Local reps back Snyder's gun veto

By Brad Kadrich
Observer Staff Writer

State Rep. Dian Slavens said she delivered petitions with some 8,000 signatures from people urging Gov. Rick Snyder to veto a Senate bill that would have made it easier for gun owners with concealed weapons permits to carry guns into schools.

On Tuesday, Snyder gave them what they wanted, vetoing the controversial legislation that would have allowed concealed pistol license holders who completed additional training to carry a concealed pistol in schools and other places that currently are off-limits.

"While we must vigilantly protect the rights of law-abiding firearm owners, we also must ensure the right of designated public entities to exercise their best discretion in matters of safety and security," Snyder said in a statement. "These public venues need clear legal authority to ban firearms on their premises if they see fit to do so."

Slavens, a Democrat from Canton, couldn't agree more. She said she's gotten hundreds of emails and phone calls from concerned constituents urging the governor not to sign the bill.

She said she also heard testimony in committee from representatives of the Catholic Church, hospitals and day care centers "urging us not to pass the bill" in the first place.

"I don't think, especially with what happened in Connecticut, a church or school is a place for people to be carrying guns," Slavens said. "I was really pleased, very happy to see he (vetoed) it."

Bill failure

Snyder said his veto was primarily based on the bill's failure to let designated public entities such as schools, day care centers and hospitals opt out of the new concealed carry provisions. Cur-

Enjoying the moment after defeating previously unbeaten Livonia Churchill for the District 2 championship in early November are Plymouth head coach Mike Sawchuk and his players. The team could have all of its 2012 victories wiped out due to an ineligible player.

Wildcats face forfeits over ineligible player

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

An "unintentional" administrative oversight literally could have record-shattering repercussions for Plymouth High School's varsity football team.

The Michigan High School Athletic Association will determine in early January whether to forfeit the Wildcats' nine victories in 2012 — including two during the postseason — due to the team having an ineligible player on the roster.

It was recently discovered that a player competed despite being in his ninth semester of high school, a violation of MHSAA eligibility rules.

A formal letter notifying the MHSAA of the rules violation was sent Dec. 13 by Plymouth-Canton Community Schools. The district filed that report with an appeal for a waiver of consequences because the violation was inadvertent.

Erin MacGregor, Plymouth-Canton's director of secondary education, said the district has "already put into place safeguards to make sure this doesn't happen again," and hopes the MHSAA will leave the victories in place.

"We think we made a strong case," MacGregor said. "We'll have to wait and see."

The association's executive board will decide the Wildcats' fate.

"The school district was very forthright, very good communication," said Thomas Rashid, MHSAA associate director. "They contacted us upon discovery and we believe they've handled it very well."

"We know it's always a very difficult situation. But we know everybody (in P-CSS) believes in following the rules and doing things right and we are pleased with that."

Parents received a letter dated Dec. 17, signed by MacGregor and Business Services Executive Director Brodie Killian, detailing the situation.

"This eligibility issue was discovered after the season was over and was completely unintentional," the letter to parents stated. "This was the result of an oversight at the administrative level and the appropriate corrective measures have been implemented."

Coach Mike Sawchuk and his staff also had no knowledge of the situation until well after the season ended.

Also in the letter, parents were notified that Sawchuk discussed the situation with the team Monday.

"While we understand the boys are disappointed and concerned, it is incumbent on the District to protect the identity of the student involved," it stated.

The ineligible player "was unaware that he was Savalox knew a 50-minute class wasn't going to produce solutions, but she said the discussion was absolutely worthwhile.

"I think it's safe we aren't going to leave here with a lot of answers," said Savalox, who is also Plymouth-Canton's National Honor Society advisor. "It's important to discuss causes and prevention, as well as the process. The discussion itself is valuable. They may not figure out how they feel until they answer it."

The discussion in Savalox's classroom was just one of several ways the district dealt with the tragedy this week. The reaction started Saturday morning, when Superintendent Dr. Jeremy Hughes emailed a letter to parents reassuring them the district is doing "everything we can to keep them safe."

A moment of silence was observed in all district buildings Monday morning and teachers, counselors and social workers were watching for, and talking to, students

Red Cross appeals for blood donations

By Darrell Clem
Observer Staff Writer

Citing a downturn in blood donations during the holiday season, American Red Cross officials are appealing to area donors to make time to restock supplies and help those in need.

Holiday-time blood donations fall off as the Big Three and other businesses shut down, schools close and busy shoppers become preoccupied, said Diane Risko, Red Cross donor resources representative for the Southeastern Michigan Blood Services Region.

"People have other things on their mind. They're busy," Risko said. "They have to shop and put up holiday decorations. A lot of companies like the Big Three have time off. If donors can get to a blood drive over the holiday season, it's very important."

Risko said cancer patients who need blood platelets often need blood donations from as many as 10 people to get enough platelets for transfusions. She also said victims of violence, specifically gunshot victims, typically need blood donations from as many as 50 people.

Risko said the American

Red Cross needs 17,000 blood donations a day for patients in need.

"This holiday season," she said, "the Red Cross encourages people to give someone help by donating blood. It's a gift that doesn't cost a thing but can offer patients a better holiday season with family and friends."

Risko has announced the following blood drives. She said people who donate are entered into a monthly raffle for a $500 Visa gift card.

Risko advised donors to go to www.redcrossblood.org and enter a zip code to find drives or call her at (313) 549-7052 to set up an appointment. Here's a list of upcoming Plymouth-Canton blood drives, kicked off 2-7:45 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 19, at the VFW, Post 6695, 1426 South Mill St., Plymouth.

FORFEITS

in violation of the rule and feels terrible about this situation," the letter explained.

He'd be 'sad'

Plymouth senior quarterback Jamaril Eiland expressed disappointment Wednesday that what the Wildcats accomplished in 2012 could be wiped off the books.

"We were pretty disappointed when we heard the news," he said. "Nobody on the team was aware and he (the ineligible player) wasn't aware. It was a mistake."

Eiland added that the team "did the right thing all year, and I don't think they should take the wins away."

If the MHSAA did, however, Eiland emphasized that all the hard work put in since early August would not be for naught.

"I wouldn't feel like it was for nothing," he said. "I'll be disappointed, but everybody knows what happened. I'll be sad if they take the trophy away or we don't get to hang a banner."

Plymouth finished second in the KLASA South Division and then won District 2 title.

Another key senior, linebacker Matt Janke, said it's "a very unfortunate situation and I think it inadvertently gives Plymouth football a bad reputation regarding something (players and coaches) had absolutely no knowledge of."

Janke said Sawchuk has "always been a huge advocate of doing things the right way" on and off the field.

"If there's one thing I've taken away from these past four years," Janke said, "it's that there's only one way to get it done, and that's through hard work and dedication."

He added that his heart goes out to my fellow teammate because I know he must feel terrible even though there is nothing any of us could've done."

Cut and dried

According to the MHSAA rules handbook, the penalty for "accidental, intentional or other use of ineligible players ... shall require that team victories are forfeited to opponents."

If the executive board decides to forfeit the games, wins would be tacked on to the final records of Plymouth's opponents. Individual statistics and awards would not be impacted.

Rashid said "it's almost always accidental" at school districts have ineligible players and that forfeitures happen annually.

"It's not uncommon in every season that ineligible players are used and when that happens, there's forfeiture," Rashid said.

Victories over Lansing Sexton, Milford, Livonia Franklin, Westland John Glenn, Wayne Memorial, two against Canton (one in the regular season, one in a pre-district game), Livonia Stevenson and Livonia Churchill in the district finals are in danger of being forfeited.

who seemed to be struggling in the aftermath of the tragedy.

Teachers and administrators also once again reviewed the district's emergency response plan, something officials said they do frequently.

"We talk about how to improve security constantly," said Frank Ruggiere, the district's director of community relations. "We didn't pull the emergency plan out Friday and blow the dust off it. The number one priority is to keep students and staff safe when they're in our buildings." Meanwhile, Savaldis prepared six different topics of discussion, including facts and motives, and divided her students into groups to discuss them individually, then brought them together as a group to see what they came up with.

Salem High School senior Amanda Tabbey, a Plymouth resident, loves to talk about psychology, and she thought trying to understand human nature is a necessary part of understanding why the incident happened.

"I thought it was good," Tabbey said of the discussion. "It should be used in schools around the country. Students all over the nation should be able to sit in groups and communicate."

Discussing it is something Plymouth High School junior Sarah Reasoner didn't think she'd be able to do after initially hearing the news Friday. But there she was Monday, helping lead the talk.

"When I heard about it, I was devastated," said Reasoner, a Canton resident. "It's like, when it happens in an elementary school, you realize it can happen anywhere."

Miracle League dinner looks at Tigers titles

By Matt Jachman
Observer Staff Writer

The Miracle League of Plymouth will pitch a night of fun for Detroit Tigers fans as it prepares for a third season of giving special-needs children the chance to play baseball on their own field.

The league's Thursday, Feb. 7, fundraiser, The Perfect Game, will be a dinner time conversation among former Tigers about the World Series-winning teams of 1968 and 1984, plus statistical comparisons and a computer-simulated matchup between Detroit's most recent world champs.

The event comes just three months before the Miracle League's opening day and two weeks before the current Tigers begin 2013 spring-training play in Florida.

"It's never too early to think about baseball," said Debra Madonna, league president.

The dinner, at the Meeting House Grand Ballroom, will raise money for facilities maintenance and to help keep down costs for players. Since the opening of the specially designed Bilke Family Field, on Theodore Street behind Central Middle School, in 2011, the Miracle League has completed two seasons and is planning a third.

"That seems like a pretty good reason to get together," Madonna said. The league has drawn players from Midland to Dearborn and many communities in between, plus volunteers to assist playing, many of whom hail from the Plymouth-Canton area.

League endowment director Bob Bilke said he is lining up ex-Tigers from both the 1968 and 1984 teams to participate in the event. Designed to

"We're all fans," said Bilke of the Tigers championship teams, "whether they're in a year you remember or you were there at the game."

Tickets for the dinner are $125 each; there will be no auctions, raffles or other fundraisers during the event. The price includes hors d'oeuvres and an open bar. Sports broadcaster Eli Zaret will be the master of ceremonies.

The Miracle League will begin registration for the 2013 season in the weeks after the fundraiser, and opening day is scheduled for Saturday, May 4.

Madonna said the Miracle League's aim is to provide players with an experience that goes beyond baseball to include things such as Halloween trick-or-treating, a Christmas team party — this year's was on Wednesday — and professionally made baseball cards players can give to family members and friends.

"What we're trying to do is not only support the baseball team, but to create a real family for the players and their families," Madonna said. Events such as the holiday party are made possible with the help of local sponsors, she said.

Walmart suspect faces charges

By Darrell Clem
Observer Staff Writer

A Westland man accused of brandishing a knife inside a Canton Walmart store and stealing two laptop computers has been charged with armed robbery.

Sean Thomas Boegler, 46, was charged over the weekend following allegations he wielded a knife when employees inside the Walmart store on Ford Road east of Lotz approached him shortly after 12:30 p.m. last Friday, Canton Detective Sgt. Dave Schreiner said.

Workers told police a man pulled a knife on loss prevention employees, fled the store and got into a getaway vehicle, but quick action by witnesses helped Canton police use a license plate number and trace the suspect to a Westland residence, Schreiner said.

Boegler

Boegler was arraigned Saturday in Romulus 34th District Court on one count of armed robbery; a not-guilty plea was entered for him.

The defendant was jailed with a $25,000/10-percent cash bond, meaning he would have to post $2,500 for his release. Early this week, he remained in the Wayne County Jail.

Boegler is facing a preliminary examination in Plymouth 35th District Court to determine whether he should stand trial in Wayne County Circuit Court. If convicted, he could face penalties ranging up to life in prison.

Currently, Michigan law does not prevent a concealed pistol license holder from openly carrying a pistol in these zones.

According to state Rep. Kurt Heise, R-Plymouth Township, that's the inequity the bill was designed to address in the first place, and the reason he supported it.

"We're all trying to address the same goal, a loophole that allows people to open-carry into a school," Heise said.

"Until we solve the problem, a CPL holder can still open-carry into a school, a church or other public facility. That's the issue we were trying to resolve. The Senate came up with their best attempt to do that, but the governor said there aren't enough safeguards there, and he sent it back for further review."

Snyder had urged S.B. 59 be modified to more significantly restrict pistols in those zones by prohibiting open-carry in such places, in exchange for allowing only concealed pistols to be carried if license holders receive additional training — subject to the right of the property owners to prohibit concealed carrying if they desire. Under the bill as passed, only private venues can opt out, as can college and universities with constitutional autonomy.

Review needed

Friday's horrific school shootings in Connecticut also highlighted the need for a thorough review of the proposed law, Snyder said.

"This type of violence often leaves society with more questions than answers," Snyder said. "The reasons for such appalling acts usually are numerous and complex. With that in mind, we must consider legislation like S.B. 59 in a holistic manner. While the bill's goal is to help prevent needless violence, Michigan will be better served if we vet it through a variety of lenses. A thoughtful review that examines issues such as school emergency policies, disenfranchised youth and mental health services may lead to more answers and better safeguards."

Heise said the governor's veto, despite the fact the legislation had significant Republican support, showed the checks-and-balances system works.

CRIME WATCH

Extortion try

Canton police were investigating reports that someone tried to extort money from a Canton woman and a Detroit man who advised police they lost a flash drive containing personal information such as Social Security numbers and bank statements.

Police went to a residence southeast of Michigan Avenue and Sheldon on Dec. 11 to file the report. The pair told police they had made a report in Oak Park about the lost flash drive, which was lost at a McDonald's restaurant.

The victims told police they started receiving phone calls from a man who identified himself as "DJ" and asked for money in exchange for the flash drive.

Police were continuing to investigate the incident.

Drug bust

Canton police found heroin and crack cocaine on a 44-year-old woman who was being searched at the police station, a police report said.

The incident happened Monday afternoon. Police had gone to Van Buren Township to pick up the Ypsilanti woman on an unrelated misdemeanor warrant. She was handcuffed, placed in a patrol car and taken to the police department.

The woman told police that she might have drugs on her, the report said. She was searched by officers who found two small clear plastic bags, one allegedly containing heroin and the other containing crack cocaine, the police report said.

Police found the drugs in the woman's right front pocket, the report said. The drugs were confiscated.

Lights cut

A 53-year-old Canton man who lives on Royal Pointe, southwest of Warren and Beck, notified police around 7:30 p.m. Sunday to report that Christmas lights strung had been cut on his property. He told police he has had similar problems for the last five years.

The man noticed two strands had been cut Monday. He said it was the second time this year his holiday decorations had been vandalized.

The man told police he has no disputes with his neighbors.

More lights

A 45-year-old man notified police to report that strands of Christmas lights on trees outside his home had been cut two nights in a row. He notified police Monday evening.

The incident happened on Stonebridge Way, northeast of Beck and Geddes. The man told police one strand of lights had been cut on each of two consecutive nights.

The man told police the trees were located near his garage, in front of his home.

Embezzlement arrest

Police arrested a worker at the Marshall's store on Ford east of Lilley following allegations he embezzled by taking two bottles of cologne, a police report said.

Police went to the store around noon Dec. 10. According to the report, the 21-year-old man was a cashier when a customer decided not to buy two bottles of cologne that had been brought to his register. The report said the man was seen taking the bottles of cologne toward the bathroom, where he is accused of throwing the boxes in the toilet and putting the cologne in his locker at work.

A loss prevention manager found the items in the locker in the worker's coat pocket, a police report said. She told police she questioned the employee about the incident and that he admitted it.

Police went to the store, placed the worker under arrest for embezzling under $100 and issued a citation, according to a police report.

Bikes stolen

A woman who lives on Stacy, northeast of Palmer and Hagerty, contacted police to report that three bicycles were taken from the front porch of her residence. She said the bikes were taken 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Dec. 3. She said the bikes weren't locked.

Walker-Winter is going to the dogs — the WATCH D.O.G.S. (Dads Of Great Students), an innovative program being used by schools across America to help positively impact the lives of students by having a committed involvement of fathers and father figures.

The goal of the program is to have men spend at least one day at the school to be a positive male role model for all of the students and to provide an extra set of eyes and ears.

Walker-Winter is the first school in Wayne-Westland to begin using this program, which offers a chance for fathers, grandpas, uncles, step-dads and adult brothers to spend a day helping out.

WATCH D.O.G.S. hosted their first annual Dads and Kids Pizza Night on Dec. 5 and had more than 100 dads. They were treated to pizza and had a chance to mingle with other families. Then the kids watched a movie while the WATCH D.O.G.S. program was explained to the dads. "Our attendance was excellent," said Walker-Winter Principal Julie Mytych. "We had over 84 fathers and father figures and 108 students in attendance."

WATCH D.O.G.S. was started by the National Center for Father-

ing. The mission is to improve the well being of children by inspiring and equipping men to be more effectively involved in the lives of children.

"All we ask is for you to spend one day of your valuable time at school," said Mytych. "Each watch dog will help out greeting students in the morning, supporting students in classrooms, in the lunchroom, at recess, during specials and in the hallways. Our dads are asked to be a positive role model for all of our students." Top DOG Andrew Dobbins, Sr. is a lunchroom volunteer and grandfather of two former Walker-Winter students leads the group.

"I would like to challenge all male role models to step up to the plate," Dobbins said. "The time is now, our students of today will be our leaders of tomorrow, so man up."

Mytych and Dobbins pose with several men who will be WATCH D.O.G.S. at the school.

The team is made up of one dad from each grade level. It is their job to recruit and communicate with other male role models. Mytych's goal is to have every dad or father figure volunteer at the school. "They will make a positive impact on kids," she said, adding that "more would be great too."

Mytych recruited her father, brother, members from the Canton Kiwanis Club and even a local police officer and firefighter.

WATCH D.O.G.S. has two main purposes—education and safety in schools. They will provide a fathering presence and a positive and active role model for students. While at Walker-Winter they will monitor the school property, mentor kids in small groups and help plant the seeds of success, Mytych said.

WATCH D.O.G.S. was founded by Jim Moore, a concerned father who chose to take action in response to a 1998 middle-school shooting in Jonesboro, Arkansas.

There are multiple benefits of the program. Students gain a positive male role model. Schools gain an extra set of eyes and ears. The presence of a father or father figure enhances a sense of security at the building for students and staff and helps create an environment conducive to learning.

Fathers also get a glimpse of their students' everyday world and learn about the increasingly complex challenges and decisions today's youth are facing. They gain a greater awareness of the positive impact they can have on their student's life in three critical areas including academic performance, self-esteem and social behavior.

The WATCH D.O.G.S. program has been recognized by the United States Department of Education and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and has been involved in the U.S. Department of Education's P.F.I.E. (Partnership For Family Involvement in Education) and the Department's Safe School Summit.

The WATCH D.O.G.S. program has received the endorsement of the National PTA organization and was asked to be a charter member of the PTA's M.O.R.E. program (Men Organized to Raise Engagement).

Last-minute shopping help

IT'S YOUR BUSINESS Q&A

By Jon Gunnells
Guest Columnist

Tech Savvy
Jon Gunnells

You waited until the last minute to do your holiday shopping, didn't you? Otherwise you wouldn't continue reading. Fortunately, there are plenty of app developers, retailers and online stores that are prepared for this exact dilemma: the last-minute holiday rush.

Here are some shopping tips and advice to help you finish your shopping with time to spare. The advantage of your Smartphone or tablet by downloading any number of free apps that will help you through this hectic time. The Black Friday Survival Guide app, for example, allows shoppers to view leaked and verified deals in real time and create personal shopping lists.

There's also the Shop Savvy app, which can be downloaded on your Verizon Smartphone. This app lets shoppers scan bar codes on items to check prices and compare the best in-store and online deals. It is available on Android and Apple devices.

If you need to crunch numbers, consider downloading a discount and tax calculator from your Smartphone's app store. Using an app like this will allow you to estimate how much items will cost and how much a sale will actually save. There are also apps such as the "Find My Car" app that can help you when you get outside of the store. The "Find My Car" app was named one of the "Top Ten Apps That Will Change Your Life" by the Wall Street Journal.

It uses location services to help you find your car in a crowded lot. You can also jot down a note in your phone's notepad, or record a voice memo to help you remember what lot you parked in.

Even if you don't know what to buy for the person on your list, there are websites that can help. If the recipient is on Pinterest, visit their page and take a look at what items they are "pinning" or commenting about.

Websites such as amazon.com and sharpimage.com have comprehensive gift guides for anyone on your list. Gifts.com even has a personality test that buyers can fill out to help narrow down the options by age, gender, interest and hobbies.

Once you find the right gift, you might get lucky and not have to visit the store. Many large retailers such as nordstrom.com and zappos.com, and sunglasshut.com offer free shipping and free exchanges every day. Amazon provides free shipping on orders over $25.

The eBay site, which also offers free shipping on certain purchases may even have gifts that are sold out elsewhere. It may cost a premium price, but if you're looking to snag a last-minute video game system or other such coveted gift, eBay will have it.

When dealing online, remember there are plenty of safe ways to pay. Use your online payment system such as PayPal, Square or a gift certificate. You can even have your credit card company produce a one-time-use number to avoid fraudulent purchases in the future. Just be sure not to use your debit card as the fraud protection generally isn't as solid on those types of cards.

Lastly, if the holiday stress really hits you hard before, during or after your shopping is completed visit drinkmixer.com and find the quick-recipe for adult eggnog. If you've waited this long, you might need it.

OUR VIEWS

Holiday spirit More important to hold family close

As we celebrate another Christmas and holiday season, it is our nature to want our families gathered around us, like a warm blanket of love.

However, not everyone has that luxury. Because of a gunman in Newtown, Conn., the families of some 26 victims — including 20 first-graders from Sandy Hook Elementary School — are spending the holiday season grieving, planning and attending funerals. They're not opening presents or attending religious services or sitting down to the family meal.

And it isn't only victims of violence who don't have their families with them at this special time of year, a season built around family and love and understanding and peace.

Many people, for reasons as varied as medical and financial, don't have families around them with whom to spend the holidays. They crowd into our food pantries and soup kitchens, our churches and our shelters. Or, even worse, have no place at all to go.

Thankfully, there are heroes determined to ease the pain and suffering. There are people reaching out to the survivors in Connecticut, showing support in any small way possible. There are people standing at Salvation Army Kettles, ringing bells, and, of course there are those responding to the bells by dropping in their donations.

Countless stories crop up every year of these good-deed doers. And there are countless more about whom stories never see the light of day, folks who help simply because they want to, and can.

This is also not the season to focus solely on the down side, because there is so much good to go with it. The Newtown massacre is about the victims, but also about the heroes. The principal who flung herself at the gunman in an attempt to stop him. The teacher who shielded her students with her own body, and paid the price for her protection with her life. The students themselves, who found their way out of darkness and into the arms of those who love them the most.

Each year, we rouse ourselves during the holiday season to listen to the better angels of our nature. It doesn't always take a tragedy of the proportions of Newtown to make us feel the love.

But in the wake of that tragedy, it seems even more important than ever to remember what this season is all about.

COMMUNITY VOICE

What do you want for Christmas?

We asked this of children in Redford, Westland and Garden City.

"I want snap-back hats, clothes and a money and a phone, a better one than I have now."

Zack Orsette
Garden City

"I want a tablet, just a tablet, and some clothes from Aeropostle, Justice and Hollister."

Hannah Bolton
Garden City

"I want ice skates so I can go skating and I need tickets to go to the indoor rink."

Nina Tilley

"I want a Wii U system and a 3DL. These are awesome games that you can play whenever and wherever you want."

Jael Snowden

"Ice skates and roller skates mostly. That's all I want."

Mason Tilley
Westland

"I want an Air Hogs Hover Assault. It's a very cool airplane with wheels and little balls that shoot out."

Justin McCullough

"I want an Xbox 360 from Santa. I also want Blades Blades; it's a battle toy. I have been a good boy. I can't wait for Santa!"

Jeremiah Robinson

"I want a laptop because my computer at home does not work. I really want a computer to play music, play IXL math, Raz Kids, and play games over break."

Give the gift of information

Time is running out. Christmas is right around the corner. If you are like us, you probably have a bit of shopping left to do. You'll likely be scrambling over the next couple days, trying to get something for those few people on your list who might be difficult to buy for. You know, the ones who already have everything, or the ones for whom you're not quite sure what to get.

We have a suggestion for you if one or more of those people live locally. Give them the gift that will keep on giving for the rest of the year. A gift that — week in and week out — will inform them about what's happening in their town. What the city council or township board is up to. What policies are being put into place by the local school board. How the high school sports teams are doing. Where and what crimes are happening in their community. Why construction barrels are popping up down their street. Who their neighbors are and what they're up to. What kinds of businesses are in town, and what kind of deals they are offering.

That and much more is exactly what they'll get with a gift subscription to this newspaper.

O&E Media newspapers have been covering western Wayne County and portions of Oakland County for generations. We know our towns — Berkley, Beverly Hills, Birmingham, Bloomfield, Canton, Clawson, Farmington, Farmington Hills, Garden City, Huntington Woods, Livonia, Milford, Northville, Novi, New Hudson, Pleasant Ridge, Redford, Royal Oak, Southfield, South Lyon, Wayne, Westland. In fact, we know our towns as well as anyone, and we're dedicated to making sure our readers know them, too.

We are dedicated to helping our towns thrive and remain great places to live and work. Not only do we continue to produce quality print products that are delivered to our subscribers, but we also have a growing presence on the Web at www.hometownlife.com. Our journalists are out on the street, using technology and social media to report the news that's important to our readers, and making we're doing it on a daily basis.

However, we also need the support of the community. Purchasing a gift subscription for a special person in your life helps us continue our mission. And, unlike a tie or pair of socks that might get tossed in a drawer and forgotten, a gift subscription to this newspaper will be delivered to their homes every week for the rest of the year.

A subscription costs just a few bucks a month and for new subscribers we'll throw in a $10 gift card to a local store, which might just help with the rest of your shopping list. And you can even do it over the phone by calling (866) 887-2737.

The entire O&E Media organization wishes everyone a wonderful Christmas and a happy New Year. We are proud to serve this community, and are privileged to have you as a reader in print and on the web.

Wildcats nab first victory

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

Jada Woody scored 20 points Tuesday to lift Plymouth's varsity girls basketball team to a hard-fought 35-32 victory over Salem in a KLAAC crossover contest.

The win was the first for the Wildcats after four tough losses. Salem is still looking for its initial win of the season, taking a 0-5 record into the holiday break.

"We had a hard time getting in our rhythm today because our big players were in foul trouble from the get-go," Plymouth coach Bob de Bear said. "I give Salem a ton of credit, they fought hard. It was one of those Park rivalry games."

He added that the way the Wildcats broke open a close game in the fourth to get past the visiting Rocks could help down the road. Salem hung on 25-24 after three quarters and the teams traded the lead in the final quarter.

"It's a nice thing to be able to go in and finish off a game, learn how to win close games," de Bear said. Salem head coach Fred Thomann said his squad turned in a "great effort."

Rocks win 'ugly game'

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

During his long tenure as Salem's varsity boys basketball coach, Bob Brodie has witnessed plenty of games against Park rivals that wouldn't make the highlight reel.

Tuesday's KLAAC crossover contest at Plymouth fit right in with that assessment, with plenty of turn-overs and off-the-mark shooting (about 30 percent for both teams).

It took a late surge from the Rocks to defeat the Wildcats, 39-37.

"You know it's always going to be a struggle," Brodie said. "We've played this game so many times, the rivalries between Canton, Plymouth and Salem. You expect that type of thing."

"It's not a real pretty game half the time. It's always an ugly game because the kids are playing so intensely."

One to forget
Holding a similar view, Plymouth head coach Mike Soukup lamented the lack of energy his team displayed, primarily over the first three quarters — which ended in a 26-26 tie.

"We didn't bring energy for three quarters of the game," Soukup said. "We stood around. The fourth quarter was played at a pretty good pace, a pretty good level."

"But the first three quarters of basketball I wouldn't clip it and send to anybody."

Both rivals turned up the full-court pressure in the final quarter, which featured Salem taking a 37-30 lead with 3:20 left. That led to a rally by the Wildcats, storming back to even the score with a minute left on a layup by forward Deji Adebisi (six points, six rebounds).

The Rocks (3-1 overall) answered with 35 seconds remaining to take the lead for good. Forward Chris Dierker fired a pass to forward Cam Werner for a layup.

Plymouth guard Jake Divens dribbled the ball, waiting for a good look to either shoot or pass, but the chance never came thanks to defensive shadowing by guard Kevin Mack.

Strong finish

Only five seconds were left when the Wildcats called a timeout to set up an inbounds play. Salem wouldn't budge that time, either, as the final seconds elapsed.

"Our defensive intensity had to step up," said Mack, who scored nine points. "The game was close and we knew it was going to be a tough fourth quarter. We wanted to step it up and grind out the win."

According to Brodie, "The key was our total team defensive energy. We upped our pressure a little bit ...

WAYNE COUNTY WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Chiefs, 'Cats 2-3 at county meet

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

Canton's varsity wrestling team came on strong to overtake Plymouth for second place at Saturday's Wayne County Championship at the HYPE Recreation Center in Dearborn Heights.

The Chiefs finished with 158 points to Plymouth's 156, both trailing tournament champion Livonia Franklin's 180 points. Salem and Livonia Clarenceville tied for 18th place with 37.5 points.

"We trailed Plymouth entering the placing round and we knew that if we had a chance to surpass them if we had an excellent round," Canton head coach Cory Mancuso said. "We didn't have the perfect round that we wanted, but we did manage to win five out of our last nine matches to finish in second. My coaching staff and I are very pleased with our team's performance."

Finishing first in their weight classes for the Chiefs were: Richard DeMarois at 119, defeating Plymouth's Terry Brey by a 2-0 score; 125-pounder Ben Griffin, with a pin in 21 seconds over Dearborn Heights Annapolis's Austin Hussing; and returning state champion Alec Pantaleo at 145, with a 19-6 major decision over Wayne Memorial's Allen Parker.

Other Canton placers included Ryan Siegler (fifth at 130), Marc

They'll be traveling from near and far to compete in Friday's alumni hockey game between Plymouth and Salem at Plymouth Cultural Center. "Being able to get back on the ice with the boys is going to awesome," said Plymouth goaltender and 2012 grad Rich Guglielmi. "I can't wait to be in the locker room with my former teammates."

Also pumped up is Salem 2009 alum and current assistant coach Dave Russell, a four-year varsity player who was a forward for the Rocks and considered the "hardest-working player" by head coach Ryan Ossmenmacher.

Plymouth's Foster happy with college choice

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

Ever since Zoe Foster and her family can remember, she's worked tirelessly to excel on the soccer pitch.

Foster, 17, has done just that since she was a little kid, including right on up to her current club and high school teams — the Michigan Hawks and Plymouth Wildcats, respectively.

Now, the high scoring senior forward/midfielder will have the chance to keep up that hard-driving pace at Siena Heights University. Last week, the Plymouth senior made it official by signing her national letter of intent to go to the Adrian (Mich.) college.

"This all started when she was 6 years old, playing club soccer," said her father, Neil Foster of Canton. "We've gone to tournaments all over the country and it's all towards this goal, for her to play at the next level. I'm definitely excited about this."

So is Plymouth varsity girls soccer coach Jeff Neschick, who attended the signing ceremony.

The cost is $40 per person.

Canton boys fall short

Canton dropped a 38-35 decision to host Northville Tuesday night in a KLAAs crossover varsity boys basketball game.

PREP HOOPS The Chiefs (2-2) led 12-8 after one quarter but the Mustangs bounced back in the second to lead 21-19 at halftime. That edge held up for the rest of the game.

Jordan Nobles led Canton with 13 points. Greg Williams tallied 10 points while Scott Gring contributed five points and a team-leading eight rebounds.

Canton will host Birmingham Seaholm at 7 p.m. Friday in the final pre-holiday contest.

PCA hot streak Plymouth Christian Academy's offense clicked on all cylinders Tuesday against Genesee Christian, as the Eagles earned a 70-58 victory. Three Eagles hit double figures in scoring to offset a 35-point night by Genesee's Hunter Shelby.

Leading PCA (3-0) with 16 points was Alex Huber. Matt Sumner contributed 14 points and eight rebounds while Daniel Jipping tallied 13 points and eight rebounds.

On Saturday afternoon, PCA earned a 49-41 win over Lenawee Christian. Mick Noel paced the Eagles with 18 points.

tonight. It came down to making one more shot and we just couldn't get it to go."

Thomann said his team is improving and on track to being "a very good basketball team this year."

The Wildcats stayed in the game in the second half thanks to Woody, who scored all five of her team's points in the third quarter. She also connected on three clutch free throws in the final 2:45 to help keep Salem in the rear-view mirror.

"I know she (Woody) was good, she got to the rim a few times and created that contact," de Bear said. "She had a great game."

Woody hit 7-of-12 free throws and pulled down six rebounds.

The coach also said 6-5 junior center Shelby

Cheston (eight points, eight rebounds) chipped in with some important put-backs and rebounds.

Top Salem contributors were forward Breanne Beaver (eight points, eight rebounds), Jamura Wilson (six points), Haley Rogers and Hannah Nowaske (five points each).

Chiefs prevail A big fourth quarter Tuesday lifted Canton to a 45-36 win over Northville in a KLAAs crossover girls contest.

The visiting Chiefs outscored the Mustangs 14-5 in the final quarter to break a 31-31 deadlock.

Leading Canton (3-2) was Paige Aresco with 14 points and 10 rebounds, while Taylor Hunsley added 11 points and four boards. Other players chipping in included Rachel Winters (eight points, three steals) and Alanna Brown (seven points).

Northville was led by Kendra Brenner and Brittany Berhulka, with 12 and 11 points, respectively.

"I thought we got out to a great start," Canton head coach Brian Samulski said. "We sort of hit a wall (the end of the first into the second). The kids did an outstanding job in the fourth, holding them to five points."

Samulski cited the team defense and strong work on the glass. "I thought the kids were great on the boards all game," he said. "Defensively the girls should be proud of what they are getting done and that's a credit to them and their hard work."

The Chiefs will visit Farmington Hills Mercy at 7 p.m. Thursday in the final game before the holiday break.

Salem hit only 12-of-42 shots from the floor (29 percent) and forward Chris Dierker made just 4-of-12 field-goal attempts. But Dierker did manage 10 points, along with seven rebounds and five blocked shots.

Austin Whitted and Nate Sass collected seven and six points, respectively, for the Rocks.

Plymouth was paced by Brendan Swanson and Josh Priebe, each tallying eight points.

"Salem had one more make in the bag than we did tonight," Soukup said.

Meanwhile, Mack had another reason for wanting his team to ward off the Wildcats, who dropped to 2-2 on the season.

"I just wanted to come back from the Canton loss (Friday)," Mack said. "I didn't want to be last in the Park. We've got a lot of pride here."

"We had a great year and we want to keep it going."

Taking down an unidentified Canton opponent at Saturday's Wayne County Championships is Plymouth's Alec Breckenridge (top), who won the championship at 140.

Przybylski (third at 135), Jevon Hill (sixth at 171), Allan Beckman (eighth at 189) and K.J. Woolley (fourth at 215).

DeMarois was named the Lower Weight MVP; Griffin is 13-for-13 this season, winning each time via the pin. Mancuso noted that Pantaleo won his third county championship by recording 44 takedowns in four matches.

Plymouth power

For the Wildcats, firsts were registered by Mohammad Youssef at 103 (with a 17-5 major decision over Franklin's Jack Neva) and Alec Breckenridge at 140 (a 7-2 decision over Riverview's Brandon Garcia). Youssef and Breckenridge remain undefeated this season.

Plymouth head coach Quinn Guernsey said his team continues to show talent up and down the lineup, with Tyler Berry (112) and Jon Conn (135) falling short in the finals and finishing second.

Others placing for Plymouth were Hussein Youssef (fifth at 145), Spencer Sifith (seventh at 125) and Joey Shaver (seventh at 160).

"Shaver" has been wrestling very well this season," Guernsey said. "He worked very hard in the off-season to get to the point that he could anchor our upper weights and the hard work has paid off. He had a real good shot of winning in the quarterfinals on Saturday against a tough Woodhaven wrestler." Guernsey added that freshman Dylan Dwyer "looked strong, but fell short of placing."

Salem recap

Finishing second for Salem was Tyler Gross at 171. He defeated

Wayne Memorial's Sam Eckanen earlier, but lost 8-5 in the finals to Woodhaven's Derrick Hillman.

"I think if Tyler comes out more aggressive in the first, he can turn things around," Israel said.

The Rocks had a fifth-place finisher in 189-pounder Mitchell Gross. He pinned Trenton's Tyler Purcell in 4-42. "Again, with a few tweaks, I think Mitchell can do great things this year," Israel said.

Going 0-2 at 112 was Alex Arble, but Israel said "this record doesn't reflect on how good he can be."

Israel said the rest of the young squad went to the New Boston Huron Duals, "had some tough matches and overall did well without some of the starters in the lineup."

Seniors to lead Chiefs

A large senior contingent will be called upon to lead the Canton varsity boys swim and dive team during the 2012-13 season.

SWIM PREVIEW
13 seasons since which begins Friday at the Wildcat Relays.

For head coach Dave Le, senior co-captains C.J. Hayes, Nick Valli and Mike Wyard will provide leadership and versatility.

Also bringing plenty of experience are seniors Chris Jenner, Josh Joy, Nick Lach, Saul Park, Souvik Roy, Ryan Sheeler, Alex Sogge, Kyle Spence and Brian Tolinski.
There are 50 swimmers on the team, which will look to improve upon last season's record of 5-5 overall and 4-1 in the KLAAs South Division.

"It will be a challenging and exciting year," Le said. "With so many new swimmers and divers, it will be fun to watch their progress and find which event is best for them."
Friday's Wildcat Relays will take place beginning 5:30 p.m. Friday at Salem's pool.

John Glenn bowlers top Chiefs

Despite being undefeated, not is coming easy for the Westland John Glenn boys bowling team.

The Rockets improved to 6-0 overall and 4-0 in the KLAAs Central Division to beat host Canton at Super Bowl Lanes, 17-13.

Glenn won the Baker portion to take a 6-4 lead losing the first game, 192-238, but winning the second, 205-156, and the overall pin count by three, 397-394.

The Rockets then won the first match game, 986-955, but Canton started out hot in the second with strikes from all five bowlers to win 1,006-989. But Glenn earned the victory by a mere 14 pins. Canton (3-2, 1-2) was led by Alex Champagne's 227-192-419 two-game set. JOHN GLENN 20, PLYMOUTH 10: A short-handed Westland John Glenn boys bowling team improved to 5-0 overall and 3-0 in the KLAAs Central Division with Monday's win at the Novi Bowl.

Glenn won the total pin count with a 986-1705-2-064. The loss drops Plymouth to 3-2 overall and 1-2 in the KLAAs Central.

SALEM 22, PLYMOUTH 8: On Friday, the Rocks (4-0) were paced by sophomore Nolan Rudis (225-203-428), junior Brandon Allison (205-196-401) senior anchor Kevin Williams (232 in final game), senior Jimmy Bowling (199-194-393). For the Wildcats, Donald Blevins rolled a high game of 212 while Evan Grimm posted a consistent 194 in each game for a 388 series.

Chipping in was senior Kristin Larkins, with a 190 in her opening match. The leading scorer for the match was Plymouth's Emily Fraser, who posted a 182-217-399 series. Cattlyn Webb tallied 184 in her second game.

TREAT YOURSELF TO AN EARLY HOLIDAY GIFT

Sting Wildcats keep rolling

Plymouth's varsity hockey team handed Hartland its first loss of the season as the Wildcats earned a hard-fought 3-0 road victory.

The Wildcats killed off 10 penalties, including three five-on-three disadvantages, and sophomore goalie Eric Vandenberg made 26 saves to give Plymouth its second consecutive shutout victory. The result improved Plymouth's overall record to 7-1-1.

"We knew it wasn't going to be easy and we didn't help ourselves by taking 10 penalties," head coach Gerry Vento said, "but I tip my hat to our penalty killers, especially our goalie, Eric. He was our best penalty killer, and best player on the ice tonight."

Senior forward Nick Schultz opened the scoring in the first period with his 12th goal of the season, on a play set up by junior forwards Mike Schultz and Zack Taverne. Mike Schultz banked in his 11th goal of the season, a power-play tally early in the second period, assisted by Nick Schultz and senior defenseman Dean Gunther.

Later in the period, senior forward Jordan Lopetrono scored his third of the season, set up by junior Connor Browne and senior Spencer Godin.

"I thought we did a good job of controlling the play when it was five-on-five, and hopefully the players realize why we had to play that way," Vento added. "One thing I was very happy with was our complete level. I think they knew this was a measuring stick game and we battled hard."

Aided by the power-play chances, the Eagles outshot Plymouth 26-25.

Cats rout Lake Orion

The Wildcats blitzed Lake Orion on Saturday for a 9-0 victory in a mercy-shortened game at the Arctic Edge Arena.

Senior forwards Nick Schultz and Mitch Claggett scored in the first 1:03 of the game, forcing Lake Orion to call a timeout. The Wildcats never looked back.

Schultz finished with four goals and three assists in the contest. His line made another play for Mike Schultz, accumulated six assists. Claggett finished the game with a hat trick and two assists.

"Obviously, getting off to a quick start was a key to the game, but I was very happy with the way we stayed focused on putting a team away when the opportunity presented itself," head coach Gerry Vento said. "It seems like we are playing with a lot of confidence and having fun."

The Wildcats outshot Lake Orion 23-6 in the two-period game. Sophomore goalie Jared Maddock earned his second shutout of the season.

Rocks rally to win

In what Salem head boys hockey coach Ryan Osenmehner called his team's "grittiest game of the year," the Rocks rallied in the third period for a 5-4 victory over South Lyon last Friday night at Plymouth Cultural Center.

Senior forward Alek Zultowski was in on the scoring of every goal, with one marker and four assists. The Rocks trailed 4-3 after two periods but drew even on a goal by Justin Katsulski, from Zultowski and Jason Newel.

The Rocks trailed 4-3 after two periods but drew even on a goal by Justin Katsulski, from Zultowski and Jason Newel.

The winner followed, with Zultowski converting a feed from captain Kyle Downey.

Newel (one goal, two assists) scored in the first, from Noah Saad and Zultowski. Salem's next two tallies, both in the second, were netted by Downey (from Zultowski and Jake Sealy) and Sealy, from Newel and Zultowski. Salem outshot the Lions 29-24, with Parker Godfrey making 20 stops for the victory.

"Our players battled very hard throughout against a very good South Lyon team," said Osenmehner, whose team will host Plymouth at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

That game is the third in a triple-header (following the Plymouth-Salem prep teams at 5:30 p.m., and alumni teams at 7 p.m.). Fans are encouraged to bring canned good items to PCC for admission to the first two games, with those items to be distributed by Gleaners Food Bank. There will be a $5 charge for the varsity game, however.

Salem also played Livonia Franklin on Wednesday, but that took place after this issue of the Observer went to press.

"It's excellent for her to sign with a university this early," Neschich said. "She's well deserving of this honor. She's had a great career here at Plymouth High School."

Pressure points

According to Zoe Foster, one of five current Plymouth players already lined up to play college soccer, getting the official paperwork done and over with is good because "I get to plan now. I know where I'm going so it definitely takes the pressure off."

The S-5, 130-pounder knows something about pressure. With the Michigan Hawks 96 Black team, she was a finalist in this year's U-16 Disney Showcase. Earlier in her club career, she helped teams win the Mead Cup, Jefferson Cup and Crew Cup.

Don't forget her freshman season at Plymouth, when she scored the winning goals in the district and regional finals to spark the Wildcats' march to the Division 1 finals. By the way, she played in that tournament with a cast on her arm.

Foster's speed, zig-zagging creativity and fine touch around the goal appealed to Siena Heights women's soccer coach Scott Oliver, who was on hand at the signing ceremony.

"On the field there's definitely an explosion there," said Oliver, who began recruiting Foster when she was a sophomore. "She definitely has all the ball skills and that dynamic ability to take over a game and make great plays."

He noted that Foster will be a very important player to see sign a contract playing time for the Saints as a freshman, whether at forward or as an attacking midfielder. "She'll definitely be in one of our attacking positions," said Foster. "Either attacking midfielder or forward, however we do it. But that's what she's great at."

Perfect match

Foster fits the needs on Salem Heights' roster, and the college is just what

ALL ABOUT ZOE

Who: Zoe Foster, Plymouth senior and varsity girls soccer player.

What: The 17-year-old last week signed her national letter of intent with Siena Heights of the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference. She will play either forward or attacking midfielder for the Saints and probably pursue a degree either in nursing or forensics.

Preps: Foster, a two-time scholar-athlete who carries a 3.4 grade-point average, will be entering her fourth season as a starter for the Wildcats. In 2010, as a freshman, she scored the winning goals in the district and regional finals at Plymouth reached the Division 1 finals. She was named to the 2012 All-Observer and all-KLAA teams and will be team captain in 2013.

Club: Foster has played for club teams since she was 5 or 6, largely with the Canton Soccer Club, Novi Jaguars and Michigan Hawks (her current team). Accomplishments include competing at the 2009 Warrior Classic, Mead Cup, Jefferson Cup, Crew Cup and was a finalist at the 2012 U-12 Disney Showcase.

Home: Her parents are Daren and Neil Foster of Canton. Siblings are Garrett Foster, 19 and Ryan Kottke, 30.

Others at least verbally committing include Madi Lewis and Alyssa Dillon (University of Michigan), Maria Farmer (Saginaw Valley State University) and Stephanie Dillon (Miami of Ohio) although Neschich expects even more players to follow suit.

The Wildcats' coach said he isn't surprised to see so many of his players becoming high school freshmen due to club soccer, he explained.

A key reason for that is those players are advanced in the sport by the time they become high school freshmen due to club soccer, he explained.

They also share an indefatigable work ethic and the kind of competitive streak that pushes coaches — and dads — like to see.

"Zoe never misses practice," Neil Foster said. "I know when there's all the conditioning drills she goes as hard as she possibly can. She's been accused of going too hard at times by teammates.

"Every day I watch her out on the field I'm proud of her. She puts it out there and this has been a day that we've been looking forward to."

Among other teams in the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletics Conference is Madonna University.

because I am still connected with many Salem hockey families and I've always been talking about it," Russell noted. "I know it will be a great opportunity to catch up and play with old teammates.

"If I didn't play, I would regret it. It would be a great time."

The alumni are lacing them up again for the 7 p.m. contest as the second part of a doubleheader where spectators will be asked to bring up to five canned goods for admission. Those items will be donated to Gleaners Food Bank.

At 5:30 p.m. will be the Plymouth Prep and Salem Prep teams in a match-up alumni game will follow.

Then at 8:30 p.m., the current varsity teams will square off. But a separate $5 admission will be required for that game.

One of the things that is going to help raise canned goods for Gleaners makes this event just that much better," Guglielmi said. "It's really a great thing that we're doing here."

Both Guglielmi and Russell won't be traveling too far to get in on the action.

Guglielmi is coming in from Saginaw Valley State University, where he will be playing baseball in the spring. Russell is attending Eastern Michigan University.

Some players are traveling quite a distance to be part of the game. Making the trip from Houston will be 2007 grad Justin Deslites, who will share goaltending duties with Guglielmi and Justus.

For Salem, 2009 alum Kyle Zink, a defenseman, is traveling all the way from Gelenkirchen, Germany — where he currently is serving in the U.S. Air Force.

Meanwhile, Guglielmi insisted his baseball coaches are fine with him playing in the hockey game.

"The (Saginaw Valley) coaches staff here know I'm playing and they actually encourage players to play in alumni games and have fun with their former teams," he explained.

Young alumni

Largely because Plymouth's program is only a decade or so old, the game will feature only players from the past decade including a number of 2011 and 2012 grads.

One of Guglielmi's teammates from last season — high-scoring forward Zach Gambrell — is lined up for the contest.

Eight Plymouth players who were seniors in 2010-11 are on the roster: defensemen Justin Beaver, Tyler Lazorka, Kevin Matusiak; forwards Ryan Renault; Tyler Sanders, Sean Smiatcz, Chase Zebari; goalie Mike Justus.

Salem forward and scoring machine Mark McGee and defenseman Kyle Eggenberger and Michael Manser graduated this year while defen-senmen Garrett Berg, Maxx Coral, forwards Connor Berlin, Matt Downey, Nick Hayes and Ryan Outley are 2011 alumni.

The oldest player will be Michael Maurer, a 2003 Salem alum. Defenseman Aaron Cheeseman graduated from Salem in 2004 while 2005 grad Ryan Sharrow is among the Salem forwards in the game.

For Plymouth, in addition to Deslites, forward Ryan Stamm (2006) and defenseman Adam Lazorka (2007) are the veterans.

Rounding out the Wildcats' roster are forward Jake Jossey (2008); defenseman Christopher Merrill and forward Kyle Callahan (2009); forwards Ryan Bauer and Pat Smiatcz (2010).

Also skating for the Rocks will be goalie Joe Moore and defenseman Jason Sharrow, from 2007, along with goalie Mark Barkoff, forward Joe Cheesman and defenseman Mike Hambrin from 2008.

state tournament. Head coach Dana Driscoll noted that the Rocks' are struggling to get new routines and skills together. The pieces will continue to come together as the season goes along with the girls' main goal qualifying for the team state finals.

Top returnees from last season's KLAA Lakes Division co-champions (4-1 record) are senior Andrea Merlotti, juniors Morgan Soper, Paulette Martino, Maddie Burt, Nora Akcasu and Brooke Allgeyer and sophomore Brittany Ramirez.

Driscoll added that there is plenty of potential among newcomers to the roster.

"We have a large group of new gymnasts ranging from juniors to freshmen," she said. "All are working very hard on getting together routines in order to be able to begin contributing to the team."

So far, the Rocks have posted a 1-1 record in dual meets with their next action slated for Jan. 10 against Walled Lake Maroon/Gold.

Gift-giving solved

Let Santa bring arts and entertainment for Christmas

Teri Fry will be lucky if she avoids writer's cramp this week.

She's been signing and selling Plymouth Chamber of Commerce gift certificates for shoppers who want to give their recipients a choice of Christmas presents.

"It's a good thing I don't have much to do this time of year," quipped Fry, Chamber events director. "It's all I've been doing."

Earlier this week she predicted certificate sales would "be non-stop" through Friday, Dec. 21, the last day before the Chamber closes for Christmas.

The gift certificates are so popular, the Chamber sold more than $60,000 worth of year-end customers like them because they can be used for participating shops, restaurants, bakeries, candy stores, a variety of services, entertainment and the arts.

"Because it's paper and not a debit card, and nothing over $50 we suggest breaking into multiples of $10," Fry noted. "It's easy to spend $50 or more at a restaurant, but not at Panera."

Shoppers can buy gift certificates in any amount, for use at more than 100 participating locations, including the Plymouth Community Arts Council (PCAC), Creatopia Paint It Yourself Pottery studio and the Plymouth Historical Museum. Certificates can be used for art classes or camps at the PCAC.

Chamber hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Friday, Dec. 21, at 850 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

Gift of history

Elizabeth Kerstens, executive director of the Plymouth Historical Museum, is sold on the Chamber gift certificates.

"It's fantastic. So many places take it — stores, restaurants and we take it," she said.

The Museum sells gift certificates, too. They can be used in the Museum shop — where best-selling items include Daly's Drive-in Burger Sauce and a poster of U.S. presidents — and for Museum admission. Annual gift memberships in the Friends of the Plymouth Historical Museum offer free admission for a year along with a variety of other perks. Memberships for kids, under 18, are $15. A single membership is $25. Members who pay $30 annually may take one guest to the Museum for free. The $50 annual plan includes free admission for the member and three guests. Other membership categories range from $75-$300.

Nan Washburn conducts the Michigan Philharmonic. Gift certificates are available for concerts.

Gift certificates are good for one year.

"There are a number of people who buy them, mostly members giving gifts to family members," Kerstens said.

Gift certificates and memberships will be available from the Museum office Friday, Dec. 21. Patrons can view the current "A Dickens of a Christmas" exhibit 1-4 p.m. Friday-Sunday, Dec. 21-23.

Give live theater

Mary Ann Tweedie, treasurer of the Farmington Players, says the group sells "quite a few" gift certificates for at Christmas.

"I do get a lot of folks from out of town buying for their parents who still live here," she said. "We can sell them any amount. Plays are $16 and musicals are $18. If you've got a gift certificate you can exchange it for whatever they want to come." Patrons can buy online or by phone and the certificate will be mailed. Or they can visit the box office, which opens one hour before performances, and take home the gift certificate the same night. The theater wraps up its current production, 1940's Radio Hour on Saturday, Dec. 22. Show times are 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, Dec. 20-22. The box office will open at 7 p.m. The Farmington Players Barn Theater is located at 32332 12 Mile, in Farmington Hills.

Beautiful music

Beth Stewart, executive director of the Michigan Philharmonic, says a gift certificate or tickets to any of the symphony's upcoming shows would make a perfect stocking stuffer. Student tickets cost $10 for each of the first three concerts of 2013 — "Miniature Masterpieces on Jan. 12, 2013, "The French Connection," on Feb. 10, 2013, and "A Beatles Fan," March 9, 2013. Senior citizen (62 and older) tickets are $25 and general admission is $50.

Stewart said gift certificates can be used for any concert, although tickets for the Beatles Blast in March are selling fast.

"I don't have many tickets left for that. If you know someone is a Beatles fan, get them right away and in that case, purchase the tickets," she advised.

To buy a gift certificate, call the symphony office at (734) 451-2112 or e-mail to info@michiganphil.org.

• The Village Theater

at Cherry Hill in Canton offers gift certificates in any amount for any performance at the theater. They're good for one year and are available by calling (734) 394-5460, ext. 0, visiting the theater box office, 50400 Cherry Hill Road, or at Summit on the Park, 46000 Summit Parkway, in Canton.

• The Civic Theatre,

33332 Grand River Ave., Farmington, sells gift certificates for movies, live performances ($8) and movie only ($3.50). Check out its movie schedule at www.theftc.com.

• Buy a gift card from the bookstore at Schoolcraft College in Livonia and suggest your recipient use it for the American Harvest Restaurant on campus. Pair the dinner with a concert or play on campus for a complete night out.

Red Tart Cherry
Glazed Ham

A sweet and savory

holiday menu

You want to bring out the best for your next holiday gathering, ensuring a memorable meal for family and friends. With a few simple tips and easier-than-you-think recipes, you can do just that.

Entertaining Tips

• Prep the night before — Save time by chopping vegetables or prepping glazes the day before. For example, prepare the spread for Goat Cheese Bruschetta with Berry-Thyme Spread the night before. The day of the party, toast baguette slices 10 minutes before guests arrive, and the delicious appetizer will come together in minutes.

• Allow for creativity — Allow guests to put their own finishing touches on their dishes by setting out a variety of toppings. Raspberry Almond Waffles provide a base for your friends and family to get creative.

• Make it a group effort — Ask guests to bring their favorite holiday side dishes or desserts to complement the main course to encourage a wide variety. If you're making Red Tart Cherry Glazed Ham as the centerpiece of the meal, let guests know so they can plan accordingly.

Each of these suggestions incorporates a delicious recipe using Smucker's Orchard's Finest Preserves, a gourmet line of preserves made with the best fruit from the best places. The preserves contain only four ingredients, and add rich flavor to both sweet and savory holiday dishes. From classic Pacific Mountain Strawberry Preserves to the new Lakeside Raspberry Cranberry Preserves, there's a flavor that's sure to be a hit with each guest. These holiday recipes are wonderful options to share with family and friends at your next gathering because, during the holidays, only the finest will do.

For more recipes to round out your holiday menu, visit www.smuckers.com.

DRESS IT UP

Here are four delicious ways to dress up your holiday salads. Just start with this basic vinaigrette recipe, and mix in your favorite Smucker's Orchard's Finest Preserves flavor and one other simple ingredient.

Basic Vinaigrette — Mix 2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar, 1 tablespoon water, 1½ teaspoons Dijon mustard, ½ teaspoon minced garlic, ½ teaspoon black pepper, and ½ teaspoon salt. Whisk in ½ cup canola oil.

• Strawberry Basil Vinaigrette — Add ½ cup Smucker's Orchard's Finest Pacific Mountain Strawberry Preserves and 2 teaspoons finely minced basil.

• Raspberry Cranberry and Rosemary Vinaigrette — Add ½ cup Smucker's Orchard's Finest Lakeside Raspberry Cranberry Preserves and 1 teaspoon finely minced fresh rosemary.

• Citrus Ginger Vinaigrette — Add ½ cup Smucker's Orchard's Finest Pacific Grove Orange Marmalade Medley and 1 teaspoon finely grated fresh ginger root.

• Apricot Ginger Vinaigrette — Add ½ cup Smucker's Orchard's Finest Coastal Valley Peach Apricot Preserves and 1 teaspoon finely grated fresh ginger root.

Red Tart Cherry Glazed Ham

1 tablespoon apple cider vinegar
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
Dash ground cloves, if desired
2 tablespoons raisins, if desired

1. Heat oven to 325°F. Overlap slices of ham in shallow baking pan; cover with aluminum foil. Bake 50 to 60 minutes, or until internal temperature reaches 140°F.

2. Combine preserves, vinegar, cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves in a small microwave safe bowl. Microwave on high for 2 minutes.

3. Arrange ham slices on serving platter. Spoon ¼ cup glaze over center of ham. Serve with remaining warm glaze.

Goat Cheese Bruschetta with Berry-Thyme Spread

Makes: 12 slices
Prep Time: 15 minutes
Cook Time: 6 minutes

¼ cup Smucker's Orchard's Finest Northwest Triple Berry Preserves
1 tablespoon minced shallot
1 teaspoon balsamic vinegar
1 teaspoon minced fresh thyme, plus additional for garnish
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
1 8-ounce baguette
1 tablespoon extra virgin olive oil
4 ounces goat cheese
Fresh thyme leaves (optional), for garnish

1. Combine preserves, shallots, balsamic vinegar, thyme, salt and pepper in small bowl.

2. Slice baguette into ½-inch slices. Brush both sides of each slice lightly with olive oil. Heat skillet or griddle over medium-high heat. Grill baguette slices, 4 at a time, 2 to 3 minutes per side or until lightly browned. Place on serving platter.

3. Spread about 2 teaspoons goat cheese over each baguette slice. Top each slice with 1 teaspoon preserves mixture. Garnish with additional fresh thyme, if desired. Serve immediately.

Tip: Triple Berry-Thyme Spread can be prepared up to two days ahead. Cover and chill.

Raspberry Almond Waffles

Makes: 10 (6-inch) waffles
Prep Time: 10 minutes
Cook Time: 5 minutes

Waffles:
1 14-ounce can sweetened condensed milk, divided
3 large eggs
2 cups all purpose flour
¼ cup water
½ cup vegetable oil
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon almond extract
½ cup sliced almonds, chopped
No-stick cooking spray

Topping:
1 cup heavy cream
½ teaspoon almond extract
¼ cup Smucker's Orchard's Finest Lakeside Raspberry Cranberry Preserves or ¼ cup Smucker's Red Raspberry Preserves
½ cup sliced almonds, toasted
30 fresh red raspberries

For waffles:
1. Coat waffle iron with no-stick cooking spray. Heat waffle iron according to manufacturer's directions. Reserve 2 tablespoons sweetened condensed milk for topping.

2. Whisk eggs in large bowl until fluffy. Blend in remaining sweetened condensed milk, flour, water, oil, baking powder, salt and almond extract just until batter is smooth. Stir in chopped almonds.

3. Pour a scant 2½ cup of batter onto center of hot waffle iron and close lid. Bake about 3 to 4 minutes or until steaming stops. Use a fork to remove waffle. Repeat with remaining batter.

For topping:
1. Beat cream in medium bowl with electric mixer on high speed until stiff peaks form. Add reserved 2 tablespoons sweetened condensed milk and almond extract. Beat until smooth.

2. Spread each waffle with 1 tablespoon preserves. Top with whipped cream, toasted almonds and fresh raspberries.

- To toast almonds: Place almonds in dry non-stick skillet. Cook over medium heat, shaking pan until nuts are lightly browned. Remove from pan immediately to avoid over-browning.

SUDOKU

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
