The Canton Connection

CANTON'S BEAUTIFICATION Committee will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday in Township Hall. Residents who want to work on beautification projects are invited to attend.

TAXES GOT you down? A group self-help session on preparing your own tax return will be from 7-9 p.m. Wednesday in the recreation department activities room at Township Hall. The Internal Revenue Service will provide assistance for the free session. People should bring tax forms, earnings statements, medical expenses, union dues and other fees. For information, contact the Department of Treasury at 1-800-424-1040, ext. 3674.

WAYNE COUNTY Commissioner Milton Mack will be on hand for Tuesday's Township Board meeting to answer questions and give an overview of Wayne County activities. The meeting starts at 7 p.m.

JAMES GEE has been named to a spot on the Canton recreation advisory committee. Gee, who is active in youth basketball and baseball, replaces Ralph Brickman, who resigned because of a job change.

BOY SCOUT Troop 1539 of Canton is keeping busy with field trips. On a recent trip to Howell Reservation, the boys won a second place ribbon for their ice sculpture and a third place ribbon in the igloo contest. This weekend, they'll travel to the D-Bar-A Ranch for another campout.

JOHN CORRELL, a prime pizza-maker, has been elected to the Michigan Restaurant Board Association board of directors for 1984. Correll, who lives in Canton, operates the Pizzuti's restaurants.

Sledding in style
Karen Mazure, 9, (in foreground) and her brother Mike, 10, display their expertise on "Big Skis" at Plymouth Township Park at Ann Arbor Trail and McClumpha Road. The 1st-year Elementary School students and their parents Ellen and Mike recently moved to Canton from New Jersey, where Big Skis are the rage. The sleds are scarce in these parts, say friends of the Mazure kids.

New housing on horizon for seniors

By Ariene Funke
staff writer
Township officials have been authorized to spend $315,000 to buy a four-acre parcel at Ford and Sheldon roads for future construction of a federally-subsidized senior citizen apartment complex. The Township Board last week gave the go-ahead. First of America Bank of Kalamazoo, which owns the land parcel, has accepted the township's $315,000 purchase offer, said grants coordinator Terry Carroll. "We're closing on it this afternoon," Carroll said Friday. The price represents the appraised value of the property, Carroll said. Slightly less than half will be covered by a $130,000 federal grant from the Wayne County Community Development block grant program. The remainder will come from the township's general fund, Carroll said. Next, township officials must select a non-profit organization to apply to the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for funding to construct the building. Four organizations have made proposals. IF APPROVED, it would be Canton's first senior citizen apartment. Previous efforts to secure facilities have failed. HUD has established an April 30 deadline for applications to be submitted. A decision is expected in late June. "Canton's chances are very good this time," Carroll said. "The site rated very high with HUD. It's close to full services — grocery stores, pharmacies and post office." Although no formal plan has been selected, Carroll envisions an eight-story facility. The total number of units would depend on the funding available from HUD. Construction cost is pegged at $5 million, according to Carroll. Canton's involvement will be limited to the land purchase. The parcel in question is an L-shaped piece of property that wraps around the Jim Mather Mr. Steak restaurant at the southwest corner of Sheldon and Ford roads.

In-house court battle to cost Canton

Canton taxpayers will finance a legal battle between the township's Merit Commission and its treasurer. By a 5-2 vote at Tuesday's meeting, the Canton Township board granted $2,500 in legal funds to the Merit Commission, a three-member body overseeing personnel matters for the township. Dissenting were Treasurer Maria Sterlini and Trustee Robert Padgett. The Merit Commission plans to hire an attorney to fight the treasurer in Wayne County Circuit Court over her failure to comply with a subpoena. The treasurer was subpoenaed earlier this year after refusing to enumerate and document her charges that township administrators are guilty of "serious violations of the law." The treasurer's attorney, former Wayne Circuit Court Judge James N. Canham, called the proposed court action "an expensive legal charade that will prove fruitless and perhaps embarrassing. Anyone who supports such an action must assume responsibility for filling some attorney's pockets at the expense of the taxpayers of Canton Charter Township." Supervisor James Poole said that while he regretted having to spend the money, "we're obligated to support that commission, because the people voted them in. We would be in contempt if we didn't give them support." Padgett vehemently opposed the allocation to the Merit Commission, and read a prepared statement on the issue Tuesday. "THROUGH HER recent actions, the treasurer has insulted the intelligence and challenged the integrity of this board, of the Merit Commission, of several members of the staff, but more pathetically, the entire public of Canton Township," said Padgett. "At stake may be the very authority and function of the Merit Commission, a body created by the public. . . . The treasurer has demonstrated a total disregard for the Merit Commission, has created present and future liabilities for the Commission . . . and has demonstrated a lack of openness and cooperation." "Substantial funds" have been wasted because of situations and circum-

Matney sentenced to 1 year

A 26-year-old former Westland resident convicted of negligent homicide in the 1982 traffic death of a Canton nurse was ordered Friday to serve a year in the Detroit House of Corrections and two years probation for second offense drunk driving. A six-person jury convicted William G. Matney after deliberating about one hour after his trial last week in 35th District Court. Matney was arrested at 5:15 a.m. Jan. 20, 1984, for drunk driving. Canton Officer Richard Pomorski said he found Matney in the driver's seat of a car stuck in a snow bank on Haggerty Road near Palmer Road. Matney was ticketed for driving with a revoked license and for possession of marijuana. It was the third time in little more than a year that Matney had been involved in a drunk driving incident. Matney was held in Washtenaw County Jail in lieu of $25,000 cash bond after standing mute at his Jan. 23 arraignment. A not-guilty plea was entered in his behalf by the court.

How to celebrate Canton's 150th

For Cantonites, Wednesday will herald quite a historical happening — perhaps the most important event slated for the township's sesquicentennial. It will mark 150 years since President Andrew Jackson traveled by stagecoach to the territory of Michigan to help celebrate Canton's new-found independence. It was March 7, 1834, that Michigan's Territorial Legislature took

Call a Con-Con on the budget?

There is a bill being debated in the Michigan Senate Committee on Administration and Rules and Elections called Senate Joint Resolution E. This bill would petition the U.S. Congress to call a Constitutional Convention ("Con-Con") to propose an amendment to the U.S. Constitution which would ensure a balanced budget.

Several weeks ago, township officials had discussed the possibility of a land swap involving a six-acre parcel at Haman and Palmer roads in the hopes of keeping the land acquisition cost down.

"We don't know how it's going to work out," he added. The Ford-Sheldon location "was at risk of being sold for something else," Carroll said.

Canton officials have been hoping to have a senior apartment constructed for several years. HUD funding was not sufficient to handle all the applicants last year when the Ford-Sheldon site was applied for but turned down.

The township decided to try again this year. HUD guidelines stipulate that the formal application for construction funds come from a non-profit organization, rather than the municipality, according to Carroll.

The Township staff is reviewing the proposals, and on Monday the senior citizens advisory council will meet to review them for later recommendation to the Township Board, Carroll said.

The proposal will be reviewed by HUD staff in Detroit, Chicago and Washington, D.C., before a decision is announced, Carroll said.

stances created by the treasurer, he added. Padgett said he "considered the source" in deciding how to vote.

The treasurer still refuses to disclose what "serious violations of the law" have occurred, citing the advice of her attorney.

Because Matney already had served that number of days in jail awaiting trial, the time was applied against his sentence and he was freed but placed on probation.

disoriented at the scene and had difficulty performing sobriety tests. His eyes were bloodshot and his clothes disheveled, Pomorski said.

Matney testified that he was on an errand in his ex-wife's car when he got a flat tire. He said he realized after changing the tire that the 1978 Pontiac had become stuck in a snow bank.

A FEW WEEKS later, while Matney was on probation, a Wayne County sheriff's deputy arrested him for drunk driving in Canton. That incident resulted in a maximum sentence of one year in prison, a $1,000 fine, and revocation of driving privileges.

Matney's 1982 conviction for negligent homicide stemmed from the traffic death of nurse Madonna Tharp, 34, who died after the car in which she was riding was struck by Matney's vehicle at Sheldon and Cherry Hill Roads in December 1982.

Matney received 142 days credit against his sentence, and after spending some time at a halfway house in Detroit, was paroled Dec. 15.

A family member said Matney moved from his Westland address in November 1982, where he lived with his brother and sister-in-law. Most recently, he's lived in Walled Lake, Candace Matney said.

AS CONDITIONS of Matney's probation, and following his release from DeHoCo, Matney is to "report monthly to the court, involve himself in an intensive outpatient program, attend Alcoholics Anonymous meetings or those of a similar organization) two-three times weekly, and must pay substantial fines and costs" Judge James Garber said.

Matney's probation department is to monitor Matney's drug treatment three times weekly.

Conviction of drunk driving twice within a seven-year period is punishable by a maximum sentence of one year in prison, a $1,000 fine, and revocation of driving privileges.

On these cold winter evenings, after listening to the weather report, The Stroller likes nothing better than to lean back in his easy chair...

When he came west The Stroller found one of the great editors in Malcolm W. Bingham, and the rules he laid down have been carried out through the years.

Another of his rules concerned the use of the phrase "over." Anytime he saw a bit on the paper where the writer had written "over 20,000 people"...

Don't let them fool you — moms don't own a thing

I don't know how many people are aware of this fact, but mothers do not own anything. It's true we have a few possessions we like to think of as our own, but it's even more true that our beloved children eventually get around to putting a dent, rip or smear on all that we hold dear.

And why is it that every week when I go grocery shopping I buy myself two or three magic markers or ball-point pens, only to find them missing when I go to write? This seems especially odd when my boys assure me that they never, ever use them.

My ingenious sons also have found that nail polish, nail files, cotton balls and make-up make marvelous art supplies.

Police, not township, buy coffee

James Poole in a recent edition of the Observer's "Canton Connection" warrants an answer.

To the editor: Generally, police officers dealing with controversial issues on a daily basis have learned to live with criticism from the public, the news media and politicians.

Mr. Poole insinuates that police officers may be trying to take advantage of Canton residents. To set the record straight, coffee that is served to inmates in the Canton jail is maintained separately from that which is consumed by police officers. Police officers purchase their own coffee with their own monies.

Mr. Poole would do well to obtain the facts before making statements on matters. Police Officers Concerned for Canton Editor's Note: The police officers' names were withheld by request.

Torch bearer sought

Local runners have a chance to try-out to be a torch bearer for this summer's Olympic Torch Relay.

The 1984 relay will begin Tuesday, May 8, in New York City and end Saturday, July 28, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, where the Olympic Games will be held.

A local torch bearer will be chosen from Plymouth, Canton or Van Buren Township residents between the ages of 16-26.

Applicants must submit an essay by 5 p.m. Friday to the Canton recreation department at 1150 S. Canton Center Road. The essay should say why the applicant feels he or she should be chosen to carry the torch and represent the ideals reflected by the Olympics. The theme of the relay is "A Legacy to Youth."

The person selected will complete a one-kilometer run with a two-pound torch. The route, not yet determined, will be within southeastern Michigan.

The local relay is sponsored by Waste Management Inc., through its local division, Woodland Meadows Landfill of Canton. Selection will be made March 14 by a committee of local community leaders and company representatives.

The difference can be dramatic.

Color means excitement. Clarity. Color can lift your mood from ho-hum to happy. It can grab your attention and hold it.

Our clown friend is an example of our ability to print full color. We do a great job with two, three and four color. You regularly enjoy color in your hometown newspaper, however we have another side that you may not know about—our commercial printing side.

We print publications for schools, community organizations and businesses. Our huge Goss Metro press in our Livonia plant is kept busy as well as our press facilities in Northville and Howell.

So, if you have a special publication that needs the colorful attention of experts, call Marilyn Meredith, 591-2300 ext. 358, and learn more about the commercial printing we can do for you.

Creative Casseroles Catch Compliments

Casseroles are an important part of family lifestyles, particularly when both Mom and Dad are working. Because time for shopping and cooking is at a premium, that means planning in advance, stocking non-perishable foods such as nonfat dry milk on pantry shelves and assembling dinner dishes beforehand, to heat for convenient, ready-made meals.

Dry milk in these casseroles makes it easy to enrich their flavor as well as to supplement nutritional values, especially with calcium, a mineral likely to be in short supply in most diets. Instant nonfat dry milk does not need to be reconstituted. It mixes readily when added to other ingredients.

Swiss Tomato Strata, a classic cheese-bread main dish, fortified with milk and eggs, offers proof you can make a nutritious entree with basic ingredients you probably have on hand. If you prefer a fish and pasta combo, Salmon Shell Casserole is the answer. It too needs only pantry shelf ingredients. Meat-and-potato fans will enjoy Hurrah for Hamburger. If you pipe mashed potatoes decoratively around the edge and sprinkle with cheese, you'll catch plenty of compliments.

The white sauce mix can be stored in your refrigerator ready to become a part of a casserole you create with your favorite vegetables, pasta, rice and meat, fish or chicken. Mix or layer the ingredients in a casserole, top with bread crumbs or crushed chips and bake long enough to heat through. Shredded cheese added as it comes from the oven will enhance the flavor.

Any casserole you refrigerate will need 15 to 20 extra minutes in the oven for thorough heating.

Swiss Tomato Strata

6 servings

- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter, melted
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 loaf (1 pound) Italian bread, cut into 3/4-inch cubes
- 2 tablespoons minced green onion
- 1 jar (15 1/2 oz.) spaghetti sauce with mushrooms

- 3 cups (12 oz.) shredded Swiss cheese
- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter
- 1/3 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 cups condensed chicken broth
- 1 cup instant nonfat dry milk
- 3 eggs, beaten

Combine 1/4 cup melted butter, mustard and garlic powder until well blended. Place bread cubes in a large mixing bowl. Drizzle butter over bread; toss lightly; set aside. Stir green onion into spaghetti sauce. Reserve 1/2 cup of the Swiss cheese; wrap tightly in plastic wrap and refrigerate. Layer 1/3 of the bread cubes, 1/3 of the sauce and 1/3 of the cheese in a buttered 2-quart rectangular baking dish. Repeat twice; set aside. Melt 1/4 cup butter in a small saucepan. Stir in flour until smooth. Remove from heat; gradually stir in condensed broth and dry milk. Bring to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Stir a small amount of sauce into eggs. Return egg mixture to saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, 1 minute. Pour sauce over mixture in casserole. Cover with plastic wrap. Refrigerate several hours or overnight. Bake in preheated 350°F. oven 40 minutes. Remove from oven and sprinkle with reserved Swiss cheese. Return to oven and bake 10 to 20 minutes, or until a knife inserted in center comes out clean.

Salmon Shell Casserole

4 servings

- 4 ounces uncooked pasta shells
- 1 can (7 3/4 oz.) salmon
- 1 can (10 3/4 oz.) condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 1/2 cup instant nonfat dry milk
- 1/3 cup dairy sour cream
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1 1/2 cups (6 oz.) shredded Swiss cheese
- 1 cup cooked peas
- 1 jar (2 1/2 oz.) chopped pimiento, drained
- 1 can (2.8 oz.) french fried onions, if desired

Preheat oven to 350°F. Cook pasta according to package directions; rinse, drain and set aside. Meanwhile, drain salmon, reserving liquid. Add enough water to liquid to make 1/3 cup; set aside. Bone, skin and flake salmon; set aside. Combine condensed soup, dry milk, sour cream, salmon liquid and seasonings; mix well. Stir in pasta, 1 cup cheese, peas, salmon and pimiento. Spoon into buttered 1 1/2-quart casserole. Bake 20 minutes. Remove from oven and sprinkle with onions and remaining cheese. Bake about 10 minutes longer, or until cheese is melted and mixture is hot and bubbly. Serve immediately.

For additional information on nonfat dry milk and its use in delicious, easily prepared casseroles, send a stamped, self-addressed long envelope (No.10) to American Dry Milk Institute, 130 North Franklin Street, Chicago, Illinois 60606.

Hurrah For Hamburger

6 servings

CASSEROLE:

- 1 pound ground chuck
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1 1/2 cups condensed chicken broth
- 3/4 cup instant nonfat dry milk
- 1 1/2 cups (6 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
- 1 package (10 oz.) frozen mixed vegetables, cooked and drained
- 1 can (4 oz.) mushroom stems and pieces, drained
- 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

MASHED POTATOES:

- 4 medium potatoes, peeled and quartered
- 2 cups water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup instant nonfat dry milk
- 3 tablespoons butter
- Salt and pepper to taste

For casserole, cook ground chuck and onion in skillet until meat is brown and crumbly; drain; set aside. Preheat oven to 375°F. Melt butter in medium-sized saucepan. Stir in flour and seasonings until smooth. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in condensed broth and dry milk. Bring to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Remove from heat; stir in 1 cup cheese until melted. If necessary, return to low heat to finish melting cheese. (Do not boil). Stir in mixed vegetables, beef mixture, mushrooms and Worcestershire sauce. Spoon into 1 1/2-quart shallow casserole. Bake 20 minutes, or until hot and bubbly. Meanwhile, for mashed potatoes, boil potatoes in salted water in a covered pan until tender, 10 to 15 minutes. Drain, reserving cooking liquid. Add nonfat dry milk to 1/2 cup cooking liquid. Stir until dissolved. Mash potatoes, then add milk mixture and butter. Beat until fluffy. Season to taste. Pipe potatoes through a fluted pastry tube around edges of casserole. (Or spoon around edge). Sprinkle with remaining 1/2 cup cheese. Return to oven 5 minutes, or until cheese is melted.

White Sauce Mix

Yield: 5 cups

- 1 cup (2 sticks) butter
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 1/2 cups instant nonfat dry milk

Combine all ingredients; mix with pastry blender or fork until crumbly. Store in covered container in refrigerator up to 1 month. See chart below for reconstitution to various thicknesses of white sauce.

White Sauce	Mix	Water	Yield
Thin	2/3 cup	1 cup	1 1/4 cups
Medium	1 cup	1 cup	1 1/3 cups
Thick	1 1/3 cups	1 cup	1 1/2 cups

To make white sauce, place dry milk mix in a medium-sized saucepan. Gradually stir in water. Bring to boil, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Use with vegetables, meat or base for a soup. For variety, stir in 1 to 1 1/2 cups shredded cheese until melted. If necessary, return to low heat to finish melting cheese. (Do not boil). Use thin white sauces for soups and cheese sauces, medium for other sauces and thick for souffles and croquettes.

THE MUCH-MALIGNED
"Good Old Days" weren't all that bad. Two top news stories last week brought those good old days to mind.
One was the snow storm and the other was the New Hampshire primaries.

Elections and the elements remind me of my grandfather in pre-radio, pre-television times.
Grandpa had a vital interest in both.
As a farmer, his livelihood was dependent on the weather. As a man of strong political preference, his peace of mind, his disposition, were dependent on the outcome of elections. The whole family suffered his anguish when the wrong party won at the polls, for he did not suffer in silence.

Grandpa was a great reader of newspapers and subscribed to dailies and weeklies all over the country, delivered by Billy the Mailman in a horse-drawn buggy.
One of the first things the family did after Grandpa died was cancel about 80 percent of his subscriptions.

In his day, he read them all, reading aloud items that caught his fancy. As a 7- or 8-year-old, I found this extremely boring and I'm sure grandma, the three uncles, one aunt and assorted visitors were as bored as I. But rapid attention was expected and we listened politely.

ONE OF THE FIRST things Grandpa checked out was the weather in Chicago.
In the absence of forecasts, Grandpa knew Chicago weather was heading our way.

His reactions would vary with the reports and the seasons. Rain in Chicago would trigger getting the hay in, speeding up the plowing or not spraying the orchard. A thaw in Chicago would bring about the annual chore of washing all the sap buckets and preparing for the maple syrup season.

A snowstorm in Chicago elicited the suggestion, "You boys had better bring in some extra firewood for your mother — and fill up the reservoir."
I wonder how he would have responded to full-screen "STORM WATCH" or "WEATHER WATCH" announcements on television.
It seems we over-react. People dash to the supermarkets to stock up on food, drink and cigarettes; office managers tell their employees to leave early because the storm is coming. With everyone in a mad, off-schedule rush, we're like lemmings rushing to the sea.
The result is traffic pileups, confusion and utter havoc.

Patricia Centofanti in satin and lace was Martha Washington (1789).

Nancy Tanger models Elizabeth
Monroe's floral satin gown (1817).

Pat McCombs is Louisa, wife of John Quincy Adams, inaugurated in 1825.

Betty Curran in red velvet was a charming Grace Coolidge (1923).

Carole Hackett wears Nancy Reagan's beaded inaugural gown.

Inaugural ball gowns at benefit

Ariene Robinson in black sequins and jet beads is Edith Wilson, the second Mrs. Wilson (1913).

Ruth Rossano wears Abigail
Adams elaborate inaugural gown (1797).

The Woman's Club of Plymouth presented a benefit luncheon and fashion show with the fashions dating back to 1789. Guests dined on "Chicken a la President" and "Cherry Streudel Fit for a First Lady." They contributed to the Woman's Club scholarship fund and had a lesson in American history and fashion.

Mary Childs and Judge Dunbar Davis, as narrators, added historical background as reproductions of 28 First Ladies' inaugural gowns were modeled.
Fran Lang provided background music on the piano, playing each President's favorite melody as his lady's gown was shown. The gowns were from the Seely Deer Collection of Birmingham.

THE MODELS critiqued the gowns as they dressed for the show. Everybody liked the deep purple velvet Mary Todd Lincoln dress with its hooped petitico and pantaloons, worn by Lillian Payne. Wilna Rinder Koehnt, in Lou Hoover's grey satin, claimed hers was the plainest of the lot. Plymouth librarian Patricia Thomas in Angelica Van Buren's blue velvet hoop skirted gown and a white ostrich plume in her hair was a favorite.
And they all loved Martha Washington's lace mob cap, worn by Pat Centofanti.

Pat Thomas models Angelica Van Buren's blue velvet gown (1837).

Canton — Salem rule WLAA

Bennett leads Chiefs to 1st title

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

Never accuse Plymouth Canton basketball coach Dave Van Wagener of living in the past. After three rather arduous years, the Chiefs are champions. They defeated Livonia Churchill 60-56 Friday night in front of an exuberant crowd at Canton's jam-packed gym.

When asked about his team's turnaround from a 4-17 season in 1981-82 to 15-5 this year, Van Wagener almost spit.

"Bleep that," he said, or something to that effect. "We're league champs this year and that's all I care about. Don't ever say that again."

It was Van Wagener's first championship, the Chiefs first since 1980-81, and he wanted to savor every moment.

"I'M JUST ecstatic," he said. "This has been the greatest year in Canton's history. Words just can't describe how I feel right now."

The game itself was a heartstopper, regardless of your allegiances. Both teams played at a championship pace. The game featured tremendous outside shooting on both ends, deft passing, and aggressive rebounding and defensive play. The game began at a fast tempo and steadily accelerated.

Churchill was well prepared for the Chiefs. The Charger zone defense effectively kept Canton sharpshooters Gary Thomas and Mike Jennings from getting off any shots.

Thus, the Chiefs were a cold five of 17 from the floor in the first quarter and Churchill led 15-11.

"We knew that is what they would try to do," said Van Wagener. "We wanted to kick the ball inside, but we weren't able to do that at first."

Defense got the Chiefs untracked in the second quarter. The Chiefs created turnovers on the Chargers' first three possessions. Churchill committed six turnovers in the quarter.

SEEING THAT the perimeter was well-guarded, Canton's court-wise point guard Mark Bennett began puncturing the inside of the Churchill defense. He scored six points, he hit Thomas with nice passes for six more points, and when Jennings converted a three-point play, the Chiefs took a 32-27 lead into the lockerroom at half-time.

The game was close throughout the second half, but the Chiefs never gave up control.

Bennett was brilliant. He scored a game-high 18 points, dished out 12 assists and made four steals. He also did a good job limiting Churchill gunner John Grzybek to 12 points.

"I can't say enough about Mark Bennett," said Churchill coach Don Albertson. "He does so many things for them.

And Thomas, we did a good job on him, but when he's open, he doesn't miss."

Albertson didn't really want to talk about it, but he knew exactly why his team lost control of the game in the second quarter.

"It's the same thing you guys (the Observer) have been saying all season," he said. "At times we made improper shot selections. When you take improper shots, it's a turnover. We were guilty of forcing up some shots when we were four and five points ahead. We'd have done better to work the ball around."

STEVE JUODAWLKIS gave Churchill a tireless effort both offensively and on the boards. His 15 points paced the Chargers, eight in the fourth quarter. His efforts kept Churchill in the game in the final quarter.

Scott Hille added 14 for the Chargers. Grzybek had the hot hand for Churchill in the third quarter, but oddly, he took only three shots in the final eight minutes — a combination of good defense by Bennett and Churchill not getting the ball to its hot shooter.

Thomas, as he usually does, hit some clutch long-range bombs to keep Canton in control in the second half. He finished with 13 points. Jennings added 11 points.

Both Jennings and junior leaper Jim Schlicker pulled in nine rebounds.

A pair of baskets by Judawlkis tied the game at 46 with 5:30 left in the game.

THE CHIEFS, spurred by five quick points by Bennett, reeled off a 9-2 spurt. From there it was a matter of hitting free throws — which the Chiefs did and the Chargers didn't. Canton hit six of 11 down the stretch, while Churchill went 0-4.

"I felt we were the better team," said Van Wagener. "and that it was just a matter of time before we wore them down, collected ourselves and got the victory. It was a total team victory."

Said Albertson: "I'm very happy for Dave and his team. They have gone beyond the goals they set for themselves, which was to win the division title. I don't feel down about this game at all. We went out like champions."

Finally, as the celebration in the gym was quieting down and there was a lull between that and the celebration that would occur later, Van Wagener was asked what he was going to say to his team:

"I'm going to tell them that I love them. I really do. They've become like family."

Canton's court-wise Mark Bennett takes dead aim at the basket. He led all scorers Friday with 18 points in the Chiefs win.

Rock tankers outlast Spartans again

Kleinsmith wins 2 events

By C.J. Riska
staff writer

Winning keeps coaches happy. Ever notice that? Since that's why they're in the coaching business — to win and therefore to be happy — it shouldn't be so surprising.

Chuck Olson was a happy coach Friday night. His Plymouth Salem swim squad had just won its second consecutive Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) title. But this championship was a bit different.

"Last year it was real enjoyable, from a coach's standpoint," Olson said moments after his Rock team clinched the title with a winning performance in the 400-yard freestyle relay. "There were a lot more gray hairs this year."

THOSE "GRAY HAIRS" can be directly traced to the closeness of this year's meet. Salem won the title by a slim 14.5 point margin, ahead of Livonia Stevenson. Farmington finished third, 54.5 points behind Stevenson, with Northville fourth, Livonia Churchill fifth and Plymouth Canton sixth.

Four league records fell, two courtesy of Stevenson, and there were two double-winners in individual events. Salem and Stevenson each had three wins, while Farmington and Churchill had two apiece.

"We had a real good prelims and finals," Olson said. "Stevenson got real tough tonight after the diving."

"But our guys came through in the clutch, really. It's called intense."

IF BEING INTENSE means winning, then Erik Kleinsmith was on top of the intense list. The Salem senior won two events himself — the 100-yard (48.94) and 200-yard (1:47.35) freestyles — and anchored the Rocks' triumphant 400 free relay team of Bob Bowling, Jon Cain and Greg Wolff (3:21.83).

Kleinsmith's time in the 100 free broke his own WLAA record of 49.19 set in this year's preliminaries.

Stevenson's Kurt Hein enjoyed a fantastic meet that might have been even better. Hein teamed with Kevin Everhart, Dennis Ward and Steve Toarmina to win the 200 medley relay (1:40.21), shattering the previous record of 1:43.13 set last year by Stevenson.

Hein later got his name in the league record books by splashing to first in the 50 free (22.12), lowering the WLAA mark of 22.51 he set a year ago.
