Larcenies on the rise in Canto

Tools and snowblowers are the target of thieves who have been hitting Canton homes more often than last year.

BY DIANE GALE

You better keep your garage doors locked if you want to hold onto your snowblowers and tools.

Larcenies are up in Canton compared to this time last year. And the biggest attraction to thieves is open garage doors, according to Canton police information officer Tammie Colling.

Last year there were 143 larceny incidents reported between Nov. 1 and Dec. 1. During her same time this year, there were 230 cases.

"I attribute that to all the new subs," Colling said.

Another reason for the increase was a rise in hubcap thefts. There were 46 hubcab thefts reported from the end of October through the middle of November.

Canton police made an arrest Nov. 13 after a Fordham Green tenant called about a possible theft, in progress. Police arrested a man and recovered 67 hubcaps from his car.

another hot Golf clubs . are commodity, among thieves. And oftentimes they're sold to northern communities.

"We've found them as far away as Muskegon and Traverse City, according to Canton police Detective Richard Pomorski.

"Golf clubs are easy to get rid of." And they're easy to steal when people leave their garage doors open.

Don't feel immune from thefts if you're home. Some of the larceny reports involved incidents where residents were in their houses at the time of the thefts, Colling said adding that most larcenies are committed by juveniles who live in the community.

Another time to be cautious is when you go grocery shopping. Thieves know grocery store shoppers usually pay with cash, and around the holidays people often have larger shoppings, Colling said.

Canton police added a "mall detail" shortly after Thanksgiving. Officers, on foot and in patrol cars, are keeping a closer eye on shopping areas. Canton police will continue the extra patrol until after the holidays.

"Their presence hopefully will deter any acts," Colling said.

If Catherine A. Johnson keeps it up, one day you'll find her picture in the dictionary under "volunteer."

The Canton resident is available anytime and anywhere there's a need. Her commitment, hard work and dedication have been recognized by local officials for years and recently she was chosen for the Wayne County Winners Circle.

The award is given at an elaborate presentation by Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara who annually chooses three people who significantly contributed to the county.

When Michigan Supreme Court Justice Conrad Mallett Jr. presented Johnson with the award, he summarized the importance of her work: "If every community had a Catherine Johnson, half it's problems would be solved. At least it would seem that way. Her tireless efforts as a volunteer have helped make Canton Township a great suburban community.

In her typical style, Johnson is donating a $500 check, given to her by Envotech in Ypsilanti for being named to the Winner's Circle, back to the community. She gave the money to the Canton Veteran's Memorial Fund to help build a veterans monument.

The recent attention showered on Johnson didn't come easy.

Family disagrees with water assessment

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI STAFF WRITER

Anne Sienko can't understand why she has to pay an almost $21,000 assessment for water to be brought to her acreage on Palmer Road when she's had township water service to her house for more than 20 years.

"I don't understand how she was included," said her son Jim, who argued his mother's cause at a public hearing on a special assessment district roll before the Canton Township Board of Trustees Tuesday.

Jim Sienko said township officials have no business including his mother in any assessment roll for a water main on Palmer Road, betwen Lotz and Hannan roads.

Township officials disagreed. "The issue at hand is not the single house, but the property," said Aaron Machnik, municipal services director. A one-inch water lead brought down from Lotz Road more than 20 years ago serves Sienko's house on 11.5 acres. "That services one house. That water has no benefit to the property. It serves one house," Machnik said.

Concern stems from a future possibility that if the acreage is divided and developed a water line is needed to serve new lots on the land, officials said.

Still, the Sienkos maintained there was no need for the assessment when water is already available.

Machnik, who told the family he referred not to discuss the history of Sienko's water lead in public, said it's believed the line "was bootlegged" years ago. Fees were not paid for the capital improvement and there's no record of payment for a water connection.

The Sienkos questioned the bootlegging issue and told trustees that indeed Anne Sienko has a water meter, paid for a permit and continues to receive a water bill.

Despite the family's complaints, township trustees approved the approximately $161,000 assessment roll, which includes Sienko's acreage and six other properties.

Though Anne Sienko is not included in another special assessment district for a storm sewer in the area, Jim Sienko said he is concerned the project will cause more flooding on his mother's acreage, which is traversed by Fellows Creek. An estimated half of the acreage is a wetland, Jim Sienko said.

He told trustees he will involve the state Department of Natural Resources in the issue because of the wetlands on his mother's property. Machnik told Sienko that the township doesn't require DNR involvement for the storm sewer project. He also said he is not aware of any negative effect from the planned storm sewer on the property.

Sienko's attorney, John Carney of Livonia, said that with half the property as a wetland, the acreage is unsuitable for development. Drainage from development to the north and east of Sienko's acreage, "has destroyed the value of her property, Carney wrote to trustees.

Deferring the water main assessment would do no good, Carney continued, because Sienko is more than 70 years old.

If you drink a bit too much, don't drive — call for a ride

BY DIANE GALE STAFF WRITER

Have a safe New Year's Eve. If you drink too much and need a ride home, there's a way. And if vou decide to have a party and you want to keep your guests sober, there's a way

Volunteers from the Wayne and Oakland chapters of Mothers Against Drunk Driving will provide rides to people on New Year's Eve. And there is no charge for LifeRide.

"It's only for those who have no rides home," according to Kath-leen Kennedy, MADD administrative assistant. "We encourage people to assign a designated driver or make arrangements to have a party." Last year MADD volunteers gave 663 New Year's Eve revellers rides in Wayne and Oakland counties. That was 29 percent more rides than the year before.

Call the MADD office at 422-6233 for more information. Some area police departments will offer rides to those who can't drive home safely. For instance, Redford Township police will drive home people who need a ride in Redford and surrounding communities. However, Redford Township Police Chief Dave Parker says the department doesn't have the resources to drive people 30 miles or farther.

Livonia police will drive people who can't drive and need ride from a Livonia location to another Livonia location. But they won't travel out of the city limits.

Westland Police won't provide a ride but will call a cab for folks unable to drive.

Tammie Colling, information officer with Canton Township Police, said: "If you're out drinking and driving in Canton, police will offer you a ride to the police deparmtnet - through the back door." She added: "We suggest you be responsible and have a lesignated driver."

Realizing you're drunk is the first and best step. A lot of people who are legally drunk think they're fine, because their mental image of someone who had too much to drink is throwing up or passing out, according to John Farrar, executive director of Livonia Counseling Center, Westland Counseling Center and Northville ounseling Center.

"One of the things I've learned s the bottom line is it takes a heck of a lot less to be legally intoxicated than people realize," he said. "People don't know how many drinks it takes to be legally intoxicated or how long you have to wait. Once they get busted and come to see me they learn the hard way."

Pointing to a 20 percent reduction in drinking and driving accidents, Farrar said, that's a great start, but there's still too many people dying as the result of an alcohol related accidents.

Radtke said she was struck that compared to Livonia, more people would walk into the office in Plymouth, to have a problem solved or to see Pursell.

One quote that jumps off the page is from a Crow elder who said: "You know, I think if people stay somewhere long enough — even white people the spirits will begin to speak to them. It's the power of the spirits coming up from the land. The spirits and the old owers aren't lost, they just need peole to be around long enough and the pirits will begin to influence them."

The idea here is that all landscape can be important in our lives, not just the Rockies and that all animals can be significant in our lives, not just the

The quote is also a great antidote to the idea that all land is real estate waiting to be developed or re-developed. And the idea in it can be applied to the city of Detroit where pheasants have been sighted near the eastern Market.

There is much talk about re-develop ing Detroit, which conjures up ideas in our minds of a building on each vacant lot. We're thinking real estate again.

Re-development in older neighborhoods could also mean nature preserves, no not parks, preserves. Parks are mowed to death by workers and turned into baseball fields.

As the Crow elder said, we should live in a place for a while and listen to he spirit of the land.

It would certainly be a welcome change.

New telephone technology rips off consumers

To chat with a "live psychic/astrologer/reader," the price is a penny - for the first minute. Then it becomes $2.99 a minute. I don't know how many minutes they tie you up because my religion frowns on astrology, but I suspect a believer's phone bill would be hefty. If you like comics, you can order facsimile copies of Dick Tracy, Gasoline Alley and Archie for $2.50 a minute. Things are expensive by telephone.

But for 25 to 50 cents, you get horoscopes, comics, the news, features, the wisdom of columnists, sports, display ads, classified ads and coupons by buying an entire newspaper.

The press, though a 16th century invention, is a whale of a lot more cost efficient than the touchtone telephone and fax. Smart people read. Dumb people use the telephone.

Are you a gambling person? Are you a gambling person who likes to throw money away? There's a telephone contest just for you.

If you spell 30 or so words correctly, you win big money. It costs about $3 a minute, and the tiny words in the TV commercials say a typical call takes five minutes. That's a $15 wager.

The Michigan Lottery is not a particularly good deal, as wagers go, but the payback is something like 45 cents on the dollar. Or you can bet the horses, where the payback is in the upper 80s per dollar, and the ticket price is only $2.

Those gambles are a lot safer than a $15 telephone call where you don't know the odds, don't have impartial judges and never learn who won.

The press, though a 16th century invention. is a whale of a lot more cost efficient than the touchtone telephone and fax. Smart people read. Dumb people use the telephone.

So much for the extremely high cost of technology. What about its failures?

Believers in technology made fools of themselves on general election day. I've already told you the story of the primary where Kalamazoo County held up the entire state because of a private contractor's computer glitches.

Apparently things were even worse up north on Nov. 3. George Weeks, my brother political columnist at The Detroit News, tells the story of that snafu:

The state House of Representatives s split 55-55 between the two parties. In the 104th District, Democrat Geraldine Greene lost her race by a scant 261 votes and demanded a recount.

"The problem is that there were so many foulups in Grand Traverse County that two-thirds of the votes could not be recounted . . . Part of the problem is that the voting machine company just 10 days before the election added an 'updated' computer chip to the machines that on Election Day occasionally printed commands to which election workers were not trained to respond.

Candidate Greene likened it to "an out-of-body experience. As a friend said, if this had happened (overseas), they'd send in United Nations troops to oversee the count," Weeks wrote.

Note well: Ballots could not be recounted. If they had used 1940s paper ballots, there would have been no prob-

Not only do computers count votes slowly, they fail to count accurately, and you can't get a recount.

In my nightmares, Michigan Bell Telephone Co. sells the state on voting by telephone — you know, punch 1 or 2 for president, 11 or 12 for state rep, etc. Bell refuses all recounts, claiming it's exempt from the Freedom of Information Act.

And the staggering cost of all the calls (the government must pay for elections) bankrupts the state.

CHEF LARRY JANES

Thanks for your help, best wishes for 1993

I could write about great holiday appetizer recipes and include nifty things to make for holiday gift giving, but if your house is anything like the Janes Gangs' there's no time left for baking, mixing, freezing let alone the shopping the recipes would all incur. So, bucking tradition, I'm going to pass along my list of holiday thanks and give credit to those who make my cooking experience all the more joyful throughout the year.

Helpful salespeople

First off, I would be totally remiss if I didn't mention all the helpful salespeople I deal with throughout the year at Kitchen Glamor and Williams-Sonoma. Anyone who's into cooking knows what I'm talking about when I call and need information from a specific cookbook or on a product line.

If you love to cook as much as I do, Judy, Norma and all the ladies at Kitchen Glamor, and John, Anne-Marie and Kelly at Williams-Sonoma are the best at answering just about anything regarding cooking equipment. Thanks folks, keep up the good work!

Grocery shopping

When it comes to shopping for groceries, it's nice to know that I can get whatever it is I need at the Food Emporium/Shopping Center Markets (especially their butchershop) and the Janes Gang basic staples from the always smiling faces at my local Danny's Market. These folks even smile when I make a mistake with slightly outdated coupons and never sneer when I come in after a family party with bags of bottles and can returns. May all your cash drawers balance in 1993!

Shopping at local small grocers and specialty stores is always fun and knowledgeable. I shop at Jack's Seafood in Farmington Hills, Superior Fish in Royal Oak, Alcamo's Italian Grocery in Dearborn, West-Side Oriental in Garden City, Rafael's Spice at Eastern Market, Merchant of Vino shops all over town and the Baker's Acre in Wayne.

It's nice to be called by your first name, and be assured of getting the best from some of the smaller places in town. May your fish always flop, spices never age, wine never sour and proscuitto never mold.

Thanks momma

I guess I should have started this story with a thanks to momma. She just celebrated her 79th birthday and can still cook rings around me. She's always there when I need to know something about technique and will "send dad over in an

"I like to cook. I've been cooking on and off all my life. I read about the contest and puttered around with ginger ale and orange juice, and refined the recipe with honey and marshmallows to add sweetness.

Brams said his "Twelve-Day Delight," is something you can whip up quickly in the blender and serve to guests.

Lisa Bartlett's "The French Hen' is also quick and easy to make.

"I'm not a very good cook, but like concocting drinks," she said. "I went to the store and picked out what looked good. It took a few tries to come up with the exact amounts for the recipe.

Bartlett, has a 6-year-old daughter, and works in the produce department at the Food Emporium/Shopping Center Market in Walled Lake.

Both first time competitors, Brams and Bartlett said it was exciting to see what everyone's ideas were.

The contest was held in September and finalists were selected based on their drinks' taste, appearance, originality of name, and adherence to the "Twelve Days of Christmas," theme.

"If you care about your guests, you want to keep them healthy, safe and happy and alcohol-free beverages are a delightful and delicious way to do this," said Peg McEwen, manager of employee health services at the Redford office of Aid Association for Lutherans, an organization that offers insurance products and volunteer activities to its 1.6 million members nation-wide

Great chefs

A tip of the chef's toque to the great cooks and chefs that have crossed my path and enriched my taste buds and knowledge of cooking. I can't name you all, but you know who you are especially to local favorites at The Frog in Rochester, Sebastian's in Troy, Nino's in Warren (for a Ceasar salad not better, but as good as mine) DePalma's in Livonia for calamari and veal, Fonte d'Amore for polenta, The American Harvest at Schoolcraft College in Livonia, Opus One in Detroit and The Lark in West Bloomfield. Also, when I visit momma in Wyandotte, a special thanks to the Speedboat Bar and Grill for the best chili anywhere. If you haven't tried these places, put them on your list for must visits in 1993!

We wouldn't have much of a "Taste" section in Monday's paper without the locals we contact to help keep your hometown in the hometown newspapers. I'm talking about the folks we feature in specialty stories that have crossed my path throughout the year.

These are the folks without Jenn-Aire grills and sub-zero refrigerator systems that cook just like you and me and are filled with stories about their own culinary heritage that make me want to get up in the morning and interview. My only wish is that you have the opportunity to pass along your own culinary heritage to your children and friends the way you have passed it to me.

Last, but certainly not least, the biggest thanks of all goes to you, our readers who keep me on my toes and are willing to contact me about recipes, ideas and places to shop. I will never tire of hearing from you at local demonstrations, restaurants, cooking classes, and in the line at the grocery store. Without your input, suggestions, criticisms and best wishes, I wouldn't have a job I love.

Happy holidays to you, and best wishes for a happy, prosperous and tasty new year from every-one at the Janes Gang house.

Bon Appetit! and if you still have time to cook, take a peak at some of my favorite recipes inside that won't take a lot of time or money to make.

Celebrate in style with delicious meal

In contemplating with relief the end of yet another hyperactive holiday season, it struck me how often we overlook the obvious and often even take it for granted. Take, for example, the dawning of a new day. It is a gift that is presented to each one of us and arrives with the inherent potential of providing more joy and happiness than anything that can be purchased in a store. We have within us the power and freedom of choice to claim each day as our very own and shape it to fit our personal objectives.

And yet, somehow the magnitude of this daily gift gets muddled amongst the pressures, often self-imposed, of every day living. We must remember that each morning provides us with a new beginning; a time when we can choose to put enthusiasm into whatever needs to be done. As 1992 winds down and we look forward to the new year, it is my sincere hope that the small, simple pleasures that are the essence of each day bring you and your loved ones much happiness and

This week's Winner Dinner, submitted by Henry Gordon of Birmingham, will help you celebrate in style the simple pleasure of a delicious meal. Gordon is a senior vice president at the Birmingham office of PaineWebber Inc. He is an avid cook, modern art collector, and enjoys traveling with his wife, Marsha. A 15 year member of the Chaine de Rotisseurs, a professional and amateur group interested in, and devoted to good eat-ing, Gordon often gets together with friends for evenings of cooking and elegant dining.

Each year at the end of March, he and a group of friends drive to Stratford, Ontario for a weekend of cooking classes at Rundles, a well-known restaurant that converts to a cooking school for professionals in the winter.

Cooking is a hobby that has brought him and those who partake of his meals much happiness. Thank you Henry Gordon for sharing your delicious recipes with us and congratulations on being selected this week's Winner Dinner Winner. Happy New Year to all.

The Generals' Tony Cole will always remember Aug. 17, 1991, as the day his bassist Flip Cherven died in a car accident. Ask Cole about the death and he'll make sure you remember it. "Let's see," he says. He pushes his shirt down around his shoulder to reveal a tattoo with Cher-

The death is one in a long line of setbacks for the Ferndale-based band. Since its inception in 1986, The Generals have also gone through five lead guitarists and a handful of vans. Although Cherven's death devastated the band, The Generals decided to stay together in honor of the late bassist. Drummer Matt Washburn says there's one other basic reason.

"What it comes down to is we're the best rock anybody else of that," he says with a grin.

Generals released a self-titled tape in mid-1992 on Chaos Network/Eastlawn. The excitement over the release was soon hampered, however when the group's then-lead guitarist John Liccar dello quit. The next guitarist lasted one gig. Now with Lenny Pops on lead guitar, the group's foundation is solidly, yet cautiously, planted.

"The Lover," which has plenty of foreplay like this and even more explicit sex, gives us the structure and satisfaction of a porno movie but without the cheapo lighting and camera work. I suppose there are worse ways to spend a winter evening than between the sheets in a steamy Saigon bachelor's room. The film is based on a novel by

At least a quarter of the film (the press kit boasts one-third) is either sex or preparation for sex. There is a detailed depiction of the girl losing her virginity; a scene of unbridled, can't-evenmake-it-over-to-the-bed lust and a rape, where the girl clenches her teeth and then asks the man how much this act would have cost him in a brothel.

Fortunately, we are spared another potential rape scene with the girl's creepy brother, which always seems to loom on the horizon. Violent and opium-addicted, he is the most interesting character in the film, yet he, like the other family members, is only handled peripherally.

So, my now friend wanted to know, "What should he do?" (This is a story that took place

One reason is that as women, my friends and I have not had this typical boys' experience of being oullied. As women, we have not had to learn how to react in these came a bully. situations because they do not come up for us. As I understand, many boys en-

In the "old days" the advice usually given to a young boy was that he should not run away from the bully. Running away merely increased the bully's victimizing the "sissy." Often, when the boy refused to be intimidated by the bully and would fight back, the bully would not pick on him anymore and would look for a new victim.

Such a scenario would allow the boy to gain confidence in himself and in his feelings of maleness. This could be overdone in cultures where being macho was very important. It even turned out that sometimes the former "sissy" be-

With the presence of guns, giving advice to stand and fight can be foolhardy, if not fatal. America has become a violent culture with, cies, schools, legislature and exec-

I do think that the school system has the responsibility to do something about banning the possession of guns in school but that won't protect this young man outside of school.

The government also has a responsibility in this major problem. When Thomas Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence he based it on the belief that individuals should learn to control themselves, using values, such as the 10 Commandments and the New and Old Testaments. He felt that in a democracy the government should step in o handle those individuals who are incapable of governing themselves.

It is no longer safe for boys to go through the rites of passage that had, before now, been a part of their identities as men. We no longer live in a society in which normal aggressiveness can be worked through. It is important to work to make our world a safe one again. Barbara

Accentuate positive with accessories

If you're still undecided about what to wear this New Year's Eve, maybe these tips from local retailers will help you choose among the timeless black tank dress, the sexy tuxedo or the anklelength halter. The key to the success of your outfit might be in the way you accessorize.

The dramatic combination of black and gold is a classic choice for a festive evening out. Debbie Markzon of Sherri's in West Bloomfield's Orchard Mall suggests an elegant and simple black knit column given definition of shape with this beaded chain belt by St. John ($125). Complete the outfit with glamourously long earrings of jet and crystal that add sparkle to a subtle look ($25). Your basic black dress is hardly basic any-

St. John jewelry is crafted of 24 karat gold overlay and the company will refinish any piece that loses its luster, making it a wise investment.

What could be more distinctive for a formal occasion than a feminine version of the tuxedo? If you don't own a traditional tuxedo, you can still create the look with a velvet jacket and pleated or unconstructed satin pants. Tuxedo dresses are another popular option.

To give this classic a fresh and sensuous look, forget the starched white shirt and bow tie. Slip on this dazzling faux tie made of Austrian crystals ($60) from Accessories by Ann, also at Orchard Mall. Wow! This will take the stuffiness out of formalwear. Owner Ann Wallach adds more sizzle with these sparkling crystal earrings ($55). Sounds like a knockout ensemble.

Of course, if you're really dressing to the nines, you have to dress right down to your toes. Donna Karan's glitter tulle hosiery in black and silver creates light effects as you move, giving your legs an alluring shine. Available at Hudson's, this fancy legwear is priced at $14.

Another simple, but lovely addition to your holiday finery could be a luxurious velvet scarf from Neiman Marcus. Generously fringed and shown in shades of rich chocolate brown and midnight black, the warmth of this accessory matches its style and elegance.

Men: Don't sing the blues, wear them

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO STAFF WRITER

Most men will be glad to know that blue is back.

"For 1993, blues and grays will dominate men's business dressing,' forecasts Robert Butler, regional manager of Anton's. "Earth tones have been popular for the past few seasons, but you'll see the return of the blue dress shirt and suit this year.'

Anton's has shops in the Fairlane Town Center, Oakland Mall, Lakeside and Meadowbrook Village Mall. They are affiliated with the Graham and Gunn shop in the Somerset Collection.

Butler also describes a new category of menswear, Business Casual that will premiere in the new year.

"These items will be dressy sportswear that men can wear to the office and look better dressed than in a pair of dockers and polo shirt," he said. "We plan to set up special de-partments to handle this clothing. The fabrication will be wool-cotton blends of a more constructed type. Shirts will have stripes and patterns. The pieces can be topped with a sportcoat to complete the look.'

4C(F)(8B*)

Butler pointed out that unlike other menswear markets in the United States. Detroit-area men are big on double-breasted suits.

'Double-breasted suits account for 30-percent of our suit sales here," he said. "And many of these are in allseason wool and gabardine fabrics."

Butler said men can look for suit jackets and pants to be sold separately soon.

"This way, the customer can pick out pants with a waist size that fits, and a coat that fits. I think most men will appreciate these trends. We're very excited about them at Anton's.

Tone up your wardrobe. with '93 fashion fads sexes.

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO STAFF WRITER

Five wardrobe trends will separate the well-dressed from the justdressed, according to Kerry Whitaker, fashion consultant and spokeswoman for Express.

"First trend: Long over lean," she reported from her headquarters in New York. "Wear a long sweater over a slim, ankle-length knit skirt. Tres chic!

"Second, pull an outfit together using a monochromatic color scheme," she said. "We call this tonal dressing. Pick one color, say teal blue or hunter green, and dress head to shoes in it. The pieces don't have to match exactly, but the look will be exactly right for 1993."

The third trend is animal patterns. Wear an animal print with neutrals for a look that is classy, sexy," she said. "Leopard is really chic.

"If you like denim," she said, "the fourth trend is toward dyed, colored denim which is really hot right now! The youngsters are quickly picking up on this. Orange, dark pink and

Wearing two belts adds a classic touch that is very chic for 1993. The look is completed with a sandwashed boy sweater with a scoop neck. Sandwashed silk blouses are another smart buy. This new fabric is real silk but much easier to care for than a traditional silk blouse.

Double belted:

calls for a stunning little bag to make the look party perfect. We picture an exquisitely shaped gold metal and leather minaudiere from Accessories by Ann. Accented with crystals, it would be a striking addition to any nighttime look for years to come ($120). Festive doesn't always mean formal. Sabrina Feiton of Farmington Hills opts for the ease of a special jeweled sweater atop black leggings. Her tunic sweater from Hudson's sparkles with multicolor rhinestones and is a brilliant, yet relaxed choice for this soon-to-be mom.

If you're looking to be a trendsetter this New Year's Eve, then your wardrobe must include something nautically inspired. "Military styling has a tailored look that really can't go out of style," says Christie Brinkley in the December issue of Glamour magazine.

All of the merchants I spoke to mentioned the new nautical rage. A sales associate at The Icing in Lakeside Mall, emphasized the dressy end of this look. She pointed to a rhinestone-studded admiral's cap trimmed with gold beads and authentic braiding ($42). Paired with gold and diamond star-shaped earrings ($29), these accessories alone could enliven a ho-hum navy or red jacket.

To get the complete nautical outfit, splurge on a one-of-a-kind suit by Criscione, available at Sherri's. Kathie Lee Crosby and Joan Lunden are often seen in Crisciones and any of the styles would be gorgeous for a holiday party. They are both classic and sexy, a dynamite combination. Prices are upwards of $400.

Whether lounging by the fire in jeans and a reatshirt or out on the town in your most dazzling dress-up clothes, I wish you a safe and happy New Year's Eve. And more good wishes for all of '93.

Though the busiest shopping season has come to an end, we're always intrigued by new and unusual stores. Next week don't miss an introduction to the area's newest and trendiest merchants. I took your suggestions and added some favorite finds of my own.

Linda Bachrack is a Birmingham resident. To give her your column ideas, call 953-2047, Ext. 1889 from your touch-tone phone.

"It's our top-of-the-line treat-ment program," said Calla Victoria, owner of the new spa inside Heidi's Salon. "For $200, through six hours, a customer will receive an hour-long massage, full-body paraffin treatment, facial, pedicure, manicure, make over, hairstyle and lunch! It's a popular gift and we're very busy this holiday.'

Shoppers who want to get away from it all, can book cruises to Alaska, the Bahamas, Russia and Scandinavia through Hudson's Travel Service. A summer tour through European capitals also sounds inviting.

Hudson's Market Place Foods

"The Marriott Hotel is attached to the center so visitors can dine, have a drink, or enjoy the hotel's entertainment after shopping," said Michael Buescher, marketing director.

At the Livonia Mall customers can have shoes and jewelry repaired, order new glasses, visit a doctor in the medical center, see a movie, have a portrait taken, take home dinner entrees, in addition to having their hair cut and styled at one of several salons.

"You don't have to leave the mall as the same person you entered," said Janice Morrow, assistant marketing director.

No holiday cheer for sad Ocelots is the season to be jolly . . . Honest. It is.

To be painfully accurate, these could indeed be the final days of joy for Dave Bogataj, as pitiful as they seem.

It takes a long step away from conventional understanding to describe what Bogataj has endured thus far this basketball season as joyous. His Schoolcraft College men's team is, in his own terminology, "O-for-December."

If you're mathematical, that adds up to seven losses in seven December games. Merry Christmas.

The Ocelots are 3-10 overall (they've lost eightstraight, going back to November). They are 0-4 in the Eastern Conference.

Unless something very dramatic happens very quickly, they will finish this season as they have the last four under Bogataj's direction: with a losing record, a non-threat in the playoffs.

In heartless, but precise, terms — a patsy. How can this team start so optimistically each season, then fold up? Said Bogataj, showing his frustration: "Every year, it's something different."

There is one similarity in the last 41/2 years of losing, however, and it happens every January. Which also tells you how things can get even worse this year. Because January is here.

Time to pay dues

Anyone remotely familiar with SC men's basketball knows what happens the first week of January. First-semester grades are posted.

Every year, that has cost Bogataj players. And on a team that rarely possesses the talent to compete in the Eastern Conference, the loss of any player hurts.

A couple of seasons ago, Bogataj lost so many players at the semester break, he had to recruit the guy working as his scorekeeper — Lee Hunt, a soccer player at SC — to join the team.

Believe me, it was a pitiful sight. No slight to Hunt — he wasn't a bad ballplayer. Before joining the SC varsity, he used to play with a bunch of us old guys on Thursday mornings, and he was easily as good as any of us.

But, somehow, I don't think many in that group would fare too well against Eastern Conference caliber talent.

Nor is this a slam at Bogataj. His position borders on impossible. Academic standards are higher at SC than at most other NJCAA schools in the state, the enrollment is lower, and administration support and interest is, at best, mediocre.

So — a nightmare without an end, right?

Looking back

Ten years later: Ever wonder what became of the 1982-1983 All-Area basketball players, like Lewis Scott of Redford Bishop Borgess (right) and Tom Domako of Livonia Stevenson (below)?

All-Area '83: 10 years after

Ten years ago they were the brightest stars on the Observerland basketball scene. They left the area for various colleges and universities, each armed with an athletic scholarship and a dream.

BY CHRIS MCCOSKY STAFF WRITER

One is a pilot. Another is a successful auto executive who spends his off hours counseling high school kids. One is still chasing a dream of playing in the NBA. One has foresaken all sports except hunting. Another is still trying to find and forge a career path.

Ten years ago, they were the bright-est stars on the Observerland basketball scene. Mike Maleske of Redford Catholic Central, Lewis Scott of Redford Bishop Borgess, Tom Domako of Livonia Stevenson, Dave Houle of Plymouth Salem and George Sibel of Redford Thurston comprised the 1982-1983 Observer All-Area team.

"This is good," said Scott. "I always wondered what paths all these guys chose. I'll bet we've gone in all different directions."

Yes and no. All five went to college with athletic scholarships. Four of the five endured injuries at some paired knee that all but ruined his four-year career at Bowling Green.

"I knew right then that my basketball career was pretty much over, Maleske said of the surgery in his sophomore year. "When the mind wants you to do something and your body won't do it, it's time to go."

The problem wasn't so much the sudden ending of his basketball career but the uncertainty of what to do next

"I kind of foundered a bit," he said. "I figured I would just play ball in Europe or someplace and postpone getting a real job for as long as I could. Luckily, I found aviation."

He found aviation the hard way. He left Bowling Green without a degree and took a job as a ramp laborer at Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

"I would be out there busting my butt and I would look up and see those pilots," he said. "I said to myself, 'I can do that."

Glory days: Basketball was never as much fun for Mike

Worse times ahead

The situation is deteriorating. Bogataj started re-season practice with 14 players on his roster. Eight remain.

Two (Quincy Mitchell and Jon Fitzpatrick) were casualties before the season opened. Jerome Carter played a couple of games, then tore up his knee. He's out for the year.

Frank McCray played several games, but a series of family tragedies forced him to leave. Craig Bowdry and John Lathan each had a disagreement with their coach and were suspended, for what Bogataj said were "disciplinary reasons.

Of the eight remaining, only one — center Jarvis Murray — played at SC last year. Now the question is, how many will be around when SC returns to action Jan. 9 at home against Alpena CC.

If Bogataj loses just two players - and that would match SC's previous best performance since he's been coaching - he would be left with six

Who would play? Well, one guy has been added: Dan Stevens, a 6-foot guard from Plymouth Salem. Problem is, Stevens never played for Salem's varsity.

The Ocelots have been unable to win with a full team. How will they win with even less? Bogataj will tell you, they play 30 to 35 minutes of solid basketball a game, but for five minutes they go vacationing and it costs them.

"I don't know what it is," said Bogataj. "You can go back every game to a point where we go four or five or six minutes without scoring. It's perplexing.

It's worse than that, really. It's shameful. This team has talent, with Murray, Courtney Williamsonbey, Steve Whitlow, Bryant Markowicz, Mohammed Abdrabboh and Vincent Turner. Those guys can all play.

Problem is, they never show up at the same time. They certainly never did during December. Consistency is lacking.

How Bogataj maintains an upbeat attitude and he does — amazes me. It will amaze me even more if everyone on the team makes grades, injuries subside, and there's a team-wide winning attitude implant.

Then, maybe, SC can turn this thing around. But that's a big maybe.

point along the way. Three of the five left athletics somewhat bitter or disappointed. Four of the five are married but none have children. Some made a smooth transition from athletics to the real world. Others struggled. All seem to be living happy and productive lives.

Here, then, is a 10th anniversary look at the 1982-1983 All-Area basketball team - where have they been and where are they going.

MIKE MALESKE

The 17.5 points and 13 rebounds per game he averaged during his senior year at CC proved to be his peak production, thanks to a host of injuries, most notably a surgically re-

ago. "The major airlines require their pilots to have a four-year degree, so I had to go back to Bowling Green and finish up," he said.

Maleske, who has been commuting back and forth from Bowling Green to southern Florida where his parents and his girlfriend of four years live, will have a degree in aeronautic technology in May.

said. "Once I get the degree out of the way, I'll be back on track. You might want to put in the article that I'm available and looking for work.'

LEWIS SCOTT

In the All-Area story 10 years ago, Borgess coach Mike Fusco was quoted as saying that Scott was totally focused in two areas: basketball and books. And now, after a highly successful basketball and academic career at Eastern Michigan University, Scott is coming back to his old stomping grounds as living proof that basketball is only a means to success, not the end itself.

'Myself and Joe Gregory (another basketball standout from Borgess) come back to the school about once a month to talk to the kids. We are trying to establish a mentor pro-gram," said Scott, who is 18th on Eastern's all-time scoring list with 1.014 points. "We try to let them know that they don't have to play ball to do OK for themselves. We have to get these kids to realize that academics and basketball are related. We

Atchinson walking on air as walk-on at Notre Dame

BY CHRIS MCCOSKY STAFF WRITER

Please, what ever you do, don't pinch Susie Atchinson. Because if this is all a dream, she does not want to wake up. Not yet.

There she was Monday night, in a Notre Dame basketball uniform, sitting on the bench. It was late in the first half. Notre Dame was losing to Georgia and its top two shooting guards were in foul trouble. Suddenly, Irish coach Muffet McGraw looks down the bench.

"Susie, go in for Sherri," she says.

Just that quickly, Atchinson is in the game. In the game. Not garbage time, mind you. We're talking quality minutes here. Quality Division I women's basketball minutes.

Sometimes I wake up in the morning and I can't even believe this is happening," said Atchinson. Believe it.

Atchinson was a solid, over-achieving shooting guard at Farmington Hills Mercy from 1988 to 1991. She was a tireless worker and a dangerous perimeter shooter. But she was not what you would classify as a hot Division I prospect. In fact, the only scholarship offers she got were from small, far away Division III schools.

"I had a fine high school career. I played four sports and I really enjoyed it," said Atchinson, who is from Plymouth. "But I figured that was the end of it."

She went to Notre Dame, figuring to put her academic skills (she was salutatorian at Mercy, carrying a 4.0 grade point average) to work. But basketball wouldn't leave her alone. She played nearly every day at The Rock, Notre Dame's intramural facility.

have to get them to look at and prepare for life after basket-ball."

Scott is the perfect role model. After graduating from Eastern with a degree in business communication, he took a job with Pepsi. He worked his way up the ladder there for three years before landing a job as district manager for the Chrysler Corp. He is currently in charge of the largest sales district in the Metro Detroit area. He was married last August and lives in Southfield.

"I hope they can look at me and see that I'm doing real well without playing basketball. Scott said. "I want them to know that the lessons they learned in sports relate to the real world. The things that make you great in business are hard work, the ability to work with people and be a part of a team. That's what these compa nies are looking for.

"I was lucky that when I was at Eastern I had people who helped me keep focused on academics. When I was done playing, I still had two credit hours left before I could graduate. I chose to come back and finish school. Who knows, if I didn't, I might still be chasing that NBA dream.

TOM DOMAKO

The dream still burns for Domako, but it is starting to flicker.

"I'm kind of at a crossroads right now," said the 26-year-old, who left Stevenson and became somewhat of a folk hero at Montana State University. "I'm get ting on in years as far as basketball goes. There are so many things I want to do with my life. I want to go back and get my degree. I want to raise a family. I don't want to be 55 years old and have a kid in high school, you know?'

"But I still think there is a lot of good basketball left in me." Fate has intervened to give Domako some time to weigh all his options. He was playing in the top professional league in Belgium and averaging 22.5 points per game. But last week his step-mother died and he wanted to come home to be with his father. The Belgium officials wouldn't let him leave. He came home anyway and he was cut change course He's certainly traveled a long and exhausting road since leaving Stevenson. He was a star at Montana State, averaging better than 21 points per game his junior and senior seasons. He was first team all-Big Sky both years and was the league's most valuable player his junior year.

"I scored 27 points in my first college game and from then on people started giving me all kinds of nicknames." he said 'They called me Downtown Domako. They called my threepointers Livonia Layups. They called me Instant Offense.

He played a year in France before the Houston Rockets came calling before the 1989-1990 season and gave him a guaranteed contract.

"That was my one legitimate shot at it," he said.

But he wound up a victim of the numbers game and was the last person cut from the team. Since then, he's been a basketball vagabond, traveling throughout the Continental Basketball Association, making stops at Cedar Rapids, Columbus and Rockford, before heading out to Belgium.

Domako's production has steadily decreased over the years, largely due to a bum knee. 'I knew I needed surgery, but I couldn't afford to miss the games," he said. "Time is mon-He finally had surgery to re-

He, along with Tony Mandarich, Bob Kula and Pat Shurmer, anchored a line that propelled Michigan State to a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl victory in 1987. Behind that line, the Spartans averaged close to 300 yards rushing per game and Lorenzo White amassed 1,572 yards and 16 touchdowns.

He was drafted by the New York Giants and then the spotlight was shut off. First, a series of shoulder injuries forced him out of pro football. Then came allegations that Houle, Mandarich and other Spartans took steroids; allegations that Houle vehemently denied, allegations that were never proven. "The way everything ended left a bad taste in my mouth. Houle said. "I don't play sports anymore and I don't watch football on television. I haven't been back to East Lansing. It hurts too much. When it's over, it's over.

Don't misunderstand. Houle isn't unhappy with his life. Like everyone, he just has some bad memories. But the future, he says, is bright.

"I've got a good job (he's the safety director at Harlan Electronics in Southfield), a nice wife (Michelle) and nice home in Plymouth," he said. "Things are real good for me now."

After spending a season or the junior varsity, Sibel became a starting guard for Coach Ben Braun (now at Eastern). "Everything is politics," he said. "I've learned that no matter what you do, no matter how good you are, you are expend able. There's no lovalty.'

Sibel finished his education at Madonna University, getting a degree in criminal justice. Bu he has vet to settle on a career path. He's currently a security officer working the afternoor shift at the Ford Rouge Plant.

"My life is moving full-speed ahead," he said.

As for athletics, Sibel is the

It was something that was always in the back of my mind, wondering whether or not I could make it. I just decided that would rather have somebody tell me that I couldn't play. I needed to prove to myself, either I could or I couldn't. Really, I had nothing to lose."

So, last fall, she and 12 other non-scholarship players showed sport. And I am sure she imup for varsity practice all hoping to win the one open spot on the team. The selection process was grueling, both mentally and physcally.

"It was so crazy, nobody would ell you anything," she said. "Every day I would check the list for my name. I told myself, if it was there, fine; if not, well, at least I tried."

The list shrank to eight, then to four, then to two — but Atchinson's name was always there.

picked up on that.'

What the Notre Dame coaches saw in Atchinson were the same qualities that Coach Larry Baker marveled at and applauded her for at Mercy.

"She is a terrific self-made player," Baker said. "When we first saw her, we were impressed by her quickness. But she broke her leg and had to sit out her entire freshman season. And the quickness was gone. She had to re-create her style of play. As coaches, we really appreciated her attitude and dedication to the pressed the Notre Dame coaches with what she will bring to the practices in terms of her talent and her attitude."

So far. Atchinson has played in two games. She got four minutes against Purdue on Dec. 4 (no shots, one foul, one turnover) and two minutes against Georgia on Monday (no statistics).

"I basically just ran up and down the court," she said. "But it was great. I was ready to play and was under control. I never thought I would get to play when the game was still on the line. But now I figure, hey, I can play an integral part for this team. If they get in trouble, I can help.'

Atchinson isn't allowing herself any delusions. She knows nothing is guaranteed. She isn't counting on winning a scholarship and she knows that she will have to win her spot back again next season.

"I just want to help this team be better in any way I can." she said. "If I can help in a game, great. If not, then I will help in practice. I'm not even thinking about next year. I still can't get over all that's happened this vear

'Good Morning America' expands to Sundays

Anchor, producer happy with prospects for new show

By Suzanne Gill

"This is on the record, right?" asks Bill Ritter. ABC's newest anchorman. Ritter is a 20-year veteran of print and broadcast journalism who's nothing if not cagev in a question in a question-and-answer session.

What's "on the record" in this case seems innocuous enough: It's just Ritter's response to a comment by his new producer, Jerry Liddell. that the Los Angeles-born reporteranchorman was entertaining more than one offer of a network job when he accepted the post of co-host for ABC's latest news venture. Good Morning America/Sunday.

Read an "Aw, shucks," into the record, followed by an "I was in a very flattering position." Not that Ritter isn't enthusiastic about his new job on a show debuting Sunday, Jan. 3. on most ABC affiliates.

"I think the different thing about this job is gonna be getting people who don't watch Sunday-morning television to watch it. The overwhelming majority of people in America don't watch Sunday-morning TV at 8 o'clock.'

True enough. Fully 80 percent of U.S. homes leave the TV off at that hour. The 20 percent who do watch already have two network talk-show choices: the long-established CBS Sunday Morning show with Charles Kuralt and NBC's 6-monthold Sunday Today show, anchored by Scott Simon and Jackie Nespral.

Producer Liddell takes a realistic view of the competition.

"We were never going to compete with Kuralt directly. I'm not going to go after his audience; I can't, he owns them; they're his."

The Today audience, however, is fair game.

"By default, 41 percent of (Sunday) Today viewers are (weekday) Good Morning America viewers. So, we want 'em back.

"I don't think they're necessarily addressing the weekend audience," Liddell says of Sunday Today. "They're giving you what you get Monday through Friday. I think they're not taking advantage of the Sunday audience in particular." Sunday morning, according to Liddell, is "when you take time" to enjoy family, newspaper and breakfast. So he plans to open GMA/Sunday with a few minutes of conversation between Ritter and co-anchor Dana King on a "modified, cosier" version of the weekday set."

"We won't necessarily be driven by events of the news," Ritter adds. We're gonna try to be looking ahead as much as we can."

To Liddell, this means leaving political heavyweights to David Brinklev whose roundtable show airs later in the morning. "You can let other people talk to the suits. and we'll talk to the people the suits affect."

With just an hour to fill. Liddell plans for a news segment to follow the opening. Then he'll give the middle of the show to feature stories generated by his anchors.

What I hope to be my signature pieces," Ritter says, "are what I call day-in-the-life pieces. I've done it several times and found it very rewarding."

Speaking of King, Ritter fairly gushes. "We get along really well. It's really a blast to be with her.

She's funny and she's smart and she's very quick. We get along, I would say, much like a brother and sister get along.

"She has the ability to talk directly to people the way that few people have. People really enjoy her

Such camaraderie may be a key to the show's success; certainly Sunday Today has suffered without it. The differences behind the scenes at each show are telling, too. Today formed a separate staff for weekends, while budget-conscious ABC simply hired a few more staffers for the established GMA crew

"Our staff." Liddell says. "is totally integrated; they (Today) created this guerilla outfit on the side. and I think logistically that was probably a mistake."

For the record, then, Ritter is as happy as a newsman can be with the prospects for his untried new product.

"We are not under any pressure (from the network) to pull this off in a month. We have one-hour show, not a four-hour blockbuster with two hours a shot (like Today). They're very smart about this. It's a long haul kind of thing."

On Monday, The Learning Channel unveils Ready, Set, Learn!, a daily, commercial-free block of programs for preschoolers. Shows like Bookmice, Join In! and Kitty Cats are designed to help prepare children for school.

The Learning Channel gets preschoolers ready to learn

Commercial-free block costly, but worth it

By Dan Rice

In its report "Ready to Learn: A Mandate for the Nation" the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Learning revealed that 35 percent of America's children are not ready to learn when they begin school. The report stressed that better pre-school preparation would make use of television as a teacher.

In direct response to the Carnegie report, cable's The Learning Channel has created Ready, Set, Learn!, a commercial-free block of weekday programming geared to give preschoolers a head start on reading and social interaction. Ready, Set, Learn! commences on Monday, Dec. 28.

as its host children's singer/songwriter Rory. The cornerstone of the block is The Magic Box, a reading program designed by education pioneer Wendy Pie that uses "whole language" techniques as well as a rap-singing Alphabet Soup Woman to hook 2- to 5-year-olds on the ladder to literacy.

Bookmice reinforces the desire to read with its cast of puppets and people in a library setting. The fun of learning is the focus of Iris, the Happy Professor. The birdlike puppet Iris covers such subjects as the four seasons and the ocean with song and humor. The puppet players of Kitty Cats attend to problem solving and honing interpersonal skills, while the mulitcultural adults of Join In! encourage their young viewers to share activities

The block of six half-hour series has with them, learning social lessons along the way. Finally, there's an old favorite, Zoobilee Zoo, offering animal-costumed actors who employ song, dance and magic to foster imagination in viewers.

> The Learning Channel, with a subscriber base of 18 million in the U.S., hopes to pick up some foundation funding for Ready, Set, Learn!, just as similar public-television programs do. The revenues lost from the exclusion of commercials from the block will be substantial, but TLC's aggressive promotion of Ready, Set, Learn! to parents' groups and day-care centers is likely to attract new viewers to its regular slate of commercially sponsored programming.

Another television year has flashed before our eyes

VETITE

Remembering the good, bad. notorious of 1992 By Suzanne Gill

1992 will be remembered as a year of transition in television. For NBC, it was the year the network lost Johnny Carson, Bill Cosby and, not coincidentally, its grip on the No. I spot in the ratings. NBC's decision to jettison The Golden Girls, Matlock and In the Heat of the Night in favor of shows aimed at an audience of young adults has stalled the peacock out at No. 3.

Meanwhile, a resurgent CBS caught fire with the Winter Olympics and continues to occupy the No. 1 spot despite the fact that its spring season netted duds (One CBS executive guinoed that the network should have a Pet Cemetery retrospective weekend featuring the late Scoreh. Tequila and Bonetti and Fish Police.) and the fall slate has failed to produce a new top-10 Series 1992 had its highs and lows for viewers, too, though some, like Howard Stern's interview series on E! Entertainment Television, can only be judged in the eve of the beholder.

Prominent in the plus column was the appearance in July of TV's first disabled game-show contestant, Rebeka Sessions, who competed on Nickelodeon's Family Double Dare. The network saddened fans, however, by firing Ren & Stimpy creator John Kricfalusi and disbanding his team of merrily demented animators. With fewer than 10 completed episodes on celluloid, the series will probably become a collector's item.

The wide world of cable found new frontiers in The Sci-Fi Channel and The Cartoon Network, while HBO made room for The Larry Sanders Show, Garry Shandling's canny sendup of desk-and-couch talk shows. The Learning Channel came to the aid of

Bowl games dominate sports week

By Michael Scogin

College football wraps up another season this week with a flurry of bowl games that includes an outright battle for the national championship.

ESPN begins a bowl marathon with Washington State against Utah in the Copper Bowl on Tues., Dec. 29, while Hawaii and Illinois face off in the Holiday Bowl on Wednesday, Dec. 30. New Year's Eve features a doubleheader of patriotic proportions as Wake Forest faces Oregon in the Independence Bowl and Air Force meets Mississippi in the Liberty Bowl.

On CBS, Arizona meets Baylor in the John Hancock Bowl Thursday, Dec. 31, and Penn State takes on Stanford in the Blockbuster Bowl the following day.

The annual controversy over who's No. 1 should be at least partially silenced this year when top-ranked Miami faces No. 2 Alabama in the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day on ABC.

The national championship game caps an ABC gridiron tripleheader, beginning with Georgia and Ohio State in the Florida Citrus Bowl and a great matchup between Michigan and Washington in the Rose Bowl. On NBC, unbeaten Texas A&M takes on Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl, Syracuse meets Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl, and Florida State and Nebraska match up in the Orange Bowl.

The fun ends Saturday, Jan. 2, with North Carolina and Mississippi State in the Peach Bowl on ESPN.

Cook up some fun during holiday lulls By Chris Carpenter

The tinsel has been toted from the living room, but the kids still have another week of vacation left. If the season's anticlimax becomes unbearable for both parent and progeny, television may provide a diverting recipe for fun.

Because they're usually in school, children may not realize what types of how-to programming air on weekdays. Among these are cooking shows, any one of which may suggest a culinary project that will transform a family meal into an opportunity for a child to take on a helpful task of which he or she can be proud.

The Discovery Channel, as one example, offers cooking programs of every flavor, airing from mid-morning to mid-afternoon. First up is the Great Chefs series, where the world's best cooks prepare their dishes in exotic kitchens from New Orleans to San Francisco. Next, The Low Cholesterol Gourmet goes guiltless, Graham Kerr ladles up the laughs and viewers are invited to take a ride on Pasquale's Kitchen Express. Something easy for the young ones this week might be Kerr's Monday, Dec. 28, recipe for Dutch pancakes.

By either taping a program to use as a video guide or watching closely with pencil and paper in hand, kids can, with the ingredients and patient advice from mom and dad, learn to find their way around the kitchen.

Rodriguez strikes deal for Latinos; 'Simpsons' get syndicated

Comedian/actor Paul Rodriguez and his I Was Framed Productions partner Jeff Wald have signed an exclusive first-look agreement with HBO Independent Productions to produce series and other programming targeted at the Latino community. I Was Framed produces Rodriguez's Univision talk show and network specials and is currently developing the NBC movie Blood and Justice, starring Jimmy Smits.

(Edna, that is) By Steven Alan McGaw On Saturday, Jan. 2, NBC offers the third edition of Dame Edna's Hollywood, an unpredictable showcase for the self-described "socialite, author swami and megastar" Dame Edna Everage. Her previous specials, allegedly taped in her "lavish Bel Air mansion," were solid ratings successes and hopes are high for this third outing, which features guests Burt Reynolds, Barry Manilow and Sean Young.

Describing herself, the loquacious, sometimes caustic Dame Edna says, "I'm fundamentally a therapist, someone to talk to. Deep down, I'm just a housewife, I'm not an affected woman."

Dame Edna rose to prominence in a series of well-received London stage shows, followed by many appearances and specials on British television. Her two previous NBC specials included guest stars such as Mel Gibson, Bea Arthur, Cher and Burgess Meredith, In the future, she'd like to front her own weekly show "with Norman Mailer as my sidekick." Asked what NBC says to this plan, Dame Edna sniffs, "They haven't got much to say about it at all."

Although she vehemently denies it, the statuesque celebrity's alter ego is writer-producer Barry Humphries. Dame Edna calls him her manager. "He's never there when you need him." she complains, "like all managers. But he's got me trussed up like a chicken in our contract. I can't get out."

Knight keeps door open for other jobs

By Candace Havens

Dear Candace: I can't believe Michael E. Knight is back on All My Children. I am so excited. He has always been my favorite character on the show and on the soaps, period. How long is he going to be on and what is going to happen to him? -Just too excited in Texas.

Dear Reader: Many soap watchers share your views. As Tad, Knight is one of the most popular characters on daytime TV, even after a two-year hiatus. Knight is just as excited as his fans to be back in Pine Valley and plans to be there for at least a couple of years.

Knight had grown tired of constantly pursuing work in Los Angeles. His new contract has lots of outs so he can leave to do feature and TV movies whenever he wants. His latest film, Hex, has just been released.

When last we saw Tad, he was getting into a truck headed for California. He returns to Pine Valley under a different name, because he can't remember any of his past.

As he meets and sees various people from his past, he will begin to regain his memory.

Dear Candace: I am a great fan of Another World but I am liking it less every day. The characters Dean and Jenna have become so whiny and stupid

I also don't like seeing Vicky and Grant together. I want her to get back together with Ryan. They made such a cute couple. Thanks for letting me express my opinions. -R.P., Louisville, Ky.

is a good relationship acter, Brett ake things

Dear Reader: Hall is doing double duty as both characters on the show now, but you are right about her twin having been on in the past. Andrea Hall-Lovell portrayed Samantha Evans from 1977-80.
