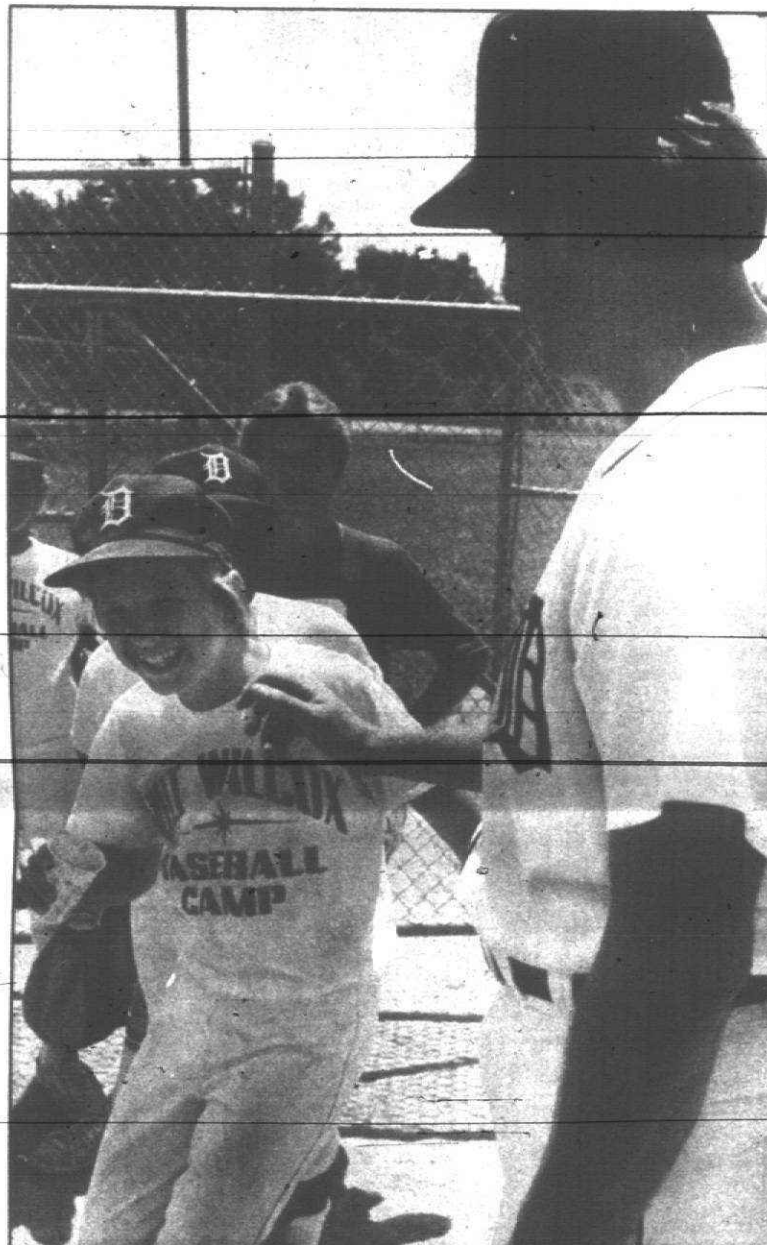

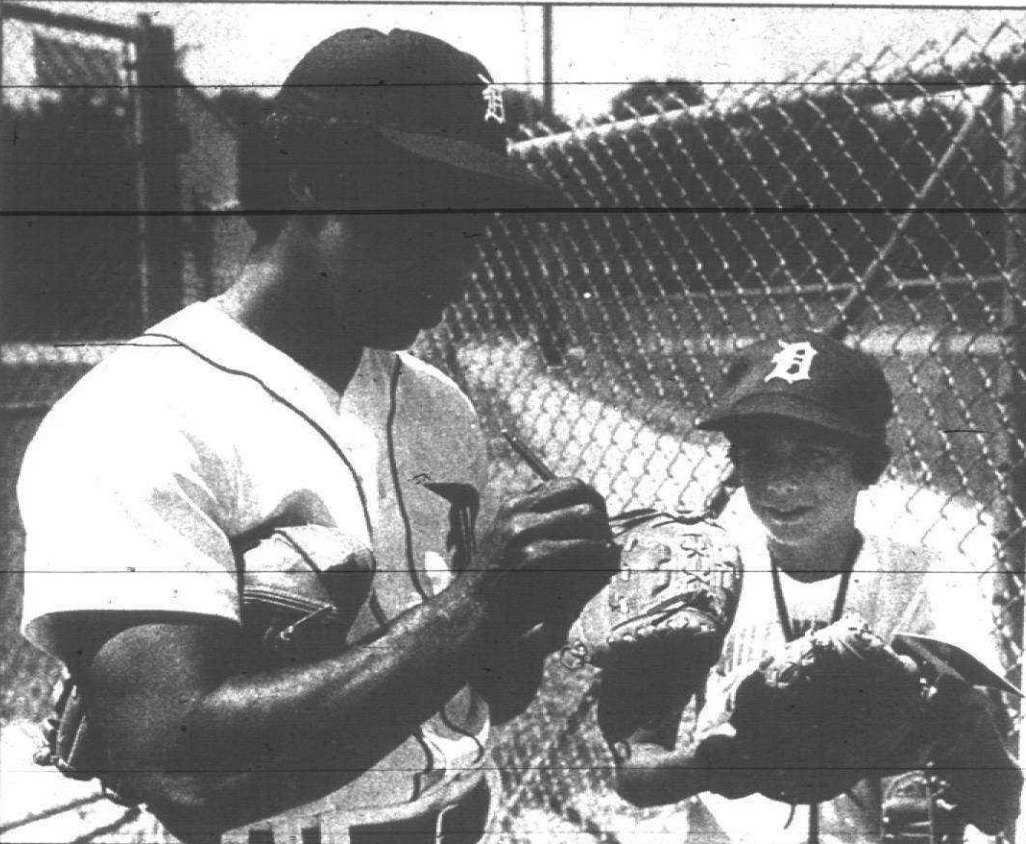

They instructed. Likewise, the Tiger coaches coached, and Mijal, with a great deal of help from several local high school baseball coaches, worked to make this camp meaningful.

From first returns, their labor appeared fruitful — even at the 139 bucks for the five three-hour-a-day sessions.

"It's been worth every penny," one satisfied mother said. "I've been here every day, and I learned a lot just watching. It was well worth it."

It was a nice added touch of Mijal's — allowing parents or whomever to sit in and watch for free.

STILL, WHAT FRUIT this camp will bear won't be known for some time. Wilcox knows it.

JIM JAGDFELD/staff photographer

It wasn't all fun and games, but when the instruction was over with for the day, camp participants were able to get some Tiger autographs — that of Lynn Jones (left) and camp organizer Milt Wilcox (above).

New recruits brighten U-D baseball future

By Brad Emons
staff writer

University of Detroit baseball coach Bob Miller is beaming these days.

He is just about wrapped up with one of his most successful recruiting seasons in 20 years.

"We've had a great year recruiting," Miller said. "You have to get people who can push the people who are already there. We'll have a lot of youth, but it gives us the depth we need. You can't go with just nine players."

One of Miller's first signees was All-Observer pitcher Joe Taraskavage of Garden City. On Friday, Miller said he received a verbal commitment from Plymouth Salem shortstop Mickey Madsen.

The U-D coach also gained commitments from six other players.

Taraskavage led Garden City to the Northwest Suburban League title with a 7-1 record and a 1.36 ERA. The big left-hander struck out 95 batters in 67 innings.

At the plate, he batted .448 with 24 RBI.

"WE'RE COUNTING on Joe's bat because we have a senior at first base," Miller said. "He could be a spot starter."

Miller's first baseman is Tom Miner, formerly of Garden City West. He said Miner "was instrumental in getting Joe."

Madsen, meanwhile, was an All-Area performer three straight years at Salem. He led the Rocks to a 19-9 record and a berth in the Class A semifinals. He batted over .400 and was noted for his fleet feet.

"We think he's really going to contribute," Miller said. "He has great speed and great bat control. He never strikes out. He's swift and has the ability to play second base, shortstop or the outfield — a rabbit."

Detroit finished last season with a 36-16 record under Miller. The Titans won the Midwestern City's Northern Division crown, but was ousted by Oral Roberts in the playoffs.

MILLER ALSO added a pair of junior college players with local ties.

Catcher Kevin Lowery, who played last season for Oakland Community College, and outfielder Alex Rasky of Henry Ford CC, both signed.

Lowery caught for Livonia Collegiate champ Livonia Adray last season, while Rasky was one of the league's top hitters, playing for Redford-Westland Adray.

"Lowery can play first base and just has a great arm," said the U-D coach. "And we hope Rasky can step in for Dave Boomer and gives us some home run production."

Another top U-D signee is outfielder-pitcher Gary Peters, a Detroit Tiger draft pick from Royal Oak Kimball. Peters will be joined by catcher Phil Beggs of Taylor, and pitchers Rany McMinn of Clawson and Chris Steifle of Madison Heights.

Miller, a Redford Township resident, said he hopes to sign one more player.

Taraskavage shutout puts Walter's in hunt

Walter's Appliance, behind the pitching of Joe Taraskavage, remained in the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League (LCBL) playoff picture with a 4-0 upset victory over Redford-Westland Adray.

Going into Friday's action, Walter's trailed Michigan National Bank by four points for the fourth and final playoff spot with eight games remaining.

Taraskavage, bound for the University of Detroit this fall, tossed a five-hitter against RWA with six strikeouts and one walk.

It was his third win against one loss. "He responds to the team and he keeps them in there," said Walter's coach Mike Keller, appraising the left-hander's value.

Ray Kovich was the losing pitcher. He was touched for three runs in the fifth.

Kevin Belisle delivered the key hit, a two-run double. He raced home on the play when RWA threw the ball away.

Walter's scored its other run on a walk by Carl Novick, followed by a sacrifice bunt by Jim Stoitsiadis and single by Mike Kisiel.

Jeff Valdez reached base safely four times for RWA, including three hits.

LIVONIA ADRAY, meanwhile, moved into first place with its sixth straight victory, a lopsided 13-2 triumph over MNB. The game was stopped in the fifth inning because of the league mercy rule.

The LCBL leaders got another strong performance by lead-off man John DePillo. The Flint native led off the game with double off MNB starter Pat Conway and later added another double and triple to go along with two RBI.

baseball

Greg Kuzia, Randy Baringer and Greg Everson added two hits each. Catcher Jim St. John also drove in two runs with a perfect hit-and-run single to right field.

Taking a 4-0 lead after two innings, Livonia exploded for five more runs in the third, followed by two in the fourth and one in the fifth.

MNB scored its two runs in the bottom of the third off winning pitcher Mike MacDonald, who allowed just two hits.

"THE GUYS have been hitting the ball well," said interim coach Stu Rose, in for the vacationing Ron Hellier. "The two keys are Baringer at short and (Don) Dombey at third. They've started to hit. When they play confident, the whole infield plays better."

Rose and his interim assistant, Glenn Murdock, led Livonia to three straight wins in Hellier's absence.

"We told them we'd try to keep even with RWA until he (Hellier) comes back," said Rose. "The team has responded because they know its playoff time."

Upsets jolt GC loop leaders

A&K Electric got back into the Garden City Class A baseball chase Thursday with a 9-7 win over the cluding a two-run homer, to spark A&K to the victory. Shortstop John Sabourin chipped in with a pair of RBI on a solo homer (in the sixth) and a sacrifice fly.

Going into weekend action, the Expos and A&K sported records of 11-4 and 9-4, respectively.

Dennis Meixner led the Expos by going 2-for-4, including a two-run homer in the seventh. Keith Jensen also had two hits in a losing cause.

Both pitchers went the distance. Winner Al Anderson scattered nine hits and walked three, while loser Joe Drabik allowed seven hits and nine walks.

ERHARD MOTORS pulled off an upset in the second game at GC Park, an 8-4 triumph over Three Kegs Round.

Greg Kuhnlein, the winning pitcher, tossed a three-hitter and capped a four-run Erhard uprising in the fifth inning with a double.

Kevin Parks added three hits in three trips to the plate and knocked in two runs. Mike Tither also drove in two runs for the winners on a sacrifice fly and a bases loaded walk.

Erhard raised its league record to 8-6.

Three Kegs, which fell to 8-5, made two of its three hits count on the scoreboard. Jim Remington ripped in a two-run homer in the fourth and Mike Franke followed with a two-run blast in the sixth.

Three Kegs starter Bill Robb, who worked 4½ innings, was the losing pitcher.

Signs letter

Livonia Stevenson graduate Gary Mexicotte has signed a national letter of intent with Bowling Green (Ohio) State University, head soccer coach Gary Palmisano announced. Mexicotte is one of four players to sign with the Falcons. The 5-foot-11, 170-pound college freshman was a member of the National Soccer Coaches Association America/McDonald's High School All-America team. The two-time All-Stater led Stevenson to the state Class A championship and a perfect 22-0 record last season. He scored 48 goals and added 17 assists during his senior year. He totaled 107 goals for his career. Mexicotte, also an All-Observer choice in basketball, recently won the James Brieske Award for being the outstanding athlete at Stevenson.

FLiP Rowdies take soccer act to Sweden

By C.J. Rieak
staff writer

What talented feet those FLiP Rowdies have. The under 18 girls soccer team, with players from Farmington, Livonia and Plymouth, have racked up 18 wins in 19 games this season, including Waterloo and Wolverine tournament wins. They've won the under 19 state championship and their division title in the Bonanza Express Soccer League (BESL).

So what's new? The Rowdies have been together for four years and won their BESL title each time. Last year, they lost 10 of 76 games played; the year before, they were beaten nine times in 85 games.

But come Tuesday, those skillful toes of the FLiP Rowdies will take them to territory they've never been before. The Rowdies will travel to Borlange, Sweden, to compete in the Dalescarlia Cup, the Swedish national soccer tournament.

THE ROWDIES are excited. The Swedish tournament officials are excited. And the families of the players are excited.

"This is the biggest tournament in Sweden," said Rowdies' coach Dave Lussier. That makes Lussier's job that much more difficult, trying to keep his players concentrating on soccer instead of travel.

"We had a practice this morning and they were all worrying about clothes and how much money to take," Lussier said.

people in sports

But what about the competition, coach? Can the Rowdies go into a strange country and match the best Sweden and other European countries have to offer?

"I've heard both pros and cons about it," Lussier said of the tourney. "I've heard our level of soccer in this area is above their's, and I've heard that their's is better than ours."

"But the opinions I've heard are from people who really aren't too sure. I do know the team that won the championship last year will be our hosts. I would think, in all honesty, we'll have enough to keep us busy."

THE 16 ROWDIES will stay with Swedish families to help defray costs. The Swedish officials were so excited about the local team coming that they waived the entry fee and have already sent tournament shirts to the Rowdies.

The team will fly into Copenhagen, Denmark Tuesday, then travel to Borlange. The tournament's opening ceremonies will be Sunday, July 24. Play starts the next day, with the Rowdies to play one game a day. Championships are slated for Saturday, July 30.

Lisa Rigstad of Livonia-Bentley and Shelly Stasz of Plymouth Salem are the team's top scorers, with Dorene Dudek of Livonia Churchhill, Kim Paterson of Bentley and Annette Ruggiero of Farmington Mercy providing "strong support," according to Lussier. Terri Groat of Churchhill and Anna Glenden of Kalamazoo also play forward for the Rowdies.

Midfielders are Lisa Russell, Lori Engel and Kim Reeves of Plymouth Canton and Pam Craigie of Livonia Stevenson. Defenders are Chris Lussier of Churchhill, Colleen O'Connor of Salem, Margie Wangbichler of Canton and Cheryl Galindo and Danielle Montroy of Livonia Stevenson.
Doreen Beagle of Stevenson and Jenny Gans of Northville are the team's goalies.

How you live may save your life.

SOME PEOPLE RETIRE WITH MORE THAN JUST A GOLD WATCH.

You work hard all your life and what do you get?

Well, depending on where you work, you could get cancer. Asbestos has been proven to cause cancer. Certain toxic chemicals like formaldehyde and freon are being investigated. If you've worked with radioactive particles or even worked near them, your risk is greater. And even if you've worked nowhere hazardous, it wouldn't hurt to get a checkup. Because the incidence of cancer after the age of 45 to 50 increases rapidly.

Over the next several years the American Cancer Society will be conducting more research into certain lifestyles and exposures which could increase cancer mortality.

So know the risks! Don't smoke. Watch what you eat and drink. Look for the warning signs of cancer.

And retire not only with a gold ticker.

But a healthy one, also.

Big family runs Fetzer Vineyards

The phrase "family winery" usually conjures up associations of small-time mom-and-pop affairs, the struggling wife and husband with one or two children pitching in where they can. It is a good association most times. There are a great many such enterprises in California wine country.

But the phrase, apt as it is when applied to Fetzer Vineyards in the Redwood Valley of northern Sonoma County, violates the image in several ways. First, the family is huge (even with the recent death of patriarch and founder Bernard) — numbering some nine children (plus their wives and husbands).

That formidable array takes care of most of the management functions of the winery, all of them except for chief winemaker. For that critical function, Bernie hired Paul Dolan in the late 1970s, and Dolan's place seems secure as an outsider.

There are, of course, other non-family members running things in part, but this has been and seems destined to continue to be a family operation.

THE SECOND exception to the stereotype is the scope of the operation. Last year Fetzer past the 400,000 case-per-year level, now exceeding neighbor John Pareducci by more than 50,000 cases.

ent marketing and distribution strategies established over some 14 years he led the operation. Growth at the winery suggests that sound profits are being made. The most dramatic example of this is the separate facility recently opened to handle the white wine production, which has now caught up with the red wine production.

Chief reason behind the winery's success has been the quality of its wines. Fetzer is usually associated with red wines and has come to be known as the producer of some of the finest zinfandels to come out of California.

The last several years have seen four different issues each year. There have been the light and fruity issues from Lake County, modestly priced and designed for early consumption. The Lodi releases have been elegant and noble, the Scharffenberger chews and rich, and the Ricetti hard and demanding in their youth, only to mature into rich and complex statements with five to eight years of age.

All in all, only Ridge Vineyards in Santa Clara does as well year in and out with this grape in all its complexities.

BUT, UNLIKE the scene at Ridge, the excellence does not stop there. Fetzer does nearly as well with cabernet sauvignon. Again, a Lake County issue is designed for immediate consumption (though soon all Fetzer wines will come only from its home county, Mendocino), and a Mendocino release is the equal of many others in tannin, complexity and depth.

Richard Watson

sumption (though soon all Fetzer wines will come only from its home county, Mendocino), and a Mendocino release is the equal of many others in tannin, complexity and depth.

The recent 1979 Cole Ranch (Mendocino) promises great things for wines of that appellation and the estate-bottled wines are also of great quality. Quite an array.

Fetzer's other reds, gamay, pinot noir and petite sirah, are generally of sound quality without being exceptional. Sometimes the petite sirah becomes a bit of a monster, but usually the winery is dependable.

However, with chardonnay, Fetzer excellence again shines. Try the 1981 Barrel Select currently available to see what a well-balanced, properly oaked Chardonnay should taste like. Marvelous!

AND TO SAMPLE what pure chardonnay tastes like, without oak-aging to develop complexity, try the 1982 Sundial. One has the feeling that a new age in chardonnay quality is just beginning as Paul Dolan acquires skills in working with this most rewarding grape.

Finally, for everyday consumption, Fetzer's Premium Red and White wines are available in 750 ml. as well as 1.5-liter bottles. Both sound investments.

A struggling mom-and-pop operation this is not. Many consider it one of the truly great wineries of California, this writer among them.

Bob Crosby and Bobcats to play aboard Boblo boat

Bob Crosby and the Bobcats may be best known for Dixieland jazz music, but they will switch to polkas or contemporary pieces during big band night aboard the Boblo boat Friday, July 22.

The cruise departs the dock at 8:45 p.m. and returns at 11:45 p.m. Tickets at $14.95 in advance ($15.95 at the dock) are available through AAA and Boblo offices, with group sales and senior citizens rates available through Boblo's office in the Veterans Building, 151 W. Jefferson, Detroit 48226 (phone 259-7500).

Crosby's musical career began with bouts of stage fright at the age of 15. He overcame the fear while in college by singing in an orchestra. He later became the first male vocalist in a band formed by the Dorsey brothers.

In 1936, Crosby was leading his own band and soon began appearing on radio and television and on the cover of music magazines. From the 1940s through the 1960s, Crosby appeared in main-room entertainment shows in Las Vegas, Reno and Lake Tahoe.

Satire loses bite in 'Trading Places'

"Trading Places" (R) has been around for several weeks, but I just recently saw it. I had heard some good things about the movie. People said it was a bright comedy, that Dan Aykroyd and Eddie Murphy countered each other perfectly, and that the presence of Ralph Bellamy and Don Ameche was an inspired piece of casting.

All true. But the movie is not without some notable faults. More about these later. Aykroyd plays a pompous Philadelphia executive, Lewis Winthorpe III. Winthorpe directs the commodities brokerage firm of millionaire brothers Duke and Duke (Bellamy and Ameche).

THE DUKE BROTHERS are always arguing nature versus nurture. Randolph (Bellamy) argues that, given the right environment, anyone could become a successful and productive member of society. Specifically, he believes anyone could manage the business as Winthorpe does. Mortimer (Ameche) argues that a person's heredity determines his behavior.

They decide to test their theories. Now the movie becomes a story of "how the lowly have risen and how the mighty do fall." The Dukes frame Winthorpe as a drug dealer. He is jailed, beaten, fired from his job, disgraced before his peers and tossed out on the street without any money. His assets have been frozen and his credit cards taken away.

Continuing their experiment, the Dukes replace Winthorpe with Billie Ray Valentine (Eddie Murphy), a street-wise black hustler who scrounges money by pretending to be a blind and legless veteran.

Of course, it is these extremes that heighten the humor as the situations are reversed. In this case, there are not only the extremes of wealth and poverty but the social extremes of the executive of the WASP establishment and the black panhandler from the ghetto.

Billie Ray quickly catches on to being a commodities broker. It's like being "a bookie," he says. Winthorpe never does the hang of poverty, even with the help of an attractive hooker (Jamie Lee Curtis).

WINTHORPE'S DOWNFALL and degradation are so great, you can't help but feel some pity for the man. This is no mean achievement on Aykroyd's part, when you consider how completely detestable he has been.

Where "Trading Places" begins to lose points is when Billy Ray and Winthorpe realize they are pawns in a game the Dukes are playing. Everything is very predictable from then on.

However, it is not just the predictability of this last third of the movie that makes it inferior to the rest of the film. The comedy becomes coarser, the social satire is diminished, and extraneous scenes and characters are introduced for no reason other than to pull off an overworked joke with a man in a gorilla costume.

John Landis, who directed "Trading Places," appears to have lost faith in the story idea two-thirds of the way through the film. This is unfortunate, because the movie is funny and the actors are terrific, including Denholm Elliott as an unimpeachable banker.

As if these merits aren't enough, Eddie Murphy has so much talent and charisma he only has to stare into the camera, and the result is hilarious.

Two bad ideas caved in to silly jokes and a lot of unnecessary scenes of bare-breasted women. He should have had more faith in the premise of the movie, the actors and, above all, the audience.

what's at the movies

ATOR (PG). Epic adventure of myth, legend and magic starring Miles O'Keefe in the title role, with Sabrina Siani and Ritza Brown.

CLASS (R). Romantic comedy about a young man who has an affair with an older woman who turns out to be his best friend's mother. Jacqueline Bisset, Cliff Robertson and Rob Lowe star.

COUP DE TORCHON (A CLEAN SLATE). Academy-Award nominee for best foreign-language film. Bertrand Tavernier directed comedy starring Philippe Noiret and Isabelle Huppert.

FLASHDANCE (R). A determined young woman works as a welder by day and a dancer by night. Movie doesn't make too much sense but the dancing makes a terrific impact.

OCTOPUSSY (PG). Roger Moore is again the dapper Agent 007 as he goes to India to crack an international jewel-smuggling operation in this 13th James Bond adventure. Also with Maud Adams.

PORKY — THE NEXT DAY (R). Raunchy gang members from Agent Beach High School tangle with school administrators, corrupt officials and their own active libidos.

PSYCHO II (R). After 22 years in a mental hospital, Norman Bates (Anthony Perkins) returns to re-open the Bates Motel. Vera Miles, of the original cast, also returns in this sequel to Hitchcock's chiller.

RETURN OF THE JEDI (PG). Third chapter in the middle section of George Lucas' "Star Wars" trilogy. With Luke Skywalker, Hans Solo, Princess Leia and other characters from the previous films as the Rebel Alliance battles Darth Vader and the forces of the Empire.

SNOW WHITE (G). Disney's classic animated feature about a princess, a magic mirror, seven dwarfs, a witch and a prince. The 1938 film still ranks as one of the best, perhaps the best, animated features ever made. Every child deserves to see this and adults should treat themselves to a repeat viewing.

STAYING ALIVE (PG). John Travolta recreates the role of Tony Manero, now struggling in the competitive world of Broadway dancers, in this sequel to "Saturday Night Fever."

STROKER ACE (PG). Burt Reynolds wears a chicken suit and races stock cars sponsored by Chicken Pit restaurants in a movie which is truly the pits.

SUPERMAN III (PG). Action, comedy and romance are on tap as Superman (Christopher Reeve) and Lois Lane (Margot Kidder) battle an evil entrepreneur and a computer genius. Cast also includes Richard Pryor, Robert Vaughn and Annette O'Toole.

THE SURVIVORS (R). Contemporary urban comedy with Robin Williams and Walter Matthau on unemployment, and even a hit man, Jerry Reed, looking for a job.

THE DUKE BROTHERS are always arguing nature versus nurture. Randolph (Bellamy) argues that, given the right environment, anyone could become a successful and productive member of society. Specifically, he believes anyone could manage the business as Winthorpe does. Mortimer (Ameche) argues that a person's heredity determines his behavior.
