Pink slips arrive for 91 instructors

Nearly 100 Plymouth-Canton school teachers will find pink slips in their mailboxes this week.

The selfool board unanimously approved notifying the teachers of pending lay off at Monday night's meeting. The lay-off notices were prompted by a projected drop in enrollment of 500 students and lack of money.

Ma Bell gets nod

Plymouth-Canton School Board Treasurer Glenn Schroeder sparred with Ma Bell and lost at Monday's board meeting

Despite Schroeder's conviction that the district's annual phone bill is $50,000 too high, board members voted to convert to Michigan Bell Telephone's new "Centrex III-B" system.

The district paid $144,172 for phone service during the 1981-82 school year. Costs projected for 1982-83 jump to $195,447.

Drama group to perform in Austria

Students win 'best wishes,' but no money for trip

By Arlene Funke staff writer

Canton trustees regretfully denied a request Tuesday for funds to send 11 high school drama students to Austria in June.

The students are members of the Plymouth Park Players, a highly touted troup of teen thespians who attend the Plymouth Canton Community Schools.

The group has been invited to perform at an international theater festival in Austria — the only high school players so invited.

The trip is expected to cost about $24,000. But fund-raising efforts have yielded only about $6,000, said Gloria Logan, drama teacher and Plymouth Players director.

Seven of the students going on the trip are from Canton, Logan said.

"I don't quarrel with the merits of your request," said Canton Clerk John Flodin. "But we're custodians of public money. Once we start, where do we cease giving it?"

ACCORDING TO Logan, the project isn't receiving any official funding from the school district, or the municipalities of Plymouth and Plymouth Township. Because the players only learned about the trip in November, they have been unable to secure grants from private foundations, Logan said.

"They always win top honors," Logan said. "That's why they were invited to attend."

About 100 students are part of the program, said Jerry Wordhouse Jr. of Plymouth Township, whose daughter Heidi was selected for the trip. He said the productions teach independence and public speaking.

Admission to the event, called "Catch a Rising Star," is $2. Tickets are available at the door. Refreshments will be served in a nightclub atmosphere.

Trustee Carol Bodenmiller argued the township should support the trip because both Plymouth-Salem and Plymouth Canton high schools are located in Canton Township. She said the group would be good-will ambassadors for Canton Wordhouse's wife Plyllis told the Observer she had talked earlier this week with Poole, who indicated the "main objection" to Canton's giving funds is the name of the organization — Plymouth Players. Poole often expresses the opinion that Canton is overshadowed by its neighboring community.

BUT LOGAN said the "Plymouth" name refers to the high schools, not the municipalities.

"Time is of the essence," said Plyllis Wordhouse. "We need a good push. We would like community backing." somehow, the money will be raised, said Celia Stuart of Plymouth Township, one of the students who hopes to travel to Austria.

Last chance! Schools make new tax bid

By M.B. Dillon Ward

Canton, Plymouth and Northville townships are being asked for the second and last time to collect summer taxes for the Plymouth-Canton school district.

Recently refused by the Wayne County Treasurer's office, the school board voted unanimously Monday to notify the municipalities that if, by April 30, they don't agree to collect taxes, the district will.

School officials by law would then authorize an outside agency to collect the tax.

Canton, Plymouth Township and Northville Township all failed to reach agreement with school officials concerning a summer tax collection after being approached last January.

Plymouth, Salem Township and Superior Township, however, have reached tentative settlements and will collect taxes for the district. The board plans to approve those agreements on May 9, as well as those with an authorized agency "for example, the First National Bank of Plymouth, or any township, if it exercises its option to collect the summer taxes."

UNDER THE plan, residents will pay one half of their Plymouth-Canton Community Schools property taxes, including debt service and taxes for Schoolcraft Community College and the Wayne County Intermediate School District this summer.

Legislation passed recently enabled Plymouth-Canton schools to levy the summer tax. Tax bills will be mailed July 1. They are due, without penalty, on or before September 14. By June, municipalities must deliver to the district the assessment roll containing state equalized valuations for each parcel of taxable property.

According to school Superintendent John M. Hoben, "the cost to the district (of tax collecting) has been determined to be $3 per parcel with immediate use of the money" for the schools.

Tax funds will be deposited into the district's investment checking account and will earn interest from the time cash is received.

'The cost to the district (of tax collecting) has been determined to be $3 per parcel with immediate use of the money.'

Both the summer tax and the recent passage of a state income tax hike will brighten the district's financial picture.

School officials recently were in-aid payments are forthcoming Expected are payments of $190 million April 18, $112 million May 23 and $138 million on June 30.

By September 30, the state anticipates to have paid in full all deferred payments, according to Phillip E. Runkel, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the state Department of Education.

Had the income tax increase been disapproved, school districts would have been forced to shorten their school year, according to Gary M. Owen, speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives. Approved cuts, however, will trim $25 million from the state's K-12-budget.

Tax still needed

By M.B. Dillon Ward staff writer

Although the recent increase in the state income tax will mean more revenue for local schools, a summer tax still is essential for the Plymouth-Canton school district, according to Raymond K. Hoedel, assistant superintendent of business for the district.

A $2.2-million deficit is projected for the schools' 1983-84 fiscal year, due largely to deferred and reduced state aid payments and decreased interest earnings. A $25-million drop in the state' equalized valuation means an $875,000 loss.

"The outlook is a little brighter because of the income tax package passing," said Hoedel, who's optimistic the state will make good on its June payment.

"But a lot will depend on (the state's) cash flow and how fast it's built up by then."

Both the February and April state aid payments to Plymouth-Canton were deferred, translating to $592,000 in withheld evenue.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS participated in a two-day workshop recently to discuss the district's financial dilemma. Possible cutbacks, the proposed sumneeds were addressed.

Cuts proposed for various items in the budget amounted to a maximum of $2.6 million with staffing targeted for up to $1.3 million in reductions.

up to $1.3 million in reductions.

School finances are "iffy" due to uncertainty about the amount of forthcoming state aid, the borrowing ability of the district and declining enrollment. District officials have written off a state payment of $220,000 deferred last fall, said Hoedel, who "lives, sleeps and eats" the budget.

The financial picture isn't totally bleak, added Hoedel.

"Last year we borrowed $17 million. This year we only had to borrow about $6 million, which is a significant drop. The interest paid on the $17 million totalled $1.3 million, equal to one mill.

"That's how important the summer tax is and something people don't realize," said Hoedel.

The $6 million in borrowed funds cost the district about $100,000 in interest.

HOW MUCH the district will have to borrow in 1983-84 is undetermined. Last year, the district was making 14-16-percent interest on the money is Wills was turned over to Plymouth police. According to police, Willis had given Canton police an alias and has used at least 10 aliases. His correct identity was determined after a finger-print check.

ACCORDING TO police, Wills was on parole from a two-year sentence in Jackson State Prison for attempted entering without breaking.

Officials can't rely on court to be money-maker

'S TOO BAD local officials who criticize 35th District Court judges for failing to turn a profit didn't exercise better judgment. While ourts' operating losses isn't popu lar, it's the cost of functioning democracy.

A state Supreme Court directive mandates that local governments grant to the courts whatever funding is needed to maintain an optimum-sized staff. Locally, that directive enjoys little popularity

WITH EACH passing day, life becomes more puzzling - at least to The Stroller.

For months, the public prints have been filled with the doleful news that the state of Michigan was the hardest hit by the economic slump. It was reported that the unemployed list was the nation's

There were all sorts of stories dealing with the troubles facing the laid-off workers. There were pictures of long lines of folks waiting their turns to get a few loaves of free bread and boxes of cheese. A pitiful picture.

THEN ALONG comes the baseball season, and the Detroit Tigers announced a sellout a week in dvance. Imagine that! All the seats sold to see a feam that hasn't finished higher than fourth for nine

In the same newsprints was another surprising announcement. It was reported plans are being completed for the building of a large new hotel across the street from the Renaissance Center

And what will be used for money? Hold your hat. The money is to be invested by the state's pension

Mind you, this hotel is to be built in the shadow of a concrete white elephant that is on the verge of bankruptcy. And all the while, two good hotels of the past — the Book-Cadillac and the Statler — are being allowed to rot. Why not put the money to work on them instead of building a new highrise?

IN THE MAIL came another spocker. It was the notice for season tickets to University of Michigan and the price is being raised from $12 a ticket to $13. As usual, you must mail your money prior to June 1 or your priority will be lost.

With at least 80,000 season tickets, it means there will be an added $80,000 for each of the six home games, or an additional $480,000 for the season. The interest on that sum will be earned for more than three months before the first game is played. It doesn't look as though the fans are in financial

People are crying for jobs. Gov. James J. Blanchard preached "jobs, jobs, jobs" during his campaign in 1982. Now he's on the job, but there are few jobs for those in need.

YET THERE ARE many things in the area in dire need of help.

Whatever happened to the "Rescue the Rouge" movement? The sight of the Rouge at the bridge entering Plymouth is sickening. But nothing is being done, though it could be done if we mobilized fellows in the ranks of the unemployed.

The same is true in Livonia, where Bell Creek could be a real beauty spot - with just a little help. In fact, the city bought 25 acres behind what is now Buchanan School for $8,000 some years ago with the thought of developing a park in the natural amphitheater. But an injunction by the neighborhood

A short time later, the Livonia Board of Education paid the city $50,000 for the site that taxpayers 'already owned. Imagine that! And to top it off, nothing has been done to enhance its appearance.

Meanwhile, the city of Livonia is doing a good job clearing the acreage around the new city hall while the school district allows its purchase to die on the

Things such as that make a real puzzle of the James Garber recognize "that money is extremely tight" in the five units of government they serve. Out of a sense of obligation, they cut court cost wherever possible. The judges often compare notes to ensure fines resemble those levied by their colleagues throughout the metropolitan area.

Davis also places considerable weight on defendants' ability to pay. He's prone to reduce fines or extend payment deadlines for those found guilty if they are financially troubled or unemployed. The practice has drawn plenty of public scrutiny.

The veteran magistrate raises a valid point in asking why officials expect the court to make a profit when police, fire and building departments

Neither the executive nor legislative branch of government is self-supporting — nor are they expected to be. The judicial system, unless we wish toeopardize its effectiveness, should be viewed on a oar with them. Our government was established on he premise that all branches would remain independent. If courts bring in revenue or even a profit, we ought to view it as a plus.

particular fine or bond - and those unfamiliar with a defendant often welcome the input. But to allow police to routinely influence judges is dangerous. It's common, and arguably a natural reaction, for law enforcement officials to associate punishment with fines and bonds. However, it's the magistrate's job to administer justice impartially, not to turn a peat offenders should shoulder judicial costs. While a proposal to seek reimbursement from the imprisied for jail time is gaining ground, most criminals

Under another premise, fines should be raised. In truth, the levies, annually reviewed and adjusted by district courts, already are high. A system mandat ing that levied fines balance court costs would mean that fees for minor traffic infractions would approach the ridiculous. That isn't justice.

Davis notes that Canton police write fewer tickets than they once did, and because ticket revenues fund the court, a financial strain for the court is Canton Township police have an excuse. While the population has soared to nearly 50,000, it is served by only 33 officers - the same number serving the township five years ago. Beef up the staff, and there will be less discord and more money in the court's coffers.

Breaking up the good ol' boys club

All-male board isn't good business

THE NEWS conference was over. The folks who bring us "eyewitness" news and "action" news on TV had taken their footage off Chairman W. Michael Blumenthal lighting up his cigar, packed their gear and returned to the studios

Then, with the reporters gone - well, all but one - the Burroughs Corp., maker of computers, began its annual stockholders meeting in Detroit. That was when the fun began. There's one in every crowd, and among the Burroughs stockholders his hame was Harry Korba of Yonkers, N.Y. In his lexicon, Burroughs was "thishere company" and the plural of you was "youse "Youse had a director from 1975 to 1982." Korbabegan, noting that Martha W. Griffiths had resigned

"She is by no means the last female director Burroughs will have. I hope you will be able to compli-

Blumenthal knows he will have to make good on that implied promise because Korba, who acquired his 100 shares in November of 1982, promised to attend all future stockholders meetings. Since Korba appeared to be in his 40s and in good health, we may assume we will see him again in 1984.

The stockholders dutifully cast their ballots for the 11 males from age 44 to 67 who had been duly placed on the slate by the board's nominating com-That nominating committee includes: Blumen-

THE IRONY of the tale is that the stockholders were shown a quarter-hour film on Burroughs products in which, by my rough estimate, 40 percent of the persons shown were women. Almost all the persons working at video display terminals were women. Many of the unnamed customers were women. Some of the Burroughs spokespersons were women. Yet in picking a board of directors, the board's

JOBS - PERHAPS nothing is more important in Approximately 10 million persons in this nation are looking for jobs. It has been estimated that another 10 million persons are worried about losing their jobs. So when Oakland Community College recently held a career day at the Orchard Ridge campus in Farmington Hills, interest was high. More than 100 students plus residents of the area attended. "We've never sponsored an event where we had so much response," said Mary McCollum, OCC's placement coordinator The conference focused on careers in communications. But much of the advice applies to any em-

Tom Bjorkland, general manager of MetroVision cable television, said volunteer jobs are available for those interested in getting started in cable.

'Someone who came to my office, volunteered tohelp and didn't get in the way could learn about the printing business," said Paul Smith, owner of Letter Graphies of Detroit.

Students were urged to use intern programs where they receive college credit while working part time. Professionals-also stressed personal contacts.

Dzenswagis said he traveled coast to coast and knocked on hundreds of doors before finding a job. They disagreed on the importance of resumes Smith said that an attractively designed, typeset resume attracts the attention of potential employ-

"I must have papered a good part of this country with my resume, and it didn't help at all," said Dzenswagis.

ONE MAN from the audience said he was 35 years old, had a wife and three children to support, and wanted to change jobs. "How can I follow your advice of taking volunteer work?" he asked.

He got little sympathy from the professionals. "I was 30 years old when I decided to change jobs," said Michael DiLaura, assistant personnel director at WXYZ (Channel 7). "It meant that I had to do volunteer work at night and on weekends, when I was not working my regular job. But I finally got the opening I wanted."

Several employers said a person wishing to make a career change is not hurt by age. "I prefer to hire someone who is a little older." Smith said. "They are a little more mature and can handle a crisis better."

AFTER THE CONFERENCE, OCC's Mary McCollum summarized the remarks. "The clearest element that came out is the need for tenacity and to get out and make as many personal contacts as possible," she said.

OCC operates its Job and Career Center at the Orchard Ridge campus.

Underneath it all, it's the springs that are the basis of seating comfort. Which s why we use heavy gauge sinuous steel springs—five beneath each seat. (That's 15 in a sofa where most competitors use 12.) More comfortable naturally, and better wearing too.

Faust seeks to control foster care home sites

Senate Majority Leader William Faust is expected to introduce legislation that would prevent adult foster care homes from being concentrated in certain areas.

The Westland Democrat said the proposed legislation would amend the Adult Foster Care Facility Licensing Act by establishing a "fair share" standard in locating the adult care homes.

"I believe this legislation will improve the overall quality of the program to the benefit of the residents of these homes and the communities where they are located. It should also result in a more equitable distribution of foster care homes."

FAUST, WHO WORKED with the Michigan Municipal League in developing the legislation, said the proposal also would increase the role that local communities play in the site selection process for adult foster care homes. The bill also calls for increased communication between the state Department of Social Services (DSS), which licenses the homes, and local communities where they are located:

"Any agency involved in this process must be sensitive to the needs of the local community and must work with community and neighborhood leaders," Faust said.

He said he hopes the legislation would resolve complaints that have arisen because of concentration of foster care homes in certain areas.

FAUST SAID he believes that foster care homes location in residential neighborhoods is "an excellent means for helping retarded and developmentally disabled persons make individual progress and enjoy a more normal life in a home-like atmostphere.

However, he said he opposes clustering these homes in neighborhoods or only a few communities.

One section of the bill tightens requirements for granting a temporary license for an adult foster care home. According to the proposal, a temporary license may be granted without the approval of local government only if all the following conditions

• The facility is not closer than 2,500 feet to another community placement facility.

There is at least one community placement facility within each municipality in the county in which the home is proposed to be located.

The facility is within a proscribed number of beds for that community based on its population. (With the addition of the proposed facility, the number of community placement beds does not exceed the product of the municipality's population multiplied by a fraction equal to the number of existing community placement beds in Michigan divided by the population of the state.)

 There must be evidence of compliance with local health, safety and welfare ordinances and state statutes.

Faust believes the new requirements should effectively establish a "fair share standard" and help prevent crowding of foster care homes in a particular neighborhood or community.

THE LEGISLATION also would require the DSS to notify a local government when it has received a license application for an adult foster care home in that community and cooperate with that municipality in scheduling a public hearing on the matter.

Other provisions in the bill call for expanding the Adult Foster Care Licensing Advisory Council with-in the DSS from 11 to 12 members to include a representative from local governments.

Before a license is issued, the facilities would have to be inspected and approved by the local fire department, state or local building inspector and the local or county health department. Inspection reports would be given to the clerk of the appropriate municipality, and local governments would have the right to ask for an inspection.

LOCAL POLICE departments would be required to keep a file of complaints made against each adult foster care home in the community.

The DSS would be responsible for keeping track of the number of adult foster care facilities and beds within each community and for reporting those numbers to the county clerk and each municipality

A facility would be required to post a copy of its license, a list of employees and their certificates of training, a list of staff members on duty and a statement of the minimum ratio of staff members

Faust said that the additional reporting and inspection requirements would "greatly increase a local community's awareness of, and participation in, the licensing and supervision of adult foster care homes located within the community."

The Park Players "Touch a Rising Star" amateur show is the place to be Saturday evening. You can't beat the price — just $2. And you can't beat the entertainment. Not only will there be professional entertainment, there will be an amateur contest with the audience helping name the winner.

The show starts at 7 p.m. in Plymouth Canton High School cafeteria. The young thespians will convert the cafeteria to provide a cabaret setting for the evening. While the audience enjoys the music and dances for the first hour, the amateur performers will register for a $2 fee.

The drama students will serve as waiters and waitresses for the light supper menu which will be available. It sounds like a fun evening and the proceeds go for a cause — the show is a fund-raiser for the Plymouth Park Players' trip to Villach, Austria in June.

What a disappointment it would be if the country's top high school drama group is unable to make it to Austria. Private donations to Austria tour fund are tax deductible.

Tuesday's guest speakers will be Jim Limbacher, film librarian from Henry Ford Centennial library, and Doug Hill of Weather Watch 4.

Authors Stephen Dunning and Margaret Hillert will be there Wednesday.

John Gross of TV Channel 7 will talk about motivation, goals and drugs in athletics on Thursday. Also on Thursday, Dr. Arthur Vander, University of Michigan Medical School and member of Physicians for Social Responsibility, will speak on "Medical Effects of Nuclear Explosion."

Bee Green, former director of libraries in the Plymouth Canton Schools, an active member of the Gray Panthers, will speak on Friday. She will talk about the Gray Panthers activities in American politics.

Don Canham, director of athletics at U-M, will be the concluding speaker on Friday.

While open to the public, seating for the series is limited. Persons wishing more information can call either Pltmouth Salem High School Library or Plymou Canton High. School Library, 453-3100, Ext. 284 or Ext. 385.

Women educators honor district's finest

Esther Hulsing and Zana Tauriainen were honored as outstanding educators Monday night at a dinner meeting at Hillside Inn. Gamma Gamma, the Plymouth Canton Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an international organization of outstanding women educators; presented them with Women of Distinction for Education awards.

The award goes each year to an outstanding woman who has worked for education in the local community. It is unusual to honor two women in the same year, but Hulsing and Tauriainenhave made outstanding contributions to Plymouth Canton education in very different ways, a Gamma Gamma spokeswoman said.

Shirley Spaniel, director of elementary education for Plymouth-Canton Community Schools and president of Gamma Gamma, presented the gold medallions to the award winners.

Judy Stone gave a brief resume of each woman's contributions to education.

STONE SAID, "Esther Hulsing was a school board member for the 18 years (1954-1972) that saw the greatest expansion of the district. For six of those difficult years, she was president of the school board.

"Board of education decisions during Esther's 18 years helped create one of the largest, most respected, fiscally sound school districts in Michigan. Esther's presence on the board bears a direct relationship to this legacy. Her intelligence was obvious. Perhaps less obvious was her genius for calming heated situations and for bringing common sense to bear on deliberations.

"Esther's purposes on the board were simple and characteristic. She strove to keep a balance between expansion and expense; to make decisions based on fact and education merit, not on personal interest or bias. Her service to our schools was always marked with honesty and integrity. Her close association with the schools was publicly appreciated by the naming of an elementary school after her and her husband, Kenneth.

"Esther Hulsing's dedication to education extended beyond Plymouth-Canton schools. She served on the original Northwest Wayne County Community College Committee that helped establish Schoolcraft College. She was a member of the Wayne County Association of School Boards and a member of the Michigan and National school boards.

"ZANA TAURIAINEN is an oustanding teacher/therapist. Her expertise led to her being the chairwoman of the Plymouth Canton Schools Speech Pathology Department for 12 years, Stone said. Tauriainen was hired as speech pathologist in 1961. Since that time she has worked with children in Fiegel, Farran, Gallimore, Geer, Bird, Cherry Hill, Truesdell, Smith, West, East, Central, Our Lady of Good Coursel and St. Peter's Lutheran schools.

She taught in the speech and language department at the University of Michigan for eight years after receiving her master of science degree there.

"Zana's co-workers have noted her commitment to children extends far beyond the school day. She takes them to lunch, cheers them on at athletic games and applauds them at concerts and plays. She developed her own outreach program by scheduling parents with their children at school and then by doing follow-up therapy at the home in order to help parents help their children change speech patterns," Stone

"Recently, Zana has been active in alcohol and substance abuse education programs in junior high schools, colleges and the courts. All of the many people who know Zana speak of her warmth, caring and optimism.

Director asks: 'Can this be Plymouth, Mich.?'

And finally, he registers at the Mayflower Hotel. Rehearsals have started and for the next two weeks the show biz fever run rampant over in the Plymouth-Canton community. As for his welcome, he says he loved every minute of it.

Peter Thomas, professional actor, producer and director, was promised a ride from the bus station in Ann Arbor to Plymouth, where he would direct the Plymouth Community Arts Council Follies '83. The New Yorker did not expect to be met by a double-decker bus from old London and assorted characters. After all, this was quiet little Plymouth, Michigan, with — he presumed — a staid arts council.

Staff photos by Gary Caskey

Thomas led the motley crew out of the bus station.

Could this woman be the Janet Brass who is chairing the follies?

Finally, they arrive at what looks like a fairly civilized destination, with Dave Ide (an umasked Zorro) assisting with luggage.

wild animals affected by the disease. She said there are 38 million cats in the country, and less than 4 percent of them are vaccinated. Plymouth and Canton do not require licenses and vac cinations for cats as do such communi ties as Taylor, Westland, Royal Oak and Ann Arbor.

In Michigan, skunks and bats are the wild animals most commonly affected by rabies. Raccoons, foxes and weasels also are common carriers. Rabid wild animals may survive up to six months.

CATS THAT roam at night are more likely to sustain injury from contact with these wild animals. The cat, being a natural hunter, increases its exposur to rabid situations when seeking prev.

'Shakespearean trial' to be staged being planned by Mark McPherson for the 419th anniversary of the Bard's birth - at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 23, in the Players Club at 3321 E. Jefferson, Detroit.

It's not really a play. McPherson, a 35-year-old publicist and impressario who prosecutes Shakespeare's status, doesn't know the outcome. That will be up a jury and the audicision when the jury found 7-4 for the defendant," said McPherson. "The audience went about the same way - 123 to 82 for the defense. I'm working for a 'nay' vote expressing doubt about whether Shakespeare is to be accepted as he is or doubted." The Players seats 250. McPherson is handling ticket reservations at his office, 496-2622. The $15 admission

WITH MICHIGAN Appeals Judge Myron Wahls presiding, McPherson will try to demonstrate that Shakespeare was an actor and businessman who doesn't deserve the Estab guage's greatest playwright. It's not to defame or criticize the work attributed to him," said the college publicist who has become known on two continents for his work involving Sherlock Holmes.

He will argue that most of what is know about the author of 36 dramas comes from an 18th century biography, and that Shakespeare was obscure in his own day. McPherson thinks a political group in Elizabe than England wanted to control public opinion through the media of the day - the theater - and settled on

Sport talk is 'Bench Talk'

Ah, the rites of spring

Opening Day at Tiger Stadium, overwhelmin displays of optimism - also known as Sparky's Malarkey - softball practice in the park, washed out athletic events, and, of course, George Kell.

You know spring is here when you flip throught the TV stations and find the Tiger network just in time to hear Kell's familiar voice signalling, "The first pitch from Guidry, a curve . and a good

To the baseball enthusiast, Kell's calls from the booth provide young impressionists a chance to imitate the most imitable media personality. Where would WRIF's George Baier be without Kell?

We're used to such dandies as, "He just absolute ly hit it a mile," and, "You are so right, Al," (as opposed to being just moderately right. Al).

AS FAMILIAR as Kell's vernacular is to the Tiger viewers, the same is true for baseball and softball participants. Whereas Kell has a language all his own, so, too, do baseball and softball partici-

Etymologists could have a field day exploring the origins of what we're going to call "bench talk." Bench talk is universal. And you need not be the team's best athlete to excel. In fact, the class clowns usually are the best in the business.

In order to be a successful chatter box from the bench, you need the gift of spontaneity. You have to be quick with a line on a second's notice.

The role of the bench jockey is to not only rattle the opposition with remarks - especially the pitcher - but encourage your teammates in given situa-

Now, when you hoot on the opposition, there's a fine line you should avoid crossing. Bush remarks fall on the other side of that line, and such remarks often are considered taboo. It's OK to make sport of the way a pitcher winds up, but cheap shots about his mother and girlfriend are forbidden

LET'S GO DOWN into a dugout to see how a bench jockey operates and offer some definitions of the language:

The first job of the bench jockey (a.k.a. a bench carburetor) is to test the opposing pitcher for rabbit ears. If the pitcher comes in with smoke (his best fastball), it's the jockey's job to razz him. "Hey, nice changeup, now let's see some smoke," he might hol-ler. Any reaction by the pitcher which indicates he's heard the remark and is bothered by it, well, the bench jockey has succeeded. From then on out, the pitcher will be known as "Rabbit.

"Hey, rabbit," is what he'll hear the rest of the

On the other hand, you have to yell to your own pitcher, but this time, it's to build confidence rather that tear him apart.

"Hey, big shooter, shoot that pea. C'mon one-four (assuming his number is 14), give him that dark one, shoot them B-B's."1

Before we go further, it must be emphasized here that such calls out to teammates do not have the same impact unless you repeat everthing at least once. Don't ask why, it's just part of the game. Also, each sentence starts out with, "Hev."

WHEN DOING SUCH, nicknames and numbers are the norm, while names are reserved for the lineup card. Also, first names automatically adopt a suffix. Names like Tom become Tommy, and "macho" pleted, but it sounds more sporty

Put that all together and we get: "Hey Johnny, hey you. String a line one time Johnny, be a stick up there two-two. C'mon double deuce, pick us up with two. Ducks on the pond, big fella, let's go to rippin'. Ribby time, Johnny, hit city, tie a rope one time. Take him downtown, go to the jack and blow one outtahere."

For clarification, the definitions are as follows: 'String a line" and "tie a rope" mean to hit a line drive. "Pick us up with two" translates to, "there's two outs, hit a double so we have a runner in scoring position." "Let's go to rippin" " and "hit city" phrases for, we need a hit.

"Ducks on the pond" means there's runners in scoring position, and "ribby time" means there's a for RBIs (runs batted in). "Two-two" and 'double deuce" are interchangable for anyone wearing the number 22.

WHEN YOU want the home run, that's when you call for the batter to "take him downtown, go to the jack and blow one out of here'

When the batter follows your command and laces a hit, you congratulate him by simply saying,

Unfortunately for the home team, the batter you've been encouraging is 0-for-April (hitless in a month) and was just caught looking (took a calle third strike) to run his hitless streak into May.

The home team takes the field and the bench joc key turns his attention to his own pitcher, and, con-equently, the opposing batter.

"Hey, c'mon flame thrower, shoot the dark one. Get one up in the wheelhouse (letter high fastball). Blow it by him. No hitter up there, no stick. He's a

What follows is a three-two pitch which nips the orner. However, the umpire calls it ball four, which prompts the bench jockey to holler, "Good eye, ump." To which a teammate responds on cue, "Next time, bring the other one."

Livonia girls take hockey title

They'll have to pin another banner to the walls of Edgar Arena.

A hockey team from Livonia, comprised of girls ages 13-15, won the national championship last weekend in Taylor with a 4-0 triumph in the title game against Assabet, Mass.

"It took a total effort from everybody," said coach Paul Dugan. "Everybody on this team gives 100 percent. They went out and did it. "Edgar is our home rink. We practice and play our games there." The event, sponsored by the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States (AHAUS), drew two clubs from Massachusetts and two from Michigan.

The best thing about this team is that they stick to the fundamentals," said the Livoni coach. "They're a skating and passing club. "We really emphasize skating."

Livonia won the championship with a pair of goals in the second period followed by two more in the final stanza.

Tracey Henderson broke the ice with a short-hand unassisted goal at 4:04. Three minutes later, Vickki Renfer, the team's leading scorer who wears No. 9 on the back of her jersey, made it 2-0 with another short-hand, ted effort

IN THE FINAL PERIOD, Renee Delulius cored at 2:12 from Renfer and Dana Dinkins. And at 6:49, Dinkins closed out the scoring from Nicole Aloe and Henderson.

Goalie Nancy Huffman, who turned back 11 shots, registered her second shutout of the tourney and 16th shutout of the season One of the big reasons for Huffman's tour nament success was the play of defensemen Elaine Woodcock and Dana Dugan.

Livonia opened the tourney April 8 at the Sheridan Community Arena in Taylor with a 4-2 win over Stoneham, Mass.

In the second round, Livonia blanked Royal Oak, 4-0, and then lost to Assabet, 1-0.

Livonia qualified for the tournament by finishing first in the Michigan Inter-City Girls Hockey League followed by a state title as a ult of winning the league playoffs.

THE LIVONIA TEAM finished with a 22-3overall record. Other team members included Anna Quennville, Elizabeth Hedrick, Marcie Walker, Joann Schumaker, Kim Godfrey and Carey Aitkens.

while Joyce Dinkins and Linda Henderson handled the general manager duties.

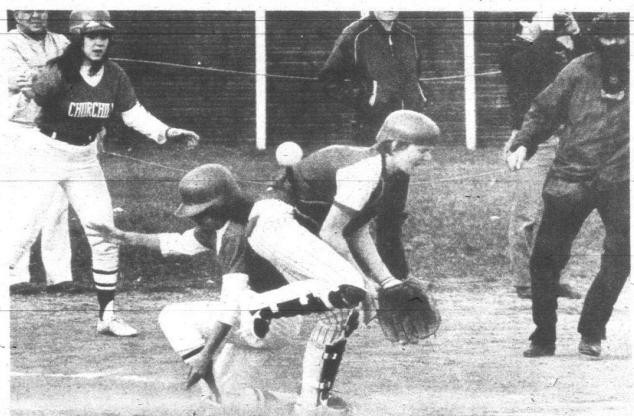

"We're finding more girls are interested in hockey," Dugan said. "The interest is now there in the squirt age groups. The parents are bringing them in and finding out that it's not a brutal game.

"There is no body checking. It's more speed and finesse. You have to concentrate on fundamentals."

Dugan plans to return behind the Livonia ench next season

"This is my third year of coaching," he said. Each year the team changes because the girls move up to the next age group. But I hope to have the same type of team next

The Livonia Stevenson girls soccer team put on a scoring show in the season opener and helpless Farmington Harrison was the victim in losing, 8-2, Stevenson's Karen Kelly paced all scorers with three goals while Mary Kay Hussey kicked in two. The Spartans also picked up lone goals from Tina Galindo, Andrea Bokos and Stephanie Riddle for the easy win.

Barb Bolous scored a pair of goals for the Hawks' only tally in the game.

The Patriots opened the spring season with a non-league win over Garden City Tuesday.

The Cougars, fielding their first girls' soccer team, tallied the first goal of the game when Renee Clark scored five minutes into the first half. Dawn Brda and Sharon Cancilla rallied back with goals for Livonia Franklin for a 2-1 halftime lead.

Sue Caprara booted one in the second half to complete the Patriots scoring. For the afternoon, Livonia Franklin had 18 shots on goal to Gardennis team started out the new season on a perfect note, blanking Livonia Franklin, 7-0, Tuesday.

Tim Ninomiya defeated Franklin's Jim Holmes, 6-1, 6-3, at No. 1 singles while Stevenson teammate Scott Burrell (No. 2) dismantled Rick Loters, 6-0, 6-1. Other singles winners for Stevenson were: Jack Tatigian (No. 3) over Matt Casseton, 6-0, and Ed Martin (No. 4) over Don Collins, 6-0, 6-1

At No. 1 doubles, Brant Lyall and Scott Brown of Stevenson defeated Jeff Stevens and Randy Loters, 6-0, 6-0. Ken Macsay and Jeff Koncsol (No. 2) followed suit for the Spartans with a 6-0, 6-2 win over Brad Neeoxic and Bob Bleganski while Ken Burt and Frank Nachtman won what turned out to be the closest match of the day, defeating the Patriots' Dennis Montie and Mike Buris, 6-3, 6-2, at No. 3 doubles.

cage program adds 3 area players

By Jim DuFresne staff writer

Eastern Michigan University basketball coach Jim Boyce doesn't like to waste trips to the Detroit area.

The EMU coach arrived at Bishop Borgess High School Wednesday and signed Lewis Scott, the Spartans' All-Area and all-state forward, to a national letter of intent and then wasted little time in hurrying on to his next pros-pect. When the day was over, Boyce had lined up Paul Grazulis of Westland John Glenn and Michael McCaskill of Southfield to aply for EMU next year.

"We'll sign him (Grazulis) today," Boyce said as he hurried out of Bishor Borgess. "We got him and McCaskill of Southfield."

That's quick work for Boyce, whose Huron squad reached the Mid-American Conference playoffs last winter despite a sub-500 record. All three players are highly regarded in the Detroit area. Grazulis, a 6-foot-8 center with a 4.9 grade-point average, paced John Glenn to a 14-8 record. McCaskill, a 6foot-4 guard orward, led Southfield to a 24-3 mark.

Scott, a three-year starter for the Spartans, finished his final season with 20.5 scoring average while grabbing 12.5 rebounds per game. The Spartans, under first-year coach Mike Fusco, managed only a 11-10 record, losing to Cody by one point in overtime in the first round of the districts.

Scott was approached by several schools including Central Michigan University, Western Michigan, Holy Cross and Pepperdine before deciding on on EMU. "It really wasn't much of a decision when I thought about it," said Scott. "I wanted to stay at home - plus - I decided to study law. EMU is the only school where I could do both."

Although Boyce didn't stick around to say much. Fusco believed Scott could play his first year in the MAC if he developed his upper body strength.
