The Canton Connection

FRANK MCMURRAY, a Canton insurance agent, has announced his candidacy for township trustee. An independent Democrat, McMurray made an unsuccessful bid for trustee in 1972. The 45-year-old father of four said he is running "because of the need for more business to be evident within the community. I think business is one of the backbones of the community, and I think with the background I've compiled in recent years I have the knowledge and contacts to help."

McMurray, who has yet to formally file, has been a Canton resident since 1963. He graduated from Wayne High School in 1957, and attended Henry Ford Community College.

IF YOU spotted a blue motor home May 19 parked in the New Towne Plaza at Ford and Sheldon Roads it was Wayne County Board of Commissioner Milton Mack who took his mobile office into the district to answer questions troubling taxpayers.

TO PROMOTE information about good speech and hearing the month of May has been designated "Better Hearing and Speech Month." Facts about treatment and the availability of services will be presented during the Oakwood Hospital Canton Center program, "Speech and Hearing Consultation Day," Friday, May 25.

The discussions are scheduled for 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Oakwood Canton Center at 7300 Canton Center Road. Each consultation will be approximately 15 minutes. Appointments can be scheduled by calling Center Speech Pathologist Lorraine Zaksek at 459-7030.

The individual meetings will address questions regarding speech or hearing problems in an attempt to make decisions regarding professional help.

Teachers OK contract extension

By Marie Chestney
staff writer

Teachers in Plymouth-Canton Community Schools overcame their surprise Thursday and voted overwhelmingly to accept a one-year extension of their present contract.

Under the extension, accepted by a 563-6 vote, the district's 735 teachers will get a 5 percent wage boost during the 1985-86 school year. Except for salary, the extension keeps intact all contract provisions until Aug. 31, 1986, including the school calendar and vacation schedule.

Thursday's vote came after a previously scheduled vote had to be postponed because not enough teachers showed up to constitute a quorum. The Plymouth-Canton Education Association (PCEA) needed 372 teachers in attendance at Tuesday's meeting but only 350 teachers showed up to vote.

Tom Cotner, PCEA chief negotiator, attributed Tuesday's postponement to teachers' "surprise" in voting on a contract in the spring.

"THIS IS something that never happened before in Plymouth," Cotner said.

'This came as a surprise to the union. Norm Kee . . . asked me, "Do you believe this is happening?"'

— Tom Cotner
PCEA chief negotiator

Teachers are not used to voting on labor agreements in the spring. We never start this early. This came as a surprise to the union. Norm Kee (assistant superintendent for employee relations) asked me: 'Do you believe this is happening?' This was not a contract year.

"We tried to set up a vote too quick after the tentative agreement was reached. The teachers didn't really believe they would be voting. We made a small error in not getting the word out before the vote."

The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education is expected to give a formal vote of approval to the extension now that teachers have accepted it.

Superintendent John M. Hoben said the board also is opening negotiations with the district's other five unions.

PCEA-SCHOOL board agreement on the extension came after less than three weeks of bargaining between the two sides.

Cotner said the talks were launched by both Hoben and the board, not the PCEA.

The quick, quiet negotiations and agreement contrast sharply with talks which took place last October between the board, teachers and districtwide

Canton Supervisor James Poole interviews the Observer's W. W. Edgar, veteran sports scribe, on the Omnicom cable-TV show "Canton Update." Viewers can hear the pair rekindle their remembrances of the wily world of sport tomorrow at 2 p.m. and Thursday at 8:30 p.m. on Channel 15.

Supervisor, scribe trade hats

By M.B. Dillon Ward
staff writer

Overheard in Omnicom cable-TV's studios Tuesday afternoon: "One of us is crazy," decided 86-year-old Observer scribe W.W. Edgar, seated on a TV set waiting — and waiting — for his interviewer, Canton Supervisor James Poole.

"Hey, I put up with it every Monday," said director C.J. Johnston.

(Poole is a regular on "Canton Update," a bi-weekly show highlighting township happenings.)

"But he's flamboyant. You don't have to worry about running credits at the end — you just leave the mikes on. Usually he's saying, 'Hey, I'm not finished yet.'"

"It's good this isn't regular TV," someone commented.

"They wouldn't let him (Poole) near the studio if it was," replied an intern. "He'd be two minutes late and they'd start without him."

Enter Poole, fresh from a Flint tourism convention, bedecked in his ever-present Stetson, shades, navy sport coat and white pants.

Miniature microphones were pinned upon the gentlemen, splashed with bright lights and framed by a bamboo screen and blue backdrop.

Anti-group-home residents take fight to Lansing

By Diane Gale
staff writer

Residents continuing their ongoing war against what they call an "unfair concentration" of group homes in Canton Township launched a new battle to halt construction planned on a Dionne Street site.

The homeowners requested a hearing from the Department of Social Services (DSS) to reconsider construction at the site. This action is in response to an administrative complaint filed by the residents March 15, which was denied by the department.

"We don't consider ourselves radical by any means; all we're asking in our complaint (to DSS) is for them to look at the extreme excess of group homes in the community, and we're asking her (Dr. Agnes Mansour, director of DSS) not to have one on Dionne," explained Charles Goff, a Dionne resident.

RESIDENTS ARE worried about property values depreciating, because of what they say is an unfair number of homes in a two-square-mile area — bounded by Lilley, Michigan, Canton Center and Palmer — in which the Dionne site is located.

This location will have approximately 13 times the Wayne County average of group homes for mentally retarded adults, according to a petition signed by residents. Canton Township has three times the number of group homes than the average community in the county, Goff said.

State personnel disagree, and use different statistics to support their argument.

"Group homes represent one-tenth of one percent of the total township population, and six-tenths of one percent of the housing units," according to James Quigley, DSS director of the division of adult foster care licensing.

"The department doesn't believe this constitutes an excessive concentration," Quigley added.

THE DIFFERENCES in viewing the situation also have resulted in legal actions taken by the township in a lawsuit that was filed against the DSS in 1981 and is now in the Michigan Supreme Court. However, the litigation will be held up until state Supreme Court decisions have been reached involving group homes in cases filed by Livonia and Southfield, according to C. Gerald Hemming, Canton Township attorney.

In similar rebuttals, the township filed a separate administrative complaint with DSS, which was denied. The township also has requested a hearing and is waiting for a response from the department.

The residents' legal actions coupled with the township's give the community "two bites" on the issue, Hemming said.

Strong support by residents, especially in the Dionne and Herby Street vicinities, spurred the township's action.

Earlier this year residents collected more than 300 signatures to protest the Dionne home. Most recently, the coali-

Censure expected for treasurer

Canton treasurer Maria Sterlini is expected to be censured at tomorrow's township board meeting for failure to fulfill her legislative duties.

Currently on a 60-day leave of absence and resting at home, Sterlini told the Observer a heart problem will prevent her from working until sometime next month. The board recently voted to grant assistant treasurer Sandy Setlock a 35-percent raise and entrusted her with responsibility for the treasurer's department during the leave.

At a board meeting May 8, Supervisor James Poole said the treasurer has refused to sign insurance forms that would reimburse the township for the fulltime pay she is receiving.

"Mr. Poole said that according to the township attorney, Maria Sterlini is not sick, but has refused to fill out insurance papers which would reimburse the township," said Doris Kelley, township board secretary.

"He thinks it is unfair taxpayers are having to pay this if she's home and not sick, and Sandy Setlock is being paid to do her supervisory work."

Poole was unavailable for comment Friday.

TOWNSHIP ATTORNEY C. Gerald Hemming, who is preparing a report for trustees on the matter, said, "It is my understanding that it is a medical leave. There might be some misunderstanding as to whether (Sterlini) is legally disabled pursuant to the insurance contract. She is ill, but not to the point of being totally disabled." Hemming said the treasurer's problem is medical, but that he's unaware whether it is cardiac in nature.

According to Setlock, who also says the treasurer's leave is medical, Sterlini is concerned about liability she could incur by signing the forms.

One question on the form asks whether the applicant "is receiving any other income as the result of this disability," she said. In a letter to township officials, Sterlini asked why she should request reimbursement from an insurance company, when she already is being paid her full salary. The treasurer is concerned such a request could subject her to criminal prosecution, added Setlock, who says things are running smoothly in the treasurer's absence.

Kelley said "no one knows what the situation is."

While township trustees can publicly censure an elected official, they can do little else under the township charter.

"As far as the law goes, a person can be elected to office and spend two days in four years on the job," said Kelley.

Man faces rape, kidnap charges

By Diane Gale

Suspect is awakened in motel

A Louisiana man — found sleeping in a motel by Canton Township police and later charged with kidnapping, rape, armed robbery and possession of a firearm while committing a crime — was bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court at a preliminary exam Thursday.

Judge Ricardo Lubinski of 36th District in Detroit ruled there was enough evidence implicating Jimmie Murray, 37, in the May 7 incident. Murray remains in jail after failing to post a $25,000 cash bond.

A 25-year-old Detroit woman testified she never saw Murray before he allegedly kidnapped her at about 2:30 p.m. from a Detroit parking lot. The woman, whom police and the prosecutor's office declined to name, said Murray drove around aimlessly until after dark.

THEY WENT to Belle Isle and then to Ohio by taking I-75, she said. They later drove to the Willow Acres Motel on Michigan Avenue, according to Sgt. Carol Pancake, a Detroit officer in the sex offense unit who attended the exam.

"It was starting to get dark, and he was afraid, because he had broken a tail light, according to the woman," explained Kevin Simowski, a Wayne County assistant prosecutor.

"So he decided to pull over," Simowski continued.

The woman was the only person to testify in the exam, which was held to determine if Murray should stand trial.

She was allegedly abducted from the Apollo supermarket parking lot at Seven Mile and Evergreen, according to Lt. Fred Williams, a Detroit police officer.

THE WOMAN said Murray raped and robbed her of $70 before tying her with a telephone cord.

"He tied her hands together with a cord, and tied the cord to a bandanna around his arm," Simowski said.

Fire destroyed the Herbert Wilson residence in Canton Thursday.

No one was home when the blaze broke out at the residence, 1334 S. Lotz Road between Cherry Hill and Palmer roads just east of I-275. No injuries were reported.

Firefighters said arson was suspected, but were still awaiting test results from the Michigan State Police laboratory at press time. While samples were taken from the home, firefighters could not say what accelerants might have been used.

About $69,000 in damage was done to the home, rendered a total loss.

It appeared the fire began in the family room area, away from the electrical meter box, said Sgt. Jim Davison of the fire department.

The one-story home is in an isolated area, and no other buildings or trees were endangered, Davison said. "A couple attached garages were not damaged," he added.

Firefighters were alerted by a neighbor at 11:30 a.m., and later by Romulus police who happened to be on I-275, Davison said.

Ten firefighters and the fire chief used three pumpers, a mini-pumper, tanker and a rescue unit in responding to the call.

When they arrived, flames "were coming out the back of the house through the windows, doors and roof," Davison said.

Firefighters battled the blaze in a moderate wind, and had left the scene by 1:30 p.m.

Olympics of the Mind

Middle school students put mind and mettle to test

Jen Hayes uses noise makers to guide contestants closer to markers.

It's an Olympic year for Los Angeles as well for students from Plymouth and Canton. The "Olympics of the Mind," a "creative program based on five long-term problems" was staged Wednesday in the Central Middle School boys gym. Students had a few months to solve "Camelot," "Chariots of Rescue," "Moby Dick," "Mouse Mobile," and "Strategy" and were judged on how creative and complete their solutions were.

"Strategy Structure" involved building a structure out of balsa wood. The goal was for the structure to hold as many pounds as possible, but after every 25 pounds was added, a piece of the structure had to be removed.

"Chariots of Rescue," students were told to construct a chariot that would move by upper body movements around a track with subjects to be rescued in it. The objective was to "rescue" all of the subjects and race the chariot within 10 minutes.

"MouseMobile" competitors were asked to build five cars, all running on the power of a single mousetrap. The five cars were to then run a relay, and pop balloons at the end of the track for extra points.

Blindfolded Kim Duffy, (right) an eighth grader, tries to find a black marker by listening to signals given by fellow eighth-grader Jen Hayes (in background). The scene was part of the "Camelot" skit given by the middle school for the Olympics of the Mind competition.

support personnel. Wage negotiations for six school unions broke down Sept. 30, leading to a divisive 13-day strike in Wayne County's fourth largest school district.

Both sides ached a bit from the strike last fall. Cotner said "Nobody was interested in seeing that kind of thing happen again. I learned a lot, the board learned a lot during the strike. The board seems to have a much better attitude about the importance of employees in the district, about the importance of building morale."

Cotner said the 3-percent wage increase was "right in line" with increases being given in nearby school districts.

"From our standpoint, we realize we are not living in 1974 anymore," Cotner said. "Inflation isn't 12 percent anymore."

The strike settlement reached in October gave teachers a 3-percent wage hike in 1983-84 and a 6-percent wage hike in 1984-85. Teachers at the top of the wage scale also received an additional 1-percent increase the second semester of the 1984-85 year.

BESIDES the desire to build teachers' morale, Cotner speculated that upcoming labor negotiations in the auto industry might have fueled the district's desire to cement a contract for three years.

Canton homeowners take group-home fight to Lansing search harder" to spread the homes evenly throughout the communities.

Rep. Gerald Law, R-Plymouth said Canton, Livonia and Westland have high numbers of group homes for the mentally retarded while communities like Birmingham, Franklin Village and other affluent areas don't.

Canton Township presently has nine operating group homes on Maben Road, Roundtable Drive, Warren Road, Haggerty Road, Marlow, Raintree Court, Forest Trails, Saxony and Canton Center Road. Two additional homes are proposed. One is on Dionne and the other is on Herby near Geddes.

The first step we take is that we contact the municipalities to indicate an intent to consider development and ask them if they would like to work with us in a site selection," according to Tom DeLoach, Department of Mental Health information officer.

"So, the community has the option of getting involved," DeLoach said. "The increasing number of group homes in Canton Township and other communities is a result of the state adopting a policy, in recent years, of removing mentally retarded people from the institutional hospital setting to group homes in residential areas."

A group-home regulation stipulates that the homes must be at least 1,500 feet from each other, according to state guidelines.

crime watch

A BURGLAR or burglars entered a Most Street residence by prying open a window screen in the rear of a mobile home. Stolen was more than $1,200 worth of merchandise late May 13 or the morning of May 14, according to police. Three rifles, a shotgun handgun and a color 19-inch portable television were taken. The rifles and shotgun were taken from a wall rack that didn't have a lock.

The owner was unable to supply serial numbers, models, makes or brands for the missing items.

The thieves appeared to have forced open a sealed door in the rear of the northeast corner of the home, which faces a large, paved farm field. It appeared to police that stolen items were taken from the home at this location.

MORE THAN $2,000 worth of tools was stolen from a garage on North Ridge May 11.

Scalcio says Lilley soon will be widened to include a passing lane in front of the development.

SUMMER SHOW-OFFS

Show off a little cookout creativity with a company menu that's deliciously unexpected. Your guests will be delighted with barbecued turkey and all the trimmings in summertime recipes that won't tie you to the kitchen.

Barbecue your turkey in a covered charcoal grill and eliminate the need for a rotisserie. A covered grill also reduces outdoor cooking time because heat is reflected off the lid and onto the food. Select a deep basted turkey so you won't need to hand baste during cooking. A broad breasted turkey between 4 and 14 pounds fits easily under the grill lid.

Toward the end of cooking, brush Teriyaki Glaze over the turkey for a rich color. Maple flavored table syrup adds a special flavor twist for a slightly sweet and savory taste of the Orient. There will be enough Teriyaki Glaze left over to serve alongside the moist turkey slices.

While the turkey cooks, relax and enjoy a Crunchy Cheese Ball with your guests. The make-ahead appetizer blends cream and Cheddar cheeses with chives and pimiento. But, instead of nuts, you roll it in a crunchy-topping of toasted oats, sesame and wheat germ.

Accompanying the turkey is a tasty potato dish. Garden vegetables and olives add zip and color to creamy Zesty Potato Salad. Or, serve hot, tasty Potato Casserole and impress your guests with your grill skills. It cooks alongside the turkey! To show off a shortcut, make either dish from a pre sliced potatoes and sauce mix which eliminates the time-consuming tasks of peeling and slicing potatoes.

Top your menu with Summer Fruit Compote, a cool, colorful showcase dessert. Maple flavored table syrup mixed with white wine or ginger ale makes a light, refreshing marinade to complement the fresh fruit flavors.

Show a little imagination with your summertime patio party. Barbecuing isn't just for hamburgers anymore.

TURKEY IN A COVERED KETTLE-TYPE GRILL

To Prepare Covered Kettle-Type Grill: Open all dampers and leave open during cooking. Place a foil drip pan on the bottom grill. Place 25 to 30 briquettes on two sides of drip pan, lengthwise only. Light briquettes and burn approximately 30 minutes or until white in color. Do not cover grill when coals are ready; place top grill inside kettle with handles over coals.

To Prepare Turkey: Thaw Butterball Turkey according to directions in folder. Free legs and tail from tucked position. Remove neck, giblets, and gravy packet, if included. Rinse turkey and drain. Draw skin over neck and hold in place by twisting wing tips behind the back. Do not stuff. (Stuffing can be baked in a disposable foil pan on the grill beside the turkey during the last hour of cooking.) Retuck legs and tail. Brush with oil. Insert roast meat thermometer into the center of the thickest part of the thigh, not touching the bone.

To Barbecue Turkey: Place turkey on top grill directly above drip pan. Cover kettle. To maintain heat, add 6 to 8 briquettes to each side every hour of cooking. Add charcoal through openings by grill handles. Check for doneness after 1-1/4 hours for a 10-pound turkey: the internal temperature of the thigh should be 180° to 185°.

TERIYAKI GLAZE FOR TURKEY

2/3 cup maple flavored table syrup
2 tablespoons soy sauce
2 tablespoons sherry (optional)
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
1/4 teaspoon ginger

In small saucepan, combine all ingredients. Simmer about 10 minutes or until slightly thickened. About 15 minutes before turkey is finished cooking, begin basting with glaze. Makes about 3/4 cup.

CRUNCHY CHEESE BALL

Cheese Ball:
Two 8-oz. pkgs. cream cheese, softened
2 cups (8 oz.) shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
1 tablespoon finely chopped pimiento
1 tablespoon finely chopped chives
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

Crunchy Coating:
1/2 cup quick or old-fashioned oats, uncooked
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1 tablespoon sesame seed bran or wheat germ
1/8 teaspoon garlic salt

For cheese ball: In medium bowl, combine cheeses, mixing until well blended. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Chill about 2 hours; shape into ball.

For crunchy coating: Heat oven or toaster oven to 350°F. In small bowl, combine all ingredients; mix well. Spread mixture into shallow baking pan or toaster oven tray. Bake 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown. Cool. About 1 hour before serving, roll cheese ball in oats mixture, coating well. Chill until ready to serve. Serve with assorted raw vegetables or crackers, if desired. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

ZESTY POTATO SALAD

1 package (5.25 ounces) scalloped potatoes
3 cups water
1 cup water
1/3 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
1 cup thinly sliced celery
1/2 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives
1/2 cup sliced radishes
1/4 cup chopped onion
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped

Heat potatoes and 3 cups water to boiling in 2 1/2-quart saucepan; reduce heat. Cover and simmer until tender, 10 to 15 minutes; drain. Rinse under running cold water; drain. Mix 1 cup water and the Sauce Mix in saucepan. Heat to boiling over medium heat, stirring constantly; stir in mayonnaise. Mix mayonnaise mixture, potatoes and remaining ingredients. Cover and refrigerate until chilled, at least 3 hours. Serve on salad greens if desired. 8 or 9 servings.

POTATO CASSEROLE ON THE GRILL

1 package (4.75 ounces) julienne potatoes
3 cups water
1 cup dairy sour cream
1 cup milk
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper
1/2 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

Heat potatoes and water to boiling in 2 1/2-quart saucepan; reduce heat. Cover and simmer until tender, 10 to 15 minutes; drain.

Grease a 1 1/2-quart oven-proof glass baking dish. Mix sour cream and Sauce Mix in medium bowl until smooth. Gradually stir in milk until blended. Stir in 1 cup cheese, the onion, green pepper and potatoes. Spread in casserole. (At this point, casserole can be covered and refrigerated up to 24 hours.) Cook on Weber grill (next to turkey and directly over hot charcoal) 30 minutes. Stir; sprinkle with 1/2 cup cheese. Fresh Michigan foods perfect for the gourmet

This week, May 20-26, is Michigan Week. It is a good time for those who enjoy cooking to reflect on all the good things grown in our state. They are good enough to export but even better served here since they carry the adjective "fresh."

That quality of freshness is especially important if you are a gourmet. A gourmet can be defined as "one who cares about fine food." And the selection of fine foods from Michigan's agricultural bounty makes being an at-home gourmet easy and interesting.

Begin with Michigan Onion Soup with shredded Michigan cheese floating on top. Heat under the broiler or in the microwave oven until the cheese is bubbly.

Continue with broiled Michigan Whitefish or Plum Glazed Chicken. The gourmet in your house knows that whitefish is cooked just until the flesh is opaque and flakes easily with a fork. A Plum Glaze enhances the chicken's flavor and aroma and gives a marvelous glistening appearance. Plum Glaze is also a wonderful addition to roast little milk. Fold in crumbled cooked Michigan bacon and chopped sauteed Michigan mushrooms. Refill the shells and reheat. Delicious!

Many would-be gourmet cooks are deterred by so-called "gourmet recipes." But gourmet recipes can use regular ingredients and few seasonings. All gourmet meals are prepared, served and eaten with love and care.

MAKE STUFFED Baked Potatoes with Michigan Russet Burbank potatoes. After scoping the baked potato from the skins, beat with butter and a warm electric frypan during serving, without becoming overcooked or watery. Cottage cheese scrambled eggs also makes a great light supper entrée.

Escalloped Apples, a marvelously versatile dish, can appear solo as a simple dessert for this brunch, or paired with ice cream or pound cake. Whatever way you decide, always serve it warm.

Place apples in shallow 2-quart baking dish. Add water. Combine sugar, spices, salt and flour. Cut in butter with pastry blender. Spoon evenly over apples. Bake at 350 degrees about 35 minutes or until apples are tender. Makes 6-8 servings.

Pancakes, waffles or French toast prepared tableside, or each guest cooking his/her own, allows the host and hostess to be part of the party.

For something a little extra special, stir some Michigan blueberries or drained and halved Michigan cherries into pancake or waffle batter before baking. Give French toast a new taste by substituting Michigan apple juice for the liquid and including a dash of cinnamon. Serve warm Michigan maple syrup or Michigan honey butter with these brunch favorites.

MICHIGAN PORK sausages, links or patties, can be prepared ahead of time, then warmed to serving temperature just before eating. A bit of warm maple syrup on the sausages prevents any drying that may occur when reheating.

The universal favorite, scrambled eggs, takes on a new appeal when bolstered with cottage cheese. Cottage cheese scrambled eggs can be held in a cheese, milk, salt and pepper. Melt butter in large skillet over low heat; add egg mixture. Turn portions with a spatula as it begins to thicken. Do not stir. Makes about 6 servings.

SENIOR CITIZENS
are reminded that the second annual "Entertainment Spectacular" is coming up. The afternoon of free entertainment is sponsored by the MichCon Retirees Club for area seniors. The event will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, June 2, in the Michigan Theater, 603 East Liberty, Ann Arbor. It will feature popular WJR radio host "Fat" Bob Taylor, the Washtenaw Community College Jazz band, the Michigan Theater's Barton pipe organ in concert, and the exciting classic film, "That's Entertainment." The movie stars old favorites Fred Astaire, Bing Crosby, Gene Kelly, Peter Lawford, Liza Minelli, Donald O'Connor, Mickey Rooney, Frank Sinatra, James Stewart, Clark Gable and Elizabeth Taylor.

Although admission is free, a ticket is required and as seating is limited, it is suggested that tickets be obtained early. Tickets are made available through many area senior citizens groups. Call 668-8397 for information.

MICKEY CAVELL of the Plymouth Community Chorus has a suggestion. She says the $1.50 tickets for Yogi Bear mini-golf game Saturday at the Oasis Golf Center make the perfect little gift for your paper boy/girl, baby-sitter, or grandpa and grandpa. Call 459-9894 or 455-4080 for information. The day at Oasis is a fund-raiser for the chorus.

WE HAVE THE names of two winners of the 50-50 fund-raiser arranged by Athletic Boosters at Plymouth Salem High School. Their names are Pat Kensing of Dexter and George Tabor of Livonia each won $100.

There will be three more winners and the contest, it is hoped, will add $500 to the school's athletic program.

FASTEST-GROWING Knights of Columbus council around is planning a fund-raiser. The Monsignor Clement H. Kern K-C of Canton Township will have a car wash 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, June 2, at Colony Car Wash, 302 W. Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth.

John Deal said the profits will go to their building fund. The new council, just a few weeks old, already has more than 90 members. They have been meeting in St. Thomas A Becket Church in Canton and the Fr. Daniel Lord K-C building, on Schoolcraft Road in Livonia.

John said that Bob Townsley, owner of Colony Car Wash, has been most cooperative. Once a car is washed, a crew of K-C members will be ready to attend to additional services. They will vacuum and clean windows on the inside of the car for an additional donation.

He said the members of the council felt they had to live up to their illustrious name. They let Monsignor Kern know, just two weeks before his death, that they wanted to name their council after him. And he was pleased.

"After he died, we had to reapply for the name and it was several months before we received official permission," John said, adding, "We have a lot of young family-oriented men in our council."

HERE ARE TWO weeks of winners at the Thursday afternoon party bridge games at the Plymouth Cultural Center. Frances LaCombe and Ann Kuncic came in one-two May 17. Alice Miesler had high score and Ford Conlon was second May 17.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH graders at Our Lady of Good Counsel School went to the theater this month. Or rather, the theater came to them. The Harlequins, a drama group from the University of Detroit High School, visited OLCG and presented the one-act play, "The Frog Prince."

DONALD BURTON, president of the Canton Corvette Club, says the club is looking for new members.

Anyone who owns a 'vette and enjoys good company is invited to call Pam at 981-4884 for information about the group. Lou Diefenbach is vice president, Sharon Watson is treasurer, and Denise Walis is club secretary.

The 21 Girl Guides from the 44th Co. and 16 Junior Girl Scouts from Troop 808 in Canton Township gather with their leaders for a group photograph.

Guides welcome Scouts

It was a day of international friendship and understanding. Junior Girl Scout Troop 808 of the Husing Cluster in Canton Township traveled to London, Ontario. The girls spent the day with their hosts, members of the 44th Girl Guide Company of London.

They had an early start Saturday morning, meeting at 7:30 a.m. They traveled in cars, over the Ambassador Bridge to the VIA Rail Canada station in Windsor. Their train departed at 9:30 and each Scout was given an activity folder with games and projects for the two-hour train ride. They also received name tags and their WAGGS (World Association Girl Scouts) patches.

Guider-in-Charge Claudia Hunter, Margaret Hogervost and two Girl Guides met the Scouts at the London station. They took them on a walking tour of the downtown area with a stop at the Girl Guide of Canada office for a few minutes shopping.

THEY CONTINUED, on foot, to the Children's Museum. They were met by the Guides from the 44th Co. who provided the lunch enjoyed by the whole crew at picnic tables on the museum grounds.

Girl Scout Leader Dianne Wilder said, "There was no shyness, the Scouts and the Guides became instant friends. They all went into the museum and enjoyed the 'hands on' policy of the displays on all three floors. We just turned them loose."

They learned to write their names in Inuktitut in the newly opened Inuit (Eskimo) section of the museum. They learned about prehistoric animals and crawled through the cave, visited the street where you live" and the early Canadian rooms and school. A bus took them from the museum to Spring Park where they were greeted by Madonna Mckenzie, Byron District commissioner. She spent the rest of the day with them as the Scouts and Guides became better acquainted on their tour of Storybook Gardens.

"WE HAD A beautiful picnic dinner with our Guide partners and exchanged small remembrances," said Dianne Wilder. The Guides gave each of the Ontario Girl Guide of Canada, London, Ontario patch, and three miniature pins, a flag of Canada, Ontario coat of arms shield, and Ontario is Yours to Discover.

The Girl Scouts gave each Guide a package containing a Huron Valley Girl Scout Council 25th Birthday patch, a Captain Sesquicentennial 134-1984 patch and button, and a Say Yes to Michigan! button.

The girls exchanged names and addresses with promises to keep in touch. They formed a friendship circle and said goodbye before boarding the bus to go back to the station.

"On our way home we reviewed our exciting and wonderful experience. We took the tunnel home, bringing to a closing a day we'll never forget. All hoped the Guides will come to Canton next year and spend a day with us," said the Scout leader.

THE DAY IN London took weeks of planning and preparations. Making activity kits for the train ride and gift packets for Guides, contacting the Girl Guides, making travel plans, and more. The day was a success for all involved.

Guides welcome Scouts

It was a day of international friendship and understanding. Junior Girl Scout Troop 808 of the Husing Cluster in Canton Township traveled to London, Ontario. The girls spent the day with their hosts, members of the 44th Girl Guide Company of London.

They had an early start Saturday morning, meeting at 7:30 a.m. They traveled in cars, over the Ambassador Bridge to the VIA Rail Canada station in Windsor. Their train departed at 9:30 and each Scout was given an activity folder with games and projects for the two-hour train ride. They also received name tags and their WAGGS (World Association Girl Scouts) patches.

Guider-in-Charge Claudia Hunter, Margaret Hogervost and two Girl Guides met the Scouts at the London station. They took them on a walking tour of the downtown area with a stop at the Girl Guide of Canada office for a few minutes shopping.

THEY CONTINUED, on foot, to the Children's Museum. They were met by the Guides from the 44th Co. who provided the lunch enjoyed by the whole crew at picnic tables on the museum grounds.

Girl Scout Leader Dianne Wilder said, "There was no shyness, the Scouts and the Guides became instant friends. They all went into the museum and enjoyed the 'hands on' policy of the displays on all three floors. We just turned them loose."

They learned to write their names in Inuktitut in the newly opened Inuit (Eskimo) section of the museum. They learned about prehistoric animals and crawled through the cave, visited the street where you live" and the early Canadian rooms and school. A bus took them from the museum to Spring Park where they were greeted by Madonna Mckenzie, Byron District commissioner. She spent the rest of the day with them as the Scouts and Guides became better acquainted on their tour of Storybook Gardens.

"WE HAD A beautiful picnic dinner with our Guide partners and exchanged small remembrances," said Dianne Wilder. The Guides gave each of the Ontario Girl Guide of Canada, London, Ontario patch, and three miniature pins, a flag of Canada, Ontario coat of arms shield, and Ontario is Yours to Discover.

The Girl Scouts gave each Guide a package containing a Huron Valley Girl Scout Council 25th Birthday patch, a Captain Sesquicentennial 134-1984 patch and button, and a Say Yes to Michigan! button.

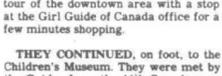

The girls exchanged names and addresses with promises to keep in touch. They formed a friendship circle and said goodbye before boarding the bus to go back to the station.

"On our way home we reviewed our exciting and wonderful experience. We took the tunnel home, bringing to a closing a day we'll never forget. All hoped the Guides will come to Canton next year and spend a day with us," said the Scout leader.

THE DAY IN London took weeks of planning and preparations. Making activity kits for the train ride and gift packets for Guides, contacting the Girl Guides, making travel plans, and more. The day was a success for all involved.

It was over the moat and through the castle gate for a visit to Storybook Gardens.

Rock stars spoofed in engaging satire

Written in part and directed by a very funny man (Rob Reiner), starring a very funny man (Rob Reiner), "This Is Spinal Tap" is a very funny movie. Reiner's satiric scalpel lays bare all the pretensions of the heavy-metal rock music scene without getting nasty. A warm regard for the subject's foibles eliminates the unpleasant bitterness so often characteristic of satire. Reiner portrays filmmaker Marty Di Bergi, who is directing a documentary on the rock group Spinal Tap.

Pianist, percussionist paired

Pianist Randy Weston will perform duets with percussionist Roy Brooks at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Friday, May 25, at "Jazz at the Institute" at the Detroit Institute of Arts indoor garden cafe, Kregge Court. Tickets at $7 may be purchased through the art institute ticket office (phone 833-3730 during regular business hours) and at the doors. Reservations are recommended. The "Jazz at the Institute" series will continue Friday-evening concerts through Aug. 24. A complete schedule of concerts will be mailed on request. Wine, beer, soft drinks and snacks will be offered during the concerts at an additional cost.

Randy Weston has created a style he calls "African Rhythms," which draws on elements of various African-American styles. Roy Brooks is one of Detroit's leading percussionists. A member of Max Roach's ensemble M'Boom, Brooks also leads his own Aboriginal Percussion Choir.

FROZEN SHOULDER
You call it "frozen shoulder" when you have constant pain in the shoulder accompanied by loss of ability to raise the arm. Usually the problem is associated with loss of sleep, as every time you roll on the involved shoulder sharp pain occurs.
In most instances "Frozen shoulder" is caused by one of two medical problems: Adhesive Capsulitis or Rotator Cuff Tear. These conditions are caused by defects in the capsule that surrounds the shoulder joint. What brings them on, is not understood, though in many instances prior shoulder injury plays a role. Diagnosis may be difficult as bursitis or tendinitis can appear in a similar manner.
Physicians use a number of therapies in treating adhesive capsulitis and rotator cuff tear, as no one approach is consistently effective. Heat, special exercises, aspirin and similar drugs, surgery, and shoulder injection have been tried. In our experience accurate injection into the shoulder joint offers the best chance for success. Usually two or three injections are needed before shoulder motion returns to a useful state.

Good-bad news: lots of road repairs in '84

By Kathy Parrish
staff writer

For years, drivers have grumbled about area roads.

"Well, a lot of the potholes are getting fixed. And folks are still griping."

"We've already started getting complaints," said State Transportation Director James P. Pitz, announcing the state's biggest highway-improvement program in 10 years. About $370 million will be spent this year to improve Michigan roads.

"It's good news to hear about our roads being repaired, but sour news because of the disruption caused. We're asking people to be patient."

MORE THAN $130 million will be spent on tri-county roads this year.

Contract awards in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties will be nearly double those in 1983, which was a banner year for highway improvements.

Major work to be bid out includes:

- $55 million in work on the final eight miles of I-696 through south Oakland County.
- More than $30 million in projects on I-94 in Wayne County, including resurfacing of the Edsel Ford Freeway through Detroit.
- $8.3 million in improvements on Gratiot Avenue in Wayne and Macomb counties.
- Nearly $12 million on I-75 freeway. The largest project is reconstruction of seven miles of freeway north of the Wayne County line.
- About $2 million for reconstruction of the deck and other work on the bridge carrying Rochester Road (M-150) over the Clinton River at Rochester.

Most projects are expected to be done by the end of 1984, except for the Rochester bridge, which will take two years. Traffic will be maintained throughout the bridge reconstruction.

ABOUT $240 MILLION more road work will be contracted outstate. Most will go to resurface and recycle I-94, I-96 and other main routes.

Pitz said gasoline taxes passed by Congress and the state in 1982 "refinanced our program."

"Last year, we started to catch up on the large backlog of needs. For the first time in at least 10 years, we were able to improve more miles of state highways than declined into poor condition," the transportation director explained.

"We expect to do more of the same in 1984."

Of the $130 million to be spent on tri-county roads, $115 million will be paid for by federal funds.

SANCTIONS threatened by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) concern transportation officials.

EPA plans to impose sanctions unless the state moves ahead on a program to enforce motor vehicle emissions controls in the tri-county area.

Possible sanctions include curtailing factory expansion and stopping highway construction.

No projects already contracted for would be affected. Pitz said 75 percent of the road program is maintenance and is secure, but I-696 could be a target.

"But we would argue that I-696 would relieve congestion and improve air quality," he said.

NO MAJOR new construction is planned by the state except for outstate routes which have "illogical termini" and need to be continued.

On U.S. 31 near Berrien Springs and U.S. 131 at Reed City, construction "just stopped," said Pitz.

Most of the attention will go to existing roads which need to be fixed up. Having spent 10 years falling behind in transportation programs, I think it will take us at least 10 years to catch up," said Pitz.

M-DOT intends to work on one major freeway each year, with the John C.

Lodge to be tackled probably in 1984.

"It's a major priority of ours and something we think must get started next year," said Pitz, who already has a committee working on plans for redoing the heavily traveled road.

"It's a major rehabilitation project and probably the biggest challenge for this department."

PITZ SAID he intends to put together a 10-year plan for the M-DOT's future. It would determine which road projects are needed and how to finance them.

Among those under consideration would be M-275 in western Oakland County and the extension of M-59 through Utica.

"There are $2 billion in new highway proposals around the state, and clearly we don't have $2 billion available to expand," he said.

Anxiety: a modern tiger

By Dennis Sugrue
special writer

Have you ever been attacked by a tiger? Even if you say no, your body might disagree.

All of us have experienced episodes of nervousness or anxiety. Sometimes this anxiety is clearly related to the circumstances in which we find ourselves such as speaking before a large audience. Other times, the anxious feeling seems to come from out of nowhere.

Anxiety may come and go quickly, as if it were an attack; or anxiety may linger for days, weeks or months, as if it were an unwanted house guest who has no intention of leaving.

For some people, anxiety or nervousness is so intense and occurs so frequently that it becomes a major impairment to daily living.

ALTHOUGH SYMPTOMS of anxiety are often frightening and disruptive, they are the result of a normal physical process. They have helped to insure the survival of man since the beginning of time.

When animals or human beings encounter a threat, there is an instinct either to run away or to fight viciously. An automatic "emergency system" takes over and coordinates the functioning of the body to maximize vigilance, strength and endurance.

Imagine one of our early ancestors suddenly being cornered by a tiger. To survive, our ancestor will have to do a quick disappearing act or fight for his life.

psychology
Dennis Sugrue

A chain of body reactions automatically occurs. Muscles tense, preparing for a possible struggle. Blood vessels near the surface of the skin constrict, preventing profuse bleeding in the event of superficial injury.

Because oxygen is an important ingredient for fueling the body, breathing speeds up to help meet the suddenly increased demand. Likewise, the heart beats faster to quickly move the oxygen-rich blood to vital organs throughout the body.

DURING THIS state of crisis, non-essential body processes such as digestion are temporarily placed on the back burner. Digesting this morning's breakfast suddenly becomes irrelevant if one does not live to see tonight's dinner.

Blood is therefore partially diverted away from the abdominal region to more crucial areas of the body such as the heart, lungs and muscles in the arms and legs.

We rarely run across tigers in our modern world, but our bodies do not make the distinction between a tiger and any other threatening situation. If our minds identify something as being a threat, the emergency system is activated.

LET'S IMAGINE a 20th century man who, rather than being cornered by a tiger, is cornered by his boss after being late for work.

Our hero's muscles tense up even though a physical fight or flight is unlikely. Rather, trembling or a tension headache may be the more likely result.

Constricting blood vessels cause the sensation of shivering. Rapid breathing may lead to light-headedness, chest pain and feelings of numbness in different parts of the body. The racing heart beat may suddenly raise conscious fears about the "Big One" being on the near horizon.

Suspension of digestion and the diversion of blood from the abdomen results in the stomach feeling as if it is tied in knots or is being invaded by a swarm of butterflies. Because the body is on a state of alert, sleep that night will be difficult.

JUST AS our ancestors had to learn how to cope with tigers, it is important for each of us in modern times to learn how to cope effectively with anxiety.

A first step toward learning to cope with anxiety is understanding the cause of the physical symptoms. Things in life tend to be much less frightening when we understand them.

Future columns will be devoted to exploring further techniques for recognizing and dealing with our ever present, modern day tiger — anxiety.

Young squirrel learns lessons from his mother

By Timothy Nowicki
special writer

Young animals are most often associated with summer. We think of birds nesting and raising young and of caterpillars metamorphosing into butterflies during warm weather.

Last weekend, however, I had an opportunity to see a young great horned owl and a young fox squirrel. The owl was still in the nest, but during the previous week its nestmate had departed.

The adults had begun nesting in February, had completed their duties as parents and were forcing the young to live on their own.

THE YOUNG squirrel was exploring our backyard with his mother. He was the same color as the adult but much smaller.

I could also identify it as a youngster by the way he jumped along the ground. There was some hesitation in his movements in contrast to the smooth, confident coordination of the adult.

I noticed the squirrel's inexperience in another way, too. When he climbed a tree to follow his mother, he was very deliberate and cautious. It was comical to compare the swift grace of the adult — with perfect coordination between front and back feet — to the youngster.

The young squirrel would reach forward and grab hold with its front feet. Then a noticeable instant later, the back legs seemed to bounce upward more than necessary before they grabbed hold of the tree, thus allowing the front feet to reach forward again.

It was like a human child raising his feet high as he walks, in order to make sure he doesn't stumble on the ground.

ALTHOUGH THE squirrel is only 2 1/4 months old, his basic abilities to climb are evident. He just needs practice to perfect his skill.

The same will be true of his ability to open acorns or walnuts to get the rich meat inside. Young squirrels can open the hard coverings, but only after practice and experimentation can they open them with minimal effort.

I felt proud when I saw this young fox squirrel in my yard because I had known him, so to speak, when he was just a twitch in his parents' eyes.

Often while eating lunch in January, I would watch his parents run up and down our trees in a spiral path like a barber's pole. They went up and down at full speed, separated by only a tail length.

Then in late February I watched the parents begin building a stick-leaf nest in the crotch of our red maple tree. This was the youngster's world until I saw him exploring our back yard with his mother the other day.

Forbes will retire from Legislature

Joe Forbes has decided to call it quits after 14 years as a state representative.

The 66-year-old House majority floor leader announced he will not seek reelection to an eighth two-year term.

He ruled out being the Democratic candidate for Oakland County executive this fall and said he would not become a lobbyist.

In an interview, Forbes, a Democrat from Oak Park, said Gov. James Blanchard has asked him to think about an administrative appointment.

FORBES WAS first elected to the House in 1970 and won the majority floor leader post in 1975.

As such he was the floor "traffic cop" on the timing of votes on bills. Nearly everyone went to him, and he made the visits pleasant. Always ready with a joke, sometimes ribald, the cigar-chomping Forbes became one of Lansing's most colorful political figures.

He had hoped to become House speaker in 1983, but the Democratic members, with an infusion of first-termers, turned instead to 38-year-old Gary Owen of Ypsilanti.

Taking it with good grace, Forbes went on to chair the Committee on House Policy and the Legislative Council.

FROM 1948 to 1964, Forbes was an Oak Park city councilman and served as mayor in 1964-70.

He was one of the founders of the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments, chairing its cities and villages bloc. SEMCOG gave him its "onward and upward" award in 1975.

As a businessman, Forbes designed concession stands for such well-known facilities as Cobo Hall, Pine Knob and movie theaters.

Forbes, told a news conference in the State Capitol:

Mark Kinsel, Canton's second baseman, scored one of 31 runs in Wednesday's nine-inning thriller against Livonia Churchill.

Chief rallies fall 1 run shy

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

So, what happens when the area's No. 1 and No. 3 baseball teams go at it in a Western Lakes Western Division showdown?

Sometimes it goes like this: The game goes nine innings, the lead changes sides a couple times and the score is tied twice. Between the two teams, 31 runs are scored on 39 hits and 30 runners are left stranded on the bases. There are 20 walks and eight errors committed.

It was that kind of ballgame at Plymouth Canton Wednesday. The definitive statistic was this — No. 3-ranked Livonia Churchill 16, No. 1-ranked Canton 15.

It was one of the wildest affairs played around these parts in quite some time.

"GEEZ, I couldn't even tell you what month we're in, let alone what happened out here today," said a jubilant Charger coach Herb Osterland. "This was a real exciting game, but a little too hard on my stomach."

Canton coach Fred Crissey had warned his team not to let Churchill "get out of the gates early." He didn't want the fired-up Chargers to get early momentum, but that's exactly what happened.

Buoyed by Scott Hille's long two-run home run to dead center, the Chargers broke on top 5-0 after one inning. After three it was 9-2 and the Chargers seemed poised to rout the Chiefs.

Not on this crazy day. The Chiefs, who are making dramatic comebacks seem routine, scored four runs in the fourth and four in the sixth to take a 10-9 lead.

Bucky Blake, who had relieved Chief starter Scott Ford in the fourth and had held the Chargers scoreless, surrendered a walk and a single to start the seventh. Crissey then called on ace Mark Bennett who had thrown seven innings in a game the day before.

A one-out error opened the gates to a six-run seventh for Churchill. Canton came to bat in the last of the seventh down 15-10.

CHURCHILL RELIEVER John Stoitsiadis walked a couple Chiefs, then John Fraser came on in relief. He hit the first batter and walked three more. When the seventh ended, the Chiefs had tied the game with five runs on just one hit.

Andy Oliver came on to pitch for the Chargers and Mike Clark for Canton. Things actually settled down for while.

But, in the ninth, Craig McBrien and Jim Acitelli walked to get things going. Clark got the next two hitters, baseball

but Drew Baird delivered a clutch double to score McBrien.

Canton again mounted a rally in its half of the ninth. Sean Goulet singled but was forced at second. Jeff Wittner then singled and there were two on and one out. Oliver, just a sophomore, got the next two hitters, Tim Collins and Jeff Olson, to pop out and the Chargers charged onto the field to celebrate.

"Hey, when you play in any sport you want to be able to compete with the very good teams. To be a competitor in the Western Lakes you know you have to be able to beat Fred Crissey's Plymouth Canton Chiefs. Last year we came in and lost in 10 or 12 innings. The kids were beginning to believe they would lose to them every time. A big bubble burst today. These kids now know they can play with, and beat, the best," Osterland said.

THERE WERE plenty of heroes in this one — especially hitting heroes as Churchill banged out 24 hits.

- Jim Acitelli, the diminutive lead-off hitter, went 5-for-6 with two RBI.

- Rob Foust went 4-for-6 with three RBI.

- Baird went 4-for-7 with two doubles and the game-winning RBI.

- Hille went 3-for-6 plus his home run.

- John Oltman also went 3-for-6.

- Oliver, last but not least, was the only pitcher of the four used that didn't seem ruffled by Canton's big swingers.

"He was calmer than anyone, and he's just a sophomore," Osterland said.

The Chiefs had their share of stars, too.

- Jim Dillon had a big day offensively and defensively. He went 4-for-6 with four RBI. On defense he made two fine running catches and threw a runner out at second base trying to stretch a single.

- Collins had two hits and drove home the tying run in the seventh.

- Blake, who had been having control troubles this season, showed signs of getting back to last year's form.

The win puts the Chargers in the Western Division driver's seat. With three league games remaining, Churchill is 9-1, 12-3 overall. Canton, with five league games left, is 6-3 in the conference, 13-4 overall.

The second game scheduled Wednesday was postponed. It will be rescheduled after May 25.

Who can beat Harrison?

Rocks, Chiefs try for upset in league meet tennis

Livonia Stevenson tennis coach George Croll figured this would be the year his team got, as he put it, "kicked around."

Stevenson had an easy time winning the Western Lakes Activities Association tennis title a year ago and wound up 12th best in the state. But, seven of his 10 regular players off last year's club graduated. Croll was ready to be eaten alive.

It hasn't happened that way. The Spartans won't have the best dual-meet mark coming into Wednesday's WLAA meet at Plymouth's CEP complex — Farmington Harrison is 8-0 having given Stevenson its only loss, 5-2, last week — but they may have the best shot at winning the league title, or at least a share of it.

"We have to hope that Plymouth Canton and Northville win some matches over in the other division," Croll said. "Then we will have to win in the championship flight."

IN THE WLAA, the dual-meet season and the league meet count 50-50 toward the overall league championship. Harrison is the league dual-meet champion. All the Hawks have to do to clinch at least a share of the overall title is finish second Wednesday. If they take first, the title is the Hawks' outright.

"Ideally, we would like to finish first and have Harrison take third," Croll said. "But, I'll be more than happy to share the title."

The Hawks (12-1 overall) have other plans.

"If everyone plays well, plays like they can, we should take it," said Hawk coach Bernie Goldstein. "We are the strongest team. But, in a one-day tour-namment, anything can happen."

Working against the Hawks is the way the league meet is structured. The first flight of matches are intra-divisional — that is, the Western Division teams play against each other as do the Lakes Division teams. Then, the survivors from each division square off in the championship flight.

The Hawks are in the Western Division, clearly the tougher of the two divisions.

"Oh, our division is much tougher," Goldstein said. "Three of the four best teams in the league are in our division."

He's speaking of Canton and Northville, who may chip away just enough at the Hawks in the first flight to enable Stevenson to pull an upset. Livonia Churchill, another team not to be taken for granted, may also have a voice in who makes it to the final flight.

BUT THE Spartans won't have it too easy in the Lakes. Plymouth Salem, a team that has overcome much adversity this season, could surprise the Spartans and many others.

Harrison's super freshman Ken Davidson will have his hands full with Northville's Arvind Sreedharen and Canton's Mike Minton in No. 1 singles. Whoever survives that preliminary flight battle should win the conference championship.

Stevenson's Jack Tatigian has only one defeat in the No. 2 singles spot. He will be the favorite. Harrison's Mark Rakoczy is 11-2, but hasn't beat Tatigian.

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Canton's Tom Roggenback will have his hands full in No. 2 singles in Wednesday's Western Lakes conference meet at CEP.

an. Salem's Ron Rabillas may also be a factor in No. 2.

Harrison appears to have a lock on the No. 3 and 4 singles spots. Steve Thomas is undefeated at No. 3 (11-0) and Brad Hack is 10-2, losing twice while playing in the No. 3 slot. He hasn't lost at No. 4.

The Hawks and the Spartans have the best doubles teams. Harrison's No. 1 team of Jeff Levin and Jim Turner is 11-2. Stevenson's No. 2 team of Saman Dawisha and Bruce Kudanian are a perfect 15-0 this year. In fact, all their matches have been decided in two sets.

Livonia Bentley has a very strong No. 1 doubles team in Rich Schulte and Dave Sherman. They have been beaten only once this year, by Stevenson's Jeff Koncoski and David Richardson.

No. 3 doubles is totally up for grabs, but, the winner of that event could well decide the conference champion.

Plymouth's CEP courts are on Canton Center Road just south of Joy Road.

Canton's Hinz sets sights on 3-man Olympic marathon team

Canton marathoner David Hinz qualified for the United States Olympic marathon trials more than a year ago. He'll finally get his chance to prove he belongs on the three-man U.S. marathon team.

Hinz earned his chance to make the team at last year's Boston Marathon. He ran the 26.2 mile course in 2:12:06, almost seven minutes below the 2:19:4 trial qualifying time.

He will be one of more than 150 American men to compete for the three spots on May 26 on the trial course in Buffalo, New York.

THE TRIALS will be conducted on the Skyline Marathon course which begins in Buffalo, crosses over the Peace Bridge into Canada and finishes in Niagara Falls, Ont.

The course is the same one used for the men's 1980 U.S. Olympic trials, where 56 men broke the 2:20:00 barrier. It's a record that has yet to be beaten.

The top three finishers will represent the U.S. in the Los Angeles Olympic Games. Three alternates will also be determined.

The race will feature some of the nation's top runners, including Alberto Salazar, Greg Meyer, Tony Sandoval and Bill Rodgers.

Dumont, Arnold to carry torch

Jeff Arnold and Steve Dumont will carry the torch for their respective Plymouth schools today.

Arnold, a senior at Plymouth Salem, and Dumont, from Plymouth Canton, have been selected to carry the Olympic torch one kilometer when it swings through Detroit today en route to the Los Angeles and the Olympic Games.

Arnold will carry the torch between noon and 2 p.m., starting at Rosa Parks and West Grand. Dumont will take his turn at about 2 p.m., starting on the corner of 4th.

The pair were chosen by their schools as representatives.

Rocks get back to winning

The Plymouth Salem baseball team and its ace right-hander Rick Berberet got back on track last week with a pair of victories.

On Wednesday, the Rocks ripped Farmington 17-2. On Friday, Berberet shut down the hard-hitting Churchill Chargers, 10-3.

Scott Anderson, Mike Cindrich and Dom DeBello led a 14-hit Salem attack against Farmington, each ripping three hits. Anderson and Cindrich drove in three runs each and DeBello brought in two. Pat Walsh added a pair of hits and two RBI.

Chris Mowers went the distance for the first time this season to get the win. He gave up six hits and three walks.

The Rocks exploded for eight runs in the first two innings against Western Lakes leader Churchill. Anderson again led the assault with three more hits.

DARRYL BREEES had a pair of hits and knocked in three runs. Cindrich added two more hits and Chris Belhart knocked in three with a pair of hits.

"What this win does is open up the door for some other teams in the Western Lakes," said Rock coach John basketball

Gravlin "Churchill was in the driver's seat, but now, with two losses, they still have to play Canton again - it's anyone's division again."

The man they call "Berbs" was on his game like he hasn't been in a couple starts. Berberet scattered four hits, walked four and fanned four en route to the win.

"Berberet really did the job today," Gravlin said. "He challenged the hitters instead of relying on his breaking stuff. He's been trying to be so fine - I finally convinced him to start going after the hitters."

The hitters went after, and beat, were good hitters. Ask Canton - the Chargers ripped Canton pitching for 24 hits Wednesday.

Salem (10-7) overall, 7-4 in the league) had drawn John Glenn at Glenn in the pre-district game Friday May 25.

Gary Earley finished first in the 12-lap event, setting a Flat Rock Speedway record for that distance on the figure-8 course (4:40.11).

N'ville ousts Rocks

Plymouth Salem's soccer team will no longer be heard from in the girls state soccer tournament.

The Rocks were eliminated Friday after losing a hard-fought 4-1 decision to a speedy Northville team in a pre-regional qualifier.

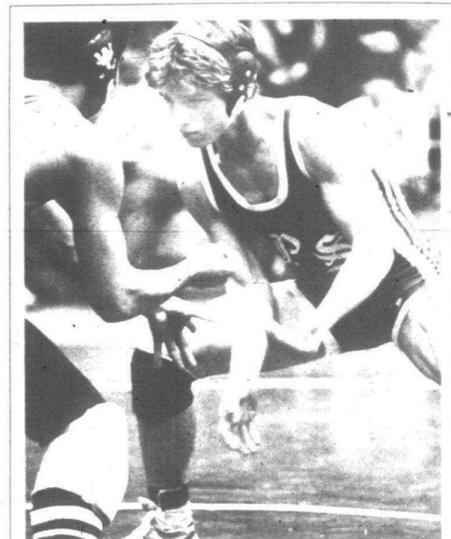

"We played a good game, but they had too much speed," Salem coach Ken Johnson said. "They were just too good for us."

Salem spotted Northville three goals before Tracey Greenhalgh finally put the Rocks on the scoreboard in the second half. Fran Whittaker drew the assist.

Northville advances to play Farmington Our Lady of Mercy Wednesday in a regional semifinal match-up. The Rocks had better luck Wednesday against Farmington, as Julie Tora exploded for four goals in Salem's 4-0 win.

Goalie Sarah Wallman recorded the shutout and also got credit for an assist.

The Rocks (8-2) outshot Farmington 17-8.

A champion

Dave Dameron, a sophomore at Plymouth Salem, has had quite a spring. The wrestler has compiled a 53-2 record, took first at the AAU state meet, first in the Federation of Wrestlers state meet, and last weekend, he took second in the Federation's national freestyle tournament. Dameron, who represents the Plymouth-Canton Cyclones Wrestling Club, will compete in the Junior World Olympics this summer. He's coached by Ron Krueger.

Johnson & Johnson pace Rock victory

Plymouth Salem, ranked No. 5 in the Observersland girls track poll, got its double win from senior tri-captain Amy Johnson won the high jump behind you have to do a lot of running," going 4-10. Also in the field events, Ma-Rutter ironically, Adams' jump scored only third best in the meet.

Adams also established a record with her 17.6 clocking in the 110-yard hurdles (52.78). Mary Beth West in the 400 (1:04.29). Amy Miyazaki in the 800 (2:42.15). Erica Bashor in the 1,600 (6:04.7) and Trish Donnelly in the 3,200 (12:41.58).

The Rocks are 4-2 on the season.

PLUMOUTH CANTON set two school records and had seven runners gain personal-best times Wednesday.

Other individual winners for the Rocks were: Kristen Hostinski in the 100-meter hurdles (17.43). Amy Johnson won the high jump behind you have to do a lot of running," going 4-10. Also in the field events, Ma-Rutter ironically, Adams' jump scored only third best in the meet.

Field events spur Rock men to win

Often in a track meet, the field events will set the tone for the whole meet.

Plymouth Salem's meet with Livonia Bentley Wednesday was no exception.

The Rocks got a first in the shot put from Scott Jurek (42-6), his first winning toss of the season. The Rocks also got a first from Erich Hartnett in the high jump - Hartnett went 6-2, his best jump of the season.

Doug Spencer then won the discus (145-6) and Bryan Waldron took the long jump (20-2 1/4) and the Rocks were rolling.

Mike White, a speedy junior, took both hurdle events. He won the 120-yard highs in 15.19 and the 330 lows in 40.8.

Jerry Smith won the 440 dash for Salem in 1:16 and Bill Morley, Jeff Hubbert and John Keros crossed the 2-mile run finish line together at 10:45.12.

If there was any flaw in the Rocks performance, it came in the relay events. The Rocks were disqualified in three of the four relay events. They did manage to win the mile relay in 3:39.95.

Salem's record stands at 4-2 overall, 2-1 in the Western Lakes.

Humphries is back on hill

By Rich Swenson staff writer

WESTERN MICHIGAN baseball standout Joe Humphries has been a jack of all trades for the Broncos this season, but it looks like coach Fred Decker has found a permanent spot for this versatile athlete - pitching.

The Plymouth Salem graduate has played just about every position imaginable, including the outfield, third and first base and designated hitter, but when Western's pitching corps fell apart this season, Decker called on Humphries with hopes that he would pick up the slack.

"His future is in pitching," Decker said. "We were struggling at the mound, and he's come in and done a good job."

"His arm is his best tool and he's a very good competitor. Our plans for him next year are to pitch and DH. We think he has a pro arm."

THE LANKY 6-foot-2 Humphries, who was an all-star his senior year at Salem with a 10-2 record (and batted .414), has made the transition with enthusiasm.

"I'm back on the hill again," he said. "That was my best position in high school. I feel the most excitement when I'm on the mound."

Though Humphries is still looking for his first collegiate victory, he has been impressive thus far. In his three starts, he has worked 13 1/3 innings, striking out 11 while posting an ERA of 4.81.

The fireballer's best pitch is his fast ball, which has been clocked at 90 miles per hour. But he also sports a good curve, slider and change-up.

"I try to get the hitters in a hole with my fastball," he said. "Then I come back with my curve to strike them out."

people in sports

"I thought I would have a chance to play more and sooner if I went to Western," he said.

He doesn't regret his decision. The Bronco's cleanup hitter, Humphries got off to a slow start, but in recent weeks has gone on a tear. In his last 20 at bats, Humphries has nine hits (45%), scored five runs and driven in six to raise his average 70 points to .264.

In 43 games this season, he has 29 hits, 24 runs, 20 RBI and 33 walks.

"HE STARTED POORLY, but he's been hitting the ball much better as the season has progressed," Decker said. "Slow starts are nothing new to Humphries. As a freshman last year, he came on late in the year to raise his average 80 points to .237 with two homers. This year, he hopes to finish with a bang."

"I've had my fair share of hits lately," he said, "but coming around. My goal is to finish the season at .300."

He attributes his recent success to warmer weather.

"I get more motivated to play when the weather is good," he said. "It gives me a chance to work on my swing and my power."

THE BRONCOS have had a disappointing season, slumping to 10-15 in the Mid American Conference (MAC) and 19-33 overall, but Humphries hopes to help change that next year.

"We've had a tough time," he said. "We're a better team than we've shown. But our pitching fell apart and we're still young. We're lacking in experience."

"Next year, I'd like to be the ace of the staff and have a good year hitting. Then I hope to get drafted. That's my main goal."

If drafted, Humphries will probably leave school after his junior year to pursue a pro baseball career. He still plans to get his degree in the off-season.

Chiefs on warpath, Rocks win

Oh, if Plymouth Canton could only start its softball season over again.

After a horrendous 0-6 start, the Chiefs have bounced back to win five of their last seven, including a sweep of Livonia Churchill Wednesday, 15-11 and 10-9.

"We're playing a little better," said coach Max Sommerville. "But, we're still pretty inconsistent. Too many sophomore mistakes, I guess."

The Chiefs recorded seven runs in the sixth and five more in the seventh to overcome an 8-3 deficit in game one.

Margaret Gilligan led the Canton assault with a grand slam home run in the seventh. Kathy Ross had two hits and Nancy Dyer added a pair of doubles.

The Chiefs picked up where they left off in game two scoring six times in the top of the first. Ross ripped a bases-loaded double to score three in the first.

Churchill came back to take a 9-7 lead after four. But, Gilligan ripped a two-run single in the fifth to ignite a three-run rally. Gilligan and Kris Ingersoll each had two hits.

"It was a great struggle, but we did it," Sommerville said.

Monika Benedict got both wins for Canton. She's now 5-5.

Canton is 5-8 on the season.

Last week, the Chiefs pounded Northville 28-9 in a state prerregional qualifier. They will play their prerregional game Friday at home against Brighton.

PLUMOUTH SALEM rapped out 13 hits Friday in defeating Livonia Churchill handily, 13-4, to raise its Western Lakes Activities Association record to 9-2. The Rocks are 13-4 overall.

The Rocks were led by Leslie Plichta, who went 3-for-5 while knocking in three runs. Denise Tack-softball

ett had two hits, including a two-run triple in the third, and drove in four runs. Cheryl Viele and Leslie Culver contributed two hits each.

Any Brow had two hits for the Chargers.

Last Wednesday, the Rocks nipped Farmington 3-1 behind the three-pitching of Carlson.

The Rocks scored all three runs in the first on five walks and a pair of wild pitches.
