The Canton Connection

KESHAV VARDE of Canton has been promoted from associate to full professor with tenure by the University of Michigan — Dearborn. A professor of mechanical engineering, Varde is recognized nationally for his work in combustion, combustion engines and alternate energy use. He holds doctorate degrees in mechanical and aeronautical engineering and has served on the U of M-D faculty since 1977. His projects have won financial support from the federal government, private industry and the university.

CANTON'S CHAMBER of Commerce and PR International of Canton are seeking out new non-profit organizations and clubs in preparation for the publishing of the 1984 Canton business directory in October. The booklet, to list Canton businesses, clubs, organizations and churches and provide township information, will be delivered to all homes, new residents and chamber members. Anyone wishing to be listed may call 459-5089 or 459-8710.

BOB CARD, owner of Canton's McDonald's restaurants, recently was honored with the Michigan regional Ronald McDonald award, bestowed annually by the restaurant's parent company. A pewter statue recognizing marketing excellence was given to Card at McDonald's statewide licensee annual meeting in Traverse City.

TREVOR BOYD, a Canton Eagle Scout, is planning a cleanup at Flodin Park for 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 10, and 2-5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 11, as part of a Scouts community service project. Civic-spirited volunteers are encouraged to join him. A member of Boy Scout Troop 898, Boyd asks that you wear work clothes, and bring tools such as thatchers, axes and saws. Lunch will be provided Saturday. Trev can be reached at 981-3336.

ARE YOU a bowler without a league? Members of the Canton Ladies Bowling League will practice their form at 9 a.m. Mondays at the Superbowl on Ford Road beginning Monday, Sept. 12. Sponsored by Canton Parks and Rec, the 12-team league includes teen-agers as well as seniors with averages ranging between 102-160. A $5 daily fee pays for a banquet, prizes and trophies. Baby-sitting services are provided free of charge.

SPEAKING OF bowling, the Canton Recreation Department's Youth Superbowlers league also is getting organized. Beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 10 and continuing on Saturdays for about seven months, bowlers up to 18 years of age may participate in the 2½-hour sessions at Superbowl on Ford Road. Registration (at a $2 fee) will continue through Saturday, Sept. 10.

CATHERINE BALDRICA, 17, has been honored by Congressman William Ford. The daughter of Daniel and Katherine Baldrica was recognized for her work with the Canton Public Library, local health programs, her neighborhood civic association, school fund-raisers, the Canton Country Festival, and for tutoring math and French students.

Attorney eyes appeal

Judge, son convicted on federal charges

By Mary Klemic
staff writer

Eighteenth District Judge Evan Callanan Sr. is expected to appeal his conviction by a U.S. District Court jury, his attorney said last week.

Callanan Sr. and his son, Evan Callanan Jr., were found guilty last Thursday of case-fixing, conspiracy and mail fraud. Callanan Jr., a Canton attorney, also was found guilty of obstructing justice and giving false testimony before a grand jury.

In the same verdicts, UAW Local 1776 President Richard Debs, a Westland resident, was found innocent of all charges against him. Also, Dearborn Heights businessman Sam Qaoud was found guilty of case-fixing and conspiracy and was acquitted of mail fraud.

IF THE judge is sentenced, Gov. James Blanchard will appoint his replacement in the district court, according to court administrator Les Hall, who refused comment on the verdict.

Callanan Sr. wouldn't comment last week. But his attorney, Nick Smith, said that he and his client disagreed with the verdict and would file a motion for acquittal within seven days. If the motion is denied by U.S. District Judge Horace Gilmore, who presided over the trial, an appeal will be filed to the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, Smith said.

"I think the jury did its job seriously," Smith said. "It was a very difficult case for them. I think they took the admonitions of the judge (Gilmore) and didn't begin considering the verdict until the trial was over."

Debs' reaction to his verdict was one of "pure elation," he said last week. He said he will continue his involvement with the UAW.

"I'm elated," said Debs, 45. "I always maintained my innocence. I always knew I was innocent."

MOST OF Judge Callanan's acquaintances sought for comment last week were unavailable.

"I don't think he's got any complaints," said Westland Police Chief William Rechlin, who has known Callanan Sr. for some 20 years. "This is the FALL FESTIVAL!

Annual weekend event features food 'n frivolity

There will be a few changes in the scenery when the 28th annual Plymouth Fall Festival opens Thursday.

One scenic change will be the location of the bandshell which for years has anchored the corner of Penniman Avenue and Main with spectators getting a good view of either NBD or 1st Federal when not watching the entertainers on stage.

This year the bandshell will be at the other end of the street — at Union and Penniman — allowing viewers' eyes to wander to either the Wilcox House or Saxton's Garden Center.

For years the kiddie rides also were located on Main Street from Growth Works to Fralik. This year the rides will be located on Penniman Avenue west of Main Street.

The firefighters waterball fight will be held on Main by City Hall, and the Produce Tent has been moved from Central Middle to a spot near Ann Arbor Trail and Union in the southeast corner of Kellogg Park.

Another change in scenery might be less smoke hovering under the pavilion then in 1982 as the city has ordered installed two larger fans with plans to drop a canvas apron along the top to get better exhaust to draw out the smoke from the barbeque pits.

A NEW site at Fralik and Main will be a horse and buggy which will be taking Festival goers to the Antique Mart at the Plymouth Cultural Center. The city of Plymouth also hopes to have its double-decked, red, English-style bus offering rides with pick-ups on Ann Arbor Trail across from the Box Bar.

Another shift in the scenery will occur on Sunday when the antique cars, always on Penniman west of Main, will be lined up for viewing by City Hall.

The major dinner Thursday will be a German meal provided for $3.50 by the Plymouth Theatre Guild at the pavilion from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and then from 4:30 to 8 p.m.

On Friday the Plymouth Lions will serve fish at the pavilion at $4 ($3 for senior citizens) from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The Plymouth Kiwanis will serve pancakes in the pavilion for $3.50 from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. and the Plymouth Jaycees will occupy the pavilion with a beef rib dinner at $5 from 4-9 p.m.

Sunday will again feature the Plymouth Rotarians with its chicken barbeque at the pavilion from noon to 6 p.m. for $4. Carry-out chicken also will be sold at Ann Arbor Road and Sheldon and in Kellogg Park.

The Plymouth Grange will be selling meals at $2.35 all four days from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 5 to 7:30 p.m. at the Grange Hall on Union north of Penniman.

The Symphony League's Antique Mart will be from noon to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday and from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday.

THE PLYMOUTH Community Arts Council (PCAC) will have its Artist and Craftsman Show during the same hours Friday, Saturday, and Sunday in Central Middle School at Church and Main. The Three Cities Art Club will exhibit during Festival hours Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

The Pet Show will be at the bandshell from 9 a.m. to noon, the waterball fight and muster from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., and the Farmers Market near Ann Arbor Trail and Union from 8 a.m. to noon — all on Saturday.

A Community Worship Service will begin at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at the bandshell.

And the Plymouth Historical Society will offer craft demonstrations all four days by the museum.

Judge, son found guilty

system he operated under, the same system that he advocated for years." The jury returned the verdicts last Thursday morning, the ninth day of deliberations. It convicted the three men of many of the counts brought against them by the government.

Each defendant had been charged with two counts of case-fixing and conspiracy under a federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) statute. In addition, Callanan Sr. was charged with four counts of mail fraud, while Qaoud, 40, was charged with one count of mail fraud. Judge Callanan, 55, was charged with three counts of mail fraud. Both were found guilty of the RICO charges.

CALLANAN JR., 31, of Canton Township, and Debs each were charged with three counts of mail fraud and one count of obstructing justice. The younger Callanan also was charged with giving false testimony. Callanan Jr. was convicted of all charges against him except one count of mail fraud.

Sentencing will take place in approximately two weeks, also before Gilmore.

Each of the two RICO counts has a maximum penalty of 20 years imprisonment and/or a $25,000 fine upon conviction. Mail fraud carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison and/or a $1,000 fine on each charge.

Conviction of obstructing justice calls for up to five years in prison and/or a $5,000 fine. Giving false testimony to a grand jury carries a maximum penalty of five years and/or a fine of $10,000.

THE GOVERNMENT charged that Callanan Sr. accepted money in return for lenient treatment in district court and Wayne County Circuit Court, where he sat as a visiting judge, for defendants he believed were accused of drunk driving, criminal sexual conduct, felonious assault and larceny. It charged that Callanan Sr. and Debs concealed the fact that the younger Callanan was representing clients in front of Judge Callanan by having an attorney from his law firm make formal court appearances for him.

The government alleged that Qaoud acted as a middleman between defendants (and FBI undercover agents posing as defendants) and Callanan Sr. Qaoud was accused of having solicited and received money from himself and the judge to affect the outcome of criminal cases.

Government attorneys presented recordings of conversations, videotapes, photographs and testimony from FBI special agents during the eight-week trial. All four defendants took the stand in their defense.

A key government witness during the trial was Hanna Judeh, operator of a Westland service station who was charged with third degree criminal sexual conduct in June 1981. He was sentenced by Callanan Sr. to three years probation.

IT WAS charged that Qaoud told Judeh that Judge Callanan had taken Judeh's police report home and would find no probable cause at the preliminary exam unless there was community pressure. If there was publicity on the case, Qaoud allegedly told Judeh, Callanan Sr. would adjourn the case or bind it over to Circuit Court and handle it as presiding judge there.

The first count of mail fraud concerned the mailing of Judeh's file from the 18th District Court to Circuit Court. Qaoud was acquitted of this count, the only mail fraud count brought against him.

It was alleged by the government that Callanan Jr. told Judeh that they would "play a few shenanigans" and that he would "work on my old man" to handle Judeh's case. Callanan Jr. suggested that Judeh dismiss the attorney who was handling the case, Warren Siegle, the government charged.

Debs allegedly told Judeh that Callanan Jr. couldn't appear in front of Judge Callanan, but was going to be able to do so through another attorney in the firm.

THE MAILING of a "substitution of attorney" form to Siegle's office, and the return of the form to Callanan Jr.'s law firm made up the second and third counts of mail fraud. The fourth count of mail fraud stemmed from the mailing of a "notice of sentencing" to Judeh. Callanan Sr. was charged with all of the mail fraud counts and found guilty only of the fourth. Callanan Jr. and Debs each were charged with the second through fourth counts. Callanan Jr. was found guilty of all three mail fraud counts.

Debs and Callanan Jr. tried to keep Judeh from cooperating in a criminal investigation, the government charged. It alleged that Callanan Jr. deliberately lied to a grand jury when he said that he didn't discuss Judeh's criminal sexual conduct charge with his father, and that he didn't tell anyone that he would discuss the charge with him.

Qaoud was paid $500 by an FBI special agent to dismiss a drunk driving case against a man named Karel Golob, the government charged. Judge Callanan allegedly was paid $1,500 to reduce charges of felonious assault and larceny against a man named James Sires. The FBI agent posed as Golob's brother-in-law, while another FBI agent posed as Sires.

CALLANAN SR. allegedly told Judeh that the judge was "hiding the file" of Mitchell Golofit, an employee of Judeh who was charged with larceny. The government charged that Judge Callanan took Golofit's case under advisement and told Judeh not to tell Westland police that he spoke with Callanan Sr. about the case.

Defense attorneys argued that Sires' case and the others in question were handled according to normal, established court procedures. They said Golob's case was one that usually would be dismissed in the court, as it was seven years old. A Westland police officer testified that Judeh's probation sentence was what the officer would have expected for that case.

Defense attorneys also said that the defendants only suggested they had influence in the District Court as an attempt to impress others. They said that Callanan Jr. told what he sincerely knew to be the truth before the grand jury.

Pork purloined from Kroger

MAN STABBED: A 19-year-old woman allegedly stabbed her stepfather over disputed long-distance phone calls, according to a police report.

The incident occurred at a home on Ann Arbor Road in western Canton Aug. 30, reports said. The stepfather was treated at Oakwood Hospital. Callanan took Golofit's case under advisement and told Judeh not to tell Westland police that he spoke with Callanan Sr. about the case.

The pair apparently were arguing over collect phone calls from the 19-year-old's boyfriend in Kentucky, police said.

PURLOINED PORK: A Canton woman and man were arrested for allegedly shoplifting a $4 pork loin and $9 worth of cheese from Kroger Aug. 28.

A security guard told police the pair paid for some items, but tried to sneak the meat and cheese out without paying.

BIG-FOOT: A burglar left his calling card — wet footprints — when he broke into Lighthouse Car Wash on Ford Road Aug. 25.

Officers responding to an alarm found wet footprints from standing water in the car wash. Nothing appeared to be missing. The burglar apparently escaped before police arrived.

CLEAN SWEEP: A burglar or burglars made off with a bundle of items from a Kingsway house Aug. 30, then escaped in the owner's 1983 Volkswagen.

According to police, the thieves stole the vehicle keys the ransacked house. Reported stolen were camera equipment, a microwave oven, stereo, and jewelry. Total value of the items is about $1,400.

TORCHED CAR: A 1980 Datsun was found gutted by fire on Castle Drive west of Kingsway Aug. 30. The incident was reported by a neighbor, who heard a car horn blowing continuously.

HASSLES AT HONEY-TREE: Three residents of Honey-tree Apartments reported thefts and break-ins Aug. 30.

In one incident, a woman's purse was stolen from her kitchen counter when she went to a laundry room.

The security guard discovered another apartment's door pried open and the unit ransacked while the owner was away.

Jewelry, coins and a chess set, altogether valued at $380, were stolen from another resident, who found a strange set of keys in the apartment after the break-in.

Free wheeling!

On bicycles built for fun

Who are these guys? They're serious cyclists who belong to the Plymouth Chapter of the Ann Arbor Bicycle Touring Society.

On Wednesdays throughout the summer, they've completed 20-mile trips beginning at Meijer's Thrifty Acres in Canton.

The group rides two-wheelers including everything from exotic Italian touring bikes to rather clunky three-speed English racers. Some bikers boast accessories like digital trip computers, while others are tickled pink to have just a "Three Little Pigs" bicycle bell — the kind you may have used on your tricycle.

The tour route Wednesday evening took the exercise enthusiasts north on Canton Center Road, east on Joy, north on Sheldon to Five Mile, down into Hines Park, Hines Park east to Newburgh Point.

After a 10-minute breather, they headed back, this time cutting directly through Plymouth. The ride leader is Gerry Meridith of Canton.

Cruising down Hines Drive on a beautiful Wednesday evening are avid members of an Ann Arbor touring society.

IN, for the good times

Disturbed by church request, woman bites tongue and responds

Dear Observer Reader:
Again, thank you for your responses to my column. Please continue to write to me at 41711 Joy Road, Canton, Mich. It seems appropriate at this time to explain how I write the letters in my column.

When I am contacted, either by telephone, in person, or in writing, I arrange for a meeting. The client and I, working together, discuss the facts and information surrounding the dilemma. We then identify exactly what the problem is and the results that we want. I then formulate the strategy, approach or thrust of the letter; the means by which I feel it can best be written to solve the problem. I do whatever research is necessary to supplement the information given to me by the client.

After this process is accomplished, the letter blooms. Often many hours go into the writing of the letter, as I want results. Problem solving is difficult as you must be able to remove yourself from the situation and look at it as an objective viewer. Your feelings must be clearly defined.

YOU ARE ALREADY DIVORCED. DOESN'T THAT HURT ENOUGH?

Dear Letter Writer:
I just received a letter in the mail from the Rev. P. of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Grand Rapids. I don't know what to do. I just can't believe this is happening to me. My ex-husband must be crazy.

"Dear Mrs. W.:
Your former husband has asked us to investigate his marriage with you to determine whether or not a church annulment is possible. We would like to have your views of the marital situation which will enable us to make a better determination as to whether grounds are present which would warrant an annulment. Could you please assist us by responding to the enclosed questionnaire in as much detail as possible and returning it to us within two weeks. With gratitude for your assistance and with every good wish, I am,

Sincerely yours

The questionnaire asks the following questions: "1. Did you marry Mr. W? 2. Please describe your marriage in detail with him. 3. Did you both marry freely and without any sort of pressure? 4. Did you both intend a permanent, faithful union? 5. Did either of you deliberately exclude children from your marriage? 6. What went wrong with the marriage and how soon did the letter writer

by Ginny Eades

the difficulties begin? 7. Please describe the character, temperament, maturing and sense of responsibility at the time of the marriage? 8. Was there present the sort of mutual sharing and communication necessary to make a marriage? 9. Do you believe the marriage could have succeeded?"

I am beside myself. If my marriage is annulled, what am I, a single woman with two illegitimate children? Please help me.

Sincerely,
Mrs. W.

Dear Rev. P.:
I am in receipt of your letter of Aug. 15, 1983, together with the accompanying "Annulment Questionnaire." Having waited several days to allow myself to recover from the shock of your correspondence, I am now sufficiently intact to respond.

I would appreciate your informing me of the authority by which you attempt to elicit this kind of personal information from me or any other human being. I find your letter and mimeographed questionnaire ludicrous and absurd. I was married in the Methodist Church and took my marriage vows in God's name. I will answer only to God. If Mr. W. has a need to serve his conscience and spirit and to reconcile himself to God, he may do so but not at my expense.

Your annulment procedures and your marriage tribunal are offensive and disturbing. As a Christian woman, please accept my letter as a formal protest and request for denial of annulment of my 15-plus-year marriage, resulting in the birth of our two children.

Mrs. W.
Copies to Mr. W. and Rev. S., Archbishop of the Diocese of Detroit.

THE TIME HAS COME TO STOP LETTING PEOPLE PUSH YOU AROUND!
Dear Letter Writer:
I was recently fired from my job at the bank. I am so hurt and confused. My husband didn't not too long ago, and it seems as though every time I turn around, someone is trying to hurt me. I have spent my whole life being pushed around, and now on, I am going to start telling people off. Please help me write a letter to the bank so they

Black Slate gives Bill Lucas big headaches

No one does mid-term polling on a county executive the way it's done on presidents and governors. Otherwise, Wayne County's William Lucas would be shown to be in real trouble.

Case in point: the county hospital flap.

Belatedly, the Lucas administration opposed Commissioner Kay Beard's ordinance to continue maintaining a county hospital. Lucas was absolutely correct in his final judgment that the ordinance was financially unwise and would erode his charter-given powers. But he dawdled for months in stating his case, and Beard relished twitting his nose about it at every opportunity.

Final passage was by an 11-2 vote.

BUT THE MOST serious indicator of Lucas's troubles is the black vote.

Lucas carried 95 percent of the black vote in Detroit when he won the 1982 Democratic primary, rolling up nearly a 2-1 countywide margin over his nearest rival.

He was endorsed in the primary by the "Black Slate," as were virtually all other black candidates. There is quite a bit of solidarity in the black ranks these years. It's almost to the point where a black officeholder can't do anything wrong. Almost, I said.

On the county hospital ordinance, not only did all six black county commissioners vote against Lucas, but several equated his policies with those of Ronald Reagan. When a black politician equates you with Reagan, you know he dislikes you.

Group watches the environment

To the editor:
We are writing to acquaint you with a newly formed, non-profit corporation known as S.A.L.E.M., which stands for Salem Area Local Environmental Management.

S.A.L.E.M. is an active, organized, and optimistic group of citizens concerned about the attempt to open a 168-acre addition adjacent to the current Holloway Landfill located in Salem. We felt that citizens in the Plymouth area should be aware of the controversy surrounding this proposed addition. Further, we want your readers to be aware of the fact that surface water from this landfill flows to the south-east, in the direction of Plymouth, as it joins the Rouge River Watershed, according to statements by the Department of Natural Resources.

Everyone should be concerned about the purity of their drinking water, as we have learned from so many tragic stories regarding toxic waste of late.

If any of your readers are interested in more information regarding our group, please contact Jean Bemish at 349-2687 or write to M. Kaercher at 8171 Brookville, Plymouth Mich. 48170. We issue a monthly newsletter for those unable to attend meetings. This issue is far from settled. Your help can make a difference.

HINTS OF APPROACHING ARTHRITIS

You may have experienced that you are able to sit with no difficulty but on arising feel as if your body doesn't want to move. If you suspect that the problem has something to do with arthritis, it is likely your intuition is correct.

The first indication that the hips and knees are beginning to wear occurs when you start to get up from a sitting position. This movement places considerable strain on these joints, the body perceives that commencing to walk will cause joint pain and opposes the action.

What can be done? If after taking a step or two, the discomfort stops, then your joints are basically sound, you should not give the matter further thought. If difficulty persists or pain occurs on walking, it is time to see a doctor. While no cure is likely, there are a variety of treatments aimed at preserving your fitness for activity.

Area of mental health

Program looks at problems of elderly

Kathy Parrieh staff writer

Aging can lead to mental health problems.

And with the number of older people growing each year, there is an increased demand for more mental health services.

Through a new project called "Building Ties," state aging experts hope to find out just what those needs are — and better address them.

Agencies in Oakland and Wayne counties are part of the joint effort by the Michigan Office of Services to the Aging (OSA) and the Area Agencies on Aging Association in Michigan. The 12-month federally funded project should result in local plans for dealing with aging problems.

"We want to find out what the linkages are between aging and mental health," explained Albert White, who is

'We want each county to develop a mental health program that targets older adults.'

project coordinator for the 27-member Wayne County committee.

"And we're looking at how much need there is for mental health services among the aging and what that is."

Funded by a $110,000 grant from the Administration on Aging, "Building Ties" is one of just two proposals approved by the federal agency. The other is a Wisconsin program in peer counseling for the aged.

THE MICHIGAN program is helping 13 counties develop proposals which would address mental health needs of residents 55 and over. The project coordinators are also working to get the plans funded.

"We're not promising, but we will try to hustle the money for them," said Carol Tamminga, who with fellow Michigan OSA employee Chuck May-is coordinating the project.

"Building Ties" sums up the other goal of the project, which is to get members of the "Aging Network" and "Mental Health System" to work better together.

Tamminga said the Michigan Department of Mental Health's tight budget does not allow it to offer the home services needed by many senior citizens. And many older adults are too proud to seek out help.

"Most are isolated or live independently, don't get out and there's a stigma attached to asking for help. The Mental Health System doesn't go to them and they don't go to Mental Health," Tamminga said.

"And the Aging Network does work in homes, but it doesn't have the psychiatrists and psychologists on staff that the Dept. of Mental Health does. "We're trying to get the two together, because people keep falling through the cracks."

Tamminga said there are 1.3 million older adults in Michigan with 15-20 of those in need of mental health care. But she said only 4 percent are getting that help.

THE ORIGINAL grant proposal was written by aging and mental health specialist Sally Grady, who is employed by both the OSA and was also on loan to the Dept. of Mental Health.

Thirteen counties were randomly chosen to participate in "Building Ties." The projects are based in: Mt. Pleasant, Adrian, Bellaire, Pontiac, Lansing, Hart, Detroit, White Cloud, Tawas, Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Saginaw and Traverse City.

In this area, the projects are being overseen by the Detroit-Wayne County Community Mental Health Board with Albert White as project coordinator and the Oakland County Community Mental Health Board with Mary Griffiths as liaison. While "Building Ties" is being coordinated by OSA personnel, each county is looking at its own needs. The goal is to design a program specifically for each community.

So far, Oakland is seriously considering an in-home counseling program. Other areas are looking into solutions like medication monitoring/health care and a geriatric clinic. Half are looking into some form of outreach.

"Most should have zeroed in on one service by now," said Tamminga, who hopes to wrap up the statewide project by May and have grant proposals ready by September.

But while helping them with meeting structure, research and technical assistance, the project coordinator stressed that the local mental health and professional on aging are to come up with their own plans.

SEMTA gets new trustee

A former Oakland County commissioner has been appointed to the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA) board of directors representing Oakland County.

John Peterson was appointed to the SEMTA board by the Oakland County Commissioners. The Avon Township resident replaces Paul E. Kasper.

As a commissioner representing Rochester, part of Avon and Pontiac townships for six years, Peterson also was chairman of an ad hoc transportation committee for the county.

He has also served on the executive board of the Comprehensive Health Planning Council for southeastern Michigan and is a trustee of Crittenton Hospital, Rochester.

He was chairman of the health and human services committee on the county board as well as a member of the finance committee.

Peterson has been a representative of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. since 1956. He holds a bachelor of business administration degree from Michigan State University.

The Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority is governed by a 15-member board of directors representing seven counties which comprise the SEMTA region. Appointments to the SEMTA board are made under a formula based on population figures.

Displaced homemaker program is extended

Michigan's displaced homemaker program has been extended to 1985 and eligibility requirements changed to allow persons with children at home to qualify for services.

"Displaced homemakers are generally women over 35 who, because of death, divorce or disability, have lost their sole source of income — their spouse."

The program was first established as a pilot in late 1978 in the Michigan Department of Labor, Office of Women and Work. Displaced homemaker centers were established in Marquette, Macomb County and Grand Rapids.

During the last two years seven additional centers have been established throughout the state, including Oakland and Wayne counties.

"During the first two years of the pilot program, 1,077 persons applied for services at three centers and, of that number, 310 were determined not eligible because they had children younger than 16 in the home," said Patricia Curran, director of the Office of Women and Work.

Currently, she said, there are four or five persons a month being turned away because they have a 12- or 13-year-old child but meet all the other requirements.

To be eligible, a person must have spent at least 10 years as a homemaker; lack adequate skills to secure gainful, full-time employment; be unemployed or underemployed for three months prior to application; have been supported by government aid which is no longer available or have been dependent on the income of another family member for one-half or more of support and the need to become self-supporting as the result of death, divorce or other loss of the provider.

Curran said that by removing the "no children" requirement, the new law is not providing an alternative to Aid for Dependent Children (ADC).

"Those who can get ADC will do so," Curran said.

Nature in the suburbs offers variety of colors

By Dennis O'Connor
staff writer

Judith, surprisingly, began taking pictures only about four months ago. Her husband is the original photographer of the Garbin family, but the two began taking pictures together when Gary decided to renew his hobby, after 13 years, by buying a new camera last May.

Judith took that new camera, walked over to her next-door neighbor's home, took a picture of a lily plant and wound up the grand-prize winner.

A PANEL OF FIVE judges from the O&E looked at 230 entries before deciding on the winners. They chose first-, second- and third-place finishers, along with eight honorable mentions.

Judges based their selections on the following criteria: use of color, creativity, representation of the theme, reproduction of the slide, cropping, and impact of the subject.

Most entries were of flowers and animals, although some photographers shot pictures of children and boats.

The judges were impressed with Garbin's entry because the photograph showed the texture and pattern of the plant. Garbin's exposure and lighting were excellent, and she didn't rely on a central theme to shoot a prize-winning photograph, the judges said.

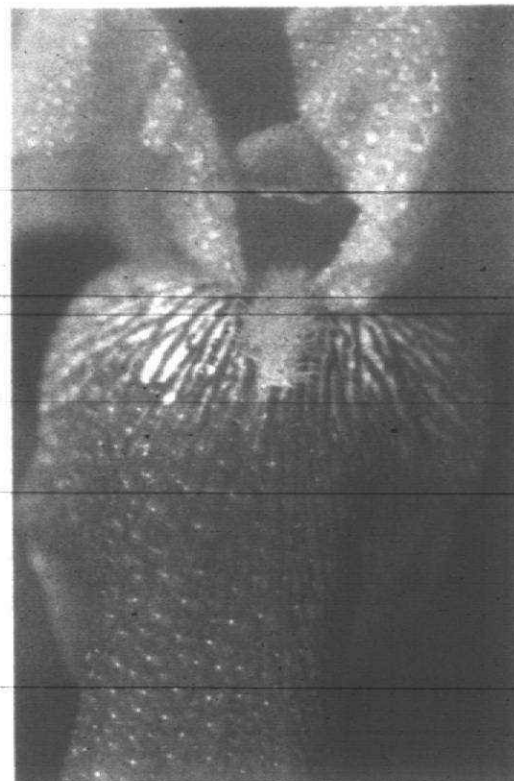

"It just goes to show, you don't have to have a subject," said judge Monte Nagler, who writes a column on photography for the O&E Creative Living section.

"SELECTIVE FOCUSING" was the key to a second-place finish for Gregory B. Williams of Westland. His picture of yellow, red and orange tulips was a balanced photograph that demonstrated how to make an out-of-focus picture work for you.

Perhaps the most dramatic entry gained third-place honors. James F. Britton of Plymouth Township took a picture of a spider spinning its web. He captured the starkness of a natural event, the judges said.

Three honorable mention entries, shown on this page, were taken by Douglas Blush of Rochester, Karen Galka of Sterling Heights and Kathy Nedock of Farmington Hills.

Blush's photograph of a tree at sunset showed how important "patience" is when capturing a good picture, the judges said. Galka's picture of moisture on an iris also was given recognition. In this photograph, closeness added to the impact of the subject, the judges said. The most whimsical entry was a picture of a raccoon by Nedock. She took a picture of this little critter before helping it. The raccoon was struck in the branch of a tree next to her house.

The impact shown of moisture on this iris earned honorable mention recognition to Karen Galka of Sterling Heights.

Judges for this year's Observer & Eccentric color photo contest were Mindy Saunders, staff photographer, Southfield Eccentric; Bill Bresler, staff photographer, Plymouth and Canton Observers; Jim Jimmerson, director of Manufacturing; Diane Giangrande, Creative Services supervisor; and Monte Nagler, photographer-columnist for O&E's Creative Living section.

Gregory B. Williams of Westland grabbed second-place honors for his colorful tulip photograph (above). Our judges were impressed with Williams' selective focusing on the tulips. James Britton of Plymouth Township finished in third place with his photo of a spider spinning a web (below). The judges gave Britton credit for the dramatic aspect of this photograph. One of eight honorable mentions went to Douglas Blush of Rochester for his picture of a tree at sunset (right). Blush showed extreme patience to capture this setting, according to the judges.

Did the raccoon really pose for photographer Kathy Nedock of Farmington Hills? Nedock's effort earned honorable mention consideration from our judges.

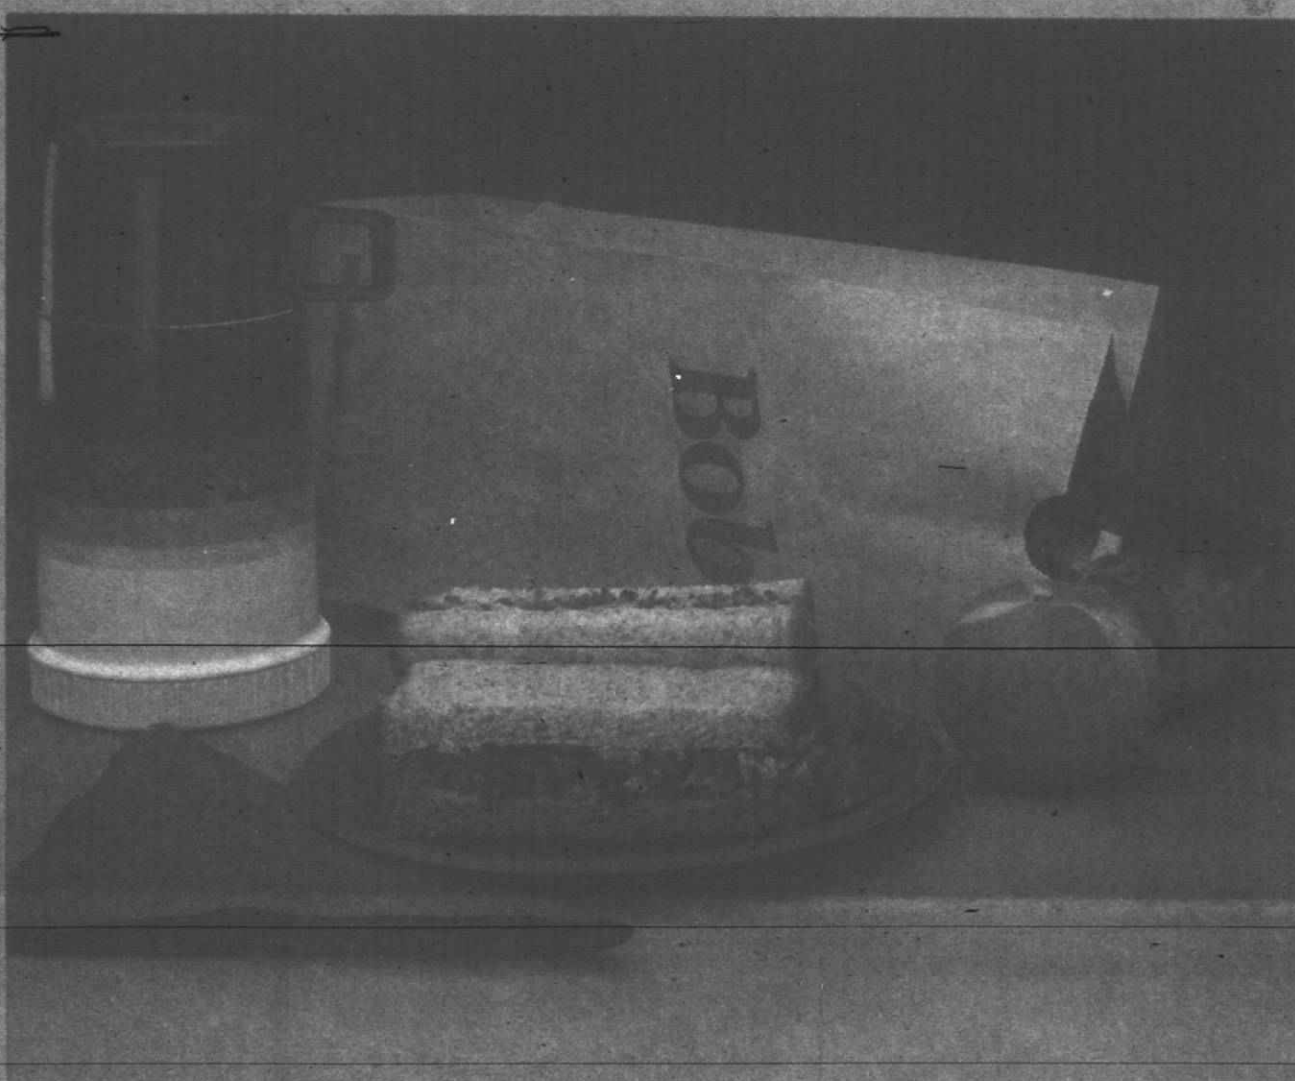

LUNCHES TO GO

When You Know What's Good For You

Everybody's brown bagging nowadays. ~~Construction~~ workers, artists, athletes, mail clerks and CEOs are all packing lunches to go. Brown bagging is the hottest mealtime trend and research figures prove it—more than 249 million lunches packed every week!

Why the upsurge in brown bag lunches? Nutrition, time and money are why—all topics close to every luncher's heart. People pack lunches so they can have just what they want and need, be it hefty and hearty or light and low-calorie. People also pack lunches so they can use the lunch hour for other activities—jogging, shopping, studying, or just relaxing. And people pack lunches to save money. The average brown bagger saves an estimated $1.80 daily with a home-prepared lunch.

When you know what's good for you, you know that the midday meal should provide a third of the day's nutrients. Sandwiches, the first choice for most lunches, are an easy way to combine nutritious foods in a portable package. The bread is good for you, especially multi-grain bread that's high in protein. Bread provides important complex carbohydrates, B-vitamins, fiber, iron, phosphorus and calcium. Choose fillings and spreads from the other food groups: fruits; vegetables; dairy products; meat/poultry/fish/eggs/legumes/nuts; and oils, fats and margarines.

Sandwiches can be simple or sophisticated, and anything goes. Try the recipes and suggestions here, or create your own. For easy brown bag sandwiching follow these tips.

Spread multi-grain bread lightly with corn oil margarine or mayonnaise to seal the bread and help keep the filling from soaking in.

Freeze sandwiches ahead to save time in the morning. Bread freezes beautifully and so do fillings such as sliced meats, cheeses, tuna and peanut butter. Tuck a frozen sandwich into a brown bag and it will be thawed by lunch time.

Wrap sandwiches well to preserve freshness and flavor. Use sandwich bags, plastic wrap or waxed paper.

Follow good food handling practices when you're preparing sandwiches, or any other food. Use clean hands, tools and work surfaces and wash between each type of food. Use fresh, clean and properly refrigerated or cooked foods. Start with well-chilled ingredients and try to keep brown bag items as cold as possible.

For a booklet of great sandwich recipes and more brown bagging tips, write to Department BC, the Roman Meal Company, Nutrition and Consumer Services, P.O. Box 11126, Tacoma, WA 98411-0126.

DIETER'S PIZZA SANDWICH

All the great flavor of pizza, but with lots fewer calories. Heat in the microwave at work or pop in a toaster oven to warm.

- 2 slices bread
- 2 teaspoons diet margarine
- 2 tablespoons tomato paste
- 1/4 cup Ricotta cheese
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
- 1 tablespoon chopped green onion (optional)
- 1 tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese
- 1 teaspoon instant minced onion
- 1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon oregano or Italian seasoning
- Dash garlic powder

Spread bread with margarine, then with tomato paste. Spread Ricotta on one slice and sprinkle on all remaining ingredients. Close sandwich. Heat in microwave oven, uncovered on paper napkin or plate, about 45 seconds. Or, wrap in foil and heat in toaster oven at 350°F. for 5 to 10 minutes or until heated through.

Makes 1 sandwich.

HOLD THE LETTUCE SANDWICH

(Illustrated)

No need for lettuce here—vegetables add the flavor and the crunch. Any vegetable you like—broccoli, green pepper, asparagus, zucchini, mushrooms—or combine two or more vegetables. If you have a food processor or blender, let it do all the chopping and the result will be a smooth spread. (Be careful not to over process or blend!) Hand-chopping produces a crispy filling.

- 1/2 cup chopped fresh vegetable(s)
- 1/4 cup chopped fresh parsley
- 1 ounce Cheddar, Jack or Swiss cheese, shredded
- 1 to 2 tablespoons bottled Italian or French dressing
- 2 slices Bread

Softened margarine

Combine all ingredients except bread and margarine. Spread bread with margarine. Spread vegetable-cheese mixture on one bread slice and close sandwich with remaining bread slice.

Peanut Butter—A to Z

When it comes to sandwiches, and to brown bagging, peanut butter is a universal favorite. You probably have your own special combination, but if you're ready for a change, pick one or more of these A to Z suggestions to tuck between multi-grain bread slices.

- Apple slices (dipped in lemon juice), or dried apricot bits
- Banana slices, or bacon crumbles
- Coleslaw (sounds crazy but tastes great), or celery, or carrots, or cranberry sauce
- Dates, pitted and chopped
- Egg salad (also sounds crazy but there are those who love it)
- Fruits, such as peaches, plums, pineapple; or franks
- Grapes or grapes
- Honey or ham
- India relish, or chow-chow
- Jelly or jam, or thin slivers of jicama
- Kiwi, a delightful surprise
- Lettuce and...
- Mayonnaise
- Nectarine slices, or nuts
- Onion or orange slices, or orange marmalade
- Pickles or pickle relish, sweet or dill
- Quince jelly or preserves
- Raisins or rhubarb jam
- Strawberries or salad dressing (try creamy cucumber)
- Tuna, or tomatoes, or tofu
- Ugli fruit or anything else unusual
- Vegetables, such as carrots, peppers
- Water chestnuts
- X=the unknown in the peanut butter sandwich formula. Make it what you will.
- Yogurt, plain or with fruit
- Zucchini, thin-slices or shredded

Stuffed burgers may be just right for your diet plan

If your dietary plan centers around eating light and right, here's a delicious suggestion for your next cookout - Mushroom-Stuffed Beefburgers. To the diner's surprise and delight, these thick, juicy burgers conceal a spicy mushroom-onion filling. Calories are kept in check by serving the burgers on rafts of crisp iceberg lettuce rather than buns.

While stuffed burgers are impressive, they are easy to make. For each burger, simply seal together two thin beef patties with the filling in between. With a little imagination, you can come up with countless stuffing possibilities to give basic burgers a flavor boost. For the burgers featured here, the filling is easily made by briefly cooking sliced mushrooms and green onion with barbecue sauce.

FOR BURGERS that are nicely browned, yet still flavorful and juicy, you'll need to pay close attention to the fire. The fire is ready for cooking when the coals are covered with a gray ash and are glowing in the center. Cooking couldn't be easier for the burgers need to be turned only once. For best results, season each side after it has browned. Seasoning before cooking may cause moisture to be drawn to the surface and retard browning.

Because ground beef is so versatile and economical, it's reassuring to know that you can serve it often on a well-balanced, health-promoting diet. Like all beef, ground beef is an excellent source of high-quality protein, the type needed daily by the body to build, maintain and repair tissues and help resist infection and disease. Other important nutrients in beef include the B-vitamins thiamin, niacin, riboflavin, B-6 and B-12 and the minerals iron and zinc.

MUSHROOM-STUFFED BEEFBURGERS

1 1/2 lbs. ground beef
1 cup thinly sliced green onion
1/4 cup barbecue sauce
Salt
Pepper
1 small head iceberg lettuce

Cook mushrooms, onions and barbecue sauce over low heat 5 to 10 minutes. Cool. Divide ground beef into 8 equal portions and form into patties 4 inches in diameter. Spoon an equal amount of mushroom sauce in center of 4 patties. Top with remaining patties. Press edges together securely to seal. Place on grill over ash-covered coals. Broil 5 to 6 minutes, to doneness desired. Turn and season. Meanwhile cut lettuce into four 1-inch crosswise slices or rafts. To serve, place a patty on each lettuce raft. 4 servings.

Uniquely appetizing

Want to serve some unique appetizers - in a hurry? Wrap a slice of cheese along with a slice of ham or bologna around a pickle spear. Secure with a frilly toothpick.

She put it in the sauce; he didn't, but he does now

My stepson often bragged about his wife's spaghetti sauce, but when I saw what went into it I had my doubts.

Mikie did not use Italian tomatoes. I did. She used tomato sauce; I didn't. She used onion salt; I didn't. She used a bay leaf; I didn't. She didn't use basil; I did. She cooked the sauce five hours; I didn't.

But my doubts evaporated after I tasted it. By far, her sauce was superior to mine. She won the spaghetti bragging rights hands down.

Since Mikie prepared the sauce so many times from memory, I had to translate her sprinklings of seasonings into measurements.

I prepared the sauce for my in-laws in Waco. "You're spaghetti is as good as ever," one of my wife's nephews said. I just smiled.

I prepared it for more in-laws in Houston. It went over big again.

When my wife and I returned home, I fixed a potful with her help for guests. I got the seasonings down fairly accurate, but you may want to adjust the garlic salt and sugar to your taste.

Mikie likes to cook the sauce several hours the night before she serves it. I tried it that way. She likes to add Italian sausage. So do I.

Mikie and I now have something in common: her sauce.

SPAGHETTI AND MEATBALLS

The meat:

- 3 lbs. ground beef
- 1/2 tsp. dried oregano leaves
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 1/2 cup Italian-style bread crumbs
- 2 eggs
- 1 tsp. olive oil
- 1 onion, chopped
- 5 garlic cloves, minced
- 1 lb. Italian sausage, cut in 3-inch pieces
- 1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste

Combine first six ingredients, shape into about 20 meatballs and refrigerate 30 minutes. Heat oil on medium in large skillet, add onion and garlic to side. Add meatballs with slotted spoon to spaghetti sauce. 1 to 1 1/4 hours before it's done. Brown sausage and add to sauce. Drain most of grease, stir in tomato paste, mixing with onion and garlic, cook until bubbly and stir into sauce. When ready to serve, place meat in separate bowl.

the movies

Louise Snider

Test your memory of the better films

- "Metalstorm." "Yor." "Strange Brew." "Hercules." "Getting It On." It takes fortitude to confront the late summer crop of movies. Going from one theater to another, one feels like a sea slug moving among bottom dwellers.
- But things were not always this way. At least, there was not always such an awesome concentration of schlock product. Looking back over better days with more interesting movies, see how you fare with this movie quiz.
1. What country was the setting for "The Year of Living Dangerously"? (a) South Africa, (b) Nicaragua, (c) Ireland, (d) Malaya, (e) Indonesia.
 2. Which one of the following was not one of Snow White's seven dwarfs? (a) Sleepy, (b) Grumpy, (c) Happy, (d) Doc, (e) Sleepy.
 3. "Betrayal" was based on a play by (a) Tom Stoppard, (b) David Mamet, (c) Alan Ayckbourn, (d) Noel Coward, (e) Harold Pinter.
 4. A critical event that created tension among the characters in "Moonlighting" was (a) a factory that shut down, (b) declaration of martial law in Poland, (c) an act of adultery, (d) a strike, (e) a family quarrel.
 5. In which movie did Sigmund Freud appear? (a) "Lovesick," (b) "Something Wicked This Way Comes," (c) "Psycho II," (d) "The Entity," (e) "Lone Wolf McQuade."
 6. Who played the female lead in "Trenchcoat"? (a) Barbara Hershey, (b) Teri Garr, (c) Margot Kidder, (d) Rachel Ward, (e) Beverly D'Angelo.
 7. On what planet did Jabba the Hutt live in "Return of the Jedi"? (a) Tantigell, (b) Mars, (c) Sertel, (d) Tatooine, (e) Zardoz.
 8. Dan Aykroyd was thrown out of his club in "Trading Places" for (a) stealing, (b) cheating at bridge, (c) wearing deck shoes with a dinner jacket, (d) sporting a Jesse Jackson button, (e) using the wrong fork at a banquet.
 9. In "Flashdance," Jennifer Beal portrayed a woman who danced at a bar at night. What was her day-time occupation? (a) grifter, (b) schoolteacher, (c) salesgirl, (d) unemployed, (e) welder.
 10. What did Tom Selleck and Roy Scheider have in common this summer? They both (a) starred in comedies, (b) portrayed fliers, (c) acted opposite Annette O'Toole, (d) were military officers, (e) had mustaches.
 11. Hating car driver "Stroker Ace" (Burt Reynolds) was mortified when he had to race wearing a (a) Santa Claus outfit, (b) turkey suit, (c) woman's dress, (d) clown costume, (e) chicken suit.
 12. In "Max Dugan Returns," what kind of car did Max (Jason Robards) buy his daughter? (a) Mercedes-Benz, (b) Mustang, (c) Porsche, (d) Corvette, (e) Jaguar.
 13. The dog in "Cujo" suffered from (a) fleas, (b) distemper, (c) mange, (d) rabies, (e) overbite.
 14. Which movie included a shot of the Renaissance Center? (a) "Without a Trace," (b) "Star Chamber," (c) "Easy Money," (d) "Blue Thunder," (e) "Mr. Mom."
 15. In which film did the Grim Reaper appear? (a) "Something Wicked This Way Comes," (b) "The Meaning of Life," (c) "Twilight Zone," (d) "Exposed," (e) "The Entity."
 16. Who wrote the songs Robert Duvall sang in "Tender Mercies"? (a) John Denver, (b) Hank Williams, (c) Paul Simon, (d) Charlie Daniels, (e) none of the above.
 17. Who was the director of "La Traviata"? (a) Herbert Ross, (b) Peter Weir, (c) Sidney Lumet, (d) Franco Zeffirelli, (e) Bruce Beresford.

what's at the movies

- CUJO (R). Suspense and thrills in movie based on story by Stephen King.
- EASY MONEY (R). Rodney Dangerfield as Monty Capuletti can inherit millions but only if he gives up drinking, smoking and gambling for a year.
- FLASHDANCE (R). A determined young woman works as a welder by day and a dancer by night. Movie doesn't make too much sense but the dancing makes a terrific impact.
- GETTING IT ON (R). Two boys with active imaginations and overactive glands indulge in crazy capers on campus. Martin Yost and Heather Kennedy star in comedy written and directed by William Olsen.
- MR. MOM (PG). Michael Keaton is a rising young executive who gets pink-slipped and trades jobs with his wife, a housewife and mother, who then goes out to work.
- NATIONAL LAMPOON'S VACATION (R). Walley World, the world's greatest theme park, is the destination in this cross-country comedy starring Chevy Chase, Beverly D'Angelo, Imogene Coca and Christie Brinkley.
- NIGHT OF THE ZOMBIES. Journey into the realm of the undead, starring Frank Garfield, Margit Newton and Saran Kelly. Directed by Vincent Dawn.
- RETURN OF MARTIN GUERRE. Winner of three French Academy Awards, romantic mystery is about man who returns from war after nine years. Gerard Depardieu stars.
- RETURN OF THE JEDI (PG). Third chapter in the middle section of George Lucas' "Star Wars" trilogy. With Luke Skywalker, Hans Solo, Princess Leia and other characters from the previous films as the Rebel Alliance battles Darth Vader and the forces of the Empire.
- RISKY BUSINESS (R). Contemporary comedy about high-school students who take chances on love, sex and free enterprise, and eventually come of age.
- SNOW WHITE (G). Disney's classic animated feature about a princess, a magic mirror, seven dwarfs, a witch and a prince. The 1938 film still ranks as one of the best, perhaps the best, animated features ever made. Every child deserves to see this and adults should treat themselves to a repeat viewing.
- STAR CHAMBER. Hal Holbrook, Yaphet Kotto and Michael Douglas star in story of judges who take matters into their own hands when they decide the judicial system isn't working right.
- STAYING ALIVE (PG). John Travolta recreates the role of Tony Manero, now struggling in the competitive world of Broadway dancers, in this sequel to "Saturday Night Fever."

VISITORS to the city of Plymouth often remark on the neatness of the downtown area, the clean and uncluttered sidewalks and parking lots. Business people who are complimented on the appearance of the town say, "Hiring 'Sweep' is one of the best moves Kenny Vogras ever made."

Ken Vogras, DPW director, says, "Sweep" does a good job. He takes care of the places the street sweepers can't reach — the sidewalks, in the parking lots, the park and around municipal buildings.

"Sweep" is Bill Setchell. The tall young man with his pushcart and pushbroom have become a familiar part of the downtown scene. Bill says he's also spending some time in the Old Village area now.

He says he likes Plymouth, that it reminds him of the village on Long Island, where he used to live. His work gives him plenty of time to think. He says he doesn't keep his eyes on the ground (or sidewalk) all the time. He likes to look up at the sky, the trees and the buildings.

The Plymouth Fall Festival, which opens Thursday, will be Bill's second. "It makes me think of a mid-Eastern caravan that comes along and sets up its tents right in the middle of town, then departs."

He said that in his spare time, he enjoys gardening, poetry and literature. "I like Yeats, and I like Shakespeare. I like poetry that rhymes. It has to rhyme." He recently read Shakespeare's "As You Like It." Sitting on a bench in Kellogg Park, he recalled some of familiar quotes and the thoughts they provoked. Then, with a slow smile, he said he had better get back to work, and retrieved his pushcart and equipment from its temporary parking place.

ACTOR JOHN Roberts has had a busy summer and is looking forward to the opening of the fall season at Meadow Brook Theater. John has roles in the first two productions.

He will play Montfleury in Edmond Rostand's "Cyrano de Bergerac," the opening play. In the second production, "Magnificent Yankee," he will be Henry Adams. Emmet Lavere wrote the drama about Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr.

John also appeared in a commercial filmed for K mart at the Rochester K mart store. He is in a CBS pilot, "Second Look," which will be aired this fall. And he is in "Saliva Tree," a program in the science fiction radio series, "Threshold."

ELIZABETH McFarland brought home a first-place trophy from the Michigan State Fair. The 11-year-old student at Smith Elementary School is a baton twirler. She was awarded the trophy for her performance in the beginning military strut category.

Elizabeth has been practicing baton twirling for three years. Her coach is Debbie Gray of Livonia. Elizabeth already has accumulated 39 trophies and 27 medals in competitions in Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and in Ohio. She prefers two-baton routines to working with a single baton.

STAGE 1 productions, the community theater group in Novi, is auditioning for its upcoming show, "Murder Among Friends."

Auditions will be at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 12 and 14 in the Novi Community Building. The cast calls for four males and two females. For more information, call 477-3935 or 669-4050.

CHARLES BURR is a member of the cast of "Arsenic and Old Lace" at True Grist dinner theater in Homer. The comedy opens Sept. 8 and will play Wednesday through Sunday weekly until Oct. 15. For information, show times and reservations, call (517) 568-4151.

Charlie's parents, Ruth and Sanford Burr of Plymouth, will tell you how to get to Homer if you've never been there.

BARBARA WADE is inviting everyone to her grand opening celebration of Healthways this Saturday. She plans to have her sidewalk cafe in operation where shoppers can refuel with healthful freshly made juices, sandwiches, yogurt, ice cream and other natural goodies.

21st annual antique mart opens Friday

The doors of the Plymouth Cultural Center will open at noon Friday for the Plymouth Symphony League's 21st annual antique mart. Only one of the 20 dealers in the mart has been in the show since its inception in 1962.

Ruby Morrison of the Red Sled in Union Lake has been a regular with her fine primitives, furniture and accessories. Members of the league remember Ruby's booth at the back of the Community Building, during the first years of the antique show. Now they literally beat a path to her quarters on the stage of the auditorium of the Cultural Center.

Maret Garard and Cindy Merrifield selected the dealers for the three-day show. They were chosen for the quality and diversity of their wares. Collectors will find dealers who specialize in a wide variety of antiques and collectibles.

GINNY CONNORS of Farmington Hills concentrates on furniture from the golden oak era.

Cane, splint and rush chairs and rockers will be found in the Chair Shop from Livonia. Mary Morrison of Utica will have glass ware and Perthshire paperweights. The Lavender Lady of Bay City will return with children's miniatures and toys.

American brass, copper, glassware and primitives will be available in Heath's Antiques of Jackson booth.

Esther Sperlock of Bloomfield Hills went to England in June to buy for the mart. She visited a different market every day in London — Elephant Castle, King's Road, Petticoat Lane and Portobello Road.

Sperlock believes antiques should be useably decorative. "You buy charm and character," she explained. She will have an English Davenport desk from the 1860s, ironstone plates from the early 1800s, brass trays, wooden barley twist candlesticks, head boards, knives and old hunt prints.

MARGE ARNOTT of Dearborn and her mother-in-law, Margaret Arnot of Taylor, have shared a booth at the mart for the past nine years. They do just one show a year.

Both are avid antiquers, buying what they fancy, then living with it for a few months. When the Symphony League show comes along in September, they consolidate their purchases to fill their booth. They collect primitive country furniture, mostly pine.

Pamela Van Vurst of Birmingham is an expert on Amish quilts. Her father, who lives in the Amish area of northern Indiana, has donated many Amish quilts to a New York museum and has written a book on the subject. She plans to have several antique Amish quilts at the show as well as baskets and children's accessories.

Pauline Work of Farmington Hills is a regular at the mart. Her collection of antique jewelry, silver and glass is one of most popular attractions in the show.

Heisey glass, china and furniture will be featured by Avery's Quality Antiques of Jackson. Novella Boien of Ann Arbor will have American primitives and decorative accessories. The Iron Eagle of Redford, another longtime participant in the mart, will have a fine collection of furniture and accessories.

GLORIA SIEGERT of Livonia says she enjoys the excitement of finding unusual pieces. Fortunately, her husband enjoys stripping away layers of old paint, grease and varnish to reveal the original beauty of the wood.

They will have an original oak Hoosier kitchen cabinet in their booth. All the accessories — flour sifter, sugar container, spice rack and cookbook holder — are intact. They also will bring a tall oak sideboard, a walnut cradle with fan finials, and a brass birdcage from the 1920s.

Collectors plates, Hummels and Royal Doulton will be in the Plate Rack booth. Charles and Mary Kehoe will have a wide selection of clocks and trunks.

Hunters Creek Antiques of Lapeer, Landmark Farm Antiques of Ponton, and the Iron Dog Antiques of Bloomfield Hills offer country furniture and accessories.

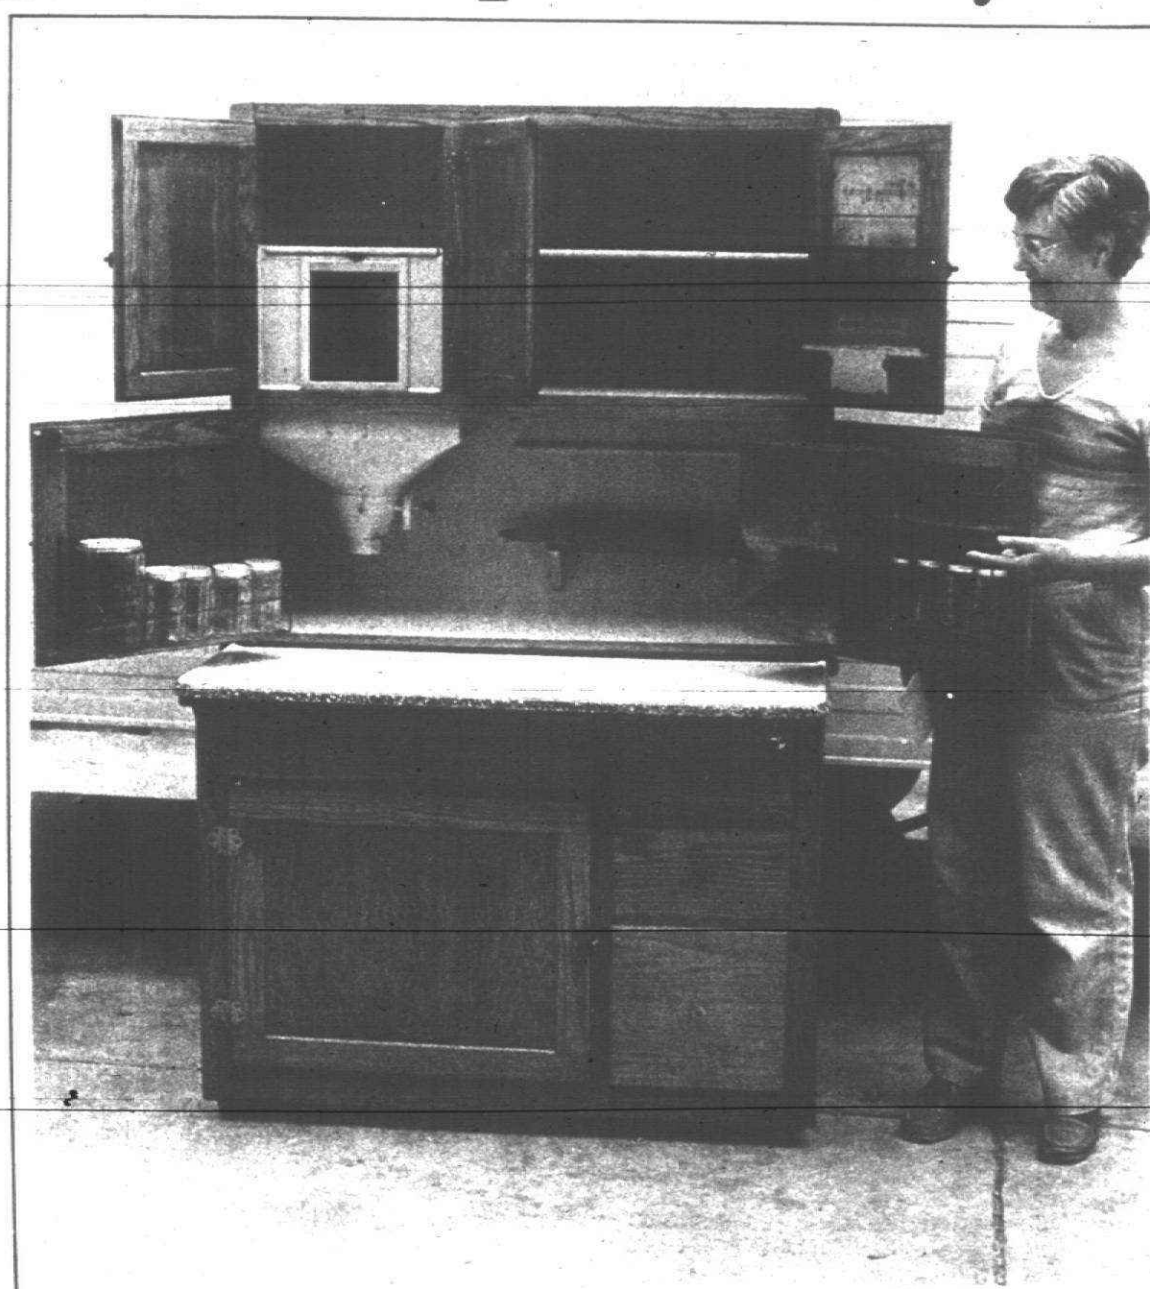

Two auxiliary dealers, Sutton Street Candlemakers of Plymouth and Early American Stenciling of Dearborn, complete the show.

THE MART opens at noon Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 10-12. It closes at 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday and at 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Admission is $1.50 with proceeds going to the support of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra. The mart is the league's largest single fund-raising project.

Carol Davis and Elaine Kirchgatter are chairing the event, and Janice Paulsen is treasurer. Patricia Davenport is in charge of meal preparation for the dealers, assisted by Rose Condit.

Judy Lore and Mary Bozell are responsible for setup and cleanup. Virginia Cox, assisted by Kay Rednour, sign up and schedule hostesses. Barb Sprague, assisted by Eileen Dunn, look after costumes and posters and Lynn Lyon is doing publicity for the mart.

Gloria Siegert, a Livonia antique dealer, will bring her oak Hoosier kitchen cabinet to the Plymouth Symphony League Antique Mart. The cupboard, with its built-in flour sifter and sugar bin, became out-dated when built-in kitchen cupboards came into style.

Infant wears 100-year-old christening dress

In an unusual outdoor ceremony, Kyle Austen Wibby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wibby of Ponca City, Okla. was baptized in the outdoor chapel at Eagles Nest, 11,400 feet above sea level on the top of Vail mountain, Vail, Colo. The infant wore an heirloom christening dress originally made for his great grandfather in 1882 and since used by children of the Wibby family.

Officiating was the Rev. Hal A. Holman of the Presbyterian Parish of Avon, Minturn and Vail, Colo. Kyle's godparents are Tom and Linda Trudy of Albuquerque, N. M.

The infant's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wibby of Farmington. He is president of Metropolitan National Bank of Farmington.

His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Redding of Frisco, Colo. His paternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schafer of Plymouth. He is retired after a career with Auto Owners Insurance Co.

The 100-year-old christening dress, which was also worn by Kyle's father, was handmade of handkerchief linen with lace inserts.

Charles Wibby graduated from Plymouth High School and received his bachelor's and master's degrees from University of Colorado. He is employed as a research chemist for Conoco Oil Co.

Phyllis Wibby was raised in Long Island, N. Y. and took her degree from University of Colorado. She is now teaching in Ponca City.

Leannais-Simpson

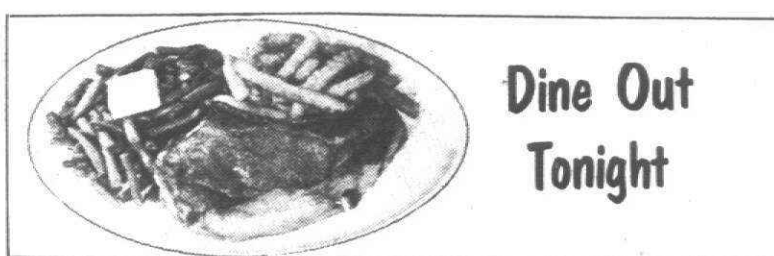

Natalie Ann Simpson and Philip Ralph Leannais Jr. exchanged marriage vows Aug. 13 in Northville's Mill Race Historical Village. Mayor Paul Vernon officiated. The bride is the daughter of Larry and Carole Simpson of Northville, formerly of Plymouth. Philip and Sharon Leannais of Northville are the bridegroom's parents. The bride's all-lace gown has a five-foot train and she carried a cascade bouquet of blue and yellow flowers. Her attendants wore blue and yellow silk and lace floor-length dresses and carried blue and yellow bouquets. Kary Hansor was maid of honor, Sandie Reh was bridesmaid and Jennifer Leannais was flower girl.

Joseph Yacnivic III was best man, Kent Westfall was groomsmen, Kevin and David Leannais were ushers, and Dennis Leannais was ring bearer.

The couple traveled to Mackinac City for their wedding trip after a reception at the Northville American Legion Hall. They will live in Northville. Both are graduates of Northville High School. The bride attends Sally Essess Beauty College. The bridegroom attends Oakland Community College and is employed at Belegers Inc.

THE SMOKELESS SYSTEM

The Dr. Powell Method To Permanently Stop Smoking!

Now, finally a stop smoking program that works. Through Smokeless your desire for cigarettes will be ended once and for all. The method is based upon the most advanced scientific research and has enabled tens of thousands of smokers to quit calmly and comfortably without gaining weight or climbing the walls.

Smokeless is so successful that it has been used by such prestigious organizations as Blue Cross/Blue Shield, the Center for Disease Control, and the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute. The developer of the program was also commended in the 1982 Surgeon General's Report.

So come to a free introductory meeting. You have nothing to lose, but your habit.

Festival returns for 28th year

The 28th annual Plymouth Fall Festival will be staged this year Sept. 8-11.

Fall Festival has made a tradition of serving dinners and entertaining crowds with the help of almost every service club in the community.

The Festival is a coordinated group of service clubs, churches, and non-profit groups celebrating and raising money for activities and sponsorships in the Plymouth community.

Eric Colthurst and son Andy, 2, of Plymouth Township enjoy last year's Fall Festival.

The theme for this year's Fall Festival is "USA — 100 years ago" and will be seen and felt throughout the town. Merchants will decorate their windows showing the historical life in America. Prizes will be awarded in several categories.

Booths of civic organizations will line the streets of the downtown area, on Main from Ann Arbor Trail to Fralick.

Homes, businesses, booths and serving lines will be decorated with the official Fall Festival flower (the marigold), competing for ribbons for the best decoration.

EVENTS PLANNED to take place during the Festival are an Artist and Craftsman show in Central Middle School and an Antique Mart at the Cultural Center on Saturday and Sunday.

Dinners will be served each day at The Gathering by the Plymouth Theatre Guild, the Lions, the Jaycees, the Kiwanis, and the Rotary.

The Rotary, which started the Fall Festival 28 years ago, will serve chicken dinners from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Entertainment will be going on throughout the Festival at the bandshell at Union and Penniman Avenue in Kellogg Park. Saturday highlights are a Pet Show in the morning and a firefighters waterball fight and parade in the afternoon.

Saturday night, "The Ambassadors" will entertain the crowds with their Big Band sounds. Sunday, the Produce Tent, on Union near Ann Arbor Trail, will be open for display of the judged entries.

Booths sponsored by local groups, clubs

More than 30 organizations will be operating booths during the Plymouth Fall Festival.

The booths will be offering a wide variety of food, beverages, and information. For many the booths along Main Street from Ann Arbor Trail to Fralick represent one of the most important fund-raising activities of the year.

Following is a summary of organizations participating in the 1983 Fall Festival, including a description of the activity engaged in by each group.

● CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
The Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce will be this year's answer people.

The chamber will staff three information booths at the Festival — at Main Street and Ann Arbor Trail, at the gazebo in the center of the Festival at Kellogg Park, and at Main Street in front of City Hall.

The information booths will help festival goers find all special events, restrooms, and will provide information on entertainment. Maps and official Festival information will be available. Just ask for your free Fall Festival brochure.

● CEP PERSPECTIVE
Extra, extra!
The student newspaper at the Centennial Educational Park (CEP) will be selling doughnuts, lemonade, and iced tea to raise funds for the education of its staff at a conference at Columbia University in New York. The student paper gives its readers an original outlook on events as seen by students at the CEP.

● CEP EXECUTIVE FORUM
Plymouth-Canton high school student leaders will be dishing it out with hand-dipped ice cream cones in a variety of flavors.

The CEP Executive Forum brings together student leaders to work on projects. The group contributes to homecoming festivities, Christmas dance, and the Easter Seals telethon.

● STEPPINGSTONE
The Steppingstone Center for Potentially Gifted Children, a school in operation for two years now, will help you present your home to the community. The center will be selling fall decorations of corn and gourds.

The school provides an environment for meeting the academic needs of the potentially gifted child. Money raised will provide reference books for the school library.

● CANTON CLASS OF '84
The Class of 1984 of Plymouth Canton High School will be selling rootbeer and hotdogs to earn money for the Easter Seals Skateathon, for school dances, and to add school spirit to graduation ceremonies.

Free Pet Show is just for kids

The annual Plymouth Fall Festival Pet Show is an event for kids only.

The Plymouth Optimists Club, in cooperation with the Plymouth-Canton Community Education Department, plans the Pet Show each year to offer something special for children to enjoy — participants and viewers.

The free fun event will be Saturday morning at the bandshell, near Union Street and Penniman Avenue.

The judging for dogs begins promptly at 9 a.m. At 10:15 the "most unusual" pets are judged. This category is especially entertaining as anything and everything is entered from bugs and spiders, to snakes and rabbits.

The last category of competition, cats, begins at 10:45 a.m. — leaving a "safe" distance between the departure of dogs and the arrival of cats.

Categories of competition include cutest, best behaved, longest tail, friendliest, smallest and most colorful. First, second and third-place ribbons will be awarded for each category. All children will receive something for their efforts.

The only rule for the Pet Show is that only children may enter, although adults are allowed to watch.

Fest Window Display's focus is last century

"Plymouth — 100 Years Ago — 1883" is the theme this year for the Fall Festival Window Display.

Community groups and service clubs are invited to display window showpieces throughout the downtown area to be viewed by festival goers.

The display window showpieces highlight the family, industry, farming, fashion, furniture, the arts, entertainment, or technology of Plymouth in 1883.

Service clubs, merchants, societies, and schools each year are encouraged to participate in this Fall Festival activity.

A major meal slated each day

An attraction of the Plymouth Fall Festival is the major meals served up each day by community organizations.

In 1983 the Plymouth Theatre Guild will open the Festival with a ham dinner on Thursday, the Plymouth Lions will follow with its fish fry on Friday, the Plymouth Kiwanis will have its pancake breakfast Saturday morning with the Plymouth Jaycees selling beef ribs Saturday afternoon and evening. The eating spectacular comes to an end Sunday with Plymouth Rotary's traditional chicken barbecue.

All the major dinners will be served at The Gathering, the covered pavilion on Penniman Avenue between the Penn Theatre and Masonic Temple.

The Festival, in fact, began in 1956 when the Rotary Club served barbecued chicken for a community picnic which, in 1962, became a four-day celebration.

THE THURSDAY NIGHT kick-off dinner will be deliciously provided by those talented show biz whizzes, the Plymouth Theatre Guild.

The starring dinner will include a cast of ham, co-starring with German potato salad, and with a supporting cast of bread and butter, coffee or milk.

The performance times for this delicious menu will be a premiere lunch Thursday from 11:20 a.m. to 1 p.m. with a repeat performance dinner from 4:30 to 8 p.m.

The meal can be enjoyed by all for the low price of $3.50.

The Theatre Guild also will have their cotton candy wagon at the Festival Thursday through Sunday.

THE PLYMOUTH LIONS Club again

will be offering its popular Friday fish dinners.

The dinner will be served from 11 a.m. until 9 p.m. and will include ocean perch, french fries, cole slaw, roll and butter and beverage. The low price for the meal will be $4 for the general public and $3 for senior citizens.

The Plymouth Lions Club contributes to the community by offering eye examinations and glasses for needy students, by supporting the Leader Dog School and the Michigan Eye Bank, and by donating large-print magazines to residents of Tonquish Creek Manor to make reading easier and more enjoyable.

A PANCAKE BREAKFAST Saturday morning provides all the fuel and energy needed to enjoy a full day's activities at the Fall Festival.

This year the Plymouth Kiwanis Club will be serving its delicious breakfast special in the outdoor pavilion, "The Gathering." In past years the Kiwanis served in the Masonic Temple next door.

The serving line will open at 7 a.m. Saturday and remain open until 2 p.m. Price is $3.50.

The Kiwanis donates money to many local groups, including Growth Works, the Plymouth Fire & Drum Corps, Junior Achievement, Plymouth Community Fund, Safety Town, Tonquish Creek Manor and the Plymouth Historical Museum.

BEEF RIB DINNERS are back Saturday night.

The Plymouth Jaycees will be serving this Saturday dinner favorite at the Festival from 4-9 p.m.

The meal includes beef ribs, corn on the cob, potato chips, roll and butter, beverage and ice cream. The dinners are $4.50 for tickets bought in advance and $5 at the Festival.

The Jaycees put on the July Fourth marathon, parade and fireworks each year and contributes to CPR training, spiritual development, the Red Cross blood drive, sandbox fill, Dial Santa, Easter Egg Hunt and Haunted House among other community projects.

PLYMOUTH ROTARIANS will bring the Fall Festival to an end on Sunday, Sept. 11, with its annual chicken barbecue. The Rotarians have been serving the Sunday chicken dinners for the past 27 years.

The club is planning on serving thousands of the dinners as annually they serve 15,000-16,000 diners. The dinners will include a barbecued half-chicken, corn on the cob, potato chips, roll and butter, milk or coffee. Soft drinks, ice cream and pies also will be available.

Cost of the dinners, which will be served from noon to 6 p.m. in Kellogg Park, is $4 with home-baked pies selling for 50 cents a slice.

Take-out dinners will be available at Kellogg Park and at the take-out site at Ann Arbor Road and Sheldon. Tickets may be bought in advance from Plymouth Rotarians or purchased during the Festival.

The barbecue dinner involves many hours of preparation and commitment on the part of club members. The money raised is used entirely on community projects such as Plymouth Family Services, Easter Seals, Boy Scouts, student exchange programs, Salvation Army, Plymouth Symphony, the Rotary Swim Meet at Plymouth Salem High and scholarships. The club also helped finance such things as the fountain in the park, the double-decked bus, the pavilion, CPR equipment for the schools and the school farm.

The Rotary Club of Plymouth is one of the most active in the state and its fundraising efforts have been a model for other service clubs.

for your information

• LOST & FOUND

Where did you leave your sunglasses? Did your car keys fall out of your pocket? Lost articles can be found at the Festival Manager's trailer on the corner of Penniman and Main, across from the Red Cross booth.

• STREET CLOSINGS

Streets will be closed to set up the Fall Festival at noon on Wednesday, Sept. 7. Main Street will be blocked off from Ann Arbor Trail to Church Street, Penniman Avenue will be closed from Harvey to Union Street and will be blocked from Ann Arbor Trail to the entrance of the East Central Parking Lot which runs behind Growth Works, the library and City Hall.

ion, and Union Street will be blocked from Ann Arbor Trail to the entrance of the East Central Parking Lot which runs behind Growth Works, the library and City Hall.

• NO DOGS ALLOWED

Pets are fun but not in a crowd. Do your pets a favor and leave them at home during Fall Festival. Leave your pets right next to your surfboard, roller-skates and bikes because these items also are not allowed at Fall Festival. This is a rule for the safety and well-being of people who visit the Festival.

Festival put together by year-round group

The Plymouth Fall Festival is planned by a board of community group representatives which meet year round to plan the annual event.

The group held its organizational meeting on Jan. 5, 1983, to re-elect as board president Eleanor Shevlin of the Plymouth Symphony League. At the same meeting the board elected: Dennis Sienger of the Plymouth Lions, first vice president; Grace Light, Plymouth Business and Professional Women, second vice president; Gene Kafila of the Plymouth-Canton Civilians, treasurer; and Pat Carne, Old Village Association, secretary.

After its organizational meeting, the Fall Festival Board met again in February and continued meeting on a monthly basis since. The public could attend all board meetings which were held on the first Wednesday of each month at East Middle School Library.

Other members of the board, besides the officers, are: Mary Childs, representing Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce; Sue McElroy, Plymouth Community Arts Council; James Jabara, Colonial Kiwanis Club of Plymouth; Stanley Klein, Plymouth Rotary; Louis Tritten, Plymouth Grange; James Vermeulen, Plymouth Kiwanis; James Ventitelli, Plymouth Jaycees.

Others involved in the Festival are Carl Glass, manager, Mike Vanderveen, assistant manager, Henry Graper, city liaison, Kenneth Vogras, city liaison, and Cathy Kostreba, publicity.

The ride is about 30 minutes long.

• COMMUNITY CHURCH SERVICE

There will be a Community Church Service at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at the bandshell. The First Baptist Church of Plymouth will sponsor the service. The community is invited to worship together in this non-denominational service.

• FARMERS MARKET

The Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce will hold its Farmers Market during the Saturday of Fall Festival. Hours will be the regular market hours (8 a.m. to noon) and will be at the Produce Tent in front of the Wilcox House at Penniman Avenue and Union Street.

Fired up for water contests

The city of Plymouth Fire Department is sponsoring its fourth annual Waterball Contest and Muster for the Fall Festival.

The muster will include an apparatus pumping contest, hose cart race, and bucket brigade, waterball contest, and antique fire truck parade.

The event will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 10. The contest and muster will be held on Main Street by Plymouth City Hall.

This year events have been added for children with special certificates to be awarded in different age categories. The children will be able to test their skills at bucket brigade and water pumping from 2-4 p.m.

The morning activities from 9 a.m. to noon will be an apparatus pumping contest, a hose cart race, and the bucket brigade.

THE APPARATUS parade will be from 12:30-1:30 p.m. with the apparatus then being displayed from 1:30 to 4 p.m. The waterball contest will be held from 1:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

The apparatus that will participate in the parade will form on Theodore Street near the Plymouth Cultural Center at 525 Farmer. All entries must be in formation prior to 12:30 p.m. to participate. From the Cultural Center the apparatus will proceed on a designated route to in front of City Hall at Church and Main.

Different groups in the community have issued challenges to each other for the waterball contest and those groups will square off beginning at 1:45 p.m. Saturday. Each heat will last three minutes.

The waterball contest for men and women will consist of single elimination.

The men's waterball contest will be limited to 12 teams and the minimum age limit for all waterball participants will be 14 years of age.

Trophies will be awarded as follows: men's waterball, first, second and third places; women's waterball, first, second and third places; hose cart race, first and second; bucket brigade, first and second; and engine pumping, first, second, and third places. There is a limit of one trophy per team, men and women.

Anyone with questions may contact Capt. Al Matthews at the fire department, 453-1234, ext. 54.

Antique Mart has buggy rides

A new attraction has been added to the Antique Mart this year — horse and buggy rides.

The Plymouth Symphony League is the sponsor of the Antique Mart as it has been for the past 21 years. The Mart will be held in the Plymouth Cultural Center at 525 Farmer at Theodore from noon to 9 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and from noon to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Admission to the Antique Mart is a donation of $1.50 per person with all proceeds benefiting the Plymouth Symphony League.

A wide variety of items will be available from some 21 dealers including American primitive furniture, oak era furniture, caned chairs, rush seats, glassware, jewelry, silver, children's miniatures, toys, quilts, decoys, American brass and copper, Hummels and collectibles. Candles made in antique molds also will be available.

New in 1983 to the Antique Mart will be horse and buggy rides to and from the downtown Festival area and the Cultural Center. This added attraction will help Festival goers get into the spirit of the Festival theme, "USA, 100 Years Ago."

The Symphony League invites the public to the Antique Mart Preview Reception from 8-10 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 7, for a donation of $10. Wines and hors d'oeuvres will be served while a wandering musician will entertain. To make reservations for the preview, phone 453-7559.

A variety of art available for all

There always is a variety of art available to satisfy all tastes at the Plymouth Fall Festival — thanks to the Plymouth Community Arts Council (PCAC) and the Three Cities Arts Club.

The PCAC sponsors its Artist and Craftsman Show on Saturday and Sunday, with Three Cities offering an art exhibit all four days at Kellogg Park.

The Art Council's show, held at Central Middle School at Main and Church, will be open during the hours of the Festival on Saturday (noon to 9 p.m.) and Sunday (noon to 6 p.m.).

Many types of art pieces will be offered by creative people all over the state. All art work is priced for sale by the artists. Many other activities and demonstrations will be going on during the show.

The PCAC serves the community in many ways. Their projects include school enrichment programs in cooperation with the Michigan Council for the Arts, art awards to students, classes in the arts for students and adults, an art rental gallery, and the Picture Lady program in the schools.

Kellogg Park will be much brighter with the Three Cities Art Club pieces on display, usually in the corner of the park by Ann Arbor Trail and S. Main.

Throughout the four days Festival goers will be able to view the exhibits and meet the artists who created the works. All pieces will be for sale. The art club promotes art in the community and donates art books to the Dunning-Hough Library.

Grange offers variety of food on 4 days

The Plymouth Grange has a lot to offer Festival goers.

The Grange will be participating all four days of the Festival at the Grange Hall on Union Street which is the first street east of The Gathering pavilion.

On Thursday and Saturday meatballs over rice will be sold for $2.35 and split pea soup with ham for 80 cents.

Friday and Sunday the Grange will serve a stacked ham sandwich with chips for $2.25 with vegetable soup for 80 cents. Sloppy Joes will be served all four days, any time of the day. Cole slaw, pie, cookies, doughnuts and beverages also will be available at good prices.

The Grange's primary focus is on the welfare of the farmer and consumer. The Grange offers educational programs, perform community services and promotes legislative action for farm, home, family and community issues. The Grange raises funds for the Salvation Army, Goodfellow's, school band, Fife and Drum Corps, Hawthorn Valley, the Jaycees and Tonquish Manor.

Booths sponsored

● PLYMOUTH-CANTON MOOSE

Plymouth-Canton Moose No. 1190 will be selling slush cones, a Festival favorite because you can order them by flavor or color, eat them and drink them, hold them when it's hot to stay cool, and at the same time help an organization that helps the community.

The Plymouth-Canton Moose contributes to groups which need outside assistance such as scholarship funds, children with learning disabilities, and the Northville Regional Psychiatric Hospital. Many other groups are helped by the Moose with the money raised at the Festival.

● PLYMOUTH-CANTON CIVITANS

The Plymouth-Canton Civitan Club will make your smile shine at the Fall Festival. They will be selling the popular photo buttons along with the mouth-watering Teri Yaki steak sandwich and pop.

The Civitans sponsor senior citizen programs, co-sponsor the Special Olympics in Wayne County, and raise funds to benefit the Plymouth Canton High wrestling team, Junior Civitans, Salvation Army, and the handicapped.

● CANTON CLASS OF '85

The Canton High juniors are sweet on Festival goers, tempting the crowds with Baskin Robbins cookie sandwich and ice cream bars for $1. School spirit and the Junior Prom are special projects which bring the students together and helps them develop community spirit.

● SALEM CLASS OF '84

The Plymouth Salem High Class of '84 will serve pizza by the slice and pop to satisfy your hunger at the Festival. They are earning money for the Senior Prom and for the deluxe handcovers for their diplomas.

● NATIVITY OF VIRGIN MARY

The Nativity of Virgin Mary Church will be serving delicious Greek foods. Shish-ke-bob and gyros have been offered in past years and are proven favorites with the crowds. The dishes are $2, with sweets and beverages also available.

The church raises money at the Festival to be used for different community projects such as helping needy families, the Plymouth Goodfellows, and for the operation of the church and its building fund.

● PLYMOUTH FAMILY YMCA

If an Italian sausage sub is what you're hungry for, the Plymouth Community Family YMCA made them famous. Soft drinks and chips also will be available. While visiting the YMCA booth there also is information available on their fall programs and Town Hall series.

The YMCA provides the Plymouth community with enrichment programs, parent-child programs such as Indian Guides and Indian Maidens, Fitness workshops, outings, and a senior citizens organization round out their programs.

● COMMUNITY CHORUS

The Plymouth Community Chorus will have Festival goers singing songs of sambros with their mouth-watering tacos, cool off with Pepsi and Mountain Dew, and soothe those steaming ears with Community Chorus tapes.

The local singers perform year-round for the community and will sing for the crowds at the Festival on Sunday afternoon. Their cultural contribution to the community has made this group's performance a Festival tradition.

● HOSPICE SUPPORT SERVICES

The Hospice Support Services will participate Sunday at the Fall Festival with a booth to provide information on the services of the group.

Hospice provides home care for the terminally ill in order that they may have their remaining days with their families. This service is provided free.

● OLD VILLAGE ASSOCIATION

The merchants of Old Village participate by providing fun for the children with kiddie rides.

The children will be able to enjoy two moonwalks, a merry-go-round, ferris wheel, and boat rides. All rides will cost 60 cents and will be located this year on Penniman Avenue west of S. Main. The Old Village Association raises money to promote and beautify the residential and business areas of Old Village.

● PLYMOUTH POA

You see them on the street — now meet them in person.

The Plymouth Police Officers Association (POA) will have an information booth at the Fall Festival. The police, who are actively involved in community relations, also contribute to the Community Chorus, Plymouth Fife & Drum Corps and high school athletics.

● FIFE & DRUM CORPS

The Plymouth Fife & Drum Corp, which represents Plymouth-Canton throughout the state and nation year-round, will be going south of the border during this year's Fall Festival, featuring tortilla chips with hot cheese dip and pop. Buttons and bumper stickers also will be sold.

The youngsters will use the money raised during the Festival to buy uniforms, musical equipment, and to cover operation and traveling expenses. The corps will be performing during the Fall Festival.

● HENRY FORD HOSPITAL

Henry Ford Hospital will have a tent at its new site location in town, next to Growth Works on Main just north of Penniman Avenue, with health information and free health care tests.

● VIETNAM VETERANS

Corn on the cob and beverages are on the agenda for the Vietnam Veterans of America, Detroit Chapter No. 9. Also available will be T-shirts, hats, pins, license plates and information on the group.

This group of ex-servicemen want to improve the quality of life for Vietnam veterans and their families. The money raised will be used to renovate their new building in Detroit.

● CENTENNIAL DANCERS

The Polish Centennial Dancers will bring a taste of the old country to Fall Festival with kielbasa sandwiches, sauerkraut, dill pickles, sandwich platters, angel wings, cheese cake, and beverages. Also available will be Polish buttons, colored eggs, stickers and flags.

The group exposes people to Polish cultural and heritage through performances and classes. The money raised at the Festival will help cover tuition and organizational expenses.

● GROWTH WORKS

Growth Works will have your favorite games to play next to its building on Main Street just north of Penniman Avenue.

Fish pond, gold mine, wheel of fortune, balance log, and a high striker are sure winners for Festival goers and their children. Growth Works service to the community includes counseling, crisis intervention, employment, and training opportunities for students.

New rules take away game strategy?

Basketball coaches bemoan 83 rule changes

Fred Thomann, Salem basketball coach, is one of many high school coaches displeased with the rule changes instituted for 1983.

"They just keep tinkering with the game. Pretty soon they are going to ruin it. It's like destroying a new car just to change the spark plugs."

— George Sommerman

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

AREA BASKETBALL COACHES aren't exactly enamored with some rule changes installed this year by the Michigan High School Basketball Rules Committee.

Teams will be allowed just two timeouts per half. Unused timeouts cannot be accumulated. Last season, teams were allowed five timeouts per game.

Also, if a player commits a charging foul after the shot, the basket is automatically disallowed. Last year, if the foul was committed after the shot, the basket was good.

These changes will have a significant effect on coaching strategies and philosophies. So what do the coaches think of the changes?

"I HATE it," said Our Lady of Mercy head coach Larry Baker.

"It's a tragedy," said Plymouth Salem head coach Fred Thomann.

"I don't like it at all," said both Tom Lang, Bentley head girls' basketball coach, and Phyllis Cunningham-Mulroy, Plymouth Canton head girls' coach.

"I'm pretty perturbed about it," said George Sommerman, John Glenn head girls' basketball coach.

No sir, the coaches aren't pleased. The girls coaches feel stronger against the timeout rule change than they do about the charge/block rule. They feel the charge/block rule will have a greater impact on the boys' game.

THOMANN WAS THE most adamant against the charge/block change.

"It's really an injustice. As a coach, you take a lot of time training your kids to take the ball to the hole. Now, all a defensive player has to do is lay in the bushes, so to speak, and they'll get a score. The offense is put at a real disadvantage and I'm not very happy about that," he said.

Apparently, the change was made to clear up vagaries referees may have had in calling charging fouls and also to reduce the threat of injury. Instead, the coaches said, the rule has been made more confusing, and the threat of injury has been increased.

"I really don't think the refs are going to try to call it," Sommerman said. "I think they really don't understand the rule. I think they are confused by it."

Baker foresees a potential increase in injuries. "I wonder if you won't begin to see more kids set up to take the charge. They know that the hoop will be erased. I see it as change that will invite more contact. There is a real reward now for a kid to take a charge."

THE CONSENSUS as to the charge/block rule seems to be that it won't make much difference on girls' basketball.

"I still feel the call is up to the officials' discretion. The coaches will still see it differently. It won't have much of a difference on the girls' game," Lang said.

Lang added, however, that if he still had a player like Kim Archer, who graduated last year, the rule would have a big impact on his team. "Kim liked to go to the basket a lot. If this rule was in effect last year, she would have gotten a lot of baskets taken away," he said.

But it's the timeout rule that really has the coaches scratching their heads in wonderment.

"I really don't even begin to understand the rationale behind it," Baker said. "I heard some of the officials try to explain their reasons for it, but I don't see it as a benefit to the game."

Baker said the rule has necessitated a change in his coaching philosophy.

"I HAVE TO train the kids to be more autonomous on the court. We are working on developing a set of signals to improve communication from the bench to the floor," he said.

The most common criticisms of the rule are that it takes away some of the strategy from the game, and it will force the use of more unnecessary timeouts, especially in the first half.

"I never was one to use all of my timeouts," Mulroy said. "But it was nice to know they were there if I needed them. The intent was to eliminate unnecessary timeouts, and I can understand that, but there was a lot of good coaching going on during those timeouts."

Sommerman agrees. "It takes the strategy away from the game. I can't tell you how many college games I saw last year that were won in the final seconds because of intelligent timeouts," he said.

"The end of the game will not be as exciting with the lack of timeouts," Thomann said. "Timeouts give a coach the chance to plan strategy, they allow the tension to build and the fans to get excited. And I can see a lot of coaches calling timeouts in the first half where they wouldn't before."

Apparently, referees became perturbed during the course of last season by coaches abusing timeout privileges. In one game, a Western Lakes coach, trailing by more than 20 points, called five timeouts in the final minute of the game.

"I DON'T buy that argument," Baker said. "Coaches use timeouts to educate their players. I know that many times I've called timeouts with my second and third stringers in the game. That may have angered some fans and coaches, but I did it to help the kids."

The rule changes have been made, and, like them or not, the coaches realize that they have to live with them. But as Baker said:

"In some ways, I guess I feel like American League baseball managers did when the designated hitter rule was put in. They eliminated some of the strategy from the game, and for a coach, that's what's fun."

Bentley coach Tom Lang would like to toss the new rules out of the game.

This was the scene the last time a Canton girls' basketball team defeated Salem. Don't feel bad if you don't remember. It was four years ago. Salem girls have lost just once to Canton in six years.

Ladywood romps past St. Al's

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Juniors Emily Wagner and Char Govan picked up where they left off last year, lifting Livonia Ladywood to a season-opening 73-51 girls' basketball win Thursday night over Dearborn St. Alphonsus.

The two standouts were instrumental in the Blazers' 22-1 season a year ago and show no signs of slacking off in 1983.

Wagner, a slick-shooting and ball-handling point guard, reeled off 12 first-half points in staking Ladywood to a 34-19 halftime advantage.

She finished with 16 points, while Govan, a 5-foot-10 forward, came on strong in the fourth quarter and tallied a team-high 19 points to go along with eight rebounds for the night.

Ladywood's other returning starter, forward Jan Randall, sat out the game with a injured knee, but should be ready for this week's action.

"I'm happy with Wagner and Govan, but we need more scoring out of other people as the season goes along," Ladywood coach Ed Kavanaugh said. "Jan is the only senior, and we need her on the floor."

"BUT I HAD a chance to see the younger people play. We don't have a lot of players with varsity experience. The intensity of the game is new to the younger people."

A couple of sophomores, Sue LaLiberte and Cathy Schram, could be the scoring help Kavanaugh is searching for as the two combined for 18 points.

Alphonsus, 10-9 last season, fell behind 21-11 after one quarter and really never got into the game.

Free-throw shooting was a sore spot for the Arrows, who made only 8 of 24 in the first half and 14 of 39 for the game.

"We'll be good in our league, but we're not yet up to Ladywood's standards," Alphonsus coach Mark Klein said. "But we're working for it, and we want to be like them some day."

Julie Lopez, a hard-driving forward, paced Alphonsus and all scorers with 20 points.

"WHEN LOPEZ makes her mind up she goes to the basket," said the Alphonsus coach. "Our game plan was to go inside and get them in foul trouble — and we did — but we didn't make the free throws, and Ladywood stuck them in and that's why they're always tough."

Kavanaugh said he hopes to shore up his team's defense in the coming weeks.

Canton vs. Salem

Chiefs try to reverse bad trend

By Chris McCosky

Nothing like beginning the season against your neighbor and rival.

How often does the University of Michigan square off against Michigan State in the season opener?

Not often.

And how often does Plymouth Canton square off against Plymouth Salem in the season opener?

Not often.

But, Tuesday night, 6 p.m., in the Salem gym, Canton and Salem will lock horns in a non-league girls' basketball contest.

SALEM IS RETURNING three starters from last year's 20-3 team. Canton, 8-13 a year ago, graduated its top players and will floor a team of small, young and slightly injured players.

That doesn't mean Tuesday night's game will be a Salem blowout. Regardless of past records, regardless of how much better one team looks on paper, when Canton and Salem play each other, it's generally a good scrape.

"The rivalry between us is very intense," said Salem coach Fred Thomann. "We've had some great games over the years."

Being the season-opener for both teams diminishes, to some degree, the rivalry aspect of the game, said Thomann and Canton head coach Phyllis Cunningham-Mulroy.

"I don't think of it as a big rivalry game," Mulroy said. "It's important because it's the first game of the year."

Thomann agrees.

"THE FIRST game of the year is very important. It sets the tone for the whole season. The players have to execute under pressure and to play against your arch rival, well, it puts the heat on," he said.

Still, it will be difficult for the play-

"Sure, the kids will be playing against their classmates and their friends — it's a natural rivalry. But, it's not as big a game as it has been built up to be in the past. . . we might might play them again in the districts. When you play a team three times in a season, you can't use up all your emotion in the first game."

— Phyllis Cunningham-Mulroy

but are expected to play.

"We are certainly not at full strength, but I'm not entering the game with a negative attitude. We will work real hard and try to be ready for Tuesday. You can't get bogged down. We will come out playing good, hard basketball," Mulroy said.

SALEM, ON THE other hand, looks to be the favorite in the Western Lakes Conference this year. Pam McBride, Dawn Johnson and Fran Whittaker are all back and looking sharp.

"We're still in the developmental stage," Thomann said. "We won't be going with any set lineup. We have the three obvious starters, but the other two positions are still up for grabs."

Look for Kelly Bemis, Mary Beth West, Michelle Dawson, Cathy Schinker, and Terri Lesniak to be shuffled in and out of Thomann's lineup.

Canton has never defeated Salem as long as Mulroy has been the head coach.

ers to completely ignore the rivalry aspect of the game.

"Sure, the kids will be playing against their classmates and their friends — it's a natural rivalry. But, it's not as big a game as it has been built up to be in the past. The October game, the league game, will be more of a rivalry-type game. And then we might might play them again in the districts. When you play a team three times in a season, you can't use up all your emotion in the first game," Mulroy said.

Canton enters the season resembling patients from a M*A*S*H unit. Three starters, Tami Budlong (ankle), Kathy Ross (thigh), and LouAnn Hamblin (flu), have all been ailing. Budlong is not expected to play. Hamblin and Ross are questionable. Sherry Remer and Marie Krashovetz have been weakened by flu,

Phyllis Cunningham-Mulroy

Scott Roman, Catholic Central senior, will see two-way duty this season, playing in the defensive secondary as well as at flanker. He is the only member of CC's secondary with varsity experience.

CC has the size and experience to bid for Class A championship

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

WHEN SEVERAL starters went down with injuries in the middle of last season, Catholic Central football coach Tom Mach was forced to rely on a bunch of untested juniors. Those juniors led CC to a 7-2 season and a Catholic League A-B championship. Those same juniors are back to lead the charge in 1983. CC returns 22 lettermen this season, half of whom were starters last year. "These kids did a tremendous job last year," said Mach, who is entering his eighth season at CC. "We were hit hard with injuries, and they stepped in and took us to the championship. "We have a good nucleus to work with this year. I'd say that over the last couple of years, this is one of our better teams."

THE STRENGTH of the team this year, Mach said, will be its defense. The average size on the defensive line is 6 feet 1, 208 pounds, and it is backed by two potential All-State linebackers: Matt Burns and John Nissen. "It is going to be real difficult to run against us," Mach said.

If you doubt his words, take a look at this front five: senior tackle Don Bailey, 6 foot 3, 230 pounds, senior nose man Mark Messner, 6-foot-4, 220, senior end Joe Urso, 6 foot, 180; junior end Tom Bribenstine, 6 foot, 180; and fighting for the right tackle spot are, sophomore John Forsythe, 6 foot 1, 230; sophomore Nick Varajan, 6 foot 2, 225; and senior John Connor, 6 foot 1, 200. Connor may also play some at end.

The only potential weakness on the defense will be in the secondary. Senior Scott Roman is the only defensive back with experience. He will be joined by seniors Tom Gottschalk, John Murphy and junior Ron Wanzel.

Offensively, CC is no slouch either. In fact, Mach said his offense will be downright potent.

"WE LOST a good back in Jeff Gatt last year, but we should have a good running game. We have one of the smartest lines we've ever had. They know how to read the defense, trap, and they get off the ball real well," Mach said.

Quarterback Matt Wilczewski, along with tight end Messner, flanker Roman, and split end Wanzel, give the CC offense an added dimension: a passing threat. "Our passing attack will hit in many different ways. Matt can roll out, bootleg, drop back, he can hurt you all ways," Mach said.

In the backfield with Wilczewski will be a pair of seniors, Dave Green at tailback and Mark Renkiewicz at fullback.

Like on defense, the offensive line will be big. Nissen and Connor fill the tackles. Dan Collins, a 5-foot-10, 185-pound senior, and Rocco Ferrera, a 6-foot-1, 210-pound senior, will be the guards. Junior Ed Turek, 6 foot, 185, will be the center. Chris Colbeck, 6-foot-2, 235-pound senior, also will see line duty.

TOM RICE will handle the kickoff and long field goal tries for CC. Mach said his range is about 35 yards and in. Either Chris French, Connor, or Rice will kick the extra points, and Nissen will do the punting.

CC looks very much like it has the horses to challenge for the Class A state crown this year. But Mach believes it's too early for such talk.

"It doesn't get easier, you know. You'd think that after eight years ways been getting in," he said.

Mach said that Birmingham Brother Rice and Warren DeLaSalle will be two of the tougher teams this season. He also said Redford Bishop Borgess and Harper Woods Notre Dame will be greatly improved.

It won't take long for Mach to gauge how good his team is. CC's first three games are against Traverse City, Ypsilanti and Dearborn Divine Child.

Senior quarterback Matt Wilczewski was pressed into service last year and guided CC to a Catholic League title. He will try for a repeat performance in 1983.
