Wing ringers

The Detroit Red Wings will compete for bragging rights Friday to see which duo can raise the most money for The Salvation Army Red Kettle Campaign, as four two-man teams ring bells 4-6 p.m.

Head coach Mike

Miller

Babcock will join Executive Vice President and General Manager Ken Holland, who is serving as honorary chairman of the 2011 Red Kettle Campaign for the sixth straight year, outside Hiller's Market in downtown Northville. Drew Miller and an unnamed player will be outside the Kroger in Plymouth.

This season marks the sixth consecutive year the Detroit Red Wings and The Salvation Army are teaming up through the "Red Wings for Red Kettles" initiative to help the nonprofit reach its $8.2 million Red Kettle campaign goal.

"Both the players and staff have embraced The Salvation Army and have remained committed to helping people in need in our community," Holland said. "We're proud to support The Salvation Army again this year."

Santa letters

While Christmas is a very busy time of year for Santa Claus, he always makes time to read letters from children.

Youngsters can be sure Santa knows what they want by writing a letter to Santa. Santa Claus has given the Observer permission to print some of those letters in our Thursday, Dec. 22, issue.

Letters should be e-mailed to bkadrich@hometownlife.com. Parents, be sure to include a JPEG photo of your child, with their name, age, address and phone number. Only your child's name and age will be published.

Letters can also be mailed to Letters to Santa, c/o Brad Kadrich, 615 W. Lafayette, Second Level, Detroit, MI 48226.

The deadline for all Santa letters is Friday, Dec. 16.

Ten-year plan has couple settling in

Without ever leaving their home, a Canton family can enjoy a movie theater with massage chairs, a two-level library, a sunlit conservatory, a fitness room and sauna, a circular dining area with a splendid countryside view, three outdoor terraces and an indoor swimming pool that stretches 40 feet long, 20 feet wide.

Plan partners local parishes

By Brad Kadrich

None of the nine Catholic churches in the Archdiocese of Detroit expected to close under a pastoral plan released last week is in Plymouth or Canton, but that doesn't mean Catholic churches in this area aren't eventually going to be affected by the report.

Three parishes in Canton, and two more in Plymouth, are expected to become partners under the plan, released Thursday as the archdiocese begins to deal with a shortage of priests. The move would create one parish, with three different worship sites.

Canton churches affected by the report include St. John Neumann, Resurrection and St. Thomas a'Becket. Plymouth parishes affected by the plan include St. Kenneth and Our Lady of Good Counsel.

The Rev. Pat Casey, who is not only the pastor at St. Thomas a'Becket but is also vicar for the Northwest Wayne Vicariate, said the changes are at least three years away.

"Churches are not going to close," under the plan, Casey said. "We'd be looking to become one parish, with one priest, one parish council, one of everything. We're looking at three to five years down the road."

The report suggests eight churches in the archdiocese should be closed next year to address the shortage of priests, a declining

Search team presses for chamber chief

By Darrell Clem
Observer Staff Writer

A new Canton Chamber of Commerce president could potentially be on the job as early as mid-January as a 10-member search committee moves forward with its task.

About 25 people sought the position, and chamber board Chair-elect Kim Scartelli said the search committee hopes to complete an initial review of applicants in time to conduct on-site interviews of potential finalists by early January.

"With the holidays, it has been tough with people's busy schedules," she said.

Moreover, chamber offices are closed between the Christmas and New Year's Day holidays.

The search committee is seeking a successor to former President Tracey Rettig, who ended her 10-month stint in mid-November. Rettig cited family duties and her decision to pursue a master's degree in business administration as her reasons, though she had a tumultuous reign that left chamber members divided over her performance.

Scartelli said the search committee's goal has been to hire a new leader by mid-January.

Depending on the process, though, "it could be the first of February," she said.

In the meantime, longtime chamber President Dianne Cojei continues to serve as interim chamber leader. She had held the post for a decade before she retired in late 2010 and was replaced by Rettig.

Cojei has said she isn't interested in returning full time, calling her decision to help out "definitely interim."

Scartelli said the chamber board has been appreciative that Cojei agreed to lead the chamber as the search continues.

"We are so thankful that Dianne has come in and really helped us," Scartelli said. "It has helped us with some continuity to do what we need to do to keep the chamber on track. She has been a real asset."

Scartelli said she believes the chamber and its board have "a very positive outlook" for the new year.

Colbeck talks jobs with NASA audience

State Sen. Patrick Colbeck, R-Canton, spoke before program managers, engineers and chief technologists from NASA about the wealth of partnership opportunities available in Michigan at the Connection Point Breakfast.

The breakfast was hosted by the Detroit Regional Chamber and the Michigan Economic Development Corporation. Members of NASA's Goddard Flight Center, Langley Research Center and Glenn Research Center are in Michigan to explore partnership opportunities with Michigan companies.

In his message to NASA personnel, Colbeck talked about the wide range of qualified businesses in Michigan ready and willing to partner with NASA on upcoming initiatives and the opportunities to expand development in a variety of industries including the high tech sector and the auto industry.

"Michigan offers excellent partnership opportunities for NASA and other similar organizations," Colbeck said. "Our state has some of the most cutting-edge technology firms in the world and is leading the nation in tech job growth, according to the latest 2010 TechAmerica report. In addition, just last month Newsweek/The Daily Beast ranked Michigan as the best state in the nation for job growth."

Colbeck pointed out Michigan's workforce features a world-class blend of advanced engineering, information technology specialists, skilled trades, and entrepreneurs. The state's infrastructure, he said, includes high-tech development areas such as Automation Alley and Aerotropolis.

He called state universities "leaders in technology," and lauded their long history of working with government agencies and industries.

"I am a product of one of our public universities, the University of Michigan, ranked the number five aerospace engineering program in the U.S. by U.S. News," Colbeck said. "During my tenure at the university, I personally participated in two partnerships – one with the government and one with private industry."

He told the audience Michigan has "renewed its commitment to creating a business environment that makes it easier than ever to start and grow businesses."

"We have put forward an aggressive agenda in the Legislature this year to help attract businesses and jobs to our state," Colbeck said. "We have cut taxes on Michigan businesses by $1.7 billion and ended double taxation for more than 95,000 small business owners."

He said the state is serious about bringing jobs to Michigan and are working to get the word out that "our state is open for business."

W-W appoints two new finance officers

By Sue Mason
Observer Staff Writer

Two of Plymouth-Canton's top finance people are saying goodbye after being appointed to positions in Wayne-Westland's business office.

James Larson-Shidler, Plymouth-Canton's assistant superintendent for business services, is taking over as Wayne-Westland's deputy superintendent for administrative and business services, while David Kaumeyer, P-C's director of finance, has been appointed as the senior executive director of business and operations.

"I want to thank you for having the confidences in selecting me and letting me be a part of this team," said Larson-Shidler following school board approval of his appointment.

Larson-Shidler replaces Gary Martin, who is retiring Dec. 31. Martin has been with the district for 12 years and created W-W's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report that has won state and national awards for more than 10 consecutive years.

A resident of Bloomfield Hills, Larson-Shidler was an assistant treasurer for the Toledo Public Schools district and the deputy chief financial officer with the Cleveland

Municipal Schools district before joining Plymouth-Canton in 2008.

He has a bachelor of science degree in accounting from the University of Southern California, a master of arts degree in public policy and management from Ohio State University and is working on an educational specialist degree in educational administration at Oakland University.

He also is a certified public accountant and expects to receive his chief financial officer certification from Michigan School Business Officials next year.

Kaumeyer will replace Linda Kempton, who also is retiring. He is no stranger to the Wayne-Westland district, having worked as the director of finance 1998 to 2000. Prior to that, he was P-C's assistant director of finance and purchasing. He also worked with the Birmingham Public Schools as the finance manager, before rejoining P-C as the director of finance.

He has a bachelor of science degree in atmospheric science, a master of business administrations degree in finance and a educational specialist degree in educational administration, all from the University of Michigan.

"Thank you for the opportunity, I'm very happy to be rejoining the Wayne-Westland staff," said Kaumeyer, who lives in Plymouth. "I look forward to working with all of you."

School board President Carol Middel extended a welcome to the two men, pointing out that the district is losing "some very good people" who are leaving "some big shoes to fill."

"I hope you are up to the task," she said. "We're all going to pitch in and help you. If you need help, say the word. You have some good assets while they're still here."

Canton man pleads to sex charge

By Darrell Clem
Observer Staff Writer

A Canton man accused of having sex with a 14-year-old girl he met on Facebook is facing sentencing in January after he pleaded guilty to a single count of third-degree criminal sexual conduct, authorities confirmed.

William Macdonald Albert IV, 25, could face penalties ranging up to 15 years in prison when he is sentenced Jan. 6 by Wayne County Circuit Judge Edward Ewell Jr. Albert's plea occurred Nov. 29 and led to the dismissal of two other counts of third-degree CSC and one charge of furnishing alcohol to a minor, Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Maria Miller said.

The charges arose from allegations Albert met the Plymouth Township girl on Facebook and engaged in sexual activity with her at his residence on Copper Creek Circle, southwest of Warren and Haggerty roads, Canton Detective Tim Wright said.

Albert allegedly "let on that he was younger than he was," Wright said.

The charges emerged amid accusations of criminal sexual conduct that occurred between February and May.

Albert, who is free on a $5,000 bond, stood mute in June when he was arraigned on the original charges by 35th District Judge Ronald Lowe. A not-guilty plea had been entered for him at the time.

Albert's decision to accept a plea agreement averted a trial, spared the girl from having to testify and, according to Miller, led to authorities dismissing all but one count of third-degree CSC.

Albert had been accused of furnishing the girl with alcohol and enticing her into sexual activity, authorities said.

CRIME WATCH

Escort ended

1 Canton police stopped a male motorist for driving erratically only to learn that he was allegedly taking a female passenger to a local residence as part of an escort service.

The incident happened about 12:30 a.m. Friday near Beck and Geddes roads.

An officer was on the lookout for a car that had been reported to be driving erratically. The officer noticed a red Dodge Dakota repeatedly stopping and going. After stopping the vehicle, the officer was told the driver was having trouble with it.

The driver initially told police he had tried to visit a friend who wasn't at home, then he said he was getting paid to drive the passenger to a nearby residence to provide escort services. He said the passenger had earlier used cocaine.

Police found a white substance in the car but it was learned to be headache powder. However, police learned the woman had a tether violation out of Lansing.

Police took the woman into custody to make arrangements to turn her over to Lansing authorities. The male driver was cited for operating a vehicle without proper registration. The vehicle was towed.

Stolen Starbucks

2 Police were investigating a reported break-in at the Starbucks coffee shop on Ford just west of Lotz.

The incident was reported about 4:30 a.m. Friday when a shift manager and another employee arrived for the day.

Police found that a window had been smashed out and intruders had taken a box of gift cards. Nothing else appeared to have been taken. No money was kept in the cash register.

Police also learned that the front door of the nearby Parthenon Coney Island restaurant had been smashed, though it appeared no one had gone inside. Parthenon was recently broken into by intruders who failed at trying to steal wall-mounted televisions.

Leaving the scene

3 Canton police ticketed a female driver for leaving the scene of an accident that occurred about 4 p.m. Dec. 1 in the 44900 block of Fair Oaks, southeast of Saltz and Canton Center.

The victim whose car was hit said a neighbor reported seeing a driver hit the car, stop for a few moments and then drop her daughter off at a nearby house.

Police conducted an investigation and located the suspect, who told police she left the scene because she didn't believe the accident had done any damage. She had hit the rear of the car with her van.

Ranger stolen

4 A man notified police after his black, 1999 Ford Ranger was stolen from his apartment in the 40563 block of Tamarack, northeast of Michigan Avenue and I-275.

The man said he parked the truck about 8:20 p.m. Dec. 1 and found it missing around 7 a.m. the next morning.

He told police he had placed a key to the truck in a magnetic box hidden under the driver's side of the vehicle. It wasn't immediately known if that key had been used to steal the truck, though there was no indication at the scene of any broken glass.

Intruder alert

5 A break-in was reported on the afternoon of Dec. 3 in the Sherwood Village mobile home park on Old Michigan, southeast of Haggerty Road and Michigan Avenue.

Police took reports that a red Ford Mustang and a white pickup truck had been seen driving up and down the main drive of the mobile home park — and that one suspect was seen running from the home in question.

The home was in the process of being turned over to the mobile home park. However, the people vacating it said the break-in resulted in the theft of clothing and a cardboard box containing pictures.

Breaking in

6 Canton police were notified of a break-in that occurred about 2:15 a.m. Friday at Best China, on Lilley just north of Warren. Police learned that a television and a DVD player had been taken.

Finding more priests a priority for archdiocese

By Brad Kadrich
Observer Staff Writer

Parishioners at St. Kenneth Catholic Church and Our Lady of Good Counsel could notice some differences as a result of a report released by the Archdiocese of Detroit last week, but any changes aren't likely to be major.

While the report calls for the two Plymouth churches to "partner" for at least some services, neither parish is slated to close or merge, and any changes are likely three to five years away.

The changes will be more dramatic in Canton, where St. John Neumann, Resurrection and St. Thomas a'Becket likely will merge into one parish with three worship sites.

St. John Neumann could become a 'worship site' if an archdiocese plan to partner local churches is followed.

Mark Curtis, who serves as chair of the OLCG Parish Council and represented the church on the planning committee that forged the archdiocese report, said no impact will likely be felt in Plymouth parishes, at least at first.

"We don't really expect any impact initially," Curtis said. "The entire process is trying to get out in front of a statistical reality that there is going to be a dramatic reduction in the number of priests available in the next 10-15 years. As the archdiocese did about six years ago, we went through the process of identifying where are the Catholics now, and where should they worship?"

Curtis said the strength of the Catholic presence in the Plymouth-Canton area (OLGC has some 8,900 parishioners) left the area unscathed in terms of closings. While at least nine churches are set to be closed under the plan, none of them are in Plymouth or Canton.

"What the archdiocese directed every parish to do is identify a partner," Curtis said. "What it's not going to mean is any sort of closure. (St. Kenneth and OLCG) will both continue to be independent parishes, have their own pastors. We'll look to see where we can share resources where it might make sense, but members won't notice a difference (in services), certainly not for the foreseeable future."

What Curtis said is more important, perhaps, than paring down the number of parishes is shoring up the number of priests. According to the report, 39 (13 percent) of the 293 priests currently serving in the archdiocese are 70 years old or older, and another 21 are eligible for retirement in the next three years. The average age of priests is 62.

Curtis said a key component of the archdiocese plan is to foster vocational choices that draw more young people into the seminary. One of the priorities put forward by Archbishop Allen Vigneron was to "get creative" and figure out how to foster vocations.

Church officials, Curtis said, need to start talking about the priesthood in church, with the young people, in order to at least make them consider the possibility of serving God.

"God hasn't stopped calling men to the priesthood, men have stopped answering," Curtis said. "The idea would be to get men to start answering the call. If we're not talking about it in the parish, and more specifically in our families, we can't expect young men to hear that call and answer it."

ey and choosing a Plymouth Township company, Menard Builders Inc., that specializes in high-end construction. The couple settled on a 20,000-square-foot house after they refused to budge on their wish list of amenities.

"I never thought it would be this big," Brad Wardell said, smiling and holding hands with his wife of 17 years as they sat in their main-floor library, framed by tall windows, cherry wood, well-stocked bookshelves and a spiral staircase leading to a bedroom-level reading room.

The Wardells aren't even sure how many rooms their home has — though it's probably upwards of 30 including bedrooms and bathrooms. Yet they seem to lack the pretentiousness that could easily accompany their lifestyle. They say they had humble beginnings. Brad Wardell, 40, grew up in Gibraltar, while Debbie Wardell, 41, was raised in Boyne City.

"We grew up in lower middle-class neighborhoods," Brad Wardell said.

College sweethearts

They met while earning their bachelor's degrees from Western Michigan University, where he studied electrical engineering while she majored in applied mathematics and computer science. Their livelihood, however, comes from a Plymouth-based computer software company, Stardock, initially started by Brad Wardell to pay his way through college. He also has penned a sci-fi fantasy book, Elemental Destiny's Embers, published by Random House.

The couple recently marked their one-year anniversary in their home, situated on 16 acres. They decided to invest in a place where they hope to grow old together — hence the elevator that goes among the three floors, though it already gets used. They share their luxurious abode with sons Alex, 15, and Ryan, 11, daughter Ashley, 5, a 9-month old Entlebucher dog, Bailey, who has her own shower in the laundry room, and a turtle named Cuddles, whose terrarium is in the conservatory.

"I've had Cuddles for 25 years," Brad Wardell said.

As the Wardells researched the home

Brad and Debbie Wardell spent nearly a decade planning their dream home, which also is a "green" home.

The floors offer radiant heating from tubes in the floor. The family dog, Bailey, stands near a large "W" for Wardell near the front entrance.

they wanted, they decided to pay homage to their British ancestors. To be sure, it resembles an English country home out of a PBS Masterpiece production. Just inside the front door, double staircases rise majestically toward the upper floor from a foyer where a large "W" serves as the centerpiece of a floor made of travertine with marble accents.

Room by room

Debbie Wardell, a stay-at-home mom, said her favorite rooms are the kitchen and laundry room. The kitchen has two large, side-by-side refrigerator/freezer units, enclosed by oak wood. It also has a baking center, an indoor gas grill, one of the home's six gas fireplaces, a butler's pantry and other amenities — all within sight of a lounging area that includes a sofa, three chairs and a television.

"The kitchen is my dream kitchen," Debbie Wardell said. "I love to cook."

Even doing laundry isn't such a chore with her two washing machines, two dryers and a folding station with a scenic view of the back yard area, where Brad Wardell said deer are prone to visit and where he keeps several bee hives. The yard also has an apple orchard and raised gardens.

The children predictably prefer the media room, where they can play video games, and Brad Wardell cited the two-story library as among his favorite spots to relax. "I read a lot."

The family also enjoys the indoor movie theater, with a large screen, several massage chairs and overhead fiber optics that have the appearance of the Milky Way. It is located on the lower level, along with a pub, a wine cellar, the vast swimming pool, his and her locker rooms, an outdoor pizza oven, the fitness room and sauna, Debbie Wardell's craft room and Brad Wardell's hobby room.

Throughout the house, much of the wood — black walnut, pine, cherry and spruce — came from trees that once stood where the house was built. The Wardells wanted to incorporate nature into their home.

Brad Wardell pauses when asked how much the home cost. He prefers to leave it at several million — money he believes was well-spent.

"I can't think of anything I'd do differently," he said.

whose Plymouth Township company, Menard Builders Inc., built it.

It's the first "green" home of its size and caliber Menard's company built using materials and technology that earned the rating.

"For a house that size, it's sometimes hard to achieve," Menard said.

The Wardells say their utility bills are as low as $200-$300 a month, compared to thousands of dollars that could be expected for a home as large as theirs. It's all because of how their house is designed.

Menard explains:

- A geothermal system supplies energy to heat and cool the house, relying on 30 underground, backyard wells built 10 feet apart and 150 feet deep. It uses glycol, an antifreeze-type liquid, to avoid freezing.
- That system, along with a gas-fired boiler, also disperses radiant heat through the house via special features, such as tubing under the floors, to improve efficiency and comfort.
- Across the back yard and down a slope, some 90 solar panels create a 20-kilowatt system that generates electricity for the house, and some of it even goes back into DTE Energy's grid.

- The house uses LED lighting — light-emitting diode — for efficiency.

Brad Wardell chose to have the house built in a Menard Builders development because of the company's reputation.

The Wardell house took two years to build, keeping at least 100 trades people employed during a time when the area desperately needs jobs. Menard already is building a similar-size home in Superior Township.

Menard and his wife, Mary, founded their company in 1979 and began building homes on a full-time basis nine years later, mostly within a 25-mile radius of Plymouth. Menard said the company has probably built 50 homes.

The Wardells have

Information, please: Tablets top 2011 gift list

By Jon Gunnells
Guest Columnist

Tech Savvy

Jon Gunnells

In the '90s, holiday shopping was all about grabbing the hard-to-find Tickle Me Elmo dolls. Now, holiday shopping is about finding the hottest tech gifts — and in 2011 no gifts are hotter than tablets.

If you are one of the many technologically challenged shoppers out there you may not even know what a tablet is. Think of a tablet as a small, light weight, portable computer. Tablets are larger than a smartphone, more versatile than a netbook and sleeker than a laptop.

The most revered of them all is the iPad2 — which is available starting at $499. The iPad2 checks in at about nine by seven inches and weighs a mere 1.33 pounds. It has built-in Wi-Fi so you can search the net for free — and like smartphones — it can access the fast 3G data networks.

There are a number of reasons the iPad2 is the best selling tablet — including a front facing camera, a 1GHZ processor, Bluetooth capabilities and up to 64GB of internal storage.

Most important, the iPad2 has up to 10 hours of battery life — which includes surfing the web through a Wi-Fi connection. And like most Apple products, you can visit the Apple App Store to download programs, games, books and more to keep you busy on your iPad.

For those who want a tablet to read e-books, the new Kindle Fire is a good challenger to the iPad2. The Kindle Fire weighs less than a pound and can carry all the e-books on its 8GB frame. More storage can be added to the Amazon Cloud — a free online storage service.

The 7-inch color display on the Kindle Fire is a bit smaller than the iPad but also, much larger than your average novel.

Samsung also produces a line of bright, engaging tablets including the Samsung Galaxy Tab Wi-Fi which is available from $350. This Wi-Fi only tablet is cheaper than an iPad but does not have wireless connectivity options. Samsung also offers the original Galaxy Tab which has wireless network connectivity options.

If you are however, always near Wi-Fi hotspots, this unit could be the right fit for your lifestyle. As could be the HTC Flyer, a Wi-Fi only unit that costs $499 for a model with 16GB of storage.

The HTC Flyer is a 7-inch tablet that comes with a stylus and a 1.5ghz processor. The Flyer is recommended for gaming and reading.

In true Blackberry fashion, the company has made a tablet which sadly, is about as well respected as their phones. The Blackberry Playbook is no match for the iPad2 or of the other tablets listed here.

Users looking for the best tablet experience should stick with the iPad2, or a unit like the Galaxy Tab or HTC Flyer which both run on the Android platform — Apple's main challenger.

Sony also has an Android power tablet called the Tablet S which retails for $599 for a 32GB model or $499 for a 16GB model. The Tablet S is Playstation certified for mobile gaming.

Best bets

If you are shelling out a couple hundred dollars for a tablet, either for personal use or for a gift, make sure you pick the one that suits the proper lifestyle. Here are the best tablets for each intended function.

For general computing, web surfing and productivity: iPad2

For reading: Kindle Fire

For gaming: Sony Tablet S

For those who only use Wi-Fi: HTC Flyer

For those who don't buy Apple products: Samsung Galaxy

OUR VIEWS

Be ready

Prepare now for the winter weather

After enjoying a beautiful fall season, it's inevitable that Old Man Winter is lurking. He's already teased us with a smattering of snow, but we know the worst is yet to come, those days when the kids go to bed with their pajamas on backwards in hopes of a snow day.

It is Dec. 8, after all. And, this is Michigan, lest we forget.

Here's a little reminder, though. According to the National Weather Service, Michigan's temperatures last winter were below average across the state and the coldest since 1993. This past winter ranked as the 20th coldest winter on record. The most extreme arctic cold occurred on Jan. 13-18, when lows dipped below zero across much of the state. Dangerous wind chill temperatures reached 30-40 degrees below zero. Snowfall and precipitation were also above average, especially here in southeastern Michigan.

Information on winter safety tips including FAQ's, frozen pipes, roof ice dams, flooding, flood damage, heat sources, and generator safety can be found on the Michigan Committee for Severe Weather Awareness website at www.mcswa.org.

Here are some safety tips to help you prepare for a winter storm.

At home

- Gather appropriate goods for your 72-hour emergency kit.
- Have a supply of warm coats, gloves, hats, and water resistant boots available.
- Be sure to have extra blankets available in the event of a power loss.
- Be sure to have items needed for infants, elderly and disabled family members.
- Also have needed items available for your pets.
- Be aware of potential fire and carbon monoxide hazards if using a fireplace, wood stove or other heating device. Never use a fuel-powered heater indoors.

Outside

- Avoid overexertion, such as shoveling heavy snow, pushing a car, or walking in deep snow. Sweating can lead to chill and hypothermia. Cold weather puts additional strain on your heart.
- Be careful walking on snow or ice covered sidewalks or parking lots.
- Wear loose fitting, lightweight warm clothing in layers, with the outer layer being waterproof. Wear a hat and mittens or gloves.
- Keep your clothes dry. Change wet clothing immediately to prevent loss of body heat.
- Understand the hazards of wind chill. As wind speed increases, heat is carried away from your body more rapidly.

Vehicle preparedness

- Winterize your car now. Ensure that there's the proper mixture of antifreeze and water in the cooling system. Top off windshield washer fluid. Check tires, belts, hoses and the battery.
  - Keep fuel level near "full" as much as possible. Low fuel levels allow condensation to build up in your tank, allowing for fuel line freeze-up. In severe weather, it may also be difficult to find a gas station that is open, so fuel up when severe weather is being predicted.
  - Every vehicle should be equipped with the following emergency supplies, kept in a storage bin when severe weather is predicted or when going on a trip: flashlight with extra batteries, cell phone, windshield scraper, jumper cables, fire extinguisher, maps, shovel, blanket/heavy clothes, flares, bottled water/food/snacks, first aid kit, tow chain or rope, de-icer, antifreeze.
  - When on the road, know your routes and plan ahead. This list may sound a little excessive, but if you're caught off guard, you'll be glad you had every one of these items available to you.
- Remember, in a true emergency, you need to be able to take care of yourself and your family first. Emergency responders will be flooded with true 9-1-1 emergencies (fires, medical emergencies, downed utilities, etc.).

LETTERS

Diaper dandies

We wish to thank our community for the tremendous response to our diaper drive to support the Detroit Area Diaper Bank. Over a two-day period, we received 31,022 diapers, which will be distributed to social services organizations to help families in need.

The giving spirit of the Canton community has been overwhelming but not surprising. In May, our supply drive to benefit the Michigan Military Moms resulted in over 200 boxes of supplies being shipped to U.S. troops stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan.

The Canton Public Library is indebted to Fat Chef in a Little Coat Catering, who donated the truck for the drive, and our partner, the Canton Observer, for helping us spread the word.

Put packets online

The Plymouth-Canton Community Schools, under the direction of the Board of Education, is embarking on a very dramatic restructuring of all of the schools in the district, effective September 2012.

If they want the public to have any confidence in their ability to carry out this restructuring and lead our children into a high-tech global and information based world, they would do well to make very dramatic changes of their own.

They can start by embracing technology and transparency. Currently, the Board of Education publishes something it refers to as a "board brief," instead of official board minutes. These briefs are one page and contain, at most, one sentence about each agenda item. The official minutes, on the other hand, capture everything that happens at the board meetings and all committee meetings, including how each board member votes on a particular matter.

Surrounding communities and other branches of government have been making official minutes available to their constituents for years. It is time our Board of Education did this for us.

In addition to publishing the minutes on its website, the board can also direct the administration to upload the "board packets" to the website. Board packets contain all of the information distributed to board members for use at each board and committee meeting, including copies of PowerPoints and other documents presented or referenced during the meetings. Currently, a handful of these packets are made available in hard copy form on a table outside the meeting (yes, I said "hard copy").

The majority of people who attend the board meetings do so by watching them on cable or viewing them online. There is no technological reason those board packets cannot be uploaded to the website. All of the documents are electronic to begin with. It takes just seconds to upload a pdf file. I'm guessing that "disc space" is not a problem anymore.

In fact, the district's communications director, Frank Ruggirello, has said that he personally has no problem putting these documents on the website but hasn't done so because the board won't direct him to do it.

If the Board of Education and superintendent expect us to trust that they have the leadership and vision to move our district forward and away from a 1990s mentality, they need to show that they can embrace technology and provide access to this information.

Bridge building material: vision, leadership

By Tom Watkins
Guest Columnist

Gov. Rick Snyder, vision, leadership and persistence will ultimately build the New International Trade Crossing between Detroit and Windsor, Ontario.

The Legislature is on its annual deer hunting and turkey-eating break. The governor and his team need to use this time to figure out how to get the job done.

Tom Watkins

One thing is for sure: Persistence is needed to ensure that the new public-private bridge is built.

That's one of the lessons to be learned from how a previous governor and Legislature came together to build a bridge — and our state — over a half century ago.

Fifty-four years ago, Michigan's governor, lawmakers, businesses, labor and citizens across the state cheered the opening of a bridge connecting our two beautiful peninsulas, the Mackinac Bridge.

Like today, the quest to build the Mackinac Bridge produced naysayers who questioned its need and feasibility and claimed the financing "scheme" to pay for the construction of the bridge was unworkable.

Yet our political leaders then, chief among them Gov. G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams, were able to overcome the obstacles and build the bridge. Today, we have a beautiful span that stands as a reminder of our capability to overcome insurmountable odds.

Why were our elected leaders then able to build a bridge many thought impossible? Because of vision, leadership and persistence.

The Mackinac Bridge opened to traffic on Nov. 1, 1957. In the souvenir book celebrating the grand opening, a section titled "the legislative story" reads: "it is a symbol of progress in Michigan, progress made possible by far-sightedness, by the co-operation, by the unity of purpose and by the devotion to the idea on the part of leaders in the legislature, state administration and interested citizens." It concludes with this sentence: "Application of the same spirit to other fields will bring a great deal of prosperity in Michigan and make our state a better place in which to work and live."

We can only wish this sentiment would have spilled over to today.

Gov. Williams wrote in his welcome letter in the same souvenir book: "In a larger sense, this bridge is more than just the world's greatest bridge of steel and concrete. It's also a symbol of the Michigan spirit — the spirit of a people for whom no obstacle is too wide, no job too big, no undertaking too difficult."

The New International Trade Crossing, of course, is being held hostage by the owner of the existing Ambassador Bridge, Matty Moroun, and his money and legislative influence.

Michigan should be building a second bridge and putting people to work, not playing political games. Building the new bridge benefits our economic future and makes all the sense in the world.

Canada is our largest trading partner. International trade creates thousands of jobs in Michigan and countless more across the U.S. The case has been made to build another international bridge crossing — and we want it in Michigan, not some other state.

A new bridge has deep support from business, labor, Gov. Snyder and all of Michigan's living former governors — Republican and Democrat alike. It's time to build the public/private New International Trade Crossing and get Michigan working again.

Gov. Snyder, please take the advice of our 30th president, Calvin Coolidge, when he said, "Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not. Genius will not. Education will not. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent."

In his first State of the State address nearly a year ago, Gov. Snyder surprised many when he called for the building of this bridge. To date, political gamesmanship and lots of Matty Moroun's money have dug a moat around accomplishing this goal. The governor has provided the rationale, vision, and leadership to build this needed bridge. Time will tell if he has the persistence to persevere.

Local Ford volunteers feed the hungry

James DeVries of Canton, a materials engineering manager for Ford in Dearborn, packs food boxes for the hungry during Ford's volunteer effort.

Canton and Plymouth residents were among the hundreds of Ford Volunteer Corps employees and retirees dispatched into local communities Friday to help feed the hungry on a Ford Accelerated Action Day.

Hundreds of thousands of people in southeast Michigan struggle to find food each and every day. Ford employees and local nonprofit hunger relief agencies teamed up to feed people in shelters, missions and family centers. MODEL Teams of Ford volunteers collected and sorted food, cooked and served meals, and packed food boxes.

"Many of our neighbors are suffering as they struggle each day to find food for themselves and their families," said Canton resident

Cynthia Flanigan (from left) of Canton, Laura Beyer of Canton, Janice Tardiff of Plymouth, and James DeVries and Cindy Peters of Canton pack holiday food boxes for area seniors.

Jim Vella, president, Ford Motor Co. Fund and Community Services. "Ford employees are thankful we're able to share our time and resources with people in need."

Many of the organizations participating in the Dec. 2 volunteer effort split $75,000 in Ford grants to buy food and other items needed to complete their projects. Those partners include:

- Capuchin Soup Kitchen, Detroit — serve lunch and pack emergency food boxes
- Cass Community Social Services, Detroit — prepare 165 meals for families and disabled

- COTS — Peggy's Place, Detroit — serve meals, pack and deliver food boxes
- Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries, Detroit — help set up, staff and cook for luncheon
- FOCUS: Hope, Detroit — pack holiday food boxes for area seniors

Foundations not (too) concerned over state tax credit cut

By Helen Niemiec
Correspondent

This year's annual fund-raising letters that go out in November not only asked for donations for community foundations but also included a reminder that this is the final year that financial gifts can earn a Michigan State Tax Credit.

The state credit ends Dec. 31, though the federal income tax credit for donations remains for those who file long-forms.

The foundations in Canton, Farmington/Farmington Hills, Livonia and Plymouth have made their donors aware of the coming change, though most don't believe there will be a major change in donations in 2012.

At least, they're hoping that's the case.

"From my experience, charitable people make charitable donations," said Joan Noricks, Canton Community Foundation president.

Cheryl Elliott, president and chief executive officer of the Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation (which manages the Plymouth Area Community Foundation), said a survey taken of its donors say foundations may see a hit.

"We took a survey this summer. For those gifts that come as a result of the tax credit, 54 percent said they didn't know if they would contribute in the coming year," Elliott said. "That could definitely affect our giving."

The Ann Arbor Foundation as a whole saw $8.3 million in contributions last year, with approximately $200,000 coming from the donors identified as those contributing solely because of the tax credit. Larger contributors to the endowment funds, with a minimum gift of $5,000, were also unsure of 2012 donations, with 40 percent saying they didn't know if they would contribute.

Under the current tax credit, donors who contribute $200 or more receive a tax credit of $100. If filing jointly, a $400 donation or greater earns a $200 tax credit. Businesses have a different tax rule when it comes to charitable giving, receiving a tax credit of $5,000 or 5 percent of the total tax liability for that business, whichever is less.

Each foundation has two types of activities, an endowed fund which is eligible for the tax credit, and the project-specific that wasn't. As an example, if a foundation was sponsoring a fund-raising drive by selling inscribed bricks at a particular landscape effort, it wasn't covered by the tax credit. The credit to endowments encouraged efforts to establish a sustainable financial situation for community efforts.

The foundation grants money to local organizations in their respective community, especially in areas of education, history and the arts.

Noricks said that while the foundations help the communities in which they are located, they also help the state indirectly.

"We're building a social capital, a savings account, to benefit our community. With that funding, there is less that the state would have to be providing," Noricks said.

She said she's curious to see what happens with donation levels in 2012. "Is the majority of support coming from the tax benefit? I'd say no, but it's a nice benefit. Is it a deal breaker for our organization? Again, I'd say no."

Elliott said the Ann Arbor Foundation didn't send out end of the year donation requests until the tax credits came into being. Now every foundation does it as a reminder, she explained.

"It's too bad. The tax credit was a great vehicle to introduce people to the foundations and what they offered their communities. Over time, we see these tax credit donors learning more about what we do and increasing their annual gifts to $700 or $1,000," Elliott said.

The Council of Michigan Foundations is expected to collect data from the community foundations and assess the impact.

"It may be that they will

Plymouth	2005	Arbor Hospice, First Step (victims of violence), Michigan Philharmonic, New Morning School, Salem Area Historical Society, Village Potter's Guild

see a need to push the legislature to bring back the tax credit," Noricks said.

Meakin disagrees. "I don't think there is any chance of getting it back."

Elliott agrees with Meakin's assessment.

"We tried to keep the tax credit and proposed a middle ground to the legislature and government but that didn't work," Elliott said. "It will be hard to get it reinstated. Once you lose it, it's very hard to get it back."

She said the Michigan economy would have to be strong for several years before that topic would surface again.

The Michigan Community Foundation Tax Credit was signed into law in late 1988 to encourage individuals and businesses to help build permanent endowments for community foundations. Before the tax credit, there were only approximately 20 foundations. Since the tax credit went into effect, the number rose and now 64 of Michigan's 83 counties have community foundations serving their areas.

Chinese restaurants are found in just about every town in every country and for good reason; they serve good tasting and nutritious food at lower prices. In Westland the Bamboo Garden Restaurant specializes in authentic Chinese dishes and a sushi bar.

It smells good! It tastes good! It is good!

Chinese cuisine, any of several styles of food originating in the regions of China, is quite popular in other parts of the world. In most dishes of Chinese cuisine, food is prepared in bite-sized pieces, easy for picking up and eating since in traditional Chinese cultures, chopsticks are used at the table.

Traditional Chinese cuisine is also based on opposites, whereby hot balances cold, pickled balances fresh and spicy balances mild.

Sushi is the most famous Japanese dish outside of Japan, and one of the most popular dishes among the Japanese themselves. In Japan, sushi is usually enjoyed on special occasions, such as a celebration. During the Edo period, Sushi referred to pickled fish conserved in vinegar. Nowadays sushi can be defined as a dish containing rice which has been prepared with sushi vinegar.

BOYS BASKETBALL PREVIEW PT. 2

Solid Rocks

Salem could have all the right stuff

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

Power moves to the rim and rainbow treys could be regularly featured by the versatile Salem varsity boys basketball team in 2011-12.

At least that's what 28th-year head coach Bob Brodie is looking forward to as the Rocks open with a nonconference game 7 p.m. Thursday at Redford Union.

"We're a balanced team all right," Brodie said. "We've got players who can play at the guard and players who are able to score inside."

Brodie then joked that the Rocks will "be big, we'll take up a lot of space in the gym if anything else."

Several key returnees from last year (the Rocks finished 14-8 overall last year and placed third in the KLAA Central Division) provide the multi-pronged offensive skills that could make it a nightmare for opponents to play defense.

Inside-out duo

At the top of that list are 6-7 junior Chris Dierker and 6-4 senior Tyler

Stewart, who will play forward and shooting guard, respectively.

Dierker averaged 11 points and seven boards last season, and could very well improve on those totals.

Stewart

was still trying to learn the game as a sophomore. He's back as a junior and I can tell you he's been around the block a little bit more."

The coach said Dierker is "explosive inside and also steps out on the perimeter. He can shoot the three fairly well."

Ditto for Stewart, a two-year all-conference player who averaged nearly 14 points per contest in 2010-11. Although a guard, he plays bigger.

"Tyler's got a good shooting touch, he handles the ball well, (there's) a lot of court savvy about him," Brodie said. "He's big enough

Please see SALEM, B3

With another season under his belt, Chris Dierker (No. 23 in a 2010-11 game) could be a key to Salem's potential rise in the KLAA Central Division this season.

Boucher commits to Lake Superior

Lake Superior State University second-year head softball coach Lori Shimasaki announced that Canton senior pitcher Alyssa Boucher committed to LSSU during the early signing period.

The hard-throwing Boucher was 19-3 with a 2.25 earned run average, 63 strikeouts and 16 walks for the Chiefs in 2011 to earn All-KLAA honors. At the plate, she chipped in with a .357 average.

Meanwhile, last summer playing for the Queen of Diamonds in Milan, Mich., Boucher batted .487 and posted a 2.42 ERA.

"Alyssa is a wonderful all-around athlete," Shimasaki said. "She can pitch, play the field and hit for power. I watched her perform in Colorado, and she will be an asset to our squad."

Salem girls lax meeting

The Salem girls lacrosse team is holding a player-parent information meeting 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 14, in Room W-2112 (second floor) at Salem High School. New and returning players are urged to attend.

Salem will be adding a junior varsity team for the 2012 spring season.

The session will last about one hour, to provide information about tryouts, registration deadlines and season fees. Go to www.salem-girlslacrosse.com for more information.

World Juniors hook Whalers

The Plymouth Whalers could have a chunk of key players missing from OHL action due to the 2012 IIHF World Junior Hockey Championships.

Goalie Scott Wedgewood will be trying out for the Canadian team beginning on Saturday.

"It's a huge accomplishment for him," Plymouth head coach and general manager Mike Vellucci said. "We had a pretty good feeling he was going to be one of the goalies, so he's one of the four that goes to camp and hopefully he can be one of the two."

Meanwhile, it was announced Monday by USA Hockey that Plymouth forward J.T. Miller and defenseman Austin Levi (Farmington Hills) will go to the U.S. training camp, set to begin on Dec. 17 in Alberta.

Forward Rickard Rakell is on the roster for the Swedish team's tryouts while defenseman Dario Trutmann is expected to go for the Swiss roster (although that had not been announced as of Tuesday).

On Tuesday, Vellucci said a lot of teams in the OHL are facing the possibility of having top players leave for an extended period.

"I think it's great for them to make it, and that's what they're trying to do, play for their country," Vellucci noted. "It will give us more opportunity to play our young guys and see what we have going in to the trade deadline. It's just a big opportunity for our young guys to step up."

New PCA coach Washington sees bright days ahead

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

When the Plymouth Christian Academy boys basketball coaching job opened up over the summer, Dominique Washington licked his chops.

After coaching AAU and middle school basketball during the years since graduating from Salem in 2005 — where he was a talented shooting guard — the Canton resident wanted to take over a varsity team.

"I saw the opening at PCA as an opportunity to get into the high school ranks," Washington explained.

That chance came when last year's PCA coach, Keith Anleitner, resigned in order to take a new position as an educator in the Garden City school district.

Washington had coached five seasons next to Dave VanWagoner (his PCA assistant, by the way) at Discovery Middle School.

Probably the better training for his new job was a two-year stint with the AAU's Plymouth-Canton Wolfpack, comprised of what he called "varsity level players."

Experience helps

Another key factor for Washington was taking over a team with several varsity returnees, such as senior center Eric Jipping among others.

"The fact that they had not lost anyone to graduation also stood out to me," Washington said. "It makes my job a little easier knowing I inherited seven players who were all on varsity last year."

Jipping "will be our biggest offensive weapon. He plays hard, very versatile, and has great footwork for his size."

Along with Jipping, players from last season include versatile forward Drew Ibach, wing guards

Chiefs' attack heats up

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

Fans showing up late to Tuesday's varsity boys basketball opener between Canton and visiting Berkley wouldn't have missed a thing.

Both the Chiefs and Bears found the rims boarded up at each end of the floor during the first quarter, which with the game tied 6-6. The home team made just three of 12 field-goal tries and Berkley was just as cold.

But Canton coach Jimmy Reddy's squad heated up soon enough thanks to the power moves of senior forwards Terrell Sewell and Paul Baumgart and the Chiefs won going away, 68-40.

"We really wanted to make a statement, since this was our first game," said Terrell, who scored 18 points and grabbed nine rebounds (seven on the offensive glass).

They did, but it took a while.

Chairmen of the boards

"We started making some good shots inside," Reddy said. "Paul and Terrell really got going and played well after the first quarter."

"Terrell was awesome tonight, the way he pursued the ball. I don't know how many offensive rebounds he had but he pursued it hard tonight."

Canton outrebounded the Oakland Activities Association team by a 45-15 margin, with much of that edge due to the play of Sewell and Baumgart (18 points, 11 rebounds). Their dominance soon opened up enough room for teammates to create an offensive spark.

Tallying 18 for the Bears was point guard Jason Taylor. He drained four triples, including three in the first half — which ended with Canton up 28-19.

But the Chiefs blew the game

WRESTLING PREVIEW - PT. 2

Pipeline, optimism flowing for Rocks

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

This could be the year when the 50th wrestler in Salem history places in the state meet.

Could No. 50 be junior Cody Korpus at 119 or 125? How about junior Alex Arble at 112 or junior Tyler Gross at 160 or senior heavyweight Ali Ajami?

Perhaps a special place on the "wall of fame" inside the Salem wrestling room will come from a rising star not yet heard from.

Regardless, second-year head coach Pete Israel is bubbling over with enthusiasm about the potential of his squad to move up the ladder in the KLAA and state tournament.

Rocking the tradition

"We are very young but experienced thanks to the middle school programs and Plymouth Canton Wrestling Club," said Israel, referring to programs serving as developmental pipelines to the Rocks. "Our upperclassmen will lead the way with their strong work ethic and dedication as we embark on our 50th state placer."

"So there is a lot of promise in the Rocks wrestling room right now to continue the 'Salem Tradition.'"

Last year's team didn't have a lot to cheer about, finishing 5-10 overall and 1-4 in the KLAA Central (fifth place).

But Korpus and Arble did reach the Division 1 regionals. Korpus chalked up a 21-10 mark at 119 as a sophomore and finished second in that weight class at regionals while Arble (24-21) came away empty-handed there at 103.

Although Korpus (for undisclosed reasons) was not expected to be in the lineup for Wednesday's season-opening quad meet at Plymouth, Israel said he'd likely be slotted at 119 or 125 when he returns.

Meanwhile, Arble will move up to 112 this year. Sophomore Devin Wells and freshman Joey Taylor will vie at 103 to fill Arble's old spot.

Two other holdovers with aspirations to wrestle at The Palace of Auburn Hills include co-captains Gross (160) and Ajami (285).

"Tyler is ready to make his mark in Salem's long tradition of wrestlers," Israel said. "His goal is placing at states and I believe we will see him on the podium this year.”

Ajami is poised for a breakout year, according to his coach.

“He hasn’t missed a single practice or off-season tournament since April,” the coach said. “We’re looking for Ali to make a huge impact this year.”

Breaking it down

Israel has high hopes for the rest of his lineup, too. Following is a weight-by-weight breakdown, with comments from Israel:

- At 119 is freshman Caleb McCabe, a hard worker with promise.

- At 125 and 130 will be junior Jordan Guy and sophomore Mitch Rosinski, respectively. “We are hoping for some good things by both of these guys.”

- Returning to handle duties at 135 is second-year varsity wrestler Ahmed Abed.

- Three juniors are in the mix for 140 and 145. Those include Riley Duxtader, co-captain Danny Kemp and Matt Lang.

“Riley is a machine and should make some noise on the mat this year,” Israel said. “Danny has been a part of the Plymouth Canton Wrestling Club for four years. With his experience he should strengthen the team. Matt is looking to increase his success from last year.”

- Dividing duties at 152 will be sophomores Connor Thornbury and James Upshaw. Both are touted for having outstanding technique and potential.

- At 171 will be either senior co-captain Kyle Sugg or senior Dan Karies. Sugg is a leader on-and-off the mat and Karies is working tirelessly to improve, the coach noted.

- Handling bouts at 189 will be senior co-captain Jake McCabe or senior Alex Brown.

“Jake can go as far as he wants this year to achieve his goals,” Israel stressed. “Nobody likes wrestling Jake. ... Alex will be right behind him fending for the spot. If Jake isn’t having a good day Brown will catch him.”

- Junior Tony Agostini will be pencilled in at 215. “He is one of the hardest workers on the team and has a lot of talent.”

Up and coming

Another reason for Israel’s enthusiasm is the fact his JV team will, for the first time in quite some time, feature freshmen from the Plymouth Canton Wrestling Club and middle schools’ feeder program.

Some JV wrestlers who could bump up to varsity at some point include junior Mitch Marshall, sophomore Taylor Born and freshmen Mitchell Gross, Garen Tekkessian, Joshua Streetter and (heavyweight) Matt Pietrowski.

“This is the first year where most of our freshmen have had some sort of wrestling experience before high school,” Israel added. “We should have a lot of success at the JV level.”

Claggett sparks Wildcats

Forward Mitch Claggett’s first high school hat trick led the Plymouth High School varsity hockey team to a 5-2 home win over South Lyon Saturday at Canton Arctic Edge Arena.

South Lyon opened the scoring 47 seconds into the game when Jake Taiariol converted on a 2-on-1 rush.

Claggett tied the game less than four minutes later when tapped in a cross-crease, backhand pass from linemate John VanDenBeurgueury. Later in the period, Claggett and VanDenBeurgueury each added power-play goals to give the Wildcats a 3-1 lead at the end of one period.

South Lyon narrowed the gap when Matt Burton scored 1:11 into the second period.

Claggett completed his hat trick at the 3:33 mark of the period. VanDenBeurgueury and forward Sean Smiatacz created the scoring chance when they freed the puck in a battle behind the net and fed Claggett at the top of the crease.

Smiatacz finished the game with three assists.

Forward Michael Schultz added a third-period insurance goal on a play assisted by Richie Mitchell and Cody Staub.

Rich Guglielmi made 23 saves on 25 shots to earn the win. Plymouth is 3-2 overall (2-2 in the KLAA).

Chiefs hang on

Canton defeated host Farmington 4-3 on Saturday behind goals from seniors Brandon Grillo, Duggan Tear, Taylor Baker and Derek Voight.

Making 17 stops for the victory was Canton senior netminder Spencer Craig.

Whalers win ugly

By Tim Smith
Observer Staff Writer

The Plymouth Whalers didn’t seem too crazy about winning Saturday’s game against Guelph, twice giving up third-period goals right after scoring them at Computware Arena.

But they hung on anyway, 7-5, with forward Mitchell Heard snapping a tie with a spectacular goal at 15:39 of the third — his second go-ahead tally of the period — followed by an empty netter scored by forward Rickard Rakell.

On the winner, forward J.T. Miller (four assists) threaded a tape-to-tape pass from the right boards to Heard inside the left circle. Heard wasted no time blasting a shot into a small opening in the top-right corner of the cage, past Guelph’s screened goalie Brandon Foote.

“The D was blocking the goalie so I just let her go and good things happen,” said Heard, who now has 15 goals on the season.

The roller-coaster victory enabled the Whalers to improve to 19-8-2-1, good for first place in the OHL’s West Division.

“I thought we played OK, but I think we played terrible defensively,” Whalers coach Mike Vellucci said. “Actually, I thought they outworked us for most of the night and we got lucky to get two points.”

Vellucci added that he didn’t like how his team’s defensive breakdowns enabled the visiting Storm to hang around like a dark cloud.

“Usually you don’t win games like that when you give up goals after you score,” Vellucci said. “We responded by scoring some big goals, but defensively we were terrible. What really upsets me is we worked on it all week.

“We worked on our D zone and we did a lot of video. I guess we didn’t do a good job.”

Heard earlier scored a power-play goal at 13:51 of the third to break a 4-4 tie.

After taking Miller’s perfect feed from the right boards, Heard ripped a low wrist shot from between the circles past Foote (35 saves). That lead lasted 30 seconds, as Zack Mitchell’s wraparound got behind Plymouth goalie Scott Wedgewood (27 saves).

Ahead to stay

The next time Heard scored to give the Whalers the lead, much to Vellucci’s relief, they didn’t relinquish it.

Heard, the night’s No. 1 star, said he merely tried to get open knowing that Miller would find him.

“He’s got spectacular vision on the ice,” said Heard, adding that another linemate (Plymouth grad Tom Wilson) also was key to the winner by stripping the puck from a Guelph defenseman.

The Whalers and Storm traded goals earlier in the third period, too.

At 2:03, forward Garrett Meurs tipped in a pass from winger Stefan Noesen to make it a 4-3 Plymouth lead.

But just 25 seconds later, a shot by Guelph’s Tanner Richard trickled through Wedgewood to even the ledger at 4-4.

Beary good start

Plymouth started things pretty well at the annual “Teddy Bear Toss” game when forward Alex Aleardi (Farmington Hills) scored his team-leading 16th goal at 5:41 of the opening frame.

Aleardi converted Wilson’s cross-crease pass, giving the 2,155 fans the green light to shower the ice with teddy bears (which will be donated to charity). Also assisting was defenseman Austin Levi (Farmington Hills).

At the nine-minute mark, forward Andy Bathgate’s deflection of a slap shot by defenseman Dario Trutmann made it 2-0. It was Bathgate’s 10th of the season.

Setting the tone for the evening, however, Guelph stormed back with two goals in 33 seconds (by Brock McGinn and Stephen Gaskin) to even things up before the period ended.

The teams traded goals in the second period, even though the Whalers held a 17-5 advantage in shots.

Guelph went ahead for the only time all night when Mitchell broke in to score a shorthanded marker at 12:37.

The Whalers answered this time, as Trutmann’s blue-line blast beat Foote. Of course, as both teams and those fans would find out in the final frame, the scoring was far from over.

(Plymouth will next play back-to-back 7 p.m. home games — Belleville and Sarnia on Friday and Saturday, respectively.)

Reunion at RU's sweet for Wildcats' Soukup

By Ed Wright
Observer Staff Writer

Sandwiched between a pair of compelling coaching subplots — “The Debut” and “The Homecoming” — Redford Union and Plymouth faced off in a points-starved season-opening boys basketball game Tuesday night.

The Wildcats scrapped back from an eight-point third-quarter deficit to sink the host Panthers, 40-32, in Randall Taylor's first game as head coach at Redford Union.

The winning mentor — Plymouth's Mike Soukup — served as an assistant coach with Taylor for three years at RU before taking the reins of the Wildcats' program three years ago.

“Like I've always said, an ugly win is better than a pretty loss any day,” Soukup said, smiling. “We're a young team and we made young-team mistakes early on tonight, and I know that's going to be the deal a lot this year. Our coaches were joking about getting me some Rogaine for the holidays because my hair is going to be receding faster than it normally does.”

The Panthers' shooting percentage receded noticeably during a pivotal nine-minute stretch in the second half when they were outscored 15-0 by the Wildcats, turning a once-sturdy 25-17 RU lead into a 32-25 deficit.

Dwight Pooler's pull-up, tear-drop runner from the lane ended the drought with 3:40 to play, but Plymouth scored the next four points to up its lead to nine with just 1:51 to play.

“I really liked our defensive energy in the first half, and we moved the ball pretty well offensively,” said Taylor. “But in the second half, we reverted to playing street ball instead of disciplined basketball.”

“... I think we beat ourselves tonight. Mike did a great job, getting his young team ready to play. It was a good win for them.”

Momentum swing

The start of the Panthers' downfall could be traced to a play that unfolded with 3:45 left in the third quarter and RU holding a 25-17 advantage. Senior point guard Dwight Pooler exploded ahead of the pack on a run-out, but instead of laying the ball in, he threw an off-the-backboard-alley-oop pass to trailing teammate Tre' Goynes, who was unable to secure the ball.

The Wildcats scored on their next possession to spark the momentum-grabbing 15-0 run.

Plymouth's comeback was spearheaded by junior guards Josh Priebe and Jake Divens, who have shared the same back-court since their early AAU days.

Priebe, who was manning the point-guard position while senior Marcus Oden recovers from an injury, netted 15 points (including five in the fourth quarter), four steals and five assists.

“We stuck together as a team when we were down (in the third quarter) and persevered,” Priebe said about his team's opening-night rally. “We didn't get down on ourselves. The guys on the bench were into it, high-fiving each other.”

“We're not the biggest team and we're not the best-skilled team anywhere, so we're going to have to play hard and play as a team if we want to be successful. I thought we did that tonight.”

Divens added 10 points and four rebounds for the winners. Junior forward Sid Acharya contributed eight points and four boards.

Nice to see you

Eleven of Pooler's team-leading 13 points came in the first half. The senior point guard buried all six of his first-half free throws.

Goynes had a solid game, scoring eight points while grabbing nine rebounds. JaVonte Davis scored six points and junior forward Emmanuel Chatman yanked down a team-high six rebounds for RU.

Patient on offense, Plymouth connected on eight of its 11 second-half field-goal attempts. The Wildcats were shaky from the stripe, canning just 13 of 25 attempts.

RU found the mark on 11 of 39 shots from the floor.

Both teams turned the ball over 15 times.

“It was fun coming back and seeing a lot of my old friends,” Soukup concluded. “I saw coach Miles Tomasaitis, coach Ouellette, coach Rogowski — they were all here. The only one who wasn't here was coach Steele.”

open with a 19-6 third quarter, featuring a mix of putbacks, bank-shots and jumpers from the perimeter.

Canton's shooting eye sharpened up considerably over the final three frames, with the Chiefs nearly hitting the 50-percent mark in two-point field goals (47 percent, 27-53). Reddy said the slow start wasn't unusual for the first game of a season.

“First games are hard,” Reddy emphasized. “It doesn't matter who you're playing or where you're playing. ... It's a learning process to see what you've got.”

Freshman find

If he didn't know already, he has a pretty good freshman guard in Greg Williams.

Playing his first varsity game, Williams looked as poised as a senior. He contributed nine points, six assists, four boards and two steals in more than 18 minutes of playing time.

Only the starters had more court time and only junior point guard

Josh Mayberry had more assists (seven).

“I think he played, for a first game in the program for a freshman, I think he did a great job,” Reddy said. “We think Greg can play. (But) that was better than we had hoped for.”

“... he felt comfortable, he was into it, he helped us defensively, made a couple shots and scored around the rim, too.”

Another player registering his first-ever points on the varsity was junior guard Ryan Planey. He scored four points.

Several others made some key buckets along the way.

Tallying seven points was senior guard Kyle Adams junior guard Miles Felton and sophomore forward Scott Gring each scored six.

“We really didn't know anything about them (Bears),” Reddy said. “They hung around and played hard. But it's a first game for them, too. “I'm glad we got out of here with a win, we played well for three quarters.”

Canton will visit Dexter in another nonconference tilt on Friday.

Chiefs topple Saline, 54-37

The Canton girls varsity basketball team got off to a winning start to the 2011-12 season with a 54-37 victory at Saline.

A 15-2 opening quarter propelled the Chiefs, who were led by Kiara Schneider (17 points, five rebounds), Robyn Mack (nine points, six assists) and Paige Aresco (eight points, six rebounds).

Mack and Aresco each chipped in with three steals.

The Chiefs, who led 25-16 at halftime and 44-23 after three, were “solid” for a season opener, coach Brian Samulski said. “But we have a lot to get better at.”

Samulski added that a key to the victory was how “other kids stepped up and played well in the first half” after Mack and Rachel Winters got into foul trouble.

Canton will next visit Bloomfield Hills Marian in a game slated for 7 p.m. Friday.

HURON 39, SALEM 24: The visiting Rocks got the season started Tuesday with this non-conference matchup.

Scoring 12 points and grabbing 11 rebounds for Salem was Breanne Beaver while Bri Berberet tallied seven points.

Salem junior forward Breanne Beaver (No. 20) looks to shoot the basketball over an Ann Arbor Huron opponent Tuesday night.

The Rocks will face Farmington Hills Mercy on Friday. DEXTER 41, PLYMOUTH 29: After a strong start, the visiting Wildcats ran into a Dexter buzzsaw in the second quarter, and could not recover.

Plymouth took a 10-2 lead after one quarter, but the Dreadnaughts responded with a 20-5 edge in the second to take control.

“The second quarter just killed us,” Plymouth head coach Bob de Bear said. “We got off to a great start, we played good defense and forced Dexter to make a lot of mistakes. But in the second quarter we turned it over for scores.”

Plymouth ran into penalty trouble in the second quarter, acerbating the rough patch. Dexter made six of eight foul shots during that span.

Top scorers for Plymouth (1-2) were Kate Watson (eight points), Jada Woody (seven points, four rebounds), Alyssa Dillon (five points), Brooke Senkbeil (four points) and Chyna Williams (four points). Dexter's top scorer was Olivia Vollmers, with 13.

The Wildcats square off at 6 p.m. Friday at home against Ann Arbor Skyline; that game will be followed by the Plymouth-Skyline boys game at 8:30 p.m.

PCA 48, FRANKLIN ROAD 39

Undaunted by a slow start Tuesday, host Plymouth Christian Academy bounced back in the middle frames and won for the first time in three games this season.

Franklin Road led 14-6 after the first, but the Eagles responded with an 11-5 second quarter to close the gap to 19-17 at halftime. In the third quarter, sophomore center Jenny Malcolm stepped up with nine points (out of her 11 for the night) and PCA took charge with a 17-8 stanza for a 34-27 edge after three.

In addition to Malcolm, the Eagles were paced by Jenna Abraham and Emily Gerulis with nine points each while Karen Windle scored eight. Windle (11 rebounds, nine steals) was the catalyst for the Eagles while Gerulis hauled down nine boards and contributed three steals.

Malcolm pulled down five rebounds while Abraham and Gerulis helped out with four and three steals, respectively.

“We came out strong, played great defense and scored 17 in the third quarter,” noted PCA head coach Carol Gerulis. “I was able to rotate a lot of players in the game.”

Other players helping the cause, the coach said, were Martha Mullett and Rachael Fuller “who played some good minutes for us tonight.”

The Eagles will next visit Southfield Christian at 7 p.m. Monday.

MERCY 54, PLYMOUTH 38

On Friday night, Farmington Hills Mercy defeated the visiting Wildcats behind 16 points from Sarah Benson and 15 from Candice Leatherwood.

Plymouth's Kate Watson scored 10 points, Kylie Robb eight, Jada Woody and Chyna Williams seven apiece for the Wildcats (1-1).

POWERS 54, LADYWOOD 48: A 15-7 fourth-quarter run carried Flint Powers Catholic (1-0) to a victory Friday over visiting Livonia Ladywood (1-1).

Emily Sweet and Sarah Ruhstorfer each tallied 11 points for the victorious Chargers, who overcame a 41-39 third quarter deficit thanks to a pair of triples in the final period.

Junior guard Andie Anastos paced the Blazers with 16 points and 10 rebounds, while junior guard Shelby Walsh added 13.

Senior guard Briana Combs also contributed nine, all on threes.

Ladywood was 11-of-13 from the foul stripe, while Powers hit 6-of-9.

forwards who are varsity newcomers include Nate Sass and Cam Werner (both 6-2) and Austin Whitted (6-1).

“They come in and their scrappy players,” Brodie said. “They could see some time, depending on how well these other front-liners pan out.”

Brodie added that a plus for the Rocks will be facing a tougher slate of non-conference opponents, such as Ann Arbor Skyline, Brighton and Pinckney.

Playing such squads will help Salem get up to speed before launching into the KLAA Central schedule (Jan. 6 at Northville).

“Every year surprises always come down the pike,” Brodie summarized. “... We should be in the thick of the hunt in our division.”

that he can take players inside.

“He's going to be a tough player to handle in terms of his size, playing on the perimeter and the ability to go inside.”

Of course, the Rocks are far from a two-player squad.

At center, seniors Josh Peterson (6-6) and Ryan Jankowski (6-8, but sidelined until January due to injury) each will see plenty of minutes.

“He's a senior now,” said Brodie about Peterson. “What you look for in players is, they learn as juniors and come off the bench and as seniors they step up their game a little bit and play better.”

Options abound

Dierker is entrenched at one of the forward spots, but the Rocks have two players who could rotate at the other spot in 6-5 junior Ankit Tiwari and 6-4 junior Ahmad Khalid.

Tiwari, who played on the JV last year, is “a good offensive rebounder, he's got good putbacks and a nice touch for a big guy.”

Khalid, a transfer student from Virginia, could provide an X-factor for the Rocks as they look to contend in their division.

“He's 230 pounds, he's got pretty good game awareness on the court,” the coach said. “He rebounds fairly well. He should be a strong force for us inside.”

Don't forget about 6-6 junior Jake Burns, another player who likely will be heard from off the bench.

“We rotate a lot of players in games anyway,” Brodie said. “So those guys will see a lot of action.”

Along with Stewart, Salem's backcourt will include 6-1 senior point guard Grant Bettner (8 points per game last year).

“Grant's got a good shooting touch from the perimeter, he'll bring some threes for us,” Brodie said. “He also handles the ball extremely well and defensively he's a pretty smart kid. He'll kind of run the floor for us.”

The top backup guards are 6-0 senior Markus Olind and 5-11 junior Kevin Mack (on JV last year).

“Markus gave us a lot of great minutes off the bench last year,” Brodie said. “He's a tremendous shooter. He also is very smart defensively.”

Mack's role will to spell Better, but he is expected to see plenty of action.

“He's finally getting it back day in and day out,” Washington said. “Physical guy who is relentless in the paint. Anything that comes off the rim is his.”

Varsity newcomers include senior Andrew Bock and sophomore guard Daniel Jipping.

Bock is a transfer student from Novi-Detroit Catholic Central with a knack for defense. He will not be eligible until the second semester because of the transfer situation.

Daniel Jipping brings a physical element to the backcourt. “As the season goes along, he's only going to get better.”

PCA 67, CENTRAL ACADEMY 53: On Tuesday in their season opener, the visiting Eagles parlayed 33 points by Eric Jipping to a big victory. Next for the Eagles is a home game 7 p.m. Monday against MIAC rival Southfield Christian.

The Lessons and Carols service includes members of the music ministry at St. John's Episcopal Church in Plymouth. Their concert is Sunday, Dec. 11.

Advent service combines music, art

Julie Ford describes the annual Lessons and Carols service at St. John's Episcopal Church in Plymouth as "half concert and half worship service."

"It has lots of music in it, but it also has prayer from scripture," said Ford, the church's music minister. "We do seven scripture readings and all talk about the prophecy of Christ. "It's mainly Episcopal churches that do Lessons and Carols. It's our little niche. It's a beautiful service."

Lessons and Carols, an Advent service, is part of St. John's concert series, Resounding Art in Sacred Space. It starts at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 11 in the church, 574 S. Sheldon. Members of the church's music ministry, including the Youth Choir, Handbell Choir, Parish Choir and Son-Shine will perform in a format that alternates music with scripture readings. Ford will direct the performances.

A reception and exhibit of paintings by C. Robin Janning, will follow the service and concert. Janning is a church member and St. John's webmaster. Each concert in the Resounding Art in Sacred Space series includes an art exhibit.

"She is a very talented artist and her art fits in with the whole idea of Advent. It's very abstract with lots of colors in it. They're a mixture of media, paint and collages."

Admission to Lessons and Carols is free, although the church will accept donations for Gleaners Community Food Bank of Southeastern Michigan.

For more information about the service, call the church at (734) 453-0190, Ext. 16, or visit www.stjohnsplymouth.org.

Quirky musical

College students pen play about their professor

Zirk

By Sharon Dargay
O&E Staff Writer

When Willard Zirk thought no one was paying attention to his lecture one day two years ago, the Eastern Michigan University music professor began spouting non sequiturs.

"I started saying anything ... 'And so, I ate a cow' ... 'And went to the zoo.' It had nothing to do with the content," recalled Zirk, a Saline resident.

Freshmen Heather Huber of Livonia and Jacob Nurse of Harrison Township were not only listening, but taking notes and memorizing his absurd comments, along with stories and jokes he sometimes told in class.

"He's a really nice guy and kind of quirky," said Huber, describing Zirk. "We were sitting in his music literature class at the end of sophomore year and said we should write a musical about Dr. Zirk. It was, ha ha wouldn't it be cool and funny?"

The roommates worked on a story and co-wrote songs over the next year before tackling arrangements for the pit orchestra. Although neither student has musical theater production experience, the duo held auditions, selected a cast, recruited a costumer, backstage crew, pit orchestra and led rehearsals for two months. They even obtained a $250 grant for costume expenses from the Livonia Arts Commission. A music service fraternity at the university also kicked in $500.

Zirk! The Musical, will make its debut 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 11 at Pease Auditorium on the Eastern Michigan campus in Ypsilanti. Admission is a suggested $3 donation.

Student composers

"I respect their writing so much. It's clever writing," said Zirk, who recently attended a rehearsal.

Jake Nurse of Harrison Township and Heather Huber of Livonia will see their musical play come to fruition on Sunday, Dec. 11, on stage at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti.

"They are wonderful students, young geniuses that applied themselves so diligently in their discipline. They are destined to be composers.

"It's not a chintzy production. It's high-quality work."

Zirk, who enjoys carpentry, made the sets for the show. His interest in sailing — he plans to build a boat next year — inspired the musical's plot. In the musical, Zirk and his wife, Gayle, go boating, end up shipwrecked on an island, and encounter a native tribe.

"It's a comedy. It's light-hearted," Huber said. "It's funnier if you do know him (Zirk) but if you don't, you're seeing a portrait of him."

Multi-talented

Huber plays guitar, tenor sax, bassoon and piano. She also teaches piano and bassoon.

"I have loved music since I was 4 and figuring out Little Mermaid songs on my parents' keyboard," she said. "I just wanted to do everything music-related when I got to high school."

She graduated from Stevenson High School in 2007 and enrolled at Eastern Michigan University. She'll student teach next semester and plans to graduate with a bachelor's degree in spring 2012.

"We have ideas for other musicals," Huber said, describing the writing process as "a blast."

"I really enjoy writing pop music. I was in a couple of bands in high school and college. I've gotten good at lyrics and rhyming. That came in handy. And it helps to have a classical background."

Whether Huber and Nurse continue collaborating depends on the direction their careers take, Huber said. With a minor in German, she's considering a stint overseas teaching English.

"If we both teach near each other, we might write more musicals. This has been such a great experience. It's been nice."

The 18th annual cookie walk will feature perogies, apricot rolls, poppy seed rolls, nut rolls, sweet bread and homemade European and holiday cookies such as Russian Tea Cakes and Peanut Butter Balls. Coffee and treats will be available when the doors open.

If you want to serve homemade cookies this Christmas, but have no time to bake, head for the annual cookie walks, Saturday, Dec. 11 at Timothy Lutheran Church and Holy Transfiguration Orthodox Church, both in Livonia.

Trinity Lutheran's cookie walk will start at 10 a.m. and offer a variety of Christmas cookies sold by the pound, along with bake sale goodies.

The church is located at 8820 Wayne Road, south of Ann Arbor Trail; (734) 427-2290

Kick off holiday baking with reader's recipe

Ready to start filling the holiday cookie jar?

Start with this favorite recipe from Nancy J. Brown of Redford.

She says "These are the all-time favorite cookie in the Brown household. Can one husband, seven children, 11 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren be wrong? And although they seem like a lot of work, they really are not. They are worth every bit of effort, especially considering you have eight dozen absolutely delicious, scrumptious cookies. The really are one luscious cookie."

Hungarian Double Deck Pastry

5 cups all purpose flour
1 1/2 cups white sugar, divided (plus extra for sprinkling on finished recipe)
4 teaspoons baking powder
2 teaspoons baking soda
Pinch of salt
2 1/2 sticks of good quality margarine, room temperature (I use Imperial)
4 egg yolks
1/2 pint (1 cup) commercial sour cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 1/2 cups ground walnuts
2-pound jar apricot jam. (If you cannot find a 2-pound jar, weigh out 2 pounds. Using more will result in it oozing out and making a mess of the bottom of your oven).

Sift together dry ingredients, using 1 cup sugar. Cut in room temperature margarine. Add egg yolks, sour cream and vanilla and mix by hand. Divide into 3 equal portions — wrap in wax paper — chill.

Mix together the 2 1/2 cups of ground walnuts and remaining 1/2 cup sugar.

Roll out the first portion of dough into a 10- by 15-inch rectangle on a floured surface. Place in an ungreased 10- by 15-inch jelly roll pan (it has sides). Sprinkle evenly with 2/3 of the walnut/sugar mixture.

Roll out the second portion of dough and place it on top of the first layer. Spread with jam (which I have stirred for easier spreading) and top with remaining nuts/sugar mixture.

Roll out the third portion of dough, place on previous layers and sprinkle lightly with sugar.

Bake in a 350 degree oven 25 to 30 minutes, until lightly browned. Cool thoroughly in pan.

Cut the baked and cooled pastry in half the long way of the pan — then in fourths cross way of the pan so that you have eight equal portions. Wrap each portion in aluminum foil and refrigerate until ready to use. These will keep nicely, refrigerated for two weeks or frozen for several months.

To serve, (thaw if necessary) and cut each portion into 12 squares and place in mini paper cups.

Scoop's Craft Corner:

Want to make a special ornament for your Christmas tree? It is super easy and lots of fun. All you need is salt, flour, water, vegetable oil, a rolling pin, a cookie sheet, decorations, some help from your parents and lots of imagination.

Materials Needed:

- 2 Cups Flour
- 1 Cup Salt
- 2 Tbsp Vegetable Oil
- 3/4 - to - 1 Cup Water

Instructions:

Mix together flour and salt. Add the oil and then slowly add the water and stir until you get a nice clay consistency. Once completely mixed, make into the desired shapes. Bake in a 250 degree oven for approximately 1 hour. This will vary depending on how thick your creations are. One hint, do not make shapes too thick or they will crack with baking.

Before star is placed in the oven, make a hole for the ribbon using the end of a straw. Once the star is out of the oven and cooled, use your creativity. Use colorful ribbon to hang your new ornament. Have FUN!

holiday traditions enhanced with grapes

What can possibly make the holidays easier and fun, more delicious and sweet, more festive and bright, and yet traditional all at the same time? The answer is fresh grapes. Luckily, grapes from California are in plentiful supply in all colors — red, green and black — throughout the holiday season.

For a dinner or buffet, fresh grapes can be added to two favorite sides, stuffing and cranberry relish, with delightful and satisfying results. There are many familiar stuffing ingredients in Wild Rice Stuffing with Grapes and Hazelnuts, but the distinction in the dish is the wild rice, the toasted hazelnuts and fresh grapes. The grapes add a warm, still-juicy brightness to the stuffing, one that's perfect with any kind of poultry, from turkey to game hens to goose.

In Grape Cranberry Relish, two seasonal fruits work very well together. Grapes provide natural sweetness, so the amount of sugar that's added to quiet the strong tartness of cranberries is much reduced compared to similar recipes. The relish is a nice blend of still-noticeable grapes in a sauce that's remarkably luscious.

Pluck the gift of grapes this holiday season and you'll enjoy every juicy bite no matter how you choose to serve them. For more recipes, visit www.grapesfromcalifornia.com.

Make Grapes Your Healthy Holiday Ally

- Fresh grapes are low in calories — just 90 per  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup serving — yet are satisfying and very, very good for you. Grapes of all colors are a natural source of beneficial antioxidants known as polyphenols, which may help contribute to a healthy heart.
- Snack on grapes before going out. They'll fill you up, so you can graze in moderation.
- Offer grapes on appetizer plates and as a side so friends and family can share in the goodness of this beautiful fruit.

QUICK TIPS FOR HOLIDAY ENTERTAINING WITH GRAPES

Fresh grapes are a versatile fruit with multiple uses.

- Grapes make for easy decorations and centerpieces in bowls and on platters or draped from a cake plate.
- Grapes can be easily "frosted" with sugar, spices and finely chopped nuts. Simply wet or dip clusters in liquid gelatin before rolling grapes in your favorite mixture. Use them to decorate cookie plates, cakes, puddings, mousses and more.
- Looking for an easy hostess gift? Wrap grape clusters — multiple colors work best — in tissue paper and place in a pretty basket, tied with a ribbon.
- Grapes are a quick and easy potluck treat, guaranteed to please, especially when you have very little time to throw something together.

Wild Rice Stuffing with Grapes and Hazelnuts

Yields:  $6\frac{1}{4}$  cups

2 cans (28 fluid ounces total) low-sodium chicken broth
1 cup wild rice
4 slices bacon, diced  $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch
1 tablespoon butter, unsalted
1 large onion ( $1\frac{1}{2}$  cups chopped), diced  $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch
2 stalks ( $\frac{1}{4}$  cup chopped) celery, diced  $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch
1 $\frac{1}{2}$  cups button mushrooms, sliced
2 cloves garlic, fresh, minced
1 teaspoon thyme, fresh, minced
 $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon black pepper, ground
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup parsley, fresh chopped
1 cup hazelnuts, toasted and coarsely chopped
2 cups California seedless grapes, rinsed

In heavy saucepan, bring chicken broth to a boil. Add wild rice and stir. Cover pan and reduce heat to low. Let simmer for one hour, until rice is tender and has popped open.

Meanwhile, cook bacon in fry pan over medium until almost crisp, about 8-10 minutes.

Add butter to bacon pan, then add onions, celery, mushrooms, garlic, thyme and salt and pepper. Cook over medium heat for 5 to 7 minutes, until onions are translucent.

Remove from heat and fold in parsley, hazelnuts and grapes.

Add rice with any remaining liquid in pan to vegetable mixture and toss well to combine.

Stuffing may be used to fill turkey, game hens, or chicken. Stuffing may also be baked separately in a casserole dish covered with foil; bake at 350°F for 20 to 30 minutes until hot throughout.

To toast hazelnuts, place in 350°F oven for 9 to 12 minutes. Rub in a clean dish-towel to remove skins.

Note: If you make ahead and refrigerate, cook time will be 30 to 40 minutes until hot.

— Family Features

Serve a beautiful sparkling wine cocktail flavored with a dash of crème de cassis and adorned with colorful grapes and fresh mint.

Cranberry Grape Relish

Yields: 3 cups

2 cups red seedless California grapes
1 12-ounce package cranberries, fresh or frozen
1 orange, juiced and zested
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar

Place all ingredients in heavy saucepan and bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium and cook, stirring occasionally for 10 minutes until thick and shiny. Let cool thoroughly, then store in airtight container in refrigerator for up to one week. Serve alongside roast turkey, pork or ham.

Arrange grapes around your cheese plate and cut into mini-clusters for easy eating.

Looking good: Curb appeal matters whether selling, staying

Realtors tell those selling a home that curb appeal always matters. Those considering buying a property will notice piles of trash or unpleasant odors right away.

Curb appeal is important for sellers, but also contributes to the quality of life for those not planning a move. Whether you're in the market or not, a well-maintained home is appreciated by neighbors and the homeowner alike.

Visit www.houselogic.com/buyandsell for tips on preparing a home for sale. Some tips include:

- Stay in synch with your neighborhood. Avoid being the proverbial sore thumb of the neighborhood. Regular maintenance and energy-efficient upgrades will provide a return on your investment.

- Stash your trash. Have mercy on your neighbors by renting a Dumpster and removing trash. A 20-yard Dumpster is about $400 to $500.

- Choose exterior colors wisely. Shock value is highly overrated when it comes to curb appeal. Your exterior color choices should be in harmony with other neighborhood homes. Scout around first before you paint or stain — your neighbors will thank you.

- Hire a landscape designer. A modest investment in a professional landscape plan will pay off bitime when it comes time to sell your house. If you're averse to regular lawn maintenance, consider a condo or apartment.

- A place for everything. You may be proud of your diligent recycling and trash maintenance routine, but that doesn't mean it should be on display for the world to see. Keep trash bins off to the side, and build a low-cost privacy screen to hide them from view.

- Chained to a bad fence option. Chain link fence is sturdy, reliable and relatively inexpensive. It's great for bordering back and side yards, but out front, it's flat-out ugly. With so many great fencing options available at a fairly modest cost, you owe it to yourself to re-fence.

- When high-tech is low-cool. Technology has brought many wonderful things into our lives, but good-looking exteriors aren't necessarily included. If you're a techno-geek, keep your antennae and solar collectors hidden from view behind shrubbery or privacy screens.

- Ease up on the lawn ornaments. Front yards are great for well-trimmed shrubs and fetching flowers, but they really aren't the place to display an overabundant collection of lawn ornaments. Moderation is a virtue, and helps preserve the value of your property.

- Don't stain your reputation. A little routine maintenance keeps little problems from becoming big eyesores. An annual cleaning keeps brick siding looking fresh. Scrub stains out and seal with a top-quality primer before painting over exterior stains.

Check facts on structure

By Robert Meisner
Guest Columnist

Q: Our subdivision documents preclude a mobile home from being parked temporarily on land unconnected to utilities because it is not a building (structure). Before closing on a lot purchase, one of our owners parked his mobile home on the lot. The mobile home sat on a trailer and remained unconnected to any plumbing or utilities. Moreover, no site work had been done in preparation for placing the mobile home on a foundation. Do we have a basis to pursue the mobile home owner?

A: As in most of these bylaw enforcement matters, it depends on the facts of the case. To the extent that the association had the right to approve any building on the lot, it is likely that buildings would include the structures and mobile homes could reasonably be defined as structures. The fact that the mobile home was not connected to utilities did not mean that it was not a structure and, of course, it depends upon the language of your deed restrictions and whether the deed restriction expressly covered structures that were intended, designed or arranged to be used or occupied, and not just those actually in use.

Q: Can you tell me which states post the top state foreclosure rates, and how does Michigan stand?

A: As of August 2011, Nevada, California and Arizona posted the top state foreclosure rates. However five other states account for more than half of the U.S. total. Michigan documented 13,016 properties with foreclosure filings in August, the third highest state in the country. It doesn't look like things are slowing up in the foreclosure business. I can tell from my experience in representing community and condominium associations that unfortunately the need to pursue collections continues to increase.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
