Rooftop burglars heist cash, drugs

By Ariene Funke and Gary M. Cates staff writers

Rooftop burglars stole more than $21,000 in cash, as well as drugs and lottery tickets, from two Plymouth-Canton businesses last week.

The burglars entered the businesses — Kroger on Main Street in Plymouth and Richardson's Pharmacy at Ford and Lilley roads in Canton — by cutting holes in the roof, police said.

The similarity in the method of entry, and the timing of the burglaries (both between 6 p.m. Monday and 9 a.m. Tuesday), lead police to believe they are related, Plymouth Lt. Henry Berghoff said.

At the Plymouth Kroger store the burglars pried open a safe and stole some $21,000 in cash, including $400 in rolled quarters, Berghoff said.

Other rolls of pennies, nickels, and dimes inside the safe were left behind, he said.

At the Canton drug store the burglars stole some $200 in cash, $200 worth of lottery tickets, and about $6,600 worth of narcotics and prescription drugs — mostly depressants and a few amphetamines, Canton Lt. Larry Stewart said.

"It appears to be a professional job," Stewart said. "They did a pretty good job. It's the best roof job I've seen in a long time."

IN BOTH instances the burglars attempted to bypass alarm systems by cutting wires on the roof, police said. The burglars cut holes, about 12 inches by 24 inches, in the roof by using tin snips and/or hatchets.

At the Kroger store, the burglars dropped down onto a suspended ceiling before jumping down to a roof over a storage freezer and then to the floor, Berghoff said.

Likewise, at the drug store, the burglars jumped into the store after cutting the hole in the roof.

"They spent some time in the store. The persons were selective in the (drugs) they took. The quantity isn't such that it would be for personal use," Stewart said.

The damage at the Kroger store is estimated at some $1,750, including the hole in the roof, the pried safe door, and a safety door. The drug store wasn't ransacked, police said.

Currently police are without suspects in the case.

"They're not local people, they are professional burglars," Berghoff said. Approximately one year ago the area experienced a rash of rooftop burglaries, especially along the Ann Arbor Road business section in Plymouth Township.

However, only one of those burglaries fit the same method of operation used in the two recent incidents, Berghoff said.

In the earlier rooftop reports, the burglars gained entry through air vents — after removing grates or screens — leading police to believe the recent reports aren't related.

Family Y opposed

By Ariene Funke staff writer

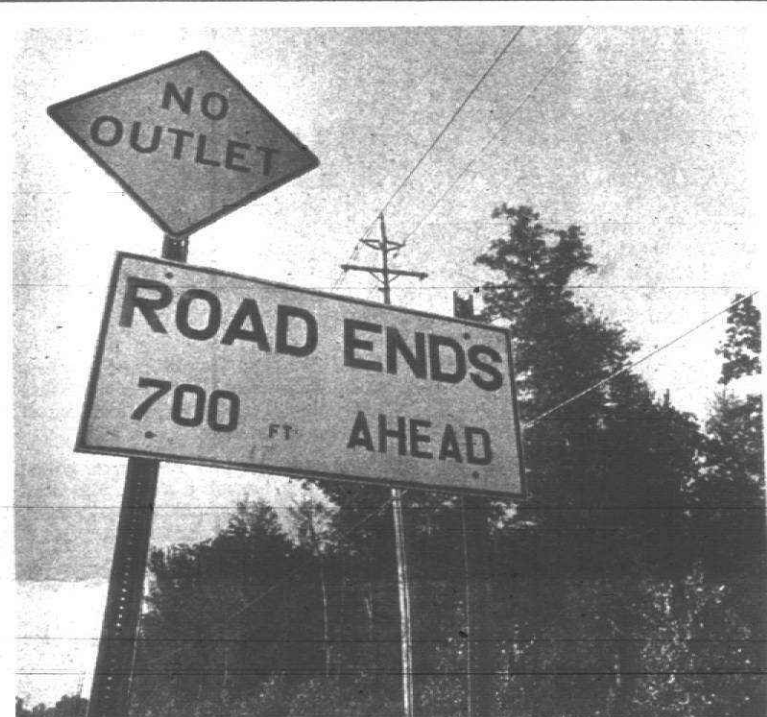

A proposed new YMCA facility will not be built on Morton Taylor in Canton because nearby residents strongly object.

The Plymouth Community YMCA, which serves Plymouth, Canton and Northville, wants to build a new full-service Y with gymnasium, pool and classrooms.

A Y site selection committee had been considering a 13-acre parcel on Morton Taylor south of Joy which is owned by Canton Township. There was a possibility the land might be donated for use by the Y.

But, in two separate meetings last week, about 50 residents of nearby Windsor Park and Mayfair Village subdivisions made it clear they want to protect the wooded area from traffic and construction.

Chloride suit County bites the dust

By Tom Henderson staff writer

Nine Wayne County townships, including Plymouth and Canton, cleared a big hurdle in their lawsuit against the Wayne County Road Commission last week when County Circuit Judge Sharon Finch granted an injunction ruling that the commission legally is responsible for the cost of a dust maintenance program on unpaved roads.

At issue were the 180 miles of unpaved county roads, and the nearly $500,000 the commission wanted to charge the townships for spraying the roads three times a year with chloride, a dust retardant.

Under provisions of a 1951 state law, the commission had been spraying the roads three times a year. The spraying was cut to two times in 1981, to once in 1982 and was eliminated this year.

Though the county refused to continue funding the spraying program, it insisted that the spraying was necessary, that the various townships continue it and that they pay for it.

IN FACT, the Wayne County Road Commission insisted that it let out the contracts for the spraying. The road commission charged $900 a mile, but was able to subcontract the work for just $600 a mile.

When the townships involved refused to continue the spraying program at their expense this summer, they were repeatedly ticketed by the Wayne County Health Department.

Under the terms of Judge Finch's decision, the commission must continue to spray the roads as it has done "historically." C. Gerald Hemming, a lawyer representing Canton, said he expects the season's final spraying to begin within the next several weeks.

The commission is expected to appeal the decision, but township lawyers feel the county must spray the roads in the meantime. "If the judge wants us to go back to spraying the roads, we'll spray the roads," said Louis Sugo, spokesman for the commission.

Commission lawyer Marty Krall is

In drug-related armed robbery

Cantonite sentenced to prison

A Canton man has been sentenced to 4 1/2 to 15 years in prison for his part in a drug-related, botched armed robbery in which the intended victim was killed.

Wayne County Circuit Judge Charles Kaufman recently sentenced 31-year-old Ricki Sparks of Denton Road. Sparks earlier had pleaded guilty to assault with intent to commit armed robbery.

ACCORDING to testimony, Sparks and two accomplices planned to rob Jess Brown of Ann Arbor on Lotz Road last October. The robbery attempt went awry, and Brown died of a gunshot wound to the head.

Sparks is the third person to be sentenced to prison in the incident. All are from Canton.

Judge Kaufman earlier sentenced George McCue, 25, to 4 1/2-15 years imprisonment on a similar assault with intent to rob charge.

Late last month, Judge Thomas Foley sentenced Dolores Federico, 26, to 20-60 years in prison after a jury convicted her of assault with intent to commit armed robbery and using a firearm in commission of a felony.

Testimony indicated Federico had a wholesale drug practice in the Plymouth-Canton community amounting to $10,000-$70,000 per week.

Federico testified she met with the men to sell them drugs but became frightened they would rob her. She said she grabbed McCue's gun and during a scuffle with McCue and Sparks, the gun went off, killing Brown.

Rosenberg finds joy in genealogy

By Ariene Funke staff writer

Ruth Rosenberg spends some of her most exciting moments browsing cemeteries and studying dusty land deeds. Rosenberg, a Canton homemaker and mother of two, is hooked on tracing her family history.

This hobby has taken over most of Rosenberg's spare time, taking her to far-flung cemeteries, churches and courthouses as she painstakingly links information about ancestors.

"It's like being a detective," said Rosenberg, 44, who serves as vice president of the Western Wayne County Genealogical Society, which helps people trace family histories.

"If you don't like history, I don't think you would be interested in genealogy," Rosenberg said. "I don't see how you could be a shy person. You have to be willing to knock on a strange door and ask questions."

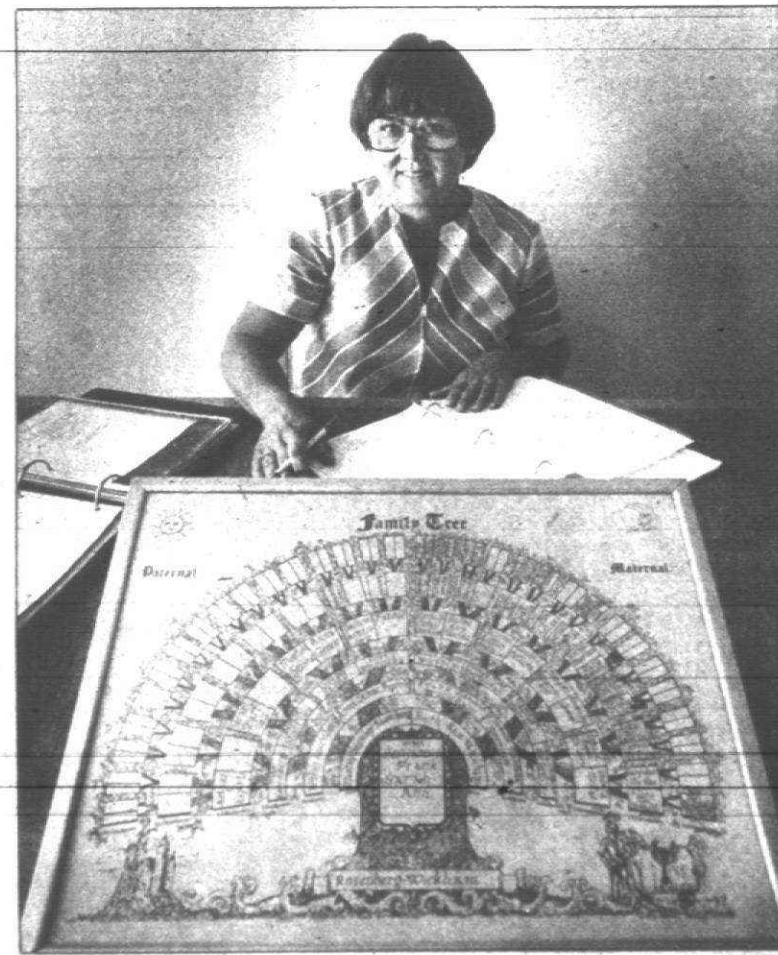

Rosenberg has traced her lineage to Thomas Wickham, a British tailor who came to Connecticut in the 1640s. One famous ancestor was "Light Horse" Henry Lee, a Revolutionary War military leader and father of Civil War General Robert E. Lee.

Husband Martin, a driver-salesman for Dannon Yogurt, is of Jewish extraction. His family fled Poland and Lithuania in the 1890s and '90s to escape religious persecution.

THESE HISTORIES are being preserved for the two Rosenberg children, Benjamin, 6, and Sarah, 2 1/2. Establishing these "roots" for the children got Rosenberg started on her quest.

Today, the Rosenberg home on Saltz is filled with charts, books, guides and binders chock-full of notes about various family members, cross-indexed

Genealogy once was no more than a hobby for Canton's Ruth Rosenberg. She now spends most of her free time tracing her family history.

Hilltop golf course worker reports strong-arm robbery

A 25-year-old Detroit man working at the Hilltop Golf Course in Plymouth Township reported being robbed at knife-point last week.

Alan Jarecki told Plymouth police the incident happened about 2:30 a.m. Tuesday as he was opening the gates to the golf course on Powell Road.

One of the two men involved shoved Jarecki against the gates and pushed a file knife under his arm, telling him "Don't do anything."

The man proceeded to take Jarecki's wallet from his pocket and removed $43 before returning the wallet under Jarecki's arm.

Before leaving via a car parked on the southside of Powell Road, the man threw Jarecki's keys away from him, according to police reports.

The man and his accomplice fled the scene in a car described as a light to medium blue early 1960s Chevrolet Malibu or Chevrolet SS. The car reportedly had a dark, tattered vinyl roof.

The first man was described as white, about 20-21 years old, 5-foot-11-inches tall and weighing 250 pounds. He had short, light colored hair and was wearing a white T-shirt, police said.

The second man was described as white, 5-foot-10-inches tall, with a medium build.

Road Commission bites the dust in road lawsuit

preparing for an appeal. In fact, he moved in court that the injunction Judge Finch granted be made final instead of temporary. "Until the final order is entered, your chances in appeals court are diminished," he explained later. "If the road commission decides to appeal, we'll appeal."

JUDGE FINCH made it clear in her decision that the case was clear-cut. "I understand their desire to save for a rainy day," said Judge Finch of the commission. "But I don't think the Wayne County Road Commission can do that. You can't stop services, saying you're going to save money in case something worse comes along."

"The road commission has not even shown a valid (fiscal) reason to reduce the services. . . . It (the cost of spraying unpaved roads) is a drop in the bucket if you look at their budget."

The judge said that under state law, the commission is responsible for maintenance of the roads. "And it's clear to me," added the judge, "that all the witnesses say that chloriding is maintenance. They may say it reduces, but they say it."

Excitement bubbles when Rosenberg talks about ancestors from England and Scotland. Bits of trivia make these people very real.

For example, Rosenberg's grandfathers went to Texas in 1911 to homestead so-called rich land he had bought sight unseen. The land was desert and unsuitable for farming.

PEOPLE WHO want to begin a family history should first write down everything they know about birth and death dates, occupations, etc., of family members, Rosenberg said.

Next, contact older relatives and glean as much information as they know. Later, official documents can fill in additional data.

ships that sought it — Canton, Plymouth, Van Buren, Huron, Brownstown and Sampter — it apparently turned the other one into a loser.

REDFORD WAS one of the litigants, but came up a loser because of the judge's order that the spraying resume in a historical manner. Historically, Redford is the only one of the nine Wayne County townships to pay the county for its spraying. And of the 180 miles of unpaved road in the dispute, 89 were in Redford, by far the most miles in any of the townships. At $900 a mile, three times a summer, Redford's spraying bill will come to more than $180,000.

Two county townships were not part of the suit. Grosse Ile and Northville were responsible for their own unpaved roads.

"I haven't enjoyed an hour in court since I don't know when I haven't had a better day in quite a while," said C. Brian James, who was representing Plymouth. "This is going to save these townships a ton of money."

Canton, with 39 miles of unpaved road, will save approximately $105,000 in spraying charges. Plymouth and Brownstown, with 22 miles apiece, will save more than $59,000. Van Buren and Huron, with 42 miles apiece, each will save $113,000. Sampter, with 59, will save $159,000.

"The townships obviously have no responsibility to maintain the roads," said victorious attorney C. Gerald Hemming, who represented Canton. "We felt that way all along and obviously the judge upheld us. We're of course very happy."

"Definitely, there will be an appeal. They could ask for a stay of proceedings to set aside the order to resume spraying. But that would be difficult, given this ruling, which is quite clear."

Ironically, the ruling, which came after five days of testimony from 18 witnesses, was handed down just days after the commission made a counter-offer in an attempt to settle the spraying dispute.

According to a press release, the county offered to set up a matching-funds program that would have raised $400,000 to chloride the roads. Half would have come from the commission and half from the townships.

In light of Judge Finch's decision, there will be no need for the townships to respond to the matching funds proposal.

By the end of September, they considered donation of land a crucial cost factor. Volunteer fund-raising projects will finance construction costs.

"THIS SITE (Morton Taylor) was top-drawer," said Mike Caffery, a Plymouth realtor working on the Y site selection committee.

"We tried to reassure them we wouldn't cut down all the woods, but that didn't reassure them (and) we just didn't feel we want to aggravate anybody."

"We do have other sites in mind," Caffery added. "It's a little discouraging trying to find a building site."

Caffery said the Y board will meet this week to discuss the site search and fund-raising plans.

Canton Supervisor James Poole suggested the Morton Taylor site, as well as a larger, 140-acre piece at Haggerty and Warren roads. Both are owned by the township.

But there are few if any sites available in the city of Plymouth, Caffery said. Many of the locations in Plymouth Township and Canton are in more remote areas, away from most of the population, he said.

"MANY STUDENTS ARE very transit dependent. And for many people, the only time they use public transit is when they are in school."

SEMATA's $16 million deficit forced it to propose cuts effective Oct. 1. The proposal would eliminate the commuter rail from Pontiac to downtown Detroit, drop from 267 to 188 large buses, and reduce the number of small buses from 146 to 98.

A public hearing on the reductions is set for 10:30 a.m. Sept. 19 in the Veterans Memorial Building, Detroit. The SEMATA board of directors will act on the proposal Sept. 20.

Woodward service will be kept, especially with the commuter rail being eliminated. But the buses will be more crowded, with more people standing."

IN WAYNE COUNTY, service to Dearborn, Edsel Ford and Fordson high schools is slated to be trimmed. More morning trips are being cut because of the low ridership.

"What we see at a lot of schools is students riding with parents in the morning and then taking the bus home in the afternoon," explained Lysett.

The reduction in small buses will affect other Wayne County communities where students rely on either community connectors or SEMTA connectors, which overlap cities.

The door-to-door service mostly would affect parochial school students. The proposal calls for connector services to be reduced in Redford (Redford Community Connector) and Canton Township, Garden City, Plymouth and Westland.

NO ADULT FARE increases are planned, since SEMTA believes increases would put bus service out of the reach of people below middle income.

The only suggested fare increase would be a 25-cent increase in youth fares, upping the basic rate for two zones from 50 cents to 75 cents.

SEMATA believes the increase would make it possible to keep school routes that would otherwise be cut because they are not profitable.

Students now pay 50 percent of the adult fare and would pay 75 percent, she said.

College students who attend Wayne State University mainly use SEMTA buses from the Grosse Pointes, Oakland County west of Woodward (Oak Park, Southfield, Berkley, Huntington Woods), and along the Woodward corridor.

You may try, but you can't take the country out of the boy

There is more than a little truth in the old saying that you can take the boy out of the country but you can't take the country out of the boy.

Presbyterians drew large gatherings with the oyster supper which opened the fall and winter seasons. They served oysters in all styles.

Catholics, who had a large playground next to the school, sponsored a carnival for an entire week. All the churches in our little town joined in to make the event a rousing success each year.

THE MEMORY of all these things came back to The Stroller as he ambled through Kellogg Park for the Fall Festival to greet old friends. In many cases it was like a family reunion under the trees.

Husbands are a lot like children. They need a lot of attention. They are usually messy. And sometimes, even though we love them, they tend to get on our nerves.

Husbands and kids have lots in common

"Where is the salt?" he is not inquiring as to the whereabouts of the salt. He is telling me that he has no intention of searching for it, and, of course, fully expects me to get up from the table and get it for him.

What can I say? WHEN YOU'RE married to a man who leaves banana peels on the coffee table, who has time to be liberated?

LET'S TAILGATE!

Fall means football to the sports enthusiast, whether it's high school, college or professional. Nothing beats a trip to the stadium to cheer the home team on, except perhaps the sumptuous tailgate picnic before the game.

A tailgate isn't necessary for a grand parking lot picnic. A small barbecue grill or hibachi, a folding table and delicious, easy-to-serve food prepared in advance is all you really need. These tempting recipes fill the requirements and illustrate the versatility of crisp iceberg lettuce, tender and delicious fresh American lamb, sweet Spanish onions and naturally brewed soy sauce and teriyaki sauce.

At the stadium, start the coals, allowing about 30 minutes for them to be just right. While you wait, kick-off the picnic with an attractive and refreshing appetizer. "Tailgate Party Spread" is served in its own special container — the shell of a fresh and crisp head of iceberg lettuce. Choose a "springy-firm" head that gives slightly to gentle pressure. The soaked lettuce is chopped and steamed, then blended with sour cream, cream cheese, herbs and soy sauce. Naturally brewed soy sauce, made from wheat and soybeans, is an all-purpose seasoning that adds a delightful taste that enhances the flavor of this picnic pack-along spread.

The barbecued "Teriyaki Lamb Riblets" use an economical cut from the lamb breast and make wonderful finger food. Braise the riblets before leaving for the ballpark, then at the stadium just place them on the grill and baste often with teriyaki sauce. Ready-to-use bottled teriyaki sauce, a blend of naturally brewed soy sauce, wine, sugar and herbs and spices, has a piquant yet mild, delicate sweet flavor that's a perfect barbecue baste for lamb.

As the appetizers disappear, bring out the rest of the bountiful picnic. "Golden Potato Salad" is served in individual, marinated sweet Spanish onion shells. These Idaho-Oregon-grown sweet Spanish onions are the "jumbos" of the onion market, ideal for stuffing. Available September through March, they're known for their mild, sweet flavor and contribute significant amounts of Vitamin C, B vitamins and several minerals to the diet. The special vinaigrette dressing seasoned with soy sauce creates the distinctive flavor of this outstanding potato salad.

Fresh American lamb, versatile and nutritious, tastes especially good barbecued. A three-ounce portion has less than 160 calories, is high in protein and contains significant amounts of thiamin, riboflavin, niacin, iron and zinc. For an easy ballpark barbecue, "Lamb Kabobs" win out. Lamb cubes from a boned leg of lamb are marinated for several hours in a flavorful marinade of white wine, soy sauce, olive oil, oregano and garlic. Place the lamb cubes and marinade in a plastic bag, securely sealed, and you're on your way.

The mild sweet taste of sweet Spanish onions and piquant flavor of teriyaki sauce are savory additions to canned pork and beans for the hot and delicious go-along, "Teriyaki Barbecued Beans."

Round-out the menu with a tossed green salad. Iceberg lettuce, tomatoes, cucumber, mushrooms and rings of sweet Spanish onion create a colorful and crisp menu complement. Iceberg lettuce is high in natural fiber, low in calories — only 100 per average head — and is a source of Vitamins A, C and E, as well as iodine, potassium and other vitamins and minerals.

Caution: This tailgate picnic is so flavorful and bountiful you may not make to the game!

TAILGATE PARTY SPREAD

- 1 large head iceberg lettuce
- 1 carton (8 oz.) dairy sour cream
- 1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
- 3 tablespoons dehydrated vegetable flakes
- 2 tablespoons parsley flakes
- 2 tablespoons freeze-dried chopped chives
- 3 tablespoons Soy Sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon white pepper
- Cocktail rye bread slices or melba toast rounds

Core, rinse and thoroughly drain lettuce. Scoop out center of lettuce head, from core end, leaving a 1/2-inch shell. Refrigerate shell in plastic bag or crisper until ready to use. Chop enough scooped out lettuce to measure 3 cups; place in steamer basket, colander or large strainer then place over, but not touching, boiling water. Cover and steam 4 minutes. Drain and cool. Squeeze out excess moisture with paper towel. Thoroughly combine cooked lettuce with sour cream, cream cheese, vegetable flakes, parsley, chives, soy sauce and pepper. Cover and refrigerate 8 hours or overnight for flavors to blend. To serve, spoon mixture into lettuce shell. Serve with bread slices or toast rounds. Makes about 2-1/2 cups.

TERIYAKI LAMB RIBLET APPETIZERS

- 3 pounds lamb breast riblets, cut into serving-size pieces
- 1/3 cup Teriyaki Sauce

Place riblets in large saucepan. Add enough water to cover and bring to boil; reduce heat and simmer, covered, 20 minutes. Drain riblets from saucepan; discard water. Pat riblets dry with paper towel to remove excess water. Place riblets on grill about 4 to 5 inches from hot coals. Braise thoroughly with teriyaki sauce. Cook about 8 minutes, turning over frequently and basting often with teriyaki sauce. Or, broil riblets about 4 inches from heat 4 minutes on each side, brushing frequently with teriyaki sauce. Makes about 6 to 8 appetizer servings.

GOLDEN POTATO SALAD IN SPANISH ONION SHELLS

- Spanish Onion Shells
- 3 (3-inch)
- Sweet Spanish onions
- 1/2 cup white vinegar
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup dry white wine

Peel onions and remove a thin slice from stem and root ends. Cut onions in halves, crosswise. Place in large saucepan or deep skillet with boiling water to cover. Cover and boil 2 minutes. Drain and cool quickly under cold running water. When cool enough to handle, drain well and lift centers from onion halves, leaving shells 2 layers thick. (Refrigerate or freeze onion centers to use in soups, stews or casseroles.) Arrange onion shells in glass bowl or utility dish. Combine wine, vinegar, garlic, sugar and salt. Pour over onion shells. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate several hours, turning onion shells over once or twice to marinate evenly.

Golden Potato Salad

- 6 medium potatoes (2 pounds)
- 1-1/2 teaspoons cornstarch
- 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped Sweet Spanish onion
- 3/4 cup marinade from onion shells, divided
- 1/4 teaspoon white pepper
- 1/2 cup diced celery
- 6 slices bacon
- 1 tablespoon Soy Sauce
- 1/2 cup diced green pepper
- 1/4 cup diced pimiento

Boil potatoes in skins until tender. When cool enough to handle, peel then dice into large bowl. Sprinkle chopped onion over potatoes. Meanwhile, cook bacon in skillet until crisp. Remove bacon, reserving 1/4 cup drippings. Drain bacon on paper toweling, then crumble into bits. Blend cornstarch with 2 tablespoons onion marinade. Stir remaining marinade, soy sauce, mustard and pepper into bacon drippings in skillet. Heat to boiling. Stir in cornstarch mixture; cook and stir over low heat until slightly thickened. Pour over potatoes, tossing to coat. Cool to room temperature; then add celery, green pepper, pimiento and bacon bits. Toss gently.

TO SERVE: Drain Spanish Onion Shells well and fill with Golden Potato Salad. Makes 6 servings.

LAMB KABOBS

- 3-pound lean leg of lamb, boned, trimmed of excess fat and cut into 1-1/2-inch cubes
- 1/4 cup Soy Sauce
- 1/4 cup dry white wine
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon oregano, crumbled
- 1 medium clove garlic, pressed

Place lamb cubes in large plastic bag. Thoroughly combine soy sauce, wine, oil, pepper, oregano and garlic; pour into bag over lamb cubes. Press air out; tie top securely. Marinate 3 hours, turning bag over several times to coat each piece well. Remove lamb from marinade. Thread 4 lamb cubes on each of 6 metal or wooden skewers. Grill 4 to 5 inches from hot coals 8 minutes (for rare), or to desired degree of doneness, turning over frequently. Or, broil about 3 to 4 inches from heat 5 minutes on each side. Makes 6 servings.

TERIYAKI BARBECUED BEANS

- 2 cans (16 oz. each) pork and beans
- 1/2 cup chopped Sweet Spanish onions
- 1/4 cup Teriyaki Sauce
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar, packed
- 3 tablespoons tomato catsup
- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard

Combine pork and beans, onions, teriyaki sauce, brown sugar, catsup and mustard in medium-size saucepan. Place on grill about 5 inches from hot coals. Cook, uncovered, about 45 minutes, or until thoroughly heated, stirring occasionally. Makes 6 servings.

SPORTING TOSSED SALAD

Toss together torn iceberg lettuce leaves, Idaho-Oregon Sweet Spanish onion rings, mushroom and cucumber slices and whole cherry tomatoes in large wooden bowl. Cover and keep chilled until ready to serve. Toss again and serve with your favorite salad dressing.

STEPS FOR PROPER LETTUCE CARE

1. SELECT heads that give slightly when gently squeezed. A firm, but not hard head is a perfectly "mature" head.
2. CORE by holding head core-end down, whack it onto a counter, then lift or twist out the core with fingers. Or, you may cut with stainless steel knife.
3. RINSE by holding head cored-end up under running tap water allowing water to run all through the head to refresh it.
4. DRAIN the rinsed head thoroughly with cored-end down in rack or on drainboard.
5. STORE in refrigerator in a tightly-closed plastic bag or special lettuce crisper.

Dressing is key to avocado cocktail

My avocado tree looks more like a bush and only serves as a momentary roof for birds. It was supposed to grow and bear fruit. It never has. I doubt it ever will.

I must rely on friendly neighbors and supermarkets for my avocados. That's why I've come up with a couple special recipes to enjoy the buttery-tasting fruit.

The key to the avocado cocktail is the dressing, which also can go on greens.

The frozen tomato mayonnaise, which also can top green salads as well as halved avocados, has one drawback: it takes a little while to melt. But the wait is worth it.

AVOCADO COCKTAIL
 1 cup mayonnaise
 1/2 cup chili sauce
 2 tsp. catsup
 1 tsp. tarragon or wine vinegar
 2 tsp. minced celery
 2 tsp. minced green pepper
 1 tsp. grated onion, including juice
 2 to 3 avocados
 Several parsley or watercress sprigs, for garnish

In container with lid, gently whisk together mayonnaise, chili sauce, catsup and vinegar. Stir in celery, green pepper and onion. Cover and chill.

Halve avocados, seed, peel, dice and pile in sherbet glasses. Top with dressing and garnish. Pass rest of dressing to table. Yields 6 servings.

WATERCRESS AVOCADO
 1/4 tsp. salt
 2 tsp. lemon juice
 1 avocado, halved lengthwise and seeded
 2 tsp. chopped watercress

Sprinkle salt and lemon juice on avocado. Fill centers with watercress. Serves 2.

FROZEN TOMATO MAYONNAISE
 3/4 cup mayonnaise
 1/4 tsp. minced onion
 3 tomatoes
 1/4 tsp. salt
 Pinch of cayenne pepper

Place mayonnaise in mixing bowl and stir in onion. Drop tomatoes one at a time in boiling water; let boil 1 minute, remove with slotted spoon, peel, chop and add to mayonnaise mixture. Stir in seasonings. Pour into ice tray, level and freeze without stirring. Yields 14 cubes. Place cube in center of each halved watercress avocado and allow 45 minutes to 1 hour to melt. Use remaining cubes on future green salads.

Here is a chef's salad that you can brown bag

Millions of Americans pack brown bag lunches every day. Some do it to save money, some to save calories, some to have time for shopping, jogging or just relaxing. Whatever your reason you can get a booklet full of helpful ideas and recipes, featuring Roman Meal Good. For your copy of Lunches To Go, send a stamped, self-addressed business-size envelope to: The Roman Meal Co., c/o Food Editor, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, Mich. 48150.

CHEF'S SALAD SANDWICH
 2 slices bread
 Softened margarine
 1 to 2 tsp Thousand Island dressing
 1/4 to 1 hard-cooked egg, sliced or chopped
 1 slice Swiss cheese
 1 slice ham
 1 slice turkey
 1/4 to 1 cup shredded lettuce or 2 or 3 lettuce leaves

Spread both bread slices with margarine, then with dressing. Arrange all remaining ingredients on one bread slice, then close with remaining bread slice. Makes 1 sandwich.

Success is practically guaranteed when you serve smoked pork chops

One of the fun things about cookouts is that you can go as casual or as sophisticated as you like. Your grill-top offering can be simply hot dogs for the kids or something as enticing as Apricot-Stuffed Smoked Pork Chops for special friends.

As outdoor (or indoor) chef, you're sure to be greeted with raves as you proudly present these delicately flavored chops filled with a unique walnut spice apricot stuffing. It's another delicious example of why pork and fruit are such a popular pairing.

For guaranteed success, be sure to select thick chops and cut the pocket from the rib side so that the stuffing will be sealed during cooking. This makes it unnecessary to close the pocket by skewering or sewing before cooking.

You'll easily spot smoked chops in the meat case for they look like fresh pork chops but are pink in color similar to ham. Smoked chops also resemble ham in flavor and texture, but are not considered ham since ham comes only from the hind leg of the pork carcass. The chops are cut from the prestigious pork loin that has been cured and smoked.

An important member of the meat group, smoked pork chops can play a valuable role in a well-balanced diet. Like fresh pork, the smoked chops are an outstanding source of high-quality (complete) protein, the B-vitamins riboflavin, niacin, thiamin, B-6 and B-12 and the minerals iron and zinc. Thiamin deserves special mention for pork is the leading source of thiamin, containing three times as much as any other food.

APRICOT-STUFFED SMOKED CHOPS
 4 smoked pork rib chops, cut 1 1/4 inches thick
 1 pkg. (6 oz.) dried apricots, coarsely chopped
 1 cup water
 2 tsp. butter or margarine, melted
 1/4 cup chopped walnuts
 2 tsp. sugar
 1/4 tsp. ground ginger
 1/4 tsp. ground cinnamon
 3 tsp. light corn syrup

Place apricots and water in small saucepan and cook slowly 8 to 10 minutes; drain. Cool. Meanwhile, make a pocket in each chop by cutting into the chop with a small, sharp knife on the

Outsmart the leftovers with these recipes for 2

Small-scale cooking can be both challenging and fun. All it takes is a bit of preplanning, and some tips from experts who have addressed the problem. They have come up with creative, exciting solutions to outsmart the "causes of leftovers."

For starters, look to the meat department. Round steak, a great economical and versatile cut, is frequently on sale. But even two hearty appetites can't finish one in a meal, and leftovers may be wasted. Round steak is one of those marvelous cuts of meat that is readily cut into manageable-sized portions. It freezes beautifully when securely wrapped (don't forget to label it with the date you froze it, and to use it within 6 to 12 months). It will also keep in the refrigerator for 2 to 3 days, awaiting a different, interesting preparation from the first time it was served.

Most cookbooks call for braising round steak in a small amount of liquid, because it is considered a "less tender" cut. But this means cooking an hour or more, longer than most care to devote to making dinner.

There are, however, ways to prepare round steak that are wonderful eating, easy and take less time. Broiling is quick, and when the cooked meat is sliced across the grain into thin strips, it makes for tender eating.

For flavor, marinate the meat first. Pourable dressings are popular, convenient marinades providing ready-combined seasoning ingredients. For example, Italian dressing adds the flavors of red bell peppers, garlic, onion, spices and herbs with no peeling or chopping. While cooking, baste the round steak with the dressing to keep it moist and add flavor.

POTATO SKINS
 Several months ago "Pilot Light" columnist Greg Melikov featured a recipe for baked potato skins. Since then we have had several calls from readers who have one way or another misplaced the recipe. So for all of you who missed it or lost it, here is Melikov's baked potato skins.

POTATO SKINS
 4 baking potatoes, about 3 lbs.
 1/4 cup melted butter
 1 tsp. soy sauce

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Scrub potatoes and pierce each several times with fork. Bake on cookie sheet 45 minutes and let cool briefly. Halve lengthwise, remove flesh, leaving 1/4 inch in shells, and reserve for future dishes. Raise heat to 500 degrees. Mix butter and soy sauce, brush on both sides of skins, place outside up on cookie sheet and bake until crisp, 8-10 minutes. Sprinkle on coarse salt. Brush on remaining butter mixture or try with favorite dip. Serves 4.

With meat mallet or edge of plate, pound steak well on both sides. Cut steak into strips; brown in margarine. Add onion; cook until tender. Add cream cheese and milk; stir over low heat until cream cheese is melted. Stir in Worcestershire sauce and seasonings. Serve over hot noodles. 2 servings.

Variations are endless. Add mushrooms and a pinch of dry mustard; or stir in tomato wedges and chopped green pepper along with a touch of sherry, and heat through.

With a bit of creativity, you'll find many other ways to serve round steak. Taking a tip from the Chinese, for example, it could be cut into strips, then stir-fried with fresh vegetables, ginger and soy sauce. Serve over rice for a meal in minutes. Round steak also can be cut into bite-size pieces and marinated in pourable dressing overnight. At mealtime, skewer for kabobs, with or without vegetables, and grill or broil, basting with the marinade.

Once you've decided on the entrée, it's important to choose a compatible accompaniment. Vegetables in cheese sauce are popular, but many small-scale cooks feel an elaborate sauce preparation is just "too much." For an easy cheese-flavored sauce, the Kraft Kitchens suggest stirring pasteurized processed cheese spread into cooked vegetables and heat through to melt. There's no grating, no slicing, no waiting.

Frozen vegetables packed in plastic bags are a great help. You can remove only the amount needed, re-close the package and return the unused portion to the freezer.

MARINATED ROUND STEAK
 1/4 cup Italian dressing
 1/2 lb. boneless beef round steak, 3/4-inch thick

Four dressing over steak. Cover; marinate in refrigerator overnight. Drain, reserving marinade. Place steak on rack of broiler pan. Broil on both sides to desired doneness, brushing frequently with marinade. With knife slanted, carve meat across grain into thin slices. 2 servings.

There are other tricks for tenderizing meats such as pounding to break up tough fibers. Stroganoff for two takes no chances — the meat is both pounded and cut into quick-cooking strips before browning. Cream cheese used as a rich sauce base eliminates the need for a traditional sauce. It's quick and delicious.

GLORIOUS GREEN BEANS
 1 cup frozen cut green beans, cooked, drained
 1/4 cup pasteurized process cheese spread
 1 1/4-oz. jar sliced mushrooms, drained

Combine ingredients; heat thoroughly, stirring occasionally. 2 servings.

Microwave: Microwave beans in covered 1-quart casserole on high 4 minutes or until crisp-tender, stirring after 2 minutes; drain. Add process cheese spread and mushrooms; microwave 1 minute or until process cheese spread is melted when stirred.

STROGANOFF FOR TWO
 1/2 lb. beef round steak
 1 tsp. margarine
 2 tsp. chopped onion
 1 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese, cubed
 1/2 cup milk
 1/4 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
 Dash of salt and pepper
 2 cups (4 oz.) noodles, cooked, drained

Freeze round steak in 1/2 inch thick slices. Cook in margarine until browned. Add onion and cook until tender. Add cream cheese and milk; stir over low heat until cream cheese is melted. Stir in Worcestershire sauce and seasonings. Serve over hot noodles. 2 servings.

ON YOUR NEXT visit to the Big Apple you might include lunch or dinner at Zeke's as part of your itinerary. Zeke's is on the corner of 52nd Street and 11th Avenue, down in Eugene O'Neill territory.

There's a little park across the street and it's not too far from the river where the Q2Z docks when she is in residence in New York. The restaurant has a French chef who caters to luncheon, dinner and after-theater diners. The co-owner is Kathie Gotschall, graduate of the Plymouth High School and daughter of Bob and Marian Gotschall of Hartough Street in Plymouth.

Zeke's has been in operation for about one year and is beginning to catch on, just as Kathy hoped it would.

NO PARTY bridge games last Thursday in Plymouth Cultural Center. The players took their annual Thursday after Labor Day break because the Symphony League's antique art dealers were moving in.

We do have the winners from Sept. 1. Carl Peters and Howard Griffone had high scores and Vicky Whipple and Mary Ellen Kenyon tied for second place. They'll be back this week for the games which begin shortly after noon on Thursday.

OCT. 14 IS a date to circle on your calendar. That's the day of the International Gift Fair planned by First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

Dottie Magee and Judy Lewis are co-chairing the all-church event which will feature the sale of hand-crafted gifts from more than 40 nations. They will have rugs from India, jewelry from many countries, table linens, clothing and many other imports.

Plans are not final, so you'll be hearing more about this. We do know that there will be an international luncheon. Jean Pritchard is in charge of decorations, Bette Weimer is doing publicity, Jo Ellen Odum volunteers to work in the booths and Sue Armstrong will handling setup and cleanup.

The fair is being arranged through Sales Exchange Rehabilitation Vocations, a project that assists artisans in foreign countries. Profits from the fair will go to missions.

They chose the early October date so that it would not conflict with other bazaars and crafts sales scheduled for the pre-Christmas season.

MICHAEL Lucas of Canton is one of eight artists selected to exhibit in the September Juried Photography Exhibition in the Northville Art Gallery.

The show, which features artists from as far away as New York, was juried and produced by D. James Galbraith, head photographer of the Livingstone County Press. The show can be viewed 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Friday until Sept. 30 at the gallery, 224 S. Main Street, Northville.

ST. MARY'S Church in Chelsea will have its second annual fall festival Sept. 23-25. There will be a spaghetti dinner Friday, a roast beef dinner Saturday and a chicken dinner Sunday. The church is on old US 12.

TERESA OHNO of Plymouth demonstrated basketry at the Michigan Renaissance Festival in Clarkston. The festival will continue each weekend, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Sept. 25 at Colombari Center on Big Lake Road, just south of Dixie Highway.

LARK SAMOUELIAN is starting her trim and tone exercise program at 7 p.m. today at the Plymouth Hilton Inn. The poolside routines, followed by a swim, whirlpool or sauna, run for 14 weeks.

THE HEALTH Promotion Van from the Catherine McAuley Health Center of Ann Arbor will be at the Plymouth Cultural Center, 328 Farmer, from 2-3:30 p.m. Tuesday. Area residents are invited to tour the van.

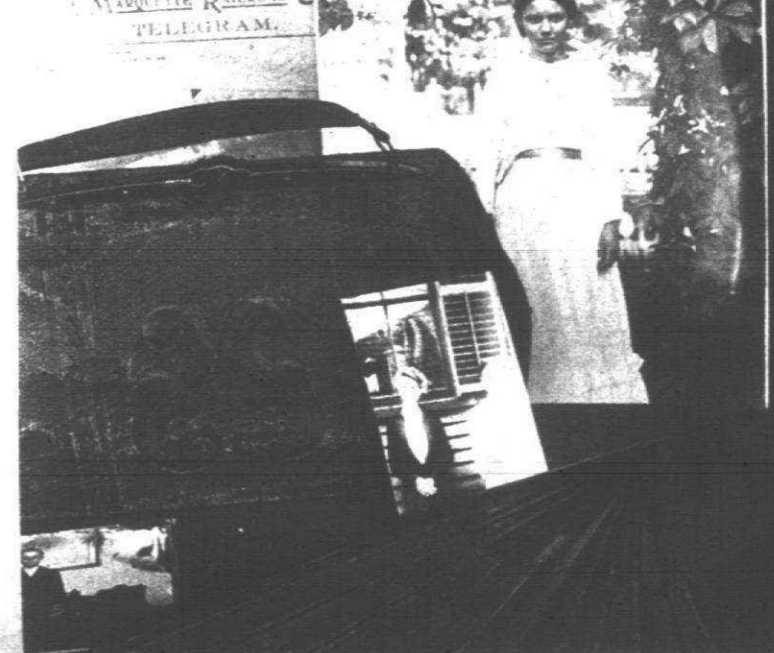

Sr. Paula Chermis and Cindy Beel-Bates will conduct the tour of the van and explain the functions of the health promotion office and the programs available to Plymouth residents in the coming months.

Festival windows awarded ribbons

The Plymouth Symphony League and Nancy Ball received blue ribbons in the Plymouth Fall Festival shop window decorating contest. The 10 windows decorated for the festival were judged Thursday afternoon by Pat Carne, a member of the festival board and the theme committee, Pam Anderson of the Plymouth Historical Society, Sue McElroy of the Plymouth Community Arts Council, and Margaret Koening of the Plymouth Branch, Woman's National Farm & Garden Association.

Theme for the displays was Plymouth 100 years ago. Awards were given in two categories, — group and individual.

THE SYMPHONY League repeated its prize-winning performance of last year by taking first place again in the group class.

Nancy Ball used old photographs and accessories for her prize-winning window.

suburban life

Indian summer on the verandah was the theme of the Plymouth Symphony League's window.

Suffering shared in New Beginnings

Terry Sweeney, Wilma Wagner and Jack Martin agree that having a loved one die is one of the most difficult experiences in life. Each of the three local residents kept very busy, threw themselves into their work and struggled to keep themselves afloat in worlds that had turned upside down.

They chose the early October date so that it would not conflict with other bazaars and crafts sales scheduled for the pre-Christmas season.

WILMA Wagner heard of a group in Birmingham called New Beginnings. It had been founded in 1977 by the Rev. Robert Weikart, an Episcopalian minister. He specializes in grief ministry and is associated with the University of Michigan School of Family Medicine Family Practice Center in Chelsea.

Although she had been a widow for a year, she said, "I cried through the whole first meeting." But as time went on, she found the meeting and sharing of feelings, experiences and solutions to problems, allowed her to deal with her grief.

SHE DISCOVERED that others experienced feelings they had not felt before. They found their physical health to be failing — attributed in part to the sleepless nights and loss of appetites. Tears came often and sadness seemed to rule their lives. Questions such as "Am I going crazy?" or "What is happening to me?" were common.

They felt misunderstood by almost everyone they met. It was true that most people could not understand because they were experiencing an unusual and uncertain event. Those who understood also had a loved one die.

"In the New Beginnings group, we talk about the memories we have of our loved ones. Group members share what has been helpful to them in dealing with their feelings and often try suggestions given by other group participants," said Terry Sweeney.

The meetings are facilitated by medical doctors, clergy and other professionals. There is no registration, group sessions are informal and free of charge.

THE PLYMOUTH-CANTON chapter of New Beginnings will meet for the first time Monday, Sept. 26 at St. John's Episcopal Church, Sheldon Road south of Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth.

The first six sessions will be conducted by the Rev. Weikart. The remaining group sessions will be led by Sweeney, Martin and Wagner.

Format for the six sessions will be: 1) Review the basic grief model. 2) Medical aspects of medication and medication. Review of symptoms of grief such as colds, flu, trouble eating or sleeping. 3) Storytelling — all have a story to tell and each story helps others. 4) Holistic aspects of grief — how grief affects the five and socially. 5) Change of values before and after. 6) What New Beginnings is and is not.

Various people are available to talk to the grieving by telephone all times of the day and night, to "walk with them in their loneliness." For more information, call Terry Sweeney, 459-5160; Wilma Wagner, 455-2947; or Jack Martin, 420-2947.

The new chapter will be the eighth to be formed in Michigan. The first six meetings will be 7:30 to 9 p.m. on consecutive Mondays. Thereafter, meetings will be on alternate Mondays. The group will meet year-round.

'Slow & sluggish'

Bentley turns back Canton

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

"We were slow and sluggish." Plymouth Canton football coach Richard Barr was talking about his team, but his words aptly described the game itself.

It seems forever that Canton and Livonia have duelled in the season opener, and invariably, the games are tight, hard-fought battles.

Last year Canton went into Livonia and knocked off the Bulldogs, 14-12. Bentley returned the favor this year, beating the Chiefs in Plymouth, 21-7, in a game that lacked the intensity normally generated by this rivalry.

THE GAME WAS played in hot, humid weather, and that may have had an effect on the intensity level. But neither coach would use that as an excuse. "Both teams were conditioned well,"

Bentley coach Steve Naumcheff said. "It was the high emotion level that wore everyone out."

Canton has seven players that play both offense and defense, and Bentley has five. But Bentley took advantage of one two-way Canton player to pile up big yardage.

"(Canton fullback/defensive end) Rodney Williams is a fine football player," Naumcheff said. "But with the hot weather and him playing both ways, we were able to negate his strength on defense. He got tired, and we had fresher kids in there."

The result was 223 yards rushing for the Bulldogs, 112 of those gained by senior Gary Sutherland. Sutherland got his number called more often than usual because captain Erik Tower was weakened by an illness, and Erik Stevenson was slowed by heat cramps. Both are starters in the Bulldog backfield.

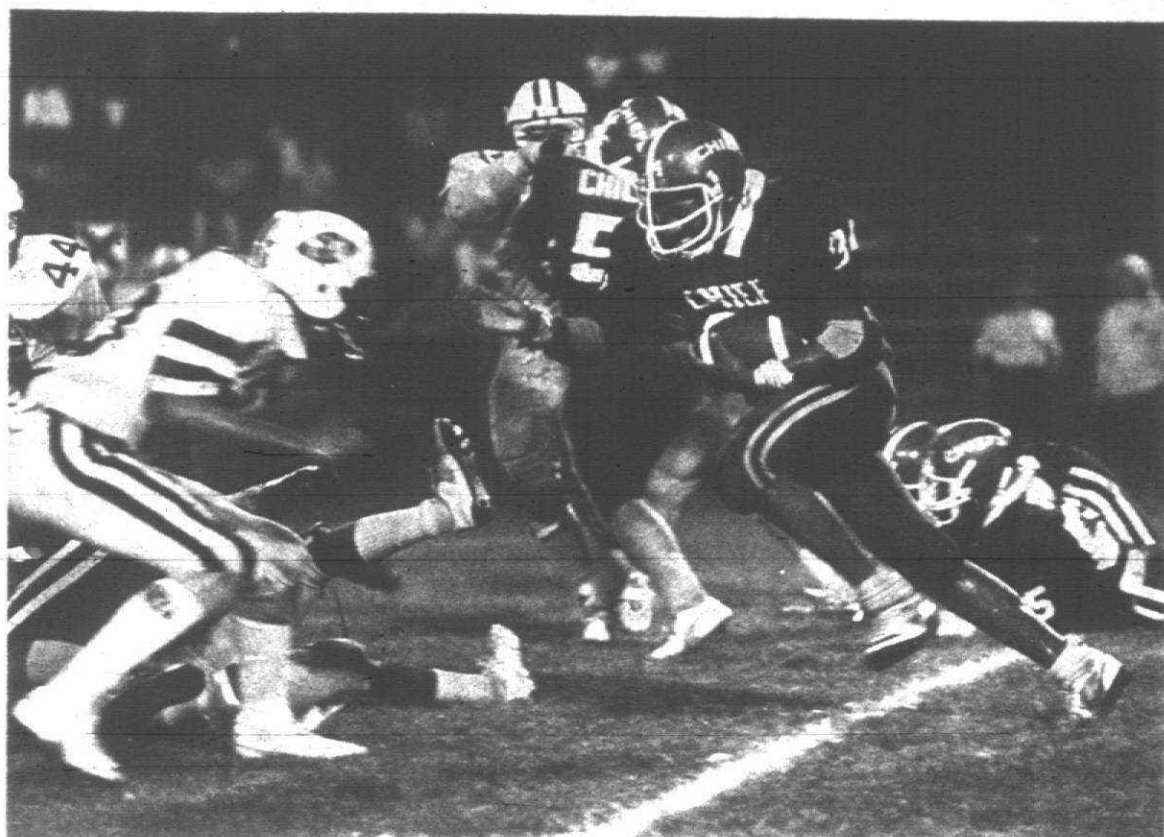

BENTLEY ALSO GOT a fine performance from their senior quarterback Steve Gregor. Gregor figured in all three touchdowns, scoring two on runs of 1 and 16 yards and passing for the other, hitting Marv Rons with an 18-yard strike.

Canton had the first scoring threat of the game. On their second possession, the Chiefs drove the ball from their own 39-yard line inside the Bulldog 20, largely on the strength of Williams' running. Successive motion penalties put the Chiefs in a hole, then an interception by Gregor on a fourth-down-and-11 play ended the threat.

A 36-yard dash by Sutherland in the second quarter put Bentley deep inside Canton territory, and Gregor finished off a 75-yard drive in 12 plays with a 1-yard plunge on a fourth-and-goal play. Chad Darke converted the extra point.

A fumble by Canton quarterback Jody Spitz set up Bentley's second score. With nine minutes left in the third quarter, Tower fell on Spitz's fumble on the Canton 30. Four plays later, Gregor hit Rons in the end zone, and Darke converted.

Canton came right back, marching 66 yards in 17 plays, including some clutch fourth-down conversions. The touchdown came on a 17-yard pass from Spitz to Dave Szary. Jim Kaske made good on the extra point, and the Chiefs were back in the hunt.

GREGOR ICED the victory by taking a quarterback sneak 16 yards for the Bulldogs' third score. Darke, who had missed a 34-yard field goal two minutes earlier, converted his third extra point of the night.

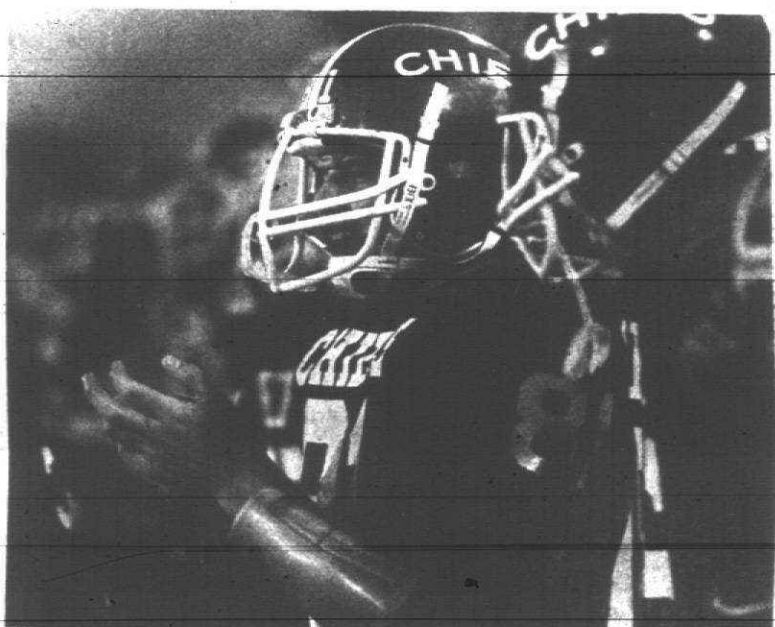

"It was a hell of a game," a happy Naumcheff said. "I thought both teams played well for a season opener."

Barr was not as pleased. "Our mistakes made them look good," he told the team after the game. "We played a lot better than this in our scrimmage last Friday. I'm very disappointed. We are a lot better football team than he showed tonight."

Bentley had 231 yards in total offense to Canton's 181. Ron Boyd was the Chiefs' leading ground gainer with 44 yards on six carries. Williams rambled for 39.

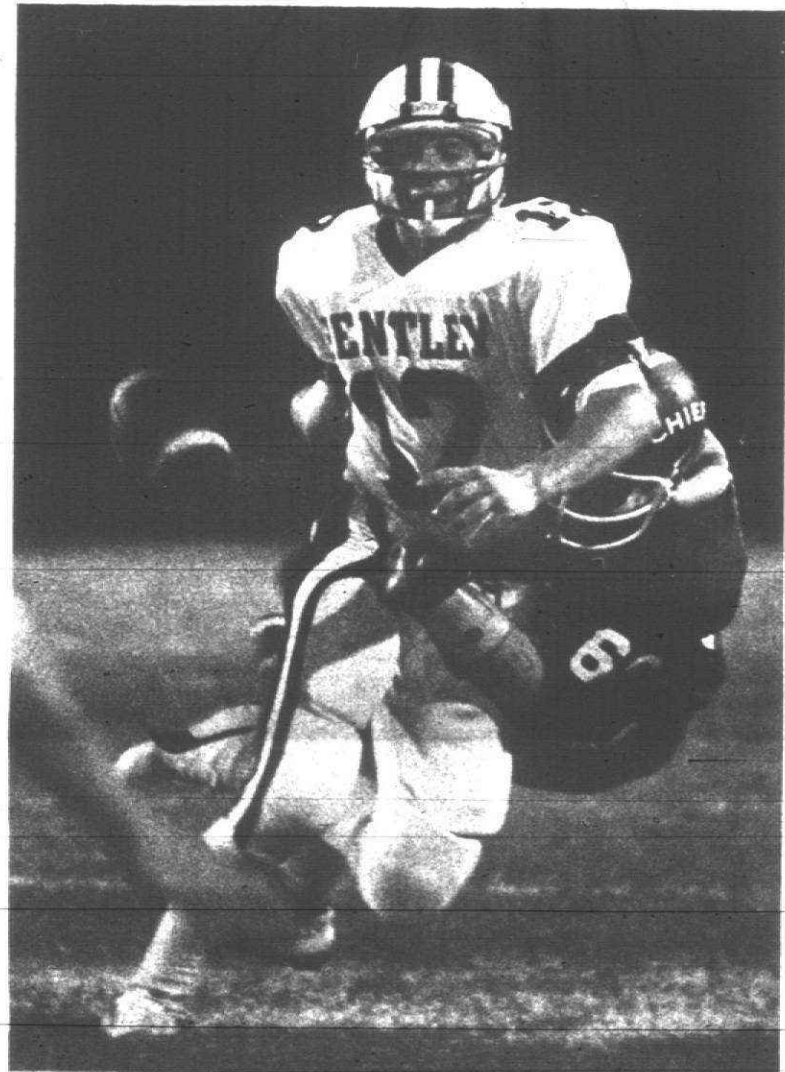

For Bentley, it was the Gregor/Sutherland Show. Between them, they accounted for 152 of the Bulldogs' total yards and all three scores.

"I was very happy for Gary," Naumcheff said. "He was knocked out of the Salem game last year with a concussion. I know he feels good about this one."

Sean Budlong encourages his teammates during Friday night's clash with Livonia Bentley. The Bulldogs topped the Chiefs, 21-7.

Salem's defense 'rocks' Raiders

One man's ceiling is another man's floor.

The adage applies to Plymouth Salem's somewhat surprising 12-7 victory over North Farmington Saturday.

One man's ceiling: Salem's defense held North's normally potent running game to a mere 64 yards.

Another man's floor: North tailback Ken Goss, who, with 4.5 speed in the 40-yard dash, ran for more than 600 yards last year, rolled his ankle the night before the game and couldn't play.

IT WASN'T a nice way for North coach Jim O'Leary to begin his first season.

"We worked all week on our running game," said O'Leary. "It's a little tough to change your game plan on the day of the game."

Conversely, the Rocks amassed 204 yards on the ground, running their wishbone offense to a T. According to Salem's statistics, fullback Scott Jurek ran for 72 yards and quarterback Mark Tindall gained 74.

football

"We had an excellent ground game. Our offense controlled the ball very well," said Salem coach Tom Moshimer.

Salem's defense wasn't all that bad, either. North could manage just four yards in the first quarter and 36 in the second.

SALEM TOOK AN early 6-0 lead in the first quarter when Ken Harmon picked off an errant pass from North's Scott Draper on an attempted halfback option and ran it in from 22 yards out. The extra point was missed.

The passing game failed North also. Quarterback Eric Engel completed just eight of 30 passes and had two interceptions.

"Eric has tremendous talent," said

O'Leary. "He kind of lost his poise today. He had receivers open but couldn't get them the ball. I didn't want to have to put the ball up 30 times. Heck, I figured 20 was too many."

However, it was an Engel pass to Draper, good for 20 yards that accounted for the Raiders' lone touchdown. That came with 4:44 left in the first half and, after Tom Spahn's successful point after, North led 7-6.

That score stood up until five minutes into the second half. Tindall threw a pass that was tipped by two Raider defenders into the hands of Mike Galliers for a 5-yard score. The Rocks failed on the point after again.

THE ROCKS HAD several other opportunities to score. Twice they had first downs inside the Raiders' 20, but fumbled the ball away. On another occasion, a Salem touchdown was nullified by a penalty.

Even 17-year veteran head coach Moshimer made a mistake. With the score 12-6 in the final five minutes of the game, the Rocks had it fourth-and-goal on the North 1. He elected to try a field goal.

The field goal was missed and North took the ball and marched inside the Rocks' 20-yard line. With 45 seconds left, Engel's pass into the endzone was picked off by Braig Morton and the victory was preserved.

"We won in spite of my bad coaching," said Moshimer. "I was thinking that a field goal would put them out of range, but of course that was wrong."

"I am just extremely proud of our football team. This was supposed to be one of North Farmington's better teams and we really took it to 'em," Moshimer said.

Salem fullback Scott Jurek and quarterback Marc Tindall combined for 146 yards rushing out of the Rocks' wishbone attack.

In season opener

Farmington blanks Blue Jays, 17-0

"Our greatest expectations were fulfilled."

You can't blame first-year Farmington High School coach Don Kuick for being just a tad jubilant. After all, his Falcon football team, winners of just one game in two years, had just beaten Southfield in their season opener, 17-0.

"I'm just so proud of our kids. I think it's the first time in history we shut somebody out in the opener of a season," Kuick said.

Ironically, the Farmington offense was just as responsible for the shutout as the defense. By keeping control of the football, the Falcons limited Southfield to just eight offensive plays in the first half.

THE CLOSEST Southfield got to a score was late in the fourth quarter, when an interception got them inside the Falcon 20-yard line. But the defense held.

"Southfield is not that good," said Kuick. "It wasn't much of a test as to how good a team we are. They ran pretty much what we thought they'd run. That's why we were able to stop them."

Farmington scored first after a Southfield fumble put the Falcons deep in Jays territory. Sophomore kicker Bruce Kratt drilled a 32-yard field goal, but Southfield was called for roughing the kicker. Kuick decided to accept the penalty and forego the field goal. His strategy paid off. Jim Laird, another Farmington sophomore, dove in from the 1 and Kratt added the point after, 7-0.

Kratt made it 10-0 with a 36-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. Senior Ken Waker iced the victory with a 25-yard return of an interception.

Kuick singled out the play of Mike Christensen, the Falcons' leading tackler on the day, and Waker, for their defensive play. They each intercepted one Southfield pass. Laird and quarterback Tim Berry were the Falcons' offensive stars.

Nothin' to it

Salem hoopsters breeze to 2nd straight

It isn't always going to be this easy for Plymouth Salem.

Or is it?

Salem flat-out trounced Farmington Harrison last Thursday, 61-13. They trounced Canton last Tuesday. They play Redford Union on Tuesday, and they should trounce them, too. Then Thursday they play Walled Lake West-ern and 6-foot-3 Val Hall. A trouncing isn't likely to happen in Walled Lake.

But, Salem has come out of the gates flying in 1983. Against Harrison, every member of the Rocks team played. All but one scored.

"THE OFFENSE moved the ball real well," said coach Fred Thomann. "I was very pleased."

The game was ultimately decided in the first eight minutes. Salem raced to a 19-1 first quarter lead and never looked back.

Potent

Rock kickers blast Hawks with goal binge

Goal scoring will not be a problem this season for Plymouth Salem's soccer team.

The Rocks rolled over outmanned Farmington Harrison, 9-0, Thursday at Salem behind two goals and five assists by senior Randy Johnson. Mark Flower added two goals and two assists and John Geddes, Matt Crook, Jeff Neschich, Tom Hanosh and Ebon Nash added single tallies.

John Knoeri and Curtis Clarke split goaltending duties in the shutout.

The victory raised Salem's record to 2-0. The team opened the season with a 3-1 triumph over Ann Arbor Huron, with Johnson, Nash and Kevin Sultana notching goals.

Canton netters sharp in loss to Ypsilanti

Lossing can be a learning experience.

A coach down on his luck must have penned that phrase. But there is some truth in the adage. Not all losses are absorbed with anguish.

Plymouth Canton girls' tennis coach Carol Michaels was more than satisfied with her team's performance Friday, despite a 4-3 loss at Ypsilanti.

"I was pleased," she admitted. "I didn't think we'd be that close to them. That probably sounds terrible, but I'm happy."

THREE OF THE four Canton singles players fell to their Ypsi opponents. No. 1 Linda Sarafian by a 6-3, 6-2 score. No. 2 Lisa Hays, 6-3, 6-0, and No. 4 Julie Sparks, 6-2, 6-3.

Third singles Missy Lloyd emerged with a singles victory for the Chiefs, defeating Laura Hoedema, 6-1, 6-3.

In doubles, the second team of Nancy Rinehardt and Ping Chou topped their Ypsi foes. Lisa Wilbanks and Christy Hoedema, 6-2, 6-1. And in third doubles, Angela Kocik and Renee Zens were straight set winners for Canton by a 6-1, 6-2 margin over Heidi Webb and Christy Zylstra.

The exhibition team of Amy Heatt and Jennifer Croil also won for the Chiefs.

Canton's Kristin Smith and Kelly Craig fell in No. 1 doubles, 7-6, 6-2.

THE LOSS evened Canton's record at 1-1. The Chiefs opened the season with a 5-2 triumph

girls basketball

Dawn Johnson scored 15 points to lead all scorers. Pam McBride and Fran Whitaker added eight apiece.

Daria Payne scored 11 of Harrison's 13 points. The Hawks shot a miserable 15 percent from the floor.

Thomann had praise for Johnson's performance. "She played a nice game. She rebounded, blocked shots, and scored real well. Pam was good, too. She had a nice assist and rebound game."

WALLED LAKE CENTRAL 66
PLYMOUTH CANTON 49

Nothing but bad news for Phyllis Cunningham-Mulroy and the Chiefs.

Before the game Thursday, they learned that leading scorer LouAnn Hamblin had a broken ankle and would be out of action indefinitely. She was injured in warmups prior to last Tuesday's opener against Salem.

Then they traveled to Walled Lake Central, missed a bunch of close-in shots, committed 26 turnovers and lost by 17 points.

As if that wasn't bad enough, coach Mulroy was slapped with the first technical foul of her career.

"They called us for a charge and took away the hoop, when it was apparent that their player undercut ours. I said 'oh, jeez,' and got the technical," Mulroy said. She added that it wasn't the officiating that cost the Chiefs the game.

"They just had too much size. They dominated inside," she said.

Central threw a 6-foot-1, 6-foot-1, 6-foot, 5-foot-11 lineup at Canton. Sherry Straus had 19 points for Central and Patty Fitzgerald had 18.

Lisa Russell played a strong defensive game for Canton, but her lack of size worked against her. She fouled out in the fourth quarter.

Canton scoring was led by sophomore Diana Knickerbocker with 13 points. Kathy Ross scored 12 and Nancy Gray added 10.

Things should get easier for Canton this week. They play Northville (9-2) Tuesday night and Farmington (1-1) on Thursday, both at home.

Bill Bresler/staff photographer
Nancy Grey of Plymouth Canton tallied 10 points in a losing cause Thursday night against Walled Lake Central.

Rolling Rowdies reap respect

It's the circulatory effect that has made the FLIP Rowdies, a girls' under-16 soccer team, such a success.

The theory is that a key victory gets things started (if a circle has a start). That helps build confidence, which in turn leads to additional success. Confidence and success then start growing together until, finally, a dynasty is built.

A dynasty could be defined as a team that just doesn't expect to lose.

THAT IS WHAT the Rowdies have become. In 41 games since the conclusion of the high school season, they have won 38, lost two and tied one. They've won just about every tournament they've competed in, the most recent triumph coming in the Welland Tournament in Niagara Falls, Ontario, a month ago.

They also did what no other team was able to do in the Great Lakes Women's Soccer League — unseat the perennial champions, the Farmington Angels.

And that, according to FLIP coach Dave Lussier, pushed the team to the top.

"We played (the Angels) for the first time June 16, and it set the tone for a successful summer," Lussier said. "We needed to believe in ourselves. We learned we could play at that level. The game gave us confidence."

What gave them confidence was a 3-1 victory over the Angels. Two months later the Rowdies, whose players are mainly from Livonia and Plymouth, beat the Angels again by a 3-1 margin.

THE FLIP TEAM also topped the Farmington Furies, an "excellent team" according to Lussier, by 3-0 and 2-1 margins to finish the league season with a perfect 12-0 mark.

"The kids are just playing together real well," Lussier explained. "There's lots of camaraderie and enthusiasm to excel. They trust each other, they're together as a unit."

They should be. This is their fourth summer together. At the Welland Tour-

Jamies takes 4th in USSSA tournament

"I think with a few breaks we could have went all the way. But, when you're fourth out of 94, you really can't complain," said Tom Tompkins.

Tompkins is the coach of Jamies, a Westland-based slow-pitch softball team. His team has just returned from a successful stint in the USSSA-sanctioned national softball tournament played in St. Louis on Labor Day weekend.

Jamies, which won the Wayne softball league and took first in Plymouth's team, batted 540 and hit five home runs.

Westland's Tim Abramaki and Andy Coppola each hit 525. Coppola, the pitcher, hit three home runs and was in the running for tournament Most Valuable Player honors, Tompkins said.

Jamies qualified for the nationals by winning the Detroit Free Press/Softball City Tournament.

They finish the season with a 68-14 overall record.

Jackie Gleason as Sheriff Buford T. Justice is a foul-mouthed character whose escapades become tiresome in "Smokey and the Bandit — Part 3."

the movies
Louise Snider

'Bandit' retreaded without Smokey and without humor

Bumping along the highway of life like a $5 retread comes "Smokey and the Bandit — Part 3" (PG). It's a movie that might have been pieced together from old cuttings in an editing room trash bin.

"Smokey and the Bandit" had some fresh ideas and energy. "Smokey 2" rehearsed "Smokey 1" for a decided drop in entertainment value. "Smokey 3" is a plunge to the lower depths. If it harbors an original thought, it must be hidden in carburetor sledge. The first two movies at least could point to the presence of Burt Reynolds and Sally Field. The third movie has no such advantage. Jackie Gleason, reprising his role as Sheriff Buford T. Justice, carries the whole weight of the movie on his shoulders. That's asking too much of Gleason, or any actor.

"Smokey 3" has no structure that could be called a plot. It is a series of incidents, each involving auto. There are crashes into milk trucks, egg trucks, ice trucks, even a chicken truck and a tar wagon.

SPRING FROM retirement, Sheriff Justice, accompanied by Junior (Mike Henry), his lummock son and deputy, is either in "hot pursuit" or racing on his own to win a bet from Big Enos (Pat McCormick) and Little Enos (Paul Williams).

The Enoses goaded the Sheriff into accepting a challenge to transport a plastic fish (the logo for their new fast-food chain) from Miami to Austin, Texas, in 24 hours. The stakes are $250,000 against the sheriff's badge.

To add to the fracas, they indulge in some dirty tricks of their own to detain the sheriff, and they also recruit the bandit Howie, an old body Cletis (Jerry Reed), posing as the bandit (red shirt, sunglasses and Pontiac TransAm). The Enoses have lured him with the same deal, only he has to steal the fish from the sheriff.

You would think all the chasing and crashing that ensues would be enough to amuse any audience that dotes on movies about cars, but just in case it isn't, "Smokey 3" also features a heavy concentration of vulgar language to appeal to the infantile mind.

Every time Sheriff Justice opens his mouth, an obscenity spurts out. This barrage of outbush language which tries to pass for dialogue quickly becomes numbing.

WHEN GLEASON WAS just one principal among several others, his outburst and mishaps were funny. When his outbursts and mishaps constitute the entire movie, they lose their punch. They are just tiresome and annoying.

It's unfortunate that a fine actor and comedian like Gleason is stuck with such an imbecilic script, but one assumes he was free to decline his role. He didn't have to appear in a movie with a plastic fish that has the aroma of a real one — old and unrefrigerated.
