The Canton Connection

BILL TESEN will be presented with a plaque by the Chamber of Commerce at its quarterly membership dinner tonight at the Roman Forum. The plaque is token tribute for his outstanding and unselfish service to the Chamber and to Canton.

Barb Owston will be the guest entertainer, doing handwriting analysis and Tarot readings with the accent on fun and laughs. The evening, including meal (prime rib, N.Y. strip, snow crab or fried shrimp Monterey, plus salad, rolls, potato, dessert and coffee), is just $12.50. You needn't be a member of the Chamber to attend.

Cocktails are at 6:30, with dinner at 7 and program at 8:30. For information, call 453-4040.

A MYSTERY MISSION

was undertaken by Canton supervisor James Poole last week when he sojourned to Washington, D.C., to meet with elected officials there. Poole won't elaborate on the trip, except to say it will bolster Canton's identity.

Oh, yes, Poole also says he'll reveal the details of his trip in three weeks or so. Till then, we'll hold our collective breath.

WALT HUDSON, concocter of chili that "sneaks up on you," has been very busy lately capturing honors with his spicy creation.

Hudson, a Canton pilot, recently won first place in the American Lung Association Cook-Off at the Wayne County Fairgrounds in Belleville, good for a trophy and $100. The very next day, Hudson finished third in another cook-off, this one the Michigan State Cook-Off at the Lark Restaurant in West Bloomfield.

"It was 48 hours of non-stop chili cooking," said Hudson, who was ably assisted by his wife, Claire.

Deputy charged in shooting

By Leonard Poger
staff writer

A Wayne County sheriff's deputy who lives in Canton is charged with murdering his sister-in-law and injuring his wife and brother-in-law.

The shooting of the three was reported early Sunday morning at the home of Todd and Kimberly Wilson of Garden City.

Charged with first degree murder in the death of Mrs. Wilson, 26, was Marc Davis, 32. He is also charged with two counts of assault with intent to commit murder in the shooting of his wife, Diane, 26, also a sheriff's deputy, and her brother-in-law, Todd Wilson, 25.

Garden City police reported that Davis went to the Wilson's Garden City home, where his wife had been staying, to talk to her.

But an argument began. Davis was charged with using his .38-caliber service revolver to shoot his wife and brother-in-law twice each and Mrs. Wilson once.

Davis was arraigned on the charges Sunday and stood mute. A not guilty plea was entered for him, and he was jailed without bond. A pretrial hearing is scheduled for 9 a.m. Monday, Sept. 26, in the Garden City District Court of Richard L. Hammer.

The shooting, said the Garden City police took place about 2 a.m. in front of the Wilson home, where Mrs. Davis and her two children had been staying while temporarily separated from her husband. The victim of the shooting is Mrs. Davis' sister.

Mrs. Wilson and her husband were shot twice, with Mrs. Davis shot once with the defendant's .38-caliber service revolver.

THE GARDEN CITY police were called by Mrs. Wilson about 12:45 a.m. that morning about a family dispute but "Things were under control when officers arrived," they said.

A neighbor called the police again about 2 a.m. shortly after the shooting on the front lawn of the Wilson home.

Tax rate trimmed by board

By Arlene Funke
staff writer

After residents complained "it's too darn expensive to live here," Canton trustees trimmed two of the proposed tax rates for next year.

The township board last week cut the police and general fund tax rates, while keeping the fire tax at the same level.

The police tax — while smaller than the original proposal — will be an increase over last year's levy.

Tax rates are set each year after a public hearing which allows comments from residents. The board in October will adopt next year's budget, which takes effect Jan. 1.

"We're busting our tails to keep costs down," said Supervisor James Poole. "There is a breaking point."

NEXT YEAR'S police tax will be 4.07 mills ($4.07 for each $1,000 of assessed valuation). That's slightly less than the originally proposed tax of 4.57 mills, but more than last year's 3.40-mill rate.

The tax will generate $1.9 million in revenues, a dip of $235,000, Gorman said. That $235,000 was to be used toward the cost of building a new police station.

The shortage will be made up through federal revenue-sharing funds, and will have no bearing on police services, Gorman added.

Canton officials consider cutting jobs to part-time

By Arlene Funke
staff writer

The second round of budget talks will occur Tuesday, when the township board will hold a special meeting to discuss proposed changes in Canton's style of government.

The board, which last week adopted the police, fire and general-fund tax rates for 1984 (see related story) now will consider recommendations of a citizens' "blue ribbon committee" appointed by Supervisor James Poole.

The meeting will be at 7 p.m. Among the topics to be discussed is the proposal that Canton shift from a full-time supervisor to a "superintendent," similar to a city manager. The superintendent would be hired by the Township Board to run day-to-day municipal affairs.

The elected supervisor would be downplayed to part time, chairing meetings and serving in inter-governmental and public relations roles.

Poole, who has long supported this plan, is calling for its implementation in his proposed 1984 budget. He also proposes that the township clerk and treasurer become part-time positions.

THE TOWNSHIP Board has authority to make such a change and to reduce the pay for the currently full-time administrators.

"I could argue it both ways," said Clerk John Flodin, in office since 1956. "I could be more objective if I wasn't talking about myself. I guess it sounds like sour grapes, but this (clerk's) position has been full time for 12 or 13 years. There should be an elected official here all the time."

The township supervisor's position carries a "tremendous" demand on time and finances, Flodin added.

Treasurer Maria Sterlini, serving as Canton's first full-time treasurer, opposes returning to part time. She cited a heavy workload, accountability to residents and a need for "checks and balances."

"I hope they are going to analyze this very carefully," Sterlini added. "I have had the benefit of coming in here when it was part time. I have been through all phases (and) I couldn't support going back to that."

THE COMMITTEE was formed last spring at the behest of Poole, who wanted studies of several issues which had been discussed but never acted upon. Poole included some of the group's ideas in his budget.

Among the committee's recommendations were:

- Hiring a professional superintendent who would not be "influenced by vested interest groups and political pressures." (The committee did not study the clerk and treasurer positions.)

- Setting up a joint dispatch operation for police and fire. Poole's proposed 1984 budget, now under review by the township board, calls for hiring nine civilian dispatchers to deploy police and fire runs, freeing up sworn officers for other duties.

- The budget also recommends hiring a full-time civilian administrator for the police department, relieving lieutenants and sergeants for other duties.

- Cross-training police officers and firefighters to perform both duties.

- Appointing a committee to investigate the feasibility of converting from a charter township to a city government.

The committee also recommended, among other things, setting a long-range plan to bolster commercial and industrial development, and finding a way to improve Canton's roads.

Chairing the committee was Robin Koebel, a bank branch manager. Other committee members include a clergyman, a pizzeria owner, an architect, a controller, an employee of Automobile Club of Michigan, and a bank manager.

Mediation fruitless

Bargaining drags on for area teachers

Bargainers for the Plymouth-Canton school district and its teachers went to mediation Friday. However, the one-hour session brought the two sides no closer to agreement on a wage re-opener clause.

Teachers currently are working under a two-year contract that expires in June.

"Our position basically is unchanged, and so is theirs," said Tom Cotner, chief negotiator for the Plymouth-Canton Education Association.

"We just restated our positions. No progress was made."

Cotner, who resigned his union post after the teachers voted in late August to return to work, resumed his bargaining duties Tuesday after fellow teachers circulated petitions in a strong show of support.

A UNION request for binding fact finding was turned down by the district, Cotner said.

Under binding factfinding, both sides report to an arbitrator on what they perceive to be the financial situation of the district and how their proposals are fair and equitable within that context, he added. Whatever decision the fact-finder reaches after listening to each side must be accepted by both.

"We were interested in that because it would bring a certain end to (bargaining) within a period of time," said Cotner, adding that the district gave no reason for rejecting the plan.

"We were concerned that the process be expedited because of the situation that exists with the support groups

CEP students outscore national counterparts

Despite the national gloom and doom concerning American education, there is some good news for Plymouth-Canton schools, according to recent test and survey results.

Students here score well when compared to their counterparts across the country, teachers provide an atmosphere where the children are comfortable with their progress in relation to the other students; and, for the most part, parents are satisfied with the instruction their children receive.

That the Plymouth-Canton students outscore their counterparts nationwide was shown in recently released results of comprehensive tests taken last spring. Pupils in grades three, five and seven took a standard battery of tests known as the Iowa Test of Basic Skills.

Those in grade 11 took the Test of Achievement and Proficiency.

That their parents are relatively satisfied and that their teachers are supportive come from questionnaires administered last spring by the district's division of instruction and its office of research and data processing.

FIRST THE test results:

- The highest level of performance was achieved by the high school juniors on the mathematics portion of their Test of Achievement and Proficiency. On this test, the national average is 11.8, meaning that the average student tested across the nation was nearly at a 12th-grade proficiency level. Yet,

Exchange students discover the U.S.

By M.S. Dillon Ward
staff writer

"Even the lift boy said, 'welcome to the U.S.,'" said Carsten Kuehnstopp of Germany.
"They tell you to have a nice day when you shop. It's something in Sweden, we never say that," said Maria Tamayo of Stockholm.
"The American people are helpful and smile always," said Mika Heinimo of Vantaa, Finland.
The teen-agers, three of 800 new arrivals in the States for a one-year stay, were getting to know each other during a Youth for Understanding (YU) orientation at the Newburgh Methodist Church in Westland recently.
Originated in Ann Arbor as an exchange program for German and American youth, YU has become a worldwide organization, offering young people and host families the opportunity to get to know each other and learn something of foreign countries and cultures.

European, Oriental and Mexican teen-agers are attending school while staying with families throughout the county. American hosts are paying for room and board and receive $50 tax deductions for each month the young visitors are in school.

Nearly 30 Youth for Understanding exchange students from around the world have arrived for a year's stay in metropolitan Detroit. Many, like Japan's Mayako Aoki, (seventh from right), worked odd jobs like washing dishes and delivering newspapers to earn the $3,000-$4,000 the trip is costing them.

The Swedish, German, Finnish, Swiss, Japanese, Danish and Mexican students are new in more than one way. Travel-weary but excited, many were overwhelmed to clear airport customs and be greeted by shouting swarms of flag-waving, sign-bearing families and friends.
"We compare it to bringing a new baby home for the first time," said Westland's Lynne Larmee, a YU area representative and confessed flag-waver.
"We know they're tired and it's a lot to handle, but we can't help it."
THOUGH EXCITING, the first meeting also was suspenseful and a bit tense for students, most of whom arrived during August.
"I was so afraid about the first minute with my host family. I did not know what shall we do when we see each other," said Carsten, a tall blond from West Berlin staying with Jim and Carol Verkennis of Westland.
"Everyone was there waiting, the escalators all full of people and the crowd with signs. I felt embarrassed. "It was a great shock for me."
Arriving was just the beginning of what's shaping into a year chockfull of culture shock for the 15-18-year-old visitors.
Peter Ohle of West Germany, residing with Plymouth's Diane and James Hines, was taken aback at what he considered light academic loads at Centennial Educational Park.
"Here we study so few subjects. In Germany you don't have choice and you don't have the same lessons at the same time each day," said Ohle, who at home would be taking physics, biology, Latin, French and mathematics as well as the courses he's now enrolled in.
Hanover, Germany's Gaby Schilling, who's found an American home with the Hixons in Livonia, "cried so hard" after her first days of school because "it is so hard to make friends."
"I know I have to be patient, but I just can't," she said.
"Slowly it is getting better."
Surprising to several students are America's lack of familiarity with foreign cultures and inability to speak a second or third language.
"Most Americans won't leave their country," said Peter.
"They should go out and see what's happening in the world and not be so isolated."

While Finland's Hanni Hakli (left) and Vesa Vuola are relishing their international adventure there's no mistaking how special a fellow countryman is when you've left your homeland behind. Hanni, enjoying a second visit with the Smiths in Plymouth, advises her counterparts to "be honest with yourselves. Using the language is difficult, but tell everything to your host family — the things that are okay and the things that bother you or there will be problems."

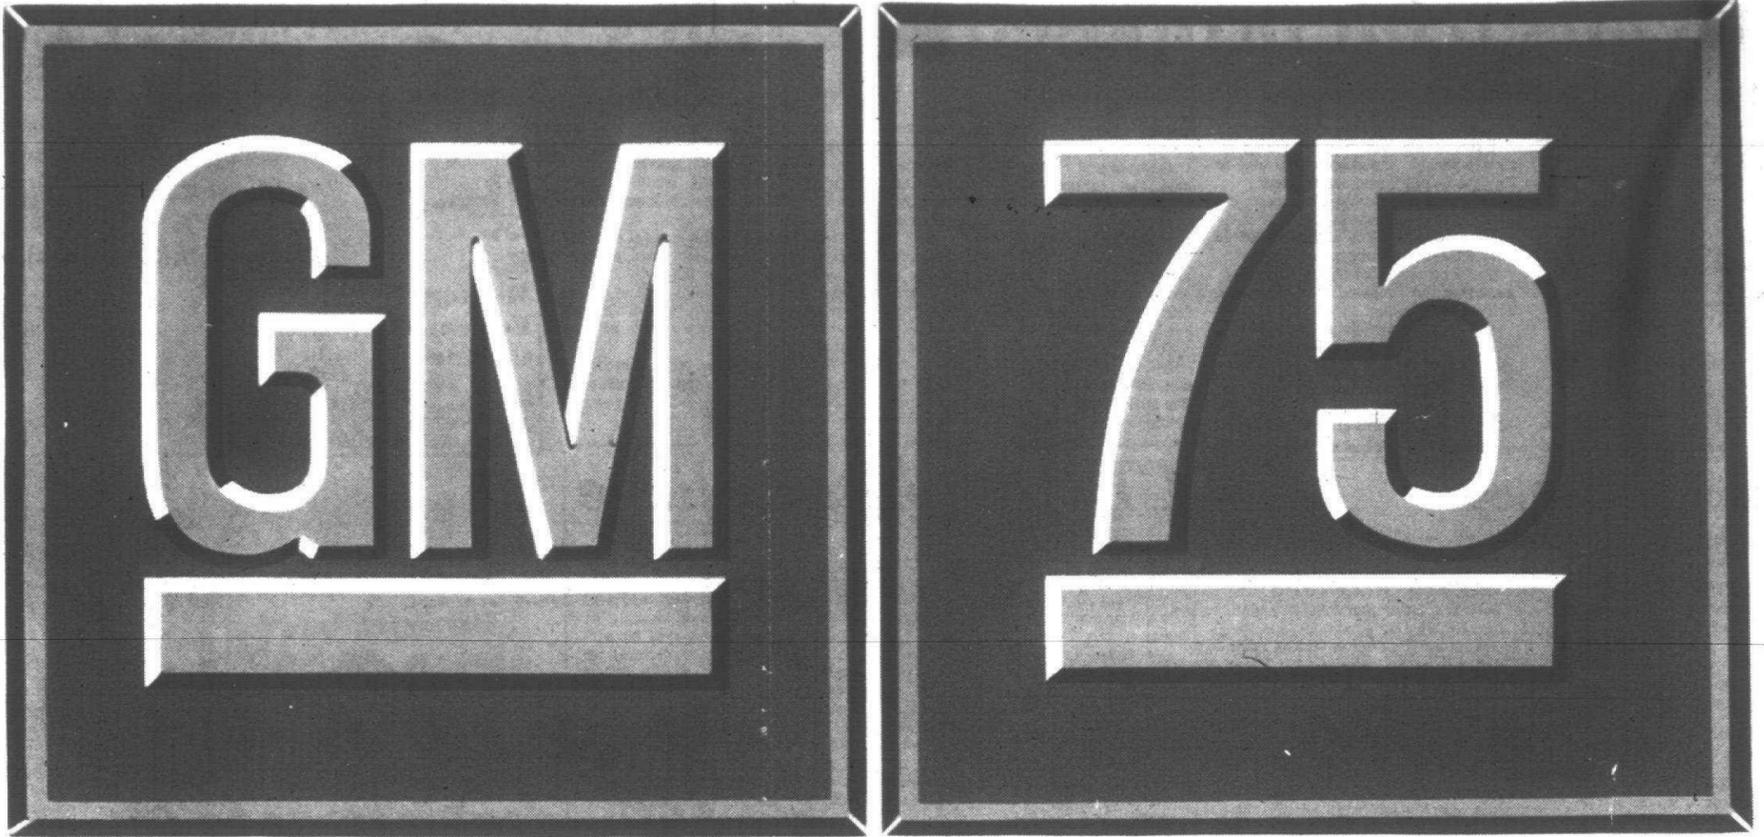

West Germany's Peter Ohle says American teen-agers are too isolated and have easier academically than German students.

Maria Tamayo of Sweden found an American home with Carol and Jerry Bourlier of Canton. According to the Stockholm native, Youth for Understanding can't guarantee students will be matched with families in the area they choose, "but if you are asking a lot, they don't put you in Florida."

Chefs in Training create taste treats with rice

In an idyllic setting high above the Hudson River just north of New York City, future chefs learn the skills, techniques and practicalities of running a food operation at the Culinary Institute of America. Whether hotel, restaurant, catering, or in-plant foodservice, the rules are the same: serve the best food in the most pleasant manner...while maintaining a profitable bottom line for financial statement.

The enthusiasm and creativity of these young people are astounding! They are immersed in their craft...and it is a craft rather than a trade. Recently they shared their creativity with the Rice Council of America to come up with interesting rice dishes to serve with meat, poultry, or seafood.

And just as rice, at less than 4 cents per serving, can add to the profitability of a restaurant operation...it can help with the budget at home, too. Rice, a gently flavored food, does not need expensive toppings to add to its appeal. But a judicious seasoning or two added during or after cooking can make a meal a special one.

Try the following recipes and you will dress up your menus just as the professionals do.

CARIBBEAN ISLAND RICE

Refreshing as a tropical breeze

- | | |
|----------------------------------|--|
| 1 cup uncooked rice | 1/2 cup flaked or shredded coconut |
| 1 cup orange juice | 2 tablespoons unsalted butter or margarine |
| 1 cup water | 2 cups peeled and diced papaya or mango |
| 1-1/2 teaspoons salt | |
| 1/4 teaspoon ground white pepper | |

Combine rice, orange juice, water, salt, and pepper in 1-1/2 to 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a boil; stir once or twice. Lower heat, cover, and simmer 15 minutes, or until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed. Stir in coconut and butter. Cover and let stand 10 minutes. Fold in papaya pieces. Makes 6 servings.

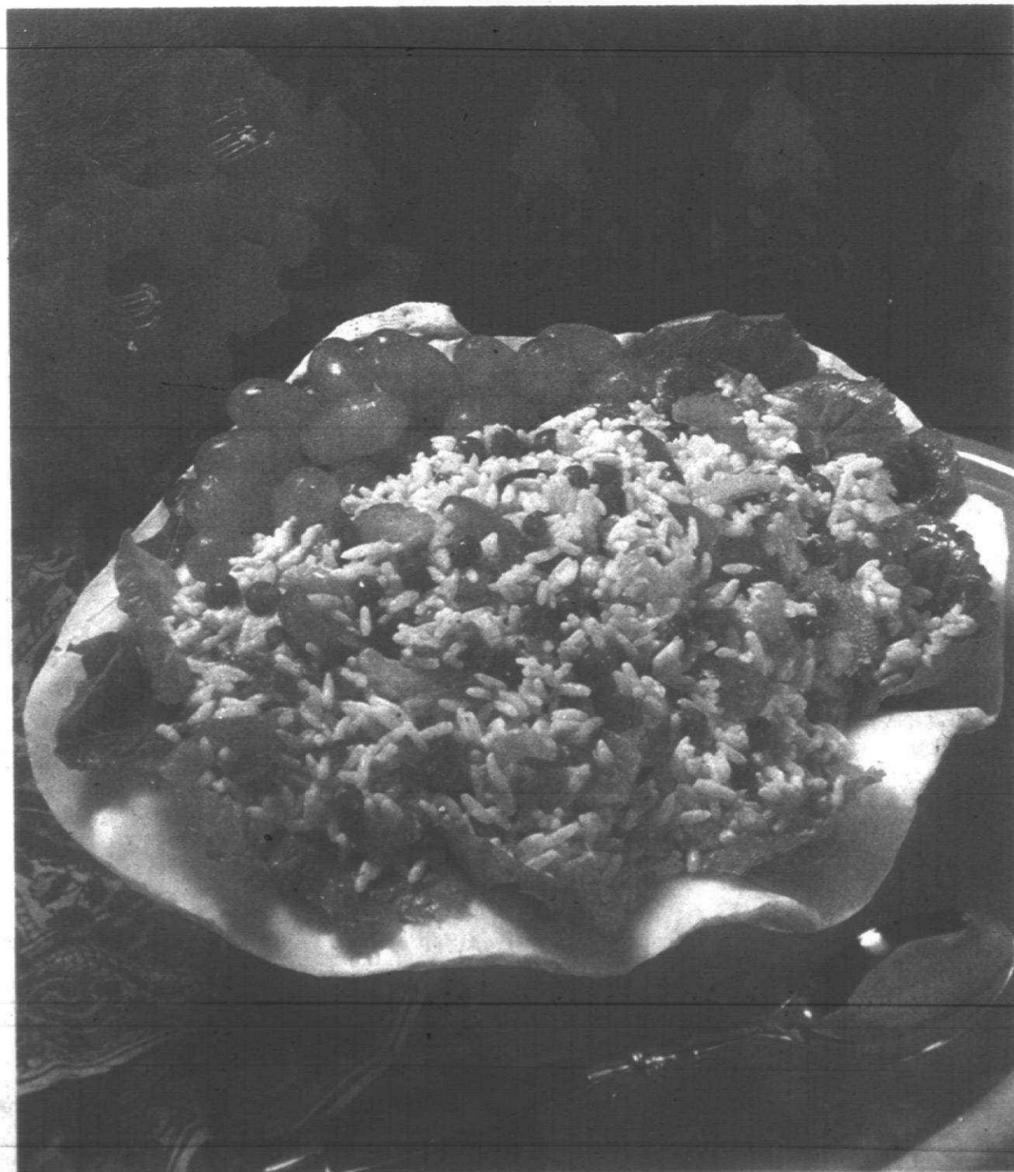

*Or use 2 cups diced canned mangos or peaches, drained.

CHUTNEY RICE

A touch of India

- | | |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 3 cups cooked rice, cooled | 1/2 cup mayonnaise |
| 1 cup cooked green peas | 2 tablespoons chutney, chopped |
| 1 cup sliced celery | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| 18 seedless green grapes, halved | 1/2 teaspoon ground white pepper |
| 1 tablespoon minced onion | 1/2 teaspoon powdered mustard |

Combine rice, peas, celery, grapes, and onion in large mixing bowl. Blend remaining ingredients. Pour over rice mixture. Toss lightly. Chill. Serve on salad greens and garnish with whole grapes, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

SOUTHERN RICE

Good enough to be a dessert, too

- | | |
|---|---|
| 3 cups hot cooked rice | 1/2 cup dry roasted peanuts, coarsely chopped |
| 2 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar | Salt and ground white pepper |
| 1 tart cooking apple, cored and chopped | |

Combine rice and sugar. Toss with a fork to mix well. Add apple and peanuts. Season to taste. Makes 6 servings.

CARAWAY BACON RICE

An outstanding combination of flavors

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| 6 slices bacon | 1 can (8 ounces) or 1 cup sauerkraut, rinsed and drained |
| 1/3 cup chopped onion | 1/2 teaspoon caraway seed |
| 1/2 green pepper, coarsely chopped | Salt and ground black pepper |
| 1 small clove garlic, minced | |
| 3 cups cooked rice | |

Cook bacon in large skillet over low heat until crisp. Drain on absorbent paper. Pour off fat; return 2 tablespoons to skillet. Add onion to skillet and cook until soft. Add green pepper and garlic. Cook until pepper is tender crisp. Stir in rice, sauerkraut, and caraway seed. Heat thoroughly. Add bacon, crumbled, and season to taste. Makes 6 servings.

From appetizers to dessert, dairy products provide taste and nutrition

Ice-cream cones at the fair. Tall, cold glasses of milk after sandlot baseball games. Ice cream and milk are two foods synonymous with summertime fun.

Whether it's summer or winter, dairy products provide much-needed calcium and vitamin D when included in daily meals. You can assist family members in receiving recommended daily intake by using dairy products in recipes.

Home economists have developed a main dish and two desserts using dairy products with convenient packaged mixes. Try them this month.

SPINACH-CHEESE PIE
 1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen chopped spinach
 1/2 cup sliced green onions
 2 tbs. margarine or butter
 2 tbs. instant chicken bouillon
 1/4 tsp. salt
 1/4 tsp. pepper
 Dash of anise seed, if desired
 1 pkg. pie crust sticks or mix
 3 eggs, beaten

Heat oven to 375°. Rinse frozen spinach under running cold water until thawed enough to cut into 1-inch pieces with knife. Cook onions in margarine in 10-inch skillet until tender. Stir in spinach, instant bouillon (dry), salt, pepper and anise seed. Cook and stir over low heat until all spinach is thawed.

Prepare pastry for two-crust pie as directed on package except — roll each round into 9-inch square. Place 1/2 of mixture in ungreased square pan, 9x9x2 inches. Reserve 1 tablespoon of the egg, stir remaining egg and the cheese into spinach mixture. Spread over pastry in pan. Cut several slits in remaining pastry square; place over filling. Mix water and reserved egg, brush over top.

Bake until golden brown, about 40 minutes. Let stand 10 minutes before serving, 6 servings.

CREAM CHEESE SQUARES
 1/2 pkg. chocolate chip cookie mix
 1/4 cup chopped walnuts
 1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
 1/4 cup sugar
 2 tbs. milk
 2 tbs. lemon juice
 1/4 tsp. vanilla
 1 egg

Heat oven to 350°. Knead 1 flavor packet about 10 seconds. Mix 1/2 pouch cookie mix and the flour packet in large bowl until crumbly. Mix in walnuts. Press 3/4 of the crumbly mixture in ungreased square pan, 9x9x2 inches. Bake 12 minutes.

Beat remaining ingredients in small bowl until smooth; spread over crust. Sprinkle remaining crumbly mixture over cream cheese mixture, pressing lightly. Bake until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean, 25 to 30 minutes. Cool; refrigerate 1 hour. Cut into about 1 1/4-inch squares. Refrigerate any remaining squares. 25 squares.

CRUNCHY BROWNIE ICE-CREAM SQUARES
 1/4 cup margarine or butter, softened
 1 pkg. fudge brownie mix (with can of chocolate flavor syrup)
 1 can (3 1/2 oz.) flaked coconut
 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 1 half-gallon vanilla ice cream, slightly softened

Heat oven to 350°. Cut margarine into brownie mix (dry) until crumbly; stir in coconut and nuts. Spread in ungreased rectangular pan, 13x9x2 inches. Bake, sitting occasionally, until coconut is golden brown, 20 to 25 minutes. Stir to crumble, cool.

Reserve 1/4 cup of the crumbly mixture into ice cream. Spread evenly in same pan; press firmly. Sprinkle reserved crumbly mixture evenly over ice cream; drizzle with chocolate flavor syrup. Cover and freeze until firm. Remove from freezer 5 minutes before cutting. Cut into squares. About 16 squares.

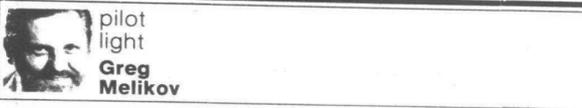

What we eat may affect how our brain responds

Our moods, our alertness, our ability to remember, even our perceptions of pain can be affected by what we eat. So say the growing number of researchers studying how the brain responds to food.

"Their findings may lead not only to safer ways of influencing some of our states of mind, but also to possible treatments for aged patients, to help their brains function better," Maya Pines reports in the September Reader's Digest.

At Temple University in Philadelphia, patients with chronic facial pain around their jaws who were given tryptophan, one of the amino acids being studied, and a high-carbohydrate diet said that their pain was reduced markedly. Even the diet alone gave the patients some relief.

Recently a British researcher reported on a six-

Pizza canapes were hit of Italian dinner party

Installing ceiling fans and preparing a dinner party don't mix. My wife figured that the electrician would have two fans up that quick. She also figured that paying him by the hour would save the fix-up-the-house budget some dollars. Anita was wrong on both counts.

The electrician ran into complications in the sewing room shortly after arriving at 11 a.m. I tried to help by assembling the blades. Still, he wasn't finished until 6 p.m.

Luckily, I prepared ahead of time my favorite spaghetti sauce that had been requested by Anita's guests, including two sewing cronies. All three women — one ate much soul food, one was used to Jewish dishes and the other usually dined Spanish — wanted an Italian menu.

By the time the last of the guests arrived, the clock was pushing 8. There were cocktails and no one seemed in a hurry, so I recovered fairly well.

As a special appetizer, I made pizza canapes, using some spaghetti sauce, which turned out to be the highlight of the evening.

Instead of the usual garlic bread or garlic rolls or garlic sticks, I made Italian sourdough English muffins, minus the garlic.

PIZZA CANAPES
 3 dozen white Melba rounds
 1/2 cup spaghetti sauce
 3 dozen thin pepperoni slices
 1 pkg. (4 oz.) shredded mozzarella cheese

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Spread rounds with spaghetti sauce, add pepperoni and top with cheese. Place canapes on cookie sheet and bake until cheese melts, about 5 minutes. Serves 6-9.

PARMESAN MUFFINS
 8 sourdough English muffins, halved
 1/2 cup butter, melted
 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Brush cut sides of muffins with butter and sprinkle on cheese. Place muffins on cookie sheet and bake until golden, about 10 minutes. Serves 5-8.

Inexpensive luau

With this recipe for zesty Hula Dogs, you can have a gourmet meal on a hot dog budget. Cut 4 slices of bacon in 1/2-inch pieces; cook in large fry pan on medium-low heat 4 minutes. Drain all except 1 tbs. fat from pan. Add 1/2 cup chopped green pepper; cook on medium-low 2 minutes. Drain 1 13-1/2-oz. can pineapple tidbits, reserving liquid. Add pineapple liquid, 1 tbs. brown sugar and 1 tbs. cornstarch; gradually add to bacon mixture, stirring until thickened. Spoon bacon mixture or 4 hotdogs, heated and split. Serve on rice. Makes 4 servings.

Chiefs win the battle — Salem wins war

Rock quarterback Mark Tindall ran for 62 yards against Canton on 16 carries, by far the busiest member of the Salem backfield Friday night.

Plymouth Canton coaches, players and fans left the field in tears last Friday night. They were tears of frustration.

Canton outplayed neighboring Plymouth Salem for three quarters. They scrapped, fought and clawed right down to the final minute of the game, but wound up on the losing end, again, 13-7.

"We were damn lucky to win this football game," said Salem coach Tom Moshimer. "That team over there (pointing toward the Canton bench), had better be proud of themselves. They came to play tonight."

Canton totally dominated the second half. Salem could muster just two first downs, one coming on a roughing-the-kicker penalty.

BUT, EVERYTIME the Chiefs came knocking at the goal-line door, the Rocks turned them away. Three times late in the game, the Chiefs appeared poised to take it in. However, three costly pass interceptions, two in the end zone, cancelled the threats.

"Two losses in a row," said an emotionally drained Canton head coach Richard Barr. "We just couldn't get it into the end zone. It's very disappointing."

Rod Boyd, almost single-handedly, kept Canton's offense on the move. The junior tailback gained 100 yards in the second half alone. He ran for 128 of Canton's 197 total yards.

Moshimer sent shock waves through the large and emotionally charged-up crowd when, on Salem's first offensive play, he called a halfback option pass. Quarterback Mark Tindall pitched to Steve Sobditch, a back-up quarterback and split end, who threw downfield to Craig Morton. The play caught Canton by surprise and went for 22 yards.

Salem moved inside the Canton 23-yard line, but a Tindall pass was picked off in the end zone by Canton's Jody Spitz.

After a Canton fumble, Salem drove 58 yards in five plays for the first score of the game. Two Tindall passes, a 38-yarder to Morton and an 18-yarder to Ken Harmon who made an outstanding one-hand grab, set up a 3-yard touchdown by Harmon. Mark Dixon's kick made it 7-0.

A SHORT PUNT early in the second quarter put the Rocks in business football

again. Fullback Scott Jurek capped off a 48-yard scoring drive with a 4-yard run. Dixon's extra point try was blocked.

Down 13-0, it looked like Canton was ripe to be blown out. Boyd, however, arrived on the scene just in time to deliver a much-needed spark to the Chiefs' attack.

He returned the Rocks' kick-off back to the 43-yard line, then took the next two carries for 11 yards and a first down. Quarterback Jody Spitz hit Jim Kaske, who made a brilliant catch, good for 20 yards down to the Rocks' 18. Five plays later, on a fourth-and-goal play, Spitz ran it in from the 2. Kaske kicked the point after and the Chiefs were back in it.

"We had opportunities to put them away where they couldn't come back," said Moshimer. "But, mental errors, stupid plays, we let them stay in the game."

Boyd set the tone for the second half on Canton's first offensive play. He took the pitch from Spitz off the option and rambled 16 yards to the Rock 28. On the next play, he dropped the pitch and lost five. Two bad passes later, the drive was stalled.

ON SALEM'S NEXT possession, Canton's 6-foot-4, 222-pound senior tackle and co-captain Paul Fletcher broke his forearm jumping on a Salem fumble.

Canton's Rodney Williams recovered a Salem fumble at the Rocks' 45. Three plays later, Jurek picked off a Spitz pass.

Canton's defense held again on the next series and the Chiefs moved inside Salem territory. Jeff Arnold then picked off a Spitz pass.

After Canton held on the next series, they mounted their most serious threat. With less than 10 minutes remaining in the game, Canton drove to the Salem 16. Boyd amassed 55 of those yards on carries of 32, 6 and 17 yards, Spitz running the option perfectly.

Then on a third-and-9 play, Jurek, a potential All-State linebacker, knifed through the line to stop a Canton run. On fourth down, Morton picked off Spitz's desperation lob into the end zone.

CANTON GOT THE ball back with more than three minutes to go, but three consecutive sacks by 5-5, 145 lineman George Condash, one of Salem's 'smurfs,' forced the Chiefs to punt.

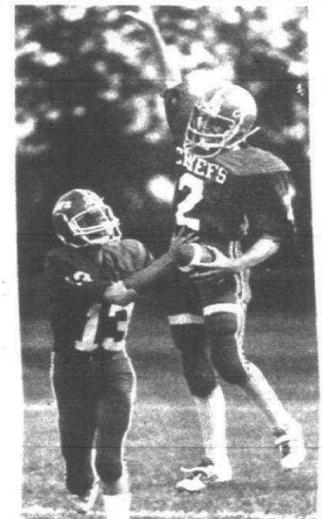

But, Salem gave the Chiefs one more chance to win it. Morton fumbled Kaske's punt and Canton had it on Salem's 45 with one minute to play. Three long passes intended for Dave Knapp fell incomplete and Salem had held on for their second win in a row.

"I will have to say one positive thing about our team tonight," Moshimer said. "When we got down, we sucked it up and did the job. But, the thing I told my kids, and they understand this, is we should have never been in that position."

Salem had 224 total yards, 157 in the first half. Tindall was Salem's leading rusher with 62 yards.

Defensively, Jurek, Condash, Randy Blaylock and David Bunch played outstanding for Salem.

For the Chiefs (0-2), defensively, Brian Callahan, Dave Szary, Eric Wines, Doug Chilcoff and Wain Yeung were the stalwarts.

Jody Spitz celebrates Canton's lone score, his two-yard run.

Western upsets Salem Canton stops Falcons

Walled Lake Western's towering center Val Hall scored 17 points, sparking the Warriors to an upset 42-28 girls' basketball win Thursday night over visiting Plymouth Salem.

Hall, a 6-foot-3 junior, led the Warriors to their fourth straight win.

"She was solid," said Salem coach Fred Thomann. "She plays hard and gives a good effort. She's so big. When our kids have to deal with her, they have to give up so much."

"We did an adequate job on the glass, but it was nothing outstanding."

The Warriors outscored Salem in every quarter, the biggest coming in the first period, a 10-4 advantage.

"Early we missed some good scoring opportunities," said the Salem coach. "Like breakaway layups."

Pam McBride and Dawn Johnson led Salem in scoring with 13 and eight points, respectively.

"We didn't do a good job with the ball," Thomann said. "Our offense was non-existent for a long time. We got great shots, but we didn't make any."

WESTERN was able to withstand Salem's potent man-to-man defense.

"Our defense was good enough, but they handled our pressure a lot better tonight," he said. "They were cranked up and ready to play."

The Salem coach added: "We played hard, but not smart. That's what we have to improve on. The team has to understand that the other teams in the league are shooting for us because we're the league champs. "We have a long way to go."

PLYMOUTH CANTON 54
FARMINGTON 50

Junior Lisa Russell provided the offense and defense Thursday to lift the girls basketball

Chiefs past visiting Farmington for their second straight win.

Russell scored 19 points and held Farmington's high-scoring junior, Alyse Fortune to 16, including only six in the first half.

Farmington led 50-48 in the final minute before Russell scored the equalizer.

Senior Marie Krashovetz then pumped in four free throws in the final 22 seconds to preserve the victory.

Canton coach Phyllis Cunningham Mulroy commented on the victory: "We played good, hard defense in the first half. We did a good job on Alyse, but we let Lancaster (Rhonda) free."

"In the third quarter we got a 10-point lead and thought we could relax, but Lancaster got hot and couldn't miss."

Lancaster led all scorers with 20.

"This is two heart-breakers in a row," said Farmington Bruce Brown. "It's the story of our life — I guess."

"We came out real flat and let them control the tempo. In the second half, we went to the full-court press and turned the game into an alley fight."

LIVONIA BENTLEY 47
FARM. HARRISON 29

The unbeaten Bulldogs got 13 points from Laurie Day and eight each from juniors Lonnie Payne and Sheri Wolfe to keep the visiting Hawks winless Thursday night.

Bentley, using a half-court trap, broke the game open with a 23-7 up-rising in the second period, taking a 35-13 halftime advantage.

Karen Sklar scored eight points and Janine Whittemore added six in a losing cause.

PLYMOUTH CHRISTIAN 45
OAKLAND CHRISTIAN 26

Junior Debbie Van Hoose let loose for 23 points Friday as the Eagles trimmed Oakland.

Plymouth took control in the second quarter, outscoring Oakland 13-2. Oakland, pressing in the third quarter, cut the lead to 24-20, but the Eagles responded with a 16-6 surge in the final eight minutes.

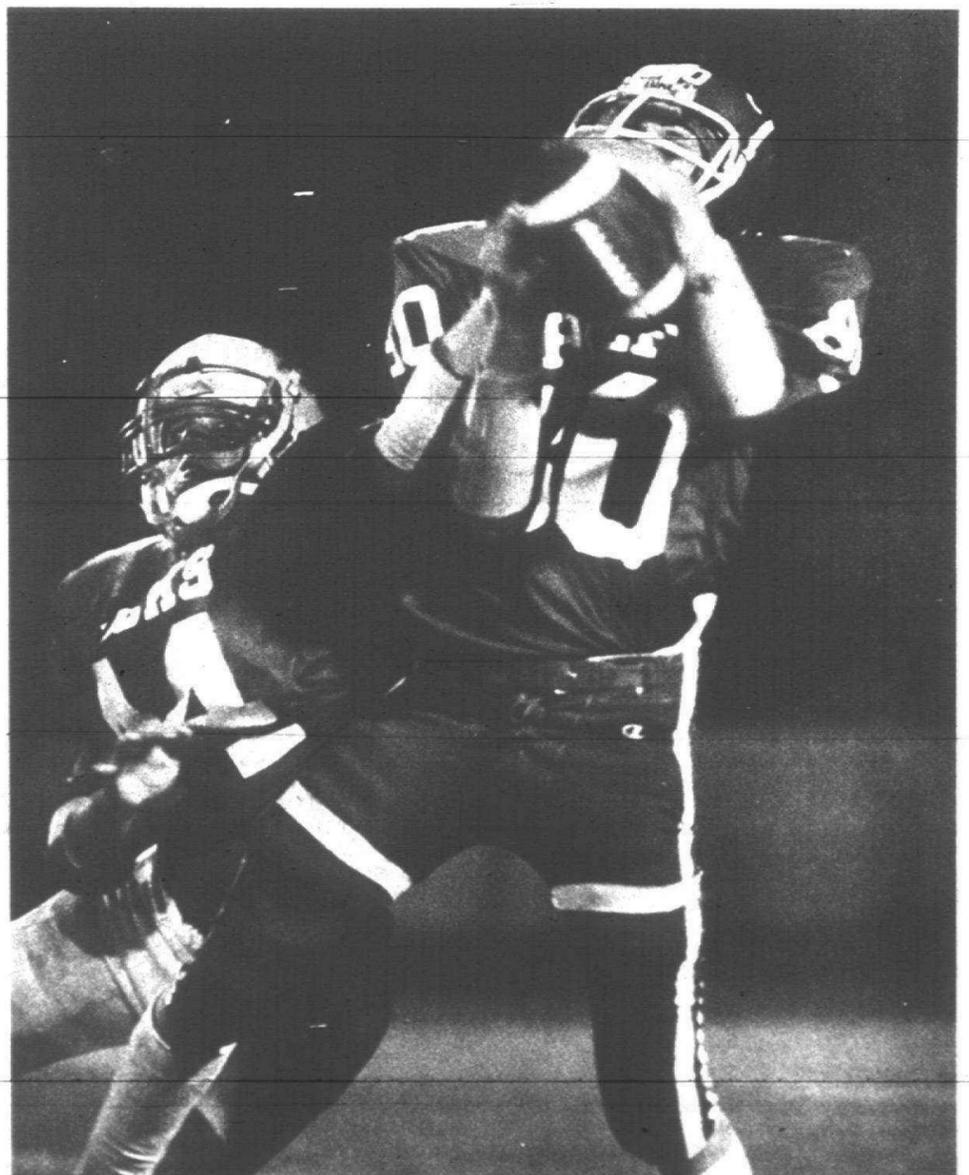

Junior Kim Allen, the team's defensive ace, added eight points for the winners. Kim Siefert, meanwhile, led the Eagles in rebounding.

Lisa Gendich scored 16 to pace Oakland.

ON THURSDAY, Plymouth got past Sacred Heart Academy of Bloomfield Hills, 27-20.

The Eagles trailed 8-0 after one quarter before getting untracked with a 12-4 spurt in the second period.

Van Hoose led the winners with 17 points, while Christa Crehan scored eight for Sacred Heart.

Jim Kaske, Canton's tight end, goes over Salem's Ken Harmon to catch a Jody Spitz pass.

Canton did not complete many of its passes against the Rocks.

Northville strikers end Stevenson win streak

By Paul King

The longest soccer winning streak in the state is over. Northville took advantage of a wet field, scoring twice within a span of three minutes in the second half Thursday night to upset defending state Class A boys' champ Livonia Stevenson, 2-1.

The visiting Spartans, missing coach Pete Scerri, who was out because of a family obligation, lost for the first time in 25 games. Ralph Aulicino, Scerri's top assistant, coached the team in his absence.

At 61:45, Northville's Steve Starcevic made it 1-1 on a penalty kick after a Stevenson player was whistled for a pushing foul inside the box.

The Mustangs then tallied the game-winner three minutes later as Dave Warmth beat goalie Terry Harshfield for a mad scramble in front of the Spartan net.

"I was a little bit shocked when I heard," said Scerri, who had to pick up his son from North Carolina at the airport. "It shows that they're humans and sometimes it happens. It's a good thing it happened early."

"I think we still have a pretty good team."

NORTHVILLE used aggressive tactics to score the surprise win.

"They were slide-tackling from the rear and I objected," said Aulicino. "I felt it was unsafe and I asked the referee for some control, but it was no use. I kicked us out of our game. It was not one of our better nights."

"But give Northville credit. They were fired up and wanted to win badly."

Stevenson led 1-0 at intermission on a goal by Chris Wiegell on a throw-in from John Gelmsi.

The win gives Northville a 4-1-1 overall season record, while Stevenson dropped to 3-1-0.

LIVONIA CHURCHILL 4
NORTH FARMINGTON 1

Dave Gluth scored twice to give the Chargers (3-0-1) a Western Lakes win over visiting North Farmington Thursday night.

Ray Galasso and John Neff also added goals as Churchill did all of its scoring in the second half.

John Gamble had a second-half goal for winless North.

"It was a tough first half," said Churchill coach John Neff. "We dominated territorially, but we couldn't score."

"In the second we passed more and were more aggressive."

Neff complimented the player of his halfback line — Phil Lussier, Doug Kluczewski and Scott Hillen.

LIVONIA BENTLEY 5
FARM HARRISON 1

The Bulldogs also increased their overall record to 3-0-1 with a Western Lakes win at Harrison.

Bentley led 2-1 at half on goals by Dennis Patchett (on a penalty) and Abe Yaffal. John Sepetsky scored for Harrison, the first of the game.

Scoring for Bentley in the second half were Tom Ghiesewick, Brian Schoof and Pat Paterson.

Bentley outshot the Hawks, 32-6. The Bulldogs hit the goal posts six times.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL 7
CLARKSTON 1

The Shamrocks jumped out to a 6-0 halftime lead and cruised to their fourth straight triumph Thursday at Bell Creek Park.

Junior Andy Rama continued his scoring rampage with four goals to give him 11 already this season. Steve DeMatteis added two goals and Jim Kowalski rounded out the scoring.

Pat Stocker went all the way in goal for CC, making just three saves against the winless Wolves, a first-year club.

Canton netters oust Edsel Ford

Some strong singles play and a clutch win from the number three doubles team enabled Plymouth Canton to squeeze past Dearborn Edsel Ford, 4-3, last Wednesday.

The win improved the Chiefs' record to 3-1. They are 2-0 in the Western Lakes Athletic Association.

Number two three and four singles players for Canton won their matches with relative ease. Lisa Hays defeated Kathy Kilpatrick, 6-2, 6-3. Missy Lloyd defeated Bev Bennett, 6-1, 6-1. Land Julie Sparks defeated Julie Ulrich, 6-0, 6-1.

Linda Sarafian lost a heartbreaking tie-breaker to Lisa Hengtgen, 6-4, 6-7, 6-7. Sarafian, who had been nursing a bad cough, was also plagued by a twisted ankle in the match.

The Chiefs' one and two doubles teams, Kristin Smith-Kelly Craig, and Ping Chau-Nancy Rinehart, were defeated in straight sets.

The difference in the match, as it turned out, was the number three doubles pair of Angela Kocik and Renee Zens. They handily defeated Bridget Keusner and Christie Salisbury, 6-1, 6-1.

Canton will travel to Livonia Stevenson on Monday.

Compaware takes 3rd in modified nationals

It's been a good year for area softball teams.

Plymouth Little Caesar's women's slow pitch team took first place in the world championships in Omaha, Neb. James of Wayne, featuring several Plymouth residents, placed fourth in the USSA national tourney.

And you can add the Compaware team of Plymouth to the list of area softball champions.

Compaware placed third in the American Softball Association (ASA)

1983 Men's Modified Fast-Pitch Tournament, which took place in Austin, Minn., over the Labor Day weekend.

AFTER FOUR CONSECUTIVE victories, Compaware was knocked out of the winners bracket in a dramatic showdown with defending champions, Silverstri's from New York. After Compaware had rallied for two runs to tie the game in the last of the seventh, Silverstri's countered with a game-winning homer to win it in the eighth.

Silverstri's went on to win the tournament.

Before that loss, Compaware had defeated teams from Washington, Alaska, Maryland and Louisiana.

After the loss, Compaware defeated Team Massachusetts in a dramatic showdown with defending champions, Silverstri's from New York.

Compaware was eliminated by Stafford Tire from New Jersey.

There were many highlights for the Compaware team. Perhaps the biggest

Canton clobbers Salem on links, 208-221

What the Plymouth Canton girls' basketball team couldn't get done on the court, the Canton golf team did get done on the links.

They clobbered Plymouth Salem last Wednesday, 208-221.

Against Redford, Moon and Kelley both shot 39. Salem's record is now 1-2 in dual-meet competition.

Both Canton and Salem, as well as 23 other high school golf squads are gearing up for the annual Plymouth Best Ball Tourney, which will be going on all day tomorrow (Tuesday) at Brayburn Golf Course.

Canton's Carl Mitroff had the low score of the match, he shot a slick 39 despite having a triple-bogey on the final hole.

Other Canton scorers were, Steve Chamberlain, 40, Eric Popp, 41, Dave Musch, 42, Pete Morman, 46, and Bruce Ling, 48.

CANTON DEFEATED Livonia Bentley, 211-224, Tuesday. Popp shot an impressive 37. Musch shot 40, Mitroff, 41, Morman, 46, and Jeff Lytle, 47.

On Thursday, Canton was defeated 165-171 by Dearborn High. Popp shot 40, Musch, 42, Mitroff, 44, and Morman, 45.

The Chiefs are now 2-1 in Western Lakes play and 2-3 overall.

FOR SALEM, the match was a lesson in frustration. Despite a respectable 41 shot by freshman Mike Granger and a 42 by sophomore Jeff Speaks, the Rocks' scores were very high.

"I was very disappointed in the scores of our seniors. They know they have to play better. We have to rely on them," first-year Rock coach Rick Wilson said.

Senior captain Mike Moon shot a 43 for Salem. Senior Sean Kelley shot 47. Junior Jim Rorbarcher shot a 48, and senior Jim Hartnett shot 46.

"You won't win too many with those scores," Wilson said.

The ironic thing about Salem's high scores on Wednesday was that the day before they shot very well in defeating Redford Union, 213-216.

'Puberty Blues' has style, but wipes out

Remember the Frankie Avalon-Annette Funicello beach blanket movies? Uncover the lumps in the blanket and you've got "Puberty Blues" (R). This Australian import has the impact of "Fast Times at Ridgemont High" — at the beach.

It's the story of the "rights of passage" of two teenage girls, Debbie (Nell Schofield) and Sue (Jad Capela). Mostly, it's the story of Debbie. She also is the movie's narrator, a circumstance which cues us that she is a survivor looking back on some critical experiences of her adolescence in Sydney, Australia.

Debbie and her high school peers spend all their free time at the beach. The beach itself is divided by indivisible borders which reflect a caste system as rigid as any in pre-war India.

At the highest rung on this social ladder are the surfers — blond, tousle-haired boys devoted to surfing, sex and smoking joints. Next to them in status are the "surfer chicks." It is to this exalted inner echelon that Debbie and Sue aspire.

THE CHICKS do not surf. They literally wait on the boys. They wait for them to come out of the water and they wait on their wishes. Eagerly, they hand the boys towels and they run to fetch them hamburgers and milk shakes. (The girls don't eat with the boys, just as they don't surf.) At night, it's time for a drive-in movie and basic, back-of-the-van sex.

There is no romance or courtship in these relations. When Debbie and Sue get accepted into the surfing crowd (because they keep quiet about a cheating episode at school), Debbie is paired off with Bruce (Jay Hackett). His ultimate concession to sensibility is to remove his wad of chewing gum before kissing her.

Bruce is neither better nor worse than the rest of the surfers, all of whom display a very narrow-minded, macho mentality. The only one who shows any sensitivity is Garry (Geoff Rhoe). Since he also is on hard drugs, you can write him off.

But if the boys act like wretched Neanderthals, the attitude of the girls is even more revolting. They are willing, compliant victims who cooperate readily in their own degradation. Perhaps the girls' wear-as-the-boys, have become dulled by too much sun and too much salt spray.

BRUCE BERESFORD, who directed "Tender Mercies" and "Breaker Morant," directed "Puberty Blues." His style is seen in the film's visual coherence, moments of striking imagery and edgy, satiric bite. The latter, however, is softened by the weak and skimpy character delineations. Debbie's middle-class parents, who are completely befuddled by her behavior, are too naive to be credible. When Debbie says she is going to the movies, her mother warns her "don't sit on the aisle. Some pusher might jab you with something."

Garry, the surfer who is one iota more sensitive than the others, seems to have no reason for being in the movie other than to make a point about drug abuse.

And Debbie, the protagonist of the film, is herself somewhat vapid. But the oddest fact in "Puberty Blues" is the narration. It introduces us to the sandy world of Debbie and her friends, offers comments on a few situations, then, unaccountably, stops. Wiped out by a wave, I suppose.
