Most shoppers eye 'same' level of buying

By Darrell Clem
Observer Staff Writer

Walking from the Kohl's store at Westland Shopping Center, Redford resident Win Webster said he expects to plunk down more money this holiday season compared to last year, after getting a better-paying sales job with a Michigan furniture chain.

"I'll probably end up spending more because I just got a better job," Webster said, though he conceded his wife, Renee, handles most shopping chores for gift recipients such as their children Camden, 4, and Morgan, 2.

Strolling in downtown Plymouth, resident Francesca Lavetti said she expects a frugal holiday season to save money amid a still-troubled economy.

"I may spend less because of the economy," Lavetti said. "I buy gifts for close friends, but I might buy for fewer people this year to try to save money."

Webster and Lavetti certainly represent segments of holiday shoppers across metro Detroit, but a majority of people who responded to an informal poll by the Observer indicated they expect to spend roughly the

Marching band is Big Apple-bound

By Brad Kadrich
Observer Staff Writer

The Plymouth-Canton Marching Band took off Monday for New York, and if anyone wants to see them again before they get back this weekend, it'll have to be on television.

The 180-member band makes its national television debut Thanksgiving Day in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, the first Michigan high school to be so honored. The band left in seven chartered buses that carried nearly 350 people, followed by a caravan of other vehicles carrying the band's posse on its journey to the Big Apple.

Band members, who are used to performing in parades around the local area, are excited to be stepping onto such a big stage.

Diaper donation a success

By Darrell Clem
Observer Staff Writer

An 18-wheeler hauling 250,000 diapers donated by Huggies rolled into Canton Monday morning, providing a huge boost to the nonprofit Detroit Area Diaper Bank and its volunteer founder, Marybeth Levine.

"It's overwhelming," Levine said, "and yet it's satisfying to have a huge company like Huggies acknowledge the need and to support it."

The semi-trailer pulled up to M.S.A. Delivery Service, on Hannan south of Michigan Avenue, where owner Jerry Rozum and other volunteers unloaded pallets of diapers as 36 of DADB's nonprofit partners lined up to accept diapers for needy families they help.

Metro Detroit marked the 11th stop as Huggies donated 12 million diapers in 12

Teddy bears hit the ice in Whalers game

The Plymouth Whalers and Plymouth Community United Way are hoping it will rain a torrent of teddy bears after the hockey team scores its first goal against the Guelph Storm at Compuware Arena Saturday, Dec. 3.

The annual Teddy Bear Toss provides toys to brighten the holidays of needy children.

Last year, nearly 900 teddy bears were thrown onto the ice creating an avalanche of stuffed animals.

This year, fans are being asked to bring a bevy of bears to top that total. The fun begins at 7:05 p.m.

For more information, call Linda Chomin at (734) 453-8679, Ext. 5.

same amount of money as last year.

That's similar to the 54 percent of U.S. shoppers in a more formal Gallup poll who said they are likely to spend about the same amount as last year. However, the national survey found that 29 percent of respondents expect to spend less, with only 15 percent spending more than last year.

Livonia resident Lisa Bebow counts herself among the same-spending majority, saying she and husband Roger never splurge on holiday gifts.

"We don't have any kids, so we don't really spend a lot on the holidays," she said, heading into the Target store at Wonderland Village on Plymouth Road.

Bebow typically buys a gift for one cousin — and that's usually it. She said she doesn't understand why some consumers spend more money than they can afford — or why they would rack up big credit-card debt during the holidays.

"I've tried to convince my family members to adopt a (needy) family for Christmas," Bebow said.

Plymouth resident Diane Pitak, a dentist with South Lyon-based Pitak & Associates, said she expects to buy 30 gifts this season — a similar amount as most years.

Pitak's gift list includes 14 employees as well as her family members. As she left Westland Center on a chilly November day, she said she had found gifts for her husband, daughter and niece.

With so many gifts to buy, Pitak said she typically starts her holiday shopping in August, and she hopes to finish by early December.

Northville mother of five Victoria Jaworski paused with a shopping cart full of items as she left the Canton Hobby Lobby store near Ford and Lilley with one of her children, 6-year-old daughter Gemma.

If Gemma had her way, holiday spending would increase this season. She paused and smiled when asked what she wants for Christmas.

"Um, too much stuff," she said.

Second man to stand trial in sex assault case

By Darrell Clem
Observer Staff Writer

A second Canton man has been ordered to stand trial in Wayne County Circuit Court following accusations he had sex with a 24-year-old neighbor after she had fallen unconscious from taking an anti-anxiety drug and drinking beer.

Steven Arthur Nausley, 50, could face penalties ranging up to life in prison if he is convicted of three counts of first-degree criminal sexual conduct, three counts of third-degree CSC and one count of assault with intent to commit sexual penetration. He also is charged as a fourth-time habitual offender.

Nausley was ordered to stand trial after the 24-year-old woman testified Friday during a preliminary examination in 35th District Court. Another defendant, 17-year-old Ryan Daniel Orr, already has been ordered to stand trial on three counts each of first-degree CSC and third-degree CSC.

A third suspect remains at large.

Even though 35th District Judge James Plakas ordered Nausley to stand trial, he said Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Danielle Hagaman-Clark "barely" had enough convincing evidence to send the case to circuit court. Moreover, Plakas warned that the burden of proof will be much stronger in the higher court.

The charges stem from an Aug. 12 incident in the Sherwood Village mobile home park on Old Michigan, on Canton's southeast side. The woman said she had fallen unconscious and awoke to find Nausley standing over her. She said she heard the other two men warning Nausley that what he was doing amounted to rape.

She said Nausley denied it.

Canton Detective Andrew Colthurst testified that Nausley made a statement to police indicating that he may have had sex with the woman once and that he tried again and couldn't.

"He said she was incoherent," Colthurst said.

The woman admitted under questioning by defense attorney Susan Reed that she had returned to both Orr's and Nausley's homes in Sherwood Village after the alleged sexual incident happened, but she said she didn't drink alcohol and nothing sexual happened.

She indicated she once considered the men her friends. She also testified that after she awoke from the incident, she initially denied to other neighbors that anything had happened.

Plakas reduced Nausley's $250,000 bond to a personal bond but ordered him to stay away from Sherwood Village and to have no contact with the woman. Plakas also warned him not to drink alcohol or carry a firearm.

Pizza robbery

A pizza delivery driver told police he was robbed of $105 and his cell phone when he made a delivery to the 1700 block of Iman, northeast of Lotz and Palmer.

He said the robbery happened about 10:15 p.m. Saturday.

The man told police an order was placed and he was delivering it to a house, but he found the residence dark with no cars in the driveway.

As he was standing on the front porch, he said a male approached him from behind, pushed him and demanded money. He said the intruder held some kind of shiny object.

The victim said the suspect took $105 and his cell phone. He didn't get a good description of the suspect because he was wearing a hoodie, a bandana over his face, sunglasses and white gloves.

Leaving the scene

Canton police ticketed a woman accused of leaving the scene of an accident that occurred about 9 a.m. Nov. 15 on Warren Road near Morton Taylor.

Police went to the scene of the accident and found one car that had been heavily damaged. A male driver was treated by Canton paramedics but declined to go to a hospital.

Police learned the man's car had been involved in a crash with another car that had left the scene. Police found the other car on a nearby street, and it had been damaged and had a flat tire.

The female driver told police she left the scene because she didn't have insurance and she was scared.

Both the male and female drivers indicated the other was to blame for the accident.

The woman who left the scene was cited for failing to stop at a property damage accident and for having no insurance.

The woman was released at the scene and her car was towed.

Card fraud

A man who lives on Otter Pond, southwest of Palmer and Haggerty, notified police about a case involving debit card fraud after his card number was used several times Nov. 14-15 from Ohio to Florida.

The card was mostly used at gas stations, though it also had been used at a Best Buy store in Ohio.

The man told police that $2,099 in illegal purchases had been made using his card number.

Home invasion

A man who lives in the 7900 block of Thornwood, northeast of Warren and Napier, contacted police to report a home invasion that he said occurred last Thursday.

The man said he arrived home that evening and found his garage door open. He said items missing from his home included a flat-screen television, Wii equipment and a laptop computer.

The man told police he may have forgotten to close his garage door before he left that morning.

Nothing taken

A home in foreclosure on Cherry Hill east of Denton was broken into sometime between 5 p.m. Nov. 16 and 3:30 p.m. Nov. 17.

Canton police received reports that the front door handle was missing and someone had gone inside. The intruder had broken a 60-inch television, knocked over a stainless steel oven and turned over pots. The glass doorwall also had been left open.

Nothing appeared to be missing.

Seniors know holiday about more than the food

By Darrell Clem
Observer Staff Writer

Their long-ago Thanksgiving memories revolve around family, but beyond that Canton senior citizens are proof there's more to the holiday than turkey, stuffing and pumpkin pie.

Their decades-old recollections center on rutabaga, World War II battlefields, a long-lost dessert recipe and family outings to a Holiday Inn dining room.

Seniors visiting the Canton Senior Center at Summit on the Park paused from their activities Monday afternoon to share memories of their best — and worst — Thanksgiving holidays.

Canton resident Gloria Cifaldi fondly remembers her late mother, Dorothy McMurtrie, welcoming the extended family to her Redford home where the meal included rutabaga that was deliciously whipped to the consistency of mashed potatoes.

"To this day, Thanksgiving is not Thanksgiving without rutabaga," Cifaldi said. "I carry on the tradition of rutabaga."

She also recalls the contributions her late, Scottish grandmother, Anne McMurtrie, made to the holiday meal.

"She was the scone maker," Cifaldi said.

As a child, Cifaldi said she and other youngsters ate their Thanksgiving meals at a separate table from grown-up relatives, waiting patiently to turn 10 years old to join the older family members.

"When we got to double digits, we made it to the big folks table," Cifaldi said.

Canton resident Ginny Garner remembers Thanksgiving visits to her grandmother's house in Dearborn, where a dessert called heavenly slush was served.

"I was never able to get the recipe," Garner said, though she recalls the dish had ingredients such as marshmallows, fruit, Jell-O and "some kind of sweet sauce."

Garner said more than 20 children and their parents would gather at grandmother's house.

"The kids ate in the basement," she said, smiling. "I remember all the good food that grandma made and helping with the dishes."

Canton senior and U.S. Army veteran Bud Schwartz has never forgotten the Thanksgiving he spent on a World War II battlefield in Italy, far from his family when he was only 20 years old.

"That was one of the saddest Thanksgivings," he said.

a Thanksgiving in his hometown of Detroit.

"That had to be the happiest," he said.

Canton senior Ramon Lavins, who grew up in Ohio, recalls long-ago Thanksgiving holidays when the extended family routinely went to the Holiday Inn for dinner. He said the men decided to give the women a break from the kitchen — other than baking pumpkin and peach pies.

"When that was done, then all the women had the rest of the day off," he said. "We would have our dinner at the Holiday Inn and go back home for dessert. It was a nice Thanksgiving tradition."

Plymouth," said David Armbruster, Plymouth-Canton's director of bands. "There are three million people watching it in person, stacked 20 stories high, and a national TV audience. This isn't your average parade."

For its appearance on national television, the band will play a pair of tunes, Welcome Christmas and Trim Up the Tree, from How the Grinch Stole Christmas. The rest of the time, the band will play traditional holiday and patriotic fare.

Until recently, the band's preparation consisted of rehearsal for both the parade and its competition season. Since the close of the season, the band has focused more on Macy's. That has included some unexpected responsibilities, such as talking to the media.

a local television station about the trip.

"It's definitely exciting," Wine said. "The band is pumped to go to New York; a lot of us haven't been there before. Our band has a great reputation. We've done some things that other bands can't do. We can compete at a high level, and I think that's why we were chosen."

Fans of the band who couldn't make the trip and hope to catch a glimpse of them on TV can watch the parade on WWJ-TV (Channel 62) beginning at 9 a.m.

days in 12 cities, showing its support for the newly formed National Diaper Bank Network.

Kevin Brown, a Farmington native and Wisconsin-based commercial program manager for Huggies, said the project marked the company's 12 Days of Thanks program as the Thanksgiving holiday approached. He said studies have shown that one in three U.S. families with children faces decisions such as cutting back on food to buy diapers, which aren't covered by government assistance programs.

"We felt as an industry leader that this is not acceptable," Brown said.

Huggies donated more than 22 million diapers in 2010 and pledged a similar amount over the next three years to diaper banks such as the one Levine started in April 2009. In all, the DADB has collected and donated some 657,000 diapers.

Monday's delivery of 250,000 Huggies came after the DADB already had collected more than 203,000 during its pre-Thanksgiving fall campaign, boosted by partners such as the Canton Public Library. Levine said the two projects will help meet a need through the first of the year for agencies such as Starfish Family Services, First Step domestic violence shelters and The Salvation Army.

"It's an incredible thing," Levine, a mother of three, said as husband Steve and other volunteers helped out Monday morning.

Huggies also has indicated it plans to donate as many as 182,000 more diapers to DADB in the coming weeks. State Rep. Dian Slavens, D-Canton, stopped by to help and show her support for the DADB and Levine. "Canton is very fortunate to have her in the community," Slavens said. Levine's father, John Burnham, came all the way from Virginia Beach, Va., to help with the latest diaper-collection efforts.

He was visibly proud of his daughter, saying she proves "how one person can make a difference."

Janice Strozier showed up at M.S.A. Delivery to pick up diapers for the Michigan Department of Human Services office in Inkster, which services numerous communities such as Westland and Canton. The DADB's partners are spread across southeast Michigan. "Organizations like this really help us out," Strozier said, adding that struggling families shouldn't have to decide between buying food and diapers. Volunteers Joan Carr and Kathy Lancaster came to collect diapers for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, which distributes diapers through Sts. Simon & Jude Church in Westland. They voiced deep appreciation for the gift of diapers. "Honestly, where would we get these?" Carr asked. "Marybeth and the diaper bank have been a godsend for us." For more on the DADB, go to www.detroitareadiaperbank.org.

Theresa Zakrzewski, 82, at her Livonia home on Monday with pictures on the table from her 27 years as a volunteer with the Parade Company.

Parade volunteer, 82, honored to participate as Santa's elf

By Valerie Olander
Correspondent

When Santa arrives in Detroit for the annual parade along Woodward Avenue on Thanksgiving Day, a jolly old elf from Livonia will be among those marching alongside the sleigh.

It will be the 27th year Theresa Zakrzewski, 82, will be part of the holiday tradition, greeting merry revelers and excited boys and girls with a wave and smile.

Age is a state of mind that doesn't add up for Zakrzewski. Her exuberance could put two 40-year-olds to shame.

In the nearly 30 years of volunteering with America's Thanksgiving Parade, Zakrzewski has worn out several pairs of sneakers, two knees and a hip, but all have been replaced with newer versions to keep up with her youthful spirit.

"It's less than two miles," the grandmother said of the route from Mack Avenue to Campus Martius.

She's used to walking that distance five days a week. On cold days, she will walk inside Laurel Park Place. During the holidays, she's easily spotted by her Santa hat and jingling bells as she makes her laps in the shopping center. She also spends four days a week at Schoolcraft College's swimming pool doing water aerobics, and, when she's not exercising, she volunteers at St. Aidan Catholic Church and Angela Hospice.

Marching as a costumed volunteer among the floats, balloons and marching bands, she's been a flower, an Indian, a doctor, a chef and a strawberry, but never an elf with such close proximity to the red-suited guest of honor.

"This is a nice swan song that I get to be one of the elves this year because I'm going to retire. I think this will be my last year," she said.

Her daughter, Mary, claims she said that last year.

Zakrzewski will be marching with her longtime friend, former Our Lady Queen of Hope Principal Sister Mary Ann Markel, who has joined her on the parade route for 25 years. Zakrzewski used to work for Markel as school secretary.

Afterward, she will return home to host Thanksgiving dinner for 18 people.

A Detroit native, Zakrzewski remembers the first time she saw the parade when she was 14.

She brought two younger kids with her and they lined the street in front of the old Hudson's Department store, former sponsors of the parade.

While raising her six children, she stayed home and cooked Thanksgiving dinner while watching the parade on TV. Her late husband, Tom, brought the kids downtown to see the parade some years. Marching in it had been a dream.

In 1984, her oldest daughter, Susan, paid for her entrance fee, making her dream become reality. Then, the dream became a fun-filled tradition.

Renee Rodriguez, director of volunteers for the Parade Company, said the event depends on volunteers to keep it going year after year. About 5,000 marchers will take to the streets this year.

"The volunteers create smiles and magic for thousands of people each year," she said. America's Thanksgiving parade is one of the oldest and most celebrated events in the country and second largest to the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade in New York City. The parade is in its 85th year.

Family wants thief to return handicapped ramp by Christmas

By Ken Abramczyk
Observer Staff Writer

The holiday season just got more difficult for a woman who enjoys visits from her mother, who is in a wheelchair.

Someone stole the access her mother has to her daughter's home — an aluminum handicapped ramp at the home on the 27600 block of Five Mile Road some time between Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

The ramp is used by the homeowner's mother, who is a paraplegic, when the homeowner's parents come to visit her.

"It was a way for her to get in and out of the house, especially during the holidays when they come to visit," said the homeowner, who only wanted to be identified as Kristine and didn't want her last name used in the story.

"It really helps her to get around, and she really needs to have that ramp. It was one of the things that drew me to buy this house, is that it had room for a ramp."

Lt. Tom Goralski said many thieves are stealing metal to sell it as scrap for cash.

Still, the theft of a wheelchair ramp is unusual. "We've never had anything like this happen before," Goralski said. "It's a damn shame."

Kristine noticed the theft early Saturday morning when she went outside to check her mail.

The silver-colored ramp, valued at $1,000, has a black surface and is about 4 feet wide and 10 to 12 feet long. Her father bought the ramp about 18 months ago.

"I'm hoping the ramp will be returned in time for Christmas. I want the people to be caught and pay for what they've done. I find it reprehensible that they did this."

Goralski asked anyone who may have seen someone removing the ramp or acting suspicious Friday or early Saturday in the area of Five Mile Road and Deering to contact the Livonia Police Department at (734) 466-2470.

BBB offers tips for safe Cyber Monday shopping

Cyber Monday, the Monday after Thanksgiving, has officially replaced Black Friday, the day after Thanksgiving, as the most popular day to shop for the holidays. Shopping online means avoiding the crowds, but it also opens the buyer up to attacks from scammers and hackers.

In order to fight these online grinsches, the Better Business Bureau (BBB) recommends 10 tips for staying safe when holiday shopping online.

According to the National Retail Federation (NRF) seven in 10 online retailers expect their sales to grow at least 15 percent this holiday season. The NRF's holiday survey also found that the average person plans to do 36 percent of their holiday shopping online — up from 33 percent last year.

"The convenience and ease of shopping online has replaced the hassle of going to the store for many people—but online shopping has its own set of risks," said Patrick Bennett, BBB Director of Community Relations. "Taking steps to avoid the fraud online will result in a much happier holiday for everyone—except, of course, for scammers and hackers."

Following are the "Top 10 Online Shopping Tips" for holiday shoppers to help fight unscrupulous online retailers, scammers and hackers:

1. Protect your computer — A computer should always have the most recent updates installed for spam filters, anti-virus and anti-spyware software and a secure firewall.
2. Shop on trustworthy websites — Shoppers should start with BBB to check on the seller's reputation and record for customer satisfaction. Always look for the BBB seal and other widely-recognized "trustmarks" on retailer websites and click on the seals to confirm that they are valid.
3. Protect your personal information — BBB recommends taking the time to read the site's privacy policy and understand what personal information is being requested and how it will be used. If there isn't one posted, it should be taken as a red flag that personal information may be sold to others without permission.
4. Beware of deals that sound too good to be true — Offers on websites and in unsolicited e-mails can often sound too good to be true, especially extremely low prices on hard-to-get items. Consumers should always go with their instincts and not be afraid to pass up a "deal" that might cost them dearly in the end.

5. Beware of phishing — Legitimate businesses do not send e-mails claiming problems with an order or an account to lure the "buyer" into revealing financial information. If a consumer receives such an e-mail, BBB recommends picking up the phone and calling the contact number on the website where the purchase was made to confirm that there really is a problem with the transaction.

6. Confirm your online purchase is secure — Shoppers should always look in the address box for the "s" in https:// and in the lower-right corner for the "lock" symbol before paying. If there are any doubts about a site, BBB recommends right-clicking anywhere on the page and select "Properties." This will let you see the real URL (website address) and the dialog box will reveal if the site is not encrypted.

7. Pay with a credit card — It's best to use a credit card, because under federal law, the shopper can dispute the charges, if he or she doesn't receive the item. Shoppers also have dispute rights if there are unauthorized charges on their credit card, and many card issuers have "zero liability" policies under which the card holder pays nothing if someone steals the credit card number and uses it. Never wire money and only shop locally on sites like Craigslist.

8. Keep documentation of your order — After completing the online order process, there may be a final confirmation page or the shopper might receive confirmation by e-mail — BBB recommends saving a copy of the Web page and any e-mails for future reference and as a record of the purchase.

9. Check your credit card statements often — Don't wait for paper statements. BBB recommends consumers check their credit card statements for suspicious activity by either calling credit card companies or by checking statements online regularly.

10. Know your rights — Federal law requires that orders made by mail, phone or online be shipped by the date promised or, if no delivery time was stated, within 30 days. If the goods aren't shipped on time, the shopper can cancel and demand a refund. There is no general three-day cancellation right, but consumers do have the right to reject merchandise if it's defective or was misrepresented. Otherwise, it's the company's policies that determine if the shopper can cancel the purchase and receive a refund or credit.

Win Webster of Redford gets some shopping done at Kohl's.

Retailers stretch 'Black Friday' timing

As stores up the ante with earlier holiday hours that creep into Thanksgiving night, Black Friday is turning into Black Thursday.

• Toys R Us said Monday that it will open at 9 p.m. on Thanksgiving, an hour earlier than last year and the earliest of any retailer so far this year.

• Nationally, Walmart will open at 10 p.m., two hours ahead of last year's midnight opening. However, the Ford Road and Michigan Ave. (at Canton Center) Walmart super stores in Canton will, as always, be open all day, even on Thanksgiving.

"It's traditionally a pretty good sales day for us," said Hillery Chambers, the store's co-manager. "We offer some great deals."

• Other stores, including Target, Macy's, Best Buy and Kohl's, will open at midnight.

Target spokeswoman Molly Snyder said the decision to open earlier is due to consumer desire.

"We have heard from our guests that they want to shop Target following their Thanksgiving celebrations rather than only having the option of getting up in the middle of the night," she said.

ConsumerSearch.com found in a recent survey of 1,003 people that 87 percent felt retailers should stay closed on Thanksgiving. "There's definitely a family spirit around Thanksgiving that people don't really want to see adulterated," says Christine Fritchen, editor-in-chief of the site.

Kohl's plans to open at 12 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 25, and remain open for 24 hours. Kohl's campaign, "Love to Give, Happy to Save," will emphasize "unprecedented value," as well as its hassle-free return policy and no-exclusion sales.

In downtown Plymouth, where smaller retailers dominate the shopping landscape, "Black Friday" will start ... well ... Friday. Local store owners are hopeful for a good holiday shopping season.

"Downtown retailers are cautiously optimistic this holiday season," said Tony Bruscatto, director of operations for the Plymouth Downtown Development Authority. "As the economy shows some signs of improvement, they are looking for a holiday season that's improved from recent years."

Survive the holidays with these apps

By Jon Gunnells
Guest Columnist

The holidays can be stressful, especially if you are in charge of shopping, decorating and planning. Luckily, there are a number of free and low cost apps to help you navigate to the New Year.

Even if you don't know what an app is — help is on the way. An app, short for application, is a program that can be installed on a smartphone, tablet, or a computer.

Apps provide easy access to the tools you need with a touch of the button — instead of going through a clumsy Internet search that could be time-consuming if you are on a mobile device.

For example: a mobile banking app allows you to access your bank statements, make transfers and check on recent activity with the tap of a button instead of visiting a browser and typing in a URL.

Speaking of mobile banking, many national banks offer free apps that will allow you to monitor your accounts from your smartphone during shopping trips.

Bank of America, JP Morgan Chase, PNC Bank, USAA and many more banks, credit card companies and credit unions offer free apps to help you track your expenditures.

Take it one step further with apps like Mint.com Personal Finance that helps your monitor your personal spending.

device. PayPal is perfect for paying online merchants or eBay sellers.

As for eBay, of course there's an app for that. If you are doing any holiday shopping, make sure to download the eBay and Amazon.com apps to track sales, purchases and payments in the palm of your hand.

Of course there are many apps beyond the realm of finance. You can check out Black Friday deals with Dealtaker Inc's Black Friday app. Or if you have a specific store in mind, there's a good chance you can download apps to check prices and more. Target, Walmart, Walgreens and Sam Club each have free apps.

You can even compare prices of items across all stores with an app like Red Laser which compares prices when you scan a product's bar code.

It may sound cliché but there truly is an app for everything. You can download cookbooks to help with holiday recipes, or navigation apps to help you find the nearest mall or big box store.

Even online gift giving can be completed from your handheld device as many social coupon sites have free apps.

Once you get done piloting your app store or marketplace for the programs that best fit your lifestyle, while not download something more fun.

Visit the games section and try out one of the most popular games across all platforms: Angry Birds Seasons. Use the angry birds to blow off some steam and take out some holiday aggression — instead of directing it to the crazy shoppers and mall parking lot drivers.

Download an app

Don't know how to download an app? Don't worry here's how:

If you are on an Apple device like an iPad, iPhone, or iPod, click the "App Store" button, and get started. You can search for apps using keywords or search by categories.

Similarly, Android smartphone or tablet users can surf through apps in the Android marketplace. Blackberry users can visit the Blackberry World App that is preloaded on the device.

OUR VIEWS

Give thanks, act locally

Reach out, be grateful for family, friends

Each year always brings plenty of reasons to give thanks as we begin the holiday cycle. This Thanksgiving is no exception, but with a little reflection on what's really important, giving thanks can become more than a once-a-year opportunity.

Don't worry if the Lions lose the game on Thanksgiving. Be thankful that we have a great sports town, including (though certainly not limited to) Canton's girls volleyball team, which with a regional title to its name went farther than any Chiefs team in history, and the Plymouth, Canton and Salem high school swimmers, who sent 21 swimmers to the state swimming and diving championships over the weekend.

Overlook that remark from Cousin Don at Thanksgiving dinner. At least all the relatives brought a dish to pass.

And relax, it's OK that the TV is on. The Thanksgiving Parade will be a joy to watch, especially if you can catch the Macy's parade from New York featuring the Plymouth-Canton Marching Band.

Finding the little things to be grateful for all year long helps to offer balance when some bigger things, like losing a job or finding a loved one is terminally ill, seem to consume all too many waking thoughts, especially during the holidays.

For some area residents, however, even the little things are difficult to find. These are the people we may have dispassionately referred to in the past as the down-and-out — those who are down on their resources, emotionally and fiscally, and out of work and maybe out of their homes.

Those were the folks that, years ago, we heard about but didn't know. Now, they're the neighbor next door, picking up food and clothing at the Plymouth Salvation Army Corps in Plymouth or Open Door Ministry in Canton, or the dozens of other groups offering help. Need has a face; maybe this year it's the one staring back at you in the mirror.

This year, let your prayer of thanksgiving at Thursday's dinner table be more than a recitation of what is good in your life. Let it become a call to action. Invite the neighbor over to share your meal, or walk off the meal, carrying a treat with you that someone just may not be able to afford this year.

Find a little something your neighbor may need, and remember it while supporting your neighborhood merchants and shopping at your local grocer, specialty stores or department store.

Sometimes it is easier to make a donation than to get involved during the holidays. Go ahead, make that donation. Drop of a new toy for the Goodfellows or Toys for Tots and help make a child feel special on Christmas. But don't stop there — getting involved with that church or other civic group to help those in need is a priceless gift.

Soon the Thanksgiving leftovers will be parceled out, and the dishes put away. Don't store up those reasons to be grateful until next year. Remember them when a child at your kid's school can't afford to buy a book during the annual book fair. Recall them when a shopper comes up short while checking out at the grocery store.

And be grateful that local merchants have taken risks and ridden out the recession. Support them year 'round as well.

So enjoy the game and watch the parade, but make the day — and the season — one of sharing and caring.

What are you thankful for?

Homecoming kill-joys

I decided to chaperone PCCS homecomings after hearing all the rumors about grinding and the dress code. Well, after chaperoning four homecomings, I offer my observations and opinions:

1. Homecoming may be the only chance for some young ladies to wear a beautiful dress, even if they seem to be dressed for a slumber party. They are so cute and happy to be with their dressed-up friends.

2. Most of the guests are very well dressed, very well behaved and actually look after each other.

3. My understanding is that only school staff/police are allowed in the dance areas for obvious reasons: parents have no legal authority to touch/correct students, other than their own child (how embarrassing for their kid!).

4. A little "grinding" is much better than a bomb threat. So is all the creativity and effort that goes into each homecoming and the fun of planning an outfit to wear.

5. Finally and unfortunately, some chaperones are prudish kill-joys who really need to stay home.

Thank you to PCCS administration for continuing to provide each homecoming dance.

No 'right' to share

Occupiers believe by demanding a better country they will get it. Egyptians recently took to the streets and removed a dictator — the people are poorer now. Libya overthrew a tyrant and the Muslim Brotherhood now rules by Sharia Law!

Further back, Communists overthrew the Russian aristocracy. Millions were slaughtered in the century following. Hitler and Mussolini delivered prosperity and jobs, but cost the citizens dearly.

The United States has elections to choose leaders. Stop demanding gifts from the wealthy and study the political choices. There is no "right" to share the good fortune of others.

Questions bully bill

The Michigan Senate recently distinguished itself by passing sweeping Anti-Bullying legislation (SB 137). My first thought as I glanced through the recent news article was that it was about time that our elected officials formalized such a law. Any and all kids deserve the basic right to feel safe and unthreatened when they walk through their school doors every morning.

Reading further into the article, I was surprised to discover that SB 137 didn't pass through the state Senate unanimously, the bill was passed along party lines — 26 Republican state senators supported the bill and 11 Democratic senators opposed it. How could anyone oppose this commonsense legislation that would protect our kids from such a destructive act?

Upon further research, turns out Democrats aren't pro-bullying, they were opposed to a Republican-supported section of the bill which states:

"This section does not prohibit a statement of a sincerely held religious belief or moral conviction of a school employee, school volunteer, pupil or a pupil and parent or guardian." Apparently 26 of our Republican state senators (including my own representative) feel that bullying is OK (and legal) if the bully really, sincerely believes that his/her taunts and verbal humiliation are religiously or morally based. This anti-bullying bill certainly appears to allow any bully to excuse and legally defend their actions, rather than put an end to such unacceptable behavior.

Whose interests are being served when an anti-bullying law allows for bullying under specific religious and moral circumstances? I challenge any senator that voted in support of this bill to explain their position on this legislation.

Until we demand more of our elected officials, apparently this is the sort of government we should expect and deserve. I believe we all should expect and deserve better.

Call the GOP

Mitch McConnell and Eric Cantor are very uncomfortable with the Wall Street protesters. Eric Cantor called them a "mob." They are a reminder that all is not well here in the U.S.

They would want you to believe that all Americans back the Republicans in their attempt to destroy our Social Security, our Medicare, our Medicaid, our public education system, etc. The big push to have a flat tax by the Republicans that even some right wing commentators say will cause us serious economic problems.

Meanwhile, Mitch McConnell and Eric Cantor and John Boehner keep repeating the same all give the rich more tax breaks and get rid of all regulations so they can gut our country ... they block all President Obama's attempts to put middle class and poor people back to work.

We should all call these Republicans and tell them enough is enough. Pass the Jobs Bill. The young people protesting on Wall Street want good government not broken government.

How to deal with grief during the holidays

By Cathy Clough
Guest Columnist

Cathy Clough

what you can do to make the holidays less intimidating. Do you want to do things the same or differently? Oftentimes, trying to do things the same doesn't work — someone very important is missing and things can't be the same. Many people find that making some changes helps. Some of these changes could include changing where you have the holiday meal, planning a different menu or travelling.

Looking ahead to the holidays can be overwhelming when you're grieving after the death of someone you loved. Holidays are times that bring families together and the absence of an important member of the family can cause those who are grieving additional pain as they anticipate those upcoming days.

I've had many people say to me that they could eliminate all of the days between Thanksgiving and New Year's Day from the calendar! But they can't, and it's almost impossible to ignore the season. Everywhere you go you find holiday decorations and Christmas carols playing. And, everyone expects you to be merry — after all, it's the holiday season!

There are some things you can do to help yourself get through the days ahead if you're grieving. Let me share with you some of the things that helped me after the death of my first husband and many others I've been privileged to help over the years:

Plan ahead realistically

If you don't plan and just let the holidays hit you expecting that they will be OK, you may be disappointed. Grieving people often have trouble planning ahead, but this is the one time that I suggest you think about

If you make changes, be sensitive to the needs of others who have been affected by the death including small children. When my husband died, my children were very young so I didn't have the option of ignoring or running away from Christmas. We still had to have a tree and observe many of the traditions that were so important to them. I encourage families to talk about the things that are important to them. Decide which traditions are important and need to be continued and which traditions can be dropped or changed this year. Changing something this year doesn't mean that you can't do it again. It may take a lot of honest discussion and negotiation to decide what is important to all family members involved.

HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE

New Hope Center for Grief Support, in cooperation with Toll Brothers Inc., will be hosting a Holiday Open House at their Steeplechase of Northville community from 7-10 p.m. Friday, Dec. 2.

You are invited to leisurely tour the luxurious Harding Country Manor model home. The evening also includes raffles, appetizers from local restaurants, a chocolate fountain and musical entertainment. Valet service provided and sponsored by Toll Brothers.

New Hope Center for Grief Support is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that reaches out to those in our community and throughout southeastern Michigan who are grieving the death of a loved one. New Hope's mission, centered in Christian principles, is to help people work through their grief and offer hope and healing to all.

This event is one the larger fundraisers that New Hope relies upon to provide the funds, support and means by which New Hope Center can continue to offer support groups, seminars, workshops and other grief services free-of-charge.

The cost is $40 (ages 21 and over only) prior to the event; $45 at the door; $30 is tax deductible.

Steeplechase is located at 17174 Crestbrook Drive, Northville (north of 6 Mile and west of Ridge Road)

To RSVP, call New Hope Center at (248) 348-0115 by Nov. 30 or register online at www.newhopecenter.net.

Take care of yourself

Mourning after the death of a loved one is exhausting! If you don't take care of yourself, you may feel worse. As difficult as it might be, try to eat right, exercise and don't overcommit. And, you don't have to do everything you've done in the past. Prioritize! Do you really need to put up all those Christmas decorations? How about a tabletop tree instead of the full-sized tree you've always had. Shop on-line, buy gift cards or patronize your local stores rather than going to the mall.

Ask for help! Friends can shop for you, help you decorate ... you just need to ask. And, you don't need to send Christmas cards. People should understand if you don't this year.

Include your loved one

He was an important part of your life and did exist. Many people will avoid mentioning his name because they don't want to make you feel sad or bring up something that could cause discomfort during this happy season. If you are like most grievers, you want your loved one to be remembered this holiday season. It's probably going to be up to you to make sure that happens. Bring his/her name up in conversation. Ask others to share memories or pictures. You could even go around the holiday table and ask people to share a memory. Light a candle in your loved one's memory. Make a donation in his or her memory to your church or charity. Do something because of your loved one.

Reach out to others

Sometimes just putting the focus on something or someone other than yourself can help you. Maybe you could invite someone to share a holiday meal with you — someone who has no family or has lost their job. You'll be amazed at how good this will make you feel.

I hope that some of these suggestions will help you as you face this holiday season. And hold on to this hope ... eventually you'll face the holiday season with a mild sadness or happiness and anticipation again. You'll remember the good times of holidays past, rather than those early days soon after the death of the one you loved.

Wayne County Parks' Lightfest brightens the holiday season

It's billed as the Midwest's largest and longest light show - more than 45 giant animated displays and more than one million lights stretching more than four miles along Hines Drive from Westland to Dearborn Heights.

Wayne County Parks' annual Lightfest opened with a bang last week as adults and children joined Santa Claus and Wayne County Executive Robert Ficano in lighting up Hines Park for the holidays.

In its 15th year, the display stretches from Merriam Hollow in Westland to Warrendale Park east of Telegraph and features such popular displays as the Celebration of Lights arch, Cecil the Magic Dragon, a large waving polar bear with cubs, an animated Old Glory, animated snowflake arches and the new music note tunnel.

Youngsters can stop and visit Santa's Workshop at the Warrendale Park at the end of the Lightfest. Santa will be there from Thanksgiving until Dec. 23. They can bring their letters to Santa and put them in a giant mailbox outside of his workshop. Santa's elves will pick up the letters each night to get them to the North Pole.

Lightfest is open 7-10 p.m. daily now through Dec. 31, except for Christmas Day when it will be closed. Enter Lightfest at the Merriam entrance to Hines Park, north of Warren Road. There's a $5 fee per vehicle. However, Tuesday, Dec. 6, 13 and 20, are Toy Nights. Wayne County will be lending a hand to provide toys to disadvantaged children. On those three nights, the community is invited to bring a new, unwrapped toy in lieu of the $5 vehicle fee.

Although Lightfest begins at 7 p.m., Hines Drive will be closed to traffic beginning at 5:45 p.m. nightly.

Families also are invited to take part in the Family Holiday Fest and Tree Lighting 4-6 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 10, at the Nankin Mills Interpretive Center on Hines Drive at Ann Arbor Trail.

The Friends of Nankin Mills and Wayne County Parks are inviting the community to participate in the old-fashioned celebration. This is the 24th year the Friends of Nankin Mills have sponsored the event.

The event includes crafts and games from 4 to 5:15 p.m., followed by the tree lighting at 5:15 p.m.

There's a $4 charge for the seasonal crafts which include make-and-take tree decorations. There also will be unique seasonal games, such as fruitcake bowling, Pin the nose on Rudolph and reindeer antler wreath toss. The second part of the program is free, and includes a short outdoor community Mill lighting and sing-a-long with an indoor visit from St. Nick, sponsored by the Friends of Nankin Mills. Refreshments will be provided.

All Stars make 25th appearance in parade

The Mid American Pompon All Star team will perform in America's Thanksgiving Day Parade for its 25th consecutive year.

During the parade, the team will open national coverage with an original pompon routine performed to a new Detroit-themed song. The team will also present an additional routine during the route.

The prestigious All Star team, which originated in 1986 with only 40 members, has grown to more than 200 performers from high schools throughout Michigan. Each year, they perform at several events throughout the United States.

The All Star Team is comprised of pompon girls from more than 40 cities, including Farmington, Livonia, South Lyon, Northville, Novi, Garden City and Canton. The group is well known for its creative choreography which involves sharp, precise and unified moves, showmanship and spectacular kick-lines. They use pompons and upbeat music.

During the parade, they will perform their routine up to 40 times.

To be eligible for the Mid American Pompon All Star team, girls must be a member of a high school varsity pompon or dance team. Each year team members are selected based upon their outstanding showmanship, academic stature and pompon/dance performing abilities. Auditions take place at Mid American summer camps.

The girls perform together three to four times a year. They have performed at Presidential Inaugural Parades for President Bill Clinton and President George W. Bush, the Fiesta Bowl and Citrus Bowl parades, the 2007 Motor City Bowl at Ford Field in Detroit, the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, Sea World of Ohio, Epcot Center and on Carnival Cruise Lines, as well as at Detroit Pistons and Ignition games.

The All Star Team has been invited to perform in the Cultural Olympiad, Big Dance 2012, which will take place before the July opening of the Olympic Games in London. Dancers and choreographers from around the world will unite for a celebration of dance in all of its forms.

Mid American Pompon was established in 1979 by owner Karen Blazaitis. It has become Michigan's leader in pompon and dance instruction and summer camps for high school teams. The team is based out of Mid American Studio in Farmington Hills, which offers instruction in fitness, dance and pom for children and adults.

For more information, visit www.pompon.com.

The Mid American Pompon All Star team features girls from high school pompon teams from Farmington, Livonia, South Lyon, Howell, Dearborn, Northville, Novi, Garden City, Canton and Birmingham.

Vigil to honor loved ones lost too soon

By Brad Kadrich
Observer Staff Writer

Members of the Compassionate Friends know the holidays are tough times for people who've lost loved ones, especially children.

In an effort to help with the grief, The Compassionate Friends, Western Wayne County (Livonia) Chapter, sponsor their 15th annual World-wide Candle Lighting ceremony in Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth today, Dec. 11, in conjunction with Children's Memorial Day.

"The holidays are especially difficult for parents who have lost children," said committee member

BILL BRESLER | STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Gail Lafferty of Livonia reads the names of children lost to their families during The Compassionate Friends candlelight vigil last year in Plymouth's Kellogg Park. This year's vigil is set for Sunday, Dec. 11.

Gail Lafferty. "This candle-lighting ceremony honoring them helps their memory live on." The ceremony will include the dedication of at least two trees decorated with ornaments featuring the children's names, a candle-light vigil, a reading of the children's names, poetry and songs.

The local ceremony includes the candle-lighting at 7 p.m. in conjunction with the world-wide candle-lighting. The idea is that, as candles burn down in one time zone, they're lit in another, creating a 24-hour memorial.

Recognized in communities around the world, International Children's Memorial Day is already officially sanctioned by the U.S. Congress.

"Hundreds of families will gather near a tree specially decorated with the names of children who have died too soon,"

Lafferty said.

The vigil annually includes the reading the names of those lost too soon. Organizers are recommending people arrive by 6:30 p.m.

Friends and family are invited to the remembrance and candles will be provided. You do not have to attend to register your child. Anyone with a name they'd like read, or who wants more information about the event, can call or e-mail candle-lighting committee members Gail Lafferty or Brenda Hernandez, tcf-candlelight@yahoo.com or (734) 778-0800.

Do your homework before donating to any charity

By Rick Bloom
Guest Columnist

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your loved ones! I think most would agree that the holiday season has arrived and, along with it, the Black Friday sales and all of the other associated ploys to get us to buy, buy and buy some more. As I discussed in a column a few weeks ago, it is important to have a game plan and a budget before you hit the stores.

Another recurring event that happens as we hit the holiday season is that charities gear up for their year-end, gift-giving campaigns. And as difficult as it is, there too, you must set a budget.

There is no doubt that we live in difficult times. High unemployment and a sluggish economy have taken their toll. There is great need. However, just like shopping, you need to set a budget as to how much you want to give this holiday season.

After you set a budget and it comes time to choose individual charities, do it wisely. There are so many good charities that need your money. You don't want your generosity going to an organization that wastes your money. With the advent of the Internet, it is easy for bogus charities to solicit donors through e-mails that tug at their heartstrings. These bogus charities also have bogus websites that look legitimate. That is why when it comes to giving to a charity, even if it's one that you are somewhat familiar with, perform some sort of background check before making a contribution. After all, the reason you are giving is because you want your money to help accomplish a worthy goal.

Determining whether a charity's goal is important to support is just the first step. Think of it as a decision tree and the first branch that you take is the cause that you want to support. We all know that for any cause, there is more than one charity. That first step will require some research. For example, for those who wish to support our troops, there are many great charities that do so, from the USO to Wounded Warriors. It would be nice to say just give to them all, but that's not reality. Therefore, you need to narrow your choices. Once you have done so, establish that they are legitimate and will be good stewards of your money. Obviously there are scam artists out there that have no charitable purpose whatsoever and are just trying to steal your money. However, there are many legitimate charities that genuinely try to do good work, but are just poor managers of your money. Doing research before you donate will provide valuable information to assist you.

With the Internet, you can do some effective investigating of a charity. There are both federal and state agencies that have information about charities. In addition, the following are a couple of websites that I use: www.give.org through the Better Business Bureau and www.

charitynavigator.org. Both of these websites have a wealth of information with regards to charities.

Those of us who give know the good feeling of donating our hard-earned money to help others. But the main reason we give is because we want to promote a good cause and to accomplish something. To do so, do your homework. If you don't, there is the risk that your money is not going to help a charitable cause.

As we enter the charitable-giving season, make sure your money goes to a worthwhile charity. Good luck!

Home for the Holidays

Abbey Park in Lyon Township will fill with festive cheer this Friday, kicking off the third annual Festival of Trees to benefit local charities.

"Community groups decorate all of our trees and each year the Festival grows bigger and better," said Tamra Ward, Abbey Park Administrator. "Our residents, their families and the local community look forward to seeing all of the energy and creativity that goes into decorating all of our beautiful trees."

The local community is invited to participate in this year's Festival of Trees by voting for their favorite tree with a $1 donation. Voting concludes at 2:00 on Christmas Eve and all of the proceeds from the donation ticket sales will benefit a charity chosen by the winning design team. In 2010, 18 community groups and organizations decorated trees for the competition.

Located on Milford Road just across from Coyote Golf Club in Lyon Township, Abbey Park is a popular new community for seniors looking for affordable retirement living near friends and family. The community has welcomed over 170 new residents since opening in January 2009.

Something for Everyone

Abbey Park brings in the New Year with a festive dinner, and concludes each year with their Community Christmas Celebration and Festival of Trees. Residents have enjoyed a little midnight madness at a Pearls, Pumps and Pajamas Party, kicked up their heels at their midsummer dance and joined the limbo line at the Grandparents Day Luau and pig roast. To celebrate autumn, residents were treated to an Oktoberfest event including serving wenchers, marching waiters, bratwurst, German potato salad and apple strudel - along with a little beer and musical entertainment. Over 200 grandchildren, great-grandchildren and even a couple of great-great grandchildren participated in the annual Halloween Carnival complete with ghosts, games and a costume parade.

A typical week at Abbey Park kicks off on Sunday with an elegant champagne brunch, all faiths church service and cookies and coffee with family and friends. An average week offers the residents more than 45 events and activities to choose from, including live entertainment, Bingo, card clubs, two ice cream socials, weekly dinner trips, chair fitness classes, shopping, scheduled chauffeured transportation, movies and a weekly Happy Hour.

Residents also enjoy monthly casino trips, excursions to Kensington Metro Park and Erwin's Orchards, attendance at local plays and concerts and visits to annual festivals such as Milford Memories and Pumpkinfest.

In a community all their own, residents operate a small Country Store with basic grocery and personal items, and participate on a council that comments and suggests amendments and additions to the daily menu and activities schedule.

"Anything our seniors are willing to do, we make available to them," said Tamra Ward, Administrator for the Lyon Township location. "We encourage residents to be as active as they can be for as long as possible so they can maintain their independence."

Live Longer, Healthier, Happier

A full activity schedule, great food and a wealth of amenities are just the beginning at Abbey Park. The community features 24-hour staffing, a medical alert system, scheduled chauffeured transportation, a beautiful dining room, and delicious meals in addition to a café, theater, chapel, library, fitness center, beauty salon and the reassurance of a full facility generator.

Abbey Park residents are no strangers to the local community. Group trips are planned for events like the Milford Fourth of July Parade and Hartland Senior Center's Home for the Holidays, plays and performance at local schools, shopping trips and dinner outings to Deadwood Bar & Grill in Northville and other restaurants in the area.

Although Abbey Park is one of the newest businesses in the neighborhood, they have generously supported many local events and organizations including South Lyon Pumpkinfest, Lyon Township's Kite Festival, Operation Injured Soldier, the Lyon Township Film Festival and Lyon Area Rotary in addition to the Grace Care Center in Trincomelee, Sri Lanka.

Located just 1.5 miles south of I-96 and minutes away from Novi, Brighton and Ann Arbor, Abbey Park offers affordable luxury. From beautifully landscaped grounds and courtyards to an elegant lobby with fountains, fireplaces, a grand piano and comfortable lounge areas, residents are proud to welcome visitors to their new home.

Life at Abbey Park includes a variety of complimentary conveniences that are often an added expense at other communities. On a daily basis, housekeepers make the beds and take out trash. Residents start their day with continental breakfast in the café, and enjoy a delicious lunch or dinner in the Grand Dining Room. Once a week, all residents are treated to full cleaning services, including laundering bed linens and towels.

There are nine floor plans to choose from, ranging from one bedroom with one bath to two bedrooms with two full baths and two walk-in closets. All apartments include either a balcony or patio and a medical monitoring system that is easily accessed from several areas within each unit. Heat, water, electricity and basic cable services are also included.

With an average of 45 weekly events and activities to choose from, days at Abbey Park are full of fun and friendship. Activity Director Cindy Kometh and her assistant Karen

The Home of the Brave

Abbey Park also hosts monthly Huron Valley Am-Vet Post 2006 meetings for veterans and their spouses. Some veterans are eligible for up to $1900 per month in reimbursed living expenses. "Many veterans are not aware of the Aid and Attendance Benefit available through the Veterans Administration." In addition to monthly meetings, the community recently dedicated their "Hall of Honor" commemorating the service of resident Veterans.

World War II Veteran, Ed Kustron, a resident of Abbey Park, is proud of his military service to his country and enjoys reminiscing with the 30 Veterans who are also neighbors in the community. Kustron and his wife, Margaret, moved to Abbey Park from Farmington-Hills and are quite sure they've found a happy home. They've become regular players in card games, enjoy the food and new friends and are fond of the Hospitality Director Charles Duty, who regularly makes a special delivery of buttermilk - their favorite drink.

"They make us feel special here," Kustron said. "I don't think we could find a better place to live."

Residents stay connected with friends and family on the Abbey Park facebook page. Visit www.facebook.com to check out photos from year-round events, say hello to Abbey Park residents or keep up with scheduled events. Abbey Park also produces monthly newsletters, weekly activity schedule and a daily posting of menus, schedules and photos from previous events on their in-house monitor system.

"Our friendly staff members arrive each day and work with one directive: to treat our residents at Abbey Park as if they are our own parents," Ward said. "As a result, we all feel like part of one big family here; this is our home away from home."

Abbey Park at Mill River is a great place to call home for the holidays. In addition to dozens of holiday parties, events and concerts, life at Abbey Park includes weekly live entertainment, wine and cheese, Happy Hour, ice cream socials, Wii Bowling, movies and card parties.

DIVISION 1 GIRLS SWIMMING & DIVING FINALS

Taking it to the limit

Chiefs drink in EMU scene

A look at the bigger picture revealed a silver lining for Canton's varsity girls swimming and diving team.

Canton only had swimmers in one event at Saturday's Division 1 finals at Eastern Michigan University.

The 200 medley relay team of Caitlin Orr, Hannah Jenkins, Delaney Adams and Destinee Barmore-Hicks finished 16th in the consolation heat (1:52.67) to give the 37th-place Chiefs their only two points of the finals.

But that relay team also had Canton's EMU highlight, going 1:52.28 during Friday's prelims to set a new school record.

"We had some great swims on Friday," Chiefs coach Ed Weber said. "Our medley relay broke the school record. Delaney Adams had her best time in the 200 IM yesterday. Hannah Jenkins dropped considerable time in her IM.

"Destinee Barmore-Hicks had a very nice swim in the 100 freestyle (54.2), Claire Green had an outstanding swim in the 500 freestyle with a 5:13, she dropped six seconds. Caitlin Orr had a fabulous backstroke swim at a 1:01.7."

According to Weber, this year's experience at Jones Natatorium should benefit them next season. Virtually everybody will return, pumped up to "not just make our qualifying times" like they did this year.

"Next year we're getting (everybody) back, and we hope to make steps forward and score at this level," Weber continued. "There's a lot of pressure to perform, not only conference meet, but turn around and do it at state meet and do it again on Saturday.

"The girls had great swims even on our relay today."

Rocks go all out in bittersweet finale for Seroka

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

Choked up with emotion, Salem senior Lauren Seroka remembered her first trip to the girls swimming and diving finals as a freshman in 2008.

"I placed third in the 200 free my freshman year and now that (time) would have hardly made it to the top 16," said Seroka during Saturday's Division 1 state championships at Eastern Michigan University's Jones Natatorium. "It just shows how fast it's gotten over the years."

Farmington Hills Mercy set the pace, showing plenty of talent and depth at each event en route to tallying 258 points and capturing the D1 title.

Giving a thumbs up to her Salem teammates before starting the consolation heat of the 100 backstroke is Salem junior Abby Aumiller.

Salem finished 19th with 28 points.

Seroka talked shortly after her seventh-place finish in the 500 freestyle final. There was disappointment in her voice about following up her school-record time of 5:02.46 in Friday's preliminaries (second place) with Saturday's 5:04.47.

"I would have like to have gone faster," she said. "But I did everything I could."

Bouncing back

But true to her entire career with the Rocks, Seroka rebounded quickly to team up with junior Maddie Gorman, sophomore Julia Suriano and junior Abby Aumiller to set a new Salem record in the 400-free relay, the final event of the day.

The quartet placed 13th with a time of 3:38.12, which was significantly faster than the 3:39.98 recorded at prelims (16th).

"My 400 relay really brightened my mood," said Seroka, with a smile following the last race she'd ever swim for the Rocks. "We broke it (record) by five seconds. I love my relay."

Shamrocks work OT for berth in D1 final

By Ed Wright
Observer Staff Writer

As the sixth play of overtime unfolded Saturday in the Division 1 semifinal football game between Novi-Detroit Catholic Central and Rockford, the stands were packed with thousands of fans, the sidelines were jammed with close to 150 players and Ram defensive backs shadowed Shamrock receivers in the north end zone of Battle Creek's C.W. Post Field.

DIVISION 1 FOOTBALL SEMIFINAL

But Catholic Central running Anthony Darkangelo was all ... by ... himself. And for that, the Rams paid dearly.

With his team trailing 20-17 and facing a second-and-goal at the Ram seven, Darkangelo slipped out of the backfield like a thief in the night and hauled in Kyle Cooper's soft spiral to put the hammer down on CC's dramatic, 23-20 victory.

On to the finals

The 12-1 Shamrocks earned a berth in the state final 1 p.m. Saturday at Ford Field against Detroit Cass Tech (10-3).

"The play is called 35 Wham and I wasn't the primary receiver," Darkangelo said. "It's supposed to go to our tight end, but I was wide open, so Kyle threw it to me. I just wanted to make sure I caught it."

"It seemed like the ball took about two minutes to get there," CC coach Tom Mach said. "Anthony made a great catch and Kyle put it right where it should be.

"It was a hard-fought game. Rockford is one of the best teams we've faced this year. It was one of those games that you were just happy to be able to participate in. Both teams played terrific."

Darkangelo's catch capped a thrill-a-minute showdown that was stuffed with offensive fireworks and bone-crunching collisions.

After yielding 17 first-half points to Rockford's multidimensional, misdirection-loaded "Wings & Things" offense, the

Salem vets to set tone

By Tim Smith

Gone from Salem's varsity boys hockey team are a few of last year's top skaters, not to mention an all-state netminder.

But things shouldn't change too much at the Plymouth Cultural Center this winter. Expect the 2011-12 Rocks to continue skating, slamming, scoring and making life tough for rivals in the KLAA South Division.

Salem opened the schedule Wednesday night against Division 1 state champion Novi in a game that took place after this issue of the Observer went to press. Next up, the Rocks host Canton at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

"All of our returning guys are good players," said Salem's fifth-year head coach Ryan Ossenmacher. "We have everybody on our team expected to contribute so we should be in for another exciting year."

A quartet of seniors will be leaned on heavily while newcomers get up to varsity speed.

Back in the blue-and-white are several players who played key roles in 2010-11 — when Salem finished the regular season 17-6-2 overall and 7-3-1 in the division (second place).

Leading the Salem charge will be forward and senior captain Mark McGee (No. 9), shown threatening to score in a 2010-11 game.

Senior forward and captain Mark McGee leads the way. A second-team all-star in '10-11, McGee was Salem's second leading scorer with 20 goals and 27 assists.

Salem's assistant captains are senior forward Austin Sartorius (third in scoring last year), senior defenseman Michael Manser (fourth in scoring) and Kyle Eggenberger.

Scoring punch

"They all know what we expect," Ossenmacher said. "All of them had good success last year."

McGee and Sartorius will be the top scoring threats on Salem's No. 1 and No. 2 forward lines.

"We have two lines that we expect to compete and score," Ossenmacher said.

On one of those lines, junior Alek Zultowski will center McGee and 6-4 sophomore Jason Newel.

"He (Zultowski) centered McGee last year so they're a little familiar with each other," the coach said.

He said Newel brings size and skill. "He's got something you can't teach with the size aspect; he's got some pretty good abilities to go along with that."

All-area soccer stars turn in pitch-perfect efforts

First team
Rene Mejia, GK, Sr., Plymouth: The acrobatic senior goalkeeper posted seven shutouts for the Wildcats, leading them to a record of 8-6-2 overall and 6-2-2 in the KLAA South. For his efforts, Mejia was named to the All-KLAA 1st team.

"Outstanding goalie for the 'Cats," coach Jeff Neschich said. "He was a team captain and the vocal leader on the field."

"He made the outstanding saves for us all season and kept us in a lot of games."

Connor Furgason, Def., Sr., Canton: The senior and co-captain scored 17 goals, many coming off of corner kicks, and added nine assists for the Division 1 champion Chiefs.

Furgason was instrumental in Canton's lone goal in the final against Grand Haven as he screened the goalkeeper on the long shot by Daniel Ovesea.

Honors keep piling up for him, too. He was named to the All-KLAA, All-District, All-Region and 1st-team All-State teams.

And add to that lofty honors such as All-State "Dream Team," regional All-American and national All-American.

"Connor displayed a tremendous amount of leadership qualities that can unite any team," coach George Tomasso said.

Jake Genrich, Def., Sr., Salem: The senior defender began his three-year varsity Salem stint by starting in the Division 1 state semifinal in 2009 and he kept on accomplishing big things the rest of the way.

The team captain tallied four goals and four assists for the Rocks, who were in the state's Top-10 rankings for part of the season.

"Jake reads the game exceptionally well and has outstanding anticipation," coach Ed McCarthy said.

Genrich was named to the 2nd-team All-State and All-KLAA squads for his excellent season and was Salem's Most Valuable Defensive Player. He will play college soccer at Bowling Green.

Tyler Winningham, Def., Sr., Canton: Whenever Canton needed to take a key corner kick, it often was Winningham to handle the task.

Many times during the Chiefs' championship season, those corner kicks were perfectly placed inside the goal box and enabled teammates to finish off goals.

An all-around player, the defender collected nine goals and eight assists and was named to the All-KLAA, All-District and All-Region teams. Winningham also was selected as an All-State honorable mention player.

"Tyler displayed sportsmanship throughout the season and on one occasion helped an opposing injured player," Tomasso said.

Alex Jones, Def., Sr., Churchill: The senior central defender earned honorable mention all-state honors in Division 1 along with being named to the all-KLAA team.

"Alex was our best player," Churchill coach Reid Friedrichs said. "He's one of the best one-on-one defenders we've had at Churchill in a long time."

Mitchell Boehm, Def., Sr., Luth. Westland: The senior defender showed his versatility with 14 goals and two assists en route to Division 2 second-team all-state honors and first-team all-Michigan Independent Athletic Conference honors.

"Depending on the opponent and what the score was at the time Mitchell was asked to play several different spots on the pitch," Lutheran Westland coach Rich Block said. "So he never really had the luxury to just stay in one spot and pad his stats. Mitchell's dedication to the success of team and program came first to him, not personal stats or goals."

Boehm also played full time on Lutheran Westland's playoff-qualifying football team as a kicker and defensive back.

"Mitchell is a strong player physically, mentally and very highly skilled both technically and tactically," Lutheran Westland coach Rich Block said. "Mitchell's stats may have not been as elevated as some, his value to our team was his strong presence goal line-to-goal line and touch line to touch line."

Boehm, a first-team Lutheran High School All-America, plans to play next season at either Madonna or Concordia (Wis.).

Brent Winkler, MF, Jr., Farmington: The junior midfielder is a three-year varsity starter for the Falcons, who are the OAA White Division champions. Winkler played a large role in Farmington having a 13-3-4 record as he scored 20 goals and had four assists.

He was the offensive catalyst who often got things started and ended up on the finishing end. In his high school career, he has 36 goals and 22 assists.

Winkler, who was a team captain, is an all-league, all-district and all-state, third-team selection. He helped Waza FC West 95 win the U-16 State Cup last summer, and he has since joined the Columbus Soccer Academy Wolves U-16 team.

"Brent is one of the most talented players to ever play at Farmington," coach Luke Juncaj said. "He is a complete player who can be effective at any position. He has great speed and works extremely hard. Brent is a consistent player. This year he scored in just about every game."

Jacob Bur, MF, Sr., N. Farmington: The senior midfielder was a three-year starter who also played defense for a portion of the season due to injuries. He moved back to attacking mid, scoring seven goals and making four assists.

Bur was a major reason why the Raiders owned the midfield at the end of the season, according to coach Mike Horner. Bur was the player designated to take all corner and penalty kicks. He is an all-division player and an all-state academic honoree with a 4.0 GPA.

"Jake is every coach's dream," Horner said. "He is smart, mentally and physically tough and a consummate team player. As a cap-game at a high energy level. "In his natural position of center midfielder, he shut down the opponent's attack, forcing them to play wide or over the top. Jake was a playmaker on offense, especially in transition, where he was instrumental in starting most of our attacks. Opposing coaches were always relieved to find out he was a senior this year."

Dan Ross, MF, Jr., Ply. Christian: Experience with the Regional Olympic Development Program paid dividends for the junior, who scored 15 goals and 13 assists for the Eagles.

The team captain earned selection to the Class D All-State second team along with first-team honors in the district, conference and region.

"Dan Ross is an extremely talented and gifted player," said PCA coach Nathan Yates. "During my time as a soccer coach over the years I have never seen a player blessed with so many abilities."

"Throughout the season many teams we played against tried to refuse Dan the ball with no success. Dan found ways to get open and continue to be a dominant player on our team throughout the season."

Chris Ensor, MF, Sr., Salem: One of Salem's strong points was sturdy defense and the senior midfielder was one of the main reasons for that.

Ensor also contributed with his all-around play, which earned him an All-State honorable mention selection. He also was selected to the All-KLAA team.

"He has strong vision and was our leader in the midfield," McCarthy noted. "He was the key to our ability to keep possession of the ball."

Daniel Ovesea, F, Jr., Canton: It was the junior's goal that gave the Chiefs the D1 state championship, but he scored many big goals all year as he finished with 23

Of course, the highlight came on Nov. 5 in the D1 final against Grand Haven at East Kentwood Crestwood Middle School.

Ovesea lofted a direct kick from midfield that landed inside the left post to provide the winning margin.

"Daniel displayed a sharp-shooting, goal-scoring mentality that led his team to victory," Tomasso said.

Mitch Posuniak, F, Sr., Canton: One of the offensive big guns for D1 state champion Canton, he tallied 18 goals and seven assists — including a big goal during the regional semifinal win over Dearborn.

Posuniak's senior season earned the co-captain several accolades, including selection to the All-KLAA, All-District and All-Region teams along with an All-State honorable mention nod.

"Mitch displayed a desirable winning attitude that brought out a fierce competitor, and (he) led by example as the team followed," Tomasso said.

Vaughn Frederick, F, Sr., Garden City: Frederick enjoyed a record-setting season for the Cougars, netting 22 goals and 21 assists while leading his team to a Western Wayne Athletic Conference championship. Frederick combines uncanny dribbling skills, great vision and stellar speed.

"Vaughn is a dynamic player with a ball at his feet," said Garden City head coach Jason Dean. "He has the ability to beat defenders in space with an arsenal of moves that most college players have. Vaughn has an incredible ability to use his speed to break entire defenses down. His willingness to distribute the ball made him the total package."

Zach Atwood, F, Jr., Stevenson: The junior forward was the Spartans' MVP and leading scorer with 17 goals and 10 assists while earning all-KLAA, all-district and honorable mention all-state honors.

"Zach had an outstanding season for us, scoring a number of important, and often incredible, goals," Stevenson coach Lars Richters said. "He continues to work hard to learn and to improve himself as a player, and he has a very bright future ahead of him."

Jeff Thomas, F, Sr., Stevenson: The senior transfer finished the year with 11 goals and six assists while earning all-KLAA, all-district and honorable mention all-state recognition for the Division 1 district champions.

"Jeff was a huge addition to our team this season," Richters said. "He brought with him a great amount of high school and club experience, strong technical ability, and a competitive streak. He plays with a good blend of desire and style."

Coach of the Year George Tomasso, Canton: The former goalkeeper of a state champion Canton team during the 1990s, Tomasso duplicated that feat as head coach of the 24-1-2 Chiefs.

Canton racked up championships in the KLAA South Division, Kensington Conference, overall KLAA, Division 1 districts, regionals and state finals.

"Six out of six trophies," Tomasso said. "What a great season that will always be remembered."

Tomasso and assistant coach Mark Zemanski emphasized to the team the importance of never letting up over 80 minutes and taking "ownership of performance."

With a strong group of senior leaders, that message resonated with the full squad as it battled back from adversity time after time.

In the district final against state-ranked Novi, the Chiefs rallied from a goal down and went on from there to run the table.

"We were very proud of the way the team responded after each half-time," Tomasso said. "As you may know, each time we played Novi we came back from a goal down in all three games to win."

"Throughout the season the team gained strength by realizing that the only way to win was to perform their best every minute of every game."

Canton followed the win over Novi with victories in the regionals against Dearborn and Ann Arbor Pioneer and with a 1-0 victory over defending D1 champion and No. 1-ranked Warren DeLaSalle in the state semis.

Of course, Canton capped it all off with a 1-0 victory over Grand Haven on Nov. 5 in the D1 final at East Kentwood.

That gave the Chiefs their first state title in 17 years, when Tomasso was in goal.

Although Tomasso said the 1994 title was special in its own right, coaching this year's team proved even more rewarding.

"These guys wrote their own destiny," he said, shortly after the championship victory.

Salem's Austin Sartorius (No. 14) is one of several returning seniors who will pace the Rocks' attack.

"I think Jake Sealy on the left wing, he moves the puck really well which is why right now he's working with Austin Sartorius," Ossenmacher said. "(Sealy's) job is to get pucks, move them ... and give them to Austin who's going to score some goals."

Another new player who could make an impact is sophomore forward Jack Driscoll.

"He's a good skater," the coach said. "He should add some speed and grit to our forward lineup."

Other forwards on the roster include sophomores Kyle Downey, Cam Nixon and Spencer Thompson.

Top duo on 'D'

On defense, the Rocks' top duo of Manser and Eggenberger promises to provide everything from tape-to-tape passes out of Salem's zone, to safe-and-secure play in front of the Rocks' goal.

"Eggenberger's going to be paired up with Manser for the foreseeable future," Ossenmacher stressed. "Michael is an offensive defenseman, we give him pretty free reins to be creative with the puck and do a lot of things offensively."

"Kyle's more of a defensive defenseman that's going to make sure that spots are covered. So when we give Manser the free rein, we know if a mistake is made or a play is made that he's going to be back there to cover up for us."

Junior defenseman Evan Patton is the third returning player back on the blueline.

"Evan's got some size and some skill and he's learned a lot the last couple years," the coach said. "As a junior this year, he's going to have to step up and be one of our go-to guys."

It will be a trial-by-fire situation for the other defensemen, varsity newbies Adam Marthaler (a junior), Cameron Clark and Colin Pietron (both sophomores).

"With six defensemen, everybody's going to play," Ossenmacher said. "Some guys get more ice than others but all of them are going to have to contribute."

Opportunity knocks
The graduation of all-state goalie Brandon Price leaves a big void to fill in the Salem crease. Price played 22 games last season, giving the Rocks the chance to win in all of them.

"We have three new goalies this year, so our plan is yet to be determined," Ossenmacher said. "But I think they are all capable so we'll see."

"We replace a first-team all-state goaltender with Brandon Price being gone, but that's what happens in high school. Kids have to step up and fill in the spots that seniors vacate."

Ossenmacher said sophomore Parker Godfrey and junior Anthony Veresan are competing for the top spot with junior David Bloxson also in the mix.

He'll likely go with the hot hand.

"The last three years we've had guys that have been No. 1's and we knew they were playing almost every game," Ossenmacher said. "So this year it will be a little different, unless one of them steps up and steals it."

"If (someone) is winning games we're not going to take him out."

Chiefs fall 4-3 in opener

Canton's 2011-12 varsity boys hockey season got off on the wrong skate Friday night as the Chiefs lost 4-3 to Dearborn Divine Child.

The speedy Falcons held off a late rally at Canton Arctic Edge Arena.

Canton senior Taylor Baker made it a one-goal game, scoring in the final minutes after goalie Spencer Craig was pulled for an extra attacker.

The Chiefs also received goals by seniors

Brandon Schlieger and Brandon Grillo, in the first and second periods, respectively.

Canton looked to even its early season record with Wednesday night's game against Plymouth. Results were not available as of press time.

PIONEER 4, LADYWOOD 3: Caroline Hurd recorded a hat trick, including the tying and game-winning goals during the final period to give Ann Arbor Pioneer (1-0, 1-0) the Michigan Metro Girls High School Hockey League win over host Livonia Ladywood (0-1, 0-1) at Plymouth's Arctic Pond.

Ladywood jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first period on goals by Lane Kolpacke (from Jackie Kristofik) and Hannah Pereira (unassisted) before Pioneer's Julia Franceschi answered from Shay Pinhey and Hurd.

Ladywood went up 3-1 on Pereira's second goal, but Hurd made it 3-2 before the second period ended on assist from Franceschi.

Hurd scored twice in the final period on an unassisted effort followed by the game-winner (from Franceschi).

Pioneer goaltender Pauline Arsenault stopped 19-of-22 shots, while Ladywood's Sarah Koch made 16 saves.

Whalers streak into first place

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

Two goals within five seconds on a 5-on-3 power play late in the third period Saturday lifted the Plymouth Whalers to a come-from-behind 4-3 victory over Kitchener at Computware Arena. The Whalers — who won for the third time in three nights and seventh straight game — tied the Ontario Hockey League contest on a power-play goal Stefan Noesen at the 18-minute mark of the third. Then right off the ensuing face-off, Rickard Rakell beat Kitchener's John Gibson for the winning tally.

Plymouth defenseman and captain Beau Schmitz (Howell) netted the first two goals against Gibson, who faced 50 shots.

Stopping 28 of 32 shots for the win was goalie Scott Wedgewood.

With the victory, the Whalers (16-6-2-1, 35 points) moved into first place in the West Division of the Western Conference and are tied for the conference lead with London, although the Knights have three games in hand.

Wedgewood also was the winning goalie on Friday at London, stopping all but one of 23 shots in a 4-1 win.

Rakell scored twice with other goals by Andy Bathgate and Alex Alear-di (Farmington Hills).

Thursday night, the Whalers kicked off a productive three-night span with a 5-4 overtime triumph at Windsor.

Plymouth jumped out to a 3-0 lead on first-period goals by Garrett Meurs, Schmitz and Tom Wilson but the Spitfires tied the game 3-3.

Bathgate briefly enabled the Whalers to regain the lead, with J.T. Miller collecting his third assist of the night on the play. But Windsor forced overtime when Alexander Khokhlachev slipped a shot behind Plymouth netminder Matt Mahalak (28 saves).

Then less than a minute into OT, defenseman and Farmington Hills native Austin Levi took a feed from Noesen and beat goalie John Cullen to cap the win.

Plymouth will look to keep the hot streak going with two home games this week. The Whalers will host Saginaw (7 p.m. Wednesday) and Peterborough (7 p.m. Friday).

Making every motion matter in Saturday's consolation heat of the 200 freestyle race is Salem's Lauren Seroka.

coach Chuck Olson was glad to see Seroka's outstanding high school career end on a bright note after all.

He noted how Seroka's "great swim" in the 500 free at Friday's prelims was the best of her career in that race. But the next afternoon brought new challenges.

"I think that (seventh place Saturday) was partly circumstances of the race," Olson said. "A couple of them (opponents in the 500) went out fast, a lot faster than yesterday. It's tough to fight through that mentally.

"But she did a great job coming back (in the 400 relay), she stayed strong."

In the consolation heat, Seroka came in 16th in the 200 free (1:55.79).

Olson also was happy for the other three girls in the relay.

"They deserve it, they worked very hard," he said. "It was a fast meet and we're real pleased with the way things turned out today."

Oh so close

Aumiller was another swimmer who impressed beyond her work in the 400 relay.

On Friday, she finished the 100 backstroke in ninth with a mark of 58.32. The top eight in each preliminary event qualify for the championship heat.

"Abby missed out by 3/100ths of a second of making the finals," Olson noted. "The time was good, but she was a little disappointed not finishing in the top eight."

On Saturday, Aumiller placed 10th overall with a 59.12 mark.

Now she will go back to work to try and duplicate what Seroka did — make the finals all four years of her prep career.

"I'm definitely going to go a lot harder," Aumiller said. "I was ninth again this year (at prelims) and I was ninth last year and I was a second slower last year."

But she said being part of the record-setting 400 relay will be the best experience she'll take out of the 2011 finals.

"It was nice to finally drop time again and everyone on our team did real well, so it was fun," she added.

Olson praised his contingent of swimmers, especially Seroka and Aumiller.

"I couldn't be happier for them," Olson said. "Obviously they are team leaders, they got some very good recognition today.

"They're well-respected around the state."

Meanwhile, in other Friday results, Seroka finished 16th in the 200 free (1:55.42) followed by teammates Aumiller (36th, 1:58.93) and Suriano (42nd, 1:59.71).

Suriano chimed in with a 32nd-place finish of 5:20.86 in the 500 free.

Also Friday, the 200-medley relay team of Aumiller, junior Jocey Lamoureux, Seroka and Gorman came in 28th with a mark of 1:55.24.

Plymouth recap

Although disappointed that the Wildcats did not reach Saturday's championship round, head coach Doug Schade said he and the rest of the coaching staff "are incredibly proud" of each member of the squad.

"We are thrilled with their hard work and tenacity," Schade said. "It was a great season."

Still, Schade said Plymouth "had a solid showing" in Friday's preliminaries.

Linda Erickson swam her season-best time in the 200 IM and lifetime bests on all three relays.

Competing in the 200-yard medley relay Saturday at EMU's Jones Natatorium is Canton junior Delaney Adams.

Erickson was part of the 400 free relay that set a new school record of 3:41.77. She teamed with Stephanie Matsui, Emily Weiner and Lexi Ethier for that accomplishment.

In the 200 medley relay, Erickson's split of 28.59 and Lydia Plencner's of 27.59 were lifetime bests.

And the 200 free relay of Matsui, Emily Toro, Erickson and Ethier just missed out on the finals with a 17th-place time of 1:40.61.

MSU harriers make NCAAs

Michigan State, bolstered by Livonia Churchill grads Sara Kroll and Rachel McFarlane, qualified for the NCAA Division 1 Women's Cross Country Nationals Nov. 21, in Terre Haute, Ind., with a runner-up finish in Saturday's Great Lakes Regional in Toledo, Ohio.

Michigan (55 points), MSU (77) and host University of Toledo (84) all earned team berths.

Kroll, a sophomore, placed fourth overall with a 6-kilometer time of 20 minutes, 37.3 seconds, while McFarlane, a red-shirt senior, placed 27th in 21:20.6.

Michigan's Danielle Taurro and Rebecca Addison finished one-two in 20:27.9 and 20:34.8, respectively. Eastern Michigan University junior Courtney Calka (Livonia Stevenson) finished 74th in 22:08.3.

Holiday soccer

The Michigan Bucks will stage its third annual holiday soccer tournament, Thursday-Friday, Dec. 29-30, at Ultimate Soccer Arenas in Pontiac.

The 8 vs. 8 format will guarantee all age boys and girls teams a minimum of three 50 minute games, with a championship final to be played for the top two teams in each group.

Team registration is $395 (until Dec. 26), but all teams registering by Dec. 10 will receive a $45 early registration discount ($350 team fee).

For more information, visit www.bucksoccer.com or call tournament director Brandon Sizemore at (248) 977-9133.

CC students rush the field and celebrate victory with players after the Shamrocks' overtime victory Saturday.

CC defense was locked and loaded for the final 24 minutes, shutting out the Rams until Steven Mette's 26-yard field goal in overtime gave Rockford a short-lived lead.

The Shamrocks limited the Rams to a 1-yard run by Connor Grady, who was stonewalled by CC's Aaron Hess and Clay Behrman, and a pair of incompletions prior to Mette's field goal.

Meanwhile, Cooper was more than efficient, completing eight of 14 passes for 102 yards and two touchdowns.

In addition to gaining 37 yards on 11 carries, Darkangelo completed both of his halfback passes, including a 21-yard throwback to Cooper that set up the Shamrocks' second TD, for 45 yards.

Junior fullback David

Houle churned out 85 yards on 24 carries for CC.

Rams strike early

It took Rockford just 14 seconds to light up the scoreboard. That's how long it took the Rams to execute a deceptive, 97-yard kickoff return by Brandon Lubenow on the opening kickoff. Mette's first of two extra points made it 7-0.

Rockford extended its lead to 10-0 on its first offensive possession when Mette ripped a 40-yard field goal through a gusty wind with 2:19 left in the first quarter.

After going three-and-out on its next possession, CC got the ball back when David Racey stepped in front of a Mark LaPrairie pass and returned it to the Ram 22.

Four plays later, Cooper connected with Matt Doneth on an 8-yard touchdown pass to bring the Shamrocks within 10-7.

Rockford re-upped its lead to 17-7 when LaPrairie tossed a 12-yard TD pass to Lubenow with 7:10 left in the half.

Houle bulled in from two yards out in the final minute of the half, and Alex Kozlowski's second extra point made it 17-14.

Powered by six up-the-gut runs by Houle and a 34-yard pass from Cooper to Racey, the Shamrocks rolled to the Rockford 12 on their next possession, but they had to settle for a 27-yard Kozlowski field goal and 17-17 tie.

The Shamrocks appeared to have the game won in regulation, but Kozlowski's 19-yard field goal attempt with 30.2 seconds left never got enough height and failed to clear the offensive linemen.

That set up the dramatic overtime and the game-sealing catch by Darkangelo, who quickly went from being the most isolated guy in Battle Creek to the most popular.

Enjoy the weekend at a museum, concerts, outdoors

By Sharon Dargay
 O&E Staff Writer

A Red Ryder Christmas Story has become a favorite seasonal exhibit at the Plymouth Historical Museum.

It debuted there in 2007, paid a return visit in 2009 and opened again last week for more than a month-long stay.

"We try to change it each time. This is the third time we're doing it but it's pretty popular and it's a perfect match for us," said Elizabeth Kerstens, executive director. "Plymouth was the home of Daisy."

Daisy Manufacturing Company sold Red Ryder BB guns which are central to the 1983 movie, A Christmas Story. In the film, the main character, Ralphie, longs for a Red Ryder BB gun for Christmas, but everyone from his parents to a department store Santa warns that he might shoot an eye out with the dangerous toy.

The museum's current exhibit includes both scenes from the film and BB guns on loan from private collections and the museum's own holdings.

Santa Claus also will be on hand from 1-4 p.m. every Saturday before Christmas, beginning Nov. 26.

Diehard fans will notice that the museum exhibit crew has changed some of the vignettes since 2009. The "Santa mountain," part of a department store scene, was eliminated this year and toys displayed in the store's window are different. But many favorite scenes have returned.

The National Acrobats of The People's Republic of China will perform Friday, Nov. 25 in Detroit.

"You can't do the exhibit without having Flick and his tongue (frozen) on a pole," Kerstens said. "And Scott Farkus, the mean guy. We've got a mannequin that looks just like him."

One of her favorite displays shows Ralphie dressed in a bunny suit on Christmas morning.

"One of the things that is so captivating about this exhibit is the way we have it set up. It's warm and cozy. It's a feel good type of thing. We have the lights dimmed and red and green outdoor bulbs strung across Main Street. It looks a lot like the Main Street in the movie."

The Museum is open 1-4 p.m. Wednesday and Friday-Sunday. It's located at 155 S. Main Street, just north of downtown Plymouth. Admission is $5 for adults and $2 for students, 6-17; (734) 455-8940.

Animated film has heart, humor, high-tech North Pole

By Sharon Dargay
O&E Staff Writer

If you plan to see just one of the holiday films out this Thanksgiving weekend, you won't go wrong taking the family to Arthur Christmas, a fresh, funny twist on the classic Santa Claus legend by Aardman, the British animation studio that also brought moviegoers Chicken Run and the Wallace and Gromit characters.

I'm not a fan of the stop motion effects used in Aardman's earlier efforts, so I was pleasantly surprised to watch the film's inventive story unfold in 3D computer animation, the result of a team-up between the British studio and Sony Pictures Animation.

And although the visuals are more refined, the characters — three generations of the Christmas clan — are drawn Aardman style, with exaggerated features (Grandsan-ta's nose rivals the size of a potato) and out-of-whack proportions. But it's a perfect look for this dysfunctional family.

Meet the Christmas clan

Arthur Christmas, the hero of the film and Santa's youngest son, maintains an upbeat outlook on life and an adoration for his Dad, despite the lack of respect he gets from family members and elves alike. He's relegated to a tiny office where he answers letters to Santa, while his older brother, Steve, runs Christmas like a high tech, precision military operation. On Christmas Eve, scores of elves drop down SWAT team style into homes from a hovering spaceship that resembles a cross between the Starship Enterprise and a sleigh, while Steve orchestrates the process from Mission Control.

Santa Claus is showing a bit of wear and tear after 70 missions around the world, but he has no plans of retiring any time soon and handing the family business to his ambitious elder son.

Grandsanta is retired, but can't stop talking about his own glory days, spent delivering presents from a mere sleigh drawn by flying reindeer.

"I did 70 missions without all this malarkey," he grumbles. "What happened to going down the chimney?"

Heroic adventure

The real fun begins after the family discovers the "foolproof" corporate machine that Christmas has become has missed a child. Distributing billions of gifts in one night is no small feat and Steve pronounces the mission a success, anyway. He suggests sending the missed girl a gift by messenger, which will take five days.

Santa worries that he's just a figurehead, a "fat guy with a suit," but can't muster the initiative to do anything but fall asleep.

When Arthur vows to deliver the goods in person before sunrise on Christmas day, Grandsanta dusts off the antique sleigh, hooks up the flying reindeer and the pair — along with a stowaway elf — embark on a hilarious adventure around the world and a race against the clock.

Young children may have a hard time understanding some of the dialogue because the actors all have British accents, but there is enough physical humor — Arthur furiously pedalling a tiny girl's bike, magic dust sending African wildlife skyward — to keep them awake.

Adults will find plenty to laugh at in the funny script and quirky characters.

I'm ready to skip the turkey dinner Thursday just to watch this gem again.

Arthur Christmas, a Columbia Pictures release, debuted for general audiences Wednesday, Nov. 23. It runs a little over 90 minutes and is rated PG.

Other family movies that hit the big screen Wednesday, Nov. 23:

• Hugo: While looking for his missing family, Hugo Cabret discovers a robot in the walls of a Paris train station. The robot transports him to a world of wonder, mystery and magic where he meets girl who helps him solve the mystery surrounding his missing family. The movie is based on Brian Selznick's award winning New York Times best-seller, The Invention of Hugo Cabret. The film is director Martin Scorsese's first film shot in 3D. Starring Asa Butterfield, Chloe Moretz, Jude Law, Christopher Lee, Sacha Baron Cohen and Ben Kingsley. Rated PG from Paramount Pictures.

• The Muppets: On vacation in Los Angeles, Walter, the world's biggest Muppet fan, and his friends Gary (Jason Segel) and Mary (Amy Adams) from Smalltown, USA, discover the nefarious plan of oilman Tex Richman (Chris Cooper) to raze the Muppet Theater and drill for the oil. Walter, Mary and Gary help Kermit reunite the Muppets to raise the $10 million needed to save the theater. Rated PG from Walt Disney Pictures.

Get into the holiday spirit with seasonal favorites

By Jill Halpin
Correspondent

Guest artists Leonid Flegmatov and Dawnell Dryja will dance with the Plymouth-Canton Ballet Company.

Sugar plum fairies and toy soldiers will soon join symphonies, bands and choruses in bringing smiles to audiences across the metro area.

It's a special time of the year for both performers and show-goers alike, according to dancer Kendall Snow, 20, of Livonia.

"It's definitely my most favorite time of the year and The Nutcracker really gets me in the holiday mood," he said.

Snow, a 2009 graduate of Livonia Stevenson, began dancing at Bunny Sanford's School of Dance in Livonia as a child. He vividly remembers dancing in one of his first holiday performances of Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker and playing the role of a young boy, Fritz. Now a communications arts major at Michigan State University, Snow makes it a point to return each holiday season to dance in the school's production of the ballet.

On stage

"I went from playing Fritz, the youngest male role, to playing Fritz's father this year. It's so awesome to still be able to do this," said Snow, adding that he makes an effort to stay in shape all year, even working out with weights when he is away at school so he will be ready for the performance.

He returns to the stage Saturday, Dec. 3 in the Livonia Symphony Orchestra's holiday production, "Stories of the Season." It will feature excerpts from The Nutcracker, conducted by Volodymyr Shesiuik, symphony music director. Snow will be joined on stage by other dancers from Angie Hahn's Dance Academy as well as the Livonia Civic Chorus.

According to Rose Kachnowski, president of the Livonia Symphony Orchestra, the program will begin with Christmas music, including favorites such as Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas and O Little Town of Bethlehem. The audience will have a chance to sing along with some songs. The second act of the show is the performance of The Nutcracker, with vocal accompaniments by the Livonia Civic Chorus. In Farmington, dancers from the Positive Attitude Dance Academy will join forces with Curtain Call Dance of Canton to bring audiences a performance of The Nutcracker and something more — a chance to give something back to the community.

All proceeds from their hour-long performance of Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker at Farmington's Civic Center Theater, Sunday, Dec. 4 will go to the Farmington-area Goodfellows, who provide assistance to needy families during the holidays. In addition, Goodfellow volunteers in the lobby will accept donations of non-perishable food items and new, unwrapped toys, said Laurie Smalis of Farmington, owner of Positive Attitude.

"Everyone likes to give something to others during the holidays. This is a great opportunity for people to donate to the community and see a great performance, too," said Dorrie Milan of Plymouth, co-owner of Curtain Call Dance. "The kids absolutely love the idea of working on a fundraiser to help other people out."

Smalis said she, too, has noticed the dancers and their families really getting behind the idea of contributing to others.

"It really gives the kids a sense of giving back to the community and not getting wrapped up in themselves. They really respond to it. They can see that even in a small way, in doing something that you do every day, like dance, you can still be helpful to others," Smalis said.

The first-time collaboration features dancers from both dance studios ranging in age from 6-17 years, as well as a performance by a very special guest, 83-year-old Robert Brown of Westland.

Brown, who also happens to be Curtain Call owner Milan's father, will perform the role of Herr Drosselmeyer in the show. Although this is not the first time he has played a role in one of his daughter's shows, he is "always game to try anything," said Milan. "He's going to be terrific."

Pairing up Thanksgiving Day feast

Thanksgiving is around the corner, and many will be hitting the grocery store to stock-up in preparation for the national day of gluttony.

On a day when the table swells with dozens of dishes, how does one choose the appropriate beer(s) for the occasion? The good news is there is no wrong answer, since beer pairing is more art than science, and beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

A rule of thumb for a successful pairing is that the drink should complement the food with either a contrasting or similar flavor profile. The challenge is that pairings work best with a singular soul mate like an artesian cheese or a lush dessert. The Thanksgiving experience is hardly a monogamous encounter, making it a challenge for any beer connoisseur. Fortunately, with the right line up, beer can win over the ardent wine lover when the most important meal of the year is on the line.

Aperitif or Starter
As guests arrive, hand them something crisp, cold and refreshing. Something from the pilsner family is a good fit. It will heighten the senses, stir up an appetite, and won't dull the palate with excessive alcohol. Furthermore, the clean finish will cut through any salty snacks circling the room.

Beer Tracker

Nate Parsons

- Pilsner Urquell — Light straw in color and crystal clear. Aroma is floral with a taste to match and it finishes with a hint of clean spice.

- Victory Prima Pils — A tasty lager with a hoppy floral taste. Crosses traditional Bohemian flavor with Yankee ingenuity for a well-balanced lager.

Appetizer or Primer

Depending on the venue this course can be a challenge for the beer aficionado. Think something midrange with citrus tones that cleanse the palate without scraping the throat... sorry no hop bombs here. These two offer earthy tones that compliment a wide range of fare without stealing the show.

- Saison Dupont — Nice aromatics and a hazy straw hue, well-seasoned but not overpowering. Hints of citrus, white pepper and clove are balanced with a hit of prickly carbonation for a quenching finish.

- Hennepin Farmhouse Ale — Rustic in scent with an earthy palate cut by tangerine spice. Sweet malty flavors interplay with citrus tones and the lively carbonation tickles the tongue.

The Main Event

Typically a bold offering works here, something worthy of the 36-hour lead time required pull off such a beastly event. A muscle beer from the cellars of a Belgian monastery seems appropriate for the occasion. No doubt either of these recommendations will impose their will, but also court the complexities of flavors found in an all-out feast.

- Westmalle Trappist Triple — Sweet breadly malts mingle with spices to deliver a well-balanced high octane offering. The finish warms the mouth with drying alcohol and the carbonation cleanses the back of the throat.
- Orval Trappist Ale — Considered dry ale, it pours a dusty orange and boasts a rocky three-finger head. The mouth is sweet with dry fruits, but the clean finish will leave taste buds pining.

Dessert

Whether it's pumpkin, pecan or sweet potato pie, there are a number of offerings that will compliment this course. Some enthusiasts push for a sweet beer such as Chimay Grande Reserve or a fruit-infused Lindamans Framboise. Others may prefer the bitter bite of coffee found in Bells Java Stout or Founders Breakfast Stout. If an early exit from the table is appealing, head to the sofa with a bottle of dessert in time to catch the opening drive.

- Brooklyn Chocolate Stout — Infused cocoa is the backbone of this robust black stout. Rich chocolate spreads across the palate before roasted malt thins out the sweetness. The finish offers a hint of plum before exiting on a bed of dry cocoa.

- Southern Tier Pumpking Ale — An intense offering worthy of the imperial moniker. Deep full-bodied offering dominated with sweet nutmeg, cinnamon, and ginger. Creamy malts coat the mouth finishing with a rich presence.

Pairing beer with food is not an exact science, but these selections should offer direction when looking to impress the relatives at this year's sit down. All the offerings mentioned can be found at local beer caves around the metro area. Cheers!

Sweeten holiday fare with Michigan-grown chestnuts

By Sharon Dargay
O&E Staff Writer

Fire up the charcoal. It's chestnut season.

If you've got the roaster, Virginia Rinkel can supply the nuts.

She and other members of Chestnut Growers Inc., a cooperative of 40-some Michigan chestnut farmers, are taking their products, including chestnut flour, freeze-dried slices, whole and peeled, fresh chestnuts, on the road through December, visiting farmer's markets in metro Detroit.

"It's one way to educate the public that we're around," Rinkel said. "We need more growers and are experiencing more interest all the time in chestnuts."

With approximately 154 chestnut farms, Michigan claims more growers than other states. But Rinkel said the cooperative hopes to convince other Michigan farmers, such as cherry growers, to cultivate an acre or two of chestnut trees along with their regular crops, helping bolster the state's chestnut yield and meet growing demands for the product.

"By February our freezer is going to be full. We've had some orders for 5,000 pounds the last few years," she said, adding that Whole Foods and other local markets carry Chestnut Growers Inc. products.

Co-op members, like Rinkel and her husband, Bob, who own Vicary Road Chestnut Farm in Leslie, north of Jackson, grow Chinese, European or Japanese chestnuts. Most of the American chestnut trees were wiped out in the early 1900s by blight.

Chestnut Growers Inc. processes and sells their products at farm markets and to retailers. Members peel the chestnuts, which can be frozen, used whole, sliced and dehydrated or ground into flour. Whole unpeeled chestnuts, sold by the bag, must be scored before they are roasted. Peeled, fresh whole chestnuts should be stored in the refrigerator.

"Chestnuts are 70 percent moisture. It's constantly wanting to mold. But that's external mold that is easily wiped off. You won't get internal mold for months," Rinkel said, explaining how to store fresh chestnuts. "You just need to flip the bag every few days in the refrigerator. It's a whole new thing that people just need to be educated to."

Chestnuts are fruits that contain few oils, unlike most nuts. They spoil easily when left at room temperature and nutritionally are more like grains because they contain more starch than protein. They are gluten-free and sweet.

Roasting

When preparing chestnuts for roasting, score the fruits by making a long cut in the shell across the middle of the nut. The opening will allow steam to escape from the nut. Failure to score the nut can cause it to pop and splatter.

Roast chestnuts by placing them in a chestnut roasting pan or old-fashioned fireplace popcorn cooker. Roast on coals or fire for 15-25 minutes. Shake them often.

For oven roasting, place chestnuts on a cookie sheet with raised edges. Add a little water to the pan. Roast for 20-30 minutes at 350 degrees.

Microwave by wrapping six to eight scored chestnuts in a damp paper towel. Microwave on high one or two minutes.

Use dehydrated, frozen sliced or chestnut flour in cooking. Here are a few recipes from the Chestnut Growers, Inc., that use the cooperative's chestnut products:

Hummus

8 ounces CGI freeze-dried Chestnut "Slices" (rehydrated in 16 ounces boiling water) or use 1 pound fresh or frozen-peeled chestnuts

1 1/2 cup reserved chestnut water
1/2 cup lemon juice
2 large cloves garlic (sieved)
1 teaspoon salt
Freshly ground pepper
1/2 teaspoon ground cumin
3 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
2-4 tablespoons pine nuts (to taste)

4 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley or cilantro
1 cup (8 ounces) Tahina
Dash of paprika

For making hummus from freeze-dried chestnut "Slices," bring 16 ounces water to a boil in small saucepan and add freeze-dried chestnut "Slices" stirring to rehydrate. Reduce to a simmer and cook for 15 minutes. Drain the chestnuts, reserving any liquid. Add enough water to this liquid to measure 1 and 1/2 cups liquid. If cooking fresh or frozen-peeled chestnuts in small amount of water, reserve water and adjust as for the freeze-dried "Slices."

In a food processor or blender, fitted with a steel blade, process the lemon juice, garlic, salt, pepper, cumin, chopped fresh parsley or cilantro, pine nuts and at least 1/2 cup of the reserved cooking water liquid. Add rehydrated chestnuts and continue blending, adding more reserved liquid if needed, blending to very smooth consistency. Pour into large bowl and hand stir in tahini last and blend till you have a smooth consistency.

Serve with cut-up raw vegetables, crackers or warm grilled pita bread cut into wedges.

Note: You also can add cayenne pepper to the hummus. Sometimes leftover hummus tends to thicken. Just add some water to return it to the right consistency.

Cream of Chestnut Soup (vegan style)

4 ounce bag "Chestnut Chips"
4 cups water
1 carrot (7 baby carrots)
1 celery stalk
1 medium onion
1 clove of garlic
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon thyme

Chop vegetables and garlic and place in 4 cups of water in large saucepan. Cover and bring to boil. Reduce heat to simmer, maintaining a low boil. Add "Chestnut Chips" and continue to low boil for 20 minutes. Carefully remove to blender. If short on liquid, add water to make an even 4 cups. Blend to smooth consistency (about 45 seconds). Salt and pepper to taste. This is a simple base for a delicious soup. Do not hesitate to experiment with other ingredients. For variety, try adding additional spices, parsnips, squash, sweet potato, apple or 1/4 cup Madeira wine. Add Canadian bacon if meat is desired.

French Sponge Cakes

1/2 cup sifted "fine" chestnut flour
1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoons salt
3 whole eggs — separated
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
6 tablespoons sugar or Splenda

Preheat oven to 350°F -180°C

Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt. Beat egg yolks in a small bowl, rapidly, until very thick and lemon colored (at least 5-7 minutes), adding almond and vanilla flavorings during the beating.

With clean beaters, (or another beater set) beat the egg whites until stiff and shiny. Add sugar, (1 tablespoon at a time about every 45 seconds) and beat on high constantly. Continue to beat rapidly until whites are very stiff and glossy.

Gently fold in the beaten egg yolks with large rubber spatula until just combined, using large turning over and under motion with spatula. In the same manner, fold in the dry ingredients until just mixed. Do not over beat.

Using two teaspoons, (one to pick up batter from bowl and the other to push it onto the cooking tray) drop onto baking sheets, 2 inches apart.

Bake for 10 minutes or until light golden brown. Remove at once to rack to cool.

TIP: For better results in increasing egg white volume, put bowl, beaters, and spatula used to turn batter in the freezer for a short time 5-10 minutes before using. Take out from freezer and use immediately.

French Sponge Cake Cookies on the left side of the plate are made with chestnut flour; those on the right side are made with regular, white flour. Virginia Rinkel, a Michigan chestnut grower, says the cookies with chestnut flour are sweeter and easier to remove from the baking sheet.

Industry group lauds top properties, business leaders

The Building Owners and Managers Association of Metro Detroit (BOMA) held its annual awards program The Outstanding Building of the Year (TOBY) and Leadership Awards Presentation on Friday afternoon, Nov. 4, at the Greektown Casino Hotel, Detroit.

The program honors outstanding leaders and commercial properties in the local commercial real estate industry. The TOBY Awards, now in its 27th year, is the most prestigious and comprehensive program of its kind in the commercial real estate industry, recognizing excellence in office building ownership and management.

William M. Wylonis, president of BOMA of Metro Detroit, addressed the large gathering and paid tribute to BOMA's outstanding members, "This afternoon we recognize and celebrate our collective and individual efforts ... our people, our innovations and development in our industry."

With a sold-out crowd of nearly 300 people in attendance, Linda M. Yarjanian, RPA, FMA of Transwestern Commercial Services was named Property Manager of the Year; Gregory R. McDuffee of the Detroit-Wayne Joint Building Authority, Facility Manager of the Year; Linda Emert-Grimm of Dietz Property Management and Kristin Falconer of InStar Services Group, Emerging Leader; James L. Jonas, of REDICO, Outstanding Service Award; The Professional Group, Service Provider of the Year; Marshall Spinner of Belfor USA, Supplier Member of the Year; Grubb & Ellis Management Services, Building Owner of the Year; and Brian R. Salliotte, the President's Award.

One Kennedy Square, Compuware Corporation World Headquarters and One Detroit Center located Detroit; Oakland Commons in Southfield all took first place in their respective square footage categories as Buildings of the Year. The Fisher Building in Detroit took top honors in the Historical Building category, the Coleman A. Young Municipal Center in Detroit was first in the Government Building class, 50 West Big Beaver in Bloomfield Hills took the top award in the Medical Office category, and the Northridge Office Complex in Troy was recognized in the Suburban Office Park Low-Rise grouping.

Local TOBY winners advance to regional competition and then move on to international competition at the BOMA International North American Real Estate Congress® and the Every Building Show in Seattle, WA in June 2012.

For additional information on the 2011-12 TOBY and Leadership Awards, contact Janet Langlois or visit www.bomadet.org or www.bomadet.org.

Founded in 1908, BOMA of Metro Detroit is a professional, nonprofit trade association whose nearly 400 members either own or manage commercial real estate, or provide goods and services to the industry. BOMA Michigan members represent organizations managing more than 250 million square feet of office and industrial space, with employees and tenants totaling more than 1.25 million people in Michigan. BOMA of Metro Building Owners & Managers Association President Bill Wylonis presents the Outstanding Service to James Jonas of REDICO. BOMA held its annual awards program honoring excellence in commercial real estate at Greektown Casino Hotel Nov. 4.

Detroit-Wayne Joint Building Authority receives The Outstanding Building of the Year (TOBY) Award for best in class for the Coleman A. Young Municipal Center in Detroit. The TOBY recognizes best practices in office building management.

Detroit provides commercial real estate professionals the opportunity to work together for professional growth, advocacy rights, corporate profit, and the benefit of the nine Southeastern Michigan communities it serves. For more information on BOMA and membership, visit www.bomadet.org or www.bomadet.org.

Budget required for repairs

By Robert Meisner
Guest Columnist

Q: I am a new treasurer for our site condo association. I don't quite understand the rules/law regarding the 10 percent of the budget that needs to be set aside for the reserve fund. Is that 10 percent per year? So if the total budget is $10,000.00, does $1,000.00 get put into the reserve fund once?

A: The Michigan Condominium Act requires that a reserve fund be maintained for major repairs and replacements of common elements in a Michigan condominium, and the Michigan Administrative Code requires that it be at a minimum at least 10 percent of the budget, on a noncumulative basis. While this means that only 10 percent of the budget is required to be in the fund under the code, the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) is requiring that each annual budget contain a line item in the minimum amount of 10 percent of the budget. Moreover, the board is required by the act to reasonably determine how much is needed in reserves. Although a site condominium project is not required to obtain FHA certification for FHA backed loans, lenders often want to be assured that the FHA requirements are met by the condominium before funding a loan. Your Board of Directors may be well advised to have a reserve study conducted by a reputable company to ascertain the condition of the common elements to determine how much reserve monies need to be set aside for projected future repairs and replacements. You should consult an experienced condominium attorney to determine if your project and condominium documents meet the 2011 legal requirements, standards and laws.

Q: We are in the process of considering a review of our documents and some of the co-owners are concerned about additional construction in our site condominium which would impair their view, but the developer has not provided any type of guarantee. What do you recommend?

A: If your community is located in a scenic area such as near a beach, lake or in the city with a famous skyline, the view that co-owners enjoy from their units is, obviously, very important to them. Co-owners often buy their particular units because of the views and are dismayed if they are obscured by structure or foliage added later. Co-owners that have paid for a specific view that they can no longer enjoy or that previously made their unit more valuable and unique than others, making resale easier, could possibly sue the association. That is why your association should consider passing a view protection bylaw that prohibits Co-owners from building or planning anything that would block other co-owners' views. In order to pass and implement a successful view protection bylaw, your attorney must carve out key rights for your association and clearly define the terms in the bylaw, including: 1. at what point in time a view is "protected," and, 2. whether the association must enforce a bylaw that protects the co-owners' right to that view.
