Penny lane

The Canton Goodfellows will host a "Pennies from Heaven" fund-raiser on "Make a Difference Day," Saturday, Oct. 24, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Summit.

The group hopes to collect as many pennies as possible to help fund Goodfellow programs.

"We would like to show how a simple penny, when you add it to lots of other pennies, can really make a big difference," said Canton Goodfellows President Nancy Spencer. "This event is in honor of my dad, Clarence Conat, who has continued to send me 'pennies from heaven' since he died in 1975. I know he'd be happy we are helping the neediest children in our community."

Pennies can also be dropped off at St. Thomas a'Becket Church in Canton during regular office hours.

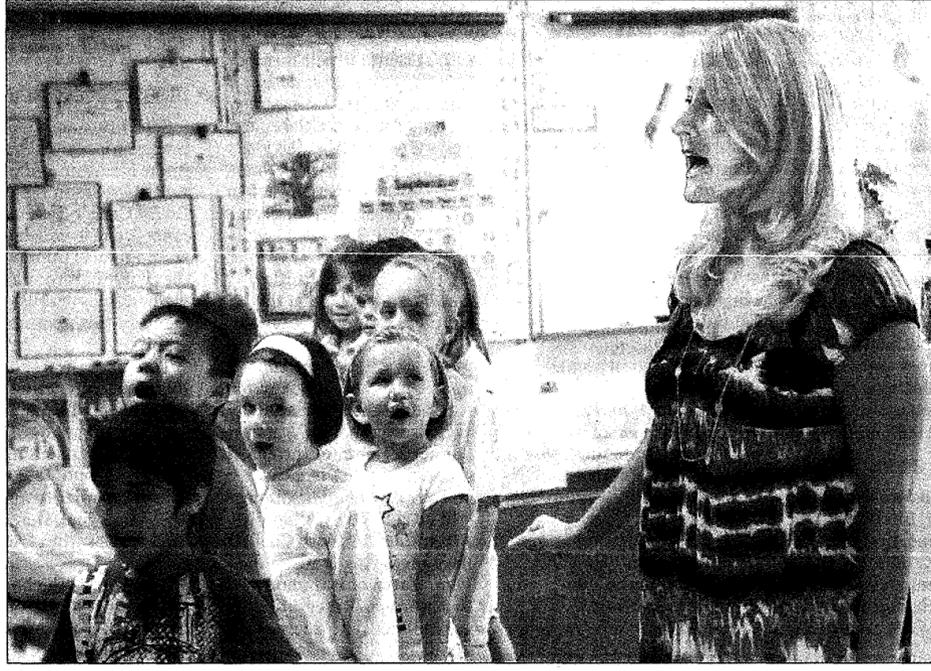

'Humane' honor

Canton Township will be recognizing the Humane Society of Huron Valley in conjunction with a proclamation to celebrate "National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week," Nov. 1-7.

HSHV will be given the award Tuesday, Oct. 27 during the regularly scheduled township meeting at 7 p.m. Guests and HSHV supporters are welcome to attend.

"We are honored that Canton is celebrating this event and HSHV in particular," said Tanya Hilgendorf, HSHV Executive Director. "Animal shelters serve their communities in many ways, perhaps most importantly: animal shelters provide a tangible example of humane ethics and compassion for all living creatures. Canton Township is filled with many wonderful animal lovers and we are glad to be their community animal shelter where homeless, lost and abused animals are taken."

Bentley Elementary School first-grade teacher and author Cheryl Zuzo has her kids line up for the walk to art class.

Kid power

Teacher hopes book helps students 'do their best'

BY BRAD KADRICH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

As a child, Cheryl Zuzo's daughter, Briella, made life for herself more difficult by expecting nothing less than perfection from herself.

As a mother, Zuzo worked hard to teach Briella and her younger brother, Brent, that perfection wasn't necessary, that "doing your best" was the goal for which to shoot.

As a teacher, Zuzo wants to make sure her students learn the same lesson, and she's using the same tool to teach it: Her first children's book, Being Bella.

"My daughter had such a tough time trying to make everything perfect," said Zuzo, a first-grade teacher at Bentley Elementary. "I tried to tell her you don't have to be perfect, just do your best. Everyone has a different 'best.' It's about being who you are, and being proud of it."

Zuzo created the book around her own children, though she made Brent the older brother in the book "so Bella would have someone to guide her." In the book, Bella learns lessons about "just doing your best" on simple things such as tying a shoe, writing the letter 'K' or making her bed from her parents, her brother and a teacher.

Now back in the classroom after taking a hiatus to raise her children, Zuzo uses the book as a tool to teach those same lessons to her own students. She complements the book with stories about how she struggled to write as a student herself.

First-grade teacher Cheryl Zuzo hopes her first children's book, 'Being Bella,' empowers children.

"It's eye-opening for them," said Zuzo, who wrote the outline in one draft, but admits the book went through "about 20 revisions" before ending up in print. "They think, 'She wasn't very good in first grade, and now she has a book, so maybe I can do it.' They can do anything."

Published by Ferne Press, an imprint of Northville-based Nelson Marketing and Publishing, Being Bella was illustrated by Canton artist Megan Wellman, who has illustrated many Ferne Press productions. Zuzo said Wellman knew exactly how the book, and its lead character, should look.

"Megan takes exactly what you say and turns it into exactly what you want," Zuzo said. "The first time I saw her sketches, I cried.

She really brought it to life."

That part was possible because of Zuzo's own enthusiasm for the story, according to Wellman.

"I have a step-daughter, and I felt it was very relatable for her," Wellman said. "Children are always striving for approval. Bella reinforced that trying your hardest and doing your own personal best is what you should strive for, rather than perfection."

"Cheryl was very animated about the look of her book and its characters. They were easy and fun to bring to life," she added. "I think the book has a great positive message that we can all take something from."

Zuzo, who has bachelor's and master's degrees from Eastern Michigan University, has 23 "kids" now, and she lets them know in a variety of ways that they "are awesome." She uses music, books and even some comedy to teach them. Students end most days doing Elvis Presley impersonations.

"You can't end a day badly when you've got 23 kids wiggling their lips at you and saying, 'Thank you, thank you very much,'" she said, laughing.

There's a lot of laughter mixed with the lessons in her classroom. Zuzo said she hopes her style helps kids realize they can do anything they set out to do.

"I didn't feel very empowered when I was 6 ... I had a dream to write a book that empowered kids," she said. "Making a difference in the world is good. Hopefully (the book) will do that."

Ex-funeral home operators charged

BY KEN ABRAMCZYK
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The owners of a former Livonia funeral home been charged in connection with a pre-paid funeral fraud scheme.

Christopher and Nancy Ziomek of Canton, who once owned the Ziomek Funeral Home on Wayne Road, were arraigned Wednesday in 16th District Court in Livonia.

Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy said Christopher and Nancy Ziomek have been charged with two counts of embezzlement greater than $50,000 but less than $100,000, a felony punishable by up to 15 years in prison; three counts of embezzlement by an agent or trustee greater than $1,000 but less than $20,000, a felony punishable by up to five years in prison; and funeral contracts-conversion, a felony punishable by up to five years in prison.

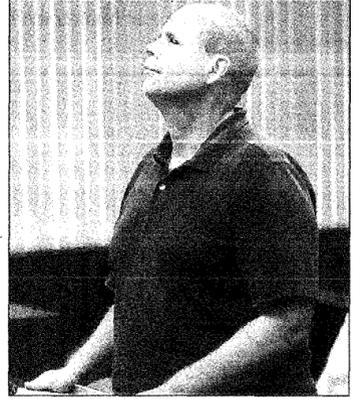

Worthy said at a press conference Wednesday that an investigation by Detective Dean Langley of the Livonia Police Department revealed that more than 60 complainants in Wayne County were duped out of money for pre-paid funeral contracts.

Worthy said the defendants obtained more than $230,000 from unwitting victims between 1998 and 2007.

"It is alleged that the money was placed in a Ziomek funeral home account and later spent by the Ziomeks for their own personal use," Worthy said.

Langley first received a complaint in November 2007. A man had purchased

Board OKs abatements to grow jobs

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Despite a sour economy, Canton officials Tuesday relished steps they took to help four local companies expand and eventually hire more workers.

"That's extremely positive for the community," township Economic Development Manager Debra Bilbrey-Honsowetz said. "It's just such good news."

Consider why:
• Grupo Antolin Wayne on Michigan Avenue is planning a nearly $1.3 million investment after getting more work to make Ford F-150 headliners. The company now has about 100 employees and potentially could hire 50 more within two years.

• Danotek Motion Technologies on Haggerty, which researches, tests and manufactures wind-powered electrical generators and components for electric and hybrid vehicles, is investing $5 million and could see its workforce swell from 51 to as many as 200 employees within the next five years.

• Durcon, Inc., a company on Ronda Drive that makes products such as specialty sinks and laboratory work surfaces, could see a slight expansion of its 115-member workforce by investing $120,000 in new equipment for a new "green line" of products using post-consumer recycled glass.

• Sysco, a company that sells, markets and distributes food products to schools, restaurants and other locations, could eventually hire more workers after local, county and state officials spearheaded efforts to add a turn lane and resurface Van Born Road near the facility.

During a Canton Township Board of Trustees meeting Tuesday, three of the companies — Grupo, Danotek and Durcon — received tax abatements allowing them to expand while getting a 50-percent tax break on personal property — or new equipment — they plan to install to accommodate the changes.

Sysco's expansion, meanwhile, received a boost as the township board — overseeing state and county dollars — approved a $797,635 contract to hire Sole Construction, Inc. Canton Municipal Services Director Tim Paas has said officials hope to start the Van Born Road improvements this fall.

Strong finals performance nets band second at regional

BY DIANE HANSON
CORRESPONDENT

Heavy breathing and a pounding heart weren't just the results of swift marching and the expert musical exertions of the 18 top high school marching bands from four states performing at the Bands of America Regional Championships at Eastern Michigan University's Rynearson Stadium Saturday.

They were also the clever sound effects eerily resonating throughout the Plymouth-Canton Marching Band's competition program, "Beneath the Surface," that netted the hometown team the AAAA championship with a caption for Outstanding General Effect after preliminary competition along with second place among the top 10 finalist bands.

"We're very thrilled," said a pleased David Armbruster, director of bands at P-CEP. "Despite the weather we dealt with this week, the kids had a great run."

The 170-member P-CMB captured second place after a stellar finals performance in the unseasonably frigid evening with a score of 82.55, a mere half point below first-place Lawrence Central from Indiana with an 83.05.

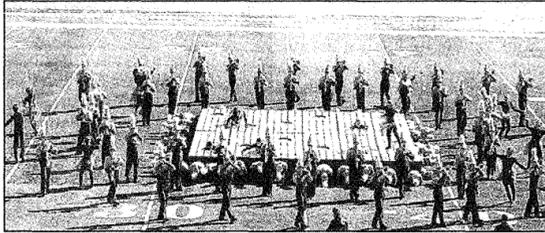

After prelims earlier in the day, P-CMB bested Lawrence Central by 0.2 points to capture the AAAA crown. Other Michigan bands making the top 10 were Muskegon's Reeths-Puffer, third, 78.75; West Bloomfield, fourth, 76.9; Walled Lake Central, sixth, 72.95; and Lake Orion, ninth, 71.75.

"It's great to be doing so well," said first-year-marcher and trombonist Brian Desjarlais, a Canton freshman. "It's cool to be in this band because of its long history of achievement."

Plymouth senior Caroline Williams, one of the three drum majors, was pleased with her band's performance.

A Bands of America official joins Kayla Ragland, Jill Black, Caroline Williams, Katrina Maynes and Kaitlyn Tracy after presenting the P-CMB with the second-place Regional Championship trophy Saturday.

The color guard members emerge from beneath the surface of the platform to the echoing sounds of a beating heart at the beginning of the Plymouth-Canton Marching Band's competition program, "Beneath the Surface," with theme loosely based on the work of Edgar Allan Poe.

ON THEIR OWN FIELD

The award-winning Plymouth-Canton Educational Park Marching Band will be performing their show in exhibition as hosts of the Great Lakes Invitational on Oct. 17 on the home gridiron. Nineteen bands will perform and the public is invited. Tickets are $6 for adults, $4 for senior citizens and children/students 18 years and under at the gate, and $2 for P-CEP students with a valid student ID.

"During warm-ups, I was caught off guard by how well we sounded," she said. "The sound quality has progressed so much and I'm so proud of all the members."

But wait - there's more! The show isn't even finished yet. There's nearly a minute still to be added.

"We're going to add a little bit more to the closer, clean some things, tweak and start adding a lot more of the effects that they have and a whole surprise ending," Armbruster said.

"We have a lot to do, but we have enough time to do it, so we should be in good shape in the end," said Jenifer Leseth, color guard director since 2003. "I think we have the potential to make this one of the best shows Plymouth has done in a long time and to be very memorable. It's going to be one of the shows people talk about."

two pre-paid funeral contracts. "He later discovered that at the time the money was given to Christopher Ziomek, the funeral home did not have a pre-paid funeral and cemetery sales registration with the state of Michigan," Worthy said. "In fact, the prepaid funeral and cemetery sales registration had been suspended and/or expired since May 31, 1999."

Customers who had purchased the contracts were unable to obtain refunds, Langley said.

"Based on our investigation, we have been unable to show that the funds were properly escrowed with a third-party agent," Langley said. "The monies should be placed into a fund or insurance so that later down the road if people wanted refunds, the money would be there. The money should have been documented, but we've been unable to locate the funds so far."

Langley worked with state auditors from the Michigan Department of Energy, Labor and Economic Growth Bureau of Commercial Services.

Nancy Ziomek signs her acknowledgment of rights during her arraignment on felony charges of embezzlement.

"They sorted through the evidence obtained in the search warrant," Langley said. Investigators examined the paperwork for the business, Langley said.

Residents who purchase funeral contracts can take precautions by asking for a statement of their money, Langley said. "They are supposed to receive something once a year," Langley said. "If the money is escrowed properly, (the funeral home) should be able to provide written documentation of where the money is."

Langley said the customers who lost money trusted the funeral home operators. "Unfortunately, the red flags didn't come up until the very end," Langley said.

Langley received a few complaints from relatives of the funeral home's customers who had died without any account or escrow left by the funeral home for the customer's funeral.

"Most of the complaints came from people who wanted refunds and couldn't get them," Langley said.

Theresa Harp of Westland, who attended the arraignment, said the Ziomeks took $6,000 five or six years ago from her mother, Florence Muto of Westland, now 92. Muto became suspicious when the sign for the funeral home, which later closed, was taken down. Harp said Christopher Ziomek told her mother they were building a new facility.

"I think it's the same as though they had held a gun to her head and said give us $6,000," Harp said. "They took complete advantage of us."

A preliminary exam is set for Oct. 27. Bond was set at $20,000, or 10 percent, for each defendant. Not-guilty pleas were entered on their behalf.

Worthy said anyone who has paid Christopher and Nancy Ziomek for pre-paid funeral contracts should contact the Livonia Police Department at (734) 466-2470.

Township Supervisor Phil LaJoy described himself as "excited" by the latest economic news and said local officials are striving to attract new businesses and - perhaps more importantly - retain companies that can grow and prosper.

"We're seeing some evidence of that," LaJoy said.

Trustee Pat Williams seemed to sum up the sentiment of his colleagues when he referred to the latest success stories of some local companies.

"Keep growing, keep growing and keep growing," he said.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Police score big for First Step

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Canton and Detroit police played a charity soccer game Saturday and raised $1,700 for domestic violence shelters.

Canton police used the confines of the High Velocity Sports Center on Michigan Avenue in Canton to edge Detroit, 6-4.

"I would have to give it the home field advantage, but both teams played really well," Canton police Sgt. Mark Gajeski said.

The real winners, as some 30 police officers showed up for the event, were shelters that help victims of domestic and sexual violence.

Organizers have said the money raised will benefit First Step, which serves western Wayne County, and the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit's Interim House.

"Any money we can give to a cause like that is worth it," Gajeski said.

He estimated about 100 spectators watched the game. Admission was $5, but money also was raised by raffling off prizes including passes to local restaurants and a gift package to the MGM Grand Casino in Detroit.

Three players from the Detroit Ignition soccer team served as referee and coaches, and cheerleaders from Canton High School and Plymouth High School helped fire up the crowd.

The game came in the wake of a sobering reminder that even police can become caught up in domestic violence. Although the soccer match already had been organized, it was played after Detroit homicide investigator Edward Gordon Williams II gunned down his wife, Detroit police officer Patricia Williams, outside the Canton Public Library on Sept. 22. He then shot and killed himself.

Gajeski said Saturday's soccer game wasn't overshadowed by the shootings. Rather, he said the police officers tried to focus on the positive efforts to help domestic violence shelters.

"It was a pretty good game," Gajeski said.

Theresa Bizoe, associate director for First Step, has commended police for organizing the game. She said domestic violence shelters have had to seek alternative fund-raising methods as a sour economy has taken a toll on donations.

Masked gunman escapes with Domino's dough

BY DARRELL CLEM
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A masked gunman escaped Friday night during an armed robbery Canton police said happened inside the Domino's Pizza at Cherry Hill and Sheldon.

The holdup occurred shortly before 10 p.m. — five hours after a separate incident in which township police captured two of three suspects accused of beating a man and robbing him in a laundry room of an apartment building near Joy and Sheldon, police Sgt. Mark Gajeski said.

During the Domino's robbery, a black male wearing dark clothes and a mask walked in brandishing a silver handgun, pointed it at a female manager, grabbed her and moved her toward the cash register, Gajeski said.

No shots were fired, and no one was injured, he said.

The lone suspect took money from the pizzeria and fled in what Gajeski described as a black BMW.

Anyone who has information about the incident is urged to call Canton police at (734) 394-5400. Anonymous tips for a possible cash reward also may be made to Crime Stoppers of Michigan at (800) SPEAK-UP.

Earlier, three suspects are accused of beating and robbing a man who was going to visit a friend at Lincolnshire Apartments near Joy and Sheldon, Gajeski said.

The incident was described as a strong-armed robbery rather than a holdup involving a weapon. The suspects took the victim to a laundry room, where he told police he was assaulted and robbed, Gajeski said.

"An officer was flagged down by a victim who said he had been robbed inside the building," Gajeski said.

One suspect was caught at the scene, and another was captured in the area of Warren and Sheldon, Gajeski said.

A third suspect remained at large on Tuesday, he said, and anyone who has information is asked to call police or Crime Stoppers.

Driver exposes himself to woman on Michigan

A woman told police she was driving west on Michigan Avenue near Beck when a man in a vehicle next to her honked his horn and exposed himself to her. She said he then nodded at her.

The woman said the incident happened about 5:15 p.m. Oct. 6.

The woman described the man as being in his late 20s or early 30s with a heavy build, scraggly facial hair and dirty blond or reddish hair. She said he was driving a navy blue pickup, possibly a Chevrolet model.

The woman told police she reached for her cell phone to call and report the man, but he changed lanes and then started driving east on Michigan Avenue.

Montessori theft

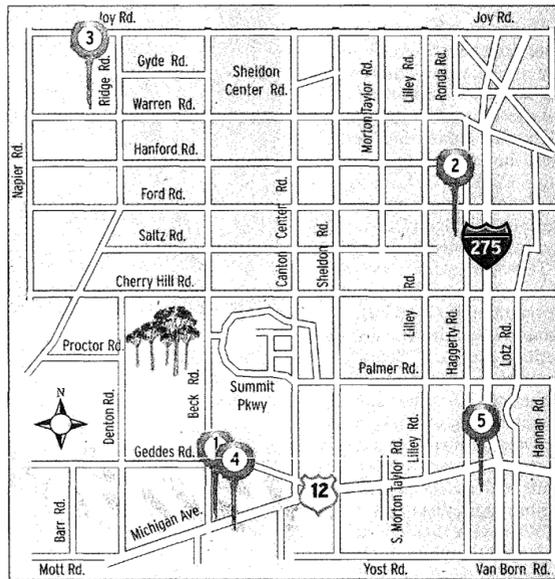

A construction site manager for a new Montessori school being built on Haggerty south of Ford told police someone entered the site sometime between Friday and Monday, cut the electrical supply line from the basement area to the lift on the main floor, and stole approximately 10 hanging lights from the basement.

Fob folly

A woman told police she had some odd events happening at her house between 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday on Haverhill, west of Ridge and north of Warren.

She said she parked her Chevy pickup in the driveway, entered the house, put her purse and car keys on the counter, let her dog out a rear doorwall and went upstairs to do some housework. She said she forgot to lock the doorwall.

When she went downstairs again, she noticed the key fob was missing from her key ring. She went out to the vehicle and noticed the key fob was in the grass near the driver's side of her truck. She also said she noticed one of her daughter's necklaces near the key fob.

The woman said nothing appeared to be missing from the house.

Window damage

A woman reported the rear window of her vehicle was damaged while she was parked at the Kohl's Department Store, at Michigan Avenue and Beck Road, between 3-4 p.m.

Sunday. She didn't know who might have caused the damage.

Possible abuse

Police are investigating reports that two children may have been abused at a residence on Old Michigan, southeast of Haggerty and Michigan Avenue. One child, who reportedly has attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder, had a swollen face after she was slapped, a state child protective services worker told police. As a result, the child didn't attend school.

The mother reportedly suffers from depression and screams at the children, according to police reports. The father is currently in jail.

Vietnam-born author to speak at Penn in Plymouth

BY JULIE BROWN
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Bich Minh Nguyen, author of Stealing Buddha's Dinner, is traveling the state discussing her book. The book, which tells of Nguyen growing up as a Vietnamese refugee in 1970s and 1980s Grand Rapids, is this year's Great Michigan Read selection from the Michigan Humanities Council.

"The author tour starts this week," said Sue Patterson, adult services librarian at the Plymouth District Library and a member of this year's book selection committee. "She started in Grand Rapids on Tuesday."

Nguyen, born in 1974 in Saigon, was slated for later Michigan stops in Traverse City, Midland and Lansing. With the humanities council and Plymouth District Library, the author will speak 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 17, at the Penn Theatre in downtown Plymouth. Nguyen will also sign copies of her book.

Nguyen

"I think it's wonderful," Plymouth resident Patterson said of the appearance, the only one of Nguyen's in southeast Michigan. "I think it's a wonderful opportunity for us to show off Plymouth."

The Friends of the Plymouth District Library are involved with the Michigan Humanities Council presentation, focusing on Nguyen's memoir published in 2007. There's no registration required for the Oct. 17 program and seating is first-come first-served for the 405-seat Penn Theatre.

father, grandmother, uncle and sister as Saigon fell. They ended up in Grand Rapids through a church-sponsored relocation program. She writes movingly of efforts to fit in to a new culture, described often in terms of the Burger King, Dairy Cone and other foods available.

Nguyen tells of her efforts to fit in to Grand Rapids in the 1980s "before diversity and multicultural awareness trickled into western Michigan. Before ethnic was cool. Before Thai restaurants became staples in every town. When I think of Grand Rapids I remember city signs covered in images of rippling flags, proclaiming 'An All-American City.' ... As a kid, I couldn't figure out what 'All-American' was supposed to mean. Was it a promise, a threat, a warning?"

Her first name is pronounced "Bit" but classmates used the phonetic spelling as a swear word, and teased Nguyen and sister Anh about their background. Their father married a Mexican-American woman in Grand Rapids who gave birth to son Vinh.

The author, who now lives in Chicago and West Lafayette, Ind., attended the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, earning a bachelor's degree in English and a master of fine arts degree in creative writing. She teaches at Purdue University in Indiana as an associate professor in the English department, and is married to novelist Porter Shreve.

Stealing Buddha's Dinner won the PEN/Jerard Fund Award. It's the Contemporary Books discussion book for November at the Plymouth library, as well as the January Brown Bags group book. The Plymouth library will also host a Vietnam veterans panel discussion 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct.

28, at the library, 223 S. Main in downtown Plymouth. Registration is requested for the panel discussion at (734) 453-0750, Ext. 4. The panel features members of Chapter 528 Plymouth-Canton Vietnam Veterans of America.

"We'll have other related programs," said Patterson, including those focusing on history and culture of Vietnam.

"We're hoping to draw obviously from the surrounding communities," the librarian said of the Oct. 17 author visit, which is free. Doors will open at the Penn about a half hour before the program starts. Questions should be directed to the library, as the Penn isn't staffed at all times.

For more on Nguyen's visit, see <http://www.michiganhumanities.org/programs/tgmr>.

Trail friends meet to talk about projects

In over a year since its grand opening, the Lower Rouge River Recreation Trail has become a popular destination for outdoor enthusiasts.

In an effort to meet the residential demand for more outdoor recreational opportunities, the trail system is currently undergoing an expansion as five wooden pedestrian bridges are under construction with an estimated completion date of Nov.30. These additions will extend the existing trail from Haggerty Road to Sheldon Road.

At present, the trail measures approximately two miles and is actively used by walkers, joggers, bikers, cross country skiers and nature lovers. Once completed, this new connection to the existing I-275 path will increase the trail to four miles of compacted crushed stone paved main trails with access to even more miles of additional single track hiking and mountain biking trails.

The next planned expansion is scheduled for spring 2010 when two additional wooden pedestrian bridges will extend the trail from Sheldon Road to Canton Center Road.

Local residents interested in helping to support, maintain, improve and champion the Lower Rouge River trail system can attend the next meeting of the Friends of Canton Trails, scheduled on Thursday, Nov. 12, in the Canton Administrative Building in Room "A" on the Lower Level. Future meetings will be held the second Thursday of each month.

Prospective group projects include the planning of the grand reopening of the Trail system slated for River Day 2010 on June 5. In addition, this volunteer group will coordinate events and fund-raisers at the trail, including: charity runs; clean up days such as Arbor Day and Make A Difference Day; River Trail canoeing and kayaking; and general trail upkeep. The group is also in need of a webmaster with experience posting photos and utilizing Gmail.

For more information on the Lower Rouge River Recreation Trail system or to find out how to become part of the steering committee, call (734) 394-5310 or visit Cantonfun.org

Online learning

The online classroom is changing. What was once primarily accessed by young adults, online learning is fast becoming the way to make a job market transition and even graduate from high school.

As online classes become larger and more diverse, it's imperative for community colleges and universities to continue improving these courses.

The Symposium includes a faculty panel about engaging online students and will feature speaker Matt Roush, WWJ-Newsradio 950's technology editor, Great Lakes IT Report. Kevin Krason, president and founder of Biznet.com; Karen Kelley from Cisco Systems and Bruce Umpstead, Director, Office of Educational Technology and Data Coordination, Michigan Department of Education, will also be featured speakers.

The cost is $100 for Alliance Members and $150 for the public and includes continental breakfast, breakout sessions, luncheon, and a vendor showcase. To register go to www.a4eoe.org/

OUR VIEWS

Use common sense in fight against H1N1

Pandemic is a scary word. It brings to mind disturbing images of illness and death. It is a word that demands attention.

And the Center for Disease Control recently released an update on the H1N1 virus that should make even skeptical parents take notice. Among the findings:

- Another 19 children died from the new H1N1 virus last week around the country, pushing to 76 the number of fatalities this year among those under 18.

- Thirty-seven states now report widespread H1N1 outbreaks. At this time, Michigan is not one of the those states but others in the Midwest including Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Minnesota are on the list. CDC officials consider any reports of widespread influenza activity in September and October very unusual.

The best way to prevent the spread of the virus is frequent, thorough hand washing. ... It is helpful to tell young children to sing happy birthday while washing their hands. When the song is over, they can stop washing.

So what is a parent to do?

The first step is to get informed. Read about the dangers of the H1N1 virus so recognizing early warning signs of danger is possible. Information on vaccinations and prevention strategies is also available at these three reliable sites:

www.cdc.gov/h1n1flu

www.aap.org/advocacy/releases/may09swine-fluqanda.htm

The third site on the list is the H1N1 page of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

It is a dependable resource for parents who want to verify information from a source independent from the government.

For people who would rather talk to someone on the telephone, call the 24-Hour Wayne County Seasonal Flu/H1N1 Information Line at (734) 727-7163.

Local officials have been planning for the flu season for months and they are erring on the side of caution. Much of the prevention effort will be focused on schools as children are more susceptible to the virus, which is more easily spread where large groups of people congregate in close quarters.

School officials are stressing the importance of good hygiene and common sense. A sick child must be kept out of school no matter what test or activity is coming up. Teachers will find a way to get the homework to them, and students will have time to catch up when they come back to school. One child with H1N1 who coughs and sneezes his way through a day could be responsible for many others getting sick it is imperative that sick children stay home from school.

That means parents have to think ahead and come up with a childcare plan now. Medical experts advise keeping a sick child out of school for 24 hours after any fever is gone. That could be a few days or longer so parents need to have a childcare plan in case the flu strikes.

The best way to prevent the spread of the virus is frequent, thorough hand washing. Experts advise washing hands with warm running water and soap (antibacterial soap is fine but not necessary) for at least 20 seconds. It is helpful to tell young children to sing happy birthday while washing their hands. When the song is over, they can stop washing.

Plymouth-Canton Community Schools has done enough work in this area - they had a case of their own last year - that Wayne County officials used Discovery Middle School to kick off their hand-washing informational campaign.

The district is also under consideration to be one of the locations when the county sets up its regional shot clinics. There's more information about H1N1 on the district's Web site at www.pccs.k12.mi.us

The good news is that the vast majority of H1N1 cases are mild.

The bad news is that the H1N1 flu can be very serious and cases are already being reported in Michigan.

Thank goodness local officials have spent a great deal of time planning for the flu season, but all that effort won't do much good if families don't follow the guidelines.

COMMUNITY VOICE

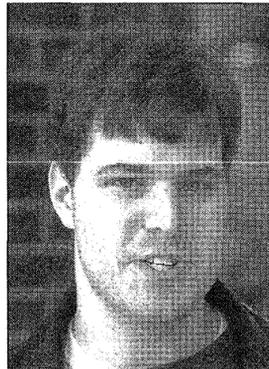

What do you think of Canton's plans to build a dog park? Do you think you will use it?

We asked this question at the Canton Public Library.

"Yes, I think it's a great idea. My dog (a black lab mix named Ore) will love that."

Jennifer Blazejewski
Canton

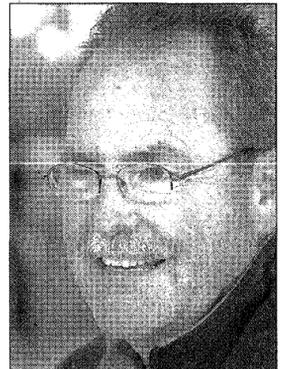

"I probably won't use it. I usually just walk the dog - my mom's dog - around the neighborhood."

Dave Ebersole
Canton

"It would be something I would check out (with her cairn terrier/schnauzer Rascal) as long as there are designated areas for small and large dogs." (Local officials have said there will be separate areas.)

Debbie Piotrowski
Canton

"Personally I probably won't use it. I would be concerned about the diseases a dog might catch from other dogs."

Vote for leadership

As past presidents of the Plymouth-Canton Music Boosters, and active members of the educational community, we have had the pleasure of working with Judy Mardigian, Barry Simescu and John Jackson on a number of music and non-related music issues.

As dedicated members of our district's Board of Education, their pro-active, common-sense approach has delivered the leadership we've needed during what has been very challenging times in our district. And, moving forward, this is just the type of approach and leadership we need to lead us through the difficult financial times that lie ahead.

Their years of the experience on the Board of Education, combined with their years of involvement within the community, are needed now more than ever. What sets them apart? Well, for one thing, they're not afraid to hold people accountable, beginning with themselves. Together, their solutions-driven management of the serious issues has enabled the Board to thoroughly study every point in route to key decision-making. When you examine their tenure on the board, you'll uncover a track record of accomplishment and steadfast commitment in service to our school district. As our district continues to move forward, we need people on the school board - like Judy, Barry and John - who are abundantly familiar with the key issues. We know their commitment to making tough choices and smart decisions will continue to be directly focused on what is best for our students.

If you ever have the privilege of speaking with any of them, you will quickly note how proudly they speak of the artists, the athletes, the scholars, the musicians, the cheerleaders, the alternative education students, the special education students, the gifted, etc.

We strongly urge you to vote Nov. 3 for Judy Mardigian, Barry Simescu and John Jackson.

Ban texting/driving

I am a parent of a 19-year-old and a 14-year-old. I think texting should be banned while driving. I have this talk all the time with my 19-year-old daughter in college.

The thought of getting in an accident and possibly killing someone or themselves, can not be worth it. That phone message can not be that important it can't wait until you get to your destination. Those kids need to ask themselves, will it be worth sitting in jail for and living with that, the rest of their life, just because they couldn't keep their eyes on the road?

Kids think, it won't happen to them, because they are careful. It takes a split second to look down and look up and there is a car stopped in front of you or you go into the next lane.

It drives me crazy when someone comes in my lane, or sits at a green light because they are looking down. It's hard enough to talk on the phone, let alone type on the phone. It scares the heck out of me. I worry about people running into me and I sure hope they don't take my life, my husbands, my kids, or my dogs life. It is a serious problem.

I would hate to see any teenager have to spend time in jail because they were on the phone, or typing and seriously hurt someone. Keep everyone alive and type before or after you drive! Pretty good slogan, huh?

Bud-ville

Our esteemed elected officials in Lansing are trying to find ways to fix our state's budget deficit.

They propose new taxes on bottled water, physician services, tobacco products, and increasing liquor sales hours (i.e. more heavily intoxicated drivers and at earlier Sunday hours!).

They also want to decrease K-12 education funding by $165-$218/pupil, and reduce revenue sharing for police/firefighters, etc.

Since 2004, Lansing has increased the "sin" tax on Michigan cigarettes 60 percent ($1.25/pack - $2/pack). That's good, if people want to smoke, let them pay more.

But can someone explain to me why the tax on beer has not increased in the last 43 years? The current tax on a 12-ounce can of beer is 2 cents. That's right folks, a whopping 12 cents/six pack (vs. $2/pack of cigarettes!).

There's a "beer" fox in the Lansing henhouse. I vote that we rename Lansing "Bud-ville"!

INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION WEEK

"Invest in America" Spreads its Wings

The economic meltdown of 2008 began to take hold right in the middle of the presidential election. The phrase "from Wall Street to Main Street" was revived by the candidates to contrast what was needed to be done to get America moving again. No business exemplifies Main Street more than a credit union. So when "Invest in America" was born in December 2008, it struck the right chord with credit union members. The program initially offered credit union discounts on GM and Chrysler vehicles. A month later when the program went nationwide, the success was almost instantaneous. The traffic to www.lovemycreditunion.org skyrocketed. As sales now approach 200,000 and with Ford offering a leasing product in select markets, one thing is certain: "Invest in America" appeals to credit union members' sense of wanting to buy American. As UCorp CEO David Adams sees it, the "Invest in America" program's broad appeal is that it offers discounts, but it also helps local economies by keeping Americans working.

"Credit unions are always looking for ways to serve their members' borrowing needs and to help our national economy," said Adams. "Invest in America" is a unique program that provides both. We've already seen the domestic auto makers bring back workers because of an increased demand. "Invest in America" is designed to promote U.S.-based companies that will help ensure more jobs for American workers.

Most states utilize their natural resources as a means of driving tourists to spend their hard-earned dollars closer to home. This has also led to an increase in the number of people camping and using recreational vehicles. Credit unions have traditionally provided their members with various types of vehicle loans, so offering an "Invest in America" discount on Thor Industries recreational vehicles, the world's largest RV manufacturer, was a natural. Thor is offering between $300 and $1,000 discounts on any of the seven brands it offers. Those brands are Airstream, Breckenridge, CrossRoads, Damon Motor Coach, Dutchmen, Four Winds and Komfort. Thor Industries President Dicky Regal saw the value in joining "Invest in America" right away.

"Partnering with "Invest in America" and UCorp made perfect sense for Thor's RV companies," said Regal, based in New York City. "Invest in America" has already demonstrated the potential power of the program through its successful automotive programs, and its reach among the nation's credit unions and their members allowed Thor to bring the top selling RV brands in America to millions of savvy credit union members. We look forward to a very successful program with "Invest in America."

Allied Van Lines Inc. and its agent Carey Moving and Storage joined "Invest in America" in August, as well. Through the partnership, credit union members receive up to 60 percent off interstate (state-to-state) moves and significant savings on intrastate (local) full-service moves and storage. The program offers a host of other services like lifting peak season restrictions, enhanced transit times, expedited claims settlements and complementary pairs and sets valuation protection – ensuring that if part of a furniture set is broken, Allied will replace the whole set subject to Allied's tariff and the terms and conditions of Full Value Protection. This partnership also allows credit unions to assist members with their move and make sure they stay in the credit union system even if the move takes them out of state.

The umbrella under "Invest in America" now includes Sprint, GM, Chrysler, Thor Industries, Allied Van Lines, Inc. and Ford. By partnering with Thor Industries or Sprint or the Big 3 Automakers, America's credit unions are not only saving money for their members but also providing a great example of what a credit union is all about – providing solutions for its members. Through "Invest in America," credit union members have saved more than $160 million on new vehicles and mobile services through Sprint. This is money, given the current economy, which is greatly needed by families.

"Invest in America" will continue to add partners throughout the fall and winter. UCorp is looking at American-based companies that provide high-quality products that match up with the values of credit unions. A true example of what "Main Street" can do for the U.S. economy.

Michigan Credit Unions Lead the Country in Financial Education

Sound money management skills are a big part of a safe and successful financial future. Part of the credit union mission is to educate people of all ages on the basics of saving, budgeting and borrowing so that consumers are well prepared for each stage of their lives.

There is no better time to learn these lessons than during early development, which is why credit unions have made a large investment in classroom outreach. According to data from the National Youth Involvement Board, Michigan credit unions reached more than 47,000 students with 1,800 financial education presentations over the past year, capping a complete decade that Michigan has led the country in school involvement. Some of these were cooperative efforts through the Michigan Credit Union League's "Financial Literacy Legislative Challenge," in which lawmakers partnered with credit unions to teach students about important financial topics.

Michigan credit unions also have more than 350 student-run branches at the elementary, middle and high school level that give youth and young adults hands-on experience with financial transactions. Students are able to open savings accounts and manage the branch's operations themselves, not only learning good money management habits but also putting their own skills to practice. Giving young people this experience can instill lifelong financial values and a basic understanding of how banking works.

Credit unions take part in financial education outreach year-round, but also celebrate April as Financial Literacy Month. Working closely with the Federal Reserve initiative "Money Smart Week," credit unions offer a flurry of classes, seminars and classroom presentations during the third full week in April, and work to raise awareness of the importance of financial literacy to lawmakers and the public.

Through seminars and one-on-one counseling, credit unions work closely with adults on a number of important topics vital for financial well-being. Credit unions often partner with other nonprofit organizations to offer expertise and assistance to as many consumers as possible – including unbanked populations in underserved areas. Most recently, the Michigan Credit Union League and several partners created www.RightAtHomeAnswers.org so that credit unions can work with members on the home buying process and how to avoid foreclosure when times are tight.

Financial education goes hand-in-hand with the credit union philosophy of "People Helping People." Credit unions exist not only to provide a trustworthy depository institution that is member-owned, but also to help consumers avoid the financial pitfalls that have many Americans deep in debt or facing the potential loss of their home or vehicle.

By working to educate their members and other Michigan residents, credit unions are helping to arm consumers with the money management skills they need in a tough economy; from college to a first home to retirement. For financial education resources, visit www.lovemycreditunion.org.

Rocks nip 'Cats in preview

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Go ahead and call Monday night's varsity boys soccer tussle between Plymouth and Salem a precursor to the districts.

Next Monday will be the same teams, same field, same time as this week's matchup — a 2-1 Salem victory thanks to a late goal by senior midfielder Alex Tramel.

"That (the districts) will be next Monday, right here, exactly the same routine,"

BOYS SOCCER Salem head coach Ed McCarthy said. "And that one will count 10 times more than this one will."

Plymouth head coach Jeff Neschich noted that "we'll know each other pretty good."

"It's always hard to beat a school four times in the same year and that's what we're going to have to do," McCarthy said. "Each one becomes a little more difficult."

Tramel scored on a perfectly placed low shot inside the left post past Plymouth junior goalkeeper Kyle Brindza with just 2:17 remaining on the clock at the Plymouth-Canton Educational Park varsity turf field.

Trading first-half goals were Plymouth's Andrew Yoder and Salem's Dan Martin. The game was a crossover between second-place teams in the KLA A South and Central divisions.

It looked like the PCEP rivals were headed to overtime before Tramel scored. Senior midfielder Evan Antich fed a pass to Tramel, who had to outmuscle Wildcats senior defender Joseph Bockstanz about 20 yards from Plymouth's goal.

PERFECT SHOT

Tramel gained control and sent his shot past the onrushing Brindza into the net.

"Evan Antich played it to me, so it was a good ball by him," Tramel said. "And I just saw that open corner in the pocket and I just threaded it through."

He laughed when he said he just did what "we've been trained to do for how many weeks and months. It wasn't the best shot, but it got there."

Plugging along near the front of the line at Saturday's Wayne County Cross Country meet are Plymouth's Joseph Porcari (No. 231), Livonia Stevenson's Adam Chludzinski and Plymouth's Warren Buzzard (No. 218). The Wildcats won the boys race.

'Park' place

Call it the three-headed cross country monster, if you happen to be from a school outside of Plymouth-Canton Educational Park.

But things are beautiful inside "the Park" as Plymouth, Canton and Salem's varsity boys teams claimed the top three places, respectively, at Saturday's Wayne County Cross Country Championship.

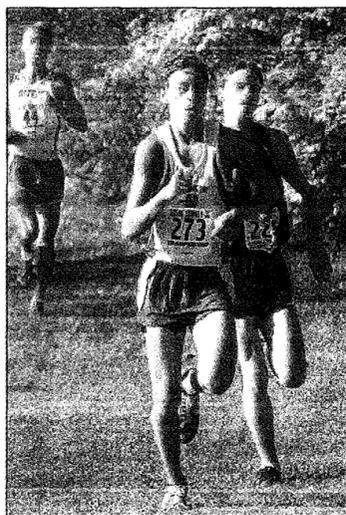

The Wildcats nailed down the top spot at Willow Metropark in New Boston with 37 points.

Helping in that regard was having three of the top five individual finishers: junior Joseph Porcari (second, 16:25.95 seconds); senior Warren Buzzard (fourth, 16:40.61) and senior Matthew Neumann (fifth, 16:41.86). Taking eighth with a time of 16:44.53 was sophomore Derek Gielarowski.

"I think it's good. It shows that even with everyone split up the way they are, we still have a good showing," said Plymouth head coach Jon Mikosz, whose team also won the county meet in 2008. "We have a lot of talent out here."

Of the top 35 runners who won medals, 14 were from one of the Plymouth-Canton teams.

The parade of PCEP runners — nine out of the first 10 — at the front of the line certainly got Canton head coach Bill

All three Plymouth-Canton teams were strong Saturday, as demonstrated by Salem's Mike Charara (No. 273), Plymouth's Matthew Neumann (No. 228) and Canton's Zack Spreitzer (No. 44).

Plymouth, Salem and Canton kids. So that's pretty impressive what they're doing at the Park and what the runners are doing right now."

The Chiefs were on Plymouth's collective heels with a total of 41 points. Leading Canton's charge were seniors Zack Spreitzer (sixth, 16:43.19), Keith Zech (seventh, 16:43.72), Paul Rakovitis (ninth, 16:47.16) and freshman Miles Felton (10th, 16:53.83).

Meet host Salem also had a very good day, with a tally of 146 points, enough to edge Livonia Churchill (153) for third place. Rocks senior Mike Charara finished the 5K run with a time of 16:31.86, good enough to place third.

"We had a couple guys in the top 35, which we were hoping for, and then to watch the Plymouth and Canton guys come in real close was nice to see, especially in a county race with 33 teams," Salem head coach Geoff Baker said. "We did very nice, we're improving and that's what we always want to be doing."

In addition to Charara, Salem junior Jimmy Daniels (29th, 17:38.78) and freshman Steven McEvilly (32nd, 17:41.19) earned medals.

Salem girls finish strong second

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Solid individual performances didn't quite garner the Wayne County Cross Country Championship for host Salem's varsity girls team.

But how does finishing second out of 33 teams sound, not to mention all seven Salem girls winning individual medals?

Following the awards ceremony at New Boston's Willow Metropark, Rocks' head coach Dave Gerlach was elated with how his squad performed at the meet. Salem finished with 74 points — trailing first-place Grosse Pointe South (43) and nipping Sara Kroll-led Livonia Churchill (76).

"All year we've been working on our packing and our pacing and today we came in second place due to the fact we really packed them in," Gerlach said. "To be able to come in second in a meet with 33 teams is a tremendous feat."

Other Observerland schools were bunched together in the top-10 team standings: Livonia Franklin, fifth, 157; Canton, sixth, 172; Plymouth, seventh, 201; Livonia Stevenson, eighth, 204; Livonia Ladywood, 10th, 388.

Kroll finished first overall with a time of 17:25.17 seconds, the second consecutive year she won the county race. This year's mark broke her 2008 time by 36 seconds.

The top Salem performer was junior Victoria Tripp, who finished sixth with a time of 19:05.90.

WAYNE COUNTY MEET

Canton junior Bianca Kubicki took seventh (19:07.15). Both made the county first team awarded to the top seven runners.

Salem senior Jordyn Moore earned a second team medal after finishing 13th with a time of 19:44.67.

On the third team (places 15-21) were Salem freshmen Shannon Flynn (15th, 19:49.02), Adelaida Jepperson (19th, 20:10.53) and junior Kara Booms (21st, 10:16.88).

Plymouth-Canton Educational Park medalists for the fourth and fifth teams (places 22-28 and 29-35, respectively) included Plymouth junior Britta Swanson (23rd, 10:18.10), Plymouth senior Paula Green (27th, 20:29.34), Canton sophomore Emily Southern (30th, 20:34.05), Salem sophomore Kelly Kerwin (32nd, 20:35.06) and Salem senior Autumn Burin (33rd, 20:35.67).

According to Gerlach, that all seven of his runners won medals underscored how well the Rocks ran as a pack.

"I was thrilled with a second-place finish," Gerlach said. "Our team today, we didn't have one real outstanding performance. But we just had seven really good races and for them to do this on a day like today was great."

SIDELINES

Salem girls top Central

Saturday's fine showing at the Wayne County meet by Salem's varsity girls cross country team wasn't the only achievement this week for the Rocks.

Salem clinched the KLA A Central Division championship with Tuesday's 15-50 victory over South Lyon East at Island Lake Recreation Area.

The Rocks featured a virtual seven-way tie for first place, all at 21 minutes, 30 seconds. Those runners were Jordyn Moore, Victoria Tripp, Kara Booms, Ade Jepperson, Kelly Kerwin, Shannon Flynn and Autumn Burin.

Emily Bizon of South Lyon East took eighth place with a time of 21:39.

The Rocks next will run Thursday, Oct. 22, in the Kensington Conference Championship at Kensington Metropark.

Zhang makes state meet

Plymouth High School is sending a member of its varsity boys tennis team to the Division 1 state meet for the first time in its history.

Sophomore Aaron Zhang, who plays at No. 1 singles for the Tom Kimball-coached Wildcats, made the cut at the recent regionals. He defeated the second-seeded player, from Ann Arbor Pioneer, to qualify. The state meet is Friday and Saturday.

YMCA leagues, classes

The Plymouth Family YMCA is offering plenty of leagues and instructional classes this fall and winter, as detailed below:

- YMCA Fall and Winter Basketball leagues are forming for children ages 4-11. The fall session will take place from Nov. 2 through Dec. 18, with the winter session slated from Jan. 19 to March 26, 2010.

- There will be one practice and one game (Friday nights) per week. The cost is $73 for program members or $105 for community members who register by the Oct. 22 deadline. All participants need a YMCA Youth Sports Reversible Jersey ($15). Programs are filled on a first-come, first-served basis, so hurry in.

- There is something for everyone this fall at the Plymouth YMCA. Registration is ongoing for Girls Volleyball Clinics (for ages 8-10 and 10-12), Basketball Clinics (for ages 6-7 and 8-9), Sports Sampler Class (for ages 3-5) and Little Dragons Martial Arts (for ages 4-7).

For more information on YMCA leagues and programs, check out www.ymcadetroit.org or call the office at (734) 453-2904.

Cool happenings

Plymouth Cultural Center Ice Arena continues to be a busy place. Open skating sessions through Nov. 7 will take place from noon to 1:20 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays with the fees as follows: adults, $5; kids (under age 16) and senior citizens (over 55), $4. College volleyball

After slipping down all the way to No. 18 in the latest NAIA rankings this week, the Madonna University volleyball team rolled to a 25-19, 25-6, 25-18 Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference win Tuesday night over visiting Siena Heights. The Crusaders (24-3, 8-1 WHAC, got a team-high 12 kills from senior Mary McGinnis and nine kills from Katie Czarniecki.

McCarthy said Tramel's goal "is as big of a goal as you can get with a couple minutes left" against a rival opponent.

"I thought Tramel was good all night and kind of deserved maybe a goal earlier," McCarthy said. "But he saved the best for last and that was a great finish and a great move on a very good defender."

Setting the stage for the winner were two aggressive moves by Salem senior goalkeeper Sasa Miskovic with about 10 minutes to play.

Both times, Miskovic ranged far out off his line to get to the ball first. On the second play, he slid and booted the ball far away from the Salem end.

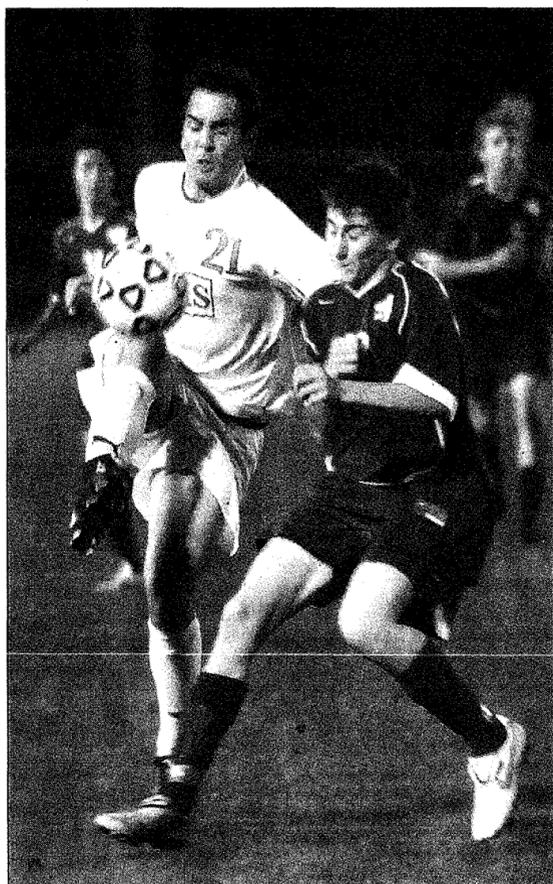

Salem improved to 11-4-4 overall with the victory, heading into a KLAAs crossover Wednesday against either Brighton or Walled Lake Northern. The Wildcats (10-6-2) also play an association crossover before the rematch set for 7 p.m. next Monday.

According to McCarthy, it was good to get the victory. But he expects Plymouth to be even tougher next week.

"They'll continue making adjustments and they have some very good players," he said. "So every time we see them, they create more opportunities and make things more difficult on us."

Return home is sweet for victorious Whalers

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

There was no letdown for the Plymouth Whalers Saturday night in their first home game after a long road trip.

Featuring a slightly revamped lineup and instructions from head coach Mike Vellucci to be more proactive on the power play, the Whalers (6-4-0-0) showed no mercy against Sudbury (4-4-0-1) in a 9-2 rout.

Speedy center and hot prospect Tyler Seguin scored three goals and assisted on two more to lead the Compuware Arena barrage against Wolves' goalkeepers Alain Valiquette and Andrew Loverock.

But the night was also memorable because left wing Mitchell Heard scored his first Ontario Hockey League goal, along with collecting an assist on one of Seguin's tallies.

It was a 2-1 game just 59 seconds into the middle stanza when Heard retrieved a centering pass from winger AJ Jenks (2 assists) and got a shot off that Valiquette stopped.

The puck then bounced off the goalie into the air and Heard used his best baseball swing to bat it into the cage to give Plymouth a two-goal lead.

"Words can't describe it, I was so happy out there," said Heard about the goal. "I just love it, it was awesome. Coach always tells me go hard to the net and good things happen. There you go, a prime example."

Heard got Vellucci's attention with his play throughout the game.

"He had a great game," Vellucci said. "He has a lot of skill, great hands, great knowledge of the game. He just has to get stronger, he's just a 16, 17-year-old kid."

Vellucci was looking for more to-the-net determination following Friday's 2-1 loss at London, so he moved forward Joe Gaynor (2 assists) up onto Seguin's line (along with hard-nosed winger Myles McCauley).

"Last night we scored one goal and didn't get many chances," he explained. "So tonight I thought I'd create something different."

"I put Gaynor on that line. He's worked hard, he's so reliable defensively I thought he'd give us some stability to that line."

POWER SURGE

For all that, Sudbury struck first when center John McFarland scored an unassisted shorthanded goal against Plymouth netminder Matt Hackett (32 saves) at the 6:22 mark.

The Whalers regrouped and scored two power play goals before the period ended to go up for good. They finished with four for the night.

At 13:42, Seguin feathered a pass to big defenseman Leo Jenner at the right point and his one-timer cleanly beat Valiquette.

McCauley (2 goals, 1 assist) subsequently tipped in another point shot, by defenseman Michal Jordan.

"I've been harping on them quite a bit about those seam passes that are open and I want to make sure we start shooting the puck more," Vellucci said. "We were looking for the perfect play instead of shooting it quicker, and the first two goals were off of shots in traffic."

The Whalers didn't take their skates off the gas after that, outgunning Sudbury 18-11 in the middle frame and 48-34 for the night.

The Heard marker early in the second kept the momentum going Plymouth's way and at 5:28 left wing Tyler J. Brown (Westland) snapped a shot from the right circle that hit the post and went in for another power play goal.

Seguin thrilled the home fans at 7:43 to chase Valiquette. He swiped the puck from defenseman Justin Sefton in the Sudbury zone and then went top shelf over the goalie's glove.

Plymouth completed the shellacking with four third-period goals, including Seguin's 13th and 14th (most in the OHL) and single markers from McCauley and center Garrett Meurs (1 goal, 2 assists) on a wraparound with 1:25 to play.

Sudbury finally scored a second goal at 11:52 of the third when Kristott Kontos jabbed the puck in from the right post.

The Whalers will look to build on the lopsided victory when they play home games Friday and Saturday against Ottawa and Windsor. Both games will start at 7:05 p.m.

tsmith@hometownlife.com

WALT DMOCH

Myles McCauley (No. 13, left) continues the goal barrage for Plymouth Saturday night against Sudbury. McCauley bangs the puck past Wolves goalkeeper Andrew Loverock to make it 6-1. The Whalers rolled to a 9-2 victory at Compuware Arena.

Chiefs spike Patriots in three games

Canton continued to hammer opponents Tuesday night with a 3-0 KLAAs South volleyball triumph over Livonia Franklin.

The Chiefs (20-5, 6-1) earned 25-7, 25-16, 25-16 wins and were sparked by setter Traci Breitmeyer serving 12 points in a row in the opener.

"Everyone on the team was a contributor," said Chiefs head coach Mary Kryska.

If Breitmeyer was the key to Game 1, she said it was overall team hitting in the middle game.

Canton finished strong in the third game to finish off Franklin (6-17-2, 1-6).

"Our serve receive went without any errors and our communication was very well overall," Kryska said.

The Chiefs collected 31 kills for the match, led by Jordan Kieley (11) and Kristen Muir (6).

Breitmeyer contributed 16 assists, 14 digs and three aces. Muir's four aces were also key.

Plymouth loses in five

Despite outstanding performances from sophomores

Jessica Scott (12 kills, 100-percent serving, 6 blocks) and Lindsey Stemberger (100-percent serving, 8 digs), visiting Plymouth lost a tough five-game volleyball match to KLAAs South rival Westland John Glenn.

After losing 17-25 in Game 1, the Wildcats bounced back with 25-12 and 26-24 wins to take the edge. But the Rockets would not be denied, taking 25-13 and 15-13 triumphs in the final two games.

Plymouth's record dropped to 17-7-1 overall and 4-3 in the KLAAs South.

Boyd and Baker concurred that there is built-in motivation for the PCEP teams to want to outdo each other.

"I think the better Plymouth gets, the better we get, no question," Boyd said. "The Plymouth team, year after year they put out a high-caliber, real quality team and our kids use them as the benchmark."

Baker noted that "the kids always want to race well against each other. We come out here and they do the rest."

Following are PCEP medalists from the Wayne County meet:

Plymouth — Porcari, Buzzard, Neumann, Gielarowski and James Maciag (23rd, 17:27.48).

Canton — Spreitzer, Zech, Rakovitis, Felton, Mitch Clinton (14th, 17:00.36) and Bradon Conley (18th, 17:05.12).

Salem — Charara, Daniels and McEvilly.

Record-breaking encore for Churchill's Kroll

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Record-breaking Sara Kroll is topping herself these days, which isn't an easy thing to do.

The Livonia Churchill senior placed first overall in the girls 5K varsity run at Saturday's Wayne County Cross Country Championship at Willow Metropark in New Boston.

Kroll's time of 17-minutes, 25.17-seconds easily outdistanced runner-up Hannah Meier of Grosse Pointe South (18:01.81) and third-place finisher Megan McPherson of Livonia Franklin (18:26.65).

But Kroll won the county race for the second consecutive year and beat her 2008 time by 36 seconds.

"How did I do it?" said Kroll, repeating a question. "By going out much harder and focusing on my pace, by running my own race."

It says a lot about Kroll that she would rather talk about how the team did as a whole. Churchill finished third with 76 points, just two points behind runner-up Salem. Grosse Pointe South won the meet with 43 points.

"I thought our team did really well today," Kroll said. "... a lot of girls went out there and six of our seven girls won medals so I think it shows good things for the future."

Runners who placed in the top 35 were awarded medals. First-team recipients (places 1-7) included Kroll, McPherson, Salem's Victoria Tripp (6th) and Canton's Bianca Kubicki (7th).

Chargers' head coach Sue Tatro said it was good to see some of her runners earn personal bests, but she couldn't go for long without talking about Kroll — who set her own PR by nine seconds.

"She's the whole package as an athlete," Tatro said. "She's a hard-worker, talented, competitive, aggressive, everything. She's a coach's dream."

Kroll just looked at the county triumph as the next step toward her ultimate goal of winning the state meet.

"It gives me a lot of confidence going into the end of the season and a lot of the bigger meets," Kroll said. "So I have huge goals for myself — state champion being one of them."

Going for No. 6

Plymouth running back Jernarian Caldwell (No. 2) and his Wildcats teammates need one more victory to qualify for the state football playoffs. Their first try for the all-important sixth win is Friday against Novi in a KLAAs crossover. Elsewhere on the Plymouth-Canton Educational Park campus Friday night, Canton (already in the playoffs) and Livonia Stevenson will be squaring off for the KLAAs championship. Both the Plymouth and Canton games begin at 7 p.m.

Another win for Plymouth netters

Plymouth's varsity boys tennis team continued its solid play Monday with a 7-2 victory against visiting Walled Lake Central. That win gave the Wildcats a record of 7-2 overall.

No. 1 singles player Aaron Zhang and No. 2 singles player Matt Dwan each won by 6-0, 6-0 scores over their respective opponents Glenn Miller and Ryan Hulteen.

Plymouth senior Pat Bailey got past Central's Matt Saperstein at No. 3 singles by a 7-5, 6-3 score. The Vikings bounced back at No. 4 as Dave Arnold won 6-4, 6-1 over Plymouth's Ian Fleming.

In doubles action, the Wildcats claimed all but the No. 3 flight.

Seniors Andy Mitchell and Pat Onoro claimed a 6-0, 6-4 win at No. 1 doubles over Karl Bodecker and Jake LaPointe. Plymouth's No. 2 doubles duo of juniors Drew Leist-John Lopus won 6-4, 6-3 over the Central tandem of Mike Kinoyan-Matt Davis.

In a three-set flight at No. 3, the Wildcats' Hank Eckardt and Josh Heinze dropped a 4-6, 7-5, 6-7 decision to Central's Brett Joseph-David Yang. Also going three sets was the No. 5 doubles matchup, which went to Plymouth's Kyle Brzezinski-Akash Yerukola over Blake Bodecker-Ian Farquhar (6-3, 4-6, 10-7).

Plymouth's No. 4 doubles tandem of freshmen Cameron Earls-David Choos earned a convincing 6-1, 6-2 win over the Vikes' Josh Pad-Eshan Desai combo.

Salem Rocks roll

The Salem boys tennis team dispatched Hartland 7-2 on Monday in a KLAAs crossover match.

Salem swept through the singles flights.

At No. 1, junior Brock Foster won 6-1, 6-0 over Mark Byron. No. 2 singles player Brett Foster, also a junior, defeated Ben Johnson, 6-1, 6-1 and No. 3 singles player John Kang earned a 7-5 win over Grant Comly.

The host Rocks made it four in a row in singles play when No. 4 Andy Steinman got past Erik Seifert, 6-1, 6-4.

In doubles action, Salem took No. 1, 3 and 4.

Josh Perrin-Jacob Scott (No. 1 doubles) won 6-1, 6-0 over Mason Bierer-Nick Wilson.

No. 3 doubles tandem Greg Selewski-Elliot Stout registered a 6-0, 4-6, 6-3 win for the Rocks and Vishnu Rajandran-Karl Allan at No. 4 won 5-7, 6-3, 6-3.

Awesome Avalanche

Big year for 13U Cardinals

What a season it was for the Canton Cardinals 13-Under travel baseball team. The Cardinals finished with a record of 35-22-2 and finished first in the KVBSA Open Division (South). Other season highlights included winning the Sportsmanship Trophy at the Sandy Koufax 13U AABC World Series in Battle Creek, where the Cards were one of 20 teams from around the country. The squad also placed third at the AABC State Championship. Earlier in the season, the Cardinals, under head coach Dale Ebeling and assistants Dale Thornbury, Bob Raymo and Mike Driscoll, were the runners-up at the Northville Early Bird Tournament. Members of the team (listed alphabetically) were Matt Busch, Matt Carravallah, Jack Driscoll, Demetrius Dunlap, Derek Eberling, Nick Hazergian, Mike Hoover, Jake Raymo, Austin Silletti, Conner Stella, Conner Thornbury and Tommy Walkinshaw.

Steelers strike 'Gold' in 3 of 4 games

The Plymouth Canton Steelers varsity squad dropped a hard-hitting loss Sunday to the Rochester Redskins, 57-33.

The offense was led by Bilal Murtaza, who demonstrated strong offensive blocking, opening huge holes for players like Stephan Cook, who made a huge statement in Sunday's game.

Nick Poet sparked the offense with his tough O-line play. Meanwhile, Jacob Boucher proved to be a wrecking ball for the Steelers' defense with key stops against Rochester.

Justin Sydlowski elevated his play on defense by disrupting the Redskins' offense throughout the game, while Zachary Griffith played strong on the line, making key plays that stopped their offensive running game.

The Plymouth Canton Steelers JV squad won a hard-fought defensive game, shutting out the Rochester Redskins 7-0. Benny Phillips was the solid foundation at center for the Steeler offensive line, setting up a 50-yard QB sneak by Gregory "Gooch" Williams for the only TD of the game.

Jacob Marsh's second catch of the game was in the end zone for the Steeler's extra point conversion.

Noseguard Benny "NASCAR" Smyth and defensive tackle Nate "Gozie" Gozdor helped seal off the run up the middle, while Alex Nicholson applied pressure to the Rochester QB and running backs for several outstanding tackles in the backfield.

The freshmen Steelers blanked the Redskins 32-0, sparked by Vinnie Convertino (defensive secondary), Brynn Lynn (hard-hitting play on the D-line) and Christian Pearson (several big stops at tackle).

Offensively, Aaron Garbarino anchored the "Gold" offense from center, while tight ends Nicholas Saker and Chase Willis both were excellent in the blocking department.

The junior freshmen Steelers ran through, around and over the Rochester Redskins on the way to six touchdowns.

Quarterback Jake Cain scored on runs of 40 and 25 yards, Carson Miller ran in for a 41 yard TD (in addition to ripping off several great drive-sustaining runs) and Logan Walkley scored on electrifying runs of 45, 60 and 44 yards. Working hard in the trenches, the Steelers were led by Nicholas Downs, Drew Poet, Kurt Roulin and Jonathan Simpson.

Defensively, Seth Trozszak sparked the Steelers with his tenacity and full-out pursuit. Trozszak caused a fumble, had several tackles for losses and wreaked havoc on the Redskins all game long. Benjamin Bennett had a 50-yard interception return (to go along with his beautiful 20-yard first down reception on a pass from Cain). Zachary Sweet continued to put in solid performances; his consistency at linebacker is a main factor in the Steelers stinginess in the middle of the field against the run.

Book signing

The Canton Borders book store hosts a book signing Oct. 17 for author Zina Kramer.

Kramer, author of "Hugging Grandma," will sign books and do a reading Saturday, Oct. 17, 2-4 p.m. "Hugging Grandma" provides a positive example of how one child copes with a grandmother who has Alzheimer's. Hugging Grandma is a lovely and comforting story that acknowledges what the child has lost while teaching positive ways to cope with the new situation.

Food for good causes

Hiller's Markets is changing it up again. Two new dishes will appear in the prepared foods cases at all seven Hiller's grocery stores, including its Plymouth location, offering shoppers good food for good causes.

Tony Fayne's Buffalo Chili and Samira Cholagh's potato chop, kibbie and eggplant salad will be available at Hiller's through Oct. 19, with 100 percent of profits from sales of Buffalo Chili benefitting the Agree Foundation at Temple Israel, giving birthday parties to children of battered and homeless mothers. One hundred percent of profits from sales of potato chop, kibbie and eggplant salad will go to the Chaldean Foundation's Adopt a Refugee Family Program, helping Iraqi refugees resettle safely in America.

The following schedule indicates the individuals, dishes and their causes remaining in the program's initial launch. All sales of these dishes will send money to their respective charities. Jim Hiller is considering extending the program through the new year, in an effort to bring back the first few dishes and send more donations to worthy causes.

No decrease, but no hike, in 2010 Social Security

When it comes to Social Security there has always been a healthy dose of rumor and misinformation (when it will run out of money, new taxes or income test to determine eligibility). There is no end to the speculation.

At recent library talks, I've been asked by senior citizens whether Social Security benefits will be reduced next year. After doing some research, I determined it is just a rumor. Social Security benefits are not going to be reduced next year; however, it appears that in 2010 there will not be a cost-of-living adjustment. What this means is that the benefit you receive this year will not be increased in 2010.

On average over the last 20-30 years, Social Security recipients have received a 2- to 3-percent increase per year in benefits. These increases are based upon a formula that has been around for awhile. According to that formula, benefits will not increase nor decrease in 2010.

Many people are under the mistaken belief that the cost-of-living adjustment is something the government determines based upon some cryptic formula. The cost-of-living adjustment - based upon the consumer price index for urban wage earners between the third quarter of the current and the third quarter of the previous year - and the formula are set in law.

Money Matters

In other words, the cost-of-living adjustment for 2010 is based upon the consumer price index for urban wage earners in the third quarter of 2008 through the third quarter of 2009. During that time period the official measure of cost-of-living did not increase but rather decreased - hence, no adjustment.

I recognize that many people are confused that their cost-of-living increased over the last year and yet the cost-of-living adjustment went down. Unfortunately, the way the government computes cost of living and the way you and I compute it is quite different. The government, in computing cost-of-living adjustments, looks at a basket of goods and compares those at different points in time. This is different in how you and I compute our increased cost of living.

Even though the formula works against seniors this year, let's not forget that in 2009 it worked to their benefit.

Between the third quarter of 2008 and the third quarter of 2009 we saw a substantial spike in oil prices. Because the price of oil increased dramatically and because it is a key component in the cost of living formula, in 2009 seniors received a 5.8 percent increase in benefits.

Over the last year we have seen falling energy prices. This is one reason there will not be a cost-of-living adjustment this year.

Contemporary abolitionist speaks at local church

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Twenty seven million people worldwide are enslaved, according to the California-based Not For Sale, a national campaign dedicated to ending human bondage.

Half of the victims of human trafficking are children.

And according to the group's Web site "restaurants and fields, construction sites and brothels, suburbs and cities" are home to slaves both in the United States and abroad.

Some may even live in your own backyard.

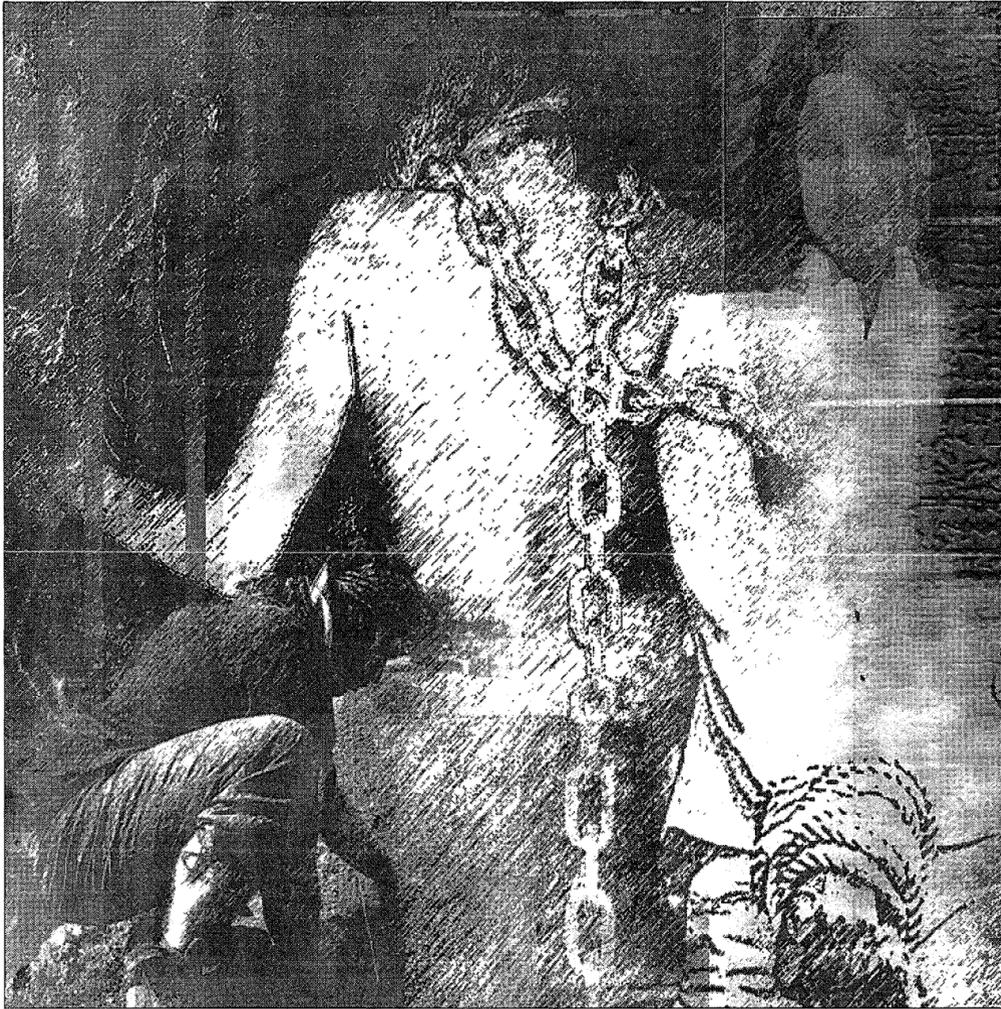

The Rev. Chris Momany wants to find them, free them and end the ages old practice that equates human beings with property.

"Human trafficking implies the manipulation of people in order to move them in and out of countries, and a lot of contemporary slavery fits this description. Yet the real issue is as old as ancient slavery — considering and holding people as property," Rev. Momany said.

"It happens in almost every part of the world, including the U.S. and Michigan. It takes different forms in different parts of the world, but it is not just something that happens in the other lands. Much of "trafficking" takes the form of sexual abuse and forced prostitution, but it also presents as debt bondage and forcing people — especially children — into civil wars around the world. Women and children are its primary victims."

ABOLITIONIST ROOTS

Rev. Momany, chaplain at Adrian University and Regional Coordinator for Not For Sale, will talk about the modern day abolitionist movement and its fight to end slavery at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 21, at Newburg United Methodist Church, located at 36500 Ann Arbor Trail, Livonia. His presentation is a part of the church's year-long 175th anniversary celebration and one of two programs this month that recognize Newburg's abolitionist heritage. A discussion this week focused on the Underground Railroad and the church's founding pastor, Marcus Swift, who was an abolitionist.

Rev. Momany's talk is open to the public. He hopes listeners will take the message to heart.

"I hope the Newburg folk will consider that this is happening in our state, as well as abroad, and I don't mean in some inner city," he said. "I have a pastor friend who lives in a trendy lake-country resort area who protected two women held in house-keeping operations for hotels."

JOIN THE MOVEMENT

He'll have information on hand about pending legislation so listeners can take action by contacting their representatives and other political leaders. They also can become activists, learning to recognize forced labor, by joining the Not For Sale campaign. The group's Web site includes a slavery map that allows users to report and track incidents. It also offers specific suggestions for faith, business, student and other activities. It suggests that faith communities join an abolitionist church network, financially support an anti-slavery cause and start a related Bible study group.

"Not For Sale has helped to raise awareness, because this is such a strange and shocking reality," Rev. Momany said. "But we go beyond awareness, too. We sponsor after-care programs around the world that help people get back on their feet once they are free from abusers. We also work on legislative initiatives. The State of Michigan has anti-trafficking legislation ready for introduction in the House if we can get beyond obsession with budget."

David Batstone, a university professor, founded Not For Sale in 2006, after writing a book, Not For Sale: The Return of the Global Slave Trade and How We Can Fight It. The Campaign has more than 40 state and region directors in the U.S. and Canada who help inform and mobilize grassroots "Smart Activists" to abolish slavery in their own backyards.

Halloween fun starts with classic horror at Redford Theatre

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Larry, Moe and Curly meet The Mummy. Can it get much spookier — or sillier — on Halloween?

The Redford Theatre will run a three Stooges Festival of six films Halloween weekend. The fun will start at 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 30 and repeat at 2 and 8 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 31, at the theater, 17360 Lahser, just north of Grand River Ave., in Detroit. The films include We Want Our Mummy (1939), Spook Louder (1943), If A Body Meets A Body (1945), Mummies Dummies (1948), The Ghost Talks (1949), and Who Done It, (1949).

"Everyone is just hooting and hollering and it's not just guys. It's a lot of women. My wife is a huge Stooges fan," said Edward Seward of Southfield, a member of the Motor City Theatre Organ Society, which owns and operates the Redford Theatre.

"It's all fun."
The fun starts this weekend with a costume contest and screening of two classic horror films, Werewolf of London and House of Dracula and continues Oct. 23-24 with silent films, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde and the Stan Laurel parody short subject Dr. Pyckle and Mr. Pryde. Tickets for shows are $5.

The costume contest will start at 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 16 and 2 p.m. and 8 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 17. Seward said audience members may celebrate the season in costume at any of the shows this month, but prizes will be awarded only this weekend.

Tony O'Brien of Livonia will play the organ this weekend and for the silent films Oct. 23-24.

"Tony is nationally known," Seward noted. The screening on Friday, Oct. 16 features guest host Wolfman Mac of MyTV20's Chiller Drive-In. Treasures from Paul's Basement also will be on hand both Oct. 16 and 17 with classic horror movie posters, photos and other collectibles.

"He's in tune with what we're doing — old-fashioned horror," Seward said.

For more about classic films at the Redford Theatre, call (248) 521-5834 or visit redford-theatre.com

Extended harvest

Area orchards packed with variety

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Apple lovers can thank Mother Nature for cool weather last summer.

"Right now, we have almost all of the different varieties on our tables. We have six to seven out right now... Jonagolds and Cortlands, Empire, Jonamacs, Jonathan," said Terry Koetting, a teacher and group tour leader at Plymouth Orchards & Cider Mill.

"Because it was such a cold summer everything ripened all at once. We grow 15 different varieties. A few of the earlier varieties have ripened and are gone."

Michigan is one of the largest producers of apples in the country, according to the Michigan Apple Committee, with 7.5 million trees in production and 950 family-operated farms covering 37,500 acres in Michigan's Lower Peninsula. It's the third largest producer of apples nationwide, with about 60 percent of its crop processed into other products. The state is the largest supplier of apple slices used in pies. And Michigan apples are a main source for applesauce, fresh-cut slices and apple cider.

Small family farmers, like Plymouth Orchards & Cider Mill, are most prevalent in the Michigan apple industry. And longtime favorite varieties, such as Red Delicious, Golden Delicious and Gala, dominate their orchards.

Sandy Detlefs, who along with her husband, owns the historic Parshallville Grist Mill in Hartland Township, encourages her customers to sample some of the antique varieties she sells. A local doctor who grows apples as a hobby, keeps the mill supplied with a varied, constantly changing collection.

"These are the grandparents and great-grandparents of the apples everybody knows today," she said. "We have different varieties every week."

Some of the varieties offered this season include Spartan, Gideon, Akane, Spitzenburg, Gravenstein, Wealthy, Braeburn and Roxbury Russet, which is thought to be the oldest named variety in America.

"I don't think there's a better apple anywhere than those grown in Michigan," Detlefs said.

"The Michigan Apple Committee, a non-profit organization that promotes the state's apple-growing industry, conducted a series of focus groups between November last year and February this year to get a better grip on consumer taste preferences.

Two stood out. Jonagold, a sweet, firm and juicy apple used fresh or in baking, and Honeycrisp, a newer variety and all-around favorite.

FAVORITE VARIETY

"We do have the Honeycrisps," said Koetting said. "They are brand new across the country. They were developed at the University of Minnesota. To me they are the best, the sweetest, the crispiest... everything you'd want in an apple."

Michigan growers began replacing older varieties with Honeycrisp in 1991. According to the Michigan Apple Committee, the variety usually sells out by the end of October, but more plantings and a bumper crop this year have combined to boost overall production and extend the supply.

"Running out of this variety has been the one and only complaint we've heard about the Honeycrisp," said Denise Donohue, executive director of the Michigan Apple Committee. She's optimistic that the Honeycrisp will be available through December.

But Koetting said Honeycrisp season will likely end in a few weeks at Plymouth Orchards & Cider Mill. When it does, customers will be able to buy other varieties.

"There are so many that are good multipurpose. A lot of people like to blend their apples for sauce and pies," she noted.

Plymouth Orchards & Cider Mill, 10685 Warren Road, Plymouth is open 9 a.m.-7 p.m., daily through October and 10 a.m.-6 p.m., Nov. 1-2. U-pick pumpkins are available on weekends and the mill sells cider and doughnuts, apples, pies, jams, jellies and honey. Visit the petting farm, take a wagon ride and listen to live music on weekends this month. The mill's Ann Arbor Road store, located between Napier and Gotfredson, in Plymouth, will be open 10 a.m.-6 p.m., through Nov. 26. (734) 455-2290 Fax: (734) 455-2362

Sneak an apple into every meal

The Michigan Apple Committee offers these tips for spicing up foods with apple:

BREAKFAST

Spread Michigan Apple slices with peanut butter then dip in your favorite cereal.

Add a chopped Michigan Apple to a box of quick bread mix.

Top a bowl of cooked whole oats with 1/2 Michigan apple, diced; 1 tablespoon chopped pecans; 1 tablespoon raisins and 2 tablespoons brown sugar.

Top whole grain French toast with unsweetened Michigan applesauce and sprinkle with cinnamon sugar.

Add 1/2 cup Michigan applesauce and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon to your pancake batter before cooking.

Warm Michigan applesauce in the microwave and spread on a whole wheat toasted English muffin; add a sprinkle of cinnamon.

LUNCH AND DINNER

For a quick microwave applesauce, core and chop six Michigan apples into 1/2 inch chunks. Place apples in a microwavable bowl with 1/4 cup water. Cover and cook on high for 15 minutes. Stir and cook uncovered for approximately five more minutes. Mash apples and stir in 1-2 tablespoons sugar and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.

Mix up a quick fruit salad with 1 chopped Michigan apple, a small can of drained mandarin oranges and a sliced banana.

Mix 1 (16 ounce) bag of prepared coleslaw mix with 1 large Michigan apple, cored and finely diced; 1/4 teaspoon celery seed and 1/2 cup bottled low fat coleslaw dressing.

Toss Michigan apple slices into a crunchy salad of mixed greens. Top with low fat balsamic vinaigrette dressing.

For a quick ginger-apple sauce for pork or chicken, combine 1 cup apple cider with 1/2 cup reduced-sodium chicken broth in a small saucepan.

Bring to a boil and simmer uncovered for 15-20 minutes. Combine 4 tablespoons cold water with 1 tablespoon cornstarch. Slowly add mixture into broth using a whisk. Cook for two more minutes. Remove from heat and stir in 1 tablespoons apple cider vinegar, 1 teaspoon butter and 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger.

SNACKS

Add a finely chopped Michigan apple to a jar of prepared salsa. Serve with whole grain tortilla chips.

Top your scoop of low fat vanilla ice cream or frozen yogurt with Michigan apple slices and 1-2 tablespoons of caramel topping or just a dash of cinnamon.

Serve Michigan apple wedges with 2 tablespoons of peanut butter or vanilla yogurt.

Make an apple parfait by layering chopped Michigan apples; plain or vanilla yogurt and low fat cinnamon granola in a tall glass.

Huntington
A bank invested in people.®

*Annual percentage yield (APY) is accurate as of date of publication. 1.84% rate (1.65% APY) referenced in any of the following tiers is guaranteed for at least 90 days from the date of account opening then may change at any time as the Huntington Premier Plus Money Market Account (HPPMMA) is a variable rate account. Different rates apply to different balance tiers. Rates and corresponding APYs listed in the tiers that do not earn 1.64% (1.65% APY) are also variable and subject to change without notice even prior to the first 90 days. Initial minimum opening deposit required is $20,000.00 and must be new money to Huntington. The interest rate for balances $0.01-$19,999.99 is 0.00% (0.00% APY); the interest rate for the following balance tiers, $20,000.00 to $49,999.99, $50,000.00 to $99,999.99, $50,000.00 to $100,000.00 to $2,000,000.99 is currently 1.64% (1.65% APY) and will apply for at least 90 days. This is our current standard rate for HPPMMA opened October 12, 2009 or later. Balances $2,000,001.00 to $999,999,999.99 do not qualify for the 1.64% (1.65% APY); current standard rate for that balance tier is 0.80% (0.80% APY) and subject to change at any time. After the first 90 (ninety) days, the rates in all tiers are not guaranteed and subject to change at any time. When your balance falls into a particular rate tier, your entire balance will earn the applicable rate in effect for that tier; i.e., if your balance reaches $2,000,001.00 or more, your entire balance will earn that lower rate. Balances below $20,000.00 are subject to a $20.00 per month maintenance fee. Interest is compounded and paid monthly. Limit one account per household. CHECKING ACCOUNT REQUIREMENT & CONDITIONS: Customer must also have, or open, a consumer checking account with a $1,500.00 balance which must be titled in the same name(s) as the HPPMMA. Depending on your type of checking account, it may or may not be interest-bearing which will impact the overall return of your total funds on deposit. If checking account is not maintained, the HPPMMA will be converted to our Huntington Premier Money Market Account which has lower rates in all respective rate tiers and does not receive the 1.64% (1.65% APY) on any balance tier. APPLICABLE TO BOTH HPPMMA AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS: Fees may reduce earnings on the account. An Early Account Closing fee will apply to accounts closed within 180 days of opening. We reserve the right to limit acceptance of deposits greater than $100,000.00. Not valid with any other offer. FDIC insured up to applicable limits. Real estate pros know safety matters

BY JULIE BROWN
O&E STAFF WRITER

When Realtor Phyllis Pulty shows a home, she's conscious of jewelry she chooses.

"You don't wear anything too flashy," said Novi resident Pulty, with Coldwell Banker Weir Manuel in Northville. She's been in the field since 1991, so the recent Realtor Safety Week tips weren't new to her.

"Just be aware of your surroundings," Pulty said, citing real estate openings as an area for special alertness.

It's best to meet clients at the office, but distances sometimes prevent that. "They (clients) have to be preapproved. It's a gut feeling, I guess, from experience," Pulty said.

She carries a large flashlight which comes in handy at vacant properties where electricity's been turned off. "And it lights up everything," she said, adding it could double as a formidable weapon in an emergency.

Livonia resident Ruth Martin's an associate broker with Remerica Hometown One in Plymouth Township, and has been licensed 30 years. "Don't meet people at a house that you don't know," said Martin.

"Try to enter every room first," she said. "I try to know my clients."

Some real estate pros use a system in which they leave a message along the lines of "Get the folder for" a certain property, a call to make in an emergency back to the office. "It means 'I need help,'" Martin said.

The recent Western Wayne Oakland County Association of Realtors newsletter included these safety tips for showing properties, information useful to workers in many other fields as well:

- Be sure to use the lockbox property-key procedure that has been established to improve safety.
- Preview the property and don't go into a neighborhood that you perceive as unsafe. Be familiar with the area so you know the location of the nearest police station. Drive there immediately if you feel you are in danger.

- Try and call the office once an hour to let people know where you are.
- At the beginning of the showing, mention to the client that you have another appointment to show the house within a short time.
- Prepare a scenario so that you can leave, or encourage someone who makes you uncomfortable to leave.

Examples: Your cell phone or beeper went off and you have to call your office, you left some important information in your car, or another agent with buyers is on his way.

• In showing a property, always leave the front door unlocked for a quick exit while you and the client are inside. As you enter each room, stand near the door.

• It is better to not display purses while at a property. Lock your purse in the car trunk before you arrive. Carry only non-valuable business items (except for your cell phone), and do not appear to be carrying large sums of money.

• Park at the curb in the front of the property rather than in the driveway. You will attract much more attention running and screaming to the curb area. It is much easier to escape in your vehicle if you don't have to back out of a driveway. Another vehicle could purposefully or accidentally trap you.

The Realtor group also notes you can ask prospects or new clients to complete a Prospect Identification Form (a sample is online at www.REALTOR.org/Safety), preferably in the presence of a colleague. Getting the client's car make and license number is also recommended, and can be done discreetly.

Some Realtors photocopy a driver's license and retain the copy at the office. Clients can be told it will be shredded when no longer needed.

It's a good idea to check county property records to confirm ownership of a property before going on a listing appointment. Also recommended is limiting release of personal/family information.

Banks can be tough to handle

Q: I am a developer which is fed up with my lending institution that is making it impossible for me to sell condominium units. Even though I owe money to it, it seems that they are being unreasonable in allowing me to proceed. Do you have any suggestions?

A: Most Michigan developers who are dealing with certain banks have had extreme difficulty in getting them to be in any way reasonable. The banks that had such liberal lending practices in the past are now being, in some instances, overzealous in terms of their tactics. Banks don't seem to understand that the developers need some flexibility in an effort to work out arrangements to extricate themselves from the condominium project in a reasonable and financially successful manner, which will eventually inure to the benefit of the lending institution. A means of dealing with these recalcitrant banks is to counter sue for interference with their business operations in the sense that they are making it next to impossible to conduct business notwithstanding various rights which they have in the mortgage documents. Many of these banks are tired of paying the legal fees, and if the developers have a legal basis to pursue the bank for interference with their contractual relationships, etc., it may buy them some leverage.

Q: I have a neighbor who has a hot tub on their deck that is driving me crazy. The restrictions of the condominium indicate that there cannot be any exterior motorized attachment on the deck. The board refuses to take any action. What can I do?

A: Better get a good lawyer to write the board and tell them to enforce their documents. You, of course, have a right to pursue the neighbor directly, but you may not have as good an opportunity to recoup your attorney fees and costs as would the board depending upon the documents. If it is a condominium, more than likely the association can pursue the co-owner for attorney fees and costs in enforcing the deed restrictions, but you may not have that singular right. If the board refuses to take action, you may wish to bring a derivative lawsuit against the association in its behalf against the co-owner and/or sue the co-owner neighbor directly. But in any event, you need a knowledgeable and aggressive community association attorney.

Robert M. Meisner is a lawyer and the author of Condominium Operation: Getting Started & Staying on the Right Track, second edition. It is available for $9.95 plus $1 shipping and handling. He also wrote Condo Living: A Survival Guide to Buying, Owning and Selling a Condominium, available for $24.95 plus $5 shipping and handling. Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Beginner

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
