The Canton Connection

RESIDENTS MAY attend tonight's school board workshop, at the board offices on Harvey, south of Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth. Elementary music, art and physical education programs will be discussed. Meeting starts at 7:30 p.m.

MARIA TRAPANI of Canton recently displayed a textile sculpture in a textile exhibit at Eastern Michigan University.

FITNESS FUN CLUBS offered after school at Eriksson (Mondays), Hulsing (Tuesdays) and Eriksson (Wednesdays) elementary schools begin the week of Feb. 14, sponsored by Canton's recreation department and Livonia's Family YMCA. Cost is $10 for first child and $7 for a second child in the same family. The seven-week program is for students, grades 3-6. For more information, call the recreation department at 397-1000.

MARY S. FELTZ, chairwoman of the Canton Public Library Board, recently addressed the annual conference of the Michigan Library Association in Grand Rapids. Feltz spoke on the positive relationship between the Canton Public Library and Canton business people. Her presentation was entitled, "Commercial Promotion and the Library."

TWO OUTDOOR ice skating rinks are available — free of charge — to all Canton residents. This winter's rinks are at Flodin Park (on Saltz between Canton Center and Sheldon) and behind the township's administration building (on Canton Center near Proctor). The activity is sponsored by Canton's recreation department.

HOW WOULD YOU like a subdivision ice rink? Homeowner groups and associations may call the recreation department (397-1000) if they want their parks flooded for an ice rink.

WANT TO HELP the Friends of the Canton Public Library? Volunteers are needed to price, sort and transport books for the group's annual book sale in April. Book donations may be brought to the library before March 15. For more information, call Carol Dugan, co-chairwoman of the book sale, at 981-1236.

WANTED: CREATIVE writers who want to share their work, critique others and exchange ideas. A meeting for writers is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 17, at Canton's public library, on the third floor of Township Hall on Canton Center south of Cherry Hill. Bring writings to share with others. For more information, call Jean (397-0999) or Ginny (535-5504).

VALENTINE'S DAY parties are just around the corner, and Canton's recreation department sponsors one for children 3 to 12. It takes place 10-11 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 12, at the recreation center on the corner of Sheldon and Michigan Avenue. Cartoons, games, prizes, refreshments and a magic show will be featured. Reservations are needed. For more information, call the recreation department at 397-1000.

THE TOWNSHIP Board regularly meets on the first, second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Meetings begin at 7 p.m. at Township Hall, on Canton Center south of Cherry Hill. The board of education regularly meets on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. Meetings begin at 7:30 p.m. at 454 S. Harvey, Plymouth. The public is invited to attend all government meetings.

Anyone interested in submitting information about Canton Township for "The Canton Connection" may send items to Canton editor Dennis O'Connor, 461 S. Main, Plymouth 48170. We ask that you type or print the information and include your name and phone number in case we have any questions. The column runs every Monday.

Officials eye plan if state halts funding

By Ariene Funke
staff writer

State-shared revenues of $420,000 — due to be paid to Canton during February — are being withheld by Gov. James Blanchard, who is trying to trim huge deficits in the Michigan budget.

Township officials are taking a wait-and-see attitude on how those payment withholdings will affect operations.

The $420,000 represents the first payment in 1983 of revenues from state sales taxes, income taxes and small-business taxes. Overall, 36 percent of Canton's general-fund budget comes from those state revenues, according to Finance Director Mike Gorman.

"We have to prepare for this — not by crisis management, but by planning," Supervisor James Poole said. "We have to come up with some contingency plans."

PAYMENTS OF state-shared revenues are based on census figures, Gorman said. Canton's annual share — based on a population of 48,616 — would be $1.2 million, he said.

In a recent letter, state Rep. Gerald Law notified Canton officials of the governor's plan to "defer to an uncertain time" the state-shared revenues to local units of government. Blanchard also is considering raising the state income tax and cutting some state services to balance the budget.

Seventy-three percent of the held-back revenues are sales taxes. Under the state constitution, Blanchard must disburse the sales-tax revenues before the end of the fiscal year.

But, the governor has power to issue an executive order withholding the other tax revenues, with approval of the House and Senate appropriations committees, Law said.

The information about projected cuts was obtained from the state budget department, Law said.

'We don't have a contingency plan. We have talked a lot, but we have nothing drawn up.'

— Mike Gorman
finance director

"That deferred amount can change any day, depending on what the governor decides," Law said. "He (Blanchard) hasn't made the executive order yet. The problem is, you don't know when you're going to get your money. It's a cash-flow problem."

GORMAN SAID he isn't overly concerned about possible delays or cuts in payments because the township has $1.5 million in surplus funds. Gorman attributed the surplus to increases in state-shared revenues stemming from higher 1980 census figures for Canton.

Police and fire services are funded under a separate millage approved several years ago by the residents.

However, long-range, substantial cuts in state-shared revenues to the township could result in layoffs or higher taxes — "probably both," Gorman said.

"We don't have a contingency plan," Gorman said. "We have talked a lot, but we have nothing drawn up."

"Certainly, Blanchard has a tough row to hoe," Gorman said. "The funding of local governments has been set for a lot of years. If (the state) is going to change that funding, government must re-assess as to what services they are going to fund, or find ways of funding them."

Poole, with assistance from Gorman, has prepared a report explaining township revenues and expenditures. The reports are available at Township Hall, on Canton Center south of Cherry Hill.

Judge upholds abuse verdict

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

Judge Dunbar Davis, 35th District Court, denied a motion Friday to reconsider his guilty verdict against Central Middle School teacher Scott Kurtz on assault and battery charges, but he admitted his decision raises difficult legal questions.

Kurtz was charged with assault and battery following an Oct. 22 incident in which he used physical force while disciplining 16-year-old student John James of Plymouth.

Charles Bokos, Kurtz's attorney, filed the reconsideration motion based on Davis' reasoning for the guilty verdict, handed down in December.

Davis heavily relied on an Attorney General's opinion outlining a teacher's right to use corporal punishment.

That opinion condones a teacher's use of reasonable physical force when disciplining a student "under his supervision."

Based on the opinion, Davis said Kurtz's actions were reasonable each of the three times he applied force — in his own classroom, in the hallway, and in a substitute teacher's classroom.

However, the judge ruled the student wasn't under Kurtz's supervision inside the substitute teacher's classroom. Bokos disagreed with the ruling of the court.

"The court said the attorney general's opinion properly interpreted the statute (regarding school discipline)," Bokos said.

The attorney general's opinion was rendered in 1956 and couldn't have interpreted the school discipline statute in question, Bokos said.

Long-split family excited because they're reunited

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

Paul Vogle may return to Vietnam one day, but for now he's happy to be at home in Plymouth with his family.

Vogle, 51, foreign correspondent for United Press International (UPI), brought his Vietnamese wife and three children "home" Tuesday night. He was forced to leave them when Saigon fell in 1975.

"I've never known as much happiness in my entire life as I've known in the past week," Vogle said. "It's much better than I possibly could have imagined."

Vogle and family were reunited Jan. 27 at the Tan Son Nhut Airport in Ho Chi Minh City (formerly Saigon). Leaving Saigon with Vogle's family were 47 other children fathered by Americans during the Vietnam War.

This was the third group of Americans to leave Vietnam since September, when the two governments agreed to the airlifts.

Vogle and wife Mai Chi met in 1964. He was a soldier-turned-war correspondent and she a sales clerk at the Saigon airport.

The two were married three years later by a Catholic priest in Vietnam. They bought a farm outside Saigon and settled to raise a family.

"We made one tragic mistake," Vogle recently wrote for the UPI. "We neglected to register our marriage at the local city hall."

IN APRIL 1975 Communist forces moved into Saigon. Two months after the fall of Saigon, Vogle was forced to leave the country.

"I was invited to leave but I couldn't decline the invitation," said Vogle.

By now, the government had taken over Vogle's farm, and Mai Chi had destroyed their church marriage certificate and other documents linking the family to the "American enemy."

Eight years after their wedding, Vogle was forced to leave his home, now a Saigon apartment. Mai Chi and the three children (Kiet, Tuan and To Nga) couldn't go with him.

His son Kiet, the oldest, was 7 years old at the time. To Nga, his daughter, was 4 and his youngest son, Tuan, was 3.

Vogle doesn't remember much about leaving.

"I was in a state of shock. I was just doing what I was ordered and told to do."

Vogle went to Bangkok, Thailand, and continued covering the war. Mai Chi stayed in the apartment, trying to eke out a living for the three children.

Board mulls more raises

By Ariene Funke
staff writer

The Township Board Tuesday will again take up the issue of raises for 11 non-union department heads.

The board has discussed raises during several recent meetings, but no decisions have been reached. Trustees have been reviewing reports and studies on various salary factors.

Most members of the board support a raise, but there hasn't been a consensus on how much the raise should be.

"I feel a strong obligation to our non-union employees," said Trustee Robert Padgett during a recent board discussion. "By and large, our employees are below (salaries of) surrounding communities, or at the bottom."

Most of the township's 120 employees are members of various bargaining units. The Township Board sets individual salaries of 11 non-union department heads and deputies. Four department heads have individual employment contracts.

THE TOWNSHIP'S merit commission, an advisory body for the non-union employees, is recommending an 8 percent across-the-board raise for the 11 employees under its auspices.

Trustees favor different increases, ranging from 3-7 percent, depending on the employee's current salary level. The raises likely will be retroactive to Jan. 1.

Base salaries range from $21,300 for the recreation supervisor, to $28,900 for the superintendent of parks and recreation. Several earn $23,000-$25,000. A few are in the $30,000 range.

In making its 8 percent recommendation, the merit commission cited "a need to bridge the gap" between salaries paid to Canton employees and those of other communities.

Other factors were a comparison of wages within the township and duties performed, according to Personnel Director Dan Durack.

"IT WAS sort of tied together," Durack said. "This is a guide. It isn't written in stone."

An 8 percent increase would represent an additional cost to the township of $24,380, according to the merit commission's report.

County loses drunk driving grant

By Bill Casper
staff writer

Wayne County law enforcement officers may not be able to get as tough with drunk drivers as they had hoped because statistics indicate that drunk driving in this county is not as prevalent as in other Michigan counties.

Due to the statistics, state officials have eliminated all but $3,000 of a $96,000 grant which the Downriver and Western Wayne County Traffic Officers Association attempted to secure to fund a program in conjunction with Michigan's new drunk driving law.

In terms of alcohol-related accidents, statistics compiled by the Michigan Department of Highway and Safety Planning rank Wayne County 36th among the 83 counties in the state, according to Capt. Harmon Agar, of the Dearborn Heights Police Department traffic division.

"I was told recently by a representative of the highway and safety planning department that Wayne County's ranking may be too high for county police agencies to qualify for state grant money in the battle against drunk drivers," Agar said. He is also member of the Downriver and Western Wayne County Traffic Officers Association.

"In preparing to enforce the new drunk driving law scheduled to take effect April 1, the traffic officers association had planned a police training and saturation patrol to look only for drunk drivers."

However, county law enforcement officials are now concerned that loss of the grant money will thwart police efforts to crack down on drunk drivers.

"Part of the $96,000 in grant money the county traffic officers association expected to receive was to be spent for the purchase of preliminary breath testing (PBT) devices that law enforcement officers could use at roadside to get an immediate reading of the alcohol content in a person's blood stream," he said.

The change in the law that allows use of such devices is expected to increase the number of drunk driving arrests, but local police departments will now be on their own in financing such equipment. Each unit costs about $350.

"Studies have shown that police officers arrest the severely drunk drivers, but rarely arrest the borderline drunk drivers," Agar said. "Police tend to arrest the motorist they know is drunk, such as one who is driving erratically and has other obvious signs of being drunk — slurred speech and alcoholic odor. But no officer wants to make a false arrest."

"CONSEQUENTLY, IT is likely a borderline drunk, who may be able to drive fairly well and pass the police officer's field sobriety test at roadside, will not be arrested," Agar said. "I think the absence of PBT equipment in police cars extremely hinders police efforts to carry out the intent of the new drunk driving law."

The new act allows roadside use of the PBT devices by police in contrast to the current law that allows police use of a breathalyzer to record blood alcohol content only in police posts.

Under the new law, results of PBT testing can't be used as evidence, but it can be used for validating arrests and refusal to submit to a PBT will result in a civil infraction.

The grant money also would have funded a police alcohol training program that can help police detect a drunk driver, according to Robert DeCorte, a traffic engineer for Michigan AAA in Dearborn, who assisted the traffic officers association in the grant process.

"I understand that 20 or 25 counties received approval for state grant money," he said. "The ranking is based on alcohol-related traffic accidents per one million miles traveled. I don't know if there's a problem with that formula or with some police in completing accident report forms, but I got to believe Wayne County has more drunk drivers and more alcohol-related traffic accidents than the statistics indicate simply because of the sheer volume of motorists traveling Wayne County roads."

"IT'S IRRITATING to lose the grant money when we've already got a program in place to be funded by that money," he said. "All the state will pick up is the cost of a March 16 seminar

Guilty verdict stands in teacher case

"The statute came into effect eight years after the attorney general's opinion."

The 1966 statute states that a teacher or superintendent may use reasonable physical force on a pupil, necessary for the maintenance of discipline over students "in attendance."

Based on the statute, Bokos said, a teacher has the power of supervision any place in the school.

"In attendance is such an all-encompassing word," he said.

"It would not make sense to limit the teacher to certain areas of the school," Bokos said.

Since the case was a criminal proceeding, Bokos said, the prosecution must develop the question of supervision — not the court.

"There was no effort by the prosecution to prove that point beyond a reasonable doubt."

Kurtz's testimony indicated he believed he was doing what should have been done, Bokos said before reading portions of the trial transcripts.

"These are all indications that Mr. Kurtz thought he was working within the framework set forth for him."

Kurtz was "operating under the dictates of the Central Middle School administration," Bokos said.

Acting City Attorney Ron Lowe said the school conduct rules are "very vague" and lead to other interpretations.

While Davis realized the importance of his decision on "the public, teachers and Mr. Kurtz," he stood by his interpretation of the law.

"When one teacher goes into another teacher's classroom, the teacher in charge is the one assigned to the classroom," he said.

Davis postponed execution of the $135 fine for four weeks. He set a $1,000 personal bond for Kurtz.

Bokos plans to file an appeal in Wayne County Circuit Court.

"The judge is inviting an appeal, and we're going to take him up on the invitation," Bokos said.

Family reunited after long wait

The family's desire and hope was to be reunited. However the Communist government didn't have a policy regarding American families who were separated.

Vogle told Mai Chi he would work for the family's release. He didn't know it would take almost eight years.

"The next seven years of red tape, lost documents and bungling by both our governments and ourselves were a nightmare that will haunt me the rest of my life," Vogle recently wrote.

"I kept running into stone walls," he said. Attempts to authorize his family's release were channeled through the United Nations, Red Cross, Vietnamese government and American government.

"The first three years was touch and go," Vogle said of correspondence with his wife. He feared Communist retaliation.

"I think they thought I would keep trying," he said of his family, who lived on income from an illegal sidewalk coffee shop Mai Chi started. Vogle left them some money, but the government took a majority of it.

"There were doubts. You never know what's going to happen. But it was the one thing that kept both of us going."

During the eight-year separation, Mai Chi's life was completely up in the air, he said.

"How did she know what I was really up to? They didn't know what to believe what I wrote them, what the government was telling them, or what they heard on the Voice of America."

"Their mother kept me alive to them by reading my letters to them."

Vogle saw his wife twice during the eight years spent apart. The first time came in May 1980.

"I got into a Vietnam tour group and went into Saigon as a tourist."

He saw Mai Chi but didn't see the children.

"She was a bit ashamed of their clothing. It wasn't good enough to be seen in the downtown area."

The second meeting came in December. Vogle was covering the third flight of Amerasians leaving Vietnam.

Vietnamese officials permitted Mai Chi to see Vogle at the Ho Chi Minh City airport. She showed Vogle the paperwork which permitted the family to leave on the next Amerasian flight.

The Communist government had developed a belief that families were important, Vogle said. The Vietnamese and American governments agreed to allow some Amerasian children and families to come to the states.

Vogle returned to the Saigon airport on Jan. 27 and met Mai Chi and his children.

Being a stranger to his own children was the "thing that scared me most," Vogle said. That wasn't the case.

"The reunion was an emotional moment for my wife and me, but five minutes after their mother had reintroduced the kids to their long-lost father, the three of them were chattering away as though I'd just come home from a day at the office," Vogle wrote for UPI.

Officials discuss raises

An across-the-board raise would simply "compound the inequity," said Clerk John Flodin.

Many union employees are earning more than their supervisors, "and that isn't the way it should be," Flodin said.

OTHER OPTIONS are being discussed, Durack said. Those options include giving a higher percentage raise in exchange for retirement or buy-out of an employee's unused sick pay.

Currently, employees may "bank" up to 140 sick days, to be paid off at time of quitting or retirement. Reducing that time would benefit the township, Durack said.

"At some point, they are going to have to pay it off, (and later) it will be a much higher cost," Durack said.

HOT WIRES: Stylish, wire wheel covers are a tempting target for thieves. Several residents reported thefts of the decorative hubcaps Jan. 27, police reports said. The wheels were reported on Durham, Cavalier and Preceptor. The wheel covers are valued at $100 apiece.

WHAT'S ON TV? Two television-radio sets were reported stolen from guest rooms at the Barbou Motel on Michigan Avenue Jan. 29. One room had been locked, while the other had been left open by a tenant, reports said. The televisions were valued at $800.

INSULT TO INJURY:

Someone broke into a house on Alton Jan. 20 using the resident's tools. The burglar pushed in a boarded section of the garage door and pried a lock on an inner door. About $500 worth of assorted tapes, a $300 rifle, a $225 revolver, three knives valued at $300 and some ammunition were reported taken.

SKIING, ANYONE?

Someone pried open a storage cage and stole $550 worth of ski equipment from a resident of Honeytree Apartments Jan. 19.

HOME BREAK-INS:

Coats, rings and a sewing machine were among items reported stolen in a Buckingham break-in Jan. 31. Total value of the items was $2,700. A Champaign Court house was ransacked Feb. 1, police said. The burglar broke in through a basement window, stealing about $1,100 worth of weapons, including a pistol, rifles and shotgun, reports said.

Other break-ins were reported Feb. 1 on Hillary and on Stacy, police said. Among the various items stolen were televisions, a radio, a cassette tape player and tapes.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF:

Several fires were started in a vacant house on Holmes Jan. 29. A neighbor saw smoke and called the fire department, police reports said. Eight fires were started in various parts of the house, reports said. All extinguished on their own because of lack of combustion. Fire Chief Mel Paulin said. Damage was estimated at $1,000. A door had been forced open, reports said.

litigation about the medium distillate,

Delaney said last week.

In district court, hotel resident Joe Thomas testified about Cook's visit to the hotel Jan. 5.

Thomas said he saw Cook carrying one bottle — a liquor bottle with Cook drank during his visit with Thomas.

"My client apparently didn't bring the distillate with him," Delaney said.

"The record doesn't indicate there were any medium distillates, at the scene, other than they found some on the floors," Delaney said.

While investigators said a medium distillate was used, no distillate containers were found or entered into evidence.

Police testified two containers were found at the scene, a burned gallon can and a can of turpentine.

Lab technicians couldn't identify what the gallon can contained before the fire. Turpentine is a wood product not a petroleum distillate.

A circuit court pre-trial exam will be scheduled after Cook's forensic exam.

Forensics set for arson suspect

A forensic exam is scheduled for the 34-year-old man charged in January's fatal arson-fire at the Old Village Inn. Gary Lee Cook of Livonia was arraigned in Wayne County Circuit Court Thursday morning. He stood mute to charges of first degree murder, arson, and assault with the intent to kill.

Defense attorney Robert Delaney requested the forensic exam for Cook, a former resident of the hotel.

"The exam is to determine his criminal liability," Delaney told the Observer.

"It's not for purposes of a mentally insane defense, it's to see if he's capable of standing trial," he said.

The forensic exam is expected to be completed in 30 days.

Cook is accused of starting the Jan. 5 fire at the Old Village Inn, 886 N. Mill, Plymouth. One man died and others were left homeless by the fire which destroyed the back portion of the building.

Delaney earlier said he wants the assault charge against Cook dismissed because "it wasn't substantiated" during the preliminary examination.

The preliminary exam was last month in Plymouth's 35th District Court. Judge Dunbar Davis heard two days of testimony before ordering Cook bound over for trial.

During the testimony, investigators said a medium petroleum distillate was used to accelerate the hotel fire.

Medium petroleum distillates include such items as charcoal lighters and paint thinners.

Delaney's defense is expected to center on the medium distillate believed to have been used in the fire.

"I would like to do more investigations about the medium distillate," Delaney said last week.

Woman on probation in traffic death case

A 23-year-old woman is on three years' probation in the traffic death of a teen-ager in Canton last May. Mary Katherine Celesty of Dearborn pleaded no-contest Oct. 7 to a charge of manslaughter with a motor vehicle, Canton police recently learned.

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge William Leo Cahalan placed Celesty on three years' probation, and suspended her driver's license for that period.

The charge stemmed from the May 9 death of Linda Ide, 16, of Westland, a former Canton resident and student at Plymouth Salem High School.

Ide had suffered injuries in a three-car crash two days earlier on Ford Road east of Lilley in Canton. According to police, Celesty's car struck two other cars, including the vehicle in which Ide was a passenger.

A Breathalyzer test indicated Celesty was intoxicated, police said.

UNDER TERMS of probation, Celesty was ordered to serve 48 days of community service at the Sacred Heart Rehabilitation Center, an alcoholism treatment facility in Detroit.

The community service is to be done during weekends, police said. Celesty also was ordered to attend a highway safety education program and to pay $780 in court costs, police said.

Canton man charged with armed robbery

A 33-year-old Canton man was charged with robbing an acquaintance $1 knife late last week.

The incident occurred Thursday afternoon on Lilley south of Cherry Hill, police said.

Charged with armed robbery is Ronald Brown, 33, of Stacy Drive. He was arraigned Friday before 35th District Court Judge James Garber.

The court entered a not guilty plea in Brown's behalf. Bond was set at $35,000. Preliminary examination in district court will be Feb. 14.

The victim, who wasn't injured, was robbed of a leather coat, a radio and a wallet containing $5, said police Cpl. Rob Cripe.

The victim told police Brown was his attacker. Cripe said the two men apparently were acquainted.

Maximum penalty for armed robbery is life imprisonment.

21-YEAR-OLD Canton man robbed as he walked along Lilley near his home, police reports said.

An assailant got out of a truck, chased the victim a short distance and put a knife to the victim's throat, police said.

WHICH TOOTHBRUSH FOR YOU?

Although we don't often think about what kind of toothbrush to buy, there are differences, and important ones. Toothbrushes must be prescribed for individual use just as medicines are.

Not long ago, the hard, natural bristle brush was almost universally recommended, and with some dentists, it still is. However, the natural bristles have almost knife-like tips that can cut the gums and, when used to remove plaque under gums, can break and create irritation in the area. Consequently, more and more dentists are recommending the soft, multi-tufted nylon brushes with rounded bristles. These are ideal for plaque removal. These bristles won't break under or irritate the gums. When properly used, the many bristles loosen the plaque and scrub it away.

In general, the straight handles are better than one with a curved or angled handle and the kind with tufts shaped into waves or bumps are not required unless you have wavy or bumpy teeth. If your dentist recommends a particular brush for you, use it. He knows your condition and what's best for you.

It's Tax Time

by Charles H. Williams, C.P.A.

CHOOSING AN ACCOUNTANT

Which person you choose to return this year's taxes is time to start choosing a professional, and to undertake the planning that may help you shelter some of your income from taxes.

If your income is fairly straightforward and deductible expenses minimal, you might satisfactorily use a short-form return and do it yourself or with the help of a tax preparer. But with more income, and more deductions, as the return becomes more complicated, you're going to want a tax professional.

Why? Because it's worth the difference to put your tax return in the hands of someone with the knowledge to find every likely loophole, and the experience to know which are acceptable. And as you reach the higher brackets, you'll get the advice you need on sheltering some income from taxes.

Some free help is available from the IRS. Revenue employees will answer your questions (but the tax court has challenged some of their answers) and prepare the simplest returns. There are also independent and chain tax preparers who pop up at tax season. Their workers may not be experienced enough to catch all legal deductions.

A certified public accountant can handle most complex returns and are familiar with shelters and investing. His or her tax know-how can save you more than the fee. How do you choose a professional? Recommendations from satisfied clientele are one way, as are referrals from lawyers. Once a relationship is entered, the client will find the accountant helpful in making financial decisions all year round.

INCOME TAX

We're a local organization. Even though we served more than 3,000 clients last year we haven't forgotten that every client is an individual and that each individual deserves the best service we can provide.

When we sign a tax return that we've prepared, we're proud of having done the best possible job for you. When you sign our signature on your tax return you can be sure that:

1. The counselor who prepared your return was competent and thoroughly experienced in tax matters.
2. You have received the maximum legal deductions and the minimum legal tax.
3. Your tax return has received all the time and attention that was necessary to do a proper job.
4. Your tax return has been double-checked for both accuracy and tax saving possibilities.
5. Your return has been handled in a confidential manner.

Call us for a free tax conference. Our fees are often less than the highly advertised tax firms and averaged less than $50.00 last year.

Schoolcraft 'burned mortgage' 6 years early

(Part XXXIX)

In October 1973, on the 12th anniversary of the founding of Schoolcraft College, student enrollment had climbed to 8,000, including those enrolled in both credit and community service classes. This was an 18-percent increase over enrollment in the fall of 1972.

Students enrolled in regular college classes totaled 6,711. The balance were in the expanded community services program, where non-transfer credit was given.

As Tommy Thompson noted in the Observer on Oct. 24, the institution had come a long way from the time in the early stages of its development when it had been called "Haggerty High." "From the description," Thompson wrote, "it has developed into one of the foremost community colleges in Michigan and in the Midwest."

The instructional center in Garden City had 550 students enrolled that semester.

WSDP thanks Four Seasons

To the editor:
WSDP-FM, Plymouth-Canton's community radio station, has developed an underwriting program to generate revenue to cover operation costs. The program, instituted Jan. 1 and approved by Superintendent John M. Hohen, is necessary because of the financial status of the Plymouth-Canton schools.

The program gives area businesses an opportunity to contribute funds to WSDP in exchange for promotional materials designed to enhance the contributing business.

It is a pleasure to announce WSDP's first major contributor is The Four Seasons Square in downtown Plymouth. The Four Seasons is underwriting WSDP's broadcast coverage of Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton basketball.

Its involvement has been tailored to provide maximum exposure for both operations.

The Four Seasons underwrites every game WSDP broadcasts, which totals four or five games per month. WSDP, in return, airs announcements three times during each game stating the support of the 15 cafes of The Four Seasons Square.

Personal thanks, and the appreciation of all students involved with WSDP, go to Bill Feigl, manager of The Four Seasons Square and the owners, managers and workers of the 15 cafes located in the square.

WSDP is a community radio station which needs the support of the community to survive. The Four Seasons Square has taken a step which I hope other area businesses will follow.

Don't reduce library service

To the editor:
Regarding the Observer's "Joint service desired" by Gary M. Cates on Jan. 27, 1983, I am writing to express my concern. The library is used mostly by students. Why can't they use the high school library?

I am concerned about the loss of library services. Seventeen years ago when we purchased our home, schools and a library service were major considerations in selecting the Plymouth community to live in.

A number of questions come to mind

1. Could the schools give us comparable services as economically as our library? 2. Where do the schools get their money? 3. Would adults have access to the library during the day? 4. It appears from the article that Trustee Pruner is unaware of the benefits and rewards that a good library and school system provides a community and a culture. Personally I would rather see a reduction in the number of members of the trustees than a reduction in the library.

The Observer Newspapers in a recent news report on the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education's opposition to an increase in the income tax incorrectly reported that State Rep. William Keith, D-Garden City, was opposed to the proposed increase in the income tax.

Actually Keith said that he knew some legislators were opposed to the increase because they felt it would drive industry out of Michigan. In making the statement, Keith was expressing the view of fellow lawmakers and not his own position, which is in favor of the hike.

Libertarians meet tonight

The Libertarian Party of Wayne County will sponsor a guest night at 7:30 p.m. today in Christoff's Public House, 13736 Michigan, Dearborn. An earlier article incorrectly reported the date as Sunday.

Keith Edwards of the Metro Libertarians will be the guest speaker. Two films about Libertarian philosophy will be shown. There is no admission charge.

WELCOME THE YEAR OF THE BOAR WITH A FEAST OF CHINESE FAVORITES

February 13 is the start of the year 4681 according to the Chinese lunar calendar. It will be called the Year of the Boar (or Pig) following the custom of naming the years after the twelve animals in the Chinese zodiac.

New Year's Eve is traditionally the time for family feasting. This year what could be more appropriate than a menu featuring Red Roast Pork? The pork, the Hot & Sour Soup and the Shrimp Fried Rice are subtly flavored with soy sauce, that favorite Oriental sauce made from soybeans.

Soy Sauce is naturally brewed and imparts a salty sweet-tart flavor to the dishes. Another piquant flavor-enhancer, Teriyaki Sauce which is a combination of the soy sauce, wine and various herbs and spices, is used in the stir-fried vegetable dish on the menu.

Rice, of course, is always a staple in Chinese meals not only because it is a nutritious food but also because it is considered a good luck symbol. Consequently, rice appears in this New Year's feast not once but twice; first in the elegant Shrimp Fried Rice dish mentioned above and second in a plain version to accompany the roast pork.

Throughout the meal, small cups of steaming hot tea, the traditional drink of the Chinese, are served. As a matter of fact, according to legend, China is where tea was discovered almost 5,000 years ago. The clean, fresh taste of tea makes it the perfect accompaniment to hot and spicy foods as well as creamy-sweet ones.

Although sweets are not a specialty of the Chinese cuisine, a New Year's celebration deserves a fitting finale... ice cream flavored with another Oriental favorite—ginger—and, of course, fortune cookies.

Gung Hay Fat Choy! (Happy New Year!)

HOT & SOUR SOUP

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1 can (10-1/2 oz.) condensed chicken broth | 2 tablespoons white vinegar |
| 2 soup cans water | 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco pepper sauce |
| 1 can (4 oz.) mushrooms (sliced or stems & pieces) | Dash M.S.G. (optional) |
| 2 tablespoons cornstarch | 1 egg, beaten |
| 2 tablespoons Soy Sauce | 2 green onions and tops, sliced |

Combine chicken broth, water, mushrooms, cornstarch, soy sauce, vinegar, Tabasco and M.S.G. in medium saucepan. Cook over high heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil and is slightly thickened. Pour egg into soup, stirring constantly in one direction; remove from heat. Mix in green onions. Spoon into individual soup bowls; garnish with additional chopped green onions or cilantro, as desired. Makes about 5 cups.

RED ROAST PORK WITH FLUFFY RICE

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| 2 pounds boneless pork loin roast (boned, rolled and tied) | 1/3 cup honey |
| 1/3 cup Soy Sauce | 1 teaspoon minced fresh ginger root |
| 1/3 cup plum jam | 1 clove garlic, minced |
| | 3 to 4 cups hot cooked rice |

Untie and unroll pork roast. Pierce both sides of roast with fork; place in large plastic bag. Thoroughly combine soy sauce, plum jam, honey, ginger and garlic; pour into bag over roast. Press air out; tie top securely. Turn bag over several times to thoroughly coat meat. Refrigerate 8 hours or overnight, turning bag over occasionally. Remove pork from marinade; reserve marinade. Roll and retie roast. Place on rack placed in pan of water. Brush thoroughly with marinade. Roast in 325° F. oven 1 hour and 45 minutes or until meat thermometer inserted into thickest part registers 165°; brush several times with marinade. (Cover lightly with aluminum foil during last half hour of cooking time if roast browns too quickly.) Let stand 15 minutes before slicing. Meanwhile, combine 1/2 cup remaining marinade and 1/2 cup water in small saucepan. Bring to boil and simmer 1 minute; spoon over roast and serve with rice. Makes 6 servings.

VEGETABLE MEDLEY STIR-FRY

- | | |
|-----------------------------|--|
| 1/4 cup Teriyaki Sauce | 1 medium onion, cut in chunks |
| 1 tablespoon cornstarch | 1 clove garlic, minced |
| 2 tablespoons water | 1/4 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced (about 2 cups) |
| 1 pound fresh broccoli | |
| 2 tablespoons vegetable oil | |

Combine teriyaki sauce, cornstarch and water; set aside. Remove broccoli flowerets; cut in half lengthwise, then peel stalks and cut diagonally into 1/8-inch thick slices. Heat oil in large frying pan or wok over high heat. Add broccoli, onion and garlic. Stir fry 4 minutes, or until vegetables are tender crisp. Stir mushrooms and teriyaki sauce mixture evenly into vegetables. Cook and stir only until sauce boils and thickens. Serve immediately. Makes 6 servings.

SHRIMP FRIED RICE

- | | |
|---------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 2 eggs | 3 cups cold, cooked rice |
| 2 tablespoons water | 1/4 pound cooked shrimp, chopped |
| 2 tablespoons vegetable oil | 3 tablespoons Kikkoman Soy Sauce |
| 3 green onions and tops, sliced | |

Beat eggs and water together just to blend; set aside. Heat oil until hot in large frying pan or wok over medium heat. Add green onions and stir-fry 30 seconds. Add eggs and scramble. Stir in rice and cook until heated, gently separating grains. Add shrimp and soy sauce; cook and stir until thoroughly heated. Serve immediately. Makes 6 servings.

GINGER ICE CREAM

(not illustrated)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 quart vanilla ice cream | 1-1/2 teaspoons fresh ginger juice and pulp (fresh ginger root forced through garlic press) |
| 1/2 cup finely diced candied or crystallized ginger* | |

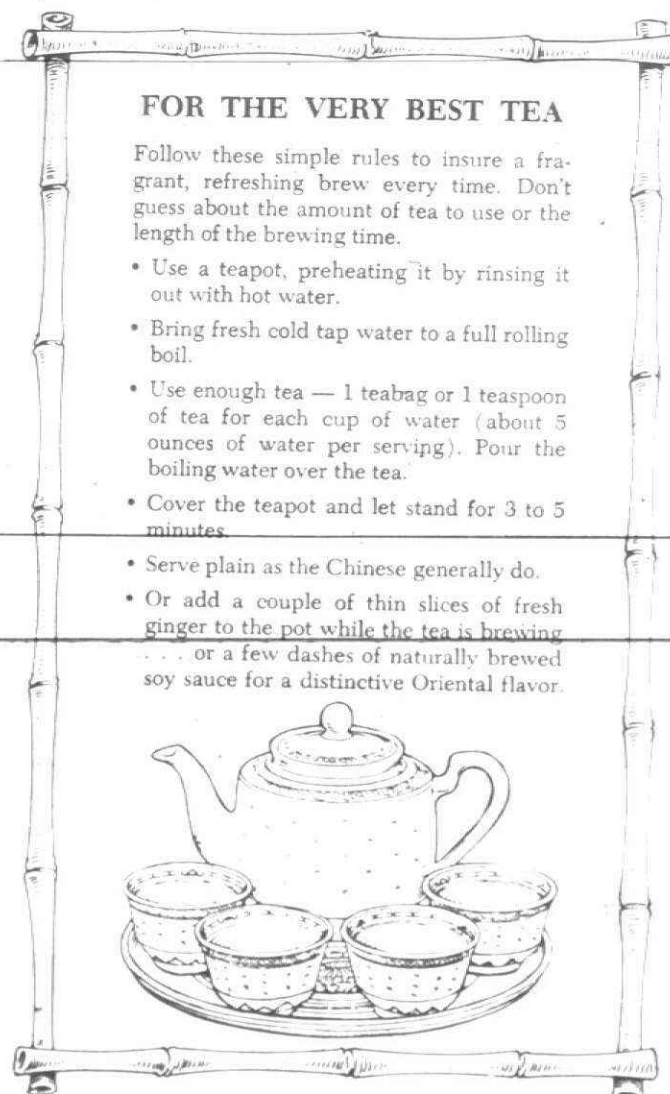

Place ice cream in mixing bowl. Allow to soften slightly. Fold in candied ginger and ginger juice and pulp. Spoon into freezer container. Store in freezer for 3 to 4 days to develop flavor. Makes 6 servings.

*OR, substitute with 1/2 cup ginger preserve.

FOR THE VERY BEST TEA

Follow these simple rules to insure a fragrant, refreshing brew every time. Don't guess about the amount of tea to use or the length of the brewing time.

- Use a teapot, preheating it by rinsing it out with hot water.
- Bring fresh cold tap water to a full rolling boil.
- Use enough tea — 1 teabag or 1 teaspoon of tea for each cup of water (about 5 ounces of water per serving). Pour the boiling water over the tea.
- Cover the teapot and let stand for 3 to 5 minutes.
- Serve plain as the Chinese generally do.
- Or add a couple of thin slices of fresh ginger to the pot while the tea is brewing... or a few dashes of naturally brewed soy sauce for a distinctive Oriental flavor.

No Doubt About It.

MERIT, the 'Enriched Flavor' cigarette, delivers a taste bonus that comes across loud and clear.

You taste it on your first draw.

You taste it with every puff you take. Extra taste.

That's 'Enriched Flavor' smoking. That's MERIT.

The cigarette that delivers the taste of leading brands having up to twice the tar.

There's nothing halfway about it. MERIT. We made it for you.

Nothing halfway about it.

THIS IS THE YEAR for the Arts Council's musical revue. The biennial event stars the local talented and even the not-so-talented.

Janet Brass and John Claeys are co-chairing Follies '83. They have been working for months on planning. The professional director from New York will be welcomed with a Meet the Director party Tuesday, April 12. This gala gathering also will be a casting call for those interested in being part of the show.

The actual show dates will be April 29 and 30 in Plymouth Salem High School auditorium.

ALL THOSE amateur photographers who were dismayed (and angry) about the removal of the ice carvings in Kellogg Park a couple of weeks ago may have a second chance this week.

It all depends on the weather. If the weather is right, the ice carvers will be back in the park this week. And there may be skating in the Gathering.

It's all part of the Johnny Mann Great American Choral Festival which will be going on Friday and Saturday in Plymouth Salem High School Auditorium.

The Plymouth Community Chorus and chorus director Mike Gross are hosting the state festival. Johnny Mann is hoping to use the ice carvings as a backdrop for taping segments of the festival for national television.

The ice carvings in the park may rank a close second to the annual hot air balloon festival as an attraction for photographers.

COULD BE the balloon festival will receive wide coverage this year. Lunched together Friday at the Round Table Club were Scott Lorenz, Gordon Boring, John Vos and Tom Dean of radio station WCZY. When those four get their heads together, it must be balloon festival talk.

The U.S. Post Office is issuing a new hot air balloon stamp commemorating 200 years of ballooning in this country. The Plymouth Post Office has not received word about when it will get the 20-cent stamps. They do know there will be four stamps in the block.

MARTY JABARA was invited to supply the keyboard music for the halftime show at the Super Bowl. Friends here caught Marty's sound on the piano and synthesizer.

He is a regular member of the group of 22 musicians who provide the musical background for the television show "St. Elsewhere." He does the percussion.

Marty's parents are Jean and Jim Jabara of Plymouth.

"BAREFOOT IN THE PARK" opened a week ago at True Grit Ltd. dinner theater in Homer with Charles Burr of Plymouth in the cast. The Neil Simon favorite will play for eight weeks.

Charles is the son of Ruth and Sanford Burr of Plymouth.

JACQUELIN DYER of Plymouth has been awarded a $250 scholarship from the Stephenson Foundation of Grosse Pointe Woods. Grants are based on academic excellence.

Jacqueline, a junior majoring in special education at Madonna College, has maintained a 4.0 grade point average.

CINDY JOHNSON of Plymouth had a major role in the Spring Arbor College presentation of "The Piper." Cindy played Mistress Hale in the musical fantasy based on Robert Browning's poem "The Pied Piper of Hamelin."

SHERRY HANNON of Canton was one of the state's skilled horsemen honored recently by the Michigan Horse Show Association. Sherry received special awards at a banquet at the Holidome in Livonia.

She was cited for inner circle champion and reserve champion for amateur and open three-gaited saddlebred and Society's Something Sweet Champion, three-gaited pleasure horse.

VICKEY WHIPPLE and Evelyn Beck had high scores at last Thursday's party bridge games at the Plymouth Cultural Center. Games begin shortly after noon and are open to all bridge players.

Johnny Mann visits musical celebration

Thirty-six choirs representing 2,000 voices will compete this weekend in Johnny Mann's Great American Choral Festival which will be emceed by the composer-arranger at Plymouth Salem High School Auditorium.

It is the first amateur choral competition in Michigan. The choirs will compete for $4,000 in prize money as the four best choral groups in the state are selected.

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra and Plymouth Community Chorus will kick-off the activities at 8 p.m. Friday — opening night of the two-day musical celebration.

The choirs will begin competing Saturday morning. There will be workshops all day long for choral participants.

The finals will be at 8 p.m. Saturday with the Plymouth chorus opening the program. The 24 finalists and the grand prize winners will be announced at the end of the evening.

Mann is flying in from California to be master of ceremonies. His television show, "Stand up and Cheer," ran for three years. He has 34 albums in release and was nominated five times for Grammy Awards. He won the award two times.

He will return to television this fall with "Johnny Mann's Singin' Celebration." The show will feature the Johnny Mann Singers and segments from the Great American Choral Festival.

THE OPENING NIGHT concert is coordinated by Michael Gross, community chorus director.

"I've always wanted to work with the Plymouth Symphony and I could never express what a joy it has been to work with symphony conductor, Johan van der Merwe," said Gross.

"Our problem has always been finding music that would demonstrate the strengths of both organizations."

Judge Dumar Davis also is involved in the opening of the festival.

"Ever since I met Judge Davis and discovered he was an admirer of Abraham Lincoln, I've wondered why someone didn't combine this admiration with the Plymouth Symphony. I knew that Aaron Copland had written a piece for orchestra and narrator telling about the life of Lincoln's arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

"The timing was perfect. Lincoln's birthday is Feb. 12 and the festival opens Feb. 11. I called Johan van der Merwe and Judge Davis. Both were very interested in doing the piece and thus the project began to take shape."

DAVIS WILL narrate Copland's "An American Portrait" with van der Merwe conducting the orchestra.

Johnny Mann will lead the orchestra for Copland's "Fanfare for the Common Man." The Plymouth Community Chorus and the orchestra will combine talents in Fred Waring's arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Soloist will be Dick Schaw who performed with the orchestra at its 1982 Pops Concert.

Gross has invited four choral groups to round off the Friday evening concert.

"All four choirs are excellent examples of the highest achievements in choral music. I'm sure the audience will love this concert," Gross said.

The Livonia Franklin Bel Canto Choir, directed by Robert Ballard; the Interlochen Arts Academy Chorale, Lawrence Gray, director; the Macomb Community College, Prof. Ellen Brown, director; and the Wayne State University Men's Glee Club, Dr. Harry Langford, director, will complete the opening night festivities.

Gross said, "We have some of the best directors in the state on stage for this concert and I'm totally in awe of each of them. This should be a great concert."

THERE WILL be a reception for all of the choirs at the Plymouth Hilton Inn after the concert.

Admission to the Friday night concert is $5. Tickets for all day Saturday and Saturday night is $5. They may be purchased in advance at the Plymouth Community Chorus office 377 Amelia, Plymouth from noon to 4 p.m. Monday.

Balladeer charms town hallers

By Elinor Graham
staff writer

Balladeer Bill Shustik travels light. He could have wandered into town on foot with his knapsack and musical instruments in the traditional manner of balladeers. Plymouth Y Town Hall representatives who met his plane at Metro Airport commented on his lack of luggage.

He had a small knapsack, a banjo and a four-year-old Martin six-string guitar. The major item in the knapsack was a bulky hooded jacket, a necessity for his next stop, Bismarck, N.D.

He carries the major tools of his trade — a vast library of American folklore and history — in his head.

His harmonica is the easiest of instruments to transport.

SHUSTICK was the third guest artist in the Plymouth Y Town Hall Series. The Wednesday morning audience in the Penn Theatre was entertained, educated and charmed. Town hallers who had never heard of the balladeer became fans. They discovered why Shustik had been invited to perform at the White House and the Lincoln Center. They wanted to know where to buy his tapes and albums.

He recounts the country's history in song and story. The people's feelings come through during the battles, storms, and political changes. The opening of the west, the railroads, the heroes and the sinners, are recorded in song.

Shustik collects the old love songs, barroom ballads, hymns and spirituals. Sometimes new lyrics are added when he meets an oldtimer who recalls a different version.

He is interested in the songs of the Depression and the WPA and is adding them to his repertoire.

His story of Meg the witch could be called a dramatic reading, with musical background and emphasis.

THE BALLADEER played his banjo, which he referred to as a "native American instrument," as an accompaniment for a medley of Civil War tunes. He switched to guitar for the love ballad, "Ora Lee."

Later, at the celebrity luncheon in the Mayflower Meeting House, he said

Mike Gross (left) and Johnny Mann put months of planning into the upcoming festival.

Friday, or at Sideways, 505 Forest, Plymouth. For information call the chorus office, 455-4080.

The festival is sponsored by the Hilton Hotels Corporation and is made possible through the efforts of the City of Plymouth, the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, the Plymouth Hilton Inn and the Mayflower Hotel.

"Everyone who enjoys music is invited to be a part of the excitement," Gross said.

He said a limited number of tickets are available. He encourages those who would like to attend to order them quickly.

John Mann hopes to use the sculptures and the skaters as background for taped segments of the festival. These will be televised nationally.

The prestige of the festival is shown by the number of choral groups taking part. They are:

- Battle Creek: Battle Creek Boys' Choir, Battle Creek Central High School A Cappella Choir, Battle Creek Community Chorus
- Dearborn: Dearborn Community Chorus, Ford Chorus
- Detroit: McMichael-Webber Junior High Combined Chorus, Wayne State University Men's Glee Club, Harmonaires

City puts best foot forward for festival

The city of Plymouth and the Chamber of Commerce are planning some interesting sidelights to the Johnny Mann Great American Choral Festival this weekend.

An ice sculpture spectacular in Kellogg Park and members of the Plymouth Figure Skating Club performing across Pennington Avenue in The Gathering will add dimension to the festivities. If the weather cooperates with temperatures are low enough to make ice. Chuck Skene, director of parks and recreation is working with the skating club.

Johnny Mann hopes to use the sculptures and the skaters as background for taped segments of the festival. These will be televised nationally.

- Battle Creek: Battle Creek Boys' Choir, Battle Creek Central High School A Cappella Choir, Battle Creek Community Chorus

Near-perfect Salem sinks Stevenson

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

There are a lot of people in Livonia, Plymouth and Canton who missed something special Thursday night.

If they were at home watching "Shogun" reruns, playing videogames or counting snowflakes, they were in the wrong place. Where they should have been is at Livonia Stevenson High School, where the Spartans hosted Plymouth Salem in a key Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) basketball game.

The crowd at Stevenson half-filled the gym, but what they saw was a classic contest, as Salem turned in a near-flawless performance to knock off the Spartans, 55-50.

IT WAS A BIG game for both teams. Salem had one loss in the WLAA Lakes Division coming into the contest — against Stevenson Jan. 7, by a 49-48 margin. Stevenson had one loss on its overall record (12-1) and was unbeaten in nine WLAA Lakes Division games.

A Spartan win would have just about wrapped up the homecourt advantage throughout the upcoming WLAA playoffs. But the Rocks had other ideas.

As Salem coach Fred Thomann accurately described it, "We couldn't play that team any better than we did tonight."

How close was it? Tied at 14 after one quarter and at 26 at the half. The biggest lead for either team in the opening half was four points by Salem.

A Rick Berberet basket with 16 seconds left in the third quarter allowed the Rocks to take a 39-36 advantage into the final eight minutes. Salem then scored the first five points of the last quarter, on baskets by Marvin Zurek and Matt Broderick and a Dave Houle free throw, to open up a 44-36 lead.

A PAIR OF Gary Mexicotte free throws sliced the deficit to six for Stevenson, and the Spartans seemed ready to roll when, with 5:46 still to play, Bob Sluka took a Mexicotte pass and laid it up and in.

Well, not quite in. Houle leaped up and slapped the ball away just before it hit the rim, an obvious goaltending call. Except the officials never saw it. They did see Stevenson coach George Van Wagoner explode on the sidelines and tagged him with a technical foul.

Broderick bagged both free throws and Stevenson, instead of closing to within four, was back down by eight, 46-38.

The Spartans never gave up. Twice they closed to within four, on Mexicotte's bucket with 3:03 to go and on Pete Rose's field goal with 1:03 left. But Salem always answered to frustrate Stevenson.

"They played well," Van Wagoner said of Salem's performance. "We played well, but not well enough."

"No way do I think they are better than us. They normally don't shoot well from 20 feet."

Subbing for... Luckless Chiefs still win

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

Hey, what is this — a game?

What happened to all those guys who started the season as the first team of Plymouth Canton wrestlers?

The answer is easy: injuries, illnesses, accidents, etc. Canton coach Dan Chrenko has had to overcome as many calamities as the Egyptian pharaoh who tried to stop Moses from freeing the Hebrews.

At least there's been no flood — knock on wood.

The surprising thing is that the Chiefs keep winning. They did Thursday. Despite losing the first two matches, Canton rolled to its ninth win in 10 dual meets and seventh in eight Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) outings, toppling Northville, 42-25 at Canton.

THE VICTORY kept the Chiefs on a collision course with Walled Lake Western for the WLAA's Western Division dual meet crown. Both teams have lost once in league play, to unbeaten Plymouth Salem.

"It's a big rivalry for us," Chrenko said of the upcoming meet, slated for 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at Western. "If there's one team we like to beat, it's Western. We have a pair of one-point wins in the last two years."

During the early years of the now-defunct Western Six League, the Warriors were perennial mat champs. Canton assumed that role in the last few years before both became members of the WLAA, currently in its first season.

Canton temporarily lost three of its top wrestlers — Todd Bartlett, Todd Gattoni and John Allmand — after they were injured in a car accident Jan. 15. Bartlett, returned against wrestling

Northville and Chrenko said it "looks pretty optimistic" that Gattoni and Allmand will be back for the Western meet.

BUT, IN THE meantime, Jamie Riegall, who was also involved in the car accident but not injured as seriously, hurt his knee in practice last week. He didn't wrestle against Northville, and his status remains uncertain.

Jeff Condit filled in at the 101-pound weight division for Riegall and was defeated by the Mustangs' Jim Assemany, 11-0. Northville's Bruce Wolfram (108) then pinned Heath Smith, who was subbing for Gattoni, in 5:12.

Bartlett (115) ended the Northville surge and got Canton rolling with a 9-1 win over Erwin Morfe. The Chiefs rattled off six more match wins, four on pins, to clinch the victory.

Winners on pins in the Canton streak were Jim Parks (122), in 3:52 over Mike Bates; Tom Frigge (135), in 5:37 over Bob Wolfram; Bob Parks (141), in 3:23 over John LeTarte; and Marty Heaton (158), in 4:1 over Mark Levitt.

Tim Collins (129) blanked Northville's Kent Mathes, 12-0, and Larry Janiga (148) shut out the Mustangs' Jay Anderson, 6-0, in the Chief surge.

Paul Fletcher (201) was the final Chief victor, nailing Don Unsworth in just :33.

Following the Western dual, Canton will compete in the WLAA championships, hosted by Western. Favorites for the title are Salem, Western and Canton, with Livonia Bentley and Walled Lake Central upset hopefuls.

S'craft triumphant

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Teamwork was the key Wednesday night as Schoolcraft College avenged an earlier loss to Henry Ford Community College with a homecourt 88-83 basketball triumph.

Schoolcraft and Henry Ford went into Eastern Conference action this weekend tied for second place at 6-3. Flint Mott holds down the top spot.

The Ocelots, sporting a 19-5 overall record, played flawlessly in the first half, racing to a 44-27 advantage.

Cathi Hengy scored 24 points to lead the Schoolcraft College women's basketball team to an upset 74-73 win over Eastern Conference leader Henry Ford.

It was Ford's first conference loss in 10 games. Schoolcraft, meanwhile, is now 6-4 in league play and 11-5 overall.

Hengy, a guard from Redford Union, sparked the Lady Ocelots to a 39-33 half-time lead with her accurate outside shooting.

Schoolcraft sports

The visitors from Ford, however, rallied in the second half, closing the gap to one, but failed to convert the go-ahead basket with possession of the ball in the final 11 seconds.

Gina Johnson and Cheryl Sobkow each added 17 points for the winners. Deborah Johnson chipped in with 14.

Sobkow continues to lead the conference in rebounding as she came up with 10 loose balls.

Marsha Welser and Kathy Siemiesz scored 19 and 13 points, respectively, to pace Henry Ford. Livonia Franklin grad Julie Wilga added eight.

Rocks spike Canton plans

Plymouth Salem's volleyball team, sluggish over the past few weeks, got its game together Wednesday to knock off rival Plymouth Canton in a tightly contested three-game match, 11-15, 15-7, 16-14, at Salem.

The win improved Salem's Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) record to 6-2. Canton fell to 3-6 in the WLAA.

"It was a good match all the way around," said Salem's winning coach, Jeanne Martin. "It was not sloppy at all. Both teams played really well."

Although the Rocks dropped the first game, it proved to be instrumental in shaking them out of their doldrums. Canton raced to a 13-1 lead before Salem rallied to make it close.

"WE GOT REAL good sets yesterday, something we haven't been getting," Martin said. "And our serves all the way around were real good."

"We were much more aggressive than we have been."

Martin credited Lisa Granger, Diane Murphy and Darlene Dunlop with providing the sets that made the difference. Despite Salem's solid league record, Martin has not been satisfied with the Rocks' play since the Battle Creek Invitational earlier this season.

That assessment changed Wednesday. Canton had been on a tear recently with two straight wins (after five losses in a row) and a second-place finish in the Plymouth Invitational a week ago.

But the Chiefs' chances to beat Salem were damaged severely when Polly Roberts injured a knee in the final game. "She hit well at the net and served and set well until that," Martin said of Roberts' performance. An emergency unit was summoned, and Roberts had to be taken off on a stretcher.

Martin also thought Canton got a standout effort from Kris Harrison at the service line.

Salem hosts Farmington-Harrison in a WLAA match at 7 p.m. Wednesday. Canton entertains Northville in a WLAA contest at 7 p.m. Thursday.

GARY CASKEY/staff photographer

Salem's Diane Murphy provided proficient sets to help the Rocks edge Canton in a tight three-game match Wednesday.

Canton tops Western

Plymouth Canton's gymnasts outlasted Walled Lake Western in a dual meet Jan. 26, but were out-matched themselves five days later in losing to North Farmington.

gymnastics

Against Western, the Chiefs rolled to a 102.45-92.65 victory behind Linda Beale's wins on the uneven parallel bars (7.7), floor exercise (7.9) and all-around (29.6). Beale was second in the vault (7.45) and balance beam (6.6).

Annette Bryce was second in the all-around (29.05), after winning the vault (7.6) and taking second in the bars (7.35) and floor exercise (7.7). Lisa Lovich was third in the floor exercise (7.25), fourth in the bars (6.0) and fifth in the vault (6.65) and beam (7.35).

Pam Modson, a Farmington Hills Our Lady of Mercy student who competes in Canton's meets, scored 8.2 in the vault, 7.8 in the bars, 6.35 in the beam, 8.15 in the floor exercise and 30.5 in the all-around.

ON JAN. 31, the Chiefs proved no match for perennial power North, losing by a 122.05-108.1 margin at North.

Beale again topped the Canton effort, winning the bars (7.8), placing second in the vault (8.25), floor exercise (8.15) and all-around (31.3) and taking a third in the beam (7.1).

Bryce was third in the vault (8.15) and all-around (28.9), and fifth in the bars (7.25) and floor exercise (8.15). Lovich took a fourth in the all-around (25.7), a fifth in the beam (6.6) and a sixth in the vault (8.4).

Modson scored 8.4 in the vault, 8.0 in the bars, 6.0 in the beam, 7.8 in the floor exercise and 30.2 in the all-around.

Canton, now 3-2 in dual meets, travels to Ann Arbor Pioneer for a dual meet Monday.

Rocks repulse Chiefs

—SHOOTING WELL from 20 feet for the Rocks, Glenn Medalle and Broderick Medalle sizzled, niddling Stevenson's 1-3-1 zone defense with jumpers from the free throw line and the corner to finish with 16 points.

What Medalle missed, Houle collected. The 6-foot-4 senior was ousted underneath by Stevenson's 6-7 Tom Domako and the 6-4 Sluka, but he more than held his own and finished with 18 points.

Broderick complemented Medalle's outside shooting with nine points of his own, putting in nine points.

Domako netted 14 points and nabbed

13 rebounds for the Spartans. Rose had 12 points and three steals. Mexicotte contributed 10 points and five assists and Curt Ullstrom had 10 points.

The game left something to be talked about: a possible rematch in the WLA tournament finals.

"I thought this was a great high school basketball game," Thomann said, then added his prediction: "And I think the next time we meet it will be, too."

"The thing is, the next time we play them we'll have to be that much better because they'll be improved."

If it happens, that game will be something to witness — in person.

700 series keep piling up, but 800 mark is elusive

Bill Bashara, manager of Wonderland Lanes, is puzzled. And with good reason.

He can't understand why there hasn't been an 800 series rolled in his house, while more than 60 members of the high-scoring Classic have bettered the 700 mark thus far this season.

"We have had five perfect games, which is about normal," Bashara said. "But while the 700 series keep piling up, the fellows don't seem to be able to put three high games together. One of these days, it should happen."

With that, Bashara reported four more members to the 700 club from his house. Paul Crispin was the leader this week with a 741, made possible because of an opening 275.

Following Crispin were Tom Gow, who sandwiched a perfect game between scores of 237 and 198 for a 735; Ed Austreg, who rolled a 284 in a 734; and Gerry Heistadt, who had a closing 278 in a 707.

IN THE LADIES' Classic, Jean Essa had a middle game of 243 in a 606 series.

Two other 700 series were reported during the week. At Merry Bowl, Carl Hansen opened with a 269, fell to a 196, then rallied for a 252 for a 722. At Westland Bowl, Gene Elsnar had a 288 in a 741 in the Tri-City Men's League.

in the pocket by W.W. Edgar

There was a battle royal in the Men's Trio League at Woodland Lanes, where Tom Schoen nosed out Mike Rose for the pace-maker's role. Schoen had a 246 in a 668 to top Rose by three pins. Rose had a 242 high game in his 665 series.

High game of the week at Woodland was a 275, posted by Butch Walton in the Mixer's League. In the Gay '90s Senior Citizens League, Bill Lawler had a 250 for high game.

At Garden Lanes, Bob Fletcher recorded a 268 game in a 690 series. Other good scores came in the St. Linus League, with Jim Strong the leader (657), followed by Brad Lackey (650). In the Ladies' Classic, Jan Schultz was high with a 611.

OTHER GOOD PERFORMANCES: At Merry Bowl, Polly Cole, a 607 in the Ladies' Classic, and Richard Lannetta, a 267 in the Senior House League, at Westland Bowl, Kim Jones, a 651 in the Ladies' Classic and Rich Smith, a 255 in a 638 in the Monday Morning Men's League.

Ocelots avenge loss

In the second half, Schoolcraft went ahead by 22 points with 12 minutes to play, but Henry Ford made a futile run, cutting the lead to five in the final minutes.

The Hawks frustrated Schoolcraft in the second half with a half-court trap.

"We had a super first half but I had a bad second half," said Schoolcraft coach Rocky Watkins. "I took the momentum away from them by substituting and playing too conservative."

SCHOOLCRAFT point-guard George Merrifield was charged with 11 turnovers. As a team, Schoolcraft turned it over 20 times in the second half.

Carlos Briggs, the nation's leading scorer, enjoyed a fine all-around game as he poured in 21 points and added 10 assists. Many of his passes went to 6-foot-4 reserve forward

Schoolcraft sports

Ricky Johnson, who tallied 17 points.

Johnson made all seven field goals attempts and was 3-for-3 from the free throw line.

Livonia Stevenson grad Bill Keyes, who spearheaded the quick Schoolcraft start, contributed 12 points and five rebounds. Merrifield and Scott Conrad added 10 and nine points, respectively.

CHARLES CRUMP, a guard, led Henry Ford with 19 points. Four other Hawks were also in double figures including Redford Union grad Jerry Burk (15), Pat Riazzi (16), Bob Gori (12) and Bob Brusco (11).

Ben Kingsley makes his motion picture debut as spiritual and political leader Mahatma Gandhi in Richard Attenborough's "Gandhi."

the movies
Louise Snider

3-hour 'Gandhi' lives up to billing as significant film

"Gandhi" (PG) is three hours and 10 minutes long, and you can count that as time well spent. It's epic in more than length. Its scope, its cast of characters and, most important of all, its subject are all on a grand scale. Too often we see large, costly films that simply magnify trivia. That is not the case here.

The story of the great Indian leader, Mohandas K. Gandhi, called Mahatma (Great Soul), is the story of a man who affected the course of history and left an important philosophical legacy.

He is still a controversial figure in India and elsewhere, where proponents of social and political change look for quick solutions and regard Gandhi's strategy of noncooperation and nonviolence as impractical.

Yet, putting his teachings into practice, he stirred the conscience of the world and inspired millions of his countrymen to follow his own example of moral courage. He spearheaded the drive for Indian home rule and succeeded in creating an independent India with-in the British commonwealth.

THE FILM, WHICH spans 56 of Gandhi's 79 years, took producer-director Richard Attenborough 20 years to make. Most of those years were spent in cutting through bureaucratic red tape, winning Indian government approval and obtaining financing.

Gandhi surely would have been amused by the irony of an Englishman, Attenborough, making a film about the man who contributed so largely to the dissolution of the Empire.

And Gandhi probably would have been pleased. Even though he sought to expel the British from India, he wanted "to part friends." His ties to England and his advocacy of English law emerge from the first half of the film.

It shows Gandhi as a young, English-educated attorney, arriving in South Africa to undertake work for an Indian client there. He is shocked by the harsh discrimination he encounters and moved to enlist other Indians in opposing and overturning the discriminatory laws.

It is by far the best part of the film. We see Gandhi as a mortal man given to outbursts of temper, quarreling with his wife, learning to become a forceful speaker and struggling to find his way to effect change.

At the conclusion of this important chapter in Gandhi's life, with the victory in South Africa won, the action shifts to Gandhi's role in the liberation of India from colonial rule. Unfortunately, this portion of the movie lacks cohesiveness. There is a disturbing randomness to events and absence of information about characters (background, motives, etc.).

WE ARE, FOR EXAMPLE, presented with the instance of an Englishwoman, the daughter of a British admiral, who travels to India to join Gandhi's household. We are given no clues to her conduct and simply left to guess about her reasons. We are also left guessing about the nature of Gandhi's political alliances. In one speech, he warns his countrymen about the danger of replacing British exploiters with Indian ones.

Later we see him working with political figures, at least one of whom seems to be the kind he was warning against.

The contradictions and loose ends, however, pale beside the bright core of this film, the incredibly realistic and magnetic performance of Ben Kingsley as Gandhi. Kingsley, half-Indian by birth, bears an uncanny resemblance to Gandhi. His body takes on the contours and shape of the Mahatma as he sits, wearing a loincloth and spinning cotton into yarn. His luminous eyes hold our attention and project the glow of a vital, burning spirit.

When we leave the theater, we may still be vague about Indian politics, and Gandhi, the man, may still be an enigma to us, but the image of Gandhi created by Kingsley's brilliant performance is sharp, concrete and lasting.

Local soprano sings role of beautiful loser

By Mary Jane Doerr
special writer

FOR BIRMINGHAM RESIDENT and coloratura soprano Jan Albright, singing the part of Elsa Schraeder in Michigan Opera Theatre's production of "The Sound of Music" is a totally different experience.

"She is not like any character that I have played," said Albright. "She doesn't win."

In the stage play of "The Sound of Music," Elsa Schraeder is a wealthy widow from Vienna who is engaged to the Baron. Unlike the movie where it is almost a cat fight between Maria and Elsa, the stage play portrays the Viennese lady in quite a different perspective.

"She is a strong person who has carried on her husband's business after his death. She knows her place and can stand on her own two feet. She doesn't need the Baron, but it would be nice," Albright said.

THERE ARE TWO roles in the movie that Albright will sing, "How Can Love Survive?" (Act I) and "No Way To Stop It" (Act II), which add dimension to the character.

"Elsa truly loves the Baron, but completely disagrees with his philosophical approach to life. She is a survivor. She believes if you smile and are charming, and don't have any confrontations everything will be alright. You just play life day by day."

But as the story tells, the Baron couldn't be forced into smiling his way along with "Anschluss," the German take-over of Austria. Finally Elsa realizes the incompatibility of their two philosophies and bows out.

BESIDES THOSE OPERA roles she has sung with nearly every symphony in Michigan, countless oratorio and solo engagements, and now is a member of the voice faculty at Oakland University.

Two of Albright's students are also singing in this production. Colleen Dewey is Liesel and Irene Onken will sing Sister Margareta.

"I have discovered teaching and I am hooked on it," said Albright, a graduate in music education of Indiana University. "I teach both at Oakland University and at my home nearly six days a week."

Albright's husband shares her interest in music. He serves as her vocal

Judy Kaye as Maria is surrounded by the children, and Jeff Duncan, in the Michigan Opera Theatre production of "The Sound of Music." (left), Kelly Boczek, Julie Lepper coach as he also studied voice for four years at Indiana University even though he graduated with a business degree. He is a substitute singer at Metropolitan Methodist Church where his wife is soloist with the choir, and he sometimes joins the MOT chorus.

A few years ago when Albright decided to go to New York to seek a career in opera, it was her husband who encouraged her.

"To have that kind of life, one really must be a gypsy," explained Albright.

Jan Albright is Elsa Schraeder and Bob Grossman is Max Detwiler in "The Sound of Music" at the Music Hall.

William Gibbs III is in town recently. Bill - Brother Rice class of '72, Michigan State University class of '72, which makes him a bit younger than Bronco Nerd of Michigan's Kalkaska Mountain Vineyard - is most recently of Felton-Empire Vineyards.

His purpose in being here, in addition to visiting his family, was to announce his decision to make his winery a significant marketing matter in the Detroit area.

Its presence has been evident for a couple of years but just barely. Now associated with a new distributor, Bill has seen our area as a significant national market for his 15,000-cases-a-year winery and has decided to concentrate his attention on it as one of his prime "outstate" markets.

It is a good decision. Michigan is a prime consumer, probably fourth nationally, of California wines.

When winemakers are free to purchase their grapes, they can make any variety they want to and are not dependent on their own grape production. Leo and Bill have taken advantage of this and have, over the years, produced a large array of wines.

However, personal preference seems to be aiming them in a Germanic direction, their preferences being gewurztraminer and, most important, white riesling. The latter has been especially effective for them. They have won much national acclaim for their late-harvest dessert wines and have done nearly as well with their table wine production.

Their goal is to be known as table wine producers. The late harvest is a quick of nature they plan to take advantage of when they can.

ADDITIONALLY, two excellent reds have been made recently. A full, complex and warm pinot noir from 1979 is a beautiful thing. Small amounts are in Michigan, to be followed by a 1980 cabernet sauvignon using Hallcrest grapes just loaded with them.

The first six years of Felton Empire have been interesting ones, and successful as well. The future looks good with Leo in the winery and Bill on the road making white wines in a world that cannot seem to get enough of them.
