The Canton Connection

A TEEN SKI trip to Alpine Valley is on tap for Friday evening, Jan. 20. The trip, sponsored by the Canton Parks and Recreation Department, will cost $15 including ski equipment rental, and $8.50 without. Skiers may register by contacting the Parks and Rec office at 1150 S. Canton Center Road, Canton, 48188, or by calling 397-1000.

MICHIGAN VOTERS may be viewing Canton Supervisor James Poole on political TV spots for Sen. Carl Levin, D-Michigan, in the future. To be aired before the November election, the recently filmed commercial features comments from several individuals, including Poole, praising Levin and supporting his re-election in 1984.

A BLOOD drive is on tap 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 7 at Oakwood Hospital Canton Center. The American Red Cross says blood supplies are seriously depleted and is seeking community-wide participation. While walk-ins will be accepted, donors are asked to call 459-7030 to make an appointment.

ALL ARE welcome to attend the monthly meeting at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Jan. 11 of the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools' Talented and Gifted (TAG) organization. Cheryl Johnson, TAG coordinator, will discuss curriculum development, counseling programs and other issues at West Middle School, 44401 Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth.

FAITH MULDER, of Canton has joined Oakwood Hospital's corporate planning department as market analyst. Mulder, 33, will conduct regular market research and marketplace analysis of potential new programs. A business administration graduate of Hope College in Holland, Mich., Mulder supervised nurses at the University of Chicago hospitals after earning her nursing diploma from the St. Luke's School of Nursing in Iowa.

MILLIE FAWCETT, Susanna Roth and Sharon Skinner of Canton and Jean Schmidt of Plymouth were among 45 Oakwood Hospital Guild volunteers recently honored for efficiently performing "critically important... services with a smile and compassion."

RACQUETBALL LESSONS are on tap Tuesdays beginning Jan. 10 at Rose Shores of Canton Racquetball on Ford Road. Sponsored by the Canton Parks and Recreation Department and Rose Shores, lessons will be 10:30-11:30 a.m. The cost is $16. Register in person or by mail by contacting the Canton Parks and Recreation Department, 1150 S. Canton Center Road, Canton, 48188.

IN THE MOOD to cross-country ski? Ski clinics are 7:30-9 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 17, Wednesday, Feb. 1 and Thursday, Feb. 16 at Maybury State park on Eight Mile, west of Beck. The charge for skis, boots, poles and instruction is $6. For those with equipment, the fee is $4. Reserve a spot at least two days ahead of time by calling 397-1000. Sponsored by the Canton Parks and Recreation Department, the clinic will feature instruction from certified ski instructors.

READING MAGIC, a workshop for parents of prospective, beginning and remedial readers in preschool through third grade, will be 7-8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 25 at the Canton Public Library, 1150 S. Canton Center Road. Register beginning at 10 a.m., Monday Jan. 9 by calling 397-0999. Storywriting, conversation, poetry, bookmaking, awareness of the five senses, storytelling, singing and experience stories will be featured by workshop presenters from the Hartland Consolidated Schools.

Sewer snafu to land in federal court

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

Resolutions calling for federal district court involvement in the splintered Supersewer project will be placed before township boards in Canton and Plymouth this month.

The resolutions are the recommendation of the township attorneys, and ultimately seek assurances for the communities before signing contracts to become involved in the North Huron Valley Wastewater project.

The communities were left without a plan to increase sewer capacity earlier this year when a governor's task force decided to split the multi-million dollar Supersewer project.

Southern Wayne County communities are continuing with a smaller version of Supersewer, while the northern communities design an alternate plan to increase sewer lines to the Detroit wastewater treatment plant.

Correction of alleged pollution problems along the existing Rouge Valley sewer lines has been added to the estimated $110-million northern plan. Engineers hope to save several million dollars by doing the repair work at the same time because the repair work would have been required down the road.

However, similar to fears with the original Supersewer project, Plymouth and Canton townships haven't been assured their end of the project will be completed with 75 percent federal grant financing, or that the Detroit plant can handle the increased amounts of sewage.

COMMUNITIES INVOLVED with the North Huron Valley project have been asked to sign service agreements which legally and financially bind them to the project. Those agreements also contain clauses which call for the local communities to complete construction in the event federal grant monies aren't available.

Although Jan. 1 was the deadline for signing the service agreements, only nine of the 17 communities signed. The majority of communities authorizing signatures came from the Rouge Valley repair portion of the project.

Plymouth and Canton townships haven't authorized signing the contracts. The city of Plymouth signed an agreement, however, it will not be participating in any of the project costs.

"My personal opinion is that somewhere down the line the agreements are going to have to be put before U.S. District Court Judge John Feikens," said Maurice Breen, Plymouth Township supervisor.

Feikens has taken administrative control of the Detroit treatment plant as part of a lawsuit filed by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to halt pollution in the Detroit River and Lake Erie.

"The resolutions going before the boards require that John Feikens say, 'Yes, this plan can work because the Detroit plant has the capacity,'" he said.

"Our attorneys are of the opinion that we need Feikens' consent. This would be something that would insure that the project can be completed," Breen said.

LIKewise, CANTON Supervisor James Poole believes court involvement is the only way the sewer project can be completed. Poole cites continued changes in plans and costs to communities as a factor for his belief.

Seeking the court's involvement isn't a ploy to tie-up the project, Breen said. "We want the project; it's the only game in town."

When the Supersewer project was being planned, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR) threatened to cut off building permits to non-participating communities. The DNR's reasoning was that the current sewer lines are operating at capacity and there wasn't room for additional sewage unless such a project was undertaken.

Schools move forward despite strike

By Theresa Coffey
staff writer

Time seems to be the common denominator in reviewing the problems and policies of the past year in the Plymouth-Canton Community School district. The recent school strike left a bitter taste in the mouths of district residents and employees, but many officials feel that operations are back on track.

Some suggest that many of the ongoing projects were in place long before the strike and are just now getting off the ground.

Some say that in the past, the school board has set goals that may have been too numerous or elaborate to accomplish within a given school year. The attitude now is one of limiting these goals, keeping them at a workable number but broad enough to accommodate change.

Although the school year was disrupted by the strike, there were some positive things happening within the district, according to board member Elaine Kirchgatter.

"We have some outstanding achievements contributed by some of the children in the schools," she said. "There were staff members that performed above and beyond the call of duty."

KEEPING THE lines of communication open is a top priority throughout the district. The new format for board meetings, adopted on a three-month trial basis, will give citizens three opportunities to speak before and after agenda items are discussed and again at the close of the session, said board member David Artley.

This method has worked well in other districts, he added.

Public comment in the past has been limited to three minutes per person prior to discussion of agenda items.

A strategy to improve employee relations in the district is the Quality of Work Life committee, another project that has been in the works and is finally becoming a reality.

The superintendent and other officials meet with union heads of various groups employed by the school district to seek ways to improve work life and relations.

"Many groups of this nature take a year or two to get off the ground," said Richard Egli, community relations director.

Egli also points to the greater frequency of newsletters and district meetings over the past few months in response to the growing concern for open communication.

ONE BOARD objective that has raised some enthusiasm is the plan to review and adopt curriculum, enhancing present district programs in math and English.

"Teachers are waiting in line," said board member Flossie Tonda, refer-

Illness, miscarriages: may be linked

By Arlene Funke
staff writer

Wayne County Health Department officials are investigating a possible link between a contagious illness and several miscarriages in a north Canton subdivision.

A few weeks ago, Supervisor James Poole asked the health department to see if it could be determined why five women in a one-block radius had suffered miscarriages during a two-month period.

One of the women had brought the issue to Poole's attention. The subdivision in question is south of Joy Road and east of Sheldon, said Dr. Don Lawrenchuk, medical director for the health department. The miscarriages occurred during September-October.

The investigation has ruled out contaminants in the water, air or soil, Lawrenchuk added. Now health department investigators are checking to see if a contagious illness in the neighborhood — such as a viral infection — may be a factor.

"We're looking at it from a communicable disease viewpoint, rather than environmental (cause)," Lawrenchuk said. "But there are so many personal factors. We are still conducting an investigation."

The subdivision, far from industrial areas and connected to the Detroit water and sewerage system, is not exposed to chemical or toxic fumes, or impure water, Lawrenchuk said.

But other factors are being investi-

Canton man dies in traffic accident

A head-on collision claimed the life of a Canton man and seriously injured a Canton woman at 6:11 p.m. Thursday near Lilley and Warren roads.

Matthew Cummings, 64, of 41643 Bedford died at Oakwood Canton Center Hospital at 7:18 p.m. Thursday.

Graciela Guzman, 57, of 1691 Aberdeen was taken to Wayne County General Hospital where she was listed in poor condition in the intensive care unit with severe chest and head injuries Friday.

A preliminary investigation by Canton police indicates both vehicles were left of the center line in the southbound lane when they struck each other on Lilley north of Saratoga, said Sgt. Alex Wilson.

Roads were snow-covered and slippery, he added.

Both Guzman, who was northbound, and Cummings were driving alone.

Police were awaiting lab reports from the Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office determining the cause of Cummings' death.

Officers delayed seeking further information about the accident from Guzman due to her medical condition.

The fatality was the 14th in Canton this year, nudging the annual traffic death rate to a record high for the township.

GOP reps add new turf in redistricting

By Tim Richard staff writer

Some Republican state representatives will have to learn new territory if they hope to be re-elected from their western Wayne County districts in November, but it's doubtful anyone is in real danger.

House districts which have been sending Democrats to Lansing will continue to do so. Ditto with the Republicans, though their district boundaries have been reshaped more by the "compromise" reapportionment bill passed by the Legislature late in December.

It was characterized as a "protect the incumbents" bill by at least one lawmaker. There is some truth to the description.

UNHAPPIEST man in these parts is state Rep. Gerald Law, R-Plymouth Township, serving his first term.

His 1982 district covered the Northville community (south of Eight Mile), the Plymouth community and the most populous part of Canton Township — three entire communities and major parts of two communities, all in Wayne County.

His new district will lose some of Canton Township and some of Plymouth Township. It will add the Oakland County portion of the city of Northville, plus Novi Township and the southern and western portions of the city of

Here's to Your Better Health

by Dr. Robert W. Simon, D.C.

Dr. Simon THE SNOW SHOVELER'S SYNDROME

Winter in the Midwest brings with it tons of snow to be moved causing snow shovelers syndrome in hundreds of people. Many people do not realize the extent of serious and lasting damage to the spinal column caused by shoveling after a heavy snow.

The same cold which numbs the senses to snowmobile injuries, masks the severity of strain and even dangerous spinal disc misalignment to the shoveler. Too often the shoveler won't quit and rest as moving that snow is seen as a challenge to conquer.

Each shovel full of snow can weigh from five to twenty pounds and one has to move hundreds of pounds to clear an average driveway or walk.

Shovelers should use their heads more than their backs in shoveling snow and here are some general rules to follow:

1. Use a light weight shovel of the pusher type. Spray it with a non-stick preparation such as Teflon so that the snow will not stick to it. A dollar can should last all winter.
2. Push the snow straight ahead. Don't try to pitch it any distance.
3. Avoid any sudden twist to the torso. The human spine is not designed to lift and twist at the same time and is subject to serious injury when its supporting tissues are tired. Always turn your whole body to the side when you want to dump snow.
4. Dress warmly.
5. Stop frequently, stand straight and breathe deeply. Quit, completely, at the first twinge of back pain and go inside and sit down.
6. Use your thigh muscles rather than your back to lift. Keep your back fairly straight.

Jobless help up as tax drops

The Jan. 1 decrease in Michigan's personal income tax rate will increase weekly checks for nearly one-third of those receiving regular state unemployment benefits, according to S. Martin Taylor, director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC).

The state income tax rate will drop from 6.35 percent to 6.10 percent.

It will cause weekly unemployment benefit checks to increase by $1 for approximately 30,000 individuals receiving regular state unemployment benefits in Michigan. The increase in benefits will begin with weeks of unemployment starting Jan. 1 and will begin appearing on checks issued during the week of Jan. 8.

TAYLOR SAID the amount individuals receive in jobless benefits is based on their after-tax earnings (ATE) — their gross wages minus federal, state and Social Security tax withholdings.

As withheld taxes decline, after-tax earnings increase.

Since weekly unemployment benefit amounts are tied to the ATE, jobless benefit amounts will rise or fall with after-tax earnings.

According to state law, the MESC must adjust its benefit rate tables whenever there is a change in federal, state or Social Security tax withholding rates.

THE CHANGE in after-tax earnings will not affect most claimants receiving state jobless benefits, and no claim can exceed the maximum weekly benefit amount of $197.

Those receiving federal supplemental compensation are not affected by the change.

Taylor said 90,900 claimants now receive state unemployment benefits.

Two groups highly susceptible to communicable diseases such as measles, mumps, chicken pox and others, according to Lawrence, are children younger than 15 months, who have not yet received their shots, and adults in their late 20s and early 30s, who grew up when immunizations were not widely marketed. Also, members of the latter group when they were younger may not have contracted the diseases and built up an immunity.

Mental health clinic opens here

A mental health clinic is opening a satellite office in Plymouth on Monday, Jan. 9.

The clinic will be at 875 S. Main near Burroughs in the city.

The new facility to be operated by Suburban West Community Center will be serving primarily adult clients who have been hospitalized for severe emotional problems as well as persons currently in crisis and at risk of hospitalization.

Other services also will be available for people with less severe emotional difficulties, psychological assessment, alcohol and substance abuse problems.

The satellite location will be more convenient for clients living in Plymouth, Canton, Northville and on the west side of Livonia. Initially, the Plymouth office will see clients by appointment only (981-2645).

The Rev. Larry Siroesky of Canton is board chairman for Suburban West which is a non-profit, private corpora-

Blood samples from the women are being analyzed to see if a virus is present. Results are expected in early January.

Some highly contagious viral diseases, such as measles, rubella, and herpes, "are (some) of the leading causes of spontaneous abortion," according to Lawrence. Also being analyzed is the possibility of toxoplasmosis (a fungus infection transmitted by pets) that could have infected some of the women.

Wayne County residents may contact the health department branch in Westland for information about free immunization against childhood diseases. Influenza shots also are available for elderly and people with certain health problems, such as heart disease. A suggested donation of $2 covers costs.

Electrifying 'Agnes' fires faith

Performances of "Agnes of God" continue through Jan. 22 at the Birmingham Theatre, 211 S. Woodward, Birmingham. For ticket information call the box office at 644-3533.

By Cathie Breidenbach special writer

"Agnes of God" is an electrifying, three-character drama about a nun who has a baby. It's at once an intellectual battle that pits faith against rationality, a murder mystery that tantalizes us with questions and a psychological and spiritual analysis of three women.

The "who" and "where" of Sister Agnes' pregnancy are the stuff of scandalizing gossip and mystery. Uncovering the "why" weaves together the lives of three women.

This stimulating play by John Pielmeier asks how a rationalist can deal with the mystery of faith. A triangle of women struggle for answers.

THERE'S SUSAN STRASBERG as Dr. Livingstone, the sophisticated psychiatrist, appointed by the court to make a recommendation about the state of Sister Agnes' mental health.

LYNN CHAUSOW, who plays Agnes, may not be as well-known as the other two, but she's their dramatic equal and deserves more recognition.

Cass shatters the stereotype of the Mother Superior as a soft-spoken, gently wise woman. Her Mother Miriam is not the standard spiritual type, but a tough lady, the non-nonsense, gravel-voiced type we expect to find behind the counter at a highway truck stop.

Who better to tell us what's wrong with a world gone overboard in its reverence for rationality than a woman who's done her time living in the world?

"Wales, and the Lakes of England" kicks off a new year of The World Adventure Series at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 15, in the auditorium of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The program was filmed and will be narrated by Kenard Lawrence, director of the series.

review

Dr. Livingstone is an ex-Catholic converted to the modern religion of rationalism and she asks, "Are we the sum of our psychological parts?"

And there's Lynn Chausow as Sister Agnes, the childlike and almost spacey innocent who may have murdered her own baby.

The triangle of characters works dramatically to heighten the tension as the three personalities discover their differences and their common bonds.

Strasberg and Cass are actresses of renown who've compiled impressive credits through the years. Understanding they should get top billing, but publicly for the play implies that "Agnes of God" is a two-character play.

Win eludes Rocks in Canton's tourney

By Chris McCoosky
staff writer

The Plymouth Salem wrestling team found out just how elusive victory can be last Thursday night.

Salem seemed to have its second consecutive Plymouth Canton Invitational title wrapped up as the seven-team tournament entered the last three weight classes.

The Rocks had wrestlers in the championship round in two of three final events. They needed just one victory to ensure a title. They could've even escaped with the win had they avoided getting pinned in the last event.

It was not to be.

PORTAGE NORTHERN fought from way back to overtake the Rocks, 186-159 1/2. They don't make wrestling tournaments much more exciting. Hosts Plymouth Canton placed third with 147 1/2 points. Brighton was fourth (95 1/2). Then came Saginaw (30), West Bloomfield (28) and Dearborn (23).

The tourney was supposed to feature an eight-team field. Birmingham Brother Rice, the eighth team invited, did not show up. Canton coach Dan Chrenko had no explanation for Rice's absence.

"I really can't tell you I haven't heard from them at all. I saw their coach (John Majors) two weeks ago and he said he'd be here (at the Canton tourney). Then somebody else saw him last week and he told him that he'd see him at Canton. I don't know what to think?" said Chrenko.

The result of Rice's absence was a fairly unbalanced field, as the final scores would indicate. Canton, the third place finisher, placed 12 of its 13 wrestlers. Portage placed 11 and Salem placed all 13.

Canton's Tim Collins (white) works his way out of an Andy Latora hold.

Canton's Collins sets new record before losing 1st

He hadn't lost a match the entire season. He hadn't even been put on his back. His father said he had hardly worked up a sweat in his first 13 matches.

That's how the season began for Canton wrestler Tim Collins. When he defeated Brighton's Ted Peterson 4-2 in the semifinals of Thursday's Canton Invitational, the 140-pound Collins set a new Canton school record for consecutive wins.

His 18th straight victory eclipsed Steve Hamblin's mark of 17 straight set in the 1981-82 season.

"I never even thought about that," Collins said. "I just go out and try to win every time out."

HIS STREAK ended abruptly last Thursday, but Collins went out in a fury. He met up with Portage Northern's Andy Latora in the championship flight at 140 pounds. Latora was fourth in the state last year, wrestling at 119 pounds.

The match was a first for Collins in three ways: he was put on his back, he worked up a sweat and he lost. But, oh my, did he give Latora a bat-

wrestling

BUT RICE or no Rice, the tourney was a nail-biting thriller right down to the final event.

Going into the finals, Salem enjoyed a 146 to 131 1/2 lead over then-second place Canton. Portage was third with 122 points.

Portage heavyweight Dave Hutton scored a convincing 8-0 decision over Canton's Jim Malson to begin the comeback. Salem's Marc Cygan took third in the heavyweight class.

At 100 pounds, Canton's Jeff Bondit lost a 4-0 decision to Portage's Bill McLaughlin. Salem's Denis Dameron, who McLaughlin had pummeled 20-0 earlier, took third place.

Canton's Heath Smith placed second at 107 pounds to Brighton's Rod Norwood. Salem's Tony Davis was third.

At this point, Canton had fallen behind Portage in the team standings.

"I KNEW we were in for some tough matches," Chrenko said. "In fact, I knew we might lose all but one match in the finals. Unfortunately, that's how it worked out."

The 114-pound match was a thriller. It pitted Salem's Dave Dameron, seeded No. 1 in the tourney, against Canton's Todd Gattoni, whose two previous matches were his first of the year. He had been sidelined with a broken hand.

Neither wrestler would give any ground. The first two rounds went scoreless. Gattoni had the best chances, but couldn't finish his moves. Late in the final round, Dameron scored a two-point reverse. It was the difference in the match.

Things began to go sour in the next event, the 121-pound class. No. 1 seed Rick Vershave, who had walloped his semifinal opponent 22-0, lost an 8-6 decision to No. 3 seeded Brian Rowley of Brighton. Portage's Ted Kirk placed third.

Salem could manage just a fourth place at 128. The Rocks' Keith Kwasny was decided 8-2 by Canton's John Allmand in the consolation match. Portage placed second.

ANOTHER NO. 1-seeded Rock fell at 134 pounds. John Jeannotte lost a tough 6-5 decision to Portage's Bob Heape.

After Portage's Andy Latora handed Canton's Tim Collins his only defeat of the season (see related story), 9-6 in the days' best match, five matches remained. Salem had wrestlers in the finals of four of those five classes.

At 147 pounds, Canton's Larry Janiga came from behind in the final minutes to beat Salem's Andy Ward, 7-6. At 157, Salem's Bruce Zak lost 6-0 to Dearborn's Tony Woodall. Eric Retting was defeated 12-1 by Brighton's Mike Baker at 169.

Portage's Scott Gini hammered Saginaw's Russell Richard 19-10 at 185 pounds. That set up the finale between Portage's Rob Richardson and Salem's sophomore Brian Johnson at 200 pounds. Portage needed a pin to win.

With the scored tied at four late in the first period, Richardson rolled Johnson over and got the pin.

Salem coach Ron Krueger said the loss was not the fault of Johnson. In fact, Krueger said Johnson did good to finish second.

"NOBODY WANTS to lose," he said. "The kids didn't want to lose, they tried hard. Maybe I just didn't make them work hard enough. We've got to work harder. We found that out tonight."

"It's funny. The matches I thought we would have trouble with, like the Rick Vershave (top), Salem wrestler in the 121-pound classification, tries to put a hold on Brighton's Brian Rowley last Thursday. Vershave lost an 8-6 decision.

Area ripe in hockey talent

By Rich Swenson
staff writer

Intense recruiting is the name of the game in any successful sports program, and college hockey is no exception.

The Great Lakes Invitational hockey tournament, held last week at Joe Louis Arena, featured some of the most highly recruited players in the midwest and Canada, including many that were plucked right out of the Detroit area's own hotbed of talent.

Of the 107 players who were on the rosters of the four teams that played in the tournament (Michigan State, University of Michigan, Northern Michigan, Michigan Tech), 24 were recruited from the metropolitan Detroit area. And of those, almost all were products of the Great Lakes Junior Hockey League.

THE WOLVERINES had by far the largest number on their squad (13), followed by Michigan State (7), Michigan Tech (3) and Northern Michigan (1). Junior A hockey has always been highly respected by college scouts looking to add strength to their clubs, but never before has the league had such impact on Michigan's NCAA Division I college hockey programs.

"What we do is recruit kids that we believe can play Division I hockey," Michigan State coach Ron Mason said just before his team took the ice against Northern Michigan Thursday.

Collins got back into contention in the second period scoring two points on a reverse and two more on back points. Latora added another and it was 6-4.

Collins fought untingly in the final period, twice making Houdini-like escapes from potential pins.

BUT, LATORA held on for a 9-6 win. He was also named the Canton tourney's most outstanding wrestler. "I knew he was tough. I saw him wrestle before. He's good. I'm just going to have to go get him next week," Collins said.

It is very likely that Collins and Latora will meet again in the Salem Invitational, Saturday, Jan. 7.

There are also many people saying that the two are on course for yet another showdown — at the state meet.

area are as good as the best players anywhere else.

Recruiting in college hockey, like other sports, can be brutal and frustrating at times, but competing in a tournament like the Great Lakes Invitational can do nothing but help a coach land a talented player.

"The Great Lakes tournament is the best in the country," Mason said. "The kids that are playing midget and Junior A hockey are watching, and it will mean a lot to them when it's time for them to make a decision. The tournament is a real thrill for them, especially when they know that some day they can be a part of it."

The top college prospects get anywhere from eight to 10 offers to play Division I hockey, Mason said.

"It's not as bad as recruiting in basketball or football," he said, "but it's getting harder and harder all the time."

BECAUSE NCAA rules limit the number of scholarships a college team can give to players (20 over a four-year period), a coach has to be sure to make the right decisions in his recruiting.

"We watch the kids as much as possible and try to find the ones that we can develop and fit into our program," Mason said. "Over the years, we have been very successful."

Since only 20 can receive scholarships, coaches have to rely on walk-ons to pick up the slack, as in the case of Donnelly.

McSween — recently drafted in the eighth round by the National Hockey League's Buffalo Sabres — received offers from six schools, including Michigan, Ferris State, Lake Superior, Brown and Yale.

But he chose Michigan State, even though the Spartans only offered him a partial (1/2) ride.

didn't arrive on time, he was forced to change his mind.

"It was the best decision I ever made," he said.

The defending Great Lakes champion Spartans beat Northern Michigan, 5-1 before more than 18,900 screaming fans in the opening round of the tournament and met Michigan Tech in the championship final Friday.

Michigan Tech advanced by beating Michigan in overtime, 5-4.

The Wolverines could have used some of the players they lost in the "recruiting wars."

Plymouth resident Don McSween in action in the Great Lakes Invitational Thursday night. McSween helped State to a 5-1 victory.

Dave Dameron (back) of Salem and Todd Gattoni (front) of Canton go at it last Thursday. Dameron prevailed, 2-0.

early ones, we won. But, the ones I thought we'd win, we lost. It wasn't Johnson's fault. For a sophomore to take second place here is pretty darn good."

Salem will get a chance to avenge to defeat Jan. 5. Portage will be one of the teams competing in the Salem Invitational wrestling tournament.

Portage's Latora was unanimously selected as the tourney's most outstanding wrestler.

Chief spikers have renewed hope

By Chris McCoosky
staff writer

A new coach, some new faces and, hopefully, some new and improved results.

That's the preseason outlook of the Plymouth Canton volleyball team.

First-year coach Peggy Moore inherits a team that finished at the bottom of the Western Lakes Athletic Association standings last season. Moore, a 1977 Plymouth Salem graduate, replaces Rick Solarz.

"We are a very young and inexperienced team," Moore said. "I can't really tell you how we are going to do. We are going to have to play strong defense because we are not that tall."

MOORE was an assistant coach at Wayne State University last year. She coached Farmington Harrison in 1979. She was a standout volleyball player at Salem, and went on to play for Henry Ford Community College, Schoolcraft and Southern Illinois University.

Moore has one returning senior on her Canton roster: Jenifer Gorecki. She will be counted on to carry a large share of the load for the young Chiefs.

volleyball

Junior Cindy Fischer will also contribute. Moore said Fischer, who played junior varsity ball last year, is an accomplished setter.

Senior Margie Wanghichler, with her hustling style of play, will also be counted on to contribute.

MOSTLY, HOWEVER, Moore is depending on the development of sophomores. Laura Darby, Kris Ingersoll and Donna Walton have all earned starting spots.

"They are just now starting to develop," said Moore. "We won't be able to tell how well we can do until later on in the year."

Three juniors are battling for the last starting spot. Stephanie Sumner, Debbie Murray and Julie Wallace all should see plenty of playing time.

Moore hopes 1984 will be a better year for the Chief spikers.

We'll have to wait and see whether her hopes can become reality.

Ocelot women win big

Suffocating half-court zone pressure and a distinct size advantage were all Schoolcraft College's girls' basketball team needed Thursday night.

The result: convincing 92-67 trouncing of Southwestern Michigan in the Lady Ocelots' first home game.

"The key," said Schoolcraft coach Ed Kavanagh, "was that we pressed early, and that created some turnovers. We had a size advantage, clearly."

The Lady Ocelots used a half-court 2-2-1 zone defense to confuse Southwestern in the opening half and race to a 49-28 advantage by intermission.

Four Schoolcraft players reached double figures in the scoring column, helping the Ocelots even their record at 4-4. Caryn Lamb led the scoring parade with 21 points. Ann Lukens, a Livonia Ladywood grad, added 19. Karen Swerski had 17 and Cathi Hengy, from Redford Union, finished with 12.

The Ocelots travel to Lake Michigan Community College for a Jan. 4 contest.

The Fromage Hour - With Friends

"Life is nothing without friendship," says the Roman proverb. The ancients, like ourselves, associated friendship with cheese — "little cheese" was a Roman term of affection. Today we enjoy sharing fine French fromage and fine French wines with convivial friends at the end of the day. It's a classic way to relax, wind down and toast friendships old and new.

Cheese has been delighting mankind since about 9000 B.C., when man first domesticated animals. Some ancient herdsman, perhaps, may have had the courage to nibble the curds from surplus milk. Whatever its beginning, cheese became a staple of virtually every culture. About a thousand years ago, Europe began to create the more complex forms, such as the hard-pressed and blue-veined cheeses. And shortly thereafter, the French monasteries of the Middle Ages struck gold with the superbly silky soft-ripening cheeses.

Just as France makes wines of every variety and nuance, the country produces nearly 400 cheeses, each as distinctive as a fingerprint. The cheese of every region has its own essence — subtleties of the particular climate, soil, grasses, animals and local cheesemaking techniques. Whatever the result, cheese symbolizes friendship and hospitality.

At party time, you will want a cheeseboard with an interesting variety of fromages, and perhaps a few savory cheese-based hors d'oeuvres. At least one red and one white wine will be required to complement the different cheeses. The rule of thumb is simple — lighter wines for milder cheeses, more robust wines for pungent cheeses.

The most successful cheeseboard offers a harmonious range of tastes from delicate to assertive — but take comfort, for there is no "right" or "wrong" about the assortment. Although cheesemaking is an art at which the French have long excelled, cheese is the least snobbish of foods — basic, pure, earthy, enjoyed by everyone. We suggest the following five cheeses for the board, but by all means substitute to please your own palate: Brie, the famous "king" of soft-ripened cheeses; Explorateur, a rich, fresh, triple crème, delicate in flavor and texture; Pyramide, a triangular chèvre, or goat's milk cheese, with a nutty tang; Bleu d'Auvergne, cow's milk blue cheese, firm texture, assertive taste and aroma; Dolmen de Bougon, a dome-shaped goat's milk cheese, firm in texture, fresh, slightly sharp in taste.

French party food often includes crudités, raw vegetables served with flavorful dips. We suggest either Mustard Dip, teaming sour cream and Dijon mustard or Cold Roquefort Vinaigrette, the tangy blue-veined cheese is a perfect complement to the vegetables. And for sumptuous fare to treat your guests, let 'em eat Eggs Marie Antoinette — stuffed eggs baked on artichoke bottoms, topped with cheese sauce, and sprinkled with crisp crumbled bacon and French baguette cubes. St. Paulin, one of the great ancient monastery cheeses, goes into the sauce.

As for the French wines for this friendly gathering, we suggest one red and one white. A red from the sunny Cotes du Rhone vineyards would make an excellent complement to the menu and the cheeses. The historic wine-producing region of the Rhone Valley stretches for almost 125 miles south from the renown gastronomic city of Lyon to Avignon, the residence of the popes in the 14th century.

Vineyards climb hillsides, cover the plain, flow into valleys and surround the 162 villages which have the right to the appellation Cotes du Rhone...red, white and rosé wines are produced. In the third century the Romans initiated viticulture in this region which has become one of France's most lavish production areas. Its ruby red wines are noted for their elegance and finesse — warm powerful wines, aromatic of raspberries, violets or currants. Both George Washington and Thomas Jefferson stocked them in their wine cellars. For a fromage hour with friends, choose a simple Cotes du Rhone Villages, or a Gigondas, or a Chateaufort-du-Pape — all from the southern part of the growing area. Also recommended are either Côte Rotie or Hermitage from the northern vineyards.

For the white wine, Macon Blanc is an ideal choice. It is a white Burgundy, less famous than its illustrious Burgundian cousins, yet a pleasant modest-priced wine; look for bottles labeled Macon, Macon Superieur, Macon-Villages, or Pinot-Chardonnay-Macon. In general, the Maconnais wines are light, dry, crisp, well-balanced — especially favored for goat's milk cheeses.

Fine wines, fine cheeses, and friendship provide the trilogy for a perfect party. We'll drink to that!

CRUDITES WITH DIJON MUSTARD DIP AND COLD ROQUEFORT VINAIGRETTE

Select spears of raw zucchini, halved raw mushrooms, cherry tomatoes, endive spears, broccoli or cauliflower flowers, carrots, celery.

HOT MUSTARD DIP

(Makes 2 cups)

- 1/4 cup butter
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1 cup chicken broth
- 1 cup sour cream
- 2 T. Dijon mustard
- 2 T. chopped capers
- 2 T. minced cornichons
- French midget gherkins
- Salt

In saucepan, melt butter and stir in flour. Gradually stir in chicken broth, sour cream, mustard, capers and cornichons. Stir over medium heat until sauce bubbles and thickens. Season to taste with salt. Place into serving dish and keep warm.

COLD ROQUEFORT VINAIGRETTE

(Makes 1-2/3 cups)

- 1 cup French olive or walnut oil
- 1/3 cup French red wine vinegar
- 1 tsp. Herbes de Provence
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 1/4 cup chopped chives
- 1-2 cup firmly packed Roquefort

Combine all ingredients in bowl and beat with electric mixer until thick and well-blended. Let stand at room temperature for several hours to blend flavors. Beat again before serving. Serve cold.

EGGS MARIE ANTOINETTE

(Makes 6 servings)

- 6 hard cooked eggs
- Sour cream
- Salt
- 6 fonds d'artichauts (artichoke bottoms)
- 1/3 cup butter
- 1/3 cup flour
- 2 cups milk
- 2 cups (8 oz.) shredded St. Paulin or other semi-soft French cheese
- 6 strips bacon, chopped and fried until crisp
- 2 slices French baguette, cut into 1-2-inch cubes

Slice top tip from eggs and carefully remove egg yolks. Place egg yolks into bowl and mash. Stir in sour cream until mixture is creamy but still holds its shape. Season to taste with salt. Use mixture to stuff eggs. Cut thin slice from bottom of each egg so it will stand upright. Place artichoke bottoms into shallow casserole, side by side. Place one stuffed egg in each artichoke bottom. In saucepan, melt butter and stir in flour. Gradually stir in milk. Stir over low heat until sauce bubbles and thickens. Gradually stir in cheese. When sauce is smooth, season to taste with salt and pour sauce over eggs. Sprinkle eggs with bacon and baguette cubes. Bake in preheated hot oven (400° F.) for 20 to 25 minutes or until lightly browned and bubbly.

MARRIAGE OF FRENCH CHEESE AND WINE

CHEESE	FAMILY	CHARACTERISTICS	WINE	REGION	CHARACTERISTICS
EXPLORATEUR	Triple crème	Contains 72% butterfat; rich, creamy with tangy aftertaste	COTES DU RHONE VILLAGES	Rhone Valley	Dry, aromatic red wine
BRIE and CAMEMBERT	Soft-ripened	Creamy interior, subtle flavor, edible, flowery rind	BEAUJOLAIS	Burgundy	Fruity, medium-bodied red wine
PONT L'EVEQUE	Soft-ripened	Spicy, assertive flavor, edible washed rind	HERMITAGE	Rhone Valley	Hearty, full-bodied red wine
REBLOCHON	Semi-soft	Flavorful, slightly nutty taste, inedible rind	MACON-VILLAGES	Burgundy	Dry, medium-bodied white wine
PYRAMIDE	Chèvre	Tangy flavored goat's milk cheese, sometimes coated with vine ash	SANCERRE	Loire Valley	Light, crisp dry white wine
DOLMEN DE BOUGON	Chèvre	Dome-shaped goat's milk cheese with zesty taste	MACON-SUPERIEUR	Burgundy	Fruity, medium-bodied white wine
BLEU D'AUVERGNE	Blue-veined	Creamy piquant taste with distinctive blue marbling	COTE ROTIE	Rhone Valley	Robust, full-flavored red wine
ROQUEFORT	Blue-veined	Assertive, tangy sheep's milk cheese, aged in limestone caves	CHATEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE	Rhone Valley	Hearty, distinctive red wine
CANTAL	Semi-hard	Mellow, smooth taste, inedible rind	GIGONDAS	Rhone Valley	Elegant, full-bodied red wine

General Guideline: Light delicate cheeses go best with light, dry wines. More robust cheeses go best with hearty, full-bodied wines.

Combine chicken and rice and cook Chinese or Mexican style

Believe it or not, there is a common thread woven through the foods of China and Mexico. It is the extensive use of chicken and rice in both countries. Take either of these foods away, and the cuisines of those countries would not be the same. (What else would go so well with both chili powder and Hoisin sauce?)

Borrowing from the best of both worlds, we can learn new ways to vary meals. The Chinese and Mexicans have been cooking with these two foods for centuries. (Although rice was introduced into Mexico by the Spanish settlers, it fit right in with their way of doing things.)

Meals featuring recipes from abroad add new interest and excitement to mealtime; the fact that they are often economical is an added bonus. Try the following chicken and rice combinations: Chicken Casserole con Queso from Mexico and Hoisin Chicken and Rice, Chinese-style. If green chiles or hoisin sauce are not familiar ingredients, use them in these recipes and learn how well they add variety and flavor.

Chicken and rice — it's nice with whatever seasoning is used.

HOISIN CHICKEN AND RICE
1 tbs. vegetable oil
1/4 cup water
1/4 cup hoisin sauce
3 tbs. lemon juice
1/2 tsp. ground black pepper
12 choice chicken pieces (2 1/2 to 3 pounds)
3 cups cooked rice
1/4 cup grated carrot
1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper

In medium saucepan cook onion in oil until tender. Stir in water, hoisin, lemon juice, and pepper. Place chicken in large plastic bag set in bowl. Pour marinade over chicken. Refrigerate chicken overnight, turning bag occasionally to coat. Place chicken skin side up in shallow 10-inch round microproof dish. Reserve marinade. Cook on high 22 minutes, or until tender, rotating dish 1/4 turn every 10 minutes. In 2-quart microproof dish combine rice, carrot, green pepper, and 1/2 cup marinade; cook on high 2 minutes, or until heated through. Serve chicken with beds of fluffy rice mixture. Each serving provides 251 calories, 2 1/2 meat exchanges, 1 bread exchange, 1/4 fat exchange, 1/2 vegetable exchange.

CHICKEN CASSEROLE CON QUESO
3 cups cooked rice, cooled
2 1/2 to 3 cups chopped cooked chicken
1 cup sliced celery
1 1/2 cups (6 oz.) grated Monterey Jack cheese, divided
1 can (4 ounces) green chiles, chopped
1/4 cup chopped pimientos
1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. garlic powder

On high (maximum power) 2 minutes. Add onion, cook on high 2 minutes, or until tender. Stir in water, hoisin, lemon juice, and pepper. Place chicken in large plastic bag set in bowl. Pour marinade over chicken. Refrigerate chicken overnight, turning bag occasionally to coat. Place chicken skin side up in shallow 10-inch round microproof dish. Reserve marinade. Cook on high 22 minutes, or until tender, rotating dish 1/4 turn every 10 minutes. In 2-quart microproof dish combine rice, carrot, green pepper, and 1/2 cup marinade; cook on high 2 minutes, or until heated through. Serve chicken with beds of fluffy rice mixture. Each serving provides 251 calories, 2 1/2 meat exchanges, 1 bread exchange, 1/4 fat exchange, 1/2 vegetable exchange.

CHICKEN CASSEROLE CON QUESO
Microwave Method:
Combine rice, chicken, celery, 1/4 cup cheese, green chiles, and pimientos in large mixing bowl. Blend sour cream, mayonnaise, and seasonings. Add to rice mixture; mix well. Turn into buttered shallow 2-quart microproof dish. Cook in high (maximum power) 7 minutes, rotating dish 1/4 turn after 4 minutes. Sprinkle with remaining cheese and corn chips. Cook on high 1 minute, or until cheese is melted.

Each serving provides: 438 calories, 3 meat exchanges, 1 bread exchange, 4 fat exchanges, 1/2 vegetable exchange.

On those cold mornings, you can warm up with hot natural cereal

When nippy nights turn into chilly mornings, it's hot cereal season again. But look no further than your own kitchen cupboard when the urge for something quick and satisfying strikes you. If you have 100-percent natural cereal on hand, you can turn it into a delicious hot cereal, too.

It's not really a surprising suggestion when you consider what's in natural cereal — rolled oats and rolled whole wheat. They're the basis for some very popular hot breakfast cereals. But what makes natural cereal taste so good hot is the shredded coconut, crunchy almonds, honey and other natural ingredients that are also included.

According to the Quaker Test Kitchens, you can make a hot natural cereal in a matter of minutes — either in a saucepan or in your microwave. Remember though, with a microwave oven, foods keep cooking a minute or so even after you've removed them from the oven. So, wait just a minute, and then stir the cereal again before serving.

Here are two single serving recipes just for yourself, or make the four serving variation for the family — so you know they're off to a good start, too!

APPLE CINNAMON HOT NATURAL CEREAL
1/4 cup 100 percent natural cereal, any flavor
1/4 cup apple juice
1 tsp. butter or margarine
1/4 tsp. firmly packed brown sugar (optional)
Dash of cinnamon

For 1 serving: In heavy 1-quart saucepan, combine all ingredients. Bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Reduce heat; simmer about 1 minute or until desired consistency, stirring frequently. Serve at once with milk, if desired.

For 4 servings: Increase cereal and apple juice to 1 cup each. Increase chopped apple to 1/2 cup, butter to 1 tablespoon, brown sugar to 2 teaspoons and cinnamon to 1/2 teaspoon. In heavy 2-quart saucepan, combine all ingredients. Prepare as directed above, simmering about 2 minutes.

Microwave oven directions (For 1 serving): In 2-cup microwavable bowl, combine all ingredients. Cook at high 1 1/2 minutes; stir. Let stand 1 to 2 minutes or until desired consistency.

First you need it, then you don't

You've probably noticed that many recipes for pot-roasts, stews and pork chops call for browning the meat in fat. But then the drippings are poured off. Why is this?

Meat is browned to help develop flavor and produce an attractive rich color. Fat is used to promote the browning of the meat and to prevent it from sticking to the pan before it is braised or cooked in liquid. Fat from browning is especially necessary when the meat has been dredged in flour.

The drippings are poured off after browning as they are no longer needed. This step also helps to keep calories in check.

Hot summer brings winter's high prices

The long, hot summer is over, but the malady will linger on in the new year.

Before unremitting hot weather began in July, the U.S. Agriculture Department predicted that acreage cut-backs would reduce the corn and soybean crops.

When drought continued in more than two dozen states through August, it became clear damage would worsen and the meteorologists concluded that soil moisture was lower in more areas than any time since the Dust Bowl days.

I can't recall a summer when fruit was the least sweet and most pithy. Sure, prices declined and it appeared many fruit such as peaches were a real bargain. Frankly, peaches were awful. Grapes were about the only satisfying buy.

Vegetables shot up. I couldn't shake the feeling that most everything in produce bins was 99 cents a pound or higher.

The worst is to come: Meat prices will soar. The cost of raising livestock became so expensive that many herds were sent to slaughter early. As the supply of beef and pork decreases, their prices will increase.

You can stock your freezer to help offset the hikes. You can also prepare meals that stretch the meat as well as your food dollars in 1984.

CHINESE PORK STEW
1/4 cup all-purpose flour
2 tsp. ginger
2 1/2 lbs. boneless pork, cut in 1-inch chunks
1/4 cup peanut oil
2 tsp. cornstarch
1/4 cups canned pineapple chunks, with liquid
1/4 cup cider vinegar
1/4 cup soy sauce
1/4 cup sherry
1 tbs. Worcestershire sauce
1/4 cup sugar
2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. black pepper
1 green pepper, cut in strips
1 can (1 lb.) bean sprouts, drained
2 cans (5 oz.) sliced water chestnuts, drained
1 tbs. chili sauce

Combine flour and ginger, coat pork, brown in hot oil and remove. Stir cornstarch into pineapple liquid, add to pot with vinegar, soy sauce, sherry and Worcestershire, bring to boil, stirring. Add sugar, salt, pepper and pork, reduce heat to medium low, cover and simmer 1 hour. Stir in green pepper and pineapple, cook uncovered 10 minutes. Stir in bean sprouts, water chestnuts and chili sauce, cook 5 minutes. Serves 6.
