The Canton Connection

STATE REP. James Kosteva, D-Canton, has been named to a special ad hoc small business committee. The body will monitor the implementation of Gov. James Blanchard's Small Business Agenda, make recommendations to the Michigan House of Representatives and study small business concerns.

Foremost on the itinerary will be ways in which state government can help improve Michigan's small business and entrepreneurial climate, provide a forum for developing state policies, and provide quality assistance to small businesses and entrepreneurs statewide. A committee report will be delivered to the Legislature by Dec. 31, 1986. For more information, call Rep. Kosteva at (517)373-2575.

LISTEN UP, links lovers. The Canton Chamber of Commerce is signing up golfers for its Third Annual Golf Outing Thursday, Sept. 5 at Fellow Creek Golf Course in Canton. For the $42 entry fee, golfers will be provided with golf cart, dinner, refreshments, snacks, gifts and a chance at several prizes. Sponsors, at $160 each, will be given the opportunity to promote their business on a golf hole, mention in the official program and in chamber newsletters, and participation in the outing for four players.

Reservations can be made by contacting John Trentacosta (961-2314), Bill Liebengood (981-1100) or Robert Malek (523-0669) by Aug. 23. Checks should be made payable to the Canton Chamber of Commerce and mailed to the attention of Malek at the chamber office, 8130 Canton Center Road, Canton, Mich. 48187.

'VETTE V-ROOM: The Canton Corvette Club sponsors its Fourth Annual Car Show Sunday, Aug. 11 at Marty Feldman Chevrolet at 42355 Grand River, Novi. Gate proceeds will go to the National Institute for Burn Medicine. For more information, call 981-4898.

TOWNSHIP DEPARTMENTS are still buzzing with talk about a bash given two weeks ago to break in Nicki Zimmerman's newly purchased cottage in the Irish Hills. Party goers even had a chance to spin around the lake in a boat that came with the house. About 35 employees showed for the event hosted by the planning department secretary.

HITTING THE BIG TIME is an exciting experience for the Canton Seniors Kitchen Band. The group has been asked to perform at the Michigan State Fair 3:30-4 p.m. on senior citizens day Aug. 26. This is the first time the troupe will appear at the fair, and the band players are revving up for the big performance. State Fair entertainment organizers have a limited amount of time allotted, according to Dianne Neihengen, Canton Senior Citizen Coordinator, so an offer on stage comes as a credit to their act.

"We really are honored that the band has been chosen to do this, and they are really thrilled," Neihengen said.

CANTON SENIORS WERE HONORED another way by the Civitans Thursday evening at the Elks Club on Ann Arbor Road between Haggerty and Lilley roads. The annual bash hosted by the Civitans was attended by more than 300 seniors. Local merchants, who donated prizes, added a special touch to the event, Neihengen said.

Canton Seniors building is at 44237 Michigan Ave. at Sheldon on the south east corner. For more information about senior citizen activities, call Neihengen or Louise Spigarelli at 397-1000, Ext. 278.

Fisher case is remanded

By Diane Gale
staff writer

Wayne County Circuit Judge Richard Kaufman last week agreed with the attorney defending Charles Fisher, accused of killing his wife, that prosecutors incorrectly suppressed evidence during his preliminary examination in 35th District Court.

Kaufman ordered the case back to the district court for a continuation of the exam and another ruling. No date has been set.

Fisher's wife, Ella Marie Mercado Fisher, 31, died several days after having been suffocated by duct tape wrapped around her head in what at first was thought to be a robbery of their Canton Township home on July 15, 1984.

In early March, after a five-day preliminary examination in 35th District Court, Judge James Garber ruled that enough evidence was presented linking Fisher to his wife's death. Fisher was ordered to stand trial in circuit court on first degree murder charges.

HOWEVER, FISHER'S attorney, Daniel Burriss, said he was incorrectly denied copies of letters written by the victim's father, Manuel Mercado, to the Canton Police Department. The letters were not introduced as evidence at the exam.

During the examination, Burriss declined to question Mercado, who was called to the stand by Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Timothy Kenny and testified at length.

Judge Kaufman decided Burriss should be given the opportunity to question Mercado about the letters at the preliminary examination. It's possible other witnesses will be called to testify in district court, Kenny said.

"With regards to those letters there was a disagreement (between Kenny and Burriss) on whether to turn that material over before the preliminary examination," Kenny said.

THE PROSECUTING attorney said the letters were given to Burriss after the preliminary examination.

Burriss said: "There's never a victory when I find out that the prosecutor is suppressing evidence. I was very disappointed that they had evidence that was not turned over. They were in the possession of the police and prosecutor at the time."

Fisher, who has been free on $250,000 bond and living in Missouri with his family, was in circuit court in Detroit Thursday.

"He's doing fine other than the fact that he is anxious to have this matter disposed of," Burriss said.

Lights on

Old time fixtures to brighten subdivision

By Diane Gale
staff writer

A stroll through Forest Trails subdivision soon will be reminiscent of days gone by.

Decorative colonial street-lighting fixtures will be erected within six months, following a drive spearheaded last year by the Forest Trails Homeowners Association.

"Looks" were the simple reason given for wanting the old-style devices as opposed to the common davit type, said Nancy Zelek, vice president of the association.

"It looks better than the others, and there's more character to it," said the Kirk Lane resident.

FOREST TRAILS will be the first subdivision in Canton to have the colonial-style street lights, said Minnie King, Detroit Edison marketing service representative. Canton's board of trustees unanimously approved erection of the light fixtures at the Aug. 6 meeting.

The cost for the lights, to be placed on the road right-of-way, covers maintenance and replacement, King said. The colonial lights have been available

Robert Dale Hutsiar, 23, (center) was arraigned last week in 35th District Court in connection with a Fiegel School burglary. Hutsiar, who pleaded not guilty, is being held in lieu of $10,000 cash bond. Plymouth Township police arrested him Tuesday outside the building.

Development boon sparks memories of 1978 record

Editors Note: This is the second in an occasional series of stories on land use in Canton Township.

By Diane Gale
staff writer

Construction crews are pounding away in Canton with the same fervor seen in the development boom of the late 1970s, but just as the fashions and trends have changed, so have the building work orders.

The concentration of fast food restaurants, neighborhood strip commercial shopping centers and single family homes in subdivisions that were mushrooming in Canton almost a decade ago have stepped aside for industrial buildings and apartment complexes today.

Fast food restaurants were being built "fast and furiously," said Dave Nicholson, Canton's director of community and economic development. Currently the construction is of a "much different caliber."

"Today we're getting good quality commercial businesses," Nicholson said. "That's not to belittle the fast food places, but they're not the kind of establishment that increases the attractiveness for other commercial users."

THIS IS A GOOD year for development, and if it continues as expected it will be the best year in development since 1978, a peak year in construction, he said.

"It's tremendous. This is the kind of atmosphere that I really can look forward to with anticipation."

In 1978 building permit values hit $76,105,930, and so far this year building permit values total $23,328,787.

Nicholson said Canton presently has more growth in the types of businesses that have patrons stopping for more than one hour than it did in the past.

Grand Central Station, west of the General Cinema complex on Ford Road east of Sheldon is an example. The site will have restaurants, cafes and retail shops. Ground breaking ceremonies for Grand Central Station, a project valued at $2.5 million, are expected within a month.

Another major development in the makings is Budgetel Inn, at Haggerty

land use

south of Ford, which is valued at $2 million.

These types of establishments will attract visitors to the community, as well as quality development, Nicholson said.

An ideal site for office complex development, Nicholson said, is Ford Road between Sheldon and the township's eastern boundary, because of the "excellent access to I-275."

"Offices are a good neighbor. They're good for jobs, good for the tax base, and generally speaking they close at 5 p.m., and there isn't a need for safety and traffic services after 5 p.m.," he said. "I would hope that next year we will be able to continue to increase our development. In particular, I would like to see a major office development in the community."

The development today in Canton is diversified, with some industrial, commercial and residential work occurring. Agricultural development is "diminishing," he said.

"We aren't saying that we want only industrial, commercial or multiple residential development," Nicholson said. "We want all kinds of development. We are diverse, but we want quality diversity."

THE SINGLE LARGEST construction project in 1978 was the Sunflower subdivision. Presently the single largest project is the American Yazaki, Corp., at 6700 Haggerty Road.

The site will serve as the American headquarters for the diversified Japanese electronics corporation, which makes wiring equipment for automotive, solar and gas industrial use. Having the national corporation set up shop in Canton is also expected to attract other businesses to an area dubbed the industrial development district. It is near Lilley, Joy, Lotz and Ford roads east of I-275.

The concentration of residential construction in the community has switched from subdivision development to apartment complexes, which include Pilgrim Village, Carriage Cove, Saratoga — all centered near Lilley and Warren roads — as well as only for a few years, and are still a rarity on Michigan streets.

Each homeowner will pay an estimated cost of $81.02 annually for the lights. Detroit Edison will charge Canton, and the township will bill residents on their December tax bills, according to Linda Chuhman, township clerk.

"In Canton, the residents have an option to have the street lighting," Chuhman said. "The people in the sub have to show us (trustees) that they really want the lights. We don't want to be accused of forcing the lights on them."

The move toward providing the colonial street lights follows a petition drive to determine the wishes of area residents. Township ordinances maintain that more than 50 percent of those responding to the survey must approve of the installation.

THE CLERK'S OFFICE received 160 responses — from 216 survey forms sent out. The results showed 101 were in favor of the colonial fixtures and 59 were opposed, Chuhman said. A "comment space" was provided on the survey to allow respondents to explain their votes. Five of the 59 who were opposed commented, and only one of the 101 in favor gave an explanation. Some of their responses are as follows:

"When the initial information was presented to us the cost per year, per lot was about $40. It's already doubled and will cost our subdivision $18,000 annually for the street lights with approved rates by the Michigan Public Service Commission," according to a Sandpiper Drive resident.

"I still believe that street lights should be functional, and not decorative," another Sandpiper homeowner said. "I further feel we shouldn't have to vote on an issue where we aren't aware of all the facts. Namely, 1. Location of the lights. 2. Cost. Edison has had a recent rate increase, which is not reflected in the current estimate," a Tillotson resident wrote.

Another Sandpiper respondent said, "If people want street lights, those who do should buy their own individually. I must say they are very tacky."

A FOREST TRAILS subdivision

homeowner, who voted against the colonial-style fixture, said, "I would consider a non-decorative light if that was an option." Another resident echoed this sentiment.

The "yes" respondent commented, "Yes, Yes, Yes. We feel these lights will enhance the neighborhood by increasing security for homeowners, providing much needed lights for our school children walking in the morning to see and to be seen. And also, they will benefit our runners and early morning bicyclists. One incident of vandalism can easily cost more than 10 years of lighting assessments. We hope these can be installed yet this year, to make ours a safer and better neighborhood."

As Linda Chuhman flips through a stack of petitions from Forest Trail subdivision residents, her work is illuminated by a colonial-style fixture.

the Heathmoor Apartments on Haggerty south of Ford Road.

"Apartment dwellers generally don't have a lot of children, and apartment complexes pay a lot in taxes," he said. "They are providing income for the schools, and they are not providing a lot of children for the schools. That's an optimum situation."

Nicholson noted that single family residential construction still occurs, but on a lesser magnitude and in existing subdivisions.

HE PREDICTS the major development in the community down the road will be on Ford Road about a quarter of a mile north and south on Lilley Road to the township border west of Westland.

"I wouldn't be surprised if in five years there is $100 million worth of development there," Nicholson predicted.

In retrospect, Nicholson recognized some development errors that have been made in Canton. He cited the residential area near Lilley and Sheldon north of Ford fronting on Lilley and Sheldon roads. The township failed to require that the subdivision developer plant landscaping screening, and less attractive, wire and wood fences went up instead.

There's something you can always count on from Michigan Bell:

Good service from good people.

If working for Michigan Bell for 25 years has taught me anything, it's that customer service comes first. And lately, since so much has changed in the telephone industry, Michigan Bell is naturally concerned that you are given every opportunity to learn about what's going on. That's where I come in. I'm Marcia Buhl, and part of my job as a Michigan Bell Corporate Affairs Manager involves making sure Michigan Bell customers know how and where to get answers to phone service questions.

One good place to call is the Let's Talk Center. It's staffed by Michigan Bell people specially trained to answer almost any general question about phone service. The toll-free number for the Center is 1 800 555-5000.

And for specific problems, there are Michigan Bell people to call. For example, if you have a repair problem with your residence phone service, you should call 221-2121; if the problem is with business phone service, the number is 221-3131; if the problem is with a public telephone, call 221-5151.

Marcia Buhl
Corporate Affairs Manager

Another convenient source of information that shouldn't be overlooked is the Customer Guide section in the front of your Michigan Bell White Pages telephone directory. It's full of phone numbers and helpful information on who to call for what. One of the numbers you'll find there is also on your monthly phone bill. It's the number of your Michigan Bell business office. That's where you get in touch with a service representative who can help you with specific questions about your phone service, or your bill.

I hope you'll find these suggestions helpful in knowing how and where to get answers. Even though I can't answer your questions on an individual basis, if you belong to a community or service group in the area and would like me to come out and address your group, please let me know. The number to call to schedule a talk is (313) 523-7755.

After all, helping people learn about their phone service is what I, and a lot of other Michigan Bell people, do every day.

Strike's settlement leaves unanswered questions

Well, the baseball strike is ended — thank goodness.

But the settlement, dealing in millions of dollars, has left a multitude of questions for the fans who actually pay the bill.

During the negotiations it was reported that the average salary of the major league players was more than $200,000 a year. But if that is so, then the fans ask who is the highest paid and who is the lowest among the 640 players under contract.

Another question has to do with the report that many of these contracts have deferred payments, some going into the next century.

If that is so, what about the yearly income tax? Is it paid on the actual salary or on the reduced deferred payment?

And suppose any of the teams go bankrupt. What happens to the deferred payment of salary then? Is it the players' gamble, or is there some legal angle attached so that the player is assured of his money?

ANOTHER QUESTION has to do with the rise in the TV money that is set aside for the players' pensions.

If the reports are correct, it is said that the TV money has been raised by $33 million a year. Will that boost the pensions? If so, by how much?

This question arose the other day when it was reported in the daily prints that Hank Greenberg, the one-time Tiger first baseman who retired in 1947, now draws $800 a month. Will these pensions be raised?

Another question has to do with the practice that a young player cannot go into arbitration for three years instead of two.

Does that mean that if he shows real promise, he cannot get a raise until he has played three years on the same club?

When this goes into effect, the fans are asking if it is right to make a player wait three years for a raise. That owner of the Tigers, gave the command, "Go get him, no matter what it costs."

When a deal finally was made, Wakefield was given a bonus of $52,000 for signing.

When a deal finally was made, Wakefield was given a bonus of $52,000 for signing.

Even today in his leisure moments, he often smiles and says, "They gave me the $2 grand but I don't know what for."

Yes, this baseball is a funny business and the fans have a good reason to ask some of these questions.

And let's hope the Tigers' dream of winning the pennant again doesn't turn out to be a nightmare.

Police action is out of line

Are the courts too liberal? Do we need to worry about a police state? Rarely are we involved with the police other than an occasional traffic ticket.

On Monday, July 29 at about midnight, four Canton Township police cars and five uniformed officers arrived at my son's home. They asked him his name and when my son responded they told him he was under arrest and to spread them, at which time they frisked him and read him his rights.

One of the officers went to the door and asked his mother if there was a typewriter in the house. She responded with "not to my knowledge." At this time the mother calls me to say that, "Your son is being arrested." While I am waiting on the phone, the police tell my son that they are coming back with a search warrant and a warrant for his arrest. My son comes to the phone and informs me. I call the police and talk to the sergeant in charge. He informs me that one of the officers had witnessed one of the suspects in a school break-in and when he saw that it was not my son, the officers left, therefore everything is forgotten.

The report in the Plymouth Observer states that the second suspect is unknown and ran off with the typewriter. Neither a description nor further details are available at press time.

The paper also reported that there were four patrol cars outside the school. Now if one of the officers observed that suspect running away with the typewriter, why couldn't they catch him?

Why was it necessary for four police cars and five policemen to show up at my son's home? Why did the police tell me who the second suspect was on Monday night immediately after showing up to arrest my son, who was not the second suspect?

Why did the police tell me they observed the second suspect but told the Observer that they had no description?

Why when I talked to the lieutenant in charge at the Canton Township police department does he not know what is going on or where the police report is?

Who is lying to whom? Why is it so difficult to find out the truth from the police department? What would be the case if the innocent citizen had fewer rights and the police more powerful to do as they wanted? I wonder.

Resident's answer to troubles serves up hefty dose of inspiration

By W.W. Edgar
staff writer

People now reaching advanced years and faced with what seem to be almost unsolvable problems would do well to meet the widowed Mary Anderson of Canton.

Now 76 years old and the mother of two children, she mastered the task of keeping up a household when her husband became afflicted with vision problems years ago.

Taking to the task, she sought work. Fortunately, she made good connections with the Ford Motor Co. and spent 20 years as an executive secretary.

When that score of years ended she moved over and accepted temporary employment with the American Motors Corp. and is still at it.

Her two children are now grown. The son, Chester, is a professor at the University of Georgia and the daughter, Margaret, is a leading consultant.

SITTING in her well-kept home on Somerset the other afternoon, she had just returned from a job and admitted that her troubles had caused her to develop a lot of gray hair. She added seriously, "I still have some brown hair left but I don't know for how long."

Married 23 years ago, her husband took sick five years later and left her with seemingly unsolvable problems.

Now, as she looks back over the years, she is enjoying the passing of time. She just returned from a trip to Europe where she spent time in Holland and visited Norway and Denmark.

"I enjoyed the trip immensely," she said, "but it is always nice to be back home."

ANDERSON'S HOME is in a lovely setting and well-maintained. She manages to keep busy, but always with the thought of the strength she was given to run the household with a disabled husband and two children. That both her son and daughter have done well in life and that she too did a good job under the most trying circumstances.

She had looked forward to the European trip for some time, as she is of Norwegian descent, and visited many places that her relatives came from.

Tired from her trip she was given to her soon would be rested and would be back on the job of keeping up the household with fond memories of her disabled husband and the raising of two children.

Nichols, Bowman tangle on capital gains tax

By Tim Richard
staff writer

A suburban legislator and Michigan's treasurer tangled over the question of whether the state should tax capital gains — the money one makes on the sale of property.

It signaled that the question could become a partisan one when the Legislature reconvenes in September to discuss Gov. James Blanchard's "tax fairness" plan.

"The effect of the governor's proposal," said Sen. Rudy Nichols, R-Waterford, "would not be unfair but would discourage risk-taking."

Countered Treasurer Robert Bowman, a one-time Wall Street investment banker and Democrat, Blanchard's economic point man. "We should treat investment income the same as earned income."

THE EXCHANGE took place last week as the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee held a public hearing in the Rochester Hills municipal building on Blanchard's plan to increase home-stand property tax rebates at the expense of closing what the administration calls "loopholes."

A $45 million "loophole," as Blanchard and Bowman see it, is capital gains. Currently, 60 percent of a capital gain is excluded from taxable income. Blanchard would make such gains 100 percent taxable. The Reagan administration endorsed a similar proposal for the federal income tax.

Bowman told the committee Blanchard accepted House amendments adding three important exceptions to full taxation of capital gains: the first $2,000 in any one year, sale of farm property and sale of a family business.

"The working staff on the assembly line should be treated no better and no worse than the investor," Bowman said, adding that 93 percent of taxpayers have no capital gains and the 7 percent who do had incomes of $40,000 a year or more.

Thirteen other states tax capital gains higher than Michigan, said Bowman, citing New York, California, Minnesota and Massachusetts.

"This administration prefers to see property tax cuts," he said.

the statement, "Jobs, jobs, jobs," said Nichols, quoting Blanchard's 1982 campaign slogan.

"The idea of preferential treatment is to encourage entrepreneurs to sell their capital investments in order to encourage the early termination of those investments and thereby contribute to capital formation in the private sector," he said. He added that taxing capital gains would be counter-productive to the goal of encouraging investment.

"THE GOVERNOR'S proposal would be unfair because it would tax individuals on the gains from the sale of an asset which occurred due to inflation, even though these gains do not represent an increase in wealth," he said.

"The person cannot buy any more from the proceeds of the sale of the asset than they could with the money used to originally purchase the asset."

"Just a few months ago, the governor argued that Michigan suffers from a lack of venture capital, and that was the primary reason he sought formation of the strategic fund."

"It does not make much sense for him to now suggest the state increase its tax on capital gains by 150 percent."

A MEMO from a Senate Republican economist gave yet another reason for GOP opposition to the capital gains tax. States are competing for capital investment, wrote Dr. Gary Wolfram.

"While the inclusion of 100 percent of real capital gains may make sense at the federal level, taxation at the state level can lead to individuals, especially venture capitalists, moving to other states."

The relatively high inheritance taxes and intangibles taxes already contribute to the loss of Michigan seniors. An increase in the capital gains tax for those who are using sale of assets for retirement income — for example, individuals who were involved in stock sharing programs — will simply be another reason for wealthy seniors to exit Michigan upon retirement."

To Bowman, those points were unimportant.

As treasurer, I get 20 letters a week from seniors on property taxes. Not inheritance taxes or any of the others."

Questioned by Nichols, Bowman agreed the Blanchard program on balance is "absolutely a tax shift," but insisted the business tax elements were "closing loopholes. We're not going to finance this fairness program out of thin air."

Balconi, Barr get building AD posts

When Paul Cummings became athletic director of the Plymouth-Canton Community School District in July he said he would appoint two assistants, one in each high school.

Those appointments have been made. Salem track coach Gary Balconi and Canton football coach Richard Barr have been named to the newly-created position of faculty athletic manager.

"We had some excellent applications for these positions," Cummings said. "I feel the best possible person for the job has been selected at both schools. Each of these men has excellent rapport with students and staff and the community at large. I believe they will be a real asset to the Plymouth-Canton total athletic program."

BALCONI AND Barr will schedule and supervise athletic facilities, supervise the cheerleading and pom-pom program, coordinate athletic awards and banquets, work as liaison to parents and booster groups, represent the athletic department and faculty in administrative functions, process equipment and supply orders, maintain records of athletic teams and coordinate maintenance of athletic facilities.

Both will be given two release periods during the normal school day to perform these duties. Cummings said that Balconi and Barr will continue to coach.

"We realize this is asking a lot of them, but we also recognize they have a great deal to contribute to the athletic program in our district," Cummings said.

Barr and Balconi have been with the district since 1984 and both hold master's degrees. Balconi in administration and Barr in physical education.

Mickey Madsen, a former All-Area performer at Plymouth Salem, slugged his Adray Appliance team into the AAABA regional finals.

New Orleans 9 ruins Detroit's tourney bid

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Spectators at Livonia's Ford Field got a slight taste of jazz and Cajun last week as defending national champion New Orleans captured the All-American Amateur Baseball Association (AAABA) regional tournament with a 13-10 victory Friday evening over Detroit Adray Appliance.

Known as NORD (New Orleans Recreation Department) Boosters, the visitors from the French Quarter went 3-0 in the four-team, double-elimination regional. They advance to the college-age AAABA Tournament, which begins today in Johnston, Pa.

"I think we've got a chance in Johnston because this is the toughest regional I've ever participated in," said New Orleans manager Rags Scheuermann. "It was a bit of a surprise for me because this is the first time we've won here in five regional."

Appliance, featuring three area players, fought its way back through the loser's bracket after dropping a heartbreaking 1-0 victory in Wednesday's opener against the Beechview Freds of Pittsburgh, Pa.

"THOSE NEW ORLEANS kids are aggressive hitters and they're very competitive," said Appliance manager

Bob Atkins. "We enjoyed playing them. They're not the biggest kids physically, but they can play the game."

New Orleans was sparked by tournament MVP Gary Desjardins, a shortstop who showed his versatility by going behind the plate for the final two games after starting catcher Leonard Webster pulled himself out of the lineup with a bad finger.

Desjardins, who will be a sophomore this fall at Tulane University, gave Appliance fits in the final game with a homer, two singles, three RBI and three runs scored.

Teammate Bill Rapp, an outfielder, also figured heavily in the win with a homer and triple in a three-for-four outing. "I said before they announced the MVP that I would buy a trophy for whoever guy didn't win it," Scheuermann said. "Billy Rapp came through with some big hits."

New Orleans jumped on Appliance starter Ed Groves early and built a 10-1 lead, but nearly blew the advantage as Adray mounted another comeback.

TRAILING 11-4 in the sixth, Appliance outfielder Rich Browne, a Wayne High product, broke a 0-for-15 drought by rapping a grand slam home mer which curled around the right field foul pole. "I knew Detroit had something left in them," Scheuermann said. "And we had only one pitcher left so we had to make it hold up."

Appliance then loaded the bases with one out in the seventh, but could only score one run as New Orleans reliever Salvatore Amarena pitched out the jam and eventually earned the save as starter Harry Manuel gained his second victory of the regional.

"We were one hit away in both games we lost," Atkins said. "I was disappointed in our offense in this tournament."

"We had scored a lot of runs against some good competition this year, but we picked a bad time for our bats to go sour."

APPLIANCE LEFT 13 runners stranded in its first round loss to Pittsburgh, which tallied the winning run in the bottom of the 10th with two out on a throwing error by third baseman Chris Holmes, a pick up from the Adray Photo team.

Eastern Michigan pitcher Ron Rightnowar deserved a better fate, tossing a seven-inning go along with 12 strikeouts in 9 1/2 innings.

Jurek eyes spot in EMU lineup

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

Maybe Vince Enright ought to seek out Scott Jurek this fall when the two former Observerland standouts gather for football practice at Eastern Michigan University.

When Enright, the All-Area quarterback from Farmington Harrison, gets to EMU this fall, there could be five quarterbacks ahead of him.

There's Robert Gordon, who started every game for the Hurons last year, and Ron Adams, who was impressive in relief roles last year. Also, Steve Coulter is returning after sitting out as a red-shirt last year. He was the Huron quarterback in 1982 and 1983.

If that's not intimidating enough for the freshman quarterback, the Huron hierarchy, namely head coach Jim Harkema, is optimistic about the futures of both Den Vesling, a baseball star at EMU who was also a highly touted quarterback, and Tom Sullivan, another freshman.

Scott Jurek impressive at EMU

SULLIVAN was one of the brightest stars at last weekend's Michigan High School East-West All-Star game at Spartan Stadium Aug. 3. He led the West to victory by completing 8-of-15 passes for 172 yards and a touchdown.

"I saw what I had seen in the film," Harkema said about Sullivan. "The young man has tremendous instincts for the game of football."

Enright was at Spartan Stadium and saw Sullivan's performance.

"As soon as I got home, I threw for two hours and I have been throwing every day since," Enright said. "In fact, I'm going out to throw right now."

Scott Jurek has felt the anxiety Enright is now feeling.

Jurek, an all-state, All-Area performer at Plymouth Salem in 1983, was one of Harkema's top recruits last year. Jurek came to fall camp with high expectations. He saw himself as EMU's fullback.

When he got to camp, there were five fullbacks ahead of him. One week into camp and Jurek was a linebacker.

"Vince is faced with the exact situation I was faced with last year," Jurek said from the Weston Hotel in Toronto where he was vacationing last week. "I came in and I was running like a four-string fullback. I thought I was good enough to play fullback there, but after a week I could tell I was going nowhere."

THE POSITION switch proved to be a good move for Jurek. Although he was eventually red-shirted, he was listed on the EMU depth-charts among the second-unit linebackers late last season.

Jurek, bigger and stronger than when last seen on the Centennial Educational Park gridiron, figures highly in Harkema's plans for the upcoming season.

"Well, we think he had just one great spring," Harkema said. "Right now, I'd have to say he's our second-string inside linebacker. We're very high on Scotty. He has good instincts for a linebacker. He has to really get at it for us this fall."

"I can't tell you he's going to blossom this year like he thinks he will, or like his fans hope, but we expect him to play a key role for us."

Said Jurek: "Last year was a little frustrating. It's tough to go to practice when you know that you weren't going to play in the game. But I knew coming in that very few freshmen play for Harkema. He really likes to red-shirt. The year before, something like 18 of 19 freshmen were red-shirted."

Indeed, very few freshmen come to college expecting to start immediately. Certainly Jurek had no such delusions last year, nor does Enright this year.

"I guess I felt all along that I would be red-shirted this year," though Harkema hasn't yet indicated that, Enright said. "I wasn't going in thinking I would play. I'm just going in and try to learn as much as I can."

Area QB trio to get nod on GLIAC gridiron

By C.J. Riasak
staff writer

The upcoming Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) football season is being billed as the "year of the quarterback," as well it should be, with starters returning at six of seven schools.

Three of those six quarterback returnees hail from the Observer & Eccentric coverage area. And that means the outcome of this year's GLIAC race could very well rest in the throwing hands of those three.

"He's without a doubt our main offensive threat," said Hillsdale College coach Dick Lowry of senior Mike Gatt, a Livonia native and Redford Catholic Central grad who will start his third season as the Chargers' quarterback.

"He has the best command on the field of any kid I've coached," said Wayne State coach Dave Farris of sophomore Rich Popp, a Livonia Franklin alumnus and second-year starter for the Tartars.

BOTH HILLSDALE and Wayne State are expected to give defending GLIAC champion Saginaw Valley State a battle for this year's championship. At Wednesday's 11th annual Football Media Day, Saginaw Valley was voted to retain its grip on the No. 1 spot, a position it's maintained for the past two years.

Hillsdale was second in the coaches poll, followed by Northwood Institute, Wayne State, Grand Valley State, Ferris State and Michigan Tech.

One surprise in the voting was the elevation of Grand Valley. The Lakers were 0-10 last season and have a new coach, Tom Beck. Beck previously served as backfield coach to the Chicago Blitz of the USFL (1984) and as head coach at Elmhurst College (1976-83).

Beck saw no reason for such optimism. "I don't see us being a real force in the conference," he said. "There are a lot of problems to rectify."

One, Beck said, is at quarterback, which "is not solidified, that's for sure." The leading contender to start is senior Chris Panzi, a Livonia Franklin graduate who was a walk-on at Grand Valley.

LAST YEAR, Panzi completed 39 of 82 passes (47.6 percent) for 372 yards, with two touchdowns and four interceptions.

"I was very pleased with him in the spring," Beck said of Panzi. "He's going in (to fall drills) as the No. 1 quarterback. He's got good passing ability, but he lacks playing experience. He's the kind of kid, if he had a lot of support, we could win with him. But he can't win by himself."

That's not the case with either Gatt or Popp, both of whom are being counted on heavily to spur their teams to success. Gatt, an academic all-American last year, had solid stats on the field as well, completing 115 of 203 passes (56.6 percent) for 1,411 yards, with 10 TDs and nine interceptions.

And yet, Lowry thinks Gatt could have been better.

"His foot speed a year ago was not what we would have liked," the Chargers coach said. "But he's improved that. He's lost 15 pounds (to 175), which is something he knew he had to do."

"One of our problems last year was that we didn't score enough points. I feel we have to score 20 points a game (to win)."

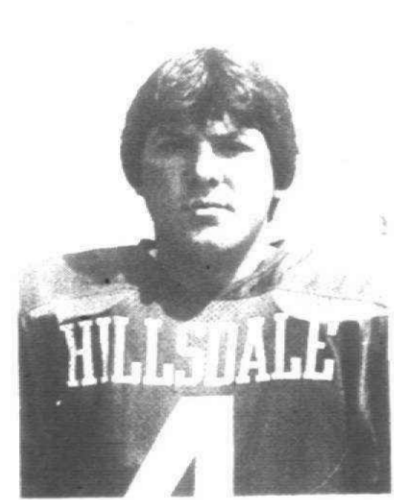

Farris is looking for equally big things from Popp, who was a pleasant surprise last year. Popp tied or set six Wayne State records as a freshman, completing 138 of 257 attempts (53.7 percent) for 1,798 yards, with 12 TDs and 13 interceptions.

"WHAT WE WANT from Rich," Farris said, "is continual improvement. He'll start the season as a good quarterback, and I think by the end of the season he'll be a great one. I look for him to throw for a minimum of 2,000 yards."

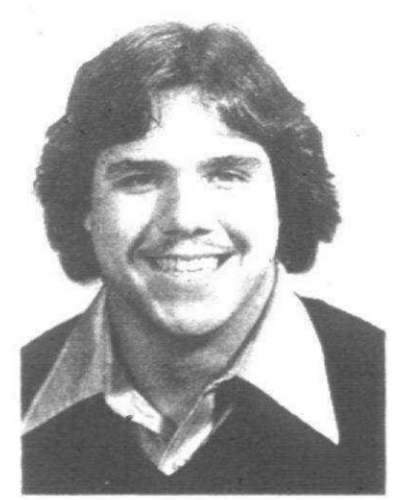

While Popp possesses a strong arm, it's his head that impresses Farris. "He's super at reading defenses," Tartar coach said. "He can see the whole field. And he never gets shaken, he always stays cool and calm."

If something happens to Popp, John Romano, a sophomore from Garden City, is waiting in the wings. Romano started the Kentucky State game last year when Popp was hurt and completed seven of 16 passes for 69 yards and two TDs. Pat Schneider, who quarterbacked Livonia Bentley last year, was one of Farris' top recruits.

Two more O&E area quarterbacks waiting for a chance are at Saginaw Valley. Mike Leibinger is entrenched as the starter, but backing him up is

Mike Gatt Hillsdale

Rich Popp Wayne State

Matt Wilczewski, a sophomore from Central, and Rick Wilson, a senior from Westland John Glenn who transferred from Central Michigan.

The major reason Saginaw Valley is picked to repeat as GLIAC champ isn't its quarterbacks, however. Defense is the Cardinals strength.

ANCHORING THAT DEFENSE are senior linebacker Darrel Bartkowiak, a Plymouth Canton grad who was the team's second-leading tackler in 1984, senior strong safety Dave Cramton from Garden City, and junior defensive tackle Phil Jean, considered the Cardinals most toughest lineman against the run. At Hillsdale, Plymouth Salem grad Jeff Hubert, a senior, is back at strong safety for his third season as a starter.

Junior Matt Chiodo, from Birmingham Brother Rice, could start at linebacker, while junior Keith Urban, from Salem, will start at guard.

Junior Keith Percin, from Bentley, is "more comfortable" playing safety for Wayne State this year. Farris said, and junior John Erickson, from John Glenn, will return as a starter at outside linebacker. Sophomore Steve Gregor, another Bentley grad, was switched during spring from quarterback to safety

Jurek making grade at EMU

SAID HARKEMA: "With Enright, we have a kid with real raw talent that needs refinement. He is a tremendous athlete that needs to learn how to be a quarterback."

Harkema sees the quarterback glut as a very positive element to his Huron team, and hopes the five quarterbacks feel the same.

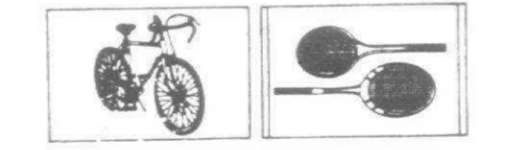

"It's such a pivotal position, you just can't afford to get caught short," he said. "We saw a couple of our sister schools (University of Michigan and Central Michigan) get caught short at quarterback last year. We're losing Coulter and Gordon after this season and Vesling could easily get drafted into professional baseball. It's possible we could be down to just Adams real soon."

Jurek's advice to Enright is simple: Give it your best shot, anything can happen. "A lot depends on what he does in the fall," Jurek said. "Just look at what Gary Patton did last year. He came in from Ohio and was the fourth or fifth tailback. He just worked his way up in practice. He was just running past senior defensive backs. The coaches will take a look at everyone. They won't overlook you just because you're a freshman. If the guy can play, he'll play."

ENRIGHT, LIKE Jurek, knows his chance will come. But even if it didn't, Enright figures he'll come out ahead.

"Even if I never play a down, I'm getting four years of free education," he said. "A lot of people have to work in the kitchen to pay for their education. I'll pay for mine playing football. That's not too bad."

Sound perspective.

Austin and Krumm sounds more like a successful law firm than pair of good baseball players.

But make no mistake, when West Bloomfield natives Dave Austin and Todd Krumm play baseball together, their team usually lays down the law.

The winning combination was formed six years ago when the two played Babe Ruth baseball. Along the way were trips to the Mickey Mantle World Series, the state Class A prep championship and now a trip with Livonia Adray in the prestigious All-American Amateur Baseball Association (AAABA) Tournament, which begins today in Johnstown, Pa.

Austin and Krumm are also teammates at Michigan State. Although the Spartans did not win the Big 10 title, the future appears bright for MSU, especially after the summer seasons the two enjoyed.

Krumm, expected to start this fall for MSU's football team (as a corner-back), proved equally adept in baseball, capturing MVP honors in the Livonia Collegiate circuit.

SEVERAL PLAYERS in the league had outstanding seasons, including Redford Little Caesars' Mike Betz (.398 average with 25 extra base hits) and Walter's Appliance pitcher Doug Doyle (6-2 record), but none could match the pitcher/outfielder Krumm, who batted .402 and led the league with a 7-0 record and a 0.63 ERA.

Krumm helped Livonia Adray to the regular season title, but missed the final playoff-clinching title game Friday, Aug. 2, against Walter's — a game he was scheduled to pitch — because of a football commitment.

"There was testing we go through for the defensive backs and linebackers (in East Lansing)," Krumm explained. "I missed playing in the final because that's what you go through the whole season for."

"But it was only one part missing. Overall, I was personally disappointed, but I knew the other guys we had could get the job done."

AUSTIN, meanwhile, started the season slowly for Livonia Adray, but became the league's hottest hitter during the second half of play.

During one stretch, the left-hand hitting first baseman/outfielder went 20-for-29 and eventually finished the regular season with a .429 average, third best in the Collegiate League.

"My old coach, Carl Childress, gave me some tips about my batting," said Austin. "I was holding my hands wrong and he pointed out a few mental things."

Adds Krumm: "Dave works hard. He stays in shape. We've gone out and taken a lot of batting practice at West Bloomfield High School."

Livonia Adray takes a 28-5 overall record into today's first round of play. Austin believes this team, however, is a bit different than the one that played in Johnstown last year.

"The guys on this year's team have a lot friendlier attitude," he said. "It's been a lot of fun."

AS FAR AS his unique success along with Krumm, Austin calls it "an ongoing process."

"We've both been to World Series and I guess we've been lucky," he said. "But it's nice to go to a tournament every year."

"We always played ball," Krumm said. "It was always the thing to do. Our parents were involved and we just kept doing it."

They just keep laying down the law.

Carnes' goal gives Huskies title

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

With one mad dash down the ice, a division title was won and another lost.

A fitting conclusion to a pair of frantic division races in the Midwest Summer Hockey League.

Wednesday night the Huskies and Wolverines took to the Plymouth Cultural Center ice with each team needing a win to wrap up their division title — the Huskies in the Bakes Conference and the Wolves in the Tex.

The Wolverines' Derrin Schmitz knotted the score at 5-5 with a pretty goal with just under four minutes left in the game.

Nine seconds later, the Huskies' Jeff Dobek and Neal Carnes broke in two-on-one on the Wolverine net. Dobek made a nifty pass to Carnes. Carnes, 14 years old out of Plymouth, buried the puck into the net.

IT WAS all the Huskies needed. The 6-5 win gave them a 6-4-1 final record, one point better than both the Lakers and Wildcats (6-5) in the Bakes Conference.

The loss gave the Wolverines a 7-4 record, even with the Bulldogs. But the Bulldogs capture the title by virtue of their two wins over the Wolves this season.

Dave Bramble, the league's scoring leader, paced the Huskies Wednesday with a pair of goals and an assist.

The Bulldogs could have won the Tex Conference outright with a victory Thursday night, but the Lakers played spoiler with a 3-2 win.

The game featured outstanding goaltending from the Lakers' George Abbott and Doug Brown and the Bulldogs' Jeff Safran and Walter Edwards.

The Lakers, on goals by Dominic Neito, Tony Esser and Bobby Moise, built a 3-1 lead and then held on for dear life.

THE BULLDOGS got goals from John Doeher and Plymouth's Joel Kovak and had numerous near misses. Doeher hit the goal post twice on one shift, rested, then came back on and hit the post again.

The victory sealed a second place finish for the Lakers in the Bakes.

Tuesday night the Wildcats snapped a five-game losing streak by tipping the Broncos 5-3. Mike Helber, Tim Hejber, Mike Dolan, Scott Reinhold and Greg Stedman scored for the Cats. Fritz Brown, Rich Hutchinson and Pat Marody countered for the Broncos.

The MSHL playoffs, which began Saturday, will conclude with the championship game at 8:30 p.m. Monday.

New Orleans, Appliance battle for AAABA title

Pittsburgh right-hander Mike Blocher, a California State (Pa.) sophomore, was a shade better, however, allowing just five hits in 10 innings.

In Wednesday's other first round game, New Orleans edged the Ohio State-based Columbus All-Americans, 5-4, thanks to Rapp's one-out double in the bottom of the ninth off starter and loser Mike Curtis. Columbus had tied the game in the eighth on Mike Sabo's (Indiana University) two-run homer.

On Thursday, Appliance ousted Columbus, 11-4, as left fielder Gary Peters collected two doubles, two singles and two RBI.

Designated hitter Phil Biggs went three-for-five and Plymouth Salem product Mickey Madsen added two hits, giving University of Michigan pick-up Dave Karasinski the pitching victory.

Peters, a University of Detroit sophomore, was the Appliance's top hitter during regional play, going 7-for-17.

IN THE WINNER'S bracket on Thursday, New Orleans dusted off Pittsburgh, 7-1, as Dave Ward hit a solo homer and Dave Smith added a two-run blast.

Pitcher Dave Theriot, a University of New Orleans junior, went the distance, scattering nine hits to go along with eight strikeouts.

Pittsburgh was then eliminated later in the evening by Appliance, 7-2, as Garden City product Joe Taraskavage pitched a masterful five-hitter. The U of D junior fanned eight and walked only one in nine innings of work.

The win by Appliance meant the Detroit Adray League champions had to beat New Orleans twice on Friday to win a spot in the national tourney.

COOLERS

TO CAPTURE

Carefree Days

If you're looking for sensational thirst-quenchers this summer that will fit your active lifestyle, take a cue from these carefree coolers. Treat yourself or prepare enough for a party. Either way, coffee on ice promises delicious refreshment all summer long.

There's nothing like a cooler after a workout, a set of tennis or the "best of all" exercise—vigorous walking. Prepare a single serving of Sparkling Iced Coffee with crushed ice, decaffeinated instant coffee and a hearty splash of club soda or sparkling mineral water.

Let your trusty blender help prepare Fresh Peach Coffee Frappe, a cooler that calls for decaffeinated instant coffee and gives a choice of vanilla ice milk or ice cream. Garnish with strawberry and melon on a skewer, serve with a flourish.

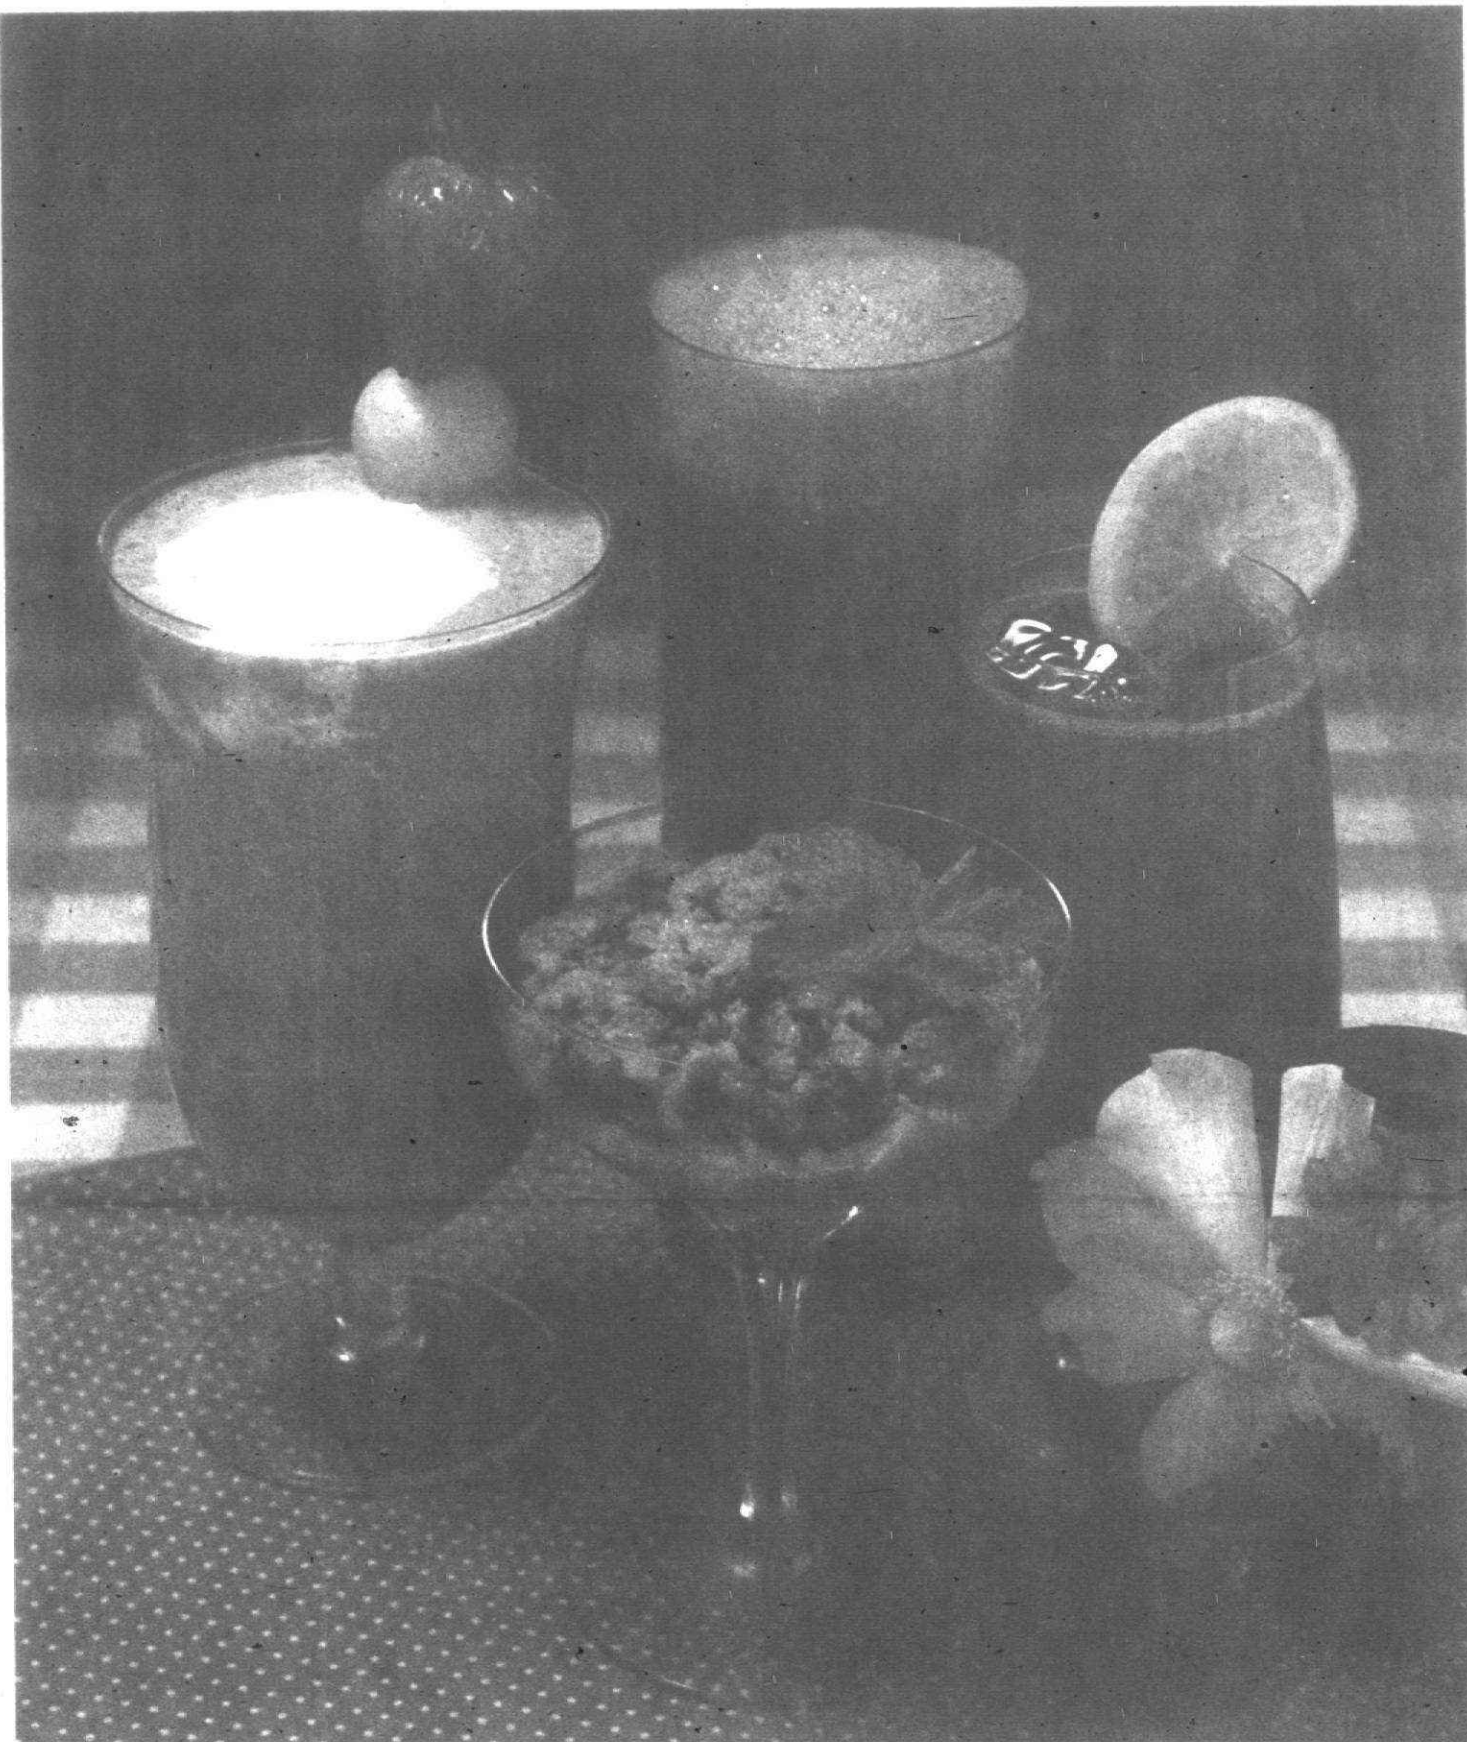

Versatile, show-stopping, delicious—and it's sugar free! That's the sublime Granite served in a stemmed glass. Actually, the word means "granulated" in French because an ice is slightly granular in consistency. Cool to the lips, this mixture has only two ingredients: water and fresh Mocha Mint, a sugar free Irish style instant coffee beverage. At serving time, the frozen mixture is simply shaved, then spooned into serving glasses and garnished with whipped topping or just a sprig of mint.

Match a warmish kind of day with servings of Cafe Ginger Fizz, a coffee-flavored plain "soda" prepared with ginger ale. If you like the continental taste of flavored coffees, you can run the gamut of six flavors of sugar free instant coffee beverages: Suisse Mocha (as shown here), Cafe Vienna, Cafe Amaretto, Irish Mocha Mint, Orange Cappuccino and Cafe Irish Creme.

Since the coffee beverage mixes are sweetened with NutraSweet brand sweetener, they provide a delicious coffee break with less than 40 calories a serving when prepared with only water.

Two additional coolers (not shown) belong in your repertoire. Orange Coffee Frost, a fresh orange juice-based beverage with orange sherbet, will delight decaffeinated coffee fans. Dessert lovers will flip for a Foamy Coffee Frappe prepared in a blender, using any of the new sugar free beverage mixes. Clip and save the basic recipe for Perfect Iced Coffee.

Streamlined, fit and fabulous—that's the way you'll feel with sugar free and 97% caffeine free coffee coolers—perfect partners for the active lifestyle.

Streamlined coolers to fit your carefree, active lifestyle: left, Fresh Peach Coffee Frappe and, clockwise, Cafe Ginger Fizz, Sparkling Iced Coffee and Granite.

Granité

- 1 1/2 cup sugar free Irish style instant coffee beverage
- 2 cups boiling water

Dissolve beverage mix in boiling water. Pour into 8-inch square pan. Freeze until slightly firm, about 1 hour. Break up and stir with fork; then freeze until firm. Draw fork repeatedly through frozen mixture and spoon shavings into wine, brandy or sherbet glasses. Garnish with whipped topping or mint sprig, if desired. Makes 2 cups or 4 servings.

Cafe Ginger Fizz

- 2 to 3 well-rounded teaspoons sugar free Swiss style instant coffee beverage
- 1 tablespoon hot water
- 1 bottle (6 or 7 fl. oz.) ginger ale, chilled
- Crushed ice or ice cubes (optional)

Spoon beverage mix into a tall glass. Add hot water and stir until mix is dissolved. Gradually stir in ginger ale and add ice. Makes 1 serving.

Sparkling Iced Coffee

- 1 rounded teaspoon decaffeinated instant coffee
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 tablespoon water
- Crushed ice
- 1 bottle (6-1/2 fl. oz.) sparkling mineral water or club soda

Dissolve instant coffee and sugar in water in a tall glass. Fill glass with crushed ice. Add sparkling water slowly. Garnish with lemon or orange slice, if desired. Makes about 1 cup or 1 serving.

Fresh Peach Coffee Frappe

- 3 tablespoons decaffeinated instant coffee
- 1-1/2 cups cold water
- 1 teaspoon vanilla or rum flavoring
- 4 fresh peaches, peeled and sliced
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 pint vanilla ice cream or ice milk

Dissolve instant coffee in 1-1/2 cups water in bowl; add flavoring. Combine peaches, 1/2 cup water, the sugar, lemon juice and nutmeg. Pour into electric blender container. Add about 1-1/2 cups of the ice cream or ice milk; blend at high speed until smooth. Stir into coffee mixture. Serve in tall glasses, over crushed ice, if desired, or pour into punch cups. Top with small scoops of remaining ice cream or ice milk. Garnish with fresh fruit on a skewer, if desired. Makes about 4 cups or 5 large or 10 small servings.

Orange Coffee Frost

- 1 rounded teaspoon decaffeinated instant coffee
- 1-1/2 teaspoons sugar
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup cold orange juice
- Orange sherbet

Dissolve instant coffee and sugar in water in a glass and add orange juice. Add a scoop of sherbet. Garnish with an orange slice, if desired. Makes about 1 cup or 1 serving.

Foamy Coffee Frappe

- 2 cups milk or skim milk
- 1/3 cup sugar free Roman style instant coffee beverage
- 1 cup vanilla ice cream or ice milk

Combine milk and instant coffee beverage in blender container; blend until dissolved. Add ice cream or ice milk and blend until smooth. Serve over crushed ice, if desired. Garnish with grated chocolate or mint sprigs, if desired. Makes about 3 cups or 3 or 4 servings, or two 12-ounce servings.

For 1 serving, use 2 3/4 cup milk, 2 well-rounded teaspoons instant coffee beverage and 1 3/4 cup ice cream or ice milk.

For 2 servings, use 1 cup milk, 3 tablespoons instant coffee beverage and 1 1/2 cup ice cream or ice milk. Makes about 1-1/2 cups or two 8-oz. servings.

Perfect Iced Coffee

- 1/4 cup decaffeinated instant coffee
- 4 cups water
- Ice cubes or crushed ice

Place instant coffee in pitcher or coffee server. Add a small amount of the water and mix well. Gradually add remaining water, stirring well. (This helps prevent excessive foaming.) Pour over ice in tall glasses. Serve with cream and sugar, if desired. Makes 4 cups or 4 servings.

For 1 serving, use 1 rounded teaspoon instant coffee and 1 cup water.

Make mealtime easy with main-dish tuna turnovers

With a savory filling and a flaky wrapper of puff pastry, main dish tuna turnovers easily turn tuna into a nutritious and low-calorie meal that can be prepared in less than 30 minutes. Tuna Turnovers with Mustard Sauce, an updated version of traditional English meat-filled pastries, have less than 300 calories each and are convenient to make with frozen vegetables and frozen puff pastry.

Broccoli frozen in cheese sauce adds an accent of color and refreshing flavor to the filling of this meal-in-one dish, and does not even need to be cooked first. The broccoli and sauce are simply thawed in the cooking pouch, then combined with the other ingredients, including tuna, hard-cooked eggs and dry mustard. The cheese sauce from the broccoli flavors the filling and keeps it moist while baking.

The tuna-broccoli mixture is wrapped in puff pastry crust, which is simple to prepare with frozen puff pastry sheets. While the pastries are baking, a zesty mustard sauce is heated in a saucepan to serve with the warm turnovers.

TUNA TURNOVERS WITH MUSTARD SAUCE

10-oz. pkg. cut broccoli frozen in a cheese-flavored sauce
2 (7-oz.) cans water packed tuna, drained
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1/4 cup chopped onion
2 tsp. pickle relish
1/4 tsp. dry mustard
11 1/4-oz. pkg. frozen puff pastry, thawed
1 egg yolk plus 1 tablespoon water

MUSTARD SAUCE

2 tbsp. margarine or butter
2 tsp. flour
1/4 tsp. salt
Dash cayenne pepper
1 cup milk
1 tsp. prepared mustard

In bowl of hot water, thaw unopened broccoli pouch for 15 to 20 minutes. Heat oven to 450 degrees. Grease 2

Tuna Turnovers with Mustard Sauce are easy to prepare and at 300 calories each are a low-cal version of an old English meat pastry.

Apple lovers will like this quick breakfast idea

Busy people who put high priority on serving nutritious meals to their family in a jiffy need recipes that are quick and easy and ingredients that are ready to use. This recipe for apple pie filling pancakes can be prepared in a snap, with delicious results. The batter for the pancakes takes only a few minutes to make from scratch or use your favorite pancake mix. Top the pancakes with perfectly sweetened and spiced apple pie filling which comes in a can, is ready to use and keeps indefinitely on your pantry shelf. Serve with sour cream or whipped topping for breakfast or dessert.

APPLE PIE FILLING PANCAKES

2 large eggs
1/4 cup milk
1/4 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tbsp. butter or margarine
1 can (21 oz.) apple pie filling
Dairy sour cream (optional)

Combine eggs, milk, flour and salt. Beat with rotary egg beater or electric mixer about 2 minutes (batter will be very thin). Heat butter in 10-inch frying pan with oven-proof handle (or wrap handle in heavy foil). When hot, pour batter into pan. Bake at 425 degrees for 15 minutes. Lower heat to 350 degrees and bake about 5 minutes longer or until golden brown and crisp. (Batter will creep up on sides of pan, forming a shell.) Remove from pan, fill with apple pie filling, heated or not, as preferred. Serve with sour cream if desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

These brownies won't keep you in the kitchen long

Whipping up a homemade dessert is probably the last thing that working women — and some working men — want to contemplate when they get home. Even if the dessert is for tomorrow or later in the week, the idea of spending additional hours in the kitchen can put off just about anyone.

However, tasty desserts that also are nutritious-filled can be easy to prepare in a short time. Two examples are Peanutty Brownies and Sour Cream 'N' Nut Cupcakes. They are loaded with protein, carbohydrates and vitamins and have the added nutritional advantage of being practically sodium free.

What's more, these simple treats can double as health snacks. They're perfect for between-meal snacking, offering taste and nutrition.

PEANUTTY BROWNIES

Makes 25 squares

4 (1 ounce) squares unsweetened chocolate
1/4 cup margarine
2 cups sugar
4 eggs, slightly beaten
2 tsp. vanilla extract
1 cup all-purpose flour
1 1/2 cups chopped unsalted cocktail peanuts

In medium saucepan, melt chocolate and margarine over low heat. Remove from heat; thoroughly mix in sugar. Stir in eggs. Beat in vanilla and flour. Stir in one cup chopped peanuts. Spread batter in greased 9-inch square pan. Sprinkle remaining chopped peanuts over top of batter.

Bake 325 degrees for 40 to 45 minutes. Cool in pan or wire rack. Cut into squares to serve.

SOUR CREAM 'N' NUT CUPCAKES

Makes 1 1/4 dozen

1 cup dry roasted unsalted peanuts, coarsely chopped
1 cup sugar
2 Tbsp. grated orange peel
1/4 cup cake flour
1/4 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. baking soda
1/2 cup margarine
2 eggs
1 cup dairy sour cream
1 tsp. vanilla extract

In small bowl, combine dry roasted unsalted peanuts, 1/4 cup sugar and orange peel; set aside.

Sift together cake flour, baking powder and baking soda. In large bowl, with electric mixer at medium speed, cream margarine and remaining 1/4 cup sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Mix together sour cream and vanilla. Alternately add the sour cream mixture and dry ingredients to the cream mixture, beating well after each addition. Spoon batter

Recipe contests are booming, and if you're a creative cook, you should consider entering one.

There are contests for just about everyone now, from mushroom lovers to chocolate. And, the best part about a recipe contest is that winning isn't based on luck. A recipe is judged a winner primarily on its originality, but also if it contains the requested recipe criteria and adheres strictly to the contest rules. As a result, there's a lot you can do to improve your chances of winning.

Some contestants like to enter old family favorites. Others enjoy the excitement of creating an entirely new recipe. If you opt for the former, just be sure your family favorite hasn't been the winner of a previous recipe contest nor previously published.

WHERE DO ideas for new recipes come from? Sometimes they seem to pop up from nowhere. Occasionally, a great idea occurs in the midst of dinner preparations. But most often, developing a new recipe requires research and experimentation until the end results are "just right."

Keeping in mind the ingredient to be featured in your soon-to-be-created recipe, scan for ideas in cookbooks, magazines, newspaper food sections, even restaurant menus. The flavorings in a hot chicken casserole, for example, might work well in a cold chicken salad. Or, use pancake mix to eliminate ingredients and/or preparation steps in a favorite coffeecake recipe.

Next, write your idea in recipe form, following the guidelines in the contest rules for economy, few ingredients, etc. Then, prepare it — again and again, adapting and revising, until the recipe works perfectly and you're satisfied with the results.

When writing your recipe in final form, it's essential that it be written so that any one preparing it will have the same results as you did. If an ingredient or step is unclear, the final results might not be the same. Be sure to list all of the ingredients and list them in the order they are to be used. Use standard measurements and list exact amounts. Include package/can sizes, cookware sizes, baking and cooking temperatures and times, and number of servings. Use short, clear sentences. Last but not least, spend a few moments creating a title that will catch a judge's eye.

PLYMOUTH High School Class of 1940 invites friends from other classes to drop in at the 45-year reunion Saturday evening at the Elks Club on Plymouth Road. Reunion co-chairmen Bill Thomas and Ed Holdsworth invite people for dinner or to stop in some time during the evening.

Dinner is $11 per person. Anyone wishing more information may call Bill, 453-1925, or Ed, 453-4618.

ANDY DAHLKE, a senior at Plymouth Canton High School this fall, has won a full four-year tuition scholarship to the University of Michigan School of Music.

Andy is attending the eight-week summer program of the National Band Camp at Interlochen through a grant from Plymouth Community Arts Council and a scholarship from the National Band Camp. He is first-chair soloist with the National Symphony and Jazz bands.

He was a finalist in the international concerto competition earlier this summer. He won the four-year tuition scholarship in a recent competition at Interlochen. Andy's parents are Richard and Mary Dahlke of Plymouth.

A RECENT ISSUE of Nashville Magazine has a dramatic story about a 3-year-old Tennessee boy, Teddy, who crashed into the lower glass section of a screen door.

His parents rushed him to the nearest hospital 20 miles away. There they discovered that as well as the obvious cut under his chin and on his wrist, there was a five-inch chard of glass in his chest. X-rays showed the glass was very close to the subclavian artery and before surgeons could operate, they had to know if the artery was knicked or punctured.

The child needed an angiogram and the hospital did not have the facilities to do one. They could keep him alive with transfusions, but they had to get him to the Vanderbilt Medical Center in Nashville. A Lifelight helicopter was called from Nashville and Teddy was transported to Vanderbilt where the subclavian artery was found to be intact. Surgery was successful and Teddy suffered no permanent damage.

Now there is a local angle to this story. The pilot of the Lifelight helicopter, who made the rescue run with two emergency room nurses, was Bill Hamblin — born and raised in Plymouth Township. His parents, Ulos and Mary Hamblin, have a roadside stand on Haggerty Road.

BILL HAMBLIN graduated from Plymouth High School in 1966. He attended Eastern Michigan University for a year before going to Vietnam where he flew helicopters, transporting the wounded and dying out of combat zones. When he came home, he went back to EMU and graduated. He was a member of the National Guard before becoming one of the original pilots for Lifelight.

Now he pilots a Bell 206D1 helicopter with a cruising speed of 130 miles an hour. The co-pilot's seat has been removed to make room for a stretcher between the bubble and the rear seat. The nurses sit in the rear seat surrounded by medical supplies and equipment. Lifelight covers an area within a 130-mile radius of Nashville. The article mentions the fact that "Pilot Bill Hamblin also thrives on the pressure which sometimes seems tame compared to his experiences in Vietnam."

Bill married Brenda McIntosh of Plymouth in 1969. They have two children, William, 13, and Samantha, 9.

LAKE POINTE Village Garden Club is preparing for a reunion. The branch of the Woman's National Farm & Garden Association is planning a 25th anniversary celebration 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 12 at First United Methodist Church on North territorial.

All former members of the branch are invited to attend. For reservations call 453-3905 or 453-2296.

There will be more about this later.

Maxwell steam railroad will fire up once again

By Elinor Graham
staff writer

They loaded up the Maxwell Railroad, Tonquish Valley Line, last Thursday to take it to its new home in Wellston, Mich. After 28 years on Joy Road, Mich. the steam engine leaves behind a host of memories for generations of area youngsters.

The mile-long ride in the open coach was high adventure, from start to finish. The blast of the steam whistle and the chug-chug of the engine as it left the little station set the mood. The speed seemed terrific as it rounded the first curve and headed over the trestle, a really scary part of the trip.

Then there was another curve and the long straight-away south, beside the row of trees and Tonquish Creek. The oval 16-inch gauge track turned west then north, through the tunnel (more excitement as the whistle blew) and back to the station.

Trips to Maxwell's for a ride behind the steam engine was a favorite Sunday excursion for adults as well as children. Local residents took their out-of-town guests to Maxwell's, one of the showplaces of the community.

THE FAMILY of the founder of the railroad, the late John T. Maxwell, shared memories as they awaited the arrival of trucks to move the railroad. His widow, Alice Maxwell, and his son, Russell Maxwell, sat on the screened front porch, drinking coffee and eating Mrs. Maxwell's oatmeal chocolate chip cookies.

They reminisced. "He loved steam. He worked on a railroad for awhile when he was younger in Brookfield, Missouri. Then he heard about Ford paying $5 a day and he came up here and stayed. I came up 62 years ago and we were married," Alice Maxwell said.

"We bought a little steam train in Ohio in 1958. He saved just the boiler and built onto it. He could do anything. He bought the parts and designed the engine."

She said they found the tracks in West Virginia.

Russell Maxwell said, "We had 4 of a mile of track in '58 and expanded to the full-mile in '61. The trestle was added in 1963."

He said that when they were taking down the trestle, a man pulled his car into the driveway and came over to where they were working. "He said that on his fifth birthday, all the kids at his birthday party had come out for a train ride. I fired it up and blew the whistle for him."

Maxwell said they never had a guest book, but if they had, there would have been names from every state in the union.

"We burned Pocahontas Indian Maid coal in it. It made a lot of smoke and the kids loved smoke."

He said his children, twins Sharon and Karen, and Bob — now adults — are saddened by the removal of the train.

ALICE MAXWELL said, "We were just open Sundays and holidays and for special events and parties."

"He fired it up one night for the students at Our Lady of Good Counsel School. They were on a mystery trip and soon as they turned in the lane they started to scream with joy."

John T. Maxwell's little steam engine, with son Russ at the controls, poses for its last photograph on Joy Road in Canton Township.

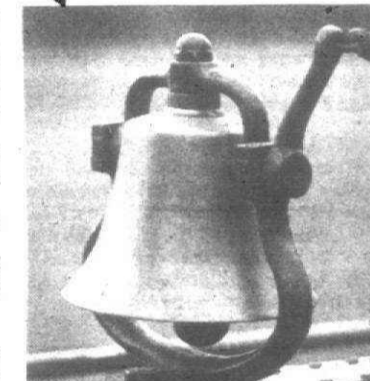

She laughed as she recalled a visit by children from the school for the blind. "One little boy felt the entire engine with his hands, then he came over to me and felt me. He asked, 'Why is the train so small and the people so big?'"

She said they used to have a lot of camera clubs come out to take pictures. They shut down in 1976 because of John Maxwell's failing health.

"It was his hobby and it gave a lot of pleasure. They paid enough to ride to buy the coal."

WALTER FISCHER, the man who bought the railroad, is moving it to Wellston, which is about 25 miles east of Manistee on M-55.

Please turn to Page 6

The little brass bell from the top of the engine will ring once more in Wellston.

SOME OF THE GREATEST THINGS IN AMERICA NEVER CHANGE.

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS
Paying Better Than Ever

U.S. Savings Bonds.

Now Paying 9.49%.

In the 1800's, baseball was a child's sandlot game. Then came the curve ball, the slide, the crowds and the legends—like Babe Ruth. Baseball had become our national pastime.

Some things never change.

But one great American tradition has changed—U.S. Savings Bonds. Now Savings Bonds pay higher variable interest rates like money market accounts. Currently, Bonds are paying 9.49%.

Just hold Savings Bonds for five years and you get the new variable interest rates. Plus, you get a guaranteed return. That means you can earn a lot more, but never less than 7.5%.

You can purchase Bonds at almost any financial institution, or easier yet, through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds. Like baseball, they're another part of our proud heritage. For more information, call toll-free 1-800-US-BONDS.

TRAIN LEAVES MANY MEMORIES
He took everything — tracks, carriage engine, coach, tunnel and water tower. It will be set up again and the Maxwells are hoping several more generations of children will have the thrill of riding behind a steam engine.

People wanted to buy part of the tracks, or just the engine. But we had to keep it all together. It had to go as a package," Maxwell said of his father's creation.

And perhaps the little steam engine's fame will continue to spread. He told of a local man who was in a restaurant in Portland, Ore., when he heard a conversation between two men at the next table. What caught his attention was one telling the other about this wonderful little steam engine that went over a trestle and through a tunnel.

He finally had to get into the conversation and said, "We've got one just like it in Plymouth. Was it the same one?" It was.

UMA MULTI-SPECIALTY MEDICAL CENTER

THE SYMBOL OF QUALITY HEALTH CARE

Does your child have the necessary immunizations?

The American Academy of Pediatrics stresses the need for immunization against eight serious infectious diseases that are known to cause deafness, lockjaw, learning difficulties, mental retardation, paralysis & brain hemorrhage. These immunizations are available at UMA.

Back-To-School Health-Assessments

University Medical Associates, P.C. would like to assist with your child's back-to-school health care needs. For a limited time, we are lowering the cost for a medical assessment of your child.

At certain intervals from pre-school to age 17, children are required by law to have physical examinations and immunizations before being admitted to school. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends that because children grow and develop rapidly, they should receive a complete physical at least once every two years after the age of three.

If you think that your child is due for a physical examination, give us a call. We will be happy to answer any questions and to set up an appointment.

- UMA IS ACCEPTING NEW PATIENTS
- TRANSPORTATION AVAILABLE
- OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

$20 BACK-TO-SCHOOL HEALTH-ASSESSMENT*

Includes: A complete history and physical examination, hearing and vision tests, urinalysis and blood test.

*Because each child's requirements vary depending on age, the cost of any immunization is extra. Offer Expires October 15, 1985.

Comedy needs genius

Val Kilmer is Chris Knight, a brilliant, mischief-making senior at Pacific Tech.

"Real Genius" lacks what its title offers. Even for a comedy, it is not very credible and if there was any genius involved in the production, it certainly doesn't show.

Although the film's premise is clever, and there is some funny stuff, "Real Genius" develops weakly with clouded storylines, one-dimensional characters, jokes that are over or underdone and some special effects that aren't worth the big bucks invested.

Pacific Tech, modeled loosely after Cal Tech, is the setting in which super-smart Professor (and television teacher) Jerome Hathaway (William Atherton) exploits the genius of personally recruited students to fulfill his own selfish ends.

There are five young principals, three of them students Hathaway exploits: Smart-aleck, wise-cracking Chris Knight (Val Kilmer), whose manner is a defense against academic burnout; recently recruited and very young (even for a freshman), 15-year-old Mitch Taylor (Gabe Jarret); and ex-teacher's pet Kent Torokvei (Robert Prescott), reduced to near-servant status since Mitch arrived on campus.

THE OTHER TWO leads, hyperkinetic engineering student Jordan Cochran (Michelle Meyrink) and dropout Laslo Hollyfeld (Jonathan Gries), who lives in the college's steam tunnels, complement one another: she has too much energy and personality and he has none.

It is all very well to say that's good characterization. As a matter of fact, it was either too much or too little and, as with all but Chris Knight, the characters in this film have no dimension. Professor Hathaway is a completely self-absorbed egotist with no redeeming qualities. Kent, his toady, has only one dimension. Mitch is just there and the rest of the local geniuses act like refugees from Mr. Kotter's classroom.

Effective comedy and satire present characters and situations that appear real. To do so, one needs characters that are human, that have good and bad features. Chris Knight is the only one who meets those criteria in "Real Genius." His defense against academic burnout and the problems genius brings is flippancy and apparent disinterest in everything (except sex). Kilmer plays it sharp and snappy and has most of the film's clever dialogue, well-delivered.

the movies

Dan Greenberg

One of the film's potentially funniest scenes is underdeveloped to the point that it just isn't funny. The humor possible in a reading room filled with students intensely studying for finals is lost because the long shots presented never let the audience feel the tension, as close-ups would have. When one student finally goes berserk under pressure, no laughs; again, because of long shots, the audience never sees or feels released tension as a contrast to built-up pressures.

At the other end of the spectrum, it isn't funny to take an old joke and drag it out. Such overdevelopment telegraphs the punchline and the audience gets bored waiting for the obvious. Students leave tape decks to record the professor's lecture. He, in turn, gets tired of lecturing to tape recorders and tape records his lecture for the students' tape recorders. Funny, huh? Maybe as a one-liner, but not here with so much screen time devoted to the build-up.

THE UNDER and overdeveloped loose ends are characteristic of "Real Genius," with Mitch's search for Laslo in the closet leaving us all somewhat confused and disinterested. Mitch finally detects the secret of his closet's trapdoor (for such a bright kid, it sure takes him a long time to figure it out) and he discovers the steam tunnels where Laslo lives.

The foolishness mercifully comes to an end with an overdone gag involving 190,000 pounds of popcorn, retail value $1.8 million. Once you pop all that corn, you have to use it. "Real Genius" is long on corn and short on clever.

Sushi featured

Kyoto Japanese Steakhouse will open Benisushi, its second authentic Sushi bar in the nation and the first in Detroit, on Wednesday at 1985 W. Big Beaver Road in Troy. The grand opening will be highlighted by a traditional Shinto ceremony performed by the Rev. Kawahatsu of San Francisco, who will bless the new Sushi bar and restaurant at 5:30 p.m. The opening celebration, with Japanese music and dancers, runs 5-8 p.m. Sushi ranges from octopus, sea urchin and squid to Sushi assembled with cooked fish, sometimes shrimp, crab or lobster.

Jim's Garage

A new lunch and dinner menu, described as Nouvelle American, is being offered at Jim's Garage in downtown Detroit. Chef Jim Maier, former sous chef at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, has put together the menu emphasizing fresh local fish, fowl and meat products, along with Michigan wild berries, cattail shoots, morel mushrooms, leeks and fiddlehead ferns. Shrimp Detroit is shrimp poached in Stroh's beer, garlic, shallots and rosemary. Veal Maier is medallions of veal sauteed in leeks, toasted pine nuts, and tomatoes sun-dried by Maier.
