The Canton Connection

Want to vote?

If you'd like to participate in the annual Plymouth-Canton school election and are at least 18 years old, you have until Monday, May 16, to register to vote.

Fifteen candidates are in the running for two seats on the board of education. The election is June 13.

The school board also is considering asking voters to approve a millage increase.

Residents may go to the Canton Township Administrative Center, 1150 S. Canton Center Road to register.

Prospective voters may also go to any secretary of state's office to have their name added to the rolls.

Voters must be U.S. citizens and have lived in the community for at least 30 days.

Out on a limb

Canton residents can provide shade for future generations and it won't cost them anything. Well, almost anything. It will take a little effort and gasoline to get to the Canton Township Administrative Building, 1150 S. Canton Center Road. Once there, residents can pick up free seedlings from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday courtesy of the township's beautification committee.

The seedlings range in height from 8 to 12 inches and include varieties of Scotch pine, Douglan fir, Norway spruce, blue spruce dogwood, and a wildlife packet. Residents will be able to pick up a maximum of six trees and proof of residency is required.

SANTOMAURO WAS HIRED by the township in July 1985 after a sworn study, prepared by Bartell and Bar- dents. tell of Pennsylvania, said the department needed to be revamped. The consulting firm also suggested Canton hire Santomauro.

"I can say I feel the hiring of additional road personnel will decrease the response time and provide visibly more presence on the streets," said Santomauro. The added personnel will allow the department to concentrate on special patrol programs. The average police response time in March was 10 minutes, down from Canton police records. In 1985 four sworn officers were hired; in 1986 two sworn officers were hired; and in 1987 five sworn officers were hired.

Today the force includes 34 sworn officers, eight sergeants, two lieu-tenants and one chief. With Canton's 55.000 residents that makes one sworn officer for every 1,222 resi-

Pupils may have to pay activity fees

By Doug Funke staff writer

Most students in the Plymouth-Canton schools would be touched in some way if $4.8 million in spending cuts and participation fees informal-ly agreed to last week by the school board are adopted for the 1988-89 academic year.

Class sizes would be larger due to teacher cutbacks, students would pay a participation fee for sports and other extracurricular activities and hot lunches would increase as much as 30 cents

All field trip transportation sudsidies would end, as would shuttle bus service within the district for students in programs like Talented and Gifted.

The school board identified the cuts in a six-hour workshop Thursday that drew about 50 spectators.

"I THINK we started the process of shaking the tree and shaking it hard," said David Artley, board president. "I think we dealt with an issue that was difficult to deal with . and we dealt with it well."

School administrators now forecast 1988-89 revenues of $53.2 million. They project it would cost $59.6 million next year to provide educational services at current levels.

Applying $2.1 million from the fund balance would still mean spending cuts of $4.3 million. That would leave a fund balance of $2 million at the end of the '88-89 school year.

Because the cuts on which informal consensus has been reached exceeded the $4.3 million target by $500,000, administrators were di-

"We have to say if it (millage increase or override) passes, here's what's not going to go and here's what's going to go," Artley said. "That's the communication we have to get out."

Superintendent John M. Hoben recommended another election.

"I think we owe people whose kids are going to suffer one more opportunity," he said.

The school board last week seemed to be leaning toward asking voters for a millage increase or Headlee override one more time during its annual election June 13 before implementing cuts.

Two override requests and a mil-lage increase proposal have failed since February 1987.

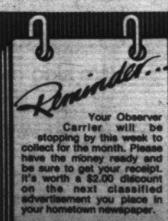

A decision is expected tonight (7:30 p.m. at 454 Harvey) and could hinge upon whether a budget can be adopted prior to that election.

VOTER APPROVAL probably would still require cuts, administra-tors and board members say, but to a much lesser degree — more on the order of $1.5 million.

Board members repeatedly ex-pressed distress during the workshop about making cuts and emphasized that the cuts weren't meant as clubs to browbeat the voters into approving more money.

IN A PHONE interview late last week, McClendon stood by his earlier remarks.

"The only candidate I have reason to feel might be a good board member is John Thomas, and I'm not sure he has the time," McClendon said, adding he is not endorsing Thomas or any other candidate.

College prep classes may be cut at Wayne

The continuing enrollment dip at Wayne Memorial High School could force school officials to drop several college preparatory courses - a move which has angered students and parents .--

After studying projected enrollment and student scheduling re-quests for next fall, Wayne-Westland school officials are recommending a 15 percent reduction in the number academic staff members at the school, according to Tom Svitkovich, associate superintendent for communications and finance.

Projected enrollment at Wayne Memorial for the 1988-89 school am I supposed to take calculus next year is 1,600, down from 1,904 for the current school year, Svitkovich said Tuesday. Enrollment at John Glenn High School is expected to decrease from 2,085 to 1,899. The proposed changes at Wayne Memorial would cut the academic staff (teachers, counselors and media center specialists) from 87 to 74, a drop of 13.

Retirements and reassignments within the district could mean few, if any, actual layoffs would be necessary, Svitkovich said.

Senate adopts presidential plan

All area senators supported the 1992 presidential primary bill when it sailed through the Michigan Senate 32-5 last week.

It set the third Tuesday in March to restore the primary. The bill goes now to the House.

A companion measure passed last month asks Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Minnesota to designate the same date in order to hold a Great Lakes "super Tuesday." Illinois already has chosen that date.

It would be a "closed" primary, so voters would have to register their party preference at least 30 days before the voting. That preference would hold for future years unless

R-Northville.

That would be a major change for Michigan, which always has had "open" primaries.

THE SENATE turned down, six in the vote in Michigan's presidential favor and 31 against, an amendment to allow an open primary, in which a voter wouldn't have to declare for a party.

"In that case, only Republicans would be voting," said Geake, be-cause an open primary would violate national Democratic rules restricting the process to declared Democrats. The primary would cost an estimated $5.1 million.

A FINAL amendment was adopted to satisfy both parties over the question of state law vs. national rules, Geake said.

It says that national party rules can supercede the delegate selection process in the state law - which satisfies Democrats.

Since Republican National Committee say the state party is to fol-low state law, the GOP also is satisfied.

To declare a party preference, a voter would go to the city or township clerk - the same as for registering to vote.

Cher Yamamoto displays sushi he has prepared at Kyotosushi, newly opened Japanese restaurant and sushi bar, at the Kyoto in Dearborn. Kyoto also has Japanese restaurants and sushi bars in Troy and downtown Detroit and is opening a fourth one soon in Novi, The mainstay of sushi bars is raw fish served with vinegared rice, but cooked fish and other items also are available. At home, you can try do-it-yourself sushi. Japanese characters to right of photo read "sushi bar."

When I set out to do a story, especially a piece on something as unfamiliar as tempura, I begin by searching out cookbooks that I have. Then I go to the old file cab-inet in the basement for musty folders filled with recipes and clippings from old newspapers of years past. If need be, I head for the library.

Every now and then, I stumble on a ratty old piece of paper or, in this case, a bar napkin scribbled with a name and number and the notation "tempura" in bold let-ters. It has been years since I last talked to the "Oriental tempura queen" herself, Lauretta Reise. As a matter of fact, the last time As a matter of fact, the last time we met, she was making Peking duck and proceeded to use a bicy-cle tire pump to begin the ritual of blowing up the duck. A quick call to the number connected me not only with the information I needed but included recipes that are intertwined with folklore, notaligia and, in Lauretta's case, a great sense of humor. Seems like the tempura queen has since landed a position as a graphic artist for ANR Pipeline and has temporarily shelved her wok and cleaver for a paintbrush and canvas. - woman, ra - silken gauze. The ancient translation actual-ly means, "Wearing a gossamer crust of batter as a woman wears silk gauze, stimulating the desire of the beholder by glimpses of the beauty beneath." To coin a phrase from the retired Oriental chef's mouth, "Tempura batter should just barely kiss the food."

MOST OF US are used to the deep-fried planks of food so read-ily served in today's fast-food sateries. Sometimes the batter is sooo thick, you might not know if you were eating chicken, fish or whatever. Tempurs batter, on the other hand, is soft, siry, and as your teeth sink through the crun-

Separated from the larger piece and arranged in a circle, these thin pieces of meat are the petals of a sushi "flower" that is blossoming before your eyes.

Sushi, put simply, is raw fish with rice. (The word sushi actually means vinegared rice.) Humans have been eating raw fish since their appearance on earth thousands of years ago, but it wasn't until about 200 years ago that they began to eat it along with rice. In the last 50 years, sushi has grown from a basic dietary filler to an art form. High in protein,

April is the month when everyone gets spring fever. Often, we are so glad to see the end of a long Michigan winter that we jump into spring The very first fine day will find people out working in their yards and gardens, readving them for spring planting. But, sad to say, it is still colder than we think it is and also very damp. We often pay for our eagerness with aching muscles and runny noses. After working outdoors this time of year, nothing tastes as good as a cup of hot soup. In many countries, soup is a daily "must." There is always a kettle of steaming soup on the side of the stove.

I grew up in the days of big, black kitchen ranges, with daylong wood fires. These were ideal for simmering soup.

Soup never boils with a full rolling boil but, instead, simmers slowly for hours. It is this long, slow cooking process that brings out and blends the flavors of all the ingredients.

TODAY, THE WOOD range is gone. In its place, we have a clean, convenient and efficient replacement - the crockpot, or slow-cook-

Prom night no distraction for Rocks

By Steve Kowalski staff writer

A handful of Plymouth Salem soccer players had a junior class prom to attend Friday night. But they played a soccer game Friday afternoon, and it's a good thing they kept their thoughts on dribbling and passing instead of the latest dance step.

Salem shut out host Farmington 2-0 Friday in a game played before the junior varsity game because of the prom.

Junior Jill Estey and sophomore Michelle Minton scored goals for the Rocks, who improved their record to 2-1-1 overall. Sara Hayes and Teri King collected assists on those goals.

FARMINGTON, ranked No. 2 in the Class A state coaches poll, suffered its first loss after winning four games.

"I wasn't thinking about the prom during the game," Estey said. "I'don't think it bothered anyone. Had we lost I would have been upset for a while, but it wouldn't have ruined the whole night.'

The win was crucial for Salem. Not only did it show the Rocks they can beat one of the Western Lakes Conference's best teams, it also helped them forget the early-season nightmare they had been having.

Salem lost two games en route to last year's Class A state championship, but tied Birmingham Marian in its season opener this year, and lost its particularly on Estey's goal that opened the scor-ing with 4:40 left in the first half. Estey picked up the rebound - after a Salem shot had hit the goal post — and drilled it by Farmington goalkeeper Debbie Westerkamp for the goal. "We had nice passing today," Johnson said. "I was pleased with the setups, especially on that first goal. Every attack we had was set up by three or four passes.

"It's nice to see those passes, because the fast one can get the goalie to be at the player's mer-CY.

Farmington managed only 10 shots - three in the second half - against Salem goalie Ellen Schnackel. The Rocks, meanwhile, fired 24 shots at Westerkamp, who despite the loss, played well.

"DEBBIE PLAYED excellent," Farmington coach Ed Bartram said. "She's a little quiet back there, and I like my keepers to make a lot of noise, but she'll develop. She's only a freshman."

The shot differential was an indication of how much Salem outplayed Farmington. The Rocks played an aggressive style and might have caught the Falcons playing flat-footed.

"We played a different style than we're used to," said Farmington senior halfback Heather Glennie. "We played their game instead of sticking to ours. They played more man-to-man defense, and there was constantly somebody on you.'

Sweep of relays can't save Rocks

After losing by one point to Westland John Glenn in boys track Tuesday, Livonia Churchill came out on top of the same 69-68 score Thursday

Unfortunately, Plymouth Salem was the victim in this meet. It was the first dual contest for the Rocks, who lost despite sweeping the relays. Salem had only three individual victories, however. LaMar Crayton won the long jump in 20-114, Doug Vergari the 3,200-meter run in 10:07.98 and Mike Park the intermediate hurdles in 42.6. Crayton had three first places, also participating in the 400 and 1600 relays. Matt Perrin, Greg Pahl, Crayton and Chris Turnbell complet-

Other winners were Dan Montgomery in the 1600 run, Matt Sweeney in the 800 and Jim Edney in the pole vault.

SALEM'S GIRLS track team was dealt a 91-37 setback by the Chargers, 2-0. It was the first dual meet for the Salem girls, also.

The Rocks had a double winner in Shelley Bohlen, who captured the shot put (32-5) and the discus (102-1). Jennifer Harris had Salem's remaining first place in the 400 dash with a 1.09 1 time

Rocks display pitching depth in Central rout

Todd Marion and Fidel Cashero get most of the pitching accolades on Plymouth Salem's baseball team, but Matt Metikosh proved the Rocks go more than two deep on their staff. The senior right-hander threw a one-hitter Friday to lift Salem to a 16-0 whitewash of Walled Lake Central. In seven innings, he struck out seven and walked two.

The Vikings' only hit off Metikosh came on a ground ball that took a bad hop and bounced over the second baseman's head.

The Rocks, on the other hand, supported their pitcher with 15 hits, and Marion was the most instrumental in that regard. He was 3 for 2 and knocked four runs before coach John Gravlin gave him the rest of the afternoon off. His hits included a double, triple and home run The Rocks, 2-0 in the Lakes Divi-

"I've never had a kid start like that," Canton coach Fred Crissey said. "He hasn't had a bleeder, either. Every one bas been hit hard.

Brighton downs Chiefs

Brighton, with one of the top 10 girls golf teams in the state, defeated Plymouth Canton 217-262 Thursday at Fellows Creek Golf Course.

The Chiefs, who have a 2-3 record, were led by Stacy Broschay's round of 59. Freshman Sarah Beckman aced the 96-yard, No. 5 hole en route to a 63 total. She used a 9-iron on the par-3 hole.

Canton tied the score 1-1 on Mike Culver's bases-loaded single in the bottom of the first inning, and the Chiefs went ahead 3-1 in the third.

Mike Sulak, 2-0, went the distance as the pitcher. He scattered four hits, and he fanned nine Warrior batters as opposed to walking two. Bill Berger was the losing pitcher.

An eight-run rally in the bottom of the fifth inning pushed Salem to a 13-1 lead and forced the 10-run mercy rule into effect. The rally also helped to maintain the Rocks' perfect record at 3-0. Central dipped to 5-3. Although it turned out to be a rout, the win didn't come easy for Salem. "We went out one-two-three in the first three innings and I thought it was going to be tough," said Rock coach Rob Wil-lette. "But we broke loose. The walks helped, but that's part of the game. Til take them any way I that's part of the game. I'll take them any way I can get them." SALEM TRAILED 1-0 entering the bottom of the fourth, but scored five times. Missy Biele's bases-loaded single, combined with a Viking er-ror, scored three runs. "That was a big hit," said Willette. "I was worried for a while." In the fifth, four hits and seven walks were turned into eight Rock runs. Ann Mundinger, who had three hits in the game — including two dou-hies — and two runs batted in, got the game-end-ing hit, a two-run double. Sheryil Gildo and Sandy Oberliesen each had RBI singles in the inning, as Salem sept 12 batters to the plate.

Tracie Robinson had two hits, one a double, and drove in two runs for Salem. Kim Berrie profited from the two big rallies, running her pitching record to 3-0. She gave up four hits and a walk in five innings.

ON WEDNESDAY, Berrie hurled the second no-hitter of her career to lead the Rocks to a 12-0 whitewash of North Farmington. Berrie struck out three and only walked four in pitching a solid game. The Raiders, by contrast, issued nine free passes in the five-inning contest. "When she threw [t in there and they hit it, it was right at somebody," said Willette, after point-ing out a strong wind was blowing in toward home plate.

"We're getting good defense, and Kim is throw-ig the ball real well," he added. Gildo had one of Salem's eight hits, but she col-octed four RBIs. Her ione hit was a two-run doe-ie, she drew a bases-lo aded walk and the other BI came on a groundout. 15

Teammate Pam Austin blasted a triple, Oberliesen was 2-for-4 with an RBI and Robinson notched two hits in three trips to the plate.

N'VILLE 4, CANTON 2: Plymouth Canton had its chances, but failed to capitalize Friday against visiting Northville and ended up losing in eight innings

Stacey Thompson took the loss. She gave up five hits and four walks, striking out six. Two of those hits combined with one walk and a groundout to produce two Mustang runs in the top of the eighth.

Kim Schulte had three of Canton's four hits, including a double in the third inning that knocked in both of the Chiefs runs and gave them a 2-1 lead. Northville got a run in the top of the fourth to tie it at 2-2.

Canton had a chance to win it in the sixth when Kelly McUmber singled and Thompson walked. They reached second and third with no one out, but were stranded.

Unfortunately, the second game started the same way. Brock struck out in his first at-bat. When he came to the plate in the fourth inning, the game was scoreless, there were two out - and the bases were loaded. On a full-count

To this point, Brock had batted five times. Runners were in scoring pos tion on three of those occasions, and Brock hadn't delivered. In the sixth, he got another chance. Phil Price reached base on an error and St. Peter's sacrifice bunt moved him to second. Greg Haeger (from Redford Catholic Central) was walked intentionally, then Darrin Campbell fanned. Which brought Brock to the plate with runners on first and second and two out, the game still scoreless.

"I figured," the senior outfielder said later, "I screwed up before. I couldn't do it again."

HE DIDN'T. Brock slashed a clutch single to left-center field to score Price and give the Wolverines a 1-0 lead. MSU later tied it, forcing extra innings and giving Brock another plate appearance. He came through again, lining a single to left to load the bases and set up Matt Morse's game-winning sacrifice fly

Brock, who officially was two-for-six with one RBI in the two games wasn't happy with his performance but was happy with U-M's 2-0, 2-1 sweep. "Anytime you play Michigan State, you're happy with a win," he said. "Mike (Ignasiak) threw a heckuya game. I just wish we could have won it for him."

DESPITE HIS solid play this season, Brock isn't satisfied. "Offensively, I think I could put some more numbers on the board," he said. "I'm just trying to keep my mind in the game."

Aaron Yaverski crosses the finish line to win the 100-meter dash, the first of his three victories in the sprint races Thursday.

City champions Falcon girls, Hawk boys take titles

By Dan O'Meara staff writer

The annual Farmington track and field city meet featured a thrilling, down-to-the-wire victory by the Farmington High girls Wednesday, and Harrison used its exceptional depth to defeat the Falcons in the boys competition.

The girls contest couldn't have been more suspenseful since the winner was not decided until the contestants in the 1,600-meter relay had covered the last inch of track. Harrison won that event, but the more import ant race - in terms of deciding the overall winner - was between Farmington and North Farmington.

63 going into the last event, needed the three points that go with second place to stay ahead of the Raiders.

AMY TRUNK, running the final leg of the 1600 her North rival at the tape following an exciting foot race to the finish line.

With that effort, the Falcons finished with 67 points, the Raiders 63 and Harrison 34. "If you ever had to bet on somebody, you can put your money on Amy Trunk all the time." Farmington coach Bruce Brown said. "She's just a tiger

Despite host Farmington's number of first places in the boys half of the competition, Harrison posted one of the larger margins of victory. The Hawks had 88 points, the Falcons 691/2 and North 171/2.

"In 1986, Farmington beat us by that much. said Harrison coach John Schumacher, demon strating the closeness of the meet by holding a thumb and index finger less than an inch apart. edged them out.

many came through for us." Trunk was an obvious key since she also won relay, brought Farmington from behind and edged the 400 dash. Kristi Devine took the discus despite a sore back that nearly kept her out of the meet.

Carrie Maier, who also plays soccer as does Trunk, raced to first place in the 200 dash, dependable Julie Lawton won the high jump and Jennifer Kiel nipped North's Lisa Rives by .05 in the 3200 run. Freshman Shelli Gaul provided "a huge surprise" by finishing second in the 100-meter hurdles, an event Brown didn't expect the Falcons to score.

"AND SOME PEOPLE, like Julie Lawton, do it ime after time," he said, "and you begin to take them for granted - and that's not right either." North got two of its victories in the field events where Suzi Butcher won the shot put and Ginger Donoghue the long jump. DeDe Newman was the "Last year, it was about the same thing only we 100 dash winner, and Rives found her way into the winners circle by breaking the ribbon in the 1600 meet." Brown said. "But one of the girls said: 'Coach, it means a whole lot.' I guess it does, because there's a lot of tradition and you're running against teams in your community.

SENIOR SPRINTER Aaron Yaverski's four first places is a good starting place when looking for reasons why the Hawks won the boys meet. He won the 100, 400 and 200 dashes and ran the leadoff leg of the 1600 relay, which Harrison won.

The Hawks were especially tough in the hurdles. They swept the highs with Bob Conlon, Brian Soeder, Troy Soeder and Rich Esker finishing in that order, and Harrison took three of four places in the intermediates, with Brian Soeder winning

"Everyone did well: we didn't have an off day Schumacher said. "I knew the talent was there What is a good omen is that we ran well with good competition

Schumacher also pointed to Bob Beauchamp's support of Yaverski in the sprints and the fact his distance runners such as Pat Runk and Jeff Barringer "hung tough." In addition, Harrison's Mark Bonasso won the discus and Brian Soeder the long

"What is significant about (the victory) is that Farmington and North were in it," Schumacher said. "I remember when the city meet was between North, which had won its conference, and Farmington, which had won its conference.

THE FALCONS had their share of first places but couldn't overcome Harrison's depth. A clear indication of that is the fact Farmington won three relays.

Oakland recruits Rice cager

By C.J. Risak staff writer

Size up Greg Kampe's recruiting efforts on behalf of Oakland Univer sity's mens basketball team and what you get is something now past, something for the present and something for the future.

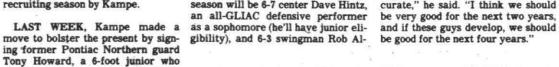

His latest signee is a look to the future: Lee Fitzpatrick, a 6-foot-7 forward from Southfield and Birmingham Brother Rice committed to OU Tuesday. And by so doing, Fitzpatrick couldn't have made Kampe any happier.

"He's our future," said the OU coach. "We brought in (John) Henderson and (Dave) Hintz and (Pete) Schihl for the front line when I first got here. Those guys are juniors and seniors right now, so it's time to start again.

THREE PREVIOUS additions will help change the Pioneers: 5-9 guard Eric Taylor, recruited last fall from Wyoming Park in Grand Rapids; 6-4 sophomore swingman Dan Kosnik, a transfer from Michigan Tech from Royal Oak Shrine; and 6-4 forward Brian Paraham from To ledo St. Francis.

Paraham is enrolled at OU. He sat out last season to recover from a serious knee injury suffered his senior year at St. Francis. All three may help next season, but their main contribution will come in the future.

So many new faces have convinced two Pioneers from last year's team who have eligibility remaining not to return. "THESE BATTERIES HAVE A LOT GOING FOR YOU"

For starters, Delco Freedom, Dura Power and Voyager Batteries are maintenance-free.

That means you never have to give them a second thought. They start you fast and sure when you crank up your engine. Thanks to Delco's design, early battery failure caused by low fluid levels is prevented. And the built-in "green eye" lets you know the state of charge at a glance.

Delco's got batteries for most cars and trucks, both domestic and imported. Plus batteries for boats and RVs. The limited warranty's good nationwide. Check it out where you shop for auto parts.

PART 1. The Zoning Ordinance No. 83 of Plymouth Charter Township, is hereby amended by amending Paragraph 1 of the Purpose Section; Paragraph 2 of the Purpose Section; Section 19.1, Paragraph 2; Section 19.12, Paragraph 1 (b), by adding a Paragraph 4; and Section 19.12, Paragraph 4; and Section 19.12, Paragraph 4; and Section 19.13, Paragraph 4; and Section 19.14, Paragraph 4; and Section 19 graph 16, to read as follows

PURPOSE:

Consumer Information Center Dept. TD, Pueblo, Colorado 81009

It is intended by the Community that uses of high intensity shall be located in areas which will not adversely impact the orderly development of existing or future residential areas. Commercial, office, research, testing and residential uses in structures beyond two (2) and two and one-half (21/2) stories in height are more urban in nature and, therefore, could be in conflict with a cific development area and the general character of the Township of Plymouth, if not properly regulated in regard to location, relationship to adjacent land uses and development requirements. The Community has provided a MR Mid-Rise District to provide for locations for these higher inter sity uses, separately or in combination, in areas which will not impact the existing or future land uses of adjacent properties and the Community as a whole. The Community, however, recognizes that within the C-2 Zoning District, IND, Industrial District and O.S. Office Service District there may b sites which, because of certain existing and specific factors, could be deve oped beyond the 2 to 21/2 stories

It is further understood that said develop planning goals of the community only in specific locations, under specific conditions, related to height, bulk and location of buildings in accordance with sound planning and Site Plan principles. It is therefore, intended that the Planned Unit Development Option is designed to permit flexibility in the regulation of land development, encourage innovation in land use and variety in design, layout and type of structures constructed, achieve economy and fficiency in the use of land, natural resources, energy and the provisions of public services and utilities, encourage useful open space, and provide better housing, employment and shopping opportunities particularly suited to the needs of the residents of the Township of Plymouth in C-2 zoning districts, IND, Industrial District and the O.S. Office Service District on parcels of five (5) acres or greater where the basic principles set forth in this article are

SEC. 19.1 STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES:

The Planned Unit Development (P.U.D.) is an optional method of development which may be permitted only after review and recommendation by the Planning Commission, public hearing, approval of the Township Board of Trustees after having found that the proposed Planned Unit Development reflects the following basic principles:

- I. The proposal is in conformity with the spirit and intent of the Planned Unit Development Option as established in the Purpose Section of this article. 2. The site contains "natural" assets such as large stands of trees, rolling topog-raphy, significant views, swale areas, flood plains or wetlands which would
- be in the best interest of the community to preserve and which would other-wise be substantially destroyed if developed under the specific requirements of the C-2 Zoning District, IND., Industrial District and the O.S., Office Service District. This determination shall be made by the Planning Commission and Township Board after review of a documented "Site Analysis" to be itted by the applicant.
- 3. The site contains certain existing "natural" or manmade features which could, with sound site planning, be incorporated into the project to minimize any negative impact the proposed project might have on adjacent properties and the community as a whole.
- The proposed uses and the location of said uses on the subject property shall be in harmony with the existing and proposed land patterns of adjacent prop-erties, and the general planning area, and shall insure the stability of the orderly development of adjacent lands the general planning area as indicated orderly development of adjace by the Future Land Use Plan.

Shopping for shoes? Eeney, meeney ...

By Loraine McClish staff writer

Eeney, meeney, miney, mo. Avia, Reebok or Avatar? Adidas, Nike or Brooks? Etonic, Ellesse or Mitre? The choices in athletic shoes are endless — up to 15 brands each offering as many models.

If you make your selection because one is more trendy than the other or the blue is cuter than the pink, you might end up with a $300 pair of orthopedics or what Dr. Marshall Solomon has coined "the $500 bag."

"The bag is filled with three or four pairs of shoes, running from the off-the-shelves $39.95-er to the $100 latest fad," he said. "It contains over-the-counter heellifts, arch supports, insoles, toe caps, paddings, moleskins, cushions.

"It cost its owner at least $500, and this guy is hurting."

Solomon and his partner, Dr. Charles Young, are both athletes, and they specialize in sports medicine. They've have rummaged through the $500 bag more times than they want to remember in their "Foot Specialist" offices in Farmington Hills, West Bloomfield and Center Line.

They work with high schoolcoaches from a half-dozen surrounding areas and helped bring the Michigan Panthers to their championship.

Their patients run from toddlers to seniors who "sometimes started their walking regimens too much too soon," Solomon said.

THEIR ATHLETIC patients might be skiers or roller skaters, but foot troubles and injuries are most prevalent among those who run track, play basketball or football, or participate in high-

"The biggest complaint from the joggers is in the knees, but often the problem is in the foot," Solomon said.

The most important pièce of advice Solomon can offer to anyone experiencing discomfort is "learn the difference between pain and stiffness. Never run through pain. Pain is the body's warning signal that something is wrong. Aches, stiffness and sore muscles are going to go away mediately start to question you on your history, your problem, your sport, your needs, you know you are in the wrong store," he saod. "If he asks the right questions, you are in the right store." 1D

All the brands have their special thing.

Tiger has gel that acts as a shock absorber as though it were your own fatty tissue.

Nike has air shoes — a bag filled with freon gas that makes a pillow of air that can't bottom out and lasts much longer than conventional foam.

BROOKS HAS its kinetic wedge.

"But not one of these are for everyone," Coughlin said. "That's why I stock so many brands and models."

Running Gear's many models start with a size O, for $29.95, "which I think I've only sold to grandmothers," he said, to the Puma Computer for $199.95.

The $200 number comes with its own user manual, cable hookup and preprogrammed floppy disc. It records the distance run, miles per hour, calorie burn off and total time.

Within that gamut is Adidas' Olympic Model Track Spike for $89.99, "a shoe I'll bet can't be found in but maybe three other stores in Michigan," he said.

And a big selection of New Balance, which is the only brand that offers six different widths.

Whether a weekend gladiator or a seasoned athlete with a foot problem, Solomon and Young's first-time patients get a computerized gait evaluation. The computer printout spells out the problem.

"It was developed for the Olympics, and its credibility is so high it's been used in court cases," Solomon said. "We can tell if the body is out of alignment, if a different shoe is moded, if there has been an overuse of a joint or muscle. High arch, flat feet, it's all there.

"MAYBE ALL you need is a shock absorber or thicker insole. But experimenting on your own can be costly."

So can following trends be costly.

"I think I must have lost $1 million in sales by discouraging

Paul Coughlin, owner and operator of Running Gear in Waterford boasts of having one of the largest varieties of athletic shoes in the state and said there shouldn't be a problem with selection.

The shoe contains an impact meter with its own computer sealed in the back of the shoe. The unit when hooked up to a home computer provides information on how many miles were ever run in the shoe, miles just run, miles per hour and calories burned off.

"It's more for the runner who has absolutely everything else," said Paul Coughlin, owner of the Running Gear in Waterford. "It's a very nice shoe, but it's more of a fun thing — something you can play with."

The shoe's good for about 1,000 miles of wear and tear.

Traveler's notebook: Portugal's pousadas

(Second of a two-part series) By Iris Sanderson Jones contributing travel editor

SETUBAL, PORTUGAL — From the Pousada San Felipe, high on a hill above the ancient city of Setubal, I can see beyond the castle walls to the boats crossing the huge harbor below.

There are fishing boats in two docking ponds within the highrise city, ferry boats sailing back and forth to the resort hotels at Troia and a distant freighter slowly moving out to sea.

Setubal is on the coast of Portugal 25 miles south of Lisbon. It has been here through 500 years of Arab rule and centuries of historic turmoil. It was King Philip II of Spain who built this great castle on top of the hill in the 16th century and the Portuguese government that created an inn within its stone walls in 1976.

San Felipe, or Sao Filipe in Portuguese, is one of 29 stateowned pousadas, or inns, ranging from castles to simple country homes. If "government inn" sounds grim, think again. Think of castles on high hills, country houses tucked into river bends, whitewashed modern hotels with red tile roofs, each wrapped in regional architecture, dress and food.

The word "pousada" roughly translated means resting place and that's all that little inns really were in the Middlle Ages. Now they are resting places that reflect the best of a region, contemporary beds and old fashioned service, often in romantic settings.

The group burned through a 45minute set, providing a solid round of songs at a recent opening for Adrian Belew and the Bears at the Nectarine Ballroom in Ann Arbor.

Hearty applause greeted the fourman outfit as they left, a remarkable feat for any opening band. The sirens that wail in Allison's

The guitar adds enough of a heart erything in its musical arsenal to felt edge to give the numbers an honest feel. There's also the hard driving rhythm provided by the drumming of Andrew Howell that gives this stuff some life.

If there is a problem here, it's that some of the numbers lack direction OK, some are dance mixes which are not supposed to have direction any-way. Granted.

But a finely orchestrated numb like "Suranland" could do better without the sudden change in rhythm in the middle. And it would be nice to have some type warning in "Faith" that the number is going to end. This EP could use some tightening up in spots. But it's a good first ef-fort nonetheless.

Pousadas are popular in Portugal

There are three classes of pousada, ranging from simple country inns to elaborate castles like this one. The most popular and spectacular pousadas are either castles or the new-but-still-regal inns in panoramc settings. Most of them are north and east of here - Dom Dinis and Sao Teotonia near the Spanish border. Obidos near Lisbon, Loios at Evorra, Santa Isabel in Estremoz and Palmela, which I can see on the top of a nearby hill as I lean over the battlements here at San Felipe.

WE HAD lunch at Palmela, took the car ferry with all the weekend bathers to the resort hotels of Troia, drove south down the coast and uphill through pine forests to the pousada overlooking a man-made ake at Santa Clara-a-Velha. Then we went on to the two small pousadas on the south coast - Pousada do Infante at Sagres and Pousada de Sao Bras at Alportel near Faro in the Algarve.

We are at the Pousada San Felipe in Setubel for one last night before we fly home tomorrow on TAP, Air Portugal.

The lake spread into the hills behind the dam like a splash of blue silk. Santa Clara, with six rooms, is the smallest of the pousadas and it fills exactly the goal of those inn-makers who created the system in the 1940s - to give Portuguese fam-ilies a moderately-priced place to go

SAGRES - It was a morning's drive from Santa Clara to the whitewash walls and red tiled roof of Infante in the town where Prince Henry the Navigator established a school for explorers like Vasco de Gama and Christopher Columbus. Infante is bigger and more elaborate than Santa Clara, like a large roadside hotel in America, with a swimming pool and other facilities. Like all the pousadas, it specializes in good food of the area.

POUSADA SAO BRAS. ALPOR-TEL - You approach Sao Bras on a winding mountain road 12 miles from Faro, the main tourist city o the Algarve, a 100-mile stretch of coastal tourism from Sagres to the Spanish border. You should plan to get lost several times, even after you have spotted the whitewashed pousada high on a hill.

Perched on a mooring in the Seven Seas lagoon, a pensive pelican was overseeing the loading of the Magic Kingdom II.

People of all ages from all over the world crowded around the ferry. We were united by fashion - straw hats and a camera as a necklace and the common desire to explore the futuristic and fairy dust wonders of EPCOT Center and the the Magic Kingdom - Walt Disney World near Orlando, Fla.

I exchange long silent stare with the pelican and admitted a ramped. ense of concern bordering on dread. I'd been to Disney World before and as a wheelchair user knew it to be rather accommodating.

Accessibility wasn't the source of my concern, rather my traveling companion, Ernest.

"Hey, mister. Mister, why is your friend sitting in that?" asked a child, wrinkling Ernest's pantleg. Ernest, as if chasing away an an-

"Absolutely magical," grunted Ernest, who's suffering the wounds wreaked by a battalion of Benitos encountered the previous night.

I had little trouble getting around the Magic Kingdom by myself. Most of the sidewalks have curb cuts and buildings without level access are

A good number of the rides are open to the physically handicapped, but require boarding assistance, which the Disney staff is unable to provide. So, if amusement rides are what you're after, visit Disney with omeone who can help you.

Perhaps the biggest problem with Disneyworld is the crowds. Kids run amok even when tethered to a parent. And many adults have a ter cy to read a guide book while walk-

EPCOT's World Showcase highlights the culture of several different countries, while its corporatesponsored Future World focuses on science and technology. Both areas are completely accessible to wheelchair users as are most of the rides and attractions.

More than a half dozen hotels on the Disney grounds offer wheelchair accessible rooms.

Finally, his mothers told him: That's a wheelchair, Johnny. It's just an inconvenience for the man.'

That's the last straw for Ernest, who over the years has seen me endure numerous paroxysms of "inconvenience.

"Hey, lady, it's a lot more than an inconvenience," said Ernest. My worries materialized. Taking a W.C. Fields type to a kid-infer kingdom is an ill-conceived idea. I lectured Ernest about tolerance as we made our way to Tomorrow Land, our first stop.

THE MAGIC Kingdom was built THE MAGE Kingdom was built 15 years ago when there was little awareness or legislation regarding equal access architecture for the physically handicapped. No one goes thirsty or hungry at Disney; a cornucopia spills out of every corner. But many of the snack shops have railed queues too narrow for wheelchairs, so some assistance is necessary. Ernest and I consulted our guide book and go to a restaurant that has table service.

If you don't want to buy liability insurance against crashing into a sea of wayward Achilles' heels, visit on a Sunday, Thursday or Friday, when crowds are the lightest. The Magic Kingdom becomes a maddening crowd every afternoon when Mickey Mouse and friends go on parade. Some viewing areas are reserved for strollers and wheel-chairs in front of Tinker Bell's castle, but they're not shaded and crowds are the thickest there.

You'll find comfortable, non-claustrophobic views in Frontier Land toward the end of the parade route. Sure, Mickey will have cavorting for 15-20 minutes by then, but he won't be so tired as to be goofy.

As with other frequent fliers, Boyd - not necessarily a betting man - knew the odds that he and his luggage would on one excursion or another show up at different airports. The Farmington Hills man should have placed a bet on his return trip after compet-ing in the Long Beach, Calif., Half Marathon. "All my baggage went to New York," Boyd said. Travel always involves new surroundings and a disruption of daily schedule and habitual ways of doing things. That's why it's fun; travel is a welcomed breaking out of the mold.

But for physically impaired people, many of whom rely on a very particular routine to accomplish mundane tasks like dressing, bathing or simply switching on a lamp, new surroundings can mean new hassles.

FREEWAY restaurants may be easy-on, easy-off to get to, but impossible to get into. Just a single step at the entrance is enough to thwart an electric wheelchair.

Motels, even those with a level entrance, can hold a host of potential problems. Room temperature controls may be out of reach, faucet handles may be unworkable for those with a poor grasp, bedside space may be to limited for an easy transfer, or entrance doors may be so heavily spring-loaded as to make entering an exercise and an exit a cata-nut energy an exercise and an exit a case put. All these problems are commonly encoun-tered in rooms designated as wheelchair ac-cessible. Another example is one economy hotel chain that's notorious for mounting the levision five feet up the wall in its handicap accessible rooms. So much for "Cheers." THE last 20 years wallpaper seemed to have fallen out of favor with younger audiences. Clean and uncluttered was the look.

But wallpaper is back and it's great decorating news. Wallpaper today is available in myriad patterns, from classic to country to contemporary. Prices are all over the map. However, there are prices for all budget. And for the do-it-yourself market, manufacturers have correlated papers to be used together. So if you are doing your master bedroom and are concerned about what you will do with the bath, forget it - they do it for you

What I have found especially exciting are the borders. Using a border can spruce up any room. The border can be used in lieu of crown molding. Doing this is obviously less costly and you are not sacrificing a look. In my own home, in the living room, I used a border which I dropped five inches from the ceiling - it's a great look.

"Wallpaper can add warmth to a room," says Peter Hermann, creative vice priesident of C&A (Collings and Ackman) Wallcoverings. Mary Gilliat, an interior designer with English roots who has written several books on decorating, is introducing a line of wallcoverings.

Gilliat says, "People are spending more time at home with video, television and subliminally they are influenced by what they see. The backgrounds of the soaps and movies are richer and this what they want to emulate."

The Gilliat collection, manufactured by Huxter, is called "Edwardian Garden." The Hexter showroom is in the Michigan Design Center in Troy. You must ask your designer to take you there.

And just like her TV counterparts, Bezik once owned an interior design firm in Atlanta. But today Birmingham serves as home base for Elegant Interiors, a two-year-old company focused on designing living space for senior citizens.

The company acts as exclusive designer for American House, a concept in retirement living which offers tenants private apartments but communal dining and other activities under one roof. The firm's latest endeavor is American House, Livonia, a new two-story residence on Middlebelt north of Schoolcraft promising tenants "security, com-panionship and independence." The site was once the home of the histor-Alexander Blue House, since ic moved to Livonia's historical village at Greenmead

"I really found my niche," said Bezik, who has a degree in design from the University of Michigan.

AFTER SEVEN YEARS operating a general interior design firm down South, Bezik found she had a special talent working with older people

"I took several courses in gerontology," she said. "There are many design specifications geared to seniors.

"For example, it's better to use higher seating and level looped car-peting instead of shag. Softer colors are important. But in areas like the craft and day rooms we use brighter, more stimulating colors

One of their trademarks is furnishing model apartments so potential tenants can visualize what their home could look like.

"We pay very close attention to detail," Martin said.

The studio and one bedroom models in Livonia look lived in, right down to a pair of slippers under a bed, clothes hanging in closets and a basket full of knitting next to a chair. Thirty-seven tenants signed contracts after viewing the models, Martin said.

"YOU CAN'T DO accessories on aper. It's the feel you get walking to a room," she said.

"We want people to be aware we are sensitive to the needs of the elderly. We make sure everything is the right height. We use a variety of colors and textures

Learning to say no is a difficult lesson for some people. We have grown up with a sense of responsibility. We believed there are many injustices in the world; we see a job that must be done and we do it. What we do not seem to understand is that no one individual can do it all.

People who cannot say no must realize the deeper reason for accepting every job that comes along: We want to be loved. We fear that if we say no, "they" will not love US.

At the office, this is perceived as gaining respect and being looked upon positively for promotion; in the community, it is wanting admiration as an achiever and a contributor; at home, we want love so badly we sometimes fulfill the unreasonable demands of others.

What most of us do not realize is that we are lovable just as we are. We do not need to achieve the impossible-to be liked. We are uniquely viable individuals who, so long as we do not commit mayhem, are accept-able for who we are, not what we do. Being fried can be a for maxim accept-

All too often we race through life with our tongue hanging out until nature takes is toll. When we suffer a heart attack or a stroke, only then we back off. Why do we have to wait for the doctor to tell us to slow down? By then the damage has been done. Deep down, we've known it all along, yet it seems we need a "parent" to tell us, or we need "permission" not to do so much. I hereby give you permission to say no. It's all right just to remain silent the next time a job is available. It's OK to say, "Tm sorry. That would cause a conflict." (You don't have to explain it conflicts with time you need to reorganize your desk.) While volunteer work is certainly important, it is imperative that you become more selective and stop accepting every job that comes along. You must find time for yourself in order to retain your sanity and your physi-cal health.
