Appointments tabled

Board to decide police force fate

By CRAIG PIECHURA

The uniform supply company's failure to deliver pants for Canton Township's 26 police reserve officers is one of the things holding up the start of reserve patrols.

But even with the pants, the reserve officers still need final board confirmation. The concept of full-power police reserves acting independently in the township made the typically-volatile board meeting even more explosive. Wednesday night, the night after the election upheaval.

Residents complaining of subdivision crime jeered at the three trustees who have reservations about the reserves. Board members James Poole and Robert Myers both got up and walked away from the board table saying that bickering had made business impossible.

After a slew of hurled epithets and allegations on both sides of unsubstantiated innuendos, the board refused to give final confirmation of the reserve appointments by a tie vote of 3-3. Trustee Jerry Cheske was absent. The issue will be brought up again at the Tuesday meeting.

TRUSTEE POOLE spoke for the opposition, saying he supports the idea of a Canton Township reserve unit, but believes the duties and authority of the officers must be clearly defined.

"Under state law these men have complete and full authority when they're on duty," said Poole. "They've been told to keep a low profile. Nonetheless they have the power here in Canton and I'm afraid we'll see a snowball effect."

"When we originally discussed this idea of a police reserve force, we talked about having them handle overflow crowds at football games and direct traffic," Poole said. "Now you've gone full circle from an eyes-and-ears type of system to a situation where there will be armed, uniformed people with full police power, but without full police training."

Poole said he wants to see a written job description outlining the limits of the police reserve officer's authority.

Supervisor Robert Greenstein became incensed at what he called politically-motivated stalling by trustees Poole, Brian Schwall and Myers.

GREENSTEIN, who also serves as Canton police chief, said he and the rest of the reserve will "act as augmentation to the existing police agencies in the area, not a replacement."

He accused the three dissenting trustees of floating "a political cloud" to obscure the issue.

"Eighty-five per cent of police work is public service," said Greenstein, "rather than crook catching. If we take away some of the silly runs that the sheriffs and state police have to go out on, then we've helped out. Maybe there's a dog loose, there's a fender-bender or an imaginary prowler—we'll be there."

Greenstein readily admits that situations may arise where no other police agency is available and reserve officers will have to arrest criminals or detain them until the sheriff or state police arrive.

This action will be taken only after receiving directions from reserve headquarters, he said.

Acknowledging the fact that the reserve police question was a factor in the election, Greenstein said he'll work to make sure that the force "proves so valuable that whoever is supervisor in Canton next November won't dare disband the unit."

HAROLD STEIN, who beat Greenstein last Tuesday in the Democratic primary supervisor's race, says if he is elected in November he will disarm the reserve and take away their uniforms.

Stein says he is in favor of "an eyes-and-ears approach" to the reserve unit.

"If Greenstein gets his way, he'll be endangering the life of every one of those reserve police officers," said Stein.

Stein also questions the legality of having a reserve police force without having a regular police force in the first place.

The commander of the reserves is Carl Silvers, a retired 25-year veteran of the Detroit Police Department. Silvers said he is angered "by statements that make it sound like we've got a bunch of dummies; just some wild-eyed vigilantes. This is the most educated and impressive group of people I ever saw."

"We have full police powers by state law—all reserve officers have that authority when they're on duty," Silvers continued. "This is not something we dreamed up. But because they have full police power, that doesn't mean they have full police experience."

"All the schooling in the world doesn't give you that. We realize this. We're not going to let them overstep themselves. I control their experience."

Silvers says there will be "a real fight" in November if Stein tries to disarm the reserves and take away their uniforms.

"You try to control traffic wearing those street clothes," said Silvers. "No one will pay any attention to you."

Since many of the reserves have had no prior police experience, Silvers says all reserve officers will have to contact headquarters before taking action.

"But some things they'll just have to do," Silvers explained. "What would you do if you saw someone molesting a child or beating someone senseless? You'd act and so will they."

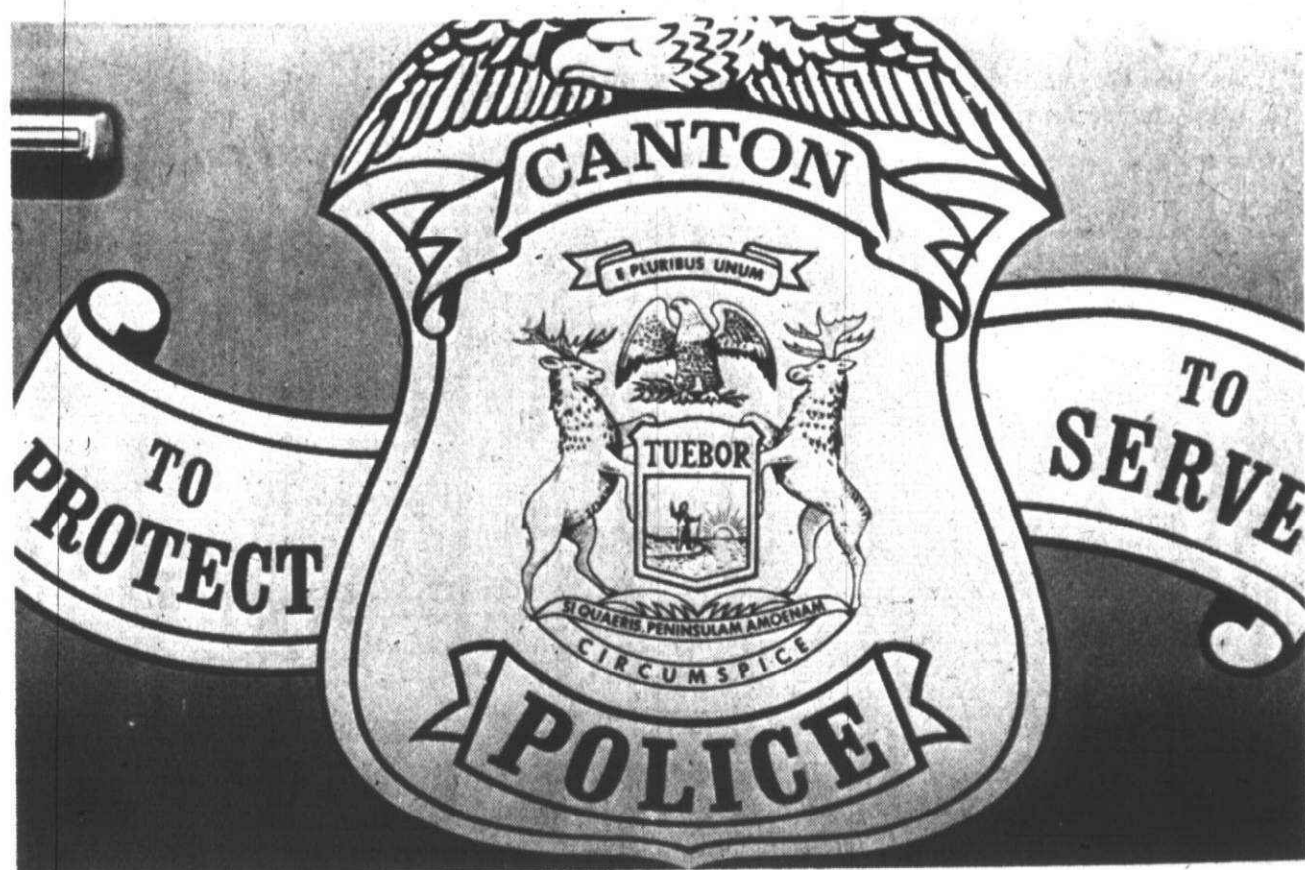

"But we'll follow them, instruct them, give them information and control their experience until I feel they can do more."

"Don't kill us (the reserves) before we get started," he concluded.

THE 26-PERSON reserve force will work in the evenings during the week and from "morning to midnight" on weekends, according to Greenstein.

Minimum wage will be paid to the reserve officers, the supervisor said, with hopes that many of them volunteer to serve without pay. Commander Silvers and his assistant receive no pay, according to Greenstein.

Reserve officers will drive around in five new dual-purpose township vehicles. The radios will be on the township's network frequency and not the police band. Greenstein's vehicle has direct communication with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

Alleged dirty tricks may bring criminal charges

By RICHARD GOLD

Charges of foul play continue to mount in the wake of Tuesday's primary election—one which deposed Democratic incumbent Supervisor Robert Greenstein and two of his incumbent running mates, Treasurer Carl Parsell and Trustee Jerry Cheske.

Greenstein said Friday he intends to file a criminal complaint today (Monday) against the person or persons who perpetrated a fraudulent forged letter.

The letter, allegedly signed by planning commissioner Tom Timbario, a man the township board appointed at Greenstein's request, claimed that Greenstein called mobile home owners "trailer trash."

Greenstein's opponent in the primary, Harold Stein, who disavowed involvement in the letter incident, said his business in Westland suffered extensive damage the weekend before the Tuesday primary. Stein said it was not the work of thieves.

Addressed to Royal Holiday Mobile Home Park, an area where it was heavily distributed the day before the election, the letter said:

"AS A homeowner of a neighboring subdivision (Pickwick) and a member of the Canton Township planning commission, there seems to be a question as to whether a statement was made by our current supervisor Robert Greenstein regarding mobile homes."

"Perhaps I can shed some light on this subject. Mr. Robert Myers, Trustee of Canton, at a joint session of the board and planning commission on the new master plan, felt mobile home owners should be given the opportunity to own their own property and that it should be taxed as on-site realty."

"Mr. Robert Greenstein, supervisor, stated that Canton has too many mobile homes now and doesn't need any more 'TRAILER TRASH' in Canton."

"I hope this letter answers the question to the statement and the facts on this issue."

Greenstein called the letter a lie and said it cost him at least 300 votes, and as a result, the election.

Stein defeated him by 132 votes. While the supervisor declined to say who was behind the writing and distribution of the letter, he submitted a copy of a bill to the Observer & Eccentric which indicated Myers had paid to have the letter duplicated.

A bill for $25.43 from the Ypsilanti Kwikie Duplicating Center indicated Myers had 2,000 copies of the Timbario letter made on Aug. 2, the day before the election.

E.F. Culley, manager of the duplicating service, confirmed that Myers had ordered and paid for 2,000 copies of the letter.

MYERS SAID he had no comment about his possible involvement with the letter.

"Any specific charges Mr. Greenstein intends to make can be made in court or to me personally. I don't intend to debate this at public meetings or in the papers."

"If the lame duck supervisor has his facts and figures straight, I suggest he see Bill Cahalan (Wayne County prosecutor) immediately. I am more than willing to let the facts be known in a court of law."

"However, I do suggest to Mr. Greenstein that if his facts are in error, he stands a very real chance of becoming a defendant to litigation, as do some of his campaign workers."

"I would have to call this a last ditch effort to salvage his ego due to his failure to win at the polls."

Myers, who had originally run as a member of the Greenstein slate two years ago, began to break away from the administration last year. At recent board meetings, he and Greenstein have had heated exchanges.

MYERS SAID he worked for Stein during the campaign, dispensing literature and working at the polls. He said he supplied Stein with information about issues the candidate was "concerned about."

Stein said he had nothing to do with the Timbario letter.

Timbario, however, refused to say whether he signed the letter.

"I'll tell you three things," he said. "It (the letter) is a true statement. I had nothing to do with sending the letter out and I've been getting some trash about it. I mean harassment."

"It grinds me the degree of harassment Mr. Foust, myself and other people have been subjected to. I'm very disappointed about the whole thing."

Greenstein said the criminal charges he sought are not the first in the campaign.

He said he sought an investigation

Vote was mostly no to Greenstein

By RICHARD GOLD

If there is anything certain that can be said about the November election for the Canton Township Board of Trustees, it is that nothing is certain.

In the wake of Tuesday's primary, crystal ball gazers are busy doing double takes at the complete sweep by Harold Stein's Democratic slate of candidates.

Supposedly, November's contest will pit Stein, who outpolled incumbent Supervisor Robert Greenstein by a slim margin, against Republican Peter Bundarin.

But that supposition is clouded by Greenstein's unwillingness to rule out the possibility of a write-in campaign. On the night of the election, he said he would not initiate a write-in drive.

But late last week, he described the response of the voters as "fantastic" and said people were calling constantly to ask what they could do to help him.

ALTHOUGH GREENSTEIN muddies the picture as a possible write-in candidate, it is not clear what effect a write-in campaign would have, and who if anyone, it would help.

It might split the Democratic vote with Stein, or it might split the subdivision homeowner vote with Bundarin.

It is hard to ascertain the number of party hardliners from Tuesday's results.

Of Greenstein's loss, and it must be considered an upset despite Stein's complete confidence, many things can be conjectured.

Certainly, with the heavy Republican crossover, much of the vote must be considered an anti-Greenstein statement rather than a positive endorsement of Stein, a newcomer to Canton politics. Democratic ballots cast outnumbered Republican by more than 10-1.

It seems that those who wanted Greenstein out of office, for various reasons, took the first chance they had to remove him from the supervisor's chair, regardless of party allegiances.

And it may be, as Greenstein argues, that he faced the typical problem of many incumbents, getting out the vote.

Despite the 35 per cent turnout, Greenstein believed many of his supporters stayed home, sure of their candidate's victory, while the anti-Greenstein voters came out in full force.

In what must be considered their last rally, farmers, waning in numbers, came out in force for Stein, as the results of precinct two will attest.

There, residents went 2-1 for Stein. Precinct two covers the southwest quadrant of Canton, and residents there would be most affected by Greenstein's land use plan. Farmers had fought with Greenstein again and again over the plan.

Analysis

GREENSTEIN has been a flamboyant supervisor, highly visible, and not one to restrain from comment.

His constant run-ins with opponents on the board at meetings, and the harsh interchanges between him and those board members who often opposed him, did not improve his image.

Nor did the taping incident in which he called in the sheriff to either remove two trustees or their tape recorders help his chances.

What might be considered accomplishments of his administration by even the opposition were overshadowed by several key issues in the campaign—foremost the police reserves, and the land use plan and the sign and berm ordinances.

What is unclear is the effect of the smear tactics, wherever they may have originated.

Stein, Greenstein and Bundarin all disavowed any hand in the charges and countercharges of dirty tricks.

Residents were harassed, flyers of the harshest nature were distributed, signs took a terrible beating and property was damaged—and it will probably take a long time to find out who was behind the dirty trick activities.

Most of the nasty literature was against Greenstein. In particular, three circulars, the "Timbario" letter, the Stonegate flyer, and the Very Concerned Citizens of Canton flyer, attacked the supervisor without endorsing other candidates.

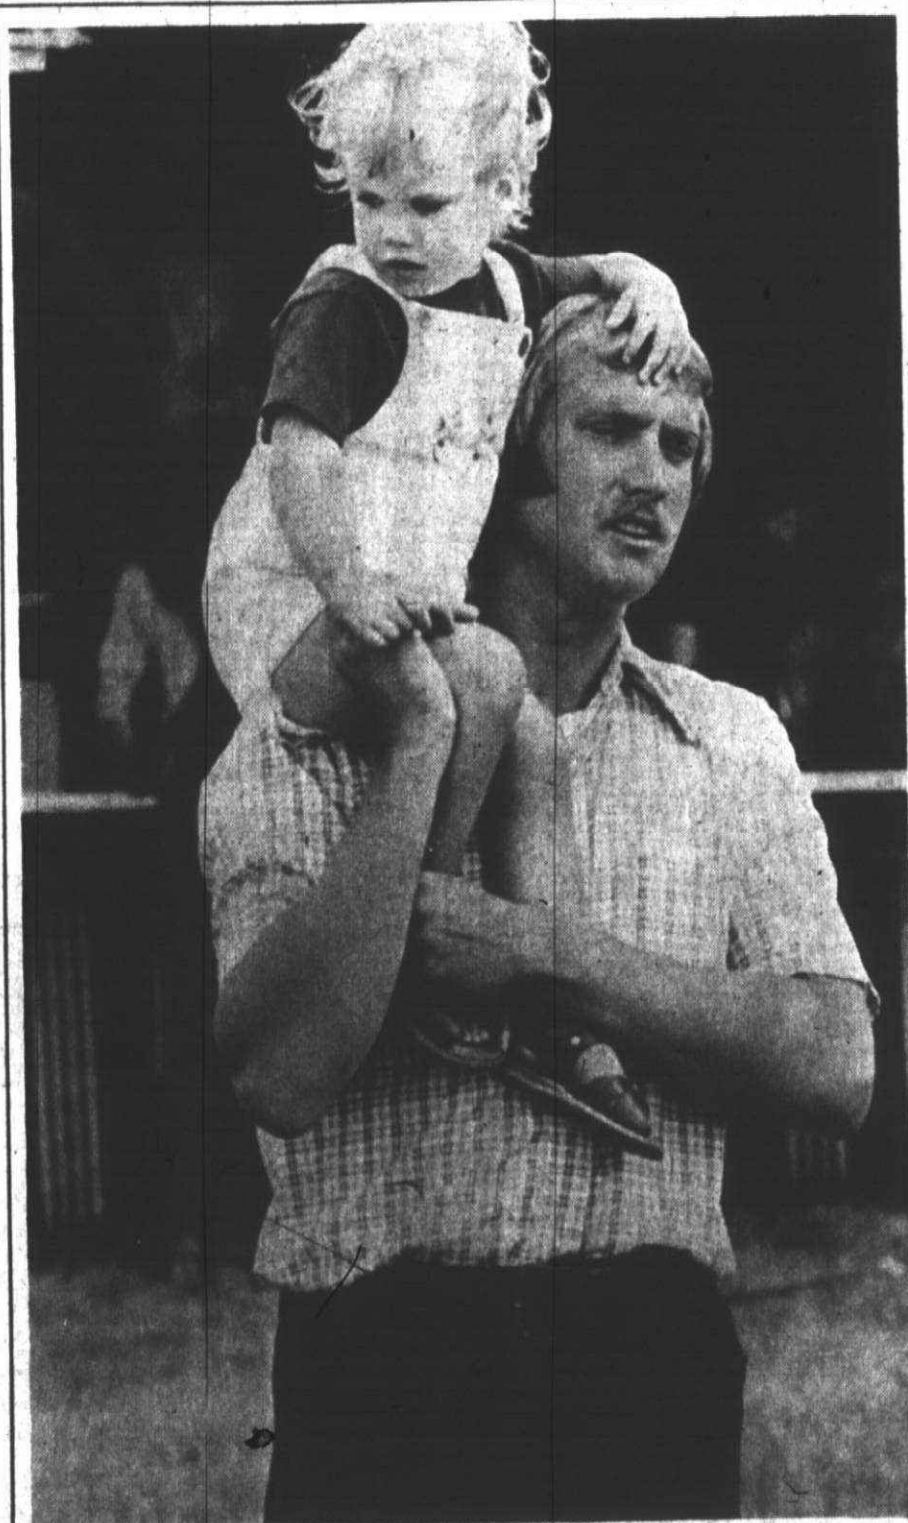

IF THEY are not the work of Stein or Bundarin, or Greenstein to capture the sympathy vote, it is quite possible they may be the craft of a fourth force—a nebulous coalition of anti-Greenstein forces; who while not working for Stein or Bundarin, seized the opportunity the primary presented to oust Greenstein.

Old political foes of Greenstein, neither in the Stein nor Bundarin camp, were seen distributing some of the literature.

And it was probably Stein who benefited from their distaste for Greenstein.

Interestingly, despite all the criticism of Greenstein's slate and block of four votes on the board, voters did not hesitate to cast their ballots for another slate—Stein's.

It seems at this point, at least, that state politics are the norm rather than the exception in Canton political life.

Fair watching

Young Julie Bishop took time out Thursday from the festivities at the Jaycee fair to perch atop her father Jim's shoulder. For more pictures of the fair, which attracted large crowds of adults and children alike, see page 3-A.

Write-in campaign under consideration

Supervisor Robert Greenstein indicated two days after losing the primary election that he is testing the waters for a possible write-in campaign.

"We've had in excess of 300 calls from upset, disappointed people," said Greenstein. "One hundred thirty-two votes and a 35 per cent turnout doesn't represent the true will of the people of Canton. Some of those who called said they intend to mount a vast write-in campaign."

"I've discussed this possibility with other members of the slate and only if we're convinced that people really feel that we should run, will we."

Harold Stein collected 1,725 votes to Greenstein's 1,583. Greenstein's defeated slate includes Treasurer Carl Parsell, Trustee Jerry Cheske and candidate Joyce Willis.

Parsell lost the primary race for treasurer to Anna Bradley with 1,544 votes to her 1,641. Cheske finished third with 1,529 votes, behind second-place Eugene Daley who received 1,330 votes. Joyce Willis finished fourth in the trustee race earning 1,206 votes.

POLITICAL PUNDITS in the township have different opinions about what effect a write-in campaign would have on the November election.

Some think a Greenstein write-in campaign would split the Democratic vote and help Peter Bundarin, Republican candidate for supervisor. Bundarin received 340 votes in last Tuesday's primary, which was marked by a heavy GOP crossover.

Others think a Greenstein write-in effort would split the subdivision vote between Bundarin and Greenstein, aiding Stein's chances.

Get Rid of Gray Hair Some of it or all of it

Time-lapse photographs show how gradual action of Grecian Formula 16 lets you control just how much gray you slowly get rid of - some of it or all of it.

White Plains, N.Y. — Hundreds of thousands of men all over the country are now using a remarkable product to control just how much gray they slowly get rid of. It is called Grecian Formula 16 and the results are simply amazing. Grecian Formula 16 is a practically clear liquid, as easy to use as hair tonic. This remarkable formula works for any color hair because it combines with the natural chemistry of the hair to recreate natural-looking color. There is no mess and no rub-off. You simply use it every day for two or three weeks until you slowly get rid of just as much gray as you want. Some of it, most of it or all of it. You can stop where you like. You are in complete control of how much gray goes or stays. Once you get rid of as much gray as you want, simply use Grecian Formula once a week or so to keep it that way. Since Grecian Formula 16 works gradually over a period of time, even close friends won't notice the change happening. The resulting color is so completely natural that the hair definitely does not have a dyed look. Grecian Formula 16 is available at

Crossing guard hearing tonight

Members of the Plymouth School Board and Plymouth Township Board of Trustees will discuss the funding and existence of school crossing guards in Plymouth Township at 6:30 p.m. today (Monday) in the Plymouth Canton High School cafeteria.

School officials will hold a regular school board meeting at 7:30 p.m. following the joint meeting with Plymouth Township officials.

Unless members of the two governing bodies change their positions and iron out their differences, school crossing guards will not help Plymouth Township children cross busy intersections on their way to school next fall.

Plymouth Township officials have refused to share the costs of crossing guards with the school district, despite the school board's threats to cut off crossing guard services this September in any municipality which refuses to share 50 per cent of the cost.

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP is the only municipality in the school district which has refused to pay. Canton has paid its share of the cost, while the City of Plymouth has placed its money in escrow until Plymouth Township agrees to pay or the school board cuts off crossing guard services in the township.

Plymouth Township officials requested to meet with school board members to discuss the crossing guard problem, after township officials reaffirmed their stance on the issue last month.

Following the joint meeting with Plymouth Township officials, school board members will discuss second-year physical education requirements at the Centennial Educational Park and the continued existence of the district's pre-assessment kindergarten testing program.

In addition, board members are expected to take action on a proposed lease agreement with New Morning School, a private institution, for the use of Truesdell Elementary School.

Agreement in sight on PEA contract

Negotiating teams for the Plymouth School Board and Plymouth Education Association (PEA) hope to reach agreement on a teachers' contract sometime during August.

The school board and PEA recently issued a joint statement on the progress of teacher contract negotiations.

"Teacher negotiations for the Plymouth Community School District are proceeding smoothly," officials stated. "The negotiating teams are meeting daily and are optimistic on the prospects of reaching accord during August."

"Both teams are intent on resolving differences and establishing a tentative agreement that is equitable to the community and teaching staff."

"The teams have tentatively agreed on the parameter of a 1976-77 calendar, with the opening day for students being Sept. 9. The internal make-up of the calendar is still being negotiated."

Young readers earn certificates

The summer reading program at Dunning-Houch Library ended last week with the presentation of certificates and the announcement of the winner of a bicentennial joke and riddle contest.

The winning riddle, chosen by Dick Puritan and read on his WXYZ morning show, was submitted by Erham Erdem. The nine-year-old Bird School student asked: "What's blue and fought in the Revolutionary War?"

The answer was "GRAPE Britain."

Finalists in the contest were Darlene Thibeau, Heather Campbell, Ann Glomski, Brad DePlanche, Kelly Tucker, Paul Jurczynski, Andrea Rogers and Gabrielle Graser.

CHILDREN who read 10 or more books during the summer session received certificates.

They were: Jeff Barraco, Holly Berndt, Kimberly Berrie, Betsy Bouffard, Kris Bouman, Leanne Bouman, Inger Bouton, Lisa Brining, Gail Chelian, Susan Cole, Debbie Cole and Janice Connors.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON BOARD PROCEEDINGS

A regular joint study meeting of the Board of Trustees and the Planning Commission of the Charter Township of Canton, was held on Tuesday, July 6, 1976 at 7:30 P.M. at 128 Canton Center Road.

Board members present: Greenstein, Flodin, Parsell, Poole, Cheske, Myers

Absent: Schwall

Planning Commission members present: Miller, Matzo, Timbario, Berg, Tonda, Parsell

Absent: None

Mr. Elton Gollwitzer, Supervisor of Van Buren Township, was present and discussed the Willow Run Airport. Wayne County Road Commission is proposing to purchase and expand the airport. Transfer of ownership must be approved by the FAA, and they do favor ownership by Wayne County Road Commission, rather than by a proposed commission consisting of several townships. Mr. Gollwitzer would like to form such a commission to obtain ownership, which could be obtained for a fee of $1.00 from University of Michigan—the purpose being to prevent the expansion, which would have an adverse affect on property values. More than 700 homes would be affected in Van Buren Township along, and a part of Canton Township would also fall beneath the flight pattern. Mr. Gollwitzer will attend a meeting on Friday with the FAA to determine what they would expect from the township. He will keep in contact on this issue.

Mr. Manore led the study on Preliminary Housing.

The Capital Improvements Program will be scheduled on the agenda of July 20th for acceptance by the Planning Commission. This will be the second of four programs prepared under the 701 Planning Program for Canton Township. The Community Facility Plan was accepted on June 15th.

The Preliminary Housing Study as corrected, will be submitted to Mr. Burgoyne and to Mr. Hoteling for their input before acceptance.

against a Republican candidate, Pat Dombecki for clerk, earlier in the campaign.

The outcome of that incident, he said, was unresolved in his mind although he said the investigator told him nothing could be done.

Greenstein alleged that Dombecki had told at least one voter that he was taking money from builders.

While Greenstein's opponent in the primary campaign, Stein, refused to level accusations at anyone, he did make mention of "irregularities."

HIS CAR AND TRUCK wash business was damaged twice, he said, once when he announced and again on the weekend before the primary election.

He also said the manager of the car wash, a Canton resident, had his car radiator damaged, and that George Bradley, husband of one his running mates, had his car radiator damaged.

"I wouldn't want to make any accusations I couldn't prove," Stein said, "but I couldn't believe what happened to my business."

"Windows were broken, the building was rammed and someone broke the marquee and sign with a brick. It's not what I would call everyday procedure at my car wash—it just seems very strange."

Stein said the destruction was not "normal" and that no robbery had occurred. "It was just outright destruction."

Still awaiting an official estimate, Stein said damage to the building was probably about $2,000.

Stein added that the damaged radiators appeared to result from bullets because of the nature of the holes. "But we couldn't find any slugs," he said.

Canton clerk cooks chicken for chamber

The recent chicken barbecue sponsored by the Canton Township Chamber of Commerce was such a success, members plans to make it an annual affair.

More than 350 persons—CC members, officials, business persons, residents and their families—enjoyed the "perfect" chicken cooked by Township Clerk John Flodin and J.D. Clark.

Games were played during the day and prizes awarded to children of all ages, and adults.

MNB, Berry triumph

American Red Division champion Michigan National Bank did well in the Pontiac District of the state Connie Mack baseball tournament last week, as it swept two games behind the strong pitching of Brent Erickson and John Kolis.

Erickson hurled his second no-hit gem of the season in collecting his 10th victory, in a 13-0 rout of Walled Lake.

MNB scored one run in the first inning on a single by Kolis.

An error on a ball hit by Ron Colone allowed both runners to be safe. Jim Snyder walked and Dave Pelli knocked in the run with a ground out to second base.

MNB scored one time in the third on a walk to Kolis, a passed ball and a single by Snyder.

The bankers exploded for five runs in the fourth inning on walks to Pelli, Gary Beyrand and Tom Pacion. Erickson laid down a bunt single accounting for one run. Kolis then walked to force in another. With two outs, Brian Butcher drilled a home run to give the MNB team a seven-run margin.

MNB scored six more times in the fifth inning with Colone, Snyder, Rob Rose and Randy Besh all collecting RBIs.

The game was called after five innings due to the eight-run mercy rule in tournament competition.

In the second game, MNB came from behind to defeat a strong Pontiac team, 3-1.

Kolis was the winning pitcher, as he went the full seven innings on the mound.

"This (Pontiac) was one of the best Connie Mack teams I've ever pitched against," Kolis said after the game. "They really did not have a weak hitter in the game."

Pontiac scored its only run of the contest in the first inning on a double and an RBI-single by shortstop Chris Curtis.

MNB scored all three of its runs in the third inning when Kolis and Snyder drilled singles. Butcher doubled to left center field and Besh clubbed a line single to right center field.

Pontiac threatened in the final inning when the first man up walked and the second batter was safe on an error. Kolis got the next two hitters to fly out then fanned the final batter of the game on three fast balls.

MNB drew a bye in the winner's bracket of the double-elimination tournament and is assured of playing in the semi-finals of the district.

BERRY (RED)—GROSSE POINTE

Berry Appliance (Red), champion of the Livonia Connie Mack League National Division and competing in the strong Lincoln Park District in the state baseball tournament, last week split its first two games of the double-elimination tourney.

After dropping a 5-1 decision to Detroit PAL in the first encounter, coach Roger Frayer and his troops came back in the second to topple Grosse Pointe, 7-5.

In its battle with Grosse Pointe, Berry pecked away for a 4-0 advantage, saw itself fall behind after Grosse Pointe produced five runs in the fourth inning, but came back with a rally of its own in the fourth to reclaim the lead for good.

Berry scored a run in the first frame when Dave Colley singled, went to second on a wild pick-off attempt, advanced to third on a sacrifice bunt by Mark Calasso and trotted home on a balk.

Berry added two more runs in the second inning. Steve Morman and Mike Devlin cracked singles and Chris Clegg safely reached first on a bunt single to load the bases.

Frayer then elected to attempt a double suicide squeeze and when Jeff Lajoie laid down a perfect bunt, both Morman and Devlin crossed the plate.

Berry counted its fourth run an inning later when Ron Griffin singled, stole second, moved to third on a passed ball and scored on a long sacrifice fly off the bat of Bill Parson.

Grosse Pointe combined five singles with three Berry errors in the fourth inning to forge to a one-run lead. Berry, however, notched three runs of its own the same inning to put a cap on the scoring for the contest.

Mark Perkins walked for Berry in the fourth. Galasso was safe on an error. Griffin walked. Parson drilled a single to right center field scoring Perkins and Galasso. Bill Bardwell walked to fill the bases and Morman walked to send Griffin home.

Perkins, who relieved Bardwell on the mound in the fourth inning and went the rest of the way, was credited with the victory. Colley collected two of Berry's seven hits.

In its initial taste of playoff competition in the Lincoln Park District, Berry was limited to one run on four hits by Detroit PAL.

Berry scored its only run in the fourth inning on a single by Galasso, an error which enabled Galasso to advance all the way to third on the play, a walk to Parson and a successful delayed double steal.

Perkins pitched that entire game for Berry.

Skateboard riding, taken a bit more seriously as a sport on the west coast, may just be catching on here again as evidenced by the showmanship of Plymouth residents Mike

Box continues streak

Box Bar took two straight games from Little Caesars last week to take the Plymouth Modified World Series.

In the opener, Box Bar squeaked by Little Caesars 2-1 in a pitchers duel between Jerry Stangel of Box and Tom Lock of Caesars.

All three runs were scored in the opening frame as Caesars jumped off to the early lead. Dennis Becker led off with a single and scored later on a wild pitch.

Box Bar came back in the bottom half of the stanza on a walk to Bill Lawson with Lawson coming home on a triple by Ron Ray who later scored the winning run on an RBI single by Jim Lawson.

In the game number two, Box Bar got to Lock early by scoring five runs in the top of the first on their way to a 10-2 victory.

Al White was the winning pitcher in game two, helping his own cause with a two-run homer.

The victories brought Box's Plymouth record to an amazing 16-0 while Caesars fell to 13 and 3. Women's Softball Standings

TWO BOWLERS well known in the western suburbs have won coveted places on the all-city team announced this week by the Greater Detroit Bowling Association.

Fred McClain, who has been one of the hottest bowlers in the area during the closing weeks of the season, and Dick Beattie, who had done quite a bit of bowling at Westland Bowl before he joined the all-stars, have been named to the first team that was selected on a point basis.

McClain, with 47 points, landed second place on the team while Beattie was five points behind in third place. Other members of this honored squad include Tony Loiacono, who finished at the top of the list, Mike Samardzija and Chuck Sunseri.

The captaincy of the team went to Loiacono who had one of his best seasons and became the first champion in the prestigious Masters Tournament to successfully defend the title. Along with that honor, he won the singles title in the city tournament.

The second team also contained several bowlers well known to west siders. They include Bob Chamberlain, Ted Baketseles, Bob Hart, Ray Williams and Bob Garrett. The fifth member is Hal Stokes.

The point system in which the men were selected is based on showings in the major tournaments—the ABC and city and state tournaments along with the masters and league averages in the city's top all-star leagues.

NO HOLLYWOOD writer could have written a script that would compare with the dramatic finish of the All-Star Mixed League that closes its 12-week season at Royal Oak next Wednesday night.

The teams are coming down the stretch to the finish line with two teams, Jerry Reutter's Puddings and Sharon Behrendt's Corn on the Cob, deadlocked in first place. They will be shooting for all the marbles on the final night.

The league, designed to fill a void in the summer schedule, has surpassed all expectations and is certain to be renewed next season.

One of the stars who has been coming along steadily in the past few weeks is none other than Tom McKay, executive secretary of the Greater Detroit Bowling Association.

Last week, he paced the field at Merri-Bowl with a big 600 series and came right back last Wednesday at Harper Recreation with a 239 single and tied Chuck Sunseri for the top series with a 637.

In the ladies' division, it was Kathy Haislip with a 645 series while Lavolia Brown took high game with a 268 in 642.

AFTER SERVING as editor of The Modern Bowler, Detroit's only paper devoted exclusively to bowling news for 30 years, Steve Cruchin has decided to strike out on his own.

He has become owner and publisher of a new paper, to be known as the Bowlers Digest. The first issue is scheduled to appear over Labor Day weekend.

ONE OF THE STRONGEST teams in the ladies' all star leagues—the Motown combination that won the championship at one time or another in both the Ladies' Major League and The Bowlerettes—has broken up.

Three of the stars, Lavolia Brown, Mary Kilgor and Freda Chandler, are now forming a new team and may be seen in the top circuits again this coming season.

FROM ALL indications, senior citizen bowling leagues will reach a new high, at least numerically, during the approaching season.

Plaza Lanes and Plymouth Bowl report a greater number of seniors than ever before. The story is the same at Westland Bowl, Garden Lanes, Country Lanes and Bel-Aire.

DiPonio is ousted

By ANDY MELIN

In the Mickey Mantle league tournament held two weekends ago, Windsor came out the champion, and will advance to state competition in Coldwater, Michigan.

Di Ponio (Plymouth Salem), took third place, winning one game, and lost two, in their two days of competition.

Their first game was two Friday's ago against Lansing.

Lansing beat Di Ponio 2-1, in the seventh inning, when a high chop to the Di Ponio third bounded over his head and into left field, allowing the winning run to score.

Doug Holloway was the losing pitcher, even though he pitched well.

That same Friday, Di Ponio played its second game. This time they beat Detroit Mic Mac, 11-0.

Matt Etienne was the winning pitcher, and John Marshall got the save.

Mike Midelek and Danny Palubinski each had two hits in the contest.

Both Bruce Piper and Bill Kral came up with spectacular diving grabs in the outfield.

Two Saturday's ago, Di Ponio lost its second game to eventual champion Windsor, 4-0, and as eliminated from the tournament.

Matt Etienne was the losing pitcher. The lack of hitting, and many costly errors, proved to be Di Ponio's downfall.

Plymouth Canton, which was supposed to compete in the Mantle tournament, didn't attend, because it placed first in its Mickey Mantle division, and advanced to the Nationals in Dayton Ohio.

The Stroller... Fritz Crisler sounds warning

By W. W. EDGAR

One beastly hot afternoon several summers ago The Stroller had the pleasure and privilege of sitting in the Michigan Stadium chatting with Fritz Crisler, the legendary football coach and athletic director of the Wolverines.

Down below workmen were tearing up the natural grass to replace it with the artificial turf that then was the vogue among the leading schools in a campaign to avoid injuries.

It was only natural that the conversation turned to the new fad and it brought back memories of the days when the Michigan-Illinois rivalry was at its height. Most every year Bob Zupke, the little Dutchman who coached the Illini, brought his team to Ann Arbor he complained that the grass was too high and that Yost deliberately kept the grass to "hide my little boys."

But on this particular afternoon as the sun beat down on the both of us, the conversation turned from the artificial turf to the threat being made in various school districts that the lack of funds would force the discontinuance of athletic programs.

Crisler listened attentively to some of the threats that had been making the rounds and then calmly remarked, "It would be a horrible mistake to cancel the athletic programs!"

ALWAYS A GREAT phrase maker, he looked about the vast stadium which he had enlarged to seat more than 100,000 and in very serious tones said:

"They seem to forget that the school athletic programs are the last bastions of discipline."

This was a typical Crisler reaction, and he went on to explain that these young fellows down in the public school ranks may not always heed the words of their parents, but they will listen to the coach—be it in football, basketball or baseball.

"They'll do most anything to make the team," he said. "They'll get their hair cut, try to dress neatly, watch their diet, exercise regularly and take great care of themselves just to qualify for the various sports squads. They feel it is an honor to represent their school, and it stands them apart in the student body."

Fritz looked down the field as the workmen continued ripping up the grass, then continued.

"Take athletics away from them and chances are you have 'lost' the boys just at the age when they need discipline most. And once you have lost them at that age, chances are you'll never get them back."

It was a new approach to the subject of cancelling high school athletic programs.

AS HE SCANNED the horizon and the perspiration running down the cheeks of both of us, Crisler cited another reason that it would be a mistake to curtail sports.

"Look at this stadium," he said. "It is the goal of thousands of young fellows in high school—not only in Michigan, but in many other areas, to play in this great area and proudly wear the Maize and Blue."

"Mind you," he went on, "these are not only the offspring of the rich or well to do, but boys from the poorer families who never would get the opportunity if it were not for the scholarships made available to them."

"If it were not for the high school program many of the sports heroes we speak of today never would have had the chance to go to college. And it would be drastic shame to deny them that privilege now."

As Crisler spoke The Stroller recalled his own days in a short career in public school athletics. He first was exposed to the sports program in the intermediate grade when his teacher, an 'old maid,' named Sally McIntyre, decided one day to organize a baseball team and challenge a similar group in the high school. There was no official school program, but 'Sally' wouldn't allow that to stop her. She dug into her own funds and purchased the balls, bats and gloves we needed, and then took keen delight in sitting on the bench and "master-minding" us to victory.

CPR DEMONSTRATION

Aug. 6—A demonstration of cardio-pulmonary resuscitation will be given from 7 to 9 p.m., Friday Aug. 6 at the Canton Jaycee Fair and Lilley. A Red Cross instructor will give the demonstration and answer questions. Demonstration is free.

GARAGE-RUMMAGE

Aug. 6-7—A garage-rummage sale will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Aug. 6-7 in Tonquish Creek Manor, 1160 Sheridan, Plymouth, to raise funds for projects for the senior citizens residence.

BABY CONTEST

Aug. 4-8—This year at the annual Canton Jaycee Fair, Aug. 4-8, the Canton JC Auxiliary is saying "Here's to Your Healthy Baby!" A free drawing for mothers-to-be with a first prize of one month's supply of Diaper Service is planned. With the cooperation of the March of Dimes, pre-natal care information will be distributed. Information on preventing birth defects caused by Rubella and a family record for immunization will be available to all. There also will be a collection box for Gerber Baby Food labels. The Gerber Co. has agreed to purchase an echo-cardiograph machine for Children's Motu Hospital in Ann Arbor. JC Auxiliary chapters all over the state will be collecting the labels all year until their goal is reached.

UF approves new grant for Red Cross relief fund

The United Foundation executive committee has approved a $278,012 grant to the Southeastern Michigan chapter of the American Red Cross to support recent world-wide disaster relief operations.

The grant is the largest ever allocated by the UF for emergency disaster relief in any one year.

"Thanks to careful planning and budgeting, the United Foundation can provide this money from its Emergency and Stabilization Fund to aid disaster victims and also avoid additional community-wide appeals for disaster relief," UF President Joseph L. Hudson, Jr. said.

The grant is in addition to the United Foundation's annual Torch Drive allocation to the Southeastern Michigan Red Cross, which totals $3,213,603 for 1976.

Although a portion of the annual Torch Drive allocation went into the Red Cross' national disaster fund, that fund was depleted recently by a series of major disasters, including Typhoon Pamela in Guam, a flood and tornado in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and the Teton Dam break in Idaho.

etted recently by a series of major disasters, including Typhoon Pamela in Guam, a flood and tornado in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and the Teton Dam break in Idaho.

THE $278,012 grant represents 100 percent of the United Foundation area's share, and the major portion of the local Red Cross' quota, of a special $10 million national campaign to replenish the disaster fund.

"Last month the national Red Cross reported it faced an unprecedented $33 million in disaster relief expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30," said Charles W. Elliott, chapter chairman of the Southeastern Michigan Red Cross.

"This represents the most expensive period in the organization's 95-year history of helping disaster victims," he continued.

"It is most reassuring to know that for two decades the United Foundation has met metropolitan Detroit's share of Red Cross emergency disaster goals, thus eliminating the need for additional relief appeals in the tri-county area," Elliott said.

THE LAST SPECIAL UF grant to the Red Cross, $175,870 in 1973, supported national relief efforts following various floods, tornados and winter storms throughout the country.

Beyond its regular Torch Drive allocations to the Southeastern Michigan Red Cross, the United Foundation has now contributed nearly $1.8 million since 1955 to aid disaster victims.

The 1976 United Foundation Torch Drive, which runs from Oct. 12 through Nov. 4, will raise operating funds for nearly 140 health and community service agencies in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Model will offer tips

Professional model June Lark will offer grooming and fashion tips in a workshop, "Let's Take a Look at Ourselves," scheduled 8-10 p.m., Aug. 11, in Room B-270 of the Liberal Arts Building at Schoolcraft College.

The workshop is designed for women over 30 interested in making some changes in their lives by learning how to look better.

Ms. Lark, a Livonia resident, has been widowed and remarried and offered to present the workshop through the Schoolcraft College Women's Resources Center to help others who feel the need of a lift.

The session, which has a $2 fee, will include beauty tips, fashion ideas, easy exercises and recommendations on home products that can be used as beauty aids.

A few openings remained in the limited enrollment, and women interested should call Marge Lynch at Schoolcraft College, 591-6400, extension 369 or 370, by Aug. 10.

Those participating are asked to bring along makeup, a mirror and a scarf.

The college is located at 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

Hodge-Smith

Mr. and Mrs. Horner M. Hodge of Richland Street, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to Dennis A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith of Greenbriar Street, Plymouth.

The bride-elect is a 1973 graduate of Churchill High School and manages a beauty shop. Her fiancé graduated from Plymouth High School in 1971 and works for Dunn Steel of Plymouth.

Their wedding will take place Sept. 4 in Newburg United Methodist Church, Livonia.

Haskell-Thompson

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Haskell Jr. of South Lyon, formerly of Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Lynn to Johnnie Dean Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Thompson of Painesville, Ohio.

The bride-elect is a 1976 graduate of South Lyon High School and is employed by E & R Western Shop in South Lyon. Her fiancé works at Chevrolet Spring & Bumper in Plymouth.

They plan to be married Sept. 18 in Plymouth.

Temple Baptist setting for rites

Janet Paton and Les Barker, both of Redford Township, exchanged marriage vows in an evening ceremony in Temple Baptist Church, Redford Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Paton of Mercedes Avenue are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Barker of Lennane Street.

Dr. A.V. Henderson officiated. The bride wore a sheer gown with a high collar edged in lace and fitted sleeves.

Lace also edged her veil, and she carried white roses and baby's breath.

Patty Arnold, the bride's sister, was matron of honor and wore a yellow flowered nylon organdy dress and a matching parasol.

Wearing similar outfits in green, blue, pink and lavender were bridesmaids Kathy Baynes, Carol Duncan, Evelyn Martin and Terri Davis.

Assisting the bridegroom were Doug Symons, best man, and Dan Kruse, Odus Johnson, Jim Taylor and Darrell Cross, ushers.

Following a church reception for 375 guests, the couple left for a Colorado honeymoon. They are living in the Detroit area.

The new Mrs. Barker is a 1974 graduate of Thurston High School. Her husband graduated the same year from Redford Union High School and is employed by Al Young Industries.

THINK THE RAIN
WILL HURT
THE RHUBARB?

NOT IF IT'S IN CANS! Many of us spend the early spring cultivating and planting our home gardens. Summertime finds us in the hot sun, weeding and spraying and generally watching over our gardens and/or orchards.

HARVEST TIME COMES, and we are rewarded for our efforts with an over abundance of fruits and vegetables. There's always too much to eat and too much to give away.

FREEZING AND CANNING have become increasingly popular as a way of preserving the harvest for year-round use -- whether you grow your own...or purchase quantities of fresh fruits and vegetables. But freezing and canning must be done properly to prevent spoilage, contamination and loss of essential vitamins and taste.

HOME CANNING TECHNIQUES are usually passed down from generation to generation and from friend to friend. Freezing also requires special care. Here are a few hints to help you in your preserving chores:

- (1) Cleanliness is essential. Utensils and the working area itself must be sanitary as well as your jars, lids and containers.
- (2) Organize your kitchen. Put unnecessary items out of the way and needed items out and ready.
- (3) Don't do too much! If you try to do too much, it's easy to get overly tired. Accidents can happen more easily and carelessness can result in poor results.
- (4) Measure everything. Follow the recipe. Do not guess at amounts.

IN THE HOUSEWARES DEPARTMENT of all Meijer Thrifty Acres, you'll find all the necessary canning and freezing utensils. You'll also find the food products you need for canning in the Grocery and Produce Departments.

FREE HAND-OUT SHEETS are available in Meijer Thrifty Acres Housewares Departments on Home Canning Techniques on Canning and Freezing Items. The material is taken from the Home Canning Handbook by Anne Borella.

CAN IT! It's a way to save on your food budget and to serve home-grown products -- the year round.
