School issues await voters' decisions

Voters go to the polls Monday to select candidates for three positions on the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education and to decide the fate of a $13 million bond issue.

Contained in the bond issue is $4.5 million for building a sixth elemen-tary school in Canton, $925,000 for improvements to the Board of Education office; $2.65 million for renovation and repair at Central and Pioneer middle schools: $1.3 million for replacing 11 and adding two buses and $2.9 million for miscellaneous equipment and computers.

Wildlife work wins praise for local artist

By Kevin Brown staff writer

You could say a stuffed owl taught Cal Kemppainen a lot about painting wildlife.

Kemppainen laughs when he recalls the owl, the first of his wildlife paintings that now win praise in state competitions. He had the detail right - the gray feathers tinged in black, the dark eyes, the body shape. There's just one problem with the work, showing the bird in its habitat: "I painted a perfect stuffed owl," said Kemppainen of the lifeless-looking bird. "You have to get the gesture of the animal; the way it would sit naturally."

Since then, the Canton signpainter and part-time artist has gone on to place in the final 10 entries in the 1986 Michigan State Duck Stamp Competition.

It's a significant achievement, considering he placed above several artists who paint wildlife full

In the upstairs studio of his Canton home, Kemppainen keeps sev-eral books depicting in detail the anatomy of various birds.

"Once you decide you're going to do one, you have to have it accurate," he said. "In these competitions, especially the duck-stamp competition, they count feathers. They'll know if the bill is not angled properly. You need to really research your subject extensively.

While painting a Kool cigarette billboard ad in Belleville, Kemppainen got the idea to do a painting of a red-tail hawk, with the viewer looking over the shoulder of the bird perched high in a tree. "I thought it would be kind of neat to do a portrait from the bird's perspective," he said.

The finished work, one of the artist's favorites, focuses on the back of the hawk - its head tilted sideways. The reddish light from a setting sun illuminates a field and distant line of trees below, complementing the red-tailed bird.

A new strip shopping mall named F&M Center after the site's anchor store is scheduled to open in late fall.

F&M Distributors Inc., a discount health and beauty aids store, will occupy 23,000 square feet on 7.4 acres land on the south side of Ford Road between Lilley and Haggerty.

F&M plans to hire 35 to 40 fulland part-time employees mostly from the Canton area, said Richard McLean, F&M vice president of dis-

NO OTHER BUSINESSES have signed leases for occupancy at F&M Center, said Richard Fay, Fox executive vice president.

We expect to see a typical mix of businesses," said Fay, who expects the mall to include an optometry store, a pizza shop, record store, sporting goods store and hair salon.

Strip shopping centers have been opposed by many Canton residents in recent months. Residents complain that the township is being saturated with strip malls. They also argue that the supply exceeds demand and businesses often fail resulting in vacant store fronts.

Fay predicts occupancy will not be a problem at F&M Center.

"If we were that concerned we wouldn't build there," Fay said. "We have a very capable management team. Our tenants are typically na-tional stores that are financially solid, and leases will run long term.

F&M currently operates 26 stores in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. McLean said Canton was chosen for a new site, because of its recent increase in population.

Man sought in drug store rip-off

Canton police are searching for an unidentified man who is a suspect in at least six robberies of Arbor Drug stores in the Detroit area.

The man, who was unarmed, stole $142 from the Canton Arbor Drug Store on Sheldon Road about 1:15 p.m. May 29.

During the Canton robbery the man approached a check-out counter and asked for a pack of Kool cigarettes, Canton police Detective Robert Sidor said. He presented money for the cigarettes but when the clerk

This man is suspected to be part of a team responsible for numerous 'till' tappings' in the metro-Detroit area," a police bulletin said.

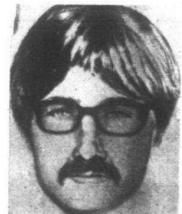

However, police do not have descriptions of other people involved.

Sidor said he was told by personnel in the Arbor Drug Store Loss Prevention Unit that since May 2 six Arbor stores have been robbed by people using the same method. The locations robbed include Canton, Taylor, Wyandotte, Madison Heights, Inkster and Southgate.

Now What?

Thousands of tri-county high school graduates leave high school behind forever every May and June. Jubilant in June at the prospect of "getting out," many do not plan for September. Summer passes quickly.

The basic entry ticket to many professions is the baccalaureate degree. Indeed, a college degree is now required in many entry level positions that formerly required only the high school diploma.

And college graduates earn more. The United States Census Bureau reports that male college graduates aged 25 to 64 earn $362,000 more during their working years than high school graduates. Female college graduates in the same age range earn $144,000 more than their high school graduate counterparts.

Go to College.

Don't miss a good bet

Plan now to enter cottege in the fall. You won't have to wonder "What Now?" come September.

And consider Wayne State University:

- More than 28,000 students—most from the tri-county area—choose Wayne State University each year.
- Of WSU's 157,590 alumni, more than 56,000 still live—and work—in Wayne County, while 30,000 live in Oakland County and 14,000 in Macomb County.
- Wayne State University is a "University."

Sculpture gets finishing touches

staff writer

ONTHS OF hard work have gone into the project, and the results of all that work are there

The play sculpture in Plymouth Township Park has just about reached the point of completion, with the dedication ceremony schedaled for 4 p.m. Saturday.

Sculptor Peter Rockwell, creator of the play sculpture, is pleased with the progress of the project.

"This is the biggest thing I've ever done, and in a way the one I've had the most control over. I was given a great deal of freedom."

The sculptor worked with Jim Anulewicz, Plymouth Township's planning and building director. They agreed to put the sculpture where it is and to work with the existing landscape in the park.

"One of the things in working out here, I've realized how much this park is used," Rockwell said.

The sculpture, which has a gargoyle theme, includes a fountain. The sculpture is designed to be climbed on and played on. It includes a board where park visitors can play chess or checkers.

"THE ONLY thing people have to provide is their own checkers and chess pieces," said Rockwell, who is the son of the late Norman Rockwell, the illustrator.

The sculptor, who lives in Italy, has enjoyed his time in the Plymouth-Canton community and the people he has worked with here.

Their capacity to organize and the amount of volunteering is just amazing to me. And even their flexibility on occasion. To do it this way was a whole experiment."

The $60,000 project is being financed through donations and pledges from area businesses, organizations and individuals.

Last Saturday, Plymouth-Canton residents had a chance to meet the sculptor and to see the sculpture as it neared completion. A Family Day for the young and young-at-heart was held at Plymouth Township

A similar event was held on an earlier Saturday in May.

'We had a real good turnout that day," said Judy Lore, chairwoman the Family Day program. The weather cooperated for the event.

'We've just had the two days, and it's been beautiful both days." The activities at Family Day were varied, including several arts activities for children.

"We wanted to give the kids a chance to do some creative artwork near where Peter was working,'

DURING THE Saturday event, a drawing was held to determine the winners in a treasure hunt. The treasure hunt - for "monster eggs" hidden in local store windows - was held recently to promote the sculpture project in area schools.

During the Saturday event, children also made badges and colored gargoyle designs. They also were able to have their pictures taken while looking through cardboard gargoyle designs. Those designs were created by Kris Darby's art students at Plymouth Salem High School

T-shirts and sweatshirts with a tockwell design were also sold at the Saturday event.

The festivities at Plymouth Township Park will continue at 4 p.m. this Saturday with the dedication ceremony for the sculpture. Judge James Garber of the 35th District Court will serve as the master of ceremo-nies. Maurice Breen, Plymouth Township supervisor, will give welcoming remarks. At the dedication, three Plymouth-Canton students will describe what the sculpture project has meant to them. The three will be Geoff Ward, a Hulsing Elementary School pupil, Steven Laurette, a student at West

Middle School, and Gale Tang, a student at Plymouth Canton High

"We want everybody to come," said Janet Campbell, co-chairwoman for the sculpture project. "It is open to everyone.

Dress for the dedication ceremony will be "very casual," she said.

In addition to the three student speakers, a Plymouth-Canton Community Schools art teacher, Lynne Lonigro, will speak at the dedication ceremony. Lonigro teaches at West Middle School. A community representative, David Campbell, will also speak-at the dedication ceremony, which has been organized by Elaine Kirchgatter as the chairwoman.

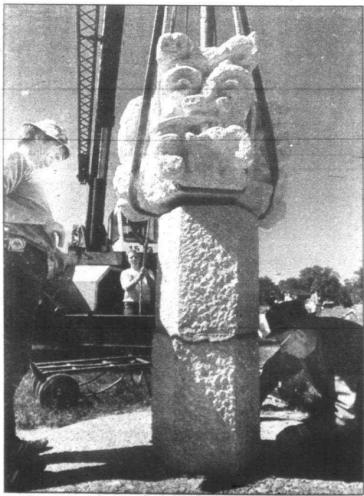

Musical entertainment at the ceremony will be provided by the Centennial Educational Park Singsations and by Andrew Dahlke, saxophonist. Hundreds of balloons will be released.

"We hope we'll have a huge crowd," Campbell said. Rockwell, who will leave Plymouth soon after the day of the dedication ceremony, intends to return to see the sculpture he and his assistant, Gilham Erickson, have created.

'Of course I'll come back. I'll

Rockwell and his assistant, Gilham Erickson, have been working on the play sculpture project in Plymouth Township Park during the past several months. On Tuesday, the pieces for the fountain portion were put into place with the help of an Allingham Corp. crane.

The main thing to do is to have real experts for setting it and these people really are," the sculptor said, as he watched the men at work. "The crucial thing is that they know how to move stuff.

'All I can do is stand back and watch because I'm not a stone setter. I'm a carver.

Allen Monuments Inc. handled the fountain work on Tuesday.

'They're placing all of these," said Janet Campbell, co-chairwoman for the sculpture project. The R.A. De-Mattia Co. has been responsible for overall site work, she said.

Watching the work on Tuesday was exciting for the sculptor, who lives in Italy and is the son of the late Norman Rockwell, the illustrasomeone you love, take the time now to learn what's going on at Harper Hospital and the Comprehensive Cancer Center.

This is where major cancer research is headquartered and where cancer treatment and clinical knowledge are concentrated. The federal government organized the Comprehensive Cancer Center Program to funnel research funds into a few strong centers like this with advanced research and treatment capabilities. Many of the other centers, such as Memorial Sloan-Kettering in New York and the M. D. Anderson Tumor Institute in Houston, refer midwest patients to Harper for treatment. The idea is to keep cancer patients close to the leading edge of medical science and discovery, up front where breakthroughs in research are translated quickly into treatment. Breakthroughs like the cancerfighting superconducting cyclotron, which Harper helped develop. This amazing machine, the first of its kind anywhere in the world, will bombard cancer tumors that are resistant to conventional radiation therapy. And Harper patients will be there. At the beginning.

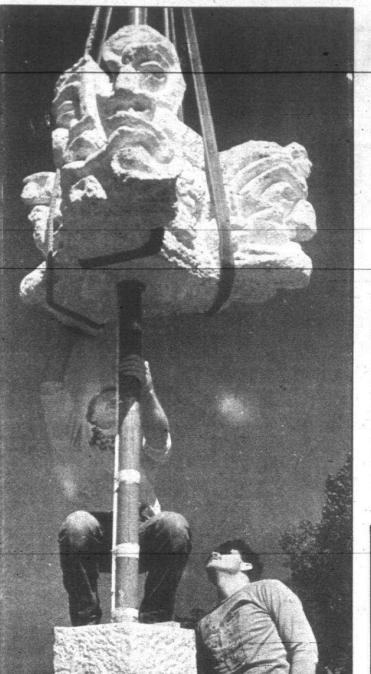

There is new hope every day. So ask your physician or general hospital about a consultation at Harper Hospital. Every cancer patient deserves this opportunity.

'Balancing act' on wages

Labor investigator asks tough questions

By Carolyn Smith special writer

Nancy Bowlby says her job as an investigator for the U.S. Department of Labor offers "the challenge of the unknown."

The Garden City resident, who works in Troy, performs a delicate balancing act of resolving employee complaints of unfair labor practices and helping employers understand the laws. She also asks tough questions:

Is the employer paying the minimum wage? Is the employee receiving earned overtime pay? Is the firm complying with laws on federally financed construction jobs?

BOWLBY'S WORK takes her to businesses in Oakland, Macomb and Livingston counties.

Her bible is the Fair Labor Standards Act, which covers employees of retail and service businesses grossing yearly sales of more than $362,500 and other types of businesses with gross incomes of more than $250,000.

Complaints come from people of all ages and occupations. But most, she said, involve low-wage earners such as children and adults entering the labor market in unskilled jobs

Payment of overtime wages, she said, tends to be a problem shared by many workers - secretaries, bookkeepers, bank tellers, restaurant and construction workers, and manufacturing employees who include piece-rate workers.

EMPLOYERS RUN the gamut.

"They're mom and pop operations to major cor-porations, to state and local government agencies," she said.

Bowlby admits to witnessing some sad situations. "Some of them involve exploitation of children. I've seen 10- and 11-year-old migrant workers making $1.50 an hour," she said.

And she recalled the man who lost his job as a gas-station attendant after he blew the whistle on an employer who ordered him to illegaly pump leaded gas into vehicle tanks with altered or missing emission-control devices. The worker never got his job back, but the matter was settled to everyone's satisfaction.

Bowlby stresses that fairness and objectivity are her basic working tools.

"I can get tough when I have to, but my greatest satisfaction is to work out violations with an employer for an employee and everybody

SHE BRINGS a ready smile and easy wit to the job. A positive, upbeat attitude, she reasons, can be attributed to a childhood in which nothing stayed the same for very long

'My dad traveled a lot with us, and I developed a great sensitivity to other cultures. So I'm not the least bit threatened by change, other people or their attitudes."

She has traveled and lived in various parts of this and other countries, including Indonesia, Spain, Thailand, China, Italy and Norway.

She began working for the labor department in 1975, after graduating from Kalamazoo College. Earlier this year, Bowlby served on a task force in Washington, D.C., aimed at helping state and local governments understand 1986 minimumwage and overtime laws affecting their employ-

She said most of her work days are long. But she has found time to serve as president for two years of the 58-member Garden City Business and Professional Women's organization

She was recently elected secretary of the district federation of the BPW, which includes western Wayne and Oakland counties.

Bowlby is married and enjoys gardening, music and taking care of her two cats and three hirds

Nancy Bowlby, who investigates unfair labor practices for the federal government, finds her basic tools are fairness and objectivity — spiced by a ready smile.

on tax effects'

ART EMANUELE/staff photog

Don't make decisions based By Doug Funke staff writer Do proposed changes in the federal tax code have you

Several financial advisers interviewed by the Observer & Eccentric may advocate different tactics, but all agree that investors should move cautiously until a new tax bill becomes law.

"The very bottom line is don't jump off any ledges, don't do anything drastic until you see what's written, said Thomas Tybinka, a senior vice president for the investment company of Prescott, Ball and Turben in Plymouth. 'We're telling everybody the same thing we always tell them - don't make decisions based on tax effects, said Robert Czapiewski, a certified public accountant with the Livonia firm of Swad and Co.

"If it makes economic sense, do it. If it doesn't, don't. Worry about taxes later."

INVESTORS, though, shouldn't sit on their hands oblivious to what may or may not transpire, said Walter Kerrigan, chairman of the Metropolitan Detroit Society of the Institute of Certified Financial Planners.

Consider appropriate reactions to different possible scenarios, he advises.

"Uncertainty shouldn't deter management of assets. Plan for an ultimate course of action," said Kerrigan, president of the Institute for Financial Planning in Farmington Hills.

A wide-ranging bill unanimously approved by the Senate Finance Committee would reduce the highest tax bracket for individuals from 50 to 27 percent. In exchange, many adjustments for income and deductions would be eliminated or substantially curtailed.

Taxpayers most likely would be touched by proposed changes in the treatment of Individual Retirement Accounts, deductibility of state sales taxes and consumer interest charges, and capital gains on the sale of stocks, bonds and mutual funds

INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

Individuals may now subtract from income contributions to IRA accounts of up to $2,000 annually whether or not they're covered by a private pension plan. The Senate bill would limit the adjustment only to persons not covered by retirement plans where they work.

Interest and dividends earned on IRA investments would continue to be tax-deferred for all contributors until they're withdrawn at age 591/2

For that reason, adding to an IRA account could still be a bargain even though the front-end deduction is lost.

"It would definitely be a good deal," Kerrigan said. "It would still add to their wealth and add to the capital base of the nation.'

"For many people, it's still a very viable and attractive way to save money for the future," Tybinka said.
With lower tax rates, the loss of the IRA deduction especially for persons now in brackets substantially less than 50 percent - wouldn't have much of an impact.

CAPITAL GAINS

The maximum tax on long-term capital gains property which has appreciated in value and held for at east six months - is now 20 percent.

All-capital gains would be taxed as ordinary income at a maximum of 27 percent under the Senate bill. Planners advise against selling stocks, bonds or mutual funds just to avoid paying the higher taxes. "The extra 7 percent, I don't think, should come into play here. You should invest for economics," Kerrigan

Terence Reed, a certified financial planner and president of Priority Planning Corp. of Livonia, suggests that now might be a good time to scrutinize portfolios. "I think the stock market's reaching a peak," Reed "If you feel (your) stock is so high now you wouldn't want to buy it, you should get out."

"If you need money some time in the next year or two, you're probably better off taking the gain (now)," Tybinka said. "If you're a long-term investor, you shouldn't worry about it.

"Once all the turmoil is over with, my opinion is the stock market has a long way to go.' Remember, if you do take a gain, you have to put the cash somewhere.

Interest rates on money markets are now fairly low. Higher interest rates on certificates of de require tying up money for longer periods of time. Is your investment insured? How safe really is it?

SALES TAX, CONSUMER INTEREST DEDUCTIONS

Sales tax paid on the purchase of a car or boat is currently deductible. Ditto for interest on monthly car payments and finance charges assessed on credit cards. The Senate bill would repeal those deductions.

But their loss may have less of an impact than might be apparent at first blush.

People buy cars because they need them. Decisions on

DuPont sees ballooning opportunities in autos

staff writer

Seeing a quadrupling of opportunity in the auto industry, DuPont Co. is elevating its Michigan operations to major department status. And the chemical giant is sending president, from Delaware to Troy where he can be close to the auto industry. "This is no small commitment. A department is the single largest business unit we have at DuPont," Board McAndrey Vice Chairman Edgar S. Woolard Jr. told a news conference at the 950 Stephenson Road headquarters.

"And this new organization will be one of the biggest of our II operating units," Woolard said. "In fact, if t was an independent company, it DuPont ranks with PPG and would rank among Fortune's list of BASF as one of the three largest supthe nation's top 200 firms."

McAndrews' newly designated Automotive Products Department accounts for about $2 billion of Du-Pont's $29.5 billion in worldwide sales. Half the automotive sales are to original equipment manufacturers, half to the after-market.

DON'T LOOK for any big job expansion right away, even though McAndrews sees automotive opportunities increasing "four-fold by the year 2000" as more and more plastics are used in vehicles.

The reorganization and new executive face are part of DuPont's adaptation to industry trends. Said-McAndrews: "We will see tighter links between manufacturers and suppliers.

This will include earlier supplier involvement in vehicle design and development, more just-in-time delivery arrangements, and the additional servicing of manufacturers at their assembly plants."

pliers to the auto industry of finishes, thermoplastics, electronics, specialty polymers, films and chemicals, the executives said.

AT PRESENT, DuPont's new department consists of a half-dozen plants in the metropolitan area, other states and abroad, employing 5,000 to 6,000. The new department is being pieced together from parts of five existing departments.

Some 900 people work in Michigan half in Troy, others at a Flint finishes plant.

McAndrews will work out of the $25 million, year-old corporate automotive development center and office in Troy. It has adminsitrative and marketing offices, a showroom, seminar room and meeting rooms. It also has a color display center kind of room-sized "palette" with the company's 1989 paint offerings.

A block distance away is a monthold, multimillion-dollar laboratory, where the company tests thermoplastics for use in auto body parts. That 10,500-square-foot building will-be expanded in 1987, Woolard said. what or when to buy generally aren't based on sales tax. Also, auto manufacturers frequently offer low-rate financing deals "In the final anaylsis, it won't make much of a difference," Tybinka speculated.

"People are still going to buy cars," Czapiewski said. Kerrigan speculated that a change in the tax law may prompt more persons to lease rather than buy cars. Still, if you're in the market to buy and are undecided about whether to do so this year or next and the Senate bill were to become law, it may pay to make the purchase before the end of the year.

Credit has become so ingrained in our economic system that repealing interest deductions probably won't have much of an immediate impact, advisers project.

There may be a way around a potential interest-

BECAUSE mortgage interest would continue to be deductible, advisers predict that some persons may take out an equity loan against the equity of their houses, then deduct that interest as mortgage interest.

All apparently legal. Other proposed tax changes - such as repeal of the so-called marriage-penalty deduction — probably won't hurt as much as now anticipated due to the lowering of Whatever happens, look before you leap. Today's law can be history tomorrow. The tax code has been revised 19 times in the past 23 years, Tybinka said.

'Look at every investment from an economic standpoint," Reed said. "Don't go for any quick deals. Don't let the tail wag the dog.

Glenn, Irwin stalk Chiefs

Plymouth Canton will bring the worst record of the foursome into Saturday's Class A regional baseball tournament hosted by the Plymouth-Canton Community School District.

The Chiefs will also have the most suspect pitching staff and an inconsistent offensive attack. But the Chiefs have history on its side and the other schools are wary. Westland John Glenn, 24-2 and ranked No. 1 in Observerland, will play the Chiefs at 10 a.m. on Canton's field. Glenn has never won a regional title. The Rockets came close in 1978, but Canton beat them in the regional finals.

"Canton is very well coached," said Glenn coach Norm Hoenes. "They aren't going to make a lot of mistakes. They have the reputation, you know. When you say Canton, people know what you are talking MONROE WILL put its 21-7 record on the line against Redford Union (15-10-1) in the other semifinal game at 10 a.m. at Plymouth Salem.

Monroe coach Butch Foster also has a fond memory of Canton. The last time Monroe was in a regional, 1982, it lost to Canton.

If you're looking for favorites, try Glenn. Hoenes's team won the grueling Western Lakes title going away. The Rockets boast five hitters averaging 300 or better: Mike Hammontree, Chuck Hammontree, Rick Tavormina, Steve Irwin and Clint

And they have what every state championship team must have: solid pitching with at least one dominant

baseball

Steve Irwin is regarded as one of the top pitching prospects in the state. He has already been granted a full-ride to Eastern Michigan and is expected to be drafted by a Major League team. He is 9-0 on the season with an 0.85 ERA. He has struck out 100 of the 200 batters he's faced.

Irwin will start against Canton, ccording to Hoenes.

"He's a great pitcher and he'll be very tough to work against," Canton coach Fred Crissey said. "But I can't worry about him. I have to worry about my own folks.

THE CHIEFS are proven tough against fastball pitchers. But Irwin has been effective with a devastating curve ball and slider.

"We can't change our hitting pat-tern," Crissey said. "If we go up there thinking breaking ball and trying to adjust to the fastball, that just won't work. What we have to concentrate on is not swinging at balls out of the strike zone.

"But Irwin, really, is the least of my concerns right now. I'm concerned that we get good pitching and play good defense. If we do that, then we have a chance."

Crissey will probably start left-hander Adam Kocik. He and righty Jeff Lyle have become Canton's 1-2

Despite its uncharacteristic 18-14 record, the Chiefs have been a redhot team the last three weeks, winning eight of their last nine games. Leading the charge has been the smoking bats of Mike Culver, Chris Sisler, Tony Aiken, Tom Kenyon and Mark Stevens.

SPEAKING OF hot teams, Stu Rose's Redford Union team was 1-7 at one point this season. They have won 14 of 17 games coming into the tournament.

"We'ye certainly turned things around, but we've never been blown out of a game. Eight of our 10 losses think John Glenn is the best team I've seen and Canton is the best coached. It's just nice to be in their

But don't get the idea that RU is the tournament patsy. Far from it. With Pat Miller (0.77 ERA), Mark Thierry (1.89) and Jeff Stroble (1.72), the Panthers have a good chance of staying in-contention.

The offense, which until last week was on the timid side, is led by shortstop Dennis Bushart (.350). Sophomore Rick Rutledge has been hot, going 4-for-6 with a home run and six RBI in the district tournament. Junior catcher Mike Stefanski is also hitting .300.

MONROE HAS a solid pitching staff also. Junior left-hander Dan Hilliard has posted numbers equal or better than Irwin. He is 13-0 on the season with a 0.59 ERA. In 84 innings he has fanned 141, allowed 18 hits and seven earned runs.

Offensively, Monroe is led by second baseman James Goins (.397, six home runs, 28 RBI) and designated hitter Eric Nisley (.377).

"This is a strong regional," Crissey said. "I think whoever gets out could go all the way." The three other coaches echoed that sentiment.

The championship game is slated for 12:30 p.m. at Salem.

The wrongs of spring

THE WACKY WORLD of If state tournament time in basketball is known as "March Madness," then what can possibly describe the lunacy of spring tournaments? It just doesn't make sense. High school sports seasons in the fall and winter are reasonably constructed and fairly simple to figure. Take football, for example. Players and fans know there will be a game every weekend. They know when league games are upcoming. Both have ample time to psyche up.

And if they win eight or nine games, they know their bonus will be a trip to the state playoffs.

BASKETBALL IS similiar. Games are basically on the same days. Players get used to that routine. It's a long season, but it can be divided into phases: preseason, league season, state tournament. And both players and fans know that when the regular season ends, the state tourney begins.

Now consider spring sports.

If Alfred Hitchcock, Stephen King and Edgar Allen Poe had collaborated in twisting diverse elements into one massive mess of a season, they could have fared no better.

How did we sink to such depths? Search me. I'm fairly certain I can't even say how deep we've sunk. A season should build toward a crescendo. Nearly every sport follows the same basic plan. It's the one in which the season ends with a championship game.

Week after week, the field of competition narrows until just two teams remain for the climatic showdown.

SOUND FAMILIAR? The object is to build the drama through the season until the do-or-die finale.

Another important element of spring sports in relation to drama: Don't overdo it.

Too many ultimate showdowns not only ruin it for the athletes as well as the fans. How many times can even the best athlete peak in a seawell-conceived sports season is date planning. Set your playing dates so fans can plan around them, and so athletes can point toward them. It serves as another form of goal-set-

All three elements are vital in the construction of a sports campaign. So how many high school spring sports seasons meet all the criteria?

HOW ABOUT NONE?

As for building toward a climax: It's true each spring sport has a state tournament or championship. However, teams in baseball, softball and soccer can be eliminated from the state tourney by midseason.

Troy's girls' soccer team, for example, won the Southeastern Michigan Association championship, but the Colts were ousted from the state tourney on May 7 by Grosse Pointe South. It was their 11th game of the season, roughly two-thirds of the way through their schedule.

Ditto for Garden City's softball team, which was rated No. 1 in the state, and Rochester Adams baseball squad, which reached sixth-ranked statewide status. Both lost in predistrict games.

AS FOR TOO many pivotal, allimportant showdowns: Consider what many Metro Suburban Activities Association track teams experienced in a two-week period — state regionals, May 16; MSAA league meet, May 20; Oakland County meet, May 23; Ambrose-Eccentric Relays, May 27; state finals, May 31.

Was the Western Lakes Activities Association track schedule any less stressful? Pretend you're a WLAA track coach for a moment. Try telling your star sprinter to concentrate on Wednesday's league meet when the state finals are Saturday and see how successful you are.

ivonian claims regional

As for specific timing of events: Need I go into this? A schedule containing at least three contests a is often transformed into something still more monstrous, by unpredictable weather. A wellplanned campaign can be devastated by a week of rain-outs.

DON'T STOP there, though. A baseball or softball coach who has manuvered his team through this morass might start feeling smug, until he realizes he's reached the state regionals but hasn't a team left.

Proms and graduations have more than once humbled the elite, bumping them from powerhouse to pitiful. So, all things considered, what have we got here? I'm not sure I know, but it sure is ugly. And yet, as twisted and godawful as spring sports may seem, it would take just a few changes to set things

First, put state tournament competitions after the completion of the regular seasons for every sport. What incentive can a kid have to play a game when he knows his team is already out of the state tourna-

SECOND, CUT on the number of scheduled events. Allow a set number of regular-season tournaments or invitationals. Same thing with dual meets or games. And put state tournaments on Fridays, when they won't interfere with proms and gra-

Third, set aside specific days each week as rain days. If Monday's game is rained out, then it will be played Tuesday. If the game can't be made up in a week's time, cancel it (unless a league championship depends on

It's time those responsible for establishing spring sports policy became more organized. Goals must be clearly set so athletes can easily focus their priorities.

In the current state of confusion with regular-season and statetournament contests mixed together during the same week at times no one is sure of — everybody suffers.

The Plymouth-Canton Chiefs came from behind to win their semi-final matchup against Walled Lake

Western's Dan Gabriele — considered a top pro pitching prospect — and the Chief's Mark Coburn hooked up in a pitcher's duel that saw Coburn ahead in stats but Canton trailing 3-1 going into the seventh inning.

In the seventh, Gabriele retired the first two Canton batters, then walked Kenvon. Mark Stevens (who had homered in the sixth) and Dwayne Bennett, loading the bases for Pete Mormon. The count on Mormon went to 2-and-2 before the slender first baseman drilled a low hard one on one hop to the fence in left-center field, scoring all three base runners for a 4-3 Canton lead can seem easy to those outside the music scene looking in - just a matter of cashing in that "Money for nothing," to quote Dire Straits' popuar send-up of the misconception.

But for every Bob Seger, there's umpteen-jillion bar bands bashing out the radio hits at local clubs. Most hope to leave the club stage for the concert stage, but never do. That's partly because figuring out how to succeed in the business is tougher than playing a flatted 11th-chord on a warped 12-string guitar.

Jeff Hill, a rock singer from Garden City, has been working on that problem. Hill's only 22, but you can almost call him a veteran - he's been playing in public since age 17. While Hill has played major Detroitarea clubs like Harpo's and Jagger's with various groups, he views that experience as a warm-up to launchng his own band, Thrust.

"Previous groups I was in were learning experiences. This is my project group," says Hill. Just gearing up in recent months. Thrust per forms at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Gar-seek musicians with enthusiasim. "Some guys who were older were giving 50 percent, they were past their prime," he says. "Everyone in this group gives their 100 percent; everyone's got that hunger," Hill says. But Hill also stresses that he's learned much from older musicians. 'I learned how to handle myself as a performer. You can't have a superstar attitude and be successful."

After adding bassist John Starr and guitarist Rocco Calappari, both from Southgate, and drummer Pete Tavormina from Garden City, rehearsals opened at a Canton record-7:30 p.m. in Kresge Hall. Rock band Thrust is just one of the groups scene but instead getting known at outdoor hoping it has that special something to and teen shows, as well as major clubs, is the project it into the top ranks. Jeff Hill, lead way to go. singer, center, figures not playing the bar Hill says that while the band has written enough original songs to fill an album, they'll stick to covers in the bars. "Lots of people in groups I was in were concerned about playing their kind of music. But you're not on stage to satisfy yourself," says Hill. "I'm trying to groom these guys into having good stage presence,'

Hill says. Live performing, he adds,

"is basically a contact sport with the crowd - eye contact is important; even shaking hands." HILL SAYS YOU can learn a lot from watching major groups' performance habits: "Things not to do on stage; things to do on stage. We don't like to see bands that scream their lungs out . . . We're a straightahead rock group. We're the type of group parents don't have to worry about their kids going to see."

While the band hopes to sign with a booking agency and play clubs for a year or so, Hill says, "We're really staying away from the bar scene." Hill says he's seen friends make it in the bars, only to remain there. He plans outdoor shows and teen shows along with major club jobs, and hopes contacts he's made with agents, record company talent rep-resentatives and others will help them toward their goal - national recognition. "I'll work hard with it for a couple years."

HE NEWLY formed area Arts Alliance Group an organization of business and industry leaders is inviting the community to TAAG along in its endeavor to enhance the quality of life by a visible commitment to the arts.

TAAG also happens to be the acronym the group is using to make identification easier.

TAAG's first efforts will come to fruition at an inaugural concert Sunday in the Novi Hilton. The cabaret-style concert will be preceded by a champagne reception at 7 p.m. followed by a concert performed by the Greater Michigan Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Maestro Carl Karape-

THE ORCHESTRA is a professional ensemble headquartered in Livonia and will be performing popular works of Mozart, Dvorak and Strauss.

The orchestra made its premier appearance in a concert at the Mai Kai theater recently under auspices of the Livonia Cultural League.

The community response was great," said Robert Bishop, cultural league president, "but the whole program was a bit-more than the league could financially undergrowth of that initial effort. Karapetian's precise orchestral techniques and personal style at that concert were a hit with the sparse but enthusiastic audience.

TAAG, he explained, is an out-

Karapetian has served as music director and conductor of both the Grand Rapids and Palm Beach Symphony orchestras. He is the founder of the Opera Association of Western Michigan and heads the nationally recognized "Music to People" organization.

FEATURED SOLOIST at the inaugural concert will be Misha Rachlevsky, popular Detroit musician who is also a world-renowned violinist. In addition to impressive credentials as a soloist, Rachlevsky is the founder of the Renaissance City Chamber Players, who will be touring the Scandinavian countries later this summer. The Arts Alliance Group has been raising money to underwrite the expense of the inaugural concert as well as for the following series of three concerts, by soliciting sponsorship donations from area corporations and businesses.

"Businesses will be interested in becoming sponsors of TAAG once they hear about the activities we plan to support," said Fred Fehlauer, TAAG's chairman and senior vice president of CBS-Fox Video.

"BUSINESS NEEDS a vibrant arts climate in order to attract and retail a qualified flow of talented people for their firms. TAAG and its activities will help them toward this end," he added.

In addition to Fehlauer and Karapetian, the TAAG board of directors consists of various community and business leaders including Bishop, who is also president of the Livonia City Council; Edward McNamara, Livonia mayor, Dave Palmer, Co-Ordinated Business Interiors Inc.; Dr. Roger Ajluni; Jeanne Bonner, Schoolcraft College; William Brashear, Brashear, Tangora and Spence; Thomas Celani, Action Distributing Co.

Others are Angelo DiPonio, Greenfield Construction Co.; Lewis

George, Nicholas George Theaters; Ken Hale, Cambridge Un-derwriters Ltd.; Röbert Kross, Kross Associates Inc.; Martin Leavitt, Sullivan and Leavitt; Larry O'Brien, Lawrence O'Brien Associates; George Roumell, Riley and Roumell; Robert Schostak, Schostak Brothers and Co.; Charles Tangora, Brashear, Tangora and

Also, Betty Jean Awrey, Awrey Bakery; Alan C. Helmkamp, Helmkamp, Ellis and Abraham; Dan Wollenschlager, Michigan National Bank; Nancy Combs, Health Alli-ance Plan; Mary Ann LaForest, APT Services Co.; Peter Ventura, Wonderland Realty, and Ken Keley, Kelsey Advertising.

The Spring Arts Festival will include several demonstrations by artists of their work.

John Hyde, also known as "the Clarkston carver," will demonstrate his expertise in creating decorative decoys of ducks, geese, swans and shorehirds.

Steve Olszewski of Ann Arbor will demonstrate techniques involved in making raku pottery.

Other exhibitors at the festival will include: Ron Bishop, a blacksmith from Ypsilanti, who will demonstrate a variety of smithing skills; Susan Wright, a weaver from Ann Arbor, Tom LeGault, a painter from Plymouth; Simon and Joy Tarasiewicz, toymakers from Grand Rapids; and Irving Tasco, a caricaturist from Southfield.

Another highlight of the Spring Arts Festival will be the "Arts Dollars" raffle. A total of $300 will be given to the winners of the six raffle drawings, to be used for purchase of artwork of their choice at the festi-

The towering maples and giant fir trees that dot picturesque Greenmead, Livonia's historical park at Eight Mile and Newburgh roads, will be the backdrop for the city's annual arts and crafts show Saturday-Sunday, June 21-22. In the past, the show was held in the civic center area, but construction of several new buildings prompted the move to Greenmead. Over 200 exhibitors will take part, including Ken Allen of Livonia, who will feature handcrafted wood items; and the mother-daughter quilting team of Fran West (center) of Canton Township and Nois Hykai of Northville. Continuous entertainment, refreshments, benefit drawings on the hour both days are some of the highlights of the event that precedes Spree, Livonia's birth-day observance. There is no admission charge. Parking also is free and will be available off Newburgh Road.

I remember the first time I ever tried water skiing, set a Guinness' World Record for the longest fall in the history of the sport. The first time I ever tried downhill snow skiing is also the first time I ever remember literally

The first time I ever tried golf was the last time I ever truly enjoyed it, and as a result of my first attempt, parts of my elbow are still stuck to the cinder block walls of a racquet ball court in Livonia. Then there was the first time I ever tried offer skating at a rink ... well ... Let's just say that was the

The first time I ever went skeet shooting was also the firt time I ever held a shotgun. My friend threw the first skeet so just is not a great deal that you could know. hard that he fell backwards over a fallen tree.

Of course I closed my eyes when I pulled the trigger only to trunk of the tree. Convinced that I killed my friend, I dropped the gun and have yet to touch one.

THE FIRST ARTIFACTS column that I ever wrote came back with a note that read, "Just write the way you talk." Then, the second article also came back with a note that read, "Learn that the proofreaders still draw straws and the loser handles

Well I am going to stop giving you examples before I sound like "Super Klutz." The point is, however, clear that the "first" s often the "worst," especially in the world of art, a medium hat is no exception to the rule.

The first time you attempt a new medium it is an uncharted. ourse. You have no experience to draw from and must rely eavily upon the teacher. As you gain relative mastery of the nedium, you apply it to many different subjects i.e., scenery, till-life and portraits etc.

It is at this point that many artists stop trying new media. This is, of course, a natural response. After all, it feels good to know that you can make your medium do what you want it to.

WITHIN THAT FAMILIARITY and safety, however, one can become stagnated and dull. Often the risk of a new medium because of its unfamiliarity can produce a better expression. The best way to approach a new medium is to think, "Hey, I don't know anything about this medium but I'm willing to try. That confession, "I don't know," often seems to be a difficult one. But until you have handled a medium several times, there

I always tell my students, the ultimate goal of artistic training is "to reach the point when you pick the medium that best open them and view his feet as he flew backwards over the fits the expression and not bend the expression to fit your best

> Perhaps I could make that point clear with an example. Imagine you have a request to do a picture of an antique automo-

IDEALLY YOU as an artist should ask yourself, "Would this to-talk, then write the way you talk." After 150 articles, I hear be a candidate for pen and ink or perhaps colored pencil. Maybe a watercolor would be better. What if I did this picture in airbrush?" So it is a far better feeling when you pick the "most appropriate medium" for the subject and indeed the artist is limited who must render the subject in the only medium that he or she can handle.

It is odd that your success in mastering a particular medium can limit your desire to try another.

So please don't be content to be a medium artist. Try new media and stick with them until you gain relative mastery. Look at me. It used to be that I couldn't even write right and now I'm writing right always . . 'er is that always writing

SPRING FESTIVAL

JUNE 7-8

Festival holds fun for all

ARDEN CITY WILL show off its downtown progress for suburban shoppers and festival-lovers this weekend with a full schedule of events and fun for all ages.

Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the festival will be held from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and noon to 6 p.m. Sunday at the Ford-Middlebelt business section.

The chamber, celebrating its 30th anniversary this year, initiated the festival in early 1981 to encourage local and neighboring residents to drive to the downtown section and enjoy the new improvements and developments.

Since then, the festival has grown to attracts tens of thousands of shoppers and festival-goers who enjoy a parade, flea market marts and crafts displays, sidewalk sales, food booths, pony rides for children, kiddie amusements, new car displays, free health tests, and two days of continuous free entertainment.

THE FESTIVAL WAS the brain child of Mitchell Nimmoor, then chamber of commerce president and active in getting city officials and business persons together to improve the city's downtown.

A committee of chamber board members and other civic groups convened and planned the first festival which has now became an annual tradition.

The display of new cars, vans and recreational vehicles by local dealers will be on the northwest corner of Ford and Middlebelt, along with the portable stage for the free entertainment, and pony rides tainment, and pony rides.

Arts and crafts displays will be located along the Ford Road strip of businesses as well as in front of the new Sheridan Square retail center one block west.

Free public parking will be located on the southeast and southwest corner of Ford-Middlebelt as well as behing Garden City City Hall, Middlebelt at Block.

THE FLEA MARKET, a popular attraction for bargain hunters, will be relocated to a new site next to the Biscuit Company Restaurant opposite City Hall and within easy walking distance of the downtown section.

Garden City Osteopathic Hospital will continue to have an informational booth at which free blood pressure tests will be given as well as serve as a first aid station for festival goers.

The festival will get under way at 8:30 a.m. Saturday with the annual fun run, sponsored by the Garden City Public Schools' adult and community education department, behind City Hall, on Central at Block.

The traditional parade will start at 10 a.m. at Garden City High School, Middlebelt at Maplewood and conclude at the Garden Plaza business section on the northwest corner of Ford and Middlebelt.

A full afternoon of free entertainment is scheduled on a portable stage on the northwest Ford-Middlbelt corner.

The high school band, directed by James Cheyne, will start performing for the public at noon.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT will have a waterball battle between 1 and 3 p.m. behind City Hall.

The installation of the Sheridan Square clock tower will be at 3 p.m. at the under construction building of phase II of the retail center on Ford between Brandt and Henry Ruff. The clock will have chimes to keep local shoppers on time.

The Amazing Jacks musical group will perform at 4 p.m., followed by the Western Line country dance at 6 p.m., "Thrust" band at 7 p.m., and the American Dance Academy at 8 p.m.

Sunday's festival schedule will begin at 8 a.m. with the Kiwanis Club having its annual pancake day at the American Legion Hall, 2061 Middlebelt, south of Ford, for families.

The Sing-Out Dearborn vocal musical group will perform at noon, followed by the Karate Studio demonstration at 1 p.m. and Robert Lee Dance Studio show at 2 p.m.

Crestwood Dodge, at Ford and Venoy, will be the site of the fifth annual "Scat Pack" car show and swap meet Saturday.

Car entries are $6 with swap spaces going for $8, or $12 for both. Admission is $1 for the event, open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Interested persons may contact the Scat Pack Club at 563-5974 for more information. The club will have games, door prizes, awards, and a technical session.

Author is festival celeb

Gail Oust, author of romantic books, will take part in the Garden City Spring Festival Saturday to autograph her first book, "Sweet Possession," at the Tales and Tapes book store.

The book has just been published.

She will be at the store, in the Sheridan Square retail center, on Ford west of Brandt, from 1-3 p.m., said bookstore owner Joan Holmes.

The book by the author, a West Bloomfield resident, is her first for Pocket Books Tapestry line.

The book is written under the pen name of Elizabeth Turner is set in 1850 and is centered around the legendary underground railroad through which black slaves were able to reach free

Oust is a graduate of Holy Cross High School, Marine City, and Providence Hospital's Nursing School, then

She lived in lived and upstate New York before returning to the Detroit area 10 years ago.

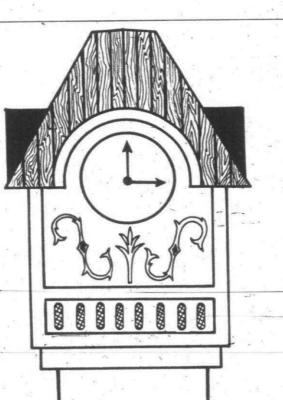

Festival visitor

Oust is also a vascular technologist.

Oust is now researching and plotting her second novel.

A clock tower with his decorative design and chimes will be placed atop a Sheridan Square chimney at 3 p.m. Saturday during the Spring

A chiming addition

Shoppers in downtown Garden City will soon have an easier time keeping track of time.

The reason is a new decorative clock tower with chimes scheduled to be installed at the under-construction Sheridan Square building on Ford, between Brandt and Henry Ruff, during the Garden City sixth annual Spring Festi-

The three-foot high clock will be fitted around the a nine-foot high chimney of Phase II of the Sheridan Square retail complex. The first building opened last fall.

Sheridan Square is being developed by Robert Sheridan of Sheridan Construction Co., Garden City.

He said the clock tower is scheduled to be installed at 3 p.m. Saturday during the Spring Festival, scheduled for Saturday and Sunday. Sheridan said the clock took about a month to build at his construction He had help from Donald Holmes, whose wife, Joan, manages the Tapes and Tales store in Sheridan Square, and Tom Miller, a friend in the clock "I love to hear chimes," said Sheridan, president of the Garden City

Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the festival. He said the idea for the chimé clock came out of a discussion on how to handle the chimney on the under-construction building, formerly the North Brothers Ford showroom
