may be happy to hear about "Supervised Playground and Leisure Time Activities," a seven-week program sponsored by Canton's Parks and Recreation Department that kicks off today. From 10 a.m.-1 p.m. and from 2 p.m.-5 p.m., supervised sports, arts and crafts, field trips, group games, cookouts and special events will be featured.

Canton playgrounds at Windsor Park, Pickwick, Franklin Square, Kings Way/Flodin, Carriage Hills, Franklin Palmer, Canton Country Acres, Canterbury Mews, Forestbrook, Sunflower, Griffin Park, Wagon Wheel, Brookside, Honeytree and Forest Trails will be included. On-site registration will be held at the above times through Aug. 9. For more information, call 397-1000 ext. 212.

AT 3:46 P.M. Thursday, Canton's Diana DePoy wondered why cameras suddenly were flashing and library board and staff members were gazing at her. She later realized she'd become the millionth borrower to patronize the Canton Public Library. DePoy was presented by Deborah O'Connor, library director, with a Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary.

Since the library opened on Oct. 20, 1980, it has circulated an average of 900 items daily. Jamie Carr, 5, received a set of the 1984 World Book Encyclopedias for having come closest to guessing the time the millionth item would be borrowed. He was only six minutes off. Tom Jagodka was runnerup, guessing 4:12 p.m. and winning a World Book Dictionary. Four other patrons won $10 gift certificates.

SENIORS yearning for an autumn visit to Mackinac Island can register now for a trip sponsored by the Canton Township Senior Citizens. Stated for Oct. 29-31 for persons 55 and over is the 17th Annual Michigan Recreation and Park Association Mackinac Island get-together. Older adults from all over Michigan will be on hand to enjoy a wealth of activities. The $192 freight includes double occupancy accommodations at the Grand Hotel, transportation and other items. To register, call 397-1000, ext. 278.

HATS OFF to Lynne Rudolph of Canton, recently named an "Outstanding Young Woman of America." The honor and a listing in this year's edition of the book by the same name goes to women who "have distinguished themselves in their homes, professions and their communities." Rudolph now advances to state competition, according to Margaret Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

YOU'RE A volunteer without a cause? Channel 50's March of Dimes Telethon, slated for June 30-July 1, could use your help. Persons willing to answer telephones for the birth defects fund-raiser may call 423-3312.

KUDOS TO Terrie Lee Koers, Ellen Seery, and Le Anne Huston. The young Canton residents received Congressman William Ford's (D-Taylor) annual Medal of Merit for Outstanding Youth at a recent ceremony in Wayne. Koers was honored for activities involving cystic fibrosis and the Canton Chamber of Commerce. Seery was recognized for Girl Scout involvement and child care instruction while Huston was honored for her work with the elderly and with her church. Ford's district includes Canton.

Hart guilty in Faber murder

By Margaret Neubacher
staff writer

A Washtenaw County jury Friday found Ricardo Hart of Ypsilanti guilty as charged on three counts — first-degree murder, armed robbery and possession of a firearm — in the fatal shooting of Nancy Faber, a former Plymouth-Canton schoolteacher.

The jury of six men and six women deliberated a full day before returning the guilty verdicts in the three-week murder trial.

Hart, 21, was remanded without bond to Washtenaw County jail to await sentencing before Washtenaw Circuit Judge Ross Campbell July 13.

When the verdict was returned late Friday afternoon, Hart displayed no visible reaction, according to witnesses. "He had a blank expression throughout most of the trial," said Prosecuting Attorney Brian Mackie of Washtenaw County.

Hart's alleged accomplice, Machele Pearson, 17, also of Ypsilanti, was found guilty June 1 of identical charges and will be sentenced July 6.

IN HER TRIAL, Pearson claimed she was forced by Hart, her live-in boyfriend, to rob Faber. Pearson testified that a .38 caliber revolver Hart gave her went off accidentally in Faber's car Nov. 22. Pearson had talked Faber into giving her a ride to a nearby apartment complex from an Ann Arbor grocery store parking lot.

A first-degree murder conviction carries a mandatory life sentence.

All sentences carrying a jail term automatically are appealed, according to Mackie. Appellate proceedings can be initiated by the defendant or the court after sentencing.

The prosecution took four days to present its testimony.

Defense attorney Thomas Quarterman rested his case after calling one witness to the stand Thursday morning.

Opening arguments in the case had been heard June 14 following 10 days of jury selection.

APPROXIMATELY 80 potential jurors were screened before the 14-person jury was seated. Disqualified jurors included those who had read or heard about the related Pearson trial.

In preliminary motions, the prosecution asked that Don Faber, Nancy's husband and chief editorial writer for the Ann Arbor News, be excused from the trial. Faber is vacationing in the Soviet Union.

Judge Campbell denied the request, and Faber's testimony was heard over the phone in the judge's chambers. A court stenographer and both attorneys were present during the call.

School's out for summer

Amidst shouts of joy and relief, the last classes of 1983-84 were dismissed throughout the Plymouth-Canton school district Thursday. At Fiegel Elementary, three friends took advantage of teachers' absence and doused each other with shaving cream. They're all yours now, mother.

Deadline imminent for state rep candidates

Candidates for the Michigan House of Representatives have until 4 p.m. Wednesday to file nominating petitions or $100 fees with the Wayne County clerk's office in Detroit. They will have until noon Friday to withdraw.

Those changes were made by the state Supreme Court last week after alarmed county clerks complained they would be unable to get ballots printed in time for the Aug. 7 primary if the filing deadline were moved to July 11, as the court originally ordered.

Wayne County Clerk James Killeen also is seeking a modification of the court order to eliminate the requirement that candidates' names be rotated on the ballot.

"With the alphabetical rotation requirement, we have to stop the presses 1,850 times while printing the ballots," Killeen said. "Without the rotation requirement, we can save two weeks in printing time."

THE CHANGES will allow election officials to conduct the Aug. 7 primary on schedule rather than delay it a month, as some officials had feared.

All House candidates will have to file anew, the clerk said — even those whose districts were little changed by last week's ruling.

For this area, the 37th District now includes the south portion of Canton and extends south. The 36th now consists of the balance of Canton and the city and township in Plymouth.

In the 36th, Rep. Gerald Law, R-Plymouth, did not have any Republicans file against him and only one Democrat. That Democrat, a Novi resident, now is ineligible to run against Law as the Supreme Court ruling removed Novi from the 36th. Unless a Democrat files by Wednesday, Law au-tomatically will return to office without ballot opposition.

The candidates may get on the ballot either by filing nominating petitions signed by registered voters or by paying a $100 fee. About 80 percent pay the fee, Killeen said.

The clerk must return those fees and collect new ones.

Canton fighting group home in midnight hour

By Margaret Neubacher
staff writer

Canton Township officials were fighting the placement of a group home on Dionne Street last week at the same time builders were preparing to launch construction on the site west of Sheldon between Palmer and Geddes Roads.

Township attorney C. Gerald Hemming argued before administrative Judge Michael Corman at a downtown Detroit hearing Wednesday that Dionne Street is an unsuitable location for a group home.

"The testimony was quite impressive," said Hemming, who called two witnesses including Township Planner James Kosteva.

The limited access to Dionne Street poses a hazard for emergency equipment trying to reach the site, Kosteva testified. Sheldon Road would provide the only access to the home.

Canton Police Lt. Larry Stewart discussed the impact of group homes on the police department, saying group home residents require more service than the general population.

Grabur Inc., a Lansing general contracting firm, will begin construction on the Dionne Street site this week, according to firm president Chuck Barnes.

JIM JAGOFELD/staff photographer

Construction of a group home for the mentally retarded will begin on this vacant lot on Dionne Street this week, according to contractors hired to do the work. Neither township legal action nor petition drives spearheaded by local homeowners' groups have succeeded in stopping the plan.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY General William Basinger argued the Michigan Department of Social Services case, saying there is no reason the home should not be built.

Canton officials were ordered June 1 to grant a building permit to a company planning to build a group home for the retarded on Dionne Street in the south end of the township.

The existing limited access to the homes on Dionne Street is a violation of current zoning ordinances.

"Oh My Goodness," an original musical comedy, made its long-awaited debut at Field Elementary this week.

Written by fourth and fifth graders, the play explores the ups and downs of life at Camp Blue Waters, a typical summer camp.

Under the direction of producer-principal Larry Miller, the cast of 44 students, grades one-five, hammed it up to the delight of audiences that turned out in number for three evening performances.

"It's been fun," said first-grader Brian Gustin, who plays Ronnie Fox. Michelle Romano, who plays Carol Carr, wasn't sure at first.

'Blue Water Campers' are fed up with Messy Marvin, and let him know it. Messy is played here by second-grader Larry Wright.

Sara Steffani, a third grader, turned in a convincing performance as 'Shy Violet,' who takes comfort in her stuffed animals when she's feeling scared and lonely.

There are currently 11 group homes in Canton.

TOWNSHIP OFFICIALS contend that the state is allowing too many group homes to be built here. For that reason, and because Canton has a group home lawsuit pending against the Department of Social Services, it originally denied a building permit for the Duane Street home.

In cross-examination Basinger challenged the relevancy of Lt. Stewart's testimony. The judge ruled that Stewart's testimony be accepted but denied his decision on its relevancy.

Basinger asked Kosteva if the township would issue a building permit for the Duane Street site if it was not a group home.

Said Kosteva, "One access is allowable for a small cul-de-sac that has 14 or less homes," said Kosteva. "Duane Street, which is a cul-de-sac, has 20 homes."

The township requires two access points for all roads other than cul-de-sacs for the purpose of police and fire protection, he added.

"On Duane Street you have one access point and 50 percent more people living there than should be," Kosteva said.

Lt. Stewart testified that group homes generate an above-average number of emergency calls.

"In my estimation we've had 100 calls from group homes in the last two years ranging from fires to criminal sexual conduct," Stewart said. "Noise complaints make up 95 percent of the calls."

"Statistically we visit a home once every one and a half to two years. We're going to group homes three and four times a year," Stewart said.

Proposed budget would lower taxes

By Sandra Armbruster, staff writer

Wayne-Westland school district residents will again experience a small tax decrease this year under a proposed $60.5 million budget. Taxes for residents in the Canton Township portion of the district will remain unchanged.

A public hearing on the budget will be at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the board meeting room of the Iyer Center, on Marquette south of Ford and west of Wayne Road.

The budget, which projects a 9 percent or $1.1 million increase in revenue, is not a cakewalk, said assistant superintendent for business and finance John Baracy.

"It's not as tough as this past year," he said. "But it will still be tough. It all depends on the state aid act."

which operated an extension center at Northville Hospital Garden City School District will assume operation of that center, while Wayne-Westland picks up the smaller program Garden City operated for the Cherry Hill School District.

Wayne-Westland and Cherry Hill already share a consortium arrangement at the Ford Vocational Education Center, and plans are under way to merge the two districts (see separate story).

REVENUE FROM local property taxes is expected to increase slightly by $43.7 million. That reflects an overall increase in the state equalized value of property projected at nearly $28.4 million next year.

The increase comes from commercial and industrial property in the district, which Baracy said offsets decreases in residential property. Homeowners will experience a tax decrease, reflecting a decrease in residential property values of 24 percent in Wayne and 1.5 percent in Westland. Property values in Canton remain unchanged.

Although the board of education has yet to approve the budget for the next fiscal year, it recently approved an operating millage rate of 40.65 mills, equal to last year's level.

The summer tax collection, estimated to save the district $500,000 in borrowing costs, allows that money to be allocated for program improvement, Baracy said.

Included in those improvements are the purchase of new textbooks for secondary schools as well as spelling and handwriting texts for the elementary grades. Also planned is the purchase of a microcomputer for each elementary school for the district's mathematics program, replacement of safety and storage equipment for secondary school science programs and the purchase of 15 microcomputers to replace junior high manual typewriters, which are no longer manufactured.

EXPENDITURES IN the budget are projected to increase by 1.7 percent, leaving a small fund balance of $30 million in June 1985, Baracy said. He added that, when adjusted for inflation, that actually represents a decrease of 4 percent.

Besides the program improvements listed earlier, the budget also calls for $200,000 for a lease purchase arrangement that will allow the district to improve its aging bus fleet.

Cost of operating the adult education program will decrease due to lower enrollment and settlement of the employee contract, Baracy said.

Expected to hold the line will be utility costs, due to the severity of last year's winter and the energy conservation program now under way.

"We can all feel good about that," Baracy said. "We can put the money in programs instead of other areas."

Candidate deadline nears

Candidates who finish first and second in the Democratic or Republican primaries will have their fees returned. (Minor parties nominate their candidates at conventions.)

THE SUPREME Court ruled early last week that the Michigan Legislature made an unconstitutional procedural step in 1983 when it redistricted itself. The ruling reinstated the so-called "Apoll plan" used in the 1982 election.

The Apoll plan contains larger population differences, but created geographically more compact districts than the legislature's plan. The Apoll plan delighted most Republicans and dismayed many Democrats.

Unaffected are candidates for U.S. Congress, Wayne County Commission, township offices, judicial posts and Wayne County Community College. Their districts were not challenged in the reapportionment suit.

FIGURES USED in the budget are conservative estimates of what the district will receive in state aid. Baracy said. However, a late-out package expected to be approved by the state Legislature later this year could have an effect on the amount Wayne-Westland receives.

Baracy, who will leave Wayne-Westland shortly to assume a position in Phoenix, predicted that the district will have to continue to "pare down" expenses for the rest of the decade, just like the auto industry.

"We'll have to look at where we're going," he said. "We've gone through the toughest year, and as long as enrollment holds, we'll be OK."

Based on the current state-aid proposal, the district expects a $1.1-million increase in funding for membership. That's good news for the district, which expects to lose 823 students by the time school opens in the fall.

That includes the loss of 285 in the continuing-education department

THE 1984-85 BUDGET also reflects a change in the way proceeds from the sale of property are handled.

"The consensus of the board in the past is that they would like to see all proceeds used in debt retirement or set aside in the building and site fund for future expenses," Baracy explained.

However, the first $100,000 received after the debt on the property was retired was placed in the general fund in recent years to help balance the budget. Now that money will be reserved for future building repairs.

The projected budget follows a trend of increasing state aid for vocational education with an $80,000 increase to nearly $644,000. Baracy said the increase, from $445,000 in 1981-82, reflects the type of high-need courses offered and the receipt of outside grants.

Police seek Canton man

Morrison "Street residents were awakened at 3 a.m. recently to police sirens in the neighborhood south of Ford Road between Morton Taylor and Lilley Roads.

Police said they recognized an 18-year-old Canton driver who was wanted on a 1983 bench warrant for "assault and infliction of serious injury." The man traveled at a high rate of speed south on Morrison, awakening neighbors when he hit a curb at the foot of Morrison and drove into Flodin Park.

Officers in pursuit said Morrison fled the scene on foot.

Another warrant has been issued for the man's arrest for fleeing and eluding police and malicious destruction of police property.

Acting Lt. Alex Wilson declined further comment on the case as the suspect is still at large.

EPA sets hearings on dirty air sanctions

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency will hold two public hearings Wednesday, July 11, on its proposed sanctions against Michigan for having dirty air.

EPA charges the state with failure to establish a vehicle inspection and maintenance (I/M) program for the tri-county region — Wayne, Oakland and Macomb.

"All federal highway funds will be withheld, with limited exceptions for projects that are for the purpose of safety, mass transit, or air quality improvement or maintenance," according to Shirley Mitchell, EPA's regional chief of air planning in Chicago.

"Previously proposed restrictions would affect the construction of plants that would add significantly to ozone and carbon monoxide pollution in the Detroit area."

"EPA is also reposing disapproval of the state's 1982 implementation plan for ozone and carbon monoxide," Mitchell said.

So last Aug. 3, EPA proposed restricting air quality program funds to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources and to prohibit construction or modification of industrial plants which contribute to carbon monoxide and ozone pollution in the tri-county region.

"It's an economic development issue," said Donald E. Shelton, chair of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments as he recently underlined SEMCOG's concern over the issue.

William Cilluffo, Auto Club's director of governmental affairs, citing the possible loss of $200 million in U.S. highway funds, as well as millions more in lost construction and jobs.

Cilluffo estimated the cost to the state at less than $2 million but the cost to 2.6 million motorists could be as much as $52 million the first year. He based this on an estimate of a $10 inspection fee per car, a 20 percent failure rate and a $50 average repair bill.

light trucks, which contribute significantly to the ozone and carbon monoxide pollution.

"In urbanized areas with I/M programs, automotive emissions can be reduced by as much as 25 percent for hydrocarbons and 33 percent for carbon monoxide. Hydrocarbons are a major component in the formation of ozone."

"Public health is adversely affected by high levels of ozone and carbon monoxide."

"Ozone can cause difficulty in breathing, chest pain, chest and nasal congestion, coughing, eye irritation, nausea and headaches."

"Carbon monoxide can cause dizziness, headaches, nausea and loss of appetite."

"The people most susceptible to high carbon monoxide and ozone levels in the atmosphere are infants and small children, the elderly, those with respiratory and heart ailments, and very active people such as joggers."

"In most cases, all a car needs is a low emissions tuneup which reduces air pollution and improves the vehicle's performance and gas mileage," Mitchell said.

Other states programs show only about 15 to 30 percent of cars require repairs. Typical costs range from $18 to $35. Most common are carburetor adjustments, spark plug replacement, choke adjustments, air filter replacement and fluid speed adjustment.

I/M programs are operated in 21 areas of the country, including California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Kentucky, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and Rhode Island. Another seven programs are scheduled to begin within the next six months.

Wayne-Westland School District

The district serves southeast Canton.

It is a high-need course offered and the receipt of outside grants.

EXPENDITURES IN the budget are projected to increase by 1.7 percent, leaving a small fund balance of $30 million in June 1985, Baracy said. He added that, when adjusted for inflation, that actually represents a decrease of 4 percent.

Besides the program improvements listed earlier, the budget also calls for $200,000 for a lease purchase arrangement that will allow the district to improve its aging bus fleet.

Cost of operating the adult education program will decrease due to lower enrollment and settlement of the employee contract, Baracy said.

FOOT HEALTH TODAY

DR. JAMES SCHELBERG, PODIATRIST

TENNIS TOES

QUESTION: I have a sore toe and a blackened toenail. A friend of mine took one look at it and said it was "tennis toe." The thing is I've never held a tennis racket in my life. I play tennis. What is it really?

ANSWER: It might actually be "tennis toe." It's a condition that develops from playing any number of court sports, including racquetball, basketball, and handball. It comes from rapid starting and stopping. The most prominent toe is repeatedly jammed against the front of the sneaker causing damage to the nail and the area around it. Your podiatrist may need to drain blood from beneath the nail to relieve pressure and pain. Sometimes painless nail removal is necessary. At the same time, your podiatrist can advise you on ways to avoid a recurrence of the injury.

ANSERINE BURSITIS

A bursa is a sac which contains a thin layer of fluid. In humans, bursas lie in a fashion that permits muscles to slide over each other with a minimum of friction.

The anserine bursa is located just below the knee joint on the inner side of the leg. The function of the bursa is to keep three muscles anchoring at that location, from rubbing against each other. At times, for unclear reasons, this bursa becomes inflamed and gives rise to pain at the level of the knee.

It is important to distinguish between anserine bursitis and knee arthritis. Anserine bursitis often can be treated with a single injection into the bursa, while knee arthritis usually requires a long period of therapy.

Bring the problem of knee discomfort to the attention of your doctor. Physicians are aware that such pain really may be an anserine bursitis, and can deal appropriately with it.

Why we identify with Tigers

Tigermania — what is it? At this writing, the Tigers are 51-18, and southeastern Michigan is going crazy over this ball team.

I myself am hardly a baseball fanatic, but the Tigers' West Coast road trip recently nearly spelled my ruin. Despite a 6 a.m. rising time on working days, I found myself each night glued to the radio until 1 a.m., hoping to hear yet another Tiger victory.

In no way do the team's victories demonstrate anything complimentary about any of us as individuals except that we have had the good fortune to be living in geographic proximity to a winning ball club.

Yet, this group of men playing a game captures our imagination, dominates our conversations, and makes our chests swell with pride.

TIGERMANIA is a good example of an important psychological mechanism that has been a part of each of our psyches since early infancy. We call this mechanism "identification."

As infants, we were totally dependent on our parents for nurture and security. We gradually made the transition to increasingly independent self-sufficient individuals by identifying with or imitating more powerful figures in our lives.

From our parents we adopted values, beliefs, and patterns of responding to life's challenges.

This process of identification also helped to shape our own sense of self-worth. By identifying with a parent who in our childish eyes was the strongest, proudest, smartest person alive, we psychology

Dennis Sugrue

Psychologists have suggested that people tend to "identify" with their aggressor. The aggressor therefore becomes less frightening because of some manufactured kinship.

This defense has been particularly obvious in many hostage situations during which hostages have been reported to become sympathetic and even loyal to their captors.

When a person or a group of people feels downtrodden or threatened, identification with someone more powerful provides a renewed sense of hope and self-worth. This type of identification helps explain hero worship during war time and our national reaction to the U.S. Olympic hockey team during the Iranian hostage crisis.

The Tigers are finally giving us something to cheer about, and it feels nice to identify for a few moments with someone else's greatness.

Dennis Sugrue, Ph.D., is a clinical psychologist at Henry Ford Hospital.

Canton shows true colors

one of them was struck by a car in our area — causing damage to the bicycle and injury to the rider.

We are so proud of the people who came to their aid. — Canton Fire Department employees looking for parts for the bicycle on that day and finding them. Then, the family that witnessed the accident and then gave them shelter for the days they spent here. Then the Canton Police Department which was concerned about their having shelter. Someone from the fire department gave the young man a coat. Instructions were given to these men to call the fire department if they needed some more help with parts for the bicycle.

It was so heart-warming to watch people take these young men into homes and hearts. We have all been made richer by this experience. Out of something bad came a chance to meet with someone from another country.

We are grateful for the opportunity to have met and participated in the events mentioned. Hats off to the people who all reached out.

Library group disbanding

The year's sale grossed over $1,400 which after expenses, will be donated to the Canton Library for special projects beyond the limit of its budget. The sale, in addition to being a fund-raising project for Friends, had over the past four years become an eagerly-awaited community event which promoted reading and circulation of books throughout the community.

We are disbanding the Friends group this year due to lack of active membership but we didn't want to leave without saying good-bye and thank you to all of our many customers and benefactors who have supported this project so generously for the last four years. We hope that you will continue your love of books and continue to show your enthusiastic support for our very fine Canton Library.

crime watch

A FEMALE HITCHHIKER was injured by a hit-and-run driver Saturday, June 16, when a truck veered off Canton Center Road just north of Proctor Road.

The 37-year-old was treated for a broken arm, bruises and lacerations at an area hospital. She was hitchhiking with her husband, 48, and a 27-year-old female friend from New Hudson after their car broke down. The victim and her husband who was in front of her, were walking with traffic. Their friend was walking backward and saw the truck coming. The New Hudson woman and the victim's husband were able to get out of the way, according to police reports. The truck driver left the scene.

QUICK CHANGE was made by a woman customer at the Roadside Market on Joy Road recently. According to a cashier, a customer asked for two $20 bills in exchange for eight $5 bills. The cashier made the change. The customer exchanged one of the $20 bills for a $1 bill and held them up to the cashier, saying she had mistakenly given her $21 instead of the $40 she asked for. The cashier took the $1 and gave her another $20 bill. At the end of the day, the cashier was $19 short. Two witnesses who work in Plymouth retail stores told police the same woman had cheated them. They said the customer has long dark brown hair, is in her late 20s, stands about 5 feet-11 and weighs about 135 pounds.

A CANTERBURY musician is without two electric pianos. Sometime between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. June 12, a thief or thieves made off with a $300 scratched Yamaha keyboard and a $150 Casio keyboard. Police have no suspects and say there were no signs of forced entry.

POLICE BROKE up what appeared to be a graduation celebration for about 150 young people at Griffin Park about 11 p.m. June 13. Officers advised the youths the park was closed, and all of them left with the exception of four. Three juveniles who were drinking beer eventually left, but a fourth who police said was urinating behind a car later was issued a violation for possession of alcohol.

A SAXONY Street music lover told police his car was burglarized sometime between 5:30 p.m. June 12 and 7:15 a.m. June 13. A thief or thieves entered the maroon 1983 Buick using a seat-belt anchor or wire to unlock a door the victim theorized. The dashboard and possibly the heater were damaged when a $450 Sony stereo, $150 power booster and $360 in country western and rock and roll tapes were removed. Police have no suspects.

THERE'S A thief around who's now less likely to be stopped for speeding by police. A Barchester resident found the window of his red 1982 Ford smashed the morning of June 12. Missing was his $275 radar detector. Window damage was estimated at $120.

A MOTT Road resident returned home June 8 to find her purse — minus $20 cash, seven credit cards and three checks — in her yard. A burglar had cut a side door screen, reached in and unlocked the door to gain entry. The woman's purse had been left on the bedroom floor.

NOT GUILTY was the plea entered for a 27-year-old Plymouth man charged by Canton police with shoplifting a car speaker from Meijer's Thrift store June 4. Thirty-Fifth District Judge Dunbar Davis entered the man's plea during his arraignment June 5. The man was released on $1,000 personal bond.

Store security officers claim the man put the speaker under his windbreaker and made no attempt to pay for it. According to police, the man took the speaker because he is unemployed and needs goods and money to buy groceries. A pretrial date has been set for July 17th before District Judge James Garber.

The same man was caught shoplifting in Plymouth Township at K mart on Ford Road June 11. Police said he left the store without paying for a $29 item. He will be arraigned in 14th District Court for larceny July 6.

Chocolate IT'S A STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE!

If you love strawberries and can't resist chocolate in any of its wonderful forms, this new dessert — destined to become a classic — was created especially for you. The tempting two-layer extravaganza features strawberries — sliced and sweetened — layered with luscious whipped topping on home-baked chocolate shortcake:

Our "from scratch" shortcake recipe contains all the familiar shortcake ingredients — plus 1/3 cup cocoa . . . and has all the tender, melt-in-your-mouth flavor of a traditional shortcake. Step-by-step recipe directions make preparation of the shortcake easy . . . and whipped topping makes last-minute assembly and service a snap.

To assure picture-pretty strawberries (for shortcake or any time they're served), wash, hull and slice as close to serving time as possible. Remember, strawberries are very perishable and need to be handled gently. So whether you select the berries at your local supermarket or pick them yourself at a nearby "U-Pick" farm, it's always a good idea to take them straight home. Store immediately in the refrigerator . . . in shallow containers to prevent crushing.

To freeze, combine 1/2 cup sugar with 2 pints strawberries; let stand 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Spoon into container and place in freezer. Thaw at room temperature and serve — with a dollop of whipped topping — on ice cream, angel food cake, waffles or pancakes.

Frozen berries, thawed, are excellent as an ingredient in a "shake" or used in place of fresh berries for desserts such as Strawberry Romanoff Crepes (see recipe below). Both the crepes and the Bavarian Aux Strawberry — an almond flavored, cream cheese, whipped topping and strawberries molded dessert — are elegant spring and summer party fare.

HOW TO PICK STRAWBERRIES

- Strawberry picking at nearby "U-Pick" strawberry farms is easy and it's fun! For information about the farm nearest you, call your local U.S. Government Agricultural County Extension Agent.
- To be sure you get the pick-of-the-crop, strawberry growers recommend that you arrive at the farm early in the day when you can pick the fruit, still cool with morning dew.
- Large or small, every red berry is ripe, luscious and ready-to-eat. So pick all the red ones you can find in your assigned row.
- Green berries will not ripen after picking.
- Look under the leaves of each strawberry plant to find the berries; pinch or pull stem from plant. Be sure to leave stem on each berry.
- Protect berries from sunlight . . . and don't leave them in a hot car.

Asparagus, ham are rolled up in easy crepes

Weekday meals just aren't what they used to be. Quick casseroles and main dish salads now replace long-cooking stews. Frozen vegetables take the place of fresh, and the la mode is served without the apple pie. For the family of the 80s, speed is essential. Thus, an organized kitchen and timesaving convenience food products are a must.

For most families, the lack of keeping the kitchen organized falls to one person. If that person is you, you've got to think ahead to stay ahead. Plan menus for a week at a time to minimize time-guzzling trips to the supermarket. Keep weekday menus simple with just a main dish, salad or vegetable and maybe dessert. Utilize a prepared food for at least one course — ice cream or frozen yogurt for dessert. A supply of staple foods such as tuna, canned soup, frozen vegetables, pasta, rice and pancake mix takes care of the inevitable emergency meal.

Organize your cabinets and drawers. You'll be amazed at how this speeds up actual food preparation. And, everyone who helps in the kitchen can take advantage of timesaving appliances. The blender, for example, does more than just make milkshakes. It can grate cheese, make bread crumbs, puree fruits and vegetables and blend soups and sauces. The old-fashioned pressure cooker currently enjoying renewed popularity cooks less tender cuts of meat in one-third the time.

CONVENIENCE FOOD products are time-savers, too. And if convenience products are selected carefully, they won't dent the food budget. Quick cooking rice instead of regular, bottled lemon juice instead of fresh, packaged seasoning mixes instead of individual spices, and pancake mix instead of a scratch recipe can save considerable time and effort for little or no extra cost.

Take pancake mix for example. Because original pancake mix already contains flour and leavening, a variety of breakfast foods, main dishes, even desserts are just minutes away. And most are simple enough for a beginning cook.

To prepare the crepes needed for Spring Asparagus Roll-Ups, all you need to add are eggs, milk and vegetable oil. The batter bakes up into thin, delicate pancakes which can be prepared months in advance and frozen. The delectable filling pairs now affordable fresh asparagus with cooked ham (Ham "planned over" from another meal is an economical idea). Canned soup thinned with a little milk makes the rich and creamy cheese sauce extra easy. While the roll-ups bake, there's plenty of time to toss a salad and fix a fresh fruit cup for dessert.

SPRING ASPARAGUS ROLL-UPS
1 cup milk
1/4 cup pancake and waffle mix
3 eggs
2 tsp. vegetable oil
24 spears fresh asparagus, partially cooked looks dry. Turn, cook about 20 seconds. Stack between sheets of wax paper.

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly grease 13 x 9-inch glass baking dish. Place 2 asparagus spears and 1 slice ham on each crepe; roll up. Place in prepared baking dish. Combine soup, cheese and milk; pour over crepes. Cover with foil; bake 25 to 30 minutes or until heated through. 6 servings.

Note: Crepes can be made ahead and frozen up to 2 to 3 months. Stack cooled crepes with sheet of wax paper between each crepe. Wrap securely in foil, freeze. Thaw overnight in refrigerator.

Brown ground beef, drain. Add tomato sauce, water and seasoning mix; simmer 10 to 15 minutes or until slightly thickened.

Heat griddle over high heat (400 degrees electric griddle), grease lightly. Combine pancake mix, milk, egg and oil; mix just until large lumps disappear. (Batter will have small lumps which will disappear during baking.) Let batter stand 1 to 2 minutes to thicken. Pour 1/4 cup batter for each of 4 pancakes onto prepared griddle. Turn pancakes when tops are covered with bubbles and edges look cooked. Turn only once.

Don't throw the rice at a wedding, give it with an appliance as gift

Fashions in wedding gifts change just as clothing fashions do. One category of gifts the bride is finding more often in those silver and white wrapped packages is the small appliances. Each of these appliances makes daily living easier for the busy new homemaker. But there is one problem — the tendency to use each appliance for only one or two tasks.

Take the toaster oven for example. It does toast and melt cheese sandwiches superbly. But for the newly married couple, that compact little appliance can also cook a meal for two, such as this recipe for Cumberland Lamb Chops and Rice, a two-serving recipe perfect for the bride and groom.

Rice is a must in the bride's pantry. Because it is so inexpensive, less than four cents per half-cup serving, it can be included on even the strictest budget. In addition, a half-cup serving of rice contains only 82 calories. In fact, why not include a box of rice with each small appliance given as a gift?

CUMBERLAND LAMB CHOPS AND RICE
2 loin or rib lamb chops, 1-inch thick (about 1 lb.)
Salt
Ground black pepper
1/4 cup chutney
1/2 tsp. lemon juice
1/2 tsp. prepared brown mustard
1/4 tsp. horseradish
1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper
1 cup hot cooked rice

Sprinkle chops with salt and pepper. Combine chutney, lemon juice, mustard, and horseradish. Preheat broiler of toaster oven. Broil chops 4 inches from heat, about 8 minutes per side. After broiling first side, turn over and spoon 1 tablespoon chutney mixture on each chop. Broil chops until done. Mix remaining chutney mixture and green pepper into rice. Heat through. Serve chops with beds of fluffy rice mixture. Makes 2 servings.

Rice salads are popular these days and a food processor makes the preparation of this recipe a snap. Just about any meat, seafood, vegetable or fruit can be chopped or shredded in the processor, then tossed with rice, seasoned and mixed with a dressing for a quick meal.

SPEEDY SALMON RICE SALAD
3 cups cooked rice, cooled
1/4 small onion, cut in half
2 medium sweet pickles, cut in half
1 medium carrot
2 ribs celery
1/4 cup mayonnaise
2 tsp. sweet pickle juice
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 can (15 1/2 oz.) salmon, drained

Spoon rice into large mixing bowl. Insert steel cutting blade into food processor container. Add onion and pickles; process until finely chopped. Add to rice. Replace cutting blade with shredding disc; process carrot. Replace shredding disc with slicing disc; process celery. Add carrots and celery to rice mixture. Blend mayonnaise, pickle juice, and seasonings; toss with rice mixture. Place salmon in center of serving dish; surround with rice salad.

Hyperactivity — myths still persist

By Richard Lech staff writer

"That kid is hyperactive. You've been feeding him too much candy."

Mothers of active — and sometimes overactive — children are always hearing that line. But how much truth does it contain?

Not much, according to the health and medical professionals who spoke at a recent hyperactivity seminar sponsored by Out-Wayne County Head Start.

They said hyperactivity is not as prevalent as common wisdom might suggest. And blaming sugar for hyperactivity is comparable to blaming a Detroit Tiger losing streak on the hot dogs the fans consume.

"This (hyperactivity) seems to be a term that is frequently misunderstood and sometimes used incorrectly. When this happens the result sometimes is needless confusion for the child."

"This (hyperactivity) seems to be a term that is frequently misunderstood and sometimes used incorrectly. When this happens the result sometimes is needless confusion for the child."

— Dorothy Vaughan Head Start nutritionist

Attention spans increase with the age of the child, ranging from 10 minutes for a normal 2-year-old to a half-hour for a 5-year-old.

Parents often assume their child is hyperactive based on what a relative says or after listening to an "expert" on television, Vaughan said. But hyperactivity is a medical diagnosis and has to be made by a medical professional, according to Dr. John Board, chief of child development services at Wayne County General Hospital.

"One thing I hear often is that sugar is the culprit for sending my kid up the wall," Carr said. "I really question whether a child can use that diet for an extended period of time and still meet the nutritional needs of a growing child."

She said the diet is costly, since parents end up having to prepare all their own food. And there is some question about whether it actually works. Most tests have been inconclusive, and tests that have shown hyperactive children improving under the diet seemingly have been done without proper scientific controls, Carr said.

But Pat Butowick of Livonia, editor of the Feingold Association of Michigan, Inc. newsletter, said the cost figure for Feingold diet Carr gave — $300 — was far too high.

"I would say your food costs would go up slightly, depending upon how much you want to rely on convenience foods," said Butowick, "whose entire family is on the diet. You end up doing a little more cooking from scratch."

BUTOWICK also noted that the diet does not totally ban foods containing natural salicylates. Those foods are reintroduced, one at a time, four to six weeks after the child starts the diet. The parent watches the child's reaction closely and decides whether that particular food can be reintroduced permanently.

Butowick said researchers "haven't come up with anything clear cut on a large scale" that proves conclusively that the diet is effective. But she said parents have reported marked improvements, ranging from gradual to spectacular, in their hyperactive children after they were switched to the diet.

"There are some dramatic stories," Butowick said. "One child simply wouldn't sleep. The child barely slept an hour a night. The parents went to 15 pediatricians. They tried the diet as last-ditch thing. Within five days, the child was sleeping six hours a night. And the child kept on improving greatly from there on."

"Many fruits are missing," Carr said. "I really question whether a child can use that diet for an extended period of time and still meet the nutritional needs of a growing child."

Tamales from scratch are great if you like work

When one of my wife's sisters flew in from Texas for a visit, she brought two bags of masa in her suitcase. "We're going to make tamales," Linda said. "What do you mean, WE?" I asked. "You don't make them that often when we come to Texas. It's too much like work."

Cook carrots, potatoes in golden soup; serve hot or cold

A golden soup that's served hot or chilled is made with carrots blended with potatoes, chicken broth, seasonings and half and half cream.

One of the pleasures of growing up is knowing that carrots are good for us and enjoying eating them anyway.

Here, carrots come into their own co-starring with potatoes in a creamy golden soup. Loaded with vitamin A and potassium, they're a nutritional plus for meals. These days there are so many interesting ways of using carrots. Grated or sliced with other ingredients in salads, cooked and spiced in a variety of pretty side dishes, as a naturally sweet flavorer in soups and stews.

In our photo recipe the carrots are cooked with potatoes till tender, then blended with chicken broth and pureed in the blender. White pepper, allspice and lemon peel create the seasonings, whisked along with half and half. The soup teases the appetite as a first course, or becomes a main dish with cooked chicken chunks or hardcooked eggs added. It's also lovely served cold.

Glazed Carrots are a natural complement to chicken, pork or ham. The sunny seasonings are honey, lemon peel, ginger and garlic.

1/4 cup chopped onion

Area squad earns pro raves

By Brad Emons
staff writer

IT WAS A Camelot-type of season for Emil Majeski and his Redford Thurston baseball team.

When the state tournament began, Majeski's Eagles were nowhere to be found in the Observerland rankings. They had a 10-9-1 record although they had gained a share of the Northwest Suburban League (NSL) crown with Garden City.

Redford Catholic Central, Livonia Churchill, Garden City, Plymouth Canton and Livonia Stevenson were all ahead of Thurston.

But underdog Thurston saved the best for last, winning seven consecutive tournament games and beating four state-ranked teams in the process en route to the Class B championship, the first state crown in the school's 28-year history.

Majeski, a veteran of 19 seasons, is to be saluted for the job he did this season — thus, he is the 1984 Observerland Coach of the Year.

NOT TO be overlooked were the efforts of Garden City coach Bob Dropp, whose team posted a 19-7 record with an inexperienced lineup, or Churchill coach Herb Osterland, whose team claimed a share of the tough Western Lakes Conference crown with Northville and beat Class A state champion Walled Lake Western twice.

Thurston and Catholic Central landed two players on the All-Observer first team: Garden City and Churchill had one each.

This year's team is talented and versatile. The team is led by Redford St. Agatha pitcher Andy Robertson, who unfortunately couldn't make our color photo session because he had to report to Batavia of the New York-Penn League.

This team can pitch. They can hit, throw and field, too.

Area coaches gathered recently to select the top players. Here are the results.

FIRST TEAM PITCHERS

Andy Robertson, Redford St. Agatha:

What a season for Robertson, who was drafted in the sixth round by the Cleveland Indians and signed a pro contract immediately.

(Canton), Tim DeMarco (Thurston), Mike Cindrich (Salem), Bob Foust (Churchill), and Brian Porter (Stevenson).

Michigan coach Bud Middaugh said the hard-throwing righthander, clocked at 88 mph, had "the best arm in the state."

This season, Robertson went a deceiving 11-4, but he had a pair of no-hitters and three one-hitters. He struck out 199 batters in 104 innings and sported an ERA of 0.67. He also batted .360 and hit three homers as the Aggies posted a 20-10 record.

Careerwise, Robertson was 31-9 with five no-hitters. He was an All-Catholic pick three times.

John Nissen, Catholic Central: The hard-throwing senior righthander posted a 10-2 record with a 1.52 ERA this season.

Nissen struck out 102 batters in 73 1/3 innings pitched this season. He gave up only 35 walks.

The three-year varsity performer was 18-4 and was "an excellent strikeout pitcher with a good curve ball to compliment his fastball," according to CC coach John Salter.

CATCHER

Bob Rousseau, Redford Thurston: Last year Rousseau made second team and this year he became the area's top catcher, batting .383 (prior to the state semifinals) with 31 hits and 20 RBI.

The 5-foot-10, 150-pound receiver captained the Eagles and possessed a strong arm.

He was an All-NSL and All-Region (Class B) choice this year.

"Bob's a great team player with an excellent arm," said the Thurston coach.

INFELDERS

Mark Bennett, Plymouth Canton: The senior was a versatile performer for the always-potent Chiefs.

He grabbed the first base slot with a .371 average with 23 hits and 20 RBI. He led the team in runs scored (25) and home runs (5).

When he wasn't playing first, Bennett pitched and compiled a 7-5 record with four saves.

Coach Fred Crissey said Bennett was "Canton's clutch player for '84."

"Mark's a fine competitor and fielder," said the Canton coach.

Paul Krol, Garden City: The senior

All-Stars put on 'Classic' show

By Jim Hughes
staff writer

It's called a classic — the Observer & Eccentric Girls High School Soccer Classic to be exact. But now, with good reason.

The 336 soccer fans who gathered at Livonia Stevenson Friday were treated to a thrilling game, which featured some of the top high school players in the state. The final 5-2 score went in favor of the Observer team, but it was closer than some may have expected.

In last year's inaugural event, the Observer team posted a 7-1 victory, and the Eccentric squad wanted nothing more than to redeem itself. That they did.

Down, 3-0, with about 13 minutes to play in the game, the Eccentric scored back-to-back goals from Troy's Carol Grenn and Birmingham Seaholm's Katy Andreae, to turn a would-be rout into a barn-burner.

"I think the girls may have let up a bit," said Stevenson coach Norene Divens, who directed the Observer squad. "There was an injury which stopped play for about 3-4 minutes, and we relaxed a bit. That stoppage of play can stop the momentum of a team."

QUICKLY, THE momentum shifted in the Eccentric's favor. The Observer lead, built on goals from Stevenson's Mary Kay Hussey, Plymouth Canton's Lisa Russell and Livonia Churchill's

Jennifer Flowers, diminished in a short span.

Grenn — who played most of the game as sweeper but was shifted to center-forward late in the game — had a scoring chance, but was tripped by goalie Betsy Eads of Farmington Hills Our Lady of Mercy. Grenn, on a penalty kick, blasted the ball to the upper left corner to cut the gap to 3-1.

Andreae made it a one-goal game when she headed in a pass from Birmingham Marian's Shannon Besette, and there was a scent of an upset brewing.

However, killer instinct from Mercy's Annette Ruggiero took care of the outcome. Ruggiero, voted the game's Most Valuable Player, assisted on Flowers' second goal of the game, and added an insurance marker with less than a minute to play.

"She certainly deserved the MVP award," Divens said. "She's an excellent ball-handler and a very hard player. She has good soccer sense. She stands out wherever she plays."

RUGGIERO'S PLAY stole a little of the thunder from the Eccentric's valiant comeback, but it couldn't totally overshadow the effort.

"These players weren't going to give up in that situation," said Marian coach Terry Dilworth, who ran the show for the Eccentric. "They're just too experienced for that. I thought if we could tie it up, whoever would score the next goal would have it."

"They (Observer) just had too much energy at the end. That last push took everything out of us."

Although Ruggiero was brilliant from start to finish, picking an MVP is difficult. As expected when the state's best gather on one field, it was coast-to-coast stars.

The Observer had Hussey, last year's MVP. She excited the crowd every time the ball touched her MVP (most valuable foot). Stevenson's Cheryl Galindo was a stalwart on defense, Stevenson goalie Doreen Beagle shut out the Eccentric during her stay in goal, and Flowers led the offense with her two-goal performance.

Had the victory gone to the Eccentric, Grenn no doubt would be toting the MVP award. Her role as sweeper kept the Observer from racking up more goals, and when she moved to forward, the attack was fierce.

"I've seen her play before, but to have her on your team, well, it was fantastic," Dilworth said. "She was incredible. She was all over the field. If she played one position, I didn't notice it. She was all over the place."

"I've never seen an effort like that. She played outstanding is what she did."

Another Eccentric standout was goalie Sue Lormin of Athens, who came out of the net several times to close off Observer threats.

HUSSEY OPENED the game's scoring early in the first half when she scored on an unassisted goal. Her shot was right on center and through the outstretched hands of Lormin.

To that point, the play was controlled by the Observer team.

The momentum shifted in favor of the Eccentric when Troy's Liz Suttie took a shot, which was handled by Beagle. Shortly thereafter, Troy's Joanna Marquardt rifled a shot which looked like it would find the range, but Beagle leaped and snared the ball from flight.

The most dangerous threat came when Marquardt busted loose and was tripped. Andreae took the penalty kick, and her blistering shot hit the inside of the right post, and bounced to the left side of the field before Athens' Lori Nicley overshot the goal.

The 1-0 score stood at the half.

Russell made it a 2-0 game when she fired a shot from 25 yards, which Lormin couldn't control, and the ball trickled across the goal line. Flowers' first goal, which gave the Observer a 3-0 lead, was the result of some nifty teamwork. Churchill's Dorene Dudek passed to Ruggiero, who in turn fed Flowers with a short cross-field pass.

The pre-game buildup drew an analogy with Rocky I, where Rocky Balboa (Eccentric) just looked for a chance against title-holder Apollo Creed (Observer). It was every bit as close as the movie matchup.

"We knew it was going to be a tougher game (than last year's)," Divens said. "We knew a lot of their players because we play against them in the off-season. We knew it would be a tight game."

In boxing terms, it was a unanimous decision, but the scoring was close on every card.

Game MVP Annette Ruggiero of Mercy uses some nifty footwork to get past Marian's Debbie Wojtaszek in Friday's all-star soccer matchup.

but their backgrounds are no less impressive.
Among the college players represented are Mike Donnelly, Rick Fernandez, Dave Chiappelli and Jeff Easley of Michigan State; Mike Neff, Jim McCaulley, Paul Kobylarz, Greg Hodas, Tom Dolan and Steve Norton of the University of Michigan; Tom Viggiano of Kent State; and Frank Damico, Judd Green and Dennis Garbarz of Ferris State.

"The main goal of the program is to promote college hockey," said Isell. That, and college scholarships for the talented juniors and prep stars in the league.

Some local kids who will be hoping to attract the college scouts in attendance at the games will be Keith Walk of Livonia (Churchill), John Smith of the Plymouth Royals, John Moore of the Livonia Knights, Phil Bryant of Livonia (Stevenson), Matt Wilhnen of Livonia (Churchill), Craig Easley of the Plymouth Royals, Dan Phelps of Livonia (Churchill), Todd Beyer of the Plymouth Royals, Dave Lerg of the Redford Royals, Eric Socia of Catholic Central and Bill Trach of the Redford Royals.

The cost for the summer session per player is $75, "which is not quite break even," according to Isell. The difference is made up by selling advertising in programs and holding 50-50 raffles.

The league has strict rules against rowdy play. Players are disqualified from the league for fighting, spearing and butt-ending, and they are given five-minute penalties instead of the normal two minutes for such offenses as roughing, high sticking, slashing, charging and boarding.

Games are 90 minutes of stop-action time.
Editor's note: The Observer-News-Presser would like to publish the results of MSHL games. Coaches should phone in their results Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights. The following phone numbers should be used before 5:30 p.m.: call 591-2300. After 5:30 call 591-2312.

ANOTHER MAJOR success from last year involved most of the Ann Arbor Pioneer High School team. Twelve of them played in the summer league last year, and Pioneer later went on to win the state Class A championship.

Cindrich gets All-Area nod

Also a center fielder and three-year starter, Cindrich batted 470 this season with 31 hits, two homers and 17 RBI. He led the Rocks in seven offensive categories.

Was the team's MVP and was first team All-Western Lakes and All-State.

"Mike has a major college bat and major college speed," said Salem coach John Gravin. "He struck out only three times."

Cindrich is considering Central Michigan or U-D, according to Gravin.

Tim Michalik, Catholic Central: The senior right fielder improved his batting average (.377) by 100 points between his junior and senior year. He was second on the team in RBI with 22 and collected 43 hits, seven of which were doubles.

Brian Porter, Livonia Stevenson: Porter was Stevenson's top pitcher, but he could also hit.

The senior, who also played shortstop and third, batted .369 with 24 hits in 65 at-bats. His pitching record was 6-2 with a 1.36 ERA and 48 strikeouts in 39 innings pitched.

"Brian played every inning of every game," said Stevenson coach Jim George. "He's a very coachable young man. Brian was a great person and athlete for our underclassmen to emulate."

Porter, hurt all of last season, has accepted a baseball scholarship to Eastern Michigan.

OUTFIELDERS
Tim DeMarco, Redford Thurston: The 6-foot, 210-pound DeMarco was Thurston's power source.

Batting left-handed, the senior center fielder posted a .377 average with 29 hits, 24 RBI and five homers. He also scored 17 runs and collected eight other extra base hits.

Size wasn't a problem for DeMarco defensively. He covered his position in a Dave Winfield-like manner en route to All-NSL honors.

"Tim had great power and excellent speed for a big man," said Masjki of the two-year starter.

Mike Cindrich, Plymouth Salem: Like Krol, Cindrich is making his second straight appearance on the first team.

SECOND TEAM
Pitchers: Greg Somerville, Redford Thurston, Mike Roffi, Garden City. Catcher: Scott Anderson, Plymouth Salem.

First base: Mike Harte, Redford Union. Infielders: Don Taylor, Redford Union; Cass Simpson, Westland John Glenn; Kevin Ditz, Redford Bishop Borgess.

Outfielders: Jim Dillon, Plymouth (Canton); Bob Wasczenski, Farmington Harrison; Dave DeMay, Livonia Franklin.

HONORABLE MENTION

Catholic Central: John Rogers, Dan Michalek, Chris Parsons, Rich Muller, John Connor and Tim Moran.

DON'T DIE OF EMBARRASSMENT.

It starts quite innocently... you convince yourself the symptoms aren't serious. So if you sought medical help you'd just look foolish. And later it's too late.

Each year 350,000 Americans die from heart attacks before reaching the hospital. Often after a deadly, unnecessary delay. In fact, the average victim waits over three hours before consulting a doctor. Because he doesn't realize what his symptoms mean. And he doesn't want to seem silly.

Please, learn the warning signals of a heart attack. And, if you experience any of them, get help. Call a paramedic at once. Or, if you can get to an emergency room faster another way, do so. Without a second thought.

After all, saving face means nothing compared to saving your life.

WARNING SIGNALS OF A HEART ATTACK

- An uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of your chest behind the breastbone.
- The sensation may spread to your shoulders, neck or arms. If it lasts for two minutes or more, you could be having a heart attack.
- Severe pain, dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea or shortness of breath may also occur, but are not always present.
