The Canton Connection

YOU'D never know Canton's filing deadline for the general election in November was a month away. The word from the office of veteran Clerk John Flodin (who will run again) is that no one has yet filed. However - Supervisor James Poole is finally off the fence. While he's awaiting "some information," he says he expects to run. His competition? So far, no one on the Republican ticket. The Democratic field includes former supervisor (1976-78) and businessman Harold Stein, and towing company owner John Barnette.

Democratic Treasurer Maria Sterilni has said she won't decide whether to seek a second term until June. Democratic Trustee Carol Bodenmiller is the only announced candidate for treasurer.

While incumbent trustees are vacillating, a few challengers have come to the fore. They include Democrat Edwin Rasmussen who serves on Wayne County Sheriff Robert Ficano's executive staff, Democratic businessman James Bridenthal, and Democrat Robert Myers, vice president of the state Department of Commerce Mobile Home Commission.

A CONGRESSMAN'S Medal of Honor will be awarded to Canton's Terri Koers, daughter of Bob and Connie Koers. Terri was nominated by the Canton Chamber of Commerce for her volunteer work and personal contributions to the community. U.S. Rep. William Ford, D-15th Congressional District, will present Terri with the award May 6.

A PANCAKE LUNCH will be sponsored by The Plymouth Canton Lions Junior Football organization from 11-2 p.m. Sunday, May 6, at McDonalds on Ford Road in Canton. Adults will savor hot cakes at $2.25, while the price is $2 for children under the age of 12. Sausage, coffee, tea, milk and orange drinks also will be served.

CONGRATULATIONS to Robert Porterfield of Canton, who was made a vice-president of Comerica Bank-Detroit. Porterfield joined the bank in 1969 as an administrative trainee. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Eastern Michigan University.

MOVE IT AND lose it in aerobics exercise classes Tuesday and Thursdays beginning May 15. The eight-week, one-hour class will begin at 9:30 a.m. and again at 10:30. The fee is $35 and baby-sitting is available. Register in person or by mail at the Canton Parks and Recreation Department, 1150 South Canton Center Road.

TO PREPARE for automation of circulation in November, the Canton Public Library will be closed on Fridays starting June 1. Studies show that Friday is the day least used by patrons, according to Canton librarians.

THE MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT of Agriculture reports that the stock of corn, soybeans and oats is down in contrast with those of a year ago. As of April 1, corn stock totaled 88 million bushels, less than half of last year's inventory. Soybean stocks are down 24 percent and while oats are only slightly lower than last year's levels.

Commission nominee steps down

By M.B. Dillon Ward
staff writer

Canton's Dale Smith, financial secretary of UAW Local 900 in Wayne, has withdrawn as a candidate for the Wayne County Road Commission.

Smith, 43, was tapped by County Executive William Lucas as a nominee for the three-member group and approved by the commission's public works committee. He was slated to go before the Committee of the Whole and the full commission to receive final confirmation.

Although seven candidates have been nominated since February when Lucas replaced road commissioners with his own temporary appointees, only one - Janice Frazier of Detroit - has been confirmed. Another nominee, Teresa Pulido of Detroit, also was approved by a Board of Commissioners' committee.

"I would love to have had the job - that's no secret," said Smith, "but I'm in the middle of things with the membership, and I can't see embarrassing the people who are backing me if I couldn't attend meetings and do the job."

Smith said he is responsible for finances related to UAW property and buildings, and for dues and income for his local - comprised of 4,400 Ford Wayne Assembly Plant workers, 800 laid off workers, and 1,000 retirees.

Students hear Justice Boyle

By Margaret Neubacher
staff writer

Although she was without her black robe and away from her accustomed seat on Michigan's Supreme Court, her presence commanded the students' respect.

Dressed in a neat black suit, Patricia Boyle, spoke to a crowded room of Plymouth-Canton High School students last week in honor of Law Day.

The newest high court justice was appointed by Democratic Gov. James J. Blanchard last year after a flap in which the court majority deposed Dorothy Comstock Riley, the appointee of former Gov. William G. Milliken, a Republican.

Justice Boyle faces the voters in November in an effort to win the remainder of the eight-year term. The court ticket is nonpartisan.

She held the students' attention recounting highlights of her 20-year law career, and left many in the audience moved by what might be described as a passionate faith in America's legal system.

"THE FIRST and most remarkable aspect of our legal system is the U.S. Constitution," Boyle said, "and unfortunately surveys show many Americans don't understand the protection it guarantees us."

Boyle cited the jury system as the second most-important component of the legal system. "Any reasonable lawyer would agree that juries almost always reach the right result."

To illustrate, Boyle told of a case she heard when she sat as a federal court judge.

"The case was brought by the widow of a man who was killed when a plane clipped the wings of his glider, causing him to crash. The woman was suing the airport where the accident occurred."

"After the widow took the stand and told her story, there was hardly a dry eye in the courtroom. Not only had this

Teachers cancel student artfest

Art Work made this year by students in Plymouth-Canton Community Schools will not be displayed this June in the annual "Artfest" held in Kellogg Park.

Due to recent budgetary and program cutbacks in art programs in the district, art teachers have decided not to participate in the art show this year, said Michael Homes, assistant superintendent for instruction.

"I'm not completely surprised, I know the teachers are unhappy about conditions," Homes said. "But we were hopeful we could hold this year's event and then do a hard analysis next year."

Homes said the cancellation was brought on by funding reductions and changes in the district's K-12 art program, changes that possibly might have reduced the quality of the exhibit.

"Everything is not well with the art program in the district," he said. "There has been some reduction in money spent on instruction, materials and supplies. These reductions have come at a time when material costs have gone up."

THE FIRST ARTFEST was held in 1981 and its popularity has increased each year.

Between 5,000-8,000 viewers visited the show, on Saturdays, last year. On display are paintings, jewelry, wood-working, costumes and stitched goods, group dances and vocal groups.

Homes said he received a letter from 17 of the district's 21 art teachers saying they would not participate in a program this year. An April meeting with the teachers showed they would not change their minds, he added. Although the Artfest involves a lot of extra work on the teachers' part, Homes said he believed they would have once again done the extra work if they had felt they were adequately supported by the school district.

"The teachers did an awful lot on their own, getting things to the park, setting up booths, staying five-six hours at the park," he said. "The work may have been a concern, but it is overshadowed by concerns over support and funding."

In the last few years, the art program has lost both staff and students, he said.

One art teacher, who asked not to be identified, said the art staff made the decision last September not to hold the art fair when program cuts were first announced.

"Most of the teachers have let the students take their art work home throughout the year - they don't have the work to display," she said.

Canton's John O. Schwartz will be honored as Canton's Small Business Person of the Year at tonight's Canton Chamber of Commerce dinner at the Plymouth Hilton. At last year's dinner, he looked at photographs of recent Canton business events.

Chamber to honor Schwartz

Canton's John O. Schwartz has been named Canton Chamber of Commerce Small Business Person of the Year. He'll be feted tonight at a special membership meeting at 6:30 p.m. at the Plymouth Hilton Hotel.

The event will kick off what the Canton Township Board has designated as "Small Business Week."

Schwartz has operated a greenhouse business in the township for 37 years. Despite the demands of business, he's found time to serve numerous local organizations and currently is a member of the Canton Public Library Board. Schwartz puts his talents as an electrician to work each year to help stage the Canton Country Festival. He belongs to the Growers' Association and the Canton Rotary Club.

Maynes makes state house bid

Robert L. Maynes has launched his campaign for the Republican nomination for the state house from the 35th District.

The district includes most of Livonia and four precincts in Plymouth Township. The 35th District is presently represented by Jack Kirkkey, a Republican, who is not seeking re-election.

A 26-year resident of Livonia, Maynes is a chartered life insurance underwriter and is the owner of F.W. Staman Insurance Agency in Novi.

Although he served as an elected precinct delegate from Livonia, this is Maynes' first run for political office.

In a prepared statement announcing his candidacy, Maynes said that "state government is too highly dominated by professional and long-term politicians

Rep. Law files for re-election

State Rep. Gerald H. Law, R-Plymouth, announced today he will seek a second term in the Michigan House of Representatives.

Law, a former Plymouth Township Trustee, represents the 36th District which includes the cities of Plymouth and Northville, Northville Township, and parts of Canton and Plymouth townships and the city of Novi.

Law served four years on the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees before being elected to the Michigan House in 1982 when the 36th District was created by re-districting.

He currently serves as vice chairman of the House Committee on City Government, and is a member of the committees on state affairs, insurance, and urban affairs.

"Because in the past two years the legislature has gone too far in raising taxes and increasing spending," said Law, "important issues such as economic development and program evaluation have been forgotten."

"I think we have to restore more balanced tax and budgetary policies so we can get back to work addressing the very areas that will provide new jobs, put Michigan back on a competitive basis with other states, and guarantee that state government is run efficiently."

Before running for office, Law, 39, worked for the Ford Motor Co. and was involved in a number of community activities. He is a member of the chamber of commerce, Kiwanis, Trailwood Homeowners Association, and Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church.

Law earned his master's degree in business administration from University of Detroit, and he is a graduate of Wayne State University Law School.

He, wife Chris and two daughters live in Plymouth Township.

FOOT HEALTH TODAY

DR. JAMES SCHELBERG, PODIATRIST

PAINFUL HEEL

QUESTION: I like to run as often as possible everyday if I can. Lately, I haven't been able to because of a nagging bruise on my heel. I lay off and the pain goes away, but it comes back every time I start to run again. Why won't it heal?

ANSWER: Given enough time and rest, a simple bruise should heal. What you may actually have is a HEEL SPUR. This is a calcification caused by constant pressure placed on the heel of your foot. A podiatrist can examine your foot to detect its presence and provide treatment to correct it. The doctor may also prescribe orthotics to rebalance your feet, take pressure off your heels and reduce the chance of reinjury. A professionally designed orthotic should help get you back on the right track.

AND MICH.

Friday was far from ordinary for Barb and Jason Christner. The Cantons saw their home assume a new address.

Roads were closed at 10 a.m. Friday so that J.D. Porter House Movers could transport the house from its former Ford Road site south on Lilley to Cherry Hill, west to Canton Center, and south on Geddes Road.

Weather delayed the move several times, and the threat of rain nearly postponed it again. Detroit Edison will not rewire utility lines in the rain.

Barb Christner said what she once thought was going to be cost-effective was becoming an expensive project, thanks to delays, vandalism and utility costs. The Wayne County Road Commission charges $1,000 bond for lifting traffic signals at intersections — and if workers spend eight hours at it, the money is not refunded.

"For what it's going to cost, I could have bought a home in Beacon Hill," joked Christner.

Ruth Porter, of the house moving company, said she was surprised at the cooperation offered by Canton police. Usually one or two officers show up, and "if there's a call, they leave. There are seven cops out here today," she said.

Utility workers lift wires out of the way or cut them to make room for the Christner house to pass underneath.

Stroller's unseen friend is a friend indeed

One of the most cherished rewards a fellow gets for writing these semi-weekly columns is the knowledge that he is making friends among the readers... Only recently The Stroller received a letter from a woman in California who told him that she once lived across the street from his grandmother back in the Dutch country of Pennsylvania.

ers who desire it. Here it is: Young dandelion greens (washed and picked over) Roll in cloth and pat dry (set in warm place) 1/2 cup cream

2 tbsps of butter or bacon fat. 2 eggs 1 tbsps salt 1 tbsps sugar 1/2 cup of vinegar (not mustard) Black pepper Put in salad bowl and set in warm place. Cut bacon in small pieces and fry until crisp (drain on paper towels). Melt butter and add cream (low heat). Beat eggs add salt, pepper, sugar and vinegar. Add to butter and cream mixture cook until thick. Pour over greens and mix well. Then, for good measure Mrs. Williams sent the recipe for shoe-fly pie — one of The Stroller's favorites. And this is good to try for something different. For the crumb part: 1/4 cup of shortening 1 1/2 cups of flour 1 cup brown sugar Work the above ingredients together.

For the liquid part: 1/4 tbsps baking soda 1/4 tbsps nutmeg and cinnamon 1/4 cup of salt 1/4 cup molasses 1/4 cup hot water Mix well together add hot water in to an unbacked shell. Combine the crumbs and liquid in alternate layers with crumb mixture on bottom and top. Bake at 450 degrees for 15 minutes. Turn oven down to 350 for 20 minutes. Then enjoy this famous Pennsylvania Dutch treat. Thank you so much, Mrs. Williams, a friend in need is a friend indeed.

Why must kids suffer?

To the editor: Our son (who was 6 at the time) just recently went through a retrial for a second degree criminal sexual conduct case involving a neighbor man. He took them all camping (separately of course) for one short night each. The first trial resulted in a hung jury. The second trial acquitted him. From October to March (the time between the first and second trial) this man and his attorney had prepared a rather convincing case. I am not bitter, as this poem may reflect. I am so concerned for other innocent children out there who may be harmed in some way, some day by men like him. Our son was very fortunate, but others are not. The law just isn't made to protect the children.

Never to be heard from again. Why? With your sick, twisted minds you have mangled and molested their little bodies. Why? Don't you know the heartaches you have put us through. We who love them?

And for what reason. All the prisons and the psychiatrists in the world will not change you. Ever. Why? Thank you for listening. Gail Murrah, Canton

ACTIVE LIFESTYLES

America — it's a country on the move. From the executive who totes a gym bag to work and runs the racquetball court at lunch, to picnickers who pack a meal and bicycle to a special destination — today's lifestyles reveal a new awareness of physical fitness and health.

Our eating habits are on the move, too. Food patterns have been influenced by the nation's interest in a more active lifestyle. Consumers are eating more whole-grain products, fresh fruits and vegetables, and are looking for foods that accommodate their busy schedules.

Featured here is a selection of recipes that fits right into today's lifestyles. They're the kinds of foods that can travel with you for eating on-the-go, or that can be enjoyed at home. In addition, each recipe makes the most of nourishing ingredients and is highlighted with the moist, naturally sweet flavor and juicy texture of Golden Delicious apples.

For early morning exercisers or avid snackers, tote along Whole-Wheat Apple Muffins or Golden Apple Granola. Both are made with whole-wheat flour, crunchy chopped nuts and fragrant spices, and are laced with sweet Golden Delicious apples. Pack these wholesome treats in plastic bags and eat them on-the-go or serve them at home with cold milk. They're excellent for satisfying a hungry morning or any time appetite.

Picnickers will love Golden Apple Chicken Sandwiches and Apple Calico Bean Salad. Tender cooked chicken and crunchy Golden Delicious apples are highlighted with toasted almonds and spicy curry powder in the sandwich filling. Enjoy this mixture between two slices of bread or served, as-is, on lettuce leaves.

For Apple Calico Bean Salad, simply combine three varieties of beans with juicy Golden Delicious apples, celery and a vinaigrette dressing, marinate and serve.

And for those who want a quick-to-prepare, lean entree, there's Golden Apple Stuffed Fillets. Delicate whitefish fillets are stuffed with a sweet, savory filling of shredded Golden Delicious apples and carrots, complemented with a medley of seasonings — parsley, lemon juice, ginger and white wine. Prepare this entree in the microwave or in a conventional oven.

Golden Delicious apples from Washington State are ideal for a fresh, healthful snack any time of the day. They're low in sodium, contain important vitamins and minerals and provide fiber to the diet. And, one medium-sized apple contains approximately 80 calories.

GOLDEN APPLE GRANOLA

- 4 cups old-fashioned rolled oats
- 3 cups chopped Golden Delicious apples
- 3/4 cup whole-wheat flour
- 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
- 1/4 cup packed brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup apple juice
- 1/2 cup chopped dates
- 1/4 cup oil
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine oats, apples, flour, walnuts, brown sugar, cinnamon and salt; mix well. Heat apple juice; add dates and let stand 15 minutes or until softened. Mash and blend well; slowly beat in oil and vanilla. Pour mixture over dry ingredients; stir to moisten evenly. Crumble in thin layer on greased large baking sheet. Bake at 350°F. 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 250°F.; bake 1 hour. Stir; bake 1-1/2 to 2 hours longer or until mixture is dry. Stir every 45 minutes. Makes 6 to 7 cups.

WHOLE WHEAT APPLE MUFFINS

- 1 cup each flour and whole-wheat flour
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon ground allspice
- 1 cup lowfat milk
- 1/4 cup oil
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 cup finely chopped Golden Delicious apple
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts (optional)

Combine flours, sugar, baking powder, salt and allspice. Add milk, oil and egg; stir only until ingredients are blended. Fold in apples and nuts. Fill 12 greased muffin cups almost full. Bake at 400°F. about 30 minutes or until wooden pick inserted near center comes out clean. Makes 12 muffins.

Cooking and baking are natural uses for Golden Delicious apples as they hold their shape well when heated. Their cut flesh stays white longer than that of other apple varieties and paring is not necessary as the skins of Golden Delicious are so tender.

QUICK AND SIMPLE SERVING IDEAS

Serve slices or wedges of Golden Delicious apples with assorted cheeses for a continental-style snack or appetizer.

Serve slices of crisp Golden Delicious apples with a refreshing yogurt dip for a light dessert.

Add chopped Golden Delicious apples to peanut butter and spread on whole-wheat toast for breakfast or for a snack.

Dice, chop or slice Golden Delicious apples and add to tuna, turkey, chicken, potato, tossed green or spinach salad.

Add Golden Delicious apple slices to stir-fried chicken, fish or beef and heat thoroughly.

SELECTION: Choose Golden Delicious apples with firm skin. Apples will range in color, depending on maturity, from light green to creamy yellow. Light green apples will have a slightly tart flavor and creamy yellow fruit will have a sweeter flavor.

STORAGE: Store apples in a plastic bag in the refrigerator. Apples ripen 10 times faster at room temperature and five times faster at 40°F. than at 32°F.

GOLDEN APPLE CHICKEN SANDWICHES

- 1 cup chopped Golden Delicious apple
- 1 cup diced cooked chicken
- Mayonnaise
- 2 tablespoons each minced parsley and toasted almond slices
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/8 teaspoon curry powder
- 12 slices whole-grain wheat bread
- 6 lettuce leaves

Combine apple, chicken, 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, parsley, almonds, lemon juice and curry powder. Spread bread slices with small amount of mayonnaise. Spread 1/3 cup filling on each of 6 slices. Top each with lettuce leaf and bread slice. Makes 6 sandwiches.

Salad Variation: One-half cup filling for Golden Apple Chicken Sandwiches can be served on lettuce leaves as a salad. Makes 4 servings.

APPLE CALICO BEAN SALAD

- 1 can (16 oz.) each red kidney beans and garbanzo beans, drained
- 1 package (10 oz.) frozen cut green beans, thawed and drained
- 1-1/2 cups diced Golden Delicious apples
- 1/4 cup chopped celery
- 2 tablespoons minced green onion
- Vinaigrette

Combine all ingredients. Marinate at least 4 hours; stir several times while marinating. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Vinaigrette: Combine 1/4 cup each oil and white wine vinegar, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon celery seed, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon pepper; mix well. Makes 1/2 cup.

DINNER MENU

- Golden Apple Stuffed Fillets
- Tossed Spinach Salad With Vinaigrette Dressing
- Rice Pilaf
- or
- Whole-Wheat Rolls
- Frozen Yogurt Parfaits

(Not Pictured)
(Microwave Method)

- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 tablespoon oil
- 1 cup each shredded Golden Delicious apple and carrot
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 2 tablespoons lemon or lime juice
- 1/4 teaspoon each salt and ground ginger
- 1/8 teaspoon thyme, crushed
- 1 pound sole, cod or other white fish fillets
- 1/4 cup dry white wine
- Salt and pepper

Sauté onion in oil until tender. Add remaining ingredients except fish fillets, wine, salt and pepper. Spread mixture evenly over length of fillets; carefully roll-up. Place seam-side down in oiled microwave-proof dish. Pour wine over rolled fillets; season to taste with salt and pepper. Cover with waxed paper; microwave at MEDIUM 5 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork; turn once halfway through cooking time. Makes about 5 servings.

Conventional Method: Prepare and roll-up fillets as above; measure thickness. Bake at 450°F. allowing about 10 minutes cooking time per inch of thickness measured at its thickest part after stuffing or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Bake once or twice during cooking.

Times may change, but hash is still the choice for thrifty, quick, easy

One of the first columns I produced five years ago was about hash, recalling fond memories of college days when thrifty quick and easy were the main considerations. I still prepare hash, but I must admit that the occasion only arises when I wish to dispose of leftovers, such as a chunk of chuck roast and several potatoes.

Budding young authors bloom at conference

By Marie McGee
staff writer

THE PRIDE OF authorship came early for area elementary school writers who attended the annual Conference for Young Authors at the University of Michigan-Dearborn last week.

Organized by U-M-D education professor Jane Romatowski, the conference is the ninth such event, which alternates between high school and elementary school students.

This year, some 300 students participated from a record number of schools — more than 70 — primarily in Wayne County.

A lot of creative work takes place before the youngsters, who are chosen by their schools, are ready to read the books they have written and illustrated for the morning-long conference. Each school is limited to four participants.

IT IS AN exciting challenge for the youngsters in more ways than one. Romatowski noted. In only a few instances were any of the children assigned to a classroom with others from their schools. Even the teacher was a stranger.

Not only did the budding authors get a chance to read their final product in classes with children from other schools, but they were encouraged by the teacher to critique each others' stories and poems.

A creative writing session allowed them to explore "like the blossoms on an apple tree with excitement," commented one of the teachers.

Livonian Larry Harmon, a fifth grade teacher at Howard Elementary School in Dearborn, took part in the conference as he has each year. It has been offered for grade schoolers.

Because some children are shy at first, the teachers used a warmup activity to get the students used to being there. Midway through the morning, the classes took a juice break, allowing the youngsters to get further acquainted.

THE CREATIVE activities varied in each room. Harmon, for instance, dropped a duffel bag filled with used shoes and boots on a table. After examining such human qualities as the miles the shoes have traveled or the places they have been worn, each student then wrote about one of them.

A new feature this year was a storytelling presentation at the conclusion of the conference. Participating were four student winners of the U-M-D Division of Education's new Ruth Sawyer Storytelling award.

Each young author heard two stories. Included was an original story — a spoof on the nursery rhyme of "Old King Cole" — by Dianne Majzoub of Dearborn and "The Tale of Maska the Ketch" by Joni Quenneville of Plymouth. Both are students in education.

Helping coordinate the conference was Dearborn teacher Angeline Rooks, who in 1975-76 supervised student teachers from U-M-Dearborn and Wayne State University assigned to the Livonia School District.

Kimberly Lazarz, a fifth grader at Bulman Elementary School in Redford Township, seems to be listening to the dockside shoes she had to write a story about in the creative writing portion of the Young Author's Conference. Her assignment was to write a sole-searching biography from the point of the view of the shoe.

Joni Quenneville, UM-D student from Plymouth, was one of the storytellers. Her story was "Miska the Ketch" — Yiddish for complainer.

Lynn Biberdorf of Plymouth Christian Academy slips off her shoes and gets comfy for the creative writing portion of the conference in which squiggly lines were drawn into an object and a story written about the result.

Karl Ko of the Plymouth Christian Academy listens to instructor Marilyn Baumket.

Marcie Hannevall has her story folder in hand, ready to recite.

West Bloomfield teacher Jan Mekula and three Plymouth students in her class, Jonn Moler of St. Peter's Lutheran Day School, Mack Purzer of Steppingstone Elementary, and Heidi Neuroth of Plymouth Christian Academy take a juice break midway through the conference. Mekula of Livonia has won several awards for creative writing, including a book of poems titled "Frozen Sunshine."

Dearborn teacher Larry Harmon of Livonia and Lisa Rigg, a sixth grader at St. Peter's Lutheran Day School, Plymouth, listen to someone's class presentation. Lisa's story was titled "What Canada Means to Me," and told why she wants to visit our neighbor to the north. Harmon has participated in every conference that has been offered elementary students.

Chief kickers stun Spartans

Plymouth Canton stonked defending state champion Livonia Stevenson with a pair of breakaway goals in a 2-1 home field triumph Wednesday.

On Friday, Stevenson rebounded with a 4-0 victory at home over North Farmington.

Stevenson, now 8-1, opens its Detroit defense tonight at home with a pre-district qualifying game against Detroit Northern Game time is 7 p.m.

Crissey throws out book, Bennett blanks Spartans

By Chris McCosky staff writer

There's a thing in baseball known as "the book." It's kind of a mythical how-to-manage-a-baseball-team manual.

Another flawless seven-innings for his third win of the season. He and Spartan hurler Rex Rozman matched out for out strike out for strike out through five innings. Rozman had a no-hitter going and Bennett had given up just one hit.

The game may have easily stayed at 1-0 except for a two-run throwing error by Rozman.

Another flawless seven-innings for his third win of the season. He and Spartan hurler Rex Rozman matched out for out strike out for strike out through five innings. Rozman had a no-hitter going and Bennett had given up just one hit.

Bennett led off with a walk. Next up was designated hitter Jeff Olson. The book calls for Olson to bunt. Crissey called time out and pulled his slugger aside.

Bennett kept the Stevenson hitters off stride with an assortment of pitches. In the third, he fanned the side using at least four different pitches.

CANTON'S MARK Bennett pitched

Waters scored Churchill's goal and Cheryl Sherman set one for the Mustangs.
"We had great chances but we couldn't get the ball in the net," said Churchill coach Ed Dook.
"The pressure was on us because we were so defeated. Now maybe we'll be able to loosen up and play our game."

CHURCHILL 3, FARMINGTON 1: The Chargers had a tough time Wednesday despite outworking the Falcons 30-7.

NORTHVILLE 2, CHURCHILL 1: Lisa Cahill punched in the game-winning goal on a breakaway 10 minutes into the second half Friday as visiting Northville ambushed Livonia Churchill.

BORGESE 4, BISHOP FOLEY 3: Rose Fiaschi did it all last week, scoring three goals and making the stop on defense in the final five minutes of play (Dana Pedersen scored the other Borgese goals).

FRANKLIN 5, HARRISON 3: The Patriots raved out to a 3-1 halftime lead and never looked back picking up their second win of the season last week.

Mark Bennett, Plymouth Canton's first-ever All-State basketball player, was one of 15 players selected to the Class A Academic All-State team by the Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan.

The Bounty sails, in stylish remake

The British seem intent on remaking all the popular classics. "Tarzan" premiered in March and now "The Bounty" is sailing again in a very classy film.

The fine cast projects a series of compositional and dramatic vignettes of 18th century England in all its glory, including exposing some of the seamy underides.

That uncertainty detracts from our viewing pleasure because in the end "The Bounty" it is hard to tell whether or not we like some, one or all of the characters.

The British Admiralty commissions the Bounty to sail to Tahiti and bring back a cargo of breadfruit trees to provide inexpensive food for West Indian slaves.

The film is historically authentic and apparently no expense was spared — native villages in Tahiti, a $250,000 set for the Dutch East Indies Colony.

The film's pulse is irregular. The storm-tossed attempt to round Cape Horn (it was almost too noisy and hard to follow).

Christian and Tahitian native girl Mauatua, played by Tevate Vermette, are lovers in "The Bounty."

Salem-Northville war continues and Mustangs come out ahead

The chemistry between Plymouth Salem and Northville high schools is to say the least, explosive.

On March, the teams met in the district basketball championship at Plymouth Canton and the game was more physical than many football games.

Mike Cindrich's two-run homer and Scott Anderson's RBI double put Salem ahead 3-0 after one.

THE ROCKS came back strong on Friday, beating Livonia Bentley, 7-5.

Two three-run innings enabled Darryl Brees to pick up his second win of the year.

Chris Mowers double in the sixth scored Cindrich for Salem's seventh run.

The four teams, and the two individuals, squared off in round two last Wednesday. This time, the contest was baseball.

Northville won the game 6-1, and according to many witnesses, the Mustangs had the edge in the bench-clearing brawl that occurred in the third inning.

W. Kenneth Lindner, Vice President - Business Services

IT WAS not a good day for Berberet. He had uncharacteristic control problems, walking six in his three innings of work.

"Rick was behind every body," said coach John Gravin. "He did not pitch well at all."

Not only did he suffer his first defeat of the season, but Berberet also lost the fight with Schrader.

It was a bizarre outing all the way for Salem. They held the ball hard, but could manage just one run. And defensively, an area of strength all year for the Rocks, they made several mistakes.

THE MUSTANGS are 4-0 in Western Lakes play, tied with Canton for the league lead.

Darryl Brees's two-out bases-loaded single in the fourth scored Salem's only run. Brees and Mike Cindrich paced the Rocks' attack with two home runs.

Salem stranded seven runners on the bases.

Dan Knapp relieved Berberet in the fourth
