EXTRA MILER: John Kelley, a skilled maintenance employee with Plymouth-Canton Community Schools, was awarded the Extra Miler Award by the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education at its last meeting.

The board honored Kelley, a licensed boiler-refrigeration operator at Plymouth Canton High, for his consistent performance, self-motivation, and support to other employees. The nomination cited Kelley for the pride he takes preparing Canton High for the many events which occur there, for establishing a regular schedule of maintenance for all equipment, and for being instrumental in energy savings.

Kelley began working in the district in July 1970 as a custodian at Plymouth Salem High. He worked his way through the ranks, becoming a licensed boiler-refrigeration operator in 1974. As a student he attended Gallimore Elementary and graduated from Plymouth High School.

FOR THE DEAF: The Charter Township of Canton has purchased four telephone communication devices for the deaf and hearing impaired, commonly known as TDD devices. These devices are in operation at the police department, fire department, and township administration building.

Access to the township through these devices can be made with these telephone numbers: police emergency number, 397-3350; police business, 397-3000; fire emergency, 981-1111; and township administration building, 397-1000. Those who use the devices are asked to be patient with township personnel while they are lear ning to use the TDDs.

Farmland open for developmen By Diane Gale staff writer

Eliminating a farm preservation concept is the major change in Canton's recently adopted master plan outlining future land use.

In 1979 and 1980 Canton residents voted against passing a millage supporting the Farm Land Preservation, which would have guaranteed vast farm acreage in the western portion of the township.

A major change in the new plan is to gradually permit low-density residential development, commercial and office uses in the predominantly agricultural section of western Can-

However, agriculture is not neglected altogether in the new plan. Earmarked for agriculture is land west of Beck, north of Geddes, south of Saltz and east of Napier.

AFTER MORE than four years of. review, the Canton Planning Commission last week adopted a master plan - called a snapshot of Canton development for the next 10-20 years - updating the 1976 plan.

It calls for a town center district on Ford Road between Sheldon and Lilley roads. The downtown district is to provide a "focus for pedestrians and shopping activities and gives identity and character to a community," according to information from Canton's Community and Economic Development department

Most land designated for one dwelling unit per acre is in the area west of Ridge to Napier south to Cherry Hill. And the majority of acreage earmarked for two dwellings per acre is west of Beck, south of Gyde and north of Ford.

MOST OF CANTON'S subdivisions are to be located in the central and north central sections of the township, which are earmarked for four to five dwelling units per acre. Community shopping, often referred to as strip shopping, is con-centrated north and south of Ford and east and west of Canton Center. North of Michigan Avenue between Beck and Sheldon is also earmarked for community shopping.

Smaller commercial shopping areas are identified for Canton Center south of Cherry Hill as well as other areas throughout the community

The heavy industrial areas are mostly north of Yost and Van Born roads south of Michigan east of Denton and west of Hannan providing easy access to I-94 and I-275, railroads and Metropolitan and Willow Run airports.

Regional shopping, like major shopping centers and office buildings, are targeted for land north and south of Ford and east and west of I-275 between Lilley and Lotz as well as north and south of Michigan and east and west of I-275.

THE MAJORITY of multiple family areas, such as mobile home parks and apartment complexes, are to be north and south of Geddes and east of Beck Land fronting Geddes on the south side between Canton Center and Beck roads, are designated from agricultural in the 1976 plan to apartment and condominium use in the new plan.

The research office and light industrial district is primarily in the north Haggerty corridor between Joy and Cherry Hill roads.

The master plan serves as a framework for Canton's zoning policies and does not designate specific zoning restrictions.

Student services director named to replace Page

By Kevin Brown staff writer

If you run a program geared to educating mentally, emotionally or learning-impaired kids, you're going to have to deal with a lot of paperwork.

While Pat O'Donnell said that dealing with the bureaucracy can be tedious, it shows that the U.S. educational system is doing much to help these young people - more, in fact, than any foreign educational system is doing

O'Donnell, named Plymouth-Can-ton Community Schools director of special programs and student ser-vices earlier this month to succeed the retiring Edwin Page, said he became aware of this while studying in England last year. Special educators from around the world met "to talk about how they provide services."

While some foreign educators ponder how they might offer service, "In this country, we spell it out by the number of days of service in each program area," O'Donnell said.

O'DONNELL SERVED as assistant to Page for six years, leaving to become West Middle School princi-

He earned a specialist in administration degree at Butler University in Indianapolis and studied for a master's at Indiana University before completing it at Eastern Michigan University.

He's taught in special education programs geared to the high school level, and is finishing work on a doctorate degree in administration and public policy at the University of Michigan.

O'DONNELL SAID the switch from general to special education started when he was still an undergraduate.

"My wife was working as a speech and language therapist. She always talked about the unusual needs these students had. I just started gravitating toward that.

Later, a professor told him of a grant program offered through Indiana University, the Asset Program, 'to encourage people to make that change because at that time they really didn't have enough people."

O'Donnell said the most striking change in special education programs since the early '70s involves an increased number of intricate requirements governing special instruction. But he said this was neces sary, as parents pressured state government to provide a higher level of special instruction for their children who needed it.

pal, his most recent post, for two years. As director of special programs and student services, he oversees special education for 1,500-1.600 students.

O'Donnell grew up in Indiana and Illinois, and attended several colleges before earning his undergraduate degree from St. Joseph College in Rensselaer, Ind.

As for needed changes in the field, O'Donnell suggests that resources delegated only to special education under state law should be available to general educators as well.

Housing project planned on Lilley

By Diane Gale staff writer

Construction of 229 condominium units should begin this fall on the west side of Lilley Road between Ford and Cherry Hill.

Units at Lilley Pointe Condominiums will cost between $70,000 and $75,000 each

We are looking at a market place that we feel is at mid-price, and we want it to fit in with the surrounding residential areas, which I think are of high quality," said Ted Phillips, vice president of development at the Farmington Hills based Karp-Licht.

"We want to be an asset to the community and the neighborhood."

Lilley Pointe Condominiums is on 25 acres of land and bounded by the Smokler Truesdell subdivision on the north, Edenbrooke Estates subdivision on the east, Wayne power station and vacant land on the west, and two homes, a child care center and vacant land on the south.

Phillips said he hoped to have some units built this year, or "at the very latest in the spring of '87."

A construction trailer to promote the units is expected to go up soon.

THE UNITS will have two bedrooms each

The exterior will be constructed with earth tone bricks in stacked ranch style with units on the ground level and other units above. A clubhouse, two tennis courts and a swimming pool also are proposed. Parking places will include 228 car ports, 258 open spaces and 22 club house parking places, according to Dave Schneider, Canton's assistant community and economic development director. The developer is required to provide 364 parking places.

"We believe there is a very viable market place for quality development in Canton," Phillips said.

The development project was complimented by Canton Clerk Linda Chuhran and other trustees during an architectural presentation to the Canton Township Board of Trustees last week.

Karp-Licht also is developing Canton Landing, a shopping center and office complex on Ford Road. About 30,000 feet will be devoted to shopping and 30,000 feet to office space, Phillips said. Canton Landing is under construction.

Poole reopens drive for post office here

By Leonard Poger staff writer

Canton Township may renew its bid to have a separate post office to serve the growing community of more than 50,000 persons and hundreds of businesses.

Supervisor James Poole indicated that he may renew his request in a brief interview at the installation Wednesday of Lloyd Wesley as the new Westland postmaster whose branch serves Canton and Wayne. Poole said he asked U.S. Rep. William Ford, D-Taylor, about a separate Canton post office two years ago. But he was told then the postal service was trying to close 11,000 post offices and it was a bad time to press for a new one.

POOLE made it clear Wednesday he will pursue the matter with Ford, who serves as chairman of the House Civil Service and Postal Committee.

Canton presently has a branch office in leased space in the Harvard Square Shopping Center, Ford at Sheldon. Before Canton mail came under the jurisdiction of the Wayne-Westland Post Office a few years ago, the township's mail was handled by the Plymouth Post Off-

Overcrowding of facilities at the Plymouth Post Office resulted in the switch to Wayne-Westland. At his installation, the new Westland postmaster promised to put service at the top of his priorities.

In a friendly, informal atmosphere, Wesley was joined by colleagues from the Wyandotte Post Office where he worked and others in the U.S. Postal Service.

In brief remarks, the new post master said that "you'll see more than you hear," referring to a previous comment that he will set a high standard by what he does, not just what he says.

"I will give 100 percent," said the 39-year-old Detroit resident.

ON HAND for the ceremony were his family, Detroit regional postal officials, Bill Stottlemyer, Westland postmaster for 18 years before retiring in April, and John Shivnen, Garden City postmaster who served as the officer in charge for five months before Wesley's promotion

In his new position, Wesley will direct 249 employees who handle 96.7 million pieces of mail a year in Westland, Wayne and Canton Township. The Post Office takes in $4.7 million of revenues.

Wesley's service area covers 72 square miles and serves nearly 195,000 persons.

In an interview before the ceremony, Wesley said he received a bachelor of science degree from Wayne State University, planning to become a teacher.

But during his student-teaching stint in Detroit, he found that there was no discipline

Wesley said, "I needed discipline in the classroom," and he decided to change careers when the school administration didn't support him on the issue.

Wesley comes to Westland from the Wyandotte Post Office where he was a tour supervisor for three years. Before that, he was supervisor of mails and delivery in Detroit's Gratiot station for one year and performed the same duties in the Grosse Pointe station for two years.

He began his postal career in 1968 as a letter carrier in Detroit's Kensington Station.

AFTER GOING through management training, he served as officer-in-charge in Birmingham, Inkster and South Lyon and was in an advisory role in Northville.

Wesley was also acting superintendent of postal operations in Wyandotte and a management sectional center route revision team.

A native of Independence, Kansas, Wesley is married to the former Patricia Ann Butler. They are the parents of Nicole, 13, Jeremy, 9, and a foster son, Brian LeBarrie, 20

Taking part in the ceremony were John Horne, Detroit's field division general manager/postmaster, and John Talick, Detroit's field operations director who picked Wesley for the Westland position.

The Plymouth business scene 45 years ago

(Part 1)

Before starting this week's topic, I have an addition to recent columns I wrote about Henry Ford's interest in the Plymouth area.

The idea was attractive, but if West agreed to the proposition, the upstairs "community center" in the West building went out of existence When West was a young lad, Harry Bennett stopped at the West store and other church groups hold their

Most instances of ankle and foot swelling are the esult of poor veins; blood vessels that have lost the first the second s heir capacity to channel blood from the ankles and feet back to th eart. As a result, the fluid elements of blood leak out of the veins and ause the swelling around the ankle and feet known as edema. The best treatment is to use elastic hose. This type of stocking mpresses the tissues surrounding the incompetent vein, and forces he fluid back into the blood vessel. Support hose comes in a variety of lengths, from just above the ankle o just below the groin. A wide range of pressures is available, ranging rom 8mm to 35mm of pressure exerted by the stocking against the eins in the leg. Each increase in length or average pressure increases e cost of the stockings. For most people's requirements, the elastic stocking length needs to e no higher than to below the knee, and the pressure exerted by the tocking should be in the range of 18-25mm. Elastic stockings should be tried whenever your doctor determine that leg edema is the result of poor veins of supervisor To the editor:

I should like to take exception with Canton Township Supervisor James Poole's statement regarding junk apartments.

As a previous homeowner in both Canton and Plymouth I feel relatively qualified to make a statement regarding the quality of my new home in the Saratoga North Apartments.

My building is as well-constructed, soundproof and airtight as either of my homes in Sunflower Village and Ridgewood Hills. The grounds are wellcaintained. The management both concerned and cooperative.

Not everyone chooses to live in a house. To have my township supervisor judge my home as a "junk apartment," without so much as visiting the complex, is at the very least, an ignorant judgment.

Parishioner nips electrical trouble in bud

An alert parishioner who noticed an unusual light coming from the basement of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church in Plymouth Wednesday night may have prevented a major fire from breaking out Plymouth firefighters called to the church on Penniman Avenue discovered a smouldering electrical panel and smoke when they investigated, said Chief Al Matthews. Detroit Edison and an electrician were called to the scene to make emer gency repairs.

No injuries and only very mino damage was reported. Choir practice apparently was in process at about 9:20 p.m. when the arcing light was discovered, the chief said.

Detroit Edison and Consumers Power crews were called to deal with an emergency at about 6:30 p.m. last Monday. A Plymouth man driving north on Main struck and broke an Edison light pole, then careened into a gas meter attached to a nearby office building, police reports indicated. The man was ticketed for careless driving. He said he fell asleep at the wheel but wasn't seriously injured by the impact, police reported.

Speaking of Mental Health

At Catherine McAuley Health Center we are moving to a position of leadership in the treatment of mental and emotional problems. Our vision of mental health is becoming a reality with the opening of the new Mercywood Health Building.

Our new facility will house inpatient and outpatient programs for adolescents, adults, and older adults. Our team approach at the new Mercywood focuses on early-intervention while problems are still manageable.

Our philosophy of care uses the shortest term, least disruptive form of treatment allowing individuals to return to their homes, jobs, and families as soon as possible.

MERCYWOOD HEALTH BUILDING LECTURE SERIES

October 1 "Medical and Psychological Treatment of Depression" This session describes the variety of method available in the treatment of depression. Discussionwill include medication, electroconvulsive therapy (ECT) and several kinds of psychotherapy. Speakers: Thomas Zelnik, M.D., Jay Callahan M.S.W., M.A.

October 8 "Depression and Suicide"

Discussion of the growing problem of suicide in all age groups, including teenagers and young adults. The talk will include the connection between depression and suicide. Does suicide run in families? What are the theories of contagion? Also includes the impact of a completed suicide on family members. Speaker: Jay Callahan, M.S.W., M.A.

Most mental health problems are temporary in nature. One way we can create a climate that encourages mental health is to understand all we can about it.

Come share our new vision of mental health treatment by attending any of a series of free public tours and lectures which will be offered at Mercywood Health Building during these weeks before its formal opening.

For more information, please call the Department of Community Relations of Catherine McAuley Health Center at 572-4000.

October 15 "Adolescent Depression" This presentation deals with the newly recognized syndrome of adolescent depression. The focus will be on differentiating depression as a psychiatric problem from the normal mood swings and behavioral problems that are common among adolescents. Adolescent suicide will also be discussed. Speaker: Charles G. Krasnow, M.D.

Schoolcraft College trustees have set aside five days in October for public interviews of the 29 applicants for positions on the board.

Board president Michael Burley suggested last week that the individual interviews be limited to 15 minutes because of the number of applicants, while leaving open the possibility of further, indepth questioning, after a final cut. Interviews will be conducted at 7 p.m. Oct. 1, 6, 7, 8 and 21 in the board room of the administration building on the Livonia campus. Ford exec says truck

sales are up

Designating 1987 as "the year of the truck," a Ford Motor Co. executive predicts that growth in the compact segment will "continue to be phenomenal

"Just five years ago, there was no such thing as a mini van or a compact truck," said Robert L. Rewey, a Ford vice president and general manager of Ford Division, in previewing the 1987 model product line-

"The truck market is big - and getting bigger every day - with compact models accounting for more than 55 percent of all truck sales.

As evidence of this growth, Rewey cited Ford's compact Ranger model. Introduced in 1982, it already has passed the 1 million mark in sales.

"THIS 'EXPLOSION' in truck popularity is taking place because buyers now are substituting trucks for cars in their new-vehicle purchases. More than half of the compact trucks sold today are bought for 'fun' reasons.

"For example, it now is fashionable for women to be seen in dressed-up trucks

"In June, July and August, Aerostar achieved combined bus and van sales leadership over Chevrolet, Dodge, Plymouth and Toyota.

'Our new Ranger SuperCab has become the fastest-selling extendedcab version in the industry, while our F-Series is retaining its familiar title as world's best-selling vehicle, car or truck, import or domestic.

On Oct. 22, the board will appoint replacements to two board vacancies. Last month, trustees Sharon Sarris and Paul Kadish announced they were moving out of the college district The board plans to select at least

The college district is comprised of all of those communities, though Livonia has dominated the board as the largest community in population.

According to trustee Rosina Raymond, who researched the board's governing rules in the college charter, only three votes will be needed to make a selection because that number represents a simple majority of the board.

THE VERTEBRAL SUBLUXATION WHAT IS IT?

The human spine has 24 movable bones called vertebrae. They are stacked on top of one another and collectively are called the spinal column. A vertebral subluxation is one or more of those vertebrae out of their normal position. Bumps, falls, lifting, pushing, slipping and auto accidents are just a few of the ways they get out of their normal positions.

Through the center of each vertebra runs the spinal cord. It is made of literally millions of nerve fibers running from the brain down to the spine and then exiting between the vertebrae. From there the nerves disperse into all tissues, organs and cells of the body. When a vertebra is subluxated it distorts the opening where the nerves leave the cord. That distortion causes pressure on the nerves. This blocks and alters brain impulses into the tissue, organs and cells.

WHAT DOES IT CAUSE?

When tissues, organs or cells are deprived of brain impulses, they slowly begin to function abnormally. This leads to disfunction and disfunction is always the forerunner of disease, sickness, weakness and hundreds of symptoms. Symptoms such as: Allergies, Bronchitis, Gall Bladder Disorders, High Blood Pressure, Kidney Disorders, Liver Disorders, Menstrual Disorders, Sinusitis, Stomach Disorders.

WHAT CAN BE DONE ABOUT IT Actually there are three choices, one - do nothing, letting the condition get worse until you succumb; two - take drugs which alleviate the pain, stimulate or depress the symptoms, but bring no real healing or three - remove the original cause in this process of disease & sickness, that being the vertebral subluxation. They are removed in many ways, sometimes by bed rest, sometimes by changing work habits but mostly by chiropractic spinal adjustment. If you're still sick and full of symptoms, you need a spinal examination to see if you're subluxated and if you are, maybe you should have it corrected. Spinal adjustments aren't traumatic. We give them to children. There are many ways to adjust spines. See the pictures below.

THERE IS NO ESCAPING THE EFFECT OF A VERTEBRAL SUBLUXATION. THERE IS HOWEVER, THE OPPORTUNITY TO HAVE THE SUBLUXATION REMOVED. THE OPPORTUNITY IS NOW YOURS. YOU MAY WANT TO CALL 459-0200.

Mary Sanders (left) collaborated with her friend and partner, Elizabeth Field, to write "R.M.P. Realize Your Power to Motivate," the text for an upcoming workshop at Schoolcraft

Motivating your team Area women lead workshop at S'craft

Mary Sanders, Farmington Hills When they are giving out all this en-resident and professional motivator ergy who motivates them? and trainer, will conduct a three-day workshop "Motivating, Communi-cating, and Leading Your Team," in Schoolcraft Community College Oct. 1.2 and 3

'It's fun to be motivated, it's thrilling, it's exciting," said Sanders, who teaches her students to use their own motivation to infect others.

The main text for the workshop will be the book "R.M.P. Realize Your Power To Motivate," which Sander's and her friend and colleague Elizabeth Field, also of Farmington Hills, recently completed.

Sanders and Field, travel the United States and Canada doing workshops and management and training seminars.

They teach part time in local community colleges and universities, are consultants for clients including General Motors, Sears & Roebuck, Michigan Bell and the state government

Sanders explained the book was the result of questions she and Fields often asked themselves and each other as well as other motivators. Who motivates the individual who is out there, motivating, influencing, giving out energy, inspiring people, getting them enthusiaswhether a manager, doctor, nurse, social worker or a therapist

The book helps motivators recognize and avoid some of the negative aspects of work that can lead to physical and mental exhaustion, illness and arguments. It stresses the importance of keeping a sense of perspective and beating the fear of failure

It is illustrated by Ken Ver Planck with pen and ink line drawings of saucy little unicycles that reflect the ups and downs familiar to all motivators

They fit into the R.P.M. theme, racing down roads overcoming hurdles effortlessly, plying high with parachutes, spinning their wheels, joyfully coasting, or tied with lock Motivational styles will be identified and traditional motivational tools will be reassessed.

lect appropriate leadership styles for the current situation and find how to keep their own enthusiasm and motivation high. Key elements for productive cult employees will also be discussed.

"As a manager, as a volunteer leader, or as an informal leader, how do you get people excited or motivated?" she asks.

Sanders believes that real motivators have certain characteristics including a good sense of humor, a zest for life and love of work.

They are typically learners," she d. "They learn from life they said. learn from a golf course, they learn from nature.

'They'll see some principal that relates back to their work and have a flash of creativity

The workshop will run from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The cost, $85, includes lunch and materials. Call School-craft College 591-6400, Ext. 410 for registration information.

MNC moves executive offices

Michigan National Corp. last week moved its executive offices from 1700 Woodward in Bloomfield Hills to interim headquarters located in the Wellington Complex on Northwestern Highway, Farmington Hills

A staff of approximately 500 will occupy space in the Wellington buildings at 30665 and 30445 Northwestern Highway.

Joining the executive offices are several corporate divisions including: investment banking, corporate banking, legal, international, credit policy and audit.

Robert J. Mylod, chairman and chief executive officer of Michigan National Corp., said, "It represents phase one of the consolidation of various corporate divisions that will, for the first time, physically unite large segments of our people for a team environment."

As announced this summer, con-struction of Michigan National Corp.'s new corporate headquarters at Inkster Road and I-696, in Farmington Hills, is expected to begin this fall and to be finished by the first half of 1988. When completed, the permanent headquarters will accommodate a staff of 1,100 people.

ARAMELS & APPLES. Into New Possibilities

Rucked away in the minds of many Americans are the fond memories of family apple-picking outings each autumn. Thinking back, it's easy to call to mind the ritual looked forward to by family members of all ages.

Who could forget the tempting scent of a warm apple-cinnamon pie or the tangy blend of a tart apple wrapped in sweet caramel?

These new variations of favorite desserts-a Lavered Caramel Apple Biscuit, Louisiana Style Bread Pudding and the Caramel Apple Puff Pancake-in addition to the homemade Caramel Apple recipe itself, will convince you that caramels are a sweet addition to apple recipes regardless of the season.

When you cook with caramels, follow these helpful hints to make the most of their rich and creamy flavor:

• To avoid scorching when melting caramels, use a heavy saucepan over low heat.

Once the caramels begin to melt, stir them. gently with a wooden spoon.

o'For caramel apples, allow about 20 minutes to melt caramels in a heavy 1-1/2 quart saucepan on a conventional rangetop.

Whether you choose to pick your apples at the local orchard or at the produce section of your favorite supermarket, you may become confused by the numerous varieties available. McIntosh and Jonathon apples are favorites for dipping as well as cooking. Other popular apples for cooking are the Granny Smith and the Golden Delicious varieties.

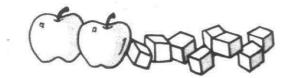

When selecting your apples, pick up the fruit and feel it—an apple should be smooth and have unblemished skin. Soft or mealy apples are not good for cooking.

Finally, before you begin peeling, slicing or chopping, wash the apples in a mild soap solution to remove their natural waxy coating.

When you finish the preparations, you'll be ready to dip right into those sweet n' tart sensations that will leave your taste buds clamoring for another bite!

Tempt your taste buds with a tart, juicy apple tucked inside sweet, chewy caramel. Here's a recipe for the classic taste that has delighted generations of ca amel lovers.

- 14-oz. bag caramels
- tablespoons water

or 5 medium size apples Wooden sticks

Melt caramels with water in 1-1/2 quart heavy saucepan over low heat, stirring frequently until smooth. Wash and dry apples; insert stick into stem end of each apple. Dip into hot caramel sauce; turn until coated. Scrape off excess sauce from bottom of apples. Place on greased wax paper. Store in refrigerator. Let stand at room temperature 15 minutes before serving to allow caramel to soften. 4 to 5 servings

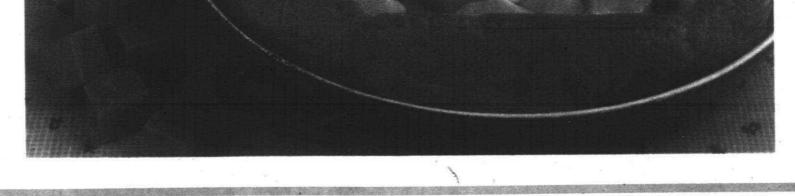

Variations: Substitute pears for apples

Substitute 14-oz. bag chocolate fudgies for caramels and 1 tablespoon milk for water.

Add 2 tablespoons creamy peanut butter with caramels and water. Roll apple in chopped peanuts.

Dip caramel-coated apples in chopped nuts, flaked coconut, chocolate pieces or miniature marshmallows; cut in half.

Microwave: Microwave caramels and water in small deep glass bowl on High 2-1/2 to 3-1/2 minutes, stirring after each minute until sauce is smooth. Continue as directed (if caramel sauce is too thin, let stand about 2 minutes before dipping apples).

These tasty variations on traditional desserts features the tart-sweet combination of crisp apples and creamy caramels. Clockwise from the top: Caramel Apples; Layered Caramel Apple Biscuit; Caramel Apple Puff Pancake; Louisiana Style Bread Pudding.

AYERED CARAMEL APPLE BISCUIT

Take shortcake away from summer strawberries with this combo of fresh apples and a sweet biscuit ... it's a sure winner any time of year!

- cups flour

Plymouth Salem basketball coach Fred Thomann had every right to worry about his team's intensity level coming into Thursday's game against winless Farmington.

A bad night for the home team. More than 700 people crammed Farmington Hills Mercy's claustrophobic gymnasium Saturday night to see Observerland's top two girls bas-

The Marlins decided to place extra defensive emphasis on Salem's top scorers Dena Head and Jessica Handley. Fine, said Salem. The Critical point in the game. Mercy turnover. Salem basket. Four point swing in Salem's favor. Now instead of a trickle, the damn breaks open. Before Mercy can plug the hole - it never does plug the hole - Salem has outscored Mercy 26-8 in the final 12 minutes of the game.

"I THINK WHAT happens is, in a game of this importance, the rivalry and the tradition that goes with it you had just a fantastic effort from both teams in the first two to three quarters," said Salem coach Fred Chomann. "Mercy fell behind and it is very difficult to play from behind n a game like this. Everything seems to compound itself." That's exactly what happened. Sa lem compounded its lead while Mernded the deficit.

you look at the first half. Maison and Clark were are only two scorers. That was our basic struggle throughout this game. I thought we did a credible job with our press. If we could have established any kind of confidence or consistency offensively, things would have been different in the fourth quarter."

SALEM'S DEFENSE forced Mercv to work extremely hard for every shot it took. Mercy shot just 26 percent from the floor and netted just five of 33 shots in the second half.

Maison, the all-state, All-Area point guard was pestered throughout Rocks gave the ball to senior Kristen the game by sophomore Jill Estey Hostynski, who responded with an and made just four of 18 shots. from the floor making 22 of 45 shots. "The thing we were able to do this year was score at the basket under pressure." Thomann said. ""We got some easy baskets off their press. and that made them a little bit afraid to come at us real hard."

And then there was Dena Head. Sometimes this extraordinary player simply takes over a game. She did so in the fourth quarter. She scored eight points. She made three steals. She grabbed four rebounds. In one sequence, she tipped the ball away from a Mercy player, bolted down court to receive a long pass for a layup. It was like Salem ran a giveand-go play. On the next sequence, she made a block, grabbed the loose ball and zoomed coast-to-coast for another layup. Whew!

On the night, Head scored 17 points and pulled down 16 rebounds. Hostynski finished with 13 points.

The win leaves Salem with a 7-1 record and Mercy will enter in Catholic League season Tuesda with a 4-2 mark

Churchill struck again when John Tracy streaked 29 yards for the score. Jim Naif fired a two-point conversion pass on a halfback option to Kyle Percin to make it 10-0. The Chargers increased their lead to 16-0 on Tracy's 10-yard pass to Eric Wolf in the second half.

Canton's only points were scored by Joel Riggs on an 11-yard run. A two-point conversion attempt failed. Churchill gained 137 yards rushing, with Naif getting 71 on 15 attempts, and 30 passing while limiting the Chiefs to 128 total. Canton quarterbacks Steve Genyk and Neil Hubert combined to complete seven of 13 passes for 102 yards. The loss was the second-straight for the Chiefs, who started the season with promise, winning their first two.

Mike Morgan has won better than 70 percent of his games since becoming Plymouth Canton's soccer coach. He has put together one of the more respected programs in Observerland. So you know this season has to be killing him. The Chiefs, following Wednesday's tough 2-0 loss to rival Plymouth Sa-em, are now 2-6-2 this season. "I don't know what's wrong," Morgan said. "We talked about that to day. It's been a bunch of things. Little things. Like not getting to the ball. Like trying to do too much. If there's one thing, I'd say that was it. Everyone is trying to do too much. They all feel responsible for what is happening and they all feel they have to do extra to make up for it.

"We are trying to dribble past one defender too many, trying to make the pass too fine. It's frustrating. These are all good soccer players. I bothers them to lose like this.'

Even Salem coach Ken Johnson expressed some concern for Canton after the match. "Canton is a tough team. Their record doesn't really tell it. They've lost a lot of close games.'

WEDNESDAY'S GAME was no different. Salem scored both of its goals in the first half. The first goal was actually kicked in by a Canton defender. Freshman Jeff Gold, the last Salem player to touch the ball. got credit for the goal.

The second Salem goal was no fluke. Andy Sharma sent a wellplaced through-ball to Dennis Reyolds who buried it in the Canton

But Salem goalie Dave O'Malley kept the Chiefs off the board. "We just aren't finishing the plays this year. We don't have any Steve Morells this year." Morgan said Morell was Canton's leading scorer a year ago. "Our striker, Dave Dahlberg, is out with a broken nose. Todd Nichols has a badly bruised thigh muscle and he's kicking with his opposite leg. Steve Rudelic is playing on an in flamed ankle. Scott Morgan won't play this week. It's been that kind of CANTON WENT through a threegame spell earlier this season in which it had 66 shots on goal and only scored twice.

"When things like that start to happen, tempers get short and you begin to lose concentration," Morgan said. "If we could just slow down about 15 mph during the game and think, we'd be all right."

Wednesday's Canton-Salem was marred by five vellow cards - three to Salem and two to the Chiefs. The Rocks' record is now 5-2-1.

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH ORDAINS

Section 1 Authority, Establishment and Supervision of the Parking Violation Bureau

Pursuant to Section 8395 of the Revised Judicature Act. State of Michigan amended by Public Act 67 of 1979, being MCLA 600.8395 and Public Act 74 of 1984, as amended, being MCLA 25.742, the parking violations bureau is hereby established for the Charter Township of Plymouth. The parking violations bu reau shall be under the supervision and control of the Township Supervisor. Section 2 Location and Administration of the Parking Violations Bureau

The-Supervisor shall, subject to the approval of the Township Board, establish a convenient location for the parking violations bureau, appoint qualified Township employees to administer the bureau and adopt rules and regulations for the operation thereof. Section 3 Definitions

a. "Parking violations notice" means a notice, other than a citation, directing a person to appear at the parking violations bureau and to pay the fines and cost, if any, prescribed by the ordinances of the Charter Township of Plymouth for the parking or standing of a motor vehicle in violation of said ordinances. b. "Parking violations bureau" means the bureau established by this ordinance for the processing of all civil infractions involving the parking or standing of a motor vehicle within the Charter Township of Plymouth.

Section 4 Service of Parking Violations Notice In a civil infraction involving the parking or standing of a motor vehicle, copy of the parking violation notice need not be served personally upon the Defendant but may be served upon the registered owner of the motor vehicle by attaching the copy to the vehicle. Such parking violation notice may be issued by either a police officer of the Charter Township of Plymouth, or by sing other Township employee duly authorized by the Township Board to issue such a

Section 5 Form of the Parking Violation Notice The issuance of the parking giolation notice shall be deemed an allegation of a parking viclation. Such parking violation notice shall set forth the nature of the offense, and the date, time and location of the offense. In addition, the parking violation notice shall also indicate the length of time in which the person to when the same was issued must respond before the parking violations bureau. If shall also indicate the address of the bureau, the hours during which the bureau is opened, the amount of the penalty scheduled for the offer e for which the parking violation notice was issued, and advise that a civil infraction citation will be sought if such a person fails to respond within the time limited. Section 6 Settlement of Violations

No violation may be settled at the parking violations bureau except at the specific request of the alleged violator. No penalty for any violation shall be accepted from any person who denied having committed the offense, and in no case shall the person who is in charge of the bureau determine, or attempt to determine, the truth or falsity of any fact or matter relating to such allege violation. No person shall be required to dispose of a parking violation at the parking violations bureau, and all persons shall be entitled to have such violation processed before a court having jurisdiction thereof if they so desire. The unwillingness of any person to dispose of any violation at the parking violations bureau shall not prejudice him/her or in any way diminish the rights, privileges, led to him /her by law

Section 7 Procedure for All Contested and/or Unresolved Violation If a parking violation notice is attached to a motor vehicle, and if an admission of responsibility is not made and the civil fines and cost, if any, for the violation are not paid at the parking violations bureau, a citation may be filed with the court having competent jurisdiction thereof and a copy of the citation may be served by first class mail upon the registered owner of the vehicle at the owner's last known address. The citation shall consist of a sworn complaint containing the allegations stated in the parking violation notice and shall fairly inform the Defendant how to respond to the citation. Thereafter, the citation for the parking or standing violation shall be processed in the same manner as provided in Public Act 510 of 1978, as amended.

Section 8 Schedule of Fines The amount of such fines for all parking and standing violations shall be established by resolution of the Township Board if such fine has not previously been established by ordinance. Section 9 Severability

If any section, subsection, clause, phrase or portion of this ordinance is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdic tion, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and indepen dent provi sion, and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion Section 10 Repeal of Conflicting Ordinances

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed only to the extent necessary to give this ordinance full force and effect Section 11 Savings Clause

The repeal provided for herein shall not abrogate or affect any offense or act committed or done, or any penalty or forfeiture incurred, or any pending litiga-tion or prosecution of any right established or occurring prior to the effective date of this ordinance.

Section 12 Effective Date This ordinance shall take full force and effect upon publication thereof Ordinance Adopted: September 23, 1986

Play-into-film likely to garner Oscars

"Children of a Lesser God" (R) has many marvelous qualities and is, indeed, a major motion picture in the very best sense of the term.

Based on Mark Medoff's 1979-80 triple-Tony-Award-winning Broadway play (Best Play, Actor and Actress). "Children of a Lesser God" is the best film I've seen so far this year and ought to win six or more Oscars.

James Leeds (William Hurt) is an innovative teacher of the deaf who has just been employed by the Governor Kittridge School for the Deaf on the remote coast of northern Maine. The school's superintendent, Dr. Curtis Franklin (Philip Bosco), maintains a steady but conservative institution Friction develops as James reaches out to his hearing-impaired students and inspires them, to learn among other things - to speak and, thereby, communicate in the most complete sense of the word. Leeds is not content with the conventional wisdom that sign language is sufficient communication for the hearing-impaired.

TENSION ALSO develops as James Leeds tries to communicate with a lovely, but angry, young deaf girl, Sarah Norman (Marlee Matlin), a Governor Kittridge graduate who has stayed on to work as a school janitor. Much of Sarah's anger stems from her early home life and her family's reaction to her impairment. She and her mother (Piper Laurie) are estranged.

The film's complicated and difficult objectives are met by a superb cast and a very fine production team.

"Children of a Lesser God" is about the very tender, passionate and compassionate love affair that develops between James and Sarah. It is about the problems of the hearing-impaired and the profoundly deaf. But most significantly, it is about the problems of communication between and among human be-

Children of a Lesser God" is a great movie because it effectively deals with those issues and touches our sensibilities with the warmth and beauty of the very best of the human spirit, the ability to rise above the seemingly impossible barriers life presents.

The film's complicated and difficult objectives are met by a superb cast and a very fine production team. The decision to employ only hearing-impaired artists as deaf characters reflects the film's central concept, barriers to human communication, at every level, may be overcome.

Marlee Matlin suffered a severe hearing loss from roseola when she was 18 months old. From 8 to 16 years she performed at the Children's Theatre of the Deaf. "Children of a Lesser God" is her film debut. Matlin is lovely to look at and inspiring to watch. Her ability to communicate emotion without reliance on words is profound. SEVEN YOUNG performers, who range from hard-of-hearing to profoundly deaf, play the teenage students in William Hurt's class. Additionally, the production features the deaf actress Linda Bove. and other hearing-impaired talent. To expedite communication on the set, signers were on duty during the production. Paramount is distributing more captioned prints of "Children of a Lesser God" than any previous film released by any studio.

But most significantly, the production integrates signing in the film's fabric, largely through William Hurt's magnificent performance as he "speaks" for the deaf, and for himself, by vocalizing his signing and theirs as well.

In his seventh motion picture, Hurt again demonstrates his great talent and easily equals his multiple award-winning performance in last year's "Kiss of the Spider Woman."

The film's photography by Austra-lian John Seale ("Careful, He Might Hear You") has a dark, somber quality as if the damp and rocky coast of Maine were physically characterizing the inner turmoil impaired people suffer in communicating.

Actually, the film was shot in Saint John, New Brunswick, Canada, not far north of where the story is

THE SIGNIFICANCE of the film, and its tremendous impact, is that it deals with barriers to all human communication, not just those of the impaired. It takes just as much courage and understanding to rise above the barriers of noise as it does to surmount the walls of silence.

Together, James and Sarah learn to bridge those gaps. It is one thing to say but a far greater task to ac-complish on film. Matlin and Hurt have done so in a fine script by playwright Mark Medoff working with Hesper Anderson. The crowning touch is the sensitive direction by Randa Haines ("Something About Amelia").

All told, "Children of a Lesser God" is the movie of the year, one which offers audiences great warmth and pleasure.

Wines to be auctioned at annual charitable event

It is time to again promote the great Detroit International Wine Auction, the fifth of its kind to be held for charity in the Detroit area. Beneficiary of the event is the Center for Creative Studies-Institute of Music and Dance. In addition to the activities of the auction itself, involving donated wines of incredible variety and parentage, there will be a champagne reception, followed by a gourmet dinner prepared by some of the finest local chefs. All this, of course, will be accompanied by a legion of California wines to complement each course.

Auctioneer will be Patrick Grubb, master of wine, London. Honorary chair this year goes to Joe Heitz, winery owner of Napa that bears his name. The event will be held the evening of Saturday, Oct. 11, late enough to allow football fans to return from "the game," change and go. It will be held again at the historic Lovett Hall in Greenfield Village, Dearborn

Second place went to the 1985 Riesling from Hogue Cellars of Washington State, third to Sterling's Diamond Mountain chardonnay

It should be mentioned that both of the first place finishers were again from Sonoma County, thus continuing a strong national trend over the last few years that has seen wines from there continue to win prizes everywhere.

Some new-to-Michigan wineries were unveiled at the event. Adler Fels, another Sonoma property, showed well with a 1985 fume blanc. Nevers Winery from Napa is now to be more readily available locally with a cabernet and a chardonnay and the same flavors will be available from Jean Claude Boisset.

Ravensweed, a frequent award winner from southern Sonoma, introduced itself via a 1983 cabernet of

IN ADDITION to these heretofore unavailable wines from California, some new items from Oregon were introduced. Prestigious Adelsheim from Yamhill County poured its 1984 chardonnay and did very well in the voting with it.

Birds keep their 'personal space'

By Timothy Nowicki special writer

2C*(R,W,G-5B)

Fall is the season when the behavior of birds changes from defending erritories to gregariousness. Juven iles and adults form large flocks seen frequently around the metropolitan Detroit area. Blackbirds, of 3-5 different species, constitute most of the conspicuous flocks seen at this time of year. Passing the intersection of I-94 and I=275 on the way home from work the other day, I noticed a large flock. They were feeding in the fields and marshes of the cloverleaf, putting on a layer of fat to sustain them on their migration south.

WHEN BIRDS finish feeding, they roost on the towers and cables that lissect the intersection

Passing by, I noted that all the birds on the wires were evenly spaced from their neighbors. From a distance, they looked like inch marks on a ruler.

A few days later at work, watched a starling land on a telephone wire among a group of neatly spaced birds. When he landed, birds on either side of him moved away to establish the same distance they had between neighbors before his arriv-Birds next to the two that moved adjusted their spacing, and so i went on down the line. It reminded me of a game of dominoes

INDIVIDUAL spacing is readily observed in birds, but not restricted to them. Man too has a "personal space" that he maintains when con ditions allow it
