School board honor

Plymouth-Canton Board of Education President John Jackson recently earned the Award of Distinction from the Michigan Association of School Boards. Previously, he earned the Certified Board Member Designation and Award of Merit.

Jackson was one of 23 Wayne County school board members recognized at

for their efforts to

skills and become Jackson

more effective school leaders by demonstrating their commitment to student achievement and their own continuous improvement. Awards are earned for classes completed in MASB's leadership training program, as well as for conference attendance, years of service and leadership activities.

'School districts are under exceptional pressure to be innovative and to reinvent the way we deliver education. In this environment, it's more important than ever that our school leaders are informed and have the most up-to-date information available," said MASB Executive Director Kathy Hayes. "Training equips them with the tools necessary to make the best decisions for Michigan's school children.

Movie screening

State Sen. Patrick Colbeck, R-Canton, hosts a free public screening of the education documentary "Waiting for Superman," 7 p.m. Monday, May 16, at the Flat Rock Community Center, 1 Maguire in Flat Rock. Immediately following the screening will be a panel discussion focused on the issues raised in the film.

The evening's panelists include Colbeck and Senate Education Committee members Hoon-Yung Hoopgood, D-Taylor, Sen. Bert Johnson, D-Highland Park and former senator and Education Committee chair Wayne Kuipers, R-Holland.

The documentary has won critical acclaim from film critics, the media and members of the education community.

Weeds be gone

In an effort to combat overgrown weeds on vacant lots. Canton's Public Works Division is continuing its Noxious Weed Program. Canton has municipal codes that pertain to weeds and overgrown lawns. These ordinances are in place to increase the safety and appearance of township neighborhoods.

Township officials said healthy grass should be maintained by all residents and property owners. Canton ordinance requires that grass be kept at five inches in height or less. To report overgrown lawns in your neighborhood, call Canton's Ordinance Enforcement Unit at (734) 394-5400.

To report overgrown weeds on a vacant lot, contact Public Works at (734) 397-1011. All vacant lots with noxious weeds will be put on a list to be cut by the township.

One of the first challenges Plymouth-Canton Community Schools Board of Education trustees want their new interim superintendent Dr. Jeremy Hughes to tackle is the filling of key positions being vacated by retirements among the district's leadership Mike Bender didn't make that job any easier this week.

Bender, the district's director of secondary education, announced he's leaving to accept a position as assistant superintendent for instructional services for Utica Community Schools. The job is a step up in terms of career positioning and in terms of district size. Utica is the state's second-largest district, ahead of Plymouth-

"Plymouth-Canton has been an absolutely wonderful district ... I've been proud to serve alongside so many wonderful teachers, staff and administrators," Bender said. "Utica provides a great opportunity for advancement. It's a great district, and the opportunity to provide leadership in Utica is very attractive.

Swift

Bender's departure leaves Hughes with several pairs of shoes to fill:

• Deputy Superintendent Ken Jacobs is scheduled to retire shortly after the 2011-12 school year begins. He took advantage of the state's retirement plan, offered last year, that allows potential retirees to factor their retirement with a 1.6-percent multiplier rather than 1.5 percent.

· Assistant Superintendent for Instructional Services Dr. Cindy Swift who, like Jacobs, took the retirement incentive. Also like Jacobs, she filed for a one-year extension, which means she must retire by Sept. 1. She could opt to withdraw her retirement and work another year, but, according to state officials, she'd have to give up the extra percentage point on her retirement.

· Director of Student Services Bob Hayes retired in December, and was replaced by former Tonda Elementary Principal Kurt Tyszkewicz on an interim basis. Hughes will have to decide whether to leave Tyszkewicz - like Hughes, he was an applicant for the interim superintendent job — in place permanently. • Director of Elementary Education George

Residents face penalties for not following grill laws

BY DARRELL CLEM OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Don't let an outdoor barbecue turn into a tragedy.

That's the warning Canton fire officials, in an effort to reduce the potential threat of fires, have issued for residents who could face penalties unless they obey township ordinances and neighborhood rules when firing up their outdoor grills.

The warning comes as fire officials each year receive complaints of residents, particularly those living in apartments or condominiums, who use their outdoor grills on balconies, patios and other areas too close to buildings.

Deputy Fire Chief Joshua Meier cited a local ordinance requiring that outdoor grills be placed at least 10 feet from buildings while in use, regardless of whether they are powered by propane, charcoal, natural gas, wood or any other material.

Grills also cannot be located along walkways or other entrances and exits. "I tend to believe it's more of an occasional problem," Meier said, "but the complaints we do get, we follow up on."

Residents who refuse to obey township ordinances pertaining to outdoor grills could face fines of $500 or up to 90 days in jail - the typical penalties for most misdemeanor violations.

Meier said some apartment and condominium complexes allow residents to store their grills on balconies and patios as long as they move them away from buildings before firing them up.

Meier urged residents who see violations to report them by calling (734) 394-5400. Fire officials rely on residents to report violations because they don't have the resources to scour neighborhoods and continually watch for violators.

Meier also said residents of single-family homes should heed the same precautions as residents of multi-unit buildings to protect their own property.

Fire Chief Tim Dunn said it's important to heed township ordinances and neighborhood rules to avoid cookout-related

"I would say that it is important for residents to follow the barbecue grill ordinance first because it is a local law, and violation can include a fine and/or jail time," Dunn said. "Second, it's important because by moving grills away from buildings, it will prevent the building from catching fire should something go wrong with the grill. "Our concern is always the safety of the occupants of the building," Dunn said, "and by following the ordinance, we believe that, should something happen to the barbecue grill (such as an out-of-control fire), it will not spread to the building."

Meier said anyone who has questions may call (734) 394-

Former coach bound for trial on child porn charges EXPO

BY BRAD KADRICH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

After a brief preliminary hearing during which prosecu-tors offered only one witness and the defense gave away nothing as to what a defense might look like, 64-year-old Stephen Nyquist was bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court on charges he kept child pornography on his home computer and distributed it on the Internet.

Nyquist, a Canton resident and former Plymouth High School girls lacrosse coach, is charged with six counts of using his computer to communicate with another to commit a crime, which carries a 10-year term upon conviction; three counts of distributing child sexually abusive material, a seven-year felony; and three counts of possession of child sexually abusive material; a four-year felony.

Wayne County Assistant Prosecutor Keisha Glenn presented just one witness Wayne County Sheriff Sgt. William Liczbinski, who is attached to the Michigan Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force. Liczbinski testified he was contacted in March by an investigator in Wisconsin who, undercover as a 14-year-old girl on the Internet, received

"pornographic images" from someone using the screen name "High48126."

Tracing the IP address for the computer activity led Liczbinski to Nyquist's Canton Township home. Upon executing a search warrant, Liczbinski testified, he showed Nyquist many of the images that had been sent to the Wisconsin investigator. Nyquist identified several of those images as images he possessed on one of several computer thumb-drives that were eventually taken as evidence, the officer testified.

According to Liczbinski, all of the images were traded between sources in Internet "private" chat rooms. The Wisconsin investigator, after receiving some of the images from Nyquist, ran them through the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and several of them were identified as being photographs of "known victims" of child sexual exploitation, Liczbinski testified. Liczbinski testified he found more than 350 images on one thumb drive.

"They all appeared to be pornographic images of children participating in real or simulated sexual activity or (photographs) exposing genitals," said Liczbinski, who has been part of the task force for two years.

On cross examination, Nyquist's attorney, John McWilliams, got Liczbinski to acknowledge that Nyquist appeared in none of the photos. There was also no evidence, Liczbinski testified under cross examination, that Nyquist and participated in the taking of any of the confiscated photos or videos.

The only real point of contention during the hearing came when 35th District Court Judge James Plakas asked about bond conditions. Nyquist posted $5,000 (10 percent of a $50,000 bond) after his March 17 arraignment. Glenn wanted the bond increased to $500,000 (10

"The defendant has positioned himself to be around children," Glenn told Plakas. "He sent those images to what he believed was a 14-year-old girl. It's not an appropriate bail.

Plakas declined to increase it, though he did add a condition that Nyquist not come within 100 yards of any school or day care center.

Nyquist is due in Wayne County Circuit Court for arraignment May 27.

Writer shares love of poetry with students

BY MAGGIE WUNDERLICH CORRESPONDENT

"Follow your dreams!" Brod Bagert demands of his audi-

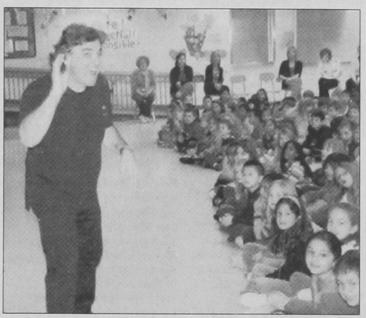

The award-winning author speaks from experience. After a 21-year law career and service in public office, Bagert pursued his childhood dream of being a professional poet.

His message was well received at Dodson Elementary School in Canton during a recent visit where he shared his love of poetry. The students were thrilled by Bagert's action-packed interactive performance, as well as an evening of family fun.

Bagert grew up in New Orleans, where he currently lives with his wife, Debby, and their four children. One day, his daughter needed a poem to recite for an elocution contest. She wanted to act out the poem and make everyone laugh. They searched popular children's poetry, but couldn't find many in the voice of a child. This gap in poetry caused him to write the poem for her and this proved to be a pivotal time in his life because it led to his new career as a

If Only I Could Fly is Bagert's first published book of poetry. He self-published it in 1984, after friends and family wanted his poems. The book took off and he began speaking at conferences. It gradually started taking over his life and he became a full time poet.

Bagert has published 10

books of poetry for children and two for young adults, including Giant Children and Hormone Jungle: Coming of Age in Middle School. He co-authored an educational series, Poet and the Professor Poems for Building Reading Skills, with well-known fluency expert, Timothy V. Rasinski, Ph.D. Bagert also published five books for adults, including Steel Cables, a book of love poems.

When Bagert writes for specific audiences, he creates a character, gives him a name and personality and adds in dramatic elements. He focuses on what's going on in the character's life, patterns of voice and speech, specific sounds, vocabulary and habits. This is similar to what a playwright or novelist does. By the character's actions, the reader concludes what the feelings are

'This makes it metaphorically universal," Bagert said. "The character pursues a goal or experiences a conflict and expresses emotion. The moment the reader identifies with the character, the poem is not about somebody else. It becomes about the reader."

During his performances, Bagert draws his energy from his audience. He is quite animated, and even plays the harmonica. When he recites his poems, he is passionate and gets the students excited about poetry, too. He is a firm believer that, "Oral recitation can be the foundation of a successful curriculum ... and reciting poetry becomes the opportunity to do that."

In fact, his poems are written with the intention of being read aloud and acted out. He encourages students to find a poem they like.

Bagert believes there is a lot of bad poetry out there, but that should not discourage someone from finding one

"You might have to go through 100 poems before you find one, then memorize it and make it part of yourself and you have a treasure inside yourself," he said. "After you find a dozen poems that you like and you've memorized them over a period of 10 years, you've got a vast wealth that keeps giving to you every day because you'll hear the lines of poems as you live your life and that's what it's like to be a poetry lover."

While Bagert's style is unique, he's been influenced by writers such as Miguel de Cervantes, author of Don Quixote, Shakespeare (for his sense of humor) and Robert Frost (for central metaphors). Robert Burns' work taught him about central metaphors in transactions between two characters and Emily Dickenson taught him how words can be quiet and powerful at the same time. He greatly admires José Martí, as a writer and a Cuban national hero, "who was passionate, had heart and intel-

Activities for Early Childhood's Book Land revolved around activities and games based on a favorite book.

Book Land promotes childhood literacy

Staffers at the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools Early Childhood Development hosted the second annual Book Land preschool literacy event, the latest event in the effort to promote literacy among youngsters.

The event took place at Hulsing Elementary School, which houses four preschool classrooms. Each room conducted activities and games based on a favorite book: Chicka Chicka Boom Boom, The Gingerbread Man, The Three Little Pigs and The Very Hungry Caterpillar.

Preschool children also enjoyed face painting, pictures with Clifford the Big Red Dog, winning a preschool book from the Book Walk, and a finale presented by a special friend from the Canton Public Library. Parents could shop at the Scholastic Book Fair and buy raffle tickets for four themed gift baskets and a handmade quilt.

Proceeds from the raffle went toward tuition assistance for preschoolers who might otherwise not be able to attend preschool in the 2011-12 school

"The evening was a huge success and enjoyed by all who attended," said Early Childhood Development staffer Lori Haneline.

For information on preschool, call the Early Childhood Office at (734) 416-6190 or visit the website at web.pccs.k12. mi.us/earlychildhood.

Tips to achieve couponing success

Interested in learning to use coupons to save money? Canton resident Meghan Lombardo regularly uses coupons to help save as much as half off her weekly grocery bill. She posts many of her tips and links to area freebies on her website at www.savvyspending-meghan.blogspot.com.

Here are some of Meghan's tips for beginners:

1) START SMALL

Don't think that you have to make a 180-degree change in the way you shop on the first day of couponing. Try to clip a few coupons and use them when the item is at a rock bottom price. Or, just tackle one store at a time to learn the ropes. Remember, big changes - in anything - take gradual steps to reach completion. Take baby steps.

2) HEALTH AND BEAUTY ITEMS the box of pancake mix is six ARE FREQUENTLY FREE

Did you know you can literally get free toothpaste every week at drugstores? If you combine coupons, store reward money (like Extra Care Bucks at CVS), and sale prices you can almost always pick up a few tubes of toothpaste for free. The same goes for deodorant, shampoo, floss, toothbrushes, cleaning supplies, medicine, laundry detergent, medicine, and more.

3) START A STOCKPILE

The secret to saving money at the grocery store is buying what you know you'll use when it's free or cheap with coupons not when you actually need it.

Here's what I mean: I know that in our house go through about a box of pancake mix each month. The shelf life of months. I can pay $3.50 for it when I have run out of it and need it, or I can buy six of them by combing coupons and a sale and pay just 50 cents each! I know I'll use it, I won't have to buy it again for six months (or until that sale comes back), and I've just saved myself some money! Apply that to all the weekly freebies and deals, and vou've got yourself a nice stockpile!

4) STACK STORE COUPONS WITH MANUFACTURER COUPONS FOR MORE SAVINGS

Many stores offer their own coupons that can be used with a manufacturer coupon. "Stack" a store coupon with a manufacturer coupon on the same item. These coupons are easy to print online and can greatly increase your savings.

5) PLAN AND PREPARE

Couponing doesn't have to take up hours of your time. There are so many websites that do most of the work for you - showing you what the best deals are, telling you where to find the coupons you need, and sharing with you the freebies that are out there. Take 30 minutes or so each week to plan your trip, and print, clip, and organize your coupons and you're all set to go. They say that time is money, and that 30 minutes you spent in planning and preparing your trip can easily save you 50 percent off your grocery bill.

Canton man charged in postal fraud case

A 47-year-old Canton man was among five U.S. Postal Service supervisors indicted by a federal grand jury this week. charged with conspiring to take bribes in exchange for directing more than $13 million in maintenance work on Postal Service vehicles to a private contractor in Ohio and Michigan.

The indictment of Gregory Gorski and the other four supervisors was announced Thursday by U.S. Attorney Barbara McQuade, along with Special Agent in Charge Torri Piper of the U.S. Postal Service Office of Inspector General and Elizabeth A. Farcht, the Special Agent in Charge of the Postal Service OIG's Eastern Area.

Gorski, was indicted by a federal grand jury Wednesday, along with Denny Robinson, 35, of Brownstown Township; Bruce Plumb, 61, of Brownstown; Mancer Holmes, 49, of Farmington Hills; and Jeffery Adams, 50, Copley,

At the time of the alleged crime, Gorski was acting manager of the United States Postal Service vehicle maintenance facility in Ann Arbor. Robinson was employed as a supervisor at the postal services' vehicle maintenance facility in Detroit; Holmes served as a lead automotive technician at the postal service's bulk mail center in Allen Park, and as a lead mechanic at the Detroit vehicle maintenance facility; Plumb was the acting manager of postal service's Detroit vehicle maintenance facility; Adams was the manager of the Akron, Ohio, vehicle maintenance facility and had previously served as a supervisor at the Detroit vehicle maintenance facility.

The alleged conspiracies took place between 2004 and 2010, according to McQuade, when the private contractor charged the USPS more than $13 million for maintenance and repair work.

A statement issued by the U.S. Department of Justice said Gorski is charged with taking $2,000 in cash bribes, a 1999 Pontiac Minivan, tickets for Detroit Pistons, Detroit Lions, and University of Michigan football games, and thousands of dollars in gift cards. The other men allegedly accepted gifts of cash and vehicles, free service work, entertainment at a local strip club, tickets to sporting events and other items.

If convicted, each of the five defendants faces up to five years in prison for conspiring to commit bribery. Gorski also faces up to 15 years in prison on each of four counts of bribery.

The indictments also seek forfeiture of the illegal payments received by the Postal Service employees in connection with the crimes.

"The Postal Service spends about $11 to $12 billion on contracts annually - an amount that provides opportunities for fraud," Piper said. "Special Agents from the Postal Service OIG aggressively investigate any such schemes to defraud the Postal Service."

The case was investigated by agents of the U. S. Postal Service Office of Inspector General. It is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney David A. Gardey.

with her frugal finds and asked her to share deals via email. Soon she had a long list of friends and family requesting information on the best deals she found. She even had people stopping her in church, asking for money-saving tips.

"They all wanted to know how I did it. I thought a blog would be an easier way to communicate," she said and launched her site in January 2010. She currently has 250 followers and subscribers on Staying organized is key when using coupons, Lombardo said. Clipping coupons and matching them to store sales can take time, and posting these "match-ups" on her site helps speed up the process for others, she said. She regularly posts match-ups from current area newspaper coupons to sales at local stores such as Meijer, CVS, Rite Aid and Walgreens.

Lombardo notes that the recession has fueled a new interest in couponing and more people are seeking ways to economize. A part-time technology teacher for Livonia Public Schools, she also teaches classes on effective couponing at the Canton Summit on the Park and CrossPointe Community Church in Wayne.

Lombardo

She also visits local groups such as Mothers of Preschoolers and gives talks on using coupons to save money.

"It seems like all of the sudden it has gotten really popular," she said. The tough economy has pushed couponing into the mainstream, she said.

GROCERY BILL

Plymouth resident Stephanie Kuhn agrees. She began using coupons when she was a new college graduate looking to cut back on her monthly grocery bill.

"I figured if I could save $10 every month on groceries, it would be $120 a year. And that is a lot of money when you're just out of school ... it really adds up," she said.

Now as a mother of three girls under the age of 7, she continues to use coupons regularly and has even expanded her coupon use to both restaurants and clothing stores. She often takes advantage of stores sales and special offer coupons to stock up on clothing at local stores such as Gymboree. "I make my shopping list based on what I have coupon for," Kuhn said, adding that daughters Grace, Aubree and Ashlyn are already learning the value of saving.

"They like to help me clip the coupons and out of the newspaper and when we go shopping they ask, 'Is it on sale?" she said.

"Three kids are so expensive, especially when they're in diapers," noting that she often trades coupons with her sister in-law, Emily Barczyk, whom she affectionately calls "The Coupon Queen.

LESSONS FROM MOM

Barczyk, a Plymouth mother of two and longtime coupon user, credits her mother with instilling appreciation of a good value.

"My mom used coupons when I was growing up. I like to save money and I don't pay full price unless I have to. I get excited about saving money and getting things for free," she said.

As a stay-at-home mom, Barczyk feels that using coupons gives her an opportunity to support to the household budget.

Barczyk and her mother still trade coupons and shares tips on sales over the phone, she

Band Boosters strike winning tune in bank's cash giveaway

BY MATT JACHMAN OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The Plymouth Canton Band Boosters have landed a $10,000 prize by placing first in a local bank's Web-based fundraiser.

The Boosters racked up 3,962 online votes during the second and final round of Sweet 15, which the Bank of Ann Arbor launched in March to mark its 15th anniversary.

"The last couple days, we kept sending out notes to our kids and the Boosters," reminding them to vote, said Erin Babcock, president of the fund-raising and support organization for the marching band made up of Plymouth Canton Educational Park students. "Everybody just pulled together."

The Boosters had over 300 more votes than the secondplace finisher, the Michigan Interscholastic Forensic Association. Voting in the second round ended at 10:15 p.m. Thursday.

Votes, limited to one a day per computer, were cast though Bank of Ann Arbor page on Facebook. The first round of the competition, which ended in April, narrowed a list of about 400 nonprofits to 15, and all 15 groups that made it to the second round will share in the $75,000 the bank put up for the competition.

The top five groups will take away $10,000 each. The Boosters have earmarked their winnings for the marching band's trip to the Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade in New York City this fall.

The contest brought the bank, which has a branch on Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth Township, a lot of attention.

Revised plans for downtown building win planners' OK

OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Some architectural details have yet to be worked out, but plans for a new commercial building at the corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Main Street were given the green light by the Plymouth Planning Commission on Wednesday.

Developers Omar Hamdan and Ed Dombrowski, who owns the site with his wife, Patricia, say they want to get the 789 Building, named for its address on Ann Arbor Trail, built this summer. They had earlier won approval from a divided Planning Commission for a three-story building, despite opposition by the owners of many downtown businesses, but have scaled back their plans, which now call for a two-story building, with the second floor housing a restaurant with open-air terrace seating.

The developers say they would lease space for retail, restaurant or office use, or a combination of those. The city's Historic District Commission, which has a special meeting Wednesday, must still sign off on some minor changes in the building's appearance that its members requested.

In addition, the City Commission needs to take up the developers' petition to make a cash payment, of $10,000 per space, in exchange for a waiver of the 16 parking spaces the proposed building requires. The plan as approved includes no on-site parking.

The Planning Commission's vote in favor of revised plans was 5-1, with Commissioner Jim Mulhern casting the only no vote. Mulhern said he wanted to see completely finished plans before voting for them.

"I'm not going to vote to approve anything that isn't representative of what the exact finished product is." Mulhern said.

That prompted Hamdan to express frustration with the approval process, which dates back to planning and Historic District Commission meetings last fall.

"Time is of the essence," said Hamdan, who also threatened to "go ahead and go with the three-story building." Commissioners, however, assured him they would schedule a special meeting if needed. Their Wednesday approval, however, means there will be no such meeting.

Commissioner Keith MacDonald, who in March voted against plans for a three-story building, said he liked the revisions. "I appreciate the lesser intensity," he said.

The only citizen comment on the plan came from William Saxton of Saxton's Garden Center, a block east of the site. Saxton expressed concern that the building, without on-site parking, will put an extra burden on downtown parking.

"When is the city going to get off dead center and provide the parking that's needed in this downtown area?" Saxton said. He added that new construction without parking is "just an extra imposition on the people that provide it," as does Saxton's.

The corner slated for the 789 Building had been the site of a long-vacant gas station that was demolished early this year.

Q: Dear Rick: My wife and I decided to move into a senior community. We sold our home and paid the fee for the senior community. After all is said and done, including furnishing our new place, we have about $120,000 left. Our Social Security will cover monthly fees and I figure we may need, at most, a couple of hundred dollars a month to cover some additional expenses. I would like to use some of the excess money (about $20,000) for my grandchildren's college education. I have three grandchildren, ages 5, 7, and 8 years old. I want to use the rest of the money to cover any shortfall. I do have some other investments for long-term growth. Any ideas on how I can invest this money? I want to be conservative with the

A: Congratulations on selling your home, particularly in this market.

In reviewing your situation, I will start with the money that you wish to allocate for your grandchildren's college education. My recommendation is to take the $20,000 and open a Michigan Education Savings Plan for each of the grandchildren (www.misaves.com).

The MESP is a great way to save for a college education. Not only is it an easy way to save, there are also some major advantages, such as the fact that the money accumulates and can be withdrawn taxfree as long as the money is used for a qualified education expense. Basically, qualified education expense is just about anything that relates to post high school education. One of the beauties of the MESP is the money doesn't have to be used for a Michigan college. It can be used for basically any public or private institution in the country. One of the other benefits is that you can deduct a portion of your contribution from your Michigan Income Tax Return.

Considering the ages of your grandchildren and the fact

is a diversi-Money Matters fied portfolio geared for some growth

lio. In regard to the older grandchildren, you may wish to show them what you're doing and take this opportunity to teach them about money. They should know that their grandparents are sacrificing so they can get a good college education.

With the approximate $100,000 remaining, I recommend $7,000 into your bank account to cover your additional income needs. This money should last you close to two years. This will allow other monies that you have to reinvest and grow.

I recommend dividing the other $50,000 equally through the following Vanguard Funds:

1. Vanguard U.S. Treasury Short Term

2. Vanguard Investment Grade Corporate Bond Short

3. Vanguard Wellesley Income My recommendation for these funds is to let everything reinvest and grow. Once the initial $7,000 in your bank account is exhausted, withdraw equally from these three funds to replenish that money.

With the remaining money - considering your desire to be conservative and the fact that you will not need this money for a number of years my recommendation is to consider a fixed annuity. It is guaranteed and insured, and all the money would grow on a tax-deferred basis. You would only pay taxes when you withdraw the money. Not all fixed annuities are the same. The ones I recommend are no-load and not stuffed with excessive fees.

The individual I generally recommend for fixed annuities is

Jim Hutton (800-870-4444). I am frequently asked about senior communities and whether I recommend them.

It's sort of like mutual funds. Some mutual funds are good, some are not so good. The same could be said about senior communities.

Local man looks for information about open heart surgery in 1950

BY SUE MASON OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Doctors have told David Hatty he has the heart of a 25-year-old and that's with having several heart attacks, triple bypass surgery and even an operation to place stents in his veins. But the most important heart operation he had came when he was 11 years old.

In the fall of 1950, doctors at Children's Hospital in Boston successfully performed open heart surgery, repairing his aorta which was too small to adequately pump blood. Had the surgery not been done, Hatty said he most likely would not have lived much beyond age 20.

"My mom told me the doctors told her it hadn't been done before, but they knew what to do," said the Westland resident. "Back then you had blind faith in doctors. They would make everything good — get this operation, it'll take care of the problem and you'll be well. I was a guinea pig."

Now age 72, David Hatty is telling his story, urged on by his son, Daniel, who is scouting the Internet to see if there is information about the remarkable operation, spurred on by a Detroit Medical Center ad that talks about the birth of open heart surgery at Harper University Hospital in 1952.

"I did a search online and thought I saw 1948, then I saw first ever successful one was in 1952, but my dad's was in 1950," said Daniel Hatty. "Grandma didn't want all the notoriety."

"Her comment was to let someone else get the credit, she was a little shy," added David's wife Mary, who has faxed paperwork to the hospital, including the medical record number on the card which lists appointments in September and October 1950, in hopes of getting informa-

"We want to see if the warranty is up," said David Hatty, adding that "Mom didn't want anything."

PAIN IN THE LEG

David Hatty's brush with medical history started when he was age 9. The youngster had a pain in his leg and his mother took him to the pediatrician. While examining his entire body, the doctor discovered the problem with his aorta. When he was 11, his father drove him and his mother to Boston where doctors performed the operation free of charge.

"I didn't know what was going on," said Hatty. "From what I learned later on my heart wasn't pumping enough blood and I suspect between age 14 and 20 I would have been dead. I had the pain for a year and a half and it then it was gone."

David Hatty's father returned to Detroit to work. A baby sitter was found to take care of his four siblings while he and his mother stayed with relatives in Brookline, Mass. He was hospitalized for a month and then spent another two months recovering before

And then there was the fact that he had to see a pediatrician until he was 18 years old.

It goes without saying that the operation was a success. He played football in high school - the doctor told him his scar looked like a zipper - and has been an assistant coach with CYO programs at schools like St. Michael's in Livonia where the eighthgrade team won 10 championships, and St. William of Walled Lake. He also coached women's softball for 20 years and has been walking fourfive miles a day for a similar amount of time.

"It hasn't stopped me from doing things," he said. "They took me in the Army, so it must have been successful."

The Hattys hope to find out more from the Boston hospital. In the meantime, they celebrate its success.

"I'm not sure what led my parents to believe in this," said David Hatty. "It all started with a pain in the leg. It's a miracle. If my mother had been scared to have me have the heart surgery, today may be a lot different."

Hills couple will visit their school in Africa, gifts in hand

BY STACY JENKINS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Like a tapestry of goodwill, things are coming together, piece by piece, for Paul and Nancy Berrigan.

The Farmington Hills couple, who has opened a secondary school in Chelekura, a remote area in the east African nation of Uganda, about four hours east of the country's capital, Kampala, will return there in June, bearing gifts.

About 2,000 of them. The gifts are colorful, cotton, handmade dresses for the girls of Chelekura.

"Each one is cuter than the next," said Nancy Berrigan, who was contacted by Joan Mountford of Canton, after reading an article in the Observer about the John Paul School built by the Berrigans.

Mountford sews the dresses and gives them to the Berrigans. She came up with the idea of sewing the dresses out of fabric or pillow cases, when she saw the Little Dresses for Africa nonprofit set up at the Summit in Canton. She knew, from reading the newspaper story, that the Berrigans would return to Africa, so she contacted them to see if they'd be interested in taking some dresses.

Nancy Berrigan, of course, said they would love to take dresses for the girls.

"It's exciting," she said. "I just can't wait to see their faces.'

Mountford and Nancy Berrigan have become fast friends, and Berrigan has collected fabric from her church, St. Fabian Catholic Church, for Mountford to continue creating the adorable dresses.

Mountford, who has made about 70 so far, is happy to do it.

"I'm just really having a good time," said Mountford. "I try to make one a day, but sometimes I can make five in a day." She pictures the girls enjoying the dresses.

Paul and Nancy Berrigan sort through the colorful, handmade dresses they will take with them to Africa.

"I know some little child is going to really enjoy it and appreciate it for at least a year," she said, noting that's how long, or longer, they'll wear the dresses. "A lot of the kids have nothing else - no nightgowns, no change of clothes.

She purposely makes each dress unique - and that's for "Every one has been different," she said. "So they all can feel individual and important."

The Berrigans are also taking dresses that were made for the Little Dresses for Africa organization, which has people volunteering to sew from all 50 states and around the world.

The organization was started by Rachel O'Neill after visiting Africa.

"When she saw all these little girls, she said, 'I'm going to get you a dress," said Berrigan, noting the O'Neill didn't know how to sew, so she came up with the idea to start the sewing network that's based in Brownstown. For more information about Little Dresses for Africa, visit www. littledressesforafrica.org.

PROGRESS

The Berrigans are excited that their trip to Uganda will include their daughter, Kathleen, her friend and another friend of the family.

They will also mark a very special occasion while they're

Seeking 'Salvation' - Corps remains key part of retiree's lifestyle

BY BRAD KADRICH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The Salvation Army may not be in George Aren's blood, but it's certainly in his bloodline.

The 76-year-old Aren, a Livonia resident who recently retired after what he calls a 76-year career serving the Salvation Army, was basically born into service, born to a father who was a member of the Church of England, a mother who was in the Army and grandparents who had served, as well.

So it's no surprise Aren became the patriarch of what might be referred to as the "family business," a father who led two of his four children into the same sort of service.

"It's all we knew when I was a kid," said Aren, who started at the Temple Corps, located at Grand River and West Chicago in Detroit. "The Salvation Army becomes your way of life. It's not just a church, it's a lifestyle."

A SANCTUARY

It's been George Aren's lifestyle virtually his whole life. He grew up in what he calls a working-class neighborhood and attended church at the Temple Corps. He actually ran the community center as a 16year-old. Through high school, it was his sanctuary, a place he and his friends escaped for hour after hour of basketball or floor hockey.

He went on to own his own business - Telway Towing in Redford - for 38 years. He volunteered for the Salvation Army from 1987 through 2000. But it was the crash of Northwest Airlines Flight 255 at Detroit Metro Airport that put its stamp on what Aren would do with his latter years.

"That was my introduction to disaster services," said Aren, who would go on to become the chief of disaster services. "I had a friend serving as corps commander who was trying to get me to volunteer for disaster services. He called me on a Friday, then called again Sunday to say the plane had crashed.

The Salvation Army turned the disaster services position into a part-time job, with Aren manning it. Then came Sept. 11, 2001. After the Salvation Army responded to the disaster in New York, Aren's job was turned into a full-time job, one he kept until he retired April 1.

DISASTER RELIEF

While dealing with a variety of disasters — from the plane crash at Metro Airport to fires and other disasters - Aren has met a variety of people. For instance, he met the firefighter who walked out of the crash debris at Metro with Flight 255's only survivor (153 people died that day), 4-yearold Cecelia Cichan.

"It's necessary work," Aren said of the disaster services job. "First responders and victims (on-scene) are despondent, they're very much upset. There's a saying that if you can get those people to eat or drink something, it alleviates stories over all the years. It's had an effect on at least two of them. His son, John, is a major who, with wife Julie (also a major and a third-generation officer herself), runs the Romulus Adult Rehabilitation Center and manages the assets of seven different thrift stores, including the newest one in

He said it's no surprise he got involved, given his upbringing.

"My parents took us to the corps three times a week," John Aren recalled. "From that, and from being part of study groups, we got good. training in understanding what the Bible says."

Like most corps officers serving the Salvation Army, John and Julie Aren, who now live in Westland, have lived a transient lifestyle. They've served in places like Minneapolis, Minn.; Alpena and Monroe, Mich.; Des Moines, Iowa; Grand Rapids and now Romulus.

ON THE MOVE

In fact, the Westland Arens are moving again; the biggest piece of John's ministry, the Adult Rehab Center in Romulus, has changed its mission and the Arens will move to the Chicago area in June.

While he thought about not doing it — John's background is in systems engineering, Julie is a registered nurse - John said his beginnings in the Brightmoor Corps solidified the choice.

"Starting at such an intense level, and calling on God to meet it ... the two connected and put is in the middle," John said. "That was thrilling and helped us understand that's what we were supposed to do with the rest of our lives. We'd found our calling."

Not all of the Aren children felt the calling. Son Mark works at Telway Towing (George's former company), son Jim teaches specialneeds students and daughter Jennifer is a social worker who specializes in foster care and adoption.

It wasn't exactly a calling for his other daughter, Laurie Aren, either. Sure, for the last few years she has served as director of family and community ministries for the Plymouth Salvation Army, but the Westland resident had an extensive career in the health care industry before that. She spent more than 13 years at Henry Ford Hospital and also did bereavement work for Arbor Hospice before landing in Plymouth. She isn't surprised she gravitated to the Salvation Army.

"All of my family are there," Laurie said. "I don't know if it was an 'attraction,' it was just always there. It's such a way of life; 95 percent of our friendships are in the Army. You don't know anything else.'

George Aren doesn't figure to be out of the Salvation Army way of life any time soon. He had his wife, Dorothy, still worship at the Dearborn Heights Corps. It's been a way of life for 76 years, so why change now?

"The people I've met ... I've made some good friends,' Aren added. "You have all the stories ... it's amazing.'

CIRCLE CHANGE

Softball pitchers, coaches adjusting to 43-foot distance

BY TIM SMITH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

How big a deal is the MHSAA edict to add three feet to the distance from the pitcher's circle to home plate?

Not so much, according to several softball coaches and pitchers from Plymouth-Canton Educational Park asked about the mandate to move the mound from 40 to 43 feet away from their tar-

But make no mistake, the 2011 prep season is one of adjustment — for varsity, junior varsity and freshman pitchers.

"You just have to give a little more oomph when you push off," Salem pitcher Alyssa Meagher said. "But it's not that difficult."

With a little extra space and time, however, batters are better able to time fastballs or lay off breaking pitches. They also have more of a head start toward first base if they lay down a good bunt.

"I'm going to assume it's going to happen more," Canton pitcher Alyssa Boucher said. "Because there's three feet now where it's going to take me longer to get to the ball." IN SYNC

The change helps prep players with hopes of playing college soft-ball to gain experience throwing the ball 43 feet, which is what the distance is at the collegiate level. Travel teams also go by the 43-foot distance.

"A lot of girls at the varsity level, their dream is to play college softball," Plymouth varsity coach Val Canfield said. "And that's the way they'll be ready for it."

The change will help girls gear up for college softball, but Salem

KLAA TRACK MEET

Canton boys 2nd to Novi

BY BRAD EMONS OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Marsha Reid has had plenty of success recently coaching the Novi girls track and

And now that Reid is doing double duty, that success has translated over to the boys side as the Wildcats repeated as KLAA Kensington Conference champions Friday at Livonia Churchill.

Novi finished a team-best 140 points with Livonia Stevenson and Canton finishing second and third with 104 and 80.5 points, respectively. See complete team standings and results.

Novi was led by double winner Joe Schubring, a senior who swept the 1,600and 3,200-meter runs in 4:25.29 (meet record) and 10:00.17, respectively.

Novi's other individual winner was Derek Kim in the 110 hurdles (15.17). The Wildcats also captured the 4 x 100 relay in 44.06.

"We had some key graduations last year on the boys side," said Reid, who has also coached the Novi girls for 10 seasons. "We weren't sure what to expect. And here we are with a conference championship and the (Central) division championship. It's been a harder fight this year for the boys than the girls, but it's a nice thing."

Novi was coming off a 72.5-64.5 dual meet victory over Stevenson to determine the KLAA Central Division champion.

"My assessment today is that it was an overall great team effort," Reid said. "I think that's kind of been the key to our success all year. When we've needed to, we've had athletes step up and done everything they could for the team. They've sacrificed whatever they've done as an individual and gone out and done it for the team. I can't stress that more than what happened here today and what happened on Tuesday (72.5-64.5 dual meet win over Stevenson)."

After finishing fourth in last Saturday's Observerland Relays, Stevenson broke the 100-point barrier at the conference meet.

"We did real well," Stevenson coach Scott Shaw said. "Obviously, we had a lot more kids set personal bests in a number of events and won three of four relays – we're real happy with. We had a freshman (Danny

Canton best at Massey

Last year's annual softball game between Canton and Salem at Don Massey Field in Plymouth went 14 innings with the Rocks eking out a 2-1 victory.

This year's wasn't as dramatic as the Chiefs won 4-0. Winning pitcher Alyssa Boucher helped her own cause, going 2-for-3 at the plate, knocking in a run.

Chipping in with two hits each for the Chiefs (20-2) were Kaitlyn Mattson (double) and Lauren Leskovitz (triple, two RBI).

Salem's record dipped to 5-7 overall.

Meanwhile, on Wednesday, the Chiefs took both ends of a double-header against Livonia Franklin, 10-2 and 13-3.

Boucher scattered seven hits over seven innings to win the opener.

In the nightcap, Canton hurler Hannah Warren scattered seven hits and struck out four in going the distance.

Huge win for 'Cats

A deflection goal proved to be the difference Thursday as host Plymouth downed Livonia Churchill, 1-0, in a key girls soccer battle for first place in the KLAA's South Division.

The loss ended Churchill's unbeaten streak at seven game as the Chargers fall to 6-4-2 overall and 5-2-1 in the division.

On May 6, Allard officially signed her scholarship offer from Indiana Tech, with Warriors' women's lacrosse coach Ed Karasek and wife

"Having coach Karasek drive two and a half hours here and back for the signing of my scholarship was an honor," Allard said. "He had to head right back to Indiana Tech after our game because (Karasek's team) was having their banquet the next day."

Also at the signing were her parents, Steve and Amy, and Salem varsity coach Dave Medley — her former coach with the PCS United Lady Warriors (which folded after 2010 to launch separate teams for Canton, Plymouth and Salem).

Of course Chiefs head coach Dave Bower and the rest of the Canton squad helped Lauren celebrate her big day.

And having them there meant a lot to her.

Seniors have big night for Wildcats

BY TIM SMITH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Wednesday was "Senior Night" in more ways than one for Plymouth's varsity girls lacrosse team.

Six senior players scored as the Wildcats rolled to a 15-6 victory over Salem.

Leading the way with three goals each for Plymouth (8-6 overall) were seniors Taylor Birman and Megan Birdwell. Also finding the back of the Salem net were seniors Jill Sparschu (two goals), Sophia Flesch, Cindy Bradford and Rhianna Fleischer.

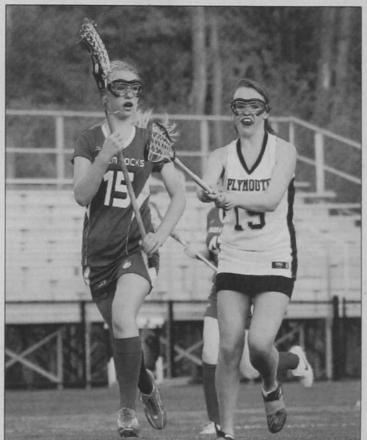

Junior attacker Katie Hill paced the Wildcats with four goals.

For Salem (3-11 overall), goal scorers included Rose Krasofsky (two goals), Breanne Beaver, Jenna Carter, Kiersten Vala and Shannon Fitzpatrick.

"It was a great game against our cross-campus rivals, Plymouth head coach Bob Hill said. "The coach of the Salem girls lacrosse team, Dave Medley, started the lacrosse program six years ago.

"All of the players on campus owe a great deal to him and his dedication." The Wildcats only led 6-4

at halftime, giving the young Rocks reason to be optimistic

"I felt grateful to be that close at the half and was starting to believe we could pull the upset," Salem coach Dave Medley said. "... but with (Plymouth) seniors doing what seniors are supposed to do, they came alive in the second half and (gradually) erased that thought from my mind."

Medley coached the Plymouth seniors during his stint at the helm of the former combined Lady Warriors squad (this is the first year all three high schools have fielded their own teams).

"In a strange way, I was honored by watching how well some of the seniors for Plymouth were playing," he added.

Meanwhile, Medley praised his young players for their effort. "I can't help but to feel positive as all our scores were by first-year players."

Plymouth followed that win up on Thursday with a 14-5 win over Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard.

Katie Hill scored seven goals with Swanson registering a pair. Other goals were notched by Birman, Shannon Lubin, Amanda Kne, Sam Arsenault and Bradford.

Making six stops with a strong performance was Plymouth sophomore goalkeeper Sarah Messer.

Whalers focus on offense at draft

With eight defensemen and two goaltenders set to return next season, the Plymouth Whalers used Saturday's Ontario Hockey League Priority Selection to stock up on young forwards.

The Whalers used their 11th-round pick to nab 6-foot-2, 205-pound left wing Mitchell Dempsey, who had 38 goals, 34 assists and 76 penalty minutes in 55 games for the Cambridge Hawks. Dempsey is described as a power forward by Plymouth general manager/coach Mike Vellucci.

According to Phoenix Coyotes scout Jeff Twohey, the new Whaler is "tailormade for a Mike Vellucci-type team. Mitchell's a big winger who plays hard. Not only is there some size and competitiveness, but he also has the ability to score goals.

With their second round pick (33rd overall) the Whalers selected left wing Matthew Mistele, who scored 43 goals with 34 assists for 77 points and 50 PIM's in 60 games last season for the Whitby Wildcats.

"The Whitby Wildcats have a long history of developing players," Twohey said. "Typically, Whitby's players come into the league ready to play. Matthew's another good fit for the Whalers. Mike Vellucci likes competitive players."

THEY FIT THE MOLD

Plymouth assistant general manager Brian Sommariva gave his assessment of the early rounds of the Whalers draft.

We think with Mitchell Dempsey, we've got a real good player with size and skill," Sommariva said. "We think he'll project real well. He's a prototypical Plymouth Whaler - he can skate, he's got a nasty side and he can score, too. So we're excited about him.

"Matthew Mistele is a real good goal scorer. People around the league are already texting Mike (Vellucci) saying what a great pick that was in the second round. Without putting any pressure on him, we're real excited to see how he

Plymouth had to wait until the fifth round (88th overall) to select right wing Connor Chatham, who scored two goals in 12 games in a season cut short by surgery in the Tier I Elite Hockey League.

According to Central Scouting, Chatham is big and physical but an above-average skater with good offensive Chatham has reportedly committed to play for the National Team Development Program in 2011-12.

Five picks later, Plymouth continued to draft forwards as left wing Dylan Mascarin was selected from the Thunder Bay Kings. Mascarin scored 21 goals and 53 assists for 74 points and 120 PIM's in 56 games for the Kings last season.

BLUELINE HELP

The Whalers took their first defenseman in the draft in the seventh round (133rd) overall, going to North Carolina to select 6-foot-3, 180-pound defenseman Charlie Pelnik from the Carolina Hurricanes U-16 team.

Although several Plymouth alums are playing in the Carolina Hurricanes system, Pelnik is the first member of the Hurricanes' youth program to be selected by the Whalers.

Early in the eighth round (144th overall), the Whalers went back to offense with the selection of left wing Danny Vanderwiel, who scored 10 goals with 11 assists for 21 points and 87 PIM's in 33 games for the Team Illinois U-16's last

With their own eighth round pick (153rd overall), Plymouth selected defenseman Chris Lindner from the London Knights Gold team. Lindner scored three goals with 17 assists for 20 points and 16 PIM in 50 games last season.

Plymouth historically has found value in the late rounds of the draft.

"A lot of teams say after the eighth round or so, the draft's done," Sommariva said. "We don't feel that way. We'll keep working late into the draft. The picks in the late rounds aren't wasted. The slots late in the draft could get us players that are just as valuable as the higher selec-

"We'll continue to work our lists and have discussions about players who can help."

varsity coach Bonnie Southerland stressed that it will be more of a test for girls to play at the high school level for various reasons.

"I think it will make the game more challenging, it will be more of a hitter's game," Southerland said. "There will be more bunting, slapping. ... and speed will also factor in both on offense and "If you cannot move fast on the corners you won't be getting those runners out as often.

According to Canton varsity coach Jim Arnold, the change will lead to subtle changes in how the game is played. But it won't take long for players to adjust.

"It's going to change the game a little bit, as far as bunting and that sort of thing," Arnold said. "But our pitchers are ready to go. They've been practicing all winter long at the 43-feet, they're in good shape."

To that end, they had to build up their strength and endurance and retrain in order to throw the ball three more feet than they had been

"Most summer ball tournaments are actually at 43 feet," Boucher said. "So that helped prepare me for the high school level.

"But I did have to do some outside training like at home, where I would have to run a little bit more, do a little more leg work to help me get that extra three feet."

When this season began, the longer distance was an issue with Boucher. "But right now, it feels like nothing."

TWO-SIDED COIN

For hurlers who like to throw breaking stuff to fool batters, the 43-foot distance is a plus — as long as they have good control of their pitches, of course.

"I'm more of a movement pitcher," Boucher noted. "So it (going to 43 feet) gives me that three feet to give that extra one inch or two inches on my drop.'

Arnold said his pitchers (Boucher and Hannah Warren) have breaking balls that break pretty good. (With) the 43 feet they'll break even more, which I am happy about.

The flip side is the additional fraction of a second batters have to time the pitch and hit it.

"It opens up the game a lot more offensively," Canfield said. "If you're facing a faster pitcher it's more time to open up on the ball."

Although the change was inevitable and understandable, Southerland cited one down side

"If you are not deep in pitching you will not be able to thrive," she said. "Those teams and schools with low numbers and small teams will suffer the most."

Park teams run hard, but can't catch Novi

BY TIM SMITH OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Novi dominated the KLAA conference girls track and field meet Friday at Livonia Churchill.

But coaches from other teams still thought their squads competed well during the course of the hot, muggy afternoon — and they won't have to worry about the Wildcats at this Friday's Division 1 regionals at Plymouth-Canton Educational Park.

Novi totaled 132 points to easily outpace the competition and win the Kensington Conference title.

Finishing second with 81 points was Livonia Churchill, followed by third-place Livonia Franklin (74). Both Westland John Glenn and Plymouth tied for fourth with 73 points.

"It's a really good conference, a very competitive conference this year," Churchill head coach Pat Daugherty said. "And Novi is by far the king and the queen of the conference, if you want to call it that."

Daugherty and other coaches said the weather did impact the stamina of athletes competing in multiple events. "You could tell," the Churchill said. "I had a couple girls in the four-by-four who had already run three races and they didn't run their best time in the fourby-four because of the amount of races and definitely from the heat and humidity.

"But everybody else is going through the same thing. I was hoping for a little bit more out of our team, but Novi clearly is the superior team today."

Daugherty said standouts from his team included Emily Norscia (first, discus, 106 feet, 7 inches) and Mahogany Miller (first in the shot put with a meet-record 36-0.25). Both were personal bests.

Churchill's second-place 3,200-meter relay team (9:53.22) and third-place 800 relay team (1:47.25) were other pluses, he added.

TOO MUCH DEPTH

Novi's excellent depth certainly played a factor in the first-place finish.

"I'm very fortunate to have a good group of core girls that are a good group of sprinters, (a) good group of hurdlers," Novi coach Marsha Reid said. "We're able to take that and add that to some solid distance performances and field events.

"All you need is a little bit of every event to kind of push it out there and everything." Sparking Novi were Kelly McCloskey and Jasmine Ward, who each set conference meet records.

McCloskey set hers in the 100 hurdles with a mark of 15.42, while Ward captured the 200 dash with a record time of 25.55.

The Patriots trailed John Glenn for much of the day, but grabbed third place after the final field events were tabulated.

Franklin long jumper Pia Klein, a German exchange student, had a lot to do with that, she set a new meet record with a distance of 17 feet, 2.75

GIRLS TRACK & FIELD

Klein also captured the high jump, while Franklin teammates Megan McPherson (first, 3,200 run), Meghan Lark (second, pole vault) and Kelly O'Brien (third, 100 hurdles) also scored key points.

"I am very proud of how we finished today," Franklin coach Dave Bjorklund said. "We lost some close dual meets during the season, but to finish third in the KLAA meet is a great accomplishment by our girls."

As for the Rockets, who won the KLAA South Division with a 4-0-1 record, they scored in a lot of events and largely overcame having some key members of relays on the sidelines.

"Our relays were a little banged up today, but they still ran pretty well," Glenn coach James Fitzgerald said. "If we do what we did today, but keep everybody healthy, then we'll be in good shape."

John Glenn scored 2-3 in both throwing events and other solid efforts were turned in by Joslyn Massey (third, long jump, 16-6.25), Kirsten Smith (fourth, 100 hurdles, 16.32) and Kayla Jones (third, 200 dash,

MIGHTY MADI

Plymouth also had several big performances. Madi Lewis took first in the 400 dash (58.61) and anchored the victorious 1,600 relay team.

Lewis put it in overdrive in the final stretch to help the Wildcats edge Novi (4:08.84 to 4:09.53).

After the race relay, teammates Rachael Hille, Jada Woody and Becka Knox rushed to Lewis for a celebratory group "Novi's a great, great team and they're pretty deep," Plymouth coach Ricky Styes said. "They had a pretty good lead going in to the last leg, and honestly I didn't know if Madi was going to be able to run it

"But I told her today, she closes like no girl I've ever seen. Her ability to close in on people in the back half of races, whether it's a short sprint or the 400, is amazing."

Salem freshman Kayla Kavulich won the 1,600-meter run with time of 5:13.17, which is a new record for Plymouth-Canton Educational Park teams.

Kavulich also was part of the victorious 3,200-meter relay with Adrianna Beltran, Victoria Tripp and Kathryn Binsfeld (9:48.68).

"The 4-by-8 went 9:48, so we're right on track where we wanted to be with the state qualifying time of 9:50," Salem coach Dale Maskill said. "So next week (May 20) at regionals, they should feel really comfortable.

"We basically use today like a regional practice. Everything we're doing today is pretty much the same that we're going to do next Friday at regionals.'

The highlight for eighthplace Canton (36 points) was a first by Jordan Clark in the 100 dash (12.53).

Pocalujka) place (sixth) in the discus. He threw a 127-2 - his personal best ever. He threw well in the shot, too, - 41-4.5 - even though he didn't place.'

Stevenson captured threeof-four relay events with senior Matt Williams and Zaid Shareef figuring in each of the three first

The team of Adam Duncan, Shareef, Williams and Kenning Britchford took the 4 x 200 (1:31.14), while the quartet of Williams, Shareef, Adam Chludzinski and Matt Garon captured the 4 x 400 (3:29.87). Stevenson's 3,200 relay team of Williams, Urso, Shareef and Chludzinski were also victorious in a meet record 8:13.05.

"We placed multiple kids in multiple events," Shaw said. "Novi just has a lot. Overall, we can't be disappointed in anything. I thought we had a chance to do something if we scored 100 points, but still couldn't get it done. But I don't think we could have done anything better. We gave it the best shot that we could.'

Meanwhile, Canton coach

Bob Richardson hopes to parlay his team's third-place conference showing into another good performance next Friday at the regional.

'We had a lot of P.R.'s and we hope to come around even more at the regional," Richardson said. "I liked our balanced scoring. We scored in all five field events and in all four relays.

We had a conference champ in the 100 meters (11.19 by Ryan Jones) and in the long jump (21-0.5 by Nick Alaniva). (Kevin) Buford also had a big day in the relays as did Jones. "If we scored in a lot of events, it could be interesting. By doing well today it should help our kids' focus. It could be an interesting regional. Salem's Dan Martin swept the 200- and 400 dashes with times of 22.62 and 49.23 (meet record).

and it was a poor performance by us tonight. We haven't trained or played well since the Canton game (1-0 win on May 5). This was a tough lesson for us and we hope it carries some weight in the state tournament.

"We started the first half with more players on the attack. We went back to our original system and they (Plymouth) ended up scoring a goal. Kaylie Secord (Churchill's goalkeeper) got a hand on it, but it was deflected. She was our best player tonight.

Shutout for Rocks

Visiting Salem had a field day Thursday, romping to a 6-0 victory over South Lyon to improve to 6-5-2 overall and 4-3-1 in the KLAA Central Division.

A lot of players got in on the act for the Rocks.

In the first half, a nice pass from Katelynn Krause set up Emma Tardiff for the opening

Observer & Eccentric | Sunday, May 15, 2011

Lily Burnstein made it 2-0 before halftime, one-touching a blast off the far post. Emily Barfuss assisted.

Barfuss also set up Jenna Coon to kick off the second-half scoring and Krause drove a shot home (from Mackenzie Rogers) to open up a 4-0 edge.

Rounding out the offense were goals by Kristina Klusek and Victoria Kaye - both assisted by Nancy Krutty.

Ali Eggenberger earned the shutout, making five saves.

We played a sound game." Salem coach Joe Nora said. "Early balls to our center-mids, good distribution out wide and some quality finishes."

PCA kickers prevail

Freshman Katelynn Bartell scored two goals and goalkeeper Brianna Harris stopped 10 of 11 shots Thursday as Plymouth Christian earned a 4-1 win over Oakland Christian.

Other goal scorers for PCA were Emily Gerulis and Rachel Zandee.

Fundraiser on menu

Canton High School alum Chelsea Olson. who is a lacrosse player finishing her sophomore year at Indiana Tech University, has been invited to play this summer with the USA Women's Lacrosse Team in Germany and the Czech Republic.

But Olson is hoping to defray some of those travel costs and a local restaurant is ready to help her do that.

On Tuesday, May 17, Rose's Restaurant & Lounge in Canton is hosting a fundraiser from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Rose's Rich Constantino said anybody who comes in May 17 who mentions Chelsea Olson, or even brings a clipping of this Observer article, will receive 15 percent off the total bill (not including taxes).

They're customers that come in and they wanted to keep it (fundraiser) local," said Constantino about the Olsons. "We do a lot of things, like donate food, to help out the (prep) sports teams."

Rose's Restaurant & Lounge is located at 201 N. Canton Center Road. For more information, call (734) 981-9904.

Golf for Canton football

Here's a way to combine helping out the Canton High School football program with enjoying a day of golf.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

Come out to Salem Hills Golf Club on Saturday, Aug. 6, for the annual golf outing/ football fundraiser. Cost is $100 per golfer. It will be a four-man scramble format. The fee includes 18 holes of golf, cart, free range balls, lunch at the turn, a barbecue chicken and rib dinner, numerous contests and prizes.

For more information and a printable registration form, please go to www.cantonfootball.com. You can also call Lina Williams at (248) 240-1125 or Julie Baechler at (734) 645-7777.

Canton grid camps

That's not all of the news about Canton football. The Chiefs will be hosting three grid camps this summer.

The first one is for players going into grades seven-nine this fall and is a skills camp, with sessions 5-7:30 p.m. June 13-16. Contact freshman coach Richard Mui at (248) 229-2738 for more information.

After that will be the Wing-T Camp, slated to run 2-5 p.m. on June 20 and 5-8 p.m. on June 21-23. This camp is for players going into grades 10-12. Call varsity coach Tim Baechler at (734) 455-7691 for more information.

The Fundamental Camp for kids entering grades three-six will take place from 9 a.m. to 12 noon June 27-30. Contact Enza Laneva at (313) 300-1173 for more information.

Also, check out www. CantonChiefsfootball.com for forms and further information.

Wildcats grid camp

The 10th annual Plymouth Wildcat Football Skills Camp will be held from June 27 through June 29.

Youngsters entering grades 5-9 will go from 5-to-7 p.m. each day; those going into grades 10-12 will participate from 7-to-9

Please go to www.plymouthwildcats.com to download a camp brochure and to get additional information.

Plymouth head coach Mike Sawchuk also will answer questions at (734) 765-1766.

From garage to green home

Here's a glimpse of Don Soenen in his souped up garage. See more of his cars and collectibles during the Michigan Philharmonic Spring Home Tour, May 21-

Friends of the Michigan Philharmonic home tour returns

BY SHARON DARGAY

O&E STAFF WRITER

Don Soenen occasionally likes to "get away from it all" by spending time in his garage.

When he does, changing motor oil, tuning up the lawn mower, tinkering at a workbench and other garage-worthy tasks are the last things on his mind. Instead he turns on the flat screen television, relaxes in a lounge chair, drinks from his soda bar or takes in his favorite collectibles.

The Plymouth Township businessman, who races retired NASCAR vehicles, stores both racing and collectible cars, along with pint-sized models in a garage addition.

The 50- by 50-feet space is decorated with auto, gas station, racing and personal memorabillia and awards. With its jukebox, soda bar, television screen, restored gas pumps, vintage working telephone, parking meters, drive-in speakers, traffic light and more, it's a stunning combination of entertainment room, "man cave," and museum. You won't find any scuff marks much less motor oil — on the custom checkerboard floor.

"It's pretty much my spot, although we do parties in here," said Soenen, who is board president of the Michigan Philharmonic. "We've had a number of symphony functions in here. I enjoy having people come in and sharing it. There is no point in having the door locked on this place every day."

PLANNING AHEAD

When Jeanette Sullivan, a member of Friends of the Michigan Philharmonic, saw the garage a few years ago, she kept it in mind for the symphony's annual home tour, which has been on hiatus for a few years.

"If we ever have a home tour again, this has to be shared," she told Soenen and his wife, Colleen. The garage is one of six stops on the newly resurrected event, which runs May 21-22.

This is a different type of home tour that I'm hoping will appeal to a broad audience. The men will love it; the women will love it, Sullivan said. We have a little something for every one."

The other stops on the tour

Don Soenen bought this #26 Quaker State Winston Cup the new garage Car two hours after he saw it in Daytona.

DO-IT-YOURSELF

Many of the homeowners have remodeled or redecorated their houses themselves. That includes Soenen's garage.

"I hung every plaque, every shelf, I laid the floor. The only thing I didn't do was put the mural up," said, Soenen, referring to the Minnesota farm and gas station scene that covers one wall. "But everything else I did and I did it in a relatively short time, over six or seven weeks."

When the Soenens built their home 23 years ago - their fourth in the Plymouth area — they included two attached garages with space for seven cars.

The space quickly filled as Soenen, who took race driving classes in 1998, began buying retired NASCAR vehicles and taking them for 140- to 200-mph tracks throughout the country. He races in approximately 45-50 events, ranging from 30 minutes to four hours each, per year.

SOUPED UP GARAGE

Soenen built extension, matching brick and shingles, four years ago.

While I was at it, I thought it would be interesting to put out a gas station facade," he said, pointing to the refurbished 1950s gas pump, air device, oil containers and neon signs outside the build-

The former Ford engineer, who now owns companies in Michigan and California, stores motorcycles and cars inside the garage, along with hundreds of trophies and medals. The cars include a 207 Shelby GT500 Mustang, 2006 Ford GT, sporty two-seat Plymouth Prowler, retired NASCAR racers and a 1965 Shelby Cobra.

Soenen will be on hand during the home tour to answer questions about the cars, motorcycles, and the garage decor, including the wall mural that depicts his late father and father-in-law inside the vintage gas station.

A soda bar with Coca Cola memorabilia are among the items, including auto art, car models, life-sized sculptures of the "Blues Brothers," a juke box, flat screen television, and wall mural that make Don Soenen's garage so much more than a place merely to park cars.

BACK PAIN-NO CAUSE FOUND

The rule in back pain is to wait at least 4 weeks before undertaking an intense evaluation. The reasoning behind this rule-of-thumb is that in most instances the back pain clears within that time.

However, that wait-and-see approach has limits. In some instances the pain is pain for a month is unreasonable. Also, physicians are unwilling to let evaluation of back pain in the elderly wait for 4 or more weeks. The possibility of allowing an osteoporotic fracture or a metastatic cancer to go untreated is too serious to wave off for a month or more.

The assessment of back pain in the elderly requires an examination to localize the source of the pain and where it moves. This information allows the physician to x-ray the part of the back likely to be the source of the pain. If the x-ray does not show changes of an osteoporotic fracture or bone changes or destruction that characterizes a cancer, the physician can turn his attention to giving the patient pain relief. The usual medicine is Vicodin and the common waiting period is 4

What the patient gains in return for delay in diagnosis is peace of mind. What concerns both patient and physician is that their pain represents a profound event such as a cancer. Once relieved of that worry, the individual is more willing to carry on with the pain for the 4 week observation period. The physician is able to work at a calmer and reasonable pace

SPORT BRELLA CHAIR

Now that great weather is almost upon us, I'm sure everyone, including myself is looking to the outdoors as well as outdoor projects and events.

I recently came across the Sport Brella Chair. It is a unique, new portable garden and patio chair. Yes, we've all seen portable outdoor fold-up chairs. People take them from their patios to the Woodward Dream Cruise, beaches, parks and concerts.

What makes the Sport Brella Chair unlike other foldout sport chairs is that it has an attached, 360-degree swivel umbrella, which can be moved from side to side, and can be swiveled at three different points with the push of a button. The umbrella opens out to 46-inches, which provides complete coverage from the sun and wind at any conceivable angle

The lightweight Sport Brella Chair also has a built-in cup holder, bottle opener and even a zippered pouch for personal items. The chair easily folds up and fits into a compact carry bag that has a comfortable carry strap.

The M.S.R.P. is $39.99 and is available at www.sportbrella.com. I recently found it at Costco for $35.00.

WHISPERSENSE VENTILATION

Panasonic recently introduced its new Whisper Sense Ventilation Fans at the 2011 kitchen and bath industry show in Las Vegas

Panasonic claims the WhisperSense bathroom exhaust fans are the only vent fans on the market to incorporate dual-motion and humidity sensors. That makes perfect sense, since the fan will only operate when necessary. The motion sensor has a delay shut-off timer that activates when a person enters the bathroom and automatically shuts the fan off 20 minutes after the occupant has left.

If the tub or shower is used, the built-in humidity sensor overrides the delay timer and continues to exhaust moisture until the humidity is back down to a pre-set level.

All that is well and good, but my favorite feature is the noise level. It has an incredibly quiet level, as low as 0.3-sone. Onesone is the sound of a quiet refrigerator operating at night.

The 0.3 would be the quietest ceiling mounted fan I have experienced.

Panasonic WhisperSense ventilation fans have an average suggested retail price from $289 to $412 depending on the model (some have lights) and are available at Panasonic dealers and wholesalers. Check out the WhisperSense fans when they come out in June of 2011 at www.panasonic.com/ ventedfans.

Q: While a rolling stone may gather no moss, our shaded, shingle roof is. What do people do if their roof is susceptible to fungus or moss?

A: You don't have to raise the roof to correct it. For all types of roofs there is a product called "Shingle-Shield" from Chicago Metallic. It is a maintenance-free roof moss/fungus protector. It is easily installed along the ridgeline and releases zinc oxide. The manufacturer claims it will last the life of the roof. Chemicals such as zinc oxide or chloride in metals are carried down the roof when it rains. These chemicals discourage the growth of moss. Also trim any overhanging trees and keep the roof clear of leaves and debris. With a cedar shake roof, remove as much of the moss between the shakes as possible. Use a piece of wire, then hose off the tiles.

Classes, tips improve motorcycle safety

May is National Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month - a perfect time to sign up for one of Schoolcraft College's motorcycle safety classes.

Registration is ongoing and classes run through September.

The classes are taught by professional, certified instructors who are passionate about riding and rider safety. There are a variety of motorcycle safety trainings to choose from including the Basic Rider Course, the Three-Wheel Basic Rider Course, and the Performance Based Course for people looking to get their motorcycle endorsement to the Advanced Rider Course.

"Improving the safety of motorcyclists on our roads is our primary goal, and with winter behind us, motorcycles are back on the roads. Drivers of all vehicles need to be extra alert," stated Jennifer Bodurka, programming coordinator. "Motorcycles are some of the smallest vehicles on the road so folks in other vehicles need to really look out for them — and to take extra care and share the road." In addition to the motorcycle safety classes, Schoolcraft College promotes motorcycle safety by offering these tips to

Essay contest calls for float design ideas

Michigan high school students can submit ideas for Art Van Furniture's new float in this year's annual America's Thanksgiving Parade in Detroit.

The furniture company encourages students in grades 9-12 to research the company's values and mission and then develop a Parade float concept based on the company's messaging. The float should creatively show how the messaging relates to America's Thanksgiving Parade and the spirit of the partnership between Art Van Furniture and the Parade Company

"Art Van's commitment to The Parade Company dates back to 1990 when the Parade was in danger of being canceled and Art quickly decided to make a contribution to keep the parade afloat," stated Tony Michaels, president and CEO, The Parade Company. "Since then they have commissioned several floats, balloons, props and donated more than $2 million to The Parade Company."

There will be one grand prize winner selected from all of the entries who will receive a $2,500 financial scholarship.

Their school's Art or English Department also will receive a $2,500 donation. Both the scholarship and donation are compliments of Art Van Furniture. The student's winning submission also may be incorporated into Art Van Furniture's new float design. The winning student also will receive Parade Company and Art Van Furniture merchandise, a meet and greet with Art Van Elslander and six Parade Preview Party tickets for Wednesday, October 19.

Students must submit a float concept in essay form in 250 words or less. Submissions should be typed, single-spaced with one-inch margins and include the student's name and school on the essay. Entries should be submitted online at www.theparade.org or by mail. Mailed entries must include a completed application form and should be sent to: Art Van Furniture Float Concept Contest, c/o The Parade Company, 9500 Mt. Elliott, Studio A, Detroit, MI 48211. All applications must be received by Monday, May 30.

Memorial service set for former pastor

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia will hold a memorial service for its Pastor Emeritus, the Rev. William F. Whitledge at 3 p.m., Sunday, May 22.

Whitledge, who served as senior pastor at St. Paul's for 27 years beginning in 1961, died May 3 in Hudson, Fla, where he recently served as a parish associate at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church. He took the position after his retirement from St. Paul's.

While in Livonia, he was known as a caring and dedicated shepherd of his flock. He also kept busy throughout the community and the Presbytery of Detroit. He was admired for his inspiring preaching, his organizational skills and his sharp sense of humor.

The memorial service will be followed by a cookie and punch reception.

For more information, call the church office at (734) 422-1470. St. Paul's is located at 27475 Five Mile, one block west of Inkster Road.

Kensington to host concert on June 24 on beach

Get an early start celebrating our nation's birthday at "Pops Plus," a free, family-friendly concert performed by the Michigan Philharmonic on Maple Beach at Kensington Metropark on Friday, June 24, at 8 p.m.

Let the rich musical history of America fill your ears and enliven your national pride as the Michigan Philharmonic, lead by conductor Nan Washburn, plays both fun and classical pieces by American composers. Featured songs include, "Hoedown," by Aaron Copland, "An American in Paris," by George Gershwin and selections from Leonard Bernstein's West Side Story. A medley of patriotic songs like, "Yankee Doodle," "God Bless the U.S.A." and "This Land is Your Land" will also be performed. The concert will open with a rousing rendition of our national anthem, the Star-Spangled Banner, and will close with the iconic "1812 Overture" by Tchaikovsky.

A Metroparks vehicle entry permit, which is only $25 annually for regular admission, $15 annually for seniors, or $5 for a daily, is required to enter Kensington Metropark.

Women need vaccines to stay healthy

In recognition of National Women's Health Week, the Michigan Department of Community Health (MDCH) urges women to get vaccinated against serious diseases.

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists has issued an updated schedule of recommended screenings, lab tests, and vaccines for non-pregnant women, age 13 and older. The schedule includes information about which vaccines are recommended for certain age and risk groups. Women who are pregnant or are planning a pregnancy should talk to their doctor about the vaccines they need.

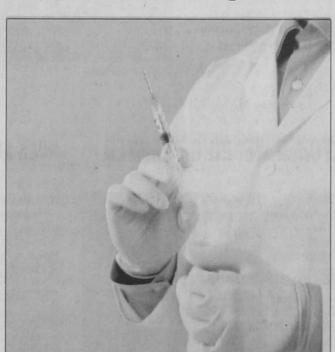

Before becoming pregnant, a woman should be up-to-date on routine adult vaccines. It is especially important that women receive Tdap vaccine, which protects against tetanus, diphtheria, and pertussis (whooping cough). Infants less than 12 months especially are vulnerable to whooping cough, which is on the rise in the United States and in Michigan. Each year, there are around 3.3 million cases of pertussis in adolescents and adults. To protect infants, everyone around the baby including parents, grandparents, siblings, day care and child care workers, and health care personnel

- should be vaccinated

against whooping cough

and influenza.

During pregnancy, it is safe, effective, and important for women to receive the seasonal flu shot. A pregnant woman who gets the flu is at risk for serious complications and hospitalization. Often a mother's immunity is passed along to her baby during pregnancy. This protects the baby from some diseases during the first few months of life until the baby can get vaccinated. Since infants cannot receive the flu vaccine until 6 months, it is critical that vaccinated. After giving birth, it is safe for women to receive vaccines, even while breastfeeding. Women who have pregnant women and those surrounding the baby get not received Tdap vaccine should be vaccinated right after delivery, along with family members who have not received Tdap vaccine. Women who are not immune to measles, mumps and rubella and/or varicella (chickenpox) should be vaccinated before leaving the hospital. Women and their family members should receive seasonal flu vaccine every year, in order to protect vulnerable infants from this serious disease.

For information on vaccines women need, visit: www.immunizationforwomen.org/ For information on vaccines adults need, visit: www.adultvaccination.org/

Botsford Commons nurses earn recognition for work

The Michigan Holistic Nurses Association has recognized two Botsford Commons nurses for their excellence on the job.

Donna Spiers-Dunn, a nurse manager for Botsford Commons chronic and dementia programs received the Nursing Excellence Award for 2010-11.

Krystal Boddie, coordinator of education and training, also was nominated for the award. Both were nominated by the organization's Nursing Excellence Committee for doing their jobs in a way that reflects positively on the nursing profession as well as their own careers.

"We have such a tremendous nursing staff, and it is wonderful to see them recognized for all of their hard work and dedication," stated Michelle Cross,

Executive Director, Clinical Services. "Our staff is a large part of the success of Botsford Commons, and Donna and Krystal are perfect examples of that."

Men's Health: Knowing Some Warning Signs Can Save Lives (And Relationships)

Evidence that links heart dis and erectile dysfunction (E.D.) has been mounting during the past several years. In one study, 65% of men who experienced a heart attack had erectile dysfunction (E.D.) and no history of heart disease Additionally, it has been documented that some men experience their first heart attack about 3 years after their first signs of E.D.! Because the penule arteries are much smaller than arteries of the heart, evidence of cardiovascular disease can manifest first as Erectile Dysfunction symptoms, long before other symptoms occur.

The recognition of E.D. as a warning sign of silent vascular disease has lead to the concept that a man with E.D. and no cardiac symptoms is a cardiac patient until Erectile Dysfunction (ED) is a comproblem that affects millions of men. It is a barometer of overall Men's Health that can be an indicator of mo conditions such as heart disease, diabetes, and prostate cancer. Where The Boys Are (And Aren't): Non-traditional Jobs For Women And Men

Beth Braccio Hering, Special to CareerBuilder

When was the last time a male dental hygienist hygienist http://www.careerbuilder.com/ jobs/keyword/dental+hygienist/%20> cleaned your teeth?

Sure, we all know that women have significantly changed the face of the American work force over the past 50 or so years. And while children today rightly dream of becoming anything they want, the fact remains that some fields continue to be dominated by one gender over the other.

Here, a look at some of the careers in which female or male employees may not have much competition for the restroom:

Non-traditional jobs for women

The Bureau of Labor Statistics considers a job where less than 25 percent of the work force is female to be a "nontraditional" job for women. Among the fields that meet this criteria are:

- · Logging http://www.careerbuilder.com/ jobs/keyword/logging/%20>
- · Fishing, hunting and trapping
- · Mining http://www.careerbuilder.com/ jobs/keyword/mining/%20>
- · Construction http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ construction/%20>
- Rail transportation http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ rail+transportation/%20>
- Truck transportation http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ truck+transportation/%20>
- Taxi and limousine service http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ taxi/%20>
- Couriers and messengers http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ courier/%20>
- Utilities http://www.careerbuilder.com/ jobs/keyword/utilities/%20> (such as electric power generation http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ electric+power/%20>, natural gas distribution http://www.careerbuilder.com/ jobs/keyword/natural+gas/%20> and sewage treatment http://www.careerbuilder.com/ jobs/keyword/sewage+treatment/%20>)

· Repair and maintenance http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ maintenance/%20> of electronic and precision equipment, commercial and industrial machinery, and autos

While there are a significant number of women employed in manufacturing http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ manufacturing/%20>, they tend to be better represented in some segments over others. For instance, about a third of the 1,467,000 people employed in the making of computer and electronic products are women. But men overwhelmingly dominate in the production of nonmetallic mineral products (think cement, pottery and glass), metal products (such as iron and steel), machinery, transportation equipment and wood products.

Nearly half of the people employed in retail trade are women. Very few of them, however, are automobile or other motor vehicle dealers http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/car+ dealer/%20>; work at stores selling auto parts, accessories or tires; or are vending machine operators. Likewise, women may account for about 30 percent of all wholesale http://www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ wholesale/%20> trade employees but are rarely merchant wholesalers of recyclable materials, farm product raw materials,

Non-traditional jobs for men groceries or alcoholic beverages.

Walk into any child day care http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/child+ care/%20> service and you'll likely be greeted by a woman. Of the 1,563,000 employees in that field, a whopping 95.3 percent are female. Among other industries the BLS classifies as "non-traditional" for

- Veterinary services http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ veterinarian/%20>
- · Gift, novelty and souvenir shops http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/gift+
- Libraries and archives http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ library/%20>
- · Beauty salons http://
- www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/salon/
- Social assistance http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/ keyword/social+assistance/%20> Employment in private households

So what about health care < http://www.careerbuilder.com/ jobs/keyword/health+care/%20> and education http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/ keyword/education/%20>, two fields often associated with women?

Male nurses are still rather rare, though their numbers are growing. The most recent national nursing survey by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Health Resources and Services Administration reports that men accounted for 6.6 percent of all RNs in 2008, up from 5.8 percent in the 2004 survey.

Women continue to make up at least threefourths of the work force at hospitals; the offices of physicians http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ physician/%20>, dentists http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ dentist/%20> and optometrists http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ optometrist/%20>; and outpatient care centers. Men account for only 13 percent of the workers at nursing care facilities, and even fewer are employed in home health

As for education, numbers can be deceiving. Although the BLS found that men account for about 30 percent of those employed in educational services as a whole, they tend to gravitate towards colleges, universities and technical or trade schools. If you can't remember your child ever having a male primary-school teacher < http://www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/ keyword/elementary+education/%20> you're not alone. According to the National Education Association, only 17 percent of elementary-level teachers are men. (Men do, however, represent about a third of middleschool teachers and about half of high school teachers.)

The most gender-neutral fields

Grocery stores employ equal numbers of men and women. In manufacturing, the work force is nearly split in textile product mills (except carpets and rugs) and in places producing soaps, cleaning compounds and cosmetics. Other industries that are at or close to 50-50 include:

- Leisure and hospitality http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ hospitality/%20>
- Services to buildings and dwellings http:// /www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ building+services/%20>
- Data processing, hosting and related services http://www.careerbuilder.com/ jobs/keyword/data+processing/%20>
- · Real estate http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/real+
- Advertising and related services http:// www.careerbuilder.com/jobs/keyword/ advertising/%20>

One last figure (which might surprise some): 50.2 percent of gas station workers are female. Maybe there is hope yet for male dental hygienists to become commonplace.

Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzie will nave you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Fun By The

Like puzzles?

Level: Beginne

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Acura ZDX Ride Is Firm; Mercedes Goes High-tech

AdvertisingFeature

CAReport

AVANTI NEWSFEATURES

Even though the Acura ZDX crossover coupe has all-wheel drive and good ground clearance, it doesn't drive like an SUV. It feels tight and solid on twisty two-lane roads. Choppy pavement reveals that the ride is quite firm, but it is not objectionable.

The company calls the ZDX a four-door sports coupe even though the precise definition of coupe is a car with two doors.

The ZDX rides on the chassis of an SUV but it definitely has the heart of a coupe.

As we drove a local parkway, a couple pulled alongside, rolled down the window of their car and commented on how much they liked the Acura's styling. We were surprised that the ZDX drew so many admiring looks.

Size may be one reason the ZDX draws so much attention. It is relatively wide, and it sits tall like the MDX sport utility. The aggressive design, however, has a presence that makes the car hard to ignore.

The steeply sloping roof is only one part of the car's visual appeal. Deep shoulders over the back wheel accentuate the car's muscularity, and an all-glass roof runs from the windshield to the tailgate. The roof is pinched in at the back, and that, too, gives the ZDX a distinctive appearance.

Getting into the back seat is not easy because of the sloping roof, but the space is tolerable for relatively short distances once vou're inside

Who's supposed to be buying the ZDX? Acura said the car is designed for buyers who want the intimacy of a coupe with the flexible cargo space and all-road capability of an SUV. Clearly this target demographic is small, and Acura predicts sales of 8,000 units per year.

The refined interior and luxurious materials make the ZDX a pleasant car to drive. The seats are among the best we've seen, and the instrument panel that wraps around the driver and passenger has great lines and nice leather covering. The matte black center stack is unique.

Standard equipment includes a Bose stereo, power liftgate, rearview camera and 19-inch wheels. The Advance package adds adaptive cruise control, blind-spot monitoring system, ventilated seats and a collision mitigation system. The Technology package adds surround-sound stereo, navigation and a rear camera that lets the driver select three distinct views.

The ZDX uses many components from the MDX, but they have all been retuned for this application. The engine is a 300horsepower, 3.7-liter unit that provides excellent power across the entire rev range. It accelerates smoothly while noise and vibration are held in check.

The six-speed automatic transmission can be shifted manually with paddles on the steering wheel.

The size of the cargo compartment is hindered by the steeply sloping roof, but when the seats are folded the result is a long, deep space big enough to haul a

The cargo space is finished with nice carpeting and plated handles. The side panels of the trunk come out to accommodate four golf bags. The cargo floor opens to reveal a good-sized storage space that can be used to keep valuables

TECHNOLOGY UPDATE: Mercedes-Benz dealers have begun using Apple iPads an an alternative to printed literature to answer questions about the 2012 CLS-Class. The CLS-Class iPad app, created by All Things Media and assigned to sales people in Mercedes showrooms this month, provides virtual tours of the car, an "Explore" customization tool and videos promoting the luxury car's technical proficiencies

NEW STUDY: Scuderi Group reports a study conducted by the Southwest Research Institute on a 2011 Nissan Sentra showed a turbocharged Scuderi Air-Hybrid Engine can cut gas use of the Sentra by 36 percent. Thengine boosts miles per gallon by 54 percent. That means a car with a 15-gallon gas tank that gets 30 mpg can drive 243 miles farther by using a Scuderi instead of a factory engine. Scuderi is in talks with 15 automakers worldwide to get them to use the fledgling technology.

SPARE PARTS: Bob Frayer, supervisor of engineering laboratories at NSF International in Ann Arbor, earned the Industry Award from the Automotive Body Parts Association. He was recognized for creating an in-house certification program that ensures bumpers, absorbers and other auto parts meet high quality, safety and performance standards. ... Toyota this week opened the first hydrogen fueling station in the U.S. fed directly from an active industrial hydrogen pipeline. The station is a partnership of Toyota, Shell, the Department of Energy and two other companies. It will provide hydrogen for fuel-cell cars in California. ... IndyCar driver Townsend Bell is the new brand ambassador of the members-only Thermal Motorsports Track & Club in Palm Springs, Calif. Bell, driver of the No. 99 Herbalife car, will create niche driving programs at the club.

HAWKE NEW HQ FOR PORSCHE: Porsche Cars North America will begin building a headquarters in Atlanta this fall near a terminal at the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport. The HQ, which is expected to open in summer 2013, will be home to 400 employees who will staff a Technical Service and Training Center and Customer Experience Center, Detlev von Platen, president of the North American unit of Porsche Cars, said this week. The headquarters also will include a road course to showcase the sports cars' performance. The company will move Porsche Financial and Porsche Business from Lisle, Ill., to Atlanta in 2013 to put everyone in one location. Porsche sells
