School trustees: Call Lansing

BY DIANE GALE
STAFF WRITER

Call your legislators to complain about the proposed school reform plan.

That's the message from Plymouth-Canton school board president Roland Thomas.

"I would urge each of you to pick up the phone and call them," Thomas said gesturing to other trustees at Monday's board meeting.

"And I would urge the citizens to pick up the phone and call them." Trustees recently sent a letter to state legislators pointing to a $6-million deficit if the reform package is approved as proposed.

"It's wrong and unconscionable," Thomas added.

Gov. John Engler's plan calls for across-district schools of choice, charter schools and elimination of closed shops for teachers. Also, property taxes would be eliminated as the main source of school funding.

The board formally passed a resolution detailing how trustees believe state school financing reform will affect local residents.

They also make suggestions about how school reform should be achieved:

■ Use income tax to fund education, because it is stable and can be deducted from the federal income tax.

■ Local districts should be able to pull out of the schools-of-choice process.

■ All schools that receive public tax dollars must abide by the same state laws, rules, regulations and mandates.

■ Citizens must have greater access to the process of determining curriculum, financing, budgeting and school improvement.

The board concedes that changes are necessary.

"However, great care must be taken to ensure that the local boards and state legislators continue to work together to improve our educational processes," according to a letter from the board to state legislators and Engler.

Trustee Dean Swartzwelter said he supported the letter, but realistically

Educational reform Canton legislator's goal

Canton's state Rep. Deborah Whyman is settling into her first term in the state House. It hasn't been an easy first term, with a state school funding crisis facing her and other legislators.

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

When Deborah Whyman sits at her desk — seat number one, to be exact — in the state House, she can look up to her right at a painting of one of Michigan's past explorers.

"If you stare at this long enough, you can see a sunken ship," said the Republican state representative. And it's supposed to be a true story. What's also supposed to be true is that Whyman, a Canton resident, and her colleagues in the state House have been told not to leave Lansing as the bell begins to toll on completion of Gov. John Engler's school reform package. Some of the bills went to the taxation committee, others to the labor and local government committees. The goal, Whyman said, is to get the education bills out on the floor sometime in November.

Whyman sits on four committees: education, taxation, human services and children, and house oversight and ethics. She's also a member of the subcommittee on small business tax and the higher education task force.

"There's a lot to learn up here," said Whyman, who was sworn in Jan. 13. "There is so much reading. I've been learning the tax code and the school code, which is 1½ inches thick. You have to read it more than once."

A lot of work, yes. But Whyman says she had no expectations when she was elected and replaced veteran legislator Democrat Jim Kosteva.

"It's been a most exciting and frustrating experience. I'm surprised at the hours we put in. This isn't a job. It's a life. I'm usually up at 6 a.m. and I rarely get home before midnight."

But Whyman says she can live with that. In fact, she plans to seek election to a second two-year term next year.

Sitting on her desk when she arrives on the floor of the state House in the morning is a wooden box of papers, including bills and other reading materials. She's also given a schedule of bills up for vote on that

Their pet sitting business keeps these women hopping

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

So you might ask, what's it like caring for piranhas?

"There's never a dull moment," said Susan Luszczyński, who operates Professional Pet Sitters in Canton. "I prefer this to an office. Every day is different. Even with the pets I see daily, something happens that's different."

OK. You may not want to get too close to the piranhas, but pets are pets. And that's Luszczyński's stock in trade. With friend Marilyn Whiteman, also of Canton, Luszczyński took something she did for family and friends — babysitting for pets — and turned it into a business this year.

"I thought there was business potential here," Luszczyński said. "It's a service for people who have to go out of town or can't get home to let their pets out or feed them."

Luszczyński went to school for nursing. Her love of animals and a growing love for what she's doing now, however, are prompting her to finish up and put her classes toward a veterinarian technician major. "With this I can take what I really love and combine as a business opportunity," she said. The concept is pretty simple. Anyone who needs pet sitting gives Luszczyński a call, explains how many pets and what is needed to care for the animals.

"Everyone has pets now. Cats now are even more popular. The pets become family members. People are taking their animals more seriously," Whiteman said.

That means they don't like to think of their pets at home all alone while they're at work or out-of-town. Luszczyński and Whiteman will let pets outside, feed them, make sure they have water, and generally care for them in their owners' absence. "We can give people peace of mind that we are there," said Luszczyński, a Canton Chamber of Commerce member.

But there's more than the practical items to a visit. Luszczyński and Whiteman play with the animals and give them the human companionship that's missing during the day while their owners are gone.

Plymouth Township OKs natural beauty road tag

A section of Joy Road on the Plymouth Township-Canton boundary could be the first county road to win natural beauty road designation.

A group of supporters of that designation made its case to Plymouth Township trustees on Tuesday — a presentation complete with slide show and musical soundtrack.

Trustees voted unanimously to recommend that natural beauty road designation be given. Now, the county government must hold a public hearing within six months and vote on whether to make the designation official.

To stop the process, 51 percent of property owners along the road can petition within 45 days for the designation to be withdrawn.

But that seems unlikely, as 800 area homeowners signed petitions favoring the effort.

Canton Township trustees earlier this month also approved the natural road designation.

The roadways that backers are seeking to have dedicated are Joy between Ridge and Ann Arbor Road; Napier from Warren north to Ann Arbor Road; Ridge from Warren north to Joy; and Gyle from Ridge east one-half mile.

Plymouth Township Supervisor Kathleen Keen-McCarthy said the natural beauty road designation doesn't stop development along a road.

"Essentially, it puts another step in the process," she said, as the county government must convene a public hearing on proposals for development along the road.

"It gives the public an opportunity to put a little more input into the process," she said.

Superior Township, which shares the Napier boundary with Canton, has also given public support to the homeowners' effort.

Man hospitalized after fall from van

COP CALLS

A 42-year-old man went to Annapolis Hospital after he fell from the running board of a speeding van on Michigan Ave. Oct. 16, according to a Canton police report.

The man told police that he and his girlfriend were at a gas station on Michigan Avenue when he stepped on the running board of his van to talk to her as she sat in the driver's seat.

The woman reportedly accelerated and drove away with him hanging on. She sped up as she traveled east on Michigan. When she turned north on Lotz, the man fell off.

Witnesses saw the incident and said the woman was driving fast without lights on and did not stop to see if the man was all right after he fell off.

They last saw the van traveling west on Michigan Avenue and north on I-275.

The man, who was found bleeding from his head, refused treatment by the Canton Fire Department and was taken

Threat received

Canton Public Library officials received a message left on a computer terminal in which a man threatened to burn down the library, 1200 S. Canton Center Road, according to a Canton police report.

The message said he was upset he was no longer able to check out books from the library, even though he was willing to pay the fines. The man said he hated everyone who runs the library and plans to burn it down. "You should be happy there is a fire department so close," the man wrote on the computer.

Haunted house opens

Get ready to have a spine-chilling visit at the "223 House of Terror," sponsored by the Plymouth Y.M.C.A. Leaders Training School, 6-10 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

"We are contributing to helping and running it," said Brian Shapona, president of LTS. "The profits will go to LTS and the Y.M.C.A. in the middle of the summer we go to a leadership camp."

Organizing and sponsoring the haunted house is part of what LTS students do. Students in grades 6-12 may participate in LTS. Community service is part of LTS requirements. The hauntings will be in the Grange Building on South Union, behind the Penn Theater, and across from the Y.M.C.A. at 248 Union.

The public is invited to the haunted house, which is geared to children age 6 and older, as well as adults. Admission is $3 for adults, $2 for children.

"You really get to know these animals. They look forward to seeing you," Luszczynski said. "I think it's better for them to stay in their own environment. They get stressed out. Some animals don't eat."

The women's love of animals goes further than pet sitting. They are sponsoring their first annual "Pet Food Pick-Up," with all contributions going to the Michigan Humane Society and the Michigan Anti-Cruelty Society.

The fund-raiser is for less fortunate animals. It provides people who would like to give to the two organizations the convenience of having someone pick up their donations, Luszczynski said.

Items requested for donation are canned and dry dog and cat food, Gaines Burgers patties, cloth collars and leashes. Also needed are grooming clippers and blades.

Luszczynski and Whiteman will pick up the donations the first Saturdays of November and December, Nov. 6 and Dec. 4. Anyone who would like to donate should call Luszczynski at 397-0010 to schedule a pickup date and time. Donors are welcome to leave their contributions on their porches.

Professional Pet Sitters aims to collect 500 pounds of food for the two animal organizations.

Luszczynski got the idea for a food fund-raiser when she stopped by the Michigan Humane Society to buy holiday cards. "It's heartbreaking. It's a contrast to what we see. Marilyn and I thought, 'What can we do to help them.'"

The women, who are insured and bonded, usually charge $8 a visit, which includes the care of all of a person's pets.

"All of our customers really love their pets and take good care of them," Luszczynski said, adding Professional Pet Sitters will care for all pets except those that are illegal in the United States and exotic pets.

Reform from page 1A

its impact might be small since many other position statements from various educational groups have been submitted and legislators "won't be able to digest all of these," he said. "And that's a shame."

Trustee David Artley reminded the board that a local cost-savings plan must be formed quickly regardless of what happens with school reform.

"We need to get back at cost containment issues," he said. "We owe that to the people of this community."

Musician will perform

Ann Arbor's "song sister," Julie Austin, will perform for students at Bird Elementary School on Friday, Nov. 5.

She will perform a variety of songs using an array of instruments, including the guitar, banjo, dulcimer, flute and harp.

Song Sister will perform for kindergarten through second-grade students at 1 p.m. and for third- through fifth-grade students at 2 p.m. The assembly, sponsored and paid for by the Bird Elementary School Parent-Teacher Organization, will be in the gym.

For more information, call Claudia Kulnis, Bird Elementary School principal, at 451-6505.

day. One of the bills is hers. It has to do with food stamp trafficking and tougher penalties.

In fact, because it was her first bill, she had to provide her colleagues with a gift — that's the rule. Hers was milk and cookies for everyone.

When Whyman or any new legislator arrives in Lansing for the first time, they aren't given a "how to" book. Each legislator is pretty much on his or her own to learn the procedures. "Here you sink or swim. There is nothing written anywhere. It is survival of the fittest," Whyman said.

She admits it's not easy to keep up with everything. "I'm getting a lot more versed on the issues. I don't have a problem saying 'I don't know, but I'll find out.'"

A former data processor, Whyman would love to get her hands on a project in which she can create a procedure manual for the state House, not to mention computerizing the entire process, as it is in the state Senate.

If Whyman wants to amend a bill, she's got to get it written up. Then it's to the copying machine for 114 copies. Then the copies have to be put on everyone's desk, including a certain number for the House clerk.

"Once you get to the floor, the work has been done," Whyman said, referring to research and analysis. "You have two days on second readings. You have ample time to read through things. But you have to have friends here or you'll never survive."

"I think people are starting to get angry," Whyman said, referring to taxes and other issues. "There needs to be more accountability."

She scales new heights for area Tip Toppers Club

BY KEVIN BROWN
STAFF WRITER

Things are looking up for Sue Braun.

The Plymouth Township resident is president this year of the Tip Toppers Club — the metro Detroit social club for tall men and women.

And earlier this month, she was crowned queen of the club at the Annual Miss Tall Detroit pageant in Southfield.

Members have long been weary of so-called humor — "How's the weather up there?" or "Do you play basketball?" — at tall folks' expense.

"We say, 'No, do you play miniature golf?'" said past club president Barbara Turgan.

To be eligible for membership for the club, founded in the 1940s, women must be at least 5 feet 10 inches and men 6 feet 2 inches. Members must be 21 or older.

"My mom told me about it back when I was about 20 years old," Braun said. But it was a few years later, after she was divorced, that Braun recalled the club.

"I wanted to meet people. I wondered if it was still around. I called information," Braun said.

It was just two years ago when Braun attended her first gathering of the social club — a Halloween costume gala.

"The party was wonderful. I have always been basically shy, and they pulled me out of the kitchen and got me involved," Braun said.

Club membership is steady at around 70. Members are of all ages, but most are single.

The club meets monthly. Unlike some social clubs, there is no one set place to meet.

"We have dinners, go out to the lake, play volleyball. We meet on different sides of Detroit to involve as many members as possible," Braun said.

Women club members even host teas.

When they're with others of similar stature, tall people don't have to put up with the usual

Tip Topper Queen: Sue Braun of Plymouth Township is president and has been chosen as queen of a metro club for tall people.

staring they endure when out in public, Braun said.

"I remember being at a (tall persons) convention and thinking I was one of the shorter people in the room," said Braun, who is nearly 6 feet and 1 inch tall.

During the talent portion of the Oct. 9 pageant, Braun did a skit on being tall, backed by Frank Sinatra's recording of "High Hopes."

As queen, part of Braun's responsibility in the coming year is to work with the club committee offering scholarships to high school students.

The club also raises money for the National Marfan Foundation, to fight a sometimes fatal tissue disorder that mostly afflicts tall people.

"We have different events that we raise money for and send them the checks — car washes, raffles," Braun said.

Meanwhile, the club hosts social events nearly every weekend. For information, call 458-7887.

Portly pumpkin gets kids' attention

A 400-pound pumpkin was the center of attention on Tuesday for first- and second-grade students from Sally Evans' class at Hulsing Elementary School when they visited The Roadside in Canton, a stand owned by the Schmidt family.

Students weighed the pumpkin, determined its circumference and estimated the number and size of seeds it contained. Led by Evans, the class will write a book about The Roadside and what the Schmidt family's business offers to the Canton and Plymouth communities.

The Roadside is at 43125 Joy, east of Morton Taylor in Canton. Richard and Nancy Schmidt, along with their children Craig, Kimberly, Mark, Tina and Charlie, have owned and operated the roadside stand for the past 25 years. All of the Schmidt children attended the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools and Charlie Schmidt is now an eighth grader at East Middle School. The fami-

'Charter schools' plan gets new look in House

By TIM RICHARD STAFF WRITER

Two veteran lawmakers gave Gov. John Engler's conservative "charter schools" idea a bipartisan shove toward the middle of the road.

"We've brought this a long way from the original bills," said Rep. William Keith, D-Garden City. "Charter schools will be called public school academies," said Rep. William Bryant, R-Grosse Pointe.

To the dissatisfaction of conservative Republicans and labor-leaning Democrats, Keith and Bryant, chairmen of the House Education Committee, Tuesday advanced their substitute bills.

The committee "adopted" the two bills' substitutes — meaning these will become the working agenda items as Engler's versions were scrapped. A vote to report them to the House floor may come within a week.

"The bills suited moderate Republican Lyn Bankes of Redford just fine. "This is more in line with what my school districts want," said Bankes, a yes vote.

Democrat Justine Barns of Westland opposes vouchers, charter schools or academies in any way, shape or form. "I don't buy the idea of a parallel school system. What kind of hybrid are we trying to create?" said Barns, a consistent no vote. Barns said supporters are trying to use public money to create a private school system.

Republican Deborah Whyman of Canton cast a "protest vote" against the revision. "The original plan would have allowed a very loose governing body to run them (charter schools). It was good — managed competition. The substitute guts charter schools and allows local school boards to charter them. I don't know of any school board that would authorize a charter. They wouldn't vote for their own demise."

"It's got to appeal to the center," said co-author Keith. He revealed that a bipartisan group he called "the tenacious 12, not the dirty dozen," did the revising the previous evening.

That tactic bothered Republican Jerry Vorva of Plymouth. "I don't like that style. I wonder if they gave the governor's proposal a fair shot. I don't think they did," said Vorva, a freshman moderate.

Churches out

Keith said Engler's prohibition against church involvement in charter schools was tightened in the Keith-Bryant academy version.

Any person involved in seeking a charter for an academy may "not have any organizational or contractual affiliation with a church or other religious organization," it says.

Academies either would have to offer the state Board of Education's "core curriculum" or state in writing why it wasn't offered.

That change bothered Rep. Michael Goschka, R-Brant, the Christian fundamentalist who toppled former Speaker Lew Doldak last year. "I liked the original bills. They give the parents true choice," said Goschka, who voted against several.

Bryant said the new bill calls for provisional certification of teachers and asks the state Board to set up a "fast track" system of state certification. Engler's plan allowed use of non-certified teachers. Religious conservatives deplore state teacher certification and all curriculum laws except the teaching of sexual abstinence.

Other changes:

- Academies must "emphasize skills rather than rote learning," said Bryant.
- "Carnegie units" — measures of hours of class time on a subject — would be scrapped. Outcomes based education (OBE) would become the norm.
- Community colleges and universities would have a right to offer credit courses in high schools.
- School breakfast programs would be required unless the academy could justify, in writing, not offering them.

Senate seat serenades ex-rep

By RALPH R. ECHTINAW STAFF WRITER

Former U.S. Rep. William Brodhead, who represented Redford Township, Southfield, Lathrup Village, Farmington and Farmington Hills from 1975 to 1982, is giving "serious consideration" to a run for the U.S. Senate next year.

Although the Bingham Farms Democrat hasn't formally declared his candidacy, he talks like a man who has already decided. "In the course of the campaign, I'll be talking about the issues," he said.

The only declared Democrats to date for the seat currently held by Don Riegler are Lana Pollack, a state senator from Ann Arbor, and Carl Maringa, the Macomb County prosecutor. Brodhead said he'll make a decision in the "next month or so."

Wayne County commissioner Bryan Amann, D-Wayne, who also represents Canton, said Brodhead "will be a formidable candidate," but may have burned bridges with remarks in 1982 to the effect that "you've got to be a crook to remain here (in Washington D.C.)."

Today Brodhead says he believed then and still believes that "the vast majority of people in politics are people of integrity."

As a well-entrenched and popular congressman, Brodhead surprised many when he declined to run for re-election in 1982.

Now 52 years old, Brodhead has worked since January 1983 for the Detroit law firm of Plunkett & Cooney, often lobbying former colleagues in Congress on behalf of clients.

Winners blazing new trails

How do you pick the best from 400 posters? With great difficulty.

"There really are no losers in this contest. Each child gets a certificate from the Canton Fire Department for their submittal," said Linda Shapona, Canton Chamber of Commerce executive director.

For the 15th consecutive year, the chamber, in conjunction with the Canton Fire Department, hosted a fire prevention contest for elementary school children. This year, students were asked to draw and color posters illustrating the theme of "Get Out! Stay Out!" to recognize National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 4-10.

"It's to reiterate fire safety and prevention for the children. Chil-

Legislator seeks hike in tax exemption

The allowable single business tax exemption for Michigan small businesses will be increased from $100,000 to $250,000 under legislation introduced last week in the state House, according to Republican Rep. Deborah Whyman, who co-sponsored the bill. The tax rate is based on business income, compensation, interest paid and depreciation, with deductions for new capital investments and number of employees. Whyman said she would like to see the measure added to Gov. John Engler's tax restructuring plan for education. Under the governor's proposal, the single business tax rate is increased 2.35 percent to 2.85 percent. The increase is expected to raise $419 million for schools in 1994-95. "Unfortunately, with this increase we are hurting those companies that can't afford it," Whyman said. "Small businesses employ a large number of people and are most responsible for cre-dren illustrated the posters with the fire safety information they have learned. Firefighters who visit the schools often ask kids to imagine what would happen to Mejer and Kmart if someone played inside with matches. Sure enough, many of the posters showed the result. "We feel it's important for the business community to contribute to this. Fire safety is important to the community. And our kids are our future," Shapona said.

Winners and second and third place finishers were chosen at a special ceremony in Canton Township hall Oct. 19. McDonald's of Canton, Livonia Trophy and Screen Printing and The Art Store provided refreshments and services for the awards ceremony. # United Way

It's time to act on proposal

A proposal by Canton Township Supervisor Tom Yack to start a new western Wayne County United Way may have been ill-timed, but it's a goal to be pursued by Canton, Plymouth and Northville. The proposal to form a committee to look into a Canton-Plymouth-Northville United Way comes at a time when the agency's annual fund drive is under way and during a year in which the United Way is suffering a black eye from questionable spending by its national management.

However, those shouldn't cast a cloud over Yack's idea for a western Wayne County United Way. As Yack said, the three communities have similar demographics.

But there's more to it than that. Shared police and fire services for the three communities have long been discussed, but have really gotten nowhere. Union contracts for police and firefighters are always going to be a problem in such a move, as is the natural reaction from residents to protect their turf.

Formation of a three-community United Way could help pave the way for cooperation on shared services.

But back to the services provided by United Way. Canton, a community of nearly 60,000, has been a stepchild as far as the United Way of Southeastern Michigan is concerned.

Being a bedroom community, Canton residents donate money to United Way drives that don't serve Canton Township. The Canton Community Foundation has set up a program whereby residents donating to United Way drives can allocate money for the foundation which provides some of the services usually provided by United Way in other communities.

However, we're certain not everybody is aware of that agreement and putting together a western Wayne County United Way would simplify the matter. Also, having one funding agency for the various social programs in the Plymouth-Canton-Northville area would be a benefit in getting those programs under control.

There are competing groups doing the same things in all three communities and some consolidation is in order. Currently, anti-drug programs in Plymouth and Canton are undergoing streamlining.

That should be extended to other groups and agencies in the three communities.

Yack has taken that important first step. It's now time for others in the area to follow his lead. A western Wayne County United Way makes sense.

Weave arts into a quality life

The arts and humanities enhance the quality of life in our communities. They help bring out the best in people, stimulating creativity of the mind and soothing the soul.

Tonight, representatives from our area will be honored at the 1993 Governors' Arts Awards. Marshall Fredericks, Louis Redstone and Jacobson's Stores Inc. are among the recipients who will be presented with awards.

Fredericks is a Birmingham resident. Redstone is founder and chairman of Redstone Architects Inc. of Southfield, which used to have offices in Livonia. Jacobson's stores, including those in Birmingham and Livonia, have created artistic surroundings for the public.

And, as National Arts and Humanities Month wanes, the state is launching a public awareness campaign. Residents are being challenged to explore how the arts and humanities are woven into their daily activities.

The campaign's theme is "The Arts and Humanities — There's Something In It For You." Indeed, the arts aren't just objects for the wealthy to acquire, or for the public to be in contact with only in hushed museums or concert halls.

The arts are considerations in decisions people make about where to live, and in decisions businesses make about a new location and/or where they may hold a conference. Arts events generate revenue in several areas, including parking and restaurants.

But the arts represent another kind of investment. A youngster who is exposed to the arts may be inspired to be creative and have a broader view of the world. The arts teach about society and open lines of communication.

There are also opportunities for our residents to become more involved in the arts.

One way of merging the arts with the public was illustrated in Southfield with Michigan Outdoor Sculpture IV. The exhibit of large-scale works by Michigan sculptors took place on the grounds of the Southfield Civic Center from June to October. Visitors could view the pieces from many angles and touch them.

In other communities, such as Birmingham and through the Paint Creek Center for the Arts in Rochester, art works are regularly displayed in public places and changed every few months to a year.

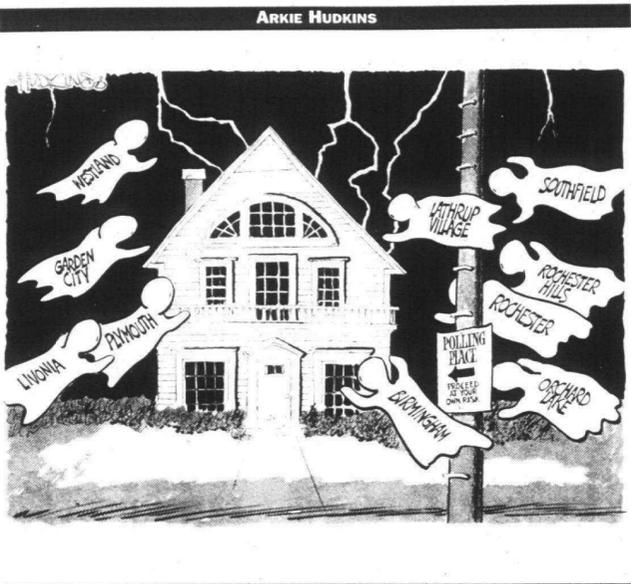

Oakland Community College and Schoolcraft College have strong programs for teaching the arts. OCC is in the process of forming a county-wide arts council, and a Picture Lady Program operates in some area schools.

Docent tours at the Cranbrook Academy of Art Museum in Bloomfield Hills and the Detroit Institute of Arts help visitors understand the works on display. Docents are volunteers who share their love of art.

Programs also could bring youngsters and nursing home residents to local art galleries and meet artists. It's one thing to read a biography, but quite another thing to personally meet and talk with an artist. New buildings around town could suggest opportunities for architectural tours as well.

Another contribution of the arts is sparking civic pride. Symphonies, including those in Birmingham-Bloomfield, Farmington Hills, Farmington, Livonia, Redford and Plymouth bear their respective communities in their names. They provide opportunities for novice players to learn from the professionals they work alongside.

The arts add to our towns in subtle, immeasurable ways. We need to continue to guarantee that with our tangible support.

A no vote on signs

Ignorant, hypocritical and a livelihood dependent upon "cluttering front lawns." Whoa. Why not remove the sugar coating? Okay, okay — so I'll buy the argument that a political sign may allow a homeowner to display support for a particular candidate. But, on the other hand, how many candidates do vacant lots, utility poles and empty buildings support? Signs strictly for name recognition? Well, maybe. (Two out of three of those spots are much better served by real-estate signs anyway — oops).

Political signs further serving the electorate by making them aware of an impending election. "Vote November 2" might do the same thing.

Newspaper interviews, candidates nights, direct-mail literature, door-to-door canvassing — efforts designed to inform and educate. These are the activities of which good campaigns are made and with which our candidates have done so very well.

Too much hoopla about signs? Regrettably so. A good reason to withhold supporting a candidate? Certainly there are more important considerations.

Fred Hill, Plymouth

Sign wars

Last Friday evening someone "signed" two signs from my front lawn. I've been sitting by my telephone and rummaging through my mail waiting for the ransom demands. How much will it cost me to get them back? More importantly, will my signs be returned unharmed without marks, scuffs, tears or other injury? Are they leaning up against some wall in a darkened garage, or worse, broken and crumpled and stuffed in a "politically correct" recyclable trash bag? Although I mourn the loss of my signs, I take solace in the fact that I know where I can get two more replacement signs. On second thought, I think I'll get four... or perhaps eight.

Bob Mundt, Plymouth

Challenge candidates

The candidates for Plymouth City Commission have stated their position on many issues of importance. Assuming that all the candidates were honest, the positions on the issues can help in determining which candidate we will choose.

The difficulty is not only determining who is being sincere, but in determining which candidates would serve us best for issues that are not foreseeable. That is why an understanding of each candidate's political philosophy can be so important.

Is a candidate truly interested in the welfare of all the residents of Plymouth, the welfare of certain politically powerful groups within the community, or only their own advancement? Which candidates truly believe in democracy and that whenever possible, the people of Plymouth should be left to determine what is best for themselves?

Some politicians (Democrats and Republicans) sincerely think that they know how to take care of us better than we do. Especially when it comes to how we should spend our money. This is true for our own city as it is for the nation.

One of the incumbent candidates who is running for re-election voted for city ownership of a privately held airport. Two petition drives were rejected by the commission at that time, with over three times the needed signatures to put the issue before the city voters.

What was the city commission afraid of? Were they afraid of the democratic process? Who's interest were they watching out for? If it was the general public's interest, why not support an election on the issue? After all was said and done, a third petition that couldn't be denied, resulted in a 3-to-1 vote to prevent ownership of an airport by the city without the electorate's approval.

The same city commissioners filed a suit against the group that was attempting to put the airport issue before the electorate. It's a new tactic used by some politicians to stop the participation of the public in government. Threaten those people who want to stop government from interfering in their lives with a costly lawsuit. Remember, many politicians are lawyers and may not pay the same court cost as most of us.

Don't let this kind of intimidation stop you from participating in our city government. Ask each candidate how they handle political views that differ from their own. Find out what the candidates have done to increase public participation in our community.

We haven't been afraid to fight for our freedom in the past, and we shouldn't be afraid to participate in our government, or to challenge the city commissioners candidates now or after the election.

Halloween falls prey to politically correct educators

We've all heard about political correctness. It's that priggish way of looking at the world engaged in by overly earnest college students and professors who have read too much Sartre.

It's OK at college. It's what we all expect from young people when they first come into contact with the ivory tower of academic life.

But now it has hit the Plymouth-Canton schools. We're not talking about banning certain words; we're talking about banning an entire holiday of sorts, a tradition that is fun for kids.

The principal at Fiegel Elementary School has Halloween in the sights of her politically correct rifle. It seems that trick-or-treating is too violent and must be replaced by a Harvest Festival and peace-making activities, whatever those are.

So at Fiegel this week the kids won't be dressed up as Count Dracula, too much blood and violence; hobos, or Beavis and Butthead, the two MTV teenage cartoon characters who made it into the school's newsletter.

Here's what it had to say: "Costumes promoting violence and sometimes vulgarity, Devil's Night, the rising popularity of Beavis and Butthead and their glorification of underachievement, fire starting, torture of animals and paint thinner sniffing all call for a response from educators and the school community about the values and standards we hold for our children."

We didn't make this up, folks. At a certain point humor fails and things lapse into self-parody. There has been a major-league lapse at Fiegel. But then again, most political correctness and educational double talk falls into the area of self-parody.

JEFF COUNTS

■ The bright side is that parents can see though it. We received numerous calls from Plymouth-Canton parents complaining about the scrapping of Halloween at Fiegel. It's encouraging.

The bright side is that parents can see though it. We received numerous calls from Plymouth-Canton parents complaining about the scrapping of Halloween at Fiegel. It's encouraging.

If somebody doesn't do something, these sensitive educators will eventually take aim at other holidays.

Christmas is coming up. Just think about it in politically correct terms. "It's the glorification of a white child as the son of God who was born in a barn to a mother who was a virgin. We all know that can't happen. And the rest is nothing but racism and Christian propaganda."

Then there's Easter. "Look at the violence. Jesus is put up on a cross to die. Kids will see it just like they watch Beavis and Butthead and soon they'll be nailing their friends to the cross."

Or what about Memorial Day? If you're politically correct, it shouldn't even be on the calendar. "It glorifies violence. Children are forced to think about men and women being shot and killed."

The same holds true for Martin Luther King Jr. Day. For the politically correct, it should be banned. "He was shot, wasn't he? And doesn't that glorify violence as a way to resolve political and social issues?"

Being politically correct isn't being sensitive; it's being Victorian. If we stay on this road in the schools we will spread ignorance, not knowledge.

Jeff Counts is the editor of the Plymouth and Canton Observer newspapers and loves to pass out candy to kids on Halloween. He can be reached at 459-2700.

Engler borrows club from MEA to keep teacher in line

Teachers are a likeable group. It's not nice to cut 'em up. But sometimes their union leads with its jugular.

Gov. John Engler has a chart in his book on reforming Michigan schools that makes fascinating reading. It shows teachers' salaries on the national average and in seven Midwestern states. Michigan teachers lead the pack at $41,000. The national average is about $35,000.

Another chart covering the years 1982 to 1994 shows consumer price inflation at 55.8 percent and school funding per pupil at 109.4 percent. Message: We don't have the world's best schools — only the most expensive.

Engler has launched an all-out attack on the teachers union, proposing union-free charter schools, greater use of non-certified teachers and an end to the "closed shop."

In the middle of this bloodbath, a letter written last March by officials of the Wayne County MEA to Troy Education Association leaders has surfaced in Lansing. Around here the letter is old news, but it has become a hot item in the Capitol Building.

It seems a gentleman from Troy sent a copy to Engler on Oct. 7, two days after the governor's special message on education reform. Copies also went to Democratic and Republican legislative leaders in both parties.

Republicans seized on it gleefully, circulating it to the media just as committees were taking a look at details of Engler's bills. It's an embarrassment to Democrats because MEA officials are a structural part of the Democratic Party, even though MEA has a hefty dose of members who vote Republican.

It seems that after going on strike in 1989 for 6 percent annual increases, Troy EA this year settled for annual increases of 1.5, 3.25 and 3.5 percent over three years, and the union brothers in Wayne County didn't like it.

As you read the letter, ask yourself: Are teachers unions really interested in teaching and kids? Here goes:

TIM RICHARD

■ In the middle of this bloodbath, a letter written last March by officials of the Wayne County MEA to Troy Education Association leaders has surfaced in Lansing. Around here the letter is old news, but it has become a hot item in the Capitol Building.

"I am writing this letter to protest the harmful actions that you have taken in agreeing to a pitifully low three-year contract with the Troy Board of Education.

"I feel compelled to charge you with eroding the future of teachers everywhere, but especially those in Macomb, Oakland and Wayne County, with such irresponsible action.

"Your total disregard for the wellbeing of all teachers is glaringly clear, for not only did you decide on your own without consulting any other leaders within a reasonable vicinity about the impact on them of such a low settlement, but you accepted such a detrimental settlement so early in the bargaining season. That is reprehensible.

"Wayne County MEA/NEA has a highly-developed sense of unionism. In that vein, we supported you during your last strike, we sent money to help bolster teachers' morale, we came to the aid of an ally. What was all that for?"

"Is it that, when the going gets tough, you feel perfectly comfortable in giving up all that you have fought for in order to take the line of least resistance? Where is your sense of unionism and regard for fellow teachers that your leadership should exhibit?"

"If you were going to take a bath in such a calculating way, you could at least have battled it out for a year in the buildings, gone without a contract, let other districts around you use their intestinal fortitude and courage to battle for you and then taken the horrible settlement when it wouldn't have hurt so many people."

With friends like the Wayne County MEA, teachers don't need more enemies.

Politicos could lead way to days of racial mistrust

Quite possibly, Coleman Young's worst habit during his nearly 20 years as mayor of Detroit was to play the racial card, demonizing "the suburbs" when it suited his purposes.

It was a bad habit because it regularly and gratuitously blocked any chance that the city and the suburbs might work together.

Where common sense might well have seen common need and shared purpose, Mayor Young regularly saw plots and malice. Faced with brilliantly verbalized suspicion punctuated by bouts of political paranoia, suburbanites found it easy to wash their hands of the core city.

The predictable result: Detroit became firmly entrenched as among the worst big cities in the country, unfortunately labeled as "America's first Third World city."

So when Young decided not to seek another term, a lot of people — suburbanites and city dwellers alike — hoped his departure might help change things. How fragile that hope!

Consider this sequence of events in the campaign between Sharon McPhail and Dennis Archer:

■ McPhail charges Archer is the tool of unnamed "outside interests."

■ McPhail repeatedly suggests Oakland County Executive L. Brooks Patterson has endorsed and contributed to Archer's campaign.

■ At a prayer breakfast for McPhail, Rev. Charles Adams, pastor of Hartford Memorial Baptist Church, talks about "outside forces" wanting to undermine black Detroiters. He then produces the racist line about suburbanites wanting a mayor who "will shuffle when he's not going anywhere, scratch when he's not itching and grin when he's not tickled."

■ Patterson responds with a tongue-in-cheek fund-raiser for McPhail at Duggan's Irish Pub in Royal Oak. A lot of people had a lot of laughs, only partly without malice, although Patterson does talk about "mutual and compelling interests on both sides of Eight Mile."

PHILIP POWER

■ If this kind of stuff doesn't stop, we're going to be back to the bad old days in a hurry.

If this kind of stuff doesn't stop, we're going to be back to the bad old days in a hurry.

During the course of my work with this newspaper, I see a lot of people who live and work in the suburbs, and I have yet to meet anybody who wants to control a place in as much trouble as Detroit.

Some are dismayed at the deterioration of the city where they were born and for which they carry great residual affection. Others are troubled that the long-term fate of great regional cultural institutions such as the Detroit Institute of Arts or the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is held hostage to political expedience.

Still others see that the economic health of the entire southeastern Michigan area will inevitably depend on things required for both city and suburb: effective mass transit, good schools, a trained work force, safe streets and a climate of civility.

That's what politics in this area ought to be about, not the bad habits of a departing mayor. Philip Power is chairman of the company that owns this newspaper. His touch-tone voice mail number is (313) 953-2047 ext. 1880.

Chiefs win dual meet

Plymouth Canton puts its dual-meet record at 8-2-1 in girls swimming Tuesday with a non-league victory over Brighton, 111-75. Jill Nellis won the breaststroke (1:08.71) and assisted in two relay victories, and Susan Pritchard won the 200 freestyle (2:11.58) and the butterfly (1:07.03). Jill Barnes, Mellis, Sara Larson and Suzan Daoust won the medley relay (2:00.92), and the winning 200 freestyle relay team (1:46.92) consisted of Mellis, Beth Berger, Larson and Daoust. The Chiefs also got a first place from Katie McWhirter in the 500 freestyle (5:44.28).

Hawks win state title

Lauren Metaj scored the tying and winning goals as the Michigan Hawks '80, an under-14 girls soccer team, captured the Michigan State Youth Soccer Association championship last weekend at Canton's Heritage Park. The Hawks defeated the Hawks '81 team 3-2 in overtime in the title match. Metaj was named most valuable player for the tournament. The Hawks, who qualified for the regional next June, reached the final with a 4-2 shootout win over the Canton Strikers in the semifinal. Team members include Jenny Barker, Shannon Buckler, Allison Campbell, Leah McGrath and Melanie Siler from Livonia; Mia Sarkesian and Missy Simons, Canton; Allyson Brodie, Birmingham; Lori Carbott, Jillian Dart, Metaj and Jackie Rompel, Northville; Sue Desmond, South Lyon; Laurin Hendrickson, Milford; and Felicia Formosa and Nicole LePlae, Brighton. Paul Dugan of Farmington Hills is the coach.

Hoff named tourney MVP

Mari Hoff of Canton, a member of the Plymouth Salem High School girls soccer team, was named the most valuable player of the Snickers State Youth Cup at the Canton Recreation Center Sunday. Hoff led the Michigan Hawks '77 to the Cup championship. The Hawks defeated the Troy Dynamics 3-1 in the final and will represent Michigan in the under-18 division at the Region II tournament next June in Rockford, Ill.

Ski club registration

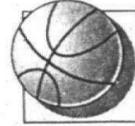

Registration for the Plymouth-Canton Ski and Snowboard Club will be 4-8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 9, in the Canton High School cafeteria. The club is open to all sixth through 12th grade students who live in the Plymouth-Canton Community School District. The club had scheduled 16 trips to Mount Brighton during the winter. The $70 registration fee includes all transportation costs, club identification card, supervision for all trips, the first four lift tickets and group lessons. The fee increases to $90 after Nov. 9. The first two outings are scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Dec. 10-11, weather permitting. The club will meet behind Salem High School and will be transported on school buses. Those requesting additional information should visit the Community Education Office in Room 130 of Canton High School or call 451-6660.

Rebounding key to Canton victory

Plymouth Canton's Lady Chiefs would have made Dennis Rodman proud Tuesday, putting on a rebounding clinic to gain a 65-51 basketball victory over visiting Livonia Stevenson in a showdown for first place in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

Both teams are 14-1 overall, but Canton now leads the WLAA with a 10-0 record. Stevenson, meanwhile, slips to 9-1.

Canton's relentless work inside may be the understatement of the night. The Spartans got dizzy trying to seal off the Chiefs, and out-rebounded Stevenson by an average margin of 4 to 1.

"We got destroyed on the boards," said Stevenson coach Wayne Henry. "They kept shooting the loose girl in from the perimeter and often it was Erica Anderson. She found the seams and was able to slip in through a number of times. You have to give her credit."

Anderson, a senior center, finished with 16 points and 12 rebounds.

But she wasn't the only Canton player who found her way in-and-around the basket.

Cousin Britta Anderson, who also made her presence known, tallied 19 points to lead the Chiefs in scoring.

"Everybody was pumped up because we knew Stevenson was the biggest competition we had going in the league," Britta said. "It's nervous energy, but a good feeling."

"Rebounding is one of our main goals. The only way you're going to get boards is to get position. It started in the summer. And we work on it 10 minutes every day in practice just in the low post."

Canton was able to overcome a 28-27 halftime deficit and a brilliant first-half performance by Stevenson's Mo Drabicki.

The senior point-guard scored 20 of her game-high 25 points during the first 16 minutes of play.

"Mo is Mo, she's always tough," Canton coach Bob Blohm said. "Some of her points came off their half-court offense, but some of the others came in the open court. We just had to do a better job of getting back on defense. At halftime we told our kids we had to somehow slow her down in the transition."

Canton did just that in the third quarter, going on 24-14 run to lead by nine points after three quarters, 51-42.

The Chiefs carried that momentum into the final quarter.

Becky Vachow's three-pointer with 6:13 left gave Canton a commanding 55-42 advantage, as Stevenson couldn't recover.

And to make matters worse, the Spartans lost their best rebounder on the night, junior forward Ann Marie Aquino (12 points), who retired to the bench with her fifth personal foul.

"The referees let them play," Henry said. "But you can't play that physical and go through the third and fourth quarters with only three fouls (Canton's total for the half). Our post-up girls are going to have to do a better job of controlling their girls

Salem topples Churchill in district soccer

BY BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

Plymouth Salem put a forward back for defensive purposes, but in the process moved a step forward in the state Class A boys soccer tournament.

The Rocks pulled off the upset Wednesday, turning back state-ranked Livonia Churchill 2-1 to earn a spot in Saturday's district championship game at Northville. The opponent will be upstart Novi at 1 p.m.

"The intensity level and teamwork are starting to jell," said Salem coach Ken Johnson, whose team is 11-6-2 overall. "The whole team is starting to come together. This was a big one. And now if we can get by on Saturday, we may get to play Stevenson in the regional."

To guard against Churchill's potent counter-attacking offense, Johnson juggled his lineup.

He used only two forwards, flip-flopping Scot Buczek and Mark MacInnis up front, while moving midfielder Mike Kley to sweeper. Scott Pruett changed from sweeper to stopper, and Ronny Mashni played a defensive midfield role.

That left the outside marking to backs Brad Jaskolski and Chris Curry.

Only a freshman, Curry has solidified the defense after being called up from the JV squad on Oct. 2.

"We used the long ball and we had quite a few chances," said Johnson.

"We used three forwards Monday against Walled Lake Western, and we knew Churchill was scouting, so we changed things up. We moved a defender back."

Salem, aided by a stiff breeze at its back, dominated the first half.

MacInnis, the team's leading goal scorer, deflected Mike Kley's free kick into the Churchill net just seven minutes into the match to give the Rocks a 1-0 advantage.

Salem upped its lead to 2-0 when Doug Herriman, on an assist from MacInnis, sent a left-footed shot past a sprawling Charger goalkeeper Brian Stramecki.

"They beat us to the ball continually and we talked about it at half-time," said Churchill first-year coach John Boots, whose team bowed out at 12-4-4 overall. "Their first four steps off the ball were outstanding. It's called combination play. They move off the ball very well."

Junior Charlie Roberts broke the ice for Churchill with 22 minutes to play when his high ball eluded Salem keeper Paul Dood, cutting the deficit to 2-1.

But it was the only mistake Dood would make on the cold, crisp evening.

The goal pumped new life into the Chargers, but they couldn't convert the equalizer.

To make matters worse, Churchill played the final 20 minutes with only 10 players after Kevin Callaway was given his second yellow card. He was ejected after the two teams were involved with some pushing and shoving.

"We didn't play the first half as hard as we did the second half," Boots said. "In fact, we played harder when we were one man short."

"Their keeper (Dood) made a couple of big saves, but we thought, no problem, we have time. And then time ran out."

Chiefs, Rocks offer contrast in styles

BY DAN O'MEARA
STAFF WRITER

The annual Plymouth Canton-Plymouth Salem football game will be a clash of offensive styles as well as rivals Friday night.

Canton has relied foremost on its passing game this year, and Salem depends largely on its triple-option rushing attack.

In light of Canton's 21-0 victory last year, the Rocks know how effective the Chiefs are throwing the football, and Canton returns the same players who had key roles in that game.

Brett Elledge completed nine of 14 passes for 122 yards, including touchdown tosses of 6 and 9 yards to fullback Eric Arnold and wide-out Ryan Ostach, who caught five passes for 74 yards.

"I think that's their stronger suit, but Elledge can run the football, too," Salem coach Tom Moshimer said. "They give you a lot of things to defend."

"Our plan is to put a pressure on the quarterback and not let him out where he can scramble. That's what happened a year ago."

The Chiefs (5-3) forced Salem (4-4) to respect the run last year and were successful passing because of their play-action offense. Junior tailback Lenny Gardner is Canton's top rusher with 423 yards on 127 carries.

"They demonstrated they can run the football against Farmington Harrison," Moshimer said.

"Anybody that can score 21 points on Harrison has to have a decent offense, and they ran the ball effectively in that game."

The Chiefs have two excellent receivers in seniors Ostach (6-3, 200) and Tim Moritz (6-2, 180). Ostach has caught 25 passes for 413 yards and Moritz 30 for 389.

"I think these two are the best receivers we've had since I've been here," Canton coach Bob Khoenle said. "Both are fine receivers. They run well and catch the ball, and both are relatively big."

Elledge has completed 45 of 81 passes for 553 yards, and senior Kevin Shankie was 30-of-59 for 438 yards suffering torn ligaments in his right thumb.

Senior fullback Rob Shepley is Salem's leading rusher with 519 yards on 103 carries. Senior tailback Brian Neal had 301 on 76 attempts, junior quarterback Brad Lear 240 on 48. Shepley has scored five touchdowns, Neal and Lear three each.

"They try to knock you down and run over you," Khoenle said. "But if you get anxious and aren't patient, they'll try to go outside on you. You have to be disciplined."

Another key player for Salem is senior Andy Coburn, who was a backup quarterback but has been valuable as a wide receiver, reserve tailback and kick returner.

Coburn has returned two kickoffs 95 and 98 yards for TDs, breaking Craig Morton's record of 90, and he has caught two TD passes.

The Chiefs can finish the season with a three-game winning streak as they last year. But, unlike the 1989 and '90 games, there will be no playoff berth at stake.

"That doesn't make it any less important," Khoenle said. "It's a good rivalry and a good game to finish the season. We're looking forward to it, and I'm sure they are, too."

Canton recovered from an overtime loss to Monroe in the first game, with its only other losses to playoff-bound opponents Harrison and Northville.

"I think they're better than their record indicates," Moshimer said. "Canton, in any other year, would be a real contender for the (Western Division) title with the team they have."

Salem lost in double overtime to Walled Lake Western last week, and Moshimer believes the Rocks could just as easily be 5-3 if not 6-2 by winning that game and one with Livonia Stevenson.

"I think we'll be ready," Moshimer said. "(The players) understand, if we don't win, we'll be 4-5 and that's not one of our goals."

Wildcats frustrate Chiefs, 2-0

By Dan O'Meara
STAFF WRITER

Novi High School advanced to its first district championship game in boys soccer Wednesday by upsetting host Plymouth Canton 2-0.

The Wildcats (15-3-1) will meet Plymouth Salem in the final at 1 p.m. Saturday at Northville.

The second-round victory might be the biggest win in the history of the Novi program since the Wildcats had never won a district game until last year.

"I don't know what will happen Saturday, but I think we deserve a spot in the top 10 after this one," Novi coach Larry Christoff said.

"(Canton) outplayed us in the middle, but we outthrust them. I have to give my players a lot of credit for staying with these guys. We're not a veteran team, but we deserved this one because of our hustle."

It was a frustrating defeat for the Chiefs (9-9-2), who dominated its first run at the Canton goal. Chris Young dribbled around two defenders on the end line, took the ball to the net and scored.

Late in the first half, Young won a foot race to the ball on a break, dribbled to the goal again and put it in a front for Joe Schmitz to give Novi a 2-0 lead.

"We dominated them down there, but they were determined not to let the ball go in the net," Smith said.

"We tend to play to the level of the other team, let them get fired up and then they play over us. They wanted to boost their program and they just did that."

Christoff, who coached four years at Livonia Stevenson and 10 years at Schoolcraft College, is in his third year at Novi.

"I think a lot of people underestimated us coming in here," he said. "We're young and inexperienced, but we have a lot of heart — and that's the reason we were able to win this one today."

SC women notch pair of victories

Here's something new: Schoolcraft College's women's soccer team actually won two games in a row.

True, it came at the end of the season, and it was against somewhat weaker opposition. Coach Nick O'Shea doesn't cater to scheduling paties when he's trying to get a team prepared for one major tournament — the NJCAAs.

On Tuesday, SC beat Bluffton College 2-0 at SC. Kara Kramer one-timed a pass from Tara Shook into the corner for the first goal; Andrea Zawislak converted a shot, assisted by Dee Lorenz, for the second. Both came in the first half.

Stephanie Sutton was in goal the first half; Greta Hundertmark took over in the second.

The win left SC's record at 4-6-3 at the end of the regular season. The good news is, it isn't the end of the season.

The Lady Ocelots will host Central College of Kansas in a regional playoff at 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 6. The winner of that match will advance to the N'CAA Tournament Nov. 18-21 in Trenton, N.J.

SC should get past Central College. But how much of a run can the Ocelots make in the NJCAAs?

"If they get a deep-down desire to compete, I think they can," O'Shea said of his team. "Heck, they already tied the top two teams, so you know they have the ability. The decisive factor will be desire."

The Eagles finished 7-6-2, but have the nucleus of their team returning.

Junior halfback and captain Ryan Thomson led the team in assists this season and played an excellent game Monday, according to coach Kyle Mavin. Sophomore forward Shawn Walker, who led PCA with 18 goals, will also return.

"It was a good season for us considering we had several injuries in the middle of the season which caused us to struggle," Mavin said.

Spartans win district game over Shamrocks

By C.J. RISK
STAFF WRITER

The lesson was learned by Livonia Stevenson last year, when the Spartans were ousted in the Class A district final by Redford Catholic Central. CC simply took them out of the game then, outmuscling them for almost every ball.

The scenario wasn't much different Monday at Redford's Bell Creek Park, except the two teams were meeting in the district's first round. And the Shamrocks' tactics hadn't changed much; they played body and ball equally tough.

But Stevenson was better prepared. The 1-0 win pushed the Spartans into Wednesday's district semifinal against the Southfield/Farmington Harrison winner. The final is set for 7 p.m. Friday at Southfield.

CC bows out with an 11-3-3 record.

"Obviously, CC took it to us pretty well," said Spartan coach Walt Barrett. "Not that we didn't expect it. We got a lesson in that last year."

But, while CC did not dominate physically this time, it did have the better of the play — until the game's last 10 minutes. Unfortunately for the Shamrocks, that's when the game's only goal was produced, and it came from Stevenson.

It won't serve as much consolation, but the goal was scored by sophomore forward Jeff Urbats — a transfer from CC. With less than two minutes left in regulation, Stevenson got a throw-in deep in the Shamrock end. Art Knack's toss bounced around and through several players before Urbats retrieved it and knocked it past a lunging Mike Kokoszka.

Until those final few minutes of regulation, CC's scoring chances had been better.

"We just didn't get lucky," said Shamrock coach Phil Lajoy. "We felt we played real well. We made an adjustment in the way we played them, going to four mid-fielders, and I thought it worked well."

Any of those chances could have resulted in a Shamrock goal. But luck, and an excellent Stevenson defense, were both against them.

Prep preview CEP rivalry always season-ending highlight

By Dan O'Meara
STAFF WRITER

A championship game, a preview of a possible playoff game and three intra-district rivalries highlight the ninth weekend of high school football.

In the first case, Redford Catholic Central will try to repeat as Catholic League champion when it plays Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Silverdome.

The big game Saturday has Birmingham Brother Rice paying a visit to Farmington Hills Harrison, the newly crowned Western Lakes Activities Association champ.

Traditional season-enders on Friday pit Westland John Glenn against Wayne Memorial, Plymouth Canton against Plymouth Salem and Livonia Stevenson against Livonia Churchill.

In the prediction contest between Observer editors, Brad Emons holds an eight-game lead going into the final round — 94-23 as opposed to 86-31 for Dan O'Meara.

Besides giving coach John Herrington his 200th career victory last week, Harrison did its part to help O'Meara's cause when it upset Glenn in the WLAAs championship game.

But the Luck of the Irish seems to be running out for O'Meara, if indeed he ever had any this year. He still lost ground by going 9-5 last week while Emons was 10-4.

GRID PICKS

(all games 1 p.m. unless noted)

Redford Union at Farmington: These 17 teams were at opposite ends of the emotional spectrum last week. RU was at its highest point of the season, and Farmington was at its lowest. The Panthers upset Garden City 21-17 for their first win, and Livonia Churchill ended a 34-game losing streak by beating the Falcons 7-3. The teams have become rivals in the short history of the series, and this should be another intense game despite the records. PICKS: Emons was convinced by RU's victory, but O'Meara thinks the Falcons will rebound.

South Lyon at N. Farmington: The Raiders (2-6) have had tough luck with the Lions the last two years, losing 12-7 and 27-20. North could have upset the arbiter Lions two years ago but was stopped short of the goal line in the last minute, and they outgained South Lyon 410-277 last year. The Lions (4-3) made the Class A playoffs each year but are less potent this year. North has played well the last two weeks and is poised for a strong finish. PICKS: Emons likes the Lions, but O'Meara plays a hunch and takes North.

Westland Glenn at Wayne: The Rockets (7-1) want to avoid a repeat of their '92 finish, Glenn was 7-0 but lost its last two games to Walled Lake Western and Wayne. Both teams made the playoffs, and Glenn missed out. The Rockets will qualify this year with two losses, but no team wants to begin post-season play with a loss. The Rockets (5-3) might end a 30-game-plus losing streak and have done well. The Patriots have been unable to win despite quarterback Greg Maple's passing for 1,045 yards. PICKS: Emons picks against his alma mater, but O'Meara proves more patriotic.

Westland Glenn at Wayne: The Rockets (7-1) want to avoid a repeat of their '92 finish, Glenn was 7-0 but lost its last two games to Walled Lake Western and Wayne. Both teams made the playoffs, and Glenn missed out. The Rockets will qualify this year with two losses, but no team wants to begin post-season play with a loss. The Rockets (5-3) might end a 30-game-plus losing streak and have done well. The Patriots have been unable to win despite quarterback Greg Maple's passing for 1,045 yards. PICKS: Emons picks against his alma mater, but O'Meara proves more patriotic.

Saturday Games
The crowning achievement for a fine season, but a 7-2 finish looks good in the record book, too. Clarenceville has won its last two games, including a 7-6 revenge win over Lutheran East. PICKS: O'Meara goes with the underdog Trojans, while Emons takes Thurston.

Liggett at Luth. Westland: Lutheran Westland (2-6) has taken more than its share of hard knocks this season, but the Warriors can end the season by giving a few more. They play winless Grosse Pointe University Liggett (0-8), which lost 20-0 to Lutheran Northwest. For an idea of what to expect, the Warriors defeated Lutheran Northwest 18-6. PICKS: Lutheran Westland is the unanimous choice.

Bishop Borgess vs. East Catholic at Detroit Denby: The Catholic League crossover rematch of a second-week game won by East Catholic 30-6. The Chargers (6-2) were third in the Catholic C-Section and missed the Prep Bowl but most certainly will be in the Class DD playoffs again. The Spartans (2-6) have won their last two games after starting 0-6. PICKS: The East Siders win again.

St. Agatha vs. Holy Redeemer, 7:30 p.m. at Hilbert Jr. High: It's been a so-so year for the Aggies (3-5), who tied for the D-Section. The Lions defeated Taylor after a loss to East Catholic, the chances are good they will finish on a winning note. Holy Redeemer (3-5) was fourth in the Prep Bowl. CC will represent the Central Division in the A-B championship game for the third straight year and seventh time in the last 12. The Shamrocks have won 13 league titles, including seven of the last 14 under coach Tom Mach. Gallagher (4-4) has been a Double AA member since 1965 but makes its first trip to championship game. CC defeated DePores 14-0, while the Lancers lost 8-7 to the AA tri-champions. PICKS: CC does its part to keep its playoffs alive.

Rocks are ready for Warriors

With the memory of an earlier meeting with Walled Lake Western fresh in its collective mind Monday, the Plymouth Salem soccer team put away the host Warriors 4-0 in a first-round district game.

"Western had a 2-0 lead on us at halftime before we eventually won 6-2," said Salem coach Ken Johnson of the first game. "This time we were ready for them."

The Rocks (10-6-2) opened the scoring 15 minutes into the game when Jason Oberhelman headed in a long pass from Kevin Little, who later scored on a breakaway.

The prettiest goal of the game made it 3-0. Scott Buzek dribbled past several defenders down the left side before making a perfect cross to Mark MacInnis, who redirected it into the net. Buzek scored the game's final goal.

Matt Simmons and Brad Jaskolski added assists for Salem, which outshot Western 18-3. Junior Paul Dood recorded his third straight win of the season.

"I was pleased with the way we played," Johnson said. "Walled Lake had a couple quick players who gave us some trouble, but we just had to mark them pretty tight."

CANTON 4, NORTH 1: Plymouth Canton received goals from four different players Monday and advanced in the district tournament.

Jeff Fliss, Evan Sabourin, Greg Kilby and Graham Wilk notched goals for Canton (9-8-2). Sabourin, James Bossieux and Brian Kaminsky recorded assists for the Chiefs, who led 3-1 at halftime.

George Tomasso and Shaun Conway split time in the Canton goal.

The Raiders scored their only goal 30 minutes into the game when Denny Bandemer scored off a cross from Dave Ging.

"The defensive line made too many mistakes in the first half and there wasn't enough aggressiveness to the ball," North coach Kris Galczyk said. "The second half was more evenly played. Canton has a great team and deserves credit."

LENAWEE CHRISTIAN 1, PCA 0: Plymouth Christian Academy's season ended Monday as Adrian Lenawee Christian escaped with a double-overtime win at Hines Park.

Steelers varsity stays in playoff hunt

The Plymouth Canton Steelers maintained their playoff hopes Sunday with a 7-6 victory over the Ann Arbor West Wildcats.

The Wildcats took a 6-0 lead in the third quarter, and the Steelers (5-1-1) didn't score until 15 minutes remained in the game.

Quarterback Chris Movinski connected with Kevin Salla for a 70-yard pass play that took the Steelers to the Ann Arbor 17-yard line.

On the next play, Movinski passed to Jeff McKian for the touchdown, and Salla ran for the decisive extra point.

Movinski completed three of four passes for 89 yards. The Steeler defense stopped the Wildcats three times at its 2-yard line.

Free-man quarterback Chris Hardy passed for one touchdown and ran for two others as the Steelers defeated Ann Arbor 20-7. The freshmen are 4-3.

Hardy passed 41 yards to Chris Fazio for the first TD, and he later had scoring runs of 3 and 4 yards. Kevin Entsminger scored the other TD on a 32-yard run. Hardy also ran for one extra point.

Pasani rushed for 49 yards and Jerry Gaines 39. Terrell Burgess made four tackles, Ryan Flemming and Ben Mellis three each.

Jeff Huggan blocked a punt and recovered a fumble, and teammate Mitchell Tomatis also had a fumble recovery.

Kyle Entsminger scored the JV's only touchdown in a 20-8 loss. He ran 4 yards for the TD, and Brad Wells kicked the extra point.

Entsminger rushed for 26 yards and touchdowns. Dave Morelli caught an 11-yard TD pass and also intercepted two passes.

Morelli returned his first interception 28 yards to the ND 13-yard line in the first quarter. After losing a yard on the first carry, Lingelbach threw a 14-yard TD pass to Matt Ambrozjak.

Adam Borcherth's first of five extra points made the score 7-0.

Sophomore fullback John Spolky, who led the Shamrocks with 92 yards on 11 carries, capped a nine-play, 49-yard drive in the second quarter with a 2-yard run for a 14-0 lead. The Shamrocks took a 21-0 halftime lead after Morelli's 11-yard TD reception to cap an eight-play, 52-yard drive.

The Shamrocks capitalized on a wind-blown, 3-yard ND punt in the third quarter to score their fourth TD. The Shamrocks took over at the ND 25, and Jon Wolfe scored four plays later on a 17-yard run for a 28-0 lead.

Backup quarterback Gary Galvin scored on a 10-yard run in the fourth quarter to cap a 10-play, 40-yard drive.

Five of Borcherth's six kickoffs reached the end zone, and Andy Shortt led all tacklers with seven.

CC could be left out of Class AA playoffs

By Dan O'Meara
STAFF WRITER

Area high school football fans should mark Nov. 1 on their calendars.

More specifically, there could be a lot of moaning come Monday morning.

The Monday moaning quartet could have a feast if Redford Catholic Central (7-1 record), contingent upon its Prep Bowl victory Sunday night over Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher (4-4) at the Silverdome, doesn't have enough points to make the state playoffs.

CC has appeared in three consecutive Class AA state championship games and won twice, including last year's thrilling victory against Saginaw Arthur Hill.

This team may be as good, if not better than last year's, but may not have enough points to get one of the four spots available in Class A Region III.

Here's the situation as it affects CC. (I wasn't a math major in college, but I can add, subtract and divide.)

■ Troy High (8-0) will add, with a victory over Troy Athens (4-4). Is an upset possible? It's unlikely.

■ The winner of the Rochester Adams (8-0) vs. Rochester (8-0) game will also automatically make it.

■ Detroit Henry Ford (7-1), a team CC beat in the season opener 24-0, will also be an automatic with a win over Detroit Denby (8-0) in Saturday's Public School League championship.

A Henry Ford loss, however, would be music to CC's ears.

That leaves CC fighting it out with Dearborn Fordson (7-1) for the fourth and final spot if the above three things happen.

Fordson closes out its season against 4-4 Harper Woods Notre Dame, a team CC beat just last Sunday, 35-0.

If both CC and Fordson win, bonus points may determine who goes and who stays.

In a nutshell, CC desperately needs to pick up 16 bonus points in a pair of suing games to pass Fordson this week. But it won't be easy because those involve Saturday's Birmingham Brother Rice (6-2) at Farmington Harrison (7-1) contest, and Sunday's Warren DeLaSalle (7-1) vs. Orchard Lake St. Mary's (8-0) game.

To gain 16 more points, CC needs Rice and DeLaSalle to win Saturday's crossovers.

In Class AA Region IV, the scenario is a lot more clear.

Both Westland John Glenn (7-1), and Brighton (7-1) are locks, regardless of their outcome, this weekend against Wayne Memorial (4-4) and Saginaw Heritage (1-7), respectively.

Adrian (6-2) can also clinch a spot with a victory over Monroe (4-4). Howell (6-2) could also do the same, but the Highlanders have a tough game Friday against Waterford Kettering (2-6). Kettering, if you recall, forfeited five wins for using ineligible player. Belleville (6-2) is also seeking a spot, and the Tigers are favored to beat Romulus (1-7).

If Adrian, Howell and Belleville all win, that would eliminate Livonia Stevenson (6-2), which plays Friday at Livonia Churchill (1-7).

Stevenson needs a minor miracle to get through.

The Spartans, who have not beaten a team with a winning record this year, simply do not have enough bonus points to make a move.

Their only hope is that both Howell and Adrian, or Belleville lose.

So, what should we thinking come Monday morning?

Whatever the outcome, I don't want to hear anybody crying foul.

This is the system the Michigan High School Athletic Association has put in place, and apparently everyone is satisfied with it since the MHSAA voted three years ago to expand the playoffs with eight divisions and 16 teams per class.

Yes, CC should be in there ahead of Henry Ford, but the Shamrocks may not be the first team (or the last) to feel the pinch.

I can go all the way back to 1975, the year Livonia Franklin, with one loss, took advantage of its good fortune (on the last day to the season) to win the Class A title. The Patriots went on to pull upsets in the playoffs against Traverse City and Detroit Southwestern.

But sitting on the sidelines that year was a great Trenton team, unbeaten and quarterbacked by Greg Castignola (Ohio State), which couldn't come up with enough points.

I also remember 1992 when a fine Franklin team suffered only one loss, a 7-3 defeat to Dearborn Fordson. Franklin had the ball inside the Tractors' 10-yard line four times and couldn't get into the end zone. Fordson scored on the game's first play, a 73-yard run from scrimmage, but didn't pass midfield again.

Franklin was led by quarterback Rich Popp, who went on to set passing records at Wayne State.

Marian dominates Ladywood, 61-43

By STEVE STEIN STAFF WRITER It's time to start including Birmingham Marian in the list of the top contenders for the Class A state championship in girls basketball.

The Mustangs are the defending champs, of course. But after losing several members of last year's team to graduation, Marian was expected to be a good club this season, but no powerhouse.

If Tuesday's performance against Livonia Ladywood in the packed Marian gymnasium is any indication, the Mustangs are on the loose once again.

Marian dominated Ladywood 61-43 in a showdown between two of the top-ranked teams in Class A and won the Catholic League Central Division title in the process.

Both squads finished 7-1 in the division, but the Mustangs took the top seed in Thursday's opening-round of the playoffs because their 18-point margin of victory over Ladywood was bigger than the Blazers' eight-point difference in a 55-47 win over Marian at Ladywood on Oct. 7.

"Yes, I think we're peaking, knock on wood. I just hope it isn't too soon," said happy Marian coach Mary Lillie-Ciccone, whose team has a 13-2 overall record and is ranked No. 8 in Class A.

"Marian played a near-perfect game," said Ladywood coach Ed Kavanagh. "They made their free throws and they got the loose balls. They wanted the victory more than we did."

"They played their game of the year and we had one of our worst. Of course, Marian had a lot to do with that."

"Can we turn what happened into a positive experience? It depends on the kids. It's all up to them."

The loss left Ladywood, ranked No. 3 in Class A, with a 12-2 overall record. Senior forward Judy Stuart led Marian with 19 points. She also had 11 rebounds and five steals. Junior guard Julie Storen added 16 points, 10 rebounds and five steals.

Speedy sophomore forward Brandi Gentry, who was inserted into the Mustangs' starting lineup after a few weeks ago to shore up the defense, scored five points and wrecked havoc all over the floor.

Marian scored just five points in the third period. Storen tossed in a rebound of her own miss with 3:44 remaining and Bentley had a three-point play with 27 seconds to go.

But Ladywood could climb no closer than 12 remaining during the quarter and the Mustangs led 45-30 heading into the final stanza.

The Blazers never got any closer than 14 the rest of the way.

"We missed a lot of layups and free throws in the third period," Kavanagh said. "If we had made a few of those, it might have been a different game."

CC runners win city title

Redford Catholic Central, the Central Division regular-season champion, placed third in the Catholic League meet Saturday at Marshbank Park.

Dearborn Divine Child was first (44), followed by Warren DeLaSalle (50) and CC (56). The finish didn't disappoint coach Tony Magni because CC is expected to fare well in Class B and the Shamrocks were coming off a week in which several runners were ill.

Magni said Phil Camilleri and Brian Smith missed school during the week because of colds and Mike Danic was ill the night before. This also was senior Mark Leo's first race since spraining an ankle more than a month ago.

Divine Child could win the state in Class B and DeLaSalle ran a real nice race," Magni said. "The big thing for us right now is to regroup and get ready for the regional (Saturday at Marshbank)."

CC was led by sophomore Joe Leo who took second (16:55) behind DeLaSalle's Phil Sobek (16:32).

Mark Leo was eighth (17:29), Camilleri 13th (17:46), Jeremy

Salem cagers extend win streak

Plymouth Salem won its fourth girls basketball game in a row and sixth in its last seven Tuesday 58-38 over host Walled Lake Western.

The Rocks are 9-7 overall, 7-3 in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

Salem trailed 15-12 after one quarter but outscored Western 13-7 in the second and led 25-22.

Salem outscored Western 16-11 in the third quarter and 14-5 in the fourth quarter.

Raiders clinch spot in playoffs

North Farmington clinched a berth in the Western Lakes Activities Association girls basketball playoffs Tuesday with a 56-45 victory over host Northville.

The Raiders are 6-4 in the league with one game remaining and 10-6 overall. The Mustangs slipped to 3-7 and 6-9.

Alisha Gordon scored 22 points to lead North Farmington with 11 points and Danielle Laborde nine.

Laborde scored all of her points on three straight three-pointers in the third quarter to spark the Raiders to a 22-16 quarter score and 44-33 lead.

After McCoy and Laborde fouled out early in the fourth period, Northville closed the difference to four points but got no closer.

when they're on our backs." Point-guard Alyson Nounce chipped in with 10 points for the Chiefs, including a pair of three-pointers.

Forward Sarah Warnke and Amicie Crayton, both tigers on the boards, contributed eight and seven points, respectively.

"Our assistant coach Danny Young does a great job of teaching balance and rebounding to our post players," Blohm said. "We're able to get in the air for the ball, even though we're not that tall. And we also did a nice job battling for loose balls." Canton's defense forced Stevenson into 21 turnovers.

"Our immaturity cost us in a few ways," Henry said. "We tried forcing the ball and then missed some easy shots, especially in that third quarter."

"If we make a mistake, they

Program to honor outstanding educators

The Reader's Digest Association Inc. is seeking nominations for its 1994 American Heroes in Education Awards, a national program to honor teachers and principals who are making a difference in schools across America. Educators from 10 schools will share $150,000.

Individual teachers and principals, or teams of up to six educators will receive $5,000, with an additional $10,000 going to their schools to support activities that encourage educational excellence. Some 100,000 nomination forms have been sent to public, private and parochial schools across the nation. Any teacher, principal or administrator may nominate a fellow educator. Deadline for entries is Dec. 10, 1993.

"We are looking for those unsung heroes who often go beyond the classroom to inspire their students to reach their potential," said George V. Grune, Reader's Digest chairman and chief executive officer.

"We want to find these extraordinary educators, honor them and showcase their achievements to encourage educators everywhere to strive for their best." In its sixth year, the Reader's Digest American Heroes in Education awards are sponsored jointly by the Reader's Digest Association, the American Federation of Teachers, National Education Association of Elementary School Principals and National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Last year's winners were recognized for boosting student attendance and academic performance, despite decreases in financial support; motivating students to help solve community challenges such as homelessness, crime and the environment; and rallying the community support necessary to turn their schools into thriving learning centers.

The 1994 nominations will be reviewed by a panel of distinguished educators. Winners will be announced in April 1994. Nomination packages are available from local and national offices of sponsoring organizations or by writing to: Reader's Digest Association, American Heroes in Education Awards, c/o Claudia Edwards-Watts, director, Reader's Digest Road, Pleasantville, NY 10572.

Fall is time when spiders mate, then die

TIMOTHY NOWICKI

Though we associate fall with grasshoppers and crickets, they have actually been around during most of the summer. When these insects hatch from eggs laid in the ground, they look just like a baby grasshopper or cricket. But they are so small that we seldom take notice. As summer progresses, they eat the green grasses and continue to grow. So by late summer and early fall they are large enough for us to notice.

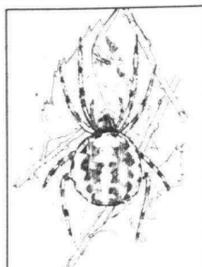

Fall is also the time when spiders have reached their adult size. Like the grasshopper and crickets, it takes time for them to mature. Summer's bounty provides enough food so young can grow. If they survive the perils of predation.

Spiders may not be as large as some insects, but a few of them can be quite noticeable. My kids were playing in our tree house this fall when they noticed a huge spider. This was not an invitation to kill, but an invitation to learn. When I got home my first order of business was to see the spider they had found.

It was indeed large. The abdomen, or the largest body part of the insect was a half inch in diameter. Unlike some spiders that are not very colorful, this one had some beautiful yellow markings on the light rusty brown background. Each of its legs were spotted with dark areas separated with light areas.

A few days later, I was walking in the new Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission's park in Wixom, Lyon Oaks, and discovered another very similar spider. These spiders were females of a group known as the Epeiridae. Members of this group form the familiar round cobwebs in houses. It also includes the familiar yellow and black garden spider that forms a large typical web.

Fall is the time when spiders have matured and will mate and typically die. Males are much smaller. In the Epeiridae spider I saw, males are about half as

At Providence Hospital, we know that no two births are exactly alike. That's why we offer many birthing options. In fact, we're known as "the baby hospital," and it's no wonder. We've delivered more than 200,000 babies through eight generations. And our obstetrical program is one of the largest and best in Michigan.

Expectant mothers and their partners may take advantage of classes such as preparation for childbirth, childbirth refresher, cesarean birth, brothers and sisters, breastfeeding and infant CPR.

Schedule a Providence tour. If you're planning to have a baby, visit Providence and find out about all of your options. Ask your doctor about Providence, or

If births were this standard, we wouldn't offer as many options.

Choose from a wide range of birthing options at Providence. Our medical staff is committed to listening to and understanding women's needs and wants concerning childbirth. That's why we offer an extensive range of birthing options. Our comfortable LDR (labor/delivery/recovery) rooms are a direct response to women's requests for a more home-like atmosphere and the comfort of staying in one room for the entire birthing process.

Giving birth in our Family Birthing Center, the only one of its kind in Michigan, is a safer alternative to home birth. For those women who may require a cesarean delivery or other medical intervention, we also offer traditional birthing suites.

Our maternal-fetal specialists and facilities provide women with high-risk pregnancies with safer delivery alternatives. And it's comforting to know that should the need arise, Providence has a level III regional neonatal ICU for ill or premature newborns.

Credit card company gives to hunger drive

At a time when hunger and poverty have reached alarmingly high levels in the United States, non-profit organizations and the private sector are joining forces to provide hunger relief.

Share Our Strength has teamed up with American Express to launch Charge Against Hunger, a fund-raising, awareness, and volunteer campaign to fight hunger in America. Every time the American Express Card is used from now through Dec. 31 to make a purchase, American Express will donate two cents to Share Our Strength, with a goal of raising up to $5 million, including a donation of $1 million made by American Express when American Express and Share Our Strength launched the campaign at a press conference in Washington D.C.

The money, one of the largest ever corporate contributions to fighting hunger in the United States, will be distributed by Share Our Strength in the form of grants to local initiatives targeted to provide food assistance, nutrition education, and long term preventative measures to the fastest growing segment of hungry Americans — young children and their families.

"The commitment being made by American Express enables SOS to now assist hungry Americans who were previously out of reach to us," said Bill Shore, founder and executive director of Share Our Strength.

Many merchants will display a point of purchase reminder to use the American Express card and help provide a meal for someone who suffers from hunger. Others will participate in advertising for the campaign.

Some merchants will supplement American Express contributions to Share Our Strength with matching funds of their own. Kmart will match American Express per purchase contribution with a goal of raising up to an additional $250,000 based on two cents per card purchase from Nov. 26 through Dec. 31 at Kmart.

Bloodmobile visits Schoolcraft

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at Schoolcraft College Nov. 4 for anyone interested in donating blood. The Red Cross blood supply often becomes low during the holiday and cold-weather season, so extra donations are encouraged.

Blood collection will occur 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. in the Waterman Campus Center.

To schedule an appointment, call 462-4400, extension 5050. Walk-in donors are welcome.

Surf's up at theater, where 'Life is a Beach'

See you at the beach — you know, "Life is a Beach," running through Dec. 5 at The Millennium Theatre Center in Southfield which had its grand opening on Oct. 27.

A parody of the early 1960s beach movies, "Life is a Beach" tells the story of how Chuck and Debbie meet, fall desperately in love, become desperately estranged, and ultimately married, all in one day.

Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild fans might recognize Mary Vinette who performed in two guild productions — "The Voice of the Prairie," and "Albertine in Five Times." In "Life is a Beach," Vinette portrays the Hollywood starlet Babs Buxley, the Bikini Bombshell.

Written by Kim Carnell and Marie O'Donnell, the production features a cast of local professional performers and early 1960s music. Hum along to some of your favorite tunes including — "Heat Wave," "He's So Fine," and "Surfin' USA."

The Millennium Theatre Center at 15600 J.L. Hudson Drive in Southfield, south of Nine Mile Road between Greenfield and the Lodge Freeway has been transformed into a beach for this production, including the lobby. There's a beach refreshment stand, volleyball, limbo and hula hoop games for the adventurous.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays, 3 p.m. Sundays. Tickets are $22.50 for beach seats, $19.63 for Beachfront, and $16.50 for the Dunes. Tickets available at the box office and all TicketMaster outlets. Call 645-6666 to charge tickets, or 552-7000 for information.

To lend authenticity to their production of "Annie Get Your Gun" opening 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 29 at the Lahser High School Theatre, the Bloomfield Players contacted Janice A. Roterman, executive director of the North American Indian Association of Detroit, and Reg Pettibone, champion Winnebago Indian dancer.

Irving Berlin's "Annie Get Your Gun" is based on a true story of Annie Oakley — the five foot sharpshooter star of Buffalo Bill's "Wild West

LOOKING AHEAD

What to watch for in Entertainment next week:

Movie critic John Monaghan reviews "Fearless" a spiritual love story about the aftermath of a plane crash starring Jeff Bridges, Rosie Perez, Isabella Rossellini, John Turturro and Tom Hulce.

Musica Viva! opens its fifth season Nov. 14 with a concert featuring Juan Serrano, King of Flamenco Guitar, with Spanish dancer La Chabela.

Singer cut out for 'Barber of Seville' role

Ara Berberian of Southfield sings the role of the slandering music teacher Don Basilio in Michigan Opera Theatre's "The Barber of Seville."

BY MARY JANE DOERR
SPECIAL WRITER

Entering Berberia, the Southfield home of Ara Berberian and his family, you come upon a land of enchantment. There, imagination and creativity flourish in the lives of Ara Berberian, one of America's leading basses, and his son Harry Artin Berberian, a comedian.

This Michigan-born bass has donned Turkish garbs to play such hilarious roles as Osmin in "The Abduction from the Seraglio," and Mustafa in "The Italian Girl in Algiers," and religious robes to be the priest in "The Magic Flute" and "Romeo and Juliet." He has performed in over 35 operas, on the stages of our country's great opera houses, during his career spanning 37 years.

This week he dresses up as a Spaniard to sing the role of the slandering music teacher Don Basilio in Michigan Opera Theatre's season opener at the Fisher Theatre "The Barber of Seville."

It is a comedy and Berberian's natural penchant for humor has made him a favorite in the role.

The story is about a crotchety old physician, Dr. Bartolo who is planning to marry his beautiful young ward, Rosina, only to have his plans constantly thwarted by Count Almaviva, disguised as Lindoro and the seemingly innocent niece Rosina.

"Bartolo is so flustered by everything. He is ugly, bold and so old that it makes it funny," said Berberian. "The most important thing in comedy is timing. This is harder in music because the music does not stop for the joke. There are no double takes. You have to be funny within the framework of the rhythm."

Don Basilio, the music teacher, comes to Bartolo's rescue with advice — suggesting slander as the means for ruining the count's plans and reputation in the famous aria "La calunnia."

"You must be natural and believable in the situation to be humorous," said Berberian. "Playing comedy is like getting into a car. You just get into the car and don't act silly. If the car is funny then you will be funny. You can't over do it."

Julius Rudel of the New York City Opera was the first to notice Berberian's natural ability to play comedy. At the Met, James Levine also realized Berberian's talent and gave him leading roles.

Joining Berberian at MOT is Pablo Elvira, one of the finest FIGORIS in the country, and tenor Carroll Freeman as the Count. These three were in the highly successful 1987 MOT "Barber of Seville."

"This will be the fourth time Pablo and I have done this opera together," said Berberian who is also familiar with the Tony Award-winning Canadian, Brian MacDonald of the Stratford Festival who is directing this production.

Mary Jane Doerr of Troy is a full-time teacher and freelance writer who specializes in opera and musical theater.

Twisted sense of humor suits comedian to a 'T'

Like father, somewhat like son, Harry Artin Berberian is just as talented, but has a darker brand of humor than his father. The stand-up comedian does comedy routines in the suburban bars and clubs.

Over the last five years he has created a host of characters for his comedy routines.

One of those characters M.C. Sampler was the one who sings the hit rap song "Baby Got Jack," a hit on a local radio station.

His latest conception, Blarney, Barney's evil twin, is likely to offend even the most lukewarm warm Barney the Dinosaur fans.

The unshaven Blarney smokes, is a fiend to you and me, and he likes kids a "little too much."

"I created him for my comedy routine," said the introspective 27 year old. "At my 27th birthday party, a friend suggested I make a T-shirt out of my idea."

Recent local stories about his T-shirt were quickly picked up last week by the national press on ABC, CBS, AP, and Gannet News Services. Now sales are soaring for the young Berberian.

It is not the first T-shirt, Berberian has promoted. During the Gulf War, he was the one who promoted the "These Colors Don't Run" T-shirt.

Like his father, Berberian graduated from the University of Michigan, an English and religion major. Since then he has been doing his 25 minute comedy routines at local bars and waiting tables.

"I get my subjects from the subconscious. They are rather fictional or sometimes autobiographical. I think my characters are exaggerated aspects of my own personality. I guess I have a skewed perspective on things and enjoy twisted humor."

The T-shirt is made by Advanced Printwear of Troy and is available at local stores in Birmingham for a price of $12.

Berberian's company, Electric Eel Entertainment or Triple E for short, is marketing the T-shirt. For information on where the shirts are available locally, call 356-2660.

Berberian's motto is "Promotion that Shocks."

Schoolcraft's 'Dracula' haunting

from his musty tomb.

Daniel Jaroslaw is Count Dracula, a reprise of the role he performed at Schoolcraft in 1987. Jaroslaw's Dracula has an otherworldly presence that gives a mesmerizing dimension to the 500-year-old Transylvanian nobleman who sleeps by day — then at night turns into a vampire seeking the blood of humans.

It's a — you cannot take your eyes off of him performance from his first dramatic entrance until the fateful wooden stake is driven through Dracula's heart.

Director, Jim Hartman, establishes just the right mood for this spine-tingling evening of theater with a dark, foreboding setting and mystic music, then accents it with very good special effects.

About the only quibble were a couple of occasions when it wasn't clear a scene was completed.

With the exception of Jaroslaw,

Helsing, scores as a paranormal specialist who knows the antidote to Dracula, and how to kill him once and for all.

Joanne Byrne, all dressed in white, is appealing as sickly Lucy Seward, the almost bride of Dracula.

Kurt Fretwell is effective as her father, Dr. Seward, who's difficulty believing his daughter's illness is the result of a vampire attack.

Jonathan Harker, Lucy's suitor, is skillfully played by David Millar. Leslie Kerrigan and Trent Dobbs, complete the cast in two colorful performances as Miss Wells, the maid, and Butterworth, an attendant.

Except for Nov. 5, an excellent dinner theatre option continues through the Nov. 6 performance. The menu features a garden salad, rolls, sauteed chicken breast with artichokes, Potatoes Anna, buttered acorn squash, and a walnut torte. # Talented young actress has 'That Broadway Feeling'

West End Productions opens its second season with "That Broadway Feeling" at the Livonia Civic Center Library 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 29.

Ten-year-old Samantha Pelligrino of Livonia debuts with songs from "The Secret Garden," "Evita," and "Les Miserables."

The fifth grader who attends St. Paul Lutheran School in Farmington has been rehearsing for the show since July.

She also rehearses at home. "I just go down to the family room and dance and sing," she said.

Sometimes she gets a little help from her 5-year-old brother, Vince.

"He sings along with me. He doesn't want to do one (a show), but he likes to sing along with me," said Pelligrino.

PREVIEW

Her father, Sam, said that Samantha was excited when she was cast in "That Broadway Feeling."

"She never seems nervous," said Sam Pelligrino when asked about his daughter's audition for the show. "My daughter sings around the house all the time. She sings in the bathtub."

The young songstress has been in productions at her school, as well as a talent night, and two of her friends "did a really silly thing to 'Rock Around the Clock' with Elvis. It was dancing, but we pretended we got really screwed up and were falling."

Pelligrino said she likes everything in "That Broadway Feel-

Animated 'Nightmare' brilliantly bridges holidays

Halloweenland is a city-sized spook house populated by demonic toys, mad scientists, and oozing monsters. Resident Jack Skellington, a lanky Ichabod Crane minus the skin, has an inspiration after visiting Christmasland: don the red suit himself and play old St. Nick for the holidays.

REVIEW

Forget "Frosty the Snowman" and "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" for a moment. "Nightmare" takes the charming, albeit primitive, technique of puppet animation into the 21st-century with an eye-popping array of set pieces and wild camera movement.

Holiday nightmare: Jack Skellington, Halloween's master of fright, and Sally find true happiness in "The Nightmare Before Christmas."

The misguided plan leads to the type of manic craziness that will keep kids happy during "The Nightmare Before Christmas." Parents can sit back, enjoy the musical score, and marvel at the state-of-the-art puppet animation, as overseen by "Batman" and "Beetlejuice" director Tim Burton.

Burton makes a triumphant return to Disney (there under the auspices of Touchstone Pictures) years after he wore out his welcome there. Studio heads were unaccustomed to animated shorts like Burton's "Vincey," where a demented little boy with a Vincent Price fixation turns the family cat into a monster.

Some individual sequences, sometimes just shots, are especially impressive. As Jack makes his rounds in a sleigh pulled by skeleton reindeers, huge cannons aim for the sky, their long necks out of some old World War II documentary.

Crash teaches survivors about life

When Max, a successful San Francisco architect, and his partner and life-long friend, Jeff, board a plane for Houston, they hope to return home with a lucrative contract in hand. When Carla, a young mother, and her toddler son board that same plane, they expect to enjoy their vacation. It is not to be in "Fearless," a contemporary drama opening Friday exclusively at the Star John-R.

Contemporary drama: Carla (Rosie Perez) and Max (Jeff Bridges) speak about their relationship at the hospital where Max is recuperating from a car crash in Warner Bros.' "Fearless," a drama also starring Isabella Rossellini.

The film, a Spring Creek Production distributed by Warner Bros., stars Jeff Bridges, Isabella Rossellini and Rosie Perez. "Fearless" examines the life of three people — Max (Jeff Bridges), Laura (Isabella Rossellini) and Carla (Rosie Perez) — who have been intimately affected by a brush with death. As survivors of a plane crash in which Max's business partner and Carla's baby son were killed, Max and Carla must search for meaning in their own lives.

Max's loyal and loving wife Laura's life is marred when Max seems unable to return from the moment of ecstatic calm that he felt when confronting disaster on the plane.

"Fearless" marks the fifth American film for director Peter Weir, whose previous movies include the Academy Award-winning (Best Screenplay) "Dead Poet's Society" and "Witness," nominated for eight Oscars, including Best Picture.

The effect of the crash on her is she becomes terribly frightened, withdrawn and depressed. None of the traditional ways of feeling better, like going to church or being with her husband, work for her. And the airline's therapist, who really wants to help her, only makes things worse.

Max comes into her life and helps, because they share a common experience. "With Carla, Max is being instrumental," said Perez. "He's saving himself through her. He's comfortable being with someone whose pain is worse than his own."

"When Mark and I read this book," said Weinstein, "we were instantly drawn by the characters and the fact that Max was a man who, having survived his worst fear, finally felt free to live his life. The story touched on universal themes of life and death and love. Do we live our life in fear of dying or do we live our lives absolutely 'going for it'?" He chose to embrace life.

NOT ONLY ONE OF THE YEAR'S BEST FILMS. THIS IS ABSOLUTELY THE YEAR'S MOST INCREDIBLE FILM.

"EXPECT THE IMPOSSIBLE. IT'S BLISS!"
"TIM BURTON SPILLS A FUN-HOUSE FANTASY:"
"IT'S TIMELESS MOVIE MAGIC... Dazzling! An animated fun-house for ceeek freaks of all ages. It has the earmarks of an enduring classic."

American Boychoir to present concert Nov. 3

The American Boychoir of Princeton, N.J., will sing in concert at First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 3. Tickets are $15 for adults, $10 for seniors, $8 for students, and $100 for patrons (which includes two tickets), and can be purchased in advance at the church.

A limited number of tickets will be available at the door the evening of the concert. First Presbyterian Church is at 1669 W. Maple Road in Birmingham. Call 644-2040 for information.

The concert will be an especially proud occasion for First Presbyterian choir member Sara Krug and her husband Ernest.

The Krug's 12-year-old son Ben will be one of the chorists.

Ben, a sixth grader who started attending the American Boychoir School in January, has already had "significant experiences with the choir," said Sara Krug. "He traveled to Japan with the choir to sing with the Tama Children's Choir, and got to both sing and play the cello as the accompanist on several pieces."

Net concert proceeds will benefit the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Midwest U.S. Flood Relief, a Church-sponsored relief effort that has donated more than $1 million to the victims of the recent floods in the Midwest.

Halloween parties to benefit charities

Party for a cause on Friday at two great parties. The Fanclub Foundation for the Arts is hosting a Masquerade Fantasy benefit for the Eisenhower Dance Company, the Metropolitan Ballet, and Music Hall Youththeatre 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 29, at the American Center Building, on Franklin Road, between Telegraph and Northwestern, Southfield.

Matt Brady's at 38123 West 10 Mile Road in the Holiday Inn of Farmington Hills, is hosting a party and costume contest sponsored by Young Country to benefit CATCH (Caring Athletes Team for Children and Henry Ford Hospitals) 8 p.m. to midnight, Friday, Oct. 29.

The party promises to be a "howling" good time with drink specials, free appetizers, games, raffles and a costume contest. There is no admission charge.

Dance to an island beat at the Fanclub party. Closed Circuit and the island reggae group O.C. Roberts and the Samaritans will perform. Mix with island street entertainers and members of the Taylor Ballet Americana in this colorful, exotic atmosphere, while you sample some of metro Detroit's finest food and wine from over 30 restaurants.

Costumes are not mandatory, but all costumed or masked guests will have the opportunity to participate in a costume contest with cash prizes.

Tickets are $50 in advance, $55 at the door and can be purchased by calling 351-9656. This event is underwritten by Arthur Andersen & Company, among others.

The Fanclub Foundation was created to provide critical and essential funding and organizational management support to the Detroit area's emerging and re-emerging arts organizations. Its primary objective is to reach out into the community at-large in addition to encouraging young professionals and families to participate in the support and enjoyment of new and exciting cultural entities in the metropolitan Detroit area.

St. Dunstan's presents 'hair-raising' comedy

What do you get when you put six very different Southern women in the most successful beauty shop in Chiquapiin Parish? — a "hair-raising" experience.

St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook will present the heart-warming comedy "Steel Magnolias" 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Oct. 29-30 and Nov. 5-6 in the playhouse, 400 Lone Pine Road, two miles west of Woodward in Birmingham. Tickets $10, seniors and students, $8. Call 644-0527.

Set in "Truvy's Salon," owner Truvy Jones (played by Elizabeth Brooks of Birmingham), lives by her strict philosophy for more than 15 years, "there is no such thing as natural beauty."

PREVIEW

Truvy's new beautician, Anelle (played by Julie Yolles of Birmingham), will be practicing what she preaches when she joins Truvy's team just in time for the social event of the season — Shelby Eatenton's (played by Laura Jerrell of Pleasant Ridge) wedding. The bride will be pretty in pink and baby's breath, much to her mother M'Lynn's (played by Nancy Brassert of Birmingham) dismay.

The show will be directed by Edgar A. Guest III of Birmingham.

The season continues Jan. 14 with "Cole," March 18, "Prelude to a Kiss," and June 3, "City of Angels."

Put Your Money To Work In A Higher-Paying Position.

Here's your chance to advance with higher earnings and guaranteed security in a CD. But this rate is only being offered for a limited time, and only at First of America Bank. As always, depositors are FDIC insured up to $100,000. And the rate is locked in for the full 15-month term of the certificate. So if you're looking for a safe and secure investment that's guaranteed to pay off, come to First of America. And open a CD that's bound to raise your money's earning power to a new level.

Every six months of its two-year term, our Rising Rate CD gives you a guaranteed increase in your interest rate without locking you in. The rate earned for each six-month period rises as the chart above indicates, giving you a 5.0% APY during the final six-month period. And you can withdraw all of your investment within the first 10 days of any six-month interval without penalty. The minimum deposit and balance amount is only $1,000. The Rising Rate CD. The liquidity you want, with the guaranteed interest growth you need.

For more information about two of the highest-performing CDs you'll see this year, call or visit your nearest First of America bank office today.

GARDEN SPOT

MARTY FIGLEY

Learn nature's signs to garden prudently

We were fortunate to have many excellent speakers come to our area to teach and inspire us about gardening techniques.

Cranbrook Horticulture Magazine, the Birmingham Community House, Perennial Favorites, Ken Miller Horticultural Consultants, the Metropolitan Detroit Landscape Association and others were involved. I hope you attended at least one of the programs.

Starr Foster of Lake Angelus encouraged this trend. "I was tired of having to travel outstate to hear these people and was confident that our local gardeners would support the effort."

She was right — attendance was splendid. Thank you, Starr.

Foster invited me to a recent workshop, "Designing with Native Plants," given by Colston Burrell of Native Landscapes, Minneapolis. What a day! Burrell was very thorough and I learned much about this ever-popular gardening style.

"Nature can teach us how to arrange our gardens if we learn to recognize the vertical and horizontal structures of plant communities," he said.

By using plants of varying heights, a garden can look natural with a ground layer, taller plants, perhaps a shrub layer as a hedge or wall and trees used as a canopy over all.

We should learn to recognize and appreciate the seasonal changes in our plants, look for form, color and texture. When two or three plants are placed together and bloom sequentially with the same color, the effect is stunning and color is continued for a long period.

If we learn the habitat where plants evolved and grow, we will then be able to choose correct ones for our situation. To develop a regional character in our gardens, use those that grow here. Look at plant associations and combinations that exist in harmony with nature. Combine prairie native plants with standard plants for an interesting mix.

As we develop these natural gardens, animals and insects will respond to the changes.

Travels

In August, I attended the International Master Gardeners Conference in San Antonio, and heard many interesting speakers. Subjects were as varied as diagnosing plant diseases, lupines, Xeriscape landscape, ornamental grasses, landscaping with herbs, and herbal vinegars and oils.

I urge you to become a master gardener so that you can participate in these classes and trips.

We visited the National Wildflower Research Center in Austin, the work of which is dedicated exclusively to conserving and promoting the use of native plants in North America. It was super hot, so the plants weren't at their peak, but it's still an interesting place to visit.

A highlight at a garden writers meeting in San Francisco was a trip to the Fetzer Food & Wine Center at Valley Oaks. Its first wine from organically grown grapes was released this year. More than 1,000 varieties of fruits, vegetables and herbs are carefully tended in the five-acre, bio-intensive organic garden.

We attended a cooking demonstration conducted by John Ash, chief director for Fetzer Vineyards. Some of these same creations were served at a sumptuous banquet, accompanied by the center's excellent wines.

The Valley Oaks Cooking School is open to the public. Visitors are welcome. For information, write Fetzer Hospitality, P.O. Box 611, Hopland, Calif. 95449.

Label watch

Dow Elanco, a chemical company that produces pesticides and insecticides, is on the right track to improve label "readability" and subsequent labeling information in an orderly sequence on all labels. The new labels should be on products sometime in 1994. Look for them.

Frans Roozen, technical director of the International Flower Bulb Center in The Netherlands, reminds us to choose tulip bulbs marked "good for naturalizing" for many seasons of bloom.

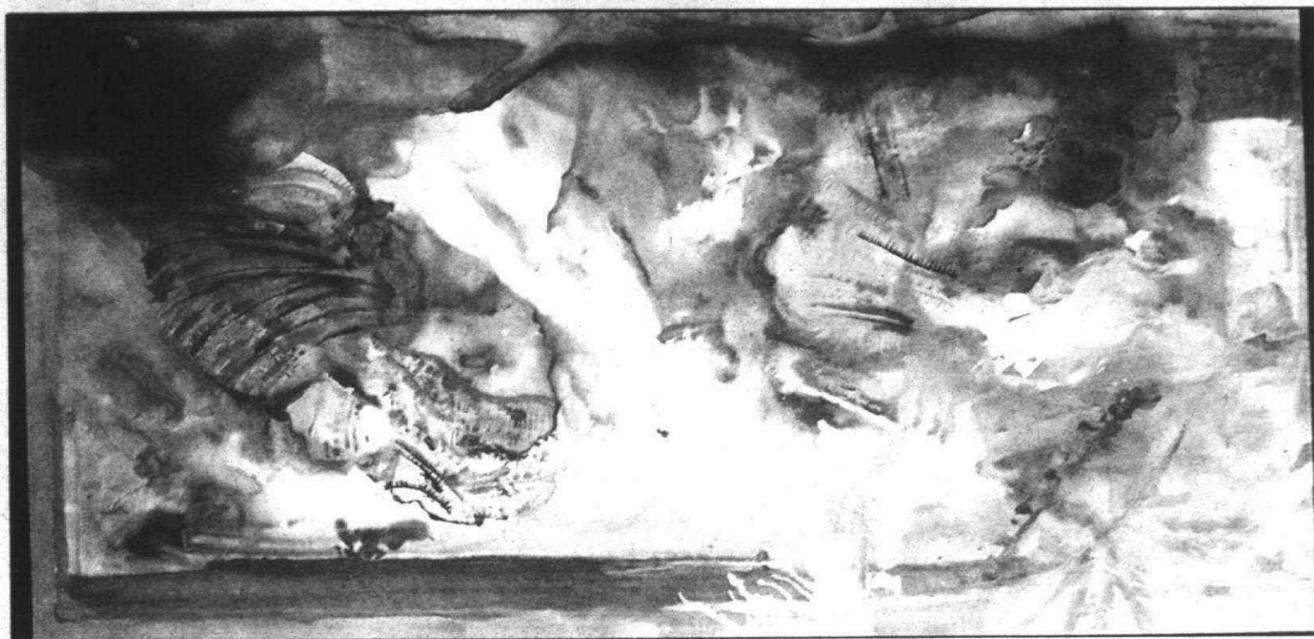

Also, don't forget to water them well after planting. Organic matter in the hole can help facilitate drainage. Plant now!

Marty Figley is an advanced master gardener based in Birmingham. You can leave her a message by dialing 953-2047 on a touch-tone phone, then her mailbox number, 1859. Her fax number is 644-1314.

LOOKING AHEAD

What to watch for in Creative Living next week:

- Profile of Carl Angevine, whose large-scale paintings are on display at Nelson's Gallery in Livonia.
- Victoria Diaz's Book Break column.
- Exhibitions, art gallery event listings.

Hidden meanings: Abstract forms shape the intent of "Quicholes," a large-scale acrylic painting by Nora Chapa Mendoza.

Her canvases exude her Indian heritage

Nora Chapa Mendoza reflects on the history and culture of North and South American Indians in the series, "Spirits of the Fourth World," on exhibition through Nov. 6 in the Livonia Civic Center Library Art Gallery.

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
SPECIAL WRITER

Nora Chapa Mendoza's artwork is at once dark and light, filled with the brightly colored Indian cultures of North and South America.

A Chicana Indian born in Texas, Chapa Mendoza's work speaks proudly not only of heritage but the trials and tribulations of Indians around the world.

In a one-woman show sponsored by the Livonia Arts Commission, the West Bloomfield artist exhibits 34 paintings from the series, "Spirits of the Fourth World," through Nov. 6 in the Art Gallery of the Livonia Civic Center Library, Farmington Road and Five Mile.

"It's an indigenous perspective. 'Spirits of the Fourth World' is the spirits of our ancestors," said Chapa Mendoza in an interview at the gallery. "Most of the conditions they live in are like Third World countries. That's where the Fourth World comes from, the conditions Indians all over the world live in."

Chapa Mendoza's "Tribute to Wounded Knee" focuses on the internationally recognized image of a slumped Indian riding horseback on the trail of tears.

"The Chicana fought alongside the Indians. The reason I did the series, it's good to acknowledge them. Alcoholism, dropouts, gangs . . . I believe the reason (for it) is that you've been lied to so many years, there's a lot of hurt and pain and anger."

"The skeletons represent spirit of our ancestors. Red is the hurt, the pain, the bloodshed. It's true, but also did as a healing process for myself but also to heal the pain of others," Chapa Mendoza said.

"The message is, I want them to feel good about themselves. The statement I'm making is not to make them feel guilt. By doing the series, it's a way of acknowledging what went on to make a better world for the children's children. Each one of us has to do some little part."

Quilters help keep needy kids warm

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
SPECIAL WRITER

Quilt artist Nancy Meyer and the Plymouth Piecemakers are looking for fabrics and batting as well as anyone interested in helping craft quilts for the children of Safe House.

The quilters are part of a project initiated by the Greater Ann Arbor Quilt Guild. The goal is to make 300 quilts by Nov. 20 for children from the shelter assisting battered women and their families.

"It's been the goal to make a quilt for every child that goes through Safe House. The desire is to let them know that people care," said Meyer, a member of the Plymouth and Ann Arbor quilting groups.

"Plymouth Piecemakers decided in lieu of their normal stitch-in on Thursdays, they would meet to make quilts for the children. We're on our second bolt of batting. There's always a need for batting, polyester if possible and also cotton fabric, preferably washable."

The Greater Ann Arbor Quilt Guild began the project four years ago. The group will present the donated quilts to a representative of Safe House at the GAAQG's last meeting of the year. The Presentation Day begins 8:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 20 at Domino's World Headquarters in Ann Arbor. The event is open to the public. Admission is $5 for nonmembers of the guild.

"We've always donated 100 a year but there's a need not only for babies and children, but quilts for older children and boys as well," said Jerre Reese, GAAQG president. "We decided this year to increase our donation so that they would have a supply of quilts on hand for every child when they left."

Westland artist Sandra Weed is helping with her sewing machine to make the project a success. For the last 14 years, Weed has owned Artistic Images, a design studio specializing in wedding dresses, jewelry and interchangeable fashions.

"It's artists creating art to give away. After all, we all need a security blanket," Weed said.

The annual Michigan Depression Glass Show will be Nov. 6-7 in the Dearborn Civic Center.

PEACEFUL MOMENTS

Canton artist Connie Lucas has a work on display in "Transforming Visions '93" at Swords Into Plowshares Peace Center and Gallery in Detroit.

In the show, 48 juried art pieces of 33 artists from Michigan and Ontario envision the world moving from war and violence to peace and justice.

Lucas' piece, watercolor/mixed media, is entitled, "Toy Box: Make Luv Not War."

"I use children's toys and relate them to violence and war," said Lucas, who has a series of paintings on violence in society.

"It's about images of toys that children play with. But these images in real life relate to war: toy soldiers, toy war trucks, toy Jeeps, toy airplanes, toy ships. Some can even be innocently but, in the long run, they mean violence. My message: that war is hell."

This is the fourth biennial juried show in a variety of media on this theme. The gallery is at 33 E. Adams, in Detroit's Theatre District.

Custom labs focus on meeting special needs

MONTE NAGLER

Most one-hour minilabs generally do a fine job in quickly printing at low prices. But their services are limited and there are many things they can't do. This is where a custom lab will be of great benefit to you.

For example, does your picture need cropping? Are there some highlights that are washed out or some shadow areas where detail has been lost? Are there some spots or scratches on the original negative that are showing up in the print? Or perhaps certain areas of your picture need lightening or darkening. Well, a custom lab can take care of all these things for you.

Custom labs can do more for you, too. Say you intentionally or unintentionally over- or underexposed your film. A custom lab can compensate for this in the developing and printing of your roll.

Custom labs can make slides from negatives or negatives from Special work: This picture of the Lotus Pavilion in Seoul, Korea, is a difficult photo to produce by a one-hour minilab because of the intricacies required in the printing. Monte Nagler can easily do it in his darkroom just as a custom lab could do it in theirs.

Canvases from page 1D

In some respects, the series, based on Indians from all over the world, took relatively little time to complete once Chapa Mendoza began it one year ago. "Once it's started, it's like three weeks to create because of 61 years experience," Chapa Mendoza said.

"Mujeres Abandonada," a collage/mixed media, was executed after she spent two weeks in the village of abandoned women in the mountains of Peru.

"The women make sweaters. They wind up having to raise the family on sweaters sold in Canada. There's no electricity. They get up four in the morning to take advantage of the light. I wanted to show the dark drab living conditions," she said, motioning to the mid-night blue, black and gray background. "Yet there's richness. Their culture, their music — that's the red, yellow, blue and green."

'The urge to create has always been part of my life and now the painting of women has become my primary objective. I paint women of the earth: free, strong, passionate women who themselves embody the spirit of Mother Earth. Thus the entity is complete.'

Nora Chapa Mendoza artist

Slabs of tree trunks laid side by side like so many silent death knells, sound a warning in the assemblage titled "Rain Forest."

"Great Lakes" (acrylic painted on wood) scales down the issue of polluted waters to a bottom line through the use of fish skeletons. Caught in a state of descent, the fish are simply the pawns in a shell game.

"This is what happens for not respecting Mother Earth," said the artist, with six decades of wisdom in the ways of the world.

Works not to be missed are "Mother and Earth" and "Mujer con Sarape." In each, windswept strokes of earth tones endow a female figure with energy and life. Woman and landscape become one.

"The urge to create has always been part of my life and now the painting of women has become my primary objective," Chapa Mendoza says in an artist's statement. "I paint women of the earth: free, strong, passionate women who themselves embody the spirit of Mother Earth. Thus the entity is complete."

Chapa Mendoza first became interested in painting at age 14 when her father brought home a canvas and pigments for her to copy a picture. Two years later, she was illustrating books. She set aside her brushes for many years to create the son and daughter she refers to as her two masterpieces.

Chapa Mendoza has painted professionally for the past 15 years. She is best known for hidden forms within the abstract. Since 1980, she has been a member of Kanto de La Tierra, an international intertribal organization that comes together for four days each year.

As an artist active within the community, she has won many awards: National Council of La Raza Dedication to the Arts Award; State of Michigan on Spanish Speaking Affairs Certificate of Leadership and Achievement; Casa de Unidad Certificate of Achievement; Barrio Mural Project; Wayne County Artistic Excellence and Community Commitment Award; Michigan Women's Foundation; Women in the Arts; Michigan 150 First Lady Award; Museum of Science and Industry Award of Recognition, Chicago; Latino Caucus Award, New Detroit; and Kanto Al Pueblo, Certified Elder, Mesa, Ariz.

"She gives a nice feeling of the spirit of the Mexican people, the color. They're very energetic," said Livonia arts commissioner Jack Olds.

Chapa Mendoza has exhibited at Urban Park-Detroit Art Center, Galeria Biegas in Detroit, Kellogg Center in Lansing, Dos Manos in Royal Oak, National Council of La Raza at Cobo Center in Detroit and Rackham Center Galleries.

She has worked in the collections of Aretha Franklin; Ford Motor Co. in Rockefeller Plaza, New York City, and World Headquarters, Dearborn; United Farmworkers, American National Headquarters, California; ITT, New York City; First Heritage Corp., Southfield; and Michigan State Medical Society, Lansing; and Michigan, she is represented by the Russell Klatt Gallery in Birmingham.

Hours for viewing "Spirits of the Fourth World" are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday to Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 1-5 p.m. Sunday.

Artist shows true colors in new workbook

BY MARY KLEMIC
STAFF WRITER

If you think you're too old for coloring books, think again.

An exception could be "How to Paint a Rainbow" by artist and teacher Leslie Masters. This is a workbook for acrylic, oil and watercolor painters that explains basic color theory and the process of painting.

"This is what I've been teaching these years," said Masters, who has been a Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association faculty member for 25 years.

"I really don't know of anyone who's done a real practical application of what happens when you mix the colors."

Masters is also available to teach a one- or three-day group workshop, using the book.

"How to Paint a Rainbow" was written for "beginners or people who have been painting a while and just paint intuitively," Masters said. She recommends it to people not younger than eighth grade. Elementary school art teachers may find the book useful.

"It comes from grade school,

They give you one red, one yellow, one blue."

The "The book that makes me mad about coloring books is they say 'Do it my way' but never tell you how," said Masters, who collected color theory books.

Painting materials and supplies are featured as well, along with the toxicity of paint, how to stretch a canvas, setting up a palette and the kinds of brushes available. As different kinds of light affect the way color is perceived, Masters discusses balanced studio lighting.

Masters also taught at Schoolcraft College in Livonia and Mercy College in Detroit. She has been working on the book for years, and took computer classes to help with it. The artist made the illustrations in the book.

"How to Paint a Rainbow" is available at the BBAA and in art stores, including Millers Artist Supplies at 12 Mile and Farmington Road.

Redford author to sign new book

On New Year's Eve 1993, a thoroughly modern woman is caught between centuries and captured by love when she's sent back in time to the Middle Ages. It's historical romance with a science-fiction twist in Redford author Shelly Thacker's latest novel, "Forever His."

The Avon Books release will be published Nov. 15.

Thacker will sign copies 11 a.m. to noon Saturday, Nov. 13 at The Books Connection, 19043 Middlebelt, Livonia, and 1-3 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 27 at D. Dalton, Westland Mall, Westland. She'll be at The Books Connection at 29211

Southfield Road in Southfield 1-2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 13.

The heroine of the story, Ms. Celine Fontaine, is stunned to be awoken on New Year's Day in the year 1300 — appalled to find herself married to a tall, dark and irksome knight by the name of Sir Gaston de Varennes.

Gaston is equally annoyed He wanted a docile bride who would fit into his plans for vengeance and justice — not this headstrong lady who turns his castle, his life and his heart upside down. Celine at first feels infuriated by Gaston's macho medieval attitude and tyrannical ways but gradually discovers the gentle heart beneath his not-so-shiny armor and finds herself falling in love.

Will Celine and Gaston be torn apart after only a few bitter weeks, or will they conquer mistrust, treachery and time itself to discover a love that spans the centuries?

Avon Books was so impressed with the book, they're moving her up to their romantic Treasure line next year where she'll be published in the company of such romantic genre stars as Anne Stuart and Stella Cameron. Thacker will make her Treasure debut with her fifth book, "Silver and Shadows," in September 1994. Her other books include "Falcon on the Wind" and "Midnight Raider."

Quilter from page 1D

Members of the Plymouth Piecemakers hail not only from Plymouth but Canton, Livonia, Novi and Farmington Hills as well as out-of-state.

Meyer creates award winning art quilts. She won the Juror's Choice Award in "Celebrate Life 1992," the annual Congregational Church of Birmingham art show. Last summer, she exhibited in the Livonia Civic Center Library Art Gallery as a member of Paradigm, a group of contemporary quilt artists.

"If they want to experience the excitement of the quilts, they should visit on Presentation Day," Meyer said. "A van will be outside accepting donations for Safe House, and Sharyn Craig will lecture on 'Creativity: Inspiration vs. Duplication.'"

If you're interested in donating fabrics, or would like to lend a hand in any way, contact Nancy Meyer at 454-5749.

Sales manager wins Realtor of the year

By Doug Funke STAFF WRITER Carol Frick, sales manager of Century 21 Town & Country in Birmingham, has been selected Realtor of the Year by the Birmingham-Bloomfield Board of Realtors.

"I really love my job," she said. "It's one of the few industries where you can see the result of your efforts in management and sales. There's immediate gratification. The whole business is an upper. What's more exciting than buying or selling a home?"

Frick served as president, treasurer and director with the Birmingham-Bloomfield board. She's currently a director with the Michigan Association of Realtors and was chairwoman last year of the Michigan Realtor Political Action Committee.

"Carol has been involved in an unbelievable level with the local association and the state," said Mary M. Arlinghaus, president of the Birmingham-Bloomfield board. "Her dedication to the industry has been exemplary. "Carol's available to people at any time, to her customers and associates," Arlinghaus added. "She just has fantastic enthusiasm."

Frick is married to Robert, a former Realtor of the Year, and is mother to Jen and Rob. Mary Jo Carlson, a sales agent in the Bloomfield Hills office of Max Broock, was selected Realtor Associate of the Year for the Birmingham-Bloomfield board.

Suburbanites echo auto exec's views

The North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) and health care costs are major issues currently facing the domestic auto industry. A key executive at one of the Big Three presented his insights at an afternoon forum in Rochester Hills.

Robert J. Eaton, chairman and chief executive officer of Chrysler Corp., served up his view of key issues facing the auto industry during the eighth annual business forum at Oakland University.

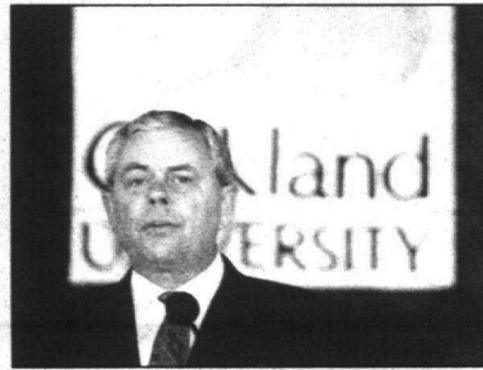

Afterwards, the Bloomfield Hills resident received good reviews from suburban executives, academics and students who apparently liked what they had digested.

"I was very pleased with what he said about NAFTA," said E.J. Hartmann, president of Ziebart International in Troy.

"He expressed the same thoughts I've had for U.S. industries to export to Mexico. We have a dealer in Mex-

Keep home organized by clearing the clutter

Call them clutter busters. Companies such as the Closet Factory, headquartered in Farmington Hills, and Closet Interiors in Troy offer homeowners the opportunity to live the maxim, a place for everything and everything in its place.

"We purchased a new house that had a long closet and poles," said Bob Boesky of Farmington Hills. "There was good space in there. We needed some creative design so all our stuff would fit."

Jeff Kaplan of The Closet Factory responded to the challenge.

"He designed a closet that included some drawers, some jewelry shelves," Boesky said. "He put in some shoe racks, double, triple hanging rods, belt racks, tie racks. They did a really nice job."

Karyn Bookmeier of Livonia said she and her husband, Brian, grew tired of dealing with the constant mess of a bedroom closet and a linen/medicine closet outside a bathroom.

"Everything was on the floor under clothes," she said. "We couldn't find anything."

Built-in shelving and baskets installed by the Closet Factory proved to be the solution.

"They met with us, asked what we needed, what we were looking for," Bookmeier said. "They made up a couple of designs. They weren't pushy. They played along with a lot of stuff we already had in there."

"I should have taken before and after pictures. It's been installed about two months now and still looks like the day they were put in," she said.

Closet Interior, an independent operation, and the Closet Factory, a franchise, both build to specification in their warehouses.

"We do all of our own manufacturing, all of the designing," said Angelika Fightmaster, owner/designer for Closet Interiors in business since 1986. "There's no in-between. We have control over everything."

The average closet remodeling costs just under $1,000, she added.

"Jewelry drawers are popular items and baskets are popular, one for dirty laundry and one for dry cleaning," Fightmaster said.

Several elements determine price, said Mark B. Ponski, president of Closet Factory, which has in business for two years.

"Price depends on size, obviously, the materials you use. We can go from particle board to melamine (plastic laminate)," he said. "It depends on the options you use. Some like doors, baskets, drawers."

"We charge by the number of components, rods, shelves and compartments. The customer has a lot of flexibility over cost. It can get very elaborate."

Some customers spend as little as $200, others several thousand dollars, Ponski said, but the average job prices out at $1,200 to $1,500.

"Everything is adjustable," he said. "Shelving is on pins so you can always change it."

"It's kind of contagious," Fightmaster said. "As customers go through my book, they say, 'I didn't know you could do this or that.'"

Neither the Closet Factory nor Closet Interiors do rough carpentry work. They basically fine-tune what's already there and work within and around an existing structure.

Closet Interiors utilizes wall-support anchoring similar to cupboards, the Closet Factory floor-based systems. Both also are expanding into office organizing and even garages.

Ponski said he's designed a baby's changing table into a closet. Fightmaster has included an extra door and kitty litter box in a laundry enclosure.

Most customers are remodelers. However, some residential builders are looking over more elaborate closet organizing systems.

"They're a good selling feature for builders," said Ron Jones, an estimator for Beck Building. "By the time you take the materials you buy, labor to install and paint and take those costs out and apply them to the Closet Factory, it probably nets out $200 for eight closets."

Fightmaster said she's also worked with residential builders.

In order: Custom-designed closet systems, compartments, shelves and hanging rods can go a long way toward bringing order from chaos.

Southfield investor carving her niche

BY JANICE TIGAR-KRAMER
SPECIAL WRITER

In short time, investment manager Barbara Labadie has proven that big isn't always better.

From her office in Southfield's Town Center, Labadie is carving a sizable niche into the competitive and mostly male-driven world of portfolio investment.

Labadie, 50, formed Labadie Capital Management in 1990 with her own start-up funds and handful of clients. Last year, she hired a portfolio manager and a marketing and environmental expert, who are both men.

Today, the firm manages around $20 million for a growing roster of clients, ranging from conservative people, whose investment goal is to outpace inflation, to high-rolling entrepreneurs who like speculative risks.

"I've always been a trend watcher, so I sensed it was time for a woman-owned investment firm. The increasing number of women CPAs and attorneys today has helped to establish our women's credibility," Labadie said.

Labadie Capital Investment, by the way, is the only portfolio management firm in the state certified as a Woman's Business Enterprise.

The company also has an alliance with The Marshall Plan, a Boston-based, woman-owned firm that specializes in pension investments.

Labadie, a lifelong Grosse Pointe resident, started watching the market at age 15, when her grandmother gave her mutual funds. She started buying stocks at age 21. "It was a thrill even then," she said.

Since finance wasn't a woman's field in the '50s, Labadie earned a bachelor's degree in science from Wayne State University and a master's in education from Marygrove College.

"We were a conservative family, so I didn't consider a finance career. It wasn't a woman's field then, but I never stopped watching the market," said Labadie, formerly a teacher and science coordinator at Grosse Pointe Academy.

Right timing: Barbara Labadie formed Southfield-based Capital Management in 1990 because she believed it was time for a woman-owned investment firm.

She took finance classes at Wayne State and Walsh College after her third child was born, perhaps sensing a career change was coming. In the late '70s, she started buying oil stocks for herself and for family friends.

"I had some fun and a lot of luck. Anybody would have done well in oil then," said Labadie, whose interest in investing was piqued by the success.

After a family illness, she wanted the safety net provided by a second income. She joined Manufacturers National Bank as a portfolio manager and in 1986 was on a team that set up the bank's highly successful private banking office in Southfield. At the same time, she earned a Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC) designation.

"This is a competitive arena where you're not welcomed with open arms," she said. "I think women have an advantage in this business because by nature we engender trust."

For Chip Erwin, 32, the firm's vice president and chief financial officer, there's no difference between a male or female run investment firm.

"Actually, the size of the firm has been a greater adjustment for me than the gender factor," said Erwin, formerly a commercial lending officer for Northern Trust Co. in Chicago, and executive vice president of Republic Bank S.E. in Bloomfield Hills.

Besides trading Standard and Poor's 500, the company looks beyond earnings to find socially responsible investments for its clients. These are companies screened by the Domini & Co. Social 400 Index in various social areas — community and employee relations, environmental policy, equal employment opportunities and the like.

Labadie calls this "relational investing" because she, and a growing number of investors, believe that management's mindset will ultimately affect the bottom line. For example, a company with antiquated pollution control may wind up paying for costly environmental cleanup or litigation later on.

"You can't overlook these qualitative areas to size up a company. It's all part of understanding the management and anticipating its moves," she said.

Her firm even gives a percentage of each transaction fee to the client's favorite Michigan charity.

Though Labadie and her portfolio managers see a "pop movement" toward buying mutual funds, they believe that clients — with more than $300,000 to invest should buy individual stocks and bonds for two reasons: risk can be diversified away, and investors with portfolio income have greater control over their tax situation.

Labadie also thinks a successful investor lets the client define the service. "If a client's great uncle didn't like a certain stock, I won't suggest it twice," she said.

She thinks it's important to find a client's comfort level and, if necessary, do some hand-holding.

"One client's late husband managed all the investments, so I have to go slowly. I do a lot of explaining if I want to sell something she's had a long time," she said.

At one client's request, the company supplies a bar graph each month to show stock growth but sends the full report to the client's accountant. Labadie even gives clients her home phone number because most read their monthly reports after business hours.

Labadie believes smaller firms like hers are flexible and almost always outperform larger investment houses. "Big is bureaucratic and not necessarily better. We work with smaller amounts and don't move the market when we trade."

For now, her goal is consistent growth, but never at the client's expense. "Our perk is the personal relationship with our clients. Growth will come."

ico and will have a second there in January. With NAFTA, there would be less duty on goods we ship them," Hartmann said.

Gerald DeHondt II, a Bloomfield Hills resident and president of the student board in the business school at Oakland University, picked up on the same thread.

"I had heard that people felt if NAFTA went through, auto companies would locate down there close to free labor and import back here," DeHondt said. "I thought he addressed that very well, that it wouldn't be cost effective to locate down there."

Craig Fitzgerald, a consultant with Plante & Moran of Southfield, found Eaton's comments about a growing cooperation among the Big Three automakers and with the federal government especially interesting.

"Japan has achieved a competitive advantage over the last 30 years by combining both competition among companies and collaboration with government," Fitzgerald said. "They are working together."

"We haven't done that," he continued. "Anti-trust laws have precluded working together at all. In the last few years, we've begun working together much more effectively."

"Now, 25 years ago, you wouldn't have heard any Big Three CEO advocating a national health care program," he said. "Frankly, I think it's still a big risk. So why am I in favor of it?"

"Frankly, because health care costs are so wildly out of control and I don't believe there's any market mechanism in place that's going to affect that."

"I endorse the idea that all employers should pay for some level of basic health care coverage and that government must step up and provide assistance to those that are not employed."

"But health costs are everyone's responsibility and they should be spread as broadly as possible throughout society," Eaton said.

Repair shops sought for auto mechanic referral

By MARY RODRIGUE
STAFF WRITER

It sounded like a good idea, but Steve Hamed's auto mechanic referral service is stalling before it gets out of first gear.

The Canton resident is trying to launch the Auto Repair Referral Association (ARRA). The idea: consumers would dial an 800 number for referral to a reputable auto mechanic in their area.

Livonia, Canton, Plymouth, Northville, Farmington, Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham would be covered in the network.

Minority business advocate named

The Small Business Strategy Group, a Southfield-based consulting company, was named runner-up as the 1993 Minority Business Advocate of the Year.

The award was presented to West Bloomfield resident Don Reimer, co-founder of the company, and was presented by B. Kevin

Standard Fed earns support award

Troy-based Standard Federal Bank was among winners of the President's Community Support Award granted by the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis.

The award, presented to two Indiana and two Michigan FHLBank members annually, is in recognition of efforts to meet needs of individuals and communities they serve.

Mary Fowle, Standard Federal vice president, accepted a plaque in honor of the award from Martin L. Heger, president and CEO of the Federal Home Loan Bank.

The award winners are nominated by representatives of the communities in which they operate.

The Housing and Community Development Corp. and Lighthouse of Oakland County submitted nominations for Standard Federal Bank, recognizing the financial institution's activities to improve the affordability of housing for low-income families.

"We are very honored to be a recipient of this prestigious award," said Thomas Ricketts, Standard Federal chairman and president. "The bank has been, and will continue to be, very active in developing programs that promote affordable home ownership in all of the communities that we serve."

Standard Federal Bank has been awarded 21 affordable housing program grants by the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis totaling over $1.3 million in subsidy and supporting nearly $20 million total development costs.

Working with a wide range of nonprofit sponsors and government agencies in both Indiana and Michigan, Standard Federal uses these funds to create a total of 341 units of affordable housing to date.

Standard Federal has also received eight Community Investment Program advances totaling over $82 million. These funds were used to finance conventional mortgage loans to low- and moderate-income families and for a variety of other community development projects.

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis, which provides services to federally insured depository institutions in Indiana and Michigan, is one of 12 such banks across the country. The FHLBanks are government-sponsored enterprises representing over $165 billion in total assets.

California for such a service. I figured it would be a very good idea, benefiting consumers and independent repair shops. And there isn't such a service in Michigan," Hamed said.

Hamed submitted his proposal to a targeted 121 repair shops. Response was less than stellar. "I don't have any clients yet. They didn't sound all that interested. I only got response from four shops."

Hamed is sending out a second correspondence to his target group and also paying personal visits to those shops.

"I'm looking for good quality work and special services. Do they have tow trucks? Do they offer pick up and delivery? Are they a member of the Automobile Association of Michigan? Also, I will check with the state to see how they handle consumer complaints."

Hamed figures he needs 15 clients to launch his business. He plans to charge $300 a month to clients, which would cover radio advertising costs.

"In California, they charge $1,000 a month," he said. "I charge a much lower price because I need to get started."

Consumers are not charged for the referral. They would simply dial 1-800-CAR-4-FIX for referral to an auto repair shop in their area to suit their problem.

"This would benefit individuals who seek a trustworthy repair facility but are afraid to be taken advantage of by just any repair shop," Hamed said. "The repair facilities who cannot afford broadcast advertising would get to boost their business."

"There is such new and demanding technology, a lot of shops cannot fix the electronics or don't have the computers or training for the newer cars. We want to make sure consumers are getting certified mechanics who have proper training and invested money in the proper equipment."

FAMILY LIFE

'Up, ready and go good morning'

Here's a little poem that can be read aloud to children who get up early and follow a schedule just like you do.

I wake up early to a bright piggy lamp light.
Mama says it's morning; I see only dark night.
I take my special towel to the bathroom.
Mama says I should leave it here, my favorite red and yellow thing I hold so dear.
Daddy knows I need it close; he says it's OK.
I love them both.

My face, hands and body too are washed up real good.
My teacher told me it's important to do the right things; oh yes, I really should.
It's a very good way to start my day; teacher said it's so.
'Cause this is how we fight mean germs, so that germs won't grow.
And when my germs have disappeared, my hair needs combing, too.
I'm only 4 with lots of pride; I'll learn these things perhaps by 5.

At breakfast time, it's 7 a.m.; my cereal's chewy and hot.
I give a good blow and blow again. Did you know I know a lot?
While Daddy still drinks his coffee from his favorite blue cup,
Mama says it's time to go. . . . To work and to day care school.
I can't understand 'cause I'm just a little man, why it's still early, still dark you know.

I grab my coat, hat, boots and gear, but it's again OK.
I have nothing to fear.
I like my teacher a whole bunch, a lot.
So off we go. . . . Oops, Mama, I forgot to put on my socks.

And when I climb the steps up to my day care school, I see other kids just like me.
Friends Jamie, Sharon; oh, look there's Paul Lee. They come with their Mama or Daddy, too, bringing with them snacks, totes and sticky glue.
I wonder if their eyes are sleepy.
My eyes and body feel sleepy today, but when I play it goes away.
Sleepy sleepy, I'll try hard not to be weepy, 'cause yes, I'll have a grrrrreat fun day.

I'll kiss my Mama a loud goodbye; she'll be right back about 4 o'clock with a hearty hi!
I like my day care school, you know.
It's a place for learning, and friends to go.
Yesterday, we painted and baked apple cookies, too.
There's always something wonderful to do.

I'm thankful to have my special place to go every morning, I even like the ride.
Especially what makes it very cool, Mama's by my side.
It's our time then to talk, sometimes we even sing.
The only part of this I dislike, is getting up in the dark, but it's not night.
If only Mr. Sunshine comes out with his happy face, and let Mr. Dark go to bed, Sleepy eyes I might erase.

Dot, dot: Transcriber Emily Buchman (left) demonstrates how Braille pages were produced on a slate with a wooden stylus, while Pearl Biber types away on a manual Braille typewriter.

Transcribers put dots in Braille

It is a service that blind people need and it is a service being provided by a dedicated group of Wayne-Oakland County residents who work in the solitude of their homes transcribing books into Braille.

BY SUE MASON
STAFF WRITER
Pearl Biber has a thing for dots. So do Emily Buchman and some 100 of their friends. Scattered throughout the tri-county area, they spend hours embossing paper with dots.
There's a good reason for their dotty doings. As the Tri-County Braille Volunteers, they have the task of Brailleing everything from novels and children's books to textbooks and sheet music for the blind and visually impaired.
"After doing my very first page of Braille, I was hooked," said Biber. "It's the most rewarding feeling."
Biber founded Tri-County Braille some 25 years ago to serve as an umbrella organization for the seven-eight Braille groups that were doing translations for the blind in the metropolitan area.
Sponsored by The Greater Detroit Society for the Blind, the organization opened up a line of communication among the groups so they knew who was doing what, avoiding duplication of effort.
Most of the Braille groups are in Oakland County and tend to be affiliated with synagogues - Adat Shalom in Farmington Hills, Temple Beth El in Bloomfield Township, Beth Achim and Shaarey Zedek in Southfield, Temple Israel in West Bloomfield and Beth Shalom and Temple Emanuel in Oak Park. The other groups are the Nardin Park Braille Transcribers in the Farmington area and the Grosse Pointe Braille Club.

The group primarily does textbooks for blind students who are placed in regular classrooms although "anything can be done in Braille," according to Buchman.
Talented group
Just looking at the talents of the group's 40-50 Brailleists is proof. Six can do mathematics in Braille, using a system devised by Dr. Abraham Nemeth, a retired University of Detroit mathematics professor. Two others are music Brailleists, and Biber works in Hebrew.
"Braille can be reproduced in any form, if you can get the code," she said.

"I once did a book in Old English."
Original Braille work was done on a slate using a stylus and working from right to left. A wooden erasure was used to make corrections and "a little spit" went along way in keeping the impression from coming back up, Buchman said.
With the slate, a proficient Brailleist could do one page in about 10 minutes, but accuracy rather than speed is the most important part of the work and one reason why everything is proofread. The group has four-five members who have taken a Braille proofreading course.
All of the work is free of charge "although we're not above asking for a donation," considering a ream of the heavy Braille paper costs $16, Buchman said. The thermopaper, used to make copies of the Braille work, costs about $45 a ream.
Meeting a need
"Our whole purpose is service to the blind in the best way," said Biber, who recalled Brailleing textbook for an Ann Arbor student all through school until he went to college.
Buchman is the association chairwoman and when a call comes in for a Braille book, she first checks with American Printing House to see if it has already been done. If the book has been done, the request is referred to the printing house; if not, the group registers the book and then does the transcribing.
The Braille book bindery is a "pet project" of Temple Beth El, while Nardin Park maintains a depository at the Farmington sub-library, where it keeps books and discs. Those originals not registered with the printing house and sent to the depository go to the state library in Lansing.
"The fiction stays at the bindery," Buchman said. "Then it's bound for distribution as part of the Gift of Books project."
No request is too small or too large. The group has Brailled letters for the families and fans of blind entertainers like Jose Feliciano, knitting instructions and cookbooks, even menus for restaurants. They Brailled the works of Shakespeare for a young man who lived in Punjab, India, and are Brailleing greeting cards at selected card shops.
Gift books
Biber got involved in Brailleing when she and her sister discovered blind people had almost no books of their own. They started a project to give every blind child in school a book of their own at Christmas.

Symphony League show features worldly fashions

BY CHRISTINA FUOCO
STAFF WRITER
Adriane Petrakis formed her company Serv'Elegance with reality in mind. Frustrated with trying to judge how fashions on tall models would look on her small frame, she vowed to have models that everyone could relate to.
Now, with her private shows, she blends her own models with members of the clubs in which her fashion shows are housed and the organizations that benefit. At an upcoming show, Nancy Reed, wife of the Plymouth Symphony conductor Russ Reed, will be among the models.
"I think in terms of my customers . . . I have house models and women from the groups so there's every type of woman (on the runway)," Petrakis, a Bloomfield Hills resident, explained. "I'm very short. I can't look at a model that's six feet tall and tell what it's going to look like on me."
"I buy real clothes for real people."
Petrakis has done 10-12 fashion shows per year since her company's inception in 1984, but on Thursday, Nov. 4, she'll present her first show in the western suburbs. The Plymouth Symphony League will benefit from her show at the Western Golf and Country Club in Redford.
In past shows, she has aided the American Association of University Women, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, the Neuromuscular Institute for Crippled Children, the Women's Council of the Navy League, the American Red Cross and the Birmingham/Bloomfield Symphony.

"It's exciting to be going into a new club; there's something to be said for new places," Petrakis said.
During the 35-minute show, she will show about 200 items that she handpicked from around the world.
"It's going to be a high energy afternoon."
Petrakis sells her clothes strictly through fashion shows. Her season runs from Labor Day to Christmas Eve. In between, she shops around the world for her customers. By using this strategy, she feels she has a more personal relationship with her clients.
"By keeping my company not open to the public, I can keep a handle on what my customers like," she said.
She goes by one rule: "Best quality for the best price."
Petrakis came to the fashion industry from a speech and drama background with a minor in English. A graduate of University of Detroit-Mercy, she spent a semester at the Sorbonne in Paris doing a theater study. Additionally, she completed a year of post-graduate work at Oakland University with an emphasis on law. Despite her studies, Petrakis feels that her ability to choose clothing comes from within.
"Being able to pick out right clothes is a gift," she said.
The Plymouth Symphony League's fashion show will be Thursday, Nov. 4, at the Western Golf and Country Club, 14600 Kinloch, Redford. The event will start with cocktails at 11:30 a.m., followed by lunch at 12:30 p.m. and the show at 1:30 p.m. Tickets are $25 and must be purchased by Friday, Oct. 29.

Writer makes plans, is determined to implement them

LORENE GREEN

GRAPHOLOGY PROFILES

Dear Ms. Green: I am a 49-year-old right-handed female who enjoys reading your column very much. If possible, I would like to analyze my handwriting, as I am very interested in what it may tell you about me. I am recently widowed, don't have much of a social life right now, but am presently going to college to try and better myself for the tough job market, hoping to find a decent job so I can better support myself. Please reply. Thank you!

A.D. Westland

This beautiful, letter perfect handwriting suggests a woman with a strong sense of responsibility, self-discipline moves along on her straight lines. She is goal-directed. Until everything has been taken care of to her satisfaction, she cannot relax.

The fine organization of this handwriting sample reflects the organization of her mind. She makes her plans and is then determined to implement them. She likes a neat, orderly atmosphere around her.

Our writer has a compulsive need to be busy, productive and needed. An inordinate amount of perseverance can be seen in her handwriting. This tells me she may be persisting in positive areas as well as in her old habits.

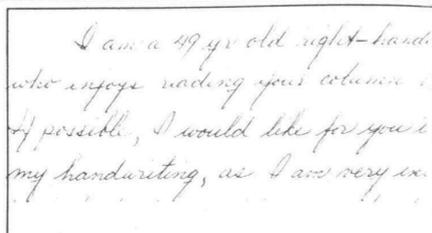

This woman is not just living for the moment, but will always have a goal she is working toward. In all she does she strives for perfection. In our imperfect world this was the impossible dream and result in stress for her. It is important to realize there is a difference between high standards and perfectionism.

In the work area, she is capable and dependable. She follows instructions and does not rebel against routine or repetitious details. People in positions of authority are given her respect.

A traditional person begins to take shape. According to signs in her handwriting, she was raised in a home environment where authority was strict. "Shoulds" and "should not's" were often stressed. Continuing to adhere to this early training suggests her rigid attitude regarding ethics and social responsibilities.

This woman has a strong wish to control her environment. Although she has many commendable qualities, flexibility is not high on the list. When plans do not work out according to schedule, she can be thrown into a tizzy.

Her manner of thinking is methodical and careful. She tends to visualize the entire picture in her mind's eye before acting on it. Once her mind is made up, however, she can be a little firmly based.

It seems quite possible that someone is trying to tell her something. She does not appear to be receptive to the message for whatever her reason may be.

Empathy weaves throughout this handwriting. She can feel for and with others and is often ready to extend a helping hand. Her strong sense of duty may also enter into the picture.

At the time she wrote she appeared to be in need of attention or recognition. I feel strongly she will find acceptable ways to receive it. Be assured that good taste will prevail as she is well acquainted with society's mores and is prepared to honor them.

Green, a certified graphologist, at 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150. Please use a full sheet of white, unlined paper, writing in the first person singular. Age, handedness and full signature are all helpful. Objective feedback is welcome.

ANNIVERSARIES

Louis and Viola Schuldt

Louis and Viola Schuldt of Livonia celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Oct. 16, with their married daughters and families — Brian and Carol Gray of Jenison, Mich., and Dale and Elaine Yagiela of Northville. There in spirit were Dennis and Lyn Chapman of Provo, Utah, the family of daughter Marilyn who died of cancer in 1985.

On Oct. 17, the Schulds were the special guests at a reception in their honor at the Unitarianist-Unitarian Church of Farmington,

Herbert, Edith Winegarden

Oct. 7 was a momentous day for Herbert and Edith Winegarden, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

The couple exchanged vows on Oct. 7, 1933, in Indiana. She is the former Edith Daniels.

They have lived in the same house in Livonia for 54 years and have a son Daniel, also of Livonia. Their daughter, Shirley, is deceased.

They are members of the Hope Chapel, a former Ford Motor Co. employee, he is a member of the Masons. She is active in the Livonia Garden Club.

'You do it in your home on your own time. It really takes a commitment.'

They lived in Detroit at the time and did no less than 100 books a year. When her synagogue's Sisterhood decided it wanted to take on a project, Biber offered the idea of Braille.

"I couldn't even estimate how many I've done," Biber said. "We would get pins for our work and the top mark now is 10,000 pages."

That sounds like a lot of pages and it is, but nowhere near some "blockbusters" the group has done — 30-40 chapters and some 25,000 pages. In those cases, the group asks for two copies of the book, one to keep intact and the other to tear up and distribute pages among members.

It takes three pages of Braille to transcribe one printed page and a 132-page paperback can quickly turn into a hefty six-inch stack of pages. And when it comes to textbooks, if a publisher revises an edition, the entire book has to be transcribed, Buchman said.

She got involved with Braille because it seemed like a nice thing to do and a way of learning a new skill. But, she admits where they are members.

The couple met in 1939-40 at the St. Paul, Minn., YMCA; both were active in youth groups. They continue as members of the Livonia Family YMCA.

He proposed to her on June 29, 1943, on a rustic path at Yosemite National Park while he was on a three-day pass from his military unit. They were married Oct. 16, 1943, in St. Paul.

The Schulds moved to Livonia in 1956 from South Dakota where he was the chief social worker at South Dakota State Hospital in Yankton.

They moved to Michigan so he could accept a social work position at Northville State Hospital. He later served as the hospital's director of community relations until he retired in 1974.

Meanwhile, she devoted much of her life to raising their children. Spare moments were devoted to a love for photography and a special interest in reading and recording for the blind.

Grandchildren include Joanna and Barrett Gray, Heather and Lauren Yagiela, and John, Scott, Analee and Todd Chapman.

gress to earn certification, no easy task considering an erasure is considered an error, Buchman said.

Some years, they have a good turnout for the classes; other years aren't so good. A lot of people sign up, but a lot drop out because it is time-consuming work. In fact, both women admit that being a Brailleist may be as lonely a profession as the legendary Maytag repairman.

"You do it by yourself in your home," Biber said. "You do it in your home on your own time. It really takes a commitment."

Persons interested in learning Braille can call Tri-County Braille Transcribers president Dee Josaitis at 474-3468 or Sheri Biederman at 661-3468.

Camomile Makes wrinkles almost disappear

Recently, an historic study was conducted in Europe. A group of women whose skin had been damaged by harmful ultraviolet rays of the sun applied a patented Camomile preparation.

In just 3 days, a dramatic smoothing effect occurred with a visible reduction of the fine lines and wrinkles caused by the UV rays. In just 7 days, the skin returned to its healthy, radiant look.

Now this special natural Camomile is available in a luxurious cream under the name CamoCare Facial Therapy.

CamoCare does more than moisturize. It soothes and relaxes the skin — dramatically reducing the appearance of lines and wrinkles caused by sun damage.

Breast cancer will be seminar topic

Men and women interested in breast cancer prevention and treatment can get such information at a seminar 7 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 2, at the Horizon Surgery Center in Livonia.

Dr. Philip Lafata, chief of general surgery, will be the guest speaker. A question and answer session will follow his presentation and a literature packet, courtesy of the Michigan Cancer Foundation and the National Cancer Institute, will be distributed.

Breast cancer is the second leading cause of cancer deaths among women in the United States (lung cancer is the first). One woman in 10 will develop breast cancer at some time in her life, and although rare it also affects about 900 men every year.

It can occur in women of all ages and is the leading cause of death in women between the ages of 40 and 50. In Michigan, an estimated 6,800 women with and 1,700 men will die from it in 1993. When detected early enough, breast cancer has a survival rate of nearly 100 percent. The National Cancer Institute encourages women to take an active role in the early detection of breast cancer by practicing monthly breast self-examination having a yearly breast exam and getting a routine mammogram after age 40.

Various methods of diagnosing breast cancer will be discussed. Among them:

- (1) Palpation — A physician is able to tell a lot about a breast lump by its size, texture and whether it is movable.
- (2) Aspiration — The doctor uses a thin needle to remove fluid or a small amount of tissue from a lump.
- (3) Mammography — A type of X-ray that is able to show tumors too small to be felt. (Other imaging techniques may also be used.)
- (4) Ultrasound — A test that sends high frequency sound waves, which cannot be heard by humans, into the breast.

(5) Thermography — A test which measures and records heat patterns in the breast.

(6) Diaphanography — A examination done by shining a bright light through the breast.

(7) Biopsy — A surgical procedure to take out part or all of a lump or suspicious area. The tissue is examined under a microscope by a pathologist. A biopsy is the only way to know whether cancer is present.

(8) Hormone receptor tests — If a biopsy shows cancer is present, laboratory tests, called estrogen and progesterone receptor tests, are usually done on the cancer cells. These tests can tell whether hormones promote the growth of the cancer.

The discussion also will cover treatment. Four out of five breast lumps are not cancer, but when present its treatment can include surgery, radiation therapy, chemotherapy and hormone therapy. These may be used individually or in combination, depending upon recommendation of the physician.

There are different types of surgery used to treat breast cancer, including modified radical mastectomy, lumpectomy, total or simple mastectomy (removal of just the breast), partial or segmental mastectomy and radical mastectomy. Also called the Halsted Radical Mastectomy, this operation in which breast, chest muscles, all of the lymph nodes under the arm and some additional fat and skin are removed, was the standard for many years.

Scientists at hospitals and medical centers all across the country are studying breast cancer, trying to learn what causes the disease and how to prevent it. They are also looking for better ways to diagnose and treat it.

The Horizon Surgery Center is at 19900 Haggerty Road, south of Eight Mile Road, Livonia. There is no charge for the seminar, but seating is limited, so call for 462-1888 for more information.

Health Alliance Plan's growing network in Southeastern Michigan offers you more doctors, hospitals, nurses and caring professionals to choose from than ever before.

And that's another good reason why more people are choosing HAP for health care than ever before. If you like having more choices, take another look at Health Alliance Plan. With our conveniently located medical centers and affiliations with most major hospital/physician groups, your HAP card makes quality health care even more accessible.

In an emergency, HAP's still got you covered—wherever you travel. And if you've got kids away at school we have a plan to cover them, too. Get all the information today. And watch for the open enrollment period where you work. Call 872-8100, Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 6:00 pm.

Another characteristic of our church is our use of the BIBLE as a LITERAL, FACTUAL, and PERSONAL book. We believe in the PARABLES, figures of speech and figurative LANGUAGE. We believe in the BIBLE as INSPIRED PERSONAL WORD to man. If you are born, but if it is just symbols and allegories, A DECEIVER IS HIDING YOUR VISION. Come worship with us!

Minister leads trip to Holy Land

BY SUE MASON STAFF WRITER

As the Rev. Dr. Wilbert Gough sees it, the peace agreement between Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization is "nothing less than a miracle." "They haven't been too friendly over the centuries and now at least shake hands," said Gough. "It's something we've all prayed for — Jews, Muslims, Christians — for many years. Although it is the beginning, it is a step in the right direction. It's with prayer and faith that peace might come in a greater way to the entire Middle East."

Gough's opinion isn't unique; it's shared by people worldwide. But for the Plymouth resident, the changes taking place in the Middle East will make for an exciting time when he and his wife, Florence, lead a tour to the Holy Land in late February.

For the Goughs, such tours are part of their ministry of helping people to walk "where Jesus walked" and feel the inspiration of the biblical lands and historic places, "many of which are pretty much as they were in the time of Christ." The Goughs have led eight tours to the Holy Land, the last in 1979, and tours on the journeys of Paul the Apostle and to other parts of the world.

First trip
Gough's first trip to Israel came in 1958 when he went with the Rev. Dr. Frank Field, pastor of the First United Methodist Might be: Gordon's Garden Tomb is a site that some archeologists believe is similar to the tomb Christ was buried in.

Church of Mount Clemens. They stayed for five weeks in the city of Bethlehem and took day trips throughout the country. He returned home and told his wife he couldn't wait until they saved enough money for both to go.

It took 11 years, but they made the trip in 1969 and eventually led tours there through 1979. The tension in the area forced them to make guided trips to Greece, Rome, Japan, to the Passion Play in Germany three times and on the journey of Paul.

"A lot has happened since then and I'd like to go back," said Gough. "Sometimes people have a fear of the Holy Land, but I've been to Hawaii, Japan and all over the world, but by far the place to be is Israel."

Their return trip will be a 10-day excursion, leaving New York on Feb. 28. The trip has a theme of "Jesus: His Life, His Time, His Land, His Hebrew Faith," and will take in such cities as Jericho, Jerusalem and Bethlehem and the Sea of Galilee. Cost is $1,398 and includes roundtrip airfare, accommodations, two meals a day and guided sightseeing.

The Goughs have four members get together several times before the trip to get acquainted and discuss such things as how to dress, what to take and what is expected of tourists. "It's sort of a follow-up; it reinforces and they relive their experiences of the journey," Gough said.

While in the Holy Land, the travelers will visit the River Jordan where they will have a chance to renew their baptism, meditate

RELIGION CALENDAR

Items for the religion calendar should be submitted no later than noon Friday for the following Thursday's edition. You can also obtain current information about events, speakers and service schedules, etc., by calling 901-4750 or 953-2048 on a Touch-Tone phone. You must have your four-digit church I.D. ready. For more information about the service, call Bryan at 953-2297.

SALAD LUNCHEON
The women of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will present a salad luncheon, followed by a mission speaker from Pakistan, at 11 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 28, at the church, 26701 Joy, Dearborn Heights. For more information, call the church at 274-3820 between 9 a.m. and noon weekdays.

RUMMAGE SALES
The Women's League of St. Paul Lutheran Church will have a rummage and bake sale 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday and Friday, Oct. 28-29, and a bag sale 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 30, at the church, 20805 Middlebelt, Livonia.

PRAYER WALK '93
Several area churches will participate in Prayer Walk '93, a march and prayer rally for the city of Detroit and the homeless. The march will start at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 30, followed by the prayer rally at 11 a.m. at the Detroit Rescue Mission.

Participating churches include Main Street Southern Baptist of Canton; Livonia Baptist, Mt. Hope Congregational, Parkview Baptist, Peace Lutheran, Newburg United Methodist, Christ the King Lutheran, Holy Cross Lutheran, Ward Presbyterian, Salem United Church of Christ and Calvary Mission, all of Livonia; Lakeshore Community and Trinity Presbyterian, both of Plymouth; and Temple Baptist, Covenant Community, Aldersgate United Methodist, Trinity Church of the Brethren and Christ Lutheran, all of Redford.

The rally will feature Ernie Harwell and pastor David Vann Jr. and offers an opportunity for the Detroit community to join together and show concern for the city and the people who live in it.

OLD FASHION DAY
The Church of God of Prophecy will have an Old Fashion Day Sunday, Oct. 31. The morning service will be at 10 a.m., followed by dinner and singing with the "Lakelands." ## God has a new plan for this planet

God is slowly but inexorably shoving, pushing, and inviting us to discover that we are all one.

REV. DAVID STRONG

What is a trilobite? I asked this question of a group of children. One of them knew what a trilobite is. He said, "A trilobite is a fossil." Not only is it a fossil, but it is the most numerous animal that has ever lived on this planet. Also, as far as we know, it is the first animal which had vision. Although it is now extinct, it roamed the bottoms of the seas of our entire planet for 330 million years.

It is extinct because it did not fit in with the changing universe. The other day I met a man who no longer fits into the changing planet earth. He told me that the state should execute anyone who kills another person. He went on to say that the nations in the Arab world are right. If a person steals something, the state should cut off his fingers. This man went on to say that he believed in an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.

In this day of crime and fear, believing that we are all one, these human beings are a new species upon this earth. The majority are trilobites. They do not understand. They are willing to live in an old system of death, dominance and destruction of the planet. Yet as with all changes in evolution, the new minority eventually replaces the old extinct class.

Trilobites were very advanced for their day. After some 330 million years, they were replaced by a minority movement of new species. Today, there are already those who envision a Planetary Pentecost.

These are moments when we see evidence of such a reality even today. In this Planetary Pentecost we will hear, feel, touch and celebrate this oneness of all God's creation. It will herald our opportunity to be the new human species in God's eternal purpose.

A MESSAGE TO MICHIGAN'S SMALL BUSINESSES:
FRAUDULENT HEALTH CARE CLAIMS COST US ALL A LOT OF MONEY.

Who are the crooks? People who lend their health insurance cards to "friends" Thieves who traffic in I.D. cards. Providers who intentionally file claims for services they didn't perform or misrepresent what they did to get more money. Business owners who falsely claim family members as employees to get them covered. Even insurance company employees who work the system to their advantage.

Make you mad? Us, too. In 1980, we hired former law enforcement professionals to start a new anti-fraud unit. Its mission is to detect and investigate potential fraud and to turn information over to police and prosecutors. We also worked with Michigan's elected officials to pass the Health Care False Claims Act of 1984.

THE RESULT? PEOPLE WHO TRY TO STEAL YOUR HEALTH CARE DOLLARS GO TO JAIL.

So far, our anti-fraud department has helped save or recover $100 million. It's a model for health insurers. And it's been praised by the federal government as one of America's best anti-fraud programs.

It's not the whole answer to high health care costs. But a vigorous anti-fraud effort, like the Blues, is a vital part of helping you get the most value for every health care dollar.

For more information about options from Blue Cross Blue Shield and Blue Care Network of Michigan, call your local independent insurance agent or a Blue Cross Blue Shield sales representative.

"Our tolerance for fraud is zero."
