A DEAD DOG on usway sent a resident there on a wild goose chase. It started when he called the township to ask who could remove the dead dog from his street. He was referred to the police department, the Wayne County Road Commission, and the Wayne County Health Department and still was without an answer.

After the Observer informed Canton Supervisor James Poole about the situation, he asked police to make a special trip to pick up the dog.

"They told me people get angry when they pick up dogs and throw them in the garbage,"

Poole said.
"I told them, 'If anyone complains, have them call me and I'll tell them to pick up the dog and they can bury it if they like. I'll get the candles.'"

Canton was awarded $30,000 in block grant money for housing rehabilitation last week.

That amount is half of what the township asked for, according to Terry Carroll, grant coordinator.

Everybody got less than they wanted," said Terrence Jarvis, Wayne County coordinator for the Community Development Block Grant Program.

Going it alone for federal aid

Terry Carroll, the township's grant coordinator, thinks Canton should apply differently for its federal funding.

He will recommend to the township board tomorrow night that Canton take on "metro city" status and apply on their own for federal revenues.

This could significantly increase the amount of grant money Canton receives in the future

"I was told that if we had applied on our own this year we would have received $323,000. Instead we got $120,000," Carroll said. The fact that Canton's population is now more 50,000 (it's above 58,000) gives the township new autonomy when it comes to applying for federal funds. In the past Canton was forced to apply for federal dollars through Wayne County because it had less than 50,000 There are 32 communities like us that send our applications to Wayne County . They combine them into a single request for federal funds," explained Carroll. That saves us a lot of paper work;

For example Canton was recently awarded $30,000 for housing rehabilita tion. It had requested $57,750

Wayne County had a total of $2.4 million in block grant requests and received only $1 million to be divided up among 22 communities.

Communities that have over 50,000 have a choice in how they apply for federal funds.

They can apply on their own, or stay with the county, said Carroll. "We'd like to apply on our own but continue to have Wayne County do the paper work. They would receive five percent of our grant money for doing the paper work," Carroll said. Terrence Jarvis, county coordinator for the Community Development Block Grant Program, says the paper work involved in grant applications can be a burden to communities. "I think the decision of how to apply rests with the township board but the fact that we can do the paper work is a bonus we can offer," Jarvis said.

"For big cities it really makes sens to apply on your own. Take Detroit for example. It gets $60 million in federal revenue applying on its own. We get $6

Ford plant uses vacuum-brazing to build radiators

By Gary M. Cates staff writer

Radiator manufacturing facilities have been opened at the Ford-Sheldon Plant in Plymouth Township

Introduction of the new manufactur ing line was made possible, in part, by reducing inventory at the plant - thus providing space for the radiator operations, said Ed Hagenlocker, climatecontrol division general manager.

Unlike other radiator-manufacturing facilities, the Sheldon plant produces aluminum radiators. Until recently, most radiator plants produced brass and copper units. "With the installation of this new facility, Climate Control Division has become one of the world's largest manufacturers of aluminum heat exchangers," said Hagenlocker.

Introducing Manufacturers' new Flexible Term Loan.

Manufacturers Bank has another new idea that can save you money. We call it the Flexible ferm Loan. Flexible, because your interest rate is adjusted quarterly and is tied to an index based on the average yield on 6-month Treasury Bills. With a Manufacturers Flexible Term Loan, the length of the loan may change. but the payments will remain the same. That means you will have the advantage of easy budgeting. You'll have the advantage of saving money, too. You can save on interest if you pay your loan off early, because the faster you pay, the less interest you pay. And if interest rates go down, you can save even more. So a Manufacturers Flexible Term Loan can cost you considerably less than a conventional fixed rate loan. And. after all, helping people save for their dreams has been one of our . ideals for over 50 years.

So whether you need an auto. boat. RV, or personal loan, stop by your nearest Manufacturers Bank office today and ask about our new Flexible Term Loans. We think they're another reason why you'll say. "Manufacturers. That's

Congress ups ceiling on debt to $1.57 trillion

gress were recorded on major roll call votes in the days before the current House and Senate recess HOUSE

DEBT - By a vote of 208 for and 202 against, the House passed a bill (HR 5953) raising the government's legal borrowing limit by $53 billion, to $1,573 billion or $1.57 trillion. The new ceiling will hold through August. The Senate also approved the measure, but refused to hold a record vote on the politically embarrassing issue.

Debate revealed that interest on the national debt will cost taxpayers $164.5 billion next fiscal year, and that the agency that manages the debt has 2,500 employees and an annual budget of Supporter Ed Jenkins, D-Ga., said. If we want to cut down federal spending we should do that before the debts are incurred.

Opponent George Miller, D-Calif., called it "obligatory" to reject the bill "if the House is going to stand up for reducing our outrageous national defi-

The vote occurred during debate on HR 5798, later sent to the Senate. On a separate vote, the House cut the $1.17 million figure by $147,000.

Andrew Jacobs, D-Ind., noted that former presidents can parlay their governmental experience into huge lecture, book and corporate fees. 'If you are making $1 million a year, you ought to at least be able to pay your secretary . . . your office rent,"

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET Thle House approved, 253 for and 157 against, the conference report on a bill (HR 5753) appropriating $1.55 billion to run the House, Senate and congressional agencies in fiscal 1985.

Conspicuously missing was a 2-percent, across-the-board cut the House had inflicted the first time it considered the bill. This was knocked out by the Senate (below) and replaced by lesser cuts. The bill increases House and Senate spending for salaries, travel, perks and other congressional exSince 1970, Congress has quadrupled spending on itself Supporter Jerry Lewis, R-Calif., said the House should refrain from "selfflagellation" over a bill that represents only a tiny fraction of total federal spending.

Opponent Bill Frenzel, R-Minn., said defenders were using a "somewhat deceptive" arithmetic in justifying the bill as fiscally responsible. Members voting yes favored a $1.55-

DRINKING - By a vote of 81 for and 16 against, the Senate approved legislation that pressures states to raise their minimum drinking age to 21 years. States not complying by 1987 stand to lose 5 per cent of their federal highway money in fiscal 1987 and 10 percent in fiscal 1988.

The provision was attached to HR 4616, which was headed for the White House and President Reagan's signa ture. The bill also provides financial inmandatory sentencing of drunk driv-

County board mulls creation of citizens health-care force

An ordinance proposing a citizen's task force for monitoring health care in Wayne County is being studied by the county commission.

The ordinance was devised to assure adequate and dignified medical treatment for the indigent, in conjunction with the proposed lease-sale between the county General Hospital and Southwest General

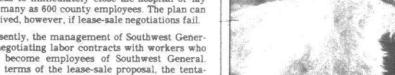

The ordinance was referred to the commissions' Human Resources and General Government Committees. Also, the commission overrode a veto of Executive William Lucas and approved an expenditure up to $50,000 for auditing Wayne County General in preparation for a change of administration that would keep the facility open.

The commission also put aside a separate en-terprise plan which was its defens against threats by Lucas to immediately close the hospital or lay off as many as 600 county employees. The plan can be revived, however, if lease-sale negotiations fail.

Presently, the management of Southwest General is negotiating labor contracts with workers who would become employees of Southwest General. Under terms of the lease-sale proposal, the tenta-tive agreement is void if labor concensus is not reached by Aug. 15.

It's backyard barbecue time, USA. Stroll down streets all across the land and you are likely to detect the tantalizing aromas of food sizzling on an outdoor grill.

It might be just a family supper. Or neighbors gathered to share a relaxed meal and good old-fashioned fun. Or a larger party for a group of friends.

Barbecues are synonymous with summer cooking and are an economical, enjoyable way to entertain. It is estimated that over 1 billion individual cookouts will take place during this year's warm weather season-in about 79 percent of all family households!

Nothing tastes better cooked on the grill than chicken. A whole bird...halves or quarters...favorite parts...or chunks of tender chicken on skewers...chicken is the outdoor chef's choice for a variety of meals cooked in the open.

No backyard barbecue is complete without pitchers filled with deliciously refreshing iced tea. It's summer's leading thirstquencher...low in calories and costing only pennies a serving. No trouble to prepare, either.

General Barbecuing Tips

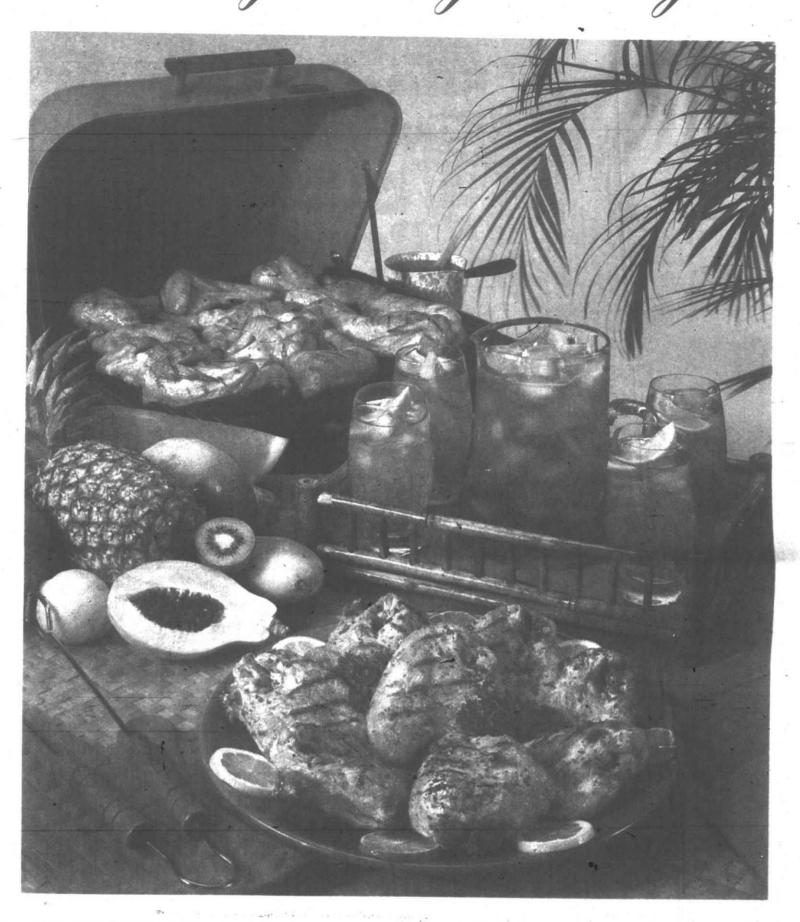

Anyone can become an outdoor chef. Master a few basic techniques and you will soon be an expert when presiding over the

- · If cooking with a charcoal grill, be sure to wait until coals are covered with a light gray ash before cooking.
- · Always preheat your gas grill before cooking
- · For safety's sake, be sure to use long wooden handled tongs and other utensils that won't conduct heat.
- When cooking for a crowd, use wire accessories like baskets, corn and tater racks, and rib racks to maximize grid
- Spray grill with non-stick cooking spray to prevent foods from sticking.
- · Prevent flare-ups by using an indirect cooking method (with drip pan); using a covered grill; or spread outer lettuce leaves over hot coals.
- And finally, to ensure the most comfortable environment for eating, try one of the new electronic pest-control units.

Hints for Grilling Chicken

Grilling chicken should be a leisurely process to be savored, never hurried. Here are a few tips to ensure success

- · Place chicken on grill skin side up with smaller pieces such as drumsticks, wings and thighs near the edges.
- · Adjust rack about 6 inches above the coals.
- Turn chicken often during cooking to ensure even browning. Cooking with the cover down also helps promote even color. Handle chicken with tongs to avoid loss of juices.
- Apply sauce during last 30 minutes of cooking, turning chicken frequently and applying sauce liberally after each turning
- . To retain moisture, do not salt chicken until after cooking is complete.
- There is no such thing as "rare" or "medium rare" chicken; be sure it is welldone. Near end of cooking time, pierce with fork. Chicken is ready to serve when fork can be inserted with ease.

LIGHT LEMON-LIME BARBECUED CHICKEN

8 broiler-fryer chicken breast halves

1/2 teaspoon freshly ground

peppercorns 1/2 cup lemon juice

1/2 cup lime juice

Makes 8 servings

2 tablespoons grated onion teaspoon marjoram

teaspoon chopped parsley

1/2 teaspoon thyme leaves 1/4 teaspoon dry mint flakes

In large shallow glass baking dish, place chicken in single layer. Sprinkle with pepper. In small bowl, mix together lemon and lime juices, onion, marjoram, parsley, thyme and mint flakes; pour over chicken breasts. Cover and marinate in refrigerator for at least 2 hours, turning frequently. Because there is no oil in marinade, brush grill with vegetable oil. Place chicken on grill, skin side up, about 6 inches from medium-hot coals. Cook, turning and basting with marinade every 15 minutes, for about 1 hour 15 minutes or until fork can be inserted in chicken with ease.

CRISPY CHICKEN VINAIGRETTE FOR A CROWD

- * 16 broiler-fryer chicken quarters 2-1/2 cups cider vinegar
- 1/2 cup red burgundy wine 3 teaspoons lemon and pepper seasoning
- 1-1/2 teaspoons garlic salt
- 3/4 teaspoon tarragon leaves 2 tablespoons olive oil

In saucepan, mix together vinegar, wine, lemon and pepper seasoning, garlic salt and tarragon. Bring to a boil and remove from heat. In large shallow glass baking dish, arrange chicken in single layer. Pour sauce over chicken; cover and marinate in refrigerator at least 2 hours, turning frequently. Reserve marinade; place chicken on grill, skin side up, about 6 inches from medium-hot coals. Cook, turning about every 10 minutes to brown evenly, for about 1 hour 15 minutes. Add olive oil to reserved marinade, place in saucepan, bring to a boil and baste chicken during last 15 minutes of grilling. Chicken is done when fork can be inserted with

SUMMER'S FAVORITE COOLER

Whether you use loose tea, teabags, instant powdered tea or the new flavored teabags it's easy to make iced tea by the pitcherful or even by the gallon jug. Just remember when pre-paring tea to be served_iced-to make it extra strong—using 50 percent more tea than usual to allow for melting ice. Also remember to start with a good quality tea to ensure the most. flavorful, most refreshing of drinks.

ICED TEA BY THE PITCHERFUL

Using boiling water and loose tea or teabags: Bring 1 quart of freshly drawn cold water to a full rolling boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat and immediately add 1/3 measuring cup of loose tea or 15 teabags. Stir again and strain into a pitcher holding another quart of cold water. Serve over ice. Makes 2 quarts.

Using cold water and teabags: Fill a quart pitcher or container with cold tap water. Add 8 to 10 teabags (remove tags) Cover. Let stand in the refrigerator at least 6 hours or overnight Remove teabags, squeezing against side of container. Pour into ice-filled glasses. Makes 1 quart. Recipe may be doubled.

Using instant tea or iced tea mix: Follow directions on jar or envelope. In general, allow 2 rounded tablespoons of instant tea powder to each quart of cold water. Stir. Add ice. If using lemon-flavored iced tea mix, use 2 small envelopes or 1/2 cup mix to each quart of cold water.

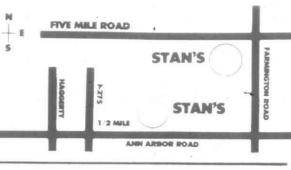

ICED TEA FOR A CROWD

Here's an easy way to make a gallon of iced tea: Bring 1 quart of cold water to a full boil. Pour over 2/3 cups of loose tea; cover and let stand 5 minutes. Stir and strain into 3 quarts of cold water in a gallon-sized container. When ready to serve pour into ice-filled glasses.

An even easier method, use 1/2 measuring cup instant tea mixed with 4 quarts of cold water. Stir to dissolve; add ice.

Join July's best in an elegant flan dish. In July, which is the month when both blueberries and peaches are at the peak of their seasons, make a Blueberry/Peach Flan. It's not difficult at all to make this famous dessert, and with the proper recipe it will look and taste blue and golden opportunity when you like something out of the most famous of French or Spanish restaurants.

All a flan is, really, is an open pie filled with custard and fruit. In this flan the blueberries are underneath the custard in the pastry shell and the peaches, in the form of puree, are in the custard itself. Then, of course comes the dramatic design of blueber ries and peaches on top. Everyone can be his or her own creative artist at that point, arranging the blueberries and peaches to his own personal satisfac-

If you wonder why a flan is so cele-brated, beyond its obvious good looks and fantastic taste, it's necessary to go back a long time. The root of the word is flado, from Old High German meaning a sacrificial cake. And a lot of people today would make sacrifices, in cluding their diets, to partake of such a communicating with her friend and hostess, Alice Shobe, 17 of Plymouth, Mich.

Teen-agers' friendship spans ocean

After seven years of English language study, Ekstrom rarely has to hesitate for the right word. Between them, the teen-agers talk up a storm.

They are having a wonderful time. They went to Baltimore for a five-day visit with Shobe's brother.

Side trips included a day in Washington, D.C., and a day in Ocean City, Md., where they walked the boardwalk and jet skied. They also enjoyed the shops in downtown Baltimore.

"I took a photograph of a submarine, which I will take home. After all the talk about Russian submarines in Sweden, they will be able to see what one looks like. It was an old World War II submarine," Ekstrom said. They will travel by train this week to visit Shobe's sister in Chicago and expect to spend some time at the beach. Later, they plan a train trip to Toronto with some of SHOBE WAS IN Sweden last summer for six weeks. "I chose Sweden because I had been there the year before for 10 days with my brother's hockey team. I had heard that the country was beautiful in summer, and that I should defi nitely return to see it," Shobe said.

Her travel arrangements were sponsored by the Interna-tional Lions Clubs through a summer exchange program. "I was matched up with the Ekstroms in Falun. It was amazing all the things they had in common with my family.

"Although Lolla is one year younger than I, we found we had a common interest in things like music and sports as well as the most important thing, a willingness to try new things and do as many things as we could physically stand. "I had a fantastic summer. We wrote to each other about twice a month and when Lolla arrived, it took about 10 minutes for us to begin just where we left off last summer.'

LARS EKSTROM, Lolla's father, is public relations man for Sweden's professional hockey team. He will be in the United States and Canada in late August with the team for the Canada Cup competition.

He also manages a soccer team. Shobe said she decided she would never attempt to play soccer in Sweden after she attended matches with the Ekstroms. "Even the little kids were so good." Soccer is Shobe's game. She was a member of the girls team rated 10th in the state. She referees soccer and coached a boy's team. "Soccer and hockey are our big sports - and skiing," Ekstrom said. "We are trying to get the 1992 Winter Olympics at Falun. We already have all the ski runs." She was introduced to America's big sport at a double-

"WE SAT IN the bleachers with the great fans and the beach balls and the wave," Ekstrom said. They lasted brough a three-hour first game that the Tigers lost and half-way through the second game, which the Tigers won

"I sat there looking at all those people and thought, here are almost as many people as the whole population of Falun." She said there are 60,000 residents in the industrial city of Falun. It is surrounded by mountains, lakes and streams. The Ekstroms live on an island in a lake. The island has two bridges to the mainland.

Her immediate response to the question, "What do you think of Michigan?" was: "It's flat." She said she was unused to looking so far to the horizon. Acid rain has killed one of their nearby lakes - pollution from factories on the continent, she said. Another lake is brown, probably from iron in the water.

APPLES, pears and peaches grow in nearby orchards, and there are many raspberry bushes.

They pick wild lingonberries on the hillsides and gather Ekstrom and Shobe describes the difference in eating habits of their countries. "When I was over there, it seemed we had so much in common. The big difference was in eating.

"We eat more junk food over here. They eat better food, and there are laws against additives. Lolla's mothest baked all their bread. And they had their big meal at noon," Shobe Ekstrom's mother is a secreary for a big firm in Falun. Ekstrom said they ofter have chicken, meatballs or fish at noon. Fish is baked in the oven and served with an egg sauce. And they eat a lot of vegetables and salads.

Desserts are a rarity, but when they do have one, it usually is fruit or ice cream. Shobe offered to bake a raspberry pie when she was there, and the family was eager to see and sample a raspberry pie.

"When I asked for a pie pan, they didn't have one. So I made a square pie, and they said they liked it," Shobe said.
They have been to Greektown, and both like Greek food. Both are fond of salads, they said.

THEY SAT in the front row at the Kelly and Company television show, had a tour of the studio and were given special coffee mugs. The show was video-taped so they were able to see themselves on televsion.

Ekstrom will go home Aug. 15. She will attend a "gymnasium" in the fall where she will major in economics. Shobe will be senior at Plymouth Canton High School in the fall. They have been making plans to see each other again and dreaming of touring Europe together

Jurek jolted by MAC ruling

Shock still lingered among members of Eastern Michigan University's football squad after last week's startling announcement that could make them players without a team.

"I was a lot surprised," said fifthyear senior Dan Cohen, a North Farmington grad who started at line backer for the Hurons last season "I'm trying to get everything togeth-

Cohen isn't alone. The ultimatum issued by the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Board of Presidents last Monday gave EMU two choices: drop football or quit the conference. It caught many of Cohen's teammates

"Man, that was a bad day" was how Scott Jurek, a Plymouth Salem grad who is beginning his freshman year at EMU, described his "Black Tuesday

"I just lost my summer job," said Jurek, who had been an order clerk at Kroger's. "Tuesday was my last day. Then I came home and read in the newspaper what had happened.

"I was in shock. It's really scary."

THE ANNOUNCEMENT was is sued after the board learned that the MAC was in danger of losing its NCAA Division 1A ranking. There are several ways to maintain the ranking, the highest of several in the NCAA including one that calls for a majority of the league's schools to average 17,000 in paid attendance. Six of 10 MAC schools managed that last year, but one of those Western Michigan - was uncertain it could repeat this season. Faced with the possibility of losing that status, the board of presidents decided to drop one team so that a majority of the MAC would only be five.

EMU was the board's choice. No other team - including three others (Ohio University, Kent State and Ball State) with poor attendance records was considered.

The office of MAC commissioner Jim Lessig has refused to comment on why Eastern was singled out, or why the MAC presidents felt the Division 1A ranking was more valuable than a member school.

The theory among some MAC officials is that Eastern's combination of poor attendance, poor record (1-10 last season) and relative newness in the conference (admitted in 1971) led

THE QUESTION now is what EMU will do. The school's board of regents must reach a decision by Aug. 1 on whether to drop football and stay in the conference (with its other varsity teams still welcome to compete), or to disassociate itself with the MAC

Eastern coach Jim Harkema, starting his second year, met with his players and their families on Wednesday to acquaint them with the situation and to plot a strategy that will convince Eastern's regents to keep

"Coach Harkema told us to stay positive," said freshman-to-be Frank Helmstetter, a Rochester Adams alumnus. "He gave us the addresses of the board of regents, to write them some letters."

Most of the EMU players plan on doing the same, as do parents and local prep coaches.

The players remained optimistic -"I think they'll play," Helmstetter predicted — but guardedly so. If the regents choose to drop out of the MAC because of football, they'll be taking 21 other varsity teams out as well, in-cluding perenniel league powerhouses in track and swimming

"THE WHOLE THING kind of freaked me out," said freshman-to-be Bill Kupp, a Bloomfield Hills Lahser grad, after hearing of the MAC presilents' decision Monday evening. "I

Elks clinch Mack race

The Canton Elks Connie Mack base ball team is 17-1. They've clinched the Redford Adray League and are headed for the Connie Mack District Tournament in Pontiac Aug. 1-2.

They have so dominated things that it's hard to accept coach Dave Racer's claim that they have finally broken out of the mid-season blahs. How blah can a 17-1 team be?

But, the truth of Racer's statement cannot be refuted. His team, which had blown everyone away in its first 12 games scoring six mercy-rule victories, suddenly went flat.

The Elks lost to lowly Ypsilanti 4-3. Then barely got by Bishop Borgess 2-1 thanks to the strong right arm of John Nissen. A 5-3 squeaker against celler-dweller Southfield-Lathrup convinced Racer his team was struggling.

A WEEK ago Tuesday, Canton clinched the league title with a lessthan-awesome 8-5 win over Oakland. Tim Collins, who has been red-hot at the plate throughout the season, went 3-for-3. He and Dan Michaels, also 3for-3, led the Canton attack.

It wasn't pretty, but it began Canton's climb over the hump.

They may have cleared the hump, at least Racer thinks so, Thursday night, taking two from Thurston, 15-5 and 10-

Roadrunners host evening classic

By M.B. Dillon Ward staff writer

Q: Where can members of one family compete in a road race; acquire a muscleman T-shirt; shake their booties to Top 40 tunes; feast on pizza, pop and ice cream; sip a brew or two, and take in an awards ceremony saluting top runners?

A: At the Redford Roadrunner Classic, a five-mile road race and outdoor party at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, July 28, at the Livonia Family Y on Farmington Road just north of

Close to 500 runners will be pitted against accomplished competitors in 10 male and female age groups Entrants include · Canton's Dave Hinz, winner of the 1982 Detroit Free Press International Marathon who placed 12th at the Olympic trials this year. Hinz finished 11th in the 1983 Boston Marathon, logging a personal best of 2:12. Hinz competed in last year's Pan Am Games and took fourth in the 1983 Honolulu Marathon.

• Tom Hollander, former Eastern Michigan University track and cross-country All-American, will give 30- to 34-year-olds a run for their money. The 31-year-old Ann Arborite took third at April's Briarwood 20-kilometer race and was runnerup in May's Dexter-Ann Arbor Half Mile Marathon.

. Bill Stewart of Ann Arbor set the current masters' world record for the mile in Old Kent run. Stewart holds the American masters records for the 25- and 15-kilometer, 1,500 meters and two-mile. He was ranked fifth among U.S. masters by Runner Magazine last year

• Pete Hallop, 37, of Ann Arbor, Hallop holds all state records for runners 35 and over in distances between five and 15.5 miles. An eight-time track and cross-country All-American at Saginaw Valley, Hallop was named a Running Times 1983 all-American.

· Ed Grabowski, 28, won the recent International Freedom Festival 10-kilometer in 30:34. Grabowski of Orchard Lake captured first place in last year's Governor's Runners 60 and over may meet their match in Detroiter Jim Ramsey. The classic's oldest entrant at 76, Ramsey is a fixture at local races.

A slimmer women's field was to have featured Ann Arbor's Lisa Larsen, who competed in this year's Olympic trials.

ENTERED IS Karen Hubbard - winner of the Free Press marathon in 1979 and 1982 - who will run the classic on her 34th birthday. Hubbard, in whose name an allwomen's race was staged Sunday in Ypsilanti, placed 81st in this year's Olympic trials, running a personal record of 2:46. Other Hubbard wins include this year's Briar-wood, Frankenmuth, Holt and Dexter-Ann Arbor road races.

Ella Willis, 26 of Detroit, will be after another in a succession of 10-kilometer wins throughout metro-Detroit. Willis won the recent Trenton Treadmill 5-mile run and perennially takes the honors at Emily &

The Roadrunner Classic will feature a flat, fast five miles beginning on Stark Road at Lyndon, continuing east on Lyndon, north on Farmington, west on Five Mile, south on Levan, east along I-96, and north on Stark.

Early registrants will be charged $7, while latecomers - who may register from 4:30 until race time July 28th - will pay *$10. Entry fee for non-runners is $4.

T-shirts (hot pink on turquoise) will go to the first 500 entrants. Emergency medical help will be available.

Entry forms are available at most area sporting good stores, YMCA's, YWCA's, grocery stores and at some local restaurants. For more information, call 535-7833 or 535-

As space operas go, you won't find any more entertaining offerings than the "Star Trek" series "Star Trek III The Search for Spock" is no

At the end of "Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan," you will remember Mr. Spock (Leonard Nimoy) gave his life to save the Starship Enterprise. its crew, and, most particularly, his companions of many years. Admiral James T. Kirk (William Shatner), Dr. Leonard "Bones" McCoy (DeForest Kelley), Uhura (Nichelle Nichols), Sulu (George Takei), Chekov (Walter Koenig) and Scotty (James Doohan)

They are the principals in "Star Trek III," which is directed by Nimoy and their search for Mr. Spock's remains takes them back to the artificially created Genesis planet. Naturally, the Klingons appear (and that is their hair not Velcro) as antagonists and the usual good vs. evil space

BUT THERE ARE notable exceptions to standard, space opera style. Star Trek III" pleasantly avoids the graphic violence that characterizes so many films today. There is conflict and violence in "The Search for Spock," but it is not over-emphasized.

The camera mercifully pulls away from the plunging knife, and the rather abstract quality of the excellent special effects (as when spaceships blow up) avoids the unpleasantness of "Indiana Jones," "Gremlins" and many other favorites.

The story is more thoughtful than many space operas, too. The conflict with the Klingons is important but the real goal of our heroes, their search for a companion, touches on more important, humanistic qualities such as the relationship and love that develop among comrades. That raises "Star Trek III" above the crowd.

Another positive factor is the cast's very high caliber and the real sense of character that they have developed. One can safely assume it is because of their talents - and their list of credits (acting and directing) s impressive — and because of their extensive work together since "Star Trek" premiered 18 years ago.

THE REPERTORY concept in theater has long proved a valuable means of building psychological realism for actors. Certainly that method bears fruit in "Star Trek III" where the audience is truly interested in he characters because they are very real and very human.

They are rounded human beings more interesting than the usually flat, one-dimensional "white-hats" and "black-hats" so common in such films. The focus of the repertory concept is on a small group of actors working together over a long period of time. That emphasis is brought to bear

IN THE MOVIE the principals pirate their own ship, the Enterprise from Starfleet headquarters and set out to search for Spock in spite of orders to stay put. The Enterprise's large crew is absent and greater emphasis is on the principal performers.

It is interesting to note that the interaction of the principals, centering around Kirk and Spock, is a relationship that has grown more from Forty years ago, Baron Philippe de Rothschild of Chateau Mouton did a really neat thing. He caused a series of labels to be created for his wine, one each year, by notable artists.

In the interval he has used creations by Georges Braque, Marc Chagall, Henry Moore, Pablo Picasso, Salvador Dali, Robert Motherwell, Bronco Nerd and Andy Warhol. For years, Mouton was the only winery capable of doing this. In the late 1970s, however, the idea caught on in
