New program covers NBA inside stuff

By Steve Paschal

Through the years, NBC has been one of the leading innovators in professional sports coverage. This season, the network is once again on the cutting edge of sports entertainment with NBA Inside Stuff

Each Saturday throughout the basketball season, former Minnesota Vikings wide receiver Ahmad Rashadand co-host Julie Moran headline a fast-moving, high-energy half hour that features the hottest players in the National Basketball Association as well as the previous night's scores and highlights from all the week's games. In addition, Rashad and Moran will update the Saturday scores.

Rashad graduated from the University of Oregon in 1972 and was a first-round draft pick of the St. Louis Cardinals. He played in Buffalo and Seattle before going to Minnesota, where he set the Viking career reception record with 400 catches in just seven seasons. In 1983, Rashad joined NBC Sports.

Prior to joining NBC, Moran appeared on a variety of television programs for the CBS Television Network and the Movietime Channel. She served as a sports reporter for WCTV/Tallahassee after graduating magna cum laude from the University of Georgia with a degree in broadcast journalism and reported for Julius Erving's Sports Focus on ESPN.

Terry Lester already leaving 'Santa Barbara'

By Candace Havens

If you've gotten used to seeing Terry Lester as Mason Capwell on Santa Barbara, you're going to be disappointed. Lester is leaving the show after little more than a year. The news comes as a shock to the show's executives, as well as to fans. Lester has not yet commented on what he plans to do after leaving the show. After talking with Lester a few months ago, I can't see him leaving the show unless he already had something else lined up.

Dear Candace: I was watching General Hospital the other day - I hadn't watched it in several months and I noticed that there is a different Simone. She looks just like the girl who used to work for Paul on The Young and the Restless. Is it the same girl and if it is, where is she from? -Thanks. F.P. in Wisconsin.

Dear Reader: Stephanie E. Williams now portrays Dr. Simone Ravelle Hardy on GH. The actress was a series regular on Y&R as Amy Lewis. She played the character from 1982 to 1988. She joined GH in February, Born and raised in St. Louis, Mo.. Williams has been a dancer most of her life. She left her hometown to try her luck at a dancing career in New York. She appeared in an off-Broadway show and in the Broadway revival of West Side Story.

Williams first traveled to Hollywood in 1981 to play a key role on the TV series Fame. For a time she appeared on Fame and Y&R concurrently.

The actress is dedicated to helping the youth of America. She lectures and conducts workshops for young people in self-esteem, self-awareness and the power of self control

Dear Candace: I, too, am outraged at the way Susan Lucci has been given the shaft! She, and particularly Ruth Warrick, hold the show together. I have watched All My Children for 19 years and never would have if it weren't for Erica. - Lois Torrance, Santa Paula, Calif

TNT presents salute to Bugs Bunny

By Amy Schmidt

Over the course of 50 years, "wascally" Bugs Bunny has outsmarted Daffy Duck, frenzied Porky Pig and baffled Elmer Fudd - all with a carrot, a wink and an "Eh, what's up, Doc?" Monday, Nov. 12, TNT presents the two-hour special What's Up Doc?: A Salute to others besides myself who are dying to Bugs Bunny.

In the best of Bugs, producer-director Sons, Redstone Arsenal, Ala. Carl Lindahl goes behind the scenes to made the bunny a legende in general came from," said Lindahl.

The idea was to do a retrospective on Bugs Bunny that didn't scream "documentary." "Like any documentary, the special is factual and very informative. But we've gone to great lengths to bring out the fun in the material," Lindahl said.

Ten of Bugs' most memorable cartoons are included. Among them is the very first Bugs Bunny feature, "A Wild Hare." In "The Big Snooze," Bugs provokes Elmer Fudd to rip up his contract with Warner Bros., and the rabbit's most popular adversary, Yo- a State Department-sponsored theasemite Sam, makes his first appearance trical group tour of India. This in "Hare Trigger." Not to be forgotten encouraged him to pursue an acting is "Gorilla My Dreams," in which the 'career. He studied for a time in Rome "man of a thousand voices," Mel then returned to this country to Blanc, does all the characters' voices.

Canton in South Bend, Ind., on June 11, 1936. He made his first stage appearance as a 17-year-old high schooler. His dramatic interest continued at Wayne State University in Detroit, where he won an audition for complete college. After performing in a number of plays in the Detroit area, he felt ready for a try at New York. There he signed a three-year contract with Warner Bros. He appeared in many of their TV series and won motion picture roles in Claudelle Inglish and The Chapman Report. He also starred in the western series The Dakotas. He next became a contract player at MGM, which eventually led to his starring series, Medical Center. He is an accomplished horseman, enjoys playing tennis and has published a book of love poems dedicated to his wife, Shelby, titled Ode to Shelby. The couple live in a fabulous Spanish-style ranch on a hill overlooking the San Fernando Valley. They have two daughters, Katherine Kerry, 21, and Shannon Kimberly, 19.
