Chiefs good;
Rocks better

BY C.J. RISAK
SPORTS EDITOR
cjrisak@oe.homecomm.net

Scores are indicators. If it's the first of the year, it gives a coach a starting point. After that, it tells him which direction his team is headed.

Last Thursday's Plymouth Canton-vs.-Plymouth Salem golf match did both. It showed Salem coach Rick Wilson his team may indeed be one of the premier squads in the Western Lakes Activities Association, although Wilson is cautious in making such a proclamation.

The outcome — a 187-204 Salem victory at St. John's — told Canton coach Dan Riggs that his young team will be pretty good, too, after a few matches.

"I'm optimistic," said Riggs, whose team finished seventh in the WLAA last season. "We shot 204 in our first time out. The last few years we were at 224 or 225 in our first match."

"This was our first match and (Salem's) third."

Translation: Riggs can see the Chiefs, with just two seniors among his current top six, improving dramatically in the next few weeks. Maybe not enough to challenge the league's frontrunners — then again . . .

"Three weeks from now, I'd like to play Salem again," Riggs mused.

Salem's Wilson wasn't ready to display that kind of unbridled optimism, even though only two members from last season's third-place Rocks' team are gone. One will be particularly tough to take: Ashley Burgess, an all-conference selection now in her sophomore season, but at a school in Minnesota, where her family moved. Also gone is Molly Hedges.

Still, the Rocks have shown something special. In their 10-stroke win over defending WLAA co-champ Livonia Stevenson last Monday and against Canton, they had all four scorers shoot better than 50.

Top Chief: Meghan Stewart, who led Canton with a 48 against Salem, lines up a putt.

"I think we have some depth," said Wilson. "The key for us is having four girls in the mid-40s, between 44 and 48. If we do that, we'll win a lot of matches."

Returning for Salem are seniors Danielle March, who shot a 44 to lead the Rocks against Canton; Kellie Tamme, who had a 46; Jenny Schwann and Doris Wu. March, Tamme and Schwann were varsity regulars last season.

So was Danielle Powers, a sophomore who shot a 48 against Canton. Another player to watch closely is freshman Jamie Siedlaczek, who shot a 49 against the Chiefs and has been one of Salem's scorers in both duals this season.

Others Wilson figures to be in the mix are junior Lindsay Young and sophomore Emily Brockschmidt.

Top swing: Salem's Kellie Tamme turned in a memorable performance in her senior performance against Canton, shooting a 46.

"I think we can be better than we have been," Wilson said, more an endorsement of how good this team can be than a criticism. "It's been since Katie Collins and Katie Murinas (in 1997) that we've had scores like this."

Those two, both among the WLAA's top six, went on to play collegiately. Wilson isn't ready to say this team is that good, or even ready to make a run at the state tournament. "I don't even want to go there," he said, calling the road to the WLAA title tough enough to travel.

Canton certainly hopes to be on that avenue as well. Meghan Stewart, a

Canton splits pair with Brother Rice

It seems Plymouth Canton's baseball team just needs to get a few things straightened out.

Starting with which games are the important ones.

Last Thursday, the Chiefs hosted Birmingham Brother Rice in a non-league double-header. The Warriors, regarded as one of the top teams in the state, were taught a lesson in the first game by Canton, getting mercied 12-0. It was their first loss of the season; they were 10-1 after returning the favor to the Chiefs in the second game, winning 14-4.

The split came a day after Canton lost its second-straight in the Western Lakes Activities Association, getting beaten by Farmington Harrison 9-1 Wednesday at Harrison.

"Both teams emptied their benches in the second game," explained Canton coach Scott Dickey. That wasn't the case in Game One: Seven Chiefs had two hits in dispatching Rice, led by Nick Musselman, one of his two hits a two-run home run in the first inning (he finished with three runs batted in), and Mark Hanson, who collected a two-run homer in the third (he also had a single).

There were plenty of other offensive contributors. Matt Kay had two doubles and three RBI; Chris Pirch had a double and a triple, two RBI and two runs scored; Joe Kondratick and Andy Howald each had two hits and two RBI; and Brent Kwiatkowski had two hits and a run batted in.

Carl McDevitt continued his impressive pitching, stretching his scoreless innings pitched string to 22 in the five-inning shutout. He gave up four hits and no walks, striking out two. McDevitt is 3-0 this season.

In the second game, the Chiefs got just five hits, Kay — who had four doubles on the day — getting two of them, including a two-run double in the fifth. Jon Western started and took the loss, allowing nine runs in two innings.

The loss to Harrison was a different story. Hanson started and took the loss, giving up eight runs, only four of which were earned thanks to three Canton errors.

Crusaders take 2 from Cornerstone

Two hits. That's all Madonna University's softball team could manage in the first game of its Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference double-header against Cornerstone University Friday at Livonia Ladywood.

But it was enough. Autumn Batyik slugged a one-out double in the bottom of the sixth inning and Krystle Shina's attempted sacrifice bunt was thrown away, allowing Batyik to score the game's only run as Madonna got a 1-0 victory.

It was an inspirational win for the Crusaders against a team that entered the twinbill with a 23-3-1 overall record. They followed it by gaining a sweep, beating the Golden Eagles 7-3 in the nightcap.

The two win evened Madonna's WHAC record at 9-9; overall, the Crusaders are 17-19. Cornerstone fell to 23-5-1 overall, 13-4 in the WHAC.

That single run in the opener made Jenny Tenyer a winner over Cornerstone's Tarrah Brown, who gave up the lone unearned run on two hits and one walk, striking out nine. Tenyer was equally effective, surrendering four hits and one walk to improve her record to 6-11. Brown is 12-3.

The second game was less dramatic but just as satisfactory for the Crusaders. They scored one run in the first and added three more in the second as Missy VanDoorn blanked Cornerstone for six innings before weakening in the seventh.

VanDoorn gave up three runs on seven hits and five walks, striking out four in 6 2/3 innings as she improved to 11-8. Tenyer came on in relief and got the final out in the seventh to earn the save. Tracy Paterson started and took the loss for the Eagles.

Shina led the Madonna attack with three hits, two of them doubles, scoring two runs and driving in another. Batyik added two hits, two runs scored and two RBI, while Arin Fowler and Jamie Bobrowski contributed a single and an RBI apiece.

Paterson had two hits for Cornerstone.

Madonna, Thunder split

The first game Madonna University's softball team played Wednesday at Tri-State University was a pitcher's duel, and the Thunder's duo of Adriane Kurtz and Courtney Schuttrow won it, combining on a three-hit 2-0 triumph.

The second game belonged to Madonna, which after 13 scoreless innings covering the two games broke loose for five runs in the top of the seventh to earn a 5-1 win.

Missy VanDoorn was the Lady Crusaders' winning pitcher in the second game, allowing one unearned run on six hits and one walk, with three strikeouts. Ariane Kurtz took the loss for Tri-State in relief.

Down 1-0 entering the seventh, Jenny Tenyer started Madonna's inning with a double. Kathy Day (from Livonia Ladywood) followed with a single, putting runners at first and third. A couple of fielder's choices left the bases loaded and one out, with Tenyer a casualty at the plate.

After Krystle Shina popped out to shortstop, Emily Cunningham got a

Spartans wilt Shamrocks

BY BRAD MONASTIERE
STAFF WRITER
bmonastiere@oe.hometownlife.com

The seventh inning proved to be more than just a lucky number for Livonia Stevenson's baseball team Thursday.

The Spartans completed an amazing comeback on senior Bill Marsack's two-out, two-run single to help his team defeat the previously unbeaten Catholic Central Shamrocks 8-7 at Stevenson High School in a non-league contest. CC, ranked No. 2 in Division 1, fell to 9-1 overall while Stevenson improved to 3-1 overall.

Stevenson rallied from a 5-0 deficit to pull off by far its biggest win of the season. The rally was capped when junior Dan Hostetter, who reached base on a walk, barely avoided the home plate tag to score the Spartans' winning run, sending the rest of his teammates into a mob celebration near the plate. Stevenson coach Harvey Weingarden was classy in victory, giving CC credit for being such a strong team.

"That was a very good baseball team over there," he said, nodding to the CC bench. "We were lucky we caught them between two league dates today. I don't think they had the arms available they normally do. But I give our kids credit too. They all did a great job, and this was one the seniors wanted badly."

The end of the game didn't happen without controversy. With Marsack at the plate, a pitch scooted away from CC catcher Jake Viane and the ball rolled under Hoots, who was standing in the batter's box. When Viane went to get the ball, Hoots was still standing over the ball, which could have been called batter's interference, meaning the batter would be called out. It would have been the final out of the game, giving CC its 10th straight win. But the umpire ruled Marsack made a legitimate attempt to move out of the catcher's way, and allowed him to stay in the game. Two pitches later, Marsack's line drive brought home Aaron Marx and Hostetter.

CC coach John Salter said he didn't feel interference should have been called on the play, though he did go talk to the umpire to get the official ruling on the play.

"I think if our catcher had fielded the ball cleanly, he could have thrown out the runner at third," Salter said. "But I don't think the batter was in his way on purpose."

CC starting pitcher Dan Wilkes held the Spartans in check through the first 4 2/3 innings of the game while his teammates built a 5-0 lead that could easily have been a lot bigger. CC left the bases loaded in the second, third and fourth innings, and stranded two more in the fifth. Ryan Gallagher provided the biggest blast for the Shamrocks, sending a two-run home run over the right field fence to give CC a 4-0 lead in the top of the fourth. Viane drew a bases-loaded walk to increase the lead to 5-0, but that's when the comeback began.

"Our batting average with runners in scoring position must have been pretty low today," Salter said. "We left too many guys on base, and you can't do that against a good team."

Stevenson took just one inning to slice the lead to 5-4, with senior Jason Christopoulos delivering a two-run single with the bases loaded and two outs. Marx scored off a wild pitch, and Marsack doubled in a run in the inning.

CC bounced back with two runs in the top of the fifth on run-scoring hits by Gallagher and Eric Vojtkofsky, but was answered by the Spartans, who picked up two runs in the bottom of the fifth.

Stevenson pitcher Josh Smith, who entered the game in the fourth inning, pitched well in the sixth and seventh innings, making good pitches when he needed them most. Weingarden said the game was an example of his team's desire and work ethic, not getting down on itself even after digging a 5-0 hole.

"We just kept battling," he said. "This is definitely the kind of game that can build momentum for us going into the season. Now we know we can play with the better teams in the area."

Marsack went 4-for-5 with 3 RBI and a run scored for the Spartans. Gallagher drove in three runs to lead the Shamrocks, who had won nine straight to start the season before Thursday's game.

"It's disappointing we lost, but I am very happy with our 9-1 start," Salter said. "If you had told me we would win nine of our first 10 games, with as young a team as we have, I would have taken it. It's hard to rank teams so early in the season. After 15 games, you have a much better idea who the better teams are."

CC played league rival Brother Rice in a Saturday doubleheader, and hosts U-D Jesuit in a twinbill Wednesday.

Ocelot golfers ranked 7th in NJCAA

Play six tournaments in a nine-day span, and your golf team is bound to experience a few bumps.

Schoolcraft College did just that, but most of the Ocelots' ride was pretty smooth — as indicated in the recent NJCAA polls, which rank SC seventh in the nation.

Last Friday, the Ocelots' hosted the Schoolcraft College Invitational at Gateway Golf Course in Romulus. SC came away with a first-place finish, scoring a 310 to better St. Clair County CC (314), Henry Ford CC (317) and Oakland CC (330).

Henry Ford's Matt Mahanic was tournament medalist with a 72.

Best for the Ocelots was Derek Lineberry (from Plymouth Canton HS) with a 76, followed by Brian Downing with a 77, Jay

SC GOLF

Smith (Plymouth Salem) with a 78 and Mark Doughty (Salem) with a 79.

Last Tuesday, SC finished second to Kalamazoo Valley CC at the St. Clair County CC Invitational, played at Port Huron Country Club. KVCC shot 303 to the Ocelots' 309; Oakland CC and St. Clair County CC tied for third in the nine-team field at 311.

Once again, all four Ocelot scorers bettered 80, led by Brian Harnos (Garden City) with a 76. Smith was next with a 77, followed by Brian Downing and Doughty, both at 78.

Last Monday's tournament, the Henry Ford CC Invitational at Dearborn Country Club, was the one sub-par performance for SC. The Ocelots were fifth in the 10-team field, scoring 320. Oakland CC was first with a 313, followed by St. Clair County at 315, and Mott CC at 318.

Harnos paced SC with a 76. Tom McCall (Garden City) was next with an 80; Downing and Smith each shot 82.

On April 13 at the Tri-State University Community College Invitational at Zollner Golf Course in Angola, Ind., SC finished second among junior college teams with a 308; Mott was first at 301.

Smith led SC with a 75; Harnos, Downing, Lineberry, Doughty and McCall each shot a 77.

The Ocelots travel to the Grand Rapids CC Invitational Monday at Egypt Valley Country Club in Ada.

Pitching keeps Chiefs winning

SOFTBALL

Near perfection. That's where Plymouth Canton's softball team ended its first week of the season. On Friday, the Chiefs' Renee Ross improved her record to 2-0, beating host Walled Lake Central 7-0 with a four-hitter.

Ross struck out five and did not walk a batter as Canton improved to 3-0. In those three games, the Chiefs' pitchers have surrendered one run and six hits.

In the victory over Central, Canton scored twice in the first and added three runs in the fourth, two of those scoring on a single by Ross. Danielle Weber contributed two hits and two RBI for the Chiefs.

On Wednesday, it was Michelle Roelefs who turned in a superb performance as Canton blanked Farmington Harrison 3-0 at Canton. Roelefs surrendered just one hit and two walks, striking out eight.

Pam Hudson led the Chiefs' attack with two hits and two RBI. She and Weber were also superb defensively.

A big week awaits Canton. On Monday, the Chiefs go against unbeaten (through Friday) Livonia Franklin, then play a non-Wednesday as Livonia Ladywood (3-2, 1-2) earned a split against host Harper Woods Regina.

Sophomore pitcher Cory Sandrowicz tossed a five-hitter and struck out nine as Ladywood outlasted the Saddlelites in the nightcap, 3-1, in 13 innings.

Ladywood tied the game in the top of the seventh on a 2-out pinch-hit single by Sue Malonis followed by pinch-hitter Sara Robak's game-tying RBI single.

Shawn Fallon collected four of Ladywood's 13 hits, while Meghann Wilkinson and Dawn Rini each added two. Rini's RBI single in the top of the 13th proved to be the game-winner as Regina hurler Michelle Cybulski took the loss.

The Blazers lost the opener in 11 innings, 3-2, as all three Regina runs were unearned.

Jennifer O'Connell collected three hits for Regina (2-1 Central Division), including the game-winning RBI.

Wilkinson had two hits for Ladywood.

Fallon, who gave up 10 hits, walked four and struck out nine in all 11 innings, took the loss. Amy Wahley, who allowed just four hits and fanned 11, got the win.

Canton, Seaholm battle to a draw

Friday's non-league match with Birmingham Seaholm, which ended in a 1-1 draw, indicated that Plymouth Canton's girls soccer team is still searching for the right formula.

The Chiefs won't have much time to continue looking. Combined with Wednesday's 6-1 victory over Walled Lake Central at Canton, they are 2-1-2 overall.

This week will be a major test. They play at Livonia Stevenson Monday, then host Northville Wednesday before travelling to Troy Athens Saturday. Athens and Northville were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the state, respectively; Stevenson is No. 10.

Canton will have to do it without the services of starting sweeper Lindsay Lasher, who suffered an ankle injury in Friday's match. She'll be lost indefinitely.

Against Seaholm, Canton surrendered a first-half goal to Sara Marx (assisted by Maureen Connolly) in what coach Don Smith described as a lackluster effort.

"We didn't play very good in the first half," said Smith, "but we had 15 shots on goal in the second half. We had a lot of pressure on 'em. I was happy with them in the second half, not so happy in the first."

The game-tying goal came from Katie Raker with 14 minutes left. Ashley Rosaen assisted. Against Central Wednesday, Kara Marsh and Stephanie Johnson each scored two goals for the Chiefs, with Marsh adding an assist. Andrea Johnson and Molly Priebe also netted goals, with Katie Mills getting two assists and Erica Aherns and Rosaen adding one apiece.

PCA 2, Roeper 1: Plymouth Christian Academy scored twice in the second half Thursday to upend Bloomfield Hills Roeper in a Michigan Independent Athletic Conference match played at PCA.

After Sara Braden gave the Roughriders a 1-0 lead at half-time, the Eagles battled back, getting second-half scores from Sara Moriaty and Sara Roberts. Katie Polera assisted on Roberts' game-winning goal, which came late in the second half.

Rachel Rudcis was in goal for PCA, making 15 saves. She was helped by strong defensive efforts by Jessica Cleary and Christine Cleary.

The win gave PCA a 1-1-1 record, both overall and in the MIAC.

Westland bowler ties Detroit all-time high

AL HARRISON

TEN PIN ALLEY

A new all-time high score in the Wayne-Westland Metro Bowling Association has just been recorded by 22-year old Westland resident Terry Haines.

His 879 series also ties Mike Makowiec of Livonia for the Greater Detroit area all-time high series.

In the first game, Haines had the front nine strikes, then left a 10-pin with a solid hit. Finishing with a 279, he then went on to a pair of 300 games.

That same stubborn 10-pin is now tucked away in Terry's home. Ken Kossick of Canton still stands alone in second place with his 878 a couple of years ago.

The previous WWBMA high was 857.

Haines rolled his high set last week in the Tuesday Junior Classic league at Town 'n Country Lanes in Westland. They were his second and third 300 games of this season, the previous being in his Monday night league at Vision Lanes. He also had one other perfect game prior to those.

Terry, a right-hander is averaging 220 this season, up from 207 last year. He attributes all this success to his new AMF Hook Monster ball and practice, practice, practice.

•Leo Infeld of Southfield loved to bowl.

He had bowled with his Masonic Sunday morning league at Country Lanes for many years and as he grew older, had to make adjustments for deteriorating health, but kept on going.

Infeld could hardly see the pins last year, but he hit them anyway.

His teammates all stuck together over the years — Sam Havis, Lou Frederick and Harold Shwedel.

It was just this past week that we said a final farewell to Leo, who passed away at age 78.

This season was the first one that he missed because of the medical situation. If he had two words of advice for everyone, it would be "Don't smoke."

He was one nice man, bowled mostly for fun and the camaraderie among his many old friends. He embodied the spirit of what bowling is all about.

Infeld served his country in the Navy during World War II and leaves his wife of 56 years, Jenny.

An avid sports fan, Leo played baseball and golfed in addition to his bowling.

The Sunday Goodtimers

League will remember him as a good sport and a good friend.

■ In the Mid-States Masters 215 division tournament held April 14 at Nortel Lanes in Monroe, Robert Straszewski took the top prize with a 205-176 win over Ron Toswell.

In the qualifying rounds, Bill Haynes of Rochester came in second with a four-game total of 900, while Derrick Jasper of Livonia took third place with 884.

Other top finishers included: Raymond Jaszcz, Garden City, 10th place; Ken O'Brien, Troy, 23rd; Al Anderson, Westland, 32nd; and Dave Jones of Plymouth, 37th.

"Actually, I thought he threw really well," said Dickey. "We were pretty much a different team. It was just the way we played. We just didn't come ready to play."

A pair of four-run innings by the Hawks, in the third and fourth, were the Chiefs' undoing. Musselman led what little attack Canton mustered with a pair of singles, including a run-scoring base hit in the sixth.

Andy Wingert tossed five shutout innings to get the win for Harrison, which improved to 2-0.

Salem 5, Churchill 4: Jon Gordon doubled and scored on Andy Boyer's single to right field in the bottom of the seventh inning to give host Plymouth Salem (5-2 overall) the WLAA crossover win Friday over Livonia Churchill (4-3).

Down 4-0, Churchill tied it in the top of the sixth on senior outfielder Joe Thomas's grand slam.

Matt Humenay, Dave Herrick and Dave Thayer each collected two hits for the Chargers.

Steve Cox and Mike Antich had two hits apiece for Salem.

Boyer, who went the final 1 1/3 innings in relief, got the win.

Salem 7, Farmington 6: A shutout.

That's the way Wednesday's WLAA game between Plymouth Salem and Farmington developed, from the very first inning at Salem. The Falcons got a grand slam home run in the first inning from Andy Brown, but the Rocks answered with three runs in their half of the first, including a lead-off solo homer by Steve Cox.

The end result: Farmington tied it at 6-6 on Preston Picard's second solo home run of the game in the top of the seventh, but Salem won it on Drew Parling's first home run of the season leading off the bottom half of the inning, giving the Rocks a 7-6 victory.

Andy Boyer got the pitching win for Salem in relief, keeping the Falcons from causing further damage in the seventh — thanks in great part to an inning-ending Mike Antich-to-Jon Gordon-to-Andy Thackaberry double play.

All of Farmington's runs came via homers. After taking a 4-0 lead in the top of the first, Cox got Salem started with his solo blast, followed by a walk to Parling and singles by Gordon and Neil Kowalik, which resulted in two more runs to make it 4-3.

Salem took the lead with three runs in the third on a couple Farmington errors, a single by Boyer and a run-scoring ground-out by Dylan Tobin. Farmington made it a 6-5 game on Picard's first home run in the fifth, then tied it with his second in the seventh.

Canton 5, W.L. Central 3: Matt Staley was a one-man show Friday at Walled Lake Central.

Staley tossed a five-hitter, giving up one earned run and two walks while striking out nine as the Chiefs gained their first conference victory.

Staley also provided all the firepower necessary, blasting a three-run home run in the fourth inning to break a 1-1 tie. Mark Hanson added two hits for Canton, including a solo homer in the seventh, and Joe Kondratek had a single and an RBI, his first-inning sacrifice fly scoring Andy Howald, who had doubled.

The Chiefs improved to 7-3-1 overall, 1-2 in the WLAA.

PCA 19, Roper 6: Plymouth Christian Academy got its first win in the Michigan Independent Athletic Conference, mercying host Bloomfield Hills Roper Thursday.

PCA improved to 2-1 overall, 1-1 in the MIAC. Roper is 0-4 overall, 0-2 in the conference.

Clay Welton started and got the win, allowing one unearned run on one hit in three innings. He struck out seven.

Brian Carnevale paced the Eagles' offense, going 5-for-5 at the plate with two doubles and a triple, driving in four runs. Andrew Shumaker added two hits, including a double, with four RBI. Welton had two doubles and three RBI and Rob Treadwell contributed three hits and two RBI.

A.A. Greenhills 7, Agape 5: Ann Arbor Greenhills overcame a 5-0 deficit to hand Canton Agape Christian its first loss of the season after four-straight wins.

David Donaldson took the loss for the Wolverines, giving up six runs (five earned) in six innings.

Johnny Estrada and Jeremiah Belton paced the Agape offense, which scored all of its runs in the first three innings, with two hits and an RBI each.

clutch, two-out double to give Madonna a 2-1 lead.

Arin Fowler followed with a two-run single and Jamie Bobrowski then doubled in another run, extending the Crusaders' lead to 5-1.

Cunningham and Fowler each finished the game with two hits and two runs batted in.

Tenyer also had two hits.

Tenyer was the hard-luck pitcher in the first-game loss. She allowed two runs on five hits and a walk.

Unfortunately, Madonna managed just three singles.

senior who's 48 led the Chiefs against Salem, and Jen Travers, another senior who had a 49, both return; so does junior Meghan Depp, who had a 51, and sophomore Beth Treadwell. Another returnee who played part time for the Canton varsity last season is Heather Hughisian.

Bolstering Riggs' hopes for his team are junior Michelle Corwin, a transfer from Virginia who played on the boys varsity because there was no girls' golf, and freshman Natalie Slupek, whose older sister Christina was Canton's best golfer last season. The good news is that Christina Slupek is the only major loss for the Chiefs.

Other good news is that Natalie "is probably a bit better than Christina was as a freshman," Riggs said. "She has a pure-hitting stroke, the best on our team. We've just got to settle her down a bit.

"She's going to be outstanding."

Although he thought their score was good, Riggs wasn't that happy. "Basically, we've got a real young team," the Canton coach said. "Perennially, it's been Northville, Salem, (Livonia) Churchill and Stevenson in the league.

"But don't count Canton out. We could be there. Our first goal is to win the division, second to win the conference, and third is to go to the regional and have a good showing.

"Winning the division won't be easy. Churchill tied with Stevenson for the title last season, and Northville is everyone's pick to be among the WLAA's best.

Stevenson and Farmington will provide Salem with its biggest challenge in the Lakes. Which means it will be a wide-open race.

Salem 6th at Hartland

At the 17-team Hartland Best-Ball Tournament Friday at Dunham Hills, Plymouth Salem's three two-person teams combined to finish sixth overall.

Northville edged Ann Arbor Pioneer for first by a single stroke, 264 to 265, with Brighton third at 271 and Farmington fourth at 280. Milford placed fifth with 282, followed by Salem at 284.

Danielle March and Kim Tamme combined to card the Rocks' best score at 88. Jamie Siedlaczek and Jenny Schwann were next best at 95, with Danielle Powers and Emily Brockschmidt third at 101.

Salem goes against defending WLAA co-champ Livonia Churchill Monday at St. John's.

Preemies step out for March of Dimes

The usual image of a premature baby isn't very pretty. Inside a hospital's neonatal intensive care unit there are incubators inhabited by frail-looking infants, tethered to ventilators, tubes and monitors.

Parents are waiting nearby, counting the hours, days and maybe weeks before they can actually hold their loved one. Hard-working, attentive primary care nurses are not far away, caring for these tiny fighters as they battle to eventually breathe on their own, open their eyes and be freed from the lifelines made necessary because of being born far too soon.

But as is underscored by the March of Dimes, which for this year's WalkAmerica is using "Be a Hero for the Tiniest Babies" as its theme, quite a welcome fight is being waged to alter that image.

Walks on Saturday in Plymouth and next Sunday in Troy, Detroit and at Metro Beach (all beginning at 9 a.m.) will be populated with the usual walk teams. There will be teams from corporations, health-care groups and volunteer-minded folks who just want to do their part to help March of Dimes raise research money to reduce problem pregnancies and enhance the health of all babies.

■ Walks on Saturday in Plymouth and next Sunday in Troy, Detroit and at Metro Beach (all beginning at 9 a.m.) will be populated with the usual walk teams. There will be teams from corporations, health-care groups and volunteer-minded folks who just want to do their part to help March of Dimes raise research money to reduce problem pregnancies and enhance the health of all babies.

But given this year's walk focus, a very fitting team will get together at Hines Park in Plymouth: 20 former preemies and their families, who make up the Preemie Stars.

Among those families will be the Blackers of Livonia, whose children Katie and Danny were regional ambassadors for WalkAmerica during the 1990s. My daughter, Elizabeth (born at 1 lb. 14 oz. at 25-weeks gestation in 1994), also will help put face and a smile on the proceedings.

Admirable as it is, it's one thing for Compuware or Little Caesars employees to collect pledges, wear T-shirts and take on the walk route. It's another, according to Laurie Blacker, for actual beneficiaries of March of Dimes research to get out there, too.

With the Preemie Stars, believed to be the only walk team of preemies, that mission becomes "much more personal," she added.

Distrust and fear

Patient's story, coordinator's experience tells truth about minorities and organ donation

BY NICOLE STAFFORD
STAFF WRITER
nstafford@oe.homecomm.net

The story of Nina White's kidney transplant has tremendous emotional power.

More than that, it topples myths that contribute to low organ donation levels among African-Americans.

Blood type generally determines whether there's a match between donor and transplant candidate.

In some cases, a genetic match — something that's greater in individuals of the same race — is medically necessary or preferable. Such a match may be required to avoid rejection with kidney transplants, for instance.

And, because there's a higher incidence of certain illnesses in African-Americans, the need for particular organs can be greater. Of the 1,762 people currently waiting for a kidney transplant in Michigan, 843 are African-American, according March 2002 statistics compiled by the Gift of Life Agency, the state's organ recovery organization.

"At no point did I consider that race would be an issue with me getting a transplant," says White, a 38-year-old African-American who received a new kidney almost three years ago.

But White, who lives in Southfield, has an optimism not all African-Americans share.

Distrust of the medical community is common among African-Americans and often blamed for low levels of organ donation by the ethnicity.

Urban myths

"I believed some of the urban myths," says Richard Chenault II, an African-American and donation specialist at the University of Michigan Health Systems in Ann Arbor.

Chenault says when he began working as a transplant coordinator, he had the impression African-Americans were "always being asked to donate organs, but very rarely received an organ."

A common myth among African-Americans is the belief they won't receive exhaustive medical treatment in the emergency room, if they're registered organ donors.

Another is the idea that particular socio-economic groups receive priority on organ transplant lists, says Chenault.

Fueling suspicion is history: In the 1930s, a group of African-American men were injected with syphilis and not treated in the name of government medical research. The event is known as the Tuskegee incident.

Richard's transformation

"There is ignorance, a lot of ignorance," says Chenault, whose own misguided beliefs

brought him to the brink of leaving his profession.

But a chance course of events at the medical center transformed his perspective. Chenault coordinated a transplant in which the donor was a young Caucasian girl and the recipient, a young African-American boy. The juxtaposition, "changed my mind," he says.

"I had an epiphany. And from that, I said, 'Richard, not only do you need to educate yourself about organ donation, but also, you need to educate more minorities.'"

"Another thing," adds Chenault. "Organ donation is positive for all people, and I think all people need to understand that. All people benefit from organ donation."

Other groups

The medical community sees low levels of organ donation among other minority groups, including Native Americans, Hispanic- and Arab-Americans, says Remona Chapman, director of Gift of Life's minority organ tissue transplant education program.

While distrust of the medical community and poor access to health care contribute to the problem, cultural and religious beliefs often play a role, too, she says. "For Native-Americans and Hispanic-Americans, we have found the idea that, if you talk about death, you invite death, that it's taboo to talk about death and organ donation."

The reality is nobody likes to discuss death. But the absence of such conversations is the core issue for organ transplant profession-

TALK ABOUT THE GIFT OF LIFE

- It's crucial to talk about organ donation and share your wishes with your family.
- In Michigan and most states, family consent is legally required for organ donation, regardless of whether the deceased has declared their wishes formally.
- To declare your wish to be an organ donor, register on the Michigan Donor Registry or sign the back of your driver's license.
- Michigan Donor Registry cards are available at all Secretary of State offices or through the Gift of Life Agency by calling (800) 482-4881.
- Formal declarations of your wish to be an organ donor do influence a family's consent decision, but prior discussions make the decision easier.

RAISING AWARENESS

April is Michigan Donor Awareness Month, and the week of April 21-27 is National Organ and Tissue Donor Awareness Week.

To educate the public about organ donation and draw attention to the cause, the Gift of Life Agency, the state's recovery agency, has planned several special events including:

■ Introduction of local organ donation heroes to state legislators on April 18 at the state Capitol in Lansing.

■ Symbolic green ribbon displays set up by various community groups across the state. For a participating group in your area or to get involved, call Amy Olszewski at (800) 482-4881.

There are a variety of resources for those who have questions or want to learn more organ donation including:

- Gift of Life Agency, call (800) 482-4881 or visit www.tsm-giftoflife.org on the Internet.
- United Network for Organ Sharing (UNOS), visit www.unos.org on the Internet.
- Coalition on Donation, visit www.shareyourlife.org on the Internet.

als. Family consent is required by the law in Michigan for organ procurement, so talking about the gift of life is crucial, regardless of race, says Chapman. "When people have talked about it ahead of time, we have found that the family is more likely to give consent."

Nina's story

White learned her kidneys were failing at about the same time she found out she was pregnant. Although she was able to go through with the pregnancy and give birth to her first child, Gabrielle, now 5, doctors knew she would eventually need a transplant. "They knew my condition would continue and not reverse itself, but they didn't know how long it would take to lead to dysfunction," says White.

Unfortunately, White's family members — the best candidates for a genetic match — were ineligible to donate. White's mother was suitable but had high blood pressure. Doctors ruled out her sister because she, too, suffered from high blood pressure. And White's father was himself undergoing dialysis at the time. White's husband had a different blood type.

About a year after giving birth to Gabrielle, White's kidney's could no longer

Small businesses get relief on workplace injury costs

The Michigan Chiropractic Association has obtained a grant to offer free workplace safety training to small businesses throughout Michigan. The chiropractors are partnering with the Michigan Manufacturers Association and two other industry groups to make ergonomic on-site safety training available to small businesses. The WorkSafe program is open to companies with between 70 and 200 employees in the manufacturing, road building, and nursing home industries throughout the state of Michigan.

Funding and guidance for this program is provided by the Michigan Department of Consumer and Industry Services. Dr. Pat Chelnyak of Novi Chiropractic Clinic will conduct the first of 100 training events that will take place this spring and summer.

The WorkSafe program, in its debut year, will allow local MCA doctors to conduct 100 free on-site training sessions for employees in the three industries on the proper ways to lift and move in the workplace. The program targets companies with between 70 and 200 employees.

Ergonomic and spinal issues in the work place result in an estimated $8 billion in medical bills, legal bills and lost product days each year nation-wide. For this reason, many larger companies have incorporated ergonomic and spinal safety training into their regular employee training. Smaller companies of 200 or fewer employees lack the resources needed to offer this type of training. The WorkSafe program was designed to reduce the number of health and safety risks taken by employees and reduce the skyrocketing cost of compensation claims.

Interested companies should contact Colleen Grimes at the MCA's communications and research department at (517) 333-3133.

Portable defibrillators provide quick heart attack assistance

BY LAURAN NEERGAARD
AP MEDICAL WRITER

WASHINGTON (AP) — You can be walking around normally and in the next instance, your heart suddenly stops beating. It takes a mere five seconds to lose consciousness.

In 20 seconds, your brain shows it's losing oxygen — your eyes roll back and your arms and legs twitch. In 10 minutes, you'll be dead.

This is sudden cardiac arrest, and there's only one save: A defibrillator, a device that shocks the heart into beating again. Every minute spent waiting for one lowers the chance of survival by 10 percent.

Portable defibrillators in airplanes, shopping malls and casinos have saved lives. Now some doctors, survivors and defibrillator makers say it's time for the easy-to-use machines to move into many homes, alongside such common safety devices as smoke alarms and fire extinguishers.

Other doctors argue that putting defibrillators in so many untrained hands could be risky. They envision a distraught spouse spending precious minutes hunting for the defibrillator instead of dialing 911 — only to discover the machine's battery is dead.

Dr. Arthur Kellerman of Emory University worries that owning a defibrillator might cause people to ignore less glamorous but proven heart protection:

"Why give up my cheeseburgers? I've got old sparky under the couch."

The Dallas-based American Heart Association says there's no scientific evidence to tell whether at-home defibrillators are helpful or not — the topic hasn't been studied.

Yet already dozens of people — who can afford the $3,500 price tag — have gotten doctors to write them prescriptions for the devices.

"I have one in my home and my car, as a personal safety thing," says Dr. Gust Bardy of the University of Washington. "Speed is of the essence."

Bardy's research suggests 11-year-olds can quickly learn to operate the machines.

Hoping to widen the market, manufacturer Philips Medical Systems plans to seek Food and Drug Administration approval this spring of a defibrillator specifically designed for at-home use. The device, slightly smaller than those available now, would sell for about $2,300.

Manufacturers are asking what the FDA would require to sell defibrillators in drugstores without a doctor's prescription.

Every year, about 220,000 Americans collapse and die of cardiac arrest. This is not a heart attack, it's worse: Without warning, the electrical signals that pump the heart go haywire and heartbeat stops. CPR buys crucial time by getting oxygen to the victim's brain while help is summoned. But only a defibrillator can restart the heart.

It requires no special medical expertise, and step-by-step instructions are provided. The machine isn't supposed to shock if it detects a heartbeat.

Paramedics have long carried defibrillators. Backed by studies, such as one that found defibrillators on board American Airlines saved six of 15 cardiac-arrest victims, they're increasingly found in police cars, office buildings, airports, casinos and shopping malls.

The home is the next frontier. Proponents say that's where most cardiac arrests happen.

Studies of laymen's use of defibrillators in public buildings are mixed on whether they increase survival rates significantly more than performing CPR until paramedics arrive.

The National Institutes of Health has begun a major study in 1,000 apartment buildings, health clubs, skyscrapers and other buildings. It doesn't address at-home use specifically — study participants are unlikely to be treated by a loved one — but it should shed some light on ways to ensure defibrillators are used effectively.

More than one person must know where it is and how to use it, says Dr. Marcel Salive of NIH's National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute. Someone must perform regular battery checks.

That sounds simple, but 16 million homes have smoke alarms with dead batteries. Defibrillator proponent Dr. Lance Becker of the University of Chicago admits he doesn't know where his fire extinguisher is.

What's a consumer to think? Even Becker doesn't think everyone needs a defibrillator yet. But some heart conditions are treated by implanting a defibrillator into the chest — and people too old or ill to undergo that surgery should own a portable defibrillator if they live with someone who could use it on them, he says.

Kellerman calls that reasonable. But he advises anyone else to get a checkup, join a health club and make a donation to the local paramedics.

"You'll do more for your health and your community."

Plan to tee off for Angela Hospice golf outing

Check off Monday, May 13, on your calendar as the day to tee off at the 2002 Angela Hospice Golf Outing. Walnut Creek Country Club in South Lyon will host the 14th annual event, with proceeds benefiting the many caring programs of Angela Hospice.

Planning for the outing is underway. Jennifer Trussler, Angela Hospice events specialist, says there are many ways for golfers and non-golfers alike to participate and enhance the success of the outing.

"Spots for golfers are available. Golfers may bring their own team or register to be placed on a team," she said. "We also appreciate those who support us via hole sponsorships or by participating in the live auction and raffle."

■ Participants will enjoy free-range balls before golf; 18 holes of golf with cart, lunch, beverage stations on the course; a golfer gift pack, and dinner with open bar.

A special feature of this year's golf outing will be the debut of the "Fortune $5,000" raffle. Only 200 tickets will be sold, each for $100 and offering chances to win 10 cash prizes ranging from $250-$5,000.

Prices for the outing will remain the same as last year, with Golfer Packages for $200, Business Partner Packages for $600, and Corporate Packages for $1,000. The day will swing into action with a noon shotgun start. Participants will enjoy free-range balls before golf; 18 holes of golf with cart, lunch, beverage stations on the course; a golfer gift pack, and dinner with open bar.

For more information, raffle tickets, or to charge your registration for the 2002 Angela Hospice Golf Outing by phone, contact Trussler at Angela Hospice, (734) 464-7810.

Toll-free number helps jobless with federal benefit extension

Help is just a toll-free telephone call away for long-term jobless workers in the state who believe they may qualify for recently authorized federal unemployment benefits.

On March 25, the Michigan Unemployment Agency's Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation (TEUC) unit opened its toll-free telephone number to answer questions about the federal extension.

Call (866)241-0152 weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

TEUC applications are available at local Michigan Unemployment Agency offices around the state and through the agency's Web site, www.michigan.gov/ua. Those who are currently exhausting their state unemployment benefits will automatically be mailed an application approximately one week after their last state unemployment check.

Individuals will generally qualify for the federal benefits if they are unemployed and have exhausted their state unemployment benefits after March 10, 2001. The week ending Saturday, March 16, 2002, was the first week of unemployment for which TEUC benefits were payable.

Thermometer exchange

Botsford General Hospital will exchange mercury thermometers for safer digital thermometers. While supplies last, bring in a mercury thermometer and receive a free digital thermometer, including instructions on the proper use of an oral digital thermometer and information on the dangers of mercury.

According to the American Academy of Pediatrics and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, people should stop using mercury thermometers. Mercury is a toxic substance that can harm both humans and wildlife. Significant exposure, whether brief or extended, can produce major effects on the central nervous system, kidneys, skin and lungs.

These Botsford sites are offering the thermometer exchange:

- Botsford Community Pharmacy, 28100 Grand River, Suite 101, Farmington Hills
- Botsford Pediatric Associates, 28100 Grand River, Suite 314, Farmington Hills
- Botsford Pediatric Urgent Care Center, 23133 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington
- Farmington Village Family Practice,

32754 Grand River, Farmington
■ Botsford Primary Care Physicians, 27031 Warren, Dearborn Heights
■ Botsford Family Health Center, 35000 Schoolcraft, Livonia
■ Family Care Associates, 9398 Lilley Road, Plymouth
For more information visit Botsford's Web site at www.botsfordsystem.org.

Eating disorders

Participants are needed for a research study that includes a 20-week treatment program to examine the effectiveness of a new type of counseling to reduce eating disorder symptoms and improve health and well-being. Psychotherapy and nutritional counseling and related medical monitoring are offered at no cost with a $200 compensation upon completion of the study.

You may be eligible if you are a woman between ages 18-35 currently experiencing any of the following symptoms: Binge eating, vomiting or using laxatives or water pills to get rid of food eaten or to control weight, exercising several times a week to control your weight, fasting, underweight because of dieting, or missing your menstrual periods.

For more information, call (800) 742-2300 category 2200, or e-mail: corte@umich.edu. The study is conducted by The Women's Mental Health Project at the University of Michigan School of Nursing.

Pregnancy loss

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital of Ann Arbor will hold a special memorial service for those who have experienced pregnancy losses. The service will be held on Monday, May 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the hospital's chapel. St. Joseph Mercy Hospital is located at 5301 East Huron River Drive.

This ecumenical service provides a setting where family and friends can gather to remember their infants who were lost through ectopic pregnancy, miscarriage, stillbirth and newborn death. The service provides a time for healing, praying and sharing with others who have experienced similar losses. There will be music, scripture readings and the sharing of personal experiences. Registration is not required. For information, please call (734) 712-3354.

function unassisted and she started dialysis. Because she worked, White opted for home treatments, an eight-hour process of being hooked up to a machine. And, like hundreds of other ill patients, White would have to wait on a list for a transplant.

‘‘They told me probably five years,’’ says White. After a year of dialysis, ‘‘I figured I could do it for four more years — one year down. It just sort of becomes what you do.’’

Time passed with White continuing to work and administer dialysis nightly. She even traveled with her machine.

‘‘One thing about kidney failure is you can live with it. You can function. I never missed work and I did it with a 2-year-old, and I did it when my husband had to go out of town.’’

White is an orchestra teacher at Clifford Smart Middle School in Walled Lake.

Greg’s question

Then the unexpected happened. A man named Greg Posey, a friend of White’s husband, asked an unbelievable question.

‘‘He and my husband were talking and I guess my husband said something about me

■ In the fall of 1999, Posey and White underwent surgery, and Posey’s left kidney became White’s. The match was so good White has yet to experience a single symptom of rejection or a transplant-related problem.

needing a kidney, and Greg said ‘what would I need to do?’’

Shortly after the conversation, Posey, a young, single African-American from Detroit, chose to undergo testing at University of Michigan medical center where White registered for her transplant.

‘‘They said it was a match,’’ recalls White. ‘‘Then we didn’t hear from him for a while.’’

A couple months passed.

‘‘Then in the summer, I come home from work to an answering machine message and he (Posey) says ‘Looks like we’re a match. I want to do this.’’’

White was stunned.

‘‘I had probably met Greg twice. It wasn’t like we were best friends or anything.’’

And while White’s husband and Posey were good buddies, by no means, were they best friends.

In the fall of 1999, Posey and White underwent surgery, and Posey’s left kidney became White’s. The match was so good White has yet to experience a single symptom of rejection or a transplant-related problem. ‘‘It’s been three years this upcoming October.’’

Like White, Posey never factored race into his decision to undergo surgery to remove a vital organ, says White.

‘‘At no point, did he hem, haw, back out — anything. You know, you’re waiting for the shoe to drop, and it never did.’’

That the transplant happened proves ‘‘it’s possible,’’ regardless of race and socio-economic status, says White.

‘‘I just have a regular guy and a regular life and this is an unbelievable story.’’

And White’s father who was on dialysis? He, too, received a kidney transplant in 1999.

Camp Discover needs a few good campers, volunteers

The Epilepsy Foundation of Michigan is looking for children and teens with epilepsy who want to attend summer camp. Registration is underway for the Camp Discovery Program until May 1. The Epilepsy Foundation, in collaboration with YMCA Camp Storer and the Fowler Center, provides children with epilepsy an opportunity to enjoy a safe summer camping experience.

Camp Discovery helps integrate children with epilepsy into regular camp activities. Epilepsy education and awareness is incorporated into the camping experience with fun, interactive games and activities. An adult volunteer from the foundation lives at the camp for the week. The volunteer facilitates sessions, which include self-esteem building and discussions about feelings and concerns about having seizures. The volunteer also checks daily to ensure that each camper is taking his or her medication.

Camp Discovery is scheduled July 28-Aug. 3 (grades 3-7) and July 28-Aug. 9 (grades 8-10). Camp Discovery at the Fowler Center in Mayville is scheduled Aug. 11-16. The Fowler Center is specifically designed for children with developmental disabilities and special needs. Both camps have staff trained by the foundation in seizure recognition and first-aid.

Volunteers

Currently, volunteers are needed for training as counselors and Epilepsy Foundation liaisons for the camps. Volunteers must be 18 or over, preferably an adults with epilepsy. They must be willing to spend seven days (youth) or 12 days (teen) at camp. Volunteers must provide extra support to camp participants when needed, facilitate special activities one hour each day (the foundation will organize the activities), do daily medication checks. They also must participate in camp activities with the youth.

Upon completion of the camp, volunteers provide an evaluation and assist kids in filling out evaluations. Volunteers also take pictures of campers and activities.

To register or for more information, contact Robin Brumlow at (800) 377-6226, ext. 231.

Meanwhile, Bill Axtell of March of Dimes in Southfield said the Premie Stars ‘represent some very powerful testimony’ and serve as living examples why the non-profit organization is targeting prematurity this year.

‘‘We want to focus on prematurity,’’ Axtell said, ‘‘because with a lot of situations, in terms of intervention, there are ways of forestalling births.’’

To that end, March of Dimes already has an impressive track record. It helped fund research that led to surfactant, a wonder drug that speeds up lung development and prevents chronic respiratory ailments that often plague premature babies. Surfactant is one reason why Elizabeth and others who began life in hospital NICUs are able to go to school and do WalkAmerica in the first place. About 80 percent of premies respond well to the surfactant treatment.

With money from the 2002 WalkAmerica, the March of Dimes intends to move to another level of research. Dollars will be funneled to find root causes of fetal growth retardation and premature labor, also to help expectant moms extend pregnancies. Proteins in surfactant will be studied with the hope of a new-and-improved version emerging.

Hope also springs eternal that the sickly mass media image of very premature babies can be replaced with that of happy, healthy, normal kids who like to play soccer, ride bicycles or read books.

Perhaps the Premie Stars can help March of Dimes walk — real fast — toward accomplishing that transformation.

Tim Smith is a staff writer for the Observer and Eccentric Newspapers. He also is author of ‘‘Miracle Birth Stories of Very Premature Babies — Little Thumbs Up!’’ which features the Premie Stars. He can be reached at (248) 901-2589.

TWO FOR ONE
If you suffer from advanced osteoarthritis of the knee, possibly you have both knees involved. The reason could be that the injury that set the arthritis in motion was either an accident or sports related. For example, football injuries over time, could involve both the right and left leg. Or, you could be unlucky and have just the genetic makeup that made your knees susceptible to wear and tear. In that case, both knees, subject to the same stress, would wear out at the same rate.
If you have two bad knees at once, and need a knee implant, the modern way to treat, is to replace both knees at the same time. One orthopedist and assistant operate on the right knee, while another surgeon and assistant, do the same on the left knee. This approach provides several advantages.
First, you are under anesthesia only once and for as long a period as you would be if you had only one knee replaced. You have two operations but undergo only the risk that comes with one.
Second, your subsequent rehabilitation is shorter. If you were on the highway with two flat tires, and the mechanic only fixed one, you still couldn't move your car. The same is true with replacement knees. If you need two and only get one, you still won't move properly.
Experience has born out these assumptions. The medical literature shows that individuals with 2 replacements at once, have hospital stays as short as and no more complicated than, individuals receiving one transplant. Furthermore, marked savings occur, because there is no second in-hospital payment.

Pointe Park to offer popular walk-up condos

Ranch-style plus walk-up one-story and two-story residences will arise in the months ahead at Pointe Park, an attached condominium community in Novi.

Fifty-two units featuring the increasingly popular townhouse architectural look are planned for six buildings off Beck south of Pontiac Trail.

Construction is slated to begin this summer, with initial occupancy planned for early winter.

Marc O'Rourke, president of Landmarc Building and Development, succinctly describes the draws as "location, chic new product, townhouse construction and price point."

One-story walk-ups, 1,075 square feet with two bedrooms and one bath, start at $159,900; two-story walk-ups of 1,773 square feet with two bedrooms and 1½ baths, $185,900; and ranches of 1,300 square feet with two bedrooms and two baths, $209,900.

"Our biggest market is going to be singles, first-time homebuyers and divorcees or newlyweds," O'Rourke said. Empty-nesters will be attracted to the ranches, he added.

Pointe Park has access to I-96 from Beck and Wixom roads.

Recreational venues within an easy drive include Proud Lake and Island Lake state recreation areas, Kensington Metropark and Maybury State Park.

Plenty of shopping and dining opportunities are nearby, O'Rourke said.

"We have woodlands, wetlands," he added. "We plan to have two lighted boardwalks to the wetlands. The concept behind the development is connecting to adjacent commercial ... to encourage pedestrian flow."

"We're spending more money on landscaping than we did for the property," O'Rourke said.

Until Pointe Park's model is up, prospective buyers can visit a similar product line at Chancellor Park off Decker Road north of Pontiac Trail in Walled Lake.

Homes at Pointe Park will be a bit larger, offering the opportunity for a slightly different orientation of the kitchen and dining room.

Visitors are impressed, said Beverly Climie, sales consultant.

"They like the open floor plans, one-story and two-story, and they like the prices, too," she said. "They love the exterior. Landscaping is very attractive, curb appeal. They like the fact it's a small complex."

"They're turnkey units," O'Rourke said. "Basically, bring your blinds."

Homes at Pointe Park will include at base price landscaping, a small storage area/ basement off the garage; range, refrigerator and dishwasher in the kitchen; balcony or deck; vinyl flooring and carpeting; and a two-car garage with ranches, single-car garage in the walk-ups. Air conditioning ($2,650-$2,850) and gas fireplace ($3,300-$3,650) are upgrades.

Exterior materials include brick, vinyl siding and cultured stone.

Both walk-ups have a fair amount of steps from garage level to the main living area with the two-story having substantially more from either entrance.

The single story includes a living room, kitchen with half-wall and breakfast bar, dining area, two bedrooms and a bath with combination tub and shower.

Popular appearance: A New Urbanism style of architecture with walk-up, attached condominiums will define Pointe Park in Novi.

A balcony is off the master bedroom, the laundry at garage level.

The two-story includes a step-up living room with volume ceiling, dining room, great room with balcony and half bath on the main living area.

Two bedrooms, a bath with combination tub/shower and a bridge overlooking the first level are upstairs. The laundry also is at garage level.

The two-story can be modified to replace the great room with a master bedroom and bath on the first level. The second bedroom, a second bath and loft would be upstairs. Premium is $8,000.

The ranch with walk-out basement has a first-floor laundry. That plan also has an optional plan that places the second bedroom, a second full bath and a loft upstairs for a premium of $26,000.

End units will carry a premium of $10,000-$15,000. The monthly association fee is $109. All utilities are metered to individual units. Pets will be allowed.

Pointe Park will be serviced by city water, sewers and sidewalks. It's within the Walled Lake school boundaries.

The property tax rate is now $34.19 per $1,000 of state taxable value, half of sales price for new construction. That means the owners of a $185,900 residence there would pay about $3,200 the first year.

The Pointe Park sales office, (248) 960-0607, is at Landmarc's Chancellor Park community on Decker Road north of Pontiac Trail. It's open noon to 6 p.m. daily, closed Thursdays.

Lemon aid for stains

You're sitting around relaxing on your patio and just as you're about to squeeze a lemon into your cool drink, you notice rust stains on the concrete caused by your aging metal outdoor furniture. What should you do?

Set down your drink and go in search of cleaning solutions and a wire brush? No need for that.

The answer literally is in hand — the lemon you are holding.

Finish squeezing it into your drink, then reach down and rub what's left on the rust stains. Wipe with a soft towel or cloth, and the stains will disappear before your ice cubes melt.

Avoid pressurized wood to border veggie garden

FOR AP WEEKLY FEATURES

Thinking about using pressure-treated landscape timbers for a raised vegetable garden? Don't do it, some experts advise.

Pressure-treated lumber is injected with chemicals, the most common of which is copper chrome arsenate, that resist damage by moisture and pests.

There are several degrees of concentration of the chemical depending on the intended use of the wood.

For example, fence posts that will be underground contain a higher concentration of the poison than do fence boards that won't be used underground.

However, the degree of concentration is academic when it comes to any possibility of ingesting the chemical. Cedar and redwood are alternative border choices for gardens.

Primary living area in ranch contains wide open rooms

The Edgemere (G24-249) is ideal for the lot that slopes to the right.

The lower level of this 1,741-square-foot home is the two-car garage and an unfinished basement. The facade has a wrap-around covered porch, numerous windows and the general eye appeal of a ranch-styled home.

Entry is directly into the open great room.

A large fireplace is in the middle of the room. The dining area and kitchen are toward the back of this room.

A pantry off the dining area is adjacent to the stairs down to the basement.

The corner kitchen is open to all the rooms, making it great for family gatherings and the sharing of daily family news. An island is centered in the kitchen.

Two doors open off the kitchen, one to the wrap-around porch in front of the nook area, the other to a rear deck. The deck and porch are convenient for barbecues and people watching.

The right side of this home is dedicated to bedrooms. The master with a large suite area is in the rear corner.

The master features his-and-her sinks, a large walk-in closet and a long linen closet.

A utility room with a counter for folding clothes is tucked between the stairs to the basement and the master's walk-in closet.

Two bedrooms with a bath between are on the front of the home. They're close to the master, making them ideal for younger children. Bedroom two has a wall closet, bedroom three a walk-in.

This house would be ideal for empty nesters or the family with very young children. The rooms are all good-sized and open.

For a study plan, including scaled floor plans, sections and an artist rendering, send $24.95 to Landmark Designs, 33127 Saginaw Road E., Cottage Grove, OR 97424. Please specify plan name (Edgemere) and the number (G24-249.)

Lenders association sponsors home buying fair

Many questions can cloud the process of buying a home. The good news is that the answers will be available during a free Affordable Home Buyers Education Event from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 27, at the University of Detroit Mercy's Calihan Hall.

More than 1,500 people are expected to attend the free event, which is sponsored by the Michigan Mortgage Lenders Association.

Those attending the Education Event will have an opportunity to attend mortgage workshops and speak directly with the lending professionals responsible for approving loans.

Three identical hour-long workshops will be held at 9:30 a.m., 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. All will include an overview of the loan process, discussion on credit, information on mortgage and title insurance, and a real estate overview.

These educational workshops will include informative workbooks, industry leading instructors and question-and-answer sessions.

The goal of the event is to provide prospective homeowners with the practical tools needed to make ownership a reality.

We expect visits from first-time buyers, families wishing to move up to larger homes and those who would just like to learn more about the home ownership process.

With literally hundreds of mortgage programs now available to consumers, this forum offers a great opportunity for education and research.

Buying a home can be a great experience if you do your homework. Those attending the event over the past few years have considered it their "study hall."

A second Home Buying Education Event is planned for May 11 in Pontiac. For more information on either event, contact the MMLA office at (248) 356-6757.

Mark C. Stevens is president of the Michigan Mortgage Lenders Association and a senior vice president at Troy-based Flagstar Bank. Since 1929, the MMLA has provided educational opportunities to companies in the real estate finance industry.

The association also lobbies the legislature and state regulatory agencies to help produce and maintain the type of legislation and regulatory climate that permits lenders to best meet the real estate financing needs of Michigan residents.

"THE EMPTY NEST DECISION"

There comes a time in life when the kids move out, for good. We refer to the parent or parents who remain as the empty nesters. Is it wise to stay in the present home or move into a smaller home, a condo, a cluster home, or an apartment? It has been my experience that many people have made this decision either too hastily or with inadequate information. Here are the alternatives.

STAY IN PRESENT HOME

What are the pros and cons of staying where you are? Are there good reasons for moving? Do you want a change in your lifestyle? Is this a time for a new beginning? What are the financial consequences of a move?

A SMALLER HOME

If a smaller home is the best thing for you, where should it be located? How will this new location help or hinder your future plans? What features should the new house have? Do you still want to maintain a home and yard? Will the floor plan provide for your needs and the potential needs of an aging parent?

CONDOMINIUMS

Condo and apartment living represent the greatest change in lifestyle from owning and occupying your own home. A condo may be the perfect alternative for you or it may be a mistake. Many factors will affect your happiness in a condo. Some of these factors are location, density, construction, maintenance fee, management effectiveness, and social opportunities.

A CLUSTER HOME

Combining the features of condominium living with the advantages of living in your own home, this concept provides another possible lifestyle.

APARTMENT LIVING

After age 55, a federal law permits you to take substantial tax-free profits from the sale of your primary residence. If you are no longer interested in investing in real estate, perhaps apartment living is for you.

ADVICE: Ask your Realtor® for help in evaluating each alternative so you can make the most informed and best decision possible.

We're a whole lot closer to home.

Whether you're looking for a job or looking for someone to help you get the job done, your hometown newspaper's Classifieds are the place to look.

Let's face it, if you're hiring these days you know how hard it is to find just the right person. You don't want someone from three counties away who has to spend hours battling traffic that's seems to keep getting worse instead of better.

You want to look for people right here, maybe not in the neighborhood, but close enough to arrive fresh and ready to work.

It's the same when you are making a job change. You want something close enough to keep you out of the frustrating gridlock that's going on out there.

You want enough time in the morning to get a calm start and you don't want to spend half your paycheck on gas. You, too, would probably like something close to home.

Well, we have the answer for you.

The Observer & Eccentric Employment section.

You'll find hundreds of jobs; many of them are right in your own backyard!

We've put them online, too, so you can access them anytime at observerandeccentric.com

It's a wonderful thing!—thousands of employers and employees getting together through our classifieds.

You could be one of them!

ADOPT-A-PET

This Week's Featured Pet

Rufus is a ten-month-old Rottweiler male who was found stray and brought to the shelter to find a home. He is very handsome with lean yet muscular physique covered with copper and black fur. He is very sweet and likes to play bite, therefore he is not recommended for a home with children under ten years of age. Since he has lots of energy, he will need to find an owner who can give him regular playtime and walks. In addition, he is a candidate for obedience training so that he can become a well-mannered mature pooch. Since he is already neutered and up-to-date on his shots, he is able to go home with you today!

To welcome Rufus home, visit the Michigan Humane Society Westland Shelter, (734) 721-7300
