Auto supplier to build huge facility in Canton

BY TIFFANY L. PARKS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Canton has used the art of persuasion — as well as the talk of a 12-year tax abatement — to woo a Belleville company against the idea of relocating to the Volunteer State.

Marimba Auto LLC, a global supplier and manufacturer of tubular products, is expected to expand its operations by building a new, 130,000-square-foot facility near Van Born and Haggerty roads.

The project is expected to yield a $16 million investment and create 170 new jobs.

Marimba, which currently has 40 employees at its Belleville location, was considering relocating to Tennessee.

Financial assistance through the Michigan Economic Development Corporation is credited with helping convince the company to expand in Michigan. The Michigan Economic Growth Authority, based on MEDC's recommendation, has approved a state tax credit for the company valued at $851,000 over seven years.

In addition, Canton is considering a 12-year tax abatement worth $544,247 to support the project.

Canton Planner Angela Wolosiewicz said the company has yet to submit any site plans to the township. The parcel eyed by Marimba is larger than 15 acres.

"By choosing to invest and expand in Canton against some strong out-of-state competition, Marimba Auto reaffirms Michigan's standing as the epicenter of the auto industry and a great place for companies to grow and create jobs," said Governor Jennifer Granholm in a release.

Founded in 2003, Marimba's customers include General Motors, Ford, Chrysler, Toyota, Honda and Nissan.

"We are proud to support our job-creating enterprises in the automotive supplier industry," said MEDC President and CEO James Epolito. "We are working everyday to help them stay competitive in the global arena."

Township Supervisor Tom Yack said Canton is pleased to welcome Marimba Auto to the community.

"Strong communities are built on companies such as Marimba," he said.

Heritage Park event raises more than $250,000 for cancer research

BY TIFFANY L. PARKS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The threat of rain didn't put a damper on the 2008 Relay for Life of Canton.

As a few sprinkles touched down on Heritage Park Saturday afternoon, walkers continued along the trail in their efforts to raise money for cancer research.

"I miss (my aunt) a lot but this is a good way to remember her," said Lori Waite of Howell.

Waite's Relay team, Good Things Come in Small Packages, was created in 2005 as a tribute to Canton resident Judy LaGrow. LaGrow, who worked as a guidance counselor for Plymouth-Canton schools, died of lung cancer in 2003.

"We could just sit home and twiddle our thumbs but the Relay is something we can do to help find a cure for this horrible disease," said Waite, whose team had about 25 people.

Like last year, this year's Relay for Life raised more than $250,000 to benefit cancer research.

"It's fantastic and we are thrilled,"

Traveling WWII museum brings back memories for veterans

BY TIFFANY L. PARKS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

When the traveling museum, Behind Barbed Wire, rolled into town, Adolph Dobek had to see it.

The World War II Army Air Corp veteran drove from Warren to view the mobile exhibit dedicated to American prisoners of war in Nazi Germany.

"My daughter called and told me about this, so I wanted to come see what was here and it brought back a lot of memories," said Dobek, who was a POW for 14 months.

Dobek, who has penned a book about his war experience, One Slow High Flying Target Survivor, was held in a room with 16 other men during his prison stay.

When asked, Dobek, like other POWs, offers the date of his capture without missing a beat.

"March 6, 1944," he said. "I will never forget that date."

Visitors check out the exhibits in the POW museum, which visited Canton on Monday.

Behind Barbed Wire, which was parked Monday afternoon on Veteran's Way, was brought to the township by the Canton Veteran's Memorial Association.

The museum is housed in a converted school bus and features news articles, servicemen uniforms and accessories, maps, audio and books.

Army veteran Stanley Sidick of Canton served in the Korean War and said past depictions of WWII POW experiences have left a lot to be desired.

"They have not been realistic," he said, noting that he once watched a television program that implied POWs were often able to confuse their guards and then do as they pleased.

At left, Tom Houdek was in the Army Infantry. He spent 5 1/2 months in captivity, working on German railroads and water lines. During his captivity his weight dropped from 155 to 98 pounds. He was freed when the Russians overran the prison camp. At right, Adolph Dobek, a B-17 bombardier, bailed out of his crippled airplane at 25,000 feet, and spent 14 months captive in Stalag Luft 1.

Sidick said Behind Barbed Wire appeared accurate.

As students toured the bus, they took in diagrams that showed a prisoner's diet, stories about "death marches" and looked over a chest filled with bullets, a first-aid kit, foot powder and an oil can.

A Western Union telegram is displayed in a glass case in the rear of the bus that was written to inform a family that their son had been listed as missing in action.

"Talking to the POWs that survived is amazing," said Canton resident Cheryl Martin, an Army veteran. "It's incredible they actually got through it."

TRACES, a St. Paul-based nonprofit educational organization, created the traveling museum. The bus is scheduled for 32 stops in Michigan.

Summit Senior Players

The Summit Senior Player will perform "That's the Spirit!" written by Tim Kelly at the Village Theater at Cherry Hill on Friday, May 30 and Saturday, May 31 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, June 1 at 3 p.m.

This amusing whodunit investigates the murder of a Hollywood psychic in the Laurel Canyon lodge that once belonged to a famous illusionist. Investigator Claire Voyant relies on the help of Bella Donna, Anne Boleyn and Ernst Slater to help solve the mystery. Add some bumbling police, a fish-out-of-water niece, a crazed hermit and one ham of an actor to the mix, and the result is a mystery spoof.

For the past 10 years, the Summit Senior Players have produced community productions utilizing the talents of area seniors. This year under the direction of Carolyn Kaump, over a dozen cast and crew members volunteered numerous hours to produce this current show. Members' ages range from the mid-50s to 75 years of age.

Tickets are $10 for adults; $9 for seniors; $7 for students; and $6 for group rates for 15 or more. For more information, or to purchase tickets visit www.canton-mi.org/villagetheater. Tickets can also be purchased at Summit on the Park by phone at (734) 394-5460 or in person. The Village Theater ticket office will also be open one hour prior to each performance.

Lions Club to celebrate 40 years of service

BY TIFFANY L. PARKS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The Pins on Parade are impressive, but you can't eat them with a knife and fork. In gearing up for its annual pancake breakfast, the Cantons Lions Club is borrowing the concept of the oversized bowling pins lining Ford Road in celebration of the USBC women's bowling championships. Pancakes on Parade will kick off at 7 a.m. June 14 in the Kohl's parking lot at Ford and Sheldon. The yearly, all-you-care-to-eat event has become a staple of the Liberty Fest activities. Proceeds from the flapjack fund-raiser will benefit the Lions Club, which works to help the hearing impaired and eradicate preventable blindness. In addition to the Pancakes on Parade, the nonprofit organization will celebrate its 40 years of service in the Canton community with a dinner dance at 6 p.m. June 6 at the Cady/Boyer Barn in Cherry Hill Village. Canton resident Gloria Hammonds is an organizer of the anniversary celebration and said although members of the club have a good time together, their purpose goes deeper than laughs and smiles. "We are really dedicated to helping others," she said, adding that before she and her husband, Eugene, joined the club several years ago, she didn't know about the existence of some programs for the blind. "I've been really struck by the things we have learned." While offering financial assistance to such programs, the Canton Lions also donate eyeglasses to those in need throughout the area. The celebration for the club, which was recently honored by the township board for its years of service, will include raffles, a catered meal by Rose's Restaurant and '50s and '60s music by the local group Fairview. The event is open to the public. Hammonds encouraged those who are thinking about joining the organization to use this opportunity to learn more about the group. "We are friendly and we want (people) to come serve with us," she said. Charlie Mott, past president of the Canton Lions, joined the organization about seven years ago and said he's proud of the work that's been done. "We have a lot of good people who believe in going beyond the borders (of Canton) to try and help people," he said. For more information or to purchase tickets for the anniversary celebration, contact Nancy Spencer at (734) 397-8975 or johnnancysp@aol.com.

Sidewalk program will focus on three subdivisions

BY TIFFANY L. PARKS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

This year's public hearing for the Canton's sidewalk repair program was short and sweet. In a clear departure from the frustration displayed at the 2007 hearing, only three Canton men spoke during the hearing and each seemed to understand the township's position with the annual program.

Despite requesting another look at his property, Embassy Square resident John Watkins said he appreciates Canton's efforts to maintain sidewalks. "I'm really glad I moved here, because of things like this," he said. In its 10th year, this year's replacement program focused on Brentwood Estates, Sunflower Village 6-11, Embassy Square and other locations.

Township Supervisor Tom Yack said the handing down of sidewalk responsibility made it to the Michigan Supreme Court, where it was decided that townships, not counties, were in charge of repairing damage. About 1,000 notification letters were mailed to residents in late April detailing what repairs were needed for their property. Municipal Services Director

Tim Faas said the average homeowner bill is about $250. Township resident Kenneth Kuck said he attended the recent hearing just to get a feeling of whether it would be cheaper to hire his own contractor or let the township's contractor do the work. "I think people are kind of realizing that the homeowner is responsible for this," he said, adding that his assessment came in at less than $100.

If residents opt to use their own contractor, they must obtain a $55 permit from the township's Building and Inspection Services department. For more information, call Public Works at (734) 394-5150.

Hearing set in assault of disabled man

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A Canton man is free on $10,000 personal bond after being arraigned Monday on charges he assaulted a disabled man with a chemical spray.

Alexander Lee Carey, 36, was arraigned in Garden City 21st District Court on a charge of felonious assault, a four-year felony, and assault with a self-defense spray, a two-year misdemeanor. A not guilty plea was entered on his behalf.

The charges stem from a March 15 incident in which Inkster resident Kevin Bradford, 51, was using his motorized wheelchair to get to the Garden City Post Office at Cherry Hill and Merriman. Due to the lack of sidewalks, Bradford was traveling in Cherry Hill along the curb, which slowed traffic.

A driver pulled up near Bradford, put down the passenger window and sprayed the Inkster man in the face with a chemical spray. Bradford, who had to be taken to Garden

City Hospital for treatment of the chemical spray effects, and witnesses who stopped to assist him were able to provide police with a description of the suspect, including his vehicle license plate.

Once he was contacted, police said Carey cooperated with their investigation and had turned himself in for arraignment after a warrant was issued.

The preliminary examination for Carey, who waived his right to the hearing within the required 14 days, was set for Monday, June 9.

After hearing from Bradford, who lives on Cherry Hill, Judge Richard Hammer Jr. set bond conditions for Carey, which included prohibiting him from driving on Cherry Hill.

Following the incident, Bradford said he wanted his attacker prosecuted, but also called for installation to sidewalks so that he wouldn't be forced to travel in the street.

Retirement misconceptions make it hard to plan for future

As I prepared for the Observer & Eccentric Senior Expo this week, I reviewed some of the myths and misconceptions of retirement. They can seriously impair someone's ability to enjoy their retirement years. So for those who could not attend the Expo, here's a recap.

One myth about retirement I constantly hear is you can live on considerably less than when you were working.

Although certain expenses will be lower in retirement (your home may be paid off and your kids — hopefully — will be off your payroll), there will be other new expenses that you begin to incur because of more free time. Retirees today do not sit back and watch TV. They are traveling all over the world in record numbers. The thought that you can live on less in retirement tends to give a false sense of security. There is nothing worse than being retired and realizing you don't have the money to maintain your lifestyle.

Money Matters

A misconception about retirement is that once you retire, your cost of living remains flat. Nothing is further from the truth. Health care, food, entertainment, travel — you name it — all increase over time. In addition, there will be new technologies and services you will want to take advantage of. After all, 20 years ago who thought that you would have a monthly bill for something called the Internet?

Another myth is you can use the life expectancy tables to determine how long you will live in retirement.

If you look at life expectancy tables, the average American lives into his/her early 80s. However, that is only an average. What if you live past your 80s? Are you going to have the resources to maintain your lifestyle and to take advantage of new technologies that may increase the quality of your life?

I tell investors that people retiring in their early and mid-60s should plan for a 30- to 35-year time horizon.

Another misconception is upon retirement your investment portfolio should be ultra-conservative.

The thought process is in a stock market downturn, you may not have time to wait for a recovery. That doesn't make sense. What that assumes is all people in retirement are the same.

Obviously, there is a big difference in someone's portfolio if they are 95 vs. 65. The reality is in retirement you will need a rising income and having a portion of your portfolio invested in equities for the long term is the appropriate strategy for most people. Don't focus on retirement, but rather on the time frame.

Another myth is when one's spouse passes, he/she can live on half the income. Certain expenses may go down, but other expenses will continue to rise. A surviving spouse can live on less, however, not half.

It is important to consider these myths and misconceptions of retirement because mistakes made today can have severe consequences down the road.

Retirement is a new concept in the history of mankind and it requires us to think differently. Retirement today has no relationship to what it was 50 years ago and will have no relationship to the people who are retired 50 years from now.

said Jamie Chapman, associate director of the American Cancer Society Metro-Detroit Area Service Center. "We had more teams than last year and more survivors than last year." This year also marked the opportunity to participate in a long-term ACS research study. The study, which will focus on cancer prevention, had 318 enrollees. "People have opened their pocketbooks for years but this is a way to be a part of history in the making," said Marion Rozum, who helped organize the Canton end of the national study. "Wouldn't it be wonderful if this was the study that found a cure?" With karaoke singers belting out tunes by Kelly Clarkson and Kool and The Gang, the Relay was fairly upbeat with plenty of participants walking around in T-shirts that read

"I love boobs," "Boobs rock my world," and "Save second base." At any other venue, the T-shirts, some of which were embroidered with a pink ribbon, may have garnered stares and finger wagging but at the Relay, the breast cancer awareness garments were endearing. "The shirts were so much fun," Chapman said. "I think they add a little fun to the event." The Dodson SunJewels, created in honor of Dodson Elementary School principal Cheryl Clason and former Dodson student Andrew Holmlund, raised the most money of any other team bringing in more than $15,000. "Raising money for cancer research has been very therapeutic," said Robin Holmlund, Andrew's mother. "We have really rallied for a cause."

Sister Rose Marie Kujawa gives Baroness Caroline Cox the Crystal Madonna award for her global humanitarianism.

Britain's Baroness Cox honored at Madonna

"I am a nurse and a social scientist by intention and a Baroness by astonishment," said Baroness Caroline Cox to a crowd of 70 plus friends, alumni and faculty at Madonna University, recently.

Baroness Cox is vice president of the Royal College of Nursing, former deputy speaker of Britain's House of Lord, and a 2008 candidate for the Nobel Peace Prize.

"I don't actually like politics," said the Baroness. "I do appreciate being able to speak in parliament on behalf of the forgotten people, who cannot speak for themselves."

For years she has supported humanitarian and disability causes. As the chief executive of Humanitarian Aid Relief Trust (HART), Cox provides aid to those who are, or have been recently suffering oppression and persecution.

After the brunch, Cox, a patron of the Medical Aid for Poland, shared stories of her work in Poland during the dark days of martial law in the 1980s. She told of riding on the 32-ton trucks delivering medical supplies to hospitals that had nothing. She asked to go along on these missions because she feels very strongly about seeing for herself the people for whom she is advocating and providing aid.

She recalled a delivery in which the truck driver discovered two stacks of blank paper and told her that if they were caught with it they'd be imprisoned. Why? "In a totalitarian government, paper is dangerous, because you can write ideas on it," Cox told the audience. "Never let us take our freedom for granted."

Another poignant moment for Cox came in the war-torn streets of Poland, where people would sometimes die waiting in line for food. There on a wall were these words written by a 12-year-old boy, "I believe in the sun, even when I can't see it. I believe in love, even when I can't feel it."

Baroness Cox was given the Crystal Madonna award for her global humanitarianism, from Sister Rose Marie Kujawa, Madonna University president. Livonia Mayor Jack Kirksey and Councilwoman Terry Godfroid-Marecki presented the Baroness with a key to the city.

The event was sponsored by Madonna University, Botsford Hospital, the PIAST Institute and the Kappa Iota Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau, nursing honor society, and the Registered Nurses Association in Michigan.

Volunteers needed to help rescue the Rouge River

Friends of the Rouge announced Monday that 25 communities in Metro Detroit will be participating in this year's Rouge River Rescue on Saturday, June 7.

The local non-profit organization says volunteers are needed to help with clean up and restoration activities.

"Thousands of volunteers are needed to help," said Cyndi Ross the manager of the River Restoration Program. "Rouge Rescue is a fun and rewarding event anyone can be involved in."

Friends of the Rouge, whose work is dedicated to the restoration and stewardship of the Rouge River, has been leading clean up efforts for 22 years.

When Rouge Rescue began activities focused on removing man-made trash from the river. Household appliances, tires, shipping carts, etc. were common occurrences. Today, after years of cleaning up river sites, much of the work is focused on river restoration. Volunteer activities include native plantings, invasive plant removals, trail maintenance, birdhouse building and installation, environmental education for children in addition to clean up projects.

Interested volunteers can visit the Friends of the Rouge Web site www.therouge.org for a list of sites and activities or call (313)792-9621 for more information.

Public works employees deserve some recognition

When you think of a public servant, who comes to mind? Policemen or firefighters? How about local, state or federal elected officials?

Most people probably don't think about public works employees, yet they are arguably just as responsible for a community's quality of life as anyone. If you don't believe that, just think about losing your water and sewer services for a day or more. It's not a pretty picture is it? But water and sewer are just a couple of the important services overseen by the public works department.

Canton has 55 public works employees — 17 in Engineering, 30 at the Department of Public Works and eight in Fleet Services. Their work is not glamorous. Think about cleaning out a clogged sewer pipe, or preparing burial sites at local cemeteries. Not only is their work tough and labor intensive, public works employees are also typically on-call around the clock, and often get called away from family gatherings or holiday celebrations for things like a water main break or some other emergency with Canton's infrastructure. Plus, they have to work in all weather conditions.

Unfortunately, public works employees rarely get the credit they deserve. Well this week is different. Even though most people aren't aware of it, this is National Public Works Week, which is a celebration of the tens of thousands of men and women who provide these valuable services nationwide.

In a couple of weeks, the Canton community will celebrate the grand opening of the Lower Rouge Recreation Trail. Canton officials and residents alike are very excited about the trail, and believe it will be one of the jewels of the town's park system. Yet most trail users won't realize that a crew of public works employees are responsible for building the trail, including clearing away dozens of dead ash trees, grading the trail and putting down the stone.

The trail is just another testament to the great, unheralded job Canton's public works employees provide the community every day. They are Canton's true unsung heroes. Next time you see a Canton employee or crew out servicing a water or sewer line, or doing any of the many services they provide, say hello and thank them. They deserve it.

Legislature should act quickly on energy bills

Sen. Bruce Patterson, R-Canton, chair of the state Senate Energy and Technology Committee, believes that despite many contending interests, the Legislature could move a package of electric energy bills before the summer break.

The House passed its version of the bills in April. Patterson's committee has been taking testimony and Patterson says he wants to move an "apolitical" package of energy bills.

The energy bills have several components.

One would revisit Public Act 141, which deregulated the electric power industry: House legislation would limit competition to 10 percent of the market. The major utilities, DTE and Consumers Energy, have asked for this so they can stabilize their market and raise money to build new coal and nuclear plants to replace aging facilities.

Another component would replace a portion of coal-generated power with renewable energy (wind, solar, geothermal, etc.) The House bill sets a renewable energy portfolio standard of 10 percent from renewables by 2015. Patterson said he thinks the Legislature can do better, but many are concerned about costs.

A third component is an energy-efficiency package to promote energy conservation by households and businesses. The major utilities would be required to develop an energy-efficiency program. Hugh McDiarmid of the Michigan Environmental Council said his group supports the efforts outlined in the House bill. Patterson makes a valid point that the bill doesn't address some important issues such as revision of housing codes.

Despite differences, we are encouraged that there is a strong bipartisan drive to get energy legislation passed. It is complex and has many competing interests. But is vital to Michigan's future.

We urge the Legislature to move forward quickly and get this done by summer break.

Despite differences, we are encouraged that there is a strong bipartisan drive to get energy legislation passed. It is complex and has many competing interests. But is vital to Michigan's future.

Wind power may be the solution to some of our future energy needs.

Principled leadership needed

For the most part, as a CPA and business owner in Plymouth (previously in Northville) and active participant in a Northville service organization, I've voted Republican since I registered to vote at age 18. Throughout the years, however, neither political party has a lock on my vote. I finished reading Phil Power's opinion column ("Legislative spine, smarts needed to address budget and tax mess," May 18) and couldn't agree more with him. Legislative spine and smarts are exactly what we need in Lansing, and that for the most part, our districts are short of in representation.

For example, last September I wrote an opinion letter after reading some very "mean-spirited" and politically motivated comments from Bruce Patterson regarding my friend, Rep. Marc Corrivau. In retrospect, I believe that Marc is one of the representatives that Mr. Power is describing. He came into the House with the intention on doing what is right for his district, and the common good. Marc has spine and smarts. Nobody wants to pay more taxes. Marc voted his conscience in trying to correct the deficit issue and Mr. Patterson decided to attempt to make Marc look bad for doing the right thing. Marc did so even facing the threat of recall (it is interesting how the Republican Senate pushed the current MBT, which is now seen as a "horrible for business" solution). Then, on top of it, Mr. Patterson called a local newspaper after my opinion letter was published, demanding that they print a retraction, accusing me of printing incorrect information in my opinion letter (I guess he didn't like the fact that I said I was a Republican).

It's interesting to me, now that recall activity is focused on Andy Dillon, when in reality, maybe it should be focused on members of our Senate (like Mr. Patterson), who stood in the way of the most reasonable, but politically unpopular, solution — a small increase in sales tax. Where is the recall campaign for those Republicans that passed this horrible MBT solution? Yes, it takes spine to stand up for your convictions, it is spineless, however, to manipulate, bully and hide behind politics.

Mr. Patterson is now calling for an "apolitical" solution in regards to the bills he supports to "improve" House energy bills. Granted, maybe his desired changes are appropriate to consider, but I'm not sure how someone like Mr. Patterson will accomplish an "apolitical" solution without practicing what he's preaching in all matters. He sounds like a good example of a bad parent — "Do as I say, not as I do."

Leadership is what we need in Lansing. Principled leadership is even better. Leading by example, and doing the right thing, even when it may not be popular or politically advantageous. Name calling and politics may be part of the political process, but it certainly won't get Michigan where we need to be.

Art show was a success

The Belleville Area Council for the Arts sends its heartfelt thanks to our community, including donors, restaurants and bakeries, volunteers, students, parents, teachers, school support staff and administrators, and the Van Buren School Board — all who made the Student Art Show and Dessert Gala held on Saturday, April 26 a resounding success.

We especially thank the participating restaurants who gave so generously of their products to make the Dessert Gala such a festive event. The Craig Tyner Ensemble provided entertainment throughout the evening. Their joyful performance added much to the occasion. After the prizes for the Best of Show and the Art Scholarship were awarded, the evening was concluded with the distribution of multiple door prizes provided by local entertainment venues. Indeed, the event was a gala.

Speaking for myself, it was a great honor for me to announce the winners of the Best of Show and Scholarship winners to the assembled crowds at the Saturday night event. This year we had an unusual circumstance as the judges selected two seniors for the Art Scholarship. The Art Scholarship was awarded to Caitlan Putnam and Rachel Marderosian for their senior portfolios and to Caitlan Putnam, for her painting deemed to be the Best of Show. I am humbled by the magnitude of the talent of these young people. Congratulations, again, to each of them.

The Belleville Area Council for the Arts has sponsored the Student Art Show for 15 years. We have seen it develop into a community showcase for the creativity of our student artists. Each year the show features the work of approximately 600 students and approximately 1,000 pieces of art are exhibited. Each participating student artist receives a certificate and a ribbon to acknowledge his or her participation in the Art Show. In addition to the show being juried by three professional artists, a host of celebrity judges takes the time to select a specific work as his or her favorite from among the several hundred works on display. This event is an event of recognition.

This show is not only a celebration of the artistic success of the students; it also is documentation of the success of the teachers in their art classes and the success of the school administrators who promote an environment in which creativity may thrive.

The staff coordinator is art teacher Brandi Kruse who labored mightily to make this show the success that it was this year. Furthermore, all of the teachers deserve recognition for their tireless efforts throughout the year that make this program possible: Sarah Boehms, Elwell and Haggerty schools; Mary Lynn Buckosky, South Middle School; Abby Chatelain, Belleville High School; Virginia Falk, Tyler Elementary School; Petra Hinderer, North Middle School; Brandi Kruse, Belleville High School; Kathy Murphy, Belleville High School; Angie Larson, North Middle School; Courtney Leaym, Edgemont School; Ellen Lin, Haggerty School; Lynn Onuma, Rawsonville and Haggerty schools; and Genevieve Riggs, Elwell and Savage schools.

Additional thanks must be offered to the board office staff that facilitated our access to the schools and teachers. Brooke Ballee, Secondary Curriculum Director, provided much guidance and assistance to make this program possible and she is to be commended. For her first year in this role, she stepped in and offered invaluable guidance and leadership at critical moments.

No censorship

When few corporations own and run several and various media outlets, censorship is the direct result.

Television, radio and newspapers should not belong to the few rich media moguls because only one point of view becomes publicly available: the greedy monetary bottom-line point of view. The public media is a part of the commons which belongs to the majority of Americans who actually work for a living which, in turn, drives the U.S. economy that makes it possible for those media moguls to sit around collecting preferred stock dividend checks. Ultimately, this means those idle-rich types have a lot of time on their hands to do things like practice censorship.

Hypocritical politicians don't heed lessons from classic film

Has anyone else noticed the startling parallels between Eliot Spitzer and the Charles Foster Kane character in Orson Welles' groundbreaking 1941 movie Citizen Kane?

Kane, of course, has become the archetype of the business or political titan who is enchanted by his own power and lives by his own rules, thus leading to a fall from grace.

But the movie's prescience as it relates to Spitzer and his rise and fall gives Citizen Kane, which has already withstood the test of time better than any film, a new power. Welles and co-screenwriter Herman J. Mankiewicz really nailed it — Spitzer could almost have been following their script.

Like Spitzer, Kane came from enormous wealth (he had "humble beginnings" and was adopted as a boy by a "grand old man of Wall Street") but styled himself as a man of the people.

Both were New York politicians from New York City — Spitzer was governor for not quite 15 months, while, in the movie, Kane was running for governor.

Like Spitzer, Kane had a "lightning political career" (OK, Spitzer had a longer career — he was also a prosecutor and the New York attorney general — but his ascent to the top seemed sudden) and was thought to be on a path to the White House.

Like Spitzer, Kane championed "the sacred cause of reform." Both displayed hypocrisy in exempting themselves from that reform.

Like Spitzer, Kane had a public persona as the hard-charging White Knight bent on rooting out corruption, but in reality had a different side — hard-charging, yes, but also stubborn, arrogant and corrupt.

Like Spitzer's, Kane's political fortunes and reputation were brought down by a sex scandal.

Even the aspirations of their paramours were the same: "singer."

Kane's girlfriend Susan Alexander's performances were an embarrassment — "Kane Found in Love Nest With 'Singer'" read the headline, emphasis on the quote marks around "singer." Spitzer's purported "Kristen," Ashley Alexandra Dupre, has recorded a couple of songs that have been received, well, with embarrassment.

In that, Kane is similar to our own Kwame Kilpatrick.

"Fraud at Polls" read the headline on the Kane-owned Enquirer when he lost the governor's race. The real frauds, however, were the headline — and Kane himself.

"I'm blown away," a quote from Kilpatrick, read the Free Press headline when the jury sided with the police whistleblowers last September — even before those famous text messages proved the whistleblowers, and the jury, were right.

Citizen Kilpatrick, anyone?

Baby Boomer impact: state's economic hope?

BY ROGER MYERS

Seniors are an integral and growing population in our communities that have significant presence and impact. In fact, people 60 and older represent the only population segment projected to grow in metro Detroit over the next 25 years — a growing population with tremendous influence on our local economy and economic development.

False stereotypes abound regarding modern senior living. Talk of senior communities conjures images of nursing homes and institutions. The senior population is seen as a drain on the economy and a drain on communities. Failing to embrace modern realities perpetuates these falsehoods.

Conventional wisdom that senior housing is unattractive and institutional ignores the very real fact that Michigan is experiencing a boom in enlightened, top-quality senior communities. The aging baby boomer population is influencing this era in senior living, providing a catalyst for the creation of senior communities where people are aging actively and living well. Resort-style accommodations, including full-service concierge services, reflect the strong desire for retirement living options that support trend-setting, highly active baby boomers.

The notion that seniors are a drain on the economy fails to recognize that the rapidly growing boomer population is wealthier today than previous generations. Today's baby boomers are the first population in history to benefit from dual-income households and from the significant economic growth that occurred throughout the past 50 years.

The wealthiest generation in history is also wealthier than their younger neighbors. Census Bureau data show that seniors are the wealthiest consumer segment and have the largest disposable income of any population group. The average per-capita discretionary income for Americans aged 50 and older is almost $8,500 a year, compared with $6,500 for Americans of all ages.

More than just spending power, seniors contribute to the economy through a fairly unbalanced give and take with social and other public services. While this population pays more taxes than younger constituents, seniors use the lowest amount of local and state tax revenue. Unlike their 20- to 50-year-old neighbors, most seniors don't have kids enrolled in public schools. Medicare and legacy employer-based insurance programs cover most senior health care costs.

Seniors have significant impact in community organizations, too; a strong desire to age actively is manifested through community service. More than 50 percent of people aged 50-75 consider community service an integral part of their retirement. In fact, recent data show that 26.4 million older volunteers, age 55 and older, give 5.6 billion hours of their time annually. According to Deloitte, this is a value of $77.2 billion to the philanthropic community.

Today's seniors aren't who you think they are, and ignoring the positive impact they have on our communities and our economy is a mistake. As Michigan seeks economic footing, it's a mistake we can't afford.

Red-hot Chiefs outlast Vikings in 8 innings

BY ED WRIGHT
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

If the new "Indiana Jones" movie is nearly as action-packed as Monday's Walled Lake Central-Canton baseball game, it's bound to be a blockbuster.

The Chiefs captured their second consecutive "walk-off" victory, 7-6, when senior second baseman Mike Madias' infield single scored Will Tidwell with the winning run in the bottom of the eighth.

Last Thursday, the streaking Chiefs beat Franklin in the bottom of the seventh on Matt Barylski's walk-off hit.

The Chiefs' seventh straight triumph improved their record to 17-8.

Canton led 6-2 until Central tallied three in the sixth and one in the seventh.

PREP BASEBALL

"I'm glad to see the team has shown the character to pull out the close contests that we've played lately," said Canton coach Mark Blomshield. "We have had a lot of good starting pitching and our bullpen is deep to keep us in these tight games. The bats have come around just enough and we've executed nicely when the game was on the line."

Junior flame-thrower Dane Staples earned the victory with 1.2 innings of spotless relief.

Tidwell, Dan Stoney and Matt Barylski all laced a pair of hits for the winners. One of Stoney's hits was a 380-foot double to the deepest part of the ballpark.

The defensive play of the game came in the third when Canton center fielder Kevin Delapaz went horizontal to make a diving catch that saved a pair of runs.

AGAPE 4, BAPTIST PARK 2: On Monday at Baptist Park, the Wolverines improved to 10-4 overall and 7-3 in the MIAC Red behind a complete-game six-hitter from senior Brandon Pierson.

Ty Majeski led the winners' hitting attack with a pair of hits, an RBI and a run scored. Ethan Walker and Daniel Walker also contributed RBI to the Wolverines' cause.

Dan Riggs was recently honored by the Michigan High School Athletic Association for his 30 years of high school wrestling officiating. During his 35-year tenure with the Plymouth-Canton Community School District, Riggs has coached football, golf and wrestling.

3 DECADES, MANY ACCOLADES

Riggs honored by MHSAA after 30 years of officiating

BY ED WRIGHT
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The first time Dan Riggs officiated a high school wrestling match, Jimmy Carter was president, gas cost 63 cents a gallon and there were a few butterflies fluttering around in his belly.

A lot has changed in the three decades since — except for the butterflies.

"I still remember my first match — it was Waterford Mott versus Waterford Kettering — and, yes, I was a little nervous," said Riggs, reflecting back on his 1978 officiating debut. "Even now, all these years later, I still get nervous — well, I don't know if it's nervousness as much as excitement."

Riggs was one of several high school officials recognized for reaching longevity milestones by the Michigan High School Athletic Association at a banquet held Saturday, May 10, in Lansing.

The milestone was 30 years for Riggs, who is so highly regarded by the MHSAA that he was asked to give the invocation and offer some opening remarks at the event.

"Thank goodness they gave me a couple of weeks to prepare what I was going to say," said the personable Riggs, chuckling.

THE RIGGS FILE

Name: Dan Riggs;
Age: Turned 59 last week;
Family: Wife, Sandra (they celebrated their 39th wedding anniversary in November); daughter, Heidi; son, Nicholas;
Profession: Physical education instructor for Plymouth-Canton Schools for the past 35 years;
Coaching career: Has coached girls golf at Canton since 1980; previously coached wrestling and football.

Toughest part about officiating wrestling: "Believe it or not, a lot of the time it's dealing with the fans. The large majority of fans are great, but for some, the matches are like life-or-death. There will be times I'll be talking to a coach after a match and we'll look up in the stands and there's a fight breaking out."

Salem second at WLAA tournament

When it comes to the number of holes it plays, the more the merrier for the Salem boys golf team.

After compiling a mediocre 2-3 record in nine-hole WLAA Lakes Division dual matches this season, the Rocks excelled during Tuesday's 18-hole league tournament, placing second behind only state-ranked Northville in the 12-team competition.

Salem finished with a score of 310, 21 shots more than the champion Mustangs on an ideal day for golf at Pheasant Run Golf Course in Canton.

"This team is a lot like a team I had a couple years ago — it plays better in 18-hole tournaments than it does in nine-hole duals," said Salem coach Rick Wilson. "We played in the Wayne County Championship last week at Pheasant Run and finished third, so the guys definitely like this course. We posted our lowest score all year today, so they were definitely prepared."

The Rocks were paced by senior Tyler Jeleniewski, who earned All-Conference honors with a one-over 73. Northville's Trevor Grigg fired a two-under 70 to seize medalist accolades.

Canton fired a 314, which was good enough for a tie for fifth with Livonia Stevenson. Plymouth placed 10th with a 329.

The Rocks were far from a one-man show as junior Adam Powers shot a season-low 78 while Patrick Doty carded an impressive 79 on the challenging Pheasant Run layout.

Also scoring for the runners-up was Aaron Thompson, whose 80 was a personal season best.

"Tyler played great, but the key to our success today was the way the other guys played," said Wilson. "Adam's round was the low round of his career and Patrick and Aaron shot season lows."

Canton was led by Andrew Rickerman, who fired a 76, one shot better than teammate Zach Conrad. Brendan Muir (79) and Clark Albers (82) also scored for the Chiefs.

Rickerman and Conrad both made the All-Division unit.

James Bryans' 80 was the low round of the day for the Wildcats, who also received solid efforts from Ryan Baner (82); Kyle Sanders (83); and Kyle Eisiminger and Trevor Birdwell, who both carded 84's.

Sanders is also the closer for the Wildcats' baseball team.

One of the highlights of Riggs' memorable night was a brief, pre-ceremony encounter with longtime friend Dan Chrenko, a former coaching colleague and current school administrator in Trenton, who made a surprise appearance at the event.

"What makes Dan such an outstanding referee is that he is a very fair person and he is driven to be the best he can be," said Chrenko, who shared the title of co-wrestling coach with Riggs at Canton during the school's first several years of existence beginning in 1973.

"After he stopped coaching wrestling at Canton, he would have to officiate some of their matches in tournaments. Well, this would be a tremendously difficult situation for a lot of people — refereeing a match involving the team you used to coach — but he was so confident in himself that he could be fair to both teams, it didn't bother him."

Double duty

For a few years, Riggs coached wrestling at Canton and officiated — a scenario he said enhanced his coaching skills.

"I definitely think it helped me because when I officiated, I got to see a lot of good wrestling, so I could pick things up," he said. "For example Temperance-Bedford and Detroit Catholic Central would be at some of the tournaments I was working, so I could see what they did."

The most notable highlight of Riggs' renowned officiating career came in 1996 when he was invited to serve as an athlete liaison for the wrestling competition at the Summer Olympics in Atlanta.

"My main job was making sure the athletes I was assigned to got to the right place at the right time," recalled Riggs. "It was quite a thrill just being around all those great athletes."

Too close for comfort

Riggs still recalls with great clarity the night of July 27, 1996, when a pipe bomb exploded in Centennial Park — in the heart of the Olympic Village — killing two people and injuring 111.

"My shift was over at about 10:30 that night and myself and a former wrestler of mine walked through Centennial Park about a half-hour before the bomb went off," Riggs said. "We were staying at a condo in Dunwoody, which was about a half-hour from Atlanta, so we didn't know what had happened until the next morning when the phone rang at around 6:30. It was our wives wondering if we were OK."

"The next day, there was a meeting with all the athletes, officials and everyone involved with the Olympics. The individuals in charge wanted to know if we thought the games should continue, and everyone agreed — overwhelmingly — that they should."

For the past 12 years of Riggs' illustrious officiating career, he's served as the floor director at the individual state wrestling finals at the Palace of Auburn Hills — a position that entails everything from helping wrestlers find the right mat to making sure only individuals with credentials are on the main floor during the competition.

"One year, I found out what time he was working, so I talked to a few people I knew and I got a floor pass," said Chrenko, smiling. "I worked my way down to the floor, walked up behind Dan and said, 'What kind of security is this — anybody can get down here on the main floor.' He turned around, saw it was me and laughed."

Praise-worthy career

Of all the honors that have been bestowed upon Riggs, the veteran referee said nothing makes him feel better than a few complimentary words from a coach.

"Every time I'd officiate a Catholic Central match, their legendary coach, Mike Rodriguez, would come over to me afterwards, shake my hand and tell me I did a solid job," Riggs said. "It's things like that that make it fun."

Riggs, who has coached either wrestling, football or golf at Canton for the past 35 years, said his desire to officiate hasn't diminished since that first match in 1978.

"I still love it," he said. "My knees and lower back will ache once in a while, but I've learned techniques that have helped me deal with the aches and pains."

"At the MHSAA ceremony, Jack Roberts, the executive director, asked me if he'd see me back here in 10 years to pick up my 40-year plaque. I told him I'll try to make it."

Plymouth, Salem battle to 2-2 draw

BY ED WRIGHT
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

PREP SOCCER

With next week's Division 1 District tournament looming, the Plymouth and Salem girls soccer teams put on a high-intensity show Monday night that resembled a post-season encounter.

Playing in their final regular-season contest, the Rocks and Wildcats battled to a 2-2 draw in an entertaining WLAA cross-over game that had a split personality.

The first 40 minutes were dominated by the forwards as all four goals were scored in the opening stanza.

The defenders and goalkeepers then seized control of the scoreless second half.

The tie fell Salem with a 7-6-5 mark while the Wildcats closed with a similar 7-6-4 record.

The Rocks carried the play for most of the first half and led 1-0 early on senior Katie Shull's goal, which was assisted by Kristina Klusek.

Plymouth evened things up at 1-1 when freshman McKenzie Hengesh stole the ball from a Salem defender and ripped a shot into the back of the net.

Salem regained the lead, 2-1, when Ariel Dewes scored off an assist from Kristen Thompson, but Kelly Dobbs countered for Plymouth with 1:20 left in the half.

"In the first half, I thought we executed and did everything we needed to do," said Salem coach Joe Nora. "We got two good goals and the girls worked hard, but we gave Plymouth 30 seconds of offense on two mistakes. The weird thing is our defense has been our strength this year and we just gave it to them tonight."

"If we don't learn from our mistakes tonight, we'll be out of the tournament next week real quick."

The Wildcats were opportunistic, taking advantages of two of their few scoring chances in the first half.

"I thought all the girls played solid tonight," said Plymouth coach Jeff Neschich. "We had our lapses when we lost momentum at times, but the kids worked hard and gave a solid effort."

CANTON 1, W.L. NORTHERN 0: On Monday at Northern, the Chiefs' Kerry Raker netted the game's lone goal.

Canton senior net-minder Bry Bellovary registered the shutout, stopping seven shots.

SPORTS SHORTS

Canton's High Velocity Sports will offer an array of summer camps from June 16 through Aug. 22.

Detroit Piston Lindsey Hunter will be featured for a full-day basketball camp during the weeks of June 23, July 7, and July 21.

The camps, which will cost $295, will be held Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and are open to boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 17 years old.

Hunter is scheduled to appear every day and the camps will be run by high-level basketball coaches who will teach an intermediate-advanced level of basketball skills.

"I'm looking forward to the basketball camps at High Velocity Sports," said Hunter. "I've worked out at HV and my family participates in programs there. It's a great facility for basketball and the camps are my way of being involved in the community and promoting basketball and an overall healthy lifestyle."

In addition, HVS will also offer other full-day and half-day basketball camps for beginner-intermediate players; a girls-only camp; and a "Shoot-Like-a-Pro" camp for those interested in honing their shooting and scoring skills. Salem grabs win over WL Western Salem tuned up for Wednesday's Western Lakes Activities Association championship game against Northville Monday afternoon with a 2-1 make-up cross-over win against Walled Lake Western.

The victory improved the Rocks' record to 23-7-1 overall and 12-4 in the WLAA.

Freshman Heidi Schmidt was masterful on the mound, allowing just four hits and two walks while striking out a pair of Warriors.

"Heidi really stepped up and proved herself today," said Salem coach Bonnie Southerland. "We only had three hits, but they came at the right time and the girls kept fighting defensively."

Schmidt helped her own cause with an RBI double. Lizzy Mazorowicz also delivered an RBI hit. Mary Johnson scored both Salem runs.

The victory came on the heels of an exhausting five-game weekend.

"I knew the girls were tired, but they came out today and dug really deep and pulled it off," said Southerland. "I'm very proud of how they performed."

ROCKS EXCEL AT MU

Salem advanced to the Flight A championship game at last weekend's Madonna Invitational before falling to Anchor Bay, 5-2.

The Rocks finished 3-1-1 in the two-day, talent-laden tournament.

Salem opened on Saturday with a 3-1 victory over West Bloomfield as freshman hurler Briana Lee allowed just two hits and three walks while striking out 18.

Leading the hit parade for the Rocks were Christina Parsons (3-for-4) and Schmidt (triple and single).

"We came out very lively with four of our eight hits in the first inning," said Southerland.

Lee (five innings) and Schmidt (two innings) combined on a four-hitter in the Rocks' Game 2 6-1 win over Marine City. Pacing the Rocks' 13-hit attack was Mary Cox, who went 4-for-4 with three RBI and two runs. Schmidt,

ANDY RUBENSTEIN

Salem shortstop Mary Cox, pictured above in a game earlier this season, contributed to an outstanding weekend for the Rocks.

Salem opened on Saturday with a 3-1 victory over West Bloomfield as freshman hurler Briana Lee allowed just two hits and three walks while striking out 18.

Parsons and Lizzy Mazorowicz all chipped in with two hits.

The Rocks tied Taylor Kennedy 1-1 in their third game on Saturday. Two innings of an international tie-breaker (teams start each inning with a runner on second) could not break the deadlock.

Lee worked nine innings, giving up just four hits and one walk while whiffing eight. Parsons and Emily Pitcole both ripped triples for Salem.

On Sunday, Salem opened the day with an 11-2 victory over Lincoln Park as Parsons slammed a pair of home runs and finished 3-for-4 with four RBI.

Pitcole also nailed a round-tripper for Salem.

The Rocks seized a quick 2-0 first-inning lead against Anchor Bay in the finale, but failed to score thereafter.

Lee knocked in the only Salem runs with a two-run double.

'Glove' connection

Plymouth edges Stevenson thanks to solid defense

PREP BASEBALL

There was a lot to "glove" about Plymouth's baseball victory over Livonia Stevenson Monday afternoon.

The host Wildcats displayed some serious leather work in their 4-3 triumph over the Spartans in a make-up Western Lakes Activities Association cross-over contest.

The solid "D" combined with senior right-hander Garrett Reba's complete-game seven-hitter helped the 'Cats improve to 19-9.

The Spartans slipped to 8-20 despite a gutsy complete-game mound effort from Josh Strautz, who yielded just five hits.

A pair of web gems stood out for the winners: shortstop Brad Lineberry's diving catch-and-throw-out on Jon Samann's hard-hit, up-the-middle grounder in the second; and third baseman Travis Mewton's diving play that robbed Sam Vomastek of a lead-off single in the sixth.

Plymouth struck for three runs in the first when Reba walked and Lineberry singled. After advancing on a passed ball, Reba scored on a wild pitch and Lineberry came home on an error.

With two outs, Ronnie Goble walked, stole second and third, and scored on another Spartan error.

The Spartans narrowed the gap to 3-2 in the fourth when Vomastek led off with a double and Jeff Sorensen reached on a catcher's error after striking out.

Jake Wilson brought home Vomastek with a sacrifice fly and Sorensen was plated by Chris Summers' two-out single.

The Wildcats tacked on an all-important insurance run in their half of the fourth when Matt Skubik was hit by a pitch, stole second and scored on an error.

Stevenson threatened in the seventh when Mike Tuttle singled and Jon Samann doubled to open the frame.

Reba induced Summers to pop up to first before Zeb Bacigal singled in Tuttle to make it 4-3.

Bacigal, the potential tying run, stole second, but Reba struck out the final two batters to complete the win.

"The game was about as exciting as a Sarasota shuffle board game until the seventh," said Plymouth coach Chuck Adams. "But Garrett was huge getting the last two guys to strike out."

Led by Tuttle's 2-for-3 day, the Spartans outthit Plymouth, 7-4.

PARKWAY CHRISTIAN 13, PCA 12: On Saturday at Plymouth Christian, the Eagles dropped a slugfest despite two home runs from Charles Cane.

"I don't think the second one has landed yet," quipped PCA coach Joe Bortorff. "He flirted with a third, which was caught up against the fence, but Brent was able to tag up at second and score on some heads-up base-running."

Caleb Middleton, Trevor Zinn and Jon Slater all pitched for the Eagles. Kevin Bortorff contributed a pair of hits and a walk.

'CATS SWEEP MILFORD

Plymouth continued its strong play with a twinbill sweep of the visiting Mavericks, winning 6-4 in the opener and 7-6 in the nightcap.

Junior right-hander Cliff Buttermore earned the Game 1 win, scattering 11 hits in a complete-game effort. Buttermore walked one and struck out seven.

Senior right-fielder David Harvey was the hitting star, going 3-for-3 with three runs scored and an RBI. One of Harvey's hits was a solo home run.

Junior shortstop Brad Lineberry also enjoyed a productive day at the plate, going 2-for-4 with two RBI.

Senior Dan Nadratowski earned the mound win in Game 2, scattering nine hits in six innings before being relieved in the final frame by Kyle Sanders, who earned the save. Nadratowski struck out five and walked three.

The Wildcats were outthit, 10-7, but benefitted from seven Maverick fielding miscues.

Senior catcher Garrett Reba knocked in a pair of runs for the winners. Junior third baseman Travis Mewton went 2-for-2 with two runs scored and Nadratowski went 1-for-1 with a pair of runs scored. Matt Priebe added an RBI single for the Wildcats.

PCS girls lacrosse team wins

The Plymouth-Canton-Salem girls lacrosse team was running on all cylinders during Saturday's 12-0 victory over Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard.

"Obviously, the game balls went to our two goalies — Nicol Rottell and Lauren Miller," said PCS coach Dave Medley. "This was the team's first shutout of the season. I can't take anything away from the supporting cast, defenders Brooke Caccavelli, Emily Cox, Laura Allard and Nicol Sheldon from limiting the Irish opportunities to score."

Katie Spangler and Lauryn Ebersole both tallied three goals for the winners while Edra Burris, Amy Coleman, Jessica Murray, Chelsea Olson, Stephanie Pettovello and Caitlin Andrews netted one a piece.

The Lady Warriors' inaugural post-season playoff game is set for tonight at 7 p.m. against Ann Arbor Huron. The game will be played at River Rat Stadium.

CANTON 12, GROSSE ILE 4: On Monday, the Chiefs concluded their inaugural regular season with a convincing road victory over the Red Devils.

The Chiefs will take a 12-5 record into Friday's first-round post-season playoff game against South Lyon. The 7 p.m. game will be played at South Lyon East High School.

"The boys will be working hard in practice this week to even the score against South Lyon," said Canton coach Kevin Riley.

Matt Rodgers and Jake Underwood were the offensive juggernauts for the Chiefs on Monday. Rodgers tallied five goals, including the game's first 1:30 into the game, while Underwood netted four goals and an assist.

Also scoring for the winners were Jason Avedesian, who converted on a man-up opportunity; Ryan DeCol, whose goal gave Canton a 5-1 half-time cushion; and senior Nick Thompson.

Defensively, the Chiefs were paced by goalie Justin Scott, and defender Mac Ganzak. Back-up goalie Sean Walsh played the fourth quarter for Canton.

Record-breaking runners

Carolina signs Whalers' Bellemore

The National Hockey League's Carolina Hurricanes signed Plymouth Whalers defenseman Brett Bellemore to a three-year entry level contract earlier this week.

Bellemore was selected by Carolina in the sixth round (162nd overall) in the 2007 National Hockey League Entry Draft.

Bellemore, 19, just completed his third season with the Whalers, scoring six goals with 18 assists with and 70 penalty minutes in 56 regular-season games.

Following Plymouth's first-round exit from the Ontario Hockey League playoffs, Bellemore finished the season with Carolina's top minor-league affiliate, the Albany River Rats of the American Hockey League. Bellemore played in four of Albany's last six regular-season games and five of the team's seven post-season games.

"Brett is a big and smart defenseman who can log a lot of minutes," said Ron Francis, Carolina assistant general manager and director of player development. "He played well in Albany at the end of the year and we look forward to watching his development as a professional."

Originally selected by the Whalers in the 12th round (233rd overall) in the 2004 Ontario Hockey League Draft, Bellemore steadily improved and led the Canadian Hockey League in 2006-07 with a plus-43 rating.

In three seasons with Plymouth, Bellemore played in 152 regular-season games, scoring six goals and earning 30 assists 36 points.

"We saw a lot of potential in Brett when we drafted him," said Plymouth Head Coach Greg Stefan. "We saw with his size and his instincts, that there was something there. Fortunately for us, he came into his own during our Memorial Cup run (2007) and was one of the better defensive-defensemen in junior hockey. He was a stalwart defenseman for us last season, playing close to 30 minutes per game.

"By losing him, it's going to hurt us. But on the other hand, it's great to see our players reach their goals and sign NHL contracts. We wish him the best."

"One of our goals, as an organization, is to help players move up to professional hockey," said Plymouth president and general manager Mike Vellucci. "Brett has worked very hard for the Whalers and has earned this opportunity. We're very happy for him."

Women with hammers

Habitat workers get down to work

BY JULIE BROWN
O&E STAFF WRITER

Who says women can't build homes?

Habitat for Humanity of Oakland County knows better. The affiliate of the Christian housing ministry held its Women Build Thursday, May 8, while working on the 88th Habitat home in Pontiac.

"It went well," said Debbie Hendrickson, construction manager for the Pontiac-based Habitat affiliate. "It looked like the ladies had a whole lot of fun."

There were about 25 women ranging in age from 20 on up to their 60s. The women were responsible for laying the floor joists and working on the subfloor "to get ready for the walls to be put on," said Hendrickson, a Belleville resident moving north to Oakland County. "I think it went well. The ladies seemed like they had a good time."

The walls on the home then went up Saturday, May 17. Habitat affiliates rely heavily on volunteer help for construction and other tasks. Businesses pitch in with donated materials as well as employee volunteer help.

Hendrickson had volunteered for about a year and a half before joining the staff in January. She agreed there's no reason women can't don a hard hat and swing a hammer. "I'm working hard on getting rid of that stereotype."

Some of the women volunteers on May 8 had never used a power tool, while others had more experience. One young woman was a novice builder. "It was her first time to use a miter saw," Hendrickson said. "She was really excited about that."

The Pontiac home the women worked on is scheduled for a "slow build" of two days a week of work, with completion planned for August. The women and other volunteers didn't race to get work done, but concentrate on getting construction done right.

"It's not a race," Hendrickson said. "We're there to have fun, learn some new skills. I stress doing it right the first time."

One man helped on May 8 in setting up saws. "Other than that it was all women," she said.

Sally LePla, executive director of the Oakland affiliate, said, "It was a joyous and exhilarating experience for women to do a nontraditional activity together and give back to the community." The women learned new skills, and provided a home for a family, said LePla, a Rochester Hills resident. They talked about doing a home constructed all by women in 2009.

"I think the seed has been planted to have women bond together and create more housing. I'm hoping the seed will grow into a forest." Women would cheer each other on at the May 8 build, said LePla, who participated: "The celebration sounds went on all day. They would cheer."

If you'd like to volunteer with Habitat, the Oakland County affiliate can be reached at (248) 338-1843 or online at www.habitatoakland.org. There's also a Western Wayne affiliate, based in Plymouth, which can be reached at (734) 459-7744 or online at www.habitatwwc.org.

A number of Oakland Habitat volunteers traveled south to the Gulf Coast region the week after Women Build to work on homes devastated by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. That effort involved former U.S. President Jimmy Carter and wife Rosalynn. Local Habitat officials were pleased to be involved in that, but also know there are needs close to home.

"There's a lot of areas that could certainly use some help here," Hendrickson said.

Girders go in place during the recent Women Build event in Pontiac. Some 25 women volunteered at the construction site for Habitat for Humanity of Oakland County. The build was also sponsored by Thrivent for Lutherans.

No open meetings act for condo association sessions in state

Q. Our association board insists upon having closed meetings. I am wondering what you think the reasons are for doing so here in Michigan.

A. First, there is no open meetings act that applies to condo association books in Michigan. A general list of valid reasons for going into closed sessions includes:

1. Consulting with the association counsel

Robert Meisner

regarding legal issues;

2. Discussing litigation or prospective litigation either by the association or against the association;

3. Reviewing personal information that is confidential or should not be generally known, such as delinquencies in homeowner association dues;

4. Conferring about contracts or property purchases (after all, it's hard to negotiate if your position is known to all);

5. Reviewing association employees or personnel issues; or

6. Handling disciplinary matters or rules violations by association members.

You are best advised to consult with your association attorney.

Q. We are being approached by a cable contractor to negotiate a contract. Do you have any suggestions?

A. There are generally four key terms of a cable contract. Depending upon your documents, you want to be sure, among other things, that you give a license and not an easement if possible, set service standards, avoid a long-term contract with automatic renewal terms, and arrange for a revenue sharing if at all possible. In any event, make sure that you have a qualified community association attorney review and/or negotiate your contract before you sign it. Otherwise, you are at a distinct disadvantage.

Robert M. Meisner is a lawyer and the author of Condominium Operation: Getting Started & Staying on the Right Track, second edition. It is available for $9.95 plus $1 shipping and handling. He also wrote Condo Living: A Survival Guide to Buying, Owning and Selling a Condominium, available for $24.95 plus $5 shipping and handling. For more information, call (248) 644-4433 or visit bmeisner@meisner-associates.com. This column shouldn't be construed as legal advice.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

JOURNEY ADS A HIT; FORD'S DRIVE ONE IS TRYING

Advertising Feature

CAReport

By Dale Buss

Chrysler's advertising campaign for its new Dodge Journey crossover has greatly boosted initial online interest in the vehicle, according to an analysis by Edmunds.com. But the new omnibus marketing effort launched by Ford recently, Drive One, isn't packing nearly the same punch.

Those are the conclusions of research by David Tompkins, executive director of business solutions for Edmunds.com, based in Santa Monica, Calif., using consumer visits to the New Vehicle Detail Pages (NVDPs) of the site in April, in the immediate wake of the launches of the two advertising campaigns.

Promising Journey

"Journey [advertising] is a hit," Dr. Tompkins said. "We're seeing their traffic up 80 percent after the first week and up nearly 90 percent [from the same base] during the second week" on Edmunds.com's NVDPs. He noted that online response to the Journey campaign stems from "a combination of their ads online offline. But it's a successful start."

Deborah Meyer, Chrysler's Chief Marketing Officer, said that the "memorability and likeability" of Journey TV ads "has been really strong," according to the company's internal research. "And brand recall is ramping up quickly," she added, "which is important since Journey is a brand new name."

Meyer said that Journey's various advertising streams "have raised awareness for Journey by 32 percentage points after just the first week."

Dr. Tompkins believes that some of the specifics of the Journey ads "resonate" with consumers, including Chrysler's orientation in the spots toward highlighting the vehicle's floor plan and certain flexible features. "Also, the crossover segment is a pretty hot one right now."

Ford sees its Drive One campaign, as in the photo on the right, as a long-term brand-building effort.

TV ads for Dodge Journey, like the Water Slide spot on the left, are creating awareness.

Indeed, the timing for the introduction of the Journey crossover couldn't have been much better for Chrysler. In just its third month on the market, Journey sales totaled nearly 7,000 units in April. In addition to tapping into torrid consumer demand for crossovers in general, Chrysler executives are counting on Journey to pick up some sales from former customers of the company's short-wheelbase minivans, which they discontinued with the introduction of new minivans last year.

Broader Target

But Tompkins said that one of the disadvantages for the Ford Drive One campaign initially is that "it's a broad campaign across the whole brand, so it's harder to be specific."

Edmunds.com NVDP visits for Ford Focus and Fusion models each have increased by about 10 percent to 15 percent in opening weeks of the ubiquitous Drive One campaign, Tompkins said. But consideration for other Ford vehicles, as measured by NVDP visits, was down for the first two weeks. The increased interest in Focus and Fusion persisted despite falling overall interest in the brand.

"In the current environment, people are very focused on things like miles per gallon," Tompkins explained. Specifically, Ford's promotion of the electronics-networking system, Sync by Microsoft, in its Focus ads is helping that vehicle as well.

CLARKSON POTTER PUBLISHERS

It's not exactly like the muffuletta that you will find at Central Grocery (where the sandwich originated in 1906) in New Orleans, but Bobby Flay incorporated two of the key ingredients — olive relish and provolone cheese — to make his own grilled chicken version.

Flay's creativity ignites grill recipes

 BY KEN ABRAMCZYK
STAFF WRITER

Remember when grilling used to be restricted to meats? Summer parties in the 1960s and 1970s often relegated vegetables and other dishes to be sautéed or roasted in the kitchen, while fires were stoked on grills to cook burgers, steaks or chicken.

That's all drastically changed. That point isn't lost on Bobby Flay, whose latest cookbook Bobby Flay's Grill It, written by Flay with Stephanie Banyas and Sally Jackson, was released this month. Flay, who hosts Boy Meets Grill, and Throwdown with Bobby Flay on the Food Network and owner of several restaurants,

BOBBY'S TIPS

Don't use lighter fluid. Instead use a chimney starter, "one of the greatest inventions ever created for grilling," Bobby Flay writes. Pick up a few paint brushes to use to apply glazes and sauces. They are less expensive than pastry brushes and work equally as well. Buy spices whole and grind them in a coffee or spice grinder to use in rubs and seasonings. Not only do they taste better, the whole spices will last longer in the pantry.

Chef Randy Emert, executive chef at the Great Oaks Country Club in Rochester, puts the finishing touches on an entree plate at the Food Hotel Asia Culinary Challenge 2008 in Singapore.

Chef is golden in Asia

Emert wins awards

Chef Randy Emert faced a dilemma.

Emert, executive chef at Great Oaks in Rochester, traveled thousands of miles to compete in an Asian food competition, but much of the produce he had transported with him had either rotted or deteriorated.

"It was held up at customs," Emert said. "The ice packs had been removed."

Ricky Kallis, a student at Schoolcraft College who traveled with Emert to learn about the competition, assisted him, and they spent the entire next day shopping for new produce and foods. The following day, Emert and chef Steven Skomski of Rochester, executive chef of the Flint Golf Club, worked on the food.

"It was scary," Emert says, which he follows with a nervous laugh, about the bad food. Emert had a right to be nervous, competing in the Food Hotel Asia Culinary Challenge 2008 in Singapore in late April.

Emert salvaged some freshwater fish (trout, coho salmon and pike), but the unavailability of some produce and American foods required him to tweak other recipes.

But that's what chefs do — work on the fly.

Emert used jumbo asparagus rather than the baby white asparagus he had planned. "I sliced it and fanned it," Emert said. He also used the local crayfish instead of the Louisiana kind. "They're huge, they're bigger than shrimp," Emert said. "They also have a gray coating, not the vibrant red we have here."

But Emert managed to work around that and win three medals (gold, silver and bronze).

Emert was the only American to compete in cold food and also the only individual American to come home with three medals.

Emert's Chicken Trilogy plate won the gold medal.

Now, here's the Inside Baseball scoop on how he prepared it:

This dish was composed of lemon garlic marinated breast, mushroom ballotine, matignon hash with drumstick, parsnip hay, celeriac potato gratin and a natural sauce made from the braising liquid. Emert prepared four plates of this one course in one hour, which included a time window needed for plating.

The matignon hash consisted of celery, carrots and onions with bacon. The drumstick and thigh were braised in a pressure cooker for 15 minutes.

The silver and bronze were given for the four entrees presented cold and six appetizers presented cold, respectively. The entrees were braised venison osso buco, Cornish game hen with potato terrine, pouched trout roulade and spice-rubbed pork tenderloin.

The appetizers were rabbit ballotine, vegetable tart, beet and zucchini composition, poached pike, smoked bass and salmon.

The competition was judged by the World Association of Chefs Societies.

"It had to be clean and it had to make sense and be practical," Emert said. "I used basic techniques, simplicity and simple food done correctly."

Emert said he worked on the dishes since he was accepted in February for the April competition, training for more than 10 weeks.

Emert relied on the master chefs at Schoolcraft, where Emert also teaches part time, for suggestions and input on his dishes, namely Dan Hugelier, who assisted him the most, along with Jeff Gabriel and Kevin Gawronski.

GETTING GREEN

For everyone who wants to "go Green," Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design technology offers planning for increased sustainability and the reduction of long-term operations costs through the use of innovative energy-saving technologies.

The Troy Museum & Historic Village is offering a Passport to Progress public classroom which will explain what Green technologies museum officials hope to incorporate in the upcoming redesign and expansion of the village. Anyone with an interest in preserving the past, securing our future, or both, is welcome to attend.

The classroom will take place 6-8 p.m. Wednesday, May 28 with landscape architect Neal Billetdeaux leading a discussion about "Greening the Village Green: Using Twenty-first Century LEED Technology," a preview into how community facilities will one day operate. And the innovations covered may well be of interest to homeowners looking for planet-friendly ways to care for their own property in the future.

The classroom will be scheduled at the Museum in the Old Troy Church, 60 W. Wattles, near the northwest corner of Wattles and Livernois. Participation is free, but call the Museum before the event. To register or for more information, call (248) 524-3570.

Ducks took flight over 30 years ago

In 1976, Dan and Margaret Duckhorn co-founded their eponymous Duckhorn Vineyards with the intent of making Napa Valley wines from classic Bordeaux varieties. And the first ducks took flight. In 2007, Duckhorn was sold to GI Partners, a leading private equity firm focused on asset-intensive businesses in the United States and western Europe.

Focus on Wine

Ray & Eleanor Heald

In today's wine business it's hard to find a more asset-intensive winery than Duckhorn. With seven Napa Valley ranches and 160 estate vineyard acres, Duckhorn also contracts with 60 growers.

Often recognized for its merlot and cabernet sauvignon, Duckhorn's winemaker Bill Nancarrow, originally from Hawkes Bay, New Zealand, crafts a showy sauvignon blanc. At $25, the 2006 with 22 percent semillon showcases melony fruit with touches of cut grass and lush and generous finish.

Among Duckhorn reds, we highly recommend the 2005 Napa Valley Merlot $52, big and generous with a smooth finish; 2005 Estate Merlot $85 with an elegant finish for such a big wine; 2005 Three Palms Merlot $85 has great structure for aging, 2004 Howell Mountain Merlot $70 is generous and full; 2005 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon $60 portends age-ability; and 2004 Estate-Grown Cabernet Sauvignon $95 is outstanding in all respects.

DUCKS FLY HIGHER

Added to the Duckhorn brand are several others including Paradox and Goldeneye.

Known simply as Paradox and for its quality, one of the great values in a red wine blend, the 2005 ($48) is composed of zinfandel, cabernet sauvignon, merlot and cabernet franc.

The first two varieties make up 92 percent and constitute the wine's character. This is a user-friendly wine bursting with ripe red fruits from first sniff to last drop.

With an eye to the growing popularity of Pinot Noir, in 1997 Duckhorn branched out to the Anderson Valley and created Goldeneye Pinot Noir. The 2005 at $55 shows lots of cherry-berry fruit in a generous, plump and juicy rendition with a velvety finish and notes of vanilla and toasty oak.

At Goldeneye, four estate vineyards are planted to 23 clones of pinot noir on 11 different rootstocks.

With pinot noir, it's all about vineyard diversity and Duckhorn's Goldeneye brand scores in this respect with extraordinary site personality.

WINE PICKS

Like many of our readers, we are Pinot Noir aficionados. Prices for west coast pinots have been steadily rising and we've searched for some of the very best.

Here's the list at $50 and under (yes, that's what market demand does to prices!):

- 2006 Williams Selyem Central Coast $31
- 2006 Williams Selyem Sonoma County $34
- 2006 Dutton Goldfield Dutton Ranch Russian River Valley $38
- 2005 Marimar Estate Don Miguel Vineyard Russian River Valley $42
- 2006 Williams Selyem Sonoma Coast $42
- 2005 Marimar Estate Dona Margarita Vineyard Sonoma Coast $45
- 2006 Paul Hobbs Russian River Valley $45
- 2006 Williams Selyem Russian River Valley $45
- 2006 DeLoach Masu Vineyard $45
- 2005 Marimar Estate Don Miguel Vineyard "Earthquake Block" $46

Topping the $50 price tag are some amazing Pinot Noirs:
2006 Williams Selyem Westside Road Neighbors $65
2006 Paul Hobbs Ulises Valdez Vineyard $70
2006 Paul Hobbs Hyde Vineyard Carneros Napa Valley $75

If a retailer does not stock a specific wine we recommend, ask that it be ordered from the distributor, or if it's a domestic wine, order it direct from the winery.

visited Birmingham May 12 to conduct a book signing at the Borders store. He spent a few minutes prior to that visit talking about his new book.

"There's no question about it, people are starting to treat their grill like a stove," Flay said. "There's so many great foods that are cooked in pans that you can put on a grill."

Flay wanted to write a cookbook that was user-friendly. "Grilling is a very different experience than anything else, whether you're sauteing or roasting. It exudes festivities. It's really ingredient driven," Flay said.

"Most people, when it's time for grilling, they go to the farmers market or the grocery store, and see what looks good. This book lets people empty out on the counter the foods they've bought at the store."

In typical Flay-esque fashion, the cookbook's recipes show Flay's daring and creative styles. Other dishes are incredibly simple. It's all separated into 17 chapters according to category from asparagus to white fish, such as red snapper, cod and halibut (not the Michigan whitefish).

That creativity shines in the "Muffuletta" Sandwiches with Spicy Olive Relish, served with grilled chicken breasts instead of cold cuts. "When I travel some place, I'm inspired by the local food," Flay said. "When I visit New Orleans, I'll eat what is popular in New Orleans. If I'm in the Pacific Northwest, I'll eat the local food there."

"The Muffuletta has a lot of great history. You get a lot of savory flavors with the olives, pepper and onions. The olive relish is a key ingredient to achieve the flavor of a Muffuletta without using cold cuts."

Of course, Flay dishes out a few grilling tips.

Grillers often make the mistake of grilling chicken with the skin side down over a roaring hot flame. "If it has the skin side down over a hot fire, it engulfs in flames," Flay said. Flay suggests cooking the chicken over lower heat.

The Mexicali-style Corn with Lime Butter and Cilantro reminds Flay of his childhood when his mother cooked a canned brand of Mexicali corn as a side dish served with pork chops and applesauce. His version features grilled corn, chili peppers and onions. Many of Flay's Southwestern-style dishes include cilantro. "Cilantro needs friends,"

INDIVIDUAL GRILLED CHICKEN "MUFFULETTA" SANDWICHES WITH SPICY OLIVE RELISH

Muffuletta's are always served cold, and you could assemble the sandwiches and then weigh them down in the refrigerator if you're a big fan of the original, but Flay likes to serve these hot.

- Spicy Olive Relish
- 2 small red bell peppers, grilled, peeled, seeded, and diced
 - 2 small yellow bell peppers, grilled, peeled, seeded, and diced
 - 1 serrano chile, grilled and finely diced
 - 1 small red onion, cut into 1/4-inch-thick slices, grilled and coarsely chopped
 - 3 cloves garlic, finely chopped
 - 1/2 cup green olives, pitted and coarsely chopped
 - 1 large stalk celery, finely diced
 - 2 tablespoons capers, drained
 - 1/4 cup red wine vinegar
 - 1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
 - 3 tablespoons coarsely chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley leaves
 - 1 tablespoon finely chopped fresh oregano leaves
 - Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper

- 4 chicken breasts, sliced 1/4-inch-thick
- 2 tablespoons canola oil
- Muffuletta
- 4 soft hero rolls
- 8 (1/2-inch-thick) slices provolone cheese

To make the spicy olive relish, Flay said, knowing all too well the love-hate relationship the herb has with diners. Grilled lamb chops with Garlic and Mustard is another simple recipe, Flay said. "If you look through the book, the combine the red and yellow peppers, the serrano, onion, garlic, olives, celery, capers, vinegar, oil, parsley, and oregano in a medium bowl and season with salt and pepper. Let sit at room temperature for at least 30 minutes before serving or keep covered for up to 1 day in the refrigerator. Bring to room temperature before serving.

Heat your grill to high. Pound boneless chicken breasts to 1/2 inch thickness. Brush breasts on both sides with canola oil and season with salt and pepper. Grill breast skin side down and cook until golden brown and slightly charred, 4 to 5 minutes.

Slice each roll three-quarters of the way through lengthwise. Place 1 slice of cheese on the bottom half of each roll and top with some of the olive relish, sliced chicken, more relish, and then another piece of cheese. Tightly close the sandwiches and wrap each sandwich in a sheet of aluminum foil.

Place two sandwiches, top side down, side by side on the grill and place a brick on top. Repeat with the remaining two sandwiches. Grill for two minutes. Remove the bricks, turn the sandwiches over, replace the bricks, and continue grilling for 2 to 3 minutes longer or until the cheese has melted. Serves 4.

MEXICALI-STYLE CORN WITH LIME BUTTER AND CILANTRO

Chilling the butter mixture before adding it to the hot ingredients is an important step because the butter coats the vegetables as it melts and gives the finished dish a creamy consistency.

- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter, slightly softened
- Grated zest and juice of 1 lime
- 1 teaspoon honey
- Kosher salt
- 2 tablespoons canola oil
- 1 small red onion, finely diced
- 1 jalapeño chile, finely diced
- 1 red bell pepper, finely diced
- 2 cloves garlic, finely chopped
- Perfectly Grilled Corn (page 83), kernels removed from the cobs
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 1/4 cup coarsely chopped fresh cilantro leaves

Whisk together the butter, lime zest and juice, honey, and 1 teaspoon salt in a small bowl. Place in the refrigerator until firm, approximately 15 minutes, or for up to 1 day.

Heat the oil in a large sauté pan over high heat until it begins to shimmer. Add the onion, jalapeño, and bell pepper and cook until soft, 4 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic and cook for 30 seconds. Stir in the corn and cook until just heated through, 2 to 3 minutes.

Add the butter and stir until it just begins to melt and coats the mixture. Remove from the heat, season with salt and pepper, and add the cilantro. Serves 4.

dishes are simple," Flay said. "I tried to be more user-friendly, it makes it much more accessible to people. The recipes are still large on flavor, as this one has Spanish paprika, fresh thyme and mustards."

So what does Bobby prefer, charcoal or gas? "I use both. The charcoal gives a little better flavor, but the gas grills work fine and you can put extra flavors in it with the sauce."

Brown Bag-It with reusable canvas totes

BY WENDY VON BUSKIRK
O & E STAFF WRITER

FARMINGTON HILLS — In an effort to 'go green,' Rene Pass was looking to make small, eco-friendly changes in her life. The Farmington Hills resident decided to start by bringing canvas totes to the grocery store in order to avoid wasting disposable bags.

But her quest to buy cute, reusable bags proved fruitless. "When I was looking on the Internet to purchase bags for myself, I found vinyl/plastic bags with designs, and plain cotton totes," she said. "It was difficult to find quality cotton totes that had designs on them."

The mother of two Harrison High School teens decided to take matters in her own hands.

She launched Brown Bag-It Designs with the mission to raise awareness about environmental problems associated with the use of paper and plastic bags, while offering stylish and affordable alternatives.

Pass bought a software program and came up with some simple designs, such as her company's slogan "Positive Choice, Powerful Change." She had them printed on durable bags in two different sizes, and launched a website to sell her wares.

Printed bags are $13, and plain bags, — "Taller than Wide" or "Wider than Tall" — are $7.

Pass also offers string market bags ($7), which are great for fruits and vegetables.

They can be used in place of plastic produce bags at the market, as well as dampened to store produce in the refrigerator to maintain freshness.

According to the Environmental Protection Agency, the U.S. consumes over 380 billion plastic bags, sacks and wraps annually.

Each year, Americans throw away some 100 billion polyethylene plastic bags, and less than one percent of them are recycled. Once brought into existence to tote purchases, they accumulate and persist on our planet for up to a thousand years.

Paper bags are not much better — it takes 14 billion trees to produce 10 billion grocery bags.

Pass began using recyclable bags last July, but says she's only seen one other person at her local Kroger bring their own canvas totes.

"I'm not sure people are catching onto the idea yet. It's definitely an evolving concept having people understand the idea of global warming and trying to live green," she said.

"I have about five bags that I keep in my car and when I come home from the store I unload my groceries and put my bags back in the car so I won't forget."

The 41-year-old admits it's hard to get into the habit, and she's still not used to using her totes beyond the grocery store.

"I tend to forget when I go into Target or something. I have not gotten real good at that. I'm trying. It's just something you have to work on," she said.

Makeup blooms in shades of green

When wandering the booths at Plymouth's first Green Street Fair earlier this month, visitors were sure to see just how good green can look. With so many all natural beauty options it's possible to look good and feel good about the products you choose.

Ferndale's Chrissy Wilbee can recall a time when she was a self-confessed product junkie. She'd smell a heavenly scent or see interesting packaging and buy a new soap without hesitation. As the one woman show behind Michigan-based Boh Bon Soap Company, Wilbee has created her own line of hand-made all natural soaps and bath products. "I don't use any synthetic fragrances," she said.

The decision to craft a truly natural product meant she'd be limited by ingredients. "I knew I was not going to have a chocolate chip cookie soap," said Wilbee. But she also knew the market was flooded with dessert flavors and she was offering something clients feel safe using. "Sixty percent of what we put onto our skin is absorbed into the body," she said. Upon researching the options of soap-making, Wilbee wanted to remain as close to nature as possible. "I want them to be all natural, pure and simple and fresh, and really good for you," she said.

Boh Bon's Up North Natural soap is made with pine, fir and balsam extracts. It recreates the fresh scent that exists when Wilbee steps outside of her Rapid River, Mich. workshop. She splits her time between metro Detroit and the small Upper Peninsula town where her parents reside, and where she first began experimenting with soap recipes with help from her father.

Gardener's Scrub Soap, made with cocoa butter and cornmeal is gritty enough to get the dirtiest gardener's hands clean, and has a fresh lemony floral scent. Bergamot Mint soap is a best-seller for its citrus and mint combination. "It's become my favorite soap," said Wilbee. Another popular option is Lavender Rosemary. Not only are her soaps natural and lovely, they come packaged in recyclable corrugated cardboard with petroleum-free labels. Her entire line is sold on www.bohbonsoapco.com, and at Flip salon in Ferndale.

Lush Handmade Cosmetics was also among the companies featured in the maiden fair this year. With locations at Troy's Somerset Collection, Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi, and Lakeside Mall in Sterling Heights, Lush sells only fresh, handmade products — most made with so many natural ingredients they come with their own expiration dates. Because Lush uses few or no preservatives, some items even require refrigeration to stay fresh. The company — which got its start in London in the 1970s — uses only organic fruits and vegetables, essential oils and safe synthetics to make a bevy of products.

Carry this handy hand-made solid perfume - in Go Green scent of course - wherever you go for a quick pick-me-up. Find it at Lush stores locally and online at Lush.com.

From bath bombs and shower jellies to hard shampoo and mud face masks, one item seems more decadent than the next.

The company's greenest new additions include a grapefruit scent called Go Green which comes in solid perfume and hard shampoo called Squeaky Green. Or take a soak in the tub with Geo Phyz, a bath bomb subtly scented with pine and made with skin calming sea salt.

Sustainable living is also key to Origins Organics line, featured at the fair. This eco-conscious line of products is made under stringent standards to promote the health and well-being of consumers, and the planet. These green-minded goods include a new Silkening Body Spritz and a Body Pampering Massage Oil. Both 95 percent organic, the products soothe and soften skin. Use either after a shower or as go-to massage oils for spa-quality pampering. Origins Organic Soothing Lip Balm is made from 97 percent organic ingredients including cocoa butter and vanilla oil.

ECO-CHIC OPTIONS

When you go shopping this spring, leave your trendy handbag at home. Reusable canvas totes are the bag of choice for fashion-forward shoppers. In keeping with the green movement, department stores like Target have issued bags their customers can purchase and reuse. Here's a look at a few more.

IKEA

Last March, IKEA launched its 'bag the plastic bag' promotion, asking shoppers to buy an iconic IKEA blue bag or provide their own reusable alternative. The campaign was so successful — with 92 percent of customers complying — IKEA will go completely plastic and paper bag-free starting Oct. 1. Blue bags are 59 cents at the Canton location, or bring your own.

Macy's

In honor of its Turn Over a New Leaf campaign, Macy's locations nationwide are offering 100 percent cotton totes for $3.95 while supplies last. With proceeds benefitting the National Parks Foundation, Macy's also offers a canvas tote by Kenneth Cole emblazoned with the words "USE ME ... Again and Again and Again ... I'm used to it."

Nordstrom

Starting May 19, Nordstrom began offering an eco-chic brushed linen tote featuring a metallic cityscape illustration by famed artist Robert Rauschenberg. The bags, which collapse and zip into a sleek silver rectangle you can stash in your purse are $21.95 at Nordstrom locations at Somerset Collection in Troy, Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi and The Shops at Partridge Creek in Clinton Township.
