The Canton Connection

OVERHEARD at Canton Township Hall shortly after the Rev. Jesse Jackson's return from the Middle East: "I'm going on a mission to Syria to try and get Canton Township delivered from itself." If you see a township official hopping a plane at Metro, you'll know where he's headed.

Supervisor James Poole tripped over his words (accidentally?) on purpose and got a few laughs at Tuesday night's meeting. As the board wound up discussion on non-agenda items, he said, "Let's get on with the jun-general calendar items."

TRUSTEE STEVE LARSON at the Canton Township Board's last meeting said he wished to go on record protesting inaction by Treasurer Maria Sterlini. At a December meeting, Sterlini charged township administrators with "serious violations of the law." She said she'd supply details to the board after cons the township attorney before she did, and "I was not allowed to meet with him." The treasurer says trustees will eventually receive a report from her.

FRIENDS OF the Canton Public Library contributed $200 to the "Keep the Doors Open" fund to save neighborhood branch libraries in Detroit. Area individuals may join the campaign by dropping donations into canisters at the Canton library. The Friends' Carole Moranty urges residents to send checks to "Keep the Doors Open, C National Bank of Detroit, P.O. Box 77499, Detroit, Mich. 48277, as "the continued viability of the Detroit library system directly benefits the Canton library."

FIRE CHIEF Mel Paulin has registered some requests. Having responded to several chimney fires in Canton, the fire department is asking residents — especially those who use fireplaces a lot — to regularly clean their chimneys. "We don't want to come to your house," Paulin said. He and Jake Dingeldey, DPW director, ask that residents assist in keeping fire hydrants free from snow, as snow-covered hydrants can hamper firefighters' efforts in emergencies.

TEEN SKI trip is slated for 5 p.m. to 12:15 a.m. Friday, Jan. 20, to the Alpine Valley Ski Area. Sponsored by the Canton Parks and Recreation Department, the trip will cost $15 for persons without ski equipment, and $8.50 for those who have skis. Skiers will be transported to and from Canton Township Hall. To register for the supervised trip, call 397-1000 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. or write Canton Parks and Rec. 1150 S. Canton Center Road, Canton, Mich. 48188.

REGISTRATION begins today for an investment seminar series at the Canton Public Library. Prudential-Bache Securities account executive Paul McIntyre will lecture on how to make your dollars work for you with tax-free municipal bonds at 7 p.m. Jan. 17. Call 397-0999.

ROBIN COFFEY lives up to his name. The 28-year-old has opened the Donut (and coffee) Shop on Michigan Avenue, two blocks west of Haggerty Road near Steins' Nursery in Canton.

NEITHER THE Wayne-Westland school district nor the Van Buren Public Schools were too happy with action taken recently by the Canton Township Board. Without discussion, trustees unanimously voted not to collect dual taxes for the districts. Following an example set by Plymouth-Canton Community Schools, the school systems have elected to levy taxes twice (instead of once) a year.

Woman to be tried in Faber case

A 17-year-old Ypsilanti woman has been ordered to stand trial in the shooting death of Nancy Faber, a speech therapist in the Plymouth-Canton school district.

Machelle Pearson was bound over for trial following a preliminary examination Wednesday before District Court Judge Pieter Thomassen in Ann Arbor.

During the examination, a tape was played in which Pearson admitted robbing and holding the gun which fatally wounded Faber.

Pearson faces charges of first-degree murder, armed robbery and use of a firearm in a felony. Arraignment is scheduled for Jan. 17 in Washtenaw County District Court.

Meanwhile, Ann Arbor police Friday arrested and charged Pearson's live-in boyfriend, Ricardo Hart, with first degree murder and armed robbery in connection with the case.

Hart, 20, was arraigned before District Judge S. J. Elden. He is jailed without bond.

A PASSING motorist found the 35-year-old Faber shot in the neck in her car in Ann Arbor Nov. 22. Her purse, containing $2 and a checkbook, was missing. Faber died three days later without regaining consciousness.

Police believe Faber gave Pearson a ride from the Plymouth-Green shopping center, where Faber had been shopping moments earlier. During the preliminary examination, police played a recorded conversation with Pearson. On tape, Pearson said her boyfriend drove her to the shopping center, instructed her to ask a woman for a ride and took her purse.

She said he threatened to beat her if she refused. Also on tape, Pearson said the gun "went off."

THE INVESTIGATION was broken when, according to reports, Pearson called the Michigan State Police post at Ypsilanti Dec. 18 to report an unrelated assault.

During her conversation with a trooper, she began voluntarily talking about the Faber murder, according to reports. Pearson was arrested Dec. 21, and is being held without bond in the Washtenaw County Jail.

Frozen eagle

Canton's Jerome Grochocki warms up (cools down?) before Plymouth's second annual Ice Sculpture Spectacular Jan. 13-15 in Kellogg Park. Grochocki, who works at the Plymouth Hilton Hotel, was spotted carving his eagle in the park Friday. When finished, his crystallized creation will be among 200 such icy works crafted by culinary arts students and chefs from around the country. Judges will bestow scholarships to victorious student carvers and airline tickets to professional winners.

Board gives approval to $110 million sewer

By M.B. Dillon Ward
staff writer

"I feel like I have a gun to my head," Canton Trustee Robert Padgett said. But he voted with five other board members Tuesday to conditionally approve the expansion of the township's sewer facilities.

Only Treasurer Maria Sterlini voted against the measure, which commits the township to pay for additional sewer capacity even if federal funds for the proposed $110 million North Huron Valley Wastewater project dry up.

The Huron Valley system, which would serve 17 northern Wayne County communities, evolved after a Wayne and Oakland County sewer plan known as "Supersewer" fell through. It would involve construction of a sewer parallel to Detroit's existing Rouge Valley sewer lines, which simultaneously would undergo much-needed repair.

Added sewer capacity is considered vital to handle existing problems in Canton, and to spur industrial growth the township sorely needs.

THE FEDERAL government is expected to fund 75 percent of the project, and local governments the remainder.

Federal monies for "phase one" of the three-part Huron Valley project are virtually guaranteed. Phase two funding is allocated but not yet appropriated. Because Canton would tie into the sewer system during phase three — for which funding remains a question — some trustees are "gun shy." Fueling their fears is the fact that the township has yet to be repaid for substantial investments it made in Supersewer engineering and design studies.

The adopted resolution stipulates: "That all parties to this project must agree that all phases of the entire project will be completed even if federal funds are unavailable."

• "That in the event a community refuses to pay its share of construction costs, the County of Wayne may incorporate them as a debt service charge."

• "That Detroit must guarantee sufficient sewerage capacity to treat wastewater through 2025."

• "The State of Michigan and the Michigan Department of Natural Resources must guarantee that a building or sewerage extension ban or limitation will not be imposed upon Canton" if the North Huron Valley Wastewater contract is approved.

The resolution authorizes Supervisor James Poole to sign the actual contract, or service agreement. About 10

Would-be buyer of nursing home vows to correct health violations

Brian Sutor, administrator of the Dion Nursing Home, plans to spend "approximately $1 million" for the facility that has state violations and is threatened with license revocation.

"It's (the purchasing agreement) in the works and we're already starting on the physical plan changes," said Sutor, who began the administrator post in November 1980.

"The agreement is being drawn up and is sitting with the attorneys, but I'm hoping it will be completed in 30 days and no more than 60 days." The State Department of Public Health tried to revoke the nursing home's license for 91 beds on Jan. 11, 1980, and has been wrapped up in legal red tape ever since. Since the license issue is in court it "keeps the home at status quo, and they're still allowed to operate," according to Paul Phelps, Michigan Health Department chief of internal auditing section division of licensing and certification.

"Before we (health department) will approve a change of ownership and issue a license we have to have a commitment of what the changes will be, and when they will be made," Phelps said. "Then it has to be approved."

If the owner violates that commitment, the health department has the option of revoking the license through the court system.

SUTOR SAID the price of the nursing home may escalate to $1.1 million. "I already started" correcting the many violations cited by the state during its last inspection in October 1983, he said.

Canton's sesquicentennial is here!

Welcome to Canton's Sesquicentennial! With the stroke of 12:01 a.m. Jan. 1, Canton Township became 150 years old. A yearlong celebration is in the works, so see if you can't find your forebears' high shoes and old-time trappings to prepare for Founder's Day, ballroom dances, commemorative skits and kite-flying, fashion shows and an "elite" garage sale.

While many sesquicentennial activities are in the planning stages, a tentative schedule of events is as follows: a lunch, tea and fashion show is on tap for this month at the Roman Forum restaurant on Ford Road. (Sesquicentennial Chairwoman Mary Dingeldey is on the lookout for a dress designer. She can be reached at 495-0509.)

FEBRUARY'S HIGHLIGHT will be "Treasure Isle" — "creme de la creme" garage sale in a vacant store.

March 7, 1834 — the day Canton was established — will be recognized with "Founder's Day" exactly 150 years later. Skits, surprises and Girl and Boy Scout activities will be featured at Township Hall, 1150 S. Canton Center Road.

Hobbies keep him young

By Ariene Funke

It's tough to find a free moment on Claude Eaton's social calendar.

Eaton, who will turn 72 in March, has plenty of fond memories of the "good old days." But there aren't enough hours in the day for this busy man, who keeps fit and active through Canton's senior citizen programs.

For example, Eaton plays the banjo and ukulele in the Kitchen Band. That means weekly rehearsals and performances all over the metropolitan Detroit area.

He keeps fit by playing volleyball in the winter and softball during the summer — again, with senior citizens. He's a member of the Pioneers senior citizen club (president 1977-'78) and participates on a township-sponsored senior advisory committee.

"I don't know how I did things when I was working," said Eaton, a longtime milkman who delivered in Plymouth, Canton and Washtenaw County. "As long as I can keep things in order, I'm going to do it (keep busy)."

EATON AND his late wife Doris saw Canton transformed from a farming community during the 1940s to a bustling suburb in the 1970s.

huge Sunflower subdivision and sits near Plymouth Canton High School.

"I've been a Canton resident since 1944," said Eaton, speaking in slow, deliberate tones. "There have been a lot Genue comedy, spirited musical selections and variety skits await those attending the Plymouth-Canton Music Boosters 'Variety Is...' the annual Centennial Educational Park Bands' talent show at 8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 13, and Saturday, Jan. 14, in the Salem Auditorium...

Talent show judges James Griffith and David Artley (whose hand is slapped against the wall) get a kick out of 'The 12 days of the Olympics,' a song of parody of 'The 12 days of Christmas' sung by a group of students. Griffith confessed 'It's so bad, it's good!'

Kudos go to clothing bank contributors

To the editor:
For many years now (eight) the Clothing Bank has been in operation, providing clothing to children and adults in need.
We do not sell the clothing, we allow the families to come in for winter and summer clothes. At times they have to make several trips. We happen to be out of their size or out of the article of clothing in need.
During the year 1982-83 we had approximately 500 children come in for clothing. This year the number of children has decreased, we hope that is a sign that some of our moms and dads found employment.
The Clothing Bank is open on Tuesday and Thursday mornings between 9:30-12:00 all year. Our phone number is 451-6673 and we're located behind Central Middle School in a portable building.

His life a many-hued tapestry of changes in the township. I know you can't stop progress, but I would rather see crops and nature around here than all these houses."

Over the years, Eaton has held several jobs. During the 1930s, he was a delivery man for the now-defunct Detroit Times. He repaired equipment and machinery for the Farm Bureau in Ypsilanti. He worked for the Ford Motor Co. during World War II.

Eaton found his niche in the mid-1940s, when he joined his in-laws in their family business, the Jersey Belle Dairy. The family raised dairy cows and sold milk. Eaton became a milkman, delivering to homes until declining profits and supermarkets finally killed home deliveries in the early 1970s. "I delivered house to house in Plymouth, part of Livonia and Ypsilanti," he recalls.

MEANWHILE, THE Eatons were settling into Canton. They built a house and raised son Raymond, who died of leukemia in his senior year of high school, and daughter Nancy, who now lives in California.
Both Raymond and Nancy were active in the band at the old Plymouth High School. Claude Eaton took a keen interest in school activities, while his wife drove a school bus for many years. Eaton gratefully retired at age 62, several years after Jersey Belle was sold to other companies who tried to make a go of home deliveries.
"The longer I was working, and the more supermarkets were coming in, the more people began going to the store for their milk," Eaton said. "You were running your head up against a brick wall all the last."

CLAUDE EATON OF CANTON COLLECTS DRIFTWOOD — ONE OF THE VARIOUS PASTIMES THAT KEEPS HIS ZEST FOR LIFE ALIVE AND WELL.

RETIREMENT LIFE was good. Whenever Doris Eaton's health permitted, the couple traveled. She died three years ago.
Now, sports, the band and the advisory work keep Claude Eaton busy. But he balks at being rushed. He likes to have time for photography and his collection of old milk cans, saddles, harnesses and other artifacts from his early farm and dairy days.
One of Eaton's latest acquisitions is a honorary plaque bestowed by the Automobile Club of Michigan to signify his 50 year membership with the insurance company.
Clearly, Eaton is content with his life — both past and present.
"I have had a happy married life — a good, varied life," he said. "I like to garden. Two years ago, I took up golf, and I love it."
"We (the Kitchen Band) are going to start rehearsing for our spring Senior Polkas," Eaton added. "That's a lot of fun — it's work, but fun."

Canton commits to multi-million dollar sewer of the 17 involved communities have already signed. Plymouth Township is expected to act on the resolution tomorrow night.

"THIS ESSENTIALLY says we'll go ahead whether there are federal funds or not. I submit that may not even be possible," said Padgett during lengthy discussion on the issue.
"I have a problem in that even if we don't get funded one way or another, the project. If I commit to spending $32 million, and the federal government says there are no grants, I bankrupt the community, and I don't want to do that."

Poole, a strong supporter of the resolution, said, "We want assurance that if we put up $7 or $8 million to improve lines to our community and construction stops at Norwille, that money will be available to complete the project."
John Sobleskie, former deputy finance director and currently Westland budget director, came to the session directly from a meeting of the Westland City Council, which also gave conditional approval to the sewer project Tuesday.

"This (resolution) could be interpreted by the DNR and the county as an ultimatum. He could write us out of the contract," he said.
Despite Sobleskie's doubts, Poole persevered.
"Based on the recommendations of half a dozen attorneys, accountants and a government task force, I favor its adoption," he said.

"Attorneys know only what we told them. I think you'll end up killing the project," countered Sobleskie.
"I don't put much faith in attorneys negotiating. I don't trust them to make judgments for us," Padgett said.
Finance Director Mike Gorman attempted to wade through some misgivings. "If funding dries up, no one will be able to afford it. No local government will be responsible for the remaining 75 percent — only for its personal share. Wayne County will float bonds to complete the project."

Trustee Carol Bodenmiller said past dealings with the City of Detroit and its water board had not been that favorable. "I don't think (the resolution's provisions) are too much to ask."
"We're also the tail of the dog. I'm not sure it matters whether we pass this resolution or not," Padgett added.

"We should grow a little and hope by 2025 we can afford to drink the water," said Bodenmiller.
"At least going in we'll know what the rules are and what the game is. If we actively pursue a sewer plan, the DNR will not arbitrarily put a ban on sewers," added Poole.
"Based on past experience, you're reluctant to give those people down there credibility. But what choice do we have? We need a sewer."

Nursing home buyer pledges to remedy health violations

"We had people go out there to observe, to see if the place has not declined, and it hasn't," Phelps said.
A meeting between Sutor, Assistant Attorney General Ron Styka, and John Cook, the attorney representing Dion, is planned for "an unspecified date" to discuss "working out and trying to solve the problems," Styka said.
On Nov. 23, 1983 the health department was to ask Judge Thomas Brown in the Ingham County Circuit Court to uphold the revocation, but a meeting on Nov. 21 with Cook delayed the action.
The state department agreed to adjourn until this month's meeting to give the home time to present a proposal with the planned changes.
"Based on the meeting in November, things looked very promising in correcting all of the problems," Styka said.
He added the changes that cost the most will be handled during a longer period of time.

"What we have is a situation where the old owner (Rose Goetz, presently a resident at Dion) wasn't willing to spend the money to make all the changes," Styka said. "Now that Sutor has it, he's willing to resolve the difficulties."
AN INOPERATIVE ventilation system, which will cost about $160,000 to correct, was among the major state violations that will "be done right after the sale," Sutor said.
The price tag on the nursing home, 43825 Michigan Ave. in Canton Township, includes the cost of eliminating this problem.
Sutor promises to provide comfortable chairs in addition to paying $35,000 to rebuild ramps within 30 days after he becomes the owner. He also will purchase equipment in need of repair.

Sesquicentennial celebration under way ing people and places in Canton.

In June, during the Canton Country Festival, the "Time Capsule" will be buried, perhaps on Historical Society property. Inside will be items expected to be of interest to future Canton residents who hopefully will exhume them in 2034, the township's bicentennial year.
AMONG THE contents will be a special sesquicentennial newspaper, scheduled for township-wide distribution Feb. 29 by the Sesquicentennial

Committee. Historical information and photographs of all types will be included, as will a futuristic column by Canton Township Planner James Kosteva who'll predict what Canton will be like on its 200th birthday. (Should you wish to contribute material for publication, call the Observer at 459-2700, Mary Dingley, 495-0509, or Frank McMurray at 455-3200. Ads for the 36-page paper are being sold.)
It's hoped most events will be self-supporting, but in case finances run low, a fund-raiser is planned. Stay tuned for news of a special contest — the winner of which will become a Corvette owner.

BY DECEMBER you could be humming a humorous, copyrighted song recently written by Canton's Jenny Materyn. Entitled "Our 150th Year," The Sesquicentennial Committee is entertaining hopes the "hillbilly, cutie" tune will be recorded by a Canton band.
Sesquicentennial committee members include McMurray (chairman of the Time Capsule publication committee), Dingley, Richard Thomas, Ed Rasmussen, Jane Jager, Jim Mayer, Dick Egli, Dorrie Mullins, Ed Wendover, Marilyn Eddy, Phil Melosh, Joan and Frank Chakrabarty, Bart Berg and Jane Finkle.

Wild birds brighten up their winter landscape

By Elinor Graham staff writer

Flock to it, but this year they just eat it now and then. They eat the cracked corn with the black sunflower seeds...

"We watch from the dining room table and, when they reach the last bunch of trees, they wait for a minute or two before coming to feed. A minute isn't a long time, but it seems a long time when you're waiting for them to make up their minds."

Black sunflower seeds and cracked corn make the old picnic table a favorite feeder.

Bill Edgar puts out the bird food at about the same time each afternoon.

The gold finches have developed a taste for cracked corn this winter and naturalists Evelyn and Bill Edgar don't know why.

"Last year, we bought 170 pounds of thistle seed for them. They used to

"There's an old bluff cardinal that chases the others off. We decided he was the father. Birds do that — try to chase off their young. We fixed another feeding place for them." He said the cardinals didn't show up until the snow came, there were none around in November.

"We call them our foul weather friends," he said. "The last two or three days we've had as many as 18 cardinals — 10 male and eight female." He said the cardinals didn't show up until the snow came, there were none around in November.

They have counted as many as 40 mourning doves at one time. Largest number of juncos at a single feeding was 15. A hairy woodpecker has been a regular visitor. "You can tell he's a hairy because he's larger and has a large beak. Sometimes the downy will puff himself up but the large beak identifies the hairy," said Edgar.

The tray of whole corn under the pine was placed there to attract pheasants and they have had one come to feed.

Evelyn and Bill Edgar enjoy watching the wild birds gather for their evening meal.

THE SAVANNAH Symphony is proud of Lynne Tobin, who has been a cellist with the orchestra for the past five years.

She has been a recipient of a 1983 Outstanding Young Women of America award, presented in recognition of outstanding personal and professional achievements.

Lynne grew up in Plymouth and completed high school at the Interlochen Arts Academy. She graduated from the University of Michigan in 1975. Her parents Charles and Dick Tobin moved from Plymouth to the Chicago area.

Lynne earned a master's degree in cello performance from Northern Illinois University where she was a student of Raya Garbousova and principal cellist of the NIU Symphony Orchestra.

She has twice attended the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara, Calif., studying there with Gabor Rejto and receiving the Norrey S. O'Connor award for outstanding musical achievement.

Before moving to Savannah, Ga., in 1979, Lynne was principal cellist in the Illinois Chamber Orchestra and the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra.

She is actively involved in music education in the Savannah area where she has formed two performing ensembles for young string players. She has instituted successful string programs at Savannah Country Day School and May River Academy in Bluffton, S.C.

Lynne and her parents still consider Plymouth "home" and the community still claims them.

THE PLYMOUTH Theatre Guild is rehearsing for "Bad Seed," the Maxwell Anderson play about a strange 8-year-old girl, Melanie Farrow, 9, plays the lead role of Rhoda Penmark. Good to see Effie Kuisi's name listed as a member of the cast. Effie, a charter member of the guild, hasn't been on stage for a while. The role of Miss Fern must have appealed to her or she wouldn't be there.

The drama opens Friday, Jan. 27, in the auditorium of Central Middle School. You'll be hearing about "Bad Seed" before opening night.

ALICE FISHER was one of the many residents who had car problems during the recent cold spell. Hers "conked out" in the middle of Ann Arbor Road. Her rescuer was none other than Donald Millard, her doctor.

"Not only does he make house calls, he stops to help me in the middle of a snowstorm when I'm stranded. He even offered me a pair of gloves," Alice said. Her automobile needed some serious attention, but she still is worried by his efforts to help.

BETTY DAVIS will be keynote speaker when the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women meets at 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 21, at the Livonia Holiday Inn on Six Mile Road.

She is serving on the Michigan Women's Commission, which is conducting statewide hearings on child care. Cost of the brunch is $10.50 and reservations must be made by Jan. 14 with Janet Zinn, 453-5176.

LINDA DWYER, program director of Turning Point Crisis and Counseling Center in Plymouth, has been awarded a scholarship from the Michigan Office of Substance Abuse Services. She will attend Midwest Institute of Alcohol Studies this month at the Kalamazoo Center for Alcoholism and Addictions. This will be the 10th annual Winter Midwest Institute.

Wild birds add interest

CHICKADEES like the suet. The Edgars have two suet stations, one in back and one in front of their house. They have a bag of suet and some on a board with hardware cloth.

The chickadees also like sunflower seeds. But they have discerning tastes. Some prefer the black sunflower seeds and some prefer the striped sunflower seeds. "They're split about 50-50, half like the striped and half like the black," said Edgar.

He said he always shovels the snow to one side before he broadcasts the bird seed. They buy just the sunflower seed, cracked corn, chicken scratch and thistle seed. They haven't bought the regular labeled "wild bird seed" for 10 years.

Bill and Evelyn joined the Detroit Audubon Society Christmas Bird Count at Pontiac Lake Recreation Area. He said it was disappointing and there were very few birds. But he added that it is a new conservation area and it takes a while for the birds to congregate.

COMPLEMENTS

PRODUCTIVITY COMES TO THE KITCHEN

The kitchen is where it's at. The latest in improved efficiency, that is. In today's fast-paced, high-tech world, increased productivity — or doing tasks better in less time — can be applied to the kitchen as well as to the factory and office.

One way to boost productivity in your kitchen is to make the best use of both your range and microwave oven, using timed, step-by-step procedures. There may be times, also, when both appliances can be used to prepare the same dish. Maytag, which recently entered the cooking appliance business, calls this concept Complementary Cooking.

The idea behind Complementary Cooking is that no one appliance is best in preparing all foods. The microwave oven, range oven and surface units often, can be used together to save meal preparation time without sacrificing taste or nutrition.

Complementary Cooking starts with determining which menu selections should be cooked in a microwave oven and which using the range. It's common knowledge that the microwave oven does a good job of defrosting, heating leftovers and liquids and preparing fruits and vegetables. What isn't so well known is that foods like cookies and quick breads generally fare better in a range oven. Of course, items like pasta and rice are best cooked on surface units.

- 4-6 fresh ears of corn
- 1 medium onion
- 2 stalks celery
- Relishes, i.e., pickles, olives, green onions, cherry tomatoes
- 1 tall can (1-2/3 cups) Evaporated milk
- 3 small cans (2/3 cup each) Evaporated milk
- 3/4 cup + 2 Tablespoons sugar
- 3 Tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon Tabasco Sauce
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 2-1/3 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/4 cups brown sugar
- 1/3 cup cocoa
- 2 Tablespoons corn syrup
- 1/4 cup cider vinegar
- 3-1/4 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 1/3 cup plus 3 Tablespoons butter
- 5 eggs
- 3/8 teaspoon pepper

To shorten preparation, potato salad, relishes, cookies and fudge topping may be prepared ahead.

- 3:30 p.m. Marinate Chicken: Wash and pat dry 1 (2-1/2 - 3 pound) cut-up frying chicken. Put chicken into a large bowl. Combine 1 tall can (1-2/3 cup) Evaporated milk, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 teaspoon Tabasco sauce and 1 lightly beaten egg. Pour over chicken and refrigerate about 1 hour. Meanwhile, husk and clean corn. Melt 3 tablespoons butter at full power in microwave oven. Brush corn with butter and individually wrap in microwave safe plastic wrap.
- 3:40 p.m. Cook Potatoes and Eggs: Put 4 medium potatoes (about 1-1/2 pounds) in a sauce pan on surface unit of conventional range. Place 3 eggs on top potatoes and cover with hot water. Bring to a boil and cover; simmer 20 minutes.
- 3:45 p.m. Begin Cookies: Preheat conventional oven to 350 degrees. Put 1/3 cup butter in a 1-1/2 quart glass mixing bowl. Microwave at full power to melt. Stir in 1-1/4 cups packed brown sugar. Cool slightly. Combine 1-1/3 cups all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces and 1/2 cup chopped pecans. Stir one egg into sugar-butter mixture. Slowly stir in 1 small can (2/3 cup) Evaporated milk. Grease and flour a 9-inch square baking pan.
- 4:00 p.m. Remove Eggs from Cooking Pan: Cool under cold running water. Continue cooking potatoes 30 minutes or until done.

- 4:05 p.m. Finish Cookies: Add flour mixture to milk mixture 1/4 at a time, stirring to mix after each addition. Spread in prepared baking pan. Put cookies into preheated oven and bake 30 minutes.
- 4:15 p.m. Continue Potato Salad: Chop 1 medium onion and 2 stalks celery. Cook 6 slices bacon in microwave oven at full power for 6 minutes or until crisp; remove and crumble. Combine 1/4 cup cider vinegar, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/8 teaspoon pepper; set aside.
- 4:30 p.m. Remove Cookies from Oven: Reset conventional oven at 400 degrees. Check potatoes and remove from surface unit if done. Drain and cool slightly.
- 4:35 p.m. Remove Chicken from Marinade: Shake off excess milk. Combine 1 cup all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon paprika, 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder and 1/4 teaspoon pepper in a large paper bag. Put a few pieces of chicken in bag at a time and shake to coat chicken. Arrange on a greased baking pan in a single layer. Put in preheated conventional oven and bake 45-50 minutes.
- 4:45 p.m. Continue Potato Salad: Peel and dice potatoes into a large mixing bowl. Pour over 1

- small can (2/3 cup) Evaporated milk. Toss and set aside.
- 4:50 p.m. Prepare Fudge Sauce: Mix together 3/4 cup sugar and 1/3 cup cocoa together in a 1-quart glass casserole or measuring cup. Stir in 2 tablespoons corn syrup and 1 small can (2/3 cup) Evaporated milk. Microwave at full power for 3 to 4 minutes or until mixture boils; stirring once. Remove from microwave oven and stir in 1 teaspoon vanilla. Set aside.
- 5:05 p.m. Finish Potato Salad: Add chopped vegetables and vinegar mixture to potatoes; toss to mix. Spoon into a lettuce lined salad bowl.
- 5:10 p.m. Microwave Corn: Microwave at full power 4 ears of corn for 12-15 minutes.
- 5:15 p.m. Prepare Relishes: Clean and arrange favorite relishes i.e., pickles, olives, green onions.
- 5:20 p.m. Remove Chicken from Oven: Check chicken for doneness. If done remove from oven. Arrange on serving platter.
- 5:25 p.m. Remove Corn from Microwave Oven
- 5:30 p.m. Serve Dinner
- 6:15 p.m. Prepare Dessert: Cut cookies into bars. Place a bar in the bottom of each of 4 dessert dishes. Top each with a scoop of ice cream and spoon over chocolate sauce.

These recipes were developed in the test kitchen and provide a short course in the art of Complementary Cooking. The country-fried chicken was prepared in a range oven; the ears of corn and eggplant appetizer for the Italian dinner were cooked in the microwave oven; and the potatoes and eggs for salad were simmered on a surface unit.

The Complementary Cooking technique also can be used to cook individual dishes by breaking down the preparation steps and determining what should be done in a microwave oven and what should be done in a range. For example, in preparing the layered cookie dessert, butter for the dough was melted in the microwave oven, the bars were baked in a range oven and the fudge sauce was cooked in the microwave oven. In preparing the Italian dinner, the scallop sauce for the pasta dish was cooked in the microwave oven and the noodles were boiled on a surface unit.

To help consumers prepare other meals using this technique, a handy "Complementary Cooking Guide" is available. Listing more than 70 different foods, it provides guidelines on which appliance should be used to prepare the dishes and, when appropriate, how to combine cooking appliances in preparing individual dishes. For a copy of the cooking guide, send $1 to: "Cooking Guide," The Maytag Company, Consumer Information Center, Dept. 3PR, ROP, Newton, IA 50208.

Vegetable side dishes don't have to be time consuming to be good

Distinctive vegetable side dishes not only round out a meal nutritionally but make an interesting addition to any dinner. Fancy meal accompaniments have only one drawback — they can require lots of time and attention just when you are trying to finish and serve all the other menu items.

One way around this problem is smart menu planning. Select vegetable recipes that let you complete most of the preparation in advance.

Two attractive vegetable side dishes that fit nicely into a time-saving, make-ahead cooking schedule are Corn Timbales and Peas and Puffed Potatoes. Both of these savory combinations are made with vegetables in butter sauce and can be prepared and assembled a day in advance, ready to be baked and served.

vegetable and butter sauce are stirred in with the other ingredients. The corn mixture can be prepared a day in advance, spooned into custard cups and refrigerated. The timbales bake in 45 minutes, while you put the finishing touches on the other dishes. Present the Corn Timbales either on individual plates as a separate course or family style along with the meal.

Peas and Puffed Potatoes is a make-ahead side dish that combines both a green vegetable and potatoes. The peas with rich butter sauce and thinly sliced green onions form the bottom layer of this casserole. The fluffy potato topping is seasoned with dill weed, Parmesan cheese and garlic.

Corn Timbales are flavorful single-serving molds of baked corn custard. The baked timbales (pronounced tim'bahls) are seasoned with two kinds of cheese, parsley and Onion. To prepare this dish, the corn is simply thawed in its cooking pouch, then the

2 tbs. grated onion
 1/4 tsp. pepper
 1/2 cup whipping cream

In bowl of warm water, thaw corn pouch for 30 minutes. Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease (6-oz.) custard cups and line bottoms with waxed paper. In large bowl, beat eggs to blend. Stir in corn and remaining ingredients, mix well. Spoon mixture evenly into custard cups. Set custard cups in a 13x9-inch pan, fill with about 1 inch of boiling water. Bake 350 degrees for 40 to 45 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. To use, run knife around edge of custard cup and invert on serving plate. Remove waxed paper. 6 servings.

Tip: Corn mixture can be prepared up to day in advance. Cover and refrigerate until ready to bake.

PEAS AND PUFFED POTATOES
 10-oz. pkg. peas in butter sauce
 1 lb. potatoes, peeled
 1 garlic clove
 1/4 cup grated parmesan cheese

1/4 tsp. salt
 1/4 tsp. dill weed
 1/2 cup whipping cream
 2 eggs
 2 tbs. thinly sliced green onion
 1 tbs. grated parmesan cheese

In bowl of warm water, thaw pea pouch for 30 minutes. Heat oven to 350 degrees. In saucepan, cover potatoes and garlic clove with water. Bring to a boil; reduce to simmer, cover and cook 30 minutes. Drain potatoes and discard garlic clove. In large bowl, beat potatoes on high speed until smooth and fluffy. Stir in 1/4 cup cheese, salt, dill weed, whipping cream and eggs; mix well. In a shallow 1-quart casserole combine peas and green onion. Spread potatoes evenly over peas. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon parmesan cheese. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Serve immediately. 4 to 6 servings.

Tip: Casserole can be prepared in advance. Cover and refrigerate until ready to bake. 1 lb. potatoes, peeled, equals 2 1/2 cups cubed raw potatoes.

Corn timbales are an attractive vegetable side dish that will fit nicely into a time-saving make-ahead schedule.

Anita's diet over but drinks linger

When we last left Anita, she was struggling with a new diet. She stopped short of signing a blood oath that she would stick with it come rain or come shine.

My wife's struggle lasted one month. She lost seven pounds and took two inches off her waist and hips.

She drank for breakfast a special powder in such exotic juice drinks as Fruit Flip and Grape Crush. Her other two meals consisted of lean beef, chicken and fish, a variety of vegetables from beets to squash, lettuce and watercress, yogurt and skim milk, oranges and bananas, decaffeinated coffee and non-cola drinks.

She faithfully avoided some of her favorites: avocados, bacon, ham, kidney beans, olives, pickles, potatoes, real coffee and soft drinks.

"I didn't want to tell her, 'I told you so,' but I did ask, 'What happened to your nutritional weight control?'"

"I can't follow it while I have a cold," Anita explained. Her cold lasted the next month. "I'm going to start it again," she assured me.

She never did, but one good thing came out of the discarded diet: some nutritional, tasty breakfast drinks that need no special powder to enjoy.

IT WAS a pleasant surprise to receive a knife sharpener in the mail from Chantry of Bloomfield Hills. It looks more like a miniature white sculpture shaped in an artistic "U."

I had been sharpening my knives with a two-piece butcher's whetstone ever since I dropped it on the kitchen floor and it snapped at the handle. The Chantry Sharpening Machine mechanically reproduces the movement used with a butcher's steel. It also eliminates butcher's elbow and the chance of slicing up a curtain with an errant swing. Thanks!

Study says beef has new look

Today's beef has a new look and it's leaner than ever before. This was the conclusion reached by a comprehensive study that used the latest in laboratory methods and computer technology to determine just how beef contributes to a balanced diet.

The study, which was a joint effort of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the National Live Stock and Meat Board, determined that now, more than ever, beef has an important place as a good-tasting part of a nutritious, balanced diet. Modern beef contains less fat and has fewer calories. A 3-ounce serving of cooked lean beef provides only 192 calories. This is just 8 percent of the average daily caloric intake of an adult male.

Yet beef still contributes a significant portion of many essential nutrients. A 3-ounce serving of beef contains 45 percent of a man's Recommended Dietary Allowance for protein, 26 percent of his RDA for iron, 38 percent of his needed zinc, 79 percent of his vitamin B-12 and 19 percent of his niacin.

How to carve rib roast

Here are some carving tips to help you present a rib roast at its tender and tasty best.

First, it's important that the roast be properly prepared at a low to moderate constant temperature. Then, allow the roast to "stand" for 15 to 20 minutes after it has been removed from the oven. During this standing time, the meat becomes firmer for easier carving. A sharp knife is also essential for successful carving.

To carve a beef rib roast, remove a slice from the large end so that the roast will stand firmly on the platter on this end. Then insert a wide-time fork between the two top ribs starting on the fat side, carve across the "face" of the roast to the rib bone. With the tip of the knife, cut along the rib bone to loosen the slice. Keep close to the bone to make the largest serving possible. Slide the knife back under the slice and lift the slice to the serving platter.

Hartnett heats up Rocks just in time

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Strong backcourt play and free throw shooting were the ingredients Plymouth Salem used Friday to turn back Livonia Stevenson in a early Western Lakes Conference basketball showdown, 66-57.

The Rocks roared to their fifth straight victory without a loss, breaking open close game by outscoring the previously unbeaten Spartans 28-19 in the final quarter.

Barry Bell (31) and Jurek go after a rebound. Bell contributed 10 points to the Rock victory.

"This team can be as good as our defense lets us be," said Fred Thomann, the winning coach. "This is the best perimeter shooting team I've ever had at Salem."

The Rocks hit 81 percent of their free throws (18-of-22) and made the right plays down the stretch.

Swingman Erich Hartnett, who led Salem with 18 points, made a pair of big three-point plays, one on a steal off the tip to start the final period, and the other when he slipped the ball through his legs twice and scooped in a left-handed shot in traffic for a layup.

THE ROCKS' point guard, Jeff Arnold, added 15 points and held things tight early, while off-guard Barry Bell kept the Spartan defense honest with 10 points. Another guard, Mike White, contributed five points off the bench.

The Rocks' other gun was 6-foot-6 Rick Berberet, who neutralized the Spartans' red-hot Bob Sluka, winning the scoring battle against the 6-6 junior, 13-12.

Not to go unnoticed was the performance of Stevenson's 6-7 senior Tom Domako, who led all scorers with 27 points, while adding seven rebounds.

Domako was nearly all the the Spartans' offense, especially in second quarter when he netted 10 points.

Hartnett's three-point play with 4:14 to play gave Salem a 52-48 advantage. The Spartans never could draw closer than five the rest of the way.

"THE GUY is a playground player and has a lot of herky-jerky moves," Thomann said, describing Hartnett. "I don't know how he does some of those moves. I know I can't do them."

George Van Wagoner, the Stevenson coach, told his players afterward "that it's not the end of the season."

"You learn in a close game that you've got to hustle a little harder," he continued. "Hartnett is a hard worker, so is Arnold and (Scott) Jurek is an All-League football player. They know how to win."

"Our kids know how to win, but we need a little more sacrifice."

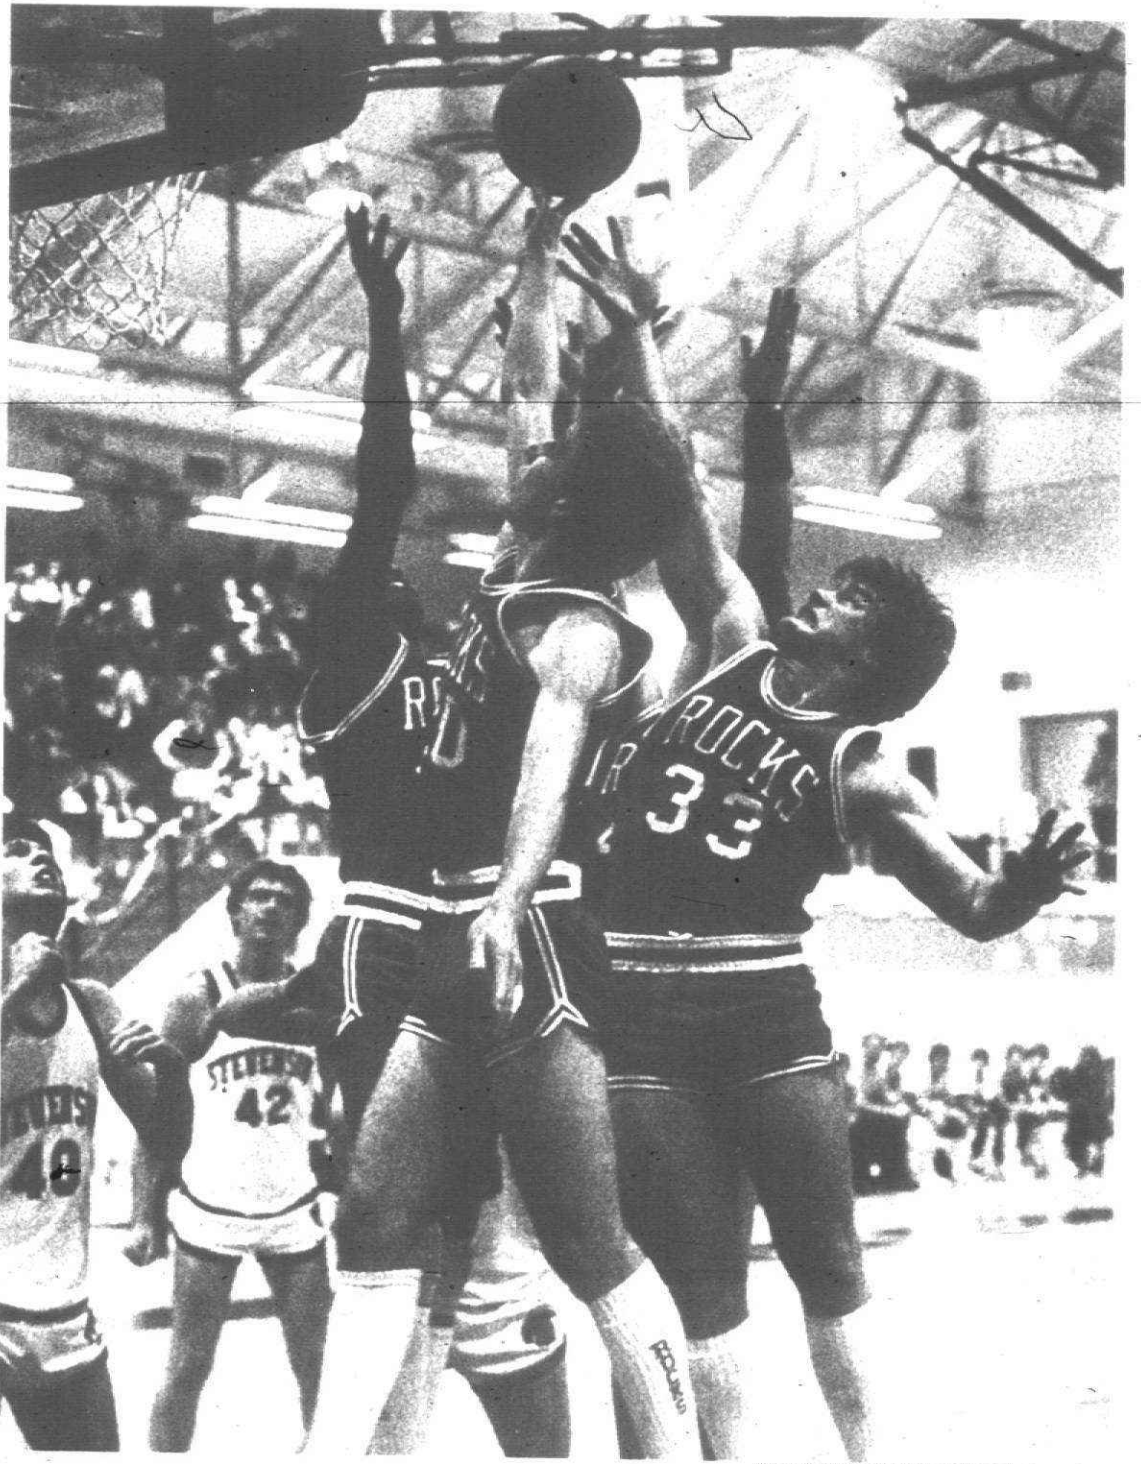

The two teams played virtually even for three quarters with Stevenson holding an edge on the boards, while Salem was shooting better from the outside.

"IN THE open court this team can score whereas the other teams we've had the past were more defense-oriented," Thomann said. "This group can play offensively. They know they can score, but can we guard anybody? That's the key."

Van Wagoner was somewhat surprised by Salem's outside shooting.

"They hit three shots from 20-feet and out," he said. "And that was with a hand in the face."

The rematch is Friday, Feb. 3, at Salem.

Erich Hartnett (No. 20 with hand on ball) outreaches teammates Scott Jurek (33) and LeSean Haygood for a tip-in against Stevenson Friday night. The Rocks won the game, 66-57.

Canton continues its winning ways, defeats Bulldogs

Plymouth Canton's cagers got a scare Friday from 1-5 Livonia Bentley, but the Chiefs erupted in the final quarter to win their fifth straight game, 57-40.

Leading by only four points at the start of the final quarter, the Chiefs outscored the Bulldogs 19-7 to ice the victory.

"We started attacking their zone in the fourth quarter," Canton coach Dave Van Wagoner said. "We played more intelligently and started hitting our shots. We played good defense and got our fastbreak going."

Gary Thomas and backcourt partner Mark Bennett once again sparked Canton (5-1). Thomas finished with 15 points while Bennett contributed 11 points, 11 assists and 10 rebounds.

Van Wagoner praised the effort of center Elijah Rogers, who he said "did a fantastic job" on Bentley's 6-foot-8 Phil Graczyk, holding him to just eight points.

He said Jim Schlicker and Brent Stack also played well coming off the bench.

"It was a total team effort," Van Wagoner said. "I think we have a good chance to do well in our league."

Canton dominated the boards in the contest, outrebounding Bentley 29-21.

John Turner was Bentley's high scorer with 14 points.

LUTHERAN EAST 48, CLARENCEVILLE 46: The Trojans led the entire game Friday against Harper Woods Lutheran East, but crucial mistakes late in the battle cost them the victory.

Leading by four points with just over a minute left in the game, Clarence-

ville went to a slow-down attack to preserve its lead.

The Trojans (1-6) had a chance to put the game away in the final moments after Lutheran East was forced to foul, but missed the front end of two one-and-ones. They also turned the ball over twice and missed a couple of easy layups that would have sealed the victory.

"We played our best game of the year," Clarenceville coach Paul Clough said. "My players played their hearts out. It's a shame we had to lose it."

Paul Voytovieh led the Trojans with 15 points. Tim Spencer added 10 points and 10 rebounds.

HURON VALLEY 56, PLYMOUTH CHRISTIAN 45: The first quarter was the Eagles' downfall Friday, as they were able to score only three points while giving up 12.

The game was played before a capacity crowd Friday at Pioneer Middle School.

Rod Windle was Christian's only bright spot, pumping in 26 points.

The Eagles staged a futile rally in the fourth quarter, pulling within seven points, but couldn't come any closer.

Tony Mitchell paced the winners with 18 points. Jason Landry and Wally Cole added 11 and 10, respectively.

The loss dropped Plymouth to 2-4, while Huron Valley Lutheran of Inkster, is now 2-6 overall.

Chief assistant gets Rock job

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

The Plymouth Salem-Plymouth Canton baseball rivalry, perhaps the most fierce in the state, will have a new wrinkle to it.

John Gravlin, formerly the assistant baseball coach at Canton, has been named to the head job at Salem replacing Brian Gilles who stepped down after eight successful seasons.

Gravlin, a teacher at Lowell Middle School, has been Fred Crissey's assistant at Canton the past six years.

"I would not be in this business if it weren't for the kids," said the personable 29-year-old. "I guess that's a philosophy I picked up from Fred. I'm in it for the advancement of the kids, the student-athletes."

Does he worry about severing his Canton allegiances? Not at all.

"I FEEL confident that I can develop a loyalty to Salem, just as I did for Canton. It's all in the approach."

"I have a tremendous amount of respect for Fred Crissey. And I have tremendous respect for Brian Gilles. That's the beauty of baseball and this rivalry. When we play Canton, we're going to go at it with both barrels. I'm going to give it my best shot. It's going to be more fun. I mean, Fred isn't going to expect me to just lay down and die," Gravlin said.

Still, Gravlin feels some pressure taking over the helm of the Salem baseball program, especially since he's coming in from a rival school. He will be expected to win, immediately.

"I think there's added pressure on anyone taking a head coaching job at either Plymouth high school. This district has outstanding coaches, in all sports. At Salem alone, there's Tom Moshimer, Fred Thomann, Gary Balconi, Chuck Olson, Ron Krueger — I mean, these people are the best. I just hope I can fit in and become as good as the coaches who are surrounding me," he said.

Gravlin is also aware that he is replacing a coach who has built one of the strongest baseball programs in the state.

"BRIAN IS an outstanding coach from the start of the game to the end. He runs a game as good as anyone," said Gravlin.

'I just hope I can fit in and become as good as the coaches who are surrounding me.'

— John Gravlin
new Salem
baseball coach

Gravlin's goals are basic. First, make sure the student-athlete gets all he can from his high school athletic experience and, hopefully, get that athlete in a position to go on to play college ball. Then there's the division and league title. Then, the state journey.

"I'm real excited," Gravlin said. "This is an opportunity not every 29-year-old gets. I'm coming into a good Class A program, with an outstanding facility, probably the best in the state, and a tremendous school system."

So, who's the team to beat in the Western Lakes according to the new Salem baseball coach?

"Oh, Canton has to be the favorite. They are loaded," Gravlin said.

Canton vs Salem — the diamond rivalry lives on.

Gilles officially announced his resignation last November. Among the reasons Gilles gave for his decision were that he wanted to spend more time traveling and watching his daughters Wendy and Chris play tennis (they are both nationally ranked amateurs), and he was upset by lack of financial support given to his program.

"And there has been the same problems with the budget," Gilles said at the time of his resignation. "We had to come up with $500 of our own money to pay umpires for non-league games."

"And the salary wasn't what it should be. A first-year coach in Walled Lake gets $3,400 and I'm making $900."

GILLES' RECORD at Salem was 135-62. Under Gilles, the Rocks won two Class A district, one regional and six league crowns. And he is leaving Gravlin with a lot of returning talent to work with.

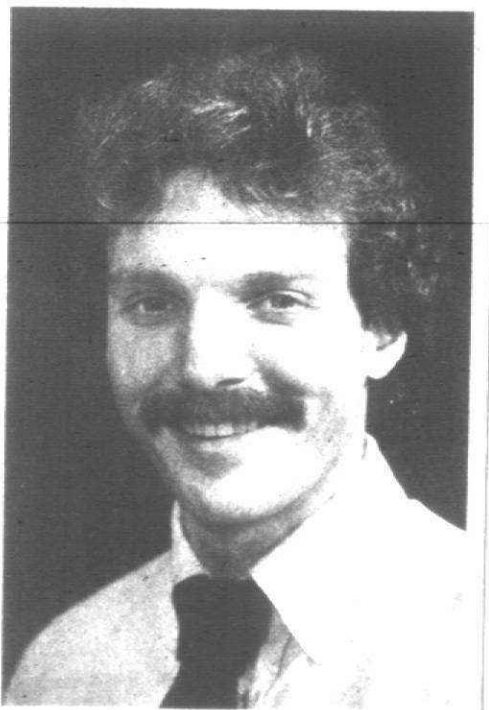

"The barn is full," Gilles said. "That's going to be a good club."

Gravlin isn't ready to jump on that bandwagon just yet.

"I know Brian said the barn was full," Gravlin said, "but I think that is yet to be determined. I know we have some outstanding kids back from a team that went to the final four last year. And we have a pitcher the caliber of a Rick Berberet coming back, and Mike Cindrich (All-Area outfielder) and Tommy Moore (third baseman)."

Gravlin said he will stress pitching and defense foremost. Offensively, he said he will try to run, bunt, and hit-and-run as much as possible.

"Those are the things that make the game exciting. I like to score on every available opportunity. But, pitching and defense win the games for you," he said.

John Gravlin
new Rock coach

Jeff Condit (on top), pictured above in a match earlier this season, defeated the Hawks' Cliff Alcantara Thursday night.

Chiefs rough up Hawks

The Chiefs killed them. They slaughtered, maimed, massacred, mutilated, decimated and blew them away. It was annihilation in the first degree.

We're not talking about Custer's last stand here. No sir. We're talking about the Plymouth Canton Chiefs wrestling team and what they did to Farmington Harrison last Thursday night.

The final tally was 61-0. It was the first shutout in the team's history. But, Canton coach Dan Chrenko took the win with a grain of salt.

"We did a nice job and I'm proud of the kids. But Harrison was down. There's no need to rub it in. That's not what this is all about," he said.

Indeed, the Hawks were down and have been since the beginning of the season. Jerry Eizen, expected by most coaches to be the best heavy-weight wrestler in the league, opted not to wrestle because of a bad shoulder. Then the Hawks lost 205-pound Dave Delekta to a knee injury and Greg McCoy to an illness.

Thus, against Canton, the Hawks forfeited four events. Canton's Dave Dunford (112 pounds), Ernie Krumm (187), Keith Keckes (200) and Jim Malson (heavyweight) all scored uncontested victories.

The other nine events were won handsily by the Chiefs.

Tim Collins, wrestling at 138 pounds, improved his record to 19-1 by pinning Marc Hunter in 1:06. Scott Tasker, who is now 12-5 since being called up from the junior varsity, also scored a pin, his over Pat McFadden in the 157 weight class in 4:24.

Jeff Condit (100), Heath Smith (107), Todd Gattoni (119), John Allmand (126), Jim Parks (132), Larry Janiga (147) and Wein Young (167) were all victorious for Canton.

The closest match for the Hawks was at 147 pounds. Michael Dunn lost a tough 5-2 decision to Janga.

Canton is now 4-0 in Western Lakes play (4-2 overall). The Hawks remain winless.

PLYMOUTH SALEM lost its first league meet of the season (the Rocks are now 2-1) Thursday night, a heart-breaking 26-24 decision to Walled Lake Western.

"Last year we went down to the final match with them and won. This year it went down to the final match and they won," said Salem coach Ron Krueger. "What goes around comes around, I guess."

The final match, the heavyweights, pitted Salem's Marc Cygan against Western's Chris Thompson. The match was a thriller. It ended in a 2-2 tie.

"To say that the meet was lost there is not fair. Marc did real well to come out of that with a tie. I think we had a better chance to win some of the earlier matches," Krueger said.

Salem lost matches at 126, 132, 138 and 187 pounds that Krueger felt his wrestlers perhaps should have won.

The Rocks' Tony Davis scored a pin at 149 in the 107 weight class over Matt Logsdon. At 198, Salem's Brian Johnson took down John Holyfield in 57 seconds.

Dave Dameron (114), Rick Ver-shave (121), and Andy Ward (147), all won on decisions for the Rocks.

Royals win 2

A seven-goal barrage, four in the final period, by the Plymouth Royals Great Lakes Junior B hockey team buried Paddock Pools 7-3 Friday night in a game played at the Plymouth Cultural Center.

The victory improved the Royals record to 15-6-1. Paddock falls to 7-13-2.

The Royals got two goals from Craig Gleason and single tallies John Foreman, John Conn, Scott Wolter, Frank Bowler, and Dean Miriani.

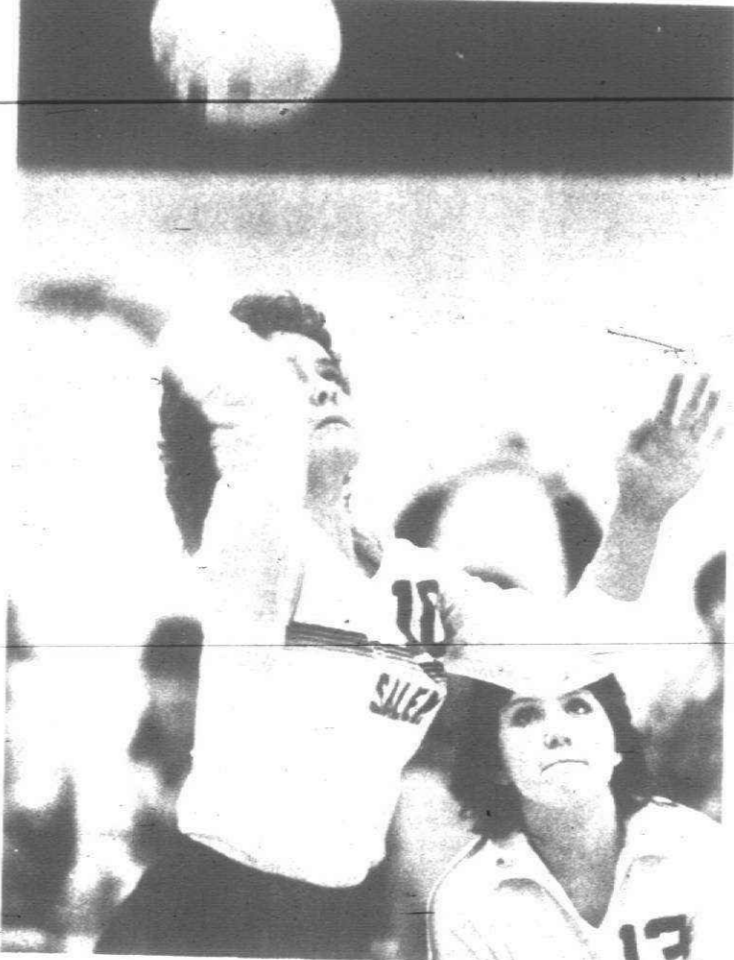

Mike Underwood made his first start in goal for Plymouth and kicked away 29 of Paddock's 32 shots.

Plymouth trailed 3-2 going into the third period and erupted for four goals.

It was the second time the Royals defeated Paddock last week. On Wednesday, Gary Root scored twice to pace Plymouth. John Coretti was the winning goal.

Again, the Royals trailed entering the final period, this time 3-1. And again they broke loose for four final-period goals.

Bemiss 'sets' tone for Rock net triumph

Salem's Chris Radzik serves a winner against Harrison last Wednesday. Teammate Reggie Rojeski looks on.

Prior to the season, Plymouth Salem volleyball coach Jeanne Martin worried about her setters. She had five inexperienced sophomores battling for starting roles.

Then Martin got an unexpected surprise. Senior Kelly Bemiss asked if she could have a shot at doing some setting. Martin's setting woes vanished.

Against Farmington Harrison last Wednesday, Bemiss, along with sophomore Lisa Maddis, sparked in the Rocks' 15-11, 15-3 victory.

"Kelly did a bit of everything for us," Martin said. "She set, she hit, she really played well. In fact, it may have been the best game I've seen her play in four years. It certainly was a nice way for a senior to begin her final season."

volleyball

Martin also praised the efforts of Shelly Stazek, who did some tenacious spiking for the Rocks.

"The kids were really excited. They performed real well. We didn't hit as hard as we will need to down the line, but it was a nice first game," Martin said.

Martin was pleased with her team's defensive coverage. She said the Rocks are playing as well defensively starting the season as they played it at the end of last season.

The Rocks (1-0) will travel to Walled adjusted quickly to her new position but not to the way her coaches utilized her or the way they handled the team.

"THE TEAM WAS more competitive than I thought it would be," the Livonia native said. "Everyone was fighting for each other's position."

Stelberger never started, although in the NCAA regionals she "played most of the time," which should give her the inside track for a starting spot next year. And Kentucky should be even better by that time.

The Wildcats finished this season as Southeastern Conference (SEC) champions and rolled up a 49-7 match record, which earned them the No. 5 ranking in the nation. Unusual seeding cost them, however, as they were put into the same NCAA regional as No. 1 seed Hawaii.

Kentucky knocked off North Carolina State in the opening round of play and beat Texas in the second. The Wildcats then met Hawaii in the regional finals. They won the first game and were ahead 14-10 in the second before the Rainbows stormed back to win that game, the next two and the title.

PLAYING HAWAII and the Japanese national team, rated one of the world's best, highlighted Stelberger's year.

"It was unbelievable, really," she said. "Coming from small little Schoolcraft to play the best in the world."

Playing against two of her former teammates — Hughes and Kelley at Georgia — would have been another highlight, except that Stelberger didn't get that chance.

"I didn't play much that match," she said. "The coaches were playing head games. They wanted me to play harder, thought I could do better, so they held me out."

Stelberger's playing time did increase as the season wore on because, as she put it, "I was really determined

Aiken shines in Lady Ocelot cage defeat

"It's a funny thing about basketball, and girls sports in general," Schoolcraft assistant basketball coach Roy Arley was saying. "One minute you're flying sky high, the next you're flat as can be."

That pretty much tells the story of the Ocelots' 68-64 loss to last year's state champion Lake Michigan Thursday night.

Lake Michigan (8-2) scored eight unanswered points in the first 1:45 of the second half. The Ocelots were defeated.

"We just left our game in the locker-room in the second half," Arley said.

Schoolcraft's euphoria was short-lived.

"Our defense played without any intensity in the second half. You don't play 'D,' you don't win games."

Schoolcraft never regained the lead after Lake Michigan's eight-point outburst. They stayed within one to three points but couldn't pull ahead.

Here's to Your Better Health

by Dr. Robert W. Simon, D.C.

Dr. Simon

DON'T LET YOUR ACCIDENT PENALIZE YOU FOR LIFE

Rear-end auto collisions are the most frequent cause of cervical spine injuries, according to clinical studies. Approximately 85% of the cervical spine disorders treated are the results to auto crashes. Only about 15% of these crash injuries resulted from head-on or side collisions.

The amount of damage to the crashing auto is not a reliable indicator of the damage to the passengers. Most cervical disorders start with sprains and most sprains are caused by the action of the 8 to 12-pound human head as it snaps backward during a rear-end crash.

This head-lagging action can produce an impressive variety of muscle tears, ligament stretching and damage to the backbone, particularly the fourth, fifth and sixth vertebrae.

The position of the head and neck at the time the force is applied determines to some extent the site of the injury. The structures which are relaxed may receive less injury than those which are taut or stretched.

This injury in a side collision may be to the side or the neck opposite the impact. Side collisions cause a sudden lateral bending and rotation of the neck toward the side of the impact, and then to the opposite side.

Sprained or torn ligaments and capsules result in a traumatic inflammatory reaction with muscle hemorrhages and edema; when prolonged, fluid leakage. The inflammation may persist for months or years.

The eventual outcome is a reparative response and injury results most often in scar tissue which is the usual residue of tissue damage.

Tissue repair in the cervical area is slow, probably because of the major blood supply being in the thoracic region. The neck's healing time is six to eight weeks.

The scar tissue which forms is less elastic than normal tissue, which means there will be continued neck stiffness. This is true of all auto accidents, particularly if they have been of the rear-end variety. We urge you to contact a chiropractor for a complete examination.

It's best to apply to your chiropractor as to play with fire.
