Man beaten at fireworks

Says Detroit cops no help

By Kevin Brown staff writer

Following the videotaped beating of a suburban woman and her daughter in downtown Detroit during the fireworks Friday, a'Plymouth man is reporting a similar experience

STEVE JOHNSON, 21, a University of Michigan senior, said that while he was attending the fireworks with two friends, "I got pushed to the ground."

Johnson said he turned around, and saw that two friends who had been walking behind him "were getting pushed and kicked when they were down, my one friend's face was all bloody.

Johnson said the Detroit police officers they approached after the incident weren't helpful.

The friend who got the worst of the beating "was in the police car talking about what happened, and the po-liceman said, 'Did you get jumped by niggers?' " Johnson said.

The victim, a Milford man, said, "Yeah," Johnson added. "There's nothing we can do about it," the policeman responded, according to Johnson.

Officer John Leavens, a Detroit Police spokesman, said the victim "should file a report on it with our de partment. We would investigate it and someone would be in touch with him. "If there is misconduct, appropriate action should be taken against those officers," Leavens added

Prior to the incident, which Johnson said I just before dark, he and his two friends had parked their car east of the Ren Cen in the Rivertown neighborhood. THEY WALKED WEST on Jefferson, their destination Hart Plaza.

On approaching Hart Plaza, "It wa we were walking back to our car on Jefferson. We had to walk single file because it was too crowded," John said.

It was when they passed a group of men sitting on the steps of a church on Jefferson that they were attacked, Johnson said

Saying the group of men who assaulted them were Johnson and his two friends are white - he black said, "I think it was pretty racial." "I hope it wasn't," he said, adding he and his three friends were the only whites in the immediate area.

Prior to the incident, "We didn't say a word to anyone, we weren't looking at anybody funny," Johnson said, adding the three were trying to hurry back to their car

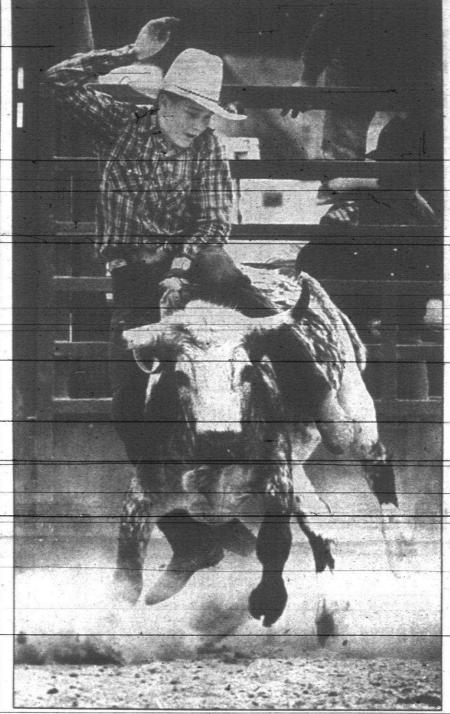

Johnson said he's attended several festivals at Hart Plaza, and the fireworks. Now, Johnson said he won't be returning downtown.

"You think there's a million people, you think safety in numbers.

'That's just dead wrong.'

In the videotaped incident shown on local TV over the weekend, a Farmington Hills woman was kicked and shoved by about six women outside the Omni Hotel on i East Jefferson.

An NAACP official said following that incident that

The Nankin Transit Commission could be forced to halt its bus service as early as Sept. 2 because operating money from SMART - the Suburban Mobility Authority for Regional Transportation - is scheduled to be dropped.

Nankin Transit provides 9,000 rides a month for nearly 1,000 people in Westland, Garden City, Canton Township, Inkster and Wayne.

In hopes of rescuing the program, county and state lawmakers called an emergency meeting Friday in Westland to discuss ways of replacing the $375,000 that Nankin Transit receives from SMART.

They also were planning to mee Tuesday with the Nankin Transit Commission.

"WE'RE WORKING very, very hard to alleviate the problem," commission Chairman Tom Kelly said Monday.

As a stopgap measure, officials plan to seek money to provide bus service through next June. By then, they hope to pull away from SMART and find some other source of state aid, Kelly said.

Although Nankin Transit receives $500,000 a year from the communities it serves officials have said it cannot continue to operate unless it can replace the $375,000 from SMART

Friday's meeting drew Wayne County Commissioner Kay Beard, state Sen. George Z. Hart and representatives from the offices of Sen. William Faust, state Rep. Justine Barnes and state Rep. William Keith

"WE'RE VERY concerned, and we're doing everything we can to try and maintain this service," Beard said. The lawmakers met for lunch at the Big Boy on Wayne Road in Westland.

Beard predicted a public uproar among elderly people and physically handicapped people once word preads that Nankin Transit could halt its service.

"The senior citizen population is growing in these communities, and the need for this (bus) service will continue to grow," she said.

Hart charged that the state has a responsibility to provide the bus service, but he said he feared that a severe budget crunch could result in a stumbling block.

"We're hamstrung as far as the state is concerned," Hart said.

Officials said many elderly people and physically handicapped people depend on Nankin Transit for routine trips to grocery stores and doctors' offices, among other places.

The legislators already have begun receiving letters and telephone calls from people worried about the potential shutdown of Nankin Transit. Beard said it may be necessary to schedule public meetings to hear additional citizen commen

THE CHANGES aren't confined to the Plymouth/Northville area. They also touch Livonia, now represented by Breen at the county level, and Canton, where voters will choose between Georgina Goss, Jerry Vorva and Deborah Whyman for a new state representative.

The job changes have enlivened local politics the state House race promises to be one of the area's most spirited in years - but it's also been controversial, with some area Republicans accusing others of choosing candidates from too small a

Comic books no joke for area businessman

By Kevin Brown staff writer

If you're an adult who bought comic books in the '50s or '60s, know there's been a few changes in the world of superheroes since then.

For one, those 10-cent comics you recall go for nearly $1.25 now. And while the local drugstore usually displayed a wire rack or two of comics, nowadays whole stores devoted to comics are popping up.

LITTLE SHOP OF HEROES on Main Street in Plymouth has been open just over a year, said owner Jerry Andrews. Besides traditional favorites such as Batman, Super man, Spiderman and Classics Illustrated, new favorites like the Mutants, Punisher, X-Force and scores of others are displayed for comics fans

Are kids and teens still the main buyers of comics? "It varies," An-drews said. "Some are 6 or 7 years old, it even goes up to elderly people

Jon Rakezy, 14, of Plymouth was checking out the comics on a recent weekday afternoon. He prefers X-Force - a new comic put out by Marvel Comics.

There's more action in it, the stolines are better than D.C.," he said, referring to the company that makes Batman and Superman comics.

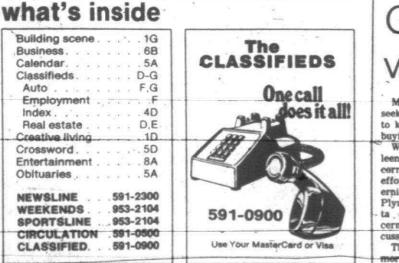

MARVEL COMICS tend to portray renegade superheroes, which many fans view as more appealing that the more mainstream D.C. comics.

The overall attraction of comics is still the same. "It's good guys versus bad guys," Rakozy said. Comics fans are also into the art work that goes into each story panel, and they know Breen is also unopposed in the Aug. county commission primary and Aug. 27 general election to replace Heintz. It's a diferent story in the race to replace Law.

Throughout the remaining weeks, all three state House candidates will be campaigning hard in a district that also includes mouth Township. Vorva is making office changing an issue in his campaign. "I feel it was worked out in advance, that's the perception and I don't think the erception is wrong," he said. "It's an example of politicians taking care of themselves instead of taking care of business." Goss is campaigning on a platform that emphasizes preserving the region's "quality of life."

Changes might not be over even after the new state representative takes office. If Goss wins, there will be a vacancy in Northville Township government. The same holds true for Plymouth should Vorva be elected. Redistricting, scheduled to go into effect by 1992, could bring even more changes. County commission, state House and other districts could be radically altered by the next election, possibly making some races more competitive.

"Parties often don't want to get too involved in elections before redistricting." Heintz said. "They don't want to commit too much money to someone whose seat might not be there next time."

County lagging in toxic cleanup

By Wayne Peal staff writer including Metro Detroit Wayne and Oakland counties lags behind other parts of the state in cleaning toxic waste sites, according to a new report. Southeast Michigan has the worst cleanup rate of any region in the state with Wayne County making less cleanup progress than any other county, according to a re-cently released report from the Public Interst Research Group in Michigan (PIRGIM).

"I wouldn't say there's been no progress, but there's been very slow progress," said PIRGIM spokesman Andy Buchsbaum, who helped compile the report.

Part of the problem is that southeast Michigan has apparently been shortchanged in terms of state financing.

State money has been targeted for 18.6 percent of the southeast Michigan sites, and only for 7.7 percent of those in Wayne County, the report said. Elsewhere, state money has been used for cleanups at 31 percent of all toxic waste sites

There has been no cleanup work more than half of Wayne Coun ty's 52 toxic waste sites, Buchsbaum said, with progress also slow in Oakland and Macomb counties.

"THEY DO have more sites than many other counties, but Kent County has the most sites of any county and progress there has been much more rapid," Buchsbaum said. "What's significant here (in southeast Michigan) is that nowhere else to do have such a concentration of counties with so many sites

 Only 22 of Wayne County's 52 worst toxic waste sites have had no cleanup of any kind, and only one site is ready for full cleanup. In contrast, seven of Kent County's 48 sites are already being cleaned, with action at 33 county sites to be paid for by polluters.

• A mere 4.4 percent of the state's 748 most dangerous sites are being cleaned or are ready for full cleanup. There has been no action of any kind on 209 sites.

"One of the problems is that the DNR is overworked, especially in southeastern Michigan," Buchsbaum said.

DNR officials generally declined comment on PIRGIM's findings.

"We agree that Michigan has a number of sites and that polluters pay will be effective, but beyond that we really can't comment on their study," said Frank Reswick, acting DNR director for environmental protection.

Rouge classes teaching teachers

By Wayne Peal staff writer

While students enjoy the early days of summer vacation, a number of area teachers are going back to school at the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

Some 30 high school and junior high teachers are participating in a four-week Rouge River education project on the UM-D campus.

Though water samples will be taken and analyzed, the project involves more than just scientific research.

English, government and history teachers are also involved. Teachers from the Livonia, Wayne-Westland, Plymouth/Canton and Garden City public schools are among those particlpating.

The goal is to return to school next fall with a complete program to help students discuss the heavily polluted river and how local governments are banding together to provide for its cleanup

"The idea is to make students think about the Rouge and its impact on the region," said Robert Crawford, an English and history teacher at Stevenson Junior High, Westland. Crawford admits he was skeptical at first.

"I SAW it just as a science project," the Westland resident said. 'But you come to realize that while the job of the scientist is to gather data, it's the job of English and social studies to give it meaning."

Water testing began last week and Thomas Morawa, a science teacher at Livonia Churchill High School,

"Because I teach chemistry, I'm always making the kids aware of what kinds of things they shouldn't be flushing down the drain," he said. The testing, he added, will let students know just what kinds of chemicals are already in the Rouge.

The project, however, requ that teachers be students, too.

It begins with a geographical overview of the 467 square mile Rouge River watershed, detailing the area's plant and animal life and how it became endangered by pollution

TEACHERS then divide into groups to learn how to take water samples, identify chemicals present in the river and study plants and animals that live in or near the river

"It has probably been one of the most intensive, enjoyable programs I've ever been associated with,' Morawa said. "I know I'm going to keep on utilizing it in my classroom.

The program is financed through a $562,000 National Science Foundation grant. Though initially begun a a one-year project, the grant money allows the program to continue through 1993.

The NSF decided to support the program because it is based on a 'real world problem'' that emphasizes "doing

SEMCOG boosts regional government

By Tim Richard staff writer

'Regional government" used to be dirty phrase around the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments.

Last week it became a thinkable idea. To many at a SEMCOG workshop on urban sprawl, regional government became discussable - and even desirable.

'Start with a regional planning agency with mandatory participasaid spokesmen for eight groups of elected officials, planners, environmentalists and businesspeople.

"A metropolitan council for services of a regional nature could be workable," one group agreed at the end of the day.

"Regional government, with an elected governing body, is perhaps the end result, the ultimate," said another.

'Everyone agreed we need some kind of change - at a minimum, mandatory regional planning," said still another

Last week's SEMCOG-sponsored ong SEMCOG study. 'Rena Cusma knocked everyone's socks off," said John Amberger, SEMCOG executive director. Cusma, the luncheon speaker, is executive officer of the Metropolitan Service District in Portland, Ore. "Rena Cusma got the plan through the Oregon Legislåture. We've just introduced the idea here," said Amberger The Portland area "Metro" covers three counties. It does urban planning, transportation planning, solid waste disposal and recycling. It also operates the zoo, civic stadium, convention center and performing arts center.

Amberger said, "Local elected officials are in terrible binds. They must do what's best for their people and also look after the region.

Free Federal

MILTON MACK, a Wayne County probate judge, issued an -outright call for new regional governance powers.

Southeast Michigan is now facing its biggest crisis - urban sprawl, said Mack. Yet no local governmental mechanism is in place which could even remotely begin to address the problems caused by sprawl. Local home-rule powers relating to planning and zoning are irrelevant in the regional community known as southeast Michigan."

Before appointment to the bench, Mack was SEMCOG chair, a Wayne County commissioner and a city of Wayne councilman.

"I propose that some of the functions that local government now per-forms be shared with an agency with regional oversight," Mack said, adding he opposes replacing local government

The regional agency, he said, should make decisions on land uses of regional impact: "location of major industries, airports, highway extensions, large commercial developments such as a shopping center of mega-mall, major sports-facilities. large new subdivisions and the protection of wetlands.

School security is his new beat

By M.B. Dillon staff writer

For the past five years, Roy Anderson tracked down murderers, rapists, robbers and prison escapees for the Michigan State Police fugitive team.

Before that it was stopping organized crime for 11 years, working in surveillance and on the gambling squad with the criminal investigation division in Detroit.

After 26 years with the state police. Anderson retired and landed a new job as chief of security for the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

"I'VE DONE and been part of things little kids dream about," said Anderson, 47, a Livonia resident. "I've shaken the hands of Presidents Carter, Ford and Bush, Mrs. Bush, Vice President Dan Quayle and Menachem Begin" while assisting the secret service.

"Police officers are people who help people, and the state police is the best police department in the state of Michigan. "In this job, I can still serve people, but now I don't need a gun and a badge to do it," said Anderson. "The people here know what they want; they don't want some big ogre or someone here who has a problem with children, because security and the enforcement of rules are part of the learning process."

Anderson's first day on the job was June 3. Seniors attended for their last day on June 5; Canton and Salem High Schools' commencement was June 9 in Ann Arbor followed by the seniors' all-night graduation party. After several 6:30 a.m. - 3 p.m. days, Anderson reported for work at 10:30 a.m. graduation day and worked until 3 p.m. the next day.

"It was a no-nod shift, but that's OK," said Anderson: "It's one day a year. I absolutely enjoy this job, and I plan to enjoy it for several more years. I keep telling them I love this job, and I'm sure they know it. "The police community is like a close-knit family, and it's the same with teachers and administrators," he added. "That's what makes it nice, I've gone from one family to another. It's like visiting your inlaws, if you like your in-laws, and I have some great ones," said Anderson, whose wife Charlene trains pharmaceutical technicians and nurses aides as a teacher with Plymouth-Canton Community Education. The couple has two children, Paula, 18, who just graduated from Churchill High School, and Steven, 14, who's entering Churchill this fall.

ANDERSON'S FIRST tour of duty brought written praise from his bosses. He received a letter from Canton Principal Tom MacKenzie and administrative area coordinator Ken Jacobs thanking him for his handling of graduation rehearsal, commencement, the seniors' last day, and the senior party.

Anderson, who supervises a staff of eight security officers, sees his department's job as "enforcing school laws and state laws; friendly enforcement. "I've been enforcing the law and living by the law all my life," he said. "I would expect others to do the same." And if they don't?

"It'll be equal enforcement with a smile," said Anderson. As for drugs on campus, "If we seize drugs here, we'll make a report, and turn evidence over to the police department. Security officers are everywhere, on foot and in trucks. Like everyone, we always appreciate information from the public on who might be using or selling. I'm not sure drugs are in schools in the quantities they were a few years ago," Anderson said.

Roy Anderson, retired from the Michigan State Police, replaces Jim Collins as chief of security for Plymouth-Canton Communi-

"Based on what I read in the files, " there've been fewer apprehensions and I don't think there's ever been a reduction in emphasis. Either there's less activity, or kids are more sophisticated. I'm going to say I believe there's less drug use on campus."

THE DISTRICT'S smoking policy still is being revised. If and when CEP becomes a no-smoking campus, "We'll enforce the rules as best we can," he said.

School may be out, but Centennial Educational Park is buzzing with activity, Anderson has found.

"This 305 acres is a center of activity. There are a lot of new families in Canton and Plymouth; this is kind of a young community. Kids are here in sports clinics learning to swim, play softball, soccer and basketball. We have Safety Town going on for the youngsters, and summer school. It's different than murder, rape, robbery and prison escapes; you can quote me."

Anderson looks at home at his new desk in Phase Three at the park. An engraved plaque bearing his name and title, a gift from his daughter, graces his desk. On the wall is a framed picture of Bo Schembechler coaching his last game in U of M Stadium. Inscribed are the words, "To Roy, Bo knows football; Roy, knows fugitives. Best wishes, Bo Schembechler." BILL BRESLER/staff photographer ty Schools, Collins took a job in internal affairs with AAA of Michigan.

And Anderson is no stranger to Michigan Stadium.

"We've sat in Section Five, Row 28, Seats 11 and 12 for 10 years," said the Chicago-born Anderson, who's pumped up already about the Sept. 12 Notre Dame game.

Sept. 12 Notre Dame game. A graduate of Niles High School, Anderson studied drafting and engineering at Benton Harbor Junior College and worked in a machine shop before being accepted by the Michigan State Police Academy. His first assignment as a trooper was in Flat Rock, where he worked for two years before moving to Battle Creek. In 1974, Anderson was promoted to traffic services with the Plymouthbased state police vehicle inspection team. In 1976, he joined the criminal investigation unit. His work there breaking up dog-fight rings; apprehending prison escapees; and helping to track down criminals such as Hillsdale County's David Davis who poisoned his wife and was caught in Samoa — fills a scrap book Anderson's war stories are the stuff of America's Most Wanted and Unsolved Mysteries episodes.

"One of our 10 Most Wanted guys had a sunrise tatooed on top of his head," said Anderson. "That's what makes it so interesting.

"After 26 years, my career was over. I needed a job where I could continue to use my service skills. This is the job for Roy Anderson."

4th of July Plenty to celebrate this year

HIS FOURTH of July will be one to remember in Canton and Plymouth.

But it won't just be the parades. This year we've got plenty to celebrate. Our men and women who served in Desert Storm are home, and the world seems to be catching on to something that we've know for a long time ---freedom works.

For more than 200 years America has been an example to the world that people can govern themselves without relying on a dictatorship or on a dogmatic ideology such as communism. Dictatorships kill people; communism kills brain cells. And it looks like we've got the killers on the run. Saddam is pretty quiet lately and Yugosla-

THOUNS

That's how Farmington Observer editor Tom Baer remembered the murder of Farmington area resident David Jones, whose wife, Cathy, was a teacher in the local school district. For you relative newcomers, Olympia was the arena down on Grand River in Detroit where the Red Wings plied their craft and where Gordie Howe became a hockey legend.

For years fans packed the old red barn, as Olympia was affectionately labeled, to cheer on some of the greatest hockey teams the sport has seen. Like most arenas, it also was utilized for numerous other types of gatherings. In short, it was a familiar and comfortable spot for metro Detroiters.

That all changed on a cool night in November 1976 AFTER ATTENDING the Olsonite

Tennis Classic reception, the mortgage company vice president set off for the parking lot. Cathy waited behind in the lobby. He was shot in the back, robbed of $3. From that moment life for Cathy Jones would never be the same.

 In 1980 the Olympia was replaced by a brand new Joe Louis arena. Many observers would tell you that a new arena was built for purely economic reasons. Like many old time sports facilities the Olympia lacked executive boxes and the other amenities that bring in big bucks for team Plymouth who, along with two friends, found himself in a fight at the fireworks. Although reporting the incident, they, like Ms. Was found the police less than enthused about helping. So they just went home.

But we just can't keep writing off Detroit. We have to face the problems which segregation and economc depravity foster.

The division between blacks and thites is wide. Creating an und standing difficult. Those who don't know one another, who as a fraid of one another, who resent one another nd sometimes hate one another are ound to clash

This time let's vow to make these most recent incidents a new beginning. Let those in the black and white communities who wish to save our metro area from the thugs work Now is the time for unity, for inte

Let's see wh There are 73 pro-life crisis pregnancy centers in Michigan alone

They are funded privately and staffed by volunteers. They offer a variety of services including hous ing, clothing, pre-natal care, etc These services are absolutely free to the women.

Over the years, I myself have housed several women during and after their pregnancies. A dear friend who sidewalk counsels with dren. One is a product of rape. The other was a crack-addicted baby who she was told would be blind and retarded. She is neither. She is a beautiful, bubbly toddler who frequently joins mom at the abortion mills for these outreach missions.

Maybe Jack Gladden can tell us other than killing their pre-born children what exactly the people (Womens Advisory Center of Livonia) who say they are in the business of helping women, actually does to help

Do they even offer free abortions to women who can't afford them? I'm not ashamed nor do I regret my years of ministry in the pro-life novements. More importantly, I have never had a woman regret she did the responsible thing - give her child life

This quest column was written in response to a column by copy editor Jack Gladden which appeared in the June 27 edition of Observer & Eccentric newspapers Lynn Mills is a pro-life adpocate

By Lynn Mills quest columnist

I have recently taken a fair amount of heat because myself and a group of Jesus Christ worshipers used an extreme measure to attempt to save two mothers and two preborn children in an extreme circum stance. I have been criticized by proaborts from coast to coast and by a few pro-lifers. There have been tears shed on my part for the moms, babies and myself.

The bottom line is that whatever have gone through is nothing compared to the death of the 23-week. pre-born child -A local reporter asked me if I bit off more than I could chew. The answer is "yes," but if I had to, I would do it again You can never erase the memory of killing your child through abortion. But groups like Women Exploited By Abortion and Post Abortion Counseling and Education (help) women who regret what they let the abortion profiters do to them and help them dealing with the deadly deed, healing and forgiveness from

BECAUSE WE, the pro-life movement care, we are there to pick up the pieces. We make no money from helping those who suffer from Post Abortion Syndrome I challenge Jack Gladden to find just one abortion mill that will help counsel a woman after the abortion and help her deal with the guilt. The abortion mill won't because to deal with the abortive woman's guilt is to admit there was something wrong.

I challenge Jack Gladden and the Obserer & Eccentric to come out to course) to see first hand what the mothers going in names. We ask them to speak with us and if they don't, we have about five seconds to get the life facts to them via our vocal chords across the black top. We do tell the women who go in to ask for proof of malpractice insur ance and if they can't prove they have, why not? It was the pro-aborts that broke this story on a nationwide level, thus exploiting an incident confined to a few motorists. Pro-lifers have taken an unfortunate set of circumstances and used them to expose late term abortions

IF JACK Gladden and the O&E really cared about women, they would push for informed consent giving women full knowledge of the abortion procedure If Jack Gladden and the O&E real ly cared about women, they would send volunteer reporters in these abortion mills with male urine and expose the clinic workers for pushing abortions where there was no need. If you would see a reporter in unannounced, she would see the unsterile surroundings that women feel forced to have their abortions in. But then Jack Gladden and the

O&E would be forced to deal with the uncomfortable truth that abortion is not the spiritual cleansing mecca that the National Organization of some Women have been touting it as. Our check books will never replace the picket signs, but will continue to go hand-in-hand. We in the pro-life movement receive no federal funds. All we have and give to mothers come from private donations, the same as all the Crisis Pregnancy Centers are run. The number one group of abortion supporters are, white males - like Jack Gladden.

Too many professors have logged very few hours actually administrating in kindergarten-through-12thgrade school systems - particularly in the inner cities. And many of the abortion mill (incognito, of those who did administrate somewhere, usually at a lower rank, pro-lifers do. NOW I'M NOT making fun of this. Honest, I'm not.

It's just that sometime back, when my wife was having one of "those days," I made some wisecrack about having discovered a new defense for the courtroom

"I didn't mean to kill him, your honor. It wasn't premeditated. I mean, like, he just said somethi and it hit me the wrong way and there was this butcher knife there and I picked it up and . see, l was having a PMS day and That was my fantasy, snideness and sarcasm included. Well, now it's happened. Down in Fairfax, Va., a female orthopedic surgeon has beaten the rap on a drunk driving charge by offering, as part of her defense, that she was having a PMS day. It's a complicated case, but it went something like this:

was stopped by state police for weaving along Dulles Toll Road in Fairfax County. She was given a Breathalyzer test, which she failed and the frequent inaccuracy of those tests was another part of her defense). The officers who stopped her found prescription drugs in her car which, they determined, she had obtained fraudulently in another county

The woman, who's 42 years old,

She then began using foul language at the police officers and atmpted to kick one of them in the groin. That's where the PMS defense came in Her attorneys claimed that PMS caused her to react violently to the officers who had bulled her over And that's the part of the case that has received the most publicity.

THE COURT found her not guilty of the drunk-driving charge, although she still faces charges on the drugs. It's unclear how much the socalled PMS defense influenced the court's ruling in the case, but the fact that it was used at all seems to have produced mixed feelings among feminists, lawyers and medical people.

The prosecutor in the case woman - said the defense hurts the credibility of women. "I'm sure men are just shaking their heads at this," she said.

Congress shall make no law respecting an estab-lishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for redress of grievances

In this, the 200th anniversary of the Bill of Rights, three Observer & Eccentric readers have been named winners in the First Amendment essay competition.

Winners are: Erik Pedersen, 10, of Troy; Bernard Cherkasov, 15, Southfield; and Christine Smedley (over 21 category) of Livonia.

Entrants were asked to write what the First Amendment means to them. The two youths were awarded $50 U.S. Savings Bonds, while the adult winner was presented with tickets to the Meadow Brook performance of the "All American Spectacular."

Congratulations to the winners. Following are their prize-winning essays.

Refugee cherishes religious freedom

Following is the First Amendment essay written by Russian immigrant Bernard Cherkasov, 15, of Southfield, who entered in the 13-18-year-old category.

THENK that this First Amendment is very important to people because it gives people freedom of religion, speech, press, freedom to assemble and to voice complaints.

Thanks to this amendment, Americans can worship in any religion they want. People of some other countries aren't allowed to do so

I'm personally a Russian refugee. I left the USSR in search for the country where I may worship my Jewish religion and have freedom of speech

With the freedom of speech, Americans may express their opinions about anything they would like.

According to the right to voice a complaint, people can complain about what they don't like with things that mble in any place, discuss any problems, demonstrate any wishes and do all this without government interference. People can even tell what they don't like in order to improve it.

Amendment, Americans have a right to get information they want and the press can freely supply the public with information. The means of communication are allowed and must supply the nation with free, independent and up-to-date information on current events The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution characterizes the truly democratic society and the first democratic nation of the world.

Americans are very lucky. They take the Bill of Rights for granted. You don't know how we struggled to get to this country. We had to leave our loved ones and everything behind. We came here and could not speak the language, and we had no home or job. But we endured it to obtain this precious freedom: the Bill of Rights.

First Amendment means so much

The following is the essay written by Erik Pedersen, 10, of Troy who won the competition for entrants 12 years and younger.

In the newspaper, people might not be able to read everything they want or need to know because the government might keep it all a big secret. Then people might get the wrong ideas from the articles in the newspaper because they would not be get-

Erik Pedersen ting enough information which would bring fear and ignorance to people from lack of information.

Without freedom of religion you may have to go to the church that the government told you to go to or the one that the person in charge told you to attend, or there might not be any churches and the government might not let people build them.

People wouldn't be able to stand up for what they believed in. So nothing would ever change unless the government changed it. That would get a lot of people mad, but they wouldn't be able to let their feelings out.

For example, if there was no First Amendment, it would almost be like aliens came and controlled everybody's brain and no one could do a thing about it. I wouldn't ever want any person or thing to have the power to control my brain.

The First Amendment lets me be in charge of who I am and what I want to do. That is why the First Amendment means so much to me precious, delicate

Following is the essay written by Christine Smedley of Livonia who entered in the over 21 category of the Observer & Eccentric First Amendment contest

S A FUTURE problem-solving coach in Livonia, my team of students (from Churchill, Stevenson and Frost) and I recently completed extensive work on the topic of censorship, as it is specifically related to the First Amendment.

Researching censorship made all of us acutely aware of the rights we have as free citizens of the United States. We read, we discussed, we saw the movie "Guilty by Suspicion" and we realized freedoms Americans the take for granted.

The movie dealt with the McCarthy hearings in the 50s and was a grim and chilling reminder of just how precious and delicate the threads of free speech can be. It was difficult to believe those events actually occurred in the United States and appalling to think those kinds of events could occur again if we become lax in the defense of our right of free speech

One of the most devastating effects of censorship is the restriction of free and creative thinking and exchange of new ideas. A mind is a terrible thing to waste and we discovered that is exactly what would happen to all of us if we allow censorship to take hold.

The recent Persian Gulf War brought the priceless qualities of freedom to the surface. Thomas Jefferson once said he would rather have a newspaper and no government, rather than a government and no newspa-

We all witnessed the latter in Iraq - it was frightening, frustrating and deadly. The Iraqi people were denied the truth, they were restricted from speaking out against their government, they were driven from their homes and they were hunted down and killed by their own government troops.

The pains of cold and sickness, of hunger and home lessness were terrible, of course, but the loss of free speech and freedom was the heaviest blow. We must all be determined to preserve and defend our Bill of Rights every day

Salem catcher is MVP

By Dan O'Meara staff writer

Plymouth Salem's Scott Niemiec had the kind of senior year most baseball players only read about in fantasy books

Niemiec was a key member of the Class A championship team, was se-lected the first-team, all-state catcher and Tuesday was named the most valuable player of the annual high school all-star game.

His storybook season was complete with a clutch, game-winning hit as the East came from behind to beat the West 3-2 in Tiger Stadium. Niemiec's two-out, three-run homer in the top of the ninth inning cleared the 340-foot fence in left field.

"It's been unbelievable," Niemiec said after he was called to home plate to accept the MVP award. "I was shocked. I was just glad to be here. It turned out great. Everything has been going so well.

With his heroics, Niemiec also made his friend and Plymouth Canton ace, Scott Kennedy, the winning pitcher. Kennedy held the West hitless and scoreless in the last two innings

"AS SOON AS he crushed the ball. I knew it was gone," Kennedy said. Then I had to come in and finish the

"(Getting the all-star decision) just made my whole year. It was quite exciting. It won't really hit me until I think about it some more.

Lutheran Westland pitcher and Japanese exchange student Makoto Iwata made a key contribution for the winners, hurling three innings of shutout ball, and Gary Devine of Farmington Hills Harrison started in center field for the East.

Niemiec, who started at catcher, played two innings and re-entered for the seventh inning, almost didn't get a chance to bat in the ninth.

He hit a flyout to right in his only other trip and needed two-out singles by Brighton's Ron Hollis and Southgate's Joe Weidenbach for him to get another turn. Plus, Hollis was nearly thrown out at third on Weidenbach's hit, but the third baseman couldn't make a play

"It was one-two on (Weidenbach)," Niemiec said. "I knew he'd hit the ball. It was a question of whether he was going to be out or not.

"THE FIRST pitch (from loser Chad Kukla of Essexville-Garber) was a fastball - down low - and I didn't swing. On the next pitch, he grooved one to me and I took it."

Niemiec also made a putout at the plate in the seventh inning to prevent two runs from scoring on Dan Beemer's RBI single that made it 2-

Soccer tourney draws big name

By Brad Emon staff writer

The top banana for this weekend's Wolverine XII Soccer Tournament at Schoolcraft College will be Rick Davis, former U.S. National Team captain. The three-day tourney (Friday through Sunday), sponsored by the Michigan State Youth Soccer Association, will be highlighted by Saturday's Chiquita Challenge, a comprehensive test of soccer skills combining ball control, dribbling, passing and shooting elements into a single training course.

Davis, captain of the U.S. National Team from 1979 through '88, will be on hand from noon to 3 p.m. (Saturday) to supervise the competition and sign autographs for the participants (boys and girls ages 6-14), who will be broken into eight age groups. (Registration forms are available at Soccer Kick and all participating area Meijer food stores).

Davis, a key contributor to the New York Cosmos North American Soccer League franchise during the late '70s and early '80s, isn't the only appeal.

The Wolverine I2 has attracted approximately 140 entries, including youth teams from such states as Ohio, Missouri, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania. Repsentatives from across the border in Ontario will also participate.

"LAST YEAR we started rebuilding this tournament and now we have more out-of-state teams, which is good," said Irene Saucedo Smith, MSYSA chairman. "The under-15 boys should have some of the top teams and be one of the most competitive divisions."

Champions will be crowned Sunday in the following boys age categories under-11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 19. There will be four separate divisions for girls: under-12, 14, 16 and 19.

Coach Paul Scicluna's Livonia Wolves, fresh from their conquest of the Pike Peak tourney, will be one of the favorites in the under-15 boys division. The Michigan State Cup champions will be challenged by Scott-Gallagher, a team out of St. Louis, Mo.; Team Dayton (Ohio), the Pittsburgh, Pa. Strikers and the Pennsylvania Forest Rowdies.

Another team to watch is the Livonia Y-Michigan Hawks, coached by Tom Coyne, which features some of the area's top high school players in the under-19 girls division. The state champs will use the Wolverine as a tuneup for a regional tourney later this month Sioux Falls, S.D.

walked Jason Lecronier, who hit a solo homer off Ricken in the second, on four pitches with two out in the fourth. A popout ended the inning. Iwata allowed a leadoff single by Mike Cochran in the fifth, but he shut down the West with a fielder's. choice, a flyout and a groundout. Iwata returned to Japan with his parents this week, but he still hopes to continue his schooling and baseball career in the United States. Interpreting his father's answers to questions, Iwata said: "When I was a little kid, he was always coach of me and now I am in all-star game in a different country. So, he is glad to be able to be here and see my game.

"HE ALWAYS said he wanted me to be in college basebail in the U.S., so hopefully I can be back here soon.

Iwata's mother was not expected to make the trip, he added. She was hesitant about traveling to a different country and being among strange people, but her friends in Japan encouraged her to see her son play in the game.

Devine, a first-team, Class B allstater, made two putouts in center field in the four innings he played and was 0-for-2 at bat, but he was pleased to be part of the all-star scene

"It's definitely one of my biggest thrills," he said. "The coaches said they'd make sure everybody got in early. I knew I'd get back in, but I didn't think I'd play as much as I did because there was a lot of talent on this team."

Devine reached base on a fielder's choice in the eighth and got to second with one out on a wild pitch, but he was stranded there.

"It looked pretty good, like we ere going to (score)," he said. "At were going to (score), that point, things didn't work out, but we pulled through at the end.

The timing couldn't have been better for Farmington Hills Mercy golf coach Vicki Kowalski and Golf her players.

her first major - both titles coming this year -Sunday when she won the LPGA Championship in Bethesda, Md.

"I hope when she finishes her round Friday, she has some time to talk, with the girls a while and take some pictures with us." Kowalski said.

'I THINK she can be an inspiration to these girls. All of them are very excited to meet her and watch her play."

Mallon was en route to her brother's home in Grosse Pointe Woods most of Monday, driving the new Mazda she received as the top prize. She didn't arrive until late that night and was on her way back to Ohio for an afternoon press conference Tuesday.

The 28-year-old Mallon was tied with playing partners Pat Bradley and Ayako Okamoto on the 18th hole Sunday. The other two missed chances for birdie putts, but Mallon sank a 10-footer to win by one stroke.

confidence in his sister. "I thought she was going to win," he said, "because she was there the whole tournament and had as good a chance as anybody."

Mallon won the Oldsmobile Classic in February for her first win since joining the tour in 1987 and received $150,000 for winning the LPGA. Her earnings this year - $308,298 - are more than what she earned in the last four combined. So her brother wasn't surprised by her latest success. "Not any more," Paul Mallon said. "Last year I would have been but not this year. I think she believes she belongs there and I do, too.

Kowalski hopes her players not only benefit in terms of mechanics by watching the pros but also through observing Mallon, who was named the most congenial player on the tour in past years.

"THE BEST inspiration is when they see how she interacts with other people," Kowalski said. "She has always been a very nice person, a very renerous person. They will see you can be good al this, be competitive, and still be a nice person. "The whole idea of the congeniality and social aspect of the sport is important, too. For most of ____ the girls, this is going to be a social sport, something they can do with their family and friends." Mallon, who will participate in a golf outing to raise funds for Mercy Monday, Aug. 12, and be the first inductee into the Mercy Hall of Fame at a banquet that night, is credited with starting the school's golf team.

"When I look back on all the years, I'm grateful for her coming to me and asking me to moderate a golf team," Kowalski said. Dan Gurney, for example, has a tendency to giggle, like a little kid, or maybe Frankenstein's assistant, as he carves out paths of rubber that you would have sworn would have terminated at the outside of the curve, only shortly before I'VE HAD several chances to ride - you did. Gurney is one of those super-athletes that retains a boyish sense of glee while he pursues his craft, which he does very well.

I ONCE watched Carroll Shelby's GLH Omni pass me at the Chrysler Proving grounds in a position that gave me a good view of the under side of the car - having left the track airborne en route to the next Unisys CEO James A. Unruh thanks employees at the Plymouth plant for their efforts in manufacturing Infolmage check processing/sorting systems. The hope is that those products will bring the company back to profitability.

Several characteristics shared by entrepreneurs who succeed

By Doug Funke staff writer

Undercapitalization is often cited as a leading cause for the failure of start-up businesses.

But the ability to visualize a plan, weigh suggestions, take the plunge, change course when necessary and buckle down to long hours of work separate successful entrepreneurs from the wanna-bes.

Successes like Wallace K. Tsuha who founded Saturn Electronics & Engineering in Rochester Hills, Harold Brode, president and chief executive officer of Broder Brothers in Plymouth, and Richard Rogel, CEO of Preferred Provider Organization of Michigan in Southfield, illustrate just those qualities.

All three were designated an Entrepreneur of the Year in a statewide search sponsored by the financial services company of Ernst & Young Inc. magazine and Merrill Lynch.

Tsuha, 47, a Rochester Hills resident, was selected Minority Entrepreneur of the Year. His company, established in 1985, supplies electronie modules primarily for automotive manufacturers.

Tsuha worked as a manager for TRW Transportation Electronics before going into business for himself.

"IT CERTAINLY was a tough decision," he said. "I had been in the business my entire career. From the technical standpoint, it wasn't tough From the business (financial) side, it was. It was difficult to go out and know for six months there would beno income.

The company now employs 94. Rick Inatome, chairman and CEO at Inacomp, nominated Tsuha for the award. He was impressed with Tsuha's vision - "instant pre-play and execution of a business plan.

BRODE, 63, a West Bloomfield resident, was chosen Wholesale/Distribution Entrepreneur of the Year.

Unisys employees rallied by visit of corporate chief

By Doug Funke staff writer

It isn't every day that a chief executive officer will fly several hundred miles to buck up employees at a manufacturing facility.

But these aren't normal times for Unisys The manufacturer of electronic processing equipment reported a loss of $436.7 million last year after losing $639.3 million in 1989. The company's credit rating has been downgraded. Unisys has slashed its workforce and suspended payment of both its common and preferred stock dividends The stock selling as high as $30.50 per share in 1989 closed at $3.875 Monday

But James A. Unruh, CEO at Unsys, is upbeat that an Infolmage check processing/sorting system built at the Plymouth plant will be among a handful of new products to bring the company back to profitability Unruh and nearly several business customers who have already purchased the system spoke to all Plymouth employees last week in a courtyard of the facility.

Afterwards, in a brief interview, Unruh said there are no immediate plans to close the aging Plymouth plant to stop the corporation's financial hemorrhaging.

"PLYMOUTH IS a very big part of our future," Unruh said. "We have an area of imaging technology. It's a new wave of technology we think has great potential.

"This (InfoImage) is the single greatest growth opportunity in the techology area as we go forward," "If we can achieve success he said. in marketing, then Plymouth will do well. I do not anticipate any clos ing. The Plymouth plant, completed in 1938, employed as many as 5,800 in the late 1960s. Now, about 1,000 work there.

Unruh complimented InfoImage and the Plymouth employees who make the products.

"It's a very complete solution. It's a quality solution. I want to tell you how much we appreciate your efforts."

"We can't stop here," he said. 'Customers don't want to come to us to buy just another box. We have to do more to offer solutions to our customers. It depends on being devoted and (on) competent employees like Several Unisys banking customers gave testimonials about their experiences with InfoImage.

'We truly are proud of what you people have developed. You beat the socks off your competitor," said Ben Vaughan, senior vice president of Signet Bank in Richmond, Va.

'EIGHTEEN MONTHS ago, a lot of us stuck our necks out," said George Mackinaw, senior vice president of Huntington Bank in Columbus, Ohio. "The quality that has gone into this is something I've never seen

'It will enable us to reduce expenses," said Greg Goleniak, vice president at Comerica.

Unruh was warmly received in Plymouth.

The company hasn't been doing well. There's a lot of negative press," said Robert Kidd, who works in research and development. "It's good to know the top people know you're out there."

"The fact that Unruh came out here is indicative that this is a key technology," said Robert Klein, a colleague of Kiedd's.

Unruh's great hopes have yet to be realized on financial statements. Unisys reported a loss of 98.2 million on revenues of $2.1 billion for the first three months of this year. said Dean Gulis, director of research for Roney & Co. of Detroit.

That compares with a loss of $3.2 million on revenues of $2.3 billion during the first quarter of 1990. "I think Unisys is going to end up being focused on only a couple of areas when all is said and done," Gulis said. "I think the company will struggle for a few years and shrink.

items like shirts and caps amenable to screen printing.

"That's what gave rise to this spiral," he said, explaining explosive sales growth from $2 million in 1980 to more than $70 million last year.

In retrospect, that decision, gutwrenching at the time, saved the company.

'If we hadn't made that move, we wouldn't be in business now," Brode said. "We were selling neighborhood stores, department stores, drug stores. Those independents are no longer around. Kmart and large merchandisers buy directly from mills.

We have 355,000 people under coverage," Rogel said.

"First we set our business philosophies. We felt physicians were not properly being reimbursed. We took the profit motive out of ancillary testing. After we set the fee schedule — that's an enormous task with 8,000 procedures - we went to each specialty and asked if they would work at this price.

Most other managed care operations believe you have to totally control physicians. We believe most doctors are honest and reimbursement systems are incorrect," Rogel said. Three separate customer service staffs - one for patients, one for doctors and hospitals and the third for bill payers - keep the system running smoothly, Rogel said. He employs 113.

Banks protect municipal cash

By Tim Richard staff writer

Your city deposits in Michigan banks are safe. There's no need for more state regulation or pledges for securities.

So said state regulators and bank ers as a legislative committee looks into the local effect of failures of banks and savings and loan instituions in the 1980s.

"We have some of the best banking institutions," said Rep. Lyn Bankes, R-Livonia, a member of the special House Corporations and Finance Subcommittee, after a recent hearing.

"They're very good and very solvent. There's not a lot we need to do to regulate any more."

Panel chairman Kirk Profit, D-Ypsilanti, speculated that "maybe our target should be non-commercial depositors" - requiring the state treasury to invest in Michigan the same way banks are required to invest in their communities.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE was set up by Rep. John Bennett, D-Redford, chairman of the House Corporations and Finance Commmittee, in the wake of many savings and loan failures in recent years and the mid-1980s series of bank failures across the nation.

S&Ls and credit unions are a concern because in 1978 voters amended the state constitution to allow government deposits in those institutions as well as in banks.

"No Michigan political subdivision in the past 30 years has experienced any loss resulting from the failure of a Michgan depository financial institution," said Murray Brown, deputy director of the state Financial Institutions Bureau.

"The status quo is working well," added Don Heikkinen of the Michigan Bankers Association. "We're very conservative because of Michigan's cyclical economy."

"Credit unions are a very minor player," said Ken Payne of the Michigan Credit Union League. "Very few have municipal deposits. Because of their small size, it doesn't make sense to put $1 million (of municipal deposits) in a $5 million institution."

Steve Horvath traveled a distance to see some good friends, and found the journey was well worth Horvath, who lives in Bonita Springs, Fla., was among members of the Plymouth High School class 1931 wh 60th reunion.

"Well, gee, they all got younger," he said with a smile. "I can recognize quite a few of them."

The get-together was Thursday, June 27, at the Salem Township home of Norma Schmeman, a class member. The 27 graduates and their spouses enjoyed talking about what's new in their lives and the good times they had in high school.

'We only had 75 in the class to start with. You knew everyone,' Schmeman said. "It's great, it's fun." She enjoyed the picnic luncheon and the chance to visit with her friends

"And of course all this time we have changed, although it seems to me I feel about the same," she said. You keep up with them because you've known them all your life, practically.

CLASS MEMBERS have had regular reunions through the years, including a 50th and a 55th. During last week's get-together, they looked through photos of class members from years gone by. Nametags featured photos of the classmates taken during their student days. The classmates talked about their health and about their famifies. "They reminisce a lot about what happened in school, and what people are doing, just kind of catching up on what's going on," Schmeman said.

They're considering holding their next reunion in Florida, where some class members now live. They may hold that reunion in a few years, rather than waiting five years.

The 60th reunion wasn't a status cious affair, with class mem bers concerned about who's got the largest car, the fanciest house or the most money.

"Not at this point, not at all." Schmeman said. "What you see is what you get. It's more fun, really Classmate Viola Pedersen of Plymouth agreed. "We really don't go into status or anything like that," she said.

The era in which they graduated wasn't an easy one for young people. Finding work was tough and many found it difficult to pay for college.

PEDERSEN WENT to business school and then was able to find an office job. Horvath went to the University of Michigan

"I ate hamburger in many different ways," he said. He went on to work for Alcoa as a metallurgical ngineer, staying with that co ny for nearly 45 years.

Schmeman went to school and then was able to find a job in her uncle's law office.

"I was the only one out of busi ness school that got a job. There were just no jobs." She later married George Schmeman, an attorney in that office.

Times were tough during the Great Depression, but life wasn't all doom and gloom for the class of 1931. Horvath remembers going to dances that cost $1 per person, con-Siderably less than modern-day proms.

'It was a lot of fun," Norma Schmeman said. "You did different things. You made your own fun, which I think people miss today." a skating r She remem complete with bonfires and swimming fun in the summertime.

Class member Mildred Foege of anton remembers enjoying c es and ice skating parties. There were a number of school groups and activities, including a baseball team for girls.

THE DEPRESSION influenced the young people's lives but didn't keep them from having fun:

It was the same thing for everybody," Foege said. "I think everybody was much happier and better now." She went to work at the Daisy Air Rifle plant in Plymouth after graduation and took business courses at the Detroit Business Institute at night.

Unlike some other members of the class of 1931, Foege hadn't been to earlier reunions. "Oh, it's real nice. Most of them I haven't seen probably since I graduated," she said.

She missed the 55because it was held the same day as her son-in-law's birthday party. Foege was glad to be able to see her classmates this time.

'Well, I don't feel the age that I am," she said with a smile. Classmate Viola Pedersen also felt youthful, although perhaps not quite as young as 17.

"I don't feel 77, that's for sure," she said.

Young scientists take journey on wild side

TETTING A hug from Snugboa constrictor. gles, a bother some local kids in the least.

Bill Neill, program coordinator for the Living Science Foundation, shows children how a parrot can perch on his arm with ease.

Being hugged by a snake could make some adults a bit apprehensive, but children at a recent Living Science Foundation program didn'i mind it a bit. They met Snuggles and other animals Thursday, June 27, during a summer reading program at the Dunning-Hough Library in Plymouth.

Kids ages 6-12 learned a great deal about animals during the day Younger kids learned how anima use the five senses - hearing, see ing, feeling, tasting and smelling to survive and thrive in their environment

The program's goal is "basically just helping kids get interested in science at an early level," said Bill Nelli, a biologist and Living Science Foundation program coordinator. 'It's just an opportunity for them to do something that's science-oriented.'

HE AND HIS wife, Terri Neill, who also works for the Novi-based foundation, came to the library in Plymouth last week. They brought along a number of live animals, including a tortoise, chinchilla, parrot, toad, small crocodile and others.

"Not all youngsters chose to get hugged by the boa constrictor. A few preferred to watch Snuggles from a distance and some just touched the snake's skin, discovering that it wasn't the least bit slimy.

Younger children often do just fine around live animals, he said. Foundation staffers have never had an animal escape during a program, although a snake did recently get loose in a car. They found that snake coiled under the car seat, unharmed.

Most biologists became interested in science as children, catching frogs, snakes and other animals, said Neill, a Novi resident. He and others at the Living Science Foundation build on that interest.

"Kids are just drawn to animals. It has quite an impact.

Hands-on activities, including day camps in the summer, help kids learn about science while having fun A summer program can be a little more relaxed than school is and can encourage a child to consider a career in science.

That's what we're trying to encourage here," said Neill, who earned a bachelor's degree in biology from Central Michigan University and has done graduate work in education.

"We just feel it needs to be a major focus," he said of science education.

THIS YEAR'S summer reading program theme is "Read on the Wild Side," so the science programs made perfect sense. Older kids, ages 9-12, learned about the Amazon rain forest

This has been a real, real popular program," said Pam Rawlinson, assistant director of the Dunning-Hough Library. "We're pleased to see that the people in the community are involved.

More than 400 kids signed up for last week's program. The Living Sci-5 ence Foundation, formed in 1981, has an excellent reputation and is known for its programs, Rawlinson said

Such activities help youngsters 'enjoy what they've learned how to do through the school year," she said.

The summer reading program's been well-received, with about 450 school-age children signing up. About 240 preschoolers are registered for the Read-to-Me program in Plymouth.

Rawlinson and her colleagues didn't particularly mind having live animals in the library. Even so, they'd prefer that people didn't begin to bring in their pets during library visits.

"Most of the staff is OK about it." said Rawlinson, a Plymouth resident. "We're going to keep a good distance. They have them all in cages and controlled."

"I love jewelry. I like to buy different or unusual pieces." She buys a lot of "artsy" jewelry at arts and crafts shows and is also partial to scarves and different accessories.

Stewart knows that dressing in a professional style can be tough in the warm summer months. She looks at the museum mannequins, dressed in styles that were popular 100 years ago or so, and realizes that our ancestors managed to cope without the benefits of air-conditioning.

could there be for a book of Akkadian grammar, especially when it's written in German?

Jeffrey Ball and John Marine, owners of Dove Booksellers at 24325 W. McNichols in Detroit, can answer tian bookstore but found the experience frustrating. that question. There is a demand, even when the book is in German.

Their store specializes in obscure yet important books related to biblical and Middle Eastern studies. Dove is not a typical bookstore. It does not have facks of best sellers nor is it a comfortable store specializing in used books where you can sit all day and find dusty treasures, although you are welcome to browse, sit and talk at your leisure

It is a one-room store lined with critical texts ranging from established classics to what some would call blasphemous works.

Here you will find Strong's "Concordance" of the Bible, which lists every word in the Bible, including "and," "but" and "for" (imagine how many times they appear) and where they can be found Here also you will find Jane Schaberg's "The Illegitimacy of Jesus," an extremely controversial, yet documented work, that claims that Jesus was a product of a rape and who was blessed by God after the fact and chosen as the savior because of his bottom-of-the-barrel social status.

'WE'RE NOT AN average religious book store," said Rall adding that "we have something for everyone." Looking for a book on how to read hieroglyphics? How ation of the inibout one on synoptic studies (an examin consistencies in the first three gospels)? Try one on gnos-

ABOUT TWO years ago, Ball and Marine opened their own store in Detroit; near Ball's home.

Business has been steady, but Ball and Marine admit theirs is not the most lucrative field. Books sell from $5 to $75 and customers range from individuals to universities to ministries overseas. More than 90 percent of their cains Run Sl Now with just a few minutes

You'll never have a slow running, or clogged drain again! The secret? Clean drains don't run slow. Slow drains, or periodic clogs, are SIGNALS that a thick layer of GOOK is choking your pipes. Grease, hair, and other waste stick to your pipes, with every use. This gook deposits along the entire length of the pipe. It chokes your pipes gradually, as it gets thicker and thicker.

Ordinary drain products run here.

Conventional drain openers can't fix slow drains. They react chemically on the surface of the gook. To be effective, they must remain in contact with the waste. Even a small tunnel in the gook lets them flow out to the sewer, leaving the gook behind. In the past, the only way to remove this build-up was to rooter your pipes. An expensive, temporary measure clean out your pipes ... and KEEP them clean with Plumb Clean. Its totally unique formula clings, and penetrates deep into the gook. That is what allows it to liquefy even years of build-up. Plumb Clean will clean the entire length of your pipes. It will make your drains run like new, when used as di-rected. This penetrating action is so revolutionary, we stand behind Plumb Clean with a money-back guarantee! Saves Money. A 1 lb. container of Plumb Clean holds up to 41 drain treatments. Even if drain openers could fix slow drains, it would take over 10 quart bottles to get the same num-ber of treatments. Plumb Clean costs about 350 per treatment. We don't know of anything that cleans drains for less.

Safe Too. Conventional drain openers are dangerous chemi cals. They can injure eyes on contact. They can release deadly vapors, in some situations. Some may damage your fixtures Plumb Clearn will not burn skin, or gyes. It will not release harmful fumes. When used as directed, it is 100% safe for peo ple, and of course, all plumbing.

So, if your drains are giving you a SIGNAL, act now. Get safe, guaranteed Plumb Clean today! Available at:

Couple shapes dream house

By Janice Tigar-Kramer special writer

7 OU COULD say Rich and Stephanie Skaggs left the past behind three years ago when they built their ranch-style house in Camborne subdivision

Married 33 years, the Livonia couple decided to sell everything that filled their old house, a ranci they built 27 years ago in Burton Hollow.

"This was the last house we'd build, so I thought, 'Go for it' " said Rich, a government worker for the past 32 years.

BEING MORE practical, Stephanie had second thoughts, but not before a two-day moving sale nearly emptied their house of everything, including dishes and wastebaskets. They kept only some crystal and collectibles given to them by Stephanie's mother and a bedroom set, which they reused in a spare room.

What we didn't sell we donated," Stephanie said. "It was a bold decision

Moving obviously was easier, but Stephanie, an office manager in Redford Township, then faced the job of selecting furnishings and window treatments for the new 2,800-square-foot house, which has expansive windows overlooking a large, wooded lot.

THOUGH RICH left most of the decision-making to Stephanie, having "carte blanche" doesn't make the job of furnishing a seven room house any easier, Stephanie said. "We ruled out ultra-modern furniture, but there was still much to see."

The couple used light mauve, yet fairly neutral, carpeting throughout the house. Walls are pale beige accented by stained crown moldings to give rooms a classic look.

Searching for furniture styles they both could live with, Stephanie, who hadn't made major furniture purchase in 15 years, briefly suffered "sticker shock."

"WE BUDGETED for furnishings, but I think we tripled it by the time we finished," she

During the furniture hunt, Stephanie realized she needed an interior designer to help her humanize" the new house

On one of many shopping trips, she met Carmenlena Brown-Dantzler, a young designer from Gorman's Furniture in Dearborn, who helped the Skaggs put together pretty, comfortable and livable rooms

SINCE STEPHANIE always wanted a dining room, she furnished that room first, choosing a large Oriental-style table of cherry wood for its clean lines and simplicity. A matching china cabinet in the adjoining living room became the room's focal point. The couple selected a carved cherry wood server and a similar table for the spacious entry. A tufted, crescent-shaped sofa in the living room is upholstered in a rayon fabric of cream, rose and seafoam. High-back dining chairs are covered in a bright check of the same colors.

Antique quilts, coverlets exhibited

In conjunction with the Farming ton/Farmington Hills Founders Fes tival Civil War Encampment, an tique quilts and coverlets will be displayed Friday-Saturday, July 6-7, at the Spicer House in Heritage Park. Farmington Road, north of 10 Mile.

There is no admission charge either to the park or to the show, "Quilts' and Coverlets 1850-1930" Show hours will be noon to 4 p.m. each day.

Sponsored by the Farmington Hills Historical Commission and the Friends of Heritage Park, the show will, feature folk art displays of items our grandparents, and greatgrandparents, used to cover their beds.

Co-chairwomen for the event are Barbara McCann of Friends of Heritage Park and Sherrie Stewart of the historical commission.

Among the items on display will be a Barber family basket-pattern quilt of ecru and green, made in Farmington Township circa 1930, a Dove family quilt of spool-pattern on an ecru background, dating from the 1890s and quilted in Farmington Township, and a blue and while woven coverlet dated 1869 from Flor isant County, Iowa

ANOTHER UNUSUAL covering is an all-cotton spread made in a Kentucky plantation in 1850 from cotter grown on the grounds then loomed on spinning wheels of the plantation It was designed and hand-embroidered by the daughter of the house hold. Each of the four corners, containing cut work, are embroidered with a different design.

Also displayed will be a "crazy quilt" with patches of velvets and satins, made from party dresses of girls in southern Indiana with elaborate embroidery stitches.

This quilt is comparable to one hanging in the Mellon National Gallery of Art in Washington.

The quilt was sewn circa 1885 by girlhood friends of the bride. It was given as a wedding present.

"This show is a gift of the Friends of Heritage Park and the historical commission to the community in celebration of our American heritage on the Fourth of July weekend Sherrie Stewart said

Historic schoolhouse a genuine community landmark

IT WAS an honor long due

I applaud the American Association of University Women's Plymouth chapter for choosing Cherry Hill School for a landmarking award.

The annual award salutes centuryold local sites of historical and architectural significance.

A restoration project of the Canton Historical Society and the Canton Historical Commission, Cherry Hill School dates back to 1876, when a primitive 42-year-old log schoolhouse was replaced.

Amid tall trees in the Cherry Hill Historic Settlement at Cherry Hill and Ridge Road, the white clapboard, two-room schoolhouse today serves as a center for community activities.

The Victorian-style schoolhouse, with Roman arched windows, is part of a small historic crossroads in western Canton that's retained its country zest despite growth around it. The tiny village flourished between 1840 and 1920

IN ITS heyday, the red brick school (since plastered over) boasted narrow planked, wood floors, a round woodburning stove, kerosenelamps and a pail of water with a dipper for drinking.

Down the road from Cherry Hill School is Cherry Hills Methodist Church, dedicated in 1882. It's one of 40 sites that the AAUW has honored with a landmark plaque since the 1970s

It's no surprise Cherry Hill School is part of Ford Heritage Trails, a 20site, five-county trail honoring Henry Ford's contributions to the history of southeast Michigan.

"If Henry Ford had not gotten involved in improving the school in the 1940s, it probably wouldn't be standing today," said Plymouth resident Anne Schlick, AAUW landmark study group chairwoman. By the 1940s, the school was show ing its age. Enter Ol' Henry.

A Canton Historic District Commission brochure relates this story While driving through Cherry Hill one day. Ford came upon a woman and her 10 children at the side of a road. Stopping to see if he could help, he learned the woman's husband was out of work and the family was homeless.

FORD QUICKLY took charge.

He gave the husband a job, in his small Cherry Hill factory, one of 20 village industries he opened in the '20s, '30s and '40s in the Rouge, Huron and Raisin river valleys to protect the values and experiences of the rural way of life.

Disabled war vets made auto parts at the Cherry Hill factory, liv-" ing nearby in a dorm fashioned from an old Wilson Creamery building.

Ford offered the downtrodden family use of the house on the Gotfredson farm. But when he then tried to enroll the 10 children in Cherry Hill School, he learned the farm was not within the school district.

To counter that roadblock, Ford offered to renovate the schoolhouse, add on to the back and hire a second teacher if the school board would let the 10 children attend the school

Not about to let a windfall slip by, the school board accepted the offer Ford kept his promise in the form of a $22,000 addition

AFTER THAT, Cherry Hill School became an adopted member of the Greenfield Village Edison, School System until 1947

Ties to Ford reaped big dividends for Cherry Hill students.

There were dance, art and music teachers and he brought in looms and sewing machines." recalled Canton Historical Society member Dorothy West, whose son, Terry, attended Cherry Hill during the Ford years.

"Mr. Ford even paid for the medi cal expenses of the students and al ways sent them to visit Greenfield Village."

Cherry Hill School was closed to students in 1962. The township acquired it from the Plymouth-Canton schools in 1986. Restoration has included the belfry, plans call for a bell to be installed soon.

It's exciting to hear that Canton trustees, with the blessing of local residents, are seeking state designat ed historical area status for the village of Cherry.Hill, one of the township's living reminders of its rural heritage.

Redford Township author Jessica Hatchigan manages to stay busy. "Dinosaurs Aren't Forever," her fourth book in six years and second novel for readers 8-12, is out this month from Avon Camelot.

A previous novel for intermediate readers, "Count Dracula, Me and Norma D.," was published four years ago. Fans will be glad to hear "Dinosaurs Aren't Forever" marks the return of the inimitable Molly Harter, the resourceful heroine of that high-

AMERICANA ART

Americana artist David McCall Johnston of Farmington Hills will display his opaque water-color paintings in the main gallery of the Scarab Club, 217 Farnsworth, Detroit (behind the Detroit) Institute of Arts), July 17-22.

Hours are 11. a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday, Wednes-day, Friday and Saturday, 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday and 2-6 p.m. Sunday. Admission is free.

The show, called "Spirit of America," includes about 40 prints and original watercolors, includ-ing a print of his Mount Rushmore painting, which was commissioned for the monument's golden anniversary celebration in Rapid City, S.D., for the Fourth of July. Mount Rushmore prints will be available at the gallery for $175, with proceeds donated to the Mount Rushmore Preservation Fund.

WEAVERS SALE

The Mill Race Weavers Guild will sell handwoven items at its Fourth of July sale at Gothic cottage in Mill Race Village, Northville.

The sale will take place from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Thursday, July 4. Admission is free. The Mill Race Weavers Guild was established in 1974 and has 30 members. It meets on the third Puesday of each month at 8 p.m. at Gothic cottage in Mill Race Village.

BOOK SIGNING

Detroit Tigers Hall of Fame broadcaster Ernie Harwell of Farmington Hills will sign copies of his new book, "Ernie Harwell's Diamond Gems," 7-8:30 p.m. Saturday, July 13, at Coopersmith's bookstore at Laurel Park Place, Six Mile and Newburgh, Livonia.

RICKERBY PHOTOS

Great moments in recent U.S. history are among the images captured in an exhibit at the Detroit Historical Museum highlighting the work of UPI and Life photographer Arthur B. Rickerby. Titled "The Photographs of Arthur B. Rickerby, the UPI and Life Years, 1941-71," the exhibit will run from July 17 through January.

The 70-piece collection is a nationally traveling exhibition coming directly from the Smithsonian Institution in Washington. It's the first time a retrospective of Rickerby's works are being shown to a national audience.

Some of the photos feature well-known Detroit celebrities and locations, including Alex Karras, Lem Barney and the Ford Motor Co. Proving The photographs also depict significant Grounds. moments in U. S. history, such as the Japanese surrender aboard the USS Missouri in 1945 and the day President John Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas

The Detroit Historical Museum is open 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday. It's at 5401 Woodward at Kirby in the University Cultural Center. The exhibit is sponsored by Aetna Life and Casualty.

DESIGN TRENDS

Michigan Design Center's annual Fall Market, which offers interior designers a preview of up-coming design trends, will take place Thursday and Friday, Sept. 26-27.

Keynote speaker will be David Snyder, known for his display creations and for his book "Epoustouflant, The Style of David Snyder."

The featured speaker will be Michael Etterna, curator of decorative arts at Henry Ford Museum.

On Friday, Sept. 27, James R. Benya of Luminae Souter Lighting Design in San Francisco will offer a continuing education course in lighting.

PAVAROTTI CONCERT

The Michigan Opera Theatre has announced a date change in the upcoming Luciano Pavarotti benefit concert previously scheduled for Wednesday Nov. 20.

Instead, the concert will take place at 4 p.m. Sunday, Oct the 20-year-old Michigan Opera The-atre and kickoff its 1991/92 season. At this time, only 1991/92 MOT subscribers may purchase tickets to the concert.

They may either order the full subscription of five productions, the fall series of two at the Fisher Theatre or the spring season of three operas at Masonic Temple. For information, call 874-SING beside the door so it is brushed when a person passes it to emit the fragrance. Spearmint and tansy as well as feverfew will make the picnic ants run for cover!

Rue and geraniums are grown as a deterrent to the Japanese beetle. Pennyroyal is said to repel insects in the garden and when rubbed on its collar, the fleas of a cat. Geraniums seem to deter cabbage worms when planted with members of the Brassica family.

I suppose the most commonly known plant to control nematodes and other bugs is the marigold, but some others such as the dahlia and calen also do a fine job. The marigold makes white fly scatter. So do nasturtiums! Garlic helps control mildew and black spot on roses. Other species of the allium family could be grown for a more attractive bed.

TOMATOES, BASIL and chives not only taste good together, but make good garden companions. The scent of basil is a nemises to the hornworm. Dill is said to be a repellent to mites and aphids, so some of it could very well be a beneficial addition to the garden. If radishes are planted early, their succulent sprouts will entice cutworms and wireworms away from other plants.

If beans are your favorite food, a few plants of savory will protect them from the hean heetle And they complement each other on the dinner ' larly.

Four-o-clocks do the Japanese beetles in; when they eat the foliage they die. Talk about eating yourself to death!

Banana peels provide potash and phosphorous to roses. Bury no more than three near a plant at one time. Mine are doing splendidly this year. I have put at least 1-2 around each plant so far this year

As I researched this article; it occurred to me many of these plants with natural repellent qualities are herbs. Isn't that something?

NOW A new plant on the market, a cross tween an African geranium and the Grass of China, is reported to be a natural mosquito fighter. It has a lemony fragrance and looks a bit like a rather scraggly geranium.

It's not hardy in Michigan, but can be used outdoors until cold weather arrives and then taken indoors. It likes warm, wet weather. Mosquitoes will keep their distance up to 10 feet. It's name is Citrosa. Several area nurseries have it in stock now. Let me know how Citrosa works for you.

Since this article is about natural repellents, don't forget to consider getting a toad for your garden. They can make a meal of snails and slugs.

Buyers spurn options in favor of fixed rate mortgages

By Doug Funke staff writer

Fixed rate mortgages are the financing today's home buyer is seeking, according to a survey of the largest mortgagors serving suburban Detroit.

Rates are still well below 10 percent at most institutions.

'You just can't get away from the 30-year mortgage and that old, traditional fixed rate," said Al Marshall, vice president and manager of business development for First Federal of Michigan.

Condo plagued by smoke problems

My husband and I bought a ranch-style condominium. The developer's claim that the units were soundproof proved false. There is a ranch behind us occupied by smokers. When we open our lower cupboards, we smell their smoke. We can also smell it in one end of the basement.

It would appear that the soundproof issue probably involves a common element for which the association may be responsible, depending on the master deed and other condominium documents. If the association is responsible, the make it clear to the board that they expect it to discharge its fiduciary responsibilities to assure that all defects and deficiencies attributable to the developer are pursued. To the extent that the township was remiss in investigating this unit, it may be relieved of responsibility under governmental immunity. But the association should elicit the support of the township to put whatever pressure it can upon the developer to remedy the various defects and deficiencies at the site to deal with the problem in an effective fashion and has not documented the fact that the sound conditioning or soundproof problem is not a responsibility of the developer, the co-owners should band together and deal with the board though political or legal redress.

"Fifteen-, and 30-year fixed rate mortgage loans are still dur bread and butter," said Michael Lubig, vice president and manager of the residential loan department for Standard Federal Bank.

Standard Federal, which issued $1 billion in mortgages in 1990, will be close to $800 million through June of this year, he said. "It will be a record year." Three of the biggest mortgage lenders, Standard Federal, Comerica and First Federal, last week offered identical rates for fixed mortgages - 9¼ percent for 15 years, 9% for 30

Standard Federal offered an adjustable rate mortgage at 6% percent initially, First Federal and Comerica, 7 percent.

"RATES, FEES and terms are basically all the same. What you're shopping is service," Lubig said. About 35 percent of the nearly 5.000 mortgages processed by First Federal this year have been written for 30 years, Marshall said. Another 20 percent of the mortgages have been for 15 years fixed. Business in ARMs is slow across the board.

The shorter the mortgage commit-ment, the more favorable the rate. First Federal, for instance, offers fixed rates ranging from 9% for 30 years to 9 percent for 10 years - all with 20 percent down, 2 points (a loan origination fee equal to 2 percent of the amount borrowed) and a $250 application fee. You don't want to pay two points? Simple enough. Just add 1/2 percent to the rate for any time frame you riod, the higher the payment. To illustrate, the monthly payment on a 30-year mortgage of $65,000 at 9% percent is $558 compared to $689 for the same amount and rate over 15 years.

Thursday, July 4, 1991 O&E

"The shorter-term loans are becoming much more popular," Marshall said. "If you can afford it, you want 15 years. You pay a hell of a lot tess interest

The difference is nearly $79,000 between a $65,000 mortgage for 15 years at 94 and 30 years at 9%, he said.

But remember - home mortgage interest is probably the largest deduction for most taxpayers who own property.

Residential mortgage business at Comerica has been better this year than last, said Sam Kreis, vice president for construction lending.

THE 15-YEAR fixed mortgage. and the 7-23 balloon - fixed for seven years, with a balloon payment due at that time, amortized over 30 years at 9 % percent - are most in demand by Comerica customers, he said.

Different mortgages are better for different living situations. That's why so many options are available.

Ask questions, lenders advise How long do you expect to stay in the house? What's more important to own a house free and clear or the mortgage interest deduction? Do you have the temperament to gamble on an adjustable rate?

Do the math or have someone do it for you.

"Each person is different," Kreis said. "They should seek competent financial advice. If they don't have a plan, they should have one now.

AP- Home buyers who do their homework can get a mortgage suited to their circumstances and save thousands of dollars in interest payments. Here's a few tips from Changing Times magazines

• 30-Year fixed rate mortgages. With low interest rates, these are the best loans for home buyers who plan to be in the house more than five to seven years and who want the assurance of level payments.

A 1 percentage point increase on a $100,000 mortgage will cost you roughly $26,600 over 30 years.

• 15-year fixed-rate loans. You pay off this variation on the 30-year fixed-rate mortgage in half the time. Payments are only 15 to 25 percent higher than on a 30-year loan, partly because the principal decreases nore quickly and partly because rates are slightly lower.

Paying off a mortgage in half the usual time may not be a good idea, depending on your tax situation. Mortgage interest is tax-deductible, making it one of your cheapest sources of borrowed money. Ask yourself whether the extra you pay on the shorter-term mortgage could earn more than the after-tax cost of the loan if you invested elsewhere

Adjustable rate mortgages. With variable-rate loans, the interest based on the movements of a specific index. The most common ARMs are linked to the average yield on' Treasury securities. Others use a weekly average of rates on sixmonth certificates of deposit (CDbased ARMs) or the average cost of funds for the Federal Home Loan Bank's 11th District bank in San Francisco

Changes in the rate, which can be monthly, semiannual, yearly or 'at three- or five-year intervals, are based on the index rate plus a mar gin of 1 to 3 percentage points. In creases are typically capped at percentage points a year and 5 or 6 points for the life of the loan.

During the past decade, total interest charges on ARMs have typibeen lower than those for cally fixed-rate loans. And their low firstyear "teaser" rates helped buyers who couldn't make larger payments afford a house

MAKE THE

If you've been thinking about moving from your current residence to the house of your dreams or from an apartment to a starter home, this is the time to do it.

The selection is excellent.

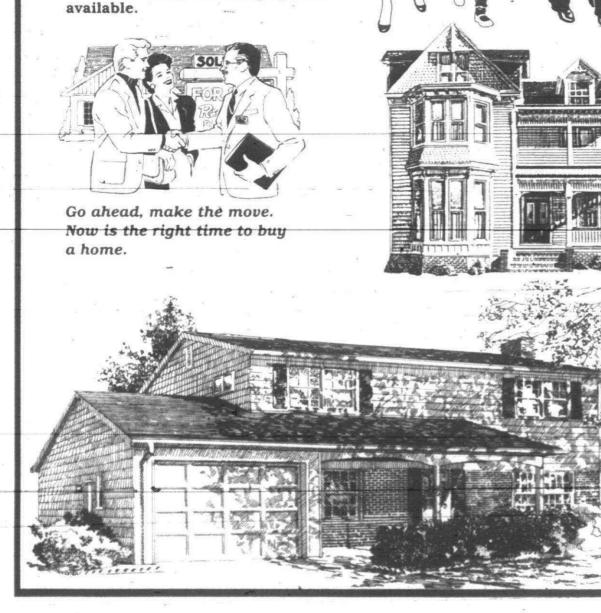

· Low interest rates are available. There are many financing options

2 generations of Young ideas

By Dale Northup special writer

There aren't too many family architectural firms around today. Young & Young of Bloomfield Hills is an exception. Father Don Paul and son Todd follow another local family of architects who practiced together in the late 1940s - Eliel and Eero Saarinen.

Don Paul started his career by enrolling in the engineering program at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, after which he enrolled the Society of Arts and Crafts in Detroit to satisfy his more creative instincts. At that time he read Frank Lloyd Wright's "Autobiography" and realized that there was a balance between art and architecture. He then embarked on his career in architecture by enrolling at Lawrence Institute of Technology to study the profession.

Todd is a graduate with a master's degree from the University of Michigan School of Architecture. He taught in the architectural design program at U-M where he was an assistant to Birmingham architect Gunnar Birkerts whose firm he joined. He then worked briefly for Detroit architect William Kessler and afterward linked up with his father's firm. The firms's area of specialization is residential architecture. It designs about eight houses per year, and while that may not seem like many commissions, Don Paul spends a lot of time on preliminaries, getting to know every nook and cranny and making sure every element of a house design fits together properly. Often as much time is spent on the details as the overall plan.

TO EXPEDITE the craftsman-like approach of his father, Todd implemented a CAD (computer-aided design) system to position the firm in the flow of the current revolution in architecture. After accepting the system with marked resistance, Don Paul realized that every aspect of a house design could be made easier — from presentation drawings to a bird's eye or worm's eye view. With convincing visuals, the client would be induced the build.

When it comes to designing the interior of a house, Don Paul ays, "We don't design rooms; we build spaces."

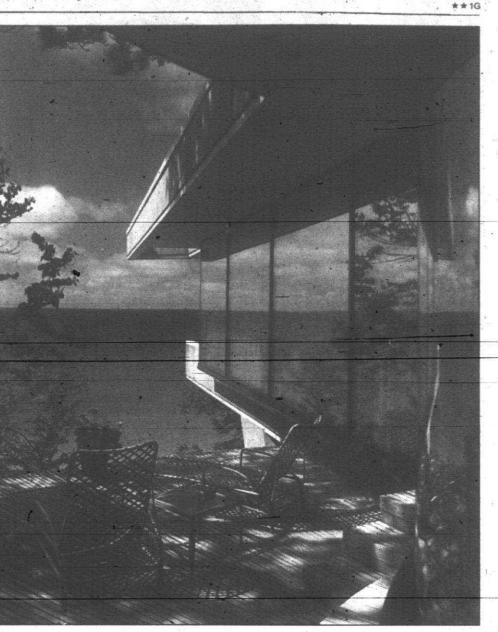

He compares those spaces to an animal's natural habitat. Rather than being "caged" in, the animal should be part of its natural environment. The same principle applies to a human in

In the automobile industry, a three-months supply might be considered a tough obstacle to overcome, even with rebates, discounts and below-market financing. Still, the time frame is in months, not

But in commercial real estate, the level of inventories and the problem of overleveraging aren't the biggest obstacles to recovery, according to a man who bought and sold hundreds of millions of dollars of buildings.

As big a problem as inventories and overleveraging, says Allen Cymrot, is the poor caliber of some com anies trying to market these structures. Among them: leveraging to the hilt, a practice now dangerous if possible; narrow break-even margins; growth by marketing rather than by superior product; operating with minimal capital; and reliance on oint ventures.

Cymrot gradually removed himself from full-time real estate management in the mid-1980s, convinced that tax law changes would eliminate advantages that the industry relied upon. in 'Hi, Honey, I'm Home'

Comedy draws upon series of decades past

July 8-July 14

By Suzanne Gill

Author and essavist Penny Stallings is straddling a generationand-a-half of popular culture in the making of "Hi, Honey, I'm Home," a new half-hour comedy she is writing and producing with partner Rick Mitz. The series, which debuts Friday, July 19, on ABC, is meant to be an enjoyable comment on the gap between the TV reality of the 1950s and the facts of life in the 1990s.

In "Hi, Honey, I'm Home," a newly divorced mother of two is struggling to make ends meet and keep her wits about her when into her life step the Nielsens, a pictureperfect family of four that's been cancelled from a TV neighborhood that presumably included Donna Reed, the Beaver and a father who always knew best. Now they're living in the '90s, where they must learn the realities of safe sex, animal rights, gun control, homelessness and family troubles that can't be solved in half an hour

Stallings, who is the author of several books on popular culture and a regular contributor to "The MacNeil/Lehrer Hour," confesses a deep sympathy with both the '50s sitcom mom, Honey Nielsen (played by Charlotte Booker), and the '90s mom-with-a-job (Susan Cella). "They're both me," she says, adding that "Rick and I actually believe those people (the Nielsens) are real people" living today.

Mitz is a veteran of seven years' work with producer Norman Lear and the author of The Great TV Sitcom Book. Together, the partners have forged a production deal that may pave the way for the future. "Hi. Honey" is being financed by both ABC and cable's Nick at Nite. which will re-air each episode on the Sunday following its ABC debut. Initially, the deal allows them to make a full 13 episodes-an increasingly rare commitment for any single network.

Stallings and Mitz not only draw upon their body of knowledge, but they have incorporated vintage sitcom actors as guest stars in each episode. To date, Gale Gordon ("The Lucy Show"), Barbara Billingsley ("Leave It to Beaver") and Jim Nabors ("Gomer Pyle") have paid visits to their old friends the Nielsens

In one episode, Honey calls Lucy Ricardo for advice, which inevitably backfires when put into practice. In another episode, Grandpa Munster (Al Lewis) explains depression to stalwart Llovd Nielsen (Stephen Bardbury), the men-don't-cry sitcom dad.

This lighthearted approach helps make the shows appropriate for both kids and adults. "The idea," says Stallings, "is that both parts of the audience should be able to watch it, no matter what the issue. This is rather a sweet show. It's not 'Married...With Children.' It's not black humor, or anything that's meant to offend."

The cast of "Hi, Honey, I'm Home" is largely unknown to TV audiences because its members were recruited from the New York stage. The show is in production at the new Universal Studios lot in Orlando, Fla., and has the feel, says Stallings, of summer stock. The players give three performances a week in front of a live audience. In addition, the set has become a point of interest on the studio tour.

"We are a ride here at Universal," she says. "The crowds pass over us, watching from a sky window." It's a vacation idea worthy of "The Jetsons."

"It's an awful lot of fun, this TV business," Stallings says. "It's much more pleasant than sitting in your room trying to think up cute things to put on the page by yourself. That's a lonely thing to do, and this is all collaboration, and so far it is really fun.

"In many ways this show is acomment on pop culture and television in particular. Also, what you find out is there's not necessarily any right or wrong (between the two differing points of view). We don't resolve (every story line), and that's sort of a sly comment on the '50s sitcom, too, where there was always an answer to every problem.

"Every week, ideally, (the Nielsens) learn a little something about the way things are, and that's incorporated by the end of the first 13 episodes."

By Dan Rice

If you think your neighborhood is rough, try homesteading next-door to a volcano. On Wednesday, July 10, A&E's Living Dangerously completes its series of "Volcanoscapes" with "Living on the Edge!," a breathtaking look at the devastation wrought by Hawaii's Kilauca Volcano and the philosophical attitude of the local on April 12, 1947. Even as a child he people.

For a room with no view, revisit Bangkok Hilton as it returns to TBS on Monday, July 8. Nicole Kidman stars with Denholm Elliott in the acclaimed Australian film about a woman's ordeal when she is unjustly charged with drug smuggling in Thailand.

Another rags-to-riches tale will be man and news anchor. After a year as presented by The Disney Channel, this a radio talk-show host, he moved to one the true story of a destitute child who went on to find huge success as "The Little Tramp." Debuting Saturday, July 13, the miniseries Young Charlie Chaplin traces the comedian's humble beginnings in London and his fateful journey to America.

If subtlety has no place in your brand of humor, you may be brand epough to watch HBO Comedy Hour: Sam Kinison in Concert. The roaring comic lets loose his demons with a late-night, adults-only show premiering Saturday. July 13.

Forget baseball, try underwater hockey or bungy jumping for a summer's sport. On Tuesday, July 9, ESPN's Amazing Games spotlights these and other unusual diversions. O TV Loting Inc.

Nicole Kidman stars in the dramatic miniseries Bengkok Hilton, concluding Tuesday on TBS.

Letterman makes late-night TV varsity By Lisa Otoupal

As "the world's most dangerous band" plays, David Letterman appears on stage. He mugs for the camera, adjusts his tie and checks his hair in the monitor. They laugh and moan and sympathize and so begins another Late Night With David Letterman. Letterman was born in Indianapolis wanted to be on either radio or television. While a student at Ball State University, he got a summer job as a replacement announcer at an Indianapolis television station. Following graduation, he worked at WLWI-TY as host of a Saturday morning children's show and late-night movie, weather-

Los Angeles in 1975. While there, he made his stand-up comedy debut at the famous Comedy Store nightclub.

He made his network debut as a member of the cast of Mary, a comedy-variety show featuring Mary Tyler Moore. Although Mary left the Boston Pops Orchestra in another Evening at Pops, Sunday on PBS.

Blue skies ahead for Bo and Carly By Candace Havens

Dear Candace: I'm really upset by the Victor/Carly situation on Days of Our Lives. I was hoping Bo and Carly would get together. I thought they were the best couple. Do you know if they'll ever get back together? I'm also really glad to see Roman and Isabella back together. Is this for good or will they break apart again? - Thanks, Wendy S., Washingtonville, Ohio.

Dear Wendy: I think you are going to be very happy with the way the Bo/Carly relationship changes over the next few weeks. It looks like true love may win after all - at least for a while.

will tell. Dear Candace: No wonder Santa Barhara has lost its ratings. About a vear-and-a-half ago, SB was on top because of the Marcy Walker and Roscoe Born relationship. Born was wonderful and romantic as Robert Barr, but only when he was with Eden. not Kelly

That is when the ratings hit rock bottom. The Kelly/Quinn relationship makes Born look like a wimp, and he is definitely not a wimp. He is the sexiest guy on the soaps.

As for the other actors, I wish they would give Mason fewer lines and some time off; Julia needs some makeup: Cassandra's story line is stupid and boring; Craig is wonderful and needs Kelly.

I want them to bring back the character of Robert Barr and put him with someone like Eden, or someone
