EXTRA MILER: Helen Shelanskey, a second-grade teacher at Field Elementary School, was awarded the "Extra Miler" award at the last meeting of the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education. A teacher in the district since 1978, she previously taught in Middletown, Ohio, Niagara Falls and Miami.

In letters nominating her for the honor, Shelanskey was lauded as "an outstanding teacher who is very kind and encouraging," who has done such things as set up a store where the children may buy small things with play money that they earn from doing their school work well. Another letter writer noted that "Mrs. Shelanskey not only teaches the basics, but goes beyond them by creating projects and special field trips to reinforce each newly learned skill or study." Another parent described her as a teacher who always gives 150 percent.

Mrs. Shelanskey graduated from Goucher College in Towson, Md., earning a bachelor's degree in elementary education and earned her master's degree in May 1982 from Eastern Michigan University.

RESCUE: The Canton Fire Department was the talk of the neighborhood on Fox Valley near Georgetown recently when residents gathered to watch firefighters retrieve a cat wedged between the cab and box of a rental moving truck.

"It wasn't the typical cat caught in the tree type thing—the poor sucker was wedged upside down," said Lt. Don Adams. The crew pried the feline free, placed him in a cardboard box and the homeowner rushed him to the Humane Society in Westland. The last word from the Humane Society was that the firefighters' furry friend escaped with small injury and probably would be available for adoption soon. "We thought he would have had broken bones," adds Adams. "He looked pretty banged up."

MEDALIST: Charles Gliga of Canton has won the gold and silver medals in arm wrestling during the recent International Police Olympics held in Columbus.

Gliga, a 10-year veteran of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, also holds gold medals in this event awarded by the Michigan Police Olympics in 1985-86. He is a member of the mounted division, which patrols county parks and Metropolitan Airport. In congratulating Gliga, Sheriff Robert Ficano said he was proud to have the deputy in the department and encourages him to pursue his interest in competitive sports.

Canton vote jeopardizes sewer

By Diane Gale

Canton Township dealt the latest blow in a 20-year struggle to increase sewer capacity for a group of Wayne County communities, including Plymouth Township.

Canton's refusal to sign a service agreement could trash the project for all communities involved.

The Canton Township Board of Trustees passed a resolution last week refusing to participate in the North Huron/Rouge Valley Project, which was revamped from the Huron Valley Project, commonly known as Supersewer.

Canton's cost share in the $110 million project is unfair, according to the resolution signed by the trustees last week.

Canton would be charged 31.79 percent of the total project and would receive less than 6 percent of the additional sewer capacity generated, the resolution said.

Plymouth Township's share is 9.9

Federal grants would pick up 55 percent of the bill. However, the funds could be eliminated at any time during the three-phase project.

INITIALLY 75 PERCENT of the project was to be paid by the federal government. There is an attempt to convince the state to pick up the remaining 20 percent lost by the federal grant cutback.

Canton's cost is estimated at $17 million. But federal funding could be cut again at any stage of the project. If the grant is cut after the first phase, Canton's cost could be about $30 million, without considering cost overruns, according to C. Gerald Hemming, an attorney representing Canton.

The service agreement must be signed by all the communities involved no later than Dec. 1, according to Wayne County.

Firefighters battle mock disasters

They accompanied examples of community nightmares — a gas leak here, a chemical fire there.

But these disasters were staged

But these disasters were staged as part of a free training seminar presented by the Olin Corp., a pool chemical manufacturer with a plant at 35750 Industrial Road in Livonia.

The seminar took place last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Livonia fire station on Plymouth Road west of Newburgh.

Participants heard lectures, saw films and underwent "hands-on" drills. The exercises were designed to prepare them to deal with a variety of situations.

"I think it's fabulous," Canton fire Chief Melvin Paulun said, as a crew of firefighters battled a gasoline blaze. "I think that everybody here learned a lot."

ABOUT 125 people from emergency response groups, environmental groups, chemical companies, pharmaceutical firms, hospitals, medical centers and police and fire agencies attended the sessions.

Invited to take part were representatives from 22 communities, including personnel from the fire departments of Livonia, Plymouth, Canton Township, Farmington Hills, Garden City, Redford, Southfield, Westland, Northville Township and Novi.

"I feel that thanks should be extended to the Olin Corp.," Livonia fire Chief Barney Knorp said. "Hazardous material courses and training are in a very infantile stage in fire departments in the United States."

THE SEMINAR was designed by Safety Systems Inc., a Florida company that specializes in practical training.

"What we try to do here is project awareness," said Bill Walters, manager of Safety Systems. "We're here trying to solve problems."
"We're trying to make people aware that if it does happen here, they really do know what to do," said Halcott Foss, Olin plant manager.

The program was a cooperative effort between the city of Livonia and the Olin Corp.

Knorp presented the company with a list of emergency response personnel from surrounding communities, who were then invited to attend.

Work already is under way to work already is under way to prepare for a larger disaster drill in the near future.

THE MOCK disasters last week included incidents both at fixed locations and on vehicles.

Participants learned how to stop a propane gas leak from a cylinder and to carry the cylinder on a makeshift stretcher to keep the plug from falling off.

"This is just like a sick patient in EMS," Walters said.

A smoke bomb was ignited in a hatch, simulating a chlorine gas leak from a railroad car. A team of three firefighters — usually all that would have room to work on an actual hatch — donned gas masks and suits to cap the leak.

In a spectacular but horrifying display, a gasoline fire was ignited. Firefighters faced a giant wall of rolling, orange flame, black clouds of smoke and fireworks resembling popping pieces of metal. The group rescued a dummy and put out the fire.

Last week's workshop was the 12th in the country put together by Olin. When it was completed, more than 1,100 people (one-fourth of them Olin employees) had been trained and the sessions, representatives said.

Park defenders marshal forces against change

By Diane Gale staff writer

Canton residents in Carriage Hills and Willow Creek subdivisions are upset about plans to bulldoze a park.

The 9.5 acres on the south side of Barchester between Paul Revere Lane and Burham is owned by Plymouth-Canton Community Schools and is located in both subdivisions.

The school district has a contingent purchase agreement for $115,000 with developer Mel Belovicz of Southfield who plans to build homes on the land, according to Ray Hoedel, associate school superintendent for business.

The area includes woods and a field with a soccer field and baseball diamond.

Bob Dettling, a Willow Creek homeowner, cited possible sewer, and traffic problems if homes are built on the land.

"But my major concern is to save the park," Dettling said. "North of Ford Road there is no recreation area sponsored by the township."

When both subdivisions were built the developer and the township agreed the 9.5 acres would be used as a school site, according to Dave Nicholson, Canton community and economic development director.

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT asked the Canton Planning Commission to change the planned unit development (contract agreement) from a school site to single family residen-

The request failed because the commission deadlocked in a 3-3 vote before 150 some residents who packed township hall to air their concerns.

"Too much of Canton is being developed for strip shopping and apartment buildings," said Brent Taylor, Carriage Hills Homeowners Association president.

The commission, which has six members, is scheduled to vote on the change at its Monday, Oct. 13, meeting. Canton Township Supervisor James Poole is in the process of recommending a seventh commission member for approval by the Canton Township Board of Trustees.

"Does the PUD become a contract between the township and the residents now that the developer is gone?" Dettling said.

Nicholson said residents are not party to the planned unit develop-

Carriage Hills and Willow Creek homeowners are planning a "strategy meeting" at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, at Miller Elementary School. The public may attend.

Hoedel said he recently received calls from residents disappointed about the proposed sale.

"We felt over the long run in looking at the potential school sites in the future we would not need that land," Hoedel said.

Top school leaders granted pay raises

Wayne-Westland School Superintendent Dennis O'Neill and his six administrative cabinet members will have more money in their paychecks.

The school board Monday night approved a pay increase of 6.5 percent spread over two years for O'Neill and the cabinet as well as renewed their contracts for three years.

The pay raises are broken down into a 3 percent hike for the current school year, 3.5 percent for the following year, with the increase for the third year — 1988-89 — of the agreement to match the raise given to the Wayne-Westland Education Association.

In recommending board approval of the cabinet members' salary scale, O'Neill said they accepted a pay freeze in 1984 and received 4 percent increase in 1985. He added that the administrators also agreed to a concession in the fringe benefits, which included a reduction in their life insurance coverage and changes in their medical insurance.

O'Neill, who became superintendent in the spring of 1984, had his con-

isters of Mercy Servina our community Since 1911

This is St. Joe's

Our nurses have been at the heart of the spirit of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for seventy-five years. It is more true today than ever before

As professionals, our nurses have more responsibility than ever in providing care to our patients. Their education, experience, and skill are essential in maintaining the consistently high level of healthcare service that this community has come to expect from St. Joe's since 1911.

As people, these nurses play many roles in assuring that excellent care also means compassionate care. Nurses are educators and advocates for patients. They provide comfort and reassurance. They take a special pride in carrying out the hospital's philosophy of caring for the needs of the whole person.

Not surprisingly, although there are more than a thousand nurses at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, they still think of themselves as family. Together with the medical staff and the rest of the Health Center's employees, our nurses represent the values that have made St. Joe's the hospital of choice here for so many years.

At St. Joseph Mercy Hospital our family is here to help yours.

Gas bill cut

due in October Consumers Power Co. will make one-time refund in October of about $27.9 million to its 1.2 million natural gas customers.

The refund was approved this week by the Michigan Public Service The typical natural gas residential customer will receive a bill credit of approximately $13 in October The majority of the refund is du to a rate settlement reached be tween Trunkline Gas Co., Consumers Power's main supplier, and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission for gas Trunkline sold between De cember 1983 and February 1985.

Under the settlement Consumers Power received approximately $21 million which, with interest, is being refunded to its customers.

The refund also includes approximately $2.2 million in profits from gas storage, $1.3 million in a Marysville property tax settlement, and other lesser amounts from miscellaneous sources

Charles F. Brown, vice president for customer services and marketing for Consumers Power, said, "In addition to this one-time refund, we have previously announced that for the winter the natural gas rates of our customers are decreasing about 12

"This 12 percent reduction, the result of anticipated lower purchase costs from our pipeline suppliers, plus a recent Consumers Power rate settlement with the Michigan Public Service Commission, means an estimated annual savings beginning Sept. 1 of an additional $181 million for our 1.2 million natural gas customers," said Brown.

The imrovements are to compensate the city of Detroit for land given up for the freeway.

Business index softens during July

Michigan's Business Activity Index edged upward by one point in July to a level of 124, according to Manufacturers Bank.

This places July 1986 activity 4.6 percent lower than July 1985. But on year-to-date basis, Michigan's conomy is 2.2 percent ahead of the comparable seven months last year, according to bank economist David

In July, the steel and automotive sectors gained, but there was a sub-stantial decline in the average hourly work week in manufacturing. This may be a prelude to weakness in what has been the strength in Michigan employment, Littman said. Confirming this weakness, aver-

Ford in Plymouth — wild about water power

Ford Motor Co. got a bright idea the other plants." about the village industry plant Henry Ford built in 1922 on Wilcox Pond

The plant was operated by water power, a form of energy that had fascinated the industrial magnate

The engineer figured that the water in Wilcox Pond, and in the ponds made him move a building 40 feet at other Ford plants, would be frozen after it was on its foundation. in the winter. So he ordered auxiliary power engines installed at each of the village industry plants.

A FEW DAYS after the installation, Henry paid a visit to the Wilcox County Road Commission.

Plant manager Jim Gallimore showed him around. Ford saw the Plymouth and walked into George gasoline engine the chief engineer Richwine's harness shop. had ordered installed. 'What's that doing here?"

FESTIVE FALL DINNER WITH AN ITALIAN ACCENT

According to a recent national restaurant survey, over 75 percent of Americans opt for "Italian" when they eat out. Now that fall is putting most of us in the mood for cooking and entertaining once again, why not delight family and friends with some special meals sua casa that conjure up the luscious, highly varied cuisine of Northern Italy, Columbus Day might be the perfect time to throw a party!

The recipes given here take advantage of a pair of native products. American lamb and almonds and, appropriately enough, a 100% pure Italian olive oil that is both produced and bottled in Italy your assurance of consistent quality. Like so many proud Italian-Americans, these fine ingredients celebrate the best of two cultures.

What could be more impressive than a Crown Roast of Lamb with Italian Mushroom Stuffing and Chianti Glaze? Naturally tender with a delicate flavor. American lamb is available fresh year-round and is naturally lean, with little or no marbling of fat. Sumptuous as it looks and tastes, there are just 176 calories per 3-ounce serving. Almonds add rich, nutty flavor and a crisp crunch to the savory dressing that makes it really special.

If you've had a leg roast on Sunday, turn it into something sensational-like this Lamb Fettucine Peperonata - later in the week. And it takes only a few minutes to prepare; simply cook pasta, stir-fry and combine other ingredients, toss together and get ready for the bravas. Clear, golden Bertolli olive oil lends a distinctive yet subtle touch of flavor and light. pleasing fragrance, blending the various foods and enhancing their natural goodness.

In refreshing counterpoint is a sprightly Lamb and New Potato Salad Vinaigrette. It offers solid nutritive value since lamb is an important source of protein, zinc, niacin, iron and the B vitamins; almonds are chock-full of Vitamin E, riboflavin, calcium plus minerals and they contain no cholesterol. Olive oil, by the way, is not only cholesterol-free but also very high in monounsaturates, which many leading nutritionists now consider preferable to polyunsaturates for general health. It's also the most digestible.

Three additional menu suggestions, not shown, demonstrating the great versatility and adaptability of these very compatible products include Almontolli Lamb Chops—an easy way to dress up a family favorite for company.

Zesty Tuscan Manicotti. sparked with pesto, is a delicious twist on this traditional pasta dish. It's another stylish and economical - entree you can create using leftover lamb.

What's a festive dinner without - a slightly decadent dessert? Zuppa Inglese (literally "English soup" or trifle) Bertolli is a luxurious grand finale. "Build" it in your prettiest glass bowl - guests will gobble con amore!

3 egg volks

1/2 cup olive oil

1/2 cup diced roasted almonds

6 lamb shoulder chops

(about 1-1/2 lbs.)

1 teaspoon grated lemon peel

I teaspoon vanilla extract

3 cups sweetened whipped

Crown Roast of Lamb with Italian Mushroom Stuffing

'I clove garlic, minced

Chianti Glaze

1 cup heavy cream

1/2 teaspoon pepper

1/2 cup water

- 1 4-6 pound crown roast
- 1/2 pound hot or mild Italian sausage
- 1/2 cup olive oil pound mushrooms, chopped
- 1-1/2 cups chopped onion
- 1 cup diced celery

Place crown roast on rack in shallow pan; set aside. Heat oil in large saucepan; remove sausage from skin and crumble into pan. Cook until brown. Add mushrooms, onions, celery and garlic; cook 5 minutes or until tender. Stir in 1/2 cup water, bring to boil. Add stuffing, toss well. Stir in almonds. Stuff center of crown roast without packing too tightly. Cover center and rib ends with foil to prevent excess browning. Place remainder of stuffing in 1 quart covered baking dish; set aside. Roast lamb at 325°F., 1-1/2-2 hours or until meat thermometer inserted into thickest portion of lamb registers 150°F, for medium rare. The last 30 minutes, baste lamb with Chianti Glaze and heat remaining dish of stuffing. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

- Chianti Glaze: 1/2 cup Chianti (red wine)
 - 1/2 cup dark brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

1 jar (6 oz.) marinated artichoke hearts

1/3 cup small, whole pitted ripe olives, drained

1 cup blanched slivered almonds, toasted

1 cup grated Parmesan Cheese

1 package (7 oz.) seasoned cubed stuffing

blanched slivered almonds, toasted

- 1/2 cup ketchup

In medium saucepan, combine all ingredients. Stir over medium heat until smooth,

Lamb Fettucine Peperonata , 2 cloves garlic, minced

- 10 oz. fettucine noodles
- 2 pounds leg of lamb, cut into julienne strips
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- red pepper, cut into julienne strips
- 1-1/2 cups sliced mushrooms
- green pepper, cut into julienne strips
- red onion, chopped

In large pan, cook fettucine in boiling salted water until al dente; rinse; drain; remove; set aside. In same pan, stir-fry lamb strips a few at a time in hot olive oil until browned - about 2 minutes. Remove from pan; set aside. Stir-fry peppers, onions, mushrooms and garlic until tender crisp, adding more olive oil if necessary. Stir in oregano, pepper, cream, marinated artichoke hearts with liquid and olives. Add fettucine, lamb, almonds and cheese; toss to mix well. Heat through. Sprinkle with additional Parmesan cheese, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

Lamb and New Potato Salad Vinaigrette

- 4 cups sliced new potatoes
- 1/2 cup olive oil
- medium red pepper, cut into strips 1 medium green pepper, cut into
- 1-1/2 cups julienne strips of cooked lamb
- I medium purple onion, chopped
- 1/4 cup Balsamic or sherry vinegar
- 1 teaspoon Dijon-type mustard
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon coarsely ground black pepper
- 1/3 cup julienne strips cornichon or dill pickles
- 1_tablespoon capers
- 1/2 cup sliced almonds

In large skillet, cook potatoes in 1/4 cup of olive oil. Toss frequently. Add peppers and cook until just tender. Add lamb and purple onion. Cook several minutes, tossing frequently. Add remaining ingredients. Toss to blend and heat through. Serve warm, or refrigerate and serve chilled on a bed of crisp greens. Sprinkle with sliced almonds to garnish. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Tuscan Manicotti

(NOT SHOWN)

- 1-1/2 cups sour cream
- 1-1/2 cups grated Parmesan cheese
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 1/2 cup ricotta cheese 1/4 cup plus 1 tablespoon
- olive oil
- 1 container (4 oz.) frozen pesto sauce, thawed
- cup finely chopped onion
- 1 cup sliced fresh mushrooms
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 cups chunked cooked lamb
- 1 cup fresh bread crumbs
- 3/4 cup toasted slivered almonds
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

12 manicotti noodles for stuffing

In medium saucepan, combine sour cream. Parmesan cheese, heavy cream, ricotta cheese and 1/4 cup olive oil. Cook over medium heat. stirring constantly until cheese melts - do not boil. Reserve 1-1/2 cups sauce. Add pesto to remaining sauce; mix well. Pour into a 9 x 13-inch baking dish and set aside. Saute onions, mushrooms and garlic in remaining 1 tablespoon olive oil. Add lamb, bread crumbs, 1/2 cup almonds, pepper, nutmeg and 1/2 cup reserved white sauce; mix well; set aside. Cook manicotti five minutes in boiling water; drain. Stand manicotti on end and fill with lamb mixture. Arrange on pesto sauce. Cover with foil; bake at 375°F., 45 minutes or until heated through and pasta is tender. Heat remaining 1 cup cheese sauce. Pour over pasta. Garnish with remaining 1/2 cup almonds and sprinkle with nutmeg. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Almontolli Lamb Chops

(NOT SHOWN)

- 1/4 cup chopped sun dried tomatoes
- 1/4 cup sliced green onions.
- 2 teaspoons tarragon
- 1 large clove garlic, minced

- 1/2 cup white wine

Combine tomatoes, green onions, tarragon, garlic-and wine in saucepan. Cook over medium high heat until reduced to about 1 tablespoon liquid; cool. Place egg yolks in food processor bowl. Using metal blade, process until thick; about 1 minute. Continue processing, gradually adding oil through feed tube. Remove to small bowl. Stir in cooled wine mixture and diced almonds by hand. Cover and chill. Broil lamb chops 4-inches from heat: about 5 minutes on each side. To serve, spoon vegetable almond sauce onto

- 3/4 cup sliced, unblanched almonds 3 tablespoons olive oil I cup chopped, minced candied fruit 24 lady fingers, split
- 3/4 cup almond-flavored liqueur or Marsala wine
- 4 egg volks 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- * 1/4 cup sugar
- 2-2/3 cup scalded milk
- Candied cherries (Angelica, cut in julienne strips)

Chocolate curls

In saucepan, brown almonds in olive oil, stirring often. Remove from heat and blend in candied fruit and 1/4 cup liqueur. Set aside.

In large saucepan, combine egg yolks, flour and sugar. Beat with a wire whisk or electric mixer until smooth and light yellow in color. Gradually stir in milk while cooking over medium heat. Continue cooking, stirring constantly, until mixture is thickened and smooth. (Stir in one direction only, to prevent curdling.) Mixture should coat the back of a metal spoon.

Add lemon peel and vanilla. Continue cooking, stirring constantly, until mixture is the consistency of pudding. Remove from heat. Place plastic wrap directly on surface to prevent "skin" from forming. Cool to room temperature. (Mixture may be made ahead and stored in refrigerator, but return to room temperature to use.) Fold in 1 cup of whipped cream and almond

Line sides of a straight-sided large, deep serving bowl with lady fingers, placing several on bottom of bowl. Drizzle with liqueur. Spoon half of pudding mixture into bowl. Top with remaining lady fingers; drizzle with liqueur. Spoon 1 cup whipped cream over all. Top with remaining pudding mixture. Decorate top with remaining whipped cream, chocolate curls, candied cherries and, if desired, julienne strips of angelica. Chill until ready to serve. Makes 8 servings.

Canton rolls by Vikes

When was the last time Plymouth Canton was unbeaten two weeks into the football season?

Never? Well, the Chiefs are this year after trouncing Walled Lake Central 27-0 Friday at Central. In the past, it always seemed Canton found a way to lose. This year it's just the opposite - the Chiefs have found several ways to win. Against the Vikings, four different players scored touchdowns. The back-breaker was a 74-vard bust by Roger Trice in the fourth quarter that increased Canton's lead from 14-0 to 21-0, after Mike Gray's thirdstraight placement.

TRICE WAS the top gainer in a ground assault that accounted for yards on 37 carries. He finished with 82 yards on seven attempts, but everyone got into the act. Tony Boucher, who scored Canton's first TD on a 10-vard run in the second quarter, was next highest with 37 yards on eight tries. Quarterback Steve Genyk completed two of six passes for 36 yards and rushed eight times for 29 yards, including a one-vard scoring sneak in the third quarter. Neil Hubert capped the Chief scoring with a 25yard scoring toss to Ron Seal. As varied and effective as the offense was, the defense was equally impressive. The Chiefs stuffed the Vikings with minus-3 yards rushing. They intercepted a pass and forced eight fumbles, with Glenn Godfrey and Scott Browne making recover-

Central quarterback John Chwali bog hit just seven of 20 passes for 113 yards, making the Vikings' total offensive output just 110 yards. And making Canton 2-0.

Livonia Churchill football coach Herb Osterland wore a worried exression prior to Friday night's zame at Plymouth Salem. "Nothing has ever gone right for us here in my career," Osterland said before the game. Fear not, Herb Osterland. Something went right for you this night. Churchill withstood a furious fourth-quarter charge from Salem and held on for a 7-6 win.

"I'm just happy to win," Osterland said. "We worked hard all week played them in the fourth quarter. trying to convince our guys that (Salem's) 49-0 loss to Trenton last week didn't mean anything. Tom ways play hard. Whether they're up to expect to play hard to beat them." It was a game either team could have won going away. Salem started strong, taking the ball to the Chargers' 6 on their second possession. The drive stalled on a fourth-and-two play. Normally, Salem would have attempted an easy field goal, but kicker Brian Storm was injured. This would come back to haunt the Rocks in the fourth quarter.

A SALEM fumble led to Churchill's touchdown. Matt Rons recovered the ball on the Churchill 43 on the final play of the first quarter. On the next play, Churchill quarterback John Tracy connected with John Knittel on a 26-yard pass play. Salem defender Garrett Bowie was in position to break up the play but he slipped and fell. Lucas seeks review of county disaster plan

Lucas said that Wayne County's Emergency Preparedness plans will receive a complete reassessment in light of recent findings from the Chernobyl nuclear disaster.

"Scientists at an international symposium in Vienna are discussing topics related to shifting wind speeds and wind direction, radiation exposure standards and evacuation plans, during the incident at the Chernobyl nuclear power plant in Russia," Lucas said.

"We need to evaluate all of the information they have gained and apply it to our own situation here in Wayne County."

Lucas added that he wanted to be sure that the best and most recent Wayne County Executive William possible scientific knowledge would be available for Emergency Preparedness officials for the benefit of Wayne County residents.

Wayne County Emergency Man-agement Director Mark Sparks agreed that such a posture is in the best interests of all citizens. Sparks will travel to Washington, D.C. in two weeks to attend a conference conducted by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission and atomic energy scientists. The conference will focus on the Chernobyl findings and their impact on local planning.

"Our drills in Wayne County have always received excellent grades from the federal evaluators," said Sparks. "We will continue to keep abreast of the latest findings.

"Both the State of Michigan and local municipal governments figure their revenues on the basis of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income on their federal tax forms," he said. Jobless rate down with auto callbacks

Michigan's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate fell by 0.7 percent to 8.2 percent in August.

The drop in joblessness was spearheaded by a growth in service jobs and the callback of workers from temporary July model changeover layoffs in automotive and related manufacturing industries, said Richard Simmons Jr., director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Simmons said the number of jobless workers in the state fell by 29,000 in August to 356,000. In July, the rate had been 8.9 percent with 385 000 out of work

A year ago, August 1985, Michigan's unemployment rate was 10.1 percent with 438,000 jobless.

The two-month decline in Michigan's jobless rate brings it to its lowest August level since 1979, when it was an even 8 percent.

Simmons said employment rose in several of the state's industries during the month, including tourism-related, retail trade, construction and in local government as well as in the auto and related manufacturing industries

The rate of improvement in Michigan's jobless rate has surpassed that of the nation's, Simmons said. In comparison with the nation's 11 most populous states, Michigan and Ohio both had unemployment rates of 8.2 percent in August ranking them second to Texas with its rate of

Talented team wasted on trashy film 'Blue Velvet'

the movies

Greenberg

Kyle MacLachlan and Isabella Rossellini share a sado-masochistic relationship in "Blue Velvet."

Tracy Camilla Johns and Tommy Redmond Hicks become lovers in "She's Gotta Have It."

Sometimes Isabella Rossellini looks and acts so much like her mother, Ingrid Bergman, that I could weep nostaglic tears of joy.

Sometimes people who know better, like the DeLaurentis Entertainment Group, make such perfectly awful movies that I could cry out in disgust. "Blue Velvet" (R) is one such

Ordinarily a few lines would be sufficient to dismiss another sleaze and slime epic. "Blue Velvet," however, is a major motion picture filled with noted stars, written and directed by David Lynch, director of "Dune," whose earlier film, "Elephant Man," received eight Oscar nominations

ONE WOULD ASSUME so many talented individuals could produce a decent, coherent film. Such is not the case in this deranged story replete with heavy-handed symbolism that has nothing to do with anything.

Jeffrey Beaumont (Kyle MacLachlan) returns from college to his home in Lumberton, N.C., when his father Mr. Beaumont (Jack Harvey), is injured, becomes ill, or is attacked by some dark monster in the weeds I'll leave it to you to decide since the movie itself is not clear.

As a matter of fact, I sat there for two unpleasant hours expecting that his father's injury would be explained, along with a host of other things. Boy, was I disappointed.

In any event, Jefferey gets into a sado-masochistic affair with Dorothy Vallens (Rossellini) - she likes to be hit prior to making love. At the same time, our hero falls for sweet innocence, Sandy Williams (Laura Dern), daughter of Detective Williams (George Dickerson) and Mrs. Williams (Hope Lange).

DOROTHY SINGS the title song in a nightclub, after which Jeffrey follows her home and watches from the closet as she is beaten and raped by psychotic drug-dealer. Frank Booth (Dennis Hopper), who has kidnapped her husband and son.

By the way, Jeffrey had found Dorothy's husband's ear in a field. Frank had cut it off to let Dorothy know he meant business.

One more bizzare note: One of Frank's criminal partners, the effete Ben (Dean Stockwell), lip-syncs old songs using a work light for a microphone. His entourage includes a group of rejects from a surrealist Honest, I am not making this up. In addition to its foul language, sa-and nudity, the film's plot and continuity is so weak that most of the time you won't know, or care, what's going on. "Blue Velvet" opens Wednesday Make every effort to avoid it.

TWO NEW FILMS that focus on the black community in unconventional ways are "Good To Go" and "She's Gotta Have It" (both R). The latter is about an independent young black woman, Nora Darling (Tracy Camila Johns), and her three lovers.

In addition to its usual viewpoints about black male-female relationships, the film is noteworthy for its production history. At the other end of the spectrum from megabuck disasters like "Blue Velvet," people are making interesting films in short order on low budgets.

One such person is 29-year-old, black, independent filmmaker and New York University film graduate Spike Lee, who shot "She's Gotta Have It" in 12 days, starting with a New York State Council of the Arts grant of $18,000. Untimately the film cost about $200,000.

Island Pictures was impressed with the movie, which received a standing ovation at the 1986 San Francisco Film Festival. Island invested about a million dollars to complete and distribute the film.

"GOOD TO GO" is a different kind of film. It's obviously a much biggerbudget operation and stars Art Garfunkel as an alcoholic Washington, D.C., reporter pressured by his editor to start writing again.

The other major white character, Lieutenant Harrigan (Harrris Yulin) of the Washington Homicide Department, is such an overdrawn stereotype of the white policeman who hates blacks that the film loses what credibility it might otherwise have.

Main focus of the film is a group of young blacks who get in trouble with drugs, rape and murder, while the younger brother of one of them is trying to make it in the music world. As that young man tells Garfunkel, who suddenly wakes up to what's going on in the inner city, "Man, that's a lot of corny s---

The same applies to the film, with its trite plot and stereotyped characters. Among other things, it's hard to believe Garfunkel had no idea of life in the black ghetto. Broken-down, alcoholic reporters don't believe homicide detective tips without question and write them as gospel. At least not in my films.

Absolutely Nothing is quite a package

Two Ann Arbor-based entrepreneurs stumbled upon the notion that they could make something out of absolutely nothing.

It's with a mixture of humor, entrepreneurship and a certain amount of shamelessness that Steve Bhaerman and Joshua Pokempner have marketed a colorful box containing nothing. Called, logically enough, Absolutely Nothing, the non-product has hit the shelves of such stores as Silver's in Southfield and Bloomingdale's. According to its creators, if the Pet Rock ever deserved a successor, than Absolutely Nothing is it.

(A salesperson at Silver's said last week that Absolutely Nothing was originally priced at $5 at the store but has been marked down. 'We sold a few at the regular price of $5, but they're selling better now at $2.50," she said.)

"Many products are nothing disguised as something. Ours is something disguised as nothing," Bhaer-

In case buyers still don't believe there's something to nothing, the box is accompanied by a booklet, "Absolutely Everything You've Al-ways Wanted to Know About Absolutely Nothing." It includes advice from the fictitious and fractious Swami Beyondananda on ways to bring absolutely nothing into your life. Suggestions include listening to bowling on the radio and sitting in your backyard to watch land

BHAERMAN HAS been appearing as Swami Beyondananda, the Yogi from Muskogee. Swami's the sort that would lead some to believe the title mystic should be limited to appearing on rolls of masking tape. The show biz swami will appear at a benefit on Saturday. Oct. 11, for Upland Hills School at Oxford. During the winter, Bhaerman and his wife, Trudy, plan to take the swami on tour through the southern states.

"We're no fools," cracked Bhaer-

Bhaerman's more serious pursuits include credit for writing with Don McMillan the book, "Friends and Lovers: How to Meet the People You Want to Meet," published by Writers' Digest. But humor has always held a special attraction for

"I grew up in Brooklyn, New York," he said. "And it was either that or get into gangs. Humor was a terrific tool for me. Teachers would enjoy my humor - and give me a zero

After a stint as a teacher in Washington, D.C., Bhaerman moved to Ann Arbor. In 1975-76 and 1978-79 he taught labor history and ethnic studies at Wayne State University's Weekend College. He's also conducted creative writing workshops at the University of Michigan and workshops on how to meet people.

But he seem to keep returning to the swami he invented between teaching jobs when he worked for the city of Ann Arbor, maintaining trees. The swami first emerged as a character in a small newspaper that Bhaerman wrote for his co-workers. Swami was a feature in Ann-Arbor-based magazine, "Pathways," begun about six years ago by Bhaerman and Pokempner. Swami was employed to poke fun at some of the foibles of people deeply involved in the spirituality and personal growth movement. Absolutely Nothing is in part the culmination of several years of swami watching.

"We had nothing on our minds for a long time," he said. "But it was hard to find investors.

specials will be offered Thursday-Sunday, Sept. 25-28, at the new Bloomfield's restaurant in Bloomfield Hills. Formerly Bedell's, the restaurant is owned by Herb Schmid, who has several other Detroit-area restaurants. "A Balloon Bust," with prizes inside balloons, and big band music, will be the attraction Sept 25. A "Seafood Feast" is set for Sept. 26, a seven-course gourmet meal for Sept. 27, and fried chicken, clowns and magicians for Sept. 28.
